WM. VERBEEK, P. M.

IT is about time that our city authorities demanded a flag-man on the railroad crossing at Eighth street. The increased railroad business interferes with the passage of teams to a very damaging extent, and our farmers are constantly complaining about it.

WE are informed that Mrs. A. J. Clark lost a fur collar a few weeks ago on River street, that it was found by two young men from the lake shore, and has not yet been returned. These young men are known, too. A man by the name of Verplanke, keeps a boarding house for the entertainment of such young men.

THE J. I. Case & Co. thrashing-machine company, of Racine, have been formed into a corporation, with a capital of $1,000,000, divided into ten thousand shares. It's the biggest corporation ever formed in the state of Wisconsin. Speaking about this company, we want to call the attention of our farmers to the advertisement of this company in another column.

A PARTY of citizens went out hunting on Tuesday last, and brought home eight

THE Netherlands has been suffering from floods, entailing immense loss.

A TEAM ran away on eighth street on Saturday last, creating quite a commotion. No bones were broken.

ANOTHER lady comet player has graduated at Jackson. She is Miss Addie Barrett, and is reported to be a splendid horn-blower.

MR. APPLEBEE lectured here on Tuesday evening on Chas. Dickens, and on Wednesday evening, on Hamlet, Prince of Denmark.

IT is stated that when the new ore wharves at Escanaba are finished there will be no difficulty in handling from 2,000,000 to 2,225,000 tons of ore in a season.

THE superior system of teaching business calculations at the Grand Rapids Practical Training School has contributed largely to the success of that popular institution. 1-4w

SOMETHING which very much resembles the hog cholera is killing off the swine at and near Reading, Mich. One drover lost forty-five fat porkers in ten days, and several of the farmers have lost heavily.

THE National Association of Stove Manufacturers has advanced prices to 0 1/2 cents per pound for common stoves as a basis, with extra charge for mountings and trimmings. A meeting will be held in June at Saratoga.

THE funeral of Rev. R. Pieters was the largest ever witnessed here, with the exception of Rev. Dr. Van Raalte's. At Rev. Pieters' funeral 65 carriages followed the hearse, and at Dr. Van Raalte's 80 carriages, besides a large concourse of people on foot.

DANIEL H. Hawley, ex-sheriff of St. Joseph county, has "skipped out" because, as he thought, he is the only surety on R. H. Morrison's Odd Fellow grand lodge bond who is worth anything. But the Constantine Mercury intimates reasons yet more urgent, which seems to involve his domestic relations. The Sturgis Journal, however, denies this.

SOME relics of a privateer fitted out at Saint Malo in 1747, which sunk in the roadstead of Morhix (Finisterre), have lately been recovered by Capt. Guerin, of the Plonguer. He has brought to land three anchors, twelve cannon, a bell, some cannon balls, a number of boarding-pikes, sabres, pistols, etc. He was obliged to suspend his operations on account of bad weather, but purposed resuming them at the first opportunity.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Tribune of Bay City, Mich., is responsible for the following: Last winter Alexander Pope of Selpho, cut down a large white oak tree, but did not saw up the logs until last week when he found the skull and antlers of a buck imbedded in the solid wood.
