Changes Are Okayed for Light Plant

Eight change orders in a contract with Lorne Plumbing and Heating Co. for mechanical construction in the new addition to the James De Young power plant were approved by City Council Wednesday night, calling for an increase in contract of $10,462.71. The change orders, mostly dealing with fire protection, had been recommended by the Board of Public Works.

Council also approved a revised lease of the Hospital Board with the American National Red Cross for erection of a Red Cross building with blood bank facilities on hospital property.

Hearings were held on three issues for proposed construction of sanitary sewers. With no objections voiced, all were approved. They include 38th St., Central to Pine Ave., with $4,969.90 in special assessments; 37th St., Central Ave. west to end with $3,239.35 in special assessments; 22nd St., Plasmans to Ottawa Ave., with $9,738.70 in special assessments.

Appointments on several city positions were tabled until the Jan. 17 meeting. A letter was read from Jack Leenhouts advising that if his name were suggested for reappointment to the Board of Review, he would have to decline because his work situation would not allow time to participate on the board. The communication was accepted with regret.

A letter from the Liquor Control Commission advising that in the case of renewals of existing licenses where no objection is filed by local legislative bodies before April 1, approval of local legislative bodies is not required. It was requested that objections to renewals be adopted before March 15. It was referred to the city manager for report.

Councilman Smith asked Henry Vander Ploeg who was in the audience if he had any report on the special swimming pool committee. Vander Ploeg said he had no report at this time.

Mayor Nelson Bosman presided at the meeting which lasted only 37 minutes. All Councilmen were present and the Rev. John Van Harn of Bethel Reformed Church gave the invocation.

Police Submit Yearly Report

ZEELAND—A vastly improved traffic accident record in 1961 and the apprehension of an arsonist responsible for several costly fires in Zeeland highlighted last year's Zeeland police activity.

Police Chief Lawrence Veldheer reported 1961 police activity to City Council at a meeting Tuesday night.

The city had a total of 73 traffic accidents last year, Veldheer said, 14 fewer than in 1960. Some 20 persons were injured, none seriously, an increase of five over the previous year, although one person was killed in the city in 1960. Property damage resulting from accidents last year was estimated at $13,907.

Police worked with officials from the State Fire Marshal's office in July in probing a series of three costly fires on West Washington Ave. The investigation ended with the arrest of 21-year-old Marvin J. Schaafsma of Zeeland who admitted setting fire to the Black River Lumber Co. mill, Howard Miller Clock Co. and an apartment house in which Schaafsma had lived.

Schaafsma was committed to Ionia State Hospital for the criminally insane.

During 1961, Zeeland police issued tickets to 453 drivers and arrested 67 persons for non-traffic violations. The department assisted 697 motorists and answered a total of 316 written complaints. Officers drove over 70,000 miles on patrol and investigations.

Department strength remained the same as in 1960, although special patrolman John Brussema joined the force in May, replacing special patrolman John Walters. The force consists of three full-time officers, including Chief Veldheer, and three special patrolmen.

Zeeland police issued drivers' licenses to 2,220 persons in 1961, a decrease of 402 from the previous year.

ICE FISHING VILLAGE — With the coming of winter and the freezing over of Lake Macatawa, this familiar annual sight is seen daily on Pine Creek Bay. Many shanties are presently dotting the ice on Lake Macatawa. The shanties are of various sizes and shapes and some of them are heated. The Coast Guard reported today the ice on Lake Macatawa is from two to six inches thick but with the above freezing temperatures

Wednesday, there are some soft spots especially on the west end of the lake. Most of the fishermen are catching speckled bass. Fishermen are reminded that they must have a license and their name and address on the fish shanties. A Grand Rapids fisherman Neil Koetje can be seen in the background checking the ice.

Dr. Watermulder Speaking at Hope

Dr. David B. Watermulder, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Oak Park, Ill., was guest speaker this morning in Dimment Memorial Chapel at the first of a two-day session in keeping with the college's new Spiritual Life program. His topic was "Christ and Culture."

Featured speaker at the first Spiritual Life session held last Nov. 29 and 30 was the Rev. Calvin Maley, pastor at the University Reformed Church of Ann Arbor.

M. Lindeman Joins De Pree Firm Here

Appointment of Marvin C. Lindeman, local advertising and public relations head, as vice president and director of public relations at the De Pree Company was announced today by W. A. Diekema, president of the De Pree firm.

Diekema stated that the position is newly created to give De Pree's progressively growing business a wider recognition in the specialty drug field. The many products marketed under the De Pree name have undergone a modern streamlining of package design, with other innovations which have set in motion a vigorous sales promotion program requiring full time direction of the trade and public relations aspects.

A pioneer in vitamin developments, the local firm has long been identified as the quality leader in this field. It is now actively engaged in also bringing its other remedial lines to the fore. Diekema reports that although last year was considered an adverse year for the drug trade, De Pree sales showed a substantial increase over all previous years.

Lindeman is well known locally for his active interest in civic affairs. He was the first chairman of the Planning Commission, a founding director of the Netherlands Museum, a past president and long time director of the Chamber of Commerce and a leading participant in Holland's annexation projects.

The advertising agency headed by Lindeman will continue to operate under the Lindeman Advertising name, augmented by an affiliation with the Schoonmaker, Williams and Moss agency of Kalamazoo. George Lumsden, associated with Lindeman for several years, will manage the local agency staff.

Monoxide Fumes Kill Infant Girl

A 16-month-old Holland child died Wednesday night of asphyxiation while her father repaired the car in which she was sitting. Pamela Annette Mullins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mullins of 1148 East 16th St., was pronounced dead on arrival at Holland Hospital of carbon monoxide poisoning.

Three other Mullins children in the car escaped the deadly fumes. Ralph Allen, 10, Debra Jean, 8, and James Michael, 5, were taken to the hospital where they were treated for carbon monoxide poisoning and later released.

Holland police said Mullins was working on the car at Bill's Gulf Service at 470 West 17th St. between 10 p.m. and midnight. The children were left in the car while their father worked. The car's engine was running.

Mullins told police that when he finished working on the car about midnight he found one of the children slumped over in the front seat. He drove immediately to the hospital where the small girl was pronounced dead.

Police said Mrs. Mullins was working, and Mullins had taken the four children with him when he went to the service station to work on the car at about 10 p.m.

Detectives said the 1956 model car had a defective exhaust system and fumes apparently seeped into the car from under the back seat.

Medical examiner was Dr. William Weststrate Sr.

Surviving besides the parents are the two brothers, Ralph Allen and James Michael, and sister Debra Jean, all at home, and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James M. White and Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Mullins, all of Tallapoosa, Ga.

$1,000 Set As Basic Cost Each Month

Violation of Antitrust Law Basis of Suit; Exact Damages Unknown

City Council Wednesday night authorized the Board of Public Works to proceed with litigation on behalf of the city of Holland with respect to civil damages suffered by the city of Holland as a result of violation of federal antitrust legislation by certain electrical equipment suppliers.

The authorization calls for retaining special legal counsel, in all likelihood a Washington, D. C., firm, to supervise the conduct of such litigation. Fees quoted listed a $1,000 a month retainer plus $50 per hour on special work, although these figures may be reduced according to agreement and joint effort on the part of other cities or clients.

On question of Councilman Richard Smith Jr., City Attorney James E. Townsend said costs and litigation would be the responsibility of the Board of Public Works. Townsend said he was unable to quote exact "damages" suffered by the city in connection with purchases of electrical equipment, but he pointed to purchases totaling $2,750,000 and said the federal government had alleged differentials up to 40 per cent.

He said it was recommended that the Board of Public Works budget $25,000 to $30,000 the first year and that litigation may run three to five years. He added, however, that after initial litigation, it is expected there would be little in which costs would be materially reduced. He said the city of Burlington, Vt., was retaining the same Washington counsel in its suit to recover damages. Burlington purchases had amounted to about $1,500,000.

Holland's litigation is associated with the NIMLO Task Force (National Institute of Law Officers) whose findings indicate the city has a valid cause of action arising under antitrust laws and that the city did suffer substantial damages as a result of alleged conspiracy among electrical manufacturers. The NIMLO Task Force recommends that Holland file suits not later than Feb. 1, 1962.

Townsend expects to go to Washington, D. C., later this week to consult with antitrust attorneys on the Holland litigation. Townsend said Los Angeles, Chicago and Detroit have filed suits against electrical companies and several private utilities also are filing suits.

Year 1961 Marked by Wide Range of Events

A lot of spectacular news was recorded for Holland during 1961. The most tragic story concerned the slaying of two girls in the Macatawa hills last spring. The bodies of Margaret Chambers, 12, and Carol Gee, 11, were found May 1 under a pile of leaves in a section just over the Ottawa County line in Allegan County.

The confessed slayer, James Scott Stephen, 16, who lived not far from the girls, was apprehended a few days later in Kadoka, S. D. He maintained the shootings were accidental. In October an Allegan Circuit Court found him guilty of second degree murder and he was sentenced to serve 20 to 40 years.

On the day young Stephen was returned to Allegan from South Dakota, state police solved another Allegan county murder with the arrest of Donald Jay Moon, 19, a sallow faced farm hand who confessed killing Geraldine Williams, 15, not far from her rural South Haven home the previous January. Moon admitted the crime after almost 48 hours of intensive questioning. Geraldine's body was found in a deserted farm house three miles from the place she had waited for a school bus.

Both Moon and Stephen were held in Allegan county jail and for a time were in Ottawa county jail when the Allegan jail was overcrowded.

Several spectacular fires occurred in the local area during 1961. Just north of the city the combined warehouse and mill of the De Leeuw Lumber Co. was swept by fire in March which was fought by departments of Holland City, Holland Township and Park Township. Loss was estimated at $100,000.

Even more damaging was the fire at Conrad, Inc., plant on Douglas Ave. July 17 resulting in a $300,000 loss which included valuable testing equipment.

Two fires hit Zeeland in July, the first destroying the sawmill building of the Black River Lumber Co. with loss estimated at $10,000, and two weeks later flames raced through the Howard Miller Clock Co., gutting the front section. A few days later a 21-year-old Zeeland man admitted setting both fires a swell as a fire in the apartment house he lived in.

Other fires in 1961 destroyed Lee's Restaurant on US-31 south of Holland at a loss of $35,000 to $40,000, the Louis Naberhuis home at 216 West 10th St. in April which claimed the life of the 77-year-old owner, and the William Hakken Abrasives Co. located in the old Fillmore creamery a mile east of M-40 in January.

The year 1961 saw the dedication of the new million-dollar Van Zoeren Library for Hope College, the opening of the new West Ottawa Junior and Senior High School in September and continued progress on the new Holland High School with a view toward occupancy for the second semester late in January, 1962.

The $1½ million addition to the James De Young light plant is virtually complete, and a new sewer treatment plant currently is under construction. Interceptor mains were laid during the summer, causing the closing of several traveled streets in the city.

Changeover of Council brought a new mayor and four new Councilmen. An action by City Council that brought considerable publicity was that body's decision late in May to bar the press from informal meetings preceding regular meetings.

Council passed the long-awaited zoning ordinance which had been under study by the Planning Commission for more than seven years. Council currently is awaiting the Fantus report designed to appraise the present status of the economy of the community and its pattern of development.

Holland carried on an extensive program of street resurfacing last summer, resulting in improvements to many streets in the enlarged city.

The snowfall for 1960-61 amounted to 66 inches, considerably less than in recent years in which annual snowfalls have topped 100 inches. The current snow season got off to a slow start with the first heavy snowfall after Christmas.

Traffic-wise, the city did not fare well. Seven fatalities occurred within the city during 1961, compared with two fatal accidents in 1960.

Work continues on the James H. Campbell generating plant which Consumers Power is building at Port Sheldon. Construction on the multi-million dollar plant passed the 50 per cent mark this year.

On the industrial front, Parke, Davis & Co. completed its $7½ million addition just north of the city and held open house for city officials and visiting newsmen earlier this month.

The year 1961 saw the completion of the new jail for Ottawa County and a new county building for Allegan County.

A local industrialist, Henry E. Morse, 45, president and owner of the H. E. Morse Co. was selected as one of 12 men to receive American Success Story Awards at the 10th annual awards of the Free Enterprise Awards Association, Inc., in New York City.

Early in 1961, Henry Walters post 2144, Veterans of Foreign Wars, dedicated its new post home at 175 West Eighth St., replacing a two-story clubhouse which had been destroyed by fire on West Seventh St. That property now is used for a city parking lot.

The year also saw the arrival of the first foreign ship to load scrap metal for export to Japan. The Greek freighter Zermatt arrived late in July and remained here the better part of a week. After leaving Holland it collided with the carrier Mackinaw Island near Gull Island in upper Lake Michigan.

One of the most unusual stories of the year was a chance story in November in which a UPI story mentioned that a group of American and Australian researchers had found the wreckage of a military plane, "The Flying Dutchman," which crashed 19 years earlier in the New Guinea jungles during World War II.

This brought together Edward Holleman of Hudsonville, a sergeant at the time, and William A. Sikkel of Holland, Holleman's commanding officer at the time of the crash. Sikkel by a toss of a coin had missed riding on the unlucky plane. Holleman wandered in the dense jungle for 40 days before reaching a native village and finally an Australian army post some 60 miles from Port Moresby. He was flown to Port Moresby by Dec. 21, 1942, and hospitalized.

Meanwhile, Sikkel had been wounded in action in Buna and was returned to Port Moresby for hospitalization. In checking mail for his men in December, 1942, he marked Holleman's mail with MIA (missing in action). On Jan. 1, 1943, Sikkel saw Holleman "looking like a bag of bones" walk past the hospital.

Sikkel ran from the hospital, collar Holleman and told him to send a telegram immediately to his wife explaining he was all right. The telegram was received in Hudsonville that day and five days later Mrs. Holleman gave birth to her first child, a son, Robert. Robert today is a student at Grand Rapids Junior College.

Holleman credits his survival to taking the compass from the plane's instrument panel. This panel which was torn from the plane was found four days after the crash along with the body of the co-pilot.

County Road Deaths Soar During 1961

GRAND HAVEN — Ottawa County traffic deaths this year increased for the third straight year as 28 persons met their death on county roads.

The increase in traffic deaths marks a steady rise from 1958 when 16 fatalities were reported in the county. In 1959 a total of 20 persons were killed and 23 met their deaths on county roads in 1960.

The Ottawa County Sheriff's Department investigated a total of 756 accidents in the county this year including 264 personal injury mishaps.

Sheriff's deputies this year investigated 3,850 complaints of which 4,879 have been closed.

Arrests by sheriff's officers totaled 534 criminal arrests, including 159 on felonies, and 506 traffic arrests. A total of 783 prisoners were booked at the county jail.

Department strength at year's end consisted of 21 full time men, including Sheriff Bernard Grysen and Undersheriff Forrest Salisbury, three secretaries and 30 reserve deputies.

Also included among department personnel were five volunteer skin divers, three water patrol deputies and 42 horsemen. The sheriff's water and horse posses were organized a year ago.

During this year all of the department's available men, along with volunteer skin divers, water patrolmen and horsemen, took part in the search for Carol Gee and Margaret Chambers, two Macatawa girls who were found shot to death in the Macatawa Hills.

The skindivers also played important roles in aiding searches for the bodies of the eight persons who drowned in Ottawa County waters this year.

During the year, the Sheriff's Department branch office, located on North River Ave. in Holland, handled the department's activity in the southern half of the county below M-50.

Branch office personnel this year stood at five full-time deputies and one secretary.

This year the branch office investigated 394 accidents, including 11 of the county's 26 fatal mishaps, and issued 2,355 of the 5,989 drivers license issued by the sheriff's department.

The 12 Sheriff's Department cruisers this year patrolled 370,215 miles on routine patrol and investigation. The department served 27,307 meals at the county jail.

The new Ottawa County jail, which was officially opened Feb. 28, is one of the most modern county jails in the state. The $350,000 facility was built by the Stephenson Construction Co. of Zeeland, and is located on Franklin St. in Grand Haven.

The year 1961 saw the completion of the new jail for Ottawa County and a new county building for Allegan County.

A local industrialist, Henry E. Morse, 45, president and owner of the H. E. Morse Co. was selected as one of 12 men to receive American Success Story Awards at the 10th annual awards of the Free Enterprise Awards Association, Inc., in New York City.

Early in 1961, Henry Walters post 2144, Veterans of Foreign Wars, dedicated its new post home at 175 West Eighth St., replacing a two-story clubhouse which had been destroyed by fire on West Seventh St. That property now is used for a city parking lot.

The year also saw the arrival of the first foreign ship to load scrap metal for export to Japan. The Greek freighter Zermatt arrived late in July and remained here the better part of a week. After leaving Holland it collided with the carrier Mackinaw Island near Gull Island in upper Lake Michigan.

State Park Attendance Drops, But Fees Were Received Well

Attendance at Holland State Park was down this past season from the previous year, but park officials blamed the drop mostly on the weather, and not on the newly-instituted park fee system.

Total attendance for 1961 came to 908,928, compared to 1,270,000 in 1960. There was an increase in the number of campers at the park, with 6,671 permits issued in 1961 to 6,224 in 1960.

This was the first year for the new vehicle permits to enter the park, and park manager Lou Hane reported very little opposition to the new fees. Under the system, motorists may purchase a $2 sticker to put on their car admitting them to any state park in Michigan for the rest of the year, or they may buy the 50-cent daily sticker, allowing them park privileges for a day.

Hane felt the vehicle fees were only a "minor factor" in the attendance drop. He said park attendants sold 15,682 of the annual stickers and 21,129 daily permits, for a total revenue of $41,928.50. Local sports and hardware stores also sold the stickers.

From park officials' point of view, the year had its particularly bright aspects and some unusual minus factors. There was very little rowdiness at the park this year, and little vandalism. Park attendants issued fewer summonses for violations of park regulations than usual. Although there was the usual traffic congestion, there were no serious auto accidents at the park.

But various emergencies did crop up to mar the smooth routine. Tragedy struck in the form of a drowning at the beach. A brush fire at the beginning of the busy season broke out adjacent to the park and threatened serious damage before firemen put it down. An explosion in a trailer at the camping area injured two people, and there were the usual first aid cases for cut feet, and other minor injuries.

There were a few other cases of people suffering broken limbs in miscellaneous accidents at the park.

A new water system was installed at the park this past year, solving problems which had to do with the park water supply. A new well was drilled, and new fountains installed in the camping area. The water actually comes from Lake Michigan, but is filtered through many feet of sand to purify it.

Another 50 picnic tables were added to the park for visitors, and the crew of 14 park rangers was raised to 17, mostly for collection of the vehicle fees.

Park officials said there are no major changes contemplated for the 1962 season.

The Park's busy season lasts from approximately June 1 to Labor Day, but park officials said that the annual park stickers are good for the entire year after January 1. Technically, the annual sticker or the daily stickers are required for entrance to the park any time during the year, but enforcement is stepped up only on weekends during the winter. Park employees devote their winter time to maintenance and repairs.

Only three park employees remain at the park for the entire year. They keep busy refinishing all the picnic tables, repairing any damage to the tables and benches occurring during the busy season, repairing and maintaining the park buildings, draining the pipes and overhauling the plumbing.

During the summer the complement will grow to 17 again, including rangers and lifeguards.

The 1962 vehicle stickers go on sale both at the park entrance and at local sports and hardware stores on Jan. 1. Again the prices for the stickers will be 50 cents for daily permits and $2 for the annual permit.

Traffic Record, Strong Arm Robbery Top Police Stories

The year 1961 will go down in Holland police records as somewhat of an oddity.

The city this year set an all-time high traffic fatality mark of seven deaths while the number of accidents in Holland dropped from a year ago.

This year also saw the first strong-arm robbery in the city in 11 years, though major burglaries also dropped off from 1960.

Increased police efforts at traffic control this year, coupled with active safety campaigning, helped to give Holland its lowest number of traffic accidents since the city's vast expansion by annexation in 1959.

Police recorded a total of 929 traffic accidents this year, compared to 979 mishaps in both 1960 and 1959. The last time the city recorded fewer than 900 traffic accidents was 1958, prior to expansion, when 853 mishaps were reported.

The tragic fact is that seven persons died in traffic accidents this year. Another 271 persons were injured.

Four of this year's city traffic deaths occurred in the old portion of the city, and three in recently annexed areas. This figure stands in sharp contrast to the two fatalities listed in city traffic in 1960.

The highest number of traffic deaths in Holland in any one year, prior to 1961, was the five deaths which occurred in 1949. Police records during the last 25 years show three fatality-free years, 1948, 1955 and 1956.

Holland's first armed robbery in 11 years occurred April 22 when thugs beat and robbed Ray Smith, owner of Ray Smith's M-21 One-Stop service station at M-21 and 120th Ave.

Smith was slugged from behind without seeing his assailants and robbed of $80. Police could get no description of the bandits or their car. Smith was hospitalized with head injuries.

The last previous armed robbery in Holland occurred in April, 1959, when a gunman held-up the Holland Loan Co.

A second unsolved crime in Holland this year was a break-in at the Standard Grocer Co. on March 27. Thieves entered the huge warehouse through a hole they cut in the roof and took about $400 in cash and some $2,500 worth of merchandise, mostly cigarettes.

On Oct. 22, the Eagles Lodge on East Eighth St. was entered and some $400 taken from a cash box. The theft occurred at about 4 a.m. Police had nabbed a suspect by 11 a.m. the same day.

During the year 36 autos were reported stolen. All 36 cars were recovered.

Local police joined several other area law enforcement agencies April 30 in the search for two missing girls, Carol Gee, 11, and Margaret Chambers, 12, later found to have been slain in the Macatawa Hills near their homes. Nine Holland policemen, including Chief Jacob Van Hoff, and seven reserves took part in the search for the girls.

In mid-December, the police department traded in old cruisers for seven new cars to boost the department's efficiency in its number one job, traffic control and enforcement.

The department's cruisers this year traveled well over the 300,000-mile mark.

In its enforcement duties, the Holland Police Department has made 1,994 arrests, for both criminal and traffic offenses. Police last year arrested 2,010 persons.

Traffic safety Sgt. Ike De Kraker reported the three major traffic violations noted in the city's 387 major and 542 minor accidents this year were failure of drivers to yield the right of way to through traffic, failure to maintain an assured clear distance and careless or reckless driving.

The Holland department's shooting teams distinguished themselves in competition this year, winning the Governor's Trophy in Class C competition in the Michigan Police Pistol Shoot at Jackson in September, and taking the Western Michigan Law Enforcement Association Class B trophy.

The team made up of Sgt. Ralph Wolrding and patrolmen Clarence Van Langevelde and Robert Van Vuren copped the Governor's Trophy. The Western Michigan trophy was based on average performance of different local teams participating in monthly shoots throughout the summer with other teams from law enforcement agencies in Western Michigan.

Police strength remained virtually unchanged during 1961, with 30 regular policemen, including Chief Van Hoff, 11 special patrolmen and two secretaries.

Patrolman Jerry Kok left the department in mid-November to assume new duties as Saugatuck Police Chief.

Clerk's Office Busy in 1961

GRAND HAVEN — County Clerk Harris Nieuwsma's office has been a busy place during 1961.

In connection with Circuit Court, his office filed 210 civil law cases, 44 chancery cases, 157 divorce cases, 178 criminal cases. The number of judgments granted was 71. One justice transcript was filed and three cases were appealed to Supreme Court. There were 36 commitments to jail and 23 commitments to prison.

A summer wedding is being planned.

The clerk or his assistants spent 106 days in court, 11 days with the tax allocation board and prepared 100 reports, also 15 days at Board of Supervisors meetings.

A total of 2,463 certified copies of births, deaths, marriages and divorces were processed and 221 notary commissions issued. A total of 750 marriage licenses were issued, 304 liquor identification cards and 243 permits for concealed weapons.

A total of 2,278 birth records were filed and 715 death records.

The staff also prepared ballots and supplies for four elections involving setting up 274 voting machines.

T. Mason Wright Succumbs at 99

MARNE — T. Mason Wyatt, who would have celebrated his 100th birthday anniversary on Jan. 28, died in the Beacon Light Nursing Home in Marne Friday afternoon following a short illness.

He was born in Eastmanville and was a life-long resident of the northeast Ottawa County area. He was a retired farmer and the oldest member of the Wright Township Seventh Day Adventist Church.

He is survived by a niece, Mrs. Winona Fox of California.

Thieves Break Into 2 Firms

Thieves entered two business places at the intersection of Chicago Dr. and 112th Ave., two miles east of Holland, Thursday night or early Friday and stole petty cash from each.

Eddy Shops, Inc., a boat manufacturer, was entered through a window on the north side of the building and $5.21 was taken from a desk drawer. Ottawa County deputies said.

The thieves rifled several other desk drawers, but nothing else was reported missing, deputies said. The money taken was from an office coffee fund. The thieves had broken out the window and unlatched it to gain entry.

John Hoeksma, Inc., a farm implement dealer, located across the street from Eddy Shops, Inc., had 25 white pennies, along with a jackknife and candy, stolen by thieves, believed to be the same persons who entered the boat works.

Duties of best man were performed by Liston J. Lange of Grand Rapids; Delwyn Komejan of Grand Rapids and Warren Van den Bosch of Howell were ushers.

HENRY J. ENGELSMAN

One of our trusted and valued employees, Henry J. Engelsman, died very unexpectedly Friday morning at Holland Hospital.

Henry had worked Thursday and stopped back during the evening to make his routine check of the picture machine. He was taken ill shortly after returning home and was rushed to Holland Hospital where he died a few hours later.

Henry was a veteran of World War I and II. He served in the infantry in the first war and was in the Air Force during the second war doing photographic work. He spent several years overseas in England.

He had been employed at The Sentinel prior to enlisting in the Air Force as a photographer.
Upon his return in 1945, after some experimental work, he took charge of the engraving department that had been installed for spot news pictures during World War II.

He was a graduate of Hope College. Astronomy was his greatest hobby and in recent years he conducted lectures and demonstrations for Hope College groups, Boy Scouts and many, many others.
On occasion, he mounted his telescope in the Sentinel parking lot, in Kollen Park and at other locations for those interested in studying the moon and constellations.

Another avid hobby was golfing, which he followed long before it became so popular. He, of course, also continued his great interest in photography as a hobby.

A scholarly type, Henry was a storehouse of knowledge and often answered questions which stumped other departments of The Sentinel. A perfectionist, his painstaking work as an engraver produced engravings for The Sentinel superior to many appearing elsewhere.

Of a philosophical mind, his conversation on a variety of subjects was appreciated by those close to him, and these quiet talks became more meaningful in recent years as his hearing began to fail.

Henry Engelsman was a good worker, a good conversationalist and a good friend. He will be missed.

WE START ANOTHER YEAR

With all of the people over the country traveling in order to get back to their homes, and their work, we want to call your attention to the time of the year when driving conditions throughout the area are not the best.

Many of the safety people continue to send out words of caution and ways that accidents can be avoided. Just recently we received six rules.

If drivers would not assume other drivers will yield the right of way, 17.2 per cent of the accidents could be avoided.

If they would not trust the driver ahead to keep his vehicle moving in the same direction at the same speed, drivers would not be tempted to "tailgate."

If drivers did not believe that traffic lights and stop signs stopped other vehicles, they could help stop accidents.

Remember the brakes and safe clear distance as well as road conditions. Remember about drivers in the opposite lane and passing on a hill.

Try to keep your vehicle in perfect working order. Do not trust the other fellow—he may have some faulty equipment.

If you drive do not drink is one of the slogans that almost all of the safety people use.

The statistical information over the country for the two long weekends have rolled up some figures on the number of fatalities and accidents that are startling to many people.

The medical association has come out with the suggestion that a record be kept of your health for safety. They suggest a brief listing of the family history, such as date and place of birth of each member, deceased and date and cause. Other pertinent medical facts such as chronic problems and a record of the immunizations for whooping cough, diphtheria, tetanus, typhoid, polio and small-pox to name some of the common ones as well as any booster shots with the blood type and the special allergies or drugs that you might be sensitive to.

More and more safety regulations are being published almost every day. We think that more people could be saved a lot of illness and problems if we all would be a little more careful. Lets try it and see how the statistics stack up when we reach the end of the year 1962.

Principles for Living
Exodus 34:1-8; Matthew 5:17-20

By C. P. Dame

During the first quarter of the new year we will study the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount. The name of the course of study is: "Jesus and the Ten Commandments." The Lord expounded the Ten Commandments and gave them a deeper spiritual meaning in His wonderful Sermon on the Mount. In an age that likes to talk and think about the old-fashioned commandments which we still need much in this changing age.

I. God gives orders. Our lesson text tells us about the Lord and Moses and Jesus. Without a doubt Moses is the greatest man of the Old Testament and some consider him the greatest of all the characters of the Bible. God told Moses to do something. Remember that God has something to do for you.
God said to Moses: "Hew these two tables of stone like unto the first: and I will write upon these tables the words that were in the first tables, which thou breakest."

Why did Moses break those first tables? When Moses was on the mountain with God for forty days and nights the people got restless and demanded of Aaron, the brother of Moses, that he make them images of gods and he did so.

When Moses came down from the mountain and saw what the people were doing he broke those two tables in hot indignation. In worshipping the golden calf the nation violated the covenant. Due to the moving intercessory prayer of Moses God forgave the people.

God told Moses to "be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning unto Mount Sinai" alone.
It takes preparation to be fit to meet God. How many people prepare themselves Saturday nights for meeting God in the sanctuary on Sundays? Moses was obedient and did as he was told and met God on the mountain and there
God wrote the Ten Commandments on the tables of stones.

The Ten Commandments are of divine origin.

II. God is gracious and just.
Some people think that the Old Testament says nothing about the love of God. The words: "merciful and gracious, long suffering and abundant in goodness and truth" speak loudly of God's love.

The whole Bible tells about the goodness and grace of God as well as of His justice. Note that the words, "Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin," come first and are followed by the words, "and that will by no means clear the guilty: visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation." Observe too the contrast between the words "mercy for thousands" and "unto the third and fourth generation." The Bible speaks of grace and of guilt. God is very patient with sinners but there is a limit.

III. Jesus fulfilled the law and the prophets. Our Lord not only gave a deeper spiritual meaning to the Ten Commandments but He also lived up to the demands made by them and besides fulfilled all the prophecies regarding the coming of the Messiah. Jesus kept the law of God with a heart full of love for they were the laws of His Heavenly Father.

In addition to keeping the laws Himself He gave others the inclination to do so. The Lord demanded that His disciples be superior to the religious leaders of His time. Those leaders revealed a legalistic and loveless spirit. They were much concerned about ceremonies but not about righteousness. What we cannot do for ourselves Christ has achieved for us.

Vander Hill Tallies 43 For Record

Slim Jim Vander Hill scored 43 points to set a Hope College individual scoring record here Monday night as the Hope College basketball team lost to Taylor University of Upland, Ind., 86-82 before 1,300 fans in the Civic Center.

The Warwick Estates, N. Y., 6'2" junior scored 15 baskets and 13 straight free shots to break his own mark of 40 points set last season against Hillsdale College. Vander Hill took 33 shots in the game.

He made six of his first eight shots and tallied 16 points in the first 10 minutes. Most of his field goals were jump shots from the corners and behind the foul circle while he added a couple buckets on layups.

Featuring off-balance shots, Vander Hill scored with either hand as he worked around, over and through the Taylor defense. He has scored 253 points in nine games for a 28.1 average.

Tight throughout, the game was tied 13 times and the lead changed hands five times before the visiting Trojans scored the four-point win. It was Taylor's 12th win in 14 starts and Hope's sixth defeat in nine games.

Taylor led at half 44-42 on a last second basket by 5'8" Bill Hwang. The speedy Chinese freshman guard played for the Nationalist Chinese 1960 Olympic team, coached by Don Odie, Taylor coach.

Featuring a fine fast break, Hwang was frequently on the end of the break and led the winners with 23 points. Roy Durham, a good outcourt shooter, followed with 22.

The game was tied for the final time, 80-80 with 1:24 left. Hwang tied the game on a driving layup and then 19 seconds later Durham added two free shots to put Taylor ahead, 82-80.

Hwang intercepted a Hope pass with 45 seconds left to push Taylor in front by four before Ron Te Beest tipped in a basket for Hope's final two points. A Hope foul with three seconds to go allowed Larry Winterholder to make two free shots for the four-point spread.

Gary Nederveld, Hope's regular center, received a high injury in the Hope varsity alumni game Saturday night and is out indefinitely. Nederveld is presently hospitalized.

Taylor shot 50 per cent of its shots from the floor with 36 baskets in 70 attempts. The Trojans made 19 of 35 in the first half and 17 of 35 in the second half.

Hope made 19 of 45 in the opening half for 42 per cent but slipped to 25 per cent in the second half on 12 baskets in 49 tries. This gave the Flying Dutchmen 31 of 94 for 32 per cent.

At the free throw line, Hope sank 20 of 22 and the Trojans made 14 of 19. Hope led in rebounding, 60-44 with Capt. Ek Buys getting 12 and Vander Hill, 11. Maurice Paul, 6'6" Taylor center, had 14.

Some of the best shooting of the season by both teams highlighted the first 10 minutes of the game. Hope led 28-26 at the first 10-minute mark. Taylor led 65-64 at the second half 10-minute mark.

Hope, 2-0 in MIAA, returns to league play Saturday night against Albion in the Civic Center.

Hope Alumni Hand Varsity 88-80 Defeat

Displaying the height and scoring punch that brought Hope College four straight MIAA championships, the 1957-60 Alumni basketball team stopped the Hope varsity, 88-80 Saturday night before 1,700 fans in the Civic Center.

The "Big Three" of the Hope championship teams, Paul Benes, Ray Ritsema and Warren Vander Hill led the way in the game. The 6'11" Benes scored 26 points while Vander Hill added 20 points and Ritsema, who had 11, worked with Benes in controlling the boards.

After the game was tied six times and the lead had changed nine times, the Alumni pushed in front, 57-52 with 13:15 left in the game and never again trailed although the Varsity came within two points, 57-55 about 20 seconds later.

The Varsity led by one point, 45-44 at half after leading, 45-40 with 50 seconds remaining. Benes and Vander Hill added baskets to cut the margin to one at half.

Hitting on 38 of 95 attempts, the Alumni made 40 per cent of their shots while the varsity had 31 of 91 for 35 per cent. The winners had halves of 19 of 53 and 19 of 42 and also had identical halves of six free shots each. The varsity made 18 of 46 and 15 of 43 from the floor.

At the free throw line the winners made 12 of 25 and the losers had 14 of 19. Benes led in rebounding with 20 while Ritsema picked off 15. Jim Vander Hill led the Varsity with 14 while Glenn Van Wieren had 12 and Ek Buys, 10.

Dwayne (Tiger) Teusink and Darrell (Whitey) Beernink performed in fine fashion as the Alumni guards. They worked the ball into the big men and put a lot of pressure on the Varsity. Teusink scored 12 points.

Jim Vander Hill and Van Wieren led the Varsity with 21 each while Buys collected 15 and Nederveld scored 11, all in the second half, before he received the leg injury that has resulted in hospitalization.

Maroons Have Board Control In 65-47 Win

MUSKEGON — Holland Christian's basketball team led all the way here Monday afternoon to whip the Muskegon Christian cagers, 65-47 before 2,800 fans in the L. C. Walker arena.

The Maroons' win was their sixth straight giving them a 6-1 mark for season play, while the Warriors now have a 2-3 record.

Coach Elmer Walcott's club gave it everything they had and cut the lead to seven markers early in the fourth period, but they couldn't match the overall play of the Maroons. They managed to play the Maroons even in the middle two periods but couldn't keep up with the Christian output in the first and last quarters. Holland's scoring was steady throughout with periods of 15, 15, 17 and 18.

Holland was without the services of Clare Van Wieren, senior forward, and the club's leading scorer. The lanky Van Wieren is bothered by bad ankle ligaments and has been ordered to lay off for a time. His replacement, junior Ron Lubbers, came through in great fashion, piling up 21 points in the three periods that he played.

Once again the Maroons had the better of the board play with big Paul Steigenga and J. I. M. Langeland leading the way. They were not without a fight, however with 6'4" Rick Duisternars and Dale Wolfis leading the Warriors. Duisternars turned in a fine game before fouling out with 3:38 left in the contest.

With Lubbers leading the front line with 21 points, playmaker Paul Tuls paced all scorers with 23 points on some fine outcourt shooting and several good drives. Both Tuls and Jim Fredricks, the other guard, turned in top flight floor games. One of the big features of the Maroon attack all season long has been the balanced scoring with both of the guards alternating the honors.

Coach Art Tuls' quintet had the best end of the shooting percentages, hitting on 24 out of 62 for 38 per cent, while the Warriors hit on 19 out of 62 attempts for 30 per cent. Holland's best quarter was 7-15 in the last while Muskegon's best was 8-16 in the third stanza.

The Maroons jumped off to 2-0 and 4-2 leads before the Warriors knotted the count at 4-4, the only time that the contest was tied. Tuls then came through with six straight markers and then added three more later in the period to pace Christian to a 15-6 margin.

Paced by reserve Forward Al Vissia, the Warriors came roaring back to close the gap on the Maroons and after five minutes had narrowed the Maroon bulge to 21-19. This only served notice for Lubbers to start hitting as he added seven of the last nine markers to give the Maroons a 30-21 lead at the halftime buzzer.

Both clubs continued to play on even terms in the third stanza although Christian did manage to build up a 36-24 bulge early in the period. Paced by Duisternars and Wolfis, the losers crept to within five points on one occasion. However again paced by Lubbers with seven markers, the Maroons maintained their nine point advantage to lead 47-38 going into the last period.

Muskegon narrowed the lead to 49-42 with six minutes left in the fray before Christian led by Tuls began to pull away with ease. The Maroons played some of their best basketball of the game in the final stanza as they left no doubt about the final outcome. Tuls pushed in 10 markers for the Maroons in the last eight minutes. Christian's biggest margin in the game was their final one.

At the charity stripe, the winners connected on 17 out of 39 tries, while Muskegon had nine out of 11. Duisternars led the Warriors with 15 markers.

Christian rests for the remainder of the week before taking on two tough ones next week, meeting St. Joseph here on Tuesday and traveling to Hudsonville Unity Christian on Jan. 1.

ing and cleaning of the United Press International facsimile machine. He complained of being ill at home about 10:30 p.m. and a physician arranged to have him taken by ambulance to Holland Hospital where he was put in an oxygen tent.

He was born in Randolph, Wis., and lived in many places in the Midwest where his father, the late Rev. John Engelsman, served charges in the Reformed Church. He was a graduate of Hope College and worked as a free-lance photographer in the 1930's and early 1940's.

He was a veteran of both World Wars, serving in World War I in the infantry and in World War II with the photographic division of the Air Force, spending several years overseas in England.

After World War II, he became employed as engraver for The Sentinel. Most of the engravings in today's issue of The Sentinel were made by Engelsman including the accompanying engraving of himself.

An avid student of astronomy, he often conducted lectures and demonstrations for many groups including students at Hope College and Boy Scouts. He also was an enthusiastic golfer, following the game long before it became tops in popularity in the 1960's.

Stafseth Predicts Heavy Debate on Senate Plan

Representation in the State Senate will probably become the most debated question in the entire legislative reorganization question before delegates to the State Constitutional Convention, Henrik E. Stafseth, Ottawa County district Delegate believes.

Speaking before the Holland Rotary Club at a luncheon meeting Thursday, Stafseth expressed the hope that, "inasmuch as there is so much controversy in this area, that representation will remain close to the formula used today."

He said that proposals on the question have ranged "from the extreme of absolute population representation to a proposal of a senator representing only one county of the eighty-three counties in the state."

Stafseth said he believes that the representation in the House of Representatives will "in all probability" be set up on a population basis. But representative districts will have to be set up and, "there is reasonable doubt as to a multiple representative district."

The problem of an appointive or elective State Administrative Board will be crucial, and Stafseth said the Convention delegates appear divided on the question. He predicted that the conservative element of the Republican Party and the Democratic Party will "line up in favor of the elective system."

A proposal has been advanced by the Con-Con's Taxation and Finance Committee calling for a single fund. Stafseth said this could mean the end of earmarked funds. It could also provide another form of "back door spending" by allowing the state to postpone financial responsibility for a longer time, while indebtedness piled up.

Protestant churches have lined up solidly against legalized bingo, Stafseth reported. He said support for the proposal has come largely from veterans, fraternal, and charitable groups, and in at least one instance, a group representing the aged.

A provision to hold stockholders liable for labor debts of their corporation is still undecided, as is the question of a single board or separate autonomous boards for state supported colleges and universities.

Assisting with the decorating were Judy Poppema, Pat Haynes, Willy Ter Voort, Pat Vander Kolk, Pam Roser, Jo-Ann Shashagay, Jane Dalman, Joyce Loncki, Ginny Veeder and Jan Tenckink.

SPEND HOLIDAY WORKING — Some 20 nurses at Holland Hospital worked New Year's Eve while most of the city saw the new year in by attending church or parties. Miss Vera Currie (right) and Mrs. Alva Bouman, night supervisor at the hospital, go over nursing records in a darkened, deserted corridor. Both nurses have real job dedication — they both worked Christmas Eve as well as being scheduled for New Year's Eve duty.

NO CELEBRATING — Mrs. Marilyn Vliem, a telephone operator in Holland, was one of 15 operators working New Year's Eve. The giant switchboard appears almost deserted as many of the operators are off duty. Some of the women working with Mrs. Vliem can be seen at extreme right.

LOVELY NEW YEAR'S EVE — Without doubt one of the loneliest jobs anyone will be doing last weekend was that of the Holland police officer checking door-to-door during the early hours New Year's Day. One of the patrolmen who was working during the traditionally happy holiday is Keith Houting. He is shown here checking the door of a downtown business establishment while Eighth St. appears devoid of all other signs of life. One parked car (extreme left) stands alone on the deserted street.

All Mixed Up With the Law

GRAND HAVEN—Gerald John Erickson, 21, Nunica, who failed to appear in Ottawa Circuit Court Dec. 20 for disposition of a charge of driving while his operator's license was revoked, second offense, is in considerable trouble with the law.

When he failed to appear Dec. 20, the prosecutor's office issued a bench warrant for his arrest which was turned over to state police.

Then at 3:45 a.m. Monday he was arrested by sheriff's officers on US-31 in Holland Township allegedly driving in excess of 100 miles an hour. Later it was learned the car he was driving had been stolen out of Muskegon Heights Dec. 28. Muskegon Heights has a detainer on Erickson charging him with theft of the 1957 car.

When Erickson first appeared in Circuit Court he told the court he had a divorce case pending against him in Muskegon County.

Glimpses Into Romances Given by the Carradines

Intimate glimpses into three famous romances carried Woman's Literary Club members into three different worlds Tuesday afternoon as Richard Dye-Carradine and Jaclyn Lord presented "Two for Romance."

Appearing in the first sketch as Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning, the talented couple portrayed the first meeting of the two writers who had previously known each other only through letters. The rather formal meeting developed into a clever inter-play of literary fencing, bringing a spirited "tongue" from the invalid Miss Barrett at Browning's frank remarks.

"Overwhelmed by Browning's 'disturbing vitality' Miss Barrett could envision life with such a man as a series of 'electric shocks.' 'There can be no play-acting between us,' she assured her persistent suitor.

Convincingly angry and gentle by turns, the couple then portrayed Elizabeth and Essex in the confrontation scene from Maxwell Anderson's "Elizabeth the Queen." Coming from Ireland as an accused traitor, Essex finds his proud and aging queen a more than adequate wielder of royal authority when she has him arrested. A rebel herself, the haughty Elizabeth could not tolerate the thirst for power which was stronger than the love Essex professed for her.

Costuming for the historical sketches added much to the colorful presentations. A frothy bit from Dorothy Parker's "Here We Are" concluded the program. Mr. and Mrs. Carradine giggled and wiggled their way to New York City as a pair of honeymooners on a train. The bride in a pink cabbage rose hat and the groom in a straw skimmer illustrated how blissfully happy and unreasonable young lovers can be—to the delight of a reminding audience.

City Records 1 Fatal Fire During 1961

Fires in Holland this year took a considerably higher toll, including one life, than they did in 1960.

On April 8, Holland recorded one death by fire, the first in over 2½ years, when an elderly man perished in a blaze that gutted the kitchen of the home in which he lived alone.

Louis Naberuis, 77, was found dead in the flames which damaged his home at 216 West 10th St. The last previous death by fire in Holland occurred in September, 1938, when a child burned to death while playing with matches.

Fire loss in the city jumped to nearly three times the 1960 fire loss. Estimated damage due to fires in Holland this year was set at $46,000, compared to only $16,000 a year ago.

Although no spectacular blazes occurred this year within the city, local firemen were called to assist in putting out three major fires outside of Holland.

In July firemen assisted Holland and Park Township volunteer firemen in quelling a fire which caused an estimated $300,000 damage at Conrad, Inc. on Douglas Ave., just north of the city.

A March fire leveled the offices and mill of the De Leeuw Lumber Co. on Lakewood Blvd., causing losses estimated at $100,000. Holland firemen responded to a plea for assistance by sending out a pumper and tanker.

In May, firemen were called to assist Saugatuck firemen in extinguishing a blaze at the Holiday Hotel on the Kalamazoo River in Saugatuck.

The biggest fire reported in Holland this year was a September blaze which gutted Mickey's Welding Shop on Paw Paw Dr. Firemen estimated damage caused by the blaze at $6,000 to the building and contents. A new automobile was among contents of the building which were destroyed.

During the year, local firemen answered a total of 189 calls and alarms. Grass and rubbish fires accounted for the largest single type of fire call with 54.

Fires in dwellings totaled 42 for the year followed by fires in businesses and commercial establishments with 27. There were 22 false alarms turned in from boxes throughout the city.

Department strength remained unchanged from 1960 with 19 full time firemen and 30 volunteers in addition to Fire Chief Dick Brandt.

Fire fighting equipment consisted of one pumper at the Central Park station, manned by volunteers, one pumper at the No. 1 fire station on West Eighth St. and a pumper, tanker and hook and ladder truck at the No. 2 station on East Eighth St.

Firemen held 22 business meetings and 44 drill periods through the month of November.

Couple Escape Injury When Train Hits Auto

A car driven by Billy Gene Fowler, 21, of 13323 Greenly St., was struck by a C&O diesel switch engine at the Pine Ave. crossing just north of Seventh St. at 10:30 p.m. Monday. Fowler and a passenger in his car escaped injury.

Fowler, who was driving north on Pine Ave., told Holland police he failed to see or hear the train until an instant before the collision. The engine struck the right side of the auto.

Police identified the train's engineer as George Lischer of Grand Rapids. Lischer told police both the train's horn and lights were working at the time of the mishap.

Three Vehicles Collide During Heavy Snow Storm

Blowing snow was blamed by Holland police for a three-car accident on the US-31 bypass at 40th St. at 4 p.m. Friday.

Police said Louis W. Gersner, 38, of Kalamazoo, was blinded by snow when the car he was driving struck the rear of a two-wheel trailer being pulled behind a pickup truck driven by Wilam E. Lordy, 61, of Grawn, Mich.

A moment after Gersner got out of his car, a third vehicle, driven by Arthur J. Fenrich, 36, of route 1, East Saugatuck, struck the rear of Gersner's auto. Fenrich told police he did not see Gersner's car until it was too late to stop.

In heraldry, the lion symbolizes bravery and the leopard represents cunning.

Married in Saugatuck Church

Mrs. Bud Howard Mancuso

Miss Beverly Jeanne Mathewson of Saugatuck exchanged marriage vows with Bud Howard Mancuso of Douglas in a pre-holiday ceremony on Dec. 15 at All Saints' Episcopal Church, Saugatuck.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mathewson of Alpena, former Saugatuck residents and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mancuso of Douglas.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Verne C. Hohl before the altar arranged with bouquets of white snapdragons, gladioli and white chrysanthemums. Mrs. Raymond McKamy, church organist, played the traditional wedding music.

For her wedding the bride selected a floor length gown of white satin with Victorian style features including a fitted bodice, long fitted sleeves and a semi-scoop neckline embroidered with sequins and seed pearls. A short chapel train of tiered chantilly lace fell from the waist of the bouffant skirt at the back. A seed pearl crown held in place her fingertip veil of silk illusion. A white satin muff held white gardenias and streamers. She was given-in-marriage by her father.

The holiday motif was carried out in the dresses of the maid of honor, Miss Judy Mathewson, sister of the bride and Miss Eileen Herbert, bridesmaid. They wore emerald green satin street length dresses with short sleeves, tight bodices and bell-shaped skirts. Their short veiled hats matched the dresses. They carried white satin muffs with red poinsettias.

Linda Rogers, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a white and green organza dress with bouffant skirt and a green velvet bow headband. Her tiny white satin muff held one small red poinsettia.

The bride's mother wore a pale mint green knit sheath dress with black accessories and a corsage of white baby mums. The groom's mother wore a light gray sheath with pink accessories and had a corsage of white and pink mums.

Larry Davis served as best man. Dick Sewers was groomsmen and Jon Gannon and Chris Souler served as ushers.

A reception for 200 guests was held in the Saugatuck American Legion Hall. Dale Ann Van Leuwen and Sandy Smith were in charge of the guest book; Barbara Oonk and Tame McCray, gift table; Mrs. Betty Fiala, Sally Peel and Corky Naughtin at the punch bowl.

For their wedding trip to Chicago, Detroit and Alpena, the Mrs. Mancuso wore a pink wool two-piece suit dress with black accessories and the gardenia corsage from her bridal flowers.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Mancuso are graduates of Saugatuck High School. She is employed as a secretary in the Fruit Growers Bank of Saugatuck and he is with the Saugatuck Commercial Record.

Soil Conservation Objectives, Accomplishments Reviewed

The West Ottawa Soil Conservation District was organized in 1938 under Michigan state law. The district includes all of Ottawa County. The basic objective is to encourage farmers to use each acre of agricultural land within its capabilities and treat each acre according to its needs for protection and improvement.

A Soil Conservation District is similar in its organization to a school district. Five directors are responsible for its operation. These men are elected by the people to serve a period of three years. The Soil Conservation Service of the United States Department of Agriculture is organized to furnish technical assistance to the district. Farmers make a written request to the Soil Conservation District for assistance in doing conservation work on their farms. Soil Conservation Service technicians work with these farmers.

The responsibility of the Soil Conservation Service is to help plan and apply needed soil conservation measures on farms in the district. This is done through the use of a soil conservation plan. The farmer agrees, when he asked for assistance for the Soil Conservation District, that he will use his land within its capabilities and treat it according to its needs. A soil scientist of the Soil Conservation Service which in this work unit is Robert Johnson of Grand Rapids, will make a detail soil survey on his farm if it has not already been made. This information is an inventory of the soil on the farm which includes the soil type, the slope, the erosion and the drainage. The capability class is determined from this information.

Class I through IV is best suited for crop land. Class V and VI are best suited for pasture. Class VII is best suited for trees and wildlife. With this information, the Soil Conservation Service technician and the farmer discuss the land use and needed treatment. The farmer then decides who he will use and treat his land.

The district also carries on an extensive educational program on soil and water conservation with both youth and adults. This year there were 42 people on the annual school tour. This is held each year in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service, the Ottawa Board of Education and 4-H Clubs of Ottawa County.

Thirty news articles covering district activities and conservation work is being distributed during the year. The Legislative tour is held annually for the purpose of presenting our State and Congress-sional representatives about the work going on in the district. Eighteen people including representatives from all the Agricultural Agencies in the County made the tour this year.

The district has several projects studying various phases of work in woodland management in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service and the State Department of Conservation. Two studies have been set up between the West Ottawa Soil Conservation District and the Lake States Experiment Station. One is for the study of chemical controlling of brush by spraying, and the other is the chemical control of insects by spraying.

The conservation accomplishments of the district during 1961 are as follows: Fifty-three farmers become district cooperators during this year. Making a total of 1849 cooperators in the district. There were 75 basic plans developed and 30 basic plans revised. More than 1,000 contracts were made during the year. There were 4,000 acres of conservation crop rotation, 165 acres of contour farming, 3,254 acres of cover cropping, and more than 5,000 acres of crop residue utilization on farms in the district.

There were 416 acres planted to trees, 157 acres pruned and 147 acres thinned. There were 170 acres of pasture planted this year. In conservation engineering there was 40 miles of tile drains established, almost five miles of ditches, six farm ponds and 10.5 acres of grass waterways established. Two erosion control structures were built during the year. Eighty acres of food plots for wildlife were established on cooperators farms in 1961.
