The report that has been going the rounds that our city barber shops are doing business on Sunday is branded by the barbers as being absolutely false, and they say this story has no doubt been put in circulation by some jealously inclined barber.

The new Masonic temple in Allegan, which has been in course of construction there since August, 1903, is completed and was dedicated yesterday. The building and grounds cost $20,000, which is all paid. The building occupies the site of the old Chaffee house, burned 10 years ago, and is built of brick and Waverly stone.

The big furniture exposition is open at Grand Rapids and our local factories all have their displays set. The Bay View and West Michigan exhibit in the Masonic Temple on Ionia St., the Ottawa in Pythian Temple on Ionia St. and the Holland in Exhibition building. The Wolverine Specialty Co. of Zeeland also has an exhibit in Masonic Temple.

Light house keeper Van Regenmorter has placed a one inch wire cable to the leaning light house, so that if it fell in Lake Michigan it would be kept from drifting away. Considerable difficulty was experienced in this work as part of the pier on the shore side of the light house had also been torn away and a temporary walk had to be constructed. The other end of the strong cable has been made fast to that part of the pier which remained in tact.

Mrs. I. J. Smith, aged 30, died Tuesday morning at 379 Central avenue, after a year's illness from tuberculosis. The family moved here two months ago from Ganges. The surviving relatives besides husband and son are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Kibby of Ganges, a sister, Mrs. C. H. Hemmings of Chicago, and two brothers, Buel and Claudi Kibby of Ganges. The funeral was held at 8 o'clock this morning, Rev. A. T. Luther officiating at the residence, the remains were taken to Ganges.

Tuesday evening the Saugatuck Lighting and Power Co. were granted a franchise to maintain and operate an electric light or gas plant in Douglas. The company also secured from Douglas a street lighting contract, by which the village agrees to take 10 arc lights. This contract gives the company a total of 17 arc lights in Saugatuck and Douglas besides 17 pole lights of 50 candle power each. Machinery and material for construction on the Saugatuck plant have already been ordered and the work will soon be started in earnest. Chas. A. Floyd and B. Van Raalte of Holland are the promoters and heaviest stock holders. Light for the twin cities will be furnished from one power and light station located at Saugatuck.

Jessie starts in with 41 boarders at the county jail.

The Holland Sugar Co. will close this season's run in about a week. The farmers have through hauling and the tail enders are coming in on car. This has been the best year for both factory and farmer during the existence of this plant.

The third edition of the "Hope church cook book" is being issued by the Ladies' Aid society of that church. The recipes have made the contributors noted for their skill in the culinary art, and the collection is larger than in the former editions. The advertising patronage indicates the liberality of local merchants.

Mrs. Lean Smith, aged 40, passed away Wednesday afternoon at her home, 175 West Fourteenth street, death being caused by an affection of the lungs. She had resided here 14 years, coming from Allegan. Six children, Miss Leona, Frank, Bert, Fred, George and Carl, survive. The funeral will be held on Friday at 2 o'clock from the M. E. church, Rev. A. T. Luther officiating.

The Crosby Transportation company of Grand Haven has engaged the tug Hausler of South Chicago to keep the harbor at Grand Haven open this winter, and it is expected here before the close of the week. The boat lines operating out of Grand Haven have joined in protesting to the government against the present condition of the harbor, with a view of having the harbor mouth dredged out in the early spring. While four boats are running and are having no trouble in making the harbor, the channel at the entrance is unusually narrow.

The company is permitted to operate box cars through the village in trains, not to exceed three cars in each train, at any hour of the day. In return for these privileges the railway company agrees to remove its high tension feed wires from the main street and replace the double track at the east end of the village with a single track. This freight franchise runs for eight years, and is made conditional that the company remove its high tension wire and poles from main street and section of double track by July 1, next. Deputy Sheriff Overweg has put in a Citizens Phone No. 675.

G. W. Kooyers has purchased a lot in the Steketee plat on West Sixteenth street.

Week of prayer for the reformed churches has been observed in the city this week.

Peter Brusse will move into his handsome new residence, Thirteenth street and Central avenue, the latter part of the week.

W. P. Manning has been called to Big Rapids by the death of his mother. The funeral will be held this afternoon.

The students of the Academy at Ceda Grove, Wis., placed the portrait of Rev. J. J. VanZanten in a fine frame and donated the same to the Academy to be placed in the recitation room. It will be remembered that Rev. J. J. VanZanten is the founder of the Academy.—Sheboygan Herald.

N. Bosch and John Boda, proprietors of the West Michigan Tool works have launched into another enterprise which will be run in connection with the present plant. They have started the manufacture of wood works machinery and the prospects indicate a ready market for their goods. This means more industry added to Holland's manufacturing list.

Ranson S. Jones formerly of this city, but for several years living at Virginia Park, fell from a chair in the office of the Interurban car barn dead. The cause of his death was heart failure. Coroner Mastenbroek was taken to the park on a special car but did not deem it necessary to hold an inquest. The deceased seemed apparently in good health and was joking with the employees of the barn when suddenly he fell forward without a groan. Mr. Jones was 63 old and leaves a wife and one son Cassius Jones. The funeral was held this morning at Virginia Park, Rev. J. T. Bergen officiating.

G. Van Schelven and W. H. Beach, members of the harbor board assisted by Hon. G. J. Diekema, J. S. Morton of the Graham & Morton Transportation and other business men had a conference with Wm. Alden Smith and Colonel Adams in charge of the harbors in the 5th district. The ultimate result was that all should bend their energies towards doing what they could for Holland harbor and the sense of the meeting was that the piers should be extended as that is the only way to make a harbor of this port. We hope that this conference will bring results that are lasting.

The prospects are that this session of congress will not pass a river and harbors bill. The committee on rivers and harbors are considering a bill for some time with a view to making an early report, but among the leaders in the house there is a disposition to let the bill go over for this session on account of the condition of the treasury. Cutting off of a river and harbor bill will be in line with the determination of the house leaders to adhere to a policy of strict economy in government expenditures. If this should occur it would place Holland in a predicament as well as the other harbors along the shore especially so after the heavy damage done by the recent storm. Besides dredging Grand River will have to be started over again.

OUR NEIGHBORS

Overisel.

The eight young men who were arrested in Overisel two weeks ago for using indecent language in the presence of women and children, appeared before Justice Hicks last Tuesday and changed their pleas to guilty. Frank Loedeman, who had previously been fined for disturbing a religious meeting, was sentenced to sixty days in the county jail. Stephen Wolter and Henry Arends were each fined $15 and $9.95 costs which they paid. Henry Winkel each paid $5 fine and $9.95 costs. Wolters and Arends would have been sent to jail for sixty days had it not been for the serious sickness of the former's mother. All who paid their fines were thankful to get out of the difficulty so easily. It now remains to be seen if these toughs have really learned anything from this experience.

One of the Overisel sportsmen was recently seen in our woods lugging a poor stray Cotswold lamb which he had mistaken for a cotton-tail rabbit.

Arend Viascher, Geo. W. Browning and wives sold to B. Riksen 256 acres of section 36, Overisel, no consideration.

Wm. Borgman and wife to Bernardus Volmarie part of section 6, Heath $100.

The Rev. and Mrs. A. Vanden Berg of Overisel were Holland visitors Tuesday and while there made the News office a pleasant call.

A. Lahuis of Zeeland gave a lecture on his trip to Jerusalem in the First Reformed Church last Friday. The proceeds went to missions and $477.50 was contributed.

Graafschap.

The young people of the Reformed church of Graafschap surprised Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Kuisenga last evening. Friday evening being the evening set for the weekly Bible class, the pastor was about to start for the church, when forty-five of the young people marched in and took possession of the house. They had hardly become seated when a few of the young men carried in a beautiful side board, the gift of the young people as a token of love and esteem for their pastor and his wife. Rev. Kuisenga, in a few well chosen words thanked them for the beautiful gift. The evening was spent very pleasantly with games and music. Candy and fruit were served by the young ladies of the congregation. Rev. and Mrs. Kuisenga have won the hearts of the young people and the hearty cooperation of both pastor and people have accomplished much for the good of the church.

Miss Gertrude Brinkman is visiting relatives here this week.

Hamilton.

Dr. Rigterink has purchased a fine piano of Al Meyer of Holland.

Tuesday afternoon, while Florence Kolvoord and Laura Crandall were at the meat-market, the latter met with a serious accident. They were bothering Mr. Wilson by pulling the wrapping twine and in trying to prevent them getting the twine the second time he reached after it with a knife in his hand and struck the girl's hand cutting a gash three inches long and an inch deep. Dr. Rigterink sewed the wound and it is doing nicely.

Born to Mr. Mrs. G. H. Slenk—a son.

West Olive.

Pio, Bobo and Nellie, fox, coon and dog respectively, the property of A. Fridrich, owner of a country place Fridrich Point West Olive, Mich., dwell in peace and playful harmony in a cage in a La Salle street window. They are young though and don't know any better. Every morning their antics attract crowds, who come to see the three share their food and playfully scrap over its division.

Mr. Fridrich brought the pets from his country place on Pigeon river, a few miles in from the Lake Michigan shore. The fox, Pio, is a pretty specimen 11 months old; Bobo, the coon, is 6 and Nellie, a buff Scotch terrier, is 5. The three companions were brought up together from their infancy, hence their friendliness for one another.

On the Fridrich farm there are all kinds of animals, wild and domestic and the old trapper, who has charge has captured two wildcats, four owls, an American eagle and ten fox squirrels, some of which Mr. Fridrich plans bringing to Chicago to exhibit in his window cage.

In the past two months over 400 muskrats have been caught on the farm and nineteen mink were trapped last month.

There are over 100 Belgian hares on the farm,—Chicago Record Herald.

Well, West Olive, where is your mild weather?

Olive Center school opened again Tuesday morning. Miss Brownson the teacher returned Monday from her home in Grand Haven, where she spent the holidays.

The Owens school opened Monday. During vacation a new floor had been laid in the school house. Messrs. James Dyk and J. Vander Meulen did the work.

Christmas day Miss Bessie Watson and George Maynard were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Watson. Mr. Owens our Justice, performed the ceremony.

January 2nd, Miss Ethel Fellows was married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fellows, to Mr. John Hamstra one of our hustling young men.

We are always glad to hear from our West Olive friend. Go home often and send in all you can.

Removes the microbes which impoverish the blood and circulation. Stops all trouble that interferes with nutrition. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. 35 cents Tea or tablet form. Haan Bros.

Filmore.

Henry B. Tellman, a saw filer in the employ of the Langeland Manufacturing Co., was found dead at the company's mill Saturday a few minutes after he started work.

Mr. Tellman was 67 years old, having been born in the Netherlands July 29, 1837. He came to Muskegon with his parents in his early childhood. The family first lived in Spring Lake, then moved to Overisel, Mich., then to Muskegon. After several years here Mr. Tellman went to Filmore, Mich., and ran a sawmill. The mill was destroyed by an explosion about 24 years ago and shortly afterward Mr. Tellman returned to Muskegon. A widow, four daughters and two sons survive. Egbert Tellman of Overisel is a brother.—Muskegon Chronical.

New Richmond.

It was in 1861 that John B. Vosburg, then a lad slightly under 17 years of age, left his home in New Richmond, Allegan county, to become a soldier.

After his enlistment he wrote two letters home, but afterward grew careless and ceased to write. Feeling a hamed of his conduct, at the close of the war he journeyed westward and located at Alma, Gordo, New Mexico. Here he settled down and was married to a native woman of that territory, who died five or six years ago.

Since the death of his wife he has made several efforts to locate members of his family, and with that in view directed several letters to his old home in New Richmond, but as they remained unanswered, he concluded that they must all be dead.

While in New Mexico his occupation was a cook, or chief. A few weeks ago, while in the employ of a leading restaurant or hotel in that city a stranger, learning his name, stated that he knew a party in Chicago whose name was Frank Vosburg. "Why that was the name of my brother," said John. "I wonder if it can be my brother Frank." The reunion of the brothers resulted.

Zeeland.

Martin Zoutendam died Saturday at Zeeland, after two years' illness of consumption. The funeral will be held Wednesday.

Mrs. Gilbert Smith of Zeeland, mother of Cornelius Van Haften and William Van Haften of Muskegon, died Saturday. She was 79 years of age. Her illness was one of three weeks' duration.

The big hill near Zeeland east of the brick yard, has been greatly improved by Holland township and it is no longer the bane to farmers hauling heavy loads that it was for years. The road has been filled in and the steep grade greatly reduced. The sand used was procured from the Zeeland Brick company, it having been removed from the clay beds owned by the company. The improvement is marked.

P. F. Boonstra, associated with his father in the clothing business, president of the Wolverine Novelty company and agent for the American Express company has purchased a half interest in the Zeeland Cheese company. He has severed his connection with all his other business enterprises and will devote his entire time to his newly acquired interests. The business of the Zeeland Cheese Co. has expanded greatly within the past few years. The company is now making 13 varieties of cheese.

If you haven't time to prepare Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, it is now made in tablet form also. Get a package already to use. Makes you well; keeps you well. 35 cents. Haan Bros.

Impoverished Soil

Impoverished soil, like impoverished blood, needs a proper fertilizer. A chemist by analyzing the soil can tell you what fertilizer to use for different products.

If your blood is impoverished your doctor will tell you what you need to fertilize it and give it the rich, red corpuscles that are lacking in it. It may be you need a tonic, but more likely you need a concentrated fat food, and fat is the element lacking in your system.

There is no fat food that is easily digested and assimilated as

AN AWFUL HORROR ON THE OHIO RIVER

BOILERS OF BIG TOWBOAT EXPLODE OPPOSITE CITY OF HUNTINGTON, W. VA.

Only Eight Men of the Twenty-Eight on Board Are Accounted for, and These are Badly Injured—The Other Twenty Probably Lost.

Huntington, W. Va., Jan. 4.—One of the most horrible disasters on the Ohio river in years occurred almost opposite this city at 11 o'clock Tuesday night. The two big towboats Defender and Victor, owned by the Pittsburg Towboat company, were returning to Pittsburg from Cincinnati, where they had just delivered large fleets of coal. The Defender's boilers blew up just above the local wharf here and the report was heard for miles. In a very few minutes the big steamer was a mass of flames, the fire even spreading to the 20 barges in tow. The report awakened the inhabitants of the city and soon every available craft was en route to the scene to aid in rescue.

Death List May Be Heavy.
The number of dead at this hour is not known, but out of a crew of about 28 only eight have been accounted for, and they are all seriously injured. The only dead body yet recovered and identified is that of Thomas Duffy, of Pittsburg, a fireman. Another dead body is that of a fireman from Corryopolis, Pa., name unknown.

Many Injured.
The boat was in charge of Capt. James Woodruff, of Pittsburg. He was hurled into the river by the explosion, but was later picked up by a rescuing party and taken to the Ohio shore. His injuries are not serious.

Capt. Woodruff was taken across the river by some boys who picked him up and is now in a private house at Bradrick.

Robert Holland, of Pittsburg, and Joseph Moore, of Oakland, Pa., were picked up by the rescuing parties and are now in the city hospital. They are horribly injured and can give no details of the accident. An engineer's young son is said to have been killed, and one woman, who was aboard, name unknown, is horribly injured.

The steamer burned for over an hour and the smouldering hulk settled down just above the city wharftoat. The victims recovered from the disaster were taken to the different hospitals and private houses and are in such a condition that nothing of an intelligent nature regarding the occurrence can be had from them.

INAUGURATED.

Govs.-Elect Warner, of Michigan, and La Follette, of Wisconsin, Take Oath of Office.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 3.—In the presence of an unusually large concourse of citizens gathered from all sections of the state, Gov.-elect Fred M. Warner, and the other state officials elected last November were inducted into office Monday afternoon. The exercises, which were held in representative hall, were presided over by ex-Gov. John T. Rich. The oath of office was administered by Chief Justice Moore, of the supreme court, who made an address.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 3.—Robert M. La Follette was inaugurated governor of Wisconsin for a third term Monday and the following state officers for a second term: Lieutenant governor, J. O. Davidson; secretary of state, Walter L. Houser; attorney general, L. M. Sturdevant; treasurer, John J. Kempt; insurance commissioner, Zeno M. Host. The inauguration was preceded by a military parade. No inaugural address was given. Instead Gov. La Follette will send a message to the legislature next week.

MRS. CAMPBELL INJURED.

Well-Known English Actress Fractures Her Knee Cap—Tour of America Abandoned.

Philadelphia, Jan. 4.—Mrs. Patrick Campbell, the English actress, fractured a knee cap Tuesday night, the result of a fall while entering a carriage to go to the Broad street theater. She was removed to the University of Pennsylvania hospital and it will be two months, the doctors say, before she will be able to walk. The remainder of her American tour will be abandoned.

Two Firemen Killed.
Chicago, Dec. 31.—Two firemen lost their lives and two more were badly hurt Friday night while working at a fire that destroyed the Union Traction repair shop at Washington boulevard and Fortieth avenue. A spectator also was injured. The money loss was $50,000.

Production of Gold Coins.
Philadelphia, Jan. 4.—The largest production of gold coins in the history of the Philadelphia mint was that of the calendar year just closed. The total number of gold coins minted was 6,996,957, with a value of $129,144,423.

High School Burned.
Ann Arbor, Mich., Jan. 2.—The high school building in this city was entirely destroyed by fire early Saturday. The loss is $110,000 and the insurance $40,000. The school records were saved.

Death of a Cardinal.
Rheims, Jan. 2.—Cardinal Benedict Mary Langenieux, archbishop of Rheims, is dead, aged 80 years. He was created a cardinal in 1886.

The Right To Petition.

Submission to authority, express or implied, is one of the cardinal requirements in the make up of men who are placed in a position where great issues depend upon strict discipline. It would not do for a soldier to question the right of a commanding officer to order him to a decisive charge even though the charge might be fraught with danger that meant death. The same rule applies to men in the navy. Likewise it applies to men in the life saving service. If a schooner shows the flag of distress and the captain says, "to the wreck boys, give way together," they must go without question, though the waves roar an invitation to a watery grave. In the line of duty men under authority must generally blindly obey. But outside of the line of duty they should not be held to an arbitrary accounting. A case in point has arisen in the life saving service on account of the new rule recently promulgated forcing the surfmen to increased patrol duty and increased duty in the watch tower. A large number of the life savers on the coast and some on the lakes have decided to petition the government asking for the retraction of the new rule and a return to the old rule of two hours on the beach, two in the lookout and then "turn in," and just because they do this, along come some of the supersensitive and say that the surfmen have no right to petition and should be brought to bay with a round turn forthwith, the same as some of the rural mail carriers were recently.

The mail-carrier's case and the life saver's case are not parallel. The mail carriers played politics. They intimated that political havoc would be wrought on the congressman who did not dance to their music. The life-savers simply respectfully petitioned for the redress of a grievance that can be remedied, should be remedied, and will be remedied if good judgment prevails in the councils of those high in authority. The service has no more use for the new rule than it has for a regulation providing that the men should stand on their heads an hour each day.

But whether the rule is right or wrong does not bear on the question. The right to ask for a redress of grievances is too old, too dear to the hearts of Americans to be overthrown in these days of freedom, and it will be a cold day, indeed, when the life-savers are punished for exercising the right to petition.

County Seat.

Sheriff Jesse G. Woodbury has appointed James A. Garfield of Jamestown and Cornelius Andre of Georgetown, deputy sheriffs to aid in filling out his list of appointments. There are several more deputies to be elected.

Sheriff elect Jesse G. Woodbury has appointed Fred McEachron his under sheriff. Mr. McEachron will remain in the office of county clerk as deputy clerk, and will only act in his capacity as under sheriff when called upon by Mr. Woodbury. In case of removal or death the under sheriff always succeeds the sheriff. The sheriff's appointment is a good one and will undoubtedly be well received.

Frank Salsbury of Allendale, a long time friend of the new sheriff, will be turn-key at the county jail, and will also look after the stone piles.

The deputies for Holland will be ex-marshall Dick Vander Haar of that city and Dick Overweg. These men are good officers and received splendid endorsements for the place. In this city Officers John Welch and A. J. Klaver have been re-appointed and ex-marshall John Luikens and Frank E. Buxton are the other appointments. Ed Brown has also been re-appointed in Nunica. The sheriff was sworn in Saturday.

Dan F. Pagelsen is settled in the prosecuting attorney's office in the court house. The rooms are on the third floor, with the court room, in the southeast corner. A telephone has not been put in the office yet, but will be as soon as the telephone company can get around to it. Mr. Pagelsen steps into the office with the best wishes of his friends the county over, who have no doubt as to his ability, and who believe that he will make a record as an aggressive prosecuting attorney, one who believes in straight from the shoulder methods, with no dilly dallying.—Tribune.

County Clerk Fremont Brown had hoped to equal last year's record in the issuance of marriage licenses, but the account Saturday was 426, which is 13 short of last year's mark. The number of licenses issued by months this year was as follows: January, 25; February, 22; March, 38; April, 47; May, 28; June, 52; July 36; August, 44; September, 44; October, 32; November, 31; December, 26. This year's record is ahead of every other year except 1903.

Of the licenses issued this year 216 of the interested parties were from Holland city, Grand Haven had 83, Zeeland 62, Polkton 32, Olive 29, Blondon 25, Spring Lake 25, Georgetown 24, Wright 20, Jamestown 16, Allendale 15, Chester 16, Crockery 12, Tallmadge 12, Holland township 11, Grand Haven township 3.

Fifty-nine of the people interested in local marriage licenses, hailed from Milwaukee and other parts of Wisconsin. Chicago has 32, Allegan county 17, Muskegon 11, Grand Rapids 41, New York 2, New Jersey, 2, Arkansas 1, Pennsylvania 1, Iowa 3, Ohio 1, Canada 1, Washington 1, Indiana 1, Nevada 1, Virginia 1.

Death of G. J. Peerbolte

G. J. Peerbolte, an old resident of Holland died Wednesday at the age of 86 years he was ill but a few days and his death was unexpected as he seemed spry up to a few days of his death.

The surviving relatives are two sons, Leonard of this city, with whom the deceased had lived for nearly 20 years, Harry of Sioux Center, Iowa, and a daughter, Mrs. Frank White of Wisconsin. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the Central avenue Christian Reformed church, Rev. R. L. Haan officiating.

Mr. Peerbolte with his wife and children and his father-in-law, L. VanderAai, left the Netherlands in 1847. They were 44 days on the ocean, and during this time two of the children, aged 3 and 5 years, died. Mr. Vander Aai suffered a bad fall on the ship, from which he died and the bereaved family had a sad landing in America.

Their first stop was made at Grand Haven, from where they came to Noordeloos by ox team. They did not like the location and returned to Grand Haven, going in two years to Illinois, where the deceased was employed as a tailor. Six years later he came to Holland and worked for TeRoller & Roost, tailors. When this firm dissolved partnership he entered the employ of J. W. Bosman, remaining with him up to 14 years ago, when he established a small shop in his son's home.

Mr. Peerbolte was twice married. His first wife died two years after reaching this country, and after his location in Holland was married to Mrs. Nagelkerk, well known among the older residents. She died 20 years ago and since then the deceased lived with his son at 5 West Fifteenth street, conducting a tailor shop up to four years ago. He made his last suit of clothes when he was 82 years of age.

AN ECONOMICAL REPAST.

Dinner for Six on a Dollar Left Something to Be Wished For by Young Brother.

"Ever since the girls have known of my engagement," Ethel confided to a friend, "they have been prophesying that I won't know how to keep house on Frank's small salary, because I have never had to practice economy at home. I am going to show them that I can learn to practice it," and she tilted her pretty chin in the air, relates the New York Times.

"I intend to ask them to dine with me before I am married, and I will cook the dinner for them myself. From a number of menus which I have found in the new magazine, 'Economy a Fine Art,' I will choose one, 'A Course Dinner for Six Persons Costing only One Dollar.' It includes everything from soup to dessert and coffee; that is, the editor of the magazine says it need cost no more if the instructions for marketing are carefully followed."

"I am just dying to come to that dinner," laughed the friend. "Do have it soon and invite me."

Put upon her mettle, the bride-to-be sent out five invitations for the dinner, which were promptly accepted. The day arrived, and with it all the guests but one. The dinner was on time; so were the diners. A chorus of voices expressed regret at the unavoidable absence of one of the number. The experiment required the presence of six at table, so the hostess placed her young brother in the vacant chair.

At the conclusion of the repast Ethel, excited and triumphant at the praise showered upon her by her admiring friends, bade an revoir to her smiling guests as they took their departure, with satisfaction at the result of her effort. Stuffed sobs from the region of the dining-room drew her attention. Entering, she saw the figure of the small boy who had taken the place of the absent guest at the dinner table lying face downward upon the floor.

"Harry!" she cried in alarm, "what is the matter with you?"

"Oh," was the wailing response, "I am so hungry!"

LOVE'S SPRINGTIME.

My heart was winter-bound until I heard you sing:
O voice of Love, hush not, but fill My life with Spring!

My hopes were homeless things before I saw your eyes;
O smile of Love, close not the door To paradise!

My dreams were bitter once, and then I found them bliss;
O lips of Love, give me again Your rose to kiss!

Springtime of Love! The secret sweet Is ours alone;
O heart of Love, at last you beat Against my own!

—Frank Dempster Sherman, "Lyrics of Joy."

Con's Part in the Reuniting

By FRANK H. SWEET

(Copyright, 1904, by Daily Story Pub. Co.)

CON was the first to reach the wrecked steamer; but then ten of Con's 14 years had been spent mostly on the great south bay, and he was more familiar with it than the life station men themselves. His little scooter was only large enough to carry two besides himself, but he had taken three loads to the Long Island shore before the first of the other scooters arrived. Then they all worked together as rapidly as possible, for the vessel was sinking.

The last woman to leave was one Con had noticed several times as he loaded his craft with women or children; she had been conspicuous among them, encouraging and helping, and insisting that all the weaker ones should leave before herself. Now, as he swung his scooter alongside the vessel, whose rails were almost to the water's edge, she came straight to him, assisting a tall, powerfully built man, whose pale face and languid air proclaimed him an invalid. As Con saw him he caught his breath sharply and made a motion as though to spring forward. Except for his pale face and slightly stooping shoulders the man seemed an exact counterpart of his own father.

"Can you take us on your—scooter?" the lady asked, with an amused accent on the word "scooter." "I have noticed you a number of times, and like your way of doing things. We will be very glad if you can take us."

"Thank you, and I shall be glad, too," answered Con, heartily. "I have been hoping that you could be my passenger. I—I noticed you a number of times, too, and liked your way of doing things."

The lady laughed as he reached out to assist her, but motioned for the man to take his place first. Then she allowed him to place her in the scooter.

"It seems a case of mutual liking," she said, as she watched him jibe his craft into the wind and grasp the tiller. "But I think I was as much attracted by your resemblance to my brother-in-law here and to my husband as to your way of doing things. They used to do things in much the same manner, long ago," her eyes growing far away in their gaze and her voice wistful.

"It seems strange," she went on, presently, "that after all these years I should come across the ocean and be wrecked again at almost the very place where they were lost."

"Constance," said the man, gently. "Yes, I know what you would say, brother; but you need not fear. I have schooled myself to the first great grief; else I could never have come here again, as I have been wanting to so many years. I shall not break down. I owe that much to you, who have been so good in taking this long journey just to indulge my whim. I—I think I will be ready to go back on the next boat and live out the rest of my life quietly." Her gaze returned to Con wistfully, with tears in her eyes, though her lips were smiling.

"You are very young for such danger," she said.

"I'm 14," he answered, "and there isn't nearly so much danger as people think—or if there is, one gets used to it and don't mind. You—you spoke of being wrecked here twice," trying to make his voice reassuring; but there isn't the least bit of danger now. I'll have you on shore in 20 minutes."

"I was not thinking of the danger, my boy, but of other things," she returned with a sad smile. "And I shall not forget you and your scooter after I go back home. But you must tell me your name, so that I can feel I know you more personally."

"It's Connamore—Fernald Connamore," he replied, "just like my father's. There's only just us two, and we've lived around here ever since I was a baby. Father's in the life saving station."

The lady had half risen, a startled look of inquiry in her eyes. But the man drew her back gently.

"We have many kinfolk over here," he said, "and Fernald is a common family name. It is an odd coincidence; but not at all remarkable, or rather impossible, I might say."

When the scooter grated upon the beach, there were willing hands to help them out. But as the lady went forward to inquire after some of the women and children the man turned quickly to Con.

"It is a remarkable coincidence about our names—an astounding one, I might say," he began hurriedly. "I did not wish my sister-in-law to get excited. She has been through a great deal. Now what sort of man is your father? Does he—he—" The gentleman hesitated, seeming at a loss for words, adding rather inconsequently: "The men around here drink quite a good deal, I suppose?"

"Yes, sir, some of them."

"Of course! Of course! Most sea-faring men do. And your father—"

Con's shoulders squared, and his eyes blazed.

"My father never drank anything stronger than water," he burst out, "not even coffee. All the other men at the station, when they come back from a wreck chilled and exhausted, take something to revive and strengthen them. But my father would never touch a drop, and he did more work than any of them."

"I beg your pardon, my boy; no harm was meant," the gentleman hastened to say. "I—I was half expecting, half hoping for a miracle." There was keen disappointment in his face and voice. "I was thinking of a man I once knew, one of the best men that God ever made, I believe, except for this failing. He was a hard drinker, a—a perfect sot at times, to be accurate. And once, when the greatest duty that can come to a man's life met him, he was helpless and—and those he loved were drowned. But you speak of what your father did. I hope he isn't dead?"

"Oh, no, sir; but he was taken to a hospital two days ago, while I was off at school. I don't think it's anything serious, or they would have told me. I should have gone to see him, only for helping in this storm."

The next morning they were all taken on a tug to New York, Con accompanying them. As they were separating the lady turned to him.

"I want you to come and see me at the hotel this evening," she said. "I shall be out until then. I only expect to remain here a day or two, and must utilize every moment. As soon as the hospital is open I am going to see your father. He must be a very brave man from what you have told me, and I have a warm feeling for brave men, and for all who have to do with the sea."

"OH, FATHER!"

Ten minutes after the hospital was open to visitors Con was sitting by his father's cot. The boy's eyes were blinded by tears.

"I—I didn't suppose it was anything like this, father," he choked. "They didn't hint anything about you losing an arm—and the right arm, too. Oh, father!"

"It might easily have been much worse," said his father, quietly. "I was never more full of determination than I am now. I have one arm left, and soon I can go out again as a strong man among strong men, to go on with my work. Sometimes, Con, I used to think that but for you I would be glad to give up the struggle, it seemed so long and dreary, the waiting. But that weakness has all been put aside. Once I—I failed, at a supreme moment, and now all the work that God will permit me to do cannot—but never mind that, Con," trying to control his voice. "The operation has left me weak and wandering. I—"

There was a sudden rustling of soft garments, a subtle perfume in the air. Both turned; then came a sharp cry from the cot:

"Constance! Constance! My God! Alive!"

"Fernald! Fernald! Fernald!"

Con looked from one to the other wonderingly, then with sudden comprehension. Something choked in his throat, and he turned away. But only for a moment, then the woman's arms closed about his neck.

DIG DIAMONDS IN STREETS

The Unemployed in Kimberley, South Africa, Given Privileges by Municipal Council.

London.—Latest news from South Africa brings a report that the municipal council of Kimberley, finding the town full of unemployed because of strikes and the consequences of the late war, allowed the idle inhabitants to tear up the streets and search the macadam for diamonds on condition that each man should replace the space allotted to him.

It was known that the macadam of the streets had been originally taken from the debris of the diamond mines and talk of great jewels hidden in it had been common.

As it is each workman found from $3,000 to $5,000 in diamond dust, some jewels discovered being valued as high as $400 each.

Overlooked by President. There is a general feeling, remarks the Chicago Tribune, that the president, while on the subject of railways, might have penned a few strenuous thoughts concerning the passenger who insists on occupying four seats.

MUST STAND TRIAL ON FRAUD CHARGES

GRAND JURY INDICTS SENATOR
MITCHELL AND CONGRESS-MAN HERMANN.

High Officials Are Accused of Conspiracy to Defraud the Government of Public Lands in Oregon—A Synopsis of the Indictment.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 2.—United States Senator John H. Mitchell, for 30 years one of the most widely known and generally respected public men in Oregon and Blinger Hermann, formerly commissioner of the general land office at Washington and now a representative in congress from this state, were indicted Saturday by the federal grand jury for alleged conspiracy to defraud
the government of public lands. District Attorney Hall has been dismissed in this connection.

The indictment alleges that Mitchell and Hermann in January, 1902, conspired with S. A. D. Puter, Horace G.
McKinley, H. W. Harpley, Emma L.
Watson, Salmon B. Ormsby, Clark E.
Loomis, William H. Davis and others to defraud the government out of a portion of its public lands in Oregon
by means of forged affidavits and fictitious names, and that Puter paid Mitchell $2,000 to secure his influence with Hermann, then land commissioner.

It declares that, acting upon the suggestion and the wish of Senator Mitchell, and influenced by him, knowing that the transactions were unlawful, Hermann used his power as commissioner to expedite 12 claims, and had them passed to patent when he knew them to be illegal. The indictment also alleges that on March 28, 1904, George Sorrenson offered John Hall,
district attorney for the United States in Oregon, $5,000 with intent to influence Hall in his official capacity when acting on indictments returned against Puter, McKinley and others to defraud
the government of land.

Sensor Mitchell declared before leaving town that there was no evidence and that the federal grand jury could not indict unless upon the testimony of perjured persons. Hermann has little to say.

NINE DIE BY FIRE.

Flames Destroy Miner's Home—Only
One Survivor Out of a Family of Ten.

Elmira, N. Y., Jan. 4.—Fire consumed the home of Frank Noweski, a Polish miner, in Morris Run, Pa., at an early hour Tuesday and the entire family of ten, except the eldest son, aged 18, was either burned to death or smothered. The Noweski's lived in a log house on the outskirts of Morris Run. There were no immediate neighbors. Monday night the family retired as usual. Soon after two o'clock, Tuesday morning, the eldest son was awakened by the smell of smoke. The room in which he was sleeping was on fire and it was with the greatest difficulty that he made his escape from the house. It is not known how the fire originated, but it is thought that the stove fell over and the burning coals set fire to the house.

Three Girls Drowned.

ice of a small, deep pond, and were merrily sliding when suddenly the ice broke and they plunged beneath.

CHADWICK GIVES BAIL.

Husband of Famous Woman Taken to Cleveland to Answer Charges Against Him.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 2.—Sheriff Barry and Dr. Leroy S. Chadwick arrived here Sunday from New York over the Pennsylvania railroad. Taking a carriage at the union station, they were driven at once to the county jail, where a bail bond for $10,000 was furnished for Dr. Chadwick's appearance in criminal court next Tuesday, when he will be given a preliminary hearing. The bail bond was signed by Virgil P.
Kline, counsel for Dr. Chadwick, and also by J. P. Dawley, counsel for Mrs.
Chadwick. As soon as the formalities in connection with the bond were completed, Dr. Chadwick was admitted to the woman's department of the jail, where he held a long conference with his wife.

New York, Jan. 2.—Dr. Leroy S.
Chadwick reached here on the Pretoria Saturday morning and went to Cleveland in the afternoon. He was not placed under arrest at all but went as the guest of Sheriff Edwin D. Barry, who is an old friend. Dr. Chadwick, who had previously been informed of his indictment and probable arrest, consented to return to Cleveland without formality.

OPERATIONS OF TREASURY.

Review for Year 1904 Made Public
—Deficit of $22,000,000
Is Shown.

Washington, Dec. 31.—The treasury department Friday issued a review of treasury operations for the calendar year 1904. The treasury receipts for the calendar year 1904 were $540,000, 000, and the expenditures (including the Panama payment) $562,000,000—a deficit for the year of $22,000,000. As compared with the previous calendar year, the receipts show a falling off of $8,000,000, and the expenditures an increase of $50,000,000. The decrease in customs receipts was $9,000,000. Civil and miscellaneous expenditures increased $15,000,000; war department, $9,000,000; navy department, $23,000,
000; pensions, $2,000,000, and interest,
$1,000,000.

SLAIN BY HER RIVAL.

Indiana Girl Kisses Man at Dance—Is Shot Through Heart
by Another.

Logansport, Ind., Jan. 2.—Florence
Mitchell shot and killed Ella Swisher, early Sunday during a dance at a roadhouse three miles from here. Both are young women belonging to respectable families. Miss Swisher had danced repeatedly with C. L. Morgan, and as she left the dance kissed him. As she did so, Miss Mitchell drew a revolver and fired at the girl. The second shot was fired as she went through the door and the third, which penetrated the heart, was fired a moment later. Miss Mitchell was captured.

A Helping Hand.

Is Gladly Extended by a Holland Citizen.

There are many enthusiastic citizens in Holland prepared to tel-their experience for the public good Testimony from such a source is the test of evidence and will prove a "helping hand" to scores of readers. Read the following statement:

John Kloosterman, two miles of Zeeland, says: "For ten or twelve years I looked in vain for some medicine to free me from distressing kidney complaint. I suffered at intervals during that period with aching pains through the loins, twinges up and down the muscles of my back, irregular and unnatural condition of the kidney secretions
and frequent attacks of dizziness.
My son, John Kloosterman, a tailor 133 East Eighth St., Holland, noticed Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in the Holland papers and highly recommended by people who had used them. Thinking they might help me he procured a supply at J. O. Doesburg's drug store and sent them out to me. I noticed shortly after I commenced the treatment that it was doing me good and as I continued my condition improved. In my estimation Doan's Kidney Pills are by far the best remedy on the market."

of Oakland, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her, and to day she is well and strong." It kills the

LIVES OF MANY IMPERILED

A BIG STEAMER AT MERCY OF WIND NEAR NEW YORK.

Three of Crew of 38 Thought to Have Been Already Lost—Narrow Escape of Life-Savers.

New York, Dec. 28.—The British steamer Drumelzier, which went ashore on the sand bar near Fire Island last Saturday, was still aground Wednesday.
The dense fog blanket, which hung over the bay since Tuesday, had shut the steamer off entirely from view from the shore and it was feared that she might have broken up in the heavy storm and her crew of 32 men been lost. The steamer was showing no signal of distress when seen Wednesday. The tug was standing near by. The Drumelzier had worked a little to the west of the place where she struck on the bar and the seas were breaking over her.

The sea continued very high Wednesday and the Drumelzier appeared to be laboring heavily. Every sea swept her from stem to stern and the wrecking tug apparently did not dare approach within a mile of where the steamer was lying.
A revenue cutter, which stood about two miles away from the Drumelzier, succeeded in communicating with her
by signals.

By this means it was learned that there were 29 men on the steamer. They asked that assistance be sent to them.

It was said when the Drumelzier was first reported aground her crew consisted of 32 men. If that was correct it would appear that three lives already have been lost since the steamer struck the bar.

An attempt to launch a life boat to go to the aid of the crew almost cost the lives of the life savers on the Fire Island beach. The lifeboat was smashed, and its crew narrowly escaped death.

The Drumelzier belongs to the Astral Shipping company of Liverpool, England, but is under charter to Barber &
Co. The ship measures 2,333 tons net.
The cargo is valued at $600,000.

It was reported here Wednesday that a large steamship was ashore off Quogue, L. I., but close investigation failed to disclose any trace of her. The life-savers at Quogue said no boat had gone ashore during the night, and they believed the report had originated in some confusion as to the location of the Drumelzier.

FAILS TO SECURE PAPER.

Sheriff Barry Must Wait Until Gov.
Odell Approves Requisition
for Dr. Chadwick.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 28.—Contrary to his expectations, Sheriff Barry, of Cleveland, did not carry with him on his return to New York Wednesday a warrant for the extradition of Dr. Leroy S. Chadwick, but he will undoubtedly receive the papers in New York Thursday.

The sheriff came to the executive chamber early in the day with his counsel, Judge John T. McDonough. The requisition of Gov. Herrick of Ohio was presented to Pardon and Requisition Clerk Joyce, who, after a short examination, pronounced it sufficient.

His examination was confined to the affidavit of the district attorney of Cuyahoga county, certifying the authenticity of grand jury minutes containing the testimony of Irl Reynolds to the effect that Dr. Chadwick was in Cleveland on March 5, 1903, when the forgery charged against him is alleged to have been committed.

Clerk Joyce said, however, that he wished to communicate with Gov. Odell before issuing the warrant. He promised to do so at once.

New York, Dec. 28.—It is probable that the Hamburg-American line steamer Pretoria, with Dr. Leroy S. Chadwick on board, due Wednesday, will not reach this port until Thursday or Friday. The delay is owing to the unusually heavy weather reported by all incoming steamers. It is understood that a number of sheriffs from other states are in the city for the purpose of endeavoring to arrest Dr. Chadwick and serve papers on him preliminary to securing his extradition.

Want Ballot Boxes Reopened.

Denver, Col., Dec. 28.—Attorneys Charles S. Thomas and Samuel W. Bel-ford filed a petition in the supreme court Wednesday on behalf of Alva Adams, the democratic governor-elect, asking that either the court or a commission be appointed by the court to open all of the 204 ballot boxes used in Denver at the late election and make a thorough examination of their contents.
The court decided to hear arguments on the petition later in the day.

Believe War Is Near.

Washington, Dec. 28.—War between France and Morocco is believed sure, as the state department Wednesday received word from Hoffman Phillips, acting consul general at Tangiers, that the French mission to settle disputes with the sultan had failed. Mr. Phillips was immediately directed to remain neutral, and in case personal danger seems imminent, to inform American residents of such fact without delay.

Castaways Picked Up.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 28.—Capt. F.
K. Fall, of the British ship Lonsdale, from New Castle-On-Tyne, just arrived at Port Angeles, tells of picking up 26
castaways at sea who had been drifting about near Cape Horn for over a week.
They had abandoned the British collier
Elvion, which had burned at sea.

Suicide of Prominent Business Man.

Terre Haute, Ind., Dec. 28.—Tarleton
Thompson, prominent in business, social and religious circles, committed suicide in the office of the coal company of which he was manager Tuesday morning. The suicide created a tremendous sensation owing to the man's prominence in this city.

TO WEAK WOMEN.

OF HOLLAND AND VICINITY.

We Make the Following Proposition.

"There are hundreds of women in this vicinity who are dragging themselves through life in pain and misery, without vitality, strength or health," said Mr. De Pree. "They get no happiness out of life and are just in a condition to be attacked by almost any disease. They need a vitality-making and strength creating tonic.

"Now, at our expense, we want to ask every such woman to try our cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, but no oil or grease. It is delicious to take, creates a healthy appetite, makes pure, rich, red blood and gives strength and vigor to every organ of the body better than any medicine we have ever sold in our store, and when a woman is in this condition it makes life worth living. When we say 'at our expense,' we mean that if the medicine you buy from us and pay for does not benefit you we will refund every cent of it cheerfully, and thus you try it at our expense."

Miss Mary A. Woodard of Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I think Vinol is the best remedy in the world for a weak, tired, worn-out system. I was just in that condition when I commenced to take Vinol. It gave me new life and energy, and after using three bottles I felt like a different woman. I feel well and strong and better than I have for years. I believe Vinol will do much more than is claimed for it."

I can only ask Holland women to try Vinol on our guarantee. Con-De Pree, Druggist.

SEVERE STORM TIES UP TRAFFIC AND CAUSES MUCH SUFFERING.

NEW YORK CITY IS CENTER OF BLIZZARD

Bodies of Four Victims of Exposure Found—Storm Rages as Far West as Missouri and South to North Carolina.

New York, Jan. 4.—New York city and all the surrounding country Wednesday was in the grasp of the most severe storm of the winter. Traffic of all kinds was hampered, trolley lines were tied up and the streets, swept by a gale driving before it fine snow that cut like sand and piled in great drifts, were practically impassable. Railroad trains from all points were delayed from a few minutes to three hours and the elevated lines were operated with the greatest difficulty without regard to schedule. While the snowfall had practically ceased, the gale which prevailed during the night continued, and swirling clouds of fine particles of snow swept through the streets, stinging the faces of pedestrians, piling up in monstrous drifts and baffling all attempts to restore anything like normal conditions. The remarkable drop in temperature from well above the freezing point to scarcely more than ten above zero in the city and far below at inland points made conditions out of doors almost intolerable and entailed untold suffering.

The bodies of four victims of exposure in Tuesday night's storm were found at various places in the streets. A guard of the Brooklyn Elevated railroad died on a station platform, after being on duty all night.

Storm Is Widespread.
New York was not alone in its suffering from the storm by any means, and as far west as middle Missouri and as far south as Charlotte, N. C., snow and extreme cold were reported. Through Kentucky, the Virginias, southern Indiana and southern Ohio, all of Pennsylvania, except the northwest portion; New Jersey and New England were in the grip of the blizzard. From every point heavy snow was reported, with blizzard accompaniments. Throughout Maryland there has been a snowfall of ten inches.

Two Trackmen Killed.
York, Pa., Jan. 4.—The bodies of A. Brennenman and Charles Fissel, trackmen on the Northern Central railroad, were found Wednesday near Seitzland, Pa. It is thought they were struck by a train Tuesday night while shoveling snow to keep the tracks open.

Gov. Johnson Inaugurated.
St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 4.—Both houses of the Minnesota legislature met in the chamber of the house shortly before noon Wednesday to hear the farewell message of Gov. Van Sant and the inaugural message of Gov. John A. Johnson. At the conclusion of Gov. Van Sant's message Gov. Johnson was sworn in by Chief Justice Start and he delivered his inaugural address. At the conclusion of Gov. Johnson's message the joint session adjourned.

Mayor Indicted.
Portland, Ore., Jan. 4.—The Multnomah county grand jury, which has been investigating alleged irregularities in the municipal government of this city, Wednesday returned an indictment against Mayor George H. Williams. Judge Williams is one of the prominent men in Oregon. Chief of Police Hunt and former City Engineer Elliott also were indicted.

Served Over Fifty Years.
St. Louis, Jan. 4.—Herman H. Knippenberg, said to have been the oldest postmaster in point of continuous service in the United States, is dead at his home in Femme Osage, St. Charles county, Mo., from a cold contracted on Thanksgiving day. He was for about 55 years postmaster and general storekeeper at Femme Osage.

LAWMAKERS RESUME WORK

SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES MEET.

Resolution Seeking Investigation of Allegations Concerning Campaign Contributions Introduced.

Washington, Jan. 4.—There was an exceptionally large attendance of senators when the senate was called to order Wednesday for the resumption of business after the Christmas holidays. President Pro Tempore Frye being still absent, Senator Perkins presided. In his opening prayer Dr. Hale addressed the senators as "fellow workers together with God," and asked them to pray with him. Senator Stone of Missouri introduced a resolution reciting some of the assertions of Thomas W. Lawson and Judge Alton B. Parker concerning campaign contributions and asking the judiciary committee to inquire into the allegations.

By a vote of 31 to 17 the senate decided to consider the bill for creating the states of Oklahoma and New Mexico.

When the house reconvened Wednesday after the holiday recess, Mr. Grosvenor (O.) submitted the report of the merchant marine committee, the minority being given until Friday to submit their views. Mr. Mann (Ill.) announced the death of his late colleague, William F. Mahoney, of Illinois, and offered the customary resolutions, and as a further mark of respect to the late member the house at 12:10 o'clock adjourned until noon Thursday.

IS SUBJECT TO FINE.

Texas Law Takes Away Man's Right to Burn His Own Cotton.

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 4.—It has been held by the courts that a free citizen of Texas has no right to burn or otherwise destroy his own farm products. Some years ago a farmer hauled into a Texas town a load of corn which he offered for sale. He was tendered so low a price for the grain that he deliberately emptied the whole load into the river. He was convicted and fined for destroying a valuable product of the farm.

The law reads in effect: "If any person shall wilfully and mischievously injure or destroy any growing fruit, corn, grain or other like agricultural products, he shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000."

This, read in connection with amendments of the law on the subject, takes away a Texan's right to burn his own cotton.

To Build Artificial Lake.

New York, Jan. 4.—Contracts have just been awarded for the construction near Princeton, N. J., of an artificial lake four miles long, to be used principally as a rowing course for the university students. A number of wealthy men contributed to the fund for building the lake, which will have a uniform depth of eight feet, will be formed by damming the Millstone river and will extend along the Delaware and Raritan canals.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 4.—The forty-fourth general assembly of Illinois convened at noon Wednesday. Both houses met, organized by electing officers, received Gov. Hull, of Salem, was elected democratic minority leader of the senate by acclamation.

FLAG FLIES OVER CAPTURED CITADEL

GEN. NOGI ENTERS PORT ARTHUR AND TRANSFER OF WAR MATERIAL BEGINS.

25,000 PRISONERS ARE TAKEN BY JAPANESE

Fall of the Russian Fortress Causes Sorrow in St. Petersburg—Talk of Cessation of Hostilities Arouses Resentment.

Headquarters of the Japanese Third Army at Port Arthur, Jan. 3, via Chefoo, Jan. 4.—The flag of the Rising Sun floats to-night over the captured citadel of Port Arthur.

When the news of the surrender of the fortress reached the soldiers Tuesday, leaping from mouth to mouth, the Japanese drew close to their late enemies and fraternized freely with them. When nightfall came great bonfires rose in the Japanese camp like a blazing halo, while great choruses of "Banzai" echoed through the hills.

The entire garrison and all the non-combatants will march out of the city Thursday (January 5) to the village of Yahuthwei, near the shores of Pigeon bay, from which place the Russian officers will be transported to Dalny and thence to wherever they may desire. The prisoners of war will be detained at the Russian barracks in the village until they can be transferred to Dalny, and from there to Japan.

Begin Transfer of Property.

Tokio, Jan. 4.—Gen. Nogi reports to the army department that on January 3 the commissioners of both the Japanese and Russian armies concluded their conference, and that from the morning of January 4 the actual transfer of war materials at Port Arthur as property of the Japanese government commenced.

The Japanese captured 25,000 prisoners at Port Arthur. The total number of the inhabitants is 35,000, of whom 20,000 are sick.

The emperor of Russia has cabled to Gen. Stoessel, saying that the giving of their parole or the alternative of imprisonment is optional with the officers.

Terms of Capitulation.

London, Jan. 4.—The text of the articles of capitulation of the Port Arthur garrison, signed by the commissioners representing Gen. Stoessel and Gen. Nogi has been made public. All Russian soldiers, marines and civil officials of the garrison and harbor are made prisoners. All forts, batteries, vessels, munitions, etc., are transferred to the Japanese in the condition in which they existed at noon of January 3, violation of this clause to operate as an annulment of the negotiations, giving the Japanese army warrant to take free action. The Russian military and naval authorities are to furnish to the Japanese army an exhibit of all fortifications, underground and submarine mines, a list of military officers, of ships and the numbers of their crews, and of civilians of both sexes, with their race and occupations; and all public property, as buildings, munitions of war, etc., to be left in the present position pending arrangement for their transference. Officers of the army and navy are permitted to retain their swords and such of their personal property as is directly necessary for the maintenance of life, and with one servant each may, upon signing their parole not to take up arms during the continuance of the war, return to Russia. Noncommissioned officers and privates, numbering about 20,000, will be held as prisoners. For the benefit of the sick and wounded Russians the sanitary corps and the accountants belonging to the Russian army and navy will be required to serve under the Japanese sanitary corps and accountants for such period of time as may be deemed necessary.

Stoessel's Army.

Chefoo, Jan. 4.—Some interesting statistics concerning the defense of Port Arthur were brought here by the flotilla of Russian torpedo boat destroyers, which carried numerous chests containing complete records of Gen. Stoessel's army. Originally the army numbered 35,000. Eleven thousand have been killed; 16,000 are wounded or sick, and 8,000 remained in the forts, of whom, however, 2,000 were unable to fight. The Russians estimate that the taking of the fortress has cost Japan $100,000,000.

It is said that the booty which fell into the hands of the Japanese at Port Arthur only amounted to 80,000 tons of coal and two months' rations of rice. Of 270 officers of the Russian navy at Port Arthur at the beginning of the war, 180 have been killed or wounded, many of them while doing duty in the forts.

Sorrow at St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 4.—The fall of Port Arthur has taken all the heart out of the approaching festivities of the Russian Christmas. It is even proposed to dispense with the illuminations and decorations which are always features of the holidays. The churches are filled with mourning friends and relatives of the fallen heroes of the fortress. A national service in the Kazan cathedral, at which the emperor and imperial family will be present, is being arranged for Thursday. The papers are openly blaming the military censorship for keeping the public in the dark as to the true situation of the fortress and allowing the surrender to come as a surprise. They are using this as a text to show the necessity for taking the people into the government's confidence, and are continuing their attacks on the bureaucracy, "whose bloodless lips reported the same old lie whenever it is proposed that the sovereign should hear the voice of the people."

From reliable information it appears that the military situation below Mukden is by no means as satisfactory as represented. The number of troops at Gen. Kuropatkin's disposition is about 225,000, and the transportation over the Siberian railroad is proving inadequate. This fact, in connection with the internal situation, might have an important bearing should Japan submit peace propositions. Nothing of this nature, however, has yet made its appearance here.

Peace Talk Opposed.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 4.—The flood of telegrams from abroad bringing talk of peace arouses only resentment in official circles here, and even many liberals who are urgently pressing the government for reforms, aroused by the dreadful story of heroism and suffering of the Port Arthur garrison, declare emphatically against any cessation of hostilities until Russia's honor is vindicated by a victory in Manchuria.

War Party in Ascendant.

The government's position is a difficult one. It has enemies ready to take advantage of whatever course it adopts, and peace under present conditions would probably compromise the dynasty more than the determination to continue the war to the bitter end. The emperor will arrive here to-day and a council of his advisers will likely be held immediately. Much as the situation is complicated by agitation at home, the war party seems still completely in the ascendant, and the indications are the emperor's advisers are practically unanimous that Russia's prestige abroad and the security of the dynasty at home make it impossible for Russia to accept a humiliating peace dictated by Japan as the conqueror. Still there is every evidence that Japan would proffer moderate terms, and it is possible an offer of generous terms would make a good impression and pave the way for the reception of proposals in a conciliatory spirit.

THEODORE THOMAS DEAD.

Well-Known Leader of Chicago Orchestra Passes Away After a Short Illness.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—Theodore Thomas, creator and director of the Chicago orchestra, and one of the world's greatest and best of musicians, is dead. He died at ten minutes before six o'clock Wednesday morning at the family home in this city, after a brave battle of less than two weeks against a severe attack of pneumonia.

For hours before death claimed the distinguished musician he had lapsed into a semi-conscious condition, and the end came without his regaining consciousness. At the bedside were Mrs. Thomas, two sons, the nurses and Dr. C. F. Ely, who had sat in the sick room all night, striving to win the battle with death.

With the death of Mr. Thomas there passed away one whom Chicago and two continents had honored for almost half a century.

Just one week ago last Friday the splendid new home of the great orchestra that Theodore Thomas had created had been opened to an admiring and applauding public. In gratitude to this great orchestra maker Chicago had subscribed the fund of $750,000 and erected this splendid temple consecrated to the art of music.

Theodore Thomas was born at Essen, Germany, October 11, 1835, and made his debut as a violinist in Germany at the age of ten years. The same year, 1845, he came to America and gained a reputation as a solo violinist at great New York concerts and in a tour of the south. He inaugurated orchestral concerts in 1864 and three years later, in 1867, he founded the Thomas orchestra, maintaining the organization until 1868. Previously, in 1862, he had been elected leader of the Brooklyn Philharmonic society, and in 1877, of the New York Philharmonic society, and he held these posts, too, until 1891 almost continuously. From 1885 to 1887 he was conductor of the American Opera company, and from 1873 to 1898 conducted the biennial Cincinnati musical festivals. He was musical director of the world's fairs in 1893.

Will Be Given Another Term.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 4.—The renomination of United States Senator Julius Caesar Burrows for a third term was agreed upon Tuesday night by acclamation in joint caucus of the two houses of the state legislature. Theoretically the meeting was a republican caucus, but there are no democrats in the legislature and consequently the caucus carries all the weight of an election, the formal vote of the legislature to follow as a pure formality.

Brief Is Presented.

Washington, Jan. 4.—The brief of the government in the case of Swift & Co. vs. the United States, known as the beef trust case, prepared by Attorney General Moody, was presented to the supreme court of the United States Wednesday. The brief is devoted principally to an argument to show that the packers are engaged in a conspiracy to monopolize interstate commerce in fresh meats.

The museum in Van Raalte memorial hall has received other additions to its collection. Dr. Van den Berg of New Holland presented the college with articles connected with the early history of Holland among the articles on exhibition are three spinning wheels, one is of the large type and the other two are small ones. The last two were brought over by Holland's first settlers; also an old lantern made in '47 by Jacob Van Dyke of North Holland. It has a wooden frame with panes of glass on three sides. There is a small wooden door through which the lamp can be taken out to be filled or lighted. The lantern is in a good state of preservation. An ox yoke is also included in the collection. J. A. Kooyers and Dr. Vanden Berg have taken it upon themselves to hunt up old relics pertaining to the early history of Holland and vicinity and will place them in the college museum. Van Raalte hall is certainly a fitting place for these historic relics.
