When You Once Decide to Build You Want Action!

[and we're equipped to see that you get it]

"The contract today—the hole in the ground tomorrow"—that's the way we like to work, and that's just what happens in the majority of homes we build.

We have large supplies of materials constantly on hand; we cut all our lumber ourselves, in our own mill; we construct the house with our own specially trained men; and there is one responsibility for all operations. That's why you can GET ACTION when you build the Bolhuis way. It saves you time and money, and guarantees a satisfactory job.

DAVIS GOES TO THE SAFETY FIRST MEETING

LOCAL GAS COMPANY WILL TAKE INTEREST IN SAVING LIVES

The Holland City Gas Company of which Emory P. Davis has been the manager for more than a decade, was recently merged with the big in-sall interests of Chicago, possibly one of the largest public service corporations in the United States.

Among their holdings are the Chicago Peoples Gas Co., the Elevated Service Lines and all the companies once belonging to the American Public Utilities company, sold by Joseph Brewer of Grand Rapids and his associates.

The company has a great many employees, the Chicago Peoples Gas Co. alone employing 18,000.

Notwithstanding the heads of the company have consistently been interested in public safety from a humanitarian standpoint. Their interests are not selfish, as the in-sall interests carry insurance for all their employees.

However during the past week all the managers of the different plants, including Mr. Davis, were called to Chicago, and some of the leading public safety men in the country were present to give advice, and the corporation's own men from the public safety bureau were also present.

Upon his return Mr. Davis stated that he had never before had public safety measures explained to him as thoroughly and with such understanding as at this meeting, and as a result Mr. Davis is endeavoring to secure one of these men for talks at some of our civic club meetings.

Mr. Davis stated that not only do these men bring the message to civic organizations and clubs but appear in the school rooms, beginning with the kindergarten. He relates that some of these men appear before the little kindergartners and in story form tell these little "likes" how to behave on the street, and why they should not step off the curb, but cross the street at crossings, stopping and looking before going over, and if these things are not followed explaining to them the dire results of not following these rules.

These and a great many other things were brought up before the meeting, and the speaker stated that the little children were more mindful after listening to this advice in story form, than were the grownups who had been repeatedly advised at public meetings and through the newspapers.

The little ones invariably brought the message home to the parents and exceptional results were noticeable because of the work done with these beginners in school.

THREE FRIDAYS THE THIRTEENTH IN 1925

DECORATION DAY AND FOURTH OF JULY FALL ON SATURDAY

Are you afraid of Friday, the thirteenth? If you are you will have to be afraid three days in 1925. The thirteenth falls on Friday in February, March and November.

Seven months of 1925 have at least one holiday. Five are without.

The anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln and George Washington come in February as does St. Valentine day. Lent begins on Wednesday February 25, St. Patrick's day, March 17, falls on Tuesday.

Easter comes on April 5. Memorial day, May 30 falls this year on Saturday. Independence day on July 4, which is Saturday.

Labor day, the first Monday in September comes on September 7. The next day school resumes. Halloween falls the last day of October, Saturday.

Armistice day, November 11 comes on a Wednesday, while Thanksgiving day, on Thursday, November 26.

Christmas comes this year on Friday—and so does New Year's day.

EXPERTS WILL PLANT ALL FISH IN THE FUTURE

FISH FRY OR FINGELINGS SHIPPED TO HOLLAND HANDLED BY ONE WHO KNOWS

If Holland gets any more cans of fish from the state fisheries these will not be handled by Tom, Dick or Harry but by one who knows how.

All trout, bass and other fish fry and fingerlings from Michigan hatcheries this year will be planted by expert state employees. The fry will be taken from the hatcheries in trucks directly to the streams or lakes. By thus assuring that the fish are properly planted the state hopes to cut down the mortality rate, which runs lamentably high when plantings are made by amateurs.

This policy will obviate the necessity of the schools of instruction which was proposed to hold at the various state hatcheries this year. President Henry Schulz of the state division of the Iszaak Walton league accordingly will notify all chapters of the change. It is assumed, however, that the conservation department will welcome recommendations from anglers of waters which they desire stocked.

went an operation for appendicitis recently has recovered entirely.

Several young folks employed in Holland were compelled to find boarding houses there when the recent storms blocked the roads and autos could not get through. The teachers in North Holland were in the same predicament.

BEAN CASE AGAIN COMING UP IN COURT

HOLLAND MAN PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO SERIOUS CHARGE

In Circuit Court at Grand Haven two men appeared before Judge Cross. One was Harry Gilford of West Olive, the other was Frank Chrispell living on 7th street in Holland. Both men became identified with the secreting of several bags of beans that were stolen at Grant, Michigan.

It will be remembered that Henry Tubbergen, a former Holland man turned out to be a crook "of the first water," having stolen flour from the Beach Milling company, stripping a cottage at Ottawa Beach of everything that was valuable and was running a fence for stolen goods at his home in Muskegon Heights.

A fire extinguisher stolen from Ottawa Beach Hotel before it burned was his undoing, and with that clue Chief Van Ry and his men landed a gang of thieves.

Their work even went as far as Grant, Michigan, where a large consignment of beans was stolen, and here is where Gilford and Chrispell come into the picture.

Tubbergen carted several bags of beans to the home of Mrs. Chrispell, his mother, and it is alleged that Frank Chrispell of Holland, and Harry Gilford of Port Sheldon took the beans to Gilford's place where they were hidden under the hay. Gilford later took the beans and buried them in the sand dunes of Port Sheldon where they were later discovered by the Holland officers.

When Gilford and Chrispell appeared before Judge Cross the Port Sheldon man pleaded guilty to secreting stolen property, however Frank Chrispell, while he did not deny to the officers that he aided in transporting the beans from his home to Port Sheldon, it is stated that he did not know that the beans were stolen.

This is the contention of Chief Van Ry when he brought in Chrispell to quizz him about the case.

Gilford will receive his sentence later in the term, while Chrispell has decided to stand trial.

EX-MAYOR BRUSSE IS IN NORTH CAROLINA

TO GIVE PREMIUMS AND RIBBONS TONIGHT

Former Mayor Henry Brusse writes as follows from North Carolina where he is on a business trip.

"Hello, you newspaper men. How would you like to come down here for a while. Sunshine, cotton and nubbins. Just lovely here; no overcoats; no rubbers. Would be pleased to have you join me. Nice climate at this time of the year, but give me Holland with its pretty homes, churches, schools and parks.

"I wish you all the snow and then some. I must say however that it is nice to be away from it for a few weeks at least."

A BUSHEL OF FUN WITH THE REGULAR GAME

According to reports from Grand Rapids the comedians, Nick Altrock and Al Schacht who are with the Holly Majors surely pleased the large audience that greeted them Tuesday night in the furniture city.

Altrock impersonates Munn who recently won the world's title in wrestling, winning over Stranger Lewis. In the course of the battle the imaginary Lewis is finally tossed out of the ring but Nick jumps out of the ring also and throws him in again and finally pins his shoulders to the mat. Schacht gets into an argument with Benny Leonard, who is supposed to be his opponent but Al fares badly and gets knocked out.

The comedians keep the crowd screaming all the time and it is hoped they will make a great night of it Thursday when they appear in Carnegie gym.

OLD TRAPPER AND TRADER OF OTTAWA COUNTY DIED 50 YEARS AGO

Rix Robinson, famous pioneer fur trader who was the first white man to settle permanently in the Grand River valley and establish a trading post at the mouth of the Grand at what is now Grand Haven, died fifty years ago Tuesday at his home in Ada, Kent county.

Rix Robinson, founder of Kent county and the first white man to settle in the Grand river valley, was a settler during the war of 1812. In 1820 he established a trading post where Kalamazoo now stands and in 1821 he established a post at the junction of the Thornapple river with the Grand. His first visit to western Michigan was in the autumn of 1814.

He was of great assistance to the government in negotiating treaties with the Indians. Robinson was 85 years old when he died.

DREW'S TEAM READY FOR CRACK AT MAJORS

Coach Drew has his Holland Furnace ball tossers ready for the big game with the Holly Majors and feels that the men will give the visitors the stiffest opposition they have encountered in their trip thru Michigan. Dick Jappings, who was missed from the local lineup in the last game will again be on hand and ready for play. The high ceiling in the Carnegie gym will give the teams plenty of opportunity to try long pecks at the loop and it is these half court shots that the Majors specialize in. So far no team has been able to push the local players are in good trim a close battle will be waged.

ANCIENT KINGS AND COUNTRIES NOT MYTHS BUT REAL

EARLY NATIONS, THOT TO BE ONLY SMALL, WERE LARGE AND POWERFUL

In a very interesting and instructive address Dr. Melvin G. Kyle, president of Xenia Theological Seminary, St. Louis, and one of the foremost archaeologists of the country, spoke on the subject "Why I have stuck to the testimonies," to the members of the Holland Exchange Club Wednesday.

He spoke from the point of view of the archaeologist, and stated first that the ancient writings found might be relied upon to be absolutely trustworthy, because the writers wrote as chroniclers, and therefore would not falsify their documents. Not only in the Biblical field, but also in the classical, said Dr. Kyle, are we forced to change our views. The writings of Homer are now known to have some basis of fact. King Midas, heretofore regarded as largely mythical, was very real and in the light of recent excavations, the half of his greatness had not been told. In the realm of history, the writings of Josephus and Herodotus, discredited for a long time, now are found to be correct.

Referring to the Bible Dr. Kyle stated that while it had long been regarded that Semitic culture had moved from the East to the West, it now had been proven that the opposite was true, and that a higher state of culture and civilization existed in Palestine than in Babylonia. This shatters the idea that the Bible was written to a barbarous people, and shows that it was intended for an intelligent people. The excavations in the city of Gezer about 1900 revealed engineering feats equal to many of our day. In regard to the Hittites, long thought to have been a nation of very little importance, recent uncovering of its capital city reveal it to have been the third greatest nation of the world at that time.

In speaking of what the future may bring, Dr. Kyle stated that most of the lands in question are now in Christian hands, and therefore little trouble is experienced in obtaining permission to excavate. He also stated that the job had just been begun, and that the mounds of Palestine and Babylonia and the mud of the Nile undoubtedly held secrets beyond the power of our imagination.

In closing his address Dr. Kyle referred to the fact that in over one hundred years of excavation not one thing had been found to disprove any statements of fact found in the Bible, and many things had been found to verify Bible history.

WAVE OF CRIME IS EFFECTING YOUNG FOLKS

PROSECUTOR MILES SAYS THERE IS A GENERAL MISUNDERSTANDING OF LAW

Prosecutor Fred T. Miles of this city was invited by the Woman's club of Grand Haven to give a lecture to the members at their regular weekly meeting. Relative to the discourse the Grand Haven Tribune gives the following resume:

"The lecture of the afternoon was given by Fred T. Miles, prosecuting attorney of Ottawa county, who gave a splendid address on Law and Law Enforcement. He spoke of the difficulty to both officers and prosecutors by the people opposing the laws and a general misunderstanding of the laws. The strained conditions arising from the conflict of state and Federal laws, and the hypocrisy of the individual who seek to evade and misuse the law.

"The disregard of traffic laws and the new laws made to care for the arising conditions that have caused great loss of life due to the carelessness of many drivers.

"He pointed out the fact that try as some would to blind themselves as to the true conditions, there was a great wave of crime sweeping the country and especially was it affecting young people.

"This part of the address brought Mr. Miles up to the Leopold and Loeb case and the new philosophy that is influencing prosecutors in the punishment and trying of criminal cases. He spoke of the new idea brought out so remarkably in Clarence Darrow's plea, that we are really not responsible for our actions but are just a composite of our ancestors.

"Many times people confess to crime saying 'Yes I did it and I can't tell why.' Through no seeming volition on their own parts they seem swept on to do the things that brings them into the courts and before the prosecutors. Whether Mr. Miles believes in this attitude entirely, he cleverly concealed from his audience, but suffice it to say he has much sympathy and is willing to listen to the poor individuals who seem to be in no way responsible for their actions.

"He spoke of the lack of training of our young people and the lack of co-operation of parents, and the lack of religious training as some of the causes for the wave of crime that is destroying a great deal of the moral fiber of our nation.

"His whole talk gave the members much food for thought and was a subject that every parent could listen to with much profit. His audience was most responsive and attention was keen."

BIG TRUCK IN G. H. BELONGS TO ALPHA CREAMERY COMPANY

Grand Haven Tribune—The Alpha Creamery is boasting the finest milk truck of its kind in Western Michigan. The truck is a twelve hundred and fifty gallon thermos bottle type body on an international five ton chassis. The big truck has a glazed glass lining in the big tank on the body and milk will keep cool and sweet in it for some time.

SUPERVISORS MEETING IN G. H. FOR JANUARY

COUNTY JAIL AND COURT HOUSE ARE INSPECTED BY THE SUPERVISORS

The Ottawa county board of supervisors is meeting at present in their January session at Grand Haven for the purpose of going over and giving their official o.k. to the report of the county treasurer and also to transact such business as may come up. Nothing sensational is reported on the docket of business for the present session.

The supervisors gathered yesterday and went over the newly redecorated court house on which work is still being done. They then visited the various county offices and then went into session. Wednesday morning the board visited the county jail and the individual members met the new sheriff, Fred H. Kamferbeek, went over the grounds and inspected the car equipment.

The busiest committee is the committee taking care of the various county bills which are to be given the official approval before they are paid. County banking is now being done in the Coopersville Bank instead of at Zeeland as during the past year. It has been the custom to change each year.

For the present meeting of the board, there is nothing in the "heavy" line for the supervisors to decide. The present session should be a short one and after money matters are taken care of there will be little for the board to do.

STUDENTS OF VAN VLECK HALL DEMAND QUIET

At certain hours of the day it is as quiet in Van Vleck Hall on Hope campus as it is possible to make it. The student residents have passed a rule demanding absolute quiet during study hours which is from 1 P. M. until 5 P. M. Those students or visitors who persist in noise making will be cast out according to the rules of the House committee. Apparently there is no limit to the noise that can be made before and after these hours. A regular bouncer has been installed.

HOLLAND MEN DIRECTORS IN GRAND HAVEN BANK

At a recent meeting the following directors were chosen by the stockholders of the Grand Haven State Bank, B. P. Sherwood, Elbert Lynn, J. Edgar Lee, N. Robbins, H. F. Harbeck, W. H. Loutit, Peter Van Lopik, H. S. Robbins, Edward W. F. Moll, J. F. Johnston of Grand Haven; W. H. Beach, G. J. Diekema of Holland.

WILL HOLD TONIGHT'S INTERURBAN FOR 30 MINUTES

Nearly every Holland fan will go to Carnegie Gym tonight to see the Holland Furnace team play the Holly Majors and besides there will be several spectators from Zeeland, Jamestown and Grand Rapids. At the request of the local manager, Jacob Frja of the Furnace team, Supt. Brown of the Michigan R'y Co. has consented to hold tonight's 10:10 car going east until 10:30 o'clock in order to accommodate the Zeeland, Jamestown and Grand Rapids passengers who attend the game.

ANOTHER MINISTER BARRED FROM THE CHR. REF. CHURCH

CANDIDATE DANHOFF THINKS SAME AS HOEKSEMA—VOTE STOOD 23 TO 16

Following a heated discussion which began Tuesday morning and lasted until late Wednesday evening, the Classis Grand Rapids West, voted 23 to 16 against admitting to the Christian Reformed ministry, Bernard J. Danhoff, of Coopersville. He will appeal his case to the synod which meets shortly in Chicago.

Danhoff, who has refused to subscribe to the doctrine of common grace, was not without his defenders. Rev. G. Ophof, Hope Christian Reformed church; Rev. J. Haan, Lamont; Rev. J. P. Battema, Kalamazoo; Rev. E. Bekelder, Wyoming Park; Rev. P. Koekoek, Comstock and Rev. H. Danhoff, Kalamazoo, uncle of the candidate, all spoke in favor of admitting him.

Several consistories of the classis protested against the admittance to the ministry of Candidate Danhoff, it is said.

The classis decided that Candidate Danhoff must agree and sign the formula of subscription and the three declarations of the synod, also resign as editor of the fast growing Standard Bearer, to which subscriptions are flowing in every day, before he enters upon his duties as a duly ordained minister of the Coopersville Christian Reformed church. He must also acknowledge that he did wrong in preaching in the Eastern Avenue Christian Reformed church, Grand Rapids, whose minister Rev. Hoeksema is also suspended.

Candidate Danhoff answered the classis as follows last night: "Gentlemen: Having read and studied your three-fold request which classis wishes to use as a condition for my examination proper, I wish herewith to register my protest against the entire proceedings in this matter of examination. Undersigned believes that classis does not have the right to examine me in this manner. Undersigned believes that he has the right to be unconditionally examined; he believes that classis in this examination has been acting in a flagrant contradiction of specifications of synod respecting examination of candidates. As yet no candidate has received such treatment as undersigned has received.

"Be it known to classis that I shall appeal this matter at our next synod. Humbly submitted, "B. J. DANHOFF."

HOEKSEMA CROWD FIGHTS STRONG OPPOSITION

Hearing will be resumed Thursday in Kent Circuit Judge M. L. Dunham's court on the petition of opponents of Rev. Herman Hoeksema, suspended pastor of the Eastern Avenue Christian Reformed church, Grand Rapids, to oust the minister and his loyal congregation from control of the property.

Judge Dunham's attempt Saturday to cause the warring factions to amicably adjust their differences out of court was futile when, after an hour's conference, Atty. Harris E. Galpin, of Muskegon, counsel for Rev. Hoeksema, and Atty. Jay W. Linsey and Doris Kuizema, representing the body which has remained true to Classis Grand Rapids East, reported they were unable to agree.

Insisting a long hearing may be required if the court is to decide the case, Judge Dunham urged the advisability of adjusting the dispute between the parties. He said if the two parties are not able to agree on use of the church while the litigation is pending, he would issue a temporary ruling whereby each faction might use the church on alternate Sundays.

Atty. Galpin filed a long answer and cross bill in which he asked that the classis loyalists be restrained from interfering with Rev. Hoeksema's supporters in possession of the property or the exercise of offices in the church or congregation and that pending appeal to the general synod from the classis decision, the defendants be declared lawful elders, ministers or deacons of the congregation. He said his clients are willing to abide by the decision of the synod.

VISSCHER-BROOKS AGENCY MOVES TO PETERS BLOCK

The Visscher-Brooks Insurance Agency has moved from the Visscher block and is now located in the Peters building over the Woolworth Store, 5th St.

The Visscher Insurance agency has been in existence for more than 40 years, the late Arend Visscher being the founder. Later Raymond Visscher associated with Ernest Brooks, took charge of the agency and Mr. Brooks is in charge at present. The North Western Mutual Life Insurance Co., also formerly located in the Visscher building, is now located in the Peters block. These changes were necessary because the De Vries and Dornbos Furniture Co. purchased the building and is remodeling it.

DEEPEST SPOT IN THE OCEANS

The deepest spot in all the oceans is 40 miles east of Mindanao, in the Philippines, where a depth of 32,113 feet, or a little over six miles, has been found. No form of animal life has ever been brought to light from a depth exceeding three and a half miles, but there is no certainty that even the most profound abysses of the ocean may not contain strange and even monstrous creatures as yet unknown to science.

Miller Vander Meulen of Holland enrolled in Western State Normal at Kalamazoo at the opening of the winter term last week. More than 70 new students entered Kalamazoo Normal this month, giving the college its largest winter term enrollment in history. Enrollment at the beginning of the winter term a year ago was 1,889 and this year it is 2,060.

R. J. B. Monroe of South Haven, at present a student at the Michigan Agricultural college, has been named by Gen. John C. Ketcham as first choice for appointment to the U. S. military academy at West Point.

FACETIOUSLY SUGGESTS MOVING NATION'S CAPITAL TO GRAND HAVEN

The Chicago Tribune suggests moving the national capital from Washington to Grand Haven. The Chicago Tribune says:

"Washington has one advantage for the United States in being its capital. The climate is an opiate. Spring and autumn are delightful, the summer is hot, and the winters not stinging. It is a place for lotus eaters. What congress can do for the good of the nation is small beside the damage it might do. Energy is not desired in a congressman.

"Clayd George once said that if the seat of British government had been in Yorkshire, instead of parts of Middlesex, Kent and Surrey, the English, instead of having a revolution every two or three hundred years, would have one every two or three years.

"Opioid instead of ozone is a good political element in the climate of a capital. If it were in Minnesota, instead of the District of Columbia, Magnus Johnson might be running the government. Aside from climate Washington is a total loss.

"It was laid out when there wasn't any Western representatives going to Washington. Each one is met and a rose is pinned on him. Then a lily is put in his hands and for the rest of his term he looks natural.

"He may well ask where is the sting in death. He has a good time. His horizons contract. His quarters are comfortable. He isn't expected to have any ideas. He knows it would be in checking bad taste if he had. He has joined a club and he learns not

WANT RECORD YEAR FOR THE BABY CLINICS

Members of the civic health committee of the Woman's Literary club in charge of the baby clinic held every Wednesday forenoon at the hospital clinic building are anxious to make 1925 a record year for attendance. The clinics are held from 9 to 11 in the forenoon and all mothers and prospective mothers are cordially invited to come and take advantage of this service.

The clinic has proved popular during 1924 and many ailing babies were converted into healthy youngsters. The same thing can be done for many other babies if mothers will bring them to the clinic. The committee wishes to impress upon all mothers of Holland and vicinity that this service is for their use free of charge.

ALLEGAN MAN SENT TO JAIL FOR HAY THEFT

J. R. Betts of Allegan county, living near Otsego, who pleaded guilty to driving into a farmer's yard, loading 300 pounds of hay onto his sleigh and driving away, was sentenced to a term in Allegan county jail. He is the first prisoner to be committed to jail this year.

STRANGE DISAPPEARANCE OF HAMILTON MAN INVESTIGATED

Chester Johnson, 32, and living in a tent near Hamilton, Allegan county, disappeared at Christmas. Joe Fuhrman, a laborer living near, disappeared about the same time.

Fuhrman was found near Hartford and arrested Monday by Deputy Sheriff Selden Phillips, who took him to jail in Allegan. He is being held for investigation.

Declaring that "foreign missionaries have overemphasized political boundaries" too much and spiritual boundaries too little, Dr. S. M. Zwerner Thursday afternoon illustrated graphically the need for trained missionary leaders in India, in an address in Semelink Family Hall, Western Theol. Seminary. Dr. Zwerner spoke before a select group of students, missionaries on furlough, pastors, and others closely related to missionary work. The subject of his address was "Islam in India."

The veteran missionary has just returned from making a survey of the condition of the Islam world in India. Speaking as he did from first-hand information and interpreting this information in the light of many years of contact with the world, Dr. Zwerner was convincing and authoritative.

There are today living in India, according to the census of 1921, 87,735,233 Mohammedans. Of these, four per cent can read and write. The Mohammedan press in the whole world, which is a mighty organ, is wielded by this literate four per cent. The average American Mohammedan remains in direct touch with the headquarters of his faith, located in the Orient, particularly in India.

The intense activity of the intelligent believers in Islam has aroused among them a distinct self consciousness. Moreover, it has dealt and is dealing a costly blow to the Christian missionary cause, at the same time establishing a Pan-Islamic contact with the world.

In round numbers, the Christian missionary cause has so far obtained 40,000 converts from the Mohammedan religion. The speaker emphasized the necessity for men and women who are able to speak the original language and thus attack Mohammedanism strongholds more effectively.

AUTOMOBILE DESTROYED BY GARAGE BLAZE

The Chalmers coach owned by Leo Lillie, Grand Haven attorney, burned early Friday morning, at Grand Haven, the vehicle being a total loss. The machine was stored in the garage belonging to Hugh Mulligan. The machine had just been stored for the night. Mr. Lillie having returned from Grand Rapids where he witnessed the boxing exhibition between Gibbons and Burke. The cause of the fire is unknown.

An alarm was turned in and the Grand Haven fire department responded. Mr. Mulligan's machine, stored in the other half of the double garage, was saved although the glass was broken in the windows and the body was scorched. Mr. Lillie's car is a total loss.

TO SAIL FOR EGYPT ON FEBRUARY THE SEVENTH

Dr. S. M. Zwerner, who has given a number of addresses in Western Michigan the past few days left Tuesday morning on the Wolverine for the East. After attending the on the steamship "Berenaria" on Washington convention he will sail February 7th for Egypt.

WILL LEAVE FOR HAMMOND, IND.

A farewell party was given Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Grevengeod as a surprise in honor of Clarence Grevengeod, who soon expects to leave for Hammond, Ind., to take charge of the office work at the Hammond Branch of the Holland Furnace Co.

Those present were: Peter Uteran, Milton Vander Vliet, Bert Stegink, Ben Stegink, Ben Stegink, Adrian Westerhof, John K. de J. Jack, Stanley Schipper, Nick Lanning, Clarence Grevengeod, Misses Anna Bosch, Pauline Kalkman, Rhia Brundman, Mary Jonkrys, Minnie Wiedemulder, Lena Marousse, Cora Briss, Catharine Vos, Jeannette Ten Brink, Gertrude Wanrooy, Alta Vork, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Grevengeod.

An enjoyable evening was spent in playing games and after dainty refreshments were served Mr. C. Grevengeod was presented with a series of books.

REAL ESTATE DEAL IS SET OVER; HOLK-ALLEGAN MAN

One of the largest farm real estate deals to be recorded in the middle west was completed Monday when the farm of Dr. A. L. Robinson near Delavan, Wis., was sold to S. A. Ingersoll, of Galesburg, Ill.

The farm was sold by W. H. Long, Allegan broker and real estate dealer. The total amount of the deal ran to $25,000. The sum of $185,000 was paid over in cash to Dr. Robinson and he took 880 acres of Illinois land.

This land is being rented out by Long.

Dr. Robinson and his family will return to Allegan to make their home. They expect to be here about March 1st.

The farm near Delavan, acquired by Dr. Robinson about a year ago is one of the finest farm properties in southern Wisconsin.

THREE STUDENTS RECEIVE CALLS

Three seniors of the local seminary are already considering calls from the various churches in the Reformed denomination. Dr. M. B. Haan of Holland has received calls from Garfield Park, Grand Rapids, and Calvary Reformed church at Grand Rapids. Edward Tans of Hamilton has been called to the Reformed church at Volga, S. D. Abe Rynhart of Jsmestown is considering a call from an eastern field, Johnstown, N. Y.

Dr. De Haan holds an M. A. degree from the medical school of the University of Illinois. Both Mr. Tans and Mr. Rynhart are graduates of Hope College of the class of 1922 and are candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity upon graduation next May.

COMES FOR A VISIT; FALLS AND BREAKS LEG

Mrs. Ed Schatzke, daughter of East Saugatuck came to Holland Thursday accompanied by her three children. While here she was to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Backman, 60 W. 18th Street. While walking on Pine avenue near the home of her sister Thursday evening she fell on a slippery strip of sidewalk and a broken leg resulted. Neighbors placed the unfortunate woman on a small hand truck and in that way brought her to the residence of her sister where instead of paying a week-end visit, she will be compelled to remain for about six weeks and until it will be possible to move her to her home in the country.

TYRE SHOP IS DOING BUSINESS AS USUAL

The John Knapp tyre shop at the corner of 11th St. and River avenue is doing business as usual even though Mr. Knapp is not on the job to meet his customers. Mr. Knapp has gone to Benton Harbor to take treatment for rheumatism and he may be away for a few weeks. But during his absence his shop is being conducted by a competent man.

HOLLAND GIRL HAS GOOD RECORD

Miss Henrietta Althuis of Holland is on the high scholarship list just issued by Western State Normal at Kalamazoo for the fall term.

In a college of more than 2,200 students only 72 are honored by places on the high scholarship list as having an all-A average during the fall term. Thirteen of the high scholarship students are Freshmen; 38 are Sophomores; 11 are Juniors, and two are Seniors. Co-eds predominate easily on the list with 59 girls and 13 boys.

C. J. Dykhouse of Grand Haven was one of the successful aspirants, this year for a place on the famous Michigan Agricultural college military band. Dykhouse is a junior in the applied science division at M. A. C. Competition for places on the band is very keen and as a result the band director, Prof. A. J. Clark, has plenty of material from which to choose. The band is made up of 65 pieces and is regarded by many as the finest military band in the nation.

FIVE PLEAD GUILTY IN THE CIRCUIT COURT

Monday afternoon the January term of circuit court opened at Grand Haven with Judge Otis N. Cross presiding. The various claims of the attorneys, their pleas for cases to be set aside or put over, were heard and arrangements were made in many cases.

The coming term of court contains many criminal cases of interest but nothing to measure up to the Dyke case of the last term. Among those cases to be tried is the case of Jack Alberts, arrested for an attempt at bribery in connection with former Sheriff Deibert Fortney. Sheriff Fortney's case of assault against E. P. Stephan, of Holland is also up.

There are few liquor cases and many are up for sentence. Crimes consist of burglary, pure food law violation, desertion of wife and child, for statutory crimes and other offenses.

With the opening of court Monday many cases were presented and five pleaded guilty to different charges. Tim Wyrick of Holland, charged with liquor violation, through his attorney demanded a trial. F. Beck and D. Lyons of West Olive pleaded guilty to a liquor charge. While A. Rogers, B. Rutgers and R. Rutgers pleaded guilty to the charge of burglary. All these men no doubt will come up for sentence at the close of court.

The Marjory Hoes slander case instituted by Sheriff Fortney will be ready for trial. It is stated; possibly sometime next week. Attorneys McBride, Robinson & Parsons stated when interviewed that they were no longer connected with the case. This fact was also made known in court Monday.

The cases of Fred McIsler of Robinson township and Marg Spavak, also of Robinson township, were on the calendar Monday. These are alleged liquor violators and their trials will come up later in the term.

The case of Bill Van Zanten of Grand Haven, charged with adultery, will also come up next week.

No doubt several other cases will be aired in the course of the next few weeks as the session of circuit court continues. A civil case that is to be tried at this term of court is that of W. Elnik vs. C. Steketee and J. Bareman, charging false imprisonment. This matter has been in the courts for nearly a year. Mr. Elnik is represented by Attorneys Robinson and Parsons and Attorneys Fred T. Miles and G. J. Diekema will appear for Steketee and Bareman.

ALLEGAN COUNTY NOW STARTS TO CLEAN THEIR DRIFTED ROADS

The new rotary snow plow rented by the Allegan county road commission from the state has arrived. It is expected that an expert operator will arrive Thursday from the factory at Minneapolis, Minn., and place the plow in commission and also instruct the local operator. The plow will be operated by a caterpillar tractor recently purchased by the county commissioners. The roads now open are filled with icy ruts.

A P-R-O-B-L-E-M

The Transportation Problem as it confronts the public today is worthy of consideration. YOU the public will have to decide.

THE PUBLIC BE SERVED is the only slogan for the carrier which spells success.

YOU are having truck service, the latest in transportation, the best for speed of delivery, elimination of unnecessary handling, in many cases doing what cannot be done any other way, and cannot be improved upon as yet. You know this.

The Motor Transportation has come to stay. You are vitally interested. Good speedy service means success to you. It builds your business.

L. C. L. Shipments offered you in any other way mean retarded progress. You cannot afford this.

The two important questions in the motor transportation are REGULATION and OWNERSHIP. You are fully protected by Act 209 as to regulation.

You own the highways, use them. If the public is not being served, it will serve itself.

We are the originators of door delivery, we are in a position to maintain it.

J. E. Dekker of the Vanden Berg Bros. Furniture Co. is in Chicago this week attending the furniture market.

George Dok, instructor in piano, has just returned from a two weeks' visit to St. Louis, Mo., where he was the guest of Mr. Ralph Lenig, musical director of one of the schools.

Rev. J. F. Heemstra and daughter Lucile left Monday for Santa Anna, California, where they will spend the next six weeks. During their absence Mrs. Heemstra will visit with her son Clarence at Crosswell, Michigan.

The joint Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. Cabaret of Hope College met Monday night at the home of Janet Albers, College avenue, where they enjoyed supper. Later a business meeting was held.

C. C. Schoewater was named president of the chamber of commerce of South Haven at a recent meeting of that organization. Other officers were: vice-president, Otto Pekie; secretary, T. M. Sawyer; treasurer, C. H. Halt.

A. H. Landwehr of the Holland Furnace Co. spoke before the Grand Rapids Life Underwriters' Association on the subject "Insurance from a business man's standpoint, and also from that of a banker." Mr. Landwehr's discourse was well received. Wm. J. Olive of Holland was one of the guests at the luncheon.

Preparations are being made in Grand Rapids to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the coming of "Me!" Trotter to that city as a rescue mission worker. Mr. Trotter is well known in Holland, having spoken here on many occasions, sometimes at the mission, sometimes at local churches, but more often in Centennial Park on Sunday afternoons. Mr. Trotter spends his summers at his cottage at Macatawa Park.

On Friday evening of this week the Masonic Lodge of Holland will again give one of their popular dances in the ball room of the Temple, beginning at 8:30 o'clock. There is a musical treat in store for dance lovers for the De Molay commandery orchestra will furnish the music on this occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Steketee left for Flint Tuesday morning to visit with Mrs. Steketee's brother for a few days.

Alce Hadden of Allegan, charged with cruelty to animals, was acquitted by a jury in Justice F. E. Fish's court late Saturday. It was alleged Hadden failed to feed and water his stock on his farm, six miles south of this city, for about ten days. Hadden alleged he had made arrangements with a neighbor to feed and care for the cattle, but this was denied.

The Sherman Four Male Quartet of Grand Rapids will sing in Holland Thursday evening, Jan. 15th., in the Christian High school under the auspices of Young Men's Society Alliance of Holland. This quartet has rendered several programs in various cities of Michigan. Everywhere they entertained large audiences by their varied programs.

The program Thursday evening will consist of quartet numbers, solos and duets, and humorous selections. Miss Coralie Lenters of G. R., will also be on the program Thursday evening to entertain with some very good readings. Miss Lenters is well known in Holland, having given readings here before.

A system of monthly get-together meetings for the boy scouts, the scout masters and the parents has been inaugurated and from now on these meetings will be a regular feature of the city's life. This plan was decided upon at a get-together meeting held Friday night in the high school gymnasium which was attended by a large number of the scouts, all the scout masters and a considerable number of the parents. That meeting was so inspirational that it was deemed wise to hold a gathering like it every month.

Another plan that has been decided upon is that the scout masters shall hold a separate meeting every month to interchange ideas and to help each other to make the scout work in Holland as effective as possible. The first of these monthly meetings of scout masters will be held this evening at 141 West 16th street. The specific business of tonight's meeting will be to draw up plans for carrying into effect the decisions made Friday evening at the big get-together meeting.

It was suggested at that meeting that more intertroop competition be worked up so as to stir up more interest. It was also suggested that the scouts hold themselves ready to put on stunts for local organizations such as the Rotary club, Exchange club and other organizations of that kind that may wish for their services. It is planned to have a Holland professional man give a talk to the scouts at each monthly meeting on some subject of interest to the scouts. Song books will be purchased for the use of the scouts at these meetings. A policy was adopted of more work in fire fighting, knot tying, first aid, signally, and other scout activities and less basket ball.

At the meeting Friday night talks were given as follows: Mr. Ritchie, "Rallies and Intertroop Meetings;" Henry Mulder, "Troop Co-operation;" Dr. A. Leenhout, "Battle Creek Summer Camp and the Scout Spirit;" "Francis Deto, "Overnight Hikes and Doing a Good Turn Daily;" R. Howlett, "Scout Rallies and Systematic Weekly Meetings."

A week or two ago the News published a story about the building of a home by Mr. and Mrs. Tasker on M-11 near Central Park. Mrs. Tasker came to Holland Wednesday and declared that while the story was true in every detail she felt that she had been given too much credit in comparison with the credit given to her husband. Mr. Tasker is 73 years old, has been a cripple for 29 years and is still suffering much. He did all the planning and took more than his share of the hard work, Mrs. Tasker said, and there was any heroism shown in the building of their home by the aged couple the lion's share of it was shown by him. Mrs. Tasker is 61 years old.

"As some have asked if they might show their appreciation," Mrs. Tasker said, "of the work of my husband, and myself by helping us complete 'Woodland Nook' the name of our home, I wish to assure them that they may say it with flowers, if they desire—not cut flowers but bulbs, roots, shrubs, vines, anything beautiful that we can change the place into a bower of beauty."

Robert Reginald Heap, for the last four years a resident of Grand Haven and associated with one of the important manufacturing plants in that city, passed away Saturday morning at his home. Mr. Heap has been in ill health for the last two years and spent last winter in Florida in the hope that the mild winter climate might benefit him.

Mr. Heap was born at Owen Sound, Canada, in 1884. He spent most of his life in Muskegon, where he graduated from Muskegon High School. He was also a graduate of the Michigan College of Mines. For a number of years he was engaged as a mining engineer in Kansas and Oklahoma.

He came to Grand Haven four years ago and became actively associated with William Heap & Sons, where he became superintendent of Grand Haven plant.

Mr. Heap was a member of the Masonic fraternity. He was affiliated with Baxter Lodge No. 71, F. & A. M., of Baxter Springs, Kas., Galena Commandery, Knights Templar of Galena, Kas. He is survived by his wife, and little son, Reginald of that city. His father William Heap, Nice, France, two brothers Lionel Heap of that city and Cecil Heap of New York, and two sisters, Mrs. Brackett Lewis of Rega, Russia, and Mrs. Paul Reyher of Nancy, France, also survive him.

Funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon. Burial was in Lake Forest, where his mother is buried.

Dr. and Mrs. D. T. Vall of Cincinnati, who spend their summers at Waukazoo, are now on a trip around the world and have arrived in Jerusalem. Dr. Vall was invited to take part in a famous eye clinic in India later in the year and he is taking advantage of the opportunity to visit places of interest in the Orient.

He writes from Jerusalem: "We find Jerusalem a wonderful place, a place of superlatives—most holy and most wretched, most beautiful and most sad—and there are other adjectives which are appropriate which your imagination must supply. We are well and enjoying a wonderful trip. Tomorrow is Christmas and we are to visit the traditional holy sepulchre."

"Studies in a Mosque" was the subject of an address delivered Monday evening by Dr. S. M. Zwemer before the Century club when that organization met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sears R. McLean. In opening his talk Dr. Zwemer apologized for the apparent lack of interest in a subject of that kind and declared that the subject matter was more interesting than appeared on the face of it.

And that proved to be more than true. In the hands of Dr. Zwemer the apparently uninviting subject became a theme of thrilling interest. He pointed out that the mosques of the Mohammedan world express that religion in their architecture just as the cathedrals of Christian Europe express Christianity and are indelible to the place. The Gothic arch and the sharp steeples of the cathedrals derive from the shape of the tall pines of medieval Europe, while the squat architecture of the mosque with its half circle motif is in imitation of the palm trees of the desert.

Dr. Zwemer described the three kinds of mosques and told how they are used and what each department of it means in the religion of Islam. He threw much light on the origin and history of Mohammedanism in the course of his talk, doing so almost incidentally because the mosque is the outward expression of that religion. He told why Mohammedan homes, churches, schools, etc., are all built to face Mecca and he told many other interesting facts about that religion, the facts coming naturally as illustrations of his theme.

The most dramatic part of the address perhaps was an imitation in Arabic of the call to prayer. Dr. Zwemer also has a dramatic account of the various exercises of the Mohammedan mystics. One of these orders is known as "Rufaiyah" or "howling dervish," and another "Maulawiyah" or "whirling dervish." The order of mystics that cut themselves with knives without feeling pain or drawing blood also was described.

The music, in charge of Mrs. W. J. Olive, consisted of piano solos by Mrs. Hazel Wing Guld, and vocal solos by Mrs. D. B. K. Van Raalte, Jr., accompanied by Mrs. Martha Robbins.

Mrs. A. H. Selles, formerly of Holland, died Saturday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Elve, in Grand Rapids at the age of 88 years. She is survived by the following: four sons, Peter A., William of Holland and Bert and Casper of Grand Rapids; three daughters, Mrs. Alice Eattie of Everett, Wash., Mrs. Alyda Van Cene of Kampen, The Netherlands, Mrs. Gertrude Elve of Grand Rapids.

The funeral was held on Tuesday forenoon at ten o'clock at the home, 742 Clancy Avenue, Grand Rapids, and at 1:30 at the Holland cemetery.

The Ottawa County chapter of the Red Cross has received a large number of acknowledgments of the Christmas boxes that were prepared by the members of the Junior Red Cross last fall under the direction of the chairman of the Junior Red Cross, Mrs. N. Hofsteen, and sent to Uncle Sam's soldiers and sailors in Alaska. Those boxes were sent in September to give them plenty of time to reach the boys in Alaska by Christmas time. The acknowledgments consist of postal cards and letters in which the boys thank the Holland Junior Red Cross members for their gifts. The cards and letters bear the postmark of Haines, Alaska.

Mayor Kammeraad has received the following communication from the village of Graafschap:

"For the Fire Department of the City of Holland:
"Best wishes from the citizens of the village of Graafschap. Many thanks for your willingness to come to our help. Enclosed fine $25."
The communication is an expression of thanks to the local fire department for trying to go to the rescue of Graafschap two weeks ago when that village was in danger of being destroyed by fire. Mayor Kammeraad and Fire Chief Blom acknowledged the gift with thanks and expressed their good will and neighborly friendliness to the people of Graafschap, declaring that Holland is always ready to help its neighbors in time of need.

On Friday of this week the 25th anniversary of the adoption of the eighteenth amendment will be observed and the Holland W. C. T. U. will join with the rest of the nation in the celebration. It so happens that the regular meeting of the local W. C. T. U. is on Friday, the date of the anniversary, and that organization will give a special program to mark the date.

The W. C. T. U. is also making efforts to have the anniversary observed in the local schools and throughout the city. The principals of the schools will be asked by Mrs. Henry Van Ark, president of the W. C. T. U., to call attention to the anniversary in some way Friday, either by putting on a brief program or in some other way that will center the attention of the pupils on the anniversary.

Mayor Kammeraad has been asked to raise the flag over the city hall on that day in honor of the date and he has promised to do this as well as to co-operate in other ways to encourage the people of Holland to recall the time five years ago when the prohibition amendment was written into the constitution of the United States.

One of the means of centering attention on the amendment is to give all an opportunity to read the amendment. Here is the wording of the famous article that has caused more discussion the past five years than any other section of the constitution:

ARTICLE XVIII

Section 1. After one year from the ratification of this Article, the manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from, the United States and all territories subject to the jurisdiction thereof, for beverage purposes, is hereby prohibited.

Section 2. The Congress and the several states shall have concurrent power to enforce this Article by appropriate legislation.

Section 3. This Article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified by the legislatures of the several states as provided by the constitution within seven years from the date of the submission thereof to the states by the Congress.

Between Saturday and Sunday it has not been as cold as folks generally supposed. Although everyone is talking zero weather, the official thermometer at the Waterworks station does not bear this out. Early Sunday morning the thermometer registered 9° above and Monday morning 10° above zero.

The Kent county marriage licenses listed contain a license issued to Edward Schults, 50, of Zeeland, and Dora Chase, 46, Lowell.

John F. Mills has been appointed mail carrier for Rural Route 5 to take the place of Wm. Peete who recently resigned. Mr. Mills began his work for the government Monday.

Milo De Vries and C. Dornbos, of DeVries and Dornbos Furniture Co., have been attending the Grand Rapids furniture exposition buying goods for their new store to be completed by April 1st.

Grand Haven's chapter of the Izaak Walton League has grown with remarkable rapidity. When the chapter was received last October there were 35 lakes in that city. Now there are more than 100 in the chapter.

Wm. Brouwer and Fred Heuewies, of the James A. Brouwer Furniture Co., are in Chicago the entire week taking in the furniture exhibition now held in that city. The show is housed in one large building especially erected for this purpose and buyers can go from one exhibit to another without going to different buildings.

The annual meeting of the West Michigan Oil Co. will be held on Jan. 14 at Saugatuck. Notices sent to the stockholders were accompanied with checks for 10 per cent dividends. The company has planned to dispense with the annual banquet this year, but cigars and candy will be passed out at the meeting. A new station at Fennville was added during the year.

Despite the heavy slush and ice, the steamers from Grand Haven are sailing quite regularly and not so much difficulty is experienced as last year. The Goodrich Line is still keeping a dozen trucks busy taking freight from the Holland Graham & Morton docks to the Goodrich boats in Grand Haven since the local harbor is blocked. The Grand trunk car ferries are making regular reports.

Sheriff Fred Kamferbeek was in the city Monday calling on friends and also doing some county business.

Ed Horan and Will Legner of Allegan, who recently bought mill B from the Allegan Milling Co., have sold it to the Northern Securities Co. of Chicago. It is said the new owners will operate it as a flour mill. This is the second sale of this mill within two weeks.

F. V. Blakely, field representative for the Western Michigan Tourist and Resort association, was in the city Saturday looking over the ground and to see how best Holland could be advertised in the coming guide book and other reading matter that will be sent out to the middle western and southern states advertising Western Michigan as the "Summer Playground of America." Mr. Blakely takes the place of S. B. Murray, resigned.

Word has been received in Holland from Mr. and Mrs. Philip Vinkemulder of Saginaw that they drove to Yonkers, N. Y., in an Oakland coupe, making the trip in a little over four days. Mrs. Vinkemulder was formerly Miss Frances Howlett of Holland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Howlett.

Harry Orr was found guilty in Justice Den Herder's court, charged with assault and battery. About a week ago an altercation took place between Fred Dryden and Harry Orr resulting in the above charge being made. Mr. Orr pleaded not guilty when arraigned and asked for a trial. This was held without a jury before Judge Den Herder, Prosecutor F. T. Miles appearing for the people and Attorney Parsons for Mr. Orr. After the trial a verdict of guilty was the result and Harry Orr paid a fine and costs of $7.25.

One man surely was faithful in feeding the quail and he is Walter E. Hastings of South Lyons. He distributed four tons of grain thru Oakland county and the Bob Whites and pheasants are well taken care of. Even there, however, many dead quail were found in fence corners for the ice covering came all of a sudden and the call for food thruout the state was delayed too long. The wild birds should continue to be fed even now. The farmer should remember that the quail is the best bug and worm catcher in bird land, so it stands him in good stead to throw out a little feed from the granary.

A bill which would require each owner of a motor vehicle to give a $5,000 bond to protect other persons against injury, drafted by Attorney C. G. Turner, was delivered Saturday to Representative H. H. Smalley, who, it is stated, will introduce it before the legislature. "It is a shame there are so many irresponsible drivers against whom a claim for damages as a result of injuries is uncollectible," said Attorney Turner.

That "The Carpet of Bagdad," the motion picture in which Douglas Fairbanks stars and which was shown at the Strand theater last week, is a scrupulously correct picture of life in Bagdad was testified to Monday night by Dr. B. M. Zwemer who knows Bagdad as well as he knows the streets of Holland. In his address before the Century Club Dr. Zwemer incidentally paid his respects to this picture and said that with perhaps one or two slight exceptions it is faithful to the life of the great city where the scene is laid.

Sleeping sickness was declared to have caused the death of John, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Hoff, Muskegon. He had been ill four weeks, during which time he slept most of the time, but roused occasionally to take nourishment. He was a pupil at Angell school.

Geo. Weishammr, game warden, is furnishing food to the rabbits as well as the birds. "It seems that hunters should be interested in seeing that the rabbits are fed," said Mr. Weishammr. "The rabbits are having much difficulty in getting food at present."

At a special congregational meeting of Calvary Reformed church, Grand Rapids, Wednesday night Martin DeHaan, a senior at the Western Theological seminary, Holland, unanimously was called to become the pastor of that church.

R. L. Hare of Plainwell and Wm. Dunphy of Allegan under arrest for selling bonds without a license, waived examination in Justice F. E. Fish's court Tuesday afternoon and were bound over to circuit court. The men are held under bonds of $200 each. The men claim they are only guilty of a technical violation as the heads of the firm they were selling bonds assured them the company had a license and it later transpired that this was not true.

The funeral of Mrs. T. Vander Vusse was held Tuesday at twelve o'clock at the home, Rfd. 6, Holland township. The services were conducted by Rev. B. H. Elnink.

Now Fennville is to organize an Izaak Walton club, which will be perfected on January 14. The state conservation committee will at that time also make proposed changes to be recommended in the game and fish laws.

Initiation of a large class into the Knights of Columbus at Allegan, which was to have been held Sunday afternoon, has been deferred because of drifted condition of the roads. Many of the class reside in rural districts and will be unable to attend the ceremonies. Many K. of C.'s from this city had made plans to go Sunday.

The Holland Christian High basketball team seems to delight in playing overtime games. For the third time this season they went into an extra period and again came off victorious. The Alumni falling before them by a score of 20-18. De Waard and Van Fassen starred for the Alumni five while Timmer and Bouma showed the best for the regulars of Coach De Graaf. The Hope Preps. lost to the Christian High Reserves in the preliminary game.

Holland's High basketball team left Friday morning for Kalamazoo where they will play the Kazoo Normal high school tonight. Nine men made the trip and a very hard game is anticipated. Capt. VanZanten is with the team but may not be able to play in the game because of his recent illness. Coach Chapman's reserve team will travel to Saugatuck tonight to play a return game with that school.

The Michigan commandery of the Military Order of Foreign Wars will hold its annual meeting in Grand Rapids the last of January. The convention will culminate with a dinner in the Hotel Pontilind the evening of January 31 at which a prominent speaker, not yet announced, from Washington is slated to appear. Maj. Ferry K. Heath of Grand Rapids is commander of the Michigan chapter of the order.

A sleigh ride party was held Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rooks. Games were played, a budget was read, and dainty refreshments were served. All reported a very good time. Those present were: the Misses Rena Geuwink, Helen Ensink, Grace Langyans, Dena Wittgen, Julia Kleis, Grace Hoffman, Kate Sternberg, Harriet Boeve, Jennie Lubbers, Mary Ann Wolters, Janet Westenhoeck, Henrietta Rooks and the Messrs. The father, who may have the children during the month of August each year, will pay $50 a month for each child until they reach the age of 17. Mrs. Keller is awarded a settlement of $15,500 as alimony together with attorney fees and costs of the suit. The matter was closed up without extended trial or contest in court.

At a special meeting of the Sunday school teachers and officers of the Sixth Reformed church, Mr. S. Ver Burg was elected superintendent of the Sunday school, to take the place of Mr. Douma who resigned a few weeks ago. Mr. Frank Newhouse was elected vice-superintendent to take Mr. S. Ver Burg's place.

Mrs. Alice Robinson returned Sunday night from Milwaukee where she spent the past three weeks with her daughter, Mrs. R. L. Dodd.

Turtles are one of the deadliest foes to young wild ducks. The turtles swim up under the little ducks, grab them by a leg, and yank them under. They kill thousands this way every year. Once in a while a turtle will take a healthy bite out of the breast of a full grown duck. Big pigs are another underwater enemy. They operate just as the turtles do; sneak up under the young duck, drag him under and swallow him.

Isaac Hahn pleaded guilty to felonious assault in Circuit court Monday and will be sentenced later by Judge Cross.

The Boy Scout troop 8 went on a fishing trip last Saturday. They were taken to Jensen Park by auto and then they spent the day fishing with varying luck.

The first and second basketball squad of the Holland high school play Coach Damoth's teams in the Allegan high gymnasium Saturday night.

Rev. George Laug will be in charge of the prayer meeting at the Wesleyan Methodist church this evening at 7:00 o'clock Wednesday. All are invited.

Ministers should assist in making good motion pictures profitable, declared a speaker at a meeting of ministers in Grand Rapids. It is believed that by preaching full sermons they can do this very effectively.—Detroit News.

Claude E. Hutchins of Fennville appeared in Circuit court in Grand Haven Monday, changed his plea of not guilty to guilty, and was placed on probation for two years. He also paid a fine of $100, and costs of $7.85. Hutchins was arrested on a charge of violating the liquor law.

Paul R. Taylor, city manager of Grand Haven, will attend the meeting of the Great Lakes Harbor association, of which he is a director, at Cleveland, O. This association was formed several years ago in Milwaukee to combat the Chicago "water steal."

More than 300 salting stations for the preservation of pickles are operated in the state by 50 different pickle companies, the largest number being those of the H. J. Heinz Co. The most valuable pickle crop harvested was in 1919 when $1,176,626 was paid to the growers.

No clue has been found up to this time that will lead to the arrest of the thieves who stripped the car of a new Holland farmer who for some reason had parked his car along the highway where it had become stalled late at night, curled himself in a blanket and went to sleep, since he was unable at that late hour to get himself out of a snow drift. In the morning drivers in passing automobiles found the man numb with cold, but what is worse, upon examination it was found that thieves had stripped his car of everything that could be taken off. Even the blanket that covered him was removed.

The M. G. R. C. girls met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Oonk. Annual lecture of officers for the ensuing year was held with the following results: president, Miss "Patty" Ver Schure; vice president, Miss Johanna Van Huis; secretary, Miss Pauline Bosch; treasurer, Miss Gertrude Woodruff; vice secretary and treasurer, Miss Minnie Oetting; chairman of Sunshine committee, Mrs. John Emmick. After the business session the young ladies enjoyed a social hour, dainty refreshments being served by the hostess.

H. C. Chiang, a Chinese graduate student of the University of Michigan, has made known his intention of withdrawing from the university as a protest against the sentiment presented by the Michigan Union Opera, "Ticked to Death," which toured through Michigan, Ohio, and Illinois during the Christmas holidays.

Chiang stated that the incidents in the opera such as the representation of women as frequent visitors in the Chinese monasteries, drinking and gambling in these places, which was evidently added to the show to give the "atmosphere," tends to give the American public false impressions of the Chinese religion and customs.

Mr. Monte Emmons, violinist, formerly with Balbaine and Katts, owners of the Roosevelt Theater, Chicago, is leading the orchestra at the Colonial theater this week and if satisfactory arrangements can be made he will be engaged permanently. Mr. Emmons comes highly recommended as a musician and orchestra leader. The fact that the Colonial closes on Sunday is why he considers this position. Men of his ability are not often found in the smaller cities. He has an immense library of music and plays a special musical score for each picture. He also has a wonderfully toned violin which he obtained from L. Sametini head of the violin department of the Chicago Musical College. This violin was made in England in 1815 by Nathaniel Hardie and is valued at $2500.

Tonight he, together with the other members of the orchestra will render a fine interpretation of "Beau Brummel," the big ten reel feature.

Friday night the local Christian high tappers are scheduled to meet the Bates St. team at the local gym. Not much hope is available as to the strength of the Furniture City five. The locals, however, with three scalps at their belt, are out to win.

All of Coach De Graaf's men are in excellent condition after their overtime game of Friday. Sometime in February the locals will tackle the G. R. Christian High quintet and a merry battle is anticipated. The tilt Friday night will start at 7:30 with a good prelim. Both Hope and Holland have outside games scheduled, so undoubtedly a large crowd will watch these two teams in action.

HOLLAND BANKS

HOLD MEETINGS

All three banks held annual business meetings Tuesday afternoon. The following directors were elected:—Holland City State Bank—John P. Kolla, C. H. Mc Bride, W. H. Beach, D. Boter, B. P. Donnelly, James A. Brouwer, Frank Dyke, Otto P. Kramer, John Kollen, D. B. K. Van Raalte, A. H. Landwehr.

First State Bank—A. H. Meyer, G. J. Diekema, Thos. H. Marillie, Daniel Ten Cate, John Bosman, Henry Pelgrim, H. J. Luidens, Con De Pree, E. D. Dimment.

Peoples State Bank—B. D. Keppel, Henry Winter, C. M. McLean, John G. Rutgers, Seth Nibbelink, C. J. Lokker, Raymond Vischer, E. G. Landwehr, A. C. Keppel.

THREE MEN
OTTAWA BAR

The Ottawa County Bar association has endorsed three distinguished Michigan jurists—Judge O. S. Cross, of the Ottawa-Allegan circuit, to take the place of Judge Sessions, about to retire from the U. S. District court; Justice John S. McDonald, for re-election to the state supreme court; and Justice George M. Clarke for re-election as justice of the supreme court. The resolutions follow:

WHEREAS, Judge Sessions is about to retire as Judge of the United States District Court of Western Michigan, and

WHEREAS, we consider Judge O. S. Cross, of Allegan, Michigan, eminently qualified to fill his position on account of his distinguished services as Judge of the Circuit Court of Allegan and Ottawa Counties for many years, his judicial temperament, his age, knowledge of the law, his rare sense of justice and his record in the Supreme Court of the State, showing a high percentage of affirmations of his decisions,

THEREFORE, the Bar Ass'n of Ottawa County hereby recommends his appointment to the President of the United States to succeed Judge Sessions.

Justice McDonald
WHEREAS, the term of office of Justice John S. McDonald, of our Supreme Court, is about to expire, and WHEREAS, he has served with such ability and courage as to rank him with the great Justices who have made that court famous, and

WHEREAS, he is the type of a man who graces his distinguished position in mind, habits and character, and

WHEREAS, we believe in the complete independence of the court from the dictation of any other department of the State Government,

THEREFORE, we, the Bar Association of Ottawa County, hereby endorse his candidacy and pledge our undivided efforts to secure his re-nomination.

Justice Clarke
RESOLVED, that the Bar Association of Ottawa County hereby endorse the candidacy of Justice George M. Clarke for re-nomination as a Justice of the Supreme Court of Michigan. Although Justice Clarke lives in a distant part of the State, we recognize his ability and learning and appreciate his splendid services rendered during his term of office. His decisions have been clear and lucid, and his strong personality has impressed itself upon the Court and upon the people of the State. He is in the very prime of life, and if retained in his position, he gives promise of a still more brilliant future.

BUSY MEETING
Held By
M. E. H. M. S.

The regular meeting of the Home Missionary society of the Methodist church was held at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cobb, 95 E. 8th. There was a large attendance and several new names were added to the list of membership. The group of ladies headed by Mrs. E. B. Rich had charge of the meeting. Devotional exercises were in charge of Mrs. J. Rank. An invitation received from the Queen Esther Circle to attend their thank offering meeting in the church Feb. 2, was cheerfully accepted.

A call for children's clothing for the Sager Brown orphanage for colored children at Baldwin, Louisiana, will be answered in a very substantial way. Mrs. J. C. De Vries brought some very interesting excerpts from addresses given at the Michigan Conference meeting which she recently attended at Manistee.

The fourth chapter of the study book, "Adventures in Brotherhood," by Dorothy Gules, was made very interesting as given by Mrs. H. W. Smith. Miss Hattie Davis, from the Aldrich Deaconess and Esther Home in Grand Rapids, who is at present working in our city, gave a comprehensive talk, showing just what her work is as a Deaconess. Co-operation is assured. Remembrances were authorized sent to the shut-in members.

Vocal music was furnished by Miss Clara McClellan and Mr. Henry Tre Roller. Following the meeting refreshments were served by the honorary (men) members.

OTTAWA RED CROSS

HAS A MEMBER

IN ALASKA

The Ottawa County Red Cross now has a member in far-off Alaska. Among the postcards of thanks sent to Holland by Alaska service men for the Christmas boxes prepared by the Junior Red Cross was one from Daniel Murphy, Chilkoot Barracks, 7th Infantry, Co. F., Haines, Alaska, which read as follows: "Dear Friend:

I thank you very much for your Christmas Red Cross bag. I would like to enroll in the Red Cross every year so please send me a letter explaining how I can enroll in it."

Mrs. G. J. Van Duren sent him a Red Cross button with directions how to enroll and he is now regarded as a member of the local chapter. Another soldier in Chilkoot Barracks sent the Red Cross here a picture postcard of the barracks.

ELUSIVE KEG
COUNTY SEAT

The Grand Haven Tribune of Saturday prints rather a spectacular story about an elusive keg of illicit booze, rumors of the finding of which caused mild excitement about the city. According to the Tribune, the sheriff and chief of police and the state police were all on a hunt which apparently was a wild goose chase.

This is the way the Tribune tell it: Saturday, late in the afternoon, a report was circulated through the downtown section that at some Grand Haven terminal or another, the officers, either city, county, state or national, had seized and confiscated one keg of perfectly good manufactured whiskey. Many put on hats and coats and joined the rush to the supposed place of seizure where they saw the phenomenon of a perfectly good, god, live keg of liquid spirits with a doled the thirsty-ones who sought a glimpse.

"Dame Rumor" vouchsafed the information that the keg was filled with real, honest to goodness "Scotch", that it was labelled "oil" and that it was consigned to this city.

Before the rumor was many minutes old, the report had entered the Tribune office and investigation was under way in short order. A visit with Sheriff Kamferbeek resulted in the disavowal of any participation in the confiscation of any liquor on the part of the county officers. Sheriff Kamferbeek stated that the state police might have done the deed.

No state police were found however and a trip to the city police headquarters brought out the fact that no liquor of any nature had been taken into custody by Grand Haven's guardians of law and order. Chief Pippel said that he had heard the rumor also and ventured the opinion that if any truth were connected with it, the hi-jackers might have been operating. The hi-jacker might have impersonated an officer and might now be ready to stage a big party on the effect on the news sleuth decided to seek out the leaders in local transit circles. Rumor had it that the Goodrich dock was the scene of the seizure while another rumor had it that the Grand Trunk freight house witnessed the action and still another rumor declared beyond a shadow of a doubt that the Pere Marquette station was the locality in which the booze consignment was diverted from illegal to legal channels.

A call to the Goodrich dock shed no light on the subject, there hadn't been any booze confiscated there at all. The Grand Trunk was tried next and officials there were puzzled by the query. Nothing of the rumor had even been heard at the Grand Trunk. The final call was to the Pere Marquette where a majority of reports stated that the liquor had been taken. "Yes," Pere Marquette officials averred, "we've heard the report, but we've seen no liquor, no officers and no excitement."

The course of the information was interviewed and it was found that somebody told somebody else who told somebody else but beyond the third generation, the report couldn't be traced. A baffled investigator threw up his hands and muttered uncomplimentary remarks about rumors. A phone bell rang; "Say—, have you found anything out about that report concerning the confiscated whiskey?"

That Uncle Sam is very much on the job in the matter of soldiers' bonus certificates is shown by the number that are coming to local service men. Every day a considerable number of these certificates come through and are delivered to the former soldiers in this section of Ottawa county. The certificates are printed on the same kind of paper used by the government in paper money issues.

The smallest bonus certificate that has come to a local man up to the present is for $396 and the largest amount is for $1,577.

A sleighride party was held at the home of Mr. E. Bareman Tuesday evening. Those present were: the Misses Grace Lohus, Alida Gebben, Lillian Jaarda, Minnie Alofs, Frances, Wena, Betty and Rena Bareman, Alice Koetster, Margie Kragt, Margie DeVries.

STREAMS MUST
FOR THE FISH

Holland is listed as a polluter of streams by the state of Michigan. But Holland does not stand alone. According to the long list published in the state press, this city has a lot of company and the cities that came under the head of "non-polluters" are comparatively few.

Holland is named as one of 256 cities that dirty up the waters in the neighborhood. In this number we have as company such towns as Lansing, Kalamazoo, Grand Haven, Muskegon, Allegan, Battle Creek, Spring Lake, Petoskey, Pentwater, and Paw Paw. According to the list, practically every city in the state pollutes some stream or body of water, not barring the college towns of Ann Arbor, Adrian and Alhion. Even the cities of Yale and Vassar are guilty while at Bad Axe such a condition might be expected.

Zeeland again holds the record as a Simon pure town, for its name is found in the list of clean non-polluting cities. But then our neighbor has no streams to pollute. Grand Rapids also is clean behind the ears, being right up in the front row of the clean ones. On the other hand Detroit is a terrible offender, which it seems should be clean, is found in the dirty list.

All Michigan towns are listed dirty or clean, and judging from the publicity given the matter steps are to be taken to remedy these conditions if such a thing is possible.

The conservation department of the state is also taking a hand. John Baird is making an investigation and has found a deplorable condition, especially in the Saginaw district, where Mr. Baird lives.

One of the investigators, Mr. R. A. Bostwick, is filing a report to be submitted to the Attorney General of the state. Dreadful conditions are revealed Bostwick says. These conditions are made the more disastrous in their effect on fish life, he says, because of a constantly decreasing fresh water supply from the drainage basin of the great area feeding the Cass, Pine, Shiawassee, Titabawassee, Flint, Chippewa and Saginaw rivers.

Cider and vinegar mills, cheese factories, and other industries create the menace, Bostwick says, which has formed, through years of neglect, a situation that makes solution no easy task.

A hole in the intake screen of a large water pipe at the power plant in Milwaukee, is said to be responsible for the death of a large number of fish in John Baird's home Saginaw. This was recently discovered when dead fish were noticed pouring out of a flushing pipe from that plant after the water had been used to flush ashes from beneath the boilers. The power company has ordered repairs.

At Caro, where W. H. Wallace, chairman of the commission, has a sugar factory, Bostwick reports the largest and most successful sediment area to care for sugar factory waste ever has seen. The Wallace interests there made effective an experimental scheme by setting aside 16 acres a sediment area and 16 acres for a filtration plant. But at Saginaw and in other places where the sugar factories operate, as a rule the Caro experiment has not been made effective.

Dead fish in enormous numbers are seen wherever there is open water, Bostwick says, as the ice covered rivers, robbed of natural aeration by freezing, make it increasingly difficult for fish to live.

The cities of Owosso, Alma, St. Louis, Mt. Pleasant, Flint, Saginaw, Caro and virtually all the towns that dump sewage into the rivers, are blamed by Bostwick jointly with the industrial institutions for the pollution that today is killing innumerable fish.

NEW CONCERN IS LOCATED IN HOLLAND

The Holland Engine Co. with its plant on West 4th street, has combined with The Burke Furnace Co. of Chicago, to manufacture the latter concern's products as well as Holland engines and coal chutes.

The so-called Burke stokers have just been installed in the new Chicago Tribune Tower and plant which is a typical installation for this equipment.

Burke smokeless furnaces have recently been finished such buildings as the London Guarantee and Accident building, Burnham Bldg., and Chicago Theater, as well as in many high class buildings and industrial plants throughout the United States and Canada.

The Burke products have a widespread application and market and after 35 years of continued use the demand for them is ever increasing.

Mr. A. H. Landwehr is president of the new company and Mr. E. W. Pitter of Chicago is general manager and treasurer. Mr. Pitter, a former president of the board of education of Chicago, will also be in charge of the sales, having offices in that city.

Mr. Walter T. Pitter has taken residence in Holland and is in charge of operations here. Mr. John Van Appledorn, long connected with the Holland Engine Co., will be actively identified with the new concern in a responsible position.

The plant of the Burke Engineering Co. includes the foundry and machine and assembly shop at 12 West 4th street and these facilities will enable all of the product to be made in these buildings at least for a time. In addition the engine department will be continued as heretofore.

Operations have started briskly. Many installation contracts are on hand as well as engine and miscellaneous orders, and the future outlook is very promising indeed. The company has 25 men now working at the plant and more will be added as organization progresses.

The stokers and the furnaces are equipped for burning cheap grades of coal and for saving labor. They are installed under boilers for both heating and power use. The stokers are automatic in that they feed the coal to the furnace, burn it and discharge the ashes mechanically.

Each unit represents considerable investment of material and labor and contracts for furnaces and stokers range from $1,900 to $50,000.

There are about fifteen stokers manufactured in the country and of these only a few are this particular type of stoker, namely a traveling grate stoker. It appears therefore that the field for the newcomers' product is a highly desirable one.

The general offices of the company are located at 12 W. 4th street Holland. The department of sales has offices at 320 E. North Water St., Chicago. Sales and service representatives will also be located in the principal cities of the country.

Holland not only welcomes this new industry but the new management as well.

The worst snow storm in the memory of anyone now living in Michigan occurred on Saturday, January 12, seven years ago. The storm lasted for three days without a letup and even the Holland Interurban, which has a reputation of never being closed, failed to put through a car at least on the first day. The heads of factories got conveyances, if these were procurable, to take the employees home.

Steam railroads were hopelessly blocked; many of the local shops had to shut down for lack of fuel, this being during the war period when coal was a scarce article.

The downtown district was dead for a week, no one venturing out, and the farmers were blocked in their door-yards for at least ten days. No mail was delivered by rural carriers for several days and no newspapers from the outside were brought into Holland for two days.

The faithful little Sentinel newsies attempted to deliver the local paper but in some instances a sorry job was made of it. One little fellow was overcome in a snow bank in the east part of the city, and was rescued by a passing pedestrian. Holland was simply locked in and had to be shovelled out.

John Vander Sluis was mayor at that time and at a special meeting of the common council it was decided to hire all the men from those factories compelled to shut down because of coal shortage, and have them shovel snow. A call for volunteers brought out over 100, and with pick and shovel the work of digging Holland out was begun.

Not alone did the sidewalkers have to be cleaned since a snowplow was impossible, but in many places the middle of the street had to be shoveled clear of snow.

In some places the packs of shoveled snow were six feet high, and it was rather an unusual experience to walk over a clean sidewalk between two pyramids of snow higher than a man's head.

The bill for digging out Holland at that time amounted to over $2,000 all told, not figuring the work of the Holland teamsters and regular employees.

January 12, 1918, no doubt will stand for a long time as a record for snow storms.

The Elizabeth Schuyler Hamilton Chapter, D. A. R., met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Raymond Vischer. The devotions were conducted by Rev. James M. Martin, who also provided the main part of the program in the shape of an illustrated talk on "Tillioy." Many slides of this French village were shown. The beautiful chateaux and chapel were pictured both as they appeared before the German bombardment and after. The new waterworks system was of great interest because this was the special gift of the D. A. R. The Elizabeth Schuyler Hamilton chapter and the Holland chapter of the S. O. R. contributed more than $60 to this cause. Mrs. Martin assisted by operating the lantern.

After this interesting talk Miss Gertrude Kramer played two delightful piano selections. The members and guests then enjoyed a social hour in charge of the hostess.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. McLean on the evening of Lincoln's birthday. The Sons of the Revolution and their wives will be the guests of the chapter. Mr. C. Vander Meulen will be the speaker of the evening.

Henry Venhuizen of the Venhuizen Auto Co. was in Grand Rapids on business Friday.

POUNCES UPON HUNTERS WHO USE FERRETS

Leurs Johnson, Steven Bolthouse, J. J. Fynevevers, said to be members of the Grand Rapids fire department appeared in Justice Lillie's court at Grand Haven Thursday morning and paid a fine and costs amounting to $32.80 each, for hunting rabbits with a ferret. State Game Warden Salisbury and Deputy Sheriff Den Herder found the men hunting rabbits with a ferret a mile east and two miles south of Cooperaville on January 6.

The officers confiscated a ferret and eight rabbits and revoked their hunting licenses. They were summoned to appear to answer the charge of illegal hunting. Their hunting license was returned to them after their appearance in court.

A DOCK 100 FEET LONG FOR BENTON HARBOR

The Big Four Railroad company contemplates erecting modern wharves 400 feet long at its property on the north side of the Benton Harbor ship canal, which will permit ocean freighters to dock there within another year, according to advices received from Indianapolis. The docks, it is said, will be equipped with derricks and ship unloading devices.

The information stated that the Big Four will invest between $50,000 and $100,000 at the outset to improve its water holdings.

The Big Four, it is said, has been negotiating for several months for the handling of imports from England to the middle west. The bulk of this freight, it is said, will consist of a special kind of English clay used in the manufacture of paper and paper products, of which Kalamazoo and nearby cities are large producers.

In seeking this tonnage the Big Four has been severely handicapped by its lack of docking facilities.

A year ago a tramp ocean freighter entered the Benton Harbor harbor but was unable to unload and proceeded to Michigan City, Indiana, where suitable dockage was found. The fact that Benton Harbor's harbor is larger than that of Michigan City has led the Big Four to consider developing the Benton Harbor port, according to the announcement from Indianapolis.

SAUGATUCK INDIAN IS LAID TO REST THERE

One of the most interesting and picturesque residents of Saugatuck was laid to rest Thursday in the cemetery at Saugatuck when the funeral was held of Joseph Snay, who has been a resident of that village for over sixty-five years.

Mr. Snay was 80 years old. He was born in Grand Rapids but he went to Saugatuck as a full-blooded Indian and he became one of the most skilled hunters and trappers in that community, putting in his time in day labor part of the year and devoting himself to hunting and trapping during the hunting season. He knew about all the woodland lore that is to be known and often citizens of Saugatuck who wanted straight pointers on the best fishing places or the best hunting times would apply to Mr. Snay and what information he gave them could usually be implicitly relied upon. The deceased is survived by three sons and one daughter.

Mr. Hendrick Turling, Sr. died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. N. Poppen, 214 East 17th street, Thursday forenoon. He came from the Netherlands when he was a boy and 59 years ago he was married to Altje Newhoff. The couple settled in Laketown, Allegan county. About 30 years ago Mr. Turling retired from the farm and since then he has been a resident of Holland. Mrs. Turling died five years ago. On Feb. 19th of this year Mr. Turling would have been 84 years of age.

He is survived by seven children, 31 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. J. Randall of Kalamazoo. The children are: Henry of Thompsonville, Mrs. O. Bosma, Mrs. Ben A. Walters, Mrs. N. Poppema, Mrs. Frank Christpell, of Holland, Mrs. John Lemon of Como, Colorado, and Mrs. Marion Rosendahl of Owosso.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at two o'clock at the home. Rev. James Chysels officiating. Interment was at the Graafschap cemetery.

One of the early settlers of Holland passed away early this morning when Mrs. William Elferdink was suddenly attacked by a stroke of apoplexy and died shortly after. Mrs. Elferdink was born in the Netherlands but came to America in 1847. She has lived here during the whole history of this settlement. Mrs. Elferdink was 81 years old.

The deceased is survived by one daughter Hannah, one son Henry, and five grandchildren. The funeral was held Tuesday at 2:30 at the home, 338 River avenue, Rev. James M. Martin officiating.

Mrs. T. Vander Vusse, aged 79 years, died Thursday. She was born in the Netherlands and came to this country about 55 years ago. She is survived by her husband, five sons, two daughters, 27 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. The children are: Johannes of Lansing, Gerrit of Zeeland, John of Grand Rapids, Dirk of Ferndale, Washington, Fred of Fennville, Mrs. J. Blouw of Chicago, and Mrs. Gerrit Bax of Holland.

GRAND RAPIDS TEAM ASKS FOR GAMES

The Grace Church Junior basketball team of Grand Rapids issues the following challenge:

The Grace Church Junior basketball team of this city, city champions of 1924, would like to schedule a game with some local team. Our team averages about 135 pounds in weight and our ages are 14-18. Any team interested please get in touch with us as soon as possible as we are anxious to complete our schedule. James R. Morrill, Jr., 740 Kellogg St. S. E.

EVEN KNOCKER SOME USE SAYS HOLLAND MAN

The Allegan News devotes the greater part of a column to a talk given by A. H. Landwehr of Holland and the report that follows, taken from that paper, shows the Holland man as usual, giving convincing arguments easily understood. The "Warm Friends" man even has a useful place for the "knocker".

"Says the Allegan News:— 'Getting Somewhere.' This was the subject of the splendid talk given by A. H. Landwehr, general manager of the Holland Furnace Co., of Holland, before members of the Allegan Commercial club Tuesday evening.

Landwehr, one of the ablest business executives in the country, who is largely instrumental in making this company one of the largest of its kind, is a ready talker with sane ideals and a knowledge of the essentials necessary for anyone who expects to 'get somewhere'.

"Getting somewhere, depends upon two things," Landwehr declared, education and religion. He then went on to explain how these two essentials are necessary to the growth of men and communities, states and nations.

Communities always are made up of three classes of people, the speaker said, boosters, sitters and knockers. And he said that the knockers are necessary for by their criticisms they show the strength of a plan and prove its worthlessness or unfitness. This does not apply to the knockers who are 'agin everything,' he remarked.

Cities are measured, not by population, he declared but by their man power. A city is big in proportion to the number of big men who live in it. He said there is nothing which cannot be accomplished when the citizens of the community or of any organization gets back of a proposition sincerely.

Attention was also called to the necessity of every man devoting some of his time and attention to his community. No man can live unto himself alone. A community will succeed in proportion to the cooperation expended by its citizens.

In commenting on business conditions Landwehr declared that the abolition of Pittsburgh Plus, the cutting off of the phantom freight rate on steel shipments, would make Chicago the industrial center of the nation and that the industrial area would expand and include Western Michigan, and that cities in this section of Michigan could expect to gain thru this condition, and that Allegan might look forward to increased progress in the coming decade.

Landwehr in his talk reviewed all of the things which he believes necessary to success in the life of a man, community, state or nation, and he admonished the members of the club to play the game of business hard, to play hard, and to above all play the game honestly and squarely, like sportsmen.

It was one of the best talks ever given before the local club, the first of a series which will bring a list of exceptional speakers to this city.

COMMON COUNCIL

Holland, Mich., Jan. 7, 1925. The Common Council met in regular session and was called to order by the mayor.

Present: Mayor Kammeraad, Alds. Kleis, Siaga, Brieve, Drinkwater, Laeppe, Sprietema, Peterson, Brinkman, Dykstra, Van Zanten, Vander Hil and Visser, and the Clerk.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Petitions and Accounts
A. Postma petitioned for permission to build a canopy over the sidewalk abutting premises of DeVries & Dornbos.

Referred to the Committee on sidewalks.

Floyd Wolford petitioned for license to engage in the business of keeping restaurant at 178 E. 8th St. and presented bond with Jack Blue and John Kramer sureties.

Bonds and sureties approved and license granted.

John Diekema applied for permit to construct a building to be used as a service garage, 50x30 feet, concrete and brick or tile at an estimated cost of $3000 on the east side of Lincoln avenue between 12th and 13th streets.

Ald. Kleis moved that the application be granted.

Ald. Slagh moved as a substitute motion that petition be referred to the aldermen of the First Ward with power to act. Said substitute motion did not prevail. The question then recurring on the original motion, said motion did not prevail.

The petition was referred to the Aldermen of the First Ward.

Reports of Standing Committees
The Committee on Ways and Means reported having received a bid from Stranahan, Harris & Oatis for the construction of the $25,000 Armory Bonds as follows: Date, August 1, 1924, interest 5% payable semi-annually, principal maturing $2,000 August 1st of each year, 1925 to 1924, par and accrued interest and a premium of $220; said Stranahan, Harris & Oatis to print blank bonds free of charge and pay all the attorney fees.

On motion of Ald. Laeppe, Resolved that said bonds be awarded to Stranahan, Harris & Oatis per the price and schedule by them submitted dated Jan. 7, 1925, subject to the approval of the City Attorney, carried.

WRITER THINKS HOEKSEMA IS IN THE WRONG

Dr. Henry Beets of Grand Rapids discusses the now famous "Hoeksema case" in a lengthy editorial in this week's issue of "The Banner," the Christian Reformed church paper. Dr. Beets not only thinks the former Holland minister entirely in the wrong but he believes that a special session of the synod is not even needed to settle the case. He thinks moreover that the church property is almost certain to be awarded to the faction opposing Rev. Mr. Hoeksema. At the close of the editorial he says: "Finally, as to the plan of the Classis to ask for a special or earlier synod to definitely dispose of this case, a request already granted, as we understand by the Classis of Zeeland, we do not see that in the given circumstances there is need of such a thing at all. The Synod of 1924 plainly expressed itself as to the doctrine of our church on the three points of common grace. Now it is up to the consistories, and if they are negligent or unwilling, up to the classes, to maintain the unity and purity of doctrine. That's very obvious."

"As to cases of appeal from the side of parties dealt with, according to our church law and usage one forfeits his right of appeal when he does not submit during the interim to the decisions of the broader judicatories. That, too, is very plain. In the case we are discussing there is no submission, but the very opposite, and consequently it is very clear that the right of appeal has been lost by the continuation of the insubordination mentioned in the notification to the churches. Unless new developments arise, we do not see that there is any ground for hastening the meeting of our synod."

"That the classis wants to 'refer the final disposition of the case to synod is no doubt well meant. But there is no hurry about obtaining synod's o. k. Moreover, this wording is causing misunderstanding, as if in the interim the people of the congregation worshipping under the direction of the old consistory were still in good and regular standing among us as a denomination. Of course not. Only those who submit to the authority of the new consistory. Such is, indeed, a very plain matter. But evidently the wording of the resolution of classis caused misunderstanding."

"Taking all in all, however, we believe that the action of classis has done a great deal to clear up the situation. The court will have to decide to which side the property belongs, and we have no doubt about the final result if the case is properly presented and the articles of incorporation heeded, which state that the property belongs to those who are loyal to the major church assemblies."

M. A. C. POULTRY MAN RE-

SIGNS AND GOES TO ZEELAND

E. C. Foreman, one of the leading poultry authorities in the state, has accepted a position as the manager and breeder of the Grandview Poultry farm at Zeeland. Foreman has been connected with poultry work at M. A. C. for eight years and has served as judge at numerous poultry shows in the state. He is recognized as an authority on poultry culling and egg production in the middle west.

Recently he resigned his position at the agricultural college to accept the Zeeland position. Mr. Foreman has lectured in Holland on several occasions and also acted as judge at the Holland Poultry show repeatedly.

OFFICERS TO LET LICENSE PLATES STAND

Neither the Holland nor Grand Haven police will take action against motorists who are running on 1924 auto license plates until the secretary of state allows the release of the 1925 licenses now held up awaiting possible legislation that may change things materially. Ample time will then be given for the motorist to provide himself or herself with the new plates.

The controversy over the license plates is continuing and many new car owners of the last few days are either running on borrowed 1924 plates, dealers' licenses or have applied direct to Lansing at the secretary of state's office for the new 1925 license plates. So far none of the new plates have put in appearance on the streets here. They are done in black and gray and are very attractive.

Sheriff Fred H. Kamferbeek stated that he would take no action on the license plate proposition until ample time had been given for motorists to secure their 1925 plates from the county clerk, Orrie Sluiter or from the direct branch license bureaus in Holland, Grand Haven or elsewhere in the county.

Chief Pippel of Grand Haven has announced that he will take a passive course. Chief Van Ry of Holland is also in accordance with the general action throughout the state.

Sheriff Kamferbeek states that he will co-operate in every way with the police of Holland, Grand Haven and the officials in other parts of the county in order that there may be no misunderstanding in the matter.

Motorists who secure their new plates will either get a refund or must pay the difference in the event that the 1925 session of the state legislature passes a bill either decreasing or increasing the license fee. A weight tax is to enter into the new legislation it is understood.

Chief Pippel of Grand Haven has announced that all city license plates issued through the courtesy of hall should be returned at the year end, are now due at the city hall and should be returned. New licenses may be secured in their places. Mr. Pippel says chauffeurs are also cautioned to renew their yearly state license within a short time. A check up will be made in the near future and those found violating the law will be prosecuted.

RED CROSS TO HOLD MEETING

The annual meeting of the Ottawa County Chapter of the American Red Cross will be held at the City Hall, Holland, Michigan, on Saturday, January 17, 1925, at 2 P. M., for the purpose of electing seven trustees, receiving reports, and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

By order of the President.

Dated, January 7, 1925.

G. J. DIEKEMA, President.

Arthur Van Duren, Sec'y.

ASKS GIFTS IN HONOR OF LATE DR. G. J. KOLLEN

Dr. S. M. Zwemer, who is in Holland for a short time, today issued an appeal for a new chapel for Dr. James Cantine, missionary in Bagdad, a city of 250,000 without a single Protestant chapel. Just before leaving Arabia Dr. Zwemer promised Dr. Cantine that he would try to raise $10,000 in America for this cause. While in the East he called on Dr. J. Ackerman, M. D., L. L. D., friend of Hope College, and asked for a donation for this cause. Dr. Cantine sent him the following letter:

To the Rev. S. M. Zwemer, D. D., My dear doctor:

I have read your article in the Christian Intelligencer of Oct. 29 on your visit to Mesopotamia, etc. I have given you one thousand dollars, the first contribution towards your $10,000 chapel for Bagdad, and I will give you the last $1,000 provided you raise the balance within one year from date, the first and last amounts being in memory of my beloved friend Dr. G. J. Kollen of Hope College.

With pleasant remembrance of your visit, I am,

Yours cordially,
(Signed) J. Ackerman, M. D.

In addition to the $2,000 promised by Dr. Cantine, Dr. Zwemer has secured five contributions of $500 each from friends of the missionary cause in the East. He made an appeal today to donors in Holland to contribute $4,000 of the amount still to be raised. He pointed out that such a contribution would be a fine tribute to the memory of the late Dr. Kollen who during his life time did much for the welfare of Holland.

When Dr. Zwemer presented the question of raising the money for the chapel to the board of foreign missions that body gave him permission to raise the money provided it was secured in relatively large amounts so that it would not decrease the regular gifts for missions from the churches. Hence Dr. Zwemer has evolved a plan of raising the money in amounts of not less than $100 from people who are interested in the missionary cause. Contributions are to be made payable to the treasurer of the board of foreign missions of the Reformed church, 25 East 22nd street, New York City, and they should be specifically designated as being for the Cantine chapel.

In view of the limitation that the board of foreign missions has placed upon Dr. Zwemer in making collections for this cause he asks that small amounts be not sent but that only checks for from $100 and up are acceptable.

The letter of Dr. Cantine is such a beautiful tribute to the memory of a man who as president of Hope college meant much to Holland and the whole of Western Michigan that Dr. Zwemer confidently expects that Holland will contribute at least $4,000 to this project.

S. W. V. CAMP IN- STALLS OFFICERS

The installation of officers of Camp No. 38, United Spanish War Veterans, was held Monday evening. Past Commander Eugene F. Gourdeau installed the officers with military honors. He gave the men a very pleasing and interesting talk. The following were installed:

Commander, J. Henry Van Lente; Senior Vice Commander, Thomas P. Eastman; Junior Vice Commander, Frank Harbin; Officer of the Day, Roy Torne; Officer of the Guard, Ben Hamm; Trustee, Martin Vander Bel; Adjutant, Herman R. Woltman; Quartermaster, T. Vander Water; Chaplain, Gerrit Klaasen; Historian, John Homfeld; Color Sergeant, Frank Rykaczky; H. W. Smith; Chief Musician, George W. Moomey.

ZEELAND LEGION TO HOLD FAIR

The Zeeland Legion annual fair will be held Friday and Saturday nights, January 16th and 17th in the new Wm. De Pree Co. building.

Last year a merchandise exhibit was added to the fair, and this feature proved very interesting. This year with added space it has been decided to add an automobile show. The Zeeland dealers have taken an interest in this and the following are some of the cars that will be shown: Chrysler, Ford, Overland, Dodge, Hudson, Essex, Paige, Durant, Jewett, Star, Maxwell, Willys-Knight.

The merchandise exhibit includes a display from practically every merchant in Zeeland and also some outside displays. Altho all arrangements have not yet been completed it is intended to have plenty of music—orchestra, band, singing—free movies, different picture each night. Prizes will be given away each evening.

FENNVILLE LIGHTING PLANT IS WRECKED

A peculiar and at the same time an expensive accident occurred at the Fennville Electric Lighting plant a few days ago. When Charles Martin, who is in charge, had returned to the engine room, after oiling some shafting elsewhere in the building, he heard strange noises and also saw a shower of sparks fly. He knew that something was wrong with the electric generator, for sparks kept coming from every part of the 100 h. p. semi-Diesel engine installed at the plant.

Mr. Martin jumped into the engine room, pulled back the switch, shutting off the engine and then leaped back thru the open door. He made his exit none too soon for at that time the runaway engine had broken the 7-inch crank shaft dropping the two ton flywheel going at the rate of 200 revolutions per minute, to the floor. The massive wheel spun across the cement striking a large generator, knocking it from its base and turning it completely around. More damage followed in the wake of the spinning wheel, for a stove was bowled over and finally it came to a stop landing against a heavy shaft in another part of the station.

Mr. Martin states that it was all over in about ten seconds and the engine room floor was simply covered with a mass of junk, fragments from machinery.

The engine proper is a total wreck and the damage done as a result of the accident will total not less than $7,000, it is stated. Repairs are now being wired for and possibly a new engine will have to be installed.

Fortunately no one happened to be in the engine room except Mr. Martin and luckily for him he made a quick get-away through a convenient door.

LOCAL GARAGE IS FEATURED IN MAGAZINE

The Wolverine garage of Holland is being featured in a double page advertisement in the January number of "Popular Mechanics Magazine." The advertisement was placed by the Detroit Automobile school, the institution from which Mr. Vander Bie and Mr. Dulyea graduated before entering the automobile business.

The advertisement contains cuts of the Wolverine garage itself and also insert cuts of Mr. Vander Bie and Mr. Dulyea. Under the cuts appear statements of the success of this concern.

OTTAWA MAY BE IN SENATORIAL DISTRICT CHANGE

Senator Arthur E. Wood of Detroit Wednesday introduced the first bill of the present session calling for rearrangement of the senatorial districts of the state. Under its provisions Wayne is given 10 districts instead of 4 as at present and Kent would have 2 as now.

Ottawa, on the other hand, would be hatched up with Muskegon and Oceana, as the Twenty-third district while Allegan county ties up with Barry, Ionia and Clinton counties as the fourteenth state senatorial district. For years Ottawa and Muskegon paired up and alternately a candidate was selected from the respective counties.

MUSKEGON INCREASES FUND FOR ATTRACTING MANUFACTURING FIRMS

A fund of $400,000, instead of $300,000, as was at first planned, will probably be the goal of a campaign for funds with which to assist infant industries that may be attracted to Muskegon. This was indicated by John Beakema, secretary of the C. of C., in an address before the Exchange Club. The increase will be made because of the great interest there seems to be in the plan among residents of that city.

SPRING WILL SEE MANY TRAGEDIES IN BIRD LIFE

Food or no food, Michigan's stock of what it once was. Although the sportsmen have responded splendidly to the plea of "feed the birds," it is safe to say that a large percentage of our quail died in the recent ice and sleet storm. Fence corners, under brush and out of the way places will some day reveal many tragedies in Bob White's struggle to weather the winter. They are the most helpless of all of our birds when ice and snow covers the ground. We repeat again, Michigan is not a quail habitat. Our climate is against them. Protection or pen season means nothing in their perpetuation. Sometimes we believe that it would be better to let the sportsmen bag a few than allow them to freeze or starve to death.—Detroit News.

NEW SCHOOL IN ZEELAND READY SOON

It is estimated that Zeeland's new $135,000 high school will be opened on or about February 1st. By that time the finishing touches will have been made and the building will be ready for use.

Two stories in height, the new high school is a well equipped, modern building. The basement consists of the gymnasium, which covers two stories in height, and the dressing rooms and showers for both girls and boys. The first floor is taken up by different class rooms and the superintendent's office. At the right entry, the library is open to the public. It will be used also as a reading room.

The domestic science and manual art rooms are also on this floor. The assembly room is on the second or upper floor. It has the capacity for seating three hundred pupils. Partitioned from the assembly are two temporary rooms of no special use. The partition can be taken away and seats installed if need be, thus making a large assembly.

The chemical and botany laboratories are also in this floor. Both are very well equipped. The latter has a small room in addition, used as a lecture room. The seats are elevated so the pupil can plainly see the teacher and the experiments he is showing them.

Back of the new building is the boiler room which already furnishes the new school and the kindergarten building with heat.

Coach De Pree will start basketball practice the minute the gymnasium is available. The team has not yet been formed because no adequate place could be secured.

The high school operaetta will stage its play in the new gymnasium also. The date is not definitely known, but they are waiting for the stage to be completed and stage scenery to arrive. The only drawback to this gymnasium is the fact that it has no balcony, nevertheless the board of education states that one can still be installed. This can be done at a cost of approximately twelve hundred dollars, and Mr. Denison has hopes that in a few years the high school fund will be able to furnish this accommodation.

500 CHILDREN GIVEN "SHOTS" OF TOXIN-ANTITOXIN

The work of administering toxin-antitoxin to the pupils in the schools of Holland was begun Wednesday and the board of health reports that the people are co-operating admirably with the health authorities to safeguard the children against diphtheria.

The work started in the Froebel and Horace Mann schools in which 300 "shots" were given Wednesday. Thursday forenoon 200 pupils in the Longfellow school were given the treatment. The work will be continued next week when all the other schools in the city will be visited by the physicians who are doing the work.

The people are responding well, according to health officer Cook. There are a few pupils who have not received permits from their parents to take the toxin-antitoxin but the number is small. More than 75 per cent will take it if the present ratio is maintained.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Hutzenga, Mrs. T. G. Hutzenga, and Mrs. Minnie Veneklaas of Zeeland left Saturday for Miami, Florida, where they will spend the remainder of the winter.

Rev. H. Mollema and Dr. C. D. Mulder of Spring Lake attended the lecture given Tuesday evening by Dr. Melvin Grove Kyle, noted archaeologist, at the Third Reformed church in Holland.

Rev. C. P. Dame, pastor of Trinity Reformed church will continue his series of sermons on "The Want Ad Column of the Bible," next Sunday evening. His topic will be "Wanted—Salvation."

Orrie Brusse of Erie, Penn., is in the city, the guest of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brusse West 12th street. He is in Holland attending a school of instruction to salesmen held by the Holland Furnace Co.

Holland fans who wish to motor over to Grand Haven Friday to witness the Holland-Grand Haven basketball game can be assured that the road is in passable condition and unless another storm comes the teams will go over by bus route.

Students at Hope college are looking forward to the end of the first semester's work which will be concluded January 23rd. Exams will be held the following week and the second half of the year's work will start, Feb. 3rd.

According to the report of the meteorologist at Grand Rapids, the weather has been unusually cold, and December owes us 162 degrees of temperature. Let us be patient. It is probably a six months' loan, to be paid with interest about July 1.

The Allegan Gazette in commenting on A. H. Landwehr's speech before the Commercial club there, winds up its article of a column by saying, "It is not for nothing that Mr. Landwehr, the Furnace man bears a striking likeness to the golden tongued Gerrit John Diekema."

In the items of twenty-five years ago published weekly in the Sunday Grand Rapids Herald the following appears: "The car barns of the Holland-Lake Michigan railroad located in Holland, burned 25 years ago today with a loss of $40,000, partially covered by insurance. The barns are located near Virginia Park."

Aloys Bilz of Spring Lake received an unsigned letter this week, postmarked Grand Rapids inclosing a five dollar bill, conscience money of a transaction of many years ago. As he has not the least idea who the sender is, he can not personally thank him, and hopes he may see this notice of the receipt of the money.

Dr. Dimment has announced that the annual Day of Prayer for Colleges will be held Thursday, January 22nd. Dr. J. E. Kuizenga president of general synod will be the principal speaker at services which will be held at 2 o'clock in Carnegie gym. The meeting is open to all and a large attendance is anticipated.

Miss Tena Holkeboer, daughter of Mrs. G. Holkeboer, 37 East 15th street, will return to Holland on her first furlough some time this summer, according to word received by relatives. Miss Holkeboer left as a missionary to the Orient a little over five years ago, and has been stationed at Amoy, China for the greater part of the time.

An Allegan man who is handy with pencil and paper has figured out that the city uses 15,395 tons of coal and coke every year. This includes fuel used by factories. The man figures that it would allow 2 1/2 tons of coal for each man, woman and child in Allegan. The average family use 12 tons annual at a cost ranging from $60 to $140 according to the calculator.

Today Holland has had snow on the ground for 53 days. The first snow storm came on Thanksgiving day and there has been little or no thaw since. Winter came at least 30 days earlier than other years, those who keep track of the weather state. The entire ice crop has now been harvested and we are patiently waiting for the announcement of the first robin's appearance.

Holland teams will be real busy this week-end there being many important games. Thursday night the Holland Furnace team tackles the Holly Majors. Holland High plays at Grand Haven on Friday and at Allegan on Saturday. Hope travels to Kazoo to play the Kazoo College five Saturday night and the Warm Friends will indulge in their second game of the week meeting the Denver Tigers in the local High school gym on the same night.

The first robins have been seen and the information comes from a reliable source. Former Sheriff C. Dornbos, at one time gave warden in Ottawa county, saw one and heard it sing near Elm Station between Holland and Macatawa. Mr. Dornbos states that the "red breast" does not come from the south but no doubt is one of many that remain in the woods at Waukauze. Mr. Dornbos states that robins do not migrate but many remain all year around in swamps or dense woods.

The Sherman Four, scheduled to sing in the Christian High School Thursday evening under the auspices of the Y. M. S. A. of Holland, is very fortunate in having one of the members of this quartet a local man.

Mr. Henry Haveman, formerly of Holland, has joined the Sherman Four Male Quartet of Grand Rapids. Mr. Haveman is well known in Holland having lived here for many years. Thursday evening the many friends of Mr. Haveman will have an opportunity to hear him sing with a very good quartet.

The regular monthly meeting of the Froebel Parents-Teachers' club was held Tuesday evening, and the members present were delightfully entertained by the Sorosis society of Hope college, who furnished the following program. Miss Adelaide Borgman, president, presiding. A stringed orchestra, in charge of Natalie Reid, rendered several excellent selections. Aileen De Jong gave two readings, "An Order for a Picture," and "Amanda's Wedding," the first number bringing tears from the listeners and the second laughter. A musical comedy act, by Carol VanHartveldt and Margaret Anderson; vocal trio, Marian Van Vessem, Janet Albers and Willamena Sprick; piano solo, Ardean Van Aren-donk; guitar solo, Elsie Peets; Dutch piano; by Janet Albers and Marian Van Vessem; a one-act play entitled, "Mrs. Kantsey Know," was especially enjoyed. Cast of characters: Mrs. Kantsey-Know, Jeanette Veldman; Mrs. Dowitt Nowe, Ethel Lulidens; Mrs. Makit Wright, Willamena Sprick; Elaine Know, Grace DeWolf; Bea Chumme, Martha Gabbard; Billy Know, Mary Pieters; Benny Know, Edna Cook; Ruthie Know, Hazel Albers; Mrs. Leeser Lee, Anna Meenz; Mrs. Tender Lee, Sara Fredricks. The Sorosis girls also sang several of their college songs, and the entire program was very much enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the parents of the second grade.

ARCHAEOLOGIST GIVES TALK TO THE STUDENTS

Dr. Melvin Grove Kyle, who is in the city under the auspices of the Seminary Lecture Course, spoke to the College students at chapel Wednesday morning. Dr. Kyle is from the Xenia Theological Seminary at St. Louis, Mo. and is easily conceded to be one of the foremost archaeologists of the world.

He spoke Wednesday morning on the necessity of a "serious holy purpose in life," based on Psalm 126:6. He stressed the great need for the sorrow-filled heart if we would ever help other sorrowing hearts. The cares of this world must weigh on us if we are to lift those cares, he said. Dr. Kyle spoke as a friend to friends Wednesday morning rather than dealing with his archaeological disquisitions.

PEOPLES BANK ADDS $50,000 TO CAPITAL

By a unanimous vote the stockholders of the Peoples State Bank on Tuesday afternoon decided to increase the capital stock of that bank from $50,000 to $100,000. There were 496 votes present at the annual business meeting held Tuesday afternoon and every vote was cast in favor of the resolution adopted some time ago at a meeting of the directors and submitted to the stockholders.

By the terms of the resolution adopted Tuesday the sale price of the stock has been placed at $200 per share. The stockholders, in accordance with banking law, will have the privilege of purchasing an equal amount of stock as that now held by them, paying on a basis of two for one, which is the sale price of the new stock. Twenty-five per cent of this stock must be in by Feb. 1st and the balance by Feb. 15th.

Of the new stock subscribed fifty per cent, or $100 of every $200 paid in by the stockholders, will go into the surplus of the bank, also in accordance with state banking law. All the money will be turned into the bank, the law allowing no commissions for the sale of bank stock.

The action of the stockholders of the Peoples State Bank Tuesday puts that institution on an equal footing with the other two banks of the city in the matter of capitalization. A fair capitalization of a bank is on a basis of ten per cent of its deposits. Since the deposits of the Peoples bank are now over the two million mark, a capital and surplus of $200,000 is a fair capital and surplus for a bank of this size.

The history of the Peoples State Bank has been one of consistent growth and prosperity, the institution growing with the increase in the population and prosperity of Holland. Increasing the capitalization was a logical step. It not only gives the institution a new charter lease of 30 years until a year later, and while the 1924 charter still had to run, but it gives the bank the opportunity for continuing consistent growth that the logic of the situation demands.

The Peoples State Bank was organized in September, 1905, and it had among its founders some of the substantial men of Holland of that day. The late Arend Viescher was the first president, and on its board of directors were such men as the late J. H. Kleinheksel, D. B. Yntema, George P. Hummer, and others. Of the original board of directors three are still living: B. D. Keppel, C. J. Lokker, and J. G. Rutgers. The present president of the bank is B. D. Keppel. The other officers are: C. M. McLean, vice-president; John G. Rutgers, cashier; Alex. Van Zanten, Asst. cashier. The present directors are: B. D. Keppel, C. M. McLean, Seth Nibbelink, Raymond Viescher, A. C. Keppel, Henry Winter, John G. Rutgers, C. J. Lokker, E. G. Landwehr.

W. C. T. U. TO GIVE SPECIAL PROGRAM

The W. C. T. U. will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. C. Nettinga, 133 W. 11th St., when the following program will be given in observance of the fifth anniversary of National prohibition:

Devotions, Mrs. P. Ihrman; "What the National Prohibition Law Means to the U. S. To the Children, To Its Economic Life, To Its Social Welfare," in charge of Mrs. H. Books; "The Committee of 1,000 for Law Enforcement," Mrs. C. St. Clair; "The Lillian Stevens Legislative Fund," Mrs. F. T. Miles; "The International Value of Prohibition," Rev. A. Pieters; solo, Miss Cornelia Nettinga. Tea will be served by Miss Jennie Prakken and committee.

"MOSLEM WORLD" IS 14 YEARS OLD

"The Moslem World," a quarterly review edited by Dr. S. M. Zwemer, begins its fifteenth year with the January issue. In this number the editor looking backward, raises the question whether there is still a place for a magazine of this character, which deals exclusively with one section of the great missionary problem and is therefore necessarily technical in its character, appealing to only one class of readers. However, the number is an emphatic answer in the affirmative. At the series of conferences recently held in the Near East under the auspices of the International Council, it was agreed that a forum for common thought and inspiration, such as the "Moslem World" is, is needed now more than ever.

The list of articles is long and important, and there is an extraordinary variety of notes on current topics from every part of the world of Islam. In addition to the usual survey of periodicals by Miss Hols W. Hering, there are 22 pages of book reviews.—Christian Intelligencer.

The kill of buck deer during the 1924 season is reported by official Lansing at 20,000. One wonders where Lansing gets those figures. There is no chance of a census except of those carcasses that cross the straits. So the fact remains that no one knows how many deer were killed in Michigan and we never will know until we adopt a game census similar to that now in effect in New York, Pennsylvania and Minnesota.

POULTRY MEN PLAN FOR BIG YEAR

Plans for the largest poultry exhibition in the history of the Holland Poultry association are already on foot for 1925. Last year the twenty-fifth anniversary of the association fell due, but owing to certain conditions existing in Holland the holding of the celebration was postponed until this year.

In the first place it is stated the celebration calls for a banquet and a souvenir program, a compilation of the history of the local association and the history of poultry raising in Holland not alone, but in Ottawa county as well.

Secretary Brouwer made desperate efforts early in the season last year to get a building in which to hold an exposition such as the twenty-fifth anniversary should be, but try as he did there was no building available at the time and it was not until late in the season that the Masonic Temple was turned over to the association in order that the 1924 show might be held. Consequently the time was all too short to make any elaborate or even the necessary preparations for a celebration and show of this kind. Besides, a suitable place to hold a banquet and enter into the scheme of things, it is said.

However, 1925 offers better prospects for the reason that the large armory will be completed, is well located and is an ideal place to hold the big anniversary show. Warm Friends Tavern will also be ready and it goes without saying that a more suitable place to hold a banquet cannot be found in Holland than the new hotel will prove to be.

Now that the anniversary year has been postponed there will also be plenty of time to compile local poultry history and to get this matter up in such printed form that it may not only be a fine souvenir appropriate to the occasion, but a ready reference book as well.

All these things entered into the postponement of the real anniversary until a year later, and while the 1924 show, with its many new features added, was the best from every standpoint compared with any previous exhibition held, the anniversary year will outstrip anything ever attempted thus far by the Holland Poultry association.

In order to bring this about men of experience must be enlisted into the service. It is hoped that the present administration can be induced to remain, for they have been largely instrumental in making the association what it is today, and were directly responsible for the excellence of the exhibition this year.

Secretary Brouwer has been given to understand that other poultry associations would like to secure his services but members of the local association have repeatedly returned him to the secretaryship because of services well performed and no doubt to do so again this year.

Without question a majority of the officers will be re-elected at the annual meeting to be held in the city on Thursday evening for the reason that it takes experienced men to handle an exhibition such as the anniversary year is supposed to bring about.

The members of the Holland Poultry asso., generally speaking, also feel that those who have in the past served faithfully and efficiently should also play an important part when a celebration, such as the anniversary year will bring, rolls around.

The present officers and directors of the Holland Poultry association are:

Officers—Wm. Wilson, President; Arend Siersma, Vice president; Edward Brouwer, Secretary; Tony Groeneveld, Assistant Secretary; J. J. De Koster, Treasurer.

Directors—D. Derks, Marinus Kole, E. Fischer, P. Havinga, Geo. Tubbergen.

PROF. LUBBERS PICKS HOPE DEBATE-ERS FOR CONTESTS

Prof. Irwin J. Lubbers, coach of debate at Hope, has just announced the men he has picked to represent the Orange and Blue in the Michigan Debating League. The tryouts were held Monday night and very keen competition was the order for that time.

Several weeks have been spent in practice, and keen interest was shown in the preliminary debates.

For the affirmative team, Prof. Lubbers has selected Hoffman and Albers of Allegan and Esenbagners of Muskegon. P. Hesselink will serve as alternate. The negative team is to be represented by Waheke of Holland, D. Yntema and Van Dyke, also of D. Yntema. Bruins of Iowa, was chosen alternate on this squad. Waheke is the only man who has been chosen this year who served last season. He is a strong debater, and has forceful arguments.

On Jan. 28 a team composed of G. Weselink, J. Waheke and D. Yntema, will debate M. A. C. in an open forum debate at Winants chapel.

Annual reports made Tuesday evening by the various organizations of Grace Episcopal church at the annual business meeting showed that this congregation has had an unusually prosperous year. A number of new families have become affiliated with the church the past few months and all the organizations are in a flourishing condition financially and otherwise. The church ended the year with a good balance in the treasury. Reports were made by the Woman's Guild, the St. Agnes Guild, and the church school.

The evening's activities started with a chicken supper prepared by the Ladies Guild and served at six o'clock in the Guild hall. After this the business meeting was held and the following vestry members were elected: O. P. Kramer, W. R. Stevenson, O. Nystrom, A. Ayers, R. Tardiff, John De Vroy, and J. J. McClay. At the meeting of the vestry the following organization of that body was effected: senior warden, O. P. Kramer; junior warden, O. Nystrom; treasurer, W. R. Stevenson; secretary, J. J. McClay.

The Harmony Male quartet of Grand Rapids will give a program of solos, duets, quartets and a reading in the Prospect Park church on Thursday evening, Jan. 16, at 7:15. The entertainment is under the auspices of the Sunday School and the public is invited. There will be no admission fee but a silver collection will be taken for the benefit of missions.

SAYS SOCIAL GOSPEL IS NOT ENOUGH

In an eloquent address before the Ministerial Conference of pastors of the Reformed and Christian Reformed churches of Holland and vicinity held in the 14th street Christian Reformed church, Prof. L. Berkhof of Grand Rapids gave an analysis of "The Social Gospel."

He began by setting forth what is meant by the word "social" as used in this connection. The social gospel, he said, does not believe that all men are sinners and need the blood of atonement and the Spirit of regeneration. The duty of the church, according to the social gospel, is to change society, and to do this it does not need the blood but the life of Christ. It denounces the old-time religion as being selfish because it saves a few or some but not all.

In giving his estimate of the social gospel the professor said: "As it was with all heresies, so it is here. Though the system is fundamentally wrong, it may be productive of some good. Many ideas of the social gospel are all right but they need a different setting. There are Christians who care little for anyone else than themselves. For them evangelical work is secondary. Still their religion is better than that of the proponents of the social gospel. There are others who are much interested in missions and evangelical movements but care little for improvements in the social environment. The preachers should cause the light of the Word to be shed on the various spheres of life. Preaching should be destructive but also constructive. The key to the citadel of the Kingdom of God is found on the inside and the door must be opened from the inside. The social gospel seeks for the key on the outside. The social reformer offers nothing when help is most needed. It gives nothing for the death-bed."

Very wholesome criticism was rendered after the address, especially by Dr. A. Pieters of Hope College, who referred to this socializing of Christianity as "new-fangled stuff" which is changing the character of some of the large benevolent institutions.

The officers of the Ministerial Conference are: President, Rev. J. M. Martin; vice president, Rev. J. C. De Vinney; secretary, Rev. J. C. Schaap.

The most important committee headed by a Wayne representative is labor, with Rep. Charles Barlett at its head.

Representative G. W. Kooyers of Holland was named chairman of the important liquor traffic committee and he received three other committee appointments, thus receiving his share.

He was named a member of the committee on city corporations, fish and fisheries, which committee is extremely important to Holland, and on the committee of state public schools.

The general taxation committee went to Rep. Charles Evans of Lenawee, Rep. Nelson G. Farrier of Presque Isle again heads the ways and means committee. Rep. G. B. Watson of Sapac was made chairman of the judiciary committee.

Other important chairmanships were: Conservation, Rep. Fred R. Ming, Cheboygan; roads and bridges, Rep. Eugene Kirby, Van Buren; state affairs, Rep. Miles Curtis, Calhoun; transportation, Rep. George Roberg, Osceola; insurance, Rep. Marcus Hoyt, Lenawee; agriculture, Rep. John Esple, Clinton.

SPORT NOTES

Kalamazoo, Mich., Jan. 10.—In a game that was more of a football contest than a basketball game the Holland High quintet was defeated by the Normal High 25-15 Friday night.

The game started with a rush. Holland's midgets gamely starting their uphill fight. The heavy Normal team did not let up on their grind until they started to tire in the last quarter when Holland garnered several shots.

The Holland Shoe court team suffered a reverse Saturday night when the Cornel Roamers of Chicago took the long end of a 24-16 decision.

The local five played hard and fast basketball but the visitors were superior in all departments and showed the class that stamps them as one of the best amateur teams of Chicago.

The South Bend Y team led by Mr. Mike Nyikos formerly of Indiana University defeated the Warm Friends five Saturday night by a 25-30 margin. Nyikos was high point man in the Big Ten conference last year and he displayed to the locals how he came home by this title.

The big star was ably assisted by his team-mates who are all former Notre Dame players. Saturday's game was one of the best ever seen on the local floor as the Furnace team played high class basketball and was only defeated because of exceptional shooting.

Taking a commanding lead in the first half and never being headed the Hope quintet turned in a 41-23 victory over Manchester college Friday night. Riemersma parried the meshes for the first duo, and Winger tied the count with two free throws. Two field goals by Yonkman and one by Irving gave Hope eight points. Bryan and Byerly contributed a free throw apiece and baskets by Riemersma, Irving and Van Lente ran Hope's total to fourteen. By means of fouls and field goal by Bryan, Winger and Byerly put the visitor's total up to eleven.

Van Lente, Albers and Kleis finished Hope's scoring for the half with a field goal apiece, while Byerly added a duo for Manchester's 13 points. Halftime score was in Hope's favor 20-18.

McCann, Byerly, Yonkman counted fields goals to open the second half and Bryan put the visitors within one point of Hope 22-21. Yonkman added a free throw and Bryan knotted the score 23 all. Ottoboy broke the tie with a pretty shot, and Van Lente quickly added two close in baskets. Byerly counted a two-pointer and field goals by Ottoboy, Yonkman, Kleis and Poppen brot Hope's count to 27. McCann counted the last goal for the Hoosiers, and Poppen and Albers closed the scoring with baskets.

Final score was 41-23 with the Orange and Blue in the lead.

Friday night will see two great rival teams in action at Grand Haven as Hinga is billed to take his midget quintet to the county-seat for the annual setto. The local players and coach are saying very little about their chances in the game but the same spirit of fight that was so prevalent before and in the gridiron struggle with Grand Haven again prevails and every preparation is being made so that the lads will be in fine shape for the tussle. Coars has a strong team and their recent victories have convinced the locals that they will have a real battle on their hands Friday night. From all available dope the teams are about an even match as they each earned a victory over Greenville by practically the same score. Grand Haven played the strong G. R. South team to a standstill and was only defeated by luck in the last few minutes of play. Holland's victory over Muskegon was a great feat but their showing against Kazoo Normal last Friday night was far from pleasing. Japjappa was the only Maroon and Orange performer who looked good and he is the smallest player undoubtedly carrying in state high school circles this year. Hinga's greatest problem now is to add a few larger performers to the squad as the small men were completely out of the running against the big Normal High stars. Holland also was woefully weak at dropping the ball thru the loop but Tommy Van Zanten was absent from the lineup and he is the highest scorer for the locals so far this season. Kuiper and Frakken are being tried out and if places could be found for these lads the team would be greatly strengthened as they are both large and powerful. Coach Chapman will take his reserves over to Grand Haven and they will play in the prelim. Every year a large crowd follows the team over to the big game and the usual band of rooters are again planning to back their team to the limit. The game will be played in the High school gym. Holland plays at Allegan on Saturday night.
