Brevities.

They are robbing graves at Washington and selling the bodies at $40 each.

Several medical institutions in Cleveland, Ohio, and in Virginia, have been supplied, which is a pleasant reflection for the relatives of those having friends buried in Washington.

The monster who has carried on this unholy traffic was formerly a clerk in the Surgeon General's office, and is a libel on his name, which strange to say is Christian.

The following is the full and complete list of Senators and Representatives in Congress who have covered back pay into the Treasury. It is a transcript from the official record in the office of Treasurer Spinner. The record is chiefly remarkable for the names which do not appear upon it.

Out of 74 Senators only 19 have resisted the temptation and placed the money out of their reach in the Treasury; of 252 Representatives only 47 have done the same—a little more than 25 per cent. of the Senate and a little less than 20 per cent. of the House:

SENATORS.

Anthony, Buckingham, Pratt, Ramsey, Sherman, Scott, Sumner, Schurz, Thurman, Wilson, Wright, 19 out of 74.

MEMBERS HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Barber, J. Allen. Lawrence, Wm. (acc. count of XLIIId Bell, S. N. Congress, $1,510).

Cotton, A. R. Lynch, John. Merriam, C. J. Peters, J. A. Perry, Eli. Potter, C. N. of Waikanae county. Roberts, W. R. (ty. Ill., $905.25).

Farwell, C. B. Rusk, J. M. Roberts, E. H. Roosevelt, R. B. Starkweather, H. H. Sessions, W. L. Sawyer, P. Swann, Thos. Townsend, W. Upson, W. H. Wheeler, W. A. Willard, C. W. Waldron, Henry. 47 out of 252.

Testing the Ice.

O. S. Smith tells a good story on himself, A. Hale and George Tapping. They were down on the Missouri bottom, near Decatur, last week and very anxious to get across the river.

The reports which they heard in regard to the strength of the ice were so conflicting that they hesitated to venture upon it for a long time. Finally they procured a small boat and made the venture. Tapping pulled on a rope attached to the bow, while Smith pushed at the stern. The object in taking the boat was, in case the ice gave way, to have it handy to take to, and thus save themselves from a watery grave.

It was agreed that Mr. Hale—he being a large man—should remain on shore until Smith and Tapping had gained the other bank when he should follow on his hands and knees. The parties with the boat reached the other side in safety when Mr. H. struck out as previously arranged. He spread himself out like a bat, in order to cover as much surface as head, and thus crawled on his belly for a half an hour—a very fatiguing process of navigation. At the end of half an hour he had reached midway of the river, when he heard a noise behind him that filled his soul with terror. He thought the ice was breaking up and that he was a goner, sure. He looked around and there was a team of horses attached to a load of wood. He sprang to his feet to escape being run over, and lit out for his comrades, who were lying on the ground almost choked with laughter, over their groundless fears and Mr. Hale's adventure. —St. Louis City Journal.

English insurance companies are extending their usefulness into Austria, having obtained permission from the government.

Apropos of Plymouth Church, the Worcester Gazette thinks seven washing days to the week is too large an allowance.

Mrs. Roxcellina Romans, of Brooklyn, who took $15,000 out of Mr. Erie for breach of promise, recently, is not happy. She has got $6,000 left after settling with her lawyer.

A poor laborer in Chicago defended himself in the Police Court recently, and astounded the bar with his eloquence and learning. He would do for a Chief Justice.

The American Whip Company, of Westfield, has bought out the New Haven Whip Company, and will whip any similar institution in the country in the production of persuasives.

General Baxter, of Rutland, Vt., comes out in a card denying that his fellow-citizens have placed a costly monument over his remains. He hasn't done fighting yet.

The Grand Jury, in Hudson County, N. J., recently found an indictment against a Justice of the Peace, charging him with being a common nuisance.

Cuban ladies in New York have commenced to "show their colors" by wearing a necktie and bow which represents the Cuban flag in miniature.

Bah.

Mr. Hepworth is full of fight. He proposes to send a shell into Havana as the next message from the United States. Perhaps he would like to go with it. Two such explosives would do the business for Jovellar.

Unfortunate Alexis has been ordered to make another tour of the world. That means America. Perhaps he will bring back some of those odd gloves and things which he carried off with him. Anybody lost one?

A Cincinnati lady offers to lay a wager that there is not a fashionable girl in Cincinnati but would rather stay from church than wear a pair of single-button gloves. Nobody takes her up.

Chicago and St. Louis are still fighting over the question as to what constitutes a barrel of pork. Chicago puts it at 190 pounds and St. Louis at 196. They ought to put their heads together once and thus solve the riddle.

The keeper of a dining saloon in Charleston, South Carolina, as an inducement to patrons, offers to give them, while they are eating, a free concert, participated in by 400 singing birds, which cost $3.50 each.

Cincinnati is very indignant at the sentence of her latest defaulter. He embezzled $90,000, and his punishment is a fine of $60,000, and one year in the Ohio Penitentiary. This gives him a salary of $30,000 a year, which is fair for these times.

A Baltimore court having acquitted a boy charged with the murder of his brother, has now indicted another brother charged with the same offence. There is nothing like keeping this sort of thing in the family as far as possible.

The steamer Ohio, from Philadelphia to Liverpool, on her last trip took out 1,300 car wheels. American car wheels are acknowledged by English makers to be of a superior character, their excellence being attributed to their peculiar method of manufacture, involving the use of charcoal iron.

Railway War.

The Baltimore Gazette of the 23d says:

Yesterday morning as soon as it was announced that the Baltimore and Ohio Railway had made a considerable reduction in the rates of fare to the West, the Pennsylvania Road issued orders to sell tickets to the same points for the same price as the Baltimore and Ohio Railway, the Pan Handle also reduced its rates, and there must necessarily be a corresponding reduction of fares all around.

The Pennsylvania Road issued a poster, stating that the rates of fare by their route would be as low at all times as that offered by any other line.

There was considerable excitement among railway men. The authorities of the Pennsylvania Road say they expected this action on the part of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway, and were prepared to meet it, and had issued orders to their agents to that effect.

They say that the latter road has no right to complain of the action of the Pennsylvania Road, as for fifteen years they were compelled to transfer their passengers to Washington through the city, and were compelled to purchase tickets; that this action of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway was not from any spirit to oblige the traveling public but in a spirit of retaliation for something alleged to have been done by their road. The officers of the Pennsylvania Road are by no means communicative, and the above is about all that could be learned from them regarding the matter.

Catmeal, Bone and Muscle.

Liebig has shown that oatmeal is almost as nutritious as the very best English beef, and that it is richer than wheat bread in the elements that go to form bone and muscle. Professor Forbes, of Edinburgh, during some twenty years measured the breadth and height, and also tested the strength of both the arms and loins of the students of the University—a very numerous class, and of various nationalities, drawn to Edinburgh by the fame of his teaching. He found that in height, breadth of chest and shoulders and strength of arms and loins, the Belgians were at the bottom of the list; a little above them, the French; very much higher, the English; the highest of all, the Scotch and Scotch-Irish from Ulster, who like the natives of Scotland, are fed in their early years with at least one meal a day of good milk and oatmeal porridge.

Speaking of oatmeal, an exchange remarks that a very good drink is made by putting about two spoonfuls of the meal into a tumbler of water. The Western hunters and trappers consider it the best of drinks, as it is at once nourishing, stimulating and satisfying.

It is popular in the Brooklyn navy yard, two and a half pounds of oatmeal being put in a pail of moderately cool water. It is much better than any of the ordinary mixtures of vinegar and molasses with water, which farmers use in the haying and harvest field.

A wild hog weighing about 600 lbs. was killed near the Muskrat Lake, in Manitow County, Michigan, recently.

His hogship had sojourned in that locality for about ten years. A tusk from the lower jaw measured seven inches in length, girthed nearly two inches, and tapered to a triangular point. He fought nobly, but his rough hide was at last perforated with bullets, and he fell a victim to the superior strategy of the enemy.

It is stated that the first patent issued by the United States was granted to Samuel Hopkins on July 30, 1790, for the manufacture of pot and pearl ashes.

The third was to Oliver Evans, of Philadelphia, so famous for his inventions in high pressure engines, of whose invention President Jefferson remarked that "it was too valuable to be covered by a patent, and there should be no patent for a thing no one could afford to do without after it was known." This was in December of the same year in which Hopkins obtained the patent.

For many years after this date the Patent Office was but a clerkship in the State Department.

A HEAVY MORTGAGE.—A New York dispatch states that the Lake Shore directors have authorized a second mortgage on their road for $25,000,000, which is now being registered in the counties through which the road passes, about thirty in number. The company will issue only about $4,500,000, at present, for the purpose of taking up the floating debt; the rest will be used for taking up $6,000,000 of debenture bonds for completing the double track, and making other improvements. When the entire amount is issued, the debt of the road will stand: Capital stock $50,000,000; consolidated bonds, $25,800,000; total, $100,000,000.

The mortgage was placed on record in the Register's office of this county on Monday last. The amount is $25,000,000, and is the largest mortgage ever recorded in the county.—Grand Rapids Times.

MAKING THINGS BILIN.—Many years ago, a negro clergyman, very light colored—came north for the purpose of collecting money to build an African Baptist Church in one of the Southern States. The people did not come down very heavily, and some one knowing old Mr. K's dislike to everything African, took the applicant to him. R. not suspecting his race, received him graciously, and asked:

"What kind of a church are you going to put up?"

"Baptist."

"How much money do you want to raise?"

"Five thousand dollars."

"Is that enough?"

"Yes."

R. sat down at his desk, took out his check book, filled it out for the entire sum and the colored brother thought he had struck oil sure.

"One thing," said R., "I want to understand before I sign my name."

"Certainly, anything."

"The Baptists put the new fellers under water, don't they?"

"Entirely, that is our style."

"Well, I want you to agree to have the water bilin' hot, and scald every darned darkey to death that goes in it."

On the 5th of September the number of prisoners in the Empire of Russia was 73,464. Russia has 620 prisons, with accommodations for only 59,200 persons. Over 14,000 prisoners had, therefore, to be put in temporary quarters, even more unhealthy than the regular prisons. The mortality of prisoners is, therefore, inordinately large. In the two years 1868 and 1869, of 600,200 prisoners kept for a longer or shorter time in confinement, 151,852 had undergone medical treatment, and 17,370 died. That is to say, one out of every four got sick, and one out of every nine died.

Wisdom Wanted at Weddings.

Said a young husband whose business speculations were unsuccessful: "My wife's silver tea-set, the bridal gift of a rich uncle, doomed me to financial ruin. It involved me in a hundred unexpected expenses, which in trying to meet, have made me the bankrupt that I am."

His is the experience of many others, who do not know that it is the goblin of the house, working its destruction.

A sagacious father of great wealth, exceedingly mortified his daughter by ordering printed on her wedding cards, "No presents except such as are adapted to an income of $1,000." Said he, "You must not expect to begin life in the style I am able, by many years of labor, to indulge; and I know of nothing which will tempt you to try, more than the well-intentioned but pernicious gifts of friends."

Such advice is timely. If other parents would follow the same plan, many young men would be spared years of incessant toil and anxiety. They would not find themselves on the downward road because their wives had worn all their salary in fine clothes, or expended it on the appointments of the house. The fate of the poor man who found a inch-pin and was obliged to make a carriage to fit it, is the fate of the husband who finds his wife in possession of gold and silver valuables, but no large income to support the attendant display.

OUR COUNTY LEGISLATORS.

The Board of Supervisors of this County will meet at the County seat on Monday, Jan. 5th at 7 o'clock p. m. Perhaps the less there is said about the recent October session the better, yet we may venture to express the hope that at least a portion of its history and record may not be repeated. In this connection we wish to say a few words to our friends the Supervisors whose acts we believe we may candidly criticize, even though we have no appeal from many of them. The Dickinson matter was the first brought up last session. That, and its surrounding circumstances was the subject of much pointless and fruitless debate, during "the progress of which, several would be big guns" appeared in rather ridiculous light. Instead of attempting to do all possible to make the county whole, the chief aim seemed to be to play bull dog and see who would get the first blood.

Prosecute Dickinson was the cry, never stopping to ask how that was to bring the missing money back into the County Treasury. The Pros. Attorney reported on the matter of course free of charge to the County, yet a costly, if not a valuable opinion must also be indulged in from Messrs. Norris & Blair. Hours of blow were had at $7.50 per hour. Please score one (1) here for Reform and Economy. We believe if the matter be left alone and all possible chance be given to Dickinson and his sureties that the money will be refunded in larger or smaller sums from time to time.

Yet we will venture a wager that the first thing the Board will do, will be to order an immediate and unrelenting prosecution, and we will venture a further wager that the defense will be bitter and unrelenting also. That for much trouble and great additional costs the discovery will be made that the so called deficit is shown at its present figure by means of forced balances which will never stand the searching analysis of the Court Room. We believe it will be shown that no "proper settlement" has been had with the County Treasurer for some time back, that the Board for years has been remiss in its duty; that it has not thrown those safeguards around the Treasury that it should have done: that by these means it did not sufficiently protect the responsible sureties and that, therefore, it is in a measure "particeps criminis," in releasing the sureties and effectually squelching further prosecution.

We hope, therefore that the Board will handle this matter carefully without fear or favor, but also without passion or malice. What we have objected to and still object to is that this being a Republican Board and all its acts cast in the face of the Republican party, the Republican majority has nevertheless allowed two or three Democrats to control its proceedings. That majority has been so afraid of being accused of shielding a defaulting official that they not even dared to do justice to that official and hence have almost cheered the rogues who were there to make political capital out of the faults of their opponents, having long since gone bankrupt themselves, if indeed they ever had anything to recommend them to the confidence of the people.

In the same spirit the matter of getting statements from the different officials has been carried on, not for the purpose of seeing that everything was done "decently and in order" as good and jealous guardians of the peoples rights, but for effect, to let the minority make political capital, create a feeling, impossible, among the people of this county against a set of officers who have enjoyed (and we believe deservedly) as great a measure of public confidence as ever fell to the lot of any officials in this County.

The mode of procedure proves that we speak true. Every resolution of inquiry was preceded or accompanied by statements or dark whisperings concerning that particular officers affairs. To give an example. In regard to Mr. Tracy the County Clerk, Mr. Pennoyer stated that term after term of Court had passed, yet not a dollar of entry or jury fees had been paid into the Treasury, they had been stolen by the Clerk. He (Pennoyer) had sat on a back seat for twelve years, and he had felt it in his bones all that long time (oh! how poor bones) that something was rotten in Denmark.

Therefore he moved resolution after resolution of inquiry, always taking care (now mark this holy reformer's unpartisan unselfish spirit) to go back just 5 years and no farther. You must not go back into the records of Democratic officials although he confesses to have felt it in those delicate, sensitive bones of his for twelve years that things were all wrong, yet you must investigate only those rascally thieving Republicans!!

Now we appeal to the Republican majority is this right, is it fair? While the people demand of you to see to it that everything is done properly and honestly, they also demand that you shall give a bitter minority due notice that you go to the County seat to do business and not waste the peoples money and vote yourselves pay for blackening mens character who have not even been accused of wrong. If appearances or the statements the officials make to you seem to show that things are going wrong, then investigate.

We believe the officials court it, the people, in such case, and your party would demand it, and you should see it done. But here again a word about a committee a majority of which shall be of your own number. It is the right of the officials to deal with their friends, and not be put at the mercy of their enemies. Let enough of them be put on to give them the chance to see that honest and thorough investigation is had and that you desire to shield no one.

In this matter of committees you have not done what was demanded of you. You were elected to take charge of the affairs of this County to see that the officials do their duty, and also to guard the latter from partisan and scurrilous attacks from your own body.

Yet through your Chairman you declare you will not see to the Finance Committee, every mother's son of which is a Democrat.

The committee on Poor Farm consists of two Democrats and one Republican.

If every subject needed investigation it probably is the Poor Farm.

Yet we believe the Father-in-law of the old keeper is on the committee and like a good Democrat that he is, will take care to go back only one year, and not touch the time of his son-in-law's administration.

A committee on revision of salaries was appointed, two Democrats and one Republican, of course that committee will report that these Republican officials are over paid.

A Committee to prosecute all who had a hand in the defalcation is made up of two Democrats and one Republican. The mover for the appointment of such Committee (a Republican) was, we suppose not even thought of. A resolution to investigate the present Treasurer was referred to two Democrats and one Republican, yet the Chairman of the Board is called a Republican. Now, although we may believe in that feature of Reform which calculates on Minority Representation, yet we must emphatically protest against the Minority rule established by the Board.

We believe the people also protest and hope they will show it by their votes in the spring elections. There is a Republican Supervisor of the Board from each of the Representative Districts of the county, each of whom has sought the nomination for Representative, circumstances only have prevented their getting it heretofore.

To you, gentlemen, we appeal to come forward as leaders on this Board. Leaders of your party and of the Board in every good word and work, in every matter of justice to the people or the officials, in every needed investigation or prosecution. We look to you to set an example for wisdom, firmness, moderation, fairness, and honesty in attending to the people's interest.

You have well nigh thrown your chance away, but there is yet time to redeem yourselves. If you can give proof of ability, now is your time.

If you are politically honest, let us know it. If you serve well in your present capacity, next winter may, very likely, see you in the Legislature. But if you stand idly by while a hostile minority blackens your friends and wastes the peoples money in useless talking and wrangling; on you will fall the blame.

The Republican County of Ottawa looks to you; disappoint it not.

REPLY TO H. D. POST, ESQ.

For the Holland City News.

It seems that I erred, when I stated, in my former communication, that the estimate of the Board of Education was a fancy display of figures. It was an inadvertence on my part, which I could, but need not explain, and for which I offer my most courteous apology. And indeed, I am more than glad, to know that the respected "Com. on estimates" had nothing to do with fancies, even in the calculation of "Incidental expenses—$75.00."

Does any body else fall into mistakes? I said, not that the Board of Education "had cut off the High School" (as I am wrongly quoted,) but that they "had practically discontinued" said School. Will the citizens please make enquiries, and judge for themselves? Again I said, not that "the New Board had hired young and inexperienced or incompetent teachers," but that "they had employed a lower grade of teachers than before." Will the citizens please note Mr. Post's admission that such is the fact? And here, let me explicitly deny, that the simple statement of a fact like this is an "attack on reputation." Not at all. That sort of business I leave to those who had pleasure in it.

Those who read Mr. A's article of the 13 inst. must have noticed, how carefully he evades the issue between him and myself, and how gratified he would be if I would only "change base" a little, I do not propose any such thing. He took up my gauntlet in defence of what he published or allowed to be published, on the 20th of September last, and there is where I hold him. Let him categorically justify and explain the unworthy comparison, to which his name is appended at that time, or let him so far prove his character as a gentleman and a Christian, as to acknowledge the errors which it contained, and the deception which it occasioned. As he credits others with the same articles knowing the difference between black and white, and when that conscience speaks, I shall feel that our controversy is ended. That there may be no misunderstanding on the part of the public, I give verbatim the offensive paragraph, taken from the "Holland City News" of September 20th, 1873:—

"Comparative expenses 1872, being the last year in which teachers' wages fully paid, so as to give the whole expense of teacher's wages, $5,723.50; saving of estimate of 1873 over 1872, $1,085.82; money expended by District Board for other purposes than pay of teachers, building, and repairing the school house, in 1869, $1,708.03; in 1870, $1,723.32; 1871, $2,222.82; in 1872, 1,229.14; estimate for other purposes in 1873, $900; annual average of expense for other purposes, in four years, including 1872, $1,120.72; estimate for 1874, $600, thus saving to the district in this item alone $1,085.82; making a total saving of $2,574.32." Signed by the "Com. on Estimates."

I kindly ask that this whole quotation be well considered its motive, its animus, its wording, its figures, all about it, and then any jury at option may say how far I am wrong or unjustifiable when I distinctly and emphatically repeat my former charge, where truth is concerned, we seek unambiguous expressions?

1. I charge that the whole statement was made up, and published without due consideration, in order to cast opprobrium upon the District Board, and to excite against them the minds of the people. Neither the end in view, nor the means, were right. But perhaps such was the most excellent operation of the new charter.

2. The language most certainly implies, that in 1874 there was a saving of $1,538.50, on teacher's wages, and of $1,085.82, on "other expenses," making a "total of $2,574.32." So it was always understood to this day. Thus has it been affirmed, again and again, in the streets, and I cannot conceive how the implication is to be avoided. Mr. Post now denies it, but why has he not denied it before, instead of rejoicing over all the flings at the "Old Board" thereby caused? He knows that his statements should only infer a "total saving" of $1,538.50, and why figure it up to $2,574.32? Ingenious man cannot afford to let such libels stand for months uncorrected.

3. I charged that the clause, "making a total saving of $2,574.32," "looked like a deliberate falsehood." The author of that clause, whoever he may have been, has had a chance to wash off that ugly look; but since he has not done it, since he has deliberately left the most "untrue assertion" (Webster) without explanation or correction what can I do but deliberately repeat my convictions? Who will stand up and venture to justify that wretched misstatement?

That estimate of $75 for "incidental expenses" struck me very ludicrously; and I put it up with all these &cs. around it, and laughed at the poor starving. Let me beg pardon, for I suppose ministers must keep long faces. Mr. Post very adroitly endeavors to shift those &cs. to my account, but it would be a great pity to take them away from his "incidentals, $75." But the Committee "had no precedents to guide them." Really, I thought the committee had common sense enough, and information enough to guide them wherever they wished to go. Their experience, as School officers, will probably be of some benefit to them hereafter.

Although, in general, I take no exception to the tone or language of Mr. Post's article; there is one important exception, and to this I most respectfully call his attention. It is full of insinuations. What right has he to brand the "ministers" and "elders" of Holland as a sort of a "Tammany Ring," and to charge them with "squandering of the people's money?" The same kind of insinuations have come regularly and bitterly from the same source, for months and perhaps for years past, and I indignantly demand that the charges be openly made and substantiated. That is what I meant by "unmanly attacks," and that has been his "courtesy towards his fellow citizens." The School Board have always been "ready to settle," since my connection with it: have always been able to account honestly for every cent are yet fully responsible to the people, who elected them, and voted their monies, and if they have misappropriated even a voluntary subscription we pray Justice Post to sue for an investigation.

CHAS. SCOTT.

THE BING FUGITIVES.

Genet's flight to Brazil on the steamer Ontario was uncontradicted yesterday, and the statement was generally believed. The story of his having taken passage on the three-masted schooner Wm. H. Keomey, chartered by Ex-Senator Noah Taylor, of Jersey city, had also its believers, and there were those who refused to accept any theory other than that he was still hiding in the City or near by, and was waiting for the hue and cry over his escape to subside, when he would slip away quietly and unnoticed. Sheriff Brennan professes to be sanguine of the eventual arrest of the fugitive and is apparently loath to believe that Genet is safely out of his reach. The Sheriff says that a gentleman from the West visited him yesterday, and expressed himself surprised at the stories published about Genet. He asked what it all meant and the Sheriff explained. The visitor then avowed that he had talked with the fugitive at Hornellsville, 350 miles from this City, on the line of the Erie Railway, between 9 and 10 o'clock on Tuesday evening. Genet appeared to be cheerful and was eating his supper. The Sheriff's visitor had not been informed of the circumstances of Genet's conviction and escape and did not think it strange to meet him. This was all the information he had to communicate, the Sheriff said, but on the supposed clue a search had been instituted in Hornellsville and on the route of the Erie Railway. The general public seemed inclined to give but little credence to this story, and many people were of the opinion that the majority of the reports current were circulated in the interest of Genet to lead his pursuers on a will o' the-wisp chase in a wrong direction. The statement, that he was en route for Brazil, was regarded as the most credible, Coman's whereabouts, it is alleged, is well known to his old friends—Jones, Dowling and Capt Kennedy, of the Sixth Precinct—and it was reported that he spent a portion of his Christmas in the company of Mr. Jones Norton, Geo. S. Miller, Walsh, and John D. Welsh kept safely out of the way, and nobody could be found willing to tell anything about them.—N. Y. Times.

The report that the nomination of Attorney General Williams for the post of Chief Justice is to be withdrawn, is without foundation. From all that we can learn, there appears to be no doubt that the charges affecting Mr. Williams' integrity are one and all utterly false, and the Judiciary Committee will soon discover that, and then Mr. Williams will be confirmed. For this result, Mr. Williams' opponents may fairly thank themselves. They should have confined their attacks to the points in which he was weak, instead of trumping up all kinds of scandalous and unfounded charges against him. Mr. Williams' confirmation must be regarded as a matter of certainty.—New York Times.

The Kossauks (Mich) Republic has a story of a plucky woman: "Mrs. Bennett, who lives about half a mile above town, killed a deer with an ax last Saturday. Some hunters with their dogs had been chasing the animal for a couple of days. In the flight the deer ran into Mr. Bennett's yard, where the dogs caught it. No one else being at home, Mrs. Bennett ran out with an ax and knocked it in the head, and had venison for supper."
