CITY AND VICINITY.

Hope College will open next Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. C. Van Duren, River street, Wednesday—a son.

The January session of the board of supervisors of Ottawa county begins Monday, Jan. 7.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Cook, Cymbria avenue, Wednesday—a daughter.

Governor Bliss has appointed Archie Oakes, of Coopersville, as legislative messenger to the governor.

The board of supervisors of Allegan County will meet Monday, Jan. 7, 1901, for their annual January session.

The first meeting of the Allegan County Farmers' Institute society will be held at Hamilton on Tuesday, January 8.

A congregational meeting will be held in Hope church next Wednesday evening immediately after prayer meeting.

T. Ten Houten is building two houses on Vanden Bosch's addition on Seventeenth Street, between Pine and Maple streets.

Chester W. Richards has been appointed supervisor of Polkton to succeed Walter S. Cole, who takes a position in the Auditor's office at Lansing.

Representative Alward of this county is one of the only three members of the present house of representatives who are serving their third term in that body.

At a congregational meeting of Hope Church held last Wednesday evening Elders G. J. Kollen and C. Doesburg were re-elected, and H. Boers was re-elected and W. H. Wing elected as Deacons.

J. Francis Campbell, director of the Schubert club of Grand Rapids, and the former well known instructor for the cantatas given in Holland, has been engaged to take charge of the voice department of Akely Institute. The school now has a first class musical faculty.

Sheriff Dykhuis has appointed deputies and assistants as follows: Bastian D. Keppel, under sheriff, Holland; Aaron J. Klaver, Cornelius Van der Noat, Grand Haven; Austin Harrington, Holland; Cornelius Andra, Jenison, deputy sheriffs; Hans Dykhuis, turnkey and deputy.

Representative Luke Lugers, John Y. Huizenga, clerk of Holland township, and J. S. Brouwer, who are acting as a library committee for Holland township, went to Grand Rapids last Friday to purchase a number of new books for their library.

The West Michigan Band concert and dance, which took place in Saugatuck last Friday night, was a great success and was attended by a large crowd from this city. The band boys made a great hit and a return date would be welcomed in Saugatuck.

An invitation from the Grand Rapids council was extended to President Kruger to visit that place when in this country. The following cablegram was received: "President Kruger's best thanks for good wishes and cordial invitation to visit. Nothing decided yet." It was signed by Private Secretary Boeshoten.

Jehn D. Kanters says that the new city directory will be ready for distribution the latter part of next week. The delay in publishing is occasioned by the failure to get the names of those holding elective and appointive offices in the state and county and also those holding office in the several lodges and societies.

Frank Kuite arrived in this city from Jackson Friday night. He was accompanied by his father, J. Kuite, Sr., who was successful in his efforts to have Governor Pingree grant a pardon for the young man. The confinement began to tell on Frank and it is asserted that he would not have lived if forced to serve his full term.

Large audiences attended the watch meetings held in the Third Reformed church and the M. E. church Monday night.

The marriage of Queen Wilhelmina to Duke Henry of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, has been officially fixed for February 7, 1901.

Rev. P. Segers left Tuesday for Sheboygan Wis., to assume the pastorate of the Hope Reformed church of that city.

W. A. Holley attended the convention of the Operative Millers of America held in Cairo, Ill., last week. Nine states were represented and over 100 delegates were in attendance.

Figures compiled by the state tax commissioner show that the rate of taxation in Ottawa County has been reduced from $21.00 in 1899 to $12.39 in 1900. In Allegan county it has been reduced from $17.79 to $12.01.

L. Niemeyer, who was employed in the carving department of the West Michigan, factory left Wednesday for New York, Pa., to take a position as foreman of the carving department of the West York Manufacturing company.

W. G. Barnes has drifted back into Ottawa County again, and is now employed on the HOLLAND CITY NEWS. He was the founder of the Observer, and lately publisher of the St. Charles Union, which was destroyed by fire.—Coopersville Observer.

Simon Kleyn made a tour of Michigan for the purpose of perfecting himself in the art of poetry. Not content with the benefits derived from a flying trip he sojourned for a few weeks in Fremont, and his friends say that since reaching that city his poetic effusions are something wonderful to read. He courts the muse every hour and the U. S. mails to this city are laden with specimens of his genius.

In some cases marriage has proved a failure in Ottawa county. County Clerk Hoyt has prepared divorce statistics in Ottawa county for the past year which shows that thirty-five divorce cases were pending in this county on Jan. 1, 1900, and sixteen cases were commenced in the year, making a total of fifty-one. Judge Padgham has granted eighteen divorces, one was denied and one withdrawn. Thirty-one cases are now pending. Of the divorces granted two were for adultery, ten for extreme cruelty and six for non support.

The case of Smedley vs. City of Grand Haven for attorney fees has been reversed by the supreme court and a new trial granted. It will be remembered that Judge Padgham took this case away from the jury and directed a verdict for the City of Grand Haven, it being the Judge's opinion that Mayor Baar had no right to employ Mr. Smedley without a resolution of the common council. The supreme court says this is an error, and has sent it back for a new trial, with costs against the city.

Attorney William Aldrich Tateum, of Grand Rapids, was in the city this week on business connected with the proposed electric railway from Kalamazoo to Saugatuck by way of Allegan. He attended meetings of the township boards of Casco, Saugatuck and Cheshire townships and of the village council of Saugatuck for the purpose of arranging for right of way, terminal facilities. He says that the outlook is all that can be desired and that without a doubt the line will be built.

W. H. Beach, chairman of the harbor improvement committee, and G. VanSelven, secretary, went to Grand Rapids last Friday for the purpose of consulting Congressman William Alden Smith in regard to the appropriation and thanking him for his efficient work in the matter. Mr. Smith was pleased with this evidence of appreciation on the part of the people of Holland and expressed the opinion that the senate would approve the sum recommended by the House committee and that Holland would secure an appropriation of $73,000.

Mrs. G. Elenbaas, died yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jacob Lokker, East Ninth street, as the age of 73 years. Mrs. Elenbaas was well known as one of the early residents of Ottawa county and had a large number of friends in this city. She formerly resided in Villmore. She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Jacob Lokker, Mrs. Luke Lugers, Miss Anna Elenbaas, Miss Mary Elenbaas, of this city, and one son, John Elenbaas, of Harvey, Ill. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock from the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lokker, 140 East Ninth street, Rev. Kolyn, officiating.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

The public schools reopened Wednesday morning.

When Sheriff Dykhuis took possession of the county jail he had twenty-two prisoners in custody.

All winter goods must be closed out during the coming week at John Vandersluis. Many odds and ends at much less than cost. Childrens' corks same at 1/2 off.

Mrs. J. Westrate, corner Ninth and River streets who recently underwent a successful operation is improving rapidly. The operation was performed by Drs. Meenge, and Cook of this city and Dr. Shers, of Grand Rapids.

Sunday morning services in Hope church will be conducted by Rev. J. T. Bergen. In the evening Rev. A. Pieters will preach on "Mission Work in Japan." The choir will repeat the Christmas cantata by request.

The meeting of the league of Republican clubs held in Lansing last Wednesday was attended by the following delegates from the Republican club of this city: Hon. G. J. Diekema, Hon. Luke Lugers, A. Van Duren, G. Van Schelven and N. J. Whelan.

The city library will be removed to the new quarters in the Post block next week and the librarian, Miss Jennie Kanters, desires that all books now out shall be returned by Wednesday, January 8. No books will be issued after tomorrow until further notice is given.

W. S. Cole, of Coopersville, supervisor of Polkton township, has received an appointment as clerk in the Auditor-General's office at Lansing. The news of Mr. Cole's appointment is received with favor by the people of Ottawa County, as he is well fitted to perform the duties of the position.

John Ten Houten who is employed as a stenographer in Chicago has returned to that city after a pleasant visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Ten Houten, Fourteenth street. Miss Kate Ten Houten, was also the guest of her parents. She returned Tuesday to Boyne Falls, Charlevoix, Co., Mich., where she is employed as teacher.

Chairman G. J. Diekema, of the Republican state central committee, has issued a call for a meeting of the Republican state central committee, to be held at the Morton House, Grand Rapids, Jan. 12, to decide the time and place for holding the next state convention, when a candidate for supreme justice will be nominated. The convention usually takes place in March.

Miss Alvena Breyman has been promoted from the second to the first grade in the Columbia Avenue school to take the position of principal in place of Miss Aldie Cunningham who recently resigned. The place vacated by Miss Breyman has been taken by Miss Ruth Kerkhof, and Miss May Spalding, of the Ypsilanti Normal school, has taken the position of third grade teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dryden entertained a company of jolly relatives at a family reunion Christmas. Those present from out of town were James Koning, Sr., and wife, Albert Koning, wife and baby, and Fred Koning of Holland. John Koning and family and James Koning Jr. and family of Saugatuck. Sixteen partook of the turkey the genial host provided. James Koning, Jr., and family remained during the week.—Allegan Gazette.

Humphrey Jackman, of Grandville, was killed last week by the blow of a horse's foot. The case, however, promises to be something more sensational. From appearances murder seems to have been committed. A blood-stained stool was found in the manger of the stable where he met his death. This leads to a suspicion of foul play. An inquest was held yesterday, and search is being made for the man who was in the stable with Jackman at the time of his death. The unfortunate man was reported to have been seen with considerable money, but when found there was nothing in his pockets. This gives Henry Dykhuis, the new sheriff, a probable murder case for a beginner, and on Wednesday and Thursday he was in Georgetown investigating the case.

At the meeting of the K. of P. lodge held last evening the following officers were installed: F. M. Gillespie, C. C.; J. J. Cappon, V. C.; Seth Nibbelink, P.; J. C. Holcomb, M. of W.; Con DePree, M. of F.; Will Botsford, M. of E.; W. A. Holley, K. of R. S.; W. Kirkup, M. at A.; A. E. Huntley, I. G.; W. J. Olive, O. J.

Mrs. Carrie Westveer was given a two-pound box of chocolates as a prize for making the closest guess on the weight of the large chocolate drop in the window of the Boston Bakery. The chocolate drop weighed twelve pounds, one and one-half ounces, and Mrs. Westveer's guess was twelve pounds and one ounce.

The state barber commission will seek amendments to the state barber law, requiring that all apprentices in the business must also be registered; that every shop must have apparatus to sterilize tools; and also to secure better provisions governing the renewal of certificates. The commission collected $6,000 last year and has $1,500 of it on hand. There are nearly 4,000 barbers registered and about 1000 unregistered.

Mrs. Wm. Wakker nee Pieter Nalla Ver Beek died at Grand Rapids and was buried Wednesday. Mrs. Wakker was well known in this city. Her husband was formerly in the furniture and undertaking business in the building now occupied by Ben Van Raalte's Implement store on River street. The death of Mrs. Wakker is mourned by many relatives and friends in this city.

The meeting of the Holland Poultry and Pet Stock association held last Friday evening disclosed an encouraging condition of affairs. The treasurer's report showed that after all expenses were paid a balance remained in favor of the association. Encouraged by the success of the recent show they have decided to hold another December 17, 18, 19 and 20, of the year 1901. Monthly meetings of the association will be held for the purposes of discussing poultry matters. Several new officers were created and the old officers were re-elected. Following are the officers for the year 1901: President, Wm. Brusse; vice-president, J. L. Conkey; secretary, C. St. Clair; treasurer, J. Y. Huizenga; superintendents, Edward Bradshaw, and Ben Van Raalte; doorkeepers, L. Sprietsma and K. Zuidewind.

All records were broken in the issuing of marriage licenses in Ottawa county in 1900. The count when County Clerk Hoyt closed his office last Monday night was 331 and the record of 330 made in 1898 was beaten by one. Divided into months, licenses were issued this year as follows: January, 14; February, 14; March, 28; April, 30; May, 23; June, 30; July, 22; August, 20; September, 30; October, 43; November, 26; December, 36. Last year's record was 300. Of the licenses issued in 1900, 157 of the contracting parties were from Holland City; Grand Haven had 76, Zeeland 50, Polkton 34, Spring Lake 30, Olive 28, Jamestown 23, Crockerly 18, Wright 17, Tallmadge 17, Holland town 16, Georgetown 16, Blendon 13, Allendale 13, Chester 7, Grand Haven town 7, Robinson 5. In Muskegon county 336 licenses were issued.

Sheriff Dykhuis took possession of the county jail Monday night at the stroke of 12. His household goods were moved into the jail residence Monday. Aside from being an almighty good fellow himself, the sheriff has a large family and Grand Haven's population benefits thereby. .... Frank Van Ry relinquishes the office of sheriff tonight (Monday) and will go to Holland on the 9:45 train to make his future home, where he has a fine new residence. Mr. Van Ry is not yet decided as to what he will embark in, but will wait until spring before he goes into anything. Frank hates to leave Grand Haven and his family are sorry to go, and it was not until a few months ago that he really decided to leave the city. During his term of office Sheriff Van Ry has landed 17 prisoners in Jackson, 14 in Ionia and 14 in Detroit, a record equalled only by Sheriff Keppel.—G. H. Tribune.

Holland City News.
FRIDAY, January 4.
OUR NEIGHBORS.

Hamilton.
Mrs. Sheffield is quite ill.
Jennie Krommeyer's three sisters, Minnie, Anna and Dena of Kalamazoo were home during the holidays, they returned last Tuesday.
The Ladies Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Frank Dalton on New Years day and gave a dinner. All enjoyed a good time and quite a snug sum was secured for the help of the church.
The Farmer's Institute will hold its annual meeting at Hamilton on Jan. 8. Hot coffee and lunch will be served by the ladies of the village. All the farmers are invited to attend. There will also be exercises given by the members at the church on Monday evening the 7th. A fine program has been prepared.
Mrs. H. Elmer returned from Kalamazoo on Saturday.
Mrs. Herman Brower is spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Klomparsen, of Allegan.
An illustrated lecture will be given at the Presbyterian church by Rev. Strough of Allegan on Thursday and Friday evening.
The exercises given at the Presbyterian church on Christmas eve was a decided success and about every one went home happy with a big arm full of presents.
Joman and Groff have sold out their interest in the blacksmith shop to G. Krommeyer.
Mrs. H. Sears is quite ill.
Mrs. J. Kolvoord is ill with la grip.
Everything is lively at Hamilton and business is splendid, all we want is snow enough to make sleighing and then there will be few idle people.

Flintmore.
Now we have entered a new year and also a new century we should all try to do away with every thing which does not compete with the time we are now in.
A young boarder arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Schentenboer, just in time to live in the new century.
Mrs. Gerrit Leman visited relatives and friends in Grand Rapids last week and returned home Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. John H. Boeve visited Mr. and Mrs. L. Vos of Jamestown last week Friday.
The old year sermon was conducted by Rev. J. T. Bergen, of Holland at the Ebenezer church last week Sunday evening. Rev. Bergen was very much appreciated by young and old.
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Rigtering of Overland visited with Mrs. Rigtering's sister, Mrs. J. Busse.
Bert Nyland spent New Year's day with his sister, Mrs. E. Hunderman.
The little girl of Mr. and Mrs. C. Defrei is doing well under the circumstances.
Farmers are anxious that some thing new should come there way, and that they should have the same privileges as the city people from Uncle Sam. Last week a petition for rural mail delivery was presented to our farmers by Henry Boeve, Jr., and by the way the petition was welcomed by the farmers it must have the desired results. We hope so at least.
Mrs. W. Douma of Holland is spending the holidays with her relatives and friends at this place.
New Year's day has come and gone and has left many a pleasant remembrance. This is indeed true to the family of Mr. and Mrs. H. Boeve, Sr. All the children with their families gathered at the old homestead to enjoy the annual reunion. The large home was filled to its full extent. There were 14 children and 23 grand children and two intimate friends of two of the grand children, in all 42. The afternoon and evening was spent in playing games. Delicious refreshments were served. At a late hour every one went home well pleased.

Graafschap.
There was not much snow in Graafschap New Years day.
During the year six deaths, 2 fathers 2 mothers, and two children, have occurred in the Holland Christian Reformed church of this village. Twenty-nine children were baptized and twenty-nine people joined the church. Rev. A. Keizer, the pastor, received three calls during the year, one to Chicago, one to Grand Rapids, and one to Zeeland, but he is still content to stay with his little flock in Graafschap.
The child, who was pierced in the head by a bay fork, mentioned in last week's News is not the child of T. De Frell but of Cornelius De Frell. The child is recovering rapidly.
The child of H. Stegink is in a critical condition and does not seem to improve.
Messrs. Mulder and Breuker and their respective families spent New Year's day in Holland.
Graafschap has a band consisting of seventeen members and under the leadership of H. Walcott the boys are doing remarkably well. They have bought new instruments and practice twice a week. They are able to play many of the popular airs and if they keep up their rapid rate of improvement will soon rank with the best in this part of the state.

Ventura.
Uriah Whaley is home from Milwaukee where he has been on the run to Buffalo, N. Y., on the steamer Thomas Davidson. The young people gave him a surprise on New Year's eve. There was about 60 present and a nice time was enjoyed with music and dancing till early morning.
Henry Whaley has returned from the lumber camp north.
Mrs. Mary Nichols has returned home.
Miss A. Lorine spent a few days with friends here.
Orie Bucan is on the sick list.

Port Sheldon.
Will commence correspondence of 1901 by wishing you all a Happy New Year.
Abe Anys is busy drawing stone. It is a slow job for Abe's one. Why not have a bee and have it all drawn in one or two trips?
We have been talking around here about the hard luck John Hopkins is having. It must be pretty hard for him to stay in the house so long without being able to do anything toward supporting his family. Why not have neighbors start out to get help for him? Every little counts. Go to Port Sheldon, Lake Shore, Zeeland, West Olive, and Holland; everyone would help in a case like this, and it would be a blessing to him.
We all rejoiced to see Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anys of the Life Saving station at Portwater. Mr. A. has been there seven years.
H. Goodin is getting ready to start his stove mill. He will have a good run. Wm. Smith is to be engineer.
Ventura postmaster and daughter called on C. Cook Monday.
Considerable lumber is being picked up on the beach here.
Wm. Anys says a life saving station man walks about 700 miles in a season on the beach.
A very pleasant evening was spent at Mr. and Mrs. J. Anys Monday evening. Among those from the outside were Will Anys and wife.
Mr. and Mrs. L. Kline have been spending a few days at Holland.

West Olive.
We are enjoying a mild winter just now, but we must not complain much as last winter has taught us a good lesson.
Mrs. Thos. Barnes and son Jay returned home to Grand Rapids, Tournday.
G. W. Marble returned Saturday from Lansing where he went on a visit with his sister Mrs. Mary Burcham.
"Doc" Norton's fine cable roof barn is nearly completed and it is a large addition to this village. Can 1901 do better?
Robert Sankey, wife and son of Holland visited with relatives here this week.
Our bright young pastor, Rev. R. Cilley of Robinson has "popped the question." He was married last week to Miss Cora D. Preston of Campbell. We wish them everlasting joy in the Lord's service.
At the box social Wednesday night $5.55 was raised for Mrs. J. Edwards, of Agnew.
Frank Blinn is at present visiting his mother and brother Tom in Niles.
Miss Addie Vollmer our industrious teacher beg a her winter term of school Monday. West Olive ought to feel proud of her because she is doing the place good in other ways.
A carload of lumber was shipped from here this week. The new year has begun to do business already.
Some of our good people had a meeting at the school house Monday night in order to watch 1900 go out and 1901 come in. They changed places without an accident, but according to the Bible the end of the world will come like a thief in the night. So let us be prepared.
Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

For the HOLLAND CITY NEWS.
Wildwood, Cheboygan Co.
Dec. 24th—Wm. Willm, Mr. Pelton and Mrs. Ogden took the train for Holland on Saturday where they will spend the holidays. Mr. Willm took along a few hives, 5 coon, a wild cat a martin and a few skunks. He expects to come back again in the spring. Mr. Pelton is well pleased with this country and says he will come back in March if not before.
The weather here has been very mild so far this winter. There has been a little snow on the ground for over a month but not enough for sleighing.
I see by the West Olive cor. that we are not the only ones that have just plastered our house.
The people here are busy piling up logs and getting ready for a run of sleighing. Hemlock logs are worth $4.50 at the mill or lake, maple $4.50, Elm and Basswood from $8 to $10. Hay is ten to fourteen dollars a ton.
During the hunting season one of our neighbor boys killed five deer, three other neighbors killed two apiece, and several others got one. Five or six of the boys were gone a few days about thirty miles east of here and came back with thirteen of the beauties. We did not try our luck as we got enough of hunting over thirty five years ago when we were young. It was pretty gamey then, in the southern states at least.

N. W. OGDEN.
Why DO You Commit Suicide?
The man who lets a cold "run on" until he finds himself in consumption's grasp is guilty of self-murder. There is no cure for Death, and consumption is Death. Coughs and colds are nothing more nor less than Death in disguise. There is one sure, infallible cure—Cleveland's Lung Healer. Don't trifle—get a free trial bottle. It is the greatest lung medicine in the world. Large bottles cost but 25 cents, and you can get your money back if it doesn't cure you at Heber Walsh.

Impossible to foresee an accident.
Not impossible to be prepared for it. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Monarch over pain.

Blown to Atoms.
The old idea that the body sometimes needs a powerful, drastic purgative pill has been exploded; for Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are perfectly harmless, gently stimulate liver and bowels to expel poisonous matter, cleanse the system and absolutely cure Constipation and Sick Headache. Only 25 cents at Heber Walsh.

Terrible plagues, those itching peevish diseases of the skin.
Put an end to misery. Doan's Ointment cures. At any drug store.

Lake and Marine.
In this connection the subject of a winter life saving service becomes timely. This demand has frequently been made in years past for the extension of the lake life saving service to cover the winter months, which as an established season of navigation on Lake Michigan is rapidly coming into prominence and recognition. The government has not yet recognized the need or importance of such a service, but when the demand is made from the proper sources, it is believed the united efforts of such winter ports as Milwaukee, Ludington, Frankfort, Grand Haven and a few others will be able to secure it. Necessarily the proposed service would be limited since at the present time perhaps not more than a dozen ports on the Great Lakes stand in need of a winter life saving service. The men would not be expected to patrol the beach as in the summer, hence the pay need not be as large as during the established season. We believe the majority of our life savers would be willing to continue through the winter for half pay, subject of course to less restriction and discipline than is maintained through the open season. The Record learns from reliable sources that this matter is to be laid before the government at an early date.—Ludington Record.

ENGLISH HENS NOT LAYING.
Fewer Eggs Than Usual This Year and the British Farmer is Said to Be at Fault.
Another British industry is on the wane. The British hen is laying even fewer eggs than usual at this lean time of year. Even the comfort that it is hen and not man that is behind the times is denied. The principal reason given for the shortage is the hidebound medievalism of the British farmer. The result is that the average town householder can scarcely get a dependable new-laid egg to put upon his breakfast table, even at an extortionate price, says a London paper.
The annual consumption of eggs in London in the course of a year is estimated at 650,000,000. Great Britain consumed last year eggs to the value of £10,000,000. English farms could produce all these without the displacement of other agricultural products. But so sadly behind his proper place is the British farmer that he allowed the foreigner to send in during 1899 no fewer than 1,940,000,000 eggs, to the value of £5,644,392.
The Poultry Organization society defines a new-laid egg as not more than three days old in warm weather or five days in winter. Its expert says: "If the home farmer would only arrange for his young hens to commence laying eggs by November 1—and it can easily be done by hatching early—there would soon be a better supply of new-laid eggs."
Here is a little illustration showing the proportion of foreign ones imported. The eggs consumed in Great Britain in a year, if loaded into railway wagons, would make a train 150 miles long, containing 43,000 trucks. Of these 150 miles 75 would be foreign, 50 British and 25 Irish.

BLACK AND TAN.
Casual Meeting with a Citizen Who Wore Shoes That Were Thus Cross-Matched.
Clearly it was not the paying of a freak bet, but a freak of fortune, that had compelled this man to wear the shoes he had on, which were one black and the other tan. Nor did they match in shape and size much closer than they did in color; but they were a close pair in dilapidation, and (thought the man approached by the wearer of this cross-matched footwear), if that tan shoe could be blackened they'd do; they'd do better, anyhow. There was a place in town, he knew, where they did that sort of thing; that is, where they changed tan shoes to black, and he told the man with the odd shoes where this was, as nearly as he could remember, giving him, at the same time, a sum sufficient to enable him to get the shoes thus mated up in color; not much was required, because there was here only half a pair to be treated, says the New York Sun.
Clearly the man with the shoes was pleased. Despite his seeming lack of pecuniary resources, as evidenced not alone by his odd shoes but by various other corroborative indications about him, he was not an uncheerful person, but the receipt of the money made him more cheerful still. As to whether he would actually devote the money thus obtained to having that tan shoe made black, however, or whether, more or less careless of his personal appearance, he would spend it for something else likely to give him a greater measure of immediate enjoyment, the giver of it found himself unable—with certainty—to determine.

Why It Succeeds.
BECAUSE IT'S FOR ONE THING ONLY AND HOLLAND IS LEARNING THIS.
Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success. Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only.
They're for sick kidneys. They cure backache, every kidney ill.
Here is Holland evidence to prove it:
Mrs. Jan De Kok, of 214 West 11th street, says: "I was bothered for years more or less with heavy aching pains in my back. I could not rest comfortably and it was painful for me to stoop or to straighten up. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended I got a box at J. O. Donsburg's drug store and tried them. They relieved me right away and in a short time my complaint disappeared entirely. Doan's Kidney Pills are a fine remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Wilburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

THE DECAY OF COQUETRY.
It Is Proven by the Languid Interest Women Take in Fans Nowadays.
There is a danger, indeed, a very real danger, that fans large or small, of net, lace or feathers, will presently pass into the limbo of things useless and unremembered, says the Washington Star. This undoubtedly is an evidence of the decay of coquetry, none the less do women appear to have put their fans by and seem neither to know nor to care what the fashion in these pretty trifles may be.
There is a languid interest taken in fans of medium size, of gauze and painted with scenes from the Arthurian legends. Some of these are exceedingly beautiful, for by a judicious use of gold thread and spangles the splendors of Guinevere's wedding gown, the glitter of the tourney and the bravery of Tristan's lance-armor is rendered very realistic. There are a few fans imported from Paris that create admiring attention. These are not very large nor very small and their sticks are of dark brown shell. Upon the sticks lace spider webs are drawn. In the center of the web sits a wondrous gold spider, watching, with cruel, bright, ruby or emerald eyes, the charming antics of a plump cupid, half gold, half lace, who has fallen into his spider's snare.
Cheap paper fans, stretched on sticks of gilded wood, show clever dashing colorful sketches from Henry V., from L'Aiglon and other popular plays of the season, and when a fan is carried at all, it must not be suspended from the waist, shoulder or throat by a rope of pearls or a ribbon. Such was the pretty fashion two seasons ago. Now it is the mode for a diner or dancer to hold her fan in her hand, and manipulate it with a view to artfully displaying its intrinsic value and artistic charms.

FRANCE NOT DEGENERATE.
Max O'Rell Denies the Charge That His Country is Retrograding.
In spite of what may have been written to the contrary, France has, ever since the disaster of 1870, quietly and steadily regenerated herself, and succeeded in organizing an army which the greatest German military authorities declare to be the most formidable and the best armed in Europe; and I will add this, in justice to France, that she has not gathered together and trained that army of 1,500,000 men to attack anyone, but to protect herself, says Max O'Rell in the London Mail.
The Germans know all this, and strain every nerve to remain at peace with us, seeking our friendship more and more every day. That army in the hands of a Napoleon III. might be a danger to Europe, but not in the hands of a nation now mistress of her destinies, who would use it only if compelled to do so for the defense of her honor or her territory. Degeneration, forsooth! Let me assure you that there is no degeneration, except in the imagination of a few writers in search of the sensational.
The France of this century, the France of Gay-Lussac, Lavoisier, Alfred de Musset, Lamartine, Victor Hugo, Ernest Renan, Pasteur, that France, greater than ever in all the arts of peace, now more formidable than ever in the art of war, is well worth a kind word and an act of courtesy at the hands of the great English people.

FALL COLDS
They Are Dangerous Because Hard to Cure.
VERY LIKELY TO LAST ALL WINTER.
We Know Something that Cures All Pulmonary Troubles.
IT IS OUR GREAT TONIC RECONSTRUCTOR, VINOL.

There seems to be an epidemic of colds.
It is strange how many people start in with a cold that they have contracted during the autumn months. Such colds are dangerous, for unless cured when the weather is warm it is very difficult to get rid of them when really inclement weather appears.
Do not, if you have a cold, go through this winter and let it pull you down. A racking cough may be the means of undermining your constitution, terminating in consumption, when there will be no hope for escape.
Cod-Liver Oil has always been the greatest known specific for consumption. Naturally Cod-Liver Oil has been given for colds which are regarded by many people as the first stage of this disease. There is no need of our telling you the drawbacks of Cod-Liver Oil; the vile, greasy mixture was so repellent that not more than one person in ten could take it. But Cod-Liver Oil did cure where it could be taken.
Now we have a cod-liver oil preparation that cures just as surely as did this vile remedy. We refer to Vinol. Anybody can take Vinol. It tastes delicious, and because it contains the active curative principles that made Cod-Liver Oil famous as the specific for consumption and other wasting diseases, it will be readily seen how valuable it is for all such troubles.
Here is one letter taken from many that are continually coming to our notice. Mrs. E. Coghlan, 123 Putnam Ave., Cambridgeport, Mass., says: "Last September I contracted a heavy cold which terminated with tonsillitis, and later the grip. All winter I had a dreadful cough, and the doctor advised me to take several things, among them Cod-Liver Oil. I tried it for several months without obtaining relief. At last I heard of Vinol and gave it a trial. Five bottles cured me and I have had no troubles since."

When we talk of Vinol, we know of what we speak, and will refund your money if you are not satisfied.

EGYPTIAN PRINCESS FOR SALE
Daughter of the Pharaohs Fetches Up in an English Auction Room.
"Lot 270a," said an English auctioneer, "is a princess, an Egyptian princess in a mummified condition. There it is, a very perfect mummy."
Of a truth it is an irreverent age, a dull, vandal, detestably democratic age, in which a daughter of Rameses II., together with two X-ray full-plate photographs showing the preservation of her bones, can be hawked in a Covent garden sale room for £10 10s, says a London newspaper.
True, she was, as the auctioneer put it, in a mummified condition. But what of that! Was it, then, for this that she slept for 30 centuries amidst the dust of the kings of the earth? Was it for this that the cunning embalmer, when the world was young, lapped her tender limbs in spices, swathed her unsullied body in fine twined linen? For £10 10s?
Had it, now, been the dead clay of Imperial Caesar one would have minded less; in this case Shakespeare prepared us for some such thing. But an Egyptian royal princess—one of the 119 daughters and sons of Sotep-en-Ra Ramessu-meri-Amen, "who knew not Joseph"—to be lying here on a bench, her sarcophagus burst open, sniggered at by bargain hunters! Was it revenge!
"A royal mummy for £10 10s—that's absurd," moaned the auctioneer; "it's worth that to a paint manufacturer."
That was the end.

TO INSURE PURE BLOOD

Keep the Kidneys and Liver Healthy, Active and Vigorous by Using

DR. A. W. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

Nature makes an extra effort in the spring to rid the blood of its impurities, and the filters of the blood—the kidneys and liver—are called upon to perform an enormous amount of labor.

As a result, they become tired and exhausted, and there are backaches, side-aches, headaches, and pains in the shoulders and limbs. Digestion is deranged, and the languid, exhausted feeling of spring causes misery to the body.

There is only one means of making the blood pure, and that is through the kidneys and liver—the filters of the blood. By acting directly on these delicate organs, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills purify the blood as no other preparation was ever known to do.

Mr. Wm. L. Maurey, Scottsville, N. Y., writes: "Liver complaint and impure blood were the bane of my life for years. My face was covered with pimples and blotches, and I could get nothing to help me until I tried Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. My skin is now clear, and I consider these pills invaluable as a remedy for constipation, liver complaint, and impure blood. As a kidney medicine they are far excellence, and I shall recommend them to my friends."

DONNELLY IS DEAD.

Minnesota's Famous Author and Statesman Passes Away Suddenly in Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 2.—Ignatius Donnelly, politician, author, sage, aged 70, died at 12:03 this (Wednesday) morning, of heart failure. The eminent Minneapolisian was taken suddenly ill Tuesday night while visiting at the home of his father-in-law, Barton Hanson.

Ignatius Donnelly, known as "The Sage of Minn.", has been conspicuous in the political and literary field for many years. Mr. Donnelly came to Minnesota 35 years ago, and since that time had been a member of both houses of the state legislature and represented his district in congress. During his many years in the state legislature he was a power. He was an able orator, always had an answer ready and rarely failed to turn the laugh upon his opponent. He had pronounced ideas, and during his political career had been a member of nearly every political party known in the state. For the last few years he had been bitterly opposed to the policy of the democratic party and at the last general election he was a candidate for vice president on the middle-of-the-road populist ticket.

SEND A NOTE.

Omaha Kidnapers Threaten Mr. Cudahy Again—First Arrest in the Case Has Been Made.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 31.—E. A. Cudahy, the millionaire packer, has received a second communication from the men who kidnaped his son. This time, as formerly, the letter contains a threat, and says, in substance, that unless he withdraws his $25,000 reward for the arrest and conviction of each of the three bandits they will kidnap another of his children. Mr. Cudahy says he has not withdrawn the reward, nor will he do so.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 2.—A dispatch from Chadron, Neb., says: A man said to be Pat Crowe, suspect in the Cudahy abduction case, has been arrested near here. The city council of Omaha has offered $25,000 reward for the arrest of the kidnapers.

CAN RESTORE LIFE.

An Electrician Shows That an Electrocutted Object Can Be Resuscitated by Same Means.

St. Joseph, Mo., Dec. 29.—At an experiment in a telephone office in this city it was demonstrated that life taken by electricity can be restored by the same power. N. Schellinger, an electrician, is making a series of experiments here, and in the presence of a number of persons interested in the progress of science, shocked a cat to death, and when the heart of the feline had long since ceased to beat Mr. Schellinger reversed the current of electricity, and the shock restored the heart beats, although they were very feeble at first. Within two hours after the cat had been pronounced dead it had been restored to the fullness of life and vigor and was as playful as ever.

Had a Vast Audience.

New York, Dec. 31.—Gov. Roosevelt spoke Sunday afternoon at Carnegie hall before a vast audience of young men on the prospects of the young men of the next century. The address was read simultaneously at meetings of 1,500 Y. M. C. A. associations on the continent. In his talk the governor declared that the true Christian is the true citizen, and that the model home life is the basis of good government.

Holland City News.

FRIDAY, Jan. 4, 1901.

N. J. WHELAN, Editor.

Will Improve Opportunities For Advancement.

One of the main arguments advanced by those opposed to the plan of bonding the city to raise money to be used to induce manufacturing institutions to locate here is that it is unjust towards the laboring man because it raises his taxes. Experience in other cities has shown that the taxes paid by the institutions secured through bonuses amount to more than the interest on the bonds, and that the surplus accruing within the time the bonds has to run will amount to enough to pay the principal, so that instead of raising taxes it lowers them.

But admitting for the sake of argument that taxes will be raised, would that be a sufficient reason for the laboring man to vote against it? No. For the hardship occasioned by a slight raise of taxes is nothing compared to the advantages resulting from increased manufacturing institutions.

What Holland wants now is industries employing skilled labor, such as iron works, steel mills etc. Institutions of this kind would give laboring men an opportunity to better their condition. They could secure employment commanding better wages. Their families would have better opportunities for advancement. As the boys and girls grew older they would have a chance to learn a trade. The city would necessarily grow. More stores would be started, more business would be done, and the boys and girls would have opportunities to get work in stores and in offices. They would have opportunities to learn business methods and make a success of life.

To the credit of the laboring men in Holland it can be said that they realize the good points of the bonding plan. They are anxious to improve their condition and do not self constituted alarmists, posing as the "laboring man's friend can frighten them with the cry of increased taxes.

A Factory Proposition.

LANSING, MICH., Jan 2, 1901.
MR. E. B. STANDART,
Holland, Michigan.

DEAR SIR:—The writer is interested in a stock company which is being organized for the purpose of manufacturing condensed milk.

We are looking for a location having a combination of advantages; viz:—a large milk and water supply and good shipping facilities.

Having heard that your town has voted a bond issue for the purpose of securing manufacturing industries, I take the liberty of asking if your council will consider a proposition for the location of a condensed milk factory; also to ask some questions concerning the milk and water supply and railroad privileges. I am satisfied that there is milk enough there, but do not know about the water supply. Have you an abundant supply of water and is it obtained from artesian wells and at what temperature?

I notice that you have only one railroad system, viz.: Pere Marquette. Do you have lake shipping?

Can you advise me whether the farmers in your vicinity devote special attention to winter dairying?

I will give you something of an idea of the business we propose to do, and if you think your council and citizens would be interested in the matter, I would be glad to take it up with them.

The company will erect and equip a factory with a capacity of 500 cases per day, which will require an outlay of about $75,000.00. It will employ 50 to 100 people paying therefor from $25,000.00 to $30,000.00 per year. It will use about 20,000,000 pounds of milk at a cost of $300,000.00 per year, which amount would be distributed to the farmers within a ten or fifteen mile radius of the town.

In view of the benefit to be derived from the distribution of so large a sum, we feel that we should receive a good, substantial bonus of, say, $10,000.00 and a suitable site.

We have before us a proposition from a nearby city offering $8,000.00 and a site. The city is well located as to railroads and has a good water supply. But the milk supply is not what we would desire.

I will not burden you with more this time, only to say that if your citizens would be interested to the extent of the bonus mentioned, I would like to hear from you regarding the matter.

Thanking you for your attention and trusting that the matter may develop something of mutual advantage, I am
Yours very respectfully,
S. L. Lockwood.

The above is very plain and right to the point and it indicates the necessity of bonding the city to raise money for purposes of this kind. It is likely that the industry proposed could be induced to come here for a smaller sum than is mentioned in the letter to Mr. Standart.

But even if we could get a factory of this kind, it would be a question whether or not it would be advisable to secure it. We have one of the finest creameries in the country here, The Crystal Creamery, owned by Chris. J. Lokker, and a condensed milk factory would probably interfere with its business. If it would interfere, the matter would have to be given exhaustive consideration before definite steps are taken.

Another phase of the question that might interest the farmer is this: If a factory of this kind should be established in Holland, are the dairy facilities sufficient to furnish 20,000,000 pounds of milk per year?

Sentence of Mrs. Enos Lawrence Commuted.

Mrs. Enos Lawrence, implicated with Ray Coates in the murder of her husband was the subject of Ex-Gov. Pingree's clemency last Monday. She was sentenced to 20 years in the Detroit House of Correction by Judge Padgham September 19, 1896. This sentence was commuted to ten years and as Mrs. Lawrence has served about four years and will get time off for good behavior she will be a free woman in about four years.

MRS. ENOS LAWRENCE,
The Woman whose sentence was Commuted.

The commutation of this sentence recalls one of the blackest crimes in the annals of Holland. Sunday afternoon April 19, 1896, while rowing and fishing with his wife on Black River, Fred Noble, when abreast the iron bridge, on the east side, noticed the feet of a human body protruding out of the water. The body was floated to shore and word was sent to Coroner Yates and deputy sheriff Albert Keppel. The condition of the body indicated that a murder had been committed and at the coroners inquest an alarming and astounding case developed.

Arend Visscher was prosecuting attorney at the time, Frank Van Ry was a deputy sheriff and B. D. Keppel was sheriff. All the machinery of the law was brought into play and after an exciting, laborious period of investigation and a memorable trial a harrowing tale was unfolded.

ENOS W. LAWRENCE,
The Murdered Husband.

The body was identified as that of Enos W. Lawrence who with his family lived on Seventh street. The household consisted of Enos, his wife, Alice M., their three children, aged twelve, seven and three years, and Raymond Coates, brother of Mrs. Lawrence.

The coroners inquest disclosed the fact that Mr. Lawrence had been murdered. The body was bound with ropes and was weighted with heavy iron. On the left side of the scalp were wounds, the skull was crushed and a strap was buckled around the neck and tightly drawn over the mouth, drawing the face downward toward the breast.

Suspicion pointed towards Ray Coates and Mrs. Lawrence and a complaint for murder against both parties was lodged with G. Van Schelven, who at that time was justice of the peace.

The preliminary examination before Justice Van Schelven and the subsequent trial before Judge Padgham disclosed that on the night of

RAYMOND COATES,
The Brother-in-Law and Murderer.

April 4, 1896 the guilty pair had murdered Lawrence in order that brother and sister might marry. It disclosed that they did get married under assumed names shortly after the crime was committed. That they fled to Kalkaska where they lived in a small shanty in the woods. Here they were captured and brought back to Holland.

The trial in the circuit court was a notable one. Attorney George A. Farr, of Grand Haven appeared for the respondents and prosecuting Attorney Visscher, assisted by Hon. G. J. Diekema appeared for the people. Coates was sentenced for life August 15, 1896 and Mrs. Lawrence was sentenced for 20 years Sept. 19, 1896.

Wright, Murderer of Dr. Thurber, Pardoned.

Gov. Pingree Monday commuted the sentence of Charles T. Wright, the wealthy lumberman who was sentenced to life imprisonment ten years ago for the murder of Dr. Frank E. Thurber husband of Mrs. F. E. Thurber of this city, at Aral or Otter Creek Benzie county this state. Wright's imprisonment is commuted to seventeen years and immediate parole granted. His term will expire May 1 next. There is a warrant out for the rearrest of Wright for the killing of Neal Marshall as soon as he is out of prison, so that he will be given until next May to prepare for his trial on that score.

The case is one of the most remarkable that has come before the governor, and has been urged on his attention for four years past. The governor's ground for action in the case is that he does not believe Wright got a fair trial, and he believes the story told by the prisoner concerning the killing.

Judge Aldrich, who sentenced Wright to prison gives the following brief account of the case:

"Charles Wright owned a sawmill and some timberland in Benzie county and was worth something like $100,000. He refused to pay taxes and Dr. Thurber and a supervisor named Marshall were sent to levy on his logs. He killed Marshall with a rifle and then Thurber engaged with him in a death struggle. During the struggle Wright placed a revolver to Thurber's side and sent a bullet through his heart. It is for the murder of Marshall that Wright is to be re-arrested."

Governor Pingree says the parole will give Wright six months in which to prepare for trial on the Marshall charge, at which trial he will be given an opportunity to demonstrate whether or not he is guilty of murder.

The people of Holland have been led to expect everything sensational and scandalous in the pardon line from Gov. Pingree. They had heard for weeks that Millionaire Wright would be pardoned before the new year. They were partially prepared for the news; but when it came, no previous preparation could allay the deep indignation felt by all. Sympathizing as they do with Mrs. Thurber, and believing that the deed of Wright was a malicious, despicable crime they denounce in unmistakable language the questionable act of Pingree.

D. B. K. Van Raalte Honored.

D. B. K. Van Raalte, president of the Holland City State bank, has been appointed by Governor Bliss as one of the members of the Board of Control of the Soldiers home.

A better appointment could not be made. Mr. Van Raalte is a veteran of the late civil war, also a member of the G. A. R. and is fitted by training and experience to fill a responsible position of this kind. He possesses rare executive ability, is fearless in the discharge of duty and possesses sound judgment. He has been a conspicuous figure in state politics for a number of years and has been elected to office several times. He attracted great attention at the state convention last summer. Throwing all his energy and personality into the fight he was one of Col Bliss' most able champions and his efforts contributed largely to the success of the governor.

The people of Holland are greatly pleased with his appointment and all agree that a better selection could not be made.

Don't fail to see the assortment of Fall and Winter goods the Lokker & Rutgers Co., are showing.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Rear Admiral Higginson, chief of the lighthouse board has submitted to the house of representatives a protest against the action of the house committee on appropriations for cutting out the item allowing $6000 for a pier range for signals at Holland harbor. He says that the pier range is necessary and that if the $6000 is not granted to build it, commerce will be endangered.

The death of Dr. W. Eefting occurred this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. Meenge, corner of Fifteenth street and Columbia avenue. The doctor was seized by an attack of lung fever about two weeks ago. He passed the crisis and was in a fair way to recover when a severe hemorrhage of the brain caused his death. Dr. Eefting was born in the Netherlands 57 years ago. Ten years ago he was appointed as veterinary surgeon to the East Indies by the Netherlands government. He held that position one year and then came to this country. He was in the stricken district in Texas during the Galveston flood and shortly after that catastrophe moved to Chicago. He arrived in Holland about 10 weeks ago accompanied by his wife. He is survived by a wife and seven children. The funeral will be held Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Meenge and at 2 at the First Reformed church, Rev. K. Van Goor officiating.

Stores That Will Close Early.

Beginning next Monday the following merchants will close their stores at six o'clock every evening excepting Tuesdays and Saturdays until March 1.

Du Mez Bros.
J. Wise.
John Vandersluis.
A. I. Kramer.
A. Steketee.
G. Van Putten.
Ardis & Warnock.

The experiment of early closing will be tried until March 1 and it is the hope of the clerks and others interested in the movement that it will prove so successful that the merchants mentioned above will continue to follow the plan and that others will join their ranks.

It is certainly a move in the right direction and the public should accord hearty support by limiting their purchases to the day time excepting on the nights that all of the stores are open.

Common Council.

The common council met Wednesday night pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by the Mayor. Present:—Mayor Brusse, Alds. Van denak, Kiels, Flieman, Kole, Luidens, Van Putten, Habermann, Riksen Westhoek and the city clerk. Gerrit Blok and ten others petitioned for an arch light at or near the intersection of Harrison avenue and Twentieth street.

Referred to the committee on lighting.

The committee on poor reported presenting the semi-monthly report of the director of the poor and said committee recommending for the support of the poor for the two weeks ending January 15, 1901, the sum of $37.50, and having rendered temporary aid to the amount of $54.00.

Allowed and warrants ordered issued.

The committee on fire department reported recommending that the bid of H. D. Edwards Company for fire hose, "Ren Cross," at 70 cents per foot, be accepted. Adopted all voting aye.

The committee on sidewalks reported recommending the construction of a sidewalk of both sides of Sixteenth street from Land street to First avenue.

Adopted and recommendations ordered carried out, and said sidewalk to be completed before Sept. 15, 1901.

The committee, consisting of Aldermen Westhoek, Habermann and Van den Tak appointed to examine the bridge on the Grand Haven road reported as follows: Gentlemen:—Your committee on bridges and culverts to whom was referred the communication from the Township Board, regarding the bridge on the Grand Haven road, beg leave to report, that they met with the township board of the Holland township, at the Grand Haven bridge and found that the spiles on the north side of the bridge are giving way, and in the opinion of your committee the bridge has settled on the northwest side about five inches, and they further found that the caps on the south side of the bridge are decaying. Whereas it is necessary to raise the bridge on both ends in order to repair the same we would recommend that the common council take the necessary steps to repair the south end of the abutment permanently just as soon as the weather permits. All of which is respectfully submitted.

The clerk reported survey of gravel pit by the surveyor and deed to said property and that the Mayor and Clerk had issued an order in favor of Boone and Riksen of $2200 in payment for said gravel pit pursuant to order of the common council. Accepted and deed ordered recorded.

The clerk reported that at a meeting of the board of public works held Jan. 2, 1901 the sum of $250 was ordered certified to the common council for payment, said amount to be paid to G. J. Van Duren to be paid the contractor, Simon Lieveuse upon said contractor filing with Mr. Van Duren receipts for labor bills. Allowed, and warrants ordered issued.

The following were appointed inspectors of election, A. Van Duren, Johan Thols, John Dykema, Geo. E. Kollen, and J. A. Kooyers.

The whole wheat and Graham bread faddists have recently received rather a black eye from the results of some experiments conducted by the corps of food experts of the agricultural department at Washington. The tests appear to have been fairly conducted, and the conclusion of the experts is that white bread yielded the highest percentage of digestible nutrition; that entire wheat bread, made from flour not containing the three outer layers of bran, ranked next; and that Graham bread, from the whole wheat grain, gave the lowest percentage of digestible nutrition. "This result," says the experts, "will be a great surprise to dyspeptics, among whom the eating of whole wheat or entire wheat bread has become a fad. Wheat flour containing part of the wheat bran were discovered to furnish the body more mineral matter than fine wheat flour.—Minneapolis Tribune.

A. I. KRAMER,

34 W. Eighth St., - Holland, Mich.

Capt. Adam Weckler, keeper of the Ludington life saving station, accompanied by his wife and two children arrived in the city today from St. Joseph. They will visit with Capt. Jensen, keeper of the Holland station until tomorrow, when they will leave for Grand Haven to visit Capt. Chas. Morton and family.

Grand Haven people think there is nothing the matter with their city, and perhaps there isn't, but when the meatmarket proprietors refuse to buy a dressed hog because it is too large something must be wrong. One day last week an Ottawa County farmer took a dressed hog weighing 400 pounds to that city to sell. He could not dispose of it, the meat dealers saying it was too large. He therefore sent it home with orders to divide it with the men on the place and the man who hauled it to town. It is stated that on another day last week, nine loads of wood were drawn to Grand Haven for sale and then taken home by the owners, who could not get even $1 per cord for good, hard stove wood. Grand Haven must a better market town to secure more industries and keep pace with Holland. - Allegan Gazette.

Mrs. Aart Schipper of No. 50 Woodlawn avenue, Grand Rapids, was stricken with cerebral apoplexy on Cherry street at about 4:30 Sunday afternoon, resulting in almost immediate death. Mrs. Schipper was about 60 years of age and had been attending services at the Third Reformed church, at the corner of Diamond and Hermitage streets, with her husband, and she was on her way home. The service which she attended had been conducted by her son, Henry Schipper who is a student at the Western Theological seminary of this city and he was also to have conducted the evening services at the same church. After the service the two old people had proceeded to Cherry street, where they had intended to board a car. There being no car in sight, they started to walk and had proceeded about a block west when Mrs. Schipper fell to the walk. Dr. Maurits, who lives near that place, was at once called to attend her, but before he reached the place she had expired. Coroner Luton was notified and the remains were taken to the residence where an examination showed that a blood vessel had burst in her head.

A LIST OF THE MOST NOTABLE DEATHS.

Statistics of the Losses of Life by Disaster, Epidemic and Famine—Most Conspicuous Wars—Record of Murders, Suicides, Lynchings—Donations and Bequests.

The list of notable dead for the last year of the century is a long one. Among the names probably the most conspicuous are the following: January 1, Karl Millocker, opera composer, Austria; January 4, Dimitri Grigorovich, novelist, Russia; January 12, James Martineau, philosophical and theological writer, England; January 20, John Ruskin, art critic and author, England; January 21, Richard D. Blackmore, novelist, England; February 20, Leander J. McCormick, manufacturer, United States; February 20, William H. Board, animal painter, United States; February 21, Dr. Leslie Keeley, gold cure discoverer, United States; March 7, Paul Jean Clays, marine painter, Belgium; March 9, Edward J. Phelps, ex-minister to Great Britain, United States; March 23, Gen. Pietrus Jacobus Joubert, Boer army, South Africa; April 1, St. George Mivart, scientist, England; April 5, Gen. Osman Pasha, Turkey; April 7, Frederick Church, landscape painter, United States; April 19, Jean Falcouere, sculptor, France; April 19, Heinrich Vogl, opera tenor, Germany; May 1, Michael Munkacsy, painter, Hungary; May 25, Giuseppe del Puente, opera baritone, United States; May 28, Sir George Grove, musical writer and connoisseur, England; June 5, Stephen Crane, story writer, United States; June 21, Count Mouravieff, minister of foreign affairs, Russia; June 22, Jasper F. Cropsey, landscape painter, United States; June 30, John W. Philip, rear admiral, U. S. N.; July 29, Humbert, king of Italy; August 5, Dr. William Liebknecht, socialist leader, Germany; August 5, Collis P. Huntington, financier, United States; August 16, John J. Ingalls, ex-senator, United States; October 20, Charles Dudley Warner, author and journalist, United States; October 21, John Sherman, statesman, United States; October 25, Sims Reeves, concert tenor, England; October 25, Friedrich Max Müller, philologist, England; November 22, Sir Arthur Sullivan, composer, England; November 27, Cushman K. Davis, statesman, United States; December 13, Michael G. Mulhall, statistician, England.

The following table gives the loss of life resulting from disasters of various kinds in this country during 1900, as reported by mail and telegraph:

Fire	1,843
Drowning	2,701
Explosion	739
Mines	829
Falling buildings, etc.	529
Cyclone and storms	523
Lightning	359

The loss of life by railroad accidents reported by mail and telegraph for 1900 was 4,109, as compared with 3,552 in 1899, 3,590 in 1898, and 2,764 in 1897. The number of seriously injured was 3,870, as compared with 3,388 in 1899, 2,616 in 1898, and 2,428 in 1897.

Epidemics and Famines.
The loss of life by epidemic diseases and famine during 1900 has increased greatly as compared with that in 1899. The ravages of the plague have been greatly reduced, the number of victims in 1900 being a little over 20,000, as compared with 220,000 in 1899. Cholera shows an increase, the deaths from it in 1900 being nearly 60,000, as compared with 2,000 in 1899. The large increase in the total was occasioned by the terrible famine in India. Five hundred thousand deaths have been reported, but the number of victims is unquestionably much greater. It is difficult to make any accurate list of statistics of this kind, but as far as reported the total for 1900 is 579,000, as compared with 310,000 in 1899 and 222,900 in 1898.

Wars.
The most conspicuous wars in 1900 have been those in China, South Africa and the operations attending the suppression of the revolt in the Philippine Islands against the authority of the United States. In addition to these there have been minor ones in other parts of Africa, and serious outbreaks in Mexico and Colombia. The list of casualties, including killed and wounded, for the year is as follows:

South Africa	24,104
China	50,913
Philippine Islands	6,650
Other parts Africa	5,583
Morocco	317
Colombia	5,070
Mexico	431
Bulgaria	478
Venezuela	240
Other parts Asia	131

Suicides.
Suicides in the United States are again upon the increase. The total number reported by mail and telegraph for the year is 6,755, as compared with 6,340 in 1899. There had been a decrease in the number since 1896, but the tide seems to have turned again. Of this total 4,446 were males and 2,309 females. Hitherto the proportion has been nearly five to one in favor of males. The figures for the year would indicate that the number of females committing suicide is rapidly increasing. Among professional men physicians still head the list, 38 having taken their lives, which is the same number as last year and six less than in 1898. During the year six clergymen, six lawyers, four journalists, seven persons engaged in the banking business, two actors, one artist and three college professors have also committed suicide. The causes of self-murder were as follows:

Dependancy	3,147
Unknown	2,364
Insanity	353
Liquor	162
Ill health	248
Domestic infelicity	212
Disappointed love	153
Business losses	64

Murders.
The total number of murders committed in the United States during 1900 shows a marked increase, being 8,275, as compared with 6,225 in 1899. The causes of these murders may be classified as follows:

Quarrels	4,623
Unknown	2,187
Jealousy	210
Liquor	200
By highwaymen	229
Resisting arrest	85
Highwaymen killed	85
Insanity	23
Self-defense	93
Strikes	58
Outrages	8
Riots	13
Infanticide	159

Hangings.
The number of legal executions in 1900 was 119, as compared with 121 in 1899, 109 in 1898, 129 in 1897, 122 in 1896, 132 in 1895, 132 in 1894, 126 in 1893 and 107 in 1892. There were 80 hanged in the north and 39 in the south, of whom 69 were whites, 58 blacks and 1 Chinaman. The crimes for which they were executed were: Murder, 113; rape, 5; arson, 1.

Lynchings.
The lynchings reported in 1899 were only 107, being much smaller than in any year since 1885, but in 1900 they show an increase in number and cruelty. Judge Lynch executed 15 during the year. These lynchings, 107 occurred in the south and 8 in the north. Of the total number 307 were negroes and 8 whites. The alleged crimes for which they were lynched were as follows: Murder, 20; rape, 18; attempted rape, 18; race prejudice, 10; assaulting whites, 5; threats to kill, 5; burglary, 4; attempt to murder, 4; informing, 2; robbery, 2; suspicion of murder, 2; complicity in murder, 2; unknown offenses, 2; suspicion of robbery, 1; no offense, 1; arson, 2; suspicion of arson, 1; aiding escape of a murderer, 1.

attempted rape, 18; race prejudice, 10; assaulting whites, 5; threats to kill, 5; burglary, 4; attempt to murder, 4; informing, 2; robbery, 2; suspicion of murder, 2; complicity in murder, 2; unknown offenses, 2; suspicion of robbery, 1; no offense, 1; arson, 2; suspicion of arson, 1; aiding escape of a murderer, 1.

Embezzlements.
The record of embezzling, forgery, defaulting and bank wreckage for 1900 shows a material increase over that of 1899, which was the smallest ever known in any year in the history of business since statistics were kept, which embraces a period of 23 years. The total is $4,660,134, as compared with $2,218,378 in 1899, $4,351,253 in 1898 and $11,248,064 in 1897. The losses are distributed as follows:

Stolen by public officials	$1,233,678
From banks	1,857,761
By agents	271,878
Forgeries	156,900
From loan associations	125,100
By postmasters	24,427
Miscellaneous stealing	990,350

Generous Givers.
The year 1899 was a record breaker in donations and bequests made to educational institutions, libraries, art museums, charities, churches and religious enterprises, and to cities for the public benefit and entertainment, the total reaching the colossal sum of $3,749,856. The year 1900 is a close second, the total being $32,461,504. In the preparation of these statistics no record has been kept of donations or bequests less than $1,000, since to collect them would have been a manifest impossibility. Of the total amount stated above there has been given to educational institutions the large sum of $34,302,444; to charities, $13,621,722; to churches, $8,900,000; to museums and art galleries, $2,145,333, and to libraries, $2,561,000.

CHINA ACCEPTS TERMS.

Earl Li Notifies the Peking Envoys That His Government Yields to the Powers' Note.

Peking, Dec. 31.—A message has been received by the foreign ministers from Li Hung Chang stating briefly that the Chinese government at Sian Fu has accepted the preliminary joint note of the powers submitted to it a few days ago. At the same time a request was made for an early audience between Li and the ministers for the purpose of discussing certain articles concerning which the Chinese government desires further information.

The emperor's instructions are to agree fully to the note, but to endeavor to get the best terms possible, particularly in the matter of limiting the number of the legation guards and also as to the places where these are to be located. The plenipotentiaries are instructed to endeavor to limit the number of army posts along the line of railway to as few as possible, and finally to request the powers not to destroy the forts, but merely to disarm them.

Washington, Dec. 31.—The report that the Chinese plenipotentiaries had been directed to sign the joint note is a source of satisfaction to officials here as indicating a disposition on the part of the Chinese government to heed the desire of the powers that negotiations shall be entered on at once and the present unsatisfactory condition of affairs terminated. The emperor, it was expected, would instruct his agents to obtain the best terms possible.

Berlin, Jan. 2.—A dispatch from Peking dated Monday, December 31, says that Su-Hai, the murderer of Baron von Ketteler, the German ambassador, was decapitated on the scene of his crime at three o'clock Monday afternoon.

Broke His Back.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 2.—J. P. Salm, for the past seven years city editor of the Volksblatt, of this city, was almost instantly killed Tuesday night by being thrown by a street car. He was 46 years old and has been connected with German newspapers in this city many years. Mr. Salm was boarding a car near his home to go to his office, and in some way was thrown backward, breaking his back in the fall.

Can't Come Just Yet.

Brussels, Jan. 2.—Replying to an address from the American Boer committee, Mr. Kruger expresses a desire to visit the United States, but said he must postpone the visit on account of the affection of the eyes from which he is suffering.

Mail Ponch Stolen.

Wyandotte, Mich., Dec. 29.—The Michigan Central station at Wyandotte was the scene of a bold robbery some time Thursday night, when a mail pouch containing $100,000 in negotiable paper, checks and money was stolen from the waiting room.

Gets a Fortune.

Laporte, Ind., Dec. 28.—Mrs. Ada Hill Street, wife of Julian Street, a member of the staff of a New York city newspaper, has come into possession of a fortune valued at $350,000, left by her father, John Hill.

Three Die by Fire.

Dubois, Pa., Dec. 28.—The residence of Mrs. Harriger, near Brookville, Pa., was destroyed by fire Thursday and the mother and two daughters, aged five and seven years, burned to death.

Michigan's New Governor.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 2.—At high noon Tuesday Aaron T. Bliss, of Saginaw, was inaugurated governor of Michigan on the front steps of the state capitol building.

Over a Hundred Drowned.

London, Dec. 29.—A dispatch says that the Japanese training ship Tsukushima Maru was lost with all hands, numbering 121, near Namadzu, Japan.

Loss by Galveston Flood.

Galveston, Tex., Jan. 2.—A statement of the property losses in Galveston by the storm of September 8 shows that it aggregates $17,058,275.

Fatal Runaway.

Flint, Mich., Dec. 28.—In a runaway accident here Dr. George W. Howland was killed and G. H. Quigley, a prominent business man, fatally injured.

Sails for Manila.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 2.—The United States transport Thyra sailed for Manila with 550 horses and a cargo for the army in the Philippines.

OUTLOOK GOOD FOR PEACE

Conditions in the Philippines Show
Decided Improvement in the Last Few Months.

GRIP OF THE INSURGENTS IS BROKEN.

They Are Kept Constantly on the Move by American Troops—Progress Made on Educational Lines—Commission Completes General Municipal Government Bill.

Manila, Jan. 2.—The new year finds the Philippines approaching peace. Central Luzon is practically subdued, the roads are open, and the inhabitants prosperous. The northern part of the island has been the revolutionary center since the election in the United States, but the troops there, aided by 2,000 reinforcements, are rapidly quieting that part of the island. Even the Ladrone, who are meeting with no support, are surrendering or confining their operations to isolated districts.

Cities Are Quiet.

The chief cities of the Island of Panay are quiet, though the residents are secretly supporting the insurgents in the interior. The severe policy inaugurated by Gen. Hughes of arresting conspiring or suspected influential inhabitants and confiscating their goods has broken the insurgent grip.

The other islands of the Visayan group show improvement. Civil government is being established and schools are being opened.

Troops Are Active.

There is unprecedented activity everywhere among the 477 American posts. Scouting parties and small expeditions are striking rapidly day and night. The insurgents are kept constantly on the move and they seldom have the opportunity of resting twice in the same place.

Gen. MacArthur's proclamation is being felt. Prisoners are accumulating in Manila, where every available building is being used as a jail. Other jails are planned for the prisoners captured in the various provinces.

Heavy Insurgent Losses.

During the last six days of tremendous activity 107 rebels have been killed and 210 captured, including seven officers. One hundred and twenty rifles were captured.

Undoubtedly the bottom of the insurrection is dropping out, but an early reduction of the army would be fatal. For a long time disturbances are inevitable.

The department of education reports splendid progress. Larger buildings are needed. The attendance has increased 35 per cent, since September.

Rule for Cities.

The Philippine commission has completed the preparation of a general municipal government bill. The provisions, in many respects, are similar to Gen. MacArthur's order establishing municipal governments and authorizing elections; but they are much more elaborate, covering all details. The most important new feature is the establishment of land taxation and doing away with the sedula (or head tax). A feature new to the Philippines is that the revenue from land taxes is to be expended where it is collected. The manner of holding elections and the duties of officers are prescribed.

New Year's at Manila.

Manila, Jan. 2.—New Year's day was ushered in here with the booming of cannon and the playing of American national airs by the bands. Gen. MacArthur's morning reception was a brilliant success. The palace had been beautifully decorated for the occasion, and 3,000 persons of all nationalities entered the grounds to pay their respects to the American commander. Many Filipinos called and mingled with the people of other countries and enjoyed the general feeling of good fellowship.

Welcome the Century.

Washington, Jan. 1.—The opening of the twentieth century was welcomed and recognized all over the country, and in many churches appropriate services and the ringing of bells and chimes at midnight marked the departure of 1900 and the advent of 1901.

Dies of His Wounds.

Washington, Dec. 31.—Samuel McDonald, who one week ago shot and killed F. H. Morris, auditor for the war department, died Saturday morning at the emergency hospital from the self-inflicted wounds he received at the time of the murder.

Three Drowned.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 29.—James Atkins, his wife, Sarah, and Lou Cunningham were drowned in the Cumberland river near Celina, Tenn. They were crossing the stream in a small boat, which struck a snag and sank.

Money for Schools.

Washington, Jan. 1.—The commissioner of education says the total amount of money now expended on the common schools of the United States approximates $200,000,000.

Odell Is Governor.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 2.—Benjamin B. Odell, Jr., was yesterday inaugurated governor of the state of New York. The inauguration was one of the most elaborate ever held.

Hits the Mayor.

Chicago, Jan. 1.—The grand jury in its final report on vice in the city arraigns Mayor Harrison and police officials for not enforcing city ordinances.

Mortgage Sale.

DEFAULT HAVING BEEN MADE IN THE conditions of payment of a certain mortgage made and executed by Dirk Strowenans and Trientje Strowenans, his wife, of the City of Holland, County of Ottawa and State of Michigan parties of the first part to Tobias B. Koffers of the same place, party of the second part, on the fourth day of March, A. D. 1876, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Ottawa County, Michigan, on the fourteenth day of July A. D. 1885 in Liber 81 of Mortgages on page 325, on which mortgage there is claimed to be due at the time of this notice the sum of Seven Hundred Fifty dollars ($750) besides an attorney fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) provided for by law, and no suit or proceedings having been instituted at law or in equity to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part of it, and the power of sale contained in said mortgage having become operative by reason of the non-payment of the amount due thereon.

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained and theretofore in such cases made and provided said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale at public vendue of the mortgaged premises, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due on said mortgage, with said costs of foreclosure and sale, including said attorney fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00). Said sale to take place at the north outer door of the Ottawa County Court House in the city of Grand Haven, Ottawa County, Michigan, (that being the place where the Circuit Court for the County of Ottawa is held) on Monday the 25th day of February A. D. 1901 at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day.

The said mortgaged premises to be sold being described in said mortgage as follows: All that certain piece or parcel of land lying and situated in the City of Holland, in the County of Ottawa and State of Michigan, and described as Lots numbered (7) and (8) in Block designated "C" and Lot numbered five (5) in Block designated "F," all in the West Addition to the City of Holland in accordance to the map thereof of record in the Register's office for Ottawa County Michigan.

Dated November 24 A. D. 1900.
TOMAS B. KOFFERS, Mortgagee
G. J. DIEKEMA, Attorney for Mortgagee.

Mortgage Sale.

Default having been made in the conditions of payment of a certain mortgage made and executed by Dirk Strowenans and Trientje Strowenans, his wife, of the City of Holland, County of Ottawa and State of Michigan, parties of the first part to the Ottawa County Building & Loan Association of Holland, Michigan, a corporation party of the second part dated the Eleventh day of May A. D. 1896 and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Ottawa County Michigan, on the 14th day of May A. D. 1896 in Liber 47 of Mortgages on page 468 on which mortgage there is claimed to be due at the time of this notice the sum of nine hundred three dollars sixty-four cents ($93.64) besides an attorney fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) provided for by law and no suit or proceedings having been instituted at law or in equity to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part of it, and the whole of the principal sum of said mortgage together with all arrearages of interest thereon having become due and payable by reason of default in the payment of interest and installments of principal and fines imposed according to the bylaws of said Association or said mortgage on the days when the same became due and payable, and the non-payment of such interest installments and fines being in default for the space of more than six months after the same became due and payable, wherefore, under the conditions of said mortgage, the whole amount of the principal sum of said mortgage with all arrearages of interest thereon, at the option of said party of the second part became due and payable immediately thereafter; and the said Ottawa County Building & Loan Association of Holland, Michigan, hereby declares its election and option to consider the whole amount of said principal sum of said mortgage due and payable.

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained and the statute in such cases made and provided said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale at public vendue of the mortgaged premises or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due on said mortgage, with said costs of foreclosure and sale including said attorney fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) Said sale to take place at the north outer door of the Ottawa County Court House in the City of Grand Haven, Ottawa County, Michigan, (that being the place where the Circuit Court for the County of Ottawa is held), on Monday the 18th day of February A. D. 1901 at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day.

The said mortgaged premises to be sold being described in said mortgage as follows: All that certain piece or parcel of land situated and being in the City of Holland in the County of Ottawa and State of Michigan, and described as follows: Lot number seven (7) in Block "C" in the West Addition to said City according to the recorded plat thereof, except the East forty-one and a half (41 1/2) feet thereof which has heretofore been released from said mortgage by said Ottawa County Building & Loan Association.

TWENTY-FOUR O'CLOCK.

A Time-Keeping System That Is Strongly Urged by the Railroads.

According to a decree recently issued in Spain the hours will be there counted, after January 1, from one to twenty-four each day, beginning at midnight. The government offices, the telegraph, telephone, railroad and steamship lines have been directed to observe the new method. On this continent it may already be seen in the time-tables of the Canadian Pacific railroad, says the Youth's Companion.

This change has long been urged in this country. Some years ago, when the railroads brought about the present system of "standard time," or, as it used to be called, "railroad time," they desired to inaugurate the 24-hour scheme, too. The change was too radical to be popular, and rather than imperil the success of the other part of the programme, the railroads abandoned it. Time-tables are now usually printed with the afternoon hours in heavy type, and morning hours in light, and this device eliminates much confusion.

If one had nothing to do but to travel by rail and study time-tables, the proposed change would be eminently desirable; but for 99 of every 100 acts and appointments outside of those connected with the railroads, there is no confusion arising from the present system. When we read that a lecture is to begin at eight o'clock, no one thinks it is to begin in the morning; and if Mary Minns should write to say that she will drive over at 11 o'clock, almost anyone would expect to see her in the forenoon, even if she did not add "a. m."

In astronomical observatories the 24-hour system is already in use, except that in them the day begins at noon instead of midnight.

Grief Over Its Dead Mate Causes
Its Own Death by Exhaustion.

Two English sparrows were found dead side by side in a field, near Smith Pond, Cherry Valley, Mass., by a party of gunners. One of the birds had been dead for some time, but the other expired while the hunters were within eyesight, and the men say it was a case of suicide, reports the New York Sun. The attention of the men was first attracted by the distressing cries of the second bird which was on the shore of the pond. The men drew nearer and watched. The sparrow was seen to put its head under water and allow it to remain there for a time. It repeated this ducking several times at short intervals.

The last time the sparrow's head remained under water longer than before and the men drew closer, only to find that the bird had hopped to the side of its mate and lay there expiring. The hunters said it was a clear case of suicide. They are men of wide experience in field and forest, and in all their trips they said they had never seen a bird show such attachment as was disclosed by the sparrow which died of its own desire.

Constable Lineas Perkins, of New Castle, Pa., a chicken fancier, has chanced upon a new species of fowl. His chickens, the yards being near an asbestos works, have been feeding on siftings of asbestos. Some time ago the grocers began refusing to buy his eggs, as their customers said they would not cook well, and finally Perkins and his family made the remarkable discovery that the eggs are not the least affected by fire, and it is impossible to ever fry or boil them.

It seems that the eggs have retained the remarkable fire proof qualities of the asbestos the chickens have eaten. This is shown in the covering on a brood of young chickens which were hatched a few weeks ago. This season's crop is different from everything ever produced before. In place of feathers nearly every chick in a flock of over 100 is covered with a down similar to asbestos scrapings. No feathers have appeared on any of the chickens. Fanciers never saw anything like these fowls.

Perkins is pleased at the popularity his flock is attracting, but he says it is hurting his business, as he cannot market the eggs of his brood. This week Perkins will ship some of the flock to the Smithsonian Institution at Washington, to have the scientists give their opinion upon them. He has received an offer for the entire flock from a museum proprietor of Cincinnati, but refuses to sell until scientific men pronounce upon the fowls.—Philadelphia North American.

Grand Haven Delirious.

The bonding plan has made Grand Haven delirious with joy, as the following from the report of the proceedings of the mythical Pessimistic Club published by the Grand Haven Press will show:

"Resolved, that the municipality now bearing the title Muskegon be permitted to unite with us as the Thirty-Ninth Ward of Greater Grand Haven, provided that 'Charley' Hackley gives a bond in the sum of one hundred million dollars to remain in the game."

Postmaster Hutty stated that John E. Post had asked him if, when Greater Grand Haven enlarged her shipping facilities, she would not be good enough to extend her docks to Holland."

"Holland? Holland? Where's Holland?" asked Right Hand Supporter Geo. W. McBride. "I came to this county a year after the close of the Revolutionary war, but this is the first time I've heard of a 'Holland' around here."

Mr. Hutty informed Mr. McBride that the new U. S. Postal Guide showed a postoffice by that name in southwestern Ottawa county.

"Is it on a railroad?"
"I think not; it's on a Star Postal Route."
"Star Route, me oil!" interjected Mayor O'Brien. "Will ye please tell me, Mishter Hutty, ef onybody iver got to hiven by way av Holland?"

"His Honor's remark was ruled out of order and a committee of three appointed to identify Holland before formal action on Mr. Post's verbal request can be taken.

A British Christmas In The Transvaal.

The following poem composed by Supervisor Geo. E. Souter will serve as a reminder of General Buller's joke regarding his Christmas dinner at Pretoria last year. It was received too late for publication during the Christmas holidays. In response to many inquiries we will state that the author of the following poem contributed the poem entitled "Spion Kop" and the one entitled, "The County Board of 99," which appeared in former issues of the NEWS. By the way, Mr. Souter is 61 years of age instead of 63 as stated last week.

'Twas just before the Christmas tide
About a year ago,
The British met disaster
With an armored train you know.

Then General Buller made a toast,
That yuletide he would hold
Away off in Pretoria
In spite of Burgers' bold.

And off he started then and there
To carry out his plan.
He crossed Tugela's torrent,
And met Joubert's Van.

Who, there mid shrieking bullets,
Hurled his army back again,
Across the wild Tugela,
Again and then again.

But when the Tommies all got there,
Not less than ten to one,
They started for Pretoria.
Ah no, not on the run.

It cost them many weeks of time,
A hundred thousand lives,
To overcome a handful of
Those Burgers and there wives.

At last they took Johannesburg,
That city on the rand,
So rich in gold and diamonds,
Well into pirates' hands.

But now they're at Pretoria,
And all the country side,
In which to eat their pudding
This coming Christmas tide.

Bobbs said the war was over,
Not many weeks ago,
And he went home to England
Why just to tell them so.

But how about Delury,
Dewet and Botha too?
And all those other leaders
Who annoy the British so.

They keep the British thinking.
Of just how far they're got.
When driving General Clements out
Away from Noo-igedacht.

They've captured General Botha
And killed him too you know;
But still he hangs upon their trail
And strikes a telling blow.

Dewet, they've had him cornered,
More times than we can tell,
But now he has cut a passage through
And sent them off pell mell.

Oh no that Christmas pudding,
Will not taste very good,
Nor will the hearts be merry,
That caused such plan of blood.

It's mixed with gall and bitterness,
And seasoned with despair,
That they can ever conquer them,
Those Dutch, who do and dare.
