B. Riksen has been allowed $1,000 on the graveling contract on Columbia avenue, Twenty-second and State streets. The sum of $651 still remains unpaid.

Night officer Samuel Leonard resigned his position as night police Friday and Simon Meeuwsen was appointed in his place. Leonard has accepted a position as deputy sheriff.

Joseph Rock, who has been engaged in the lumber business with E. Takkon for the past five months, has returned to his former home in Muskegon.

Joseph Borgman, who has been confined to his bed for several months owing to a fall from a pole while working for the Citizens Telephone Co., is able to drive around the city.

The Eagle Hose Co. No. 1 reports the resignation of Ray Knoll and the election of John Veldier, which will undoubtedly be accepted by the committee on fire department.

Mr. H. H. Pope was in Holland last week to attend a meeting of the Waverly Stone Company. Officers were elected and are the same as last year. They are H. H. Pope, of Allegan, president; L. Kanitz, of Muskegon, vice-president; and W. J. Garrod, of Holland, secretary and treasurer.—Allegan Gazette.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Walker have sold their block on Hubbard street to Mr. A. H. Meyer, of Holland, who will move his music store from the Franks building to his new property. Mr. and Mrs. Walker will sell their stock of second-hand goods at auction and expect to go west in a few months.—Allegan Gazette.

C. E. Woodruff of Hamilton has a dwarf bull that is quite a curiosity in his way. The animal is three years old, but is only 34 inches high 64 inches long; and weighs but 550 pounds. Yet he is well formed and really handsome and perfectly healthy animal and was always so. He is of good mixed blood, too, his sire having been a good sized animal, half Jersey and half Shorthorn, while his dam was a large Shorthorn cow. Mr. Woodruff has been offered considerable sums for the animal by showmen, but means to see what quality he will develop as a breeder.

The board of education of the Park school, south of Jenison Park and the patrons of the district are divided over the proposition of enlarging the present schoolhouse. As a result of the crowded quarters the school is closed and the board is advertising for a teacher. Since the opening of the term two teachers have resigned their positions, maintaining that they are unable to successfully teach 60 pupils of all grades in one room and that two teachers are necessary. The members of the board are not in harmony with their ideas and may be compelled to act in the capacity of instructors themselves.

Chas. P. Peterson has sold to Metropolitan Church Association fifty acres of Section 22, Laketown, $1 and other valuable consideration.

Captain Upham, who sailed the little steamer Apollo between Grand Haven and Saugatuck last fall in the fruit trade, is going into the bakery business at Saugatuck and he went through here Friday with a horse and wagon from Chicago, which he will use in his new business.—G. H. Tribune.

The Holland Shoe factory is one of the busiest places in the city and in some of the departments the employees are working on a 12-hour schedule. The company is turning out over 1,000 pairs of shoes daily and enough orders are booked to warrant a three-month's run. Over 200 hands are employed, of which 35 are girls, and the company is greatly handicapped in being unable to secure experienced help.

Macatawa Park presents an unusual scene of activity for a winter season. Building operations are being pushed on an advanced scale and the woods are being cleared from fallen timbers. During the recent severe storm a large number of trees were blown down, which are being used partly for the pile foundation for the mammoth new boat livery in course of construction and partly being converted into lumber to be used in the building of sidewalks and other improvements.

The board of supervisors on their visit to the County Normal class Friday were shown over the new Central school building. It was the first time many of them had seen the new building and the members were very well pleased with it. Many of them were particularly attracted by the convenience of the rooms and the excellent general arrangement of the interior and freely expressed the opinion that it was the finest school building in the county.—G. H. Tribune.

John J. Rutgers and family of Grand Haven had intended spending the greater part of the winter in Baldwin county, Alabama, where Mr. Rutgers is interested in real estate. On account of the illness of little Russell Rutgers, however, they have been unable to get away as soon as expected. The child is recovering as rapidly as could be expected, however, and the family will no doubt be able to spend the spring at least in the south.

The committee of the board of education appointed to investigate manual training features with the view of starting certain departments of the work in the city schools, is working, although it is not ready to report. Superintendent Bishop and B. Stekette have visited Grand Rapids and investigated the work there. Dr. J. A. Mabbs, the third member of the committee, while recently in Louisville, Ky., visited the manual training high school and inspected the work done there. He was favorably impressed with the value of this department of school work, but the work as carried on there is not adapted to the needs of the Holland schools, where it is only desired to introduce the work in the lower grades.

"Olmstead is a paroled inmate of the Industrial school of Lansing, and lives at Watervliet. He is 13 years old. The conductor of the freight took him in charge and turned him over to Officer Koeman upon the arrival of the train here. The Berrien County agent was notified.

Mr. Melvin Dempsey, of Alaska, who was in Allegan several years ago, visited the town again this week, having relatives here and in Cheshire. Mr. Dempsey is a Cherokee Indian and withal quite a remarkable man. He has been rich and poor by turns in his gold mining operations, and just now is what is commonly deemed the happiest condition of the two, having recently discovered valuable deposits of gold and copper, and he is forming a company to develop them. He had with him a gold nugget worth $150. Mr. Dempsey is a Christian philanthropist and does much good work along Christian Endeavor and church lines among both miners and natives.

Marine News.

General Manager J. Stanley Morton of the Graham & Morton Co., has announced that service on the Holland division, between Holland and Macatawa Park and Chicago, will be resumed early in March, owing to the open winter. The ice packs have not accumulated to any extent and the winter will probably not bring ice sufficient to delay the plan of an early opening of transportation out of Holland. Last year transportation was opened by the G. & M. line in March.

Of especial interest is the announcement by Mr. Morton that the Macatawa pier will this year be used for the transfer of freight to the cars of the Holland interurban. This has never before been done and means a big saving in time and will result in far earlier arrival of freight and express matter shipped via the G. & M. and Holland interurban to Grand Rapids and points between Holland and Grand Rapids.

J. Stanley Morton, for many years treasurer and manager of the Graham & Morton Transportation Co. was elected president of the company, the office left vacant by the death of J. H. Graham. Mr. Morton was also continued in the office of treasurer.

Mrs. J. H. Graham was elected secretary, and Will H. Morton, son of J. S. Morton, was made assistant to the president. Adolph Reichle, for many years an employee in the local office, was made auditor and assistant treasurer.

It was decided to abandon the Lake Superior route, and hereafter all the interests of the company will be centered on the St. Joseph-Chicago and Holland-Chicago lines, which will be developed in every possible way.

Change of Date.

From Thursday, January 31, to Wednesday, January 30.

The Lulu Tyler Gates Company is the next number of the Hope College Lecture Course, and will occur on Wednesday evening, January 30, instead of Thursday, January 31, in Winants Chapel. This change is made on account of Thursday being Day of Prayer for colleges. The Gates company is composed of Lulu Tyler Gates, reader; Edith Adams, violinist; Graham Smith, basso cantante, and William Erhart Snyder, pianist. The press all over the country is praising the merits of the company as entertainers, and the marvelous success of the concert party is due to the excellent talent of its members.

East Saugatuck.

The members of the Christian Reformed church are very much interested in the prospective purchase of a pipe organ and will not be satisfied with one costing less than $1,500, and it is hoped that enough can be raised to buy even a better one. Besides trying to get money for an organ, $800 is wanted for a new ceiling and walls and to do some repair work the steeple, besides another $800 for new seats. If all who should contribute to this cause do their duty, there is no doubt but that enough money will be raised.

The condition of our telephone line is being improved steadily till now there is 16 miles of wire on the line and 38 subscribers. At first all the phones were on one wire but now another wire has been put in which greatly improves the service. At a recent meeting of the directors a committee composed of A. Kok, Simon Hellenthal and Albert Klomparsen were appointed to confer with the Citizens telephone managers in order to make arrangements for free connection with Holland if possible.

Graafschap.

Arthur, the infant son of Fred Feyen, has been under the doctor's care this week.

January 3, Julius, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ortman, became a victim of pneumonia and was laid to rest in the Graafschap cemetery. He was their oldest son and although so very young, had won the hearts of many who crowded the house to pay their last respects to the departed on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, where Rev. Manni had charge of the services. Now the four months old baby of these already bereaved parents is dead, having breathed its last Wednesday evening, being a victim of whooping cough and brain fever. The funeral was held Saturday at 11 o'clock a. m. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ortman sympathize with them in their bereavement.

Laketown.

C. P. Peterson of Gibson has transferred his Laketown farm to the Metropolitan Church Association, formerly of Chicago, but which now has its headquarters in Waukesha, Wis., where the society has purchased a safe hotel in which to conduct its school which is an institution for training students for religious work. Mr. Peterson will leave soon for Waukesha, where he will study in the school and may possibly preach when he has finished his course. He is well acquainted with the workings of this organization and he is sure he will be satisfied with the deal. A man by the name of Whipple will probably take charge of the farm for its new owners.

An Aged Physician.

After Years of Experience Gives the Following Advice.

"If you have anything to do with medicines at all be pretty sure you know what you are taking."

Our local druggists, Con De Pree & Co., say this is a strong point in favor of their valuable cod liver preparation, Vinol. Everything it contains is plainly printed on the label, therefore it is not a patent medicine.

Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but with the useless, nauseating oil eliminated and tonic iron, which is a useful constituent for the blood, added.

This is the reason that Vinol accomplishes such wonderful results in curing chronic coughs, colds, bronchial and lung troubles, and there is nothing known to medicine that will so quickly build up the run down, overworked, tired and debilitated, or give strength and renewed vitality to the aged, as Vinol.

We can only ask every person in Holland who needs such a medicine to try Vinol on our offer to return their money if it fails." Con De Pree & Co., Druggists.

NOTE.—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Holland, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

Nervous Worn-Out

If you are in this condition, your nerve force is weak—the power is giving out, the organs of your body have "slowed up," and do their work imperfectly. This failure to do the work required, clogs the system and brings distress and disease. When the nerves are weak the heart is unable to force the life-giving blood through your veins; the stomach fails to digest food; the kidneys lack power to filter impurities from the blood, and the poisonous waste remains in the system to breed disease. Nerve energy must be restored. Dr. Miles' Nervine will do it, because it strengthens the nerves; it is a nerve medicine and tonic, that rebuilds the entire nervous system.

"Several years ago I was all broken down. I was nervous, worn-out, could not sleep, and was in constant pain. I doctored for months, and finally the doctor said he could do nothing for me. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and used altogether eight bottles, and I became strong and healthy, and now weigh 170 pounds."

THE COAT ON THE ARM.

Showing Importance of Making a "Front" in New York.

It is better to put on a stiff front and keep a stiff upper lip in this town than to have no front at all and bite your lip. It is not always the man who strolls down Broadway wearing a bland smile with a faded "mum" on the lapel of his coat and with his overcoat carelessly swung across his arm who dines at Del's or who owns a seat on "change or who goes to Europe every year to buy pictures for his gallery. Sometimes a smile covers an empty stomach and an aching heart on the Great White Way. Through the midway of the great commercial artery between Herald Square and Longacre there stroll every day scores of men who carry their overcoats over one arm, regardless of temperature, simply because their "bennies" do not fit. The other day a portly chap who held a good place last season with a theatrical company strolled down Broadway. "Better slip on your coat," said a friend. "It's pretty cold, old man." "Oh, no; me boy," was the reply; "I'm not afraid of pneumonia. Besides," and his voice took on a confidential tone, "don't you see me boy, I've outgrown this coat by 40 pounds and could not get into it with a shoe horn. I can't afford a new one, but I don't like to have it thought that I don't own a coat, you know. My suit, you see, will stand scrutiny, so I wear a chest protector, and everybody thinks I'm so hardy. It's a great scheme." Then he swung off up Broadway, a picture of mystery.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

ALASKA'S GREAT FISH RIVER.

Nushagak the Basis of Important Canning Industry.

How many readers ever heard of the Nushagak river, asks the Youths Companion. Not many. It is safe to say. Yet the department of commerce and labor pronounces this river of western Alaska "one of the important fishing streams of the world." The fish which the Nushagak furnishes is salmon, the taking, canning, freezing and salting of which is an Alaskan industry, the importance of which is shown by a recent report issued by the department of commerce and labor. The first two canneries were built in 1878. Since then the number has increased until in 1902 there were 64 establishments, which put up more than 2,500,000 cases. Low prices since then have somewhat reduced both the number of canneries and the output; nevertheless, since canning began in Alaska, nearly 22,000,000 cases have been sent out. In order to provide some counterpoise to this tremendous drain the packers combined to start hatcheries. These have been carried on with important results and increasing success. In 1905 the United States bureau of fisheries took up the work, in addition to what had been done by the packers. There are now nine hatcheries, from which about 450,000,000 fry have been liberated.

Valuable Chairs.

The value of chairs is strictly relative. Enormous prices have been paid for chairs in recent years, notably the $100,000 for a set of half a dozen Louis XIV. chairs upholstered in Gobelin tapestry, originally made for Marie Antoinette. Even this price, however, was exceeded by sums paid for three of the Hamilton palace chairs, one of which brought $3,000. A most valuable and historical interesting suite of furniture is that which, more than a century ago, was presented by Warren Hastings to Tipu Sahib, and which was purchased at the Lonsborough sale for $5,000. The suite consisted of a card table and sofa, two small cabinets and four arm-chairs, all of solid ivory most exquisitely carved. But probably the most costly chair in the world is one of the treasures of the shah of Persia. It is of solid gold, thickly encrusted with diamonds, rubies, pearls and sapphires. Its value is estimated to be $2,500,000.

Hit Back.

Walking along a road in the remote west of Ireland, two tourists were passing one of the cottages, or, as they are better known in the country, "cabins," of the peasantry. This particular "cabin" was even a more than usually dilapidated specimen of its class, and the chimney, consisting mainly of the remains of an old top hat, presented a comical, if pathetic, appearance.

Tipping his friend a wink, one of the tourists accosted a youth who was sitting contentedly on a fence.

"I say my boy," he said, "does that chimney draw well?"

"Shure, thin, it does," was the prompt reply; "it draws the notice o' iverly foot that passes by!"

Not the New England Variety.

"O! they're real swell people," said the Chicago man; "an old 'Mayflower' family, I believe."

"You mean their ancestors came over in the Mayflower?" asked the visitor from the East.

"O! no. I mean they made their money in 'Mayflower Hams,' oldest brand o' hams in this section."

Succeeded.

Bacon—You say Grafton is a successful man?

Egbert—He certainly is.

Bacon—But I understand his business methods are questionable; why then call him a successful man?

Egbert—Because he's kept out of jail so far.

Why Farmer Should Give His Support to the Local Merchant.

PRESERVES HIS OWN MARKET

Depreciation of Village Property Must Inevitably Mean Depreciation of Agricultural Property and Encouragement of Monopoly.

(Copyright, 1906, by Alfred C. Clark.)

The most serious problem that confronts the rural towns and villages of this country is the competition of the local enterprises by the catalogue houses of the large cities. It is a problem for which a solution must be found if the prosperity and stability of the nation is to stand.

And the solution of this great problem lies in the hands of the people of the towns and villages and the farms, especially the farms.

The people of the rural communities have everything to lose and nothing to gain by sending their money to the catalogue houses, by passing by their local merchants and sending their dollars to the concerns who have absolutely no interest in their communities.

These catalogue houses do not pay taxes in your town; the local merchant does. They do not build sidewalks in your town; the local merchant does. They do not contribute to the building of roads over which the crops of the farms are hauled to market; the local merchant does.

In disposing of that he is absolutely dependent upon his local merchant, and by his patronage of the catalogue houses he has killed competition, and must now take whatever is offered for what he has to sell.

Mr. Farmer, are you helping to kill the goose that is laying your golden egg?

Are you sending your dollars to the catalogue houses and by so doing killing the local industries of your town?

Are you putting your merchants out of business, and creating a monopoly that will pay you what it pleases for the products of your farm?

If you are doing these things it is time for you to stop and consider the future. You will have to look but a little way ahead to see the result, and it will not be an attractive picture that greets you. The prosperous community of which you are now a part will fade like the summer flowers before the winter winds, and almost as quickly.

It is the fact that there is a market within close proximity to your farm that makes your acres valuable. The men who maintain this local market for you are the men who cause the railroad trains to stop at your town. Take them away and soon the town will be wiped off the map. The churches will close for lack of support. The schools will cease to be a pride, and your sons and daughters will lack the opportunity that is theirs by right of birth, and your acres, that are now valuable because they lie in close proximity to a market, will show a depreciation that will astonish you.

Your interests are identical with those of the merchants of your town. By sending your dollars to the city you may cause the merchants to close their establishments, but when they are forced to this they can pack their

Give your town a chance by patronizing your local merchants and you may confidently expect its growth in business and population and a raise in real estate valuation. Send your money to the catalogue houses and you may look for the reverse. The picture tells the story of the possibilities.

They do not help to build school houses for your children; the local merchant does. They do not assist in the support of your churches; the local merchant does.

But there are some things the catalogue houses do for you and the first and greatest of these is to assist materially in bankrupting your community. The dollars they take away never come back to you. They will never help to make a city of your village. They will never increase the value of your real-estate holdings by making local improvements.

Let us look at the subject from the standpoint of the farmer, for it is the farmer who is the greatest patron of the catalogue houses.

The town or village one, two or three miles from his home is his market for the butter and eggs and other produce of his farm. The half dozen or more merchants of the town, each anxious to obtain his full share of the business of the community, maintain a competition that affords to the farmer at all times top prices for the products of his farm. It is these half dozen merchants that make farm profits possible; the profits are in no way due to the catalogue houses of the cities.

But the farmer persists in sending his dollars to the city. He wants a buggy, or a set of harness, or a pair of stockings, or any of the necessities or luxuries of life, and to get them he takes out his mail order catalogue and looks at the finely printed cuts, reads the well written description, and, passing the local merchant by, the merchant who has purchased his produce at the best market prices, the merchant who has helped to build the community, he sends his dollars to the catalogue house in the city and takes what they choose to send him.

What is the result?

One after another the doors of the local stores are closed, and where at one time there were half a dozen merchants, each bidding for his share of patronage by offering fair prices for that which the farmer had to sell, there is now but one merchant who has a monopoly, not only of the selling, but of the buying as well, and he pays what he pleases for the farmer's produce.

The farmer can continue to send his money to the catalogue house in the city for his supplies, but he cannot send his produce to the same place.

stock of goods and go elsewhere, but you cannot pack up your farm and move it; your acres must lie in the bed you have builded for them whether it be fair or foul, and it is "up to you," Mr. Farmer, to spend your money at home, and in this way you can solve the greatest problem that now confronts this country.

Will you do it?

YANKEE IN DIAMOND FIELDS.

Commissions to Study a Country Which Produces Such Men.

Mr. Alfred Mosely is an Englishman who admires American ways so much that he sends commissions here to study us.

Mr. Mosely does not admire us without a reason. It is not a very specific reason. Its name is Mr. Gardner F. Williams, and it is by way of being an American mining engineer, Mr. Williams directs the diamond output of the world.

Mr. Mosely made his fortune in South Africa. He watched Cecil Rhodes' dream of empire develop and knew the men who made it real. The one who took his imagination was Gardner Williams.

Here was a man who had left Michigan at the age of 15 to go with a pioneering father to California in the flush days of the early mining camps, had had a taste of California mining, had gone when still a young man to explore in South Africa and had become a general manager of the great monopoly of the diamond mines.

A fighter of financial battles and a manager of men, a writer, a scientist and one of the world's greatest engineers, he so stamped his personality on the people among whom he lived that he was feted and cheered by all South Africa when he retired last spring and came back to the United States to build a home for his leisure years in the land of his birth.—World's Work.

Keep Your Money at Home.

Don't send money to mail order houses to deposit. Your home bank is the only safe place to keep it and will pay you as good interest as can be had, and then you run no risk as in such cases as the "Cash Buyer's Union" failure. The home bank will grant you favors and mail order houses never do.

BIG FOUR TRAIN BLOWN TO PIECES

CAR OF POWDER EXPLODES AND TWENTY-EIGHT PERSONS ARE KILLED.

Horrible Accident at Sandford, Ind.—Victims Torn to Bits or Cremated in the Wreckage—Thirteen Perish in Collision at Fowler.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 21.—Twenty-eight charred, broken and mutilated bodies have been taken from the smoldering ruins of the passenger train No. 3 on the Big Four railroad which was destroyed by the explosion of a car-load of powder as it passed a freight train at Sandford, Ind., nine miles west of here, Saturday night. The number of injured will total at least 35.

The cause of the disaster has not been fully explained. The result was terrible. The shock was felt for 20 miles, many believing it an earthquake.

Entire Train Destroyed.

The three coaches of the passenger train were filled. The entire train, including the engine, was blown from the track, the coaches demolished, the engine hurled 50 feet and the passengers either blown to pieces, consumed by fire or rescued in a more or less injured condition.

At least 30 injured, some fatally, are at the hospitals in Terre Haute and Paris, Ill. Several are also being cared for at Sandford.

The full extent of the disaster was revealed at daylight Sunday morning, but the death list will not be complete until the workmen now clearing the debris, have finished their task.

The dead, so far as known, are: William Thompson, Sandford, Ind.; J. W. Southernland, Paris, Ill.; John Franklin, Mattoon, Ill. (brakeman on No. 3); A. D. Hector, farmer, address unknown; Charles Gosnell, Paris, Ill.; Noah Wolfe, Sandford, Ind.; A. A. Pinks, Sandford, Ind.; Frank Fielder, Bellefontaine, O.; John A. Bowen, Ashmore, Ill.; Mrs. Josiah Wolfe, Sandford, Ind., and her two children; J. W. Southcott, express clerk; A. Kuykendall, fireman, Peoria division, Vandalia, Ind.; Clark Steele, Sandford, Ind.; Paul Klever, Indianapolis, Ind.; James Fenton, Sandford, Ind.; J. W. S. Miller, Sandford, Ind.; ten unidentified bodies.

Missing and believed to have been burned to death: Mrs. Bud Wolfe, Sandford, Ind.; two daughters of Mrs. Wolfe, aged eight and six years, respectively.

Theories of the Cause.

According to trainmen of the freight, the explosion of the powder was caused by the concussion made by the passing passenger train, which was slowing down for the station at Sandford. Another theory is that gas escaping from an oil pipe line nearby entered the car containing the powder and a spark from the passing engine ignited the gas.

The belief was expressed by one or two persons that the disaster was due to the act of a tramp or an intoxicated man who may have fired a shot into the car.

Not a home in Sandford escaped. Windows were shattered, dishes and furniture broken, and in some instances doors were torn from their hinges.

The train was an accommodation passenger, running from Indianapolis to Mattoon, Ill., and was destroyed at 8:50 p. m. It was a dark night and heavy rains had converted the streets and tracks at Sandford into a sea of mud and water. As the passenger engine went by the powder car of the freight train standing on an adjoining track the explosion came.

Noble Work of Citizens.

By the light of the burning coaches the people of Sandford did their best for the injured. The residents of the village threw open their homes to the injured and worked heroically all night.

Under the wreckage of the baggage car was found the trunk of a man which had lost all human form. The only means of identification were a linenman's belt and tools about the waist. Four frightfully mutilated bodies were found in the woods several hundred feet from the tracks.

Engineer Welch and Fireman Jarred of Mattoon, Ill., who were in charge of the engine on the passenger train, were thrown into the air, hurled a distance of nearly 100 feet and fell in a muddy field.

The wreckage was cleared up Sunday evening and traffic was resumed over the road.

Thirteen Killed at Fowler.

Fowler, Ind., Jan. 21.—A most horrible railroad wreck occurred on the Big Four railway a quarter of a mile east of this station at 2:15 Saturday morning. Queen City special No. 38, which left Chicago at 11:30 Friday night, going at the speed of 50 miles an hour, crashed head-on into a west-bound freight and at least 13 lives were sacrificed. The tender of No. 38 in front of the day combination coach crashed into it and reduced it to splinters. The coach caught fire and a high wind from the southwest fanned the flames. Inside of half an hour many bodies were cremated.

Three Trainmen Killed.

Desoto, Kan., Jan. 21.—The locomotive drawing eastbound Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe train No. 36 exploded on a bridge near here Saturday. The engineer, fireman and brakeman were killed.

Legitimate Economy, the Watchword.

It will be well for the present legislature to keep the fact in mind that state expenditures formed an important part of the discussion relative to state affairs throughout the last state campaign, and that fact may or may not have had to do with the lessening of republican majorities in a number of legislative districts. The state is developing and growing in every direction and public expenditures will necessarily increase, but that there is some point between the ambitious requests of state institution managers and a hurtful degree of economy, which can be and should be arrived at, is probably true. The people of Michigan have no wish to be penurious or to curtail expenditures in directions of real need and value, but it will not be denied that state expenses have very greatly increased through recent years and it will undoubtedly be pleasing to all concerned if the proportion of such increases shall be lessened this year so far as possible.

Not Confined to One Class.

The official statement made by the state banking commissioner, that there are 784,189 persons in Michigan possessed of bank deposits, more than one for every four people in the state, is quite as surprising as it is pleasing. Whatever may be true of other states and other sections of the union it is quite evident that prosperity in Michigan is not limited to any single class or any limited occupations. More than three-fourths of a million bank depositors form an army of hopeful, active expectant people that well explains our state's present and recent onward movements in all industrial directions.

Hold Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance company was held at Allegan Thursday at the opera house. The attendance was good and 160 votes were cast. The report of Secretary Hicks showed a membership of 3,838, just the same as a year ago, the increases and losses balancing. The amount of property at risk is $5,867,796, a substantial increase. The company's resources are $1,277,61, of which $377.68 is cash on hand. The liabilities are $540.50 for losses not matured. The receipts were $22,806.83 from all sources, of which $12,581.72 came from assessments and $7,605.78 from loans. Losses paid were $12,263.25, loans $7,605.78, interest $209.33. Fifty-six losses were sustained.

Mr. Hicks was re-elected secretary by a vote of 146 to 14 for C. L. Barrett, some of whose friends had urged him to enter the race. W. H. McCormick of Fennville, Frederick Schrader of Leighton, and Luke Lugers of Holland were re-elected directors. To take the place of H. C. Tuttle, deceased, the other Ottawa county directors were authorized to select a man, report his name to the president and secretary, who have power to appoint him to the vacancy.

This showing is the best financially in several years.

The Lulu Tyler Gates Company will appear in Winants Chapel on Wednesday evening, January 30, instead of on Thursday, January 31, as is printed on the course tickets. The regular date interfered with the Day of Prayer for Colleges, and that is the reason for the change.

Circuit Court.

There was an unexpected change in the Link case in circuit court Thursday afternoon when Judge Padgham ordered the jury to consider the charge of assault and battery in deliberating upon the case.

During the afternoon W. I. Lillie made the usual motion to take the case from the jury arguing that there was nothing in the testimony to show an intent to kill in Link's assault upon Detective Kennedy. The court did not care to take the case entirely out of the jury's hands, however, and he ordered them to consider the case under the lesser charge of assault and battery.

The arguments for the defense were begun Friday morning and every possible doubtful point was brought out and dwelt upon by the attorneys for the defendants. They placed special stress upon the point that Frank Kennedy had in reality assaulted Link, rushing upon the Wright farmer and with a pair of handcuffs. The defense claimed also that Kennedy had drawn the revolver and began firing at Link when he resisted.

Acting Prosecuting Attorney Pagelsen made a stiff plea for conviction and the jury got the case at about eleven o'clock. The jury took only twelve minutes to settle the matter and they brought in a verdict of guilty. Fitch D. Cooper of Crookery acted as foreman.

The quick action of the jury was rather a surprise to those who had followed the case from the start and while they had not expected a long drawn out discussion in the jury room, they supposed that it would take more than twelve minutes to do the business. There were many also, who believed that Link would be acquitted.

The case of the Berkey & Gay Furniture Company vs. Wm. J. Hoople was tried Thursday and the jury brought in a verdict for $140 in favor of the plaintiff. The amount of the judgement was the amount of damages found by the jury to be due the plaintiff on account of the defendants failure to supply material as contracted. The matter was transferred from Kent county and the plaintiff was represented by Charles B. Blair. Hyde, Earle & Thornton represented the defendant.

Thursday morning Frank Madder, charged with bringing liquor into the jail for prisoners, changed his plea of not guilty to guilty. Madder and Fred Minuth are held on the same charge.

In circuit court Thursday afternoon Cornelius Vander Veere, charged with the illegal sale of liquor at the Berlin fair was fined $15 and costs, amounting to $63.41 with an alternative of 60 days in jail. He paid his fine. Fred R. Minuth and Frank Madder were called for sentence and their appearance created no end of amusement in the court. The expressions of the two men in explaining the situation at the jail were indeed dramatic and it was brought out that the whiskey was given them by a local saloon keeper to give to the sheriff for Jacob Heisterkamp who was confined to the jail, Madder claimed in court that he wanted to keep the whiskey himself but that Minuth insisted on taking it to the jail. They were sentenced to jail for thirty days. Both of them took the sentence rather hard and Minuth wanted to pay a fine but the court informed him that the county had too much money now.

The jury in the case of the Nance Stove Company vs the American Brass Novelty Company brought in a verdict $497.20 over and above all costs and charges, in favor of the plaintiff in circuit court Tuesday afternoon. Suit brought by the plaintiff against the local concern to recover the amounts claimed to be due from a car of scrap steel shipped to the Novelty Company. The defendant company claimed that the steel was not of the grade ordered. W. I. Lillie and Louis H. Osterhouse represented the plaintiff and George A. Farr was the defendant's attorney.

The Damage case of Native Consineau vs the Muskegon Traction Co. upon which the jury disagreed at the October session has gone over to the March term.

The circuit court is still busy with minor civil matters which probably will take up the remainder of the week.

Supervisor Aiken Set Off Some Red Fire.

From Grand Haven Tribune.

The board of supervisors closed the January session at 11:30 Saturday and although the records will not fully show it, it has been one of the most sensational sessions held in a long time. Supervisors Nies, who came from Holland as a substitute for Mayor Van Putten, started things going by attempting to slam through a resolution calling for an investigation of the alleged irregularities of the sheriff's office. This was repeated nearly every day.

Each time his seed fell upon barren soil however, and he was severely sat upon the board. He did not succeed in getting the reform movement on record as each time the whole matter was expunged. He let up on the matter, however, but he had something else at Saturday's session. The morning session was not entirely stormy, but it was interesting, to say the least.

The morning was devoted principally to cleaning up matters, but the matter of the sheriff's salary was left in a very indefinite position. According to the committee's report, the matter is left just as it was two years ago. The old bill which was sent to the legislature in 1905, asking to place the sheriff on a salary, was dug up and substituted for the sheriff's proposition. It was decided to present this bill to the legislature again, but even if this is passed it will not go into effect until Sheriff Woodbury's term has expired. Therefore Sheriff Woodbury will have to continue on the fee system and take the jabs on the hobo question.

The bloodhound question also died quietly and the board could not agree upon the proposition made by the breeder and dog business went to the bad. There will be no dogs for Ottawa county this year.

The fun came at the tag end of the meeting when the excusing of Supervisor Pelgrim brought forth the matter of excusing absent members.

Supervisor Nies introduced a resolution objecting to supervisors drawing pay for days they were not present at the board meeting. It called for an expression of the board against the practice. He moved the adoption of the resolution but Supervisor Van Duren objected and declared that this board could not govern the action of other boards and Chairman Averill decided the matter was not a proper one and regarded Mr. Van Duren's point as well taken.

Right here George W. Aiken made the hit of the day. He arose, and with a copy of Friday's Holland paper in his hand, he dug the prod deep under somebody's skin. The newspaper article roasted the board on the excuse business and practically called the board a body of grafters. Mr. Aiken regarded the article as a personal assault upon the board and resented it. He declared that it was poor grace for such an article to come from Holland when if the records were referred to, it would be seen that Mayor Van Putten had attended but three days in the October session but had received pay for all the days. He concluded with the old, old skunk story and it was some minutes before the chairman could restore order.

The board adopted the pay roll and adjourned in perfect harmony.

Biographical Sketch.

For the Holland City News.

A lonely farm house half way up the side of a Canadian hill lay deep under the snows of midwinter. In the village church at the foot of the hill, busy hands were twining the Christmas wreaths. And it was almost time for the Christmas chimes when a baby girl came to bless the home circle in the farm house. There was quite a band of brothers and sisters to welcome her, and the little Anna soon won her own sweet place among them. She was a fair and bonnie child from the first, and no doubt laid the foundation for her splendid health by these early years on the farm.

This home, although a humble one, was not without its culture and refinement. Her father, John Coatsworth, was a man of good education, and during the long winter evenings, he gathered his flock of nine children about him, and read aloud to them from Cooper and the older classics, not forgetting the book of Common Prayer, which became so familiar to Anna that she could repeat much of it from memory. Thus, was early formed in the children's minds a taste for the best literature. So childhood passed.

At the Dunham Academy in her native village, Anna fitted herself for the work of a teacher. When she was ready to begin this work, an older brother who had moved to "the states," invited her to become an inmate of his home, assuring her that she could do much better in her chosen work there than in Canada. She decided to accept his invitation, and came to Mason, in this state, where she taught school for several years. It was here that she met Henry D. Post to whom she was married on the first day of May, 1848.

Hearing of Dr. Van Raalte, and the colony which he had founded in the western wilds of Michigan, the young people were led to cast in their lot with these people, the Hollanders. Long and difficult was the journey in those days. They went from Allegan to the now buried village of Singapore by horse. Here they were obliged to wait several days for a storm on Lake Michigan to subside. They then came in an open row boat from the mouth of the Kalamazoo river to the head of Black Lake. When the young bride stepped from the boat, she left the first print of an American woman's foot upon the shore. Among the forest trees, a few log and frame buildings marked the beginning of Holland.

A modest structure served as a general store, and home as well. In this store the first postoffice was established with Mr. Post as post master, and his wife as his assistant. From this time on, they were both closely identified with the progress of the community. The first Christmas tree ever in Holland was set up at their home, and nearly the whole population of the village gathered about it and shared its fruits. Many and interesting are the tales which Mrs. Post could tell of the hardships and privations, as well as the pleasures of those pioneer days. Her home early became a center of the social life of the community where strangers never failed to receive a cordial welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Post were among the charter members of Hope Church, and their children, John and Mary, were among the first children baptized in that church.

Both Mrs. Post and her husband were fond of flowers, and introduced many new plants to the community in their beautiful flower garden. She brought the first white lilies to Holland, and every year since, she has scattered their fragrant blossoms far and wide among the sick and lonely. And the first seed of the sweet clover, which now blooms so freely by the roadside, was sent her by her father from the old home in Canada.

The great fire of '71 swept away not only Mr. Post's business, but the home where were gathered the treasures of twenty years. Shortly after "the fire," the home from which she passed away was built. Here, she planted her beloved lilies, and filled her garden with flowers to use in her work as Superintendent of the Flower Mission. This work she continued until her death, and many were the sick beds cheered by these tokens of sympathy and interest from her hands; many the sad hearts made lighter by her thoughtful kindness.

She called together the first "Reading Circle," which has grown from a small handful of earnest women to the prosperous "Woman's Literary Club" of today.

To those who, for any length of time, had been inmates of her home, and they were many, she seemed ever after a friend and mother.

Like Solomon's virtuous woman, she looked well to the ways of her own household. Her sensitiveness to an obligation was one fine and striking trait of this noble character. If she received some remembrance, or any kindness from a friend, she took it with the simple joyousness of a child, but she never failed to remember it and the giver, and when an opportunity offered, she in her own gracious, tactful way returned it thrice over.

Nor must we fail to speak of her rare sense of humor, her quick repartee bubbling forth from her warm and cheerful heart, has brightened many a gathering which would have been dull indeed without her presence.

But her kind and sympathetic nature expressing itself in loving service, was what won for her a place in so many hearts. Her's was an example of a life lived nobly and unselfishly. Like the Son of Man, she "came not to be ministered unto, but to minister." On Christmas day—her last Christmas on earth, her table was piled with loving gifts and messages from South Africa, Canada and many parts of our own country. They cheered her heart in those last hours. In the home of which for so many years she had been the center and life, at the ripe age of eighty-four years, she peacefully passed away.

She wished no flowers laid upon her coffin, but what sweeter tribute can we, who are left, pay to her memory, than to take up her work, and carry it on for her sake; to remember ever with kindly cheer the sick, with loving tenderness the aged, and with sweet sympathy, the lonely. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto me."

Resolutions unanimously adopted by the Board of Directors of the Woman's Literary Club of Holland at a special meeting held on Wednesday, January the second, Nineteen hundred seven.

"Whereas, it hath pleased God to bestow her heavenly crown upon our dear friend, Mrs. Anna Coatsworth Post, whose noble life so richly endowed, has been an inspiration to all her friends and whose kind heart and generous hand have bestowed many favors upon those in need."

"Whereas, she has ever been recognized as the 'Mother' of our Club, inasmuch as it was through her suggestion and influence that the first Literary Club in the city was organized, and

"Whereas, she has ever encouraged and sympathized with the work of the Club and her broad mind and fertile brain have given freely of their treasures for our instruction and edification.

"Therefore be it resolved: That we as a Club unite in this expression of sorrow, and extend to her family our sincere sympathy in this hour of bereavement, and

"Resolved further: That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to Mrs. Charles S. Dutton and Mrs. J. C. Post, and that they be published in the city papers, and spread upon the minutes of this club.

Held Annual Meeting.

The regular annual meeting of the Arabian Missionary Society was held last week in Zeeland. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Moerdyke. Letters of Dr. Zwemer, the missionary of the society, were read. The treasurer reported that the salary of Dr. Zwemer had been paid and that there was a balance on hand of $53 and also a balance of last year of $55. In view however, of the resolutions passed last year that the association should try and raise $1,000 annually for Arabia. It was decided at this meeting that more work should be done by committees to get the desired amount subscribed. All the officers were re-elected by acclamations, as follows: President, Dr. T. G. Huizinga; vice president, A. G. Van Hees; secretary, C. J. Den Herder; treasurer, M. Elzinga. A half hour's prayer service was held for Missionary Zwemer and for missions in general.

BEGAN SELLING RAT TRAPS.

A Millionaire Made His First Money In That Way.

Joy Morton, the Chicago millionaire and president of the International Salt company which has extensive salt interests in Hutchinson, Kan., made his first money by selling rat traps, says the Kansas City Star. That was before his father, J. Sterling Morton, became secretary of agriculture in President Cleveland's cabinet, and when he and his brother, Paul Morton, president of the Equitable Life Assurance company, were boys in Nebraska City, Neb.

Joy Morton and his brother were on their way west the other day and were at luncheon at the Hotel Baltimore when he told the story.

"In those days the patent right was not in such bad repute," he said. "A man came to Nebraska City with a patent rat trap and I purchased the privilege of selling the device in and about the vicinity of my town. The rat trap was a device fearfully and wondrously made and the price was five dollars each. It consisted of a large grab hook on a strong, heavy spring. When a rat nibbled at the bait he tripped the spring and the hook swung over and nailed him. The trap had one fault. It was good for only one rat, for after it had killed one none of his companions would go near it again for a long time, because they scented the blood on the wire. The eligible customers in my territory conceived that five dollars per rat was too extravagant a plan of extermination and I sold only six traps. It was the first money I ever made."

PUT END TO ONE CROP.

Last of Persistent Questioner, If Instructions Were Followed.

A well known congressman was addressing an agricultural meeting, and in the course of his remarks expressed the opinion that farmers do not sufficiently vary their crops.

One of the audience opposed to him in politics asked him what crops he would recommend.

"Everything in turn," he replied. "Well," said his interlocutor, "if Swedes don't come up what then?"

"Sow mustard," said the congressman.

"And if mustard doesn't come up, what then?"

And so he went on through a whole list of crops until, the congressman's patience being exhausted, he put an end to his questioning amid roars of laughter, by saying:

"Oh, sow yourself, and I hope you won't come up."

Cabby Found Out.

Cabby is very often a most sagacious person. One night Rev. John Williams, a newly returned missionary, took a cab in a dubious frame of mind. He had been invited to dine with some friends at the house of an acquaintance whose name he had forgotten. He only knew that his host lived in Harcourt street.

"What am I to do?" he asked of his driver.

"Never mind, sir," was the reply. "I'll find it for you."

"But you can't; you don't know his name."

"Leave it to me, sir—leave it to me: I'll find him."

They drove to Harcourt street, and the man, beginning at the end, knocked at every door and made an inquiry. Halfway down the street he rejoined his employer and said: "It's all right, sir; it's here."

"How do you know?"

"I asked, sir," does Rev. Mister Williams live here? And the maid said: 'No; but he's dining here to-night.'"

Stray Stories.

Through Long Use.

"Ask any sea captain of long standing," remarks a veteran skipper, "and he will tell you that long use of the telescope, the quadrant, and other instruments for making calculations at sea, has the effect of drawing the sight from the left eye into the one which peers so eagerly and often through the instruments.

"This peculiarity of vision is common to all skippers and other ships' officers who have had very long experience on the sea. I can discern objects at an enormous distance with my right eye, but am scarcely able to read with my left. The tendency of Nature to adjust itself to conditions is heightened in this case by the bright glare from the waters, which makes the strain on the eye especially trying."

An Epic on the Sofa.

The only article of furniture that has had an epic all to itself is the sofa, though, considering the many hours of sweet repose which must have been spent upon it by tired humanity, it deserves to have had many. Cowper's placid poem upon it was inspired by his friend, Lady Austen, who suggested the sofa as a subject for his muse, and out of this beginning grew the whole structure of "The Task." In "The Sofa" Cowper opens with a "historical deduction of seats from the stool to the sofa."

Because you are Married

is no excuse for neglecting your personal appearance. "Don't care" women make unhappy homes. If you would like the admiration of your husband, children and friends, be even more particular than you were in court days. Don't allow yourself to look "sloppy." Dress your hair becomingly. Take care of your complexion—a smooth, soft, velvety skin, a face free from blackheads, pimples, tan, freckles and wrinkles, will make you attractive.

In the guessing contest, Jennie Stegenga and Bennie Dalman won prizes and in the peanut contest, Walter Gumser and Fred Giles won prizes.

The Womans' Literary club enjoyed a very interesting program Saturday afternoon at Hope church parlors when Prof. H. R. Brush of Hope College gave a lecture on "Parsival" of Wolfram von Eschenbach, an epic written in German during the Twelfth century. Two musical numbers were rendered. Mrs. G. W. Van Verst sang a solo with violin obligato played by Miss Avis Yates and Mrs. Harry Mills gave a piano solo.

The Abelpic Society met Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. Steffens. The prayer meeting was led by Mr. Pennings of the middle class. Instead of a paper by one of the members, a paper was read by Dr. Samuel Zwemer on the subject "The Faith of Islam," after which a motion was made to thank the doctor for his interesting and instructive paper. Refreshments were then served, and the meeting adjourned.

Miss Lizzie Lenters, one of the teachers of the School for Christian Instruction, located on Central Avenue, was very pleasantly surprised last Thursday evening by her scholars, the second and third grades of the school. To the teacher, the coming of the children was a complete surprise. They had brought refreshments with them and an enjoyable social time was spent. Miss Lenters has been a teacher at the school for a number of years and the event shows the good will between teacher and scholars.

A surprise party was given Thursday evening in honor of Miss Katherine Yonkers at her home on West Thirteenth street by the present employees and others formerly employed by the Citizens' Telephone company. The guests were all dressed in costume and they brought a "hard times" luncheon. Those present were the Misses Cora Jakel, Louise Van Anrooy, Eva Lapish, Grace Clone, Winnie Lindsay, Rebecca Demming, Georgia Atwood, Minnie Van Raalte, and Messrs. James De Kraker, Arthur Misner, Joseph Nauta, Arthur Van Raalte, Hans Olsen, John Plasman, George Van Duren, Wm. De Bruyn, Gerrit Karsten, Wm. Atwood, Wm. Yonkers, Charles Yonkers and Charles Zylén of Grand Rapids.

A Splendid Program.

"Martin Luther," by Mrs. G. E. Kollen.

Music—"Luther's Hymn," the club.

"Katharina von Bura," Mrs. G. J. Van Duren.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry De Weerd last Sunday night a son.

The six month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cole died Monday. The funeral was held Wednesday.

John Knol who has been visiting in the Netherlands since last November returned home Friday night.—He says—"Daar is maar een Amerika."

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Timmer who have been visiting in Grand Rapids for a few days returned home Monday.

John Van Der Zwaag is visiting relatives and friends in Grand Rapids and Kalamazoo.

Mr. Bert Bazaan is building a fine new residence on his farm. Mr. John Baumann is doing the work.

Cornelius Jacobsen lost a valuable horse Sunday. The animal was sick but one day.

Mr. Nick Van Eenenaan the Zeeland liveryman came near losing one of his horses Monday. While driving along the highway about one half mile west of Olive Centre the animal got into a washout and is said to have been under water about twenty minutes, it is being cared for at the barn of John Redder.

The highways generally are in poor condition on account of the heavy rain Saturday.

Gibson.

Mrs. De Boer has returned home from a visit to Grand Rapids and other places.

Mrs. Easter and Mrs. De Boer visited Holland Tuesday and did some shopping.

The blizzard Sunday and Monday was quite severe but a good change from a long spell of wet damp weather.

Mr. Allen who purchased the Campbell farm has traded it again to parties from Chicago.

The Simpson farm has changed owners again.

Mr. Baker and wife are back on their resort home at Brookwood Beach, we understand.

Mr. and Mrs. Easter wish to speak in behalf of their boy whose name was mentioned in the Holland paper as he is only 13 instead of 15 years, we think a good deal of it was a false statement, we know he did not go to the Grand Rapids. We do know the roads were very bad, that he left home at half past twelve and on his way through Holland he peddled five bushels of apples and when he got to the mill stables it was dark he did the best he could. It was not his fault the door blew open or that he did not put a blanket on the horse as he had gone. He is very kind to animals usually also little children. We feed our animals all we are able to and care for them good.

We regret that anyone would be so cruel, as to make a little boy who was innocently warning himself by a stove at Graafschap should be sized like a dog and made to walk to Holland and back to Graafschap again, and if anyone takes advantage without just cause again, we will be doing something too.

Mrs. W. H. F. er.

The Lulu Tyler Gates Company will appear in Winants Chapel on Wednesday evening, January 30, instead of on Thursday, January 31, as is printed on the course tickets. The regular date interfered with the Day of Prayer for Colleges and that is the reason for the change.

Injunction is Served.

Work on the new Lage block at Zeeland has been suspended, temporarily at least.

Part of the brick work, up to the height of seven or eight feet, has been completed and the job seemed well under way when, it is reported, Mr. Kuite of Holland, whose property in the shape of a frame building adjoins that of Mr. Lage, served an injunction on the latter to prevent him from proceeding with the structure.

The eaves of Mr. Kuite's building jut out over the wall now being erected for the new block, and in order to complete the latter several inches will have to be sawed off the eaves. Parties who know, say that the shortening of the eaves is a minor matter and would be in no way detrimental to the frame building.

FOR ONE LONELY VOTER.

Remarkable Election Held in a District in France.

A curious election took place at Les Sables, in the department of the Var, recently, when a single elector drew up the whole list of candidates and was the only one to vote. He naturally voted for his whole list, himself included. The commune contains about 500 inhabitants. Some time ago the municipal council resigned. Elections were held on November 25 last, when only four men came to vote. There was to be a second election last Sunday. The whole day passed and not a solitary voter appeared. A quarter of an hour before the legal limit of time elapsed a benevolent citizen at last appeared, drew up a list of ten candidates, including himself, and voted. A quarter of an hour later the election was declared legally valid, and the other nine candidates were duly notified of their election. They have since declined in a body to be elected by a single vote. The good natured citizen, therefore, who alone voted now constitutes by himself the town council of Les Sables. What is stranger still is that he may invoke a precedent. In fact, on a previous occasion, another citizen was also the sole voter at an election, and voted for himself, remaining legally in office for ten years. This would indicate that political activity is at a low ebb in the Var, and yet the French prime minister, M. Clemenceau, is senator for that department. Perhaps his energy makes up for the negligence of the rest.

SHERIDAN VERY MUCH ALIVE.

Good Joke Brought Off in the Days of the Regency.

The First Gentleman in Europe dictated to Sheridan a letter making fun of the grotesque appearance of a crony of the Prince's, Maj. Hanger, at a ball given in celebration of the Queen's birthday. The Major, on receipt of a letter, hastened to show it to the Prince, who insisted that only a duel a ostrance could wipe out the insult. On examining the handwriting the Prince said he had no doubt at all it was Sheridan's, and the author of "The School for Scandal" was accordingly challenged. The duel was of such vindictive deadliness that it was not till three shots on either side had been interchanged, and till Sheridan fell, that the honor of the Major was satisfied. "Killed, by G—!" exclaimed Capt. Morris, in a voice of horror, and he and his principal, the Major, fled the field. Unspeaking was the relief of the remorseful Major when Sheridan turned up that night at the Prince's dinner table. "How—how—how is this?" he stammered. "I thought I had killed you!" "No, my good fellow," replied Sheridan. "I wasn't good enough to go to the world above; nor as yet quite bad enough to go to that below; therefore, I deferred my departure. But, I say, Hanger, didn't I die well?" It was then explained to the mystified Major how he had been hoaxed by the Prince, who had arranged that the pistols should be charged only with powder.

Open to Grave Doubt.

Richard Harding Davis was talking in New York about the life of a reporter.

"A hard life it is," said he. "It is a life that taxes all the energies. I don't care how great a genius a man might be, how resourceful, how persevering, how alert, all these qualities would be brought in play if the man turned reporter and on many a good story he would still fall down at that."

"Reporters are often snubbed. There is a stupid type of man that likes to snub them. Such a man, a bank president, once tried to snub my friend Jimmy Patterson."

"The bank had gone up through a defalcation, and Jimmy went to interview its head. But his head was crusty. He refused to be interviewed. He took Jimmy by the arm and led him toward the door."

"Young man," he said, "I always make it a rule to mind my own business."

"Were you doing that," said Jimmy, "when the cashier made his haul?"

JAMAICA GRATEFUL, SAYS SWETTENHAM

GOVERNMENT RECEIVES THANKS OF COUNTRY FOR AID EX-
TENDE BY DAVIS.

ENGLAND GRIEVED AT ACTION OF GOVERNOR

Official of Embassy States Authenticity of Letter to Admiral Is Being Investigated—Irritation at Delay of Explanation.

Washington, Jan. 23.—In a cable-gram directed to Secretary Root under date of January 20, the day following the departure of Admiral Davis with his fleet from Kingston, after the unpleasant episode between the admiral and himself, Gov. Swettenham conveyed the "Profound Gratitude" of the people of Jamaica for the expression of sympathy sent by this government as well as for the aid rendered by Admiral Davis "and the entire particular service squadron of the United States navy." This is taken to refer to the relief squadron under Admiral Davis. The dispatch was received here late Monday night and made public at the state department Tuesday, as also was a letter from Esme Howard, charge d'affaires of the British embassy stating that official inquiries were being made as to the authenticity of the Swettenham letter to Admiral Davis and at the same time expressing the deep regret of Sir Edward Grey, principal secretary of state for foreign affairs, that if the published text of the letter proves correct, "A British official should have addressed such a letter to a gallant admiral, who had rendered valuable assistance to British subjects at a time of great suffering and distress." The dispatches referred to are as follows:

Jamaica Profoundly Grateful.
"Jamaica, Jan. 20.—Hon. Elihu Root, state secretary, Washington:

"Jamaica profoundly grateful to your excellency for expression of sympathy, and for the very practical aid so kindly given by Admiral Davis and the entire particular service squadron of the United States navy."
(Signed) "Governor."

The note from the British charge of embassy is as follows:

"British Embassy, Washington, Jan. 21, 1907.—Sir: I have the honor to inform you, under instructions received to-day from his majesty's principal secretary of state for foreign affairs, that his majesty's government are causing official inquiries to be made as to the authenticity of a letter which appeared in the public press this morning and purporting to be written by the governor of Jamaica and addressed to Admiral Davis, commanding the United States squadron lately in Jamaican waters.
"Sir Edward Grey desires me to say that, while he is so far dependent on the press only for information with regard to this incident, he deeply regrets if the published text proves correct, that a British official should have addressed such a letter to the gallant admiral, who had rendered valuable assistance to British subjects at a time of great suffering and distress, and that he is certain that his feeling of regret is shared by every one in Great Britain.
"I have the honor to be, with the highest consideration, Sir,
"Your most obedient humble servant."
(Signed) "Esme Howard."

Although a dispatch from Kingston Monday night stated that the supply ship Celtic had sailed from there Monday afternoon, the navy department Tuesday was without any advice as to her movements, and she was reported to the department as having arrived at Kingston on the 20th, and if she has not already left there the department will make every effort to get into communication with her and order her back to Guantanamo.

Governor's Delay Irritates.

London, Jan. 23.—The British government and nation, having shown the strongest disapproval of the attitude of Gov. Swettenham of Jamaica in bringing about the withdrawal of the American warships under the command of Rear Admiral Davis from Kingston, the chief interest now centers in the governor's long-deferred reply to the British government's urgent demand for an explanation of his conduct, as this will give the first adequate means of determining the government's final course in repudiating or condemning the governor's action. This explanation had not been received during the early hours of the day, although a dispatch reached here from Swettenham setting forth the progress of the relief work, without any mention of the incident which caused the Americans to withdraw from the island. This dispatch was not dated, indicating that it was sent before he received the government's request for an explanation. Swettenham, throughout the crisis, has been remarkably lax in keeping the imperial authorities informed regarding the situation at Kingston, and the present delay causes much irritation on the part of the government officials.

The text of Gov. Swettenham's dispatch, which presumably was filed January 20, is as follows:

"Slight earthquake shocks continue. Confidence is restored. The population is returning and the weather is fine. H. M. S. Indefatigable, with stores from Trinidad, arrived here to-day. Both banks have reopened."

American View Appreciated.

The prompt recognition in America that Swettenham's letter was the act of an individual is much appreciated here. Public opinion continues to strongly denounce the governor of Jamaica, although a small element take the ground that he should have a fair chance of defending himself. The Evening Standard concisely sums up the prevailing sentiment as follows:

"Sir Alexander Swettenham committed the gross and unpardonable blunder of writing a letter to Admiral Davis which bore all the appearance of a carefully studied insult. Even if he received vexatious provocation from the Americans, no shred of justification can be urged for the letter. The only course it leaves open to him and to his countrymen is to apologize to the nation to whose officer it was directed."

The lord mayor of London Tuesday afternoon cabled to Governor Swettenham $75,000, the first installment of the Mansion house fund, which now totals $100,000.

German Press Is Chuckling.

Berlin, Jan. 23.—The German press is chuckling over the Swettenham-Davis incident, which was given much prominence in their news columns. The Berliner Post says:

"Perhaps the mistress of the seas considered it humiliating that a British city had to rely on foreign succor. Perhaps she also was not entirely convinced of the unselfishness of the Yankee benevolence. There is no doubt that it was a too seductive opportunity for Brother Jonathan to make a moral conquest at England's expense, and for once to let the Monroe doctrine shine in the light of Christian charity."

Where serious comment appears Gov. Swettenham is held to be guilty of bad taste.

"Did Right to Distrust U. S."

Paris, Jan. 23.—The Eclair, in commenting on the American rebuff in the island of Jamaica, expresses the opinion that the English were not wrong, it says, in distrusting Americans, who, with one foot on Jamaica, would soon have had four.

The Eclair thinks the incident will finish the friendly relations between the two countries.

Deplore Departure of Warships.

Philadelphia, Jan. 23.—In response to an offer of aid sent by Mayor Weaver, of this city, the morning after the Kingston earthquake, the following cablegram was received Tuesday: "Kingston, Jamaica, Jan. 22.—Many thanks, money and building material urgently required. Departure of warships deplored by people."
(Signed) "TAIT, Mayor."

MILLIONS IN CHINA STARVING.

Bible Society Agent on Spot Appeals to Churches for Help.

New York, Jan. 23.—The American Bible society has just received the following cablegram from the Rev. John R. Hykes, D. D., the agent of the society for China.

"Notify all boards Shanghai Missionary association 274 members, representing 19 bodies, urges appeal for famine relief through all churches. Million and a quarter starving. Refugees already flock to cities. In one district 3,000,000 destitute. Many millions affected. Many deaths already, though five months' suffering only begun. General relief committee is representing all interests in this part of the east unite in placing the work of relief entirely in responsible hands of missionaries. Opportunity of a century to impress China."

"HYKES, President."

A special meeting of representatives of missionary bodies of the United States having work in China has been held in New York in response to this cablegram, and it was by them unanimously recommended that churches, societies and individuals be urged to contribute liberally and promptly to meet this emergency, which must continue until June.

Live Stock Men Meet.

Denver, Jan. 23.—President Murdo Mackenzie's annual address was the main feature of the opening session of the tenth annual convention of the American National Live Stock association, which assembled here Tuesday morning in the Broadway theater. A report of "Legislative Questions," of vital interest to all the members, was made by S. H. Cowan of Texas, attorney for the association. The delegates were welcomed in a felicitous address by Gov. Henry A. Buchtel.

Tidal Wave Engulfs Entire Island.

The Hague, Jan. 23.—The tidal wave which devastated some of the Dutch East Indian Islands south of Atchin, as announced January 11, practically engulfed the island of Simalu. According to the latest information received here Simalu has almost disappeared. It is said that probably 1,500 persons lost their lives. Violent earthquakes continue to be felt daily. The civil government of Atchin has gone to the scene of the catastrophe.

Lodz Tied Up By Strike.

Lodz, Russian Poland, Jan. 23.—The strike planned in commemoration of "red Sunday" was carried out successfully by the socialists Tuesday in this city. Factories, stores and restaurants were closed, no papers were published and the street car service was at a standstill. Many arrests were made.

Homesteaders Can Go Visiting.

Washington, Jan. 23.—The president has approved the joint resolution authorizing temporary leaves of absence for homestead settlers.

OHIO RIVER IS FALLING

FLOOD IS SLOWLY SUBSIDING AT CINCINNATI.

Total Damage Will Be Enormous—Water at Shawneetown Continues to Rise Slightly.

Cincinnati, Jan. 22.—After being stationary at 65.2 for a time during Monday morning, the Ohio at this point began to recede slowly, and at dark had gone down to 65 feet, with all indications for a continuance of the fall.

By the end of the week it is thought the danger line will be passed on the way down and some estimate of property losses will then be possible. At the present all that can be stated positively is that the aggregate damage will run far into the hundreds of thousands of dollars, this being distributed along several hundred miles of the river and its tributaries.

The cold weather, which largely assisted in the ending of the high water, was the cause of much suffering among the thousands of homeless people whose homes were under water or had been isolated by the rising waters. The work of rescue and relief went on steadily and few were left to suffer, the work being so systematized that speedy help was given to all sufferers who could be found. The greatest damage from this time on will come from possible wrecking of buildings as the falling water pours through them.

Shawneetown, Ill., Jan. 22.—The Ohio river continues to rise slowly, the rapidity of the rise the past few days having been somewhat checked by the cold, clear weather. The levee was still intact Monday night, but people continue to move to the hills. Owing to the prompt supply of necessities there is very little suffering among the refugees. Business is at a standstill.

St. Louis, Jan. 22.—The Mississippi river is rising steadily and Monday night the stage registered 26 feet, which is within four feet of danger line. The lowlands above and below East St. Louis, Ill., are flooded.

Missouri—J. L. Schmitz, Chillicothe.

Ohio—E. G. Chamberlain, Caldwell; V. R. Sprague, McArthur.

MERGER OF FREIGHT LINES.

Many Concerns Soon to Be Operated Under One Head.

Milwaukee, Jan. 19.—The most important and by far the most sweeping consolidation of freight lines of the great railway systems and combinations of the country that has been brought about in years is booked to be made within a short time by the Vanderbilt system. The plan, it is learned, are now practically matured.

The plan is the absolute consolidation of all of the "fast freight" lines and "dispatch" lines which have for years been operated under the general Vanderbilt system, and will place all the lines under one corporation—the Merchants' Dispatch company.

NEW GOVERNOR COLLAPSES.

GOVERNMENT MAY HELP END FAMINE

HANSBROUGH SEEKS FEDERAL MEANS TO RELIEVE THE COAL SHORTAGE IN NORTHWEST.

Senator to Confer with the President

Interstate Commerce Commission Receives Telegrams Appealing for Aid—Walker, Minn., Without Fuel, Oil or Candles.

Washington, Jan. 23.—The coal famine situation in North Dakota has become so serious that Senator Hansbrough will confer with President Roosevelt to see if federal means cannot be found to relieve the situation. Before taking this course, however, the senator sent a telegram to Gov. Burke asking whether the state authorities will be able to find a way to clear the blockade an let into the state a coal supply.

That the governor will be able to meet the situation without assistance is regarded as unlikely. Telegrams appealing for relief were laid before the interstate commerce commission by Senator Hansbrough Tuesday. Some of these dispatches declare that the statement issued by the Great Northern railroad that the blockade had been lifted on that line is not true. It is said also that a large supply of coal destined for North Dakota is being held at a junction point in Minnesota pending a settlement of demurrage charges on the cars. This is being investigated by the interstate commerce commission.

A recent dispatch from Calvin said that place was almost out of coal, and no relief in sight. Out of 18 cars consigned to that town since December 1 only four have been received.

A Hastings dispatch said there was no fuel or flour on hand and that the people were suffering.

Coal, Oil and Candle Famine.

Walker, Minn., Jan. 23.—Walker has exhausted its coal supply and there is also a famine of oil and candles for illuminating purposes. The electric light plant was obliged to shut down Saturday evening owing to lack of coal. As a greater part of the residences in the village are using electric lights, a run was made on the kerosene tanks and by nine o'clock every drop of oil in town had been bought up, as the merchants were caught unawares. Then followed the candle brigade and by Sunday night there wasn't a candle in the village on sale. Now kerosene is a luxury in the village, while tallow candles are considered a necessity. Many homes have neither and unless oil is received to-day many of the homes will be in darkness this evening, while a majority of the merchants will have to shut up shop. Freight is moving slow and the merchants find it almost as hard to secure oil as they do coal.

Miners Reelect Old Officials.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 23.—The annual convention of the United Mine Workers of America closed at noon Tuesday to meet next year in this city. The tellers' report on the election of international officers showed all old officers to have been re-elected. President Mitchell received 71,000 votes. The election was conducted on the referendum plan among the various locals. Vice President Lewis received 70,225 votes. Secretary-Treasurer Wilson received 70,162 votes.

TILLMAN IS FUNNY AND APOLOGIZES

SOUTH CAROLINA SENATOR CALLS OUT RETORTS FROM SPOONER AND CARMACK.

Lively Day in Senate—Compromise Resolution on Brownsville Goes Over Till Tuesday—House Passes Political Purity Bill.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Few features of the spectacular were missing from the proceedings of the senate Monday. The Brownsville affair was the subject of controversy, and the day began with the announcement of a compromise resolution which brought Republican and Democratic senators together on the basis of ordering an investigation of the facts of the affray without bringing into question the authority of the president to dismiss the negro troops.

The resolution was submitted to and approved by the president at a conference Sunday.

When the "harmony" testimonials were all in, Senator Tillman took the floor and delivered a speech in reply to the recent criticism of himself by Senator Spooner. This speech began with a satirical picture of the senate as a minstrel show, which Mr. Tillman later said was his first and last attempt to be "funny," an attempt which at its conclusion brought a stinging denunciation from Senator Carmack in resentment of allusions to him.

Senator Tillman Apologizes.

This was preceded by a serious reply from Senator Spooner on the attitude taken by Mr. Tillman on the race problem, all finally resulting in a session of nearly two hours behind closed doors.

The secret session was followed by a brief open one in which Mr. Tillman made a profuse apology to Mr. Carmack, to all senators whom he had brought into his "first essay in the light of humor," and finally to the entire senate. "I very much regret that I ever undertook to be funny, and I will never do so any more," Mr. Tillman then withdrew all he had said in his "funny essay" and said it would not appear in the Record.

This apology was at once accepted by Mr. Carmack, who regretted he had questioned the motives of his friend, and he, too, withdrew words he had uttered in protest.

Goes Over to Tuesday.

Mr. Foraker made a final attempt to get a vote on his resolution, but objection was made, and the matter will be taken up Tuesday immediately after morning business has been disposed of. Mr. Carmack remarked jocularly that there were not more than 15 or 20 senators desiring to talk, and Mr. Foraker, feigning seriousness, retorted hotly that the senator need not think the Democratic side of the chamber could monopolize the talking. Mr. Carmack explained that he was only trying to be funny, that it was his first attempt and he would never make another. As senators were laughing heartily over this parting sally, adjournment was taken at 6:15 o'clock.

During the entire day, the galleries of the senate were crowded to their capacity, and the debate was also listened to by seemingly a majority of the members of the house of representatives, who occupied all available seats and standing room in the chamber.

Political Purity Bill Passed.

Discussion of the senate bill to prohibit corporations from making money contributions in connection with political elections took the form of campaign stump debate in the house, but this did not prevent the passage of the measure. Democrats, under the lead of Messrs. Williams of Mississippi, Robinson of Arkansas and Hardwick of Georgia, criticized the alleged activity of Republican National Chairman Cortelyou during the last presidential campaign in soliciting funds from corporations.

Mr. Mann, of Illinois, opposed the bill on the ground that corporations should be permitted to contribute to election expenses if rich individuals were to do so, and he asserted that the effect of the bill would be to keep poor men out of office. The Democrats applauded a question by Mr. Williams as to whether anyone doubted President Roosevelt's ability to bring about a return of contributions by insurance companies "if he exerted his great power, influence and popularity."

Mr. Robinson replied it is a well-known fact that the Republican chairman has been promoted in office, and he had not been asked to make restitution of the funds "taken from widows and orphans."

The house pronounced unanimously in favor of enlarging and making more efficient the field of coast artillery.

A bill was passed authorizing the secretary of commerce and labor to investigate and report upon the "industrial, social, moral, educational and physical condition of women and children workers in the United States." The measure has already passed the senate.

MINNESOTA BANK SUSPENDED.

Mankato, Minn., Jan. 22.—The Merchants and Farmers bank of Fairmont has suspended. The bank is managed by Percy Wallston, Jr., who is said to be en route home from a visit to British Columbia. Cecil Sharpe, the cashier, in a published statement says the liabilities are $77,974, with assets of $87,906.

ILLINOIS LEGISLATORS RE-ELECT SENATOR.

Named to Succeed Himself for Fifth Time—Other States Name Men for Upper House.

Springfield, Ill., June 23.—Senator Shelby M. Cullom was given the majority vote of both branches of the Forty-fifth general assembly Tuesday in separate sessions, insuring his formal re-election to succeed himself as senior senator of Illinois to succeed himself for the fifth time when the legislature will meet in joint session to-day to canvass the vote.

This vote will be the final act in carrying out the voice of the people expressed at the primaries of August 4, 1906, when Senator Cullom received the popular vote over Richard Yates of Springfield. Senator Cullom was first elected in 1883.

The vote in the senate stood: 44 for Cullom, and 7 for former Justice Carroll C. Boggs. In the house the vote stood: Cullom, 88; Boggs, 61; Daniel R. Sheen (Prohibition), Peoria, 3.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 23.—Both houses of the Minnesota legislature voted for Knute Nelson to succeed himself as United States senator from this state Tuesday. Four Democratic senators voted for Senator Nelson, saying their districts were overwhelmingly for Nelson.

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 23.—The Alabama legislature, in joint session, Tuesday, re-elected Senators John T. Morgan and Edmund W. Pettus for another term. There was no opposition and they received the unanimous vote of both houses.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 23.—Francis E. Warren was re-elected United States senator Tuesday, receiving 64 votes out of a total of 70.

Would Amend Constitution.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 23.—Several amendments to the state constitution are provided for in resolutions introduced in the Assembly Tuesday, as follows: To enact a law providing for recall of state officers by electors; to provide a separate government for Milwaukee; to levy a direct tax for highway improvement. Other assembly bills provide among other things that street car employees may work but nine hours, the hours to be consecutive. A bill raising the age limit of working children to 16 years was also introduced.

Begin Probe of Disaster.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 23.—Representatives of the Indiana railroad commission, of the Big Four Railroad company, of the faculty of Rose Polytechnic Institute, of a powder mill began Tuesday an investigation into the cause of the explosion of the carload of powder at Sandford which destroyed a passenger train on the Big Four and caused the death of 28 persons. The coroner and deputies are engaged in disposing of the bodies of the dead and getting information for summoning witnesses.

Farmers in Convention.

Atlanta Ga., Jan. 23.—Several hundred members representing a dozen states gathered here Tuesday for the fifth annual convention of the National Farmers' union. The first of the sessions, which are being held in the hall of the houses of representatives at the capitol, was behind closed doors. A public meeting was addressed at night by Thomas E. Watson. The union is said to have a membership of more than 1,000,000.

Colleague Defends Smoot.

Washington, Jan. 23.—Senator Sutherland Tuesday came to the defense of his colleague, Senator Smoot, of Utah, defending his right to retain his seat in the United States Senate. Prefacing his argument with observations on the gravity of the charges against Mr. Smoot, the junior Utah senator said there were extreme views held in his state on both sides of the question. He said he did not expect to satisfy either of these extreme classes.

The second and final contest in basketball between Hope college and the Muskegon High schools in the Trolley league series will be played in Carnegie gymnasium in this city this evening and a warm contest is anticipated. Coach Zupke of Muskegon is endeavoring to arrange a company of rooters to accompany the team to Holland.

Hope defeated the Muskegonites in the first game a few weeks ago by the score of 28 to 17, and the latter will make a determined effort to turn the tables and lower Hope's percentage of 1,000. Manager Van Houten declares that the visitors will have to go some to accomplish the trick.

Oratorical Contest.

In many of the High Schools of Michigan approaching oratorical contests are being precedence among subjects of general interest. Holland high school is among the schools preparing for a local contest to determine the orator who shall represent the school at the district contest to be held sometime within the next two months.

Superintendent Bishop is secretary of the Michigan High School Oratorical contest, and with the president he is making preparations for the annual state contest, the date of which can not be decided until all the district contests have been held. It is expected that all of the six districts into which the state is divided will be represented, including the Upper Peninsula, which has not participated in state contests for two years.

Holland is in the fourth district, which comprises the counties of the southwestern section of Michigan. The schools in this section are widely separated, and for this among other reasons the president and secretary of the state association have decided to divide the fourth district into two sections, holding a contest in each section, which will give the state seven districts, the officers of the state association being given the power to re-district the state as conditions demand.

One of the fourth district contests will be held at Three Rivers, and the second in what may be properly called the lake shore division. In the latter will be included the schools of the following cities: Reed City, Muskegon, Grand Haven, Holland, Coloma, Benton Harbor, St. Joseph, and Burr Oaks. Consequently one of these cities will land the district contest. Superintendent Bishop, by virtue of his office in the state association, is chairman of the fourth district.

All of the district contests must be held before the last Friday in March. The date of the local contest will be soon announced.

The Lulu Tyler Gates Company will appear in Winants Chapel on Wednesday evening, January 30, instead of on Thursday, January 31, as is printed on the course tickets. The regular date interfered with the Day of Prayer for Colleges, and that is the reason for the change.

Joint Meeting.

A joint meeting of the council and the charter committee was held at the council rooms last evening to consider the plan of amending the charter by changing the number of supervisors which numbers two to five. The matter has been gone over and at last it was considered more advisable to stick to the old way, namely two. On looking over facts and figures it was found that our two supervisors, Geo. Van Duren and A. J. Ward did excellent work on the board, in fact they have saved the city of Holland by reduction on equalization more than their salaries amount to, therefore it was the sense of the meeting that it was better to retain two good members on the board than possibly several poor ones who in a way might also antagonize the rest of the county and Holland's interests.

The following is a table showing Hollands proportion of the taxes as fixed by the board of supervisors, then taking in consideration the increase of our population, the new factories, stores and dwellings that have been built, from 1901 to 1906 Holland has fared mighty well:

| Year.     | Per cent of taxes. |
|-----------|--------------------|
| 1901..... | 2051               |
| 1902..... | 2184               |
| 1903..... | 2322               |
| 1904..... | 2274               |
| 1905..... | 2305               |
| 1906..... | 2316               |

Than again we find that the board of equalization has reduced Hollands' valuation by the work of our two supervisors as follows:

| Year.     | Reduction. |
|-----------|------------|
| 1904..... | $266,000  |
| 1905..... | 368,000    |
| 1906..... | 395,000    |

In order to find out the saving to this city multiply the reduction by the rate, and you will have the total for each year.

Hope College News.

The Hope college basket ball team scored its fifth consecutive victory in the Trolley league series on Friday evening by administering a crushing defeat to the fast Zeeland team, the final score being 37 to 20. Two 25 minute halves were played, the first score being 17 to 9 in favor of Hope.

Hope played gilt edged ball and led all the way, its members starring throughout the game in brilliant pass work, throwing baskets and scoring fouls. Hope made 14 field baskets against Zeeland's 4 and scored 9 out of 29 for their opponents.

Hope plays three more games in the series, with Grand Rapids, Grand Haven and Muskegon, the last team being booked for a game at Carnegie gymnasium during the coming week. Hope still leads with a percentage of 1,000 and its chances for maintaining it are exceptionally bright and the silk pennant is already within its grasp.

A special car carrying nearly 100 rooters accompanied the team to Zeeland and the visitors praise the efficient team work accomplished by Pleune as center, Vruwink and Stegeman as guards and Venker and De Kruif as forwards. Bates of Grand Rapids acted as referee and his decisions were very impartial and gave universal satisfaction.

A. Mulder will preside as toastmaster at a banquet to be given by the Cosmopolitan society in its hall Friday evening. A program of toasts is being arranged and a sumptuous spread will be served.

The Cosmopolitan Literary Society will entertain its members and their lady friends tomorrow evening at the society's halls. This is the first event of its kind since the enlarging and remodeling of the halls last summer. As usual, a literary program will not be wanting and a general pleasant social time is expected.

A week from tomorrow evening is the time set for the local oratorical contest. But three classes will be represented in the struggle for victory. In all, seven orators will compete. The contest will occur in the Carnegie Hall where a larger number of people can be accommodated than at the Chapel. The admission, therefore, has been changed to 15 cents.

The Western Theological Seminary will be represented next Sunday as follows: M. J. Duven, N. Holland; P. Meengs, Three Oaks; C. Vander Schoor, Gelderland; J. Van Zomerem, Muskegon; J. J. Hollebrandt, Zeeland (1st); Rev. J. F. Zwemer, Kalamazoo.

Zeeland Will Appeal.

Zeeland township will appeal to the supreme court of Michigan from the decision of the Ottawa circuit court in the case of the township against the Grand Rapids, Holland & Chicago Interurban Railway company regarding the rate of fare charged in the township.

Judge Padgham recently rendered his decision sustaining the contention of the company that the village and township were two separate corporations and that the company was justified in charging two fares within the confines of the two settlements.

I was bothered a great deal with headache, spells of dizziness, and the kidney secretions became affected, were irregular, too frequent and unnatural. I doctored a great deal and took many kinds of medicines, but without getting better. I believe I still would be suffering if I had not heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them from J. O.
