Mr. C. F. Redlich, the successful expert says:

The "Perfect Retention Shields" hold the rupture perfectly no matter what position the body assumes or how heavy a weight you lift. They give instant relief, prevent the opening in a remarkable short time and strengthen the weak tissues (the real cause of rupture) so that they frequently recover their previous natural retaining power needing no further outside support. Stomach trouble, backache and constipation often caused by rupture promptly disappear.

Truly remarkable results have been obtained with recent and not yet fully developed ruptures and many old ones also.

No leg straps or elastic belts are used. Can be worn while bathing and are highly sanitary, being impervious to sweat.

JURY HAD LITTLE TO DO IN COUNTY COURT THIS TERM

Ottawa county circuit court was called to order by Judge Kelly S. Beal of St. John's, who is exchanging circuits with Judge O. S. Cross for one of the shortest terms of the year.

Charles Cook, who with Harry Snyder robbed William Snyder of Allendale of $1.50 and a gold watch, pleaded guilty as an accomplice and was put on probation for one year. The following restrictions were given him. He must be in his home at 9:00 p. m. every night, must find work, must attend night school and Sunday school, must keep away from places of amusement and in every way must show the officers that he means to be a useful and upright citizen.

Harry Snyder was taken charge of by the probate court and left in the care of Edward Bussles of Cooperville for the industrial school at Lansing. He will stay there until 21 years of age.

Adam Banasak of Roninson pleaded guilty to a liquor violation and will be sentenced Thursday.

Fuente Hoekert held on a liquor charge did not appear. She will come in some time during the week.

Henry Lugers, wanted for embezzlement and who last term of court did not appear for trial, will be sentenced when Judge Cross comes back, as he is in full knowledge of the particulars of the case.

Judge O. S. Cross has ordered the jury dismissed for this term as there are not enough cases to warrant their sitting. Next week he will take up a civil cases and chancery matters, including several divorce cases.

JUDGE TELLS OF HIS WORK

Judge James J. Danhof of the probate court told of the courts activities in an address in Grand Haven. He dwelt especially on what was being done in the juvenile court.

Many opportunities are afforded a juvenile judge to be helpful to both children and parents. Judge Danhof said that it was his policy to always give every boy or girl who was brought into court at least one chance to make good before imposing a penalty.

"Nearly every boy that is brought before me comes from a destitute family or a family where the husband or wife has secured a divorce," said the judge. "Delinquency comes from neglect in the home to teach the child the things he should know. The child should be taught tolerance and respect for others' rights. Education in the home, school and church is the only corrective method."

He referred briefly to the widow pension fund to which $35,000 is paid in taxes each year. The judge said much of the demand for assistance from this fund could be traced directly to the use of intoxicating liquor.

The Ottawa county supervisors convened in the court house Monday at 2:00 p. m. for a three day session with all members present.

The resolution was passed unanimously and a copy will be sent to the secretary of state.

The annual report of the treasurer's office was made by John Den Herder, county treasurer, which was accepted and filed.

A salesman appeared before the board telling of the cut in fire insurance by buying chemical fire extinguishers. This was referred to the committee on building and grounds and with power to act.

Tuesday the board was adjourned with several committees going into session. Among them was the agricultural committee addressed by C. P. Milham and R. G. Carr from the Michigan State college on the proposed plan of work for the coming year. Wednesday the board met again to discuss the authorities of bonds for $195,000 for a six and one half mile 18-foot cement road from Zeeland north to Borculo towards the Bridge street crossing but which does not connect up with that highway.

Also they are to create a sinking fund commission which the state requires to look after the sinking fund created for the redemption of the county bonds.

The sinking fund was recently created by the board and the commission will be appointed to be composed of a number of county officers including the county clerk, the county treasurer, register of deeds, chairman of the board, of supervisors and finance committee chairman. The board chairman heads the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Riksen are planning to celebrate this month the fifty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. The date is Jan. 30. Mrs. Riksen was one of the first pioneer children of the old Holland settlement, her parents having crossed the Atlantic with the VanRaalte colony in 1846. Mr. Riksen came to this country in 1868 when he was 18 years old and settled in this vicinity. They were married by Rev. Henry Utterick, former pastor of Third Reformed church.

Mrs. John Boeve and son, Ted Edgar, of Akron, Ohio, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Heijl.

Mr. Paul Dionise, 21, and Miss Virginia Fabiano, 18, of Holland, were married Saturday morning by Rev. F. W. Ryan of St. Francis church. Many guests from Grand Rapids, Grand Haven, Lansing, Muskegon and other neighboring cities attended the wedding. The guests numbered about two hundred. The groom was married on his birthday.

Through his recent marriage in Chicago, James Vandervan was the first to break a circle of 12 children in the family of his parents. The children are divided evenly with six sons and six daughters, all living. Mrs. Vandervan's grandparents reared 12 children and she was connected with a family of 10 children. There's no record of twins in any of the families.

Mrs. Dick Print of Holland died in the Mackley hospital in Muskegon on Friday afternoon after an operation. She was 40 years old. She is survived by her husband and ten children, all at home in Holland; also by the following brothers and sisters: John and Gerrit Yonker of Holland, Jacob Yonker of Chicago, N. J. Yonker of Muskegon, Mrs. S. Kleinhausen of Chicago, Mrs. N. Bernardi of St. Louis, Mo. The funeral will be held Monday at 1:30 at the home, 15 East 18th street, and at two o'clock at the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church, Dr. William Masselink officiating.

Net operating income of the Pere Marquette railroad for November was $458,211 as compared with $512,079 for the same month last year, and surplus after charges for the month amounted to $239,045 against $646,988 for the corresponding month in 1926. Surplus for the first eleven months of 1927 was $5,871,408 after all charges as compared with $7,975,921 for the same period in 1926.

The 1928 educational campaign to be conducted this spring preparatory to the second annual European corn borer clean-up, was launched this week, when a truck bearing two Michigan State college specialists and an elaborate corn borer exhibit started on a tour of Lapeer county.

Allagan, Jan. 9.—Roswell G. Carr, state leader of county agricultural agents, will be in Allagan county Tuesday to meet with members of the agricultural committee of the board of supervisors, the county farm bureau board of directors and County Agent R. L. Helm.

Keith R. Landaburg and Miss Emma Dorothy Leland, instructors in agriculture and home economics in Fenville High school, are sponsoring two clubs, the Ag club and the home Ec club. The two clubs have 29 members each, girls in the Home Ec and boys in the Ag club. The first program arranged was the Christmas party for the two clubs and other regular meetings will be held the first Thursday night of each month.

Home Ec club officers were elected: President, Edna Henning; vice president, Orville Bohnstengel; secretary, Guy Fisher, and treasurer, Clifford Morse.

At the annual business meeting of the Fenville Woman's club the following officers were elected for 1928-1929: Pres., Mrs. Mary Lantieri; vice president, Mrs. Kate Peterson; recording secretary, Mrs. Minnie Johnson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Brynna Du Vall; treasurer, Mrs. Carrie Basset; custodian, Mrs. Margaret Bale; directors, Mrs. Mary Broe, Mrs. May McNutt, Mrs. Anna Crane, Mrs. Bessie Hutchinson and Miss Marcia Basset.

The Allagan county board of supervision continued Monday with Samuel J. Hanna of Leighton presiding. Fred McComber of the road commission reported snow removal last week cost $1,500 and suggested the taking over by the county of a half mile strip of road near Moline which was abandoned by the state in relocating a trunk line last year.

The opening meeting of the new year of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was gratifying both in attendance and program. Mrs. A. Walvoord led devotions and Miss Katherine Nettings furnished two piano numbers.

The speaker for the afternoon was Rev. J. C. Willis. His theme was the old, old story of temperance, told in his own inimitable way. The things he said were clear, plain, and to the point, and his message was a most timely one. He must educate our youth in the home and school and church to a clean life. By his personal observation on the streets of Holland, girls are guilty of using profane language as are men. He related his meeting with Carrie Nation of Kansas some years ago on a day's travel by train. Although her manner of work could not be wholly approved of, she made a telling impression and stood for clean life.

He further warned of the false prophecies of the failure of evils of prohibition. We must be informed of things as they are to combat this, he said. We must continue to teach the old effects of alcohol and the benefits of prohibition, which he thinks is the great task of the W. C. T. U. He related some interesting experiences in former pastorates in local option times. His fight for right conditions has helped to win victories.

Mrs. M. Mulder and committee served refreshments.

Zeeland, Jan. 8.—In the death of Mrs. Antje De Kraker, Zeeland, this week lost another if its few remaining pioneer settlers who came to wilderness here in 1847 and assisted in converting it into the prosperous community it now is. She came to America along with the first immigrants as a member of the late J. Lamer, then an infant of only three months. She later became the wife of the late Josiah De Kraker and settled on a farm two miles north and one-half mile east of the main city, where she has made her home and state street crossing in this ever since. During her entire life she has been a consistent Christian and a member of the First Christian Reformed church of this city. Following the death of her husband many years ago, she has managed her farm and her family very well, and her three sons are still on the old homestead. She attained the age of eighty years.

She is survived by five children, William, John and Andrew De Kraker, who were still living with their mother, and Mrs. J. Krans and Mrs. P. Ver Plank of this city. She also J. Lamer of Borculo, R. Lamer of Zeeland, and Mrs. C. Heyboer of Zeeland.

The City Sign Co. has moved into their new shop on the second floor of the new building recently built by Chas. Van Zyl at 182 River avenue. This is next door to their old location which they have occupied for the past five years. The new shop has 2,150 square feet of floor space and is well lighted and ideal for a sign business. Many new features have been added which will enable them to turn out better work with more speed.

The City Sign Co. was started by Rube Tromp twelve years ago in a room in his home and has grown so as to employ four or five men during the summer months. Commercial sign work was their only branch until June, 1926, when Mr. Tromp bought the outdoor advertising plant of Johnsen Co. and consists of about 75 painted, bulletin boards from 7'x14 to 10'x75 feet. Last spring they received a contract from the Dixie Corp. for their outdoor advertising which consists of a uniform bulletin 7'x14 done in blue on yellow.

They now have 63 of these up as far south as Michigan City, east to Pontiac, and north to Muskegon. These are serviced by the City Sign Co., every 3 months and kept in fine shape as the bulletins remain the property of the City Sign Co., and only the service on them is sold.

Mr. Jack Dalton has recently been engaged to take charge of the commercial sign work and Mr. Tromp will spend most of his time with the outdoor advertising end of the business.

Gerrit Van der Brant, Miss Berdoe, Zee, Henry Zee, and Martin Van Doome of Holland were in Grand Haven attending a family reunion of relatives and friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Tans. There were 50 guests present.

Mrs. Henry Vander Baan, 69, died Friday night at eleven o'clock at her home, 73 East 13th street, after an illness of about eight weeks. She is survived by her husband and the following children: John, of Whitinsville, Mass., James and Mrs. Fred Dams of Grand Rapids, and William of Holland.

The funeral will be held Tuesday at 1:30 at the home and at two o'clock at the Berean church, Rev. John A. Van Dyke officiating. Interment will be in the Holland cemetery.

Next week a system of sub-courses will begin at Hope college, given for the students who are shaky in their grades and who desire an opportunity to catch up with their classmates. No credit is given for these courses, the benefit received from them being the student's reward for attending the classes. They are taught by the seniors and the classes are held in the afternoon.

The courses serve two purposes. They give the backward student a chance to catch up and they give the seniors who are working for a life certificate a chance to do the practice teaching required by the state under the new law. Several Michigan colleges are following a similar plan.

Next year it is hoped to begin the courses six weeks after the opening of school in September, by which time it is known which students need this supplementary instruction.

At the annual meeting of the women's missionary society of Hope church the following officers were elected: president, Mrs. G. E. Kollen; first vice president, Mrs. G. J. Diekmann; second vice president, Mrs. E. E. Fell; secretary, Mrs. H. L. Hinga; treasurer, Mrs. C. J. Dregman; honorary board members, Mrs. G. V. R. Gilmore and Mrs. T. W. Davidson; regular board members, Mrs. G. W. Browning and Mrs. W. J. Garrod.

During the year the society collected over $2,100 for foreign and domestic missions including a gift for Hope college.

Thaw following the recent cold wave and heavy snow has made some of the unimproved roads of Ottawa county quagmires.

Gravel roads, although cut up by holes and ruts, are passable. Frost followed by the light snow is necessary to put the unimproved roads in condition. Until that time a number of families living in the remoter sections of the county will be virtually isolated.

Little delay was caused to traffic on the concrete roads by the recent heavy snows. County plows kept Ottawa highways cleared during the worst of the storm, permitting inter-city traffic to proceed unimpeded.

The city milk inspection report for the last month shows that of those submitted for inspection the amount of butter fat was very high while the bacteria numbered from 40,400 for the highest which was raw milk and to which the bacteria numbered 1,200 for the lowest which was 1,200 for pasteurized milk and to which the bacteria numbered 10,000 bacteria. This shows a very good record.

Clear weather Sunday brought spectators out to see the icebergs at Macatawa.

The bergs are safe for explorers only a short distance out as the packed seas of floating ice begin at a point about half way out of the pier. Beyond this last line of jagged ice-mounds is would be practically impossible to go with safety.

Many odd formations may be found in the ice, however, as far out as it is the solid. Cold weather has kept the spectators away during the past week while the bergs have been forming and melting rapidly. A few persons were out taking pictures Sunday afternoon.

Miss Nellie Churchford, head of the city mission, today extended cordial thanks to the Vanden Berg sign company for a beautiful bulletin board that they have put up at the mission. The board itself was donated by the Vanden Bergs and the frame around it was donated by the Scott-Lugers company. The City Sign company painted the schedule of services on it. To all these Miss Churchford is extending words of appreciation.

The Christian Reformed church at Jonkison has been successful in obtaining a new pastor within a few weeks after Rev. John O. Bouwman left the field for Gratiot.

Rev. A. Dusseljee, pastor of the church at Martin, has announced his acceptance of the first call extended him by the Jonkison church and will assume charge within the next few weeks. Dusseljee has been in the ministry for about three years and the Martin church was his first charge since his graduation from the seminary in Grand Rapids in 1924.

The Jonkison church was organized in 1875 and number 119 families, 273 members and 600 souls.

Rev. John Van Peursen, the pastor of the First Reformed church of Zeeland, declined the call of the Second Reformed church of Grand Haven. He was formerly pastor of the Trinity Reformed church of Holland. He has resided in Zeeland about 5 years.

Zeeland, Jan. 6.—Thursday morning at ten o'clock the pupils of the Borculo school were given a real fire instead of the customary "fire" going. Shortly after the school period a nearby farmer noticed the smoke issuing from the roof of the building. Upon investigation it was found that the bell tower was ablaze. A bucket brigade was formed and in a short time the fire was extinguished. The cause for the fire is unknown. It is thought a defective chimney was the cause. The total amount of the damage is unknown but it is estimated about fifty dollars.

Grand Rapids, Jan. 6.—Dr. William Loo of Amsterdam, the principal speaker at the twentieth annual Bible conference to be held at the City Mission Jan. 15 to 22 under the direction of Rev. Melvin E. Trotter. The conference will be held in connection with the twenty-eighth annual meeting of the City Mission and the meeting of the Brotherhood of Reformed Mission Superintendents.

Other speakers include Dr. H. W. Bieker of Philadelphia, Rev. William McCarrall, Cicero, Ill., and Dr. P. W. Philpot of Chicago. Music will be directed by Homer Rodeheaver and Homer Hammonree. Mr. Rodeheaver, formerly musical director for Billy Sunday, recently appeared here in concert.

John Egan, 77, resident of Alamo township, Allegan County, many years, dropped dead Sunday in his home. His widow, one daughter and one son survive.

Services were conducted from the Catholic church in Osego Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

An interesting group of slides is being made by County Agent, C. P. Milham of homes and activities carried on under the regime of the county agricultural office and which he will use as the basis of several talks over the county. The slides show landscaping, bee, chicken and cattle demonstrations and stump and trench blasting. Also some of the activities under the home demonstration department will be pictured.

Special attention is being called to all car drivers in regard to brakes and headlights. A number of accidents have been caused by these two reasons. It is very confusing at night to see only one headlight on an approaching car and drivers must give this special attention. Cars must be kept under control at all times. No matter if driving at five miles an hour, if the car skids or the brakes refuse to hold the car is out of control. Warning is given police to drivers who fail to slow up at intersections. Under the new law the man to the left must yield to the man at the right. If more time will be taken less accidents will result.

The Young Men's Bible Class of the First Ref. Church at Holland has dedicated Sunday, Jan. 8, as Boker's Sunday in honor of their teacher, Dick Boker, whose birthday occurred this week.

This class has an enrollment of about 100 and last year had an average attendance of 65. It is composed of young men between the ages of 18 and 35. This is the largest class of its kind in the state. It grew from just a few members to its present size thru the untiring zeal and enthusiasm of its teacher whose life and teaching have always been an inspiration to all its members. It was therefore thought fitting by the class to show their appreciation by coming out 100 strong.

Mrs. B. Rowan and her group of workers entertained the woman's home missionary society of the First Methodist church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Olinger. The society was well represented by a large number of members and friends. Miss Jennie Te Roller had charge of the devotional hour, which was followed by a reading by Miss Alice Boker in her usual excellent manner. A short business meeting, in charge of the president, Mrs. G. Moody, followed, in which reports from the various committees and the heads of departments were heard. Mrs. Hartman gave a very interesting report of the study book, "The Adventure of the Church." Miss Dorothy Rief played two piano selections and Mrs. Barnum sang, in a very pleasing manner, two solos. Fifteen stockings were sold for an offering for the Mother's Jewels fund, a department of which Mrs. Rowan is the head. After the business meeting and the time program the committee in charge served refreshments consisting of tea and cake.

WITH his wonderful lamp Aladdin summoned the genie to carry out his wishes.

THE HEART of the HOME

If home is to have that gripping influence that holds us secure in life's most treacherous storms, it must be cozy. Some folks live in homes—others in houses. And it is not difficult to tell to which class a person does belong, is it?

The person whose life is strengthened by a happy, cozy home is one that we all admire.

He is one that can smile in the face of any struggle. He is a person who fills the rest of us with confidence. That is the kind of character that we all want to have.

So let's strengthen our home influence all we can. Let's start with the HEART OF THE HOME.

AMERICANISM IS DESCRIBED IN AN ABLE TALK HERE

In a scholarly and highly interesting address on the live subject of "One Hundred Per Cent Americanism" Wynand Wichers Monday night entertained the Century club when it met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Diekmans.

One hundred per cent Americanism is a rather ambiguous term, the speaker pointed out, meaning one thing to a man like Mayor Thompson and an entirely different thing to a man like President Coolidge. But there are certain fundamental ideas in American life that can be analyzed on a basis of what they have meant in American history and what they have done to make America what it is.

One of these fundamentals is the spirit of creative optimism in the face of life's stern realities. This has characterized the true American throughout our history, developed and fostered by the westward movement which called for men of a sanguine outlook. Today it is the main characteristic of American business, the speaker said.

Another characteristic is the possibility of translating American individualism into social values. The American is an individual by nature but American life has taught him to use his individualism for the social good and in the spirit of service. While the criticism is made that America has made no progress in the arts, the speaker said there has been no time or opportunity for that. He predicted that America will in due time take its place in the arts as well as in material progress.

Americanism, on the basis of the country's past history, means that the progress of government is dependent on the progress of the individual, and also that the dignity of government is somehow compatible with the dignity of the individual and not with his repression or enslavement.

One hundred per cent Americanism means moreover international thinking, not narrow isolation. It means an internationalism that is in sympathy with the right aspirations of other peoples without necessarily entering into legal compacts. Finally, the speaker said, one hundred per cent Americanism means that the Americans of today shall practice the arts of government and politics and living that have made America great. If these arts are not practiced they will atrophy because of disuse, the speaker said.

Four delightful solos were given by Mrs. Phillips Brooks, accompanied by Mrs. Ernest Brooks.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT FEEDS WINTER BIRDS

A very interesting experiment is being tried out by one of the students in the high school biology department. Rudolph Prundt is very interested in birds and bird study. As a consequence of this, he has put up a feeding shelf at his home in Cedar Park. It is placed back of a hedge for protection against the wind.

Prundt said that he has tried this number of years, but he has never been so successful as this year. The birds that visit his feeding shelf are several varieties, including chickadees, nuthatches, woodpeckers, etc. Cardinals are his favorites, however. During the recent vacation he had room time to ten cardinals at his feeding station each day, the largest number being twelve at one time. He also fed fifteen or twenty quails during this week.

Since it was very cold the past week he has tried harder than ever to keep his bird friends. He hopes to feed them the entire winter.

SAYS MEN ARE BOUGHT AND ARE PAID FOR

"Ye Belong to Christ," was the text of Rev. J. M. Martin's Sunday night service. "If you consider it an advantage to belong to the church, think how much more inspirational and noble it is to belong to Christ. The church keeps one straight, Christ gives us salvation."

"But," continued the minister, "Christ has certain claims on us. By virtue of his position, as King of Kings and Lord of Lords, as the ruler of all the earth, He has a distinctive claim on us as his subjects, 'because he made the earth, the stars, the whole universe, and we are his creation. He lays claim to us.'"

"Then, just as a man buys a piece of merchandise and has a right to it, so Christ has bought us and has a right to us."

"Ye are not your own, ye are bought with the force," quoted the minister. "There is one great change coming to us all. No matter what we are doing we must all eventually change from life to death. So be ambitious. If you want to be great, all resources are found in Christ. Live as if you belong to Christ."

Diamonds to Bedeck Mummy of "King" Ben In Pretentious Tomb

Benton Harbor, Jan. 9.—Tightly wrapped, like the Egyptian mummies of old, in strands of snow-white linen, and with two diamond rings which he prized in lifetime on his fingers, the body of "King" Benjamin Purnell soon will be ready for interment in the tomb which House of David workers plan to erect as a monument to their dead leader.

Disappointed when their prophet, who died at the colony Dec. 18, failed to arise from the dead, Benjamin's bearded followers are remaining faithful and are determined to lavish upon their fallen monarch all the splendor of a king.

When the mummification process is completed, the body will be clothed in a suit of white flannel being made by his colony tailor. The suit was cut from goods selected by Purnell in his lifetime. Rhinestone buttons and silk lining will complete the garment.

It is unlikely the mausoleum can be completed before spring. In the meantime, Benjamin's body probably will be kept in a guarded room in the "diamond house," where a year ago Benjamin, the fugitive from justice, was captured by the state police, and where he died.

STOPS STEAMER INTO THIS PORT FOR FEW WEEKS

Due to the exceedingly strong current in St. Joe river this fall and early winter having filled in the channel between dock and coast guard station at Benton Harbor, it has become impossible to operate Goodrich steamers in there for a few weeks until some dredging can be done. This naturally effects Holland and Benton Harbor ports are served by one steamer during winter. Same as Grand Haven and Muskegon is served by one steamer.

Therefore there will be no direct steamer in and out of Holland for the next few weeks.

Hand freight will however be trucked by Goodrich owned trucks to and from Grand Haven during this period. Steamers leave Chicago Monday, Thursdays and Saturdays and leave Grand Haven Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Local warehouse will be kept open same as heretofore and freight will be ready for delivery early in the morning. Westbound freight shippers can bring their freight down every day, as it will be cleaned up daily.

Mr. J. A. Johnson, district freight and passenger agent, says the management feared sometime ago this might happen but tried every way possible to prevent it. The "Wisconsin" was put on the run in place of the "Illinois" on account of lighter draft, and it was thought this would solve the problem but the sand bars kept forming and water becoming more shallow. The "Wisconsin" was hung up there for the past week and as this, it continued, would simply cause delays and dissatisfaction among shippers it was finally decided that direct service would have to be discontinued. While steamer "Wisconsin" was delayed at Benton Harbor, Holland Harbor became so jammed that no boat could get in without one or two days of bucking slush ice, which is backed to bottom in breaker. In the steamer being this, it would have been no trouble to keep the local channel open.

The response to the announcement of the clinic was very satisfactory and it marks a good beginning for the year's activities.

NEW CHAPEL DISPLACES HOPE TENNIS COURT

Hope students may be forced to eliminate tennis owing to the removal of courts from the campus caused by erection of the new $250,000 Hope memorial chapel.

The courts provided a popular pastime among the students and were utilized constantly.

Tournaments have been held in previous years. Students express the hope that these may be continued in the future and new courts may be constructed.

MAKES PLEA FOR TOTS THAT WERE BORN CRIPPLED

The Holland Rotary club ladies' night program was given Thursday evening in the Warm Friend Tavern. There was a large attendance and the meeting was one of the happiest of the season. With a very good dinner to the accompaniment of Perkowsky's orchestra, the club spent a happy evening in the usual Rotary merriment, preliminary to the program of addresses. Attorney T. N. Robinson, the president, introduced the speakers.

Before the scheduled speakers opened their addresses, G. J. Diekmans introduced C. A. French, who recently purchased the Sentinel, as his guest and Mr. French was called upon to give a short talk. He told the members and guests what his motives were in coming to Holland, declaring that the fame of Holland is widespread and that he long had had a desire to identify himself intimately with this city and to become a part of the city's life. In passing he happened to use the phrase "Your city," but immediately corrected himself and made it "Our city." He told of his purchase of the paper and said he is here to become a part of Holland, and to enter into all its activities enthusiastically and with his whole heart. He asked for the cooperation of the people of Holland in gathering the news, especially asking the women to send in their personal and social items. He said he wanted all the activities in the city represented and pointed out that the aims and ideals of a community newspaper are fundamentally the same as the aims and ideals of such organizations as Rotary.

Mrs. Esther Martin, state secretary of the crippled children's commission of Michigan, was the first speaker, taking the place of Paul King who could not come on account of illness. She described the work of the crippled children's commission provided for by the 1927 legislature largely in answer to efforts made by the Rotary clubs of the state. The sum of $25,000 a year is provided. There are some 13,000 crippled children in the state, most of them mentally bright and alert but physically handicapped. It is the work of the commission to give these children a better chance and she asked for the cooperation of the local clubs, both Rotary and others, to foster the membership of the local chapters, whose work is to locate the crippled children in their own communities and bring them into the clinics.

There are seven orthopedic surgeons in the state who give their services free for this work and clinics are held in various parts of Michigan from time to time. The clubs are asked to bring the children there, see to it that the recommendations of the clinic are carried out and later help the rehabilitated children to find jobs. She made a strong plea to business men and others to give such children a chance when the time comes.

District Governor Fred Hill, of Hastings, gave an address on the meaning of Rotary, treating the subject under two heads, from the community point of view and from the world standpoint.

Rotary was organized 22 years ago at Chicago with a membership of five members and a motto, "There are no sectary clubs in 42 nations, all organized without paid workers. Three world headquarters are in Chicago, Great Britain and Switzerland. These clubs have a fund of from $500,000 to a million dollars for extension work and they did more work in 1927 than ever before, with the promise of still greater efforts in 1928. There are 3,000 clubs with a total membership of 140,000. The total number of clubs in the United States is 5,000.

Other countries represented are: Canada 86, Mexico 24, Cuba 20, Chile 5, Argentina 5, Brazil 3, New Zealand 6, Japan 6, China 3, India 2, Italy 7, Spain 13, France 14, Switzerland 6, Belgium 8, Germany 6, Norway 6, British Isles 265. Germany has just come into the organization.

He spoke of the mission of Rotary as one of peace and goodwill, the elimination of lines of division between nations, the elimination of discord and strife, and the fostering of the spirit of service throughout the world.

Are Married At The Ebenezer Parsonage

On Friday, at the parsonage of Rev. J. B. Woodhouse of Ebenezer, the marriage took place of Adrienne Van Weel of Albion, La., and Miss Carolin, daughter of Otley, La. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Roseboom and is a school teacher in Iowa. The couple will leave the latter part of the week or their new home, Mr. Van Weel is an Iowa farmer.

SIMILARITY OF NAMES CAUSES MISCONCEPTION

Identity of names caused an unintentional injustice to Herman Beukema, Holland, of the Ideal Cleaners. In the story of court cases that are up for consideration in circuit court this week it was stated Saturday that Herman Beukema of Holland was up in a serious charge.

The warrant was sworn out before Justice Bruce and the county clerk's office reports that it reads: "Herman Beukema of Holland, in said county." Justice Bruce explains that the Herman Beukema who was arrested was at the time of his arrest a resident of Holland, rooming here and working in one of the local factories. For that reason the warrant was made out as it was.

In any event, it is not the Herman Beukema of the Ideal Cleaners, as everybody who knows him of course understood. Not wishing however to miss an opportunity to make the situation clear to all, the Sentinel is printing the exact facts as they appear in the legal documents involved. The name of the Herman Beukema involved in this case is said to be James-town.

The carryer Grand Rapids completed the first year on the run between Milwaukee and Grand Haven, making the greatest number of trips of any boat running in there, or 233 trips carrying 323,707 tons of freight and car tonnage. Consideration when never taken into account. This is never taken into account when tonnage is computed.

Capt. John Cavanaugh is the skipper. He has been employed on the ferries for over 30 years.

Lesson for January 15

JESUS AND SINNERS

LESSON TEXT—Mark 2:1-17.
GOLDEN TEXT—I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Forgives a Sinner

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Heals and Forgives

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus Shows His Sympathy and Power

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus' Power to Make Whole

I. Jesus Preaching the Word (vv. 1-3).

The turning crowd (v. 2). So great was the crowd gathered about the house where Jesus was stopping, that there was no room to receive them. As soon as it was noted about that Jesus was in the house, the multitude gathered.

2. What Jesus preached unto them (v. 2).

He preached unto them the Word of God. He also preached the Word before He wrought miracles, for to make known the will of God was His supreme mission. Miracles were not an end in themselves, but to authenticate His work. The people came, some to be healed, and some out of curiosity. He gave them that which they needed, regardless of the motive which actuated their coming.

II. Jesus Forgiving Sins (vv. 3-5).

The man brought to Him, suffering from the dread disease of palsy, but his most deadly affliction was that of sin. This miracle was wrought by Jesus in confirmation of His message.

3. Faith coming to Jesus (v. 3).

The faithful impulse of the pained man and the four friends who carried him was faith.

2. Faith overcoming difficulties (v. 4).

Though prevented by the crowd from coming to Jesus, they ascended the outer stairway and let the afflicted man down through the roof.

3. Faith rewarded (v. 5).

No word was uttered either by the paralytic or his bearers. Their action was enough. The paralytic got more than he expected. He desired healing of the body and he got bodily healing plus forgiveness of sins.

III. Jesus Answering the Scribes (vv. 6-10).

1. Their objection (vv. 6, 7). They asked:

(1) Why does He thus speak?

(2) Who can forgive sins?

They were entirely right in their reasoning. That only God can forgive sins. Their blunder was in not perceiving Him to be God.

2. Jesus' answer (vv. 8, 10).

He knew their inner thoughts and reasonings and manifested unto them His essential deity in that He had power to know their thoughts. He inquired—Which is easier, to say, arise and take up thy bed and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, I say unto thee, arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house. He was willing that His power in the invisible realm should be tested by His power in the visible.

IV. Jesus Healing the Paralytic (vv. 11-12).

1. His healing was by the direct method—speaking the Word (v. 11). Christ's word was given with the command was enough. With the command was given the strength to obey. That which Christ commands He gives the strength to perform.

2. The obedience of the man (v. 12).

He immediately arose, took up his bed, and went forth before them, and the four friends who carried him walked away with his bed upon his shoulder.

3. The people were amazed, and glorified God (v. 12).

They said, "We never saw it on this fashion."

V. Jesus Eating With Publicans and Sinners (vv. 13-17).

1. The call of Levi (v. 13). Levi was a tax gatherer, under the Roman government. As Jesus passed by, He commanded Levi to leave his business and follow Him.

2. Jesus dining in Levi's house (v. 15).

It seems that Levi had been a faithful associate of Jesus since the beginning of His ministry.

3. The perplexed scribes and pharisees (v. 16).

They asked, "How is it that He eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?"

4. Jesus' reply (v. 17).

They are whole, have no need of the physician. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

SHERIFF LOOKING FOR MURDERER WHO ABDUCTED A CHILD

A Grand Haven boy seven years old was dropped at his home from the car of a strange man Wednesday about 6:30 p. m. in a severe snow storm, and crying from a terrible experience with a man who entered him into his car and drove into the country.

The parents called Sheriff Kammerbeek, who is making an inquiry. The boy said he would know the man if he saw him again.

He told the officers he was going home from school about 6:30 p. m. on Clinton street between Second and Third streets when a car drove up and the driver got out and pulled him by the arm into the car telling him he was going into the country for some bottles and wanted to give him a ride. He declares they were passed by the fire truck as it was going to the fire near Oldies' Bayou. He also said a woman heard him screaming and started toward the car.

"Get out of here or I'll call the police. This is no business of yours," yelled the man, his captive said.

When starting to get out of the side door they became stuck in the snow and the stranger went to a house and borrowed a shovel. A boy on a bicycle came up later and helped get the car out and they drove back to the city.

When they were nearing home the man told the boy not to tell his mother but said a neighbor had asked him to do an errand. He gave the child a nickel.

The officers are of the opinion the man thought the child was a little girl as he was dressed in a long coat.

Officers hope to locate the people where the shovel was borrowed and the bicycle rider who helped with the car to get a better description of the criminal. Officers will check the identity of informers and particularly try to learn what kind of car it was.

Several similar cases have been reported before and school and police officers are determined to run down the guilty moron.

Judge Kelley S. Earl, of St. John's county, will open court at Grand Haven Monday instead of Judge Cross who goes to Ithaca to hold court.

Lindy Spanned The Atlantic; Gertrude Ederle Swam Channel But Doff Hats To a Hope Frosh

In traveling 1,900 miles home and back in a topless Ford jitney, wearing a green top, goggles, a blue overcoat, four buckle arctics, B. V. D's and a light shirt, open at the collar, in the worst snowstorms of the year, your idea of a grand holiday trip? And would you end up Lindy-like and say: "I'd do it again?"

Well that's what one of Hope's grumpy Frosh did in seeing his New York friends. Disappointed by one Ford owner because of chilling storms, the sandy yearling enlisted a buddy, bought a car and left Holland with spectators gambling on which one of the four cylinders of his buggy was doing all the work, within one hour after school recess began on December 16. Ooping Thomases didn't give him a chance to get to the metropolis. But, braving the blizzard at the rate of eighteen miles per hour, having one flat, his pa's pockets rifled and with little sleep and less food, he set his foot on the home door-step on December 19.

Vacation weather was fine. But, the day of his return trip saw the Frosh forsaken, by his friend of the homeward trip, because of parental pressure, clothed in the same resorting clothes, and traveling in the topless Henry through blinding rainstorms. Cops now threatened to pinch him for exceeding the speed limit in knots per hour. Strategy featured the return trip when he backed up a hill to force the meagre supply of gas to the engine, avoided cops with his 1927 license, and pretended to switch on worthless lights as officers halted him during the last sixty miles of the dark ride without lights. Every one of the three nights, he was soaked to the waistline; often, he warmed his senseless hands on the steaming radiator; then, he drummed his left hand against the side of the wagon to keep up circulation; exercised heartily as he changed four flats and finally reached Holland in a driving blizzard on Sunday night, January 1st, with lots of pep left to say: "Happy New Year."

A LOCAL HUNTER BAGS GOOSE WITH JACK MINER TAG

Bert Kimber, Holland R. B. 9, an employee of the H. J. Heine company in this city, shot a goose that had an aluminum band around its leg put there by the famous Jack Miner of Kingsville, Ontario, Canada. Miner has a national reputation because he built refuges for birds in Canada, which thousands of nature lovers visit each year.

On the band on the leg of the goose, shot by the Holland man, appears the following legend: "Write Box 48, Kingsville, Ont., Canada; He is the Lord our God, Psa. 55:7."

The goose was shot about four miles northwest of Holland. It weighed 14 pounds. Mr. Kimber sent the band to the address named and in reply received a letter from Miner that explains in detail what this nature lover is trying to do.

He was born in Ohio, Miner says, but at the age of 13 became a Canadian. He is now a citizen of Canada. He is the owner of a large family, he and his brother put in most of their time hunting in that paradise for birds and game. As a result of the death of his brother in 1898 he learned to look upon his killing of wild game as murder. He says he came to understand that all wild things regarded him as their deadly enemy and so he made a resolve not only never to kill a bird or animal again but to teach all wild things to look upon him as a friend.

Hence he built refuges for wild game and each year he tags a large number of migratory birds. The past six or seven years he has fed them from 3,000 to 4,000 bushels of ears of corn each year, and some of the birds he has tagged come back year after year and regard him as a friend. He says that while he is writing, a large number of geese are with him in gunshot, feeding on the lake.

It is not security because they know that their friend is watching out for them. Each year thousands of tags are sent back to Miner by persons in all sections of the country who have shot migratory birds he has labeled. "I now have tags returned to me," he writes, "from North Carolina to Buenos Aires and over a hundred from Hudson Bay. The farthest south come from Guydon, La., and from east to west have them from Long Island to England, Saskatchewan, thus covering an area of about two thousand miles square, or four million square miles. But give you the tag is that fully 10 percent of the birds I tag in the 'all return to me the following spring'."

"I took me several years to get the birds coming, or in other words it took years to convince them that they really had a friend on earth, as it seemed too good to be true. Finally small bunch came and they apparently told others until their little flock grew into a small cloud."

SCHOOL AT LAMONT WINS PRIZE IN T-B SEAL SALE CONTEST

The village school of Lamont was awarded a thermometer as a prize by the Michigan Tuberculosis association for selling $4.00 worth of tuberculosis Christmas seals. The sale in the village school was directed by Miss Dora A. Robinson who distributed the seals to the pupils of the school.

A Christmas seal button was awarded to Willard Kooter for selling the largest number of seals.

The children in the schools were divided into two teams, and the competition in the seal-selling was quite keen. The Good Health team won in the contest.
