CITY AND VICINITY.

The Red ticket sale is on at the Lokker Rutgers company.

The Democratic spring state convention will be held in Detroit June 1.

C. Woldering had the misfortune Sunday to fall on an icy sidewalk on Central avenue and fracture his arm.

Adrian DeGraff of this city was discharged as bankrupt Tuesday by Judge Wanty in the United States district court.

A new plate glass front is being placed in the Beach & McBride building, 34 East Eighth street, now occupied by Miss Lizzie Winter's millinery store.

Under Sheriff Hans Dykhuys has been presented with an unusually handsome official shield by his father. It bears the inscription "Under Sheriff, Ottawa County" and is of solid silver and gold.

Dr. Imus has taken a fine x-ray picture of the bullet in the shoulder of M. R. Merrit of Olive Center. The bullet has been there for forty years and was received in battle in the civil war. It is under the right shoulder.

Of Katherine Eggleston, who will give the closing number of the Hope college lecture course at Winants Chapel this evening the Boston Post says: "Miss Eggleston has a remarkable personality and a distinctly taking manner. Her selections were well chosen and given in a masterly way, and elicited tremendous applause."

In Onze Toekomst, of this city appeared last week a very full and fair review of Prof. Beardslee's "Introduction to the Old Testament." The Dutch scholar commends the ability, thoroughness, condensation, fairness and style of this volume, which he regards as highly creditable to the Reformed church and to the institution at Holland, in which such work as this is done.—Christian Intelligencer.

John Koning, whose store and residence burned down in Saugatuck a few weeks ago, will begin rebuilding as soon as the weather permits. His new residence which will be erected on the lot bought from the church will be a frame and cost about $2500. His store building will be built facing Butler street as before, but will not be on the corner, but forty feet south of Mary street leaving a good sized space between the store and the street. The dimensions of the store will be 100x26 and two stories high. It is not decided yet whether it will be built of brick or cement, but Mr. Koning rather favors cement. This structure will cost $4500 and have a fire proof wall on the south.

Fennville Herald—Pere Marquette surveyors have been at work around here for several days, running lines north of the village. It is rumored that the plan is to cut out most of the present line between Fennville and Holland, so as to avoid the heavy grades and numerous sharp curves near New Richmond, and run north and west from Fennville over a new route which will cross Kalamazoo river on a high trestle and pass not far to the east of Saugatuck village. But nothing definite can be learned and, while New Richmond residents can worry for fear they may be left in the woods, Saugatuck citizens can again live in hopes of hearing the whistle of an engine, in the far off future.

Gerrit Hesselink fell on the icy walk on East Eighth street west of the city hall last Saturday morning and fractured his left arm just above the elbow. He was taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. M. Jensen, College Avenue and Graves place, and Dr. Godfrey was called and reduced the fracture. Mr. Hesselink is 62 years of age and the bone will be slow in knitting, thus laying him up for some time. His home is on East Twenty-fourth street. The accident to his left arm places Mr. Hesselink in a peculiarly helpless condition as 26 years ago on his return from service in the civil war his right hand was cut off. The first accident occurred while he was engaged in reaping grain, and nearly cost him his life. He fell in front of the reaper knives and his right hand was caught in the knives and amputated above the wrist, and the thumb of his left hand was severed. His many friends, particularly his old comrades, will be sorry to hear of his last misfortune.

The Allegan poultry show cleared $50 this year. Last year it cleared nineteen cents.

Rev. J. J. VanZanten conducted services in the church at Roseland of which Rev. Wm. Moerdyke is pastor, last Sunday.

Miss Eggleston is equally at home in comedy or pathos, and so closely does she combine these that laughter and tears follow each other in rapid succession.—Benton Harbor Palladium.

County Drain Commissioner Grow will open his office in the court house on February 1. The location of the office in Grand Haven is an innovation on the part of the commissioner. A room in the basement has been provided.

According to facts which have been gathered by the Detroit Tribune from 570 rural mail carriers in Michigan, the claim is made that the annual average profit of a rural mail carrier is only $7.

Gerrit Boerman of the West Michigan factory had the second finger of his right hand so badly lacerated that it was thought for a time that amputation would be necessary. The wound was dressed by Dr. Imus who thinks the finger can be saved.

The Loyal Temperance Legion of Holland gave a fine entertainment in the parlors of Hope church Monday evening and it was well attended. Violin selections given by Mr. Van Haslet and temperance stories delivered by Roy Heath and others were received with loud applause. The fair sex furnished the crowd with home made candy and it was sweet as honey. The next meeting will be held in the M. E. church Monday evening, February 8. Everybody invited.

There has recently come into employment of medical men a special antiseptic suit to be worn by physicians when attending contagious diseases. The suit is all in one piece and is put on over the physician's ordinary clothing covering the entire body, including hands and feet. Only a small portion of the face is left exposed. The suit has been saturated with a powerful antiseptic which is made active by slightly dampening the cloth. Dr. G. G. Taylor of this village has equipped himself with one of these suits to work in contagious diseases.—Allegan News.

Local Carpenters Union Number 1412 has issued the following notice to local carpenter contractors: "In order not to disturb the peace of our boss contractors as we were obliged to last year, we hereby notify the carpenter contractors of Holland Mich., that the wage scale adopted by the local Carpenters' Union, No. 1412, for the season of 1904 commencing the first of May, will be at the rate of 25 cents per hour. Ten hours shall constitute a day. Hoping that we may have the good will of our local contractors and citizens we remain your obedient servants, Local Union No. 1412."

Manager Ed Barrows of the baseball club denies that he has signed Louis Schlappacasse of Ann Arbor for a trial as an infielder. Bert Noblett, the Grand Rapids boy who played last year with the Munroe team of the Cotton State league, and will play there again the coming season, states that Schlappacasse has signed a contract to play with the Munroe team the coming season. He says he is positive of it as the player with the long name was signed through him and the contract mailed from Grand Rapids. He also states that Pitcher Paige of the Mt. Pleasant and Ionia teams has signed a Munroe contract.

The Rev. James F. Zwemer has undoubtedly done the cause of catechetical instruction a great service by a faithful translation from Dutch into English of an elementary catechism composed for little children by the Rev. Jacob Boretius, of Holland. There have been different editions of this valuable little catechism from time to time and deviating from the original. The one translated by Rev. Mr. Zwemer is from the authenticated copy edited some years ago by the professors of the Theological Seminary at Kampen, Netherlands. In response to many requests an English translation has been prepared. The lessons are of uniform length, nine questions and answers to a page. The booklet contains 28 pages of questions and answers, and in addition two hymns, one by Muhlenberg, beginning "Saviour, who Thy flock art feeding," and one by Alice B. Hyde, beginning "Dear Saviour, if these lambs should stray," also the Lord's Prayer and the Apostles' Creed. We know of no other catechism better adapted to teach little children the rudiments of Bible truths.—Dr. J. H. Karsten in the Christian Intelligencer.

SLASHED

WITH A BUTCHER KNIFE

His Throat After Butchering the Pig.

Henry G. Smith, living about four miles north of this city, slashed his throat with a butcher knife yesterday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock and died, while two of his neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Derk Derksen were present.

Mr. Smith had just finished the job of butchering a pig for Mr. Derksen. "Here it goes," he said, "that job is done and I'll work no more." Then while his neighbors stood aghast he drew the knife across his throat three times, cutting it from ear to ear. He stumbled along the snow for a few rods and fell on his hands and knees, the blood gushing from him in a stream. Mr. Derksen fainted and his wife could do nothing to aid Smith who died soon after the knife touched his throat.

M. Notier was notified and with Coroner Mastenbroek went to the scene of the suicide and brought Smith's body to his undertaking establishment in this city where it now lies.

No cause for the suicide can be ascertained unless it is the fact that Mr. Smith sold his farm last fall and was despondent on that account. However, it may be that a strain of insanity runs in the family. Our files of May 5th, 1888, state that Smith's brother committed suicide in a tragic manner in Zeeland. He entered DePree's store, bought a large pocket knife and saying, "Is this a good knife, I'll see," cut his throat and died in a few minutes. A cousin of Mr. Smith's also took the suicide method of ending his life. His name was Dirk Plaasman and he hanged himself at East Saugatuck about ten days ago.

Mr. Smith was about 38 years of age, leaves a wife and three children. His wife is a cripple and cannot walk without the aid of crutches. The father of the suicide was the late Gradus Smith, known as "Jockey" Smith. One of his brothers is a mute and his dumb manifestations of sorrow were pitiful when he saw the remains at the undertaking establishment this morning.

No disposition has been made of the body, as Mr. Notier is waiting to hear from relatives of the deceased.

Do not forget to attend the organ recital given by Prof. Herbert Foster Sprague at Hope church this evening.

J. S. Morton and W. S. Morrow of Benton Harbor were victims of the holdup of the interurban cars by the blizzard Saturday and Sunday. They came here Saturday on the Pere Marquette intending to go to Saugatuck by way of the interurban to attend the funeral of Mrs. W. J. Hancock which was to have taken place last Sunday afternoon. But no cars ran to Saugatuck Sunday and as the roads were impassable, no liveryman was willing to undertake the drive, and Messrs. Morton and Morrow were forced to remain at Hotel Holland. On account of the inclement weather the funeral of Mrs. Hancock was postponed until tomorrow.

Days Of Dizziness

Come to Hundreds of Holland People.

There are days of dizziness: Spells of headache, sick-ache, back-ache. Sometimes rheumatic pains. Often urinary disorders. All tell you plainly the kidneys are sick. Doan's Kidney Pills for kidney ills. Here is proof in Holland.

Mrs. M. Shonaker, 256 West 15th st., says: "I suffered from constant heavy aching pains across the small of my back so that I could not rest comfortably at night in any position and during the day I felt tired and languid. The kidney secretions became bad, my appetite irregular, too frequent, scanty and were attended by a good deal of pain besides depositing a heavy sediment. I suffered also from headaches and spells of dizziness so that I either had to sit down or hold on to something from falling. I used a great many different remedies but without obtaining any benefit. Friends advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at J. O. Doesburg's drug store and used them. They helped me from the very start. They are the best remedy I ever tried and I have no hesitation in recommending them."

DEATH AND RUIN CAUSED BY WIND

Cyclone Visits the Little Town of Moundville, Ala., With Terrible Results.

Thirty-Seven Persons Lose Their Lives—Over 100 Are Injured—Force of Wind Blows People from Their Beds—Much Property Is Destroyed.

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Jan. 23.—A disastrous tornado swept over Moundville, Ala., a town of 300 inhabitants, 15 miles south of Tuscaloosa, early Thursday, and as a result 37 persons were killed and more than 100 injured. Every business house with the exception of a small drug store, was completely destroyed. The tornado struck the city from the southwest and mowed a path of a quarter of a mile wide through the town.

Force of the Storm.

By the force of the storm persons were blown hundreds of feet from their beds in the blackness of night. Through terror, a father, mother and three children, fled from their home to seek refuge, and in their excitement left a five-year-old boy in bed. To-day he was pulled from beneath some timber and thus far it is impossible to find any other member of the family. Bedding, carpets and wearing apparel are scattered for a distance of ten miles through what was a forest, but which is now as clear as if cut by

WEATHER IS SEVERE.

Cold Wave Sweeping Through the Northwest—Losses by Floods in Various States.

Duluth, Minn., Jan. 25.—With one exception Sunday was the coldest day since 1864. The government thermometer registered 37 degrees below zero early in the day and at eight o'clock p. m. at 24 below. Forty-seven degrees below zero was reported at Ely, on the Vermillion range, Sunday morning, while towns on the Mesaba range reported from 35 to 45 below.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 25.—The coldest weather of the winter was experienced in the entire northwest Sunday. Superior reported a maximum temperature of 36 degrees below zero, LaCrosse 26 and Milwaukee 15. Reports from the country say a large number of cattle have been frozen to death.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 25.—The flood has in a great measure passed this point, but portions of the two cities are still submerged and will not be freed from the water for some hours. The biting cold weather that has prevailed all day augmented the distress which exists in the flooded sections.

The toll of death from the heavy floods throughout the state was increased Saturday. The bridge at Sharpsville was swept away and Victor Dunham and three foreigners were drowned. Jacob Hoffman, of Salem, O., was drowned in Yankee Run while trying to ford the stream. Four men and a woman who attempted to ford a stream at Sharon were swept away and it is reported that all were drowned.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 25.—Five lives lost, the woodman's ax. Freight cars were torn to splinters, the trucks from them being hurled hundreds of feet from the track.

WHAT A COMBINATION IT WOULD MAKE.

Property Destroyed.

The depot, the hotel, warehouses, gins, 30 homes, the storehouses occupied by R. L. Griffin, A. W. Wiggins & Son, J. W. Domenick, A. D. Griffin and W. P. Phifer, together with their stocks, were completely destroyed. Where they stood it is impossible to find even the pillars upon which these structures rested. Bales of cotton, which were stored in warehouses, were torn to atoms, the fragments of lint lodging in trees, making it appear as though that section had been visited by a snow storm. Heavy iron safes, the doors of which in some instances were torn from their hinges, were carried away by the force of the wind.

TIRES OF WAITING.

Russia Informed by Japan That She Must Have an Early Reply to Her Recent Note.

Tokio, Jan. 27.—The Japanese government has diplomatically intimated to Baron de Rosen, the Russian minister, that an early response is desired to Japan's recent note to Russia. It is calculated here that the Japanese note reached the Russian cabinet on the afternoon of January 16, and it is felt that sufficient time has elapsed for its consideration, and the preparation of a response. The Japanese government is conscious of the possible necessities of the military and naval situation, and is unwilling to permit evasions and delays which are designed to gain time. The future course of the Japanese government is a carefully guarded secret.

Agreed to Die Together.

Pendleton, Ore., Jan. 27.—The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Brown, of Reinebeck, Ia., were found in the hills south of town Tuesday. Mrs. Brown had been shot in the breast and her throat cut from ear to ear with a razor. Brown had shot himself in the head and swallowed poison. A note found said they were tired of life and had agreed to die together.

Significant Advice.

Manila, Jan. 26.—The Japanese merchants in this city have received advice from the home government that in case of the outbreak of hostilities they had better transfer their business over to the Americans.

Operations Resumed.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 26.—The Acme Harvester company of this city, closed for several months because of financial difficulties, Monday resumed operations with a force of several hundred operatives.

damage to property reaching over $2,000,000, business almost suspended, mills and factories idle, steam and electric railway traffic paralyzed, is the result of one of the worst floods in the section east of Cleveland, including the extreme western part of Pennsylvania.

NO OPPOSITION.

Mitchell Re-elected President of the United Mine Workers and Other Officers Chosen.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 27.—The report of the tellers on the election of national officers of the United Mine Workers was received by the convention yesterday. President Mitchell, Vice President Lewis and Secretary-Treasurer Wilson are re-elected. The full vote of the organization was not cast. Mitchell, as the head of the ticket, received 92,633 votes. Lewis received 91,810 votes and Wilson 91,875. They had no opposition.

The newly elected delegates to the American Federation of Labor are John Mitchell, T. L. Lewis, W. B. Wilson, W. H. Haskins, of Ohio; William Ryan, of Illinois; John Fahy, of Pennsylvania, district No. 9, and John T. Dempsey, of district No. 1.

The mine workers have authorized the levying of 15 cents a month in addition to the present ten cents per capita tax for the support of strikes. This increase will go into effect at once, and on a basis of a membership of 290,000 in good standing should bring into the national treasury approximately $70,000 a month.

Educators Will Meet June 28. Winona, Minn., Jan. 23.—Secretary Irwin Shepard announces that the executive committee of the National Educational association has changed the date for opening the annual convention in St. Louis from July 5 to June 28. The convention will be held one week earlier to avoid conflict with the national democratic convention.

Fire in a Skyscraper.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—A spectacular fire in the Masonic Temple famed as one of the largest office buildings in the world, frightened the 5,000 occupants scattered about the 19 floors of the structure Saturday afternoon and caused a property loss of $20,000. A number of persons were slightly injured by the flames or in the rush for safety.

Eight Drowned.

New York, Jan. 25.—With a life-saving crew scarcely 200 yards away doing its utmost to aid, eight members of the crew of the schooner Augustus Hunt were washed from the wreck of that vessel at Quogue, L. I., Saturday and drowned. Only two were saved.

Life

Liabile to Paralytic Stroke.

"This is to certify that I have used Dr. Miles' Remedies quite extensively, especially the Restorative Nerve, which has done wonders for me. Six years ago I had nervous prostration and again three years ago, at which time I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve. I kept taking it for six months and have taken an occasional dose during the last two years. I am practically a new man and feel that I have been given a new lease of life. I used to have very bad attacks of stomach trouble but since using the Nerve I can eat most anything I want with impunity. I was examined in Omaha by a noted German doctor three years ago. He told me I was liable to a paralytic stroke any moment; that my whole left side was badly affected. That was just before I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve. My work for two years and a half has been very trying on my nerves. I am a presiding elder, traveling my districts at the rate of ten thousand miles a year, preaching on an average of five times a week, besides many business meetings, and the multitudinous cares of my work in general. Thanks to Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve I have been gaining in flesh despite this hard work until now I weigh a hundred and ninety-six pounds, nearly twenty pounds more than in all my life. I preach Nerve wherever I go to those afflicted with nerve, heart or stomach trouble."—Rev. M. D. Myers, Presiding Elder, Free Methodist Church, Correctionville, Ia.

It Is a Mistaken Idea

To give too much time to the selection of a Piano; this time could better be spent in selecting a dealer. It should not be hard to size him up by the very appearance of things; for instance, if he be disposed to depreciate his competitor, its pretty strong evidence he hasn't much to offer for himself. One may well have reason to be suspicious of a dealer who promises very much more than is promised by other dealers in a like business. Select the dealer right and the good piano follows. Look up our record. Ask any of our customers how they like the Raymond. They all agree its the finest instrument they ever saw. We can suit you in price and style. $300 to $425.

RESPONSIBLE FOR IROQUOIS HORROR

Coroner's Jury Renders Verdict Holding Mayor Harrison and Seven Others to Grand Jury.

Officials Under Him Charged with Neglect in Enforcing Ordinances—Accused Men Taken Into Custody and Give Bonds—May Cost City Millions of Dollars.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—On charges of criminal negligence and gross incompetency Mayor Carter H. Harrison was held to the grand jury at 11:30 o'clock Monday night as responsible for the Iroquois theater fire by the coroner's jury which investigated the horror. With the mayor were held to the grand jury Fire Chief William H. Musham, City Building Inspector George Williams, Building Inspector Edward Laughlin, Fireman William Saller and Will J. Davis, part owner; William McMullen, electric light operator, and James E. Cummings, stage carpenter of the Iroquois theater.

Held Responsible.

The jurors censured all the above named men and held them responsible for the loss of life. The verdict binds them over to the grand jury until discharged by due process of law. Mitigations were issued during the early hours of this morning.

The verdict of the coroner's jury, in addition to holding the eight men named responsible for the loss of life at the fire, makes recommendations that changes be made in the manner in which the laws are enforced. It asks modifications in the city building ordinances. Most of these changes, however, have been made by the city council in the new theater ordinance.

Men Are Arrested.

Mayor Harrison was the first of the eight whom the coroner's jury held to the grand jury for examination in connection with the Iroquois theater disaster, to be placed under technical arrest. His bail, as well as that of the other men held, was placed at $5,000, which was furnished by his brother, Preston Harrison, and Heaton Owsley.

The other men arrested and their bondsmen were as follows: Will J. Davis—Bondsmen, William A. Pinkerton; Marshal Musham—bondsmen, Daniel D. Healy and James Carle; Building Commissioner Williams—bondsmen, Victor Falkenhau and A. J. Graham; Stage Carpenter Cummings—bondsmen, Harry J. Powers.

Many Departments Scored.

Every department in the city hall with which the jury came in contact is found to be grossly mismanaged. Laxity and carelessness in transacting business reaches the point, according to the jurors, where revision is immediately demanded. The verdict deals a sweeping blow at the present administration, striking at the head and reaching to two principal departments of city business. Conditions that surprised the business men on the jury were revealed as soon as the inquiry into the city hall affairs began. Incompetence and inefficiency were found on every side.

Makes City Liable.

A second blow to the city will come when the report of the jury is fully known. Millions of dollars in damage suits are said to be likely because the city administration is found to be accountable for permitting the possibility of a huge calamity. The findings of the coroner's jury are said to make the city a party to any legal action that may be taken by the relatives of victims.

Special Grand Jury.

The arrangements for the special grand jury will be completed when State's Attorney Deneen returns from Springfield. Meanwhile Assistant State's Attorney Barnes has begun arrangements to secure witnesses and determine the points of law involved. The present grand jury ends its work Saturday, and the special body may be called into session any time next week.

Mayor Harrison, dejected and in dismay, feels that his political ambitions have been blighted by the verdict of the coroner's jury holding him among those responsible for the Iroquois theater horror. Many friends offer consolation and other accused officials discuss the jury's finding.

Carnation for State Flower.

Columbus, O., Jan. 27.—The house has adopted a joint resolution offered by Representative Hill, of Columbiana county, making the scarlet carnation the state flower. The concurrence of the senate is assured. The scarlet carnation was a favorite of the late President McKinley, and the resolution declares shall be the state flower as a token of love and reverence of the people of Ohio for him.

Pluck In Beet Raising.

The Owosso Sugar company lost money on its big prairie sugar beet farm last season. But back of this story of loss is a tale of pluck and perseverance that should ultimately result in the triumph and the great prosperity of the Sugar company. Here are a few of the reasons for the loss: In the first place eight or ten thousands of acres of land had to be reclaimed from the waters and swamps by means of dykes. The dykes were built in the spring and the rising river broke through the soft dirt. One day the dykes gave way and the rushing water ruined 800 acres of beets. In the second place the raising of sugar beets was new to Owosso last season and lack of experience was responsible for considerable of the loss on the prairie.

But in spite of the fact that the big farm showed a balance on the wrong side of the ledger the Owossoes are not discouraged and will keep on fighting the waters and the evils of inexperience until at least 9000 acres of beets are grown on the lands of the company. If there is a way to win, the Owossoes will find it.

They will not belike some of the people of this section. These people rented lands and went into beet raising on a large scale the first year of the Holland Sugar factory but they did not make a fortune the first trial and did not make a second one. Had they made the second trial subsequent events showed they would have cleared a tidy sum, for B. Riksen ran a big farm for the sugar company and made a success of it.

The managers of the Sugar Company did not make the mistake that some of the private individuals did. They kept right on trying and to their keeping on, largely as much as to the good work of the farmers is due the great prosperity of the company and the consequent and corresponding prosperity of the farmers of this vicinity who have gone about the work of raising sugar beets aright.

The Interurban Habit.

Holland had a taste the last few days of old fashioned blizzard weather, and incidentally it had a taste of what life would mean without interurban roads. For two days entirely and for several other days in large part the interurban was blocked with snow to a degree that made traffic impossible.

In spite of the most energetic and well directed efforts of Superintendent Busby and his force of men, the snow and cold held the balance of power part of Saturday, all of Sunday and part of Monday. Mail could not be sent to Saugatuck, and passengers bound for Grand Rapids and intervening points and for Saugatuck were compelled to stay in Holland until the blizzard was overcome.

Then was brought home forcibly to everyone bound for somewhere the inconvenience and hardship of being without a chance to travel on the interurban. Still, a few years ago people did not seem to care whether they were shut out from the world or not. Saugatuck people, for instance, before the days of the interurban lived long and happily, never troubling themselves with the bustle and bustle of the outside world. But now they have become addicted to the interurban habit and they protest most vigorously when they are shut away from communication with the world, even for a day.

This interurban habit grows voraciously on a person and Holland and Saugatuck have reached a point where they cannot get along without it.

To Get or Not to Get an Appropriation.

To get an appropriation for Holland Harbor or not to get an appropriation, that is the question that today is troubling the harbor committee of this city and Congressman William Alden Smith. The harbor committee is troubled because it knows that the harbor is sadly in need of a large appropriation and a failure to obtain it will interfere materially with the onward march of the city. Congressman Smith is troubled because he knows that Holland harbor is dear to the hearts of the people of Holland, that it is an appropriation badly, and he would like to make the hearts of his constituents glad by prevailing upon Uncle Sam to grant their just demands, made in response to their imperative needs.

And now comes the committee on rivers and harbors and announces that there shall be no river and harbor bill at the present session of Congress. This is bad news, for it will be very hard to get a special bill through, and try as hard as he might, Mr. Smith will scarcely succeed in doing it. However, he will make a great effort, but he will labor under innumerable difficulties, many more than would be the case were a general bill passed. Failure will mean another wait for Holland, and in the meantime we must grin and bear it and lose trade and prestige.

In explanation of the postponement of the bill until next session, Chairman Burton made the following statement:

"The main reason for this action was the very large balance appropriated for river and harbor improvements which is now lying in the treasury unexpended. This balance at the end of last year was something in excess of $38,000,000. In addition to this it is expected that $8,700,000 or thereabouts will be appropriated with this session in the sundry civil bill for the continuance of work on rivers and harbors where improvements are progressing under contracts."

Oratorical Contest Won by Jacob Pelgrim.

Jacob Pelgrim of the junior class won the oratorical contest at Winants chapel last Friday night in a trial of forensic skill that was remarkable for its closeness. He won because of an oration that was so good in thought that it stood second in the list and because of a delivery that was unsurpassed by any of the other contestants. Indeed it is doubtful if Hope has ever furnished an orator that excels Mr. Pelgrim in delivery. His voice is rich and strong, his enunciation clear, and his platform presence graceful and easy. His oration was delivered under adverse circumstances. The ventilation of the chapel had not been properly attended to and the presence of foul air, added to the strain incident to the pronouncing of his oration, caused a faintness that made Mr. Pelgrim break down and sink into his chair. He was carried to the council room where he revived in a short time. Mr. Pelgrim's victory gives him the honor of representing Hope at the intercollegiate oratorical contest to be held at Adrian, February 4. He also received a cash prize of $20. This is the first time that cash prizes have been conferred. The prizes were given by Cornelius Dosker of Grand Rapids.

John Van Zumeren, of the senior class, won second place and a cash prize of $15. His subject was, "The Dawn of English Liberty." Andrew J. Kolyo, of the sophomore class won third place. Subject, "China for the Chinese." Andrew Stegenga was fourth, subject, "The Trail of the Serpent." Mr. Pelgrim received three ones in delivery; Mr. Van Zumeren, received three ones on thought and style. Mr. Pelgrim was second in thought and style, while Mr. Van Zumeren was tied for second place in delivery with Mr. Kolyo.

All of the contestants made a good showing and the contest will go on the chronicles of Hope as one of the most interesting ever held.

The judges on thought and composition were Prof. F. H. Trueblood, Prof. G. Retzer, and Prof. A. J. Ladd, all of Ann Arbor; the judges on delivery were Attorney George A. Farr of Grand Haven, Supt. J. E. Carke of the city schools, and Prof. N. M. Steffens. Attorney Farr announced the decision of the judges. A. J. Mue president of Hope's Oratorical Association, presided.

Interest in oratorical contests grows in intensity each year. The one last Friday night attracted an audience that completely filled Winants chapel, the din of the official shouters was as great as usual, and the feeling of excitement was as contagious as ever.

The Times and the First State Bank.

In some parts of the country the times are beginning to be a little hard. Money is getting a little tighter than usual and work is not as plenty as it should be. This is very likely due to the fact that a political campaign is impending, and that there is always a certain number of timid ones who are slow to embark in business enterprises in presidential election year. They are slow to embark for the reason that there might possibly be a change of administration and they do not know what this change will bring forth. Then again, the hard winter we are having may have something to do with the close times.

But there is an institution in this city that indicates easy times instead of hard times. That is the First

State bank. Never in its history has its condition reached such a high mark of prosperity. The official report of the bank in this issue of the News shows that the million mark has been passed, the resources footing up a total of $1,063,216.04. It shows a surplus fund of $15,000 a raise of $5000 on the previous surplus. It shows in fact many more evidences of prosperity and should be read with care. This bank opened for business, December 26, 1899, and as an indication of its progress the following comparative statement of business for the last ten years is given:

|-----------|-----------------------|---------------|
| 1894, " " | 232,960 79 | |
| 1895, " " | 283,454 92 | |
| 1896, " " | 307,421 86 | |
| 1897, " " | 384,915 74 | |

| 1902, " " | 976,678 38 | |
| 1903, " " | 1,034,064 09 | |

During the last ten years this bank has paid its depositors in interest the total amount of $117,478 02.

The officers of the First State bank are: President, G. J. Diekema; vice president, J. W. Beardslee; cashier, G. W. Mokma; assistant cashier, Henry J. Luideus. The board of directors consists of J. W. Bosman, J. W. Beardslee, J. W. Garvelink, G. W. Mokma, G. J. Kollen, Isaac Marsilje, G. J. Diekema, Henry Kremers and W. J. Gardud.

Katherine Eggleston In "When Knighthood Was In Flower"

"When Knighthood Was In Flower," the masterpiece of Mr. Charles Major, will be rendered at Winants chapel next Wednesday evening, February 3 by Miss Katherine Eggleston. Do not fail to attend this, the last number of the Hope college lecture course. It is one of the best numbers ever given.

Miss Eggleston is a graduate of the Ohio Wesleyan University; a graduate of the School of Oratory of the same institution; a graduate of the Boston school of Oratory, being one of the favorites of the distinguished master, Moses True Brown; and she has done special work in literature in the Boston University. She is a poet whose aesthetic verse has received high recognition and she is the embodiment of those forces combined in the term "great personality." A glance at her picture shows a face of marked beauty and strength, a form of graceful mold, eyes of a wonderful fascinating power; her voice is musical, pleasantly pitched, vitally resonant and withal thoroughly manly. Her culture expresses itself in grace, good taste and a charming person.

Miss Eggleston is so full of the radiant spirit of Mary Tudor that she charmingly depicts her love, her coaxing, her quarrels and her victory over opposition. It is a vivid picture of the court of Henry VIII, with his beautiful sister as the central figure. Miss Eggleston in the costume of that period makes Mary Tudor live again, and impresses the audience with the romantic atmosphere of old England.

General Items

One of the lady clerks at the Grange store is reported as about to commit matrimony. Last year she wrote her name and address on a number of eggs and this week she received a letter from a gentleman living in New York City who says he is about 25 years old, good looking and that he can furnish excellent references. His name is C. C. Neilson and if you hear of a wedding in the near future don't be surprised, stranger things have happened.—Allegan News.

The Michigan Central railway has just completed at Niles one of the largest hot houses ever operated by a railroad system. In this conservatory the company house all the plants set out in station grounds in summer and produces the thousands of small bouquets given away to passengers and used to adorn dining cars of the system. It is the custom of the company to present to each woman passenger on the fast trains stopping at Niles a small bouquet.

Harry V. Huston, a well-known young business man of Ludington, who is inclined to be quite democratic in his ways, gave a unique party to a few friends. It was gotten up for the purpose of burlesquing the swell affairs recently given at the big Stearns hotel, and the guests were dressed like tramps. The bill of fare was principally made up of roast pig, though the side dishes were somewhat more dainty than tramps generally come across. The "banquet" was held in the basement of the house on kitchen tables, the dishes were of the cheapest tin, and the ice cream was dipped out of a wheelbarrow with tin cups.

Wonderful Nerve.

Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental cuts, wounds, bruises, scalds, sore feet or stiff joints. But there's no need for it. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best salve on earth for Piles too. 25c at W. C. Walsh, druggist.

H. Boone, sr.'s, Residence will be a Hospital

Holland will have a hospital. That important fact was determined at a meeting held in the office of Attorney Arend Visscher Tuesday at which were present the committee and the sub-committee of the hospital project. The hospital will be located in the residence of H. Boone, sr., on the corner of Ninth street and Central avenue. The building is of brick, two stories high, has eighteen rooms and is heated throughout with the hot water system. It is suitable in every respect for hospital purposes and its central situation makes it the most desirable place for a hospital that can be obtained in the city. The rent is $30 per month for the first year and $35 per month for the second year.

Mr. Boone and family will move into another house soon and the building will be turned over to the hospital committee February 25.

A. F. Henken, who will have charge of the hospital, will have it ready for occupancy about the first of March. He is buying furniture now and expects the cost of the equipment will be about $500. Mr. Henken will be assisted by his wife, his brother and his brother's wife. It has been planned that Mr. Henken receive aid from the churches and from the city to the amount of $200 per annum. This with the income from patients will be enough, it is expected to pay the running expenses of the hospital.

The plan of conducting the hospital as outlined in articles drawn up by Attorney Visscher follows in brief: That the several churches of the city be requested to appoint annually one of its members as a member of the hospital board, provided that every church which has a membership of 200 or over be requested to appoint one member for a term of one year and one member for a term of two years; that said several persons so appointed, together with the mayor of the city, ex-officio, constitute what shall be known as the "hospital board"; that said board shall effect an organization by the election of a president, secretary and treasurer; that said officers and the mayor, together with one member to be elected by the board, shall constitute an executive committee; that said board shall hold annual meetings and such special meetings as may be called by its executive committee or by any five of its members requesting the president to call a meeting; that it be the duty of every member of this board to use his best efforts to promote the object of this organization and especially to interest the church organization of which he is a member in the encouragement and financial support of such hospital; that the board shall be authorized to receive and disburse moneys for hospital purposes, and that it shall annually audit the books and financial reports of its officers, and publish through one or more of the local newspapers a report of its doings during the preceding year and a financial statement of all the moneys by it received and disbursed.

Fell Into the Basement.

Mrs. P. Slioter, 225 West Eleventh street, is in a serious condition from the results of a fall sustained last night. She was taken with a severe headache about 3 o'clock this morning and in searching for a headache powder opened the wrong door and fell into the basement. Her head was badly cut and the shock, together with the injuries, has made her condition serious. If no complications set in chances are that she may recover. Dr. Leenhouts is attending her.

De Grootwet, published in this city, now enters over a million homes. It is mentioned in a story, "The Day of the Wedding," by Louise Forslund in the February Ladies Home Journal, and as the Journal has the largest circulation of any periodical in the country, reaching over a million, De Grootwet will be brought to the attention of these readers. Like many other Hollanders Billy Blom, one of the characters in this story, could not get along without the leading Dutch paper in the United States, and after supper "he drew a long sigh and took up his newspaper De Grootwet."

Coming, May Parker's Pickaninies. At Winants Chapel February 19 under the auspices of the High School senior class.

The banquet which was to be given Friday evening by the Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church when the mitzv boxes were to be opened, has been indefinitely postponed.

There is a delicacy in introducing the subject of fine combs to a customer. In his adv. this week, H. Van der Ploeg, proprietor of The Book Store, carefully avoids mentioning the article.

Services at the M. E. church during the past several weeks conducted by Rev. Luther and Fred DeWeerd have been very successful in every way. Meetings were also held in the shoe factory and they are being continued this week.

The Detroit News-Tribune ran an excellent cut of James DePree in last Sunday's issue and had the following item: "James DePree, is a candidate for first base. He comes from Holland, Mich., where he played for three years with a great reputation for all-around cleverness. DePree is a '07 lit."

Miller Bros. store at Miner Lake, a station four miles north of Allegan was destroyed by fire Tuesday morning about 9:30 o'clock. The loss is placed at $2,000 partly insured. George Miller was postmaster and the office was in the store. The mail case and all the mail burned, including about 100 letters. All the office records were destroyed.

The pool match at the Cody billiard rooms in Grand Rapids last Friday evening between Tod Hascall of Grand Rapids and Charles Taylor of this city was a very tame affair. Taylor, played a slow game, and at the end of the ninth frame Hascall was so far ahead that the odds in his favor among the bettors were placed $20 to $2.50. The score was 157 to 104.

Bertha G. Newman, who recently began suit in the circuit court for a divorce from John Elieman, on the grounds of cruelty, filed an amended bill of complaint in the county clerk's office yesterday. She alleges that her husband owns considerable property in Ottawa county and that he is endeavoring to dispose of it. She asks that he be restrained from making the sale—Grand Rapids Herald.

Last evening at her home, 179 East Eighth street, Miss Agnes Mohr entertained at a miscellaneous show in honor of Miss Jeanne Blom. A delightful evening was passed playing hearts. The head prize was in the form of a heart and the decorations throughout were hearts in white and red. The bride elect was showered with articles ranging from tinware to china. Dainty refreshments were served.

The missionary society of the M. E. church will meet next Tuesday, Feb. 2, at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Barth, 274 Maple street. This meeting promises to be one of unusual interest. Mrs. Barth having spent two years in India, has several mementoes brought from that country, and there will also be on exhibit curios from China. A cordial invitation is extended to ladies whether members of the church or not, to attend this meeting as visitors are always welcome.

The Sioux City (Iowa) Journal of this week contains the following additional facts regarding the murder and suicide in which Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Bolks formerly of Overisel, figured in Los Angeles, Cal.: The will of Mr. Bolks is said to provide for the distribution of the estate, which is valued at between $50,000 and $75,000, among the wife and the five children. The former being dead, the entire estate will pass to the children and a guardian will be appointed for them. The will was signed by Mrs. Bolks, as well as by her husband, she thus signifying that the terms of the will were satisfactory. The funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Bolks was held in Sioux City Monday.

Services will be conducted in the English language on Sunday evenings in the First Reformed church as soon as further arrangements can be made, therefore, which is expected, will be a week from next Sunday evening. The making of this change was decided upon at a congregational meeting held last Monday evening. The special committee consisting of G. T. Huizings, H. Geerlings, K. Schadelee, A. H. Meyer, B. Steketee and A. Van der Haar, which was appointed at a previous meeting to ascertain the feeling of the congregation in the matter, submitted a report in favor of the change and it was adopted unanimously after a short discussion. A Very Close Call

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. TRADE REVIEW.

The General Situation as Viewed by Leading Commercial Agencies—Effect of Weather Felt.

New York, Jan. 23.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "Weather conditions have furnished the chief influences in the general trade situation. To some extent traffic has been hindered especially at the east. Retail distribution of footwear and heavy wearing apparel felt the stimulus, and annual clearance sales removed accumulations of dry goods, millinery, etc. Wholesale business is fairly active, traveling salesmen sending in about average orders, and jobbing trade is normal. Manufacturing plants are more active, with little change in quotations, and the outlook for spring trade is considered favorable. Iron and steel plants that resumed at the turn of the year have obtained sufficient business to continue operating, and thus far the adjustment of wages has not produced the threatened strikes. "Failures this week numbered 358 in the United States against 265 last year, and 33 in Canada compared with 27 a year ago."

THE SPECIALIST,

WEEDS

Consumption is a humor weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

We will send you a little of the Emulsion free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

RECOVER REMAINS OF THE VICTIMS

Charred Bodies of Those Who Met Death in Mine Explosion Are Brought to Surface.

ARE TAKEN TO SCHOOLHOUSE TRANSFORMED INTO MORGUE

Inspectors Busy Locating Bodies—Stranger Discovered Among Victims and Disaster May Have Been Caused by Him—Gross Story of One of the Searchers.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 27.—The real day of sorrow for the residents of the village of Harwick has arrived.

The charred and blackened remains of the victims of the explosion at the Allegheny Coal company's mine are being found in large numbers and are brought to the surface.

Forty-nine hours after the explosion the first body was hoisted from the bottom of the pit. Then, one at a time, 21 others were brought from the black hole and carried to the morgue at the schoolhouse. After that the sad work progressed as rapidly as the conditions would permit.

Headless, naked, charred beyond recognition, dismembered and horribly mangled, is descriptive of the condition of the bodies found by searchers. There are six mine inspectors and 22 men at work, the inspectors penetrating into unexplored regions locating bodies while the main body of searchers came afterward to extricate and carry out the blackened bodies.

Stranger Is Found.

Among the bodies found was that of a stranger. Clothes were on it and it was only slightly burned. Who he was or what he was doing in the mine no one seems to know. While he is believed to have been a miner who was making a visit to the shaft there is a possibility that he was not and that he may not have been aware of the danger in gaseous mines. He may unwittingly have caused the explosion by lighting a match.

This is merely a conjecture on the part of some of the searchers and is based on the fact that he escaped the force of the explosion, which, they say, would be heaviest in the direction away from the point where the gas was lighted than right at the spot. Against the theory that the stranger might have caused the explosion is the fact that it would be contrary to all precedent for him to have been allowed to enter the mine unless he gave up all the matches he carried and went under the care of an experienced guide.

Filled in a Heap.

H. A. McMillen, who led one party of searchers, said: "Fifteen bodies were found in butt 1 of the south entry. All of them, with the exception of the stranger, were badly burned and mangled. One had his head blown off. In room 1 of the south entry we found two men lying face downward near each other. They had evidently been killed by the force of the explosion. In another place we found six men, all negroes, I believe. Five were in a heap and one was pinned under a car. We found the driver of that entry lying along the roadway where he had been blown. Rooms 10 and 12, south entry, are caved to the depth of five feet. There are several men buried there, as there are undoubtedly men buried under rock in other parts of the mine. For this reason it will be weeks before all of the bodies are recovered."

Killed by Explosion.

Inspector Cunningham says the air in the mine is getting better every hour, but there is still considerable gas encountered. From the condition of the bodies he thinks now that the men were killed by the force of the explosion and not by after-damp, as at first suggested.

Beds of the living were stripped and the clothing sent to the mines to cover the corpses as they were brought up. John Dean, acting captain of the Pittsburg police squad on duty here, has orders to prevent the bodies from being viewed at the shaft mouth in order to minimize the sufferings of the bereaved who await every ascent of the cage. A car load of coffins was brought to Cheswick on the first train and taken to the mines. They were ordered by the company for the interment of the dead as fast as the corpses can be identified.

Another Rescuer Dead.

Another rescuer has met death in the mine. David Lysle, a volunteer miner from Leechburg, Pa., went down the shaft Tuesday night with Thomas Farrell and William Davis. When his companions came up Wednesday they reported that Lysle had been overcome by gas and had died before any assistance could be rendered him. His body was found in the afternoon.

Must Serve Sentence.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Ald. John J. Brennan, convicted of election fraud, lost his habeas-corpus fight Wednesday afternoon. Judge George W. Brown quashed the temporary writ secured for Brennan and remanded him to the bridewell. This means that unless Brennan can secure his freedom by some other means he will be forced to remain till the end of his one-year sentence, imposed by Judge Gary.

Cold Weather in Texas.

Austin, Tex., Jan. 27.—The thermometer has registered below the freezing point in southern and western Texas, and fell as low as 18 above, which is considered very cold. Reports from cattle ranges are that cattle are in very good shape, owing to the continued dry weather, but are sadly in need of water for drinking.

Nature's Restorative

MALTA PURA GIVES MARVELOUS RESULTS IN EVERY CASE, THOUSANDS OF TESTIMONIALS RECEIVED. NOTE WHAT THEY SAY.

It is impossible to publish in the columns of this paper testimonials which will give even the faintest conception of the popular favor which is bestowed on Malta Pura everywhere. Not only do the people who try it speak its praises, but physicians, not a few but in every city welcome it and prescribe it as nature's tonic and a valuable adjunct to the practice of medicine. One lady writes from Los Angeles, California: "I was discouraged. My energy seemed entirely gone. When I awakened in the morning I felt tired, and I had no ambition to work or take any interest in life. My husband heard of Malta Pura, purchased a bottle and this year I am so ambitious I keep everybody on the stir. I certainly feel like a new person."

Another testimonial comes from a young man who had long trouble in St. John's, New Brunswick. "Physicians had given me no encouragement except possible relief by change of climate. My brother who was in Boston, heard of Malta Pura and bought a bottle. I felt better almost from the first dose. I have taken fifteen bottles within the past year, but I have gained 30 pounds in weight and am as healthy as a horse. My lungs seem to be all right." Another comes from a working girl in Providence, Rhode Island. "Overwork broke my nervous system and I was a wreck. I gave up and was ready to die. I began taking Malta Pura and today I am well and strong." A physician in Battle Creek says: "I have prescribed Malta Pura in numerous cases of pulmonary trouble, nervous debility, and when a general tonic is required and the results are extremely satisfactory." We never publish names but keep the original letters on file in our office. We will furnish names of those endorsing Malta Pura to any person writing us. Malta Pura is for sale by all leading druggists at a special price of $1.00 per bottle. Manufactured by Battle Creek Health Beverage Co. Lt.—Battle Creek, Mich.

STERILITY

How shall a mother who is weak and sick with some female trouble bear healthy children?

How anxious women ought to be to give their children the blessing of a good constitution!

Many women long for a child to bless their home, but because of some debility or displacement of the female organs, they are barren.

Preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound more successfully than by any other medicine, because it gives tone and strength to the parts, curing all displacements and inflammation.

Actual sterility in woman is very rare. If any woman thinks she is sterile, let her write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., whose advice is given free to all expectant or would-be mothers. The medicine that instantly asserts its curative powers in the ills of women is

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Read These Two Remarkable Cures.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—During the early part of my married life I was very delicate in health. I had two miscarriages and both my husband and I felt very badly as we were anxious to have children. A neighbor who had been using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advised me to try it, and I decided to do so. I soon felt that my appetite was increasing, the headaches gradually decreased and finally disappeared, and my general health improved. I felt as if new blood coursed through my veins, the sluggish, tired feeling disappeared, and I became strong and well.

"Within a year after, I became the mother of a strong, healthy child, the joy of our home. You certainly have a splendid remedy, and I wish every mother knew of it. Sincerely yours, MRS. ANNA POTTS, 510 Park Ave., Hot Springs, Ark."

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was married for five years, and gave birth to two premature children. After that I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it changed me from a weak, nervous woman to a strong, happy and healthy wife within seven months. Within two years a lovely little girl was born, which is the pride and joy of our household. If every woman who is cured feels as grateful and happy as I do, you must have a host of friends, for every day I bless you for the light, health and happiness your Vegetable Compound has brought to my home. Sincerely your friend, Mrs. MARY P. WHARRY, Flat 31, The Norman, Milwaukee, Wis." Sec. Northshore Oratorical Society.

$5000 FORFEIT If we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness, Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

DEATH CAUSED BY POISON

A Post-Mortem Examination Shows Wright Committed Suicide.

Possibility of Promoter's Escape from Justice Foreseen—Evidence Premonition of Dead Man.

London, Jan. 27.—A post-mortem examination has shown that Whitaker Wright committed suicide by taking cyanide of potassium. The investigation made indicates that Wright must have swallowed the poison while standing before Justice Bigham, after receiving his sentence. It is recalled that Wright pulled a handkerchief from his pocket and appeared to wipe his face, and it is surmised that under cover of this he took the fatal dose.

The possibility of the promoter's escape from justice by suicide was clearly foreseen by Detective Willis, who brought Wright from New York. Acting on hints dropped by Wright during the voyage Willis gave the court officials a special warning to keep the closest guard over him. Towards the conclusion of the trial, especially during Justice Bigham's severe criticism, it became evident that there could only be one verdict, so if Wright was determined on self-destruction in the event of his conviction he had time to prepare a method for outwitting the jailers, as he must have foreseen that an adverse verdict was inevitable.

A strange document was found on the seat in court which had been occupied by Wright, showing that he had a premonition of his sentence. This was a sheet of blotting paper on which he had scribbled during the justice's summing up. The Roman characters "VII" were thickly scattered over the whole sheet. This was before the verdict, but the number coincides with the sentence he received. In the middle of the sheet appears the word "Intent," the last word Wright wrote.

It is reported that a six-chambered revolver, fully loaded, was found in Wright's pocket by the police.

The Flood Situation.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Jan. 27.—The flood situation at Bloomsburg was not improved Wednesday, the Susquehanna river having receded but a few inches. Quarters have been secured for all the homeless and they are being comfortably clothed and fed. Efforts were made to start the great ice gorge by dynamiting it. There has been no attempt to estimate the loss which grows greater every day. Railroad traffic is still suspended in the district.

More Murders Reported.

Berlin, Jan. 27.—The Neueste Nachrichten of Brunswick received a dispatch dated from Karibib, German Southwest Africa, Tuesday, saying that Okahandja was then still holding out against the besieging rebel natives. Official intelligence from Swakopmund says Okahandja reports that 16 persons have been murdered in that district and that 70 people are missing.

Ocean Rate War.

New York, Jan. 27.—A rate war has begun on steamer business between New York and Mediterranean ports. Thus far, according to the lines concerned, the cut affects only east-bound traffic and has made no change in freight charges. Tickets are now five dollars less by Italian lines and four less on the German ships.

Washington, Jan. 23.—The senate on Friday adopted the resolution of inquiry concerning affairs in Panama introduced on the 5th inst, by Senator Gorman, and listened to a speech on the Panama question by Senator Dooliver and another on the subject of recess appointments. The house passed 209 pension bills, and also resolutions calling on the secretary of war and the attorney general for information as to the number of horses and carriages maintained at government expense for officers of these respective departments.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The senate heard further discussion on the question of appointments to office made during congressional recess, listened to a speech on the Isthmian canal question by Senator Morgan and passed a number of bills of a semi-public character. A resolution calling on the secretary of state for information as to the number of carriages maintained by the government for the state department was adopted.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The time of the senate yesterday was again divided between consideration of the Panama question and other subjects. BONDSMEN GIVE UP MAYOR

Chicago Executive Asks for Release on Habeas Corpus Writ.

Attorneys Contend There is No Warrant for Holding Him—Fireman Sellers Surrenders.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Wednesday afternoon Mayor Harrison was surrendered by his bondsmen. Then his lawyers went before Judge Tuthill with a petition for a writ of habeas corpus. This move is to relieve the mayor of the blame put upon him by the coroner's verdict. He desires a speedy vindication.

His lawyers—and he has consulted many—have told him that there is no law, expressed or implied under which he can be held responsible for the Iroquois holocaust.

Judge Tuthill was selected because he is a republican. At last spring's election the confidence which the community has in him was evidenced by the fact that he led the republican candidates. By bringing the writ before Judge Tuthill it is held that all politics or suggestion of politics can be eliminated from the case—that Judge Tuthill's finding will be accepted as final by the community.

When he had found that the petition had been presented in court, Corporation Counsel Tolman, in his office in the city hall, commented on it. He had advised with the mayor earlier in the day.

"This petition is unprecedented in the history of American jurisprudence," said Maj. Tolman. "All technicalities are waived. The mayor asks nothing through technicalities. With the petition are presented the coroner's mittimus, the verdict of the jury, all the testimony taken before the coroner—the complete record of the case. The petition asks simply that the judge look over the record, study the evidence, and if he finds no offense against the law that he order that the mayor be released; if he finds one single offense against the law, that he order that the mayor be remanded to the custody of the sheriff."

William Sellers, Iroquois theater fireman, who was held to the grand jury by the coroner's jury, surrendered himself to the authorities at the Criminal Court building Wednesday morning. He was accompanied by State Representative Jandus and Fred Warnecke, saloonkeeper, who were prepared to furnish his bonds.

Sellers said that he was out of town with some friends when the verdict of the coroner's jury was returned. He did not hear of the verdict, he said, until the Chicago papers reached him.

WILL OPPOSE DEMANDS.

Operators to Seek Reduction in Scale in Coming Conference with the Miners.

Indianapolis, Jan. 27.—Indiana, Ohio, Illinois and Western Pennsylvania operators, who will meet the United Mine Workers Thursday to receive their demands for the year beginning April 1, and to present their own demands, indicate that there will be decided opposition to the demands of the miners. Though their preliminary meetings have not been held, all say there will be a demand for a substantial decrease in the mining scale and that the Ohio and Western Pennsylvania operators at least will never come to the run-of-mine basis and will not concede the differential of seven cents between pick and machine mining.

Frank L. Robbins, president of the Pittsburg Coal company, who has been the floor leader of the operators for several years, will probably take that leadership again. As in past years, his first lieutenant will probably be Walter S. Bogel, of Indiana. These two men generally make the arguments in the joint conferences.

Victims Identified.

Ganzel pays the following compliment to "Tard": Verschure of this city who umpired many of the games between Holland and Ionia last year: "I wish to recommend to the Central league Verschure of Holland as an umpire and can say truthfully that he was the best in Michigan that we run across last year." The foregoing looks well coming from Ionia's captain and indicates that the Ionia club received fair treatment at the hands of Holland. The compliment to Mr. Verschure is well deserved as it is doubtful if there is an umpire in the state as fair, impartial and firm as "Tards."

A Crazy man

Found Eating an Egg, Shell and All.

Rational people thought it was awful, as the shell had no food value, and was, of course, indigestible and injurious.

It is just as crazy for rational people to swallow a lot of cod liver oil, to get the medicinal curatives from it, as it is for the crazy man to eat the egg, shell and all.

Modern science has proved that the oil, or greasy part of cod liver oil, has no value whatever, and only upsets the stomach and retards recovery. It is the medicinal elements which are enveloped in the cod liver oil, of which there are about fifty, that represent all the tonic and curative power of the famous old remedy.

A preparation containing all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cod's livers, but entirely free from oil or grease, must, therefore, be the very best tonic reconstructer possible. Such is Violin. It positively does contain every one of the fifty odd medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, fresh and sweet, just as the egg shell contains the nutritious food, and we throw away the useless, indigestible oil, just as you throw away the egg shell.

Knowing its wonderful medicinal and curative power, we guarantee to restore health and strength to the following or refund their money without question.

Run down, debilitated, tired, overworked people, old people, weak women, nursing mothers, puny, ailing children, convalescents, or to people suffering with hard colds, hacking coughs, incipient consumption and bronchitis. Violin never fails to make rich, red blood and give strength to the weak and health to the sick. Try it on your own guarantee. If it doesn't do you any good it won't cost you a cent.
