

1-9-1936

Holland City News, Volume 65, Number 2: January 9, 1936

Holland City News

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.hope.edu/hcn\_1936

Part of the Archival Science Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Holland City News, "Holland City News, Volume 65, Number 2: January 9, 1936" (1936). Holland City News: 1936. 2.
https://digitalcommons.hope.edu/hcn\_1936/2

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Holland City News: 1930-1939 at Hope College Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Holland City News: 1936 by an authorized administrator of Hope College Digital Commons. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@hope.edu.

Snow Rites Are Impressive At Hope Chapel

MORE THAN 1200 ATTEND.
AUGMENTED BY A LARGE
CHORUS OF 150 MEMBERS

Dr. Wichers, Dr. Dimment and Dr.
Davidson Eulogize Prof.
W. Curtis Snow

More than 1200 citizens of Holland, musical associates, friends and neighbors besides a large chorus that filled the rostrum, gathered at beautiful Hope College Chapel to pay tribute to Holland's outstanding musician and organ artist, Prof. W. Curtis Snow who passed away on New Year's eve at Ann Arbor.

The cathedral like chapel in itself is an impressive sight with its wonderful art glass, a portrayal of Biblical scenes. The large stage was made more imposing because of the beautiful floral decorations that embellished it. A single basket of beautiful roses was placed on the organ console where Prof. W. Curtis Snow had given so many delightful interpretations from the masters on the large Skinner organ.

On this day the instrument that he loved was silent, an added tribute to the departed music master.

Over the pulpit was a large floral piece, a harp in lyre form, that truly was a work of art and emblemized the reason for its presence. Below was the American flag placed over an altar in deference to his services in the World War.

Dr. Wynn Wichers, president of Hope College was in charge of the exercises and all those participating wore academic gowns, the official garb of Hope College.

Prof. Paul Hinkamp delivered a fervent prayer with the gathering repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison.

A very impressive part of the exercises was the singing of the anthem that Mr. Snow loved most with Mrs. Wm. J. Fenton directing and Miss Sarah Lacy at the large Steinway piano. The chorus of 150 voices sang the anthem, "The Soul of the Righteous" by T. Tertius Noble.

Mrs. W. Curtis Snow, her children and immediate relatives were present in pews especially reserved and they were visibly and deeply impressed with the services held in commemoration of one whom they dearly loved and one who held the esteem and respect of all of Holland, Michigan and its environs.

We also wish to pay tribute to Mrs. Snow. A talented artist herself, she did everything in her power to add to the accomplishments and aid in the chosen work of her beloved husband. Besides mothering several children, she found time to contribute unselfishly and often to college, church and civic programs where music is so vital an augmentation.

The memorial services started promptly at 2:30 and continued until 3:45.

The ushers were Prof. Milton Hinga, Prof. E. Paul McLean, Dr. J. Harvey Kleinkekel, J. J. Riemersma, Randall C. Bosch, Kenneth De Pree and Arthur Visser.

The various literary societies of the college presented flowers to express their sympathy. The presentation was under the direction of Miss Helena Visser, director of student council.

A review of the tributes paid by Dr. Davidson, Dr. Dimment and President, Dr. Wynn Wichers, will be found continued on the next page.

The discourses of President Wichers of Hope College and former President Dimment are given in full below.

Dr. Thomas W. Davidson, pastor of Hope Church and also the pastor of the noted organist, W. Curtis Snow, was on the program to speak of Mr. Snow's connection with the church not only as an organist, but as director of the wonderful choirs and singers the congregation of Hope Church were privileged to hear.

He said that the music created by director Snow was not only an inspiration to the congregation, but inspired him and helped him to bring the word of God to his parishioners in a more effective way. He felt that the musical feature of the program was a part and parcel of economics in our religious complex. He said that Mr. Snow was also a preacher through music, and that the function of religion is much awakened through the instrument.

(Continued on Page 2)

Arnold Fox left yesterday for San Diego, Calif. where he will be employed.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Esenburgh on January 7, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. A. Van Fassen of W. 13th St. on January 6, a daughter.

Daniel J. Zwemer and William Brusse were at the court house in Grand Haven Wednesday on business.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE!

Holland City News
Holland, Michigan
Gentlemen:

The Chamber of Commerce is receiving a flood of inquiries from various publications abroad for material on Tulip Time. We need pictures of Tulip Time events such as "klompen" dancing, street scrubbing and other parade games. Any person who has taken snap shots during the past two years will render valuable assistance to the Tulip Time Committee if they will submit them to the Chamber of Commerce for consideration. No matter how small the pictures are, if they are sharp in detail we can have them enlarged for our purpose. These pictures go to magazines, newspapers and advertising publishers.

We will be pleased to have you make known our wishes through your columns.

Cordially yours,
William M. Connelly, Mgr.

CONSUL STEKETEE AND
DR. BEETS TO CONFER
QUEENS KNIGHTHOOD

Ceremonies knighting Dr. Wynn Wichers, president of Hope college, into the order of Orange-Nassau was tentatively set for Monday. The order will be conferred by Consul Jacob Steketee and Dr. Henry Beets of Grand Rapids.

Dr. Wichers was apprised of the honor a few months ago as a reward for distinguished service to the mother country in regard to social welfare and cultural uplift and influence in making known and distinguishing the Dutch people throughout the world.

Knighting ceremonies, however, may be indefinitely postponed if Dr. Beets' proposed trip to South America should interfere with the date set for the event.—G. R. Press

LARGE DELEGATION TO GO TO BONUS PARADE

At least six automobile loads from Holland will leave for Benton Harbor and St. Joe where at 7 o'clock p.m., Friday, a large Bonus parade will be held and speeches made.

The big demonstration is put on by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Benton Harbor and St. Joe with Leonard Merchants, well known in Holland, as co-chairmen.

It is strictly a men's parade and commander J. F. Sundin and the veterans here are making plans this Thursday night.

ENDEAVOR BEING MADE TO GET NEW PASTOR

The Third Reformed Church is not only to hear Rev. Richard Oudersluys of Milwaukee, a pastor called to the church, but he and Mrs. Oudersluys are to be honored guests at a congregational social held at the church Monday night.

At that meeting, besides election of officers and short routine business, will be devoted to social activity and a meeting of the Milwaukee guests.

JOHN VAN DORT, 72,
DIES AT HOLLAND

John VanDort, 72, a native of The Netherlands and a resident of Holland since he was 2, died here Thursday at his home on East 24th street. He had been engaged in the fuel business 40 years being one of the partners in the Huizenga Coal Co.

He is survived by the widow, a son, Anthony of Holland; two daughters, Miss Sue and Mrs. David McFall of Holland; three brothers, Henry of Holland, William of Edgemoor and Anthony of Grand Rapids; and two sisters, Mrs. Peter Kuiper of Chicago and Mrs. Charles Reeves of Ann Arbor.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at the home and at 2 p.m. at Ninth Street Christian Reformed church, with the Rev. N. J. Monsma officiating. Burial will be in the family plot in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

FUNERAL OF DR. ANGLE-
MIRE AT DOUGLAS
CATHOLIC CHURCH

Dr. R. E. Anglemire, a resident of Saugatuck who opposed George L. Kaulkes for the Democratic nomination for representative from the Fourth Michigan district in 1932, died Wednesday afternoon in his rooms at the Warm River Tavern.

Dr. Anglemire, a retired dentist spent his winters in Holland. Surviving are the widow, Estelle, and one sister, Mrs. H. Crandall of Ontario, Canada. Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, in the St. Peter's Catholic church in Douglas.

It is said that Dr. Anglemire had laid the foundation for a new home in Saugatuck, with the intention of beginning to build early in the spring.

Dr. Anglemire had made many friends in Holland who deplore his passing. For many years he has been troubled with asthma and hastened his death.

Mr. Anglemire was a dentist in the United States army during the World War.

The Erutha Rebekah lodge will hold a regular meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the hall.

The Holland Assembly of Rain-bow will hold a meeting Tuesday evening, Jan. 14. Officers practice will be at 6:30 o'clock followed by initiation and election of officers.

Miss Mae Eloise Westveer employed at the Eloise Library at Ann Arbor spent the Christmas vacation with her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Westveer.

Depression Is Dispelled Thru Wit and Humor

DOUGLAS MALLOCH SAYS, SPENT MONEY OF FATHERS
TO GET IN—SPEND MONEY
OF CHILDREN TO GET OUT OF DEPRESSION.

What does it matter what duty falls to the lot of a man?

All have a share in the beauty, all have a part in the plan.

All had a hand in the building, no one has builded alone.

Whether a cross he was gliding, whether he carried the stone.

— Douglas Malloch

No matter how bad the depression may have been, it was worth it for the 200 members of the Holland Exchange club and their wives who heard Douglas Malloch "the poet who makes a joy of living," philosophize on the depression in his sparkling informal speech at the annual "ladies' night" banquet of the Exchangeites at the Warm River Tavern last evening.

Blending his kindly, sympathetic humor with the homely, optimistic philosophy of his poetry, several selections of which he read in dialect, the McKegon author and "Poet of the Woods," whose works are read daily by hundreds of thousands of people, swayed his audience from uproarious laughter to serious thoughtfulness at will.

"The depression may not be the best we've ever had," began Mr. Malloch, "but it was plenty good enough for me. It's a tough time."

RESURRECT DIEKEMA
TELEGRAM TO MALLOCH

In the Holland City News issue of Dec. 5, the editor calls attention to the appearance here of Douglas Malloch, nationally known poet, who the editor knew as "the poet of the Muskegon Chronicle."

His appearance at the Exchange Club last night was his third appearance before a banquet audience in Holland. The News, in December, told of Mr. Malloch's coming on ladies' night and gave from his files Mr. Malloch's outstanding poem, "Today," which also appeared twenty years before.

The chairman of the Exchange Club, Jake Fris, produced a telegram of a score of years ago sent by the Hon. G. J. Diekema who was toastmaster at the C. of C. banquet and dispatched the following message to the "Poet of the Woods," which was read at last night's banquet and was an interesting feature.

Telegram from Diekema to Malloch.

Your appearance before the Holland Chamber of Commerce is the "talk of the town." You certainly made a great hit. With your splendid humor, your keen wit, your poetic genius, your strong common sense and clear logic you moved your audience to tears and laughter as well as best of all, you left them better men and women, more willing to lend a helping hand and to engage in unselfish service. Come again. Come often. May you live long to bless and cheer humanity.

Sincerely yours,
G. J. Diekema

for the rich folks when the poor aren't working," he continued.

"But business is getting better," observed the speaker. "A New York broker told me so—two years ago. A business man told me he had to close only two departments—shipping and production. We are losing money slower than we have for two years."

After interspersing his remarks with the reading of one of his poems, America's beloved poet continued, "We took the money of our fathers, got into the depression, and now we're spending the money of our children to get out of it. But we have learned one great lesson—to get rich slowly."

Mr. Malloch declared that "a depression is just a low place between two hills." He emphasized that "when we get out of the depression we must get out of it by our own ingenuity." "This is not the time for hard luck stories, but for hard work," he declared.

"Most of the pessimism is caused by conditions. 'A pessimist,' he said, 'is the man who complains because even the bank failures are falling off.'"

Mr. Malloch asserted that what we need are optimists, men who, when asked how the depression is out their way, will reply, "What depression?" Paying a high tribute to his native state, the poet concluded, "And as to the state of the Union let me say that Michigan is the state of the Union."

Mr. Malloch's newspaper poems, "Lyrics of Life," are syndicated by the McClure Syndicate of New York and appear daily in the Grand Rapids Press. Mr. Malloch is the author of eight books, the latest "Come on Home" and "The Heart Content." Last night marked his third appearance before the local Exchange club.

Jacob Fris, president of the Exchangeites and master of ceremonies introduced the speaker, and also Mrs. Malloch, who is president of the Illinois Women's Press Association.

Mr. Fris expressed the club's regret at losing a member John Kammeraad, captain of the Exchange club newboys in their recent newspaper drive for the benefit of needy children in the city, who is to move to Muskegon, and welcomed Pierre Vinet, former president of the California Exchange club, who moved to Holland recently.

Professor Paul E. Hinkamp of Hope College asked the blessing. Professor Milton "Bud" Hinga read the roll. Each member was required to stand after his name had been called while Prof. Hinga read an appropriate ditty or quotation. The whistles pulled on William Connelly, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, "Winds may start and winds may stop, but I

News Items Taken From the Files of Holland City News Fifty, Twenty-five and Fifteen Years Ago Today

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The ice harvest is now on and the ice in Black Lake is 20 inches thick. Horses and bobs are seen in large numbers on the ice and all the idle men in the city will have jobs for at least a month. The Seif Brewery on West 10th street is filling two ice houses, and the creameries in this vicinity are also putting in large supplies. Note: In those days the late George P. Hummer also owned an ice house about where the Donnelly-Kelley Glass Co. is now located. The ice harvest was an event in Holland in the early days and those needing ice then feared most the proverbial "January thaw." Today with artificial ice and electric ice boxes the thaw in January has become a misnomer.

If it took coffee as long to settle as it takes some men there would be very little coffee drunk here. Note: Not bad for 50 years ago—page Major Bowes!

Fire was discovered in Engine House "No. one" on the Northwest corner at "Public Square" (Centennial Park). The firemen got their equipment out and soon had a stream playing on the blaze. Firemen rushed to the rear of the building to see if a prisoner was locked in the small jail but none were in the "callabooes." The damage was $400.00. How the fire started cannot be explained; however, there was a strong odor of kerosene and it is suspected that a "fire bug" had been at work. Note: Undoubtedly it was a case of incendiary for these old tumble down buildings in the square were "eye sores" for years and when at last a good fire wrecked the whole fire trap the place at that corner was cleaned up and it was the first step toward beautifying Centennial Park which before that time was a disheveled cow and horse pasture with a broken down fence, plenty of white sand, June grass and sand burrs. The Holland City News after three years of fighting got an appropriation passed through the common council providing for $1,000 or $2,000 to start a park as the "hub" of the city, which before that was a disgrace. There were not a few tax paying subscribers who stopped their News "because the News was in part instrumental in spending city money on a cow pasture." Today—but what's the use, we are all proud of (Van Raalte?) Centennial Park and by the way, "Public Square," Holland, was changed to Centennial Park in 1876 when Philadelphia built a gigantic World's Fair in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the nation's birth. The name has no significance in the least as this relates to Holland and few people in Holland today know that there was a World's Fair in the "Quaker City" in the 70's.

THEY FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

Since December 1st Holland boys get 2c a head for all sparrows, according to the county bounty. Laying salt on their tails is about the only means left to capture this pest, considering that we have an ordinance not permitting shooting within the city limits. Note: This ordinance is still on the books; at least you can find out, boys, by calling police headquarters. Air guns might be exempt, however.

The death of Henry Geerlings, Sr., at 81 years, brings to mind that Mr. Geerlings was the first miller in this city. The old gentleman was the father of Henry Geerlings of the First State Bank and Jacob Geerlings, recently retired mail carrier. Note: Coming back to the first mill—this was a real Netherlands wind mill and was located where the Model Laundry is now located on East Eighth Street. In the early days looking down Main Street, which was rather a bare spot with "oceans" of parking space—one could see the swinging of the long arms or "sails" of the mill and under the wheel in the tower-like structure the large flat stones. Yes, this mill from a dyke in the cold country, if preserved, would have been a real land mark and an acquisition to our "Tulip Festival." More modern machinery, such as rolling mills, made the wind mill method rather a slow and antiquated affair and later Mr. Geerlings became associated in a more modern mill under the name of Workman and Geerlings. This mill was burned in the fire of '71. Holland now has a real mill at the river's mouth in "Wind Mill Park." It is a replica of one sent here from Europe. It has been built so it can turn even in reverse, but for some reason it is not turning. The turning of the big wheel in reality is its greatest appeal and before next "Tulip Festival" the News will endeavor to find out the reason why, and possibly will be able to suggest a remedy if this is possible. Not a few folks believe that this mill is a stationary piece of scenery embellishing one of the gate ways to the city. Your editor, who was a member of the committee with "Bill" Connelly, "Vaudie" VandenBerg, "Dutch" Vander Schell and Mr. Harmsen, builder of the mill, knows better. We have 4½ months to make that mill go round. If we can't find out by that time we had better page "Don" Quixote.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

The Holland City News ran an unusual advertisement on the first of each month. A full page calendar appeared with large figures and with advance weather predictions for the month, all the stages of the moon's appearance position from new to full and last quarter were pictured. It was a unique announcement from Austin Harrington's Coal Co. and folks were always provided with full calendar information in sizable type. Naturally the firm had large pictures of offices and yards. It made quite a hit at that time, we remember.

The Spring Lake Masonic order held a banquet never before or since attempted in Ottawa County. Friends in Alaska had sent two reindeer to Spring Lake and 150 folks sat down to partake of a feast to which they had been strangers up to this time.

The aldermen told the milkmen of Holland a few things about holding meetings in the street. Car drivers have been annoyed tremendously when groups of milkmen gathered in the middle of the roadway to gossip. Some times a half dozen "huddle" with their wagons and traffic is blocked or made slow. The aldermen want the milk peddlers to "hire a hall" rather than make a forum of the streets. Note: Well, those milk boys always had a lot to talk about. There is an ordinance still pending that has turned sour at least 2 years ago. The document is still in type, laden with dust and would fill more than half of a newspaper page.

Dr. E. D. Dimment, president of Hope College, is at St. Mary's hospital, Grand Rapids, where he has submitted to an operation for appendicitis. The nurse states that "the president's condition points to an uneventful recovery." Note: We are happy to relate that this nurse spoke the truth. "Dimmy" is still with us, 15 years later.

The 1921 Buick belonging to Edger Landwehr was stolen from his parking place in front of Hotel Hamilton. It had been purchased 2 months before and was a fine outfit. Attorney Daniel Ten Cate also had his fine new car stolen from the garage at his home on Maple Ave. The car cost the local attorney $2400 and he carried $1000 in theft insurance. Mr. Ten Cate offers $50 reward and this is augmented by $25 more from Chief Van Ry.

The congregation of the First Reformed church at Hamilton has decided to give its pastor, Rev. J. S. Ter Louw, $300 as an increase in his salary annually. He was also presented with a handsome chair and reading lamp by the Christian Endeavor Society of the church.

Representative Gerrit W. Kooyers left for Lansing where he will be sworn in as legislator for his 4th term. Note: Mr. Kooyers served two terms after that.

COME HONESTLY BY
THEIR SINGING TALENT

In the amateur contest to be sponsored by the Lion's Club at the Masonic Temple Monday night, there is one number that is going to be rather interesting, namely the Van Lente Chorus.

These songsters, father and sons, come honestly by their talent. Their grandfather was the leader of the old Van Lente Chorus in existence in Holland in pioneer days. This choir took on the form of the old fashioned singing school and would meet at different homes at least one evening a week.

Generally the school brought a mixed chorus but it was a pleasing diversion of the days when folk weren't so busy with automobiles, movies and forms of out-door recreation. Today folk seem to be too busy for the old singing school of half a century ago.

Anyway, in this chorus Monday night, you will find the results of the artistic seed sown by the old gentleman Johannes Van Lente who for many years lived at the edge of Laarman's Woods, today Prospect Park. Mr. Van Lente was the voo-zinger in one of the Dutch churches here. That was before the days of musical instruments and he carried the pitch and was followed by the entire congregation.

The Virginia Park Chorus consists of the father, Ralph Van Lente and the sons, C. Vernon, John Gerald, Ralph Frederick, Jr., Donald Eugene, Lloyd Robert and George Nelson.

Each member of the Holland Exchange club received a neat booklet containing the constitution and by-laws and a complete membership roster of the club at the annual "ladies' night" banquet last evening.

The booklet lists a total of 94 members—with home address and telephone numbers—a gain of 32 over the 62 of last year. Although a large membership is not always indicative of a fine club, as President Jacob Fris stated, the Holland Exchange club has also been one of the outstanding clubs in the state in carrying out the Exchange motto "Unity for Service."

blow on forever," seemed to be most appreciated by the Exchangeites.

Donald Kramer, accompanied by Gary De Haan, favored with three marimba solos, "Pomp and Circumstance" by Elgar, "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2" by Liszt, and "Invitation No. 8" by Bach. Other musical numbers included two vocal solos, "Rose of my Heart" and "Beautiful Lady" sung by Roy Klomprens, Lois Vrieling accompanying, and two cornet solos, "Bride of the Waves" and "Song of Love," rendered by John Perkowski. Gerard Hanchett was accompanist for the last two numbers.

News Items Taken From the Files of Holland City News Fifty, Twenty-five and Fifteen Years Ago Today

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The ice harvest is now on and the ice in Black Lake is 20 inches thick. Horses and bobs are seen in large numbers on the ice and all the idle men in the city will have jobs for at least a month. The Seif Brewery on West 10th street is filling two ice houses, and the creameries in this vicinity are also putting in large supplies. Note: In those days the late George P. Hummer also owned an ice house about where the Donnelly-Kelley Glass Co. is now located. The ice harvest was an event in Holland in the early days and those needing ice then feared most the proverbial "January thaw." Today with artificial ice and electric ice boxes the thaw in January has become a misnomer.

If it took coffee as long to settle as it takes some men there would be very little coffee drunk here. Note: Not bad for 50 years ago—page Major Bowes!

Fire was discovered in Engine House "No. one" on the Northwest corner at "Public Square" (Centennial Park). The firemen got their equipment out and soon had a stream playing on the blaze. Firemen rushed to the rear of the building to see if a prisoner was locked in the small jail but none were in the "callabooes." The damage was $400.00. How the fire started cannot be explained; however, there was a strong odor of kerosene and it is suspected that a "fire bug" had been at work. Note: Undoubtedly it was a case of incendiary for these old tumble down buildings in the square were "eye sores" for years and when at last a good fire wrecked the whole fire trap the place at that corner was cleaned up and it was the first step toward beautifying Centennial Park which before that time was a disheveled cow and horse pasture with a broken down fence, plenty of white sand, June grass and sand burrs. The Holland City News after three years of fighting got an appropriation passed through the common council providing for $1,000 or $2,000 to start a park as the "hub" of the city, which before that was a disgrace. There were not a few tax paying subscribers who stopped their News "because the News was in part instrumental in spending city money on a cow pasture." Today—but what's the use, we are all proud of (Van Raalte?) Centennial Park and by the way, "Public Square," Holland, was changed to Centennial Park in 1876 when Philadelphia built a gigantic World's Fair in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the nation's birth. The name has no significance in the least as this relates to Holland and few people in Holland today know that there was a World's Fair in the "Quaker City" in the 70's.

THEY FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

Since December 1st Holland boys get 2c a head for all sparrows, according to the county bounty. Laying salt on their tails is about the only means left to capture this pest, considering that we have an ordinance not permitting shooting within the city limits. Note: This ordinance is still on the books; at least you can find out, boys, by calling police headquarters. Air guns might be exempt, however.

The death of Henry Geerlings, Sr., at 81 years, brings to mind that Mr. Geerlings was the first miller in this city. The old gentleman was the father of Henry Geerlings of the First State Bank and Jacob Geerlings, recently retired mail carrier. Note: Coming back to the first mill—this was a real Netherlands wind mill and was located where the Model Laundry is now located on East Eighth Street. In the early days looking down Main Street, which was rather a bare spot with "oceans" of parking space—one could see the swinging of the long arms or "sails" of the mill and under the wheel in the tower-like structure the large flat stones. Yes, this mill from a dyke in the cold country, if preserved, would have been a real land mark and an acquisition to our "Tulip Festival." More modern machinery, such as rolling mills, made the wind mill method rather a slow and antiquated affair and later Mr. Geerlings became associated in a more modern mill under the name of Workman and Geerlings. This mill was burned in the fire of '71. Holland now has a real mill at the river's mouth in "Wind Mill Park." It is a replica of one sent here from Europe. It has been built so it can turn even in reverse, but for some reason it is not turning. The turning of the big wheel in reality is its greatest appeal and before next "Tulip Festival" the News will endeavor to find out the reason why, and possibly will be able to suggest a remedy if this is possible. Not a few folks believe that this mill is a stationary piece of scenery embellishing one of the gate ways to the city. Your editor, who was a member of the committee with "Bill" Connelly, "Vaudie" VandenBerg, "Dutch" Vander Schell and Mr. Harmsen, builder of the mill, knows better. We have 4½ months to make that mill go round. If we can't find out by that time we had better page "Don" Quixote.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

The Holland City News ran an unusual advertisement on the first of each month. A full page calendar appeared with large figures and with advance weather predictions for the month, all the stages of the moon's appearance position from new to full and last quarter were pictured. It was a unique announcement from Austin Harrington's Coal Co. and folks were always provided with full calendar information in sizable type. Naturally the firm had large pictures of offices and yards. It made quite a hit at that time, we remember.

The Spring Lake Masonic order held a banquet never before or since attempted in Ottawa County. Friends in Alaska had sent two reindeer to Spring Lake and 150 folks sat down to partake of a feast to which they had been strangers up to this time.

The aldermen told the milkmen of Holland a few things about holding meetings in the street. Car drivers have been annoyed tremendously when groups of milkmen gathered in the middle of the roadway to gossip. Some times a half dozen "huddle" with their wagons and traffic is blocked or made slow. The aldermen want the milk peddlers to "hire a hall" rather than make a forum of the streets. Note: Well, those milk boys always had a lot to talk about. There is an ordinance still pending that has turned sour at least 2 years ago. The document is still in type, laden with dust and would fill more than half of a newspaper page.

Dr. E. D. Dimment, president of Hope College, is at St. Mary's hospital, Grand Rapids, where he has submitted to an operation for appendicitis. The nurse states that "the president's condition points to an uneventful recovery." Note: We are happy to relate that this nurse spoke the truth. "Dimmy" is still with us, 15 years later.

The 1921 Buick belonging to Edger Landwehr was stolen from his parking place in front of Hotel Hamilton. It had been purchased 2 months before and was a fine outfit. Attorney Daniel Ten Cate also had his fine new car stolen from the garage at his home on Maple Ave. The car cost the local attorney $2400 and he carried $1000 in theft insurance. Mr. Ten Cate offers $50 reward and this is augmented by $25 more from Chief Van Ry.

The congregation of the First Reformed church at Hamilton has decided to give its pastor, Rev. J. S. Ter Louw, $300 as an increase in his salary annually. He was also presented with a handsome chair and reading lamp by the Christian Endeavor Society of the church.

Representative Gerrit W. Kooyers left for Lansing where he will be sworn in as legislator for his 4th term. Note: Mr. Kooyers served two terms after that.

COME HONESTLY BY
THEIR SINGING TALENT

In the amateur contest to be sponsored by the Lion's Club at the Masonic Temple Monday night, there is one number that is going to be rather interesting, namely the Van Lente Chorus.

These songsters, father and sons, come honestly by their talent. Their grandfather was the leader of the old Van Lente Chorus in existence in Holland in pioneer days. This choir took on the form of the old fashioned singing school and would meet at different homes at least one evening a week.

Generally the school brought a mixed chorus but it was a pleasing diversion of the days when folk weren't so busy with automobiles, movies and forms of out-door recreation. Today folk seem to be too busy for the old singing school of half a century ago.

Anyway, in this chorus Monday night, you will find the results of the artistic seed sown by the old gentleman Johannes Van Lente who for many years lived at the edge of Laarman's Woods, today Prospect Park. Mr. Van Lente was the voo-zinger in one of the Dutch churches here. That was before the days of musical instruments and he carried the pitch and was followed by the entire congregation.

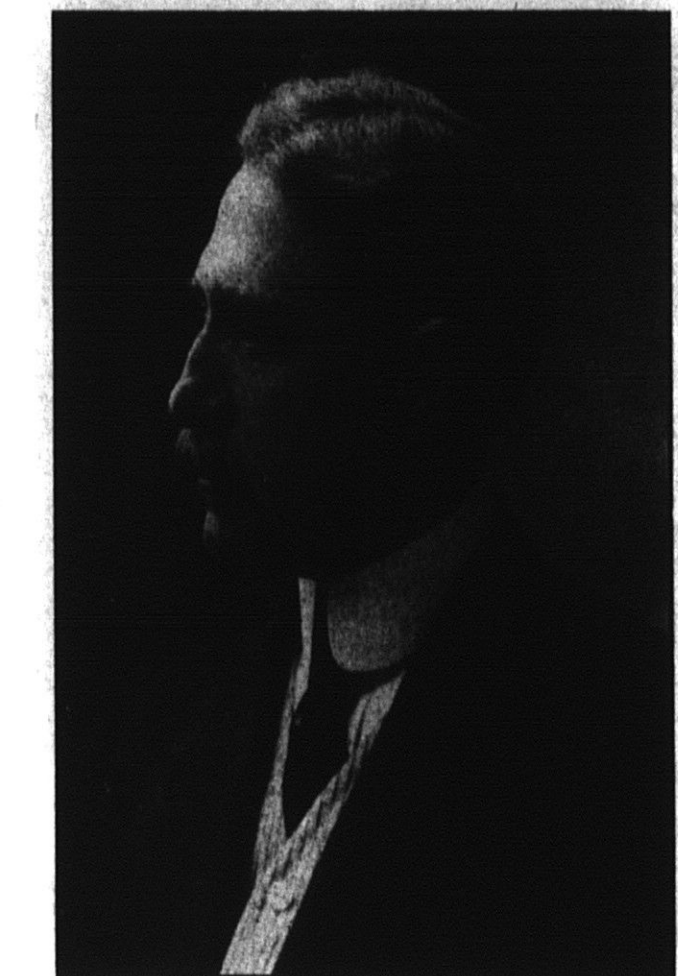

The Virginia Park Chorus consists of the father, Ralph Van Lente and the sons, C. Vernon, John Gerald, Ralph Frederick, Jr., Donald Eugene, Lloyd Robert and George Nelson.

Each member of the Holland Exchange club received a neat booklet containing the constitution and by-laws and a complete membership roster of the club at the annual "ladies' night" banquet last evening.

The booklet lists a total of 94 members—with home address and telephone numbers—a gain of 32 over the 62 of last year. Although a large membership is not always indicative of a fine club, as President Jacob Fris stated, the Holland Exchange club has also been one of the outstanding clubs in the state in carrying out the Exchange motto "Unity for Service."

blow on forever," seemed to be most appreciated by the Exchangeites.

Donald Kramer, accompanied by Gary De Haan, favored with three marimba solos, "Pomp and Circumstance" by Elgar, "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2" by Liszt, and "Invitation No. 8" by Bach. Other musical numbers included two vocal solos, "Rose of my Heart" and "Beautiful Lady" sung by Roy Klomprens, Lois Vrieling accompanying, and two cornet solos, "Bride of the Waves" and "Song of Love," rendered by John Perkowski. Gerard Hanchett was accompanist for the last two numbers.

Dr. Bernard J. De Vries

Snow Rites Are Impressive At Hope Chapel

(Continued from Page One)

spiration of fine religious offerings from organ loft and through the voices of a wonderful chorus.

Worship would scarcely be worship unless the word of God was closely allied with the singing of God's praises through well-directed music and song. Mr. Davidson stated that to Mr. Snow a church without music was like a bird without wings. Mr. Snow found music in everything. He found music in the air for him to capture and to interpret to us mortals not so talented.

The great science and art of Mr. Snow was the fact that he had a "singing heart," a gift that comes to few people in great abundance. "Jesus had a singing heart as the Bible fully interprets," said Mr. Davidson.

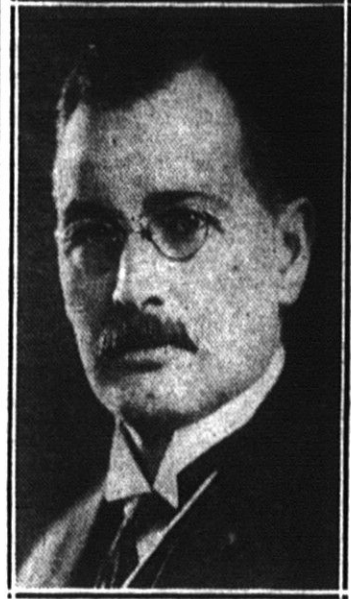

Men of great renown have singing hearts that bring gladness and good will and happiness to all those who come in contact with them.

During the recent trials and afflictions to which Mr. Snow finally succumbed, it was his "singing heart" that gave him courage. He thought first of his loved ones and last of himself.

He was also tireless in his efforts to bring the musical phase of Hope Church religious program up to the highest standard. Mr. Snow selected music that was an uplift to the congregation and impressed even those who were not musically inclined. He selected his church music fitting to all classes. He felt that had music was just as demoralizing as bad literature. To him there was only one kind of music, the music that elevated, that makes one better for having heard it and instills the thought of wholeness and a feeling of religious fervor.

Mr. Snow, Mr. Davidson continued, was untiring in all his work. Laden with the manifold duties at

Dr. T. W. Davidson

Hope College at the school of music and his civic choruses, he still found time to perfect the music at Hope Church to a greater degree than it had ever attained.

Mr. Davidson closed in giving the wonderful poem, "The Singing Heart" which was a fitting conclusion to a much deserved tribute.

er. No interests were foreign to him, not music, not literature or history, not art nor current problems, not social, economic and political questions; all of these were his field of investigation. And that was probably the reason why his realm was not only that of music, the realm of the imagination and emotion, and the reason that his judgments in the realms of thought and action were uncommonly sensible, practical and good. He was a great teacher because of his vital interest in others, understanding their limitations and their needs, appreciating their objectives and aspirations and winning their response to the ideal and the abiding with tact and firmness and sympathy. And thus he was able to transfer from the storehouse of his own being to the minds and hearts of his pupils those things that were worth while and abiding. And we confess this afternoon that we have suffered the loss of a valued teacher.

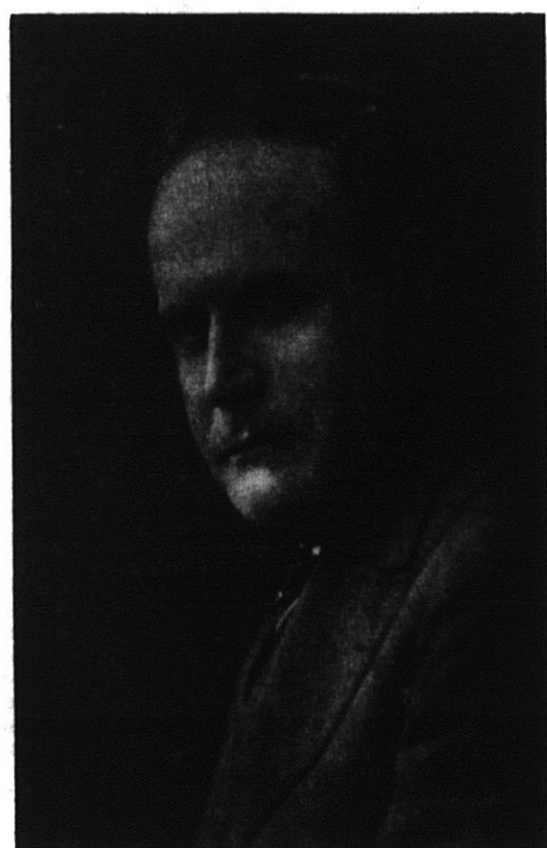

And in the last place I should like to say that we of the College think of Mr. Snow as a Christian gentleman worthy of any generation. The pioneer days of this colony produced men and women of rugged physical strength, sterling character, adventure and faith. Every generation produces men and women like that and this generation gave us Mr. Snow. I think that in the pioneer day he would have exhibited the marks of courage and faith and adventure, for even in his own day these marks were clearly discernible. He was always adventuring, always looking for new methods, new fields to occupy, new work to do, very often impatient of restraint, moving faster than it was possible to follow him, trying to realize his goal before we were quite ready for it. We liked him for it because it meant that he was always sensing the obligation of an opportunity.

And so we trusted him and believed in him and followed him. His good taste, his refined mind, his delicate sense of honor, were these not the marks of the Christian gentleman? And all in all he was a man of great and substantial faith. It seems to me that no one who lives in the realm of great music could be without it. But in addition to this natural habitat, the stress and strain of life, the eternal conflict built up in him the serene and beautiful faith. Last summer I had the opportunity of going with him alone on one or two excursions and on the long ride to and from a distant city we had ample time to discuss problems that were common and those that were vital. It was in moments like those that he revealed that deep current of faith and eternal hope which helped him to live the life that he did, and for the future to commit himself to the eternal. For he knew that his Redeemer liveth. The sentiment that Dr. Robert Freeman expressed was his:

"When men go down to the sea in ships,
Tis not to the sea they go;
Some isle or pole the mariner's goal,
And thither they sail through calm and gale,
When down to the sea they go.

When souls go down to the sea by ship,
And the dark ship's name is Death,
Why mourn and wail at the vanishing sail?
Though outward bound, God's world is round,
And only a ship is Death.

When I go down to the sea by ship,
And Death unfurls her sail,
Weep not for me, for there will be
A living host on another coast
To beckon and cry, "All hail!"

By Edward D. Dimment
Former President of Hope

We are met in the one universal service of our race. The three outstanding incidents in our lives, birth, marriage, and death, make us pause, but of them all death alone brings us to a solemn service. Many a tribe has dwelt with more or less of thought upon birth but birth has never received the worth of a ritual. Marriage has been attended by civil and church ceremony for the purpose of ensuring racial integrity but slavery and servitude have been its background much too often in place of spiritual values. Death alone has gathered about itself dirge and requiem and solemn high mass. Births go unrecorded and marriages may be but a gesture and be annulled; but the dead abide with us in celebrant prayer and perpetual mass. The cities of the dead far outnumber the habitations of the living yet we hold them all in reverence and the foot of the unholy dares not enter therein. All down the ages we raise our noble mausoleums where we place the incinerary urn and we stand in awed silence beside the grave where we place the laurel wreath and the burning immortelles. It is our universal service.

Perhaps more significant for our race is the fact that of all created beings humanity alone keeps the sacrament of its dead. The brute dies and falls without memorial stone or regretful sigh to mark his passing. And no poet or prophet has ever granted to the higher spirits any consolation in death, any relief from anguish, or any succor from sorrow. These go forever on their endless course under the wrath of God. Here, it would seem, is a bulwark for man's immortal hope. He alone has a consciousness of redemption and bliss. He alone may know the consolations of religion and the assurance of the communion of the saints of God. It is this that makes our service today the great liturgy of life.

The church of Christ above all other groups has laid hold upon this immortal hope. She sings all the way through her journey. Her music rises in a major mode on the strong dominant note of everlasting life; and, if by reason of stress and strain, she becomes weary she mutes her melody on a softer mode without ever yielding to a long sustained minor cadence. Search the music and the literature of the ages and nowhere can so rich a body of hymn and song be found. Indeed, it is all too rich. It is all too full and the church asks for a thousand tongues to sing her great Redeemer's praise. She longs to soar and touch the heavenly strings and vie with Gabriel as he sings in notes almost divine.

We call these the hymns of the Christian Church and yet they go back a thousand years to the melodies of the Hebrew temple. Here no human emotion is left untouched. By the still waters the soul rests in peace; or, again, out of the depths it cries for succor; while in the next breath it shouts with ecstatic joy—Lift up your heads, oh ye gates, and the King of Glory shall come in. However, under the impress of a larger experience, one comes to think that there is something greater even than these songs of David's liturgy. No great composition has ever been produced by human kind that was as great as the person to whom it was dedicated. The love lyric is not so great as the beloved to whom it is sung. The tragedies of the greatest playwrights are less than the humanity for which they were written. Paradise Lost, dynamic in its tale of the forbidden fruit whose mortal taste brought death into the world until that time when some greater one shall restore us and regain the blissful seat, holds but a feeble glimmer of light compared with the Heavenly Muse it invokes. And in this memorial hour my mind will not release itself from the dedication of so many of these matchless songs of Jerusalem's matchless temple. To The Chief Musician,—how many of them are brought to us with this dedication. It seems as though the shepherd king of Israel was filled with the glory of his vision of this great singer and ranged the whole gamut of life in song,—then wrote simply, simply because the simplest is always the greatest,—To The Chief Musician. In this hour of holy sacrament we speak to our Chief Musician. What we say here cannot match what he did here. Our words are the expression of our deepest respect and of our truest love but they must be empty compared to his work here. These pipes are mute for their Chief Musician is gone. The harp above and the bells in yonder choir organ are stilled for the fingers that gave them melody can never call them to life. The Chief Musician is gone. How they waited on his slightest wish. The Flight of the Bumble Bee,—how real his fancy made it. The Will of The Wisp,—how tricky it was under his fingers. With him we labored under the Volga Boat Song, we were stunned by the crash that echoed and reechoed from Canyon Walls. He charmed us with the Nibelungen Lieder and amazed us as he made the horrors of the Goetter-dammerung thunder about our heads. Now our Chief Musician is gone. He inspired us to be strong and true with Ein Fester Burgist Unser Gott. At his finest, with the matchless smile upon his face, the fire in his eye, the prophetic inspiration of his great soul charging his whole being and thrilling us, he carried us to the heavens that awaited him then but enfold him now, the heavens that are still awaiting us, the heavens where he and we shall again join the Hallelujah Chorus for the Lord God Omnipotent Reigneth, King of Kings, and Lord of Lords. Now our Chief Musician is gone! But his glory is here!

Some of these songs dedicated to The Chief Musician are inscribed A Song of Degrees. Others indicate that the Chief Musician was to lead his magnificent chorus of a thousand white-robed priests from court to court in the Temple, up the sweeping stairways to the Holy Place. They sing the glories of Israel the Elect of Jehovah. They tell of the princely heritage of the nation. They pause long upon its present achievements. They prophesy in loud crescendo of the future splendor and work of Jacob who wrestled with the Angel and came forth the Prince of God. What a magnificent sight! Under the spell of the Chief Musician they move with swinging sensors, with pipes and symbols and timbrels and harps and instruments of ten strings. At each broad pavement in their ascent they picture the heritage of Israel from God, and rise again to the present glory and achievement of the Elect People of Jehovah, and they stay not nor stop until before the Holy Place they bless his Holy Name against the time when all Zion shall be redeemed and sing the Song of Moses and the Lamb before Him who reigneth forever, King of Kings, and Lord of Lords!

We sing in our feeble way,—I ask no dream, no prophet ecstasy, no sudden rending of the veil of tears. Ancient Israel could not sing that way. Her faith was triumphant; her soul was exultant. This is the whole life of these Songs of David. And this I am moved to feel was the whole life of our Chief Musician, Wilfred Curtis Snow. When Dr. Nykerk and I first met with Mr. Snow some six years ago, the positive, genuine personality of the man won our esteem. He knew his talents. He knew what he proposed to accomplish. More, he appraised Hope College and its musical equipment in the same mastery way that he later did all his tasks. He knew the worth of the magnificent organ that would be his through the generosity of the Arendshorts and the Vander Veen and the Freyings, and he was as ready to come as we were to have him with his gracious and talented wife among us. Our mutual decisions were quick. Greatness is always simple and Hope College was to learn happily in the days that followed the greatness of soul that lay behind the direct and genuine manner of our Chief Musician.

Incidentally, he spoke of the heritage that was his from a musical ancestry. For generations past there was music in the family of Snow. There is something dangerous in genius,—it may be sporadic, erratic, unreliable. And herein genius differs from greatness,—greatness is permanent, positive, always reliable. Genius is too often an accident of birth, but greatness is the inheritance of a virile ancestry. And this makes greatness the more powerful possession. W. Curtis Snow did not depend upon genius for his achievements. He was wondered many a time at his steady approach to his art, at his sure attack upon his compositions. He seemed to sense intuitively the meaning of each work, organ or piano or voice, and proceeded immediately to render the meaning in the most perfect manner. He showed this at one time in a passing conversation with a chance acquaintance. The Humoresque was mentioned. Oh, he said, in his quick incisive way,—I never play that on the organ. It is too choppy. It is a violin piece. Again, the true artist was evident in him when during the last weeks as he roused out of coma, he asked,—"What stop have I open there." Some song was singing itself in his soul and he was commanding his instrument to do his will. This exquisite quality was always with him and was part of his very being. It is this quality, I believe, which is the essential quality of greatness. It made him our Chief Musician.

During his boyhood years as choir singer and student he was perfecting this inheritance from the family of Snow by study and practice and performance. He was learning life in its fullest meaning by contact with men. Most of us humans do not know the value of meeting men and learning from them. We seem most of us to have decided in advance that we have learned all that can be learned and that we are destined to teach all who have the misfortune to meet us. We forget that there never yet lived a fool who could not teach a philosopher something if only the philosopher were not so self-wise. Curtis Snow was not of that sort. He was enlarging his experience everywhere and at all times. His trip to Japan with a trio of musicians was a part of his search for the meaning of life and of its good things and of his high sense of the privilege to serve. Once again, in the feverish days of 1917 and 18 he proved his mettle and enlisted in the United States Artillery for service abroad and is enrolled upon the records of his country today as Sergeant of the Headquarters Battalion of the Sixty-third Field Artillery United States Army, with honorable discharge at Camp Jackson, South Carolina, January 3, 1919, a service of which this flag bears eloquent testimony. In the company of his rector friend who was chaplain of the battalion he went to Fort Bliss and I like to think of these two,—both men dedicated to solemn services in the Church, one as priest of ritual mass and the other as priest of ritual music,—going out in the last service of patriotic devotion. But the supreme measure was not asked of him for a more glorious work awaited him. At Morningside College first and then at Hope College the path of duty was laid. And immediately he took within his range of consecration the City of Holland and the parish of Hope Church. What a service this has been. Who in our city has not felt the inspiration of his art and of his manhood and of his simple greatness. Why need I speak of what you all know? What word of mine could touch you where his life moved you to love him? When a year ago he directed you in worship of voice or hear in the immortal strains of the Messiah and your thousands rose as one soul when his baton was lifted,—you dedicated your best to your Chief Musician. Then you thought he would guide you another year but God was preparing W. Curtis Snow for the last ascent to the Holy Place. When our little year was drawing to a close, God took him where years are unknown for He had angel choirs in need of a Chief Musician. We mourn,—Hope College and Hope Church and our city; but not as he who is still for us but as he who is still for us but his strings are no longer broken. This morning at our College Chapel our choir chanted the Seven-Fold Amen which he had taught them,—first trembling as those whose hearts were filled to overflowing; then gaining confidence from the memory of his presence they rose to a triumphant final AMEN,—for they knew—we all know—that The Chief Musician Lives.

Hark, hark, my soul! angelic songs are swelling
O'er earth's green fields and ocean's wave-beat shore;
How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be no more—
Angels of Jesus, angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night!
Angels sing on, your faithful watches keeping;
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;
Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping.
And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.
Angels of Jesus, angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night.

OVERISEL NEWS

Miss Katie Kline was honored at a miscellaneous shower given by Ruth and Laura Veen at their home last Friday evening. Games were played during the evening and a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Misses Evelyn Branderhorst, Harriet Van Der Popp, Ruth and Geneva Haze-kamp, Joella Essink, Johanna and Julia Essink, Bernice Schaap, Pearl Bartels, Lillian Boerigter, Angeline Dabink, Evelyn Rigtterik, Harriet and Julianna Dan-nenberg, Frieda Lampen, Florence and Alyce Vande Riet, Reka Van Der Wal, Gladys Eskes, Laura and Ruth Veen, Mr. and Mrs. C. Veen, Mr. and Mrs. John Klingenberg, Hester and Clinton Klingenberg, Ed. Zuidersma, Jerald Veen, Katie Kline, Mrs. Henry Kline, Harvey Monroe, Milton Essink, Marvin Essink, Theodore Essink, Edwin Klingenberg, Donald Kaper, Geo. Berens, Melvin Dannenberg, Willis Essink, Edwin Van Der Popp, Andrew Boerigter, Harlon Dine, Garret Vande Riet.

Mr. Albert van Der Wal and daughter entertained Rev. Vande Riet and family New Year's evening. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

On Old Year's evening a carful of people from Peoria, Illinois arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brink of Overisel. These guests—Mr. and Mrs. H. Bonga and children Ruth and Roger, Mr. Melvin Dole, Rev. and Mrs. R. G. Elzinga—celebrated New Year's day at the Brink home.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Van Saun and daughters Dorothea and Martha of Holland, Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Rigtterik of Hamilton, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Yeakey of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brink on New Year's day.

Mrs. John Hagelskamp passed away Sunday noon at the age of eighty-two years. She had been living at the home of her son, Joe Hagelskamp of Hamilton. She is survived by her children, Mrs. Steve Wolters of Overisel, Mrs. Ralph Brink and Mrs. William Postma of East Saugatuck, Mrs. William Nykamp of Overisel, John Hagelskamp of Osego, and Joe Hagelskamp of Overisel, and several grandchildren. The funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the Overisel Reformed church, Rev. Pyle officiating. Burial will be made in the Overisel cemetery.

The annual Week of Prayer is being observed at the Overisel Reformed church. The pastor, Rev. H. W. Pyle, took charge of the services on Monday and Wednesday evening and Tuesday afternoon.

On Friday evening the meeting will be in charge of Mr. Benjamin J. Hoffman of the Western Theological Seminary.

The Prayer meeting of the Reformed church was led by Joseph Schipper last Sunday evening. The subject was "Happy New Year—Rules for It."

At the Young People's Society of the Christian Reformed church Sunday evening, Anna Barveld introduced the Bible discussion. A poem entitled "Divine Love put in Action" was given by Bee Jay Langknecht.

Garret Vande Riet rendered two vocal solos at the North Blendon Christian Endeavor Sunday evening. He was accompanied at the piano by Florence Vande Riet.

The Christian Endeavor meeting on Tuesday evening was led by Goldie Koops on the subject "Habits Worth Forming."

The Ladies Mission Circle of the Reformed church met last Thursday afternoon. The meeting was led by Gladys Hulsman and Mrs. Harry Rigtterik. The leaders planned a playlet in the form of a New Year program entitled "Packing our Grip for the New Year." Those taking part were: Mrs. Joseph Schipper, Mrs. Stanley Wolters, Mrs. James Koops, Mrs. Jay Rigtterik, and Mrs. Lester Gunne-man.

On New Year's day Mr. and Mrs. John Immink entertained all their children. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Immink, Mrs. Dyk-huis, Mr. and Mrs. George Kooiker, and children, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Immink and children, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Immink and children, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Immink and children.

Mr. Gerrit Immink and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kromeyer visited Mrs. H. van der Wal and her children at their home on Sunday evening last Tuesday evening.

Alfred Lampen is on the sick list this week.

Broekhuis Bros., dealers in hardware and implements, have purchased a new Chevrolet truck.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schaap of Overisel left for Florida Monday morning where they will spend the winter.

Bobby Neinhuis was a supper guest of Herman Vande Riet Sunday evening.

Rev. G. J. Vande Riet has received an invitation from Cleveland to return to his former pulpit and deliver a sermon on Sunday, January 12. Included also is an invitation for him to deliver a lecture of his own choosing on the preceding Friday evening, January 10, under the auspices of the "Advento," a society which was organized during his nine years' stay in Cleveland. Mrs. Vande Riet is also invited to accompany her husband.

LOCAL

Jack Barendse, manager of the local National Re-employment office on the second floor of the post office, assigned ten truckers to WPA road grading jobs. The truckers, three of whom are from Holland, were given work on jobs now in progress at Port Sheldon, Zeeland and in Wright and Chester townships.

A meeting of the Holland C. E. union board was held Monday night at the home of Lewis Verburg, president. Plans were made for the annual Christian Endeavor week activities. Arrangements were made for the union meeting January 17 in the First Reformed church when Russell J. Blair, general secretary of Christian Endeavor in Massachusetts, will speak. Further plans were made for the annual C. E. banquet which will be held Jan. 31 in the Third Reformed church.

Henry Poll of Holland, Gordon Rigtterik of Hamilton and Mart Buekema of Grand Rapids have returned from a trip to Florida.

At a meeting of the Social Progress club held Tuesday night, "The Riddle of the Rhine" was the subject of a timely paper presented by William Slater. The meeting was at the home of Dr. A. Leenhouts. Donald Leenhouts and Leon Moody were special guests.

It was announced Wednesday that Miss Louise Scully and James Ter Keurst, juniors at Holland high school, were winners of the essay contest sponsored annually by the local chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution. The subject of the essay this year was, "Washington at Valley Forge." Miss Evelyn Steketee, senior high school instructor conducted the contest in which 39 entered. The winners will each be awarded a prize of $5 to be presented at the annual commencement exercises next June.

Oscar Freedman, 40, Detroit jewelry salesman suffered leg injuries when the car he was driving crashed into the side of the truck driven by George B. Speet, 24, 131 W. 27th St. on N. River Ave. near Madison Tuesday afternoon.

At a joint meeting of the Y.M.C.A. and Y.U.C.A. held Tuesday evening in Memorial Chapel, Dr. Albertus Pieters, who was a Y.M.C.A. member of Hope College 50 years ago, addressed the group. A miscellaneous program was presented.

Bernard Vanderbeek addressed the prayer meeting of Sixth Reformed church Wednesday evening on the subject, "Habits Worth Forming." A program of special music was presented.

Miss Clara McClellan was surprised by members of the Star of Bethlehem Chapter No. 40 O.E.S. Saturday evening at her home on E. Fifth St. Miss McClellan, who was worthy matron last year and Bert Welton, worthy patron, were presented gifts. Those present were Miss Dorothy White, Mr. and Mrs. H. Stanaway, Mr. and Mrs. F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. S. Habing, Mr. and Mrs. F. Tirrell, Mrs. Mabel Vanden Berg, Miss McClellan, A. E. McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. A. White, Mr. and Mrs. A. Boone, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Slooter, Mr. and Mrs. B. Welton, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hansen and Mr. and Mrs. Harry White.

Betty Scheerhorn, who celebrated her sixth birthday anniversary was honored at a party given by her mother, Mrs. Edward Scheerhorn. Guests were Barbara Van Ingen, Evelyn De Roos, Betty June Scheerhorn, Marjorie Mulder, Patty Goetz, Joyce Palmer, Bona and Dora Klompars, Theresa Vander Bie, and Mrs. Palmer who assisted the hostess.

Mrs. William Olive addressed a meeting of the Ladies Mission band of Sixth Reformed church, held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Program arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Ed. Hietje and Devotions were in charge of Mrs. Peter Wiersum.

CHEST CLINIC TO BE HELD NEXT TUESDAY

The chest clinic for Holland will be held next Tuesday from 1-4 p.m. in the old hospital annex.

Dr. J. H. Bartlett of Muskegon will be in charge.

NEW SUPER SERVICE STATION OFFICIALLY OPENS

Ben Lievens officially opened his new Super-Service station last Friday, January 3. The Lievens battery shop has been recently remodeled enabling gasoline pumps to be installed and all such other accessories generally found in service stations of that nature. Mr. Lievens has taken on the Phillips 66 products distributed locally by the W. W. Oil Co. The remodeled building on the northeast corner of Central Ave. and Ninth St. has been rebuilt so cars can enter in under cover for gasoline and filling and servicing cars. There are commodious offices in the front and the entire reconstruction has been for convenience as well as making the building more practical. The offices of Frank Lievens local insurance firm has moved to new reconstructed offices in the north part of the large building. The battery service is still in the rear, a large area for storing cars is still available and the bowling alley remains on the second floor intact. The large Lievens building is not only a service station but a place for recreation as well.

Ben Lievens invites the general public to drop in any time to inspect his remodeled building just completed.

BUEHLER BROS., Inc.

SAVE on meats

FOR SATURDAY ONLY

Boiling Beef young, tender ribs lb. 10c
Beef Roasts best cuts lb. 15c
Veal Leg Roast whole or half lb. 20c
Pure Lard Pure Open Kettle Rendered 2 lbs. 27c
Bacon Squares sugar cured lb. 18c
Small Link Sausage lb. 22c
Large Link Sausage lb. 18c
Pig Hearts lb. 12c
Pig Liver lb. 15c
Beef Liver young-tender lb. 18c
Pork Roasts center cuts lb. 19c

Pigs Feet fresh.....lb. 9c
 Fresh Liver Sausage, lb. 15c
 Mutton Shoulder Rst lb 10c
 Pork Chops.....lb. 25c
 Pork Steak.....lb. 22c
 Sirloin Steak.....lb. 18c
 Veal Cutlets.....lb. 28c

Lions'

Amateur Night FINALS

$100 In Prizes

Winners from Hudsonville, Hamilton, Holland, South Haven, Saugatuck, Virginia Park, Competing

Holland Masonic Temple MONDAY, JAN. 13

8 P. M. Admission 35c

Hudsonville Contest, H. S. Auditorium, Jan. 10
 Hamilton Contest, Community Hall, Jan. 10

GREATER FOOD VALUES

PEARS Royal Keiffers no. 2 10c
Fine for Salads or Sauce can

CHERRIES Red, Sour 10c
Pitted No. 2 can

BEANS Radio Brand no. 2 15c
Cut Wax cans or Green

COD FISH Velvet Brand lb. pkg. 22c

SOUPS Alice Brand No. 1 Can 5c

Oxtail Consomme Pepper Pot Tomato Vegetable Beef

OYSTER CRACKERS lb. 10c

SPAGHETTI In Rich Sauce 3 Cans 25c

SALMON Finest Alaska Pink Can 12c

TUNA FISH Fancy Light Meat 2 Cans 25c

Post's Sun sweet PRUNES 2 lb. pkg. 17c

Bran Flakes Fancy Blue Rose RICE, 2 lbs. 12c

Large Box DRY GREEN PEAS, 3 lbs. 15c

15c PRUNES, 4 lbs. 19c

RED KIDNEY BEANS, 2 lbs. 15c

C. THOMAS STORES

32 West 8th Street Holland

Save on Tooth Paste

Large 50c Tubes

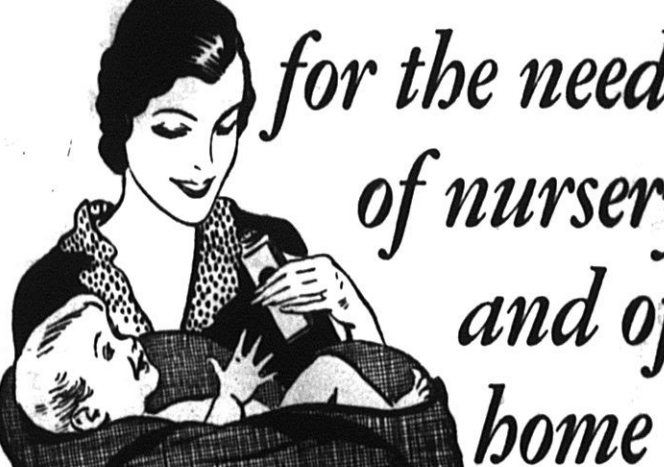

only 19c each

Your Favorite Type is Here

Model Drug Store

8th and River Ave. Holland

HOT WATER

heat it at low cost with a

PENFIELD

Automatic Gas Water Heater

Hot Water

—all the time—any time—at a moment's command—is the kind of hot water service you attain with the

Penfield Water Heater

And this service is not costly with our GUARANTEED GAS BILL for Hot Water Service.

Ask Our Representative

Michigan Gas &amp; Electric Co.

Holland City News $1 a Year

CHURCH NEWS

THE OPEN BIBLE CHURCH

Dr. Charles F. Fields, Pastor.

SUNDAY

Services held in the Woman's Literary Club building, corner Central Ave. and Tenth St.

10:00 a.m.—Morning Worship. Sermon subject, "A Short Prayer with a Mighty Petition."

11:20 a.m.—Bible School with classes for all.

4:00 p.m.—Children's Hour for all boys and girls.

6:30 p.m.—Young People's Service.

7:30 p.m.—Gospel Service. The pastor will speak upon the second of the series of messages based on the Book of Revelation, namely, "Nineteen Centuries of Church History in fifty-one verses of Holy Writ."

TUESDAY

7:30 p.m.—Quarterly Business meeting of the church in the auditorium at the corner of Pine Ave. and Nineteenth St.

THURSDAY

7:30 p.m.—Mid-week prayer, praise and testimony meeting, in church at Pine and Nineteenth.

Mr. G. A. Fields, business man from Detroit and secretary of the Shantymen's Christian Association will speak at the Bible Witness Hall at Zeeland on Sunday evening.

The Shantymen's Assoc. is engaged in Christian work among the children in rural and back woods districts in Florida. The children memorize scripture verses and are rewarded with Bible wall mottoes, Bible and Summer Bible schools.

IMMANUEL CHURCH

Services in the Army

Rev. J. Lanting, Pastor

10:00 a.m.—Morning Worship. Sermon topic—"Sifting as Wheat."

11:30 a.m.—Sunday School.

3:30 p.m.—Jail services.

6:30 p.m.—Young People's Service.

7:30 p.m.—Evening Worship. Sermon—"A Bowl of Beef Stew."

Tuesday evening—Country prayer meeting.

Thursday evening—Prayer meeting and Bible Study.

Saturday evening—Cottage Prayer meeting in the homes.

BIBLE WITNESS ASSEMBLY

Zeeland

C. Tarvestad, Pastor

10:00 a.m.—Talk to children. Message on "Revival and the Church."

11:30—Bible School.

2:00—School House Services and County Farm.

6:15—Y. P. Meeting.

7:30—Song service. Special music by the orchestra. Message by Mr. Field of Detroit.

7:30—Monday, Board meeting.

7:30—Wednesday, Cottage Prayer meeting.

7:30—Friday, Chapter Summary class at the Mattheison home.

10:00—Saturday, Jewel class.

7:30—Saturday, Y. P. Prayer meeting.

CHURCH

Fundamental Bible Class held each Wednesday at 7:45 p. m. in the Women's Literary Club rooms. Rev. Vincent Benette, teacher. Bring your Bible! Everybody welcome!

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY

Christian Science Society

Services in Warm Friend Tavern.

10:30 a.m.—Sunday services.

11:45 a.m.—Sunday school.

8:00 p.m.—Wednesday evening, testimonial meeting.

"Sacrament" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches and societies throughout the world Sunday, Jan. 12, 1936.

HOLLAND CITY MISSION

51 E. 8th St., George Trotter, Supt.

Saturday night—Praise and Testimony.

Sunday 1:30—Sunday School; 2:30, Dr. C. F. Fields, Pastor of Open Bible Church will speak; 6:30, Young People's Hour; 7:30, Evangelistic service, George Trotter in charge.

Tuesday, 7:30—Prayer meeting.

Wednesday, 7:30—Young People's Fellowship Club.

Thursday, 7:30—Orchestra Practice.

Friday, 7:30—Young People's meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit De Vries and children, who have been spending several days in Holland with relatives, left Tuesday for their home in Berwyn, Ill.

FREE TO MOTHERS AND CHILDREN

The Mello-Wheat breakfast food company are putting on a large contest with 598 prizes besides a capital prize of a 14 day trip seeing America from coast to coast.

Other prizes will be bicycles, skooters, skates and scores and scores of other prizes.

The contest is running through the A & P Food Stores. The local stores in your community have pictures in their show windows and have circulars on the inside, mapping out the fourteen day trip throughout the United States and picturing the other prizes. The trip will be awarded as first prize to two children and two mothers. Besides this there are 598 other prizes for boys and girls.

Consult your A & P Store managers in Holland and vicinity or wherever these may be located. Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Marsilje who formerly resided in St. Louis, Mo. are now living at 66 E. 12th St.

Henry Poll, has returned from Rietink of Hamilton and Mart a business trip to Florida. Gordon Beukema of Grand Rapids, who traveled with him also returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Vogelzang and son Billy of W. 18th St. left Tuesday for St. Petersburg, Fla. where they will spend the winter.

C. W. Dornbos Furniture Co. are in Chicago on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Zuidema had their daughter Miss Marjorie Zuidema who is a student nurse at St. Mary's hospital in Grand Rapids, as their guest over the week-end.

Elmer Nienhuis, 17 of North Holland, says that he is not the youth arrested on a speeding charge January 1.

The son born to Mr. and Mrs. John Baldwin of E. 14th St. on December 31 at Holland Hospital, has been named Curtis John.

Mr. and Mrs. Derk Warner, pioneers of Holland and vicinity, today Thursday mark the fifty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. They were married in the Christian Reformed church at Niekerk, three miles southeast of Holland. Warner was born in this city and Mrs. Warner is a native of The Netherlands. Warner, 79, recalls the time when he drove an ox team to Holland, transporting logs, stave bolts and lumber. He built several barns of round timber and houses of finished lumber. Warner also was connected with a grocery store until he retired. Mrs. Warner is 77. Mr. and Mrs. Warner have been members of Christain Reformed churches at Niekerk and Central Avenue, Holland, since their marriage. Their children are: Tyde D. Warner and Mrs. Evert Westing, both of Holland.

Practice has started on the Holland High school senior class play. "Nothing but the Truth," under direction of Miss Lucile Lindsey, with Donald Poppen and Jean Van Raalte in leading roles. The play will be given in March.

George Robinson, 13, son of Mrs. Grace Robinson, of Allegan, Tuesday suffered a broken left leg Tuesday afternoon while coasting near an Allegan school. He was admitted to Blodgett hospital.

Russell J. Blair, general secretary of Christian Endeavor association in Massachusetts, will speak at a local rally January 17 in First Reformed church. The annual union banquet will be held January 31 in Third Reformed church. Junior Endeavorers will feature a rally February 2 in First Reformed church.

The fame of Tulip Time in Holland is destined to become world wide. A request for information about the annual fiesta here to be published in the Overseas Graphic, a magazine of world wide circulation has been received by W. M. Connelly, secretary of the chamber of commerce.

The Allegan county division office of the national re-employment service will be located in Saukettuck after Saturday. William S. Ives, district manager, announced Tuesday after a conference with village officials. The office is now located in Allegan.

Winners of the Woman's club amateur contest, held Tuesday, was a preliminary to the Holland Lion's club benefit show to be presented Jan. 13 in Masonic Temple in Holland. Winners were Miss Maude Sundin, Miss Lillian Sundin, Miss Dorothy Lindholm, Otto and Lavern Taylor, Richard Newnam, Braman Metzgar and Olive Reeks.

Contracts have been let for preliminary work on a bridge which will cross the Kalamazoo river at Saukettuck to connect with main highways. Work will be started as soon as weather improves.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dore entertained with a New Year's eve party at their home on Lincoln ave. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Horn and sons, Robert, Russell and Roger, Mr. and Mrs. John Mekma and daughter, Yvonne Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mokka, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Mokka and son, Kenneth Dale.

Mr. and Mrs. Harm Knoll, who celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage with a family reunion Jan. 1, constitute the seventh Holland couple to pass the three-score period in their wedded careers. Mr. Knoll was born in Laketown township and Mrs. Knoll, the former Cora Visser, was born in Holland. They were married in this city by Rev. Jacob Noordewier of Grand Rapids. Knoll will be 80 and Mrs. Knoll 79 in March. Mr. and Mrs. Knoll spent 28 years on the farm in Laketown and located in Holland 32 years ago. Knoll spent 20 years as a butcher and mason, and retired about six years ago. Knoll served as deputy sheriff in Allegan county seven years and was an officer in Graafschap Christian Reformed church several years. Their children are: Ray of Muskegon and John, Leonard, Mrs. Peter Wiersma, Mrs. John Esschberger and Mrs. John Bremer of Holland. There are 30 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.

Tickets are now on sale for "The Boomerang," three-act comedy to be presented Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 13 and 14, the first Community Players production of the season, at Allegan. The play is being directed by Mrs. Malcolm Smith, leading roles being by Mrs. John Axe and Clifton Schelhas. Sponsoring the production are the Men's club and Altar society of the church of the Blessed Sacrament, these two organizations to benefit by a share in the proceeds.

Large crowds attended both presentations of the Christmas cantata given by a combined chorus of singers of the Christian Reformed and the Reformed church in Fullmore. The cantata was given Sunday evening, Dec. 22, in the Reformed church and Christmas eve, Dec. 24, in the Christian Reformed church. Other Christmas activities was a school program given by the school children Tuesday afternoon. A large crowd also was present at a school program given by the pupils Tuesday afternoon. A Sunday school program was given in the Overisel Christian Reformed church Christmas afternoon. All were largely attended.

Mrs. Ernest Steen, 33, daughter of H. M. Royal, former owner of the Fennville Herald and now Oceana county publisher, died Saturday in Hart hospital. Besides her husband, Ernest Steen, manager of the Great Lakes Fruit Industries, she is survived by her parents, three daughters, a sister and two brothers. Mrs. Steen was an ardent church worker and was president of the Congregational Ladies Aid society.

OLIVE CENTER

Mrs. Art Groenewoud and Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Groenewoud and daughter Aletha Mae visited at the home of Albert Timmer Monday evening.

A Christmas program was held at the Crisp church Wednesday evening by the young people and children, although not such a big crowd was present due to bad weather a good time was enjoyed by all.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Garry De Witt nee Betty Van Vliet at the Zeeland Hospital December 25, a son, John Richard.

Edith Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eason Wells of Fennville and Jacob Jacobsen, son of Mr. Cornelius Jacobsen were united in marriage at South Bend, Indiana, December 19. Mrs. Jacobsen taught in the local school a few years back and we welcome her in our midst again. They will make their home here by Mr. Jacobsen's mother, Mrs. C. Jacobsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Arnoldink spent Christmas at the home of their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Veldeheer.

Tuesday afternoon a service was held at the local church to celebrate the passing of another year. The New Year was ushered in with a church service on Wednesday morning.

Henry Maat is the new janitor of the local church for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal De Jongh and family from Grand Rapids visited at the home of their father, Mr. Jacob De Jongh Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harm Kuite and family visited at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Alderink at Laketown New Year's day.

Mrs. John Koetje and family spent Wednesday at the home of John Overbeek in Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. James Knoll visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bruzeman Tuesday evening.

People in this vicinity are enjoying their electric lights.

Next Sunday the local pastor Rev. P. Al Van Vliet has an appointment at Mac's Landing while the Rev. Vander Ark will occupy the pulpit at the morning services and Student Garry De Witt in the afternoon.

Dorothy Weener who is working in Grand Rapids spent New Year's day at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Hermans Weeners.

JAMESTOWN

Master Kenneth Heuvelman visited his uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. George Vrugink a few days.

Old Year's service was conducted by Rev. B. W. Lammers at the Second Reformed church. Old Year services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Christian Reformed church.

Teachers Quarterly meeting was held Friday evening at the church basement of the Second Reformed church. Teachers Quarterly meeting of the Christian Reformed church was held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. Dijkhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Ensing and children entertained by their parents Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vander Sloot on New Year's day.

Mr. and Mrs. George Vrugink of Jenison visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kronemeyer on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Heetderks and children of Grand Rapids visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Oss and family on Wednesday.

Congregational Meeting of the Second Reformed was held after the Old Year's service for the purpose of electing a new elder for Mr. John Pater who resigned his office. Mr. Lewis De Klieve was elected in his place.

Miss Gertrude Ensing daughter of Mr. Bert U. Ensing and Mr. Nicholas Rooker were united in marriage December 31 at 7 o'clock at the home of Rev. B. W. Lammers where a single ring ceremony was performed. The bride wore a deep blue dress with medal trimmings and the groom was dressed in a blue suit. The couple were attended by Miss Ella Ensing, sister of the bride and Mr. Neal Edema a friend of the bridegroom. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's father. A delicious two course luncheon was served by Mrs. John Roelofs, Misses Myrtle Beek, Gertrude Van Noord and Ella Ensing to 50 guests including Mr. Bert U. Ensing and Nelson, Mrs. Paul Nederveld, Mr. Peter Rooker and John Rooker, Miss Jennie Rooker and friend, Mr. and Mrs. John De Young and children, Mr. and Mrs. James Kooi-man and children, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Roelofs, Mr. Richard Jansma and son Alvin, Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Ensing and children, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Ensing and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Vander Kooy and children, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Rooker, Mr. John C. Rooker, Mrs. L. Van Haften, Ray Van Haften, Joe, Henry and Gertrude Leenker, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Haitsma, Mr. and Mrs. John Roelofs, Misses Myrtle Beek, Gertrude Van Noord and Ella Ensing. A short program was rendered consisting of a vocal duet "Will it be an Unbroken Family" by Misses Myrtle Beek and Ella Ensing, accompanied by Mrs. John Vander Kooy, and a reading "A Mix Up" by Mr. William B. Ensing.

ZUTPHEN

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cook announce the birth of a baby born Tuesday December 31. Mrs. Henry Elders is attending the household duties.

Services were held on Old Year's day morning when John Polder was installed as elder and Mr. Albert Ball as deacon. Mr. Dick Zylstra is the retiring elder and Mr. Luke De Klieve the retiring deacon.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Rooker who were recently married at Jamestown are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. John Vander Kooi and family of the place.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Albrecht were notified of the birth of a nephew born to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred De Weerd of Hudsonville.

Miss Florence Tania of Grand Rapids was the guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Van Ess on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roelofs and

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Velthuis are grandparents of a daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. John Velthuis of Martin, Mich. on Tuesday, December 31. Mrs. John Velthuis was formerly Miss Frances Roelofs.

Miss Marie Peuler of Grand Rapids spent a few days with Mrs. Nellie Peuler and family last week.

The Young People's Society met Sunday evening. Rev. Vroom spoke on Matthew 6: 19-20 "Lay not up for yourselves treasures on earth where moth and rust doth corrupt and where thieves break through and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven." Vocal selections were sung by Misses Ethel Brower and Rosa Heyboer accompanied by Lula Artz.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Van Ess spent Friday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. George Brinks of Georgetown.

Mrs. H. Zwiers and Julia of Grand Rapids were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zwiers.

Miss Marie Johnson, student nurse at Cutlerville spent three days at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Peter Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Huizenga of New Groningen were guests of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ver Hage, recently.

Mr. J. Blankamp of Zeeland visited with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Velthuis last week.

The young people spent a social evening in the church basement on Friday evening. Officers were elected for the young people society for the new year. Those elected were Rosema Heyboer, secretary; Willard Brower, treasurer; Harvey Ver Hage, assistant secretary and treasurer, Miss Lulu Artz and Mr. Alvin Ringewold, program committee; Miss Marion Lookes and Maynard Van Noord, delegates for the young people Alliance of Classis Zeeland. The following program was presented: Mr. Henry Johnson gave a humorous reading, Mr. Henry Brink accordian selection, a choral was presented by Rosema Heyboer, Fred Pohler, John Herrman and Harvey Ver Hage and the Male Quartet consisting of Messrs. Martin Ver Hage, Harold Peuler, John Sal and Herbert Neyboer sang a few selections. The entertainment and refreshments were in charge of a committee composed of Misses Gertrude Peuler and Jeanette Hamps and Messrs Martin Ver Hage and Maynard Van Noord.

HARLEM NEWS

Miss Gertrude De Vries, who has been ill since having her tonsils removed at Zeeland hospital, December 26, is improving.

Joyce Elaine is the name of the daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ridder on December 24.

Herman Hemeker and Mrs. P. van Robinson were united in marriage Jan. 2 by the Rev. H. Maassen at the North Holland parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Timmer visited at the home of Mr. Timmer's father, William Timmer, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Mart Van Dyke and daughter, Evelyn, who have been making their home with Mr. Hemeker have moved to a place southeast of Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vogel, Phyllis, Pearl and Leona Ruth of Grand Rapids were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gill Vogel New Year's evening.

Mr. Peter Mastenbroek visited his nieces, Mrs. Lemmen and Mrs. Henry Bishop Friday.

The Ladies Aid Society will meet this week Thursday at the home of Mrs. Gerrit Van Der Vee.

Mr. and Mrs. John Laarman spent New Year's afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Lemmen.

Mrs. August Heisinga spent Friday evening with Mrs. Henry Bishop.

The Girls Society and the Catechism classes will be resumed again after the Holiday vacation.

Mr. Albert and John Klynstra were Sunday evening supper guests at the home of Mr. Horace Maatman.

HAMILTON

Bernard Voorhorst, receiver for the local Brower and Co. bank, announced Monday that a dividend of 10% will be paid to the depositors this week Friday. This is the third payment made by the bank, making the total amount that has been repaid so far 60%.

Prof. La Rue Wesley, principal of the Hamilton High school, had the misfortune to break his wrist during the Christmas vacation. Kenneth Gross, a senior at Hope College, is substituting for him.

Old Year and New Year's services were well attended at the first Reformed church last week. Offerings were received for Hope College and the Western Seminary.

Mrs. George Sale submitted to an operation for appendicitis at the Holland hospital last week Tuesday.

An informal family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Elzinga new Year's day. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Melle Piersma and family; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pasky and family; Mr. and Mrs. Martin C. Van Wieren and family; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Witt-even and family; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Elzinga and family; Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Wynngaarden and family. A 3 o'clock dinner was enjoyed by the guests, which numbered more than thirty.

The week of Prayer is being observed by the local churches. Two meetings are being held at the American Reformed church. Services are held every evening at 7:30 o'clock at the First Reformed church. The pastor announced the following topics: Monday: Ourselves; Tuesday: Our Homes; Wednesday: Our Church; Thursday: Our Missions; Friday: Our Nation.

Prof. Stanley Bolks returned to his work at Purdue University after spending the holiday vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Bolks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Misskotten and children Eleanor and Carl are enjoying a three week trip to various points in Texas.

One of Hamilton's happy bachelors has been "putting one" over his friends during the past few days. "The depression is over" was his greeting and then he stated the convincing argument: "It is leap year." Please spare Bill.

Prof. Paul E. Hinkamp of Hope College preached at the American Reformed church last Sunday. Communion services were held and three young people were received on confession.

Harold Dargemond of the Dargemond-Nyhoff garage, has purchased a new Dodge.

Raymond Kaper was in Detroit

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Velthuis are grandparents of a daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. John Velthuis of Martin, Mich. on Tuesday, December 31. Mrs. John Velthuis was formerly Miss Frances Roelofs.

Miss Marie Peuler of Grand Rapids spent a few days with Mrs. Nellie Peuler and family last week.

The Young People's Society met Sunday evening. Rev. Vroom spoke on Matthew 6: 19-20 "Lay not up for yourselves treasures on earth where moth and rust doth corrupt and where thieves break through and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven." Vocal selections were sung by Misses Ethel Brower and Rosa Heyboer accompanied by Lula Artz.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Van Ess spent Friday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. George Brinks of Georgetown.

Mrs. H. Zwiers and Julia of Grand Rapids were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zwiers.

Miss Marie Johnson, student nurse at Cutlerville spent three days at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Peter Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Huizenga of New Groningen were guests of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ver Hage, recently.

Mr. J. Blankamp of Zeeland visited with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Velthuis last week.

The young people spent a social evening in the church basement on Friday evening. Officers were elected for the young people society for the new year. Those elected were Rosema Heyboer, secretary; Willard Brower, treasurer; Harvey Ver Hage, assistant secretary and treasurer, Miss Lulu Artz and Mr. Alvin Ringewold, program committee; Miss Marion Lookes and Maynard Van Noord, delegates for the young people Alliance of Classis Zeeland. The following program was presented: Mr. Henry Johnson gave a humorous reading, Mr. Henry Brink accordian selection, a choral was presented by Rosema Heyboer, Fred Pohler, John Herrman and Harvey Ver Hage and the Male Quartet consisting of Messrs. Martin Ver Hage, Harold Peuler, John Sal and Herbert Neyboer sang a few selections. The entertainment and refreshments were in charge of a committee composed of Misses Gertrude Peuler and Jeanette Hamps and Messrs Martin Ver Hage and Maynard Van Noord.

HARLEM NEWS

Miss Gertrude De Vries, who has been ill since having her tonsils removed at Zeeland hospital, December 26, is improving.

Joyce Elaine is the name of the

LOCAL NEWS

Harold C. Fairbanks has returned to Ann Arbor where he will resume his studies in the Dental Department at the University of Michigan, after spending the holidays at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Fairbanks of E. 16th St.

Mr. and Mrs. John Faasen, Indianapolis, Ind. spent the holidays visiting relatives and friends in Holland. The latter is a daughter of Mrs. C. W. Fairbanks of this city. They returned to their home in Indiana the early part of this week.

A meeting of the Young Men's society of Sixteenth Street Christian Reformed church was held Monday night in the church basement. A program was presented.

Rev. A. Jabsay exchanged pulpits with Rev. P. Jonker of Holland last Sunday evening.—Zeeland Record.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Peter

Martinie, Boreculo, a daughter, on Saturday, January 4th.

Large warehouses owned by the Devine Fuel & Supply Co. are being torn down preparatory to the building of the new road and approaches to the new bridge to be built across Kalamazoo river.

Miss Marjorie Vivian, librarian at Mount Holyoke, Mass., spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Vivian.

At a meeting of the Women's Missionary society of Hope Reformed church held Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Jay H. D. Herder was re-elected president of the group. Other officers to be re-elected were Mrs. George Polgrim, first vice-president; Mrs. Anna Van Zanten, second vice-president; Mrs. Randall C. Bosch, secretary; Mrs. C. J. Dregman, treasurer, and Miss Laura Boyd, member of executive board. Mrs. Louis Van Hartesveldt was elected to the board, succeeding Mrs. Paul E. Hinkamp. A miscellaneous program was presented.

Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Danhof of the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church entertained the Ministers' conference of the Christian Reformed church Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage, 14 E. 14th St. About 35 were present.

Mrs. Bernard Dokter, E. 12th St. entertained members of the Sunshine Circle Monday at her home. Those present were Mrs. Henry Kroll, Mrs. Frank Diepenhorst, Miss Ruth Overweg, Mrs. Gabe Kuite, Mrs. Herbert Dyke, Mrs. Willis Van Vuren and Mrs. Peter Van Langevelde.

Govert Kuiper, 71, Zeeland merchant died Wednesday night at his home on East Main St. Surviving are the widow; a brother, Jerry Kuiper of Zeeland; and two sisters, Mrs. T. Berkompas of Dudyard and Mrs. Mark Damstra of Zeeland.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at the home and at 2 p.m. at the First Christian Reformed church, with the Rev. William Kok in charge. Burial will be in Zeeland cemetery.

HARPIST OF GREAT RENOWN TO BE HEARD AT HOPE MEMORIAL CHAPEL

The Choral Union of Holland is presenting the World's Greatest Harpist, Alberto Salvi in a concert Friday evening at 8:30 at the Hope Memorial Chapel. He will be assisted in his concert by an instrumental quartet: Oscar Chanson, Violin; Harold Newton, Viola; Ernest Guntermann, Flute and Alfredo Mazzari, Violoncello. Mr. Salvi has appeared in concert before Holland audiences before and his excellence on the harp has made him many friends among music lovers of this community.

Salvi is himself the son of a noted harp maker in Venice Italy. From his earliest boyhood he has applied himself to the mastery of what is regarded as one of the most difficult instruments to master. His concert tours have taken him throughout Europe and America although he has spent most of his years before America concert audiences.

The concert is scheduled one half hour later than is usual in Holland in order not to conflict with the special prayer week service held in the Reformed churches of this city. Tickets of admission may be obtained from Mr. Buter at the Brower Furniture Store or directly from the Hope college office. Tickets are not placed on sale at the door of the chapel but they may be purchased at the college office in the building directly north of the chapel. Tickets for the three remaining numbers on the concert course will be sold at 50 cents for each concert.

The program for the evening is as follows: Sonate A Quatre by J. B. Loeillet (Violin-Alto-Cello-Harp) (1653-1728), Allegretto, Allegro Agitato, Largo, Allegro-con-Spirito. Quartette in D Major, No. 28 by Mozart, (Flute, Violin, Viola and Violoncello), Allegro Adagio, Rondo. Etude in A Flat by Chopin-Salvi. The Fountain by Salvi, (Harp Solo—Alberto Salvi), Variation Libres et Finales—Opus 51 by Gabriel Piere, (Flute, Violin, Viola, Violoncello and Harp). Intermission. (a) Minuet by Mozart. (b) Gavotte (from Iphigenia in Aulis) by Gluck. (c) Rondo by Mozart, (Flute, Violin, Viola, Cello, Harp). Oriental Dance by H. Cady, Danse Espagnole (from La Vida Breve) by De Falla-Salvi, (Harp Solo—Alberto Salvi). Suite en Parties, Opus 91 by Vincent d'Indy, (Flute, Violin, Viola, Cello and Harp), Entree en Sonate, Sarabande, Farandole Variee.

bath School will be held. At 2:30 p.m. the Junior C. E. will meet and at 6:30 p.m. the Intermediate and Senior C. E. Societies will meet. At 7:30 p.m., Rev. Vanden Berg will preach on, "Excuses, Not Reasons."

HOLLAND ARTISTS TO PRESENT MUSICAL PROGRAM

A musical program of unusual merit is to be presented in Holland on Thursday evening of next week when two young Holland men will give music lovers a rare treat. At that time Messrs. Gary De Haan, accomplished pianist and Donald Kramer who plays the Marimbaphone so very ably, will render a program in the Holland High school auditorium. Mr. De Haan besides being a pianist of outstanding ability is also an artist when it comes to playing the Marimba and the music created by the two able musicians will without doubt thrill the heart of all music lovers.

The musicians will be assisted by Miss Margaret O'Leary, vocalist of this city who has also appeared before local audiences on several occasions.

Last year Mr. De Haan and Mr. Kramer made an extensive tour of the western states presenting programs to large audiences. The young men have frequently appeared on local programs, and because of the many requests have consented to give the program next Thursday under auspices of the Eunice Society, a local organization.

Instruments such as the xylophone and marimba always "take well," and when played by artists such as De Haan and Kramer prove to be, there can be no doubt as to the reception.

The program Thursday evening begins at 8 o'clock. Tickets are being sold by various members of the local society and can also be secured at the door. Admission will be 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children 15 and under. The program as it is to be rendered follows below:—

I. Barber of Seville (Overture), Rossini; Pilgrim Chorus, Wagner; Invention No. 1, Bach; Invention No. 8, Bach; Vocal Solos, Miss Margaret O'Leary; Psalm 42, Dutch Choral; Psalm 36, Dutch Choral; Pomp and Circumstance, Elgar.

II. Prelude, Rachmaninoff; Sleigh Ride, Tchaikowsky; Berceuse, Godard; Flight of the Bumble Bee, Rimsky-Korsakoff; Vocal Solo, Miss Margaret O'Leary; Prelude, Jarnetel, acc. by Miss Evelyn Kramer; Excerpts from Mendelssohn and Rubinstein; Liebestraume, Liszt; Hungarian Rapsodie No. 2, Liszt.

troit was successful in getting the convention against several large cities.

The Post is indebted to a number of neighboring Posts and between now and Spring we will invite these Posts to a meeting party or dance or—

HOLLAND GAME CLUB MEETING NEXT THURSDAY

The Holland Fish and Game club will hold its annual meeting Thursday evening, Jan. 16, in Warm Friend Tavern.

Accomplishments for the year include the addition of a third pond, 100x500 feet, for bluegills in Conservation park on M21. The pond now is used for placing carp seized in local and neighboring streams. Hauls so far this season approximate 30 tons, which, it is hoped, may be doubled before the season closes.

Conservation park, covering 15 acres, has been developed by the local club into one of the best in the state. It is equipped with a rifle range and three ponds.

JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE AT ROSE CLOAK STILL ON

The Rose Cloak store who opened their clearance sale Friday, January 3 have decided to continue it throughout the month. Last Friday and for several days road conditions into Holland have been extremely bad but are now improving. The Rose Cloak store are putting on an extraordinary sale for January so that every one can avail themselves of the outstanding low prices from their very large stock from coats, dresses and hosiery to handkerchiefs. There are some sensational bargains in fur-trimmed coats saving from one-third to one-half and they are real "chic" coats too. Misses coats for $14.48, untrimmed cloth coats $10.95 and $21.00 valued at $39.50.

The closing price on fine sweaters, bright and dull colors, $1.29. Finest fashioned silk chiffon hosiery, 74c.

A group of dresses at $5.00, $6.95, $9.74, some advanced spring styles, these go at half price. We have some dresses at $3.85, crepes, prints and crepons in style sizes for misses and women.

Silk Japanese negligees at $1.85 formerly selling for $3.00 and $4.00. Beautiful handkerchiefs for only 19c. Bradley sports knit wear and other knit goods at from ten to twenty per cent discount.

This little sales review only hits the high spots note hundreds of other bargains throughout the store. Remember this sale in continued throughout January. Thrifty women of Holland and vicinity have been looking forward to this event.

ROSE CLOAK STORE
37 East 8th St.
Holland, Michigan.

Our Gas Makes any Car Go!

For INSTANT Winter Starting
USE
Phillips '66'
New Super-Service One-Stop Station
Washing, Greasing, Tire and Battery Work a Specialty!
BEN LIEVENSE
Corner Ninth & Central Phone 2239

Peck's
Cut Rate Drug Store

50c Pabulum	29c
$1.25 Petrolagar	70c
5 lbs. Epsom Salts	21c
Pint Mineral Oil	25c
$1.00 Adlerika	63c
Pint Rubbing Alcohol	5c
$1.00 Calomite	59c
50c Pebeco	29c
50c Kolynos	27c
10c Lifebuoy Soap	4c
$1.00 Adex Tablets	59c

This Furniture Clearance
MEANS BUSINESS!

Never Before Have Prices Been So Low!

We're determined to make the January Sale a Furniture Event long to be remembered—these low prices will do it. Dozens of Living Room Suites are now re-priced to new, startling low levels for quick action! Don't miss this chance-of-a-lifetime Sale!

SALE FOR 10 DAYS ONLY!
25% to 30% off
The Following Suites for Example:

Regular $109.50 SUITES—now	$79.50
Regular $ 99.50 SUITES—now	$69.50
Regular $ 89.50 SUITES—now	$59.50

Young Folks! Don't Miss This Big Sales Event. Take Advantage of it Now!

Free Storage Until Wanted. Terms if Desired.

MASS FURNITURE COMPANY
Corner Tenth and River Ave. Phone 2011 Holland, Mich.

Zeeland

Mrs. J. Ossewaarde left in company with her children, Rev. and Mrs. Henry Bovenkerk and children, Warren and Adele, Thursday morning for Ithaca, N. Y., where Mr. Bovenkerk will continue studies at Cornell University. Mrs. Bovenkerk will take a course at the same university during the winter months.

Rev. J. Van Peursem, pastor of the First Reformed Church will preach on "Being a Christian" at the 9:30 o'clock service Sunday morning. At 2:00 p.m. the Rev. W. Wolvius will conduct the Holland service and at 7:30 p.m. the pastor has chosen "Walking With Him," as his theme.

At the morning service in the Second Reformed Church, Rev. R. J. Vanden Berg will preach on "A Mind to Work." At 11:40 a.m. Sabbath school.

Yonker's DRUG STORE
20 West 8th St. Holland (Your Retail Store)
Harold Yonker Jacob Haan

5 lbs. EPSOM SALTS	29c
1 Pound CHOC. CHERRIES	29c
10c Vick's COUGH DROPS	6c
14 oz. OVALTINE	49c
65c PINEX	49c
1 pound EPSOM SALT	7c
Quart COD LIVER OIL U.S.P.	69c
Druggist HOREHOUND STICK	1c
Quart MINERAL OIL	53c

AMERICAN LEGION

And our next meeting will be held on January 22nd. By special appointment, Past Commander Cook and Comrade Riemersma, will arrange the program.

It has been suggested that we invite the Auxiliary to meet with us on that night and after the meeting have some Keeno or something. But you will hear more of this in due time.

There was quite a round-table discussion at the meeting on the 8th. The crowd was small and a number of subjects were hashed over; some decisions were made and some are still hanging fire; but it was a good meeting.

Ben Rutger, Heinie Vliening prepared the lunch and between the two they made good coffee which is over one half of any feed.

The Exchange Club Ladies' Night kept quite a few away from the meeting, but they had a good speaker and feed which is reason enough.

Mrs. G. D. Bos' Division of the Auxiliary, No. 3 to be exact, has changed the time of their meeting to the evening of January 14th instead of the afternoon of that day.

The Fifth District Child Welfare Chairman, Mrs. E. P. Sooter, is in Detroit attending the Area D Conference of that group. The Area consists of thirteen states and DEWEES CLEARANCE SALE

The Lokker-Rutgers Company are having their annual clearance sale beginning this morning and continuing through Saturday January 28 of next week.

The announcement on the last page of this issue shows a wide variety of merchandise that is marked down to worthwhile low prices. The facts are fully given in this advertisement. It will pay you well to drop in at our store after you see this announcement and make money saving purchases. At the old stand for nearly half a century.

Lokker - Rutgers Co., 38-41 E. 8th St., Holland Mich.

HOLLAND THEATRE
Holland, Mich.
—continuous performance DAILY starting 2:30—

Friday-Saturday, January 10-11
BIG DOUBLE FEATURE PROGRAM
Rochelle Hudson and Bruce Calbot in
"SHOW THEM NO MERCY"
Zane Grey's "NEVADA" with Buster Crabbe and Kathleen Burke

Monday-Tuesday, January 13-14
WALLACE BERRY
Lionel Barrymore and Aimee McMahon in
"Ah Wilderness"

Tuesday, January 14 is GUEST NIGHT—Attend the 9 o'clock performance and remain as OUR GUESTS to see Chester Morris and Sally Eilers in "PURSUIT"

Wednesday-Thursday, January 15-16
—SPECIAL Continuous show starting 3 p.m. (this date only)
...on the screen...
Herbert Marshall and Jean Arthur in
"If You Could Only Cook"
...on the STAGE...
The Funniest Musical Show Extant!
"OKAY TOOTS"
with Ray Shannon and The Southern Coods

KROGER STORES
"Complete Satisfaction or Your Money Back"

WESCO SODA CRACKERS
CRISP - FLAKY
2 lb. box 17c

COUNTRY CLUB BREAKFAST FOOD
15c pkg.
CREAM OF WHEAT or Ralston Cereal 23c

LARD
PURE REFINED
2 lbs. 27c

KROGER'S HOT DATED
Jewel Coffee 1b. bag 17c
Hot Dated French Coffee, 1b. bag 21c

FRESH-ENERGY
Bread 1b. loaf 7c
LIGHTHOUSE
Cleanser 3 cans 10c
RED SEAL LYE can 10c

GRANULATED SUGAR, BEET
1b. bulk 5c

FLOUR
KING'S FLAKE 24 1/2-lb. sack 75c
KING'S Sincerity 24 1/2-lb. sack 65c Gold Medal 24 1/2-lb. sack $1.09
Lily White 24 1/2-lb. sack 95c Pillsbury's 24 1/2-lb. sack $1.09
COUNTRY CLUB 24 1/2-lb. sack 85c

CRISP - SOLID, ICEBERG
HEAD LETTUCE large head 5c

CAULIFLOWER head 15c

JUICY FLORIDA
ORANGES 6 lbs. 25c

MICHIGAN - U. S. No. 1
POTATOES 15-lb. peck 19c

SWEET POTATOES 3 lbs. 10c
FANCY NANCY HALL

SALT PORK
DRY
1b. 23c

GROUND BEEF
FRESH GROUND
2 lbs. 25c

CONTROLLED QUALITY
Short Ribs LEAN 1b. 12c

Ring Bologna 13 1/2c

Pan Fish WHITING 1b. 9 1/2c

BACON SQUARES 1b. 21c

FANCY MICHIGAN APPLES
Kings 4 lbs. 15c
Wagners 4 lbs. 10c
Spies 4 lbs. 23c
Baldwin 10-lb. peck 19c

Holland Theatre

MONDAY, JANUARY 20

(Continuous Performance)

ON STAGE!

MAJOR BOWES' Amateurs

ON TOUR IN PERSON

NOT A MOTION PICTURE

on Screen

Herbert Marshall and Jean Arthur in

"If You Could Only Cook"

Unit No. 6

Never Before Shown in this City

RUSSIAN FOUR, Instrumentalists

VINCENT VELANO, Master of Ceremonies

GLORIA BERGER, Soprano

CLARENCE HEDING, Imitator

MUSICAL JACK SEVANT, Novelty Music

ELSIE TUCKER, Singer

CHARLES LOUISA, Tenor

YANKEE VAGABONDS, Novelty Songs

amateurs today, stars tomorrow.

Holland Boy Put in 40 Years With Bell Co.

ARTHUR E. HUNTLEY COMPLETES FOUR DECADES IN TELEPHONE BUSINESS

By Frank Sullivan In Michigan Bell

A few months ago Arthur E. Huntley, division Commercial superintendent of the Central division, interviewed me on behalf of "The Michigan Bell," and shortly thereafter there appeared in this publication a story of my 30 years in telephone work. The way Art wrote it all out made it interesting reading even to me.

Now the editors of our magazine have asked me to interview Mr. Huntley, who has just completed 40 years of continuous service. It is a pleasure to do so, because of the high regard in which I hold Mr. Huntley and because of the caliber of a man he is. It isn't just the matter of one supervisor in the organization "writing up" another; I'm happy to try to set down in words just the sort of a telephone life this man has led, although I can't find language to express how, in all his activities, he has made things more pleasant and work easier for his co-workers.

Mr. Huntley entered telephone service at Holland, as night operator and messenger boy, June 1, 1895. And what a story he could write on the education and training of a night operator.

Starting at a time when the business was very young, even before the days of the number 1 switchboard and competition, with a system of grounded circuits of open wire right to the door of the central office, Blake transmitters, salammonic batteries and Fuller solution by the gallon, each day demanded a full day's work of the new employee. Also, each day brought forth new troubles, new demands and new discoveries and improvements. So he saw the coming of the cure-alls for many of the tender spots of the early telephone system. These cure-alls included the repeating coil, the metallic circuit, and the solid back transmitter used in Holland in the early days.

Mr. Huntley had one advantage upon entering the service, in that at first he worked directly under the supervision of his sister, Miss Gertrude Huntley, now Mrs. Dr. McCracken, who was manager of the Holland exchange. The influ-

North of the 40° Meridian

(Copyright, W. N. G.)

GRAND HAVEN GETS CENTRAL CAGE MEET

Officials of the Central Michigan Amateur Basketball league announced Monday that the third annual tournament would be held at the Eagle-Ottawa gymnasium at Grand Haven during the middle of March.

Six Central league teams, representing many cities, will participate in the tournament along with several other amateur teams from western Michigan. The Central league teams are from Battle Creek, Muskegon, Benton Harbor, Whitefish, Grand Rapids and Grand Haven.

The first half of the league schedule will end Jan. 18. During the tournament the winners of the first half play the winners of the second half.

SHERIFF ROSEMA HAS PARTY

"Sheriff Ben H. Rosema, who is observing his birthday, was guest of honor at a surprise party arranged by Mrs. Rosema and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Rosema at their home on Court House Square. Among the guests was ex-sheriff Delbert Fortney, of Mt. Pleasant, under whom Mr. Rosema served as a deputy and undersheriff years ago. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Ver Duin, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ruitter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bolthouse, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Westhof, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Katt, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Voss, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rosema, Mr. Fortney and Dick Groenewald.

HOLLAND LEADER IN EXPRESS SHIPMENTS

Holland leads express agencies in cities of its class in western Michigan for the fourth consecutive year, according to a report issued to the Holland Chamber of Commerce by A. L. Jackson, local American Railway express agent. New business obtained through the Holland office was 1,495 shipments.

ROTARY CLUB HEARS WILLIAM C. BLANCHARD

At a meeting of the Rotary club held Thursday noon in the Warm Friend Tavern, William C. Blanchard, president of the Michigan Gas and Electric co. spoke for a time regarding his movements in the business world, giving several interesting incidents concerning his first years with the Public Service company. Vaude Vandenberg presided at the meeting in the absence of Vance Mape, president of the club.

MINISTER WILL SPEAK ON ROOSEVELT'S MESSAGE

Rev. Roy Burt of Chicago will address a free public meeting in Labor Hall on Friday evening, January 10 at 8 o'clock. The topic of his talk will be "Roosevelt's Last Message Analyzed."

Mr. Burt is a graduate of Northwestern University, the Garret Biblical Institute at Evanston and the University of Kansas.

He is a regular minister of the Methodist Episcopal church and for several years has been connected with the Board of Education of that denomination.

Mr. Burt had devoted much of his time to the study of economics and lecturing and has spoken in nearly every state in the union, addressing College, High School, Professional and various other groups. The speaker will be introduced by Dr. A. Leenhouts.

Thomas Vanden Bosch, age 84, a carpenter born in Jamestown but a resident of Grand Haven 65 years, died Saturday. Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Henrietta Vanden Bosch, two daughters, Mrs. Robert Wilson of Grand Rapids and Mrs. Henry Goss of Grand Haven; five sons, Ralph of Grand Rapids, Andrew of Spring Lake and Anthony, John and Arthur of Grand Haven. Private funeral services were held at the home of Arthur Vanden Bosch at 2 p. m. Tuesday and public rites at 2:30 in Second Christian Reformed church in Grand Haven. Burial in Lake Forest cemetery, Grand Haven.

21 GRAND HAVEN CHILDREN ARE QUARANTINED WITH CHICKEN POX

More than half the school children in Miss Gertrude Hollestelle's first grade room at Central school, Grand Haven, had all or part of their Christmas and New Year's holiday spoiled because one child came to school, just before the Christmas recess, with chicken pox. A redeeming feature in the eyes of some of the sufferers is the fact that quarantine for chicken pox lasts three weeks, which gives many of them a longer vacation. Miss Florence Dykhuus, city nurse, reports 21 chicken pox cases, all confined to children in this one room. There are two scarlet fever cases, a few cases of mumps, measles and one or two cases of chicken pox in addition to those among the Central school first graders.

TOWER WILL DIRECT HOPE COLLEGE CHOIR

Grand Rapids Press

Harold Tower, organist and choirmaster at Trinity Methodist church, has been offered a temporary appointment at Hope college to direct the chapel choir and have charge of organ student classes formerly under direction of Prof. W. Curtis Snow, who died at Ann Arbor, Dec. 31. Prof. Snow was director of music at the college.

President Wynand Wichers of Hope college announced Tuesday that Mr. Tower would take over direction of the choir and organ student classes for the remainder of the semester under a temporary appointment which may continue beyond the date of the semester closing. Mr. Tower formerly was organist and choir director at St. Mark's Episcopal church here. He will continue his connection with Trinity church here for the present.

PARENTS OF ARABIAN MISSIONARY DIES; CHILDREN SEND LETTER

Recent letters have been received from the Rev. James Moordyk and Dr. William Moordyk, who are missionaries of the Reformed church and are stationed in Amara Mesopotamia. The following incidents are related:

"The last month of the Mohammedans is here, which is spent by the Arabs in striving to live a temperate life. After the fasting period has passed, they make up for lost time and spend much time in quarrels.

"Education is more of a farce than for several years. The department publishes good looking reports, and these are printed and sent out to foreign countries, but the real condition is quite different. They are going back to the custom of Mulla teachers who are hardly able to read more than the Koran.

"Our leper camp is in demand more than ever. The largest number of lepers of the country seems to belong to this district. Several of the patients have improved very much in general health, but it is a long pull before any are really cured. The best of them get to be quite 'peppy.' Today they asked for a football to play with.

"This country wishes to be big but is not ready for it. Last month we were told that the mail was soon to be carried by a new local company. But instead the mail service has made changes which bring letters and papers several days later than before.

Mrs. Moordyk and children Billy, Betty, Margaret and Dorothy, who have been in Kodai Kanai in India where Mrs. Moordyk was matron in a school for missionary children, have returned to Amara. The children will return to India, after a long vacation, which in that country comes at this time of the year, but Mrs. Moordyk will remain in Amara. Mrs. Moordyk was Miss Cora Leenhouts of Holland before her marriage. Both her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Leenhouts, died in Holland recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Becker and Mrs. C. M. McLean have returned from Bay City where they spent several days.

A son, Paul Wesley, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Van Heuveln of E. 13th St. on January 4.

FEED THE BIRDS

While the ground is covered with snow, making it impossible for the birds to get to their natural feeding on the ground, everyone should throw grain or broken bread or any other food suitable for the birds to eat.

The last three weeks have been hard for the birds to find food and anything done will insure our little feathered friends the means of livelihood.

BLEKKINK MARKS ANNIVERSARY OF HIS ORDINATION

Rev. Evert J. Blekkink, one of the best known ministers in the Reformed church in America, next spring will mark the fiftieth anniversary of his entrance into the Gospel ministry. His ordination took place in 1886 following his graduation from New Brunswick, N. J., Theological seminary.

Dr. Blekkink devoted 42 years to active service in the Reformed denomination. He spent 26 years in active pulpit work and 16 years as professor of systematic theology in Western Theological seminary. Seven years ago the board of superintendents proposed to the general synod that he be made professor emeritus in accordance with the rule that professors retire at 70.

Dr. Blekkink was graduated from Hope college in 1883. Dr. Blekkink's Michigan pastorates comprised Second Reformed church at Kalamazoo and Third Reformed church at Holland. He was honored with the presidency of general synod of the Reformed Church in America, was twice elected president of Chicago synod and was honored with the doctor of divinity degree by the board of trustees of Hope college in 1909. He served as member of that board from 1903 to 1905. He has been a member of the board of the American Bible society for many years.

He has been connected with the staff of the Leader for 25 years and is president of the board of trustees of Western seminary. He is now spending the winter with Mrs. Blekkink in California where they motored after Thanksgiving.

BANKS TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING JANUARY 14

The annual meeting of stockholders of the three local banks for the election of boards of directors will be held Jan. 14. Following the elections, the officers of the banks will be chosen. No changes are anticipated in the various directorates, according to bank officials.

Boards of Directors of the First State, Holland City State and People's State banks are as follows: Directors of the First State bank are: E. D. Dimmett, Henry Pelgrim, A. H. Meyer, Daniel Ten Cate, Thomas H. Marsille, Dr. Wynand Wichers, R. D. Matheson, Stuart Knappen, W. C. Vanden Verg, J. E. Frey, Albert Hyma and John V. Hulst.

Holland City State bank directors are: Dick Beter, J. Frank Duffy, Charles Kirchen, Otto P. Kramer, Ben Steffens, C. Tiesenga and P. F. Ver Plank.

Peoples State: George B. Tinhoft, C. L. Jaiving, A. C. Kappel, Jay H. Den Herder, H. S. Covell, M. Oudemool and J. W. De Vries.

END OF LAKE WILL CONTEST

Motion for new trial in the Alexander Lake of Fennville will contest was denied in an opinion by Circuit Judge Miles this week. Retrial as ordered by the supreme court was made in October the will being upheld by decision of the jury. The case has attracted much attention by virtue of the age of the testator when the will was made, he being ninety-nine years old at that time, dying in 1934 at the age of 102. In ordering a retrial the supreme court found that in spite of his advanced age the testator was competent to dispose of his property as he saw fit.

LOCAL GIRL SPEAKS VOWS AT SOUTH BEND

(Allegan News)

Announcement was made this week of the marriage of Miss Meda Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Weaver of this city, to Chester Voorhorst, son of Mrs. B. Voorhorst of Hamilton. The marriage was solemnized in South Bend, Indiana, Saturday, June 29th. The Rev. H. Miller performed the double ring ceremony. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Underhill of Holland. Mrs. Voorhorst is a graduate of the local high school in the class of '24. She was employed in the Grange store for some time, and for the past few years has been in the ready-to-wear department of the local J. C. Penney store. Mr. Voorhorst graduated from Holland high school in 1924, and attended Hope college. They will make their home in this city for the present.

LOCAL CAGERS BEAT HOLLAND TEAM AT HOLLAND ARMORY, 18-17

(Grand Haven Tribune)

The Holtrap Markets basketball team of this city is enjoying a successful season, having won most of its games thus far, and added the Holland Rutgers to the list of the defeated last night in the Holland Armory, 18 to 17.

Roy Correll with six points and Dykhouse and Harry Hanson played exceptionally well for the Holtraps. The Rutgers, made up of former Hope college and Holland high school players, were led by Kempen with five points. The score at half time was 14 to 10 in favor of Holland.

Other players on the Holtrap team are E. Correll, Ryeenga, Yenc, Krause and Whitey Wiegink.

Attorney G. W. Kooyers was in Grand Haven Friday attending probate court.

Fire Insurance Company Closes Very Good Year

FIRE LOSSES DECREASED IN BOTH NUMBER AND AMOUNT BUT POLICIES INCREASED

The Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Ottawa and Allegan Counties has just closed another very successful year.

There was a decided increase in the number of risks in force over those of one year ago, which increase has been consistent, but there was a material decrease in the amount at risk, which was probably due to depreciated values of property. The number of risks have increased from 4650 at the close of 1934 to 4807 at the close of 1935. At the close of 1935 the number was 4507, a net gain of about three and one quarter per cent per annum.

The property at risk at the close of the 1935 calendar year was $17,071,755.00. One year ago it was $18,228,900.00, and the year previous it was $19,023,740.00, an average reduction of nearly 5 per cent annually.

Losses to the company due to fires fell very materially during the year, the losses at the close of 1935 showing less than one-half the amount of 1934. The total losses for the past calendar year were $20,963.36, while those of the year previous were $46,788.97. This shows a reduction of $25,825.61, or better than 55 per cent decrease. There were also fewer losses in number, 91 comparing with 126 the year before.

Among the losses paid during the year, four were over $2,000.00. The highest loss paid was $2,810.25 to G. Lampen of Overisel township, and the lowest paid was $1.25 to J. Kollen, also of Overisel township. There was only one loss paid in the $1,000.00 to $2,000.00 bracket. All the other losses were under $1,000.00. Besides those mentioned there were two fire losses of $900 and over; none of $800 and over; four of $700 and over; two of $600 and over; one of $500 or over; one of $400 or over; none of $300 or over; one of $200 or over; eight of $100 or over; five of $50 or over; and sixty losses under $50. The assets of the company are given as $62,808.23, nearly $19,000 of which is impounded in bank trust funds.

The officers of the company are G. J. Veldman, president, Holland, Mich.; G. J. Veldman, secretary and treasurer, Zeeland; and a board of 12 other directors: A. H. Schrotenboer, M. De Kleine, G. J. Brouwer, F. Berends, H. F. Knoper, A. Scholten, J. Freeman, G. F. Brower, A. Klooster, C. C. Zeirip and L. J. Mulder. There is one vacancy due to the death of J. Schumaker.

JAMESTOWN COUPLE WED ON NEW YEAR'S EVE

Miss Gertrude Ensing, daughter of Mr. Bert W. Ensing, and Mr. Nicholas Rooker, son of Mr. Peter Rooker of Jamestown, were united in marriage December 31 at 7 o'clock at the home of Rev. B. W. Lammers, where a single ring ceremony was performed. The bride wore a deep blue dress with metal trimmings and the groom wore a blue suit. The couple were attended by Miss Ella Ensing, sister of the bride, and Mr. Neal Edema, a friend of the bridegroom, after which a reception was held at the home of the bride's father.

A delicious two-course luncheon was served by Mrs. John Roelofs, Misses Myrtle Beck, Gertrude Van Noord and Ella Ensing to fifty guests including Mr. Bert W. Ensing and Nelson, Mrs. Paul Nederfeld, Mr. Peter Rooker, John Rooker, Miss Jennie Rooker and friend, Mr. and Mrs. John De Young and children, Mr. and Mrs. James Koolman and children, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Roelofs, Mr. Richard Jansma and son Alvin, Mr. and Mrs. John Vander Kooij and children, Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Ensing and children, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Ensing, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Rooker, Mr. John C. Rooker, Mrs. L. Van Haftend, Ray Van Haftend, Joe Henry and Gertrude Leenhout, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Haisma, Mr. John Roelofs, Misses Myrtle Beck, Gertrude Van Noord, Ella Ensing and Mrs. John Roelofs.

A short program was rendered consisting of a vocal duet "Will it be an Unbroken Family" by Misses Myrtle Beck and Ella Ensing accompanied by Mr. John Vander Kooij, and a reading, "A Mixup," by Mr. William B. Ensing.

W. C. T. U. HEARS REV. WAYER

At a meeting of the W. C. T. U. held Friday afternoon in the Woman's Literary club rooms, Rev. James Wayer talked on the subject "Prayer" in connection with the W. C. T. U. World's Day of Prayer. Rev. Wayer said, "We are taught to pray by the Holy Spirit." As a conclusion, Rev. Wayer declared, "Jesus himself told us to come believing. Perseverance is the one thing necessary as we strive to overcome unrighteousness by work and prayer." A program was also presented and Mrs. Paul E. Hinkamp spoke on the barring of liquor advertisements from newspapers and radio stations. She said that some stations have already barred all liquor advertisements. She also mentioned two amendments which are likely to come up in the near future before congress. The next meeting will be held at the home of Misses Henrietta and Nellie Zwemer, 35 Central avenue.

TO PREACH IN HOLLAND

Rev. Richard Oudersluis of Milwaukee, who has been called to the pastorate of Third Reformed church, will be the guest preacher in the local church Sunday, January 12. Oudersluis, graduate of Western Theological seminary in 1932, is serving First Reformed church in Milwaukee as his first pastorate.

Did You Ever Want

This is your Christmas Savings Club Check

$25

More than you Do NOW?

It offers you the SIMPLEST and MOST CONVENIENT way to SAVE a definite sum of money for Christmas spending.

25c to $2.00 a week will bring you $12.50 to $100 next Decem. ber.

JOIN The Christmas Savings Club NOW

FIRST STATE BANK

MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORP.

Smile as You Shop at The Quality Service Stores

- |                                     |     |
|-------------------------------------|-----|
| 1 Postum Cereal                     | 21c |
| 3 Jello assorted flavors            | 17c |
| ½ Bakers' Chocolate                 | 15c |
| ½ Bakers' Cocoa                     | 10c |
| 1 Corn Beef                         | 18c |
| 2 lb. Jar Peanut Butter             | 29c |
| 1 White House Coffee                | 23c |
| 1 Hekmans Chocolate Dessert Cookies | 17c |
| 1 Hekmans Santa Claus Cookies       | 11c |
| 2 lbs. Good Prunes                  | 19c |
| 2 Tuna Fish                         | 25c |
| 1 Holland Cleaner                   | 23c |
| 1 Dutch Boy Bowl Cleaner            | 19c |
| 1 Can Bean Sprouts                  | 10c |
| 1 Can Chow Mein Noodles             | 14c |

Corn, Peas, Tomatoes, Wax or Green Beans 2 cans 19c

QUALITY SERVICE STORES

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| WASHINGTON MARKETPhone 9733 H. W. Dornbos     | 154 E. Eighth St. Phone 4784                    |
| WESTING & WARNER325 Lincoln Avenue Phone 2906 | CENTRAL PARK GROCERYJacob DePree Phone 5512 |
| J. & H. DEJONGH21 E. Tenth St. Phone 9494     | STEFFENS BROTHERS288 W. 14th St. Phone 3329 |
| J. HULST & SON577 College Ave. Phone 3306     |   |
| PEOPLE'S MARKET408 Columbia Ave., Phone 3916  |   |
| QUALITY NEVER DISAPPOINTS                         |   |

LOCAL NEWS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. George F. Vande Woude of Brooklyn, N. Y., on Christmas Day, a son, George Franklin, Jr. Mr. Vande Woude was formerly of Holland.

Jake Pelen, 212 E. Seventh st., spent three weeks in Florida.

Mrs. Ida Vanden Bos, 65 died Thursday evening at her home on 34 E. 16th st. Surviving are a daughter, Mr. Harriet Jansma of Washington, Pa., two sons, Benjamin of Bethlehem, Pa., and Gerrit of Holland; two brothers, John De Weerd and Walter De Weerd of Holland, and two sisters, Mrs. Henry Vanden Brink and Mrs. Henry Mow, also of Holland. Funeral services were held Monday at 1:30 p.m. at the home, private, and at 2 p.m. at the First Reformed church. The Rev. James Weyer officiated and burial was in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

William S. Hardy, 83 died Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bocks on Northshore drive. Surviving are the following sons and daughters, Oris Hardy of Grand Rapids, Ray Hardy of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Bernice Mousel of Memphis, Tenn., Mrs. Fred Bocks of Holland and Wesley Hardy of Grand Rapids, four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Funeral services were at 1 p.m. in the Nibelink Noter Funeral chapel Saturday with Dr. Frederic S. Goodrich, supply pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, officiating. Burial was at Fremont.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schaap of R.R. 5 left Monday for Interlochen, Florida where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schrotenboer and son Gene Hollis of Kalamazoo visited the former's mother, Mrs. G. H. Schrotenboer of R.R. 5, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Damson, 187 W. ninth st. had as their hol-day guests, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Simmons of Kalamazoo; Miss Dorothy Mead and Carl Damson of Lansing; Miss Mildred Klow of Spring Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. George Damson and daughter Sally, of Holland.

Miss Marjorie Zuidema, student nurse at St. Mary's hospital in Grand Rapids visited over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Zuidema.

Cecil Woltman, 19, 274 Van Raalte Ave. was found guilty Friday afternoon in court of Justice John Gallen on a charge of improper diversion. The youth was assessed fine and costs of $7.85 on a charge of breaking bulbs of the Christmas light streamers in the business area on New Year's Eve. Officer C. Steketee, of the local police department, made the arrest.

John Oonk, 27, 202 E. 13th st. pleaded guilty to a charge of using altered automobile license plates and was fined $25 and costs of $4.85 by Justice Gallen. Deputy Sheriff Tony Groeneveld made the arrest.

The following were at the court house Saturday on business: Tony Groeneveld, Arthur H. Van Duren, Charles K. Van Duren, Clarence A. Lokker, J. Thomas Mahan and Oris J. Cross.

A hearing on a petition signed by Mrs. June Van Raalte was heard in circuit court before Judge Miles Saturday morning. This petition has arisen out of a divorce proceedings instituted by June Vander Water vs. Martinus Vander Water of Holland, wherein Mr. Vander Water was ordered to pay a sum of $500, at the rate of $5 per week, as alimony for the plaintiff Mrs. Vander Water has since remarried and is at present residing in Chicago. After the taking of testimony in the case the court ordered Mr. Vander Water to pay the sum of $2 per week until July 1st, 1936, and after that to resume the payments of $5 per week. He was also ordered to pay costs of $3.05 forthwith.

At a meeting of the Intermediate C. E. society of Sixth Reformed church held Friday night, the following officers were elected: Miss Vera Vanderbeek, president; Donald Van Gelderen, vice president; Nathalie Cline, secretary; and Donald De Waard, treasurer. Those appointed as chairmen of committees were Eunice Bennet, Caroline Hibma, Donald De Waard, Mildred Herman and James Rowan.

H. Prins and Bud Prins took first and second honors at the weekly shoot of the Holland Rifle club with scores of 188 and 185, respectively. Other scores were: W. Dyken, 183; Don Prins, 183; John Danielson, 179; Russel Kleis, 179; John Kleis, 178; C. M. Las, 178; Joe Chamberlain, 176; W. Dey Waard, 171; Frank Smit, 169; Arnold Datema, 169; Eugene Vande Vusse, 168; A. Kleis, Jr., 161; Lloyd Cobb, 161; G. De Waard, 160; Ted Wyma, 155; George Tubergan, 152; H. Heuvelhorst, 149; Lloyd Hall, 145; C. J. Tubergan, 142; Paul Danielson, 141; Fred Van Slooten, 138; A. De Waard, 133; Ken Tysse, 130; J. Merrill, 127; Alex Barnum, 127; Sam Althuis, 115; D. Roelofs, 108. Mrs. Josie Holkeboer is confined to her home on Lincoln ave. with a fractured wrist.

Henry Mass of the Mass Furniture Company is in Chicago this week attending the Spring Furniture and Carpet Exposition.

4-H LEADERS MEETING AND BANQUET

Mr. P. G. Lundin and Miss Lois Corbett, State 4-H Club Leaders from Michigan State College, East Lansing, will be at the Court House in Allegan on Monday, January 13 at 2:30 p.m. to hold the mid-winter school for leaders of 4-H Clubs of Allegan County. Finishing of handicraft articles will be the main topic of discussion for handicraft leaders. Miss Corbett will discuss sewing problems with the Clothing Club Leaders. Hot Lunch and Poultry Club work will be discussed in the general meeting; the groups will then divide. Handicraft leaders will assemble in a work room where a work bench and tools are available, where Mr. Lundin can demonstrate certain points as they come up for discussion. At 6:15 the entire assembly will meet in the Episcopal Parish House with the Allegan Rotary Club where dinner will be served. The dinner will have a two-fold function. The Rotary Club members have a desire to become better acquainted with the leaders of our rural young folks and are taking this opportunity to express their appreciation of the work our leaders are doing.

A. D. Morley, Co. Agr'l. Ag't.

HOME ACCOUNT RECORD BOOKS

How many farm families can answer such questions as these—What part of their living comes from the farm? What is the cash expenditure for food, for clothing? What brand of hose gives the most satisfaction for the money spent? Is it cheaper to operate the old range than to buy a new one? How much money will I need to set aside for lights and cleaning supplies each month? These and many other questions could be very definitely answered if the family had kept a home account record book for the past year or years. Why not put the financing of home on as sound a business basis as the farm is by keeping a home account record of at least the most important items? Why not locate the leaks on the spending of the money for the home—You can procure a very excellent home account book for twenty cents by writing either to your Co. Agr'l. Ag't. or to the Home Economics Extension Office at Michigan State College, East Lansing.

A. D. Morley, Co. Agr'l. Ag't.

GIBSON

Miss Ruthie Boyce has gone for a three months' stay at the Kellogg camp at Pine Lake.

The Gibson Young Peoples' society held a social time at the home of Miss Bernice Bauhahn Thursday evening.

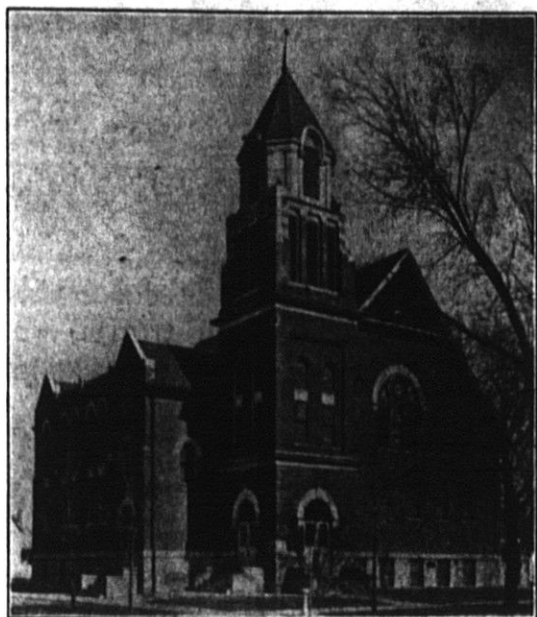

A six-pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Willard Meegs of Grand Rapids Friday morning. Mrs. Meegs was formerly Miss Mabel Boyce of this community.

Miss Irene Bauhahn and A. Bauhahn entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ottilie Wilner and Mr. and Mrs. Kasbohm and sister of Chicago with a sleigh ride party. Following the ride refreshments were served at the Bauhahn home.

Ernest Lundberg of Chicago visited his father, Peter Lundberg, over the Christmas holidays.

Miss Helen La Valiere and Mrs. H. M. Atwood have gone to Grand Rapids for the winter.

CHURCH AT HOLLAND TO MARK 25TH YEAR

Trinity Reformed church will mark the twenty-fifth anniversary of its existence in 1936. It was organized with 45 families on May 1, 1911, by the Michigan classis.

Statistics now credit the church with 300 families or 1,500 souls, a weekly attendance of more than 700 in the Sunday school classes and close to 300 in catechetical work. The Sunday school, with an enrollment of 1,051, is only exceeded by Bethany church, Chicago, in 155 schools connected with the Chicago synod.

"OKAY TOOTS" AT HOLLAND THEATRE NEXT WEEK

"Okay Toots", the miniature musical comedy, which will be presented at the Holland Theatre, Wednesday and Thursday, January 15-16, is the first offering of its kind to be presented in the leading movie theatres. It is not a revue but a musical comedy, with a story which contains many ludicrous situations, and for laughs ranks with the biggest successes ever produced. Even the chorus is different; not the usual dancing girls you see tripping on and off doing the same old routine of steps, but a charming and talented ensemble of singing co-eds. The dancing in the production is furnished by specialty artists who excel in that line of endeavor.

The Eight Singing Co-eds, which are a salient part of the forthcoming musical show "Okay Toots" are all young and beautiful Southern girls. Their voices were trained by Carl Craven one of the leading vocal instructors on the WLS radio programs. These young ladies form the background of this hilarious musical show, which contains a collegiate atmosphere which befits their talent and beauty.

Ray Shannon, featured comedian in "Okay Toots", is known on Broadway as George White's Favorite comedian.

On the screen Herbert Marshall and Jean Arthur in "IF YOU COULD ONLY COOK"—continuous performance starting at 3 o'clock each day.

Trinity church opened its field in the south side of the city and experienced a rapid growth. A new edifice was dedicated within 17 months and later enlarged to meet its growing needs. The church is represented by two women missionaries in India—Mary Geegh and Esther DeWeerd, the latter now on furlough in Holland. Rev. Henry D. Terkerst, present pastor, came here from Bethany church, Grand Rapids, about five years ago.

THERE ARE PLENTY OF QUAKE

Our attention is often called to the fact that much of the newspaper matter concerning quakes in the west are grossly exaggerated. However there must be a great deal of truth in such accounts as proved by a recent letter from Dr. Charles Mahaffey of Helena, Montana, who wrote his cousin, Mrs. Edson Clark of Allegan, of conditions resulting from quakes there. Dr. Mahaffey reported that 1,244 quakes had been registered; and that high school sessions were being held in eighteen railway coaches; also that many of the grade pupils were attending school in private homes, in churches, and in a few instances in repaired school buildings. Earthquakes felt in such number and so severe as to destroy buildings the size and as substantially constructed as most school buildings must surely be a reality scarcely to be exaggerated.

Zeeland News

The Rev. P. Jonker, pastor of Sixteenth Street Christian Reformed Church had charge of the evening service in Third Christian Reformed Church of Zeeland Sunday.

Joe Lampen and family have moved from the Meegs residence on Lincoln st., to the attorney J. N. Clark residence on Pine st.

Miss Louise Hubbard and Mrs. L. Hall entertained a group of friends at the Hall home Thursday evening. Those present were Misses Gertrude Van Eden, Jane Veneklaas, Doris Van Hoven, Faith Hendricks, and Lois Vanden Berg. Games were enjoyed and prizes won by Jane Veneklaas, Gertrude Van Eden and Faith Hendricks. A delicious luncheon was served. Miss Hubbard's home is in Fairview, Ky. She has been making her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hall, since last summer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Van Volkenburgh, Glenn and Barbara Van Volkenburgh were in Hesperia Friday where they attended funeral services for Mrs. Clara Tompsett mother of Mrs. Van Volkenburgh. Mrs. Tompsett, 80 years of age, died at the home of her daughter Mrs. Amos Phelps at Sparta Tuesday.

The annual week of prayer is being observed at Zeeland this week. This evening is the last session. "Missions at Home and Abroad" will be discussed this Friday evening and James Nettings, who spent the past summer working among the Kentucky mountaineers in the Reformed church mission will be guest speaker.

Mrs. John Staal and her Sunday school class of boys of Third Christian Reformed church gathered at her home for a Christmas party. Those present were George Van Koevring, Keith Van Koevring, Marvin Wiersma, Norman Velthuis, Cleo Vander Ploeg, Sherwin Nagelkerk, James Lampen, Vernon Dale Lokers, Harry Dale Heyboer, Gordon Breuker, Robert Dale Boes and Howard J. Bouwens.

A group of relatives surprised Mrs. George Kuipers at her home on North State street, Zeeland, the occasion being her 76th birthday anniversary. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kuipers and children, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kuipers and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Elenbaas, all of Zeeland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Dalman, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dalman, Mr. and Mrs. C. Van den Bosch, Zeeland, spent New Year's day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dalman at Hastings.

Meetings will be held at the Agricultural room at Zeeland High school from now on. These meetings will be held each Monday evening and are a continuation of a four week's course in dairy production which has just been completed. In this course eight herds in this community were tested for butter fat production and the owners have learned how to balance their rations and feed the proper amount of feed. All fathers and sons interested in the course are invited free of cost.

School activities at Zeeland Monday resumed after a two weeks' Christmas and New Year's vacation. The Junior class activities are chiefly centered on practice for their class play which will be presented.

LARGE NUMBER ATTEND

I.G.A. BANQUET AT TAVERN

Warm Friend Tavern was a busy spot Monday evening when nearly 150 members of the I.G.A. stores within a wide radius of Holland gathered. Store managers from many miles away came to hear J.

sented at the high school gymnasium Jan. 16 and 17, "The Copperhead," a Civil War drama portraying incidents of Colonial days. How the late Cornelius Van Loo of Zeeland would have enjoyed that play! Now one could pronounce that name "Copperhead" with more vehemence than could he.

NOORDELOOS.

Consistory meeting was held in the church basement Monday and a congregational meeting was held in the church on Friday evening.

The Old Year Services were held on Tuesday afternoon in the local church.

Miss Julia Lemmen spent a few days with her grandmother at Holland.

Rev. S. Poppa has finished with his family visitation throughout the congregation.

Relatives who visited recently at the home of Mr. B. Lemmen were Miss Marion, Betty and Donald Warner, Mr. and Mrs. George Lemmen, Lloyd and Roger of Holland, Miss Marion Gerlings of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Henry Van Der Hulst, Geneva Vander Hulst and Mrs. H. Jekel.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reimant of Hudsonville called at the home of Mr. Paul Schilleman Christmas eve.

Rev. S. Poppa conducted the services at Mack's landing while Student Brat had charge of the services here.

The services at the local church, starting the first Sunday in the New Year will be conducted in the English language.

Mrs. Charles Diepenhorst visited with Mrs. S. Poppa Monday evening.

Johnnie Knows the Answer!

And so will MOTHER! For this coal is practically Sootless and SO Clean-burning that it saves oodles of housework—it gives the heat that you do want without making the dirt and grime that you don't! As for dad, he'll find our price is good news, and saves on heating cost over the season. Phone now for

MANHATTAN

Registered U. S. Patent Office

That Hot, Clean, Work-Saving Coal

Properly Prepared and Sized for Furnace, Heater or Grate. Ask us about WASHED Manhattan for Ranges.

Premium Third Vein Pocahontas. All Sizes. Briquets, Royal Range, Semi-Egg, Hard Coal, Coke, Domestic Stoker, Wood and Kindling.

Van Alsburg Coal Co.

496 Columbia Ave.

Phone 2679

DIAL 4651

For Coal, Wood, Coke, Kindling

GEBBEN &amp; VANDEN BERG

28th St. and Lincoln Ave., Holland, Mich.

BRANCH OFFICE—SUPERIOR CIGAR STORE—PHONE 9538

WHAT OF 1936?

Let us Plan Rather than Prophesy

A new year is about to begin, which all of us hope will bring further improvement in business conditions.

None of us can know, of course, whether there are storms or fair winds ahead. But we can resolve to hold to a steady course, guided by sound principles, whatever may come.

This is the attitude taken by the directors and officers of this bank. We shall be conservative, but always constructive in our efforts to benefit and protect those we serve.

We appreciate the patronage you have given us in the past year, and hope that our facilities may be an aid to your progress in the year just starting. We extend our best wishes for your success and happiness.

HOLLAND CITY STATE BANK

Holland, Michigan

Member Federal Reserve System

KEEPING IT Turning..

As a depositor in this bank, your money is put to work preferably in local loans to sound business and individuals who can repay within the time required.

By scheduling repayments at regular intervals we are able to loan these funds in rotation to others who can profitably use them. Thus the business activities and the welfare of the entire community are stimulated, purchasing power and employment increased. Since it is chiefly our depositors' money we are lending, our responsibility to them comes first, but no one who feels that he can meet the reasonable standards of sound banking practice should hesitate to discuss his credit requirements with us.

PEOPLE'S STATE BANK

HOLLAND, MICHIGAN

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

SOCIETY NEWS

Miss Matilda Sikkil, 54 E. 15th st. who celebrated her 17th birthday anniversary was honored at a surprise party Thursday night. Those present were: Howard Helder, Gordon De Ridder, Bui Sikkil, Bud Homfeld, Harold Volkers, Bob Tubergan, Scottie Sikkil, Mr. and Mrs. Sikkil, Ethel Green, Jean Moka, Florence Damstra, Beatrice Geerlings, Dorothea De Boer and Antoinette Sikkil.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry White, who celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Friday were surprised by a group of friends. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stana-way, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Welton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Tyner, Mr. and Mrs. G. Lacey, Mrs. Abbe Ming, Miss Clara McClellan, A. E. McClellan, Miss Dorothy White, Mrs. C. C. Hawkins, Roy White, Mr. and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Van Duren, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Knooihuizen, Mr. and Mrs. William Brouwer, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit De Vries, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schiebach, Mr. and Mrs. S. McCoy and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boone.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Diepenhorst entertained a group of relatives at a New Year's supper. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bruizeman and baby and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Diepenhorst and Hazel Anne Kroll, all of Holland. Mrs. A. Gebben, the aged grandmother who is 94 years old, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Diepenhorst, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Essenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gebben and family, all of Borculo, Mr. and Mrs. Arie Diepenhorst, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Diepenhorst and Flora May Diepenhorst of Zeeland.

The Past Noble Grands club held a meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Pearl Kamering on E. Seventh st. Games were played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Grace Thompson and Mrs. Mae Miller. Hostesses were Mrs. Minnie Sargeant, Mrs. Irene Blue and Mrs. Kamering.

The annual election of the Girl's League for Service of Faith Reformed church was held Friday night at the home of Miss Lena Vanderploeg. Those elected were: Miss Wilma Nyboer, president; Miss Frances Koeman, vice-president; Mrs. Harold Breuker, secretary; Mrs. S. Heneveld, treasurer, and Miss Ruth Nyboer, assistant secretary and treasurer. Mrs. John Kobes was elected patroness to succeed Mrs. De Roos.

Mr. and Mrs. Warner De Leeuw entertained relatives and friends at a New Year's party Wednesday evening. Those present were Mrs. K. Pott, Miss H. Nienhuis, John Vanderploeg, Abraham and Gerrit De Leeuw, Mr. and Mrs. S. Vanderploeg and Mr. and Mrs. De Leeuw.

Miss Sadie Grace Masselink daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Masselink of Zeeland and Dr. John Winter, son of Dr. and Mrs. William Winter of Holland were united in marriage New Year's afternoon at the home of the bride's parents with Dr. T. W. Davidson, pastor of Hope Reformed church officiating. The bride descended the stairs to the strain of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Mildred De Pree. She was unveiled cut on princess lines, floor length, with a slight train. Her long veil was of ivory tulle, falling from a cap trimmed with tulle petals. She carried a shawl bouquet of white Killarney roses, lilies of the valley and stavia. Dr. William G. Winter, Jr. of Washington Blvd. hospital, Chicago was best man. Vows were spoken before an improvised altar of white chrysanthemums against a background of green with lighted candles shedding their soft glow. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Miss Elizabeth Kools, dressed in pink taffeta, and wearing a shoulder bouquet of Briar Cliff roses and stavia, held the bride's bouquet while the vows were being spoken. Following the ceremony, a reception was held with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Becker as master and mistress of ceremony. Mrs. Benjamin Masselink, the bride's aunt, presided in the dining room, where a wedding supper was served.

Assisting in the dining room were Miss Margaret Miller of Toronto, Can., Miss Myra Ten Cate of Holland, Mr. Harold Dvkhuitze of Chicago, Miss Marian Katze, Miss Nellie Van Haisma, Miss Leona Nykamp and Miss Mildred De Pree, all of Zeeland. Mrs. John Masselink, mother of the bride wore a blue velvet gown with a shoulder bouquet of Johanna Hill roses. Mrs. Winter, the groom's mother, wore Dubonnet Belgera, with a shoulder bouquet of Killarney roses. Mrs. John Kools, the groom's grandmother wore black crepe de Chine and Briar Cliff roses and violets. Following the reception, Dr. and Mrs. Winter left on a three weeks motor trip south. Upon their return they will be at home at 123 East 10th St., until the completion of their new home, which is under construction on Lawndale court. For traveling Mrs. Winter wore a brown woader crepe gown trimmed in turquoise blue. Her hat and accessories were brown and she wore a sport coat with brown fox collar. Upon his return the groom will be associated with his father Dr. William G. Winter with offices in the Boter block.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vos, 36 W. 17th St. entertained a group of friends with a New Year's chicken supper. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kuite, Miss Helen Kuite and Miss Josephine Kuite, all of Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Westfeld and daughter Dolores of Holland, Miss Gertrude Smidderks of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. John Smidderks and daughters, Angie and Rone, Miss Dena Smidderks, Miss Dora Westfeld and Preston Borr, all of Zeeland.

Misses Sally and Paula Brower entertained a group of friends at a sleigh ride party Thurs. p.m. following the ride party was held at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Brown, east of the city. Guests were: Joan Vander Velde, Barbara Osborn, Sally and Doris Diekema, Freddie Mae Heasley, June Meredith, Elizabeth Kools, Charmaine Bach, Nondys Baker, Jerrie Bosch, Colombo Yeomans, Peggy French, Lois Schoon, Selma Caroline and Louise Swift, Helen and Mary Mape and Lois De Fouw.

J. W. Vandenberg of Boston and Myron Van Leuwen of Ann Arbor were honored at a party Tuesday evening at the home of G. Oonk. Others present were: Miss Leona Mulder, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Van Leeuwen, Edmund Oonk, C. Van Leeuwen, William Vandenberg and family, J. C. Van Leeuwen and family, all of Holland, Cornelius Oonk of Pennsylvania, and Miss Ethel Oonk, who recently returned from Florida after an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Joe Antonides; Miss Anne Vandenberg of Grand Rapids.

A group of people, who assisted with the production of the pageant "The Little Town of Bethlehem" which was presented by members of the Intermediate C. of Six of Reformed church Dec. 10 and 11, were entertained last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Stegderga, E. 13th st. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George Stegderga, Miss Frances Van Voorst, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis White, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rowan, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Kraai and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Penna.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Smith entertained with a New Year's luncheon and dinner party at their home, 121 Columbia ave. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Matt Van Slooten, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Slooten, Mr. and Mrs. Arie Van Slooten and Miss Jean Wilson.

Arnold Van Appledorn, W. 17th St. entertained with a New Year's Eve party Tuesday night. Those present were: James Zwier, Donald Van Huis, John Hietbrink, Arnold Appledorn, Miss Ruth Laning, Irene Van Appledorn, Helen Monsma and Marion Klaasen.

WEST OLIVE
Nathaniel Stone of Chicago and Miss Jody Stinson of Grand Rapids were dinner guests Christmas day of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Werner. Ben Stone and family were with their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Theron Stone, on New Year's day.

Robert Cole of Holland had Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Werner.

Mrs. C. M. Shearer spent Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. Sena Peck and family of Grand Haven. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Peck watched the old year out and the New Year in with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Werner.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lillie and daughter, Jerry Lois, of Cadillac spent Christmas eve here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stimson, Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Northquist and Arthur Northquist of Grand Rapids spent Christmas eve with Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Northquist.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chubb and daughter of Grand Rapids visited

Traveling Around America

THIS gaily little fellow with the big bright eyes is a newly born frigate bird. He belongs to a family of sea birds living along the tropical and sub-tropical coasts of the New World, feeding on fish and other sea food. The frigates are famous for their graceful flights and the high altitudes they reach. They are particularly clever at stunt flying. They seldom dive for their prey—simply swoop down and snatch the fish as they come to the surface, or steal them from the mouths of other birds. For this reason they are called Man o' War Hawks. Along the coast of Peru great flocks of them sail across the sky like black clouds—and their mealtime antics are one of the amusing sights which entertain passengers taking the weekly cruises to Peru and Chile.

When full grown the frigate birds are very large—sometimes achieving a length of three feet and a wing spread of ten feet. Their feet are small, their legs short, but their beaks are very long—about five inches—with a very marked hook. During breeding time they collect in colonies on ocean isles or sea cliffs, building simple crude nests and laying a single white egg. The male has a pouch on his throat which at times turns to a deep scarlet and becomes greatly inflated. This vivid balloon neckpiece is greatly admired by the fair sex and proudly flaunted by the sartorially perfect man o' war.

MAN O' WAR

Photo from Life

supper. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kuite, Miss Helen Kuite and Miss Josephine Kuite, all of Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Westfeld and daughter Dolores of Holland, Miss Gertrude Smidderks of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. John Smidderks and daughters, Angie and Rone, Miss Dena Smidderks, Miss Dora Westfeld and Preston Borr, all of Zeeland.

Misses Sally and Paula Brower entertained a group of friends at a sleigh ride party Thurs. p.m. following the ride party was held at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Brown, east of the city. Guests were: Joan Vander Velde, Barbara Osborn, Sally and Doris Diekema, Freddie Mae Heasley, June Meredith, Elizabeth Kools, Charmaine Bach, Nondys Baker, Jerrie Bosch, Colombo Yeomans, Peggy French, Lois Schoon, Selma Caroline and Louise Swift, Helen and Mary Mape and Lois De Fouw.

J. W. Vandenberg of Boston and Myron Van Leuwen of Ann Arbor were honored at a party Tuesday evening at the home of G. Oonk. Others present were: Miss Leona Mulder, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Van Leeuwen, Edmund Oonk, C. Van Leeuwen, William Vandenberg and family, J. C. Van Leeuwen and family, all of Holland, Cornelius Oonk of Pennsylvania, and Miss Ethel Oonk, who recently returned from Florida after an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Joe Antonides; Miss Anne Vandenberg of Grand Rapids.

A group of people, who assisted with the production of the pageant "The Little Town of Bethlehem" which was presented by members of the Intermediate C. of Six of Reformed church Dec. 10 and 11, were entertained last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Stegderga, E. 13th st. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George Stegderga, Miss Frances Van Voorst, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis White, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rowan, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Kraai and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Penna.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Smith entertained with a New Year's luncheon and dinner party at their home, 121 Columbia ave. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Matt Van Slooten, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Slooten, Mr. and Mrs. Arie Van Slooten and Miss Jean Wilson.

Arnold Van Appledorn, W. 17th St. entertained with a New Year's Eve party Tuesday night. Those present were: James Zwier, Donald Van Huis, John Hietbrink, Arnold Appledorn, Miss Ruth Laning, Irene Van Appledorn, Helen Monsma and Marion Klaasen.

WEST OLIVE
Nathaniel Stone of Chicago and Miss Jody Stinson of Grand Rapids were dinner guests Christmas day of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Werner. Ben Stone and family were with their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Theron Stone, on New Year's day.

Robert Cole of Holland had Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Werner.

Mrs. C. M. Shearer spent Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. Sena Peck and family of Grand Haven. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Peck watched the old year out and the New Year in with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Werner.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lillie and daughter, Jerry Lois, of Cadillac spent Christmas eve here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stimson, Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Northquist and Arthur Northquist of Grand Rapids spent Christmas eve with Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Northquist.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chubb and daughter of Grand Rapids visited

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his soul played the influence of his religion and from it seemed to come a sweeter vaster music than from many others. He made the most out of what he had. He stood in the closing days of the Old Testament dispensation. He did not have the privilege of the sweet influences of Jesus and of the inspirations of his great teachings, but he had cultivated a devout mind and a reverent soul. He was proof of the fact that some people can do and make much out of little, and he found his way by the light of the stars while others make little out of much and stumble in the blaze of day. Simeon had grown old gracefully. The events of time and the asperities of life did not

seen and great interpretations of moving events in the experience of mankind would not be given. Such a great soul was Simeon. He was the product of his time. Across his

LOCAL NEWS

A large portion of the pay to members of the state's CCC camps has been sent by them to support of families or relatives aggregating a million dollars or more. Those men have done a lot of worthwhile work (much of it not really necessary) and this action is greatly to their credit.

Vernon Moss, 18 years old, of Grand Haven, was fined $3 and assessed costs of $5.50 by Justice Ver Duin upon his plea of guilty to a charge of larceny of a bicycle from Kenneth Daane. Moss was arrested by city police who report he is a second offender in bicycle stealing.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vaupell and daughters, Mary J. and Margy Vaupell of Holland, passed Sunday afternoon and were supper guests of Mr. Vaupell's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Vaupell—Allegan Gazette.

Reformed churches are observing the annual week of prayer this week. Special services will be held on five successive evenings. Pastors, chorists and laymen are taking charge, speaking on topics on the general outline for the week. This Friday evening meetings close.

The Misses Agatha Kooyers and Esther Johnson, student nurses in Butterworth hospital, Grand Rapids, spent a few days with their relatives here.

The son born to Mr. and Mrs. George Schrotenboer of R. R. 5 at Holland hospital on Dec. 31, has been named Roger Grant.

Clarence Vande Water, student at the University of Michigan, spent his vacation with his family in Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dore and daughters, Lorayne and Norma, and Mr. and Mrs. John Mokma and daughter, Yvonne Joyce, spent New Year's day with Mr. Dore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dore of Brunswick.

Miss Margaret Dregman, a member of the post graduate school of the University of Michigan, visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Dregman.

The Rev. T. Vander Ark of Zeeland, former pastor of Niekerk Christian Reformed church, had charge of the first service in the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church Sunday.

Miss Barbara Yeomans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Yeomans of West 10th street, spent part of her Christmas vacation at the home of her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Leon Bosch, in Grand Rapids.

Miss Ruth Blekkink has returned to Ypsilanti after spending her vacation at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Peter N. Prins and Mr. and Mrs. James Klomparsen.

Dick Miles, Peter Westrate and Ernest Post have returned from Indianapolis where they attended the sales meeting of the Smith Agricultural Chemical Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Arie Weller, Miss Ruth Ver Hey and Albert Oonk have returned from Long Island, N. Y., where they visited the Rev. Stanley J. Ver Hey at Long Island, New York.

Mrs. Jacob Oosterboon, 71, died Sunday afternoon at her home on East 8th street. She was a member of Central Avenue Christian Reformed church. Surviving are the husband, three daughters, Mrs. G. B. Lemmen and Mrs. Bert Vrieling of Holland and Mrs. Louis Tenckink of Zeeland; four sons, Milo, David, Bert and Gerrit, all of Holland; 15 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. J. Y. Huizenga of Holland. Funeral services were held Thursday at 1:30 p. m. at the home private with the Rev. H. D. Ter Keurst officiating, and at 2 p. m. in Central Avenue Christian Reformed church with the Rev. L. Veltkamp officiating. Burial was in Fairlawn cemetery.

Miss Gertrude Ortman, student nurse at Butterworth hospital, Grand Rapids, spent three days visiting her mother, Mrs. H. Ortman, 175 West 18th street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Everett and son, Ransom, Jr., returned Sunday from spending the holidays in St. Petersburg, Fla., with Mrs. Everett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Walsh.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Van Tongeren and family have returned from a vacation in Miami, Fla.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Carter, 213 West 11th street, on Dec. 27, a daughter, Mary Ellen.

According to latest information taken from the city clerk's office, the first birth in the city recorded for 1936 is that of Ronald Dale Ten Elshof, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ten Elshof, who was born at Holland hospital at 2:30 p. m. on Jan. 2.

The paddlefish is the queerest and rarest of all Michigan fish. It has a long, oar-like snout and is known to have been taken only once in Michigan waters.

Between 12,000 and 15,000 gun permits are issued each year in Michigan. Applications for permits must be made to local Conservation officers; not to Lansing.

Miss Elaine Vaupell entertained a party of friends with a post-Christmas buffet supper in her home Saturday evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Klomparsen, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Buckle, and Mr. Delbert Vaupell, all of Holland; Mr. Francis Leroy of Ann Arbor, C. A. Sirrine of Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Horan, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Myers and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Holland—Allegan Gazette.

But four criminal cases are listed in the Allegan County circuit court calendar for this court term, one of those being a sentence for non-support. The trial of Norman Plenn, Chicago, for larceny; Chester Swisher for drunken driving; and Louis Dougelowicz on false pretenses charge, are the remaining three cases. Civil cases include law, jury, 14; law, non-jury, 12; chancery, contested, 19; non-contested, 9; law, no progress, 6; chancery, no progress, 11.

Jurors for the January term of circuit court in Allegan county are as follows: They are to attend the second day of the term, Jan. 13: James Marshall of Cassco, Lauren Babbitt of Cheshire, Rudolph Geisert of Clyde, Tony Gulch of Dore, Frank Kooyers of Fillmore, Graydon Chapman of Ganges, Richard Brewster of Gunblains, William Drenten of Heath, Robert Knorr of Hopkins, Henry B. Swierenga of Laketown, Bruce Hays of Lee, Julius Mutschler of Leighton, Henry Oetman of Manlius, Marcelle W. Steele of Martin, Harvey Freeman of Monterey, Ethel Gilbert of Otsego city, Fred Johnson of Otsego township, George Lampen of Overisel, Guy L. Honeysett of Plainwell city, William Miller of Salem, Ed J. Meles of Saugatuck, Adelbert J. Day of Trowbridge, Fred Hettinger of Valley, Arthur Layton of Watson.

Two Holstein cows owned near Detroit have broken the record for cows of their age class. They are three-year-olds and have too long names for a paragraph like this. In one year one of them produced 16,203.3 pounds of milk, 572.8 of fat; and the other 14,464.3 pounds of milk and 499.4 of fat each in 365 days.

Myron Van Leeuwen of Ann Arbor who has been spending the holidays here, was guest of honor at a party given by Mr. and Mrs. Niel Van Leeuwen at their home 35 W. 22nd St. Bunco and other games occupied the guests during the evening, prizes being awarded to Miss Ann Van Den Berg, Myron Van Leeuwen, Miss Ruth Kraai and Gradus Wedeven. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Guests included Miss Anne Van Den Berg of Grand Rapids, Myron Van Leeuwen, Miss Ruth Kraai, Bruce Graham, Miss Helen Kooiman, Gradus Wedeven, Miss Cornelia Van Leeuwen, Milton Slag and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Damstra.

At a regular meeting of the Central Avenue Girl's Society, Miss Anna Berentschot was elected president. There were 28 members present. Other officers elected were Miss Joan Schreuer, vice president; Miss Christine Vos, secretary; Miss Henrietta Berentschot, vice secretary; Miss Josie Last, treasurer; and Miss Ruth Kragt, vice treasurer. Devotions were in charge of Miss Marjorie De Vries, retiring president, who also presided at the business meeting.

Gordon Elenbaas was entertained last Tuesday evening with a farewell and watch party at his home, 340 Columbia Ave. Mr. Elenbaas left Wednesday for Cleveland, Tenn. where he attends Bob Jones College. Guests included Miss Edith Brower and Sena Boelens of Zeeland, Miss Mary Hathaway and Herman Stehouwer, Jr., of Grand Rapids, Miss Ruth Walker, Miss Nelvia and Alva Elenbaas, Andy Dirkse, Leon De Jongh, Harold Kleis and Donald and Gordon Elenbaas of Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Gieb of W. 14th st., entertained a group of friends last week honoring Percy Knoll who will leave this week for Omaha, Neb., where he attends Bible school. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Gieb and daughter, Betty, Mr. and Mrs. John Lokker and daughter, Phyllis and son, Buddy, Alvin Koster, Harold Ver Hoef, Peter Nienhuis, Allen Heeringa.

OTTAWA COUNTY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Peck of West Olive spent New Year's day with their brother, Ernest Peck, of Spring Lake.

Fire starting in a defective chimney burned the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Kooinga, near Jensen, and endangered the lives of the nine children, all under ten years, sleeping on the second floor. All had retired for the night except Kooinga. When he heard children coughing he investigated and found the entire second floor enveloped in smoke and the children gasping. Calling Mrs. Kooinga they huddled the children, four of which are twins, into a family car and drove them to the home of N. Kuiper, a brother-in-law, two miles away. The blaze, already beyond control when Hudsonville firemen arrived, caused damage estimated at $2,000. None of the furniture was saved and the only clothes the children had was their night apparel. The loss was not covered by insurance. Mr. Kooinga had only recently gone back to work at a Grand Rapids factory after having been out of employment for a number of years.

The city of Grand Haven Monday had purchased a new snowplow, at a cost of $475, to bring its snow removal equipment to a point where it might meet storm emergencies such as existed here last week. Then it was necessary to borrow county equipment to clear the streets. Merchants had protested and City Manager Seymour Justema complained of having only one city snowplow.

New

LOW PRICES

A & P's New Year Greeting to the Consumer is a Long List of Reduced Prices! It will be more than ever to Your Advantage to Buy at A & P Food Stores in 1936!

WHITE CORN	11-oz. can	5c
PEAS	No. 1 can	5c
HOMINY	No. 2 can	5c
GREEN BEANS	No. 1 can	5c
WAX BEANS	No. 1 can	5c
SALT	Diamond Crystal Plain or Iodized pkg.	5c

Bokar Coffee	Coffee Supreme lb. tin	21c
Beet Sugar	Bulk 20 lbs.	$1.00
Pure Lard	Bulk 2 lbs.	29c
Navy Beans	Michigan 10 lbs.	25c
Bulk Rice	Blue Rose 2 lbs.	11c
Whitehouse Milk	3 tall cans	19c
Splendid Flour	24 1/2-lb. bag	79c
Wheaties	Breakfast Food pkg.	10c
Excel Soda	CRACKERS 2 lb. pkg.	17c
Rajah Salad Dressing	qt. jar	29c

MATCHES	BIRDSEYE Full Count	6 boxes	25c
WALDORF	TOILET TISSUE	6 rolls	25c
SPARKLE	GELATIN DESSERT	6 pkgs.	25c
LIMA BEANS	GREEN No. 2 can	3 cans	25c
CAMPBELL'S	SOUPS Except Chicken	3 cans	25c
RAISINS	DEL MONTE Seeded or Seedless	3 15-oz. pkgs.	25c

P & G or Kirk's Soap	6 bars	19c
Keyko Oleo	2 lbs.	25c
Nutley Oleo	2 lbs.	29c
Iona Cocoa	lb. can 9c	2 lb. can 17c
A & P Stringless Beans	No. 2 can	15c
Corn	Little Chief No. 2 can	2 cans 25c
Mello Wheat	Finest Farina 2 pkgs.	25c
La Choy	COMBINATION DINNER	25c
La Choy Sprouts	18-oz. can	10c
La Choy Vegetables	18-oz. can	27c
La Choy Noodles	can	17c
La Choy Brown Sauce	bottle	19c
Seminole Tissue	4 rolls	25c
Red Cross	PAPER TOWELS 2 rolls and Fixture	37c
Miracle Whip	Kraft's pt. jar	25c

LITTLE KERNEL CORN	No. 2 can	10c
POST TOASTIES	lge. pkg.	10c
CORN FLAKES	KELLOGG'S lge. pkg.	10c
BRAN FLAKES	Post's or Kellogg's 10-oz. pkg.	10c
PUFFED RICE	pkg.	10c
KELLOGG'S PEP	pkg.	10c
RICE KRISPIES	KELLOGG'S pkg.	10c

Pork Steak	Choice Shoulder Cuts lb.	19c
Beef Roast	Meaty Chuck Cuts lb.	15c
Bacon Squares	Sugar Cured lb.	19c
Filletts	lb.	10c
Vegetable Shortening	2 lbs.	29c
Asst. Cold Meats	Machine Sliced lb.	17c
Pork Roast	Shoulder Cuts lb.	19c

A & P FOOD STORES

We Accept Welfare Orders Price Subject to 3% Sales Tax.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

A COLD spell is quickly felt in the higher prices of perishable foods, particularly butter, eggs, vegetables, and fruits. As soon as supplies become normal prices drop back. Since increasing supplies of eggs are the rule at this season, higher egg prices are bound to be temporary.

Market prices invite the housewife to serve plenty of salads, for lettuce is cheap. Several varieties of greens are also seasonable and inexpensive. Meat and poultry prices tend to be firm but the simpler and less expensive cuts have additional appeal after rich holiday fare.

Apples and the citrus fruits are the chief values in the fruit market.

Here are three menus at different budget levels for Sunday dinner.

Low Cost Dinner
Round Steak	Baked Potatoes
Glazed Carrots
Bread and Butter
Rice Pudding
Tea or Coffee	Milk
Medium Cost Dinner
Roast Lamb	Browned Potatoes
Mashed Turnips	Cold Slaw
Bread and Butter
Orange Cream
Tea or Coffee	Milk
Very Special Dinner
Tomato Juice	Stuffed Celery
Braised Beefsteak
Mashed Potatoes	Broccoli in Cream
Hearts of Lettuce
Rolls and Butter
Lemon Pie
Coffee

SALE BEGINS FRIDAY, JAN. 10 AT 8:45 A. M.

(Closes Saturday, Jan. 18th)

Suits-Suits

New Fabrics in the New Models

Kuppenheimer Suits $28<sup>50</sup>

[35.00 and $37.50 Values]

All other suits at regular prices and extra pants at $1.00

All others 10% Discount. No discount on made-to-measure suits.

Blazers

Suede leather, blue meltons and wool plaids

$7.95	for	$6.50
6.95	for	5.95
6.50	for	5.45
5.95	for	4.95
4.50 & 4.95	for	3.95
3.95	for	3.15
3.50	for	2.75
2.95	for	2.48
2.29	for	1.94

Blankets

Special lot of cotton double blankets in assorted plaid colors.

Size 70x80

While They Last—

$1.12

Suit Cases

10% discount

Scarfs

1/3 off

Men's Pajamas

Cotton or Flannel

15% Discount

Felt Slippers

1/4 off

Leather Houseslippers

10% Discount

Overcoats

Now at Rock Bottom Prices

$40.00	Sale Price	$32.95
35.00	Sale Price	28.50
30.00	Sale Price	23.50
25.00	Sale Price	19.75
22.50 - 21.50	Sale Price	17.05
19.50	Sale Price	15.50
16.50	Sale Price	12.95
15.00	Sale Price	11.05

SHOES

Men's Florsheims Now $7.65

Feature Arch $8.65

Ladies' Ebner Arch

Footwear

$4.95 to $5.95 values

Sale Price $3.88

All Ladies' Shoes Red.

$3.95 now $3.25

2.95 now 2.45

1.95 now 1.65

Children's Footwear

15% Discount

Men's Footwear

10% Discount

No Discount on

Wolverine Work Shoes

1 Lot Ladies' and

Children's Shoes

97c Pair

Rubber Footwear

Famous Ball Band Make

10% discount

1 Lot Ladies' Rubber

Galoshes

Size 3-4-5-6

Low and Cuban Heels

68c pair

A Real Buy

Boy's 4 Buckle

Arctics

$1.68 pr.

Shirt Special

Collar Attached Dress Shirts, slightly soiled. Good Values.

58c each

1 Lot Specials

Neckbands and Collars

Attached

1.23 each

MEN'S NECKWEAR

$1.00 now 2 for $1.50

69c now 2 for $1.00

48c now 3 for $1.00

Leather Gloves

Lined or Unlined

$2.50 now $1.95

1.95 now 1.65

1.50 now 1.29

Work Shirts

Blue Chambray. Sizes 14 to 17.

45c each

Special Lot

WORK SHIRTS

Sizes 14, 14 1/2, 15, 16 1/2

While They Last 24c

Regular 75c values

Men's Flannel Shirts

25% off

The Lokker-Rutgers Co.

39-41 East 8th Street

Phone 3237

Holland, Michigan

All Sales Cash—No Goods on Approval