2 FROSH JOIN GLEE CLUB IN EASTERN TRIP

Somson and Van Leuwen Represent Freshmen in Group

In this freshman issue of the college Anchor, the frosh take great pleasure in announcing that two members of the freshman class will be included in the Eastern trip to be taken by the boys' glee club. John Somson and Bruce Van Leuwen are the two lucky boys. Some of the older members of the club however have stated that perhaps they are not so lucky. Many little errands will no doubt present themselves now and again while the trip is in progress. In which case the frosh members will probably be called upon to do their stuff. John Somson also sings first bass in the club quartet.

The club has been working hard, as they are very anxious to make a good impression in the East. They realize that the old saying, "Practice makes perfect" has a good deal of truth in it. As a result they have been practicing every school day for the past three weeks and occasionally twice a day. "Good fruit is the product of much labor." Nothing really worth while can be attained in this world without hard work. With such standards as these the glee club will surely make the college proud of it. They have been insured a Very pleasant trip and we hope the freshmen members will do their best to make the trip a success.

Hinkamp Speaks at Consistory Union

Dr. Paul Hinkamp, Hope's professor of Bible, addressed the city Consistorial Union on Tuesday evening, January 14. Dr. Edward D. Dimmett, president of Hope College welcomed the union to the Hope Memorial Chapel and explained that any religious organization was welcome to Hope's Chapel.

Professor Paul E. Hinkamp then gave a stereopticon lecture on Palestine and explained each of the slides and their history and relation to the Bible. Professor Clarence Kleis of the department of physics had charge of running the stereopticon machine.

After the talk refreshments were served by Dr. Dimmett, Dean John B. Nykerk, and Professor Paul Hinkamp assisted by Dean Winifred H. Durfee and the wives of several of the college professors.

FROSH PRINT SONGS

The freshmen have taken it upon themselves to print the Hope song and those of the various societies.

Many upper-classmen do not know that the Hope song has verses to it and so the freshmen are informing them of the fact.

Frosh Fellow Is Pride of Class

Hope College can once more boast of its up and coming young men. Mr. "Johnnie" Muilenberg made his first stage appearance in Michigan in the Hope Chapel, November 12, 1929. His presentation of selected hymns accompanied on the organ by Professor Snow, showed marked ability in technique and tone.

His musical numbers in the Chapel have met the approval of the student body and it is hoped that he will favor us again by his appearance on the stage. He also has proven himself an adept scholar and promises to be a real Hopite. But don't forget, upper-classmen, that Johnnie belongs to the freshman class.

SCHEDULE

Even though Hope has lost two of its conference games is no reason why the students should not remain behind the team. In order that the Freshmen may help in arousing this pep once more we are publishing a list of all the conference and other games which Hope still has left on its schedule. Therefore we do not expect any one to ask when the next game is to be:

Jan. 24—Albion
Jan. 28—Michigan State
Jan. 31—Albion

Feb. 7—Hillsdale
Feb. 14—Kalamazoo
Feb. 18—Calvin
Feb. 21—Olivet
Feb. 25—Alma
Feb. 28—Kalamazoo

Mar. 4—Calvin
Besides the definite date in March there are games to be played with Alma, General Motors Tech., and St. Mary's.

Winter Address Educational Men

Meeting of Denominational College Instructors at Lansing

Last Thursday Professor Egbert Winter attended the meeting at Lansing of the instructors in education of the denominational colleges, where he delivered an address on the "Principles of Secondary Education."

Dr. Carte of Albion presented a syllabus on "Educational Psychology" which would serve as a basis for courses offered in colleges for educational credit.

Following his address Professor Winter presented a paper on the "Principles of Secondary Education" defining the term "principle" by distinguishing it from practices and methods and also explaining the term "secondary education." Following this discussion he gave a brief syllabus of subjects matter to be offered in such a course.

Both of the papers presented were intensively discussed and of vital interest to the educational department of the various institutions represented.

The next meeting of the educational instructors of the denominational colleges was set for next September for the purpose of discussing and presenting methods courses in education. Efforts are being made by the various colleges to standardize courses in education and to bring about larger uniformity in the subject matter offered in courses.

Professor Displays Wife's Paintings

Professor Sprague, for he is the husband of the talented artist, is displaying two of his wife's oil paintings. One titled "Alice" was painted by his wife when she was only fourteen years of age and the painting is of Alice Rubens, a girl whose father came from Russia and made a fortune as a dealer.

The other picture depicts a wheat field and is a beautiful oil painting. It was made in a single day she made a painting of a winter scene which according to the professor is remarkable.

Most interesting feature about the picture is that the entire painting was made in a single day. Mrs. Sprague from time to time has sold some of her paintings. She studied art under Sigmund of St. Louis and also under Harriet Macey. Mrs. Sprague inherited her artistic talent from her mother who was an artist and a woman's art club.

Professor Winter spoke to Boy Scout leaders of Spring Lake last Thursday. The subject of his talk was "Training in Citizenship." The following evening he addressed the Holland Boy Scout leaders and the foremost idea of his talk was citizenship.

Students Assigned Faculty Advisors

Teachers to Aid Students in Arranging Their Schedules

Sorosis Fast Selling Boxes of Jello

It seems a rather difficult problem to find a way to raise funds. The Sorosis Literary society has gone through that stage and are now selling Ready-Jell. Perhaps you have heard the password, "Jello" instead of "Hello" and wondered what it was all about. Well, now you know! The society bought about 1,200 packages of assorted jello and at the time of this writing practically all of it was distributed and the sales mounted very high. They at least are sure of the sale of the jello given the freshmen girls for initiation.

It certainly is a picturesque figure, in the person of Betty Smith, that walks in the Sorosis room at each meeting with her large market basket full of jello. And it will (Continued in next column)

Y. M. C. A. Has Active Discussion Groups Led by Professors of Seminary Men

Instead of having the regular Y. M. C. A. meeting in the chapel Tuesday evening, discussion groups were held at the various fraternities. College professors and seminary students started the discussion but the more active part was taken by the students during the rest of the evening.

Fraternity Society

The Fraternity Society and several guests met to discuss whatever might be uppermost in the minds of the members.

Four Birthdays Feted at Voorhees Dormitory

On Wednesday evening something unusual happened at Voorhees. Four people, whose birthdays came during vacation, were honored with a formal dinner party. Two of the guests were from the college and were decorated with college colors, candles, and roses. Mr. and Mrs. Fenton were also guests of honor.

As is the custom at the dormitory when birthdays are celebrated, the guests at the birthday table remained after the main dinner to enjoy the special feature of extra dessert. Those whose birthdays were celebrated are: Alga Bender, Helen Van Enam, Mildred Klow and Gerald Heunick. Mr. and Mrs. Fenton were included in the party as they were celebrating their wedding anniversary.

be a happy group of girls when all of the jello is sold, even though it is said, that a lot of fun is had in selling it.

GOOD LUCK SOPHS

The Frosh and Sophomore rivalry is about to have its climax. With each class' edition of the Anchor off the press, the rivalry between the class of '32 and the class of '33 will be intensified. We wish to congratulate the Frosh on their attempt to put us in our proper place. We believe that a majority of the rivalry between the two classes has been of a friendly nature. We know that a task it is to be a successful school paper and we are sure you every one of you will do your best of next year.

The Freshman Class.

Physics Students Grateful Snow

Prof. Kleis Gives Practical Lesson in Sound

Mr. Snow was practically all of Monday morning in giving Prof. Kleis' Physics students a very practical lesson in sound. He began his lecture on organ pipes by explaining the four systems by which pipe organs may be operated, and pointed out the advantages of the electro-pneumatic system used in the chapel organ. After showing and explaining the two kinds of pipes, flute and reed, Mr. Snow conducted the class through the Great Organ and showed how the pressing of a key made an electrical contact so that a magnet at the base of the pipe caused that pipe to be opened, so that air could blow through and produce the desired note.

Then the class went up to the second floor of the organ. Pipes, pipes, pipes! Long ones, short ones, square ones, round ones, wooden ones, tin ones, some with beads, others with lips! All these were shown and explained in Mr. Snow's lecture. Miss Essenburg was at the console throughout the "tour," so that the class might see and hear the actual operation of various pipes. Those who had no classes during the third hour remained to join in a discussion of great organists and organ compositions.

Fred Wyngarden Big Attraction

In the Freshman and Knickerbocker basketball game last week. The crowd had a real treat in the second quarter of the game. In this part of the contest, Fred Wyngarden came upon the floor to uphold the honor of the Knicks. He immediately received a great hand from his many followers. The old gymnasium re-echoed with the shouts and yelling of his admirers. Fred's shoes were a little large for him and many thought him to have big shoes.

The climax of the game, as far as the admirers of Fred were concerned, came on the first play after the ball was thrown into the game. Fred Wyngarden took a shot at the yearling's basket. As he drew nigh unto the basket he fell and slipped down. While in this sliding position he took a shot at the basket. The ball did not go in, but came very close. A lucky thing it did not go in, for most of his friends would have had trouble stopping their laughter.

The Hope College Trumpeters played at Sixth Reformed Church Sunday and at Overisel Tuesday, January 14. The last week end they went to Grand Rapids to hear the Georgi Trumpeters of New York.

Joey Rodenberg is ill with quincy at Voorhees and Olga Bender and Katherine Ives are her nurses.

2 FROSH GIRLS ARE MEMBERS OF GLEE CLUB

C. Kooiker and J. Herman Hold Sale to Raise Club Funds

The freshman class is not only fortunate in having two of its fellows in the Boys' Glee club but two frosh girls were honored by being chosen to sing with the Girls' Glee club on their trip. Charlotte Kooiker and Jean Herman were selected to sing with the Glee Club the early part of the school year and have proven talented members so they can now go on the trip.

Last week the two frosh girls helped to collect funds for the glee club by selling pie and coffee at the Fraternal Home and sandwiches and coffee at the dormitory. Jean and Charlotte gained a net profit of five dollars and eighty cents.

Charlotte Kooiker sings alto in the glee club while Jean Herman sings the soprano. It is reported that Jean Herman will sing in duets and also give readings on the program.

Knicks Hold Winter Stag at the Tavern

Last Friday night, thirty-two hungry Knickerbockers pulled up their chairs, tucked in their napkins, and thoroughly enjoyed a substantial meal at the Warm Friend Tavern. Some of the members were nearly late because of a shoe store fire which is really quite interesting in this town of Holland. It was the first fire seen by many of the fellows since they have come to make Holland their school home. The event was the annual mid-winter stag of the society.

Thirty-two fellows pulled up their chairs, while the thirty-third, who proved to be Fred Wyngarden, late of Zeeland, refused to adopt the same course. He took his plate, went out into the lobby, and ate standing up by the mantle of the fire place. This was probably necessary, according to authorities, because of the violent manner in which Fred hit the floor in the basketball game last week.

Freddy afterwards came in representing an old grad and strung his as-usual humorous line and drew the laughs. Wade made things serious in an extemporaneous speech which was followed by music by Russ Smith. Brunson made an after dinner speech which was received with approval and then DeWindt was called on for a few remarks. The program was closed with a plea for good reading made by Ivan Johnson.

The members then adjourned to their house where a business meeting was held.

FIRM AIDS CLUBS

The Holland Furnace company has aided both the Boys' and Girls' Glee clubs of Hope college by printing the programs for their trips.

About three thousand programs have been given to each group and there is a cut of the organization on the front of each.

Frosh Class Has Talented Organist

The Freshman class is fortunate in having in its personnel a talented organist. Ethel Leetsma, the class' pride, had been offered an organ scholarship at Olivet, but because of Hope's excellent organ and organ instructor she enrolled here.

On October the tenth, she was the first freshman to take part in the chapel exercises. Ethel Leetsma played with remarkable skill "Third Sonata in C Minor" by Guilman.

Ethel has had only three years in piano training and only three in organ work, but she has shown great progress and is a credit to the Freshman class.

AN APPRECIATION

The students of Hope College, especially the members of the Freshman class, appreciate greatly the excellent work the old Anchor Staff members have accomplished. The Anchor has been edited exceedingly well. The retiring Editor and his Staff, have through their publications kept the students well informed as to the important events of the college. They have through the circulation of the paper, succeeded in maintaining an interest in the Hope College activities. The Anchor, as a median, has kept our Alma Mater informed of the College's activities and also have aroused the spirit of cooperation between the student body and the features of the campus. The Staff has succeeded in making the paper very interesting by the great variety of subject matter. The Editorials were especially well written.

Our greatest appreciation goes to Earle Langeland, the retiring Editor. Mr. Langeland has shown his ability as a journalist and also as a leader, in the way he managed the many rising problems, which an Editor has to solve. Mr. Langeland through his efficient organizing ability, was able to have the cooperation of all of the members on the Staff. We hope that our succeeding Editor will hold high the standards, which our retiring Editor has obtained.

THE THRIFTINESS OF THE Y. M. and Y. W. C. A.

Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. — both worthy organizations — Why, of course. Their meetings are most interesting. But who has heard of the thriftiness of Y. organizations. Why they even served that strong and intoxicating drink called "pop." Are not the Y. organizations supposed to set an example on the Hope Campus and then they come out and show their extravagance by serving that intoxicating "pop" at a meeting where the Freshmen get their first impression of the Y. M. and Y. W. Should they not have known better than to do this? Does not this bring bad influence upon Hope's Campus. If some Alumni ever heard this, hope for the Y. M. and Y. W. would have been gone long ago. It certainly has been left up to the Freshmen to tell the Y. M. and the Y. W. of their huge mistake and of their extravagance.

And yet they do not stop their extravagance, but keep right on spending money as fast as they get it. Why they even have placed two wooden poles on the campus to place Y. M. and Y. W. meeting notices on. If these poles were doing the Y. M. and Y. W. any good, it would be different. Announcements of Y. meetings are always made in Chapel. If they had any monkeys in Holland they might let them loose and maybe they could climb the Y. Poles and make better use of them or perhaps we could chop down the poles and them for kindlingwood.

EDITOR'S BOX

Dear Editor:
What do you think of our Freshman class? I have spent some time tonight thinking about the many qualities it has. We have, I think, prospects of future good leadership. There is, however, one, not unusual, class trait that does not coincide with the others — that of failure to pay dues. The prevailing question seems to be "What do we pay dues for?" I wish that I might take this opportunity to explain. Soon we will have to pay towards the publication of the Milestone, some to the Student Council, etc. In order to conduct our class affairs properly, we must, of course, have the cooperation of the whole class in the matter of paying dues. I hope that they will listen to the voice of duty and help us out in this matter.

Sincerely,
Berdean Welling.

INQUIRER

What do you think of the freshman class?

It is comforting to feel that first impressions are not too lasting. In September I thought, "Nature hath framed strange fellows in her time." Hath there ever been anything more green and less top-heavy?" But the color has slowly worn off and you have shown that you are at least on par with other Freshmen Classes intellectually.

In general I have found you a cheerful lot, with a ready smile and a genial word. I like your "pep" manifested in helping to prepare for "Homecoming." We appreciate your interest and participation in extra curricular work, including athletics, music and religious activities. However it is far from 100%. Where are the rest of you keeping yourselves?

My greatest adverse criticism is that you are not willing enough to do the little things although you are ready to tackle something big. Remember, "first deserve and then desire." Beware of superiority and inferiority complexes, for neither will do. Be yourself, and we will be proud of you, Freshmen.

—Marvin Meengs.

First-year college students are required to make many adjustments which are more strenuous than we realize. These problems of transition between high school and college are not regarded seriously enough by us. Many upper-classmen regret negligent beginnings and realize in the junior and senior years how important solid foundations are. Older students and members of the faculty should try to clarify these early problems the first weeks of the freshman college year.

My contact with the present freshmen is limited to experience in the study of French, but with few exceptions they compare most favorably with other freshmen with whom I have worked. I believe there is a seriousness and an enthusiasm which can be admired by the more mature students. I feel certain that many have conquered the first difficult months of college life and have done so quite independently.

—Nella Meyer.

BREAK AWAY

Who has seen DE WINDT?
Neither I nor you,
But when the trees bow down their heads
DE WINDT is passing thru!

Who has seen DE WINDT?
Neither you nor I,
But when the leaves hang trembling
DE WINDT is passing by!

Who has seen DE WINDT?
None of us at all,
But when the mail man strains his back
DE WINDT will get a call!

Who has seen DE WINDT?
Who can see de windt?
Neither I nor you,
The mail man left a package
So he disappeared from view

Did He Get It?

An Irishman passed a shop where a notice was displayed saying that everything was sold by the yard. Thinking to play a joke on the shopman, he entered and asked for a yard of milk.

The shopman, not in the least aback, dipped his finger in the bowl of milk and drew a line a yard long on the counter.

The Irishman, not wishing to be caught in his own trap, asked the price.

"Five cents," said the shopman.
"All right. Roll it up; I'll take it."

Willing

Possible Employer—"Hm! so you want a job, eh? Do you ever tell lies?"

E. W.—"No, sir, but I can learn."

Ploughing Right Through

"Terribly rough," said A. M. on board the ocean liner.

"Well," said the farmer, "it wouldn't be nearly so rough if the captain would only keep in the furrows."

Questions and Answers

How is the census taken in Scotland?

They roll a penny down the street.

What are your ankles for?

To keep the calves away from the corn.

Why Teachers Get Wrinkles

Some answers — can you guess the questions?

A triangle is a circle with three corners to it.

The alimentary canal connects Lake Erie with the Hudson river.

The government of a country ruled by a king is a monkey.

A saxophone is an instrument played on by the early Saxons.

A mountain range is a big cooking stove used in a hotel.

The torrid zone is caused by the friction of the equator which runs around the earth in the middle.

Longitude and latitude are imaginary lines on the earth which show you which way you are going.

There was no such man as Hamlet. He lived in Denmark.

The climax is caused by hot and cold weather.

A moat is something like a wart, which grows on barons.

Mars is the name of a star so far off it would take a million years to walk there in an express train.

When a volcano spits fire it is called saliva.

SIGNS

You have heard perhaps, of the Englishman, in the South Station, Boston, who read over the door, "Inside Baggage," and chuckled with glee. "You Americans are so droll! Now we would say, "Refreshment Room."

Laying all jokes aside, the freshmen are deeply indebted to the Anchor staff for allowing them to publish the Anchor while they are still intact, referring of course to those long looked forward to "Exams." Remember, a laugh is what you make it and to frown you use sixty-four muscles, but only thirteen to smile.

H-O-P-E

By Henry K. Pasma, '10

Far toward the West from Macatawa
Where the sun and roaming billows meet
O'er the deepest blue of yon calm water
Beams of gold come dancing to our feet.
Heaven and sea are steeped in gorgeous lustre
And before the stars their eyes shall ope
The golden wane and purple main
Are trembling with the colors of old Hope.

Chorus:

In that dear old town, Holland, Michigan
by the inland sea,
Stands Hope College, Oh how we wish again
ever there to be.
Alma Mater loyal true we will ever be to you
When we're old, our song this still will be
H-O-P-E.

Now whenever pressed by thirst for knowledge
Youth and maiden long for ancient lore,
Day dreams of some fair, enchanted college
Rise and visions born from fancy's store.
Tell me dreamer, why now wait and waver?
Yours are not the days to aimless grope.

Fair as a star beck'ning from far
Lo yonder stands the college of your hope.

Here rise friendship's altars ever glowing.
Hope has breathed them into hallowed flame.
Here are friendship ties that stronger growing
Weave within their strands Hope's noble name.
Pass away ye hills of Macatawa
Neath the wave sink dune and verdant slope,
Through all our days we still shall praise
The day when we first saw the walls of Hope.

NEW FRATERS' SONG

Let's sing once more, my merry Fraters;
Tune your hearts to music loud and long;
Every heart it needs must thrill,
Every soul with rapture fill,
As we join in the Frater's song.

CHORUS

Heart and voice all unite in the chorus, boys,
Till our walls with melody resound.
Tho' old time goes slipping by,
Love and friendship never die,
When born from Fraternal joys.

O, many are the clust'ring memories
Of those halcyon hours of yore,
When each heart with hope alight,
We assembled of a night,
To disport with our load of learned lore.

Old Time, thou shalt never dissever
Frater's heart from loyal Frater's heart.
Dreary seas may roll between,
Yet shall love endure, I ween,
Till Old Time himself shall depart.

Frater J. E. Kuizenga, '99.

COSMOS

Written by Dirk Dykstra,
Missionary to Arabia
Tune—"Old Hope"

We're a band of happy Cosmos brothers,
For Cosmos is our native land;
And with her we will abide
What of good or ill betide,
And we pledge her our heart and our hand.

CHORUS:
Cosmopolitans we, and a happy throng!

All ye echoes, send the word along;
For Cosmos we will sing,
And Cosmos we will ring
Till stars shall join in the song.

O, the mem'ry of those blessed moments
That we spent within the Cosmos Hall;
And the faces that we met
We will nevermore forget,
But with pleasure remember them all.

CHORUS:
It was there we talked and sang together
Of our loves and sweethearts far away;

Or we met in mortal strife,
As it were for death or life,
While the sages joined in the fray.

CHORUS:
No ocean can the band dissever,
Nor age destroy the sacred tie;
Though we travel far away,
Though our hairs be turning gray,
We will give her our love till we die.

We will give her our love till we die.

CHORUS:
It was there we talked and sang together
Of our loves and sweethearts far away;

Or we met in mortal strife,
As it were for death or life,
While the sages joined in the fray.

CHORUS:
No ocean can the band dissever,
Nor age destroy the sacred tie;
Though we travel far away,
Though our hairs be turning gray,
We will give her our love till we die.

CHORUS:
It was there we talked and sang together
Of our loves and sweethearts far away;

Or we met in mortal strife,
As it were for death or life,
While the sages joined in the fray.

CHORUS:
No ocean can the band dissever,
Nor age destroy the sacred tie;
Though we travel far away,
Though our hairs be turning gray,
We will give her our love till we die.

CHORUS:
It was there we talked and sang together
Of our loves and sweethearts far away;

Or we met in mortal strife,
As it were for death or life,
While the sages joined in the fray.

CHORUS:
No ocean can the band dissever,
Nor age destroy the sacred tie;
Though we travel far away,
Though our hairs be turning gray,
We will give her our love till we die.

EMERSONIAN SONG

Emersonian dear to the heart of us all,
May thy glory e'er reach to the skies,
And when level'd in dust lie these dear College halls,
We shall love thee with a love that ne'er dies.

CHORUS:

O fling out anew, sons of Emerson true,
Let it float on the wings of the light;
Noble banner of Love, Honor, Freedom, Success:
Our beloved Maroon and the White.

Here's to youth, strong and free:
Oh that e'er thus 't would be;
Here's to intellect clear and supreme,
Here's to all grand and great,
her's to all good that be,
Emersonian, here's first to thee!

And though bright college years,
shortest, best of our days
Shall fade with the ebbing sea's tide;
Still shineth the light through our memory's haze
Of our friendships that ever abide.

ADDISON SONG

Men of Addison, raise the chorus,
Far and wide unite to sing
Praises to our Alma Mater,
Till again the echoes ring.
Leadership our truest motto,
Cultured in the purest light,
With Fidelity our standard—
Hail the Purple and the White.

Sing anew, ye men of Addison,
Sing with all your heart and voice,
And the ties which closely bind us
Shall e'er cause us to rejoice.
Staunchly through the path of duty,
Men of Addison will fight,
That our light may shine forever—
For the Purple and the White.

Days at Hope must have their sunset,
After night new days will dawn.
But fond memories e'er must call us
To the hall from which we've gone.

When old age with white has crowned us,
And our eyes are not so bright,
We'll recall those happy hours
'Neath the Purple and the White.

DORIAN

We have the strength for which it stands:
Simplicity and Truth
Love, Loyalty, and Friendships fair,
And the colors of Old Hope.
But we love the Lavender and Gold,
Shining down through ages old;
And we'll acclaim this dear old name,
The name of Dorian.

ALETHEAN

Then sing to the rose and blue,
For its service and friendship true;
For upheld by thy light we will walk in the right
With a torch for a beacon and signal,
For thee we'll live and work,
No duties ever shirk,
For thee with our heart,
We will all do our part,
For thee, oh Alethea.

SOROSIS

Hail to Sorosis! Queen of girlish lives,
Glad hearts thy praises sing;
Thee we pledge to love and honor
As we now thy tributes bring.
May thy ranks grow ever stronger
Hope and courage never fail;
To uphold the gold white banner
As upon life's sea we sail.

Oh Sigma Sigma's light shall ever shine,
To guide us on our way,
E're to bring us youth's fond memories
Of the hours so bright and gay.
Oh! Sorosis thou art dear to us,
And the fondest friends must part,
Be thou to us an ever shining emblem
Of the love that fills our hearts.

In the light of Truth and Knowledge,
And Friendship we will strive
To live lives of grateful service,
And in every virtue thrive.
For the glory of Sorosis,
For the honor of "Old Hope,"
Do thou lead us on and ever onward,
Crescent banner, star of Hope.

HAIL DELPHI

At the portals of the sunrise,
'Neath the gold and blue,
Delphi sisters proudly gather,
Strong, united, true.
Radiant glows the heaven above us
With the smile of dawn
As upon the breeze of morning
Floats our gladsome song.

Chorus:
Delphi, dear old Delphi
For thee our happy hearts beat high,
Our songs we raise in joyous praise
And fling thy banner to the sky.
May Knowledge, Truth and Loyalty,
Service, Love our watchword be,
Our hearts, our prayers we give to thee
All Hail Delphi!

Happiest hours of college life,
We have spent together;
Friendship joined in Delphi's name
Time can never sever.

In honor, faith and fellowship
Our hearts are firmly bound
And Love glows like the stars of dawn
Where Delphi friends are found.
Chorus

SIBYLLINE

Sibylline, were gathered here
All because of you,
May we ever strive to be
Friends both good and true.
There is nothing can compare
We all know;
With a friendship good and true,
This is surely so.

Friendship, love and fellowship,
Kind and true,
Make our love for Sibylline
Ever new.
Thy ideals, the growing fame,
Nothing in life more sweet we find
May we be loyal to thy name,
Sibylline!

Ethel Cunnagin Is Y. W. C. A. Leader

The Y. W. C. A. held its regular meeting Tuesday night at 7:00 o'clock. It was held in the Y. W. C. A. room in the basement of the chapel. The meeting was fairly well attended, fifty-seven girls being present.

An inspiring song service was led by Lillian Sabo. An unusual feature of the song service was the absence of the customary, overwhelming competition from the Y. M. C. A. room. A series of sentence prayers followed the song service. Ethel Cunnagin, the leader for the evening, read the scripture passage taken from Matthew 5:13-16 which was very appropriate for the later discussion on "Candle Lights". The special music was given by Helen Van Eenenaam who, by request, sang a contralto solo, "I Come to Thee," by Roma.

Ethel Cunnagin gave a very interesting and helpful talk on "Candle Lights." She told how various great leaders were the candle lights of the world. Some people she compared to candle lights, and others to electric lights. The candle light keeps burning steadily thru the years. The electric light while giving more powerful light, does not always give as much service as the feeble candle light. Some of the great lights of the world she mentioned were Helen Keller, Fanny Crosby, Mary Slessor, Edward Bok, Stanley Jones, Wilfred Grenfell, and Booker T. Washington. In the discussion which followed the leader's talk, the girls brought out the thoughts of ornamental candles and the candles that stay on the kitchen shelf. Many other interesting and helpful thoughts were also given.

The meeting was closed with the "Y" song, "Follow the Gleam," and the Mizpah benediction.

"Acceleration, rather than structural changes, is the key to an understanding of our recent economic developments."—From the report of President Hoover's Committee on Recent Economic Changes

YESTERDAY, the rumble, creak, and plod of cart and oxen. To-day and to-morrow the zoom of airplanes. Faster production. Faster consumption. Faster communication.

Significant of electricity's part in the modern speeding-up process is the fact that during the last seven years, consumption of electric power increased three and one-half times as fast as population.

General Electric and its subsidiaries have developed and built much of the larger apparatus that generates this power as well as the apparatus which utilizes it in industry and in the home.

The college-trained men who come every year to General Electric take a responsible part in the planning, production, and distribution of electric products, and at the same time receive further technical or business training.

OUR SYMPATHY

The freshman class wishes to extend its sincere sympathy to Harriet Boschman, whose sister died last Saturday. Although it is not in our power to take away the sorrow we hope that you may find comfort in our heartfelt sympathy.

FRESHMEN RECALL ADVENTURES AT HOPE

117 FRESHMEN REGISTER FOR HOPE COLLEGE

Frosh Class A Little Larger Than Class of 1928-29

Between September 5 and 18 one hundred and seventeen freshmen registered for Hope. The class was a little larger than that of last year and the freshmen came from various parts of the United States and three came from Arabia.

Those who registered in the freshman class of 1929 and 1930 were as follows: Gordon Alexander, Abdur Aradi, Benjamin Barden, Elmer Bauhahn, James Beek, Edward Bittner, Elmer Boer, Daniel Boone, Arnold Bos, Harriet Boschma, Louise Bosman, Alice Boter, Clarence Brower, Bennet Bruhns, Alma Cook, John Cotts, Peter Cupery, Edward Damson, Irving Decker, Nella De Haan, Gerard De Jonge, Marcellus De Jonge, Katherine De Jongh, Henry De Mots, Evelyn Den Uyl, Harold De Windt, Wilbur Ensfield, Gerald Fairbanks, Harold Fairbanks, Shirley Fairbanks, Ruth Foss, Gerard Gaillard and Ruth Groeters.

The middle part of the alphabet held the names: Daniel Gysen, Laura Guigelaar, Joe Harms, Sidney Havinga, Edna Hembold, Jean Herman, Albert Holland, Justin Homkes, Grace Hudson, Evelyn Huizenga, Hoy Hungerink, Louis Japinga, Helen Johnson, Adrian Kammeraad, Josephine Kaper, Howard Kieft, Louise Kieft, Mildred Klow, Jasper Kobes, Donald Koepe, Mappie Kole, Charlotte Kooiker, John La Huis, Cornelius Landhuis, Ethel Leetsma, Herbert Marsilje, Lorenzo Meengs, Peter Meurer, James Moran, John Muilenberg, Dwight Murphy, Dorothea Neerken, Catherine Nettinga, Ada Nienhuis, Carroll Norlin, Abraham Norman, Joan Nyhoff, and Marguerite Oudemool.

Starting with the letter P we find listed the names of: Marguerite Parker, Hester Pellegrom, Alma Plakke, Clark Poling, Lucev Rader, Margaret Repic, Merle Rigerink, Willard Ripley, Ella Rogen, Lucille Schaeffer, Lester Scherpenisse, Gertrude Scholten, Raymond Scholten, Hermine Schreiber, Margaret Schurman, William Senf, Lester Serier, Chester Slighter, John Somson, Spencer Stegenga, Margaret Steketee, Julia Ten Brink, Fred Ter Wree, Nefib Tonnian, James Tyse, Nelson Urick, John Vanden Belt, Milton Vanden Berg, Marvin Vanden Bosch, Thelma Vanden Brink, Gerald Vanderbeek, Nellie Van Eeuwen, Bruce Van Leeuwen, Arloa Van Persen, James Van Vessem, Cornelia Van Qylen, Charles Ver Burg, Emmet Waite, Ruth Weidner, Berdean Welling, Gerrit Wiegink, James Wiegink, Evelyn Wierda, Harri Zegernus and James Zwemer.

M. I. A. A. Champions.

FRESHMAN TEAM WINS M. I. A. A. CHAMPIONSHIP

First Frosh Squad In School

For the first time in the history of Hope College a freshman team has won the honor of being the M. I. A. A. champions. This distinction was given to the freshman football squad this year. Paul Nettinga coached the victorious team and Louis Japinga was the squad's captain.

There are six schools in the freshmen M. I. A. A. and all suffered at least one defeat except the frosh team of Hope College which automatically made them the champions. The scores of the league games in which the Hope frosh competed in are as follows: Hillsdale 6, Hope Frosh 19; Kalamazoo 0, Hope Frosh 37; Alma 6, Hope Frosh 13.

Frosh Girls Have Home-Coming Float

Even though the freshman girls of last year were not represented in the home-coming parade, this year's freshman girls showed their initiative by having a "Frosh Girls Float".

Bill Senfs' green roadster was decorated to represent the girls of the freshman class. The fenders of the car were covered in a lighter green crepe paper and a large bow of the light green crepe paper was tied on the running board spot light. The decorations gave one the impression that it was a bridal car.

Four frosh girls outfitted in green sweaters and green berets rode in the float, two in the front and the other two in the rumble seat. The girls in the rumble seat held the sign "Just Married to Hope".

The committee responsible for the clever float consisted in Margaret Steketee, Chairman; Alma Cook, and Mildred Klow.

Frosh Make Gigantic Pep-Meeting Bonfire

The gigantic size of the bonfire pile for the Home-coming pep meeting showed that the freshman class had an unusual amount of real pep. The entire afternoon before the pep meeting was devoted to the carrying of large boxes to the site of the bonfire.

The freshman team took it upon themselves to show the upperclassman what a real bonfire looked like. The personnel of the crew that brought fire wood for the fire was made up of: James Weigerink, Gerrit Weigerink, James Zwemer, Carol Norlin, Edward Damson, Edward Bittner, James Tyse, Daniel Boone, Lorenzo Meengs, Louis Japinga, Chester Slighter, Herbert Marsilje, Clark Poling and James Moran.

Frosh Class Has Party at Castle

The freshman class of Hope College held its class party and election at the Castle, at Castle Park. The attendance was almost perfect and all were eager for a real social event with their fellow classmen.

A miscellaneous program was given to open the party and the numbers were: Piano solo, Katherine Nettinga; Reading, Alice Boter; Solo, John Somson accompanied by Helen Johnson; Reading by Harold De Windt; and a short impromptu talk by Professor Raymond.

The results of the class election were: President, Herman Damson; Vice President, James Moran; Treasurers, Berdean Welling and John Milenberg; Student council representatives, Mildred Klow and Harold De Windt; Secretary, Helen Johnson.

Delicious refreshments were served and a jolly social time was had. Professor and Mrs. Raymond were the honorary guests and chaperones.

Frosh Girls Stay at Various Places

The girls in the Freshmen class number about forty-seven. Some of the girls stay in the dormitory, others have rooms with private families and still others who live in Holland or just a few miles from Holland go home every night. Zeeland as usual is also represented in the Frosh class. Three girls from Zeeland are: Nella De Haan, Arloa Van Persen and Harriet Boschma. The girls staying at houses other than the dormitory are: Ruth Groeters, Catherine Nettinga, Ella Rogen, Lucille Schoffer, Josephine Kaper, Gertrude Scholton and Julia Ten Brink.

Although there is a good number from other cities, Holland girls outnumber all the others. There are twenty-one or more girls from Holland. The girls are: Shirley Fairbanks, Louise Bosman, Evelyn Huizenga, Evelyn Den Uyl, Alice Boter, Alma Cook, Katherine De Jongh, Jean Herman, Edna Hembold, Helen Johnson, Charlotte Kooiker, Dorothea Neerken, Joan Nyhoff, Marguerite Parker, Marguerite Oudemool, Hester Pellegrom, Alma Plakki, Margaret Repic, Margaret Steketee, Margaret Schurman, Thelma Vanden Brink, and Evelyn Weirda.

Among all these girls of the Freshman class the name of "Ruth" seems to be the most popular. It appears four times on the list. All of these girls live in the dormitory except one, who lives on east Ninth street. The name "Margaret" also seems to be rather common for there are three Margarets in the class. All three Margarets live in Holland, which again shows that Holland is very well represented by girls in the Freshman class.

Frosh Decorate Gym for Home-Coming

For the first time in the history of this college the Carnegie Gymnasium was decorated for the home-coming celebration. The new Freshmen were of course the promoters of this advance and gave up many hours of work to boost Hope's pep.

The gymnasium was decorated in the Hope colors of blue and orange. The platform was covered with blue paper in the center and both oval ends were covered in orange. On the blue was placed large letters spelling the beloved school "Hope". On the platform were large baskets of yellow chrysanthemums. The Hope and society penants decorated the balcony.

The Freshman decorating committee in charge of the decorating consisted of James Tyse, Chairman; John Somson, Arloa Van Persen, Helen Johnson, Irvin Dekker, and Alice Boter.

Freshmen Conduct Religious Meetings

The freshman class proved that it possessed real leaders when Clark Poling led the Y. M. C. A. and Ruth Shreiber led the Y. W. C. A.

Ruth Shreiber led on October the twenty-ninth and presented the subject, "The Land of Far Distance". Clark Poling gave an inspiring address to the Y. M. C. A. on, "Weighing the Anchor."

Sororities

SOROSIS

The Sorosis Literary Society held a regular meeting Friday night. A very interesting and entertaining program was given, which consisted of the following numbers:

A Vocal Solo.....Gladys Huizenga
The Reading of a Paper
Vocal Solo.....Ethel Cunnigan
Myra Ten Cate
A Reading.....Edith Drescher
Musical Saw Selections

Following this program a business meeting was held, various things were discussed, after which it was announced that the officers would treat the society. The entire group proceeded on their way to the Model drug store where the treat was given. Everyone had a very good time and returned home just in time.

DELPHI

The Delphi Literary society presented a Scotch program in honor of Robert Burns, whose birthday is in January. The meeting was opened with singing of Scotch songs, led by Ernestine Klerekoper, accompanied at the piano by Evelyn Geerlings. Devotions led by Marion Sluyter followed the group singing. After roll call and reading of the minutes, The Life and Accomplishments of Robert Burns was read by Katherine Skillern. Esther Mulder read Burn's poem, To a Louse. The society was next favored with a vocal solo, Comin' Through the Rye, by Anne Heyboer, accompanied at the piano by Julia Van Dam. The program was appropriately brought to a close by the reading of Longfellow's Tribute to Burns by Anne Buth. The critic reporter for the evening's program was Doris Brower. After the program a short business meeting took place.

SIBYLLINE

At a meeting of the society on Friday night, the newly-elected members of the Sibylline Literary society were formally initiated. After the initiation ceremony a lengthy business meeting was held at which matters of importance were discussed.

The girls initiated were Margaret Schurman, Nella De Haan, Ethel Leetsma, Margaret Steketee, Evelyn Weirida, Ruth Glerum, Ada Nienhuis, Lucy Rader.

DORIAN

The Dorian Literary society held its meeting Friday night at 7:45. For the Dorian girls it was an evening of finding keys, for some innocent Dorian pulled the door of the room shut and when she pulled it, it was closed and lo! the key was in the room. After hunting around for some time another key was found and the meeting was called to order by the president.

Roll was taken and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted, a short business meeting followed at which Olivia Johnson was elected captain of the Dorian basketball team. The where they were to discover the wonderful athletic talent of the society. On arriving at the gym and pulling the door the girls found another door locked. While a few of the girls went to hunt for the key, the other girls amused themselves by singing. After the key was found and the girls were turned loose on the gym floor, some good basketball work was displayed. At ten o'clock everyone was sorry that she had to stop playing, but returned home with a desire to play again in the very near future.

LAST YEAR'S FROSH

We, it is true, are freshmen, and maybe are rather green, but we don't lack pep and school spirit. Although in college for only a matter of two months, our class is already beginning to take interest in every sort of activity Hope offers. We have turned out a fairly good football team, and have expectations of a far better basketball team. We are on the glee clubs, have students with real scholastic abilities, have members in every society on the campus and are willing to boost every activity to a finish.

We have also taken a hand at putting out an edition of the Anchor, and although not of the usual high caliber, wish to present this paper as a result of journalistic efforts.

HEARD COLLEGE HALLS

Marian Sluyter and Esther Mulder spent the week end at their homes.

The Delphi Society enjoyed an afternoon tea on Thursday afternoon in the society room. Mable Essenberg and Verna Brower entertained.

The S. G. A. girls had a supper at Ruth Daane's home on Thursday.

Ruth Hospers spent the week-end at Jamestown visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Yntema.

Suzanne Schoep, Sarah Lacey, and Mable Essenberg furnished a program at the West Side Literary Club in Grand Rapids.

At the basketball game last Wednesday a group of boys initiated a new yell (learned at Olivet) which caused many blushes.

Well, the freshmen received their history term papers back with marks on them.

Professor Hinkamp spoke at Holland High on Prohibition, last Thursday.

We're glad to see the faculty represented at games. Last week we saw Miss Fulmer, Mrs. Durfee, Professors Thompson, Sprague, Ritter, Lampen, Winter and Gray.

How'd you like a room mate to play your part with your boy friend when you go away?

Just a bit of conversation passed from Prof. Ritter to Mrs. Durfee, "Mrs. Durfee, how do you like the long dresses?"

William Beswick spent last week end at the Knick house. Abe Pots was also in town. Of course, they were visitors at Voorhees too.

Fred Wyngarden knows at least one thing about basketball. Jack said to the varsity just before starting the St. Mary's game: "Hang on to the ball like Fred Wyngarden."

ALETHIAN

A regular meeting of the Alethian Literary society was held in the Alethian room Friday night at 7:30. The new girls presented the following program from Radio Station A. L. E. T. H. I. A. N.: Alethian—E. D. R. Hamilton, Mich. "The First Hour" Alethian—E. M. O. Holland, Mich. "On Impromptu Valse" Alethian—F. W. Tokyo, Japan

"Japanese Lullaby" Alethian—M. J. K. Grand Rapids, Mich. "Sister's Best Feller" Alethian—E. D. R. Hamilton, Mich. "Everybody's Hour" Alethian—L. S. Fennville, Mich. "Solo" Alethian—A. L. M. Sioux City, Ia. "The Lotus Bloom" Alethian—L. H. I. Boyden, Iowa "Kate Cricket Plays her Fiddle" Alethian—ALL Holland, Mich. "The Waller Lot"

Fraternities

FRATERNAL

The Fraternal society met at the Fraternal house for a short time Friday evening. While at the house, a business meeting was carried on. After the business meeting Bernard Arenshorst gave the society a real treat by taking them to the Armory, where they witnessed a basketball game between the World's Colored Champions and the Holland Rusk basketball team. In the prelin game the teams playing were Visscher-Brooks vs. Conoco Oils of Grand Haven.

The boys had a very interesting and enjoyable evening. After the game the boys left for other destinations, some going hither and others thither.

COSMOPOLITAN

The Cosmopolitan society met at the Cosmos house Friday evening. The vice-president, Howard Scholten, acted as chairman for the evening. At the opening of the meeting Lloyd Wothan led in a few yells. Mike Leenhouts acted as chorister.

For the rest of the evening the society was entertained with a program carrying out the "Highway" idea. The program consisted of: "The Automobile in American Life" A. Dykhuizen "Making Fibers at Rochester" Mike Leenhouts

"Highway Music Selections" Marion Alday and his mouth organ

"Bumps and Bumpin" James Marian

After the program a business meeting was held.

EMERSONIAN

A regular meeting of the Emersonian fraternity was held January 17, 1930.

The meeting was called to order by the new president, Walter Herring. Herman Janssen led the singing while Neal Van Leeuwen presided at the piano.

The first number on the program a humor number, "My Summer Activities and Observations," was given by Arnold Bos. John Vandenberg followed with the next number which was, "The Adventures of Richard Halliburton." The program was concluded with a discourse on "Ford, the First Billionaire," given by Myrle Rigerink.

At the short business meeting arrangements were made for an informal supper, which is to be held Friday, January 24.

HOPE DOWNS ST. MARY'S IN TENSE FIGHT

St. Mary's Team Stoops to the Hope Varsity

First Victory of Season In College's Regular Schedule

A victory flushed but somewhat fatigued basketball team from St. Mary's College, Orchard Lake, Michigan, came to the Carnegie Gymnasium of Hope College and struck a Tartan in what seemed to be a new Hope College team. The flush of victory had entirely faded from the faces of the visiting quintet at the end of an enjoyable evening — for Hope College.

The first half didn't look particularly promising for either team. The Orange and blue were leading by two points but this did not show any marked superiority of their playing. The first quarter the St. Mary's quintet showed their best brand of ball and were leading 7-5. Spoelstra, Dalman and Van Lente got a little busy in the second quarter, however, and at the end of the half, Hope was leading 12-10. Up to this time St. Mary's had been playing a slightly smoother game and were continually threatening to jump into the lead by their clever passing and team play.

The second half, however, disclosed a machine-like unit in the "Dutchmen's" play and the score proceeded mounting steadily in their favor. Cook and Van Lente dropped in goals in the first minute of play in this half, putting Hope six points up. The parochials braced, however, and soon evened the count. It proved to be their last stand. Showing some really beautiful passing and shooting the proteges of Jack Scholten forged ahead to a comfortable margin and held it to the end of the game in spite of the spirited resistance of the Saints.

The whole Hope team played well with Spoelstra, Van Lente and Dalman doing most of the scoring. Spoelstra once more took high point honors in spite of repeated tough luck with his shots. Malinowski and Guelkowski of St. Mary's showed best for their outfit, but all credit should be given to this team who have really been through a tough campaign these last two weeks. They certainly held nothing back in their attempt to add Hope to their list of victims.

Co-eds Are Forming Teams for the Inter-sorority B. B. Tournament

All the members of the girls' societies are getting interested in basketball. Although the teams have not been chosen there is a good percentage turning out from each society. Each society has secured permission to use the gym on certain days. The girls from Sorosis out for practice are Marian Katte, captain, Arloa Van Peursem, Ruth Haspers, Jean Herman, Evelyn Albers, Lucille Walvoord, Betty Smith, Olive Poek, Georgianna Fredricks and Roddy Haldine.

The Dorians have been busy practicing and intend to have the gym Friday night so the entire society can turn out. Some of the players are, Ruth Foss, Mayo Tase, Annetta Bos, Olivia Johnson, Margaret Rattshaffer, Julia Van Oss, Henrietta Lamet, Anna May Engelsman, Alice Brunson, Frances Dunkirk, Lillian Sabo, Greta MacLeod, and Alma Plakke.

From all appearances Delphia has the most girls out for basketball. Katherine Skillern is captain, the other players are, Ruth Geer-ling, Julia Van Dam, Hazel Paalman, Ann Hyboer, Mildred Klow, Millie Van Eeuwen, Ester Mulder, Myrtle Klaaster, Alice Bater, Eula Champion, Doris Brower, Evelyn Geerling, Joan Vender Werf, Verna Brower, Phyllis De Jonge, Marian De Kuiper, Ruth Schrieher, Ernestine Klerekoper and Esther Bowder.

The captain of the Sybline team is Mildred Ver Hage. The other girls playing are, Ester and Ruth Glerum, Marian Van Loo, Hope Van Landegend, Velda Blair, Margaret and Evelyn Steketee, Nella and Josephine De Haan, Ann De Young, Lenore Nykamp, Tillie Masselink and Daisy Zandstra.

Among the Alethian society we find the players are, Margaret Kinkema, Maggie Kale, Bernice Mollema, Ruth Everhart, Helen Barre, Polly Handelink and Sarah Fox. A number of these girls have played on high school teams. All the teams intended to practice this week and positions will be announced in the near future.

Frosh Challenges Champion Fighter

In the midst of the Frosh Class there is one who typifies the fighting spirit of this organization, one "Kid" Norlin by name.

Who has not heard of the "Arthur the Great" stories, "World's greatest blow-bag," who has now taken up the gentlemanly sport, boxing. The "Great One" is sweeping this part of the country by storm. His conquests by glove and mouth have been without equal in past generations.

"Kid" Norlin, Frosh powerhouse, thought to test the mettle of the "Great One" and sent an invitation through his manager "Wats" Spoelstra, asking Arthur to visit Holland and take on the "Kid" with unheard of purse, at stake.

"Whataman's" manager replied that it would be a pleasure, but that he didn't think the Michigan boxing association would like it and so the fight was out of the question.

The "Kid" and his manager are seriously contemplating on the wisdom of going to Chicago and repeating the challenge.

Van Vleck Hall has Skiing Tournament

It is the season for all of those interested in skiing to make their appearances about the hills of our native state. Tournaments of skiers have become the vogue and rightly so. They have reached down to our very campus, and have snatched those interested into its membership.

The one famous institution on our campus, none other than the Pilgrim's Home, has entered into the sport world and organized such a tournament. At present it has one volunteer contestant, in the very person of the "Flying Despot." In his recent tryouts on a local hill, we find his record to be one of note. So much so that one of his devoted Pilgrim brothers penned the following lines:

My name is "The Flying Despot,"
On a hill behind the dorm;
That's where I go a-skiing —
And display such perfect form (?).
I put the skis right on my feet,
And down the hill I go,
A bump, a tip, a horrible spill!!!
And head first through the snow.
And it happened all on a Saturday night.

ABOUT HOPE

Umikichi Tsuda.
Everything in the world has its own purpose for existence; nothing can exist without a purpose. One of the aims of this college is to bring its students closer to God. We, the students of the college, may be very proud for the gift that our school is a nonsecular school. A life without any religion is like a ship without compass tossed by the waves, and it is impossible for it to get to its destination. Hope College gives us a compass which leads us safely to our destination. One thing which gave me a great joy, when I came from my country, is that our college is such a religious institution. This joy will be

Hope Loses to Hillsdale by Single Point

Eagerness to Score Is Believed Cause of the Defeat

Hope College basketballers lost a thrilling overtime battle to Hillsdale at Hillsdale by a 26 to 27 count. The Hope boys were easily the better of the teams, but their eagerness to score lost the game for them. It was a hard game for the boys to lose after outplaying their opponents by a wide margin.

Capt. Van Lente started the Hopites out on the right foot by caging a pretty half court shot. The first part of the game was pretty even for both teams with little scoring done. Soon after the Hope team were able to penetrate the Dales defense for clean shots near the basket. Led by Spoelstra and Dalman, our boys were able to run up an 18 to 7 lead at the half time.

In their anxiety to score to begin the second half the Hope boys were not cautious enough on their defense. The Orange and Blue held their lead until about one minute left to play when their opponents tied the score at 23 all. Neither team was able to score in the remaining minute so the game went overtime.

In the five minutes of the overtime, Brooks scored twice from mid-court. This boy had been held without a point up to this time. Cook scored with a pretty shot to retaliate for one of Brooks'. Dalman made good from the penalty route to bring the count to within one of Hillsdale.

In the closing moments of play the Hope boys had the ball on the ring of the basket many times, but it failed to fall through the net. The Hope team should receive much credit for they looked the best yet this season and will bother plenty of the teams from now on. Capt. Van Lente and Cook played a good defensive game for Hope. Spoelstra led the offensive part of the game with 9 points.

in my heart forever. After we depart from the college we may take different positions, but I hope that each one of us does not forget our school and follow the banner of Christ.

Funny Game, Yes It Was Humorous

There are so many close scores in basketball games these days it becomes difficult for the crowds to appreciate a good game when they see one.

In a preliminary to the Hope-Saint Mary's game, the Hope Frosh and Knickerbocker society quintet tangled in what might be called a basketball game, with apologies. At least it was humorous, and put the crowd in good humor for the main course of the evening.

The final score of the game was 44-8—advantage Frosh. Fred Wynn-garden played the leading part inasmuch as humor was concerned, and shared honors in basketball ability of the Knicks, with that dribbling terror Russel Smith and with "Lowie" Scudder. The Frosh presented two complete, nicely functioning fives which steadily piled up the score. All the Freshmen played good ball, with Zwemer, Japinga, and the Wiegink brothers copping the scoring honors.

UPPER CLASSMEN

Although my opinion of an upper classman has improved of late, my first impression was wholly uncomplimentary. An upper-classman in my estimation, thought that all things around him were wonderful, but as for himself, nobody was fit to clean his boots. He was the cream of creation. Like the circus that stops in a small village, they are the "only," "original," and "unrivaled." They open their mouths as wide as the chapel doors in boasting of what they would do if they were in a dumb freshman's shoes.

That first impression did me a great deal of good, for now I will heed the warning in the saying:

"Said I to myself, 'Here's a lesson for me, this man is a picture of what I might be.'"

Signed, A Frosh.
