Fire was again discovered last evening in the residence of Mrs. Jennie Smith, 199 East Fifteenth street, more of which will be found in an article elsewhere. This time it was discovered in a closet. That the fire was set is not doubted as half burned rags, papers and kindling was found by the firemen. The person setting these fires must have a main for this work as no sane persons would be likely to lay themselves liable while other cases in the same house are under suspicion and are being investigated by the officers. This is the seventh fire in the same building within a month.

A petition to the common council asking that the matter of removing from Black river the sunken piles which are a menace to boatmen, is being circulated by Jacob Lokker, and as soon as enough signatures have been secured the petition will be presented to the council. It is set forth that the sunken piles in Black river, particularly at the River street bridge and the Pere Marquette bridge near Waverly, are a hidden danger that should be removed. It will be remembered that about four years ago two parties lost their lives as a result to these obstructions while boating on the river, the boat striking submerged pile which stove a hole in it. Neither could swim, and their lifeless bodies were later recovered. Other accidents of a less tragic character have been caused by the piles. Last year some boys experienced a similar accident near Waverly, but being able to swim they saved their lives. The boys were rowing near Waverly when their boat struck a pile and began to fill.

Forty-Four Boats Lost.

Three passenger steamers are included in the list of vessels which passed out of existence from the great lakes during the 1906 season. With these exceptions, the forty-four vessels lost were all freight boats. These vessels had a carrying capacity of 60,750 tons a trip, or about 1,215,000 tons during the season of navigation.

Fire destroyed the passenger steamer Atlanta early in the year. The Canadian steamer J. H. Jones foundered in Georgian bay with thirty or more persons, while the last of the trio of passenger vessels to go was the Monarch, which struck on a rocky island in Lake Superior and went to pieces.

Twenty-three of the lost vessels were steamers, and twenty-one were schooners and barges. Sixteen boats went to pieces on the beach, fifteen foundered, seven were burned and six were lost in collisions.

The property loss of $1,926,000 was not nearly as great as it was in 1905, when forty-eight boats with a capacity of 2,000,000 tons for a season, and valued at $2,341,500, were wiped out. Many of the vessels that were lost in 1906 were loaded, and the loss will be quite heavy.

The greatest loss of the season was the steel steamer Grecian, which foundered in Thunder bay. The Grecian was valued at $100,000. She was the only American steel built boat that was lost on the lakes last season. In 1905 nine steel vessels were lost and several of them were large carriers.

Canadian owners were hit pretty hard the past season, and eight steamers that were owned across the lake are included in the list of total losses.

The schooners Algeria and Armenia which foundered in Lake Erie were the largest vessels that were lost. They had a carrying capacity of 3,800 tons each. The steamer Grecian with 3,000 tons capacity was the largest of the steamers.

The Atlanta was destroyed by fire, the Bulgaria was stranded, the J. M. Nicol stranded. All these disasters were on Lake Michigan.

He came to America from Hoogeveen, province of Groningen, Netherlands, in a sailing vessel in 1847. He located in Allegan and in 1849 he walked from Kalamazoo to San Francisco, returning two years later with enough of the glittering metal to purchase an 80-acre farm.

West Olive.

Mr. E. T. Westfall and Laben Purchase have received one of the handsomest three year old stallions ever seen in these parts for some time and his pedigree reads something like this: "This is to certify that the Percheron stallion Joli 63364 imported from France in 1906 by J. Groush & Son of Lafayette, Ind., is recorded on Percheron register and his number is 41466, foaled February 11, 1904; bred by M. Mondoubleau department of Lois et chev Germany." The Praise That Comes from Thankful Holland People.

One kidney remedy never fails. Holland people may rely upon it. That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Holland testimony proves it always reliable.

Mrs. D. Van Houten, of 287 West 13th street, says: "I had constant heavy aching pain through the loins, in the muscles of my back and under the shoulder blades. My back tired easily from exertion and if I stooped or lifted anything heavy, sharp twinges caught me in the region of my kidneys. I could not rest comfortably in any position and when I first got up mornings I felt as tired and worn out as I was the night previous. I tried a great many remedies, but if any of them benefited me it was very temporary. I was advised to use Doan's Kidney Pills and went to J. O. Doesburg's drug store and got a box. I did not take them long before I noticed an improvement which steadily continued until I was in good health."

The Governor's Message.

Governor Warner's message, which by reason of his illness was presented to the legislature last Thursday by his private secretary, included not only a comprehensive review of the recent happenings in state affairs as related to legislative and executive action, but contains several important recommendations. Among others was a recommendation that the legislature should provide for two cent fares on all railroads in the lower peninsula, except the few independent lines earning less than $1,000 a mile, and three cents per mile on all upper peninsula lines. That a binding twine plant be established in the state prison at Jackson, that the payment of primary school amounts should be limited to $3.50 for each pupil, the remainder to go to the state educational institutions, and that the railroad car shortage situation should be investigated, are other important recommendations made by Governor Warner. It will probably be found that the governor has well interpreted legislative willingness and popular desire.

The Holland Launch & Engine Co., formally organized, the following officers were elected:
President—J. Lokker,
Vice president—H. Garvelink.

The company will begin business at once, Mr. Garvelink having arranged for the removal of his plant here this week.

The Wolverine factory is being overhauled and placed in readiness to receive the machinery from Mr. Garvelink's Grand Rapids plant.

The company starts in with a paid in capital of $10,000 and will not be handicapped in any way, the success of the enterprise being assured.

Steamer Frontenac Labeled.

On May 30 last, while running to Waukegan, the steamer Frontenac collided with and sunk the tug C. W. Elphicke in Waukegan harbor. The steamer has now been seized in Chicago by the U. S. marshal on a damage claim for $3200 filed by the tug's owners.

The Frontenac was operated during the passenger season by the Nessen line between here and Manitowish. When the Nessen company gave up their owner, J. R. Burrell of Lorain took charge of the boat.

Head of The Graham & Morton Transportation Co. is Dead.

J. H. Graham, president of the Graham & Morton Transportation company, died at his home in St. Joseph yesterday morning as a result of typhoid fever which had confined him to his bed several weeks.

The sickness was brought on by exposure of the great boat owner while superintending the laying up of the large fleet of steamers for the winter.

In his passing Lake Michigan loses her foremost passenger traffic magnate and a pioneer in the business who was accredited to be several times a millionaire.

Born of poor parentage on a farm near St. Joseph, J. H. Graham died in the fine mansion on Broad street, which had been his home many years.

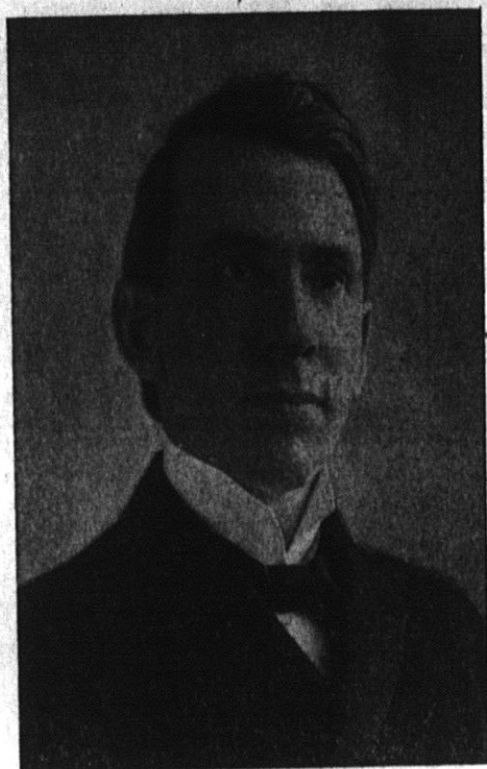

Mr. Graham was a pioneer in the steamboat business on Lake Michigan. At an early age he was attracted by the possibilities of steamboating which was then in its infancy and with the aid of friends he placed a small steamer on the route between St. Joseph, Benton Harbor and Chicago. Gradually his business grew until at the time of his death he owned personally a splendid fleet of modern steel steamships plying between Chicago and east shore points, notably Holland. He had in his employ an army of men. He was also interested in several other large enterprises.

Will Hold Meeting January 30.

The consistories of the Ninth street and Central avenue Christian Reformed churches favor the movement for the organization of two societies, one in the western part of the city and another in the Prospect park section.

A meeting of the consistories of these two churches was held to consider the plans, the church officers meeting in the consistory room of the Central avenue church. Rev. R. L. Haan presided and A. Peters acted as secretary.

It was the sense of the meeting that the old church societies should render all aid and support in their power in furthering the establishment of two new churches. While the churches will not bind themselves to contribute any specified amount of money, the promoters are expected to work among the two congregations soliciting funds. It was thought advisable that those soliciting for the west end confine themselves to the district west of Central avenue, and those for the Prospect park church to the district east of Central avenue.

Regarding sites it is proposed that the west end church be located on First avenue between Seventeenth and Twentieth streets, and the location for the south church be on State street or Central avenue between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-seventh streets.

At a meeting held at the residence of H. Haveman Monday evening, the following men who are interested in the movement for organizing a new Christian Reformed church society in the Prospect Park section gathered together.

Messrs. A. Peters, D. W. Jellema, John Brinks, C. Vander Schraaf, B. Beckman, H. Bosch, G. Achterhof, B. Steggink, B. Piebenga, B. Tenholt, J. Visada and H. Haveman.

Three committees were appointed to go among the members of the denomination and secure the names of those who would join the new society. As such committees were appointed H. Haveman and B. Piebenga; B. Beckman and J. Markus; H. Bosch, D. W. Jellema, and B. Steggink.

J. Brinks, D. W. Jellema and A. Peters were appointed a committee on site. They are to secure options on land suitable for the location of the church.

A public meeting will be held January 30 in the fifth ward school house, when all these committees will report.

Citizens Meeting.

At a meeting called on Jan. 4th to protest the course taken to amend the charter of the City of Holland, to pass a law without the approval or consent of the people, Olef J. Hanson was chosen chairman and the following resolutions were adopted by fifty citizens present at said meeting:

1. To recommend the readjustment of the Ward Boundaries to secure proportional representation.
2. To recommend that the present police system be continued.
3. That it be optional to continue party politics.
4. We concur in the recall features of the proposed charter and recommend that it be extended to all appointed officers.
5. That no Charter be adopted without being first submitted to a referendum of the whole people at a general election.

Olef J. Hanson, Chairman.

Ver Hage of Zeeland Loses.

A cream separator was the cause of a civil suit which lasted all day in Justice Van Duren's court Tuesday, Hilbert Gelderloos, a Zeeland township farmer, bringing suit

M. C. Ver Hage, the Zeeland hardware merchant, to recover $75 paid for a hand separator which was sold on 30 days trial.

The plaintiff was represented by Attorney Daniel Ten Cate of this city, and Ver Hage's counsel was Attorney J. J. Heck of Zeeland. The witnesses for the plaintiff were Mr. and Mrs. Gelderloos, and C. J. Lokker of this city. For Ver Hage appeared Agent McCreary of Grand Rapids, the defendant and two Zeeland men, Geerts and Van Zoeren.

The trial began at 9 a. m. and ended at 5:30 p. m. when the jury brought in a verdict for the plaintiff, assigning him judgement for $65, the costs of $16 also to be paid by Ver Hage. The jury, which was out an hour before reaching a decision, was composed of H. Van Tongeren, M. Witvliet, John Kramer, sr., P. Westveld, J. B. Mulder and Wm. Breyman.

The plaintiff bought of Ver Hage last May a Sharpless cream separator to be operated by hand, paying $75 for it with the understanding that it could be returned within 30 days if it was not as represented and the money would be refunded. The separator was returned but Ver Hage claimed it was a regular sale and refused to refund the money, hence the suit.

Rev. H. Van Hoogen Passed Away.

The Rev. H. Van Hoogen died at his home in Paterson, N. J. He was taken sick with a severe cold, which developed into pneumonia Saturday.

Mr. Van Hoogen was one of the most widely known clergymen in the Holland Christian Reformed denomination and owing to his long ministerial service was honored with the position of presiding officer of the synod which convened in this city last June.

He graduated from the theological seminary in Kampen, Netherlands, in 1865, and came to America about 13 years ago, accepting a call to the Christian Reformed church at Roseland, Ill., where he continued as pastor for two years. He thereupon responded to a call extended by the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church of this city and for eight years labored with great success in her midst. Three years ago he left for Paterson, N. J., and became pastor of the Prospect Park church.

Mr. Van Hoogen had been a clergyman for 41 years. Despite his advanced age of 71 years he was one of the halest of men. He is survived by a widow and two daughters. He was thrice married. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from his late home.

Among the pastors who officiated at the funeral services of Rev. H. Van Hoogen Wednesday was Rev. K. Van Goor, formerly pastor of the Ninth street Christian Reformed church in this city, now of Paterson.

As If It Were Set.

The fire department responded to an alarm Saturday morning to extinguish a blaze at the home of Mrs. Jennie Smith and her son-in-law, Geo. Lazette, No. 199 East Fifteenth st. air, welcoming and smiles greeted students on every hand. The number of the student body has not been affected. Although one is obliged to remain at home another has come to fill the number, so that the number of students will this term be that of last term.

The blaze was of incendiary origin starting in the rear of the kitchen and being the second during the morning. The first fire broke out at 3 o'clock when the adjoining residence of Frank Van Dyk was discovered to be ablaze, a quantity of kindling wood piled upon the outside trap door having been set afire and crawling up the sidings of the house, awakened Van Dyke and both fires were extinguished.

The Smith home has been afire at six different times since they came here, the last one occurring about three weeks ago and in the same place that it started today. They came here four months ago from Toledo, and shortly after purchased the residence of Fred Hieftje. She was dissatisfied with the property, for which she paid $1,100, paying $475 down and the balance on two mortgages.

Mrs. Smith and Lazette was summoned to appear before Justice McBride before breakfast that morning and their dispositions were taken. The case is being investigated by the police and Justice McBride will ask the county authorities to delve into the matter and some sensational developments are expected.

Mrs. Smith was severely burned about her hands in her effort to extinguish the first blaze. The first to call the officers attention to incendiary nature of the fire was Alderman Van Tongeren.

Sheriff Buys A Home.

Sheriff Jesse G. Woodbury has bought the residence and adjoining property of John J. Rutgers, located on Lake avenue. By the purchase one of the finest pieces of property in the city has been secured by the sheriff. The sheriff's present idea is to make the new residence his home unless he gets an unusually good offer to sell.

The sheriff's new home is a land mark on Lake avenues. It was originally known as the Garney house and has passed through several hands since it was built. Of late it has been owned by Mrs. Daniel Miller and later by Captains Cobb's estate from whom it was bought by John J. Rutgers who lived there during his term of office as register of deeds. He has offered it for sale and found little trouble finding a purchaser.

The building has been equipped with a modern heating plant during Mr. Rutgers' ownership and otherwise greatly improved. The grounds are among the most beautiful in the city and as the town is spreading out the location is ceasing to be lonesome.

It is a peculiar fact that Jesse Woodbury came to town, many years ago and while passing out Lake avenue, he noticed the property. It captured him immediately and he set his heart on getting it. He resolved that some day he would possess the handsome piece and the deal was closed yesterday.—Grand Haven Tribune.

ROOSEVELT IS AFTER WARREN.

Land Fraud Charges Against Wyoming Senator Being Investigated.

Washington, Jan. 7.—The secretary of the interior is investigating the conduct of Senator Francis E. Warren, of Wyoming, chairman of the senate committee on military affairs. The senator is charged with fencing in and appropriating 50,000 acres of public lands in his state. The name of the person who filed the charges is not disclosed.

President Roosevelt is said to have inspected the papers. Neither he nor Secretary Hitchcock believes the charges, but they feel that a careful inquiry would be but justice to the senator.

The senator denounces the charges as false, and declares that they are pushed solely for the purpose of persecuting him. He has invited the fullest investigation.

Hi The World Wonders

how the other half lives. Those who use Bucklen's Arnica Salve never wonder if it will cure Cuts, Wound Burns, Sores and all Skin eruptions; they know it will. Mrs. Grant Sy, 1130 E. I Know so Positively What Kosmeo Will Do because I am a grandmother with grandchildren old enough to go to school and I have made it and used it myself for 16 years, and it has kept my skin youthful, and because I have received thousands of letters from ladies who have given it a fair, thorough test, and who are delighted with the improvement in their complexion.

Kosmeo The Beauty Maker

removes the signs of age—keeps the skin youthful and makes it sun- and wind-proof. Kosmeo cleanses every pore of the skin and removes all the dirt and hardened secretions, giving new life to the indolent, clogged pores, and gradually refining and closing the coarse open pores. It gives a delightful freshness to the harsh, dry skin and prevents the wrinkles that always result from a dry skin. It soothes and almost immediately heals the chapped, irritated skin. It removes sunburn and tan. It absolutely prevents freckles, tan and sunburn and other harmful effects of sun and wind. It keeps the skin soft, clear and velvety—looking as fresh as a young girl's and feeling as fresh as it looks. It is delightful for men's use after shaving.

Ask your Druggist for a 50c Jar

If he does not keep it, write to me telling me his name, and I will either send you a jar, prepaid at the same price (50c) or I will give you the name of some other druggist in your city from whom you can buy Kosmeo. Take this jar home with you. Just before you retire, rub a little Kosmeo on your face and neck—it is not necessary to rub it hard—leave it a moment and then wipe it off. At once you will notice the fresh, delicious feeling it gives your skin. You will see too how much cleaner and better, and how much freer from blemish your skin becomes as you use Kosmeo day by day.

No special rubbing or massage is required with Kosmeo. In the preparation itself lies the virtue. But you can find out for yourself much better than I can tell you how great will be the luxury, the benefit, the improvement, which will come to you after a fair trial of Kosmeo. Kosmeo does not contain animal fats or mineral oils, therefore will not grow hair on the face.

HURLS BOMB IN A BANK; TWO DEAD

ROLLO STEELE, REFUSED LOAN
DROPS MISSILE IN PHILADELPHIA INSTITUTION.

Thrower and Cashier Blown to Pieces
—Six Employees Injured, Some of Whom May Die—Explosion Completely Wrecks Office.

Philadelphia, Jan. 7.—Demanding a loan of $5,000 and failing to get it, Rollo Steele, formerly of Garner, Ia., and Chicago, dropped a bomb in the Fourth Street National bank Saturday, blowing him to pieces, instantly killing Cashier W. Z. McLearn and injuring six others.

Blast Causes Great Excitement.
The Fourth Street National bank is the largest financial institution in the city and occupies the greater portion of the first floor of the Bulfinch building on Fourth street between Chestnut and Walnut streets in the heart of the financial district. The explosion was terrific and it caused tremendous excitement in the crowded building and the street.

The explosion occurred a few minutes before 12 o'clock, at a time when the bank is usually well filled with persons in a hurry to transact business before the bank closes. No one saw Steele enter the bank except E. F. Shanbacher, the vice president, who was passing out of the building on his way to luncheon. He noticed the man was poorly dressed, looked like a Russian and carried a small parcel. The man walked straight back to the rear of the bank and asked a clerk to direct him to the office of the president, Richard H. Rushton. What took place in his office is best told by the president himself:

Demand Loan of $5,000.

"I was very busy when the man entered my office and I asked him to be seated for a moment. He was very poorly dressed, had patches on his shoes and his entire appearance made me a bit curious. While he was waiting for me to finish the business I had in hand at the moment I happened to notice that he looked at me very curiously. I asked him his business and he gave his name as G. E. Williams and said he wanted a loan of $5,000. He did not look like a man who could make a loan of that amount and I asked him for collateral. He said something about an insurance policy and that it would mature in from one to five years. I was then convinced the man was a crank and decided to dismiss him at once, not for a moment thinking there was any harm in him. I told him at once that he would have to see the cashier and directed him out in the banking department. At the same moment I called my colored messenger, William Crump, to see that the man was quickly taken out of the building. As I turned to continue my work at the desk there was a terrific explosion and I thought the building was coming down. The man had not time to reach the cashier, the explosion came too soon."

Two Lives Snuffed Out.

Details as to what actually happened when the man left the office of President Rushton differ as no one can be found who saw the man drop the bomb. The door to the office of Cashier McLearn is only a few feet from that of President Rushton, and the man must have dropped the deadly missile between the two rooms. Cashier McLearn was sitting at his desk at the time and his body was badly mangled. The bomb thrower's body was torn to pieces.

At the time the explosion occurred all the vaults were open, books were piled on desks and papers of all sorts of value were lying on desks preparatory to being put away for the day. The explosion devastated the interior of the big banking room. Glass and wooden partitions were wrecked and leveled to the ground as though a cyclone had swept through the place. Desks were ruined and iron bars were twisted, in fact there was hardly an object left intact in the room.

Believed Building Collapsed.

The explosion blew every one in the banking room to the floor and for a moment they were dazed. Many of them not knowing what had happened and fearing that the building, which is an eight story structure, was falling, made a rush for the door. Mr. Rushton among them. The roar of the explosion brought the tenants on all floors to their feet and a general rush was made to the elevators and the stairways. As the excited people came out there was a rush from the street to rescue those who it was thought had been caught in the explosion. In the meantime an alarm of fire was sent in and firemen were quickly on the ground. There being no fire in the place the firemen and police ordered everybody out and a strong guard was thrown about the building.

TRAGEDY STIRS PORTLAND

DOCTOR IS MYSTERIOUSLY MURDERED IN OREGON CITY.

Body of Ex-Gov. Hoadley's Son-in-Law
Found Mangled Below Bridge
—No Motive Shown.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 9.—The murder of Dr. Philip Edwards Johnson, a physician recently arrived from New York, is one of the most mysterious tragedies that ever occurred in the northwest.

Dr. Johnson came to Portland with his newly-wedded wife two months ago to establish his home and practice his profession. Before her marriage last fall Mrs. Johnson was Mrs. Scarborough. She is a daughter of former Gov. Hoadley of Ohio. Dr. Johnson was a son of the Episcopal archdeacon of Staten Island. He graduated from Columbia university.

Shortly after dining with his wife Monday night Dr. Johnson announced his intention of visiting Dr. Pantan, one of the examining board by which he was to be examined for admission to practice in this state. His trip was made against the protests of his wife, who feared highwaymen. On his way Dr. Johnson called on his cousin, W. C. Alvord, assistant cashier of a local bank.

What happened at Alvord's house has not been learned, Alvord refusing to make any statement. Alvord's parents, however, told the police that after leaving their home Dr. Johnson walked toward the Ford street bridge, two blocks distant, to go to Dr. Pantan's home. A short time later a car conductor found Johnson's mangled body lying in Jefferson street, 117 feet below the bridge.

Johnson's pockets had been turned inside out and his watch removed. His empty pocketbook and keys were found on the bridge.

Capt. Bruin of the police department does not believe Johnson was robbed, but thinks the motive was more sinister than robbery.

HEAVY RAIN IN OHIO VALLEY.

Repetition of Flood of 1884 Feared in Indiana.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 9.—A rainfall of two inches, which was general up and down the Ohio valley, has renewed the fears of a repetition of the floods of 1884. At noon Tuesday the river was stationary at 40 feet. The downpour has not been equalled for years. Union township is partly under water, the roads being covered five feet in some places. The damage to farmers is very heavy.

Mount Vernon, Ind., Jan. 9.—In the extreme southwestern corner of Indiana, where the Ohio and Wabash rivers join, the lowlands are covered with water and much damage has been reported. Many acres of growing wheat have been destroyed and thousands of acres of corn which the lowland farmers were unable to gather have been lost. A great deal of live stock, including hogs, horses and mules, have been lost. Some miles below this city, where the Wabash empties into the Ohio, the scene resembles a great lake.

Springfield, O., Jan. 9.—The water in Buck creek is rising and people living in that section are making preparations to move should the creek overflow its banks. Great bodies of water stand in the low places about the city. Out in the country thousands of acres of land are under water. The damage already will amount to thousands of dollars.

ANOTHER FUEL FAMINE NEAR.

Coal Enough to Last Only Little Over a Week at Missoula, Mont.

Butte, Mont., Jan. 9.—A dispatch from Missoula states that the Northern Pacific railway at that point is confronted with a famine, the situation being aggravated by the extra demand for coal to maintain big rotary plows on the Couer d'Alene line, where the snow in some places is said to be eight feet deep. As it is, that branch of the Northern Pacific through the mountain section is said to be practically snow bound. Coal has ceased coming from the Roslyn mines and the bunkers of the company at this place contain only 10,000 tons, a little more than enough to last the balance of the week.

Washington, Jan. 9.—In view of the fact that many homestead settlers are said to be freezing in North Dakota and the rules of the department of the interior provide in many cases that residence of the settler shall be continuous, Senator Hansbrough has prepared a resolution to relieve the situation. He proposes that the settlers be permitted leave of absence for three months to extend over the winter period and that this absence shall not interfere with their entry rights.

Wreck Not Serious.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 9.—In response to an inquiry the Evening Journal has a long distance telephone message from Augusta saying that the accident reported on the Georgia railway at Barnett, Ga., is not serious. Two or three cars were overturned, and one man was slightly bruised. The sensational report that 25 persons have been killed proves to be untrue.

Anniversary of Famous Battle.

New Orleans, Jan. 9.—Business houses generally, including the cotton exchange were closed Tuesday in honor of the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans. The anniversary is a legal holiday in Louisiana.

It Takes Nerve

Everything depends upon your nerves. It is nerve force that causes the brain to direct the motion of your body; it is nerve force that causes your heart to pulsate, and send the blood through your veins; it is nerve force that causes your stomach to digest food, your kidneys to filter the blood, and the liver to secrete bile.

In fact, nerve force is the power that runs your body, so if you feel worn-out, irritable, nervous, cannot sleep, or eat well, have pain or misery anywhere, your nerves are weak, and your system run-down. To restore this vitality take Dr. Miles' Nerve which will strengthen and build up the nerves. You cannot be healthy without strong nerves.

"For eighteen years Dr. Miles' Nerve and Anti-Pain Pills have been my close companions. Early in married life, while raising children, my nerves became all worn-out—could not sleep; had no appetite; indigestion very bad, and had such awful dizzy spells. Then I began using Dr. Miles' Nerve, and at once I began to improve, and soon found myself in perfect health."

VARICOCELE CURED

NO NAMES USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT.
Confined to His Home for Weeks.

"Heavy work, severe straining and evil habits in youth brought on a double varicocele. When I worked hard the aching would become severe and I was often laid up for a week at a time. My family physician told me an operation was my only hope—but I dreaded it. I tried several specialists, but soon found out all they wanted was my money. I commenced to look upon all doctors as little better than rogues. One day my boss asked me why I was off work so much and I told him my condition. He advised me to consult Drs. Kennedy and Kergan, as he had taken treatment from them himself and knew they were square and skillful. He wrote them and got the New Method Treatment for me. My progress was somewhat slow and during the first month's treatment I was somewhat discouraged. However, I continued treatment for three months longer and was rewarded with a complete cure. I could only earn $12 a week in a machine shop before treatment, now I am earning $31 and never lose a day. I wish all sufferers knew of your valuable treatment."

FORAKER TALKS ON THE NEGRO ORDER

OHIO SENATOR CONTINUES THE DEBATE ON THE "SHOOTING UP" OF BROWNSVILLE.

Opposing Lodge's Resolution, He Declares President's Power Is Derived From Constitution—House Favors Court Review of Fraud Orders.

Washington, Jan. 8.—President Roosevelt's dismissal of the negro troops was again the subject of contention in the senate Monday, and indications point to protracted debate before any of the pending resolutions on the subject are voted on.

Senator Lodge developed a new phase of the question by presenting a resolution providing for an investigation of the "affray" at Brownsville and, by silence, conceding the authority of the president to take the action he did. This resolution was supported by Mr. Lodge in an address and opposed by Mr. Foraker, who followed and spoke until 5:30 o'clock, giving notice then that he would conclude Tuesday.

Source of President's Power. Mr. Foraker reviewed the objections of Mr. Lodge to the Foraker resolution. The substance he said, of the Massachusetts senator's position was that the matter involved two questions, one of fact as to the affray, the other of law as to the president's authority. Mr. Foraker said he was opposed to the Lodge position on both questions.

Mr. Foraker denied that the power of the president was deduced from what was the power of the commander-in-chief of the British army. It must be deduced from the constitution of the United States. The power the president derived from congress was his legal power. It was not necessary, he said, to go to British precedents to ascertain this power, as the supreme court of the United States had spoken on the subject many times and always had said simply it was the president's power to "command."

"There is no autocracy in this country," said Mr. Foraker; "no autocratic, dictatorial, unrestrained and unrestricted power; not even in the commander-in-chief of the army. All power is derived from the constitution."

Defends Ohio Regiment. When Mr. Foraker remarked, in the course of his argument, "and now I come to the Sixtieth Ohio," a stir of interest swept the chamber and galleries.

"Will some one tell me why the regiment was cited as a precedent?" he asked, and replying to his own question said, "But I know, and every one here knows why it was so cited. It was the bravest regiment that ever wore the uniform." Mr. Foraker maintained that the regiment had been honorably discharged. He said he had been flooded with letters, and a number of these he read to show that the regiment was disorganized while under parole and held in the service after its term had expired.

Mr. Foraker brought into light the record of several New York regiments, one of which he said had run when faced by Stonewall Jackson's veterans, and another of which had abandoned Maryland Heights, the key to Harper's Ferry. He did not wish to make any disparaging comparisons. "But," he added, "when you are taking the history of regiments you must take them as you find them."

Tillman Asks "Why?" Just as Senator Foraker was concluding Senator Tillman arose, and said he would like to hear from the senator just why it was that the Sixtieth Ohio had been "picked out."

"It is such a delightful experience to keep something back that I think I shall disappoint the senator," Mr. Foraker replied, smiling.

Senator Tillman made one more appeal for information and asked if Senator Foraker was not a member of the regiment. Senator Foraker explained that it had been erroneously stated that he was, but that in reality the Eighty-ninth Ohio was the only regiment to which he had belonged.

"Perhaps somebody at the war department may have thought the senator got into the regiment," persisted Senator Tillman.

"I don't know that the war department thought of that," was the answer, "but it is possible that somebody at the war department or some other place remembered that the senator from Ohio lived in Ohio."

Review of Fraud Orders. The house Monday passed a bill providing for a judicial review of orders excluding persons from the use of United States mail facilities, after a debate extending over the major portion of the day. In presenting reasons why the bill should be passed Mr. Crumpacker said the power given the postmaster general under the statutes to issue fraud orders was not at all an administrative discretion. It rather partook of the nature of a political power for the regulation of the morals of the people of the country.

STRIKE IS CALLED OFF

OFFICIALS SIGN PAPERS ENDING SOUTHERN PACIFIC TROUBLE.

All Firemen Taken Back Without Prejudice—The Disputed Points Are to Be Arbitrated.

Houston, Tex., Jan. 8.—The strike of the Southern Pacific firemen was formally declared off at noon Monday following the signing of an agreement by Vice President and General Manager Thornwell Fay and General Manager W. G. Van Vleet for the Harri-man roads affected by the strike; Vice Grand Chief W. H. Willis, for the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and Vice Grandmaster Timothy Shea, for the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

This agreement went into effect at noon. It provides:

1. A board of three arbitrators shall determine whether or not the Southern Pacific railroad abrogated its contract with the firemen when it signed the new agreement May 1, 1906, with the engineers. The company shall name one of the board, the firemen shall name a second and the two thus chosen shall select a third.

2. All employees who went on strike shall return to their former positions without prejudice to their rights.

3. The seniority of engineers who went on strike shall be determined at a meeting of the general board of adjustment of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers of the Southern Pacific railroad, Atlantic system, at a meeting to be held in Houston Thursday, January 10.

4. What each organization shall concede will be determined by the board of arbitration.

The meeting place of the board of arbitration has not been fixed but probably will be this city.

Practically all of the men on strike, to the number of about 500, have either already returned to work or will resume their former positions within the next 24 hours.

The railroad company will provide for the really serviceable men employed during the strike, but the strike breakers who were brought from outside points will be dismissed.

SUES TO OUST MCLELLAN. New York Attorney General Begins Action Against Gotham Mayor.

New York, Jan. 8.—Attorney General Jackson, on behalf of the people of the state of New York, Monday entered suit in the supreme court against George B. McClellan, praying that the latter be ousted from the office of mayor of the city of New York on the ground that he has usurped and unlawfully holds such office, whereas William Randolph Hearst is legally entitled to the same.

The complaint declares flatly that at the election in November, 1905, Mr. Hearst "was duly and legally elected mayor of the city of New York." It is further alleged that ballots legally marked for Hearst were counted for McClellan by the inspectors of election and that these "miscounts" formed the basis of the returns of the vote. It is claimed that men not entitled to vote were allowed to vote for McClellan, and that in many other ways the election laws were violated at the 1905 election. Votes cast for Hearst, it is declared, were not counted in a number of districts.

ZINAT CAPTURED, RAISULI FLEES

SULTAN'S TROOPS TAKE THE STRONGHOLD OF THE MOROCCAN REBEL.

Battle Is Almost Bloodless—Bandit Chief and His 700 Followers Escape to the Mountains—Next Move Against Mulai Mohammed.

Tangier, Jan. 7.—Zinat, Raisuli's stronghold, was virtually destroyed by fire and fell into the hands of the troops of the sultan at noon Sunday, after a short and almost bloodless fight.

Raisuli and his 700 followers succeeded in eluding capture and reaching the mountains, despite the elaborate plans of War Minister Gabbas to prevent their escape.

No firing took place Saturday night, but at ten o'clock Sunday morning the artillery, under command of an Algerian native lieutenant whom the French authorities permitted to participate in the battle on request of War Minister Gabbas, opened fire on the town.

Stronghold Found Empty.

The Moorish gunners showed utter incapacity in handling their guns and the infantry fired haphazard. Two shells dropped inside the fastness without reply, and thereupon a body of the sultan's troops charged, shouting, and reached the walls amid desultory shots from the surrounding brush.

The gates to the town were found to be open, but there were no occupants of the place except 15 prisoners, included among whom were four Portuguese.

A detachment of the government troops continued firing in the direction of the mountains, where Raisuli and his followers were observed fleeing.

Meanwhile the other government troops pillaged the stronghold, securing considerable booty in the shape of costly carpets, arms, cattle and sheep.

No Fatalities Reported.

No fatalities in the fighting Sunday were reported, though a few persons on both sides were wounded. It is thought probable that the Raisulites carried off their dead.

Minister of War Gabbas, who has not left Tangier during the operations, is expected will next move against the pretender to the throne, Mulai Mohammed, a brother of the sultan, from whose followers there have been many defections recently.

The Spanish officers of the international police created by the Algeiras convention have arrived here and will take up their duties at the end of the month.

GOV. DAVIDSON INAUGURATED.

Wisconsin Executive Eliminates State Ball from Programme.

Madison Wis., Jan. 8.—Gov. James O. Davidson and other state officers-elect were inducted into office Monday, the oath being administered by Chief Justice J. B. Cassoday. Supreme Court Justice-elect William H. Timlin took the oath at the same time. The usual inaugural ball was eliminated from the programme for the first time in many years. A reception in the evening by Mrs. Davidson at the executive mansion took the place of the ball.

The legislature will convene on Wednesday when the governor's message will be presented and read to both legislative bodies.

Triplets Come, Then Twins.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 8.—The family of Charles Stevenson of Kittanning has been increased five members in the last 18 months. In the latter part of 1905 triplets arrived, and last night twins were born. All the children are doing well.

TOPICS FOR THE ILLINOIS SOLONS

INSURANCE LEGISLATION WILL TAKE UP CONSIDERABLE TIME OF LAWMAKERS.

SEVERAL NEW BILLS TO BE INTRODUCED

Legislatures of Minnesota, North Dakota and Kansas in Session—Wyoming Will Again Name Warren as Senator.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 9.—Legislation affecting insurance companies will be one of the principal topics with which the state legislature, which opens today, will deal at the forthcoming session. O. B. Ryan, of Streator, one of the best known insurance experts in the state, who was appointed by Gov. Deneen a year ago to revise the insurance statutes, has practically completed his work. The result will be the introduction of a number of bills concerning the fire, life and fraternal insurance companies and their methods.

Mr. Ryan said Tuesday that none of the proposed laws will be radical and consequently he expects little opposition to their passage. The bills, he says, will result in greater safety to the public and increased stability of the companies. Mr. Ryan while drawing up the measures conferred with a number of leading insurance men of the state to obtain their views and in most cases satisfaction was expressed with the contemplated legislation.

Defect of Present Laws. In going over the present statutes Mr. Ryan has found that a number of them were made necessary at the time of the Chicago fire. There being no further need of such insurance laws at this time, it was found in some cases that certain sections might be repealed and this will be done in the bills to be introduced. A few acts were also found to be obsolete.

One of the principal bills to be introduced, according to Mr. Ryan, will be for the establishment of the office of state fire marshal. The bill will follow the law as it exists in Massachusetts and in Ohio. It is proposed to have the state divided into districts and subdistricts with marshals in charge. It is hoped thereby to reduce arson to a great extent.

A bill will be introduced prohibiting the future issuing of deferred dividend policies. Another measure will be presented prohibiting contributions by insurance companies for political or campaign purposes.

For a State Rebate Law. Revision of the present antirebate law is provided in a bill which is designed particularly to punish the agent of an insurance company in connection therewith. This bill provides a jail sentence for an agent found guilty of giving rebates, whereas heretofore it has only been a fine. The recipient of a rebate may also be fined under the provisions of the bill.

Mr. Ryan has also drawn a bill which modifies the law relating to investments by insurance companies. The measure changes the law a little, but not seriously.

A bill has also been prepared designed to secure greater publicity of insurance companies and for a stricter enforcement of existing laws and closer examination and supervision.

Legislature of Minnesota Sits.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 9.—The biennial session of the Minnesota legislature met for organization at noon Tuesday. L. H. Johnson of Minneapolis was elected speaker of the house and Adolph E. L. Johnson of Minneapolis chief clerk. In the senate Lieut.-Gov. A. C. Eberhart presided. To-day at noon the bodies will meet in joint session to listen to the reading of the message by Gov. Johnson, which is said to contain some strong features.

North Dakota Republicans Split.

Bismarck, N. D., Jan. 9.—The legislature met for organization at noon Tuesday. At a caucus of the Republican members of the senate Monday night an organization was arranged, headed by J. Austin Reagan for president pro tem. In the house, however, things were somewhat different, as the 32 stalwart Republican members failed to get together at a caucus, while the insurgent Republicans and Democrats, numbering over 60, agreed upon a slate headed by T. Twitchell of Cass county for speaker and P. D. Norton of Ramsey for chief clerk.

Kansas Lawmakers Meet.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 9.—The legislature convened here Tuesday in biennial session. Governor Hoch will not be inaugurated for his second term till Monday, January 14. Great interest centered around the selection of a successor of Alfred W. Benson, United States senator, whose term expires on March 4. Senator Benson is a candidate for re-election and there are half a dozen other avowed candidates. As the legislature is overwhelmingly Republican, a member of that party will be elected.

Reelection of Warren Assured.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 9.—On the first ballot the Republican members of the legislature in caucus Tuesday unanimously voted to support United States Senator Francis E. Warren for reelection. This action insures a straight party vote for Warren, and as the Republicans have a large majority in the legislature, his election is certain.

In a decidedly warm game in the Hackley gymnasium, at Muskegon, Friday night, the Hope College basketball team defeated the Muskegon team by a score of 28 to 17. The Holland team played a different game entirely from the locals and tried for baskets continually. The home team played together well and resorted to passing most of the time. There were about 100 present. Roggen and Vruink played star ball for Hope, Vruink making several sensational field goals. Hope's team was handicapped by the small floor, but played a good article of ball.

August Hartel, one of the strongest players on the Co. F. basket ball team in Grand Haven is out of the game for at least two weeks. Two of them were over six feet in height, and two others were but little below that mark. They forced the locals to play at top speed throughout the game, and were always dangerous, though they were at no time in the lead.

ONE SEAMAN KILLED AND SIX INJURED ON THE ETRURIA.

Child is Born in Steerage During the Roughest Weather Capt. Potter Ever Experienced.

New York, Jan. 7.—One of her crew was killed and six others seriously injured when the Cunard liner Etruria was fighting her way through a severe storm on Friday night. The body of the man killed was buried at sea. The others injured were in her hospital when the steamer arrived Sunday from Queenstown.

Friday night while the Etruria was plowing through heavy head seas and great waves were breaking over her deck the lashing on the starboard anchor davits were torn loose. New lashings were put on, but some hours later they broke loose again. The watch of nine men once more started forward to secure them, but just as they completed their task a huge wave swept over the bow, knocking them right and left. James Walker, able seaman, was swept the full length of the forecass deck and down the stairway leading to the main deck. He struck squarely on the rail at the foot of the stairs and his spine was broken.

Others of the crew rushed to the forecass deck, which they found strewn with unconscious men. William Newell, the most dangerously injured, was taken to St. Vincent's hospital when the ship reached port and it was said that he probably would die.

When the storm was at its height a girl was born in the steerage. The mother is Mrs. Jacob Goldstein and after a collection amounting to $50 had been taken up among the cabin passengers the baby was christened Rachel Etruria Goldstein.

Capt. Potter said Sunday that never during his many years as a seaman had he experienced such rough weather.
