CASE INVOLVING FURNACE IS DISMISSED

The case against Henry Martinus, Holland Route two, was dismissed following an examination held Wednesday before Justice C. De Keyser. Mr. Martinus was charged with breaking and entering in connection with the alleged theft of a furnace. The examination was held to determine whether he was guilty of taking a furnace from the garage of John Funkes, corner of 17th street and Pine avenue, in 1929.

Martinus was said to have claimed the furnace was part payment for labor. Justice DeKeyser dismissed the case when evidence to hold Martinus was lacking.

THREE HOPE STARS
ARE HIGH SCORERS

Although Hope college has scored only one conference victory in four starts, three members of the court team are listed among the first ten conference scorers.

Watson Spooner, Hope's star center is in second place with thirty points, yielding first to Restifo of Hillsdale and heading Gussin of Alma, third place, by a point.

Becker and Dalman are occupying seventh and eighth places respectively.

Besides Hope, Hillsdale is the only conference team which has three players listed among the first ten scorers.

There is one case of smallpox in Douglas, the victim being Earl Eaton. Every precaution is being taken to prevent its spread. All public gathering places have been closed for three days, except the school. All the children were vaccinated Monday afternoon. The epidemic started at Glenn a village near Sault Ste. Marie.

NO LICENSE—NO GAS TAX

According to Al Joldersma, head of the auto license bureau for lower Ottawa county, there are 2,000 licenses that still remain unsold and Saturday is the last day of grace. This means, comparing with figures of last year, that the number of licenses sold was less by one-fourth than for 1930.

It is stated that northern Ottawa also falls far short in the sale of license plates over last year. Grand Rapids reports 20,000 license plates issued as against 35,000 last year.

No doubt the stressful period has had considerable bearing on the heavy falling off. It has been advocated by the Secretary of State to extend the time for securing of license plates awhile longer. We believe it is better to change the time of the year from December to February or March—or rather give motorists both months in which to secure their licenses.

The heavy expenses of the year all seem to be dumped in the one month of December including auto license money. It seems that the time has come to spread some of these burdens over the rest of the year. It might be well to start with license plates for example and a bill to that effect, should be introduced or the old law should be revamped accordingly.

While such a law could not be effective this year, it seems that Secretary of State Fitzgerald should now extend the time limit one month longer, or to March 1st. This would be a sensible move for the state for cars not running bring no revenue to the state in the way of license money and by the same token cars not running would not pay into the state coffers the gasoline tax money that a running car would and according to figures this would mean a loss of gas tax from approximately one-third of the cars in Michigan.

LATER: According to a later afternoon dispatch from Lansing to our contemporary, the Holland Evening Sentinel, it appears that both the Senate and House concurred in allowing 1930 license plates to be used until March 1st, and the secretary of state has so instructed the state officers. The action is a very sensible one. However, the law should be changed, the News feels as set forth in this editorial, written before the dispatch arrived.

SHOOT WHITE OWL

A large white owl, which has been seen on Grand River for a number of days, was shot a few days ago by Trooper Leo Langthorne of Ottawa County, when he discovered it on the powerline leading from Spring Lake to the Construction Materials Co. plant. The bird is a beautiful specimen and had a wing spread of 52 inches.

Celebrating The 50th Birthday
Of C. E. Union

C. E. RALLY MEETING IN TRINITY CHURCH SUNDAY CLOSING JUBILEE

All this week has been Christian Endeavor week throughout the nation. In the different churches in Holland, Zeeland, Grand Haven and even in the smaller places in Ottawa and Allegan counties there have been programs carried out celebrating this Union Golden Jubilee.

The larger cities in the union celebrated the event with banquets and some of the local churches in Holland have been staging individual banquets.

At 6:30 Sunday night the C. E. Union of Holland will meet jointly at Trinity church when an exceptional program is to be rendered. Of course the meeting is not to interfere with the regular services called at 7:30.

There are 821 Christian Endeavor Societies in Michigan having a membership of about 20,000 young people from sixteen denominations.

The state Christian Endeavor society with headquarters at Detroit, had mapped out a program for the entire week. Societies are not strictly following this program arranged by Ernest S. Marks, executive secretary of the Michigan Christian Endeavor Union, but in Holland it has been pretty well followed.

Today, Friday, is supposed to be recreational evening, when many societies will feature programs commencing with that head.

The actual birthday of the society falls on Monday, February 2, which marked the fifth anniversary of the C. E. movement.

John F. Van Anrooy, chairman of the board of supervisors, is attending the state meeting of supervisors at Lansing this week.

Fire Insurance Board Has Some Holland Men

BIGGEST SINGLE LOSS OF
THE COMPANY IS HOME OF DEKLEINE; NEARLY
$3,000

The Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of Ottawa and Allegan counties held a very successful annual meeting at the Zeeland high school auditorium when a large group of farmers and members gathered there for that purpose.

The fiscal year of this company corresponds with the calendar year during which period $48,600.23 in losses were paid, covering 127 separate items. The largest single loss paid was $2,939.80 to J. G. De Kleine when his house and contents were destroyed by fire that was caused from sparks, and the smallest loss paid was for $2.48 to H. S. Boss in damage to a gas stove. There were eight losses paid in excess of $2,000, fourteen losses between $1,000 and $2,000, and 101 losses under $1,000. Of these there were thirteen over $100 and eighty-two under $100.

This company has been in business for nearly thirty-five years and has always done a very successful business. Three years ago their losses were so light that no assessment was levied, and at the present time they have a cash balance on hand of $31,753.69, nearly sufficient for one year's operation, the total cost last year being $54,424.48. They have no liabilities.

The company has at the present time a membership of 4,420, and increase of 108 since the previous year. New memberships during the year totalled 630 while the cancellations were 522. The total risks in force were $19,701,505.00, and increase of $29,583.00 during the past year.

Of the 127 claims that were paid during the year, 24 were caused by sparks from chimneys, 19 were unknown, 16 by lightning and 10 by explosions, the remainder by various other causes.

The following officers were re-elected: President, G. J. Veldman, Holland; vice president, Henry Weber, Dor; secretary-treasurer, Gerrit Yntema, Jamestown; directors, Albert Schouten, Holland; Gradus Lubbers, Zeeland; Harm F. Knoper, Allendale; Albert Schrotenboer, Holland; Gerrit J. Brower, Hamilton. Other members of the board are L. J. Mulder, Coopersville; Gerrit J. Duer, Holland; W. Kooinga, Byron Center; Henry Siersema, Holland; David Bekius, Hudsonville; and John Freeman, Dor.

POSTAL WORKERS MAY GET HALF HOLIDAY

Holland mail carriers are watching with interest the passage of a measure by congress whereby the carriers will be given Saturday as a half holiday. It has passed the House and it is very certain to pass the Senate. If passed, it will necessitate putting on several extra carriers here.

Bridges are Expensive

The bridge across Kalamazoo river for the new Allegan-Oshtemo paved road will cost $61,652.22 besides the cement and some other materials. The one across Seneca creek will cost over $32,000. Cost of the bridge across Black river in Lee township will be nearly $11,000.

The Chamber appointed a flying squadron to sell banquet tickets. On this committee the following are to be found: John A. Vandeploeg, Don Zwemer, H. E. The Ottawa county courts are busy going into the details of the Alpena disaster of three months ago. The testimony, covering a page of this newspaper, sets forth the proceedings at the inquest and it is mentioned that most of the wreckage came ashore north of Holland Harbor. Many years after, the beach was named Alpena Beach, now Lakewood Farm.

"Hein" Te Roller of Chicago and Holland made a flying trip to city Tuesday last after attending the funeral of his wife's brother at Saultguck. Note: "Hein" in his day was ahead of his day in a great many ways: energetic and full of good business ideas, but we can't comprehend his connecting up with aviation at such an early date. But then, a sudden coming and going was always called a "flying trip" 50 years ago.

The blacksmiths in Allegan and Ottawa counties have decided to raise prices. The price for setting a horse shoe will be 20c a shoe, or 80 cents a horse, while the price for setting new shoes will be $1.50 per horse. Note: Since horses are all flippers now, the price list has gone to smash as well as the "smithy shop" and we might add the lively stables.

Is your child safe from Diphtheria? Diphtheria can be practically wiped out by toxin-antitoxin treatment. The treatment is harmless and can be given safely to any child above 6 months of age. About 85% of the deaths from diphtheria occur between the ages of 6 months and 5 years.

No serious case need be expected following toxin-antitoxin treatment for diphtheria.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE
MOOI ENTERTAIN

A very delightful evening was spent by the Excelsior class of the First Reformed church when the members were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Mooi at their spacious and hospitable home on Pine avenue and Fifteenth street.

It was a joint session of business and entertainment, the social hour especially being an enjoyable affair.

Mrs. C. Kleis, the president of the organization, presided and the deliberations were opened after Mrs. A. Dogger had led in devotions.

There was a musical program and short talks by Mrs. Edith Walvoord, Mr. George Schulling, president of the Ottawa County Sunday School Ass'n. Rev. and Mrs. James Wayer and Prof. C. Kleis. The musical offerings were by a trio of young ladies, namely Misses Jennie Prins, Miss Agnes Tyssse and Miss Wilma Vandae Bunte.

Mrs. Martha Kollen contributed materially to the program when she vividly described her travels through the Holy Land. Mr. Roy Mooi rendered a violin solo and his offering was well received. He was ably accompanied by his sister, Miss Theresa Mooi.

It was a most enjoyable evening presided over by a host and hostess who know how to entertain.

C. of C. Election Brings Out Scattering Vote

VOTING BY MAIL BRINGS VOTES FOR MORE THAN
FIFTY MEMBERS

During the past few weeks, Secretary Charles Gross, of the Chamber of Commerce, and committee have been checking up ballots received by mail. The Holland Chamber has been departing from the regular rule whereby a nominating committee selected a number of candidates to be voted on. The more democratic way was adopted by printing a ballot of the entire membership of 300, and allow each member the choice of any one of their fellow-members. Nearly every member got some votes, however, more than fifty received ten votes or over.

The Chamber of Commerce tellers found this a tremendous job of tabulation because of the largely scattered vote. Wynand Wichers, it appears, was the most popular; Mayor Brooks came second; Arthur W. Wrieden third.

The twelve receiving the highest number of votes and who are elected on the board of directors are the following: Wynand Wichers, 92; E. C. Brooks, 78; Arthur W. Wrieden, 70; Milo DeVries, 68; H. S. Covell, 40; George Pelgrim, 39; Eugene Ripley, 37; Frank Lieveveld, 36; Vaudie Vandenberg, 34; V. Dibble, 33; Henry Geerds, 33; William Olive, 32.

The runner ups receiving ten votes or more are as follows: C. VanderMeulen, 29; John Good, 29; Otto P. Kramer, 29; A. C. Bengte, 28; Henry Wilson, 27; Peter Notter, 26; C. Tiesenga, 26; Chester Van Tongeren, 25; Chas. Landwehr, 25; A. Joldersma, 26; A. E. Ramsland, 24; Charles Kirchen, 24; W. L. Eaton, 24; Jake Fris, 23; George Mooi, 23; W. E. Dunn, 23; Thomas Robinson, 23; Alex VanZanten, 21; Wm. Arendshorst, 20; Henry Wier, 21; Ken DePree, 18; John Arendshorst, 17; George Getz, 17; J. A. Vander Veen, 18; Roy Chapman, 18; Charles Karr, 14 Wm. Vandenberg, 15; C. A. Frech, 14; George Tinhoit, 14; John Bosman, 14; Dan Ten Cate, 13; C. M. McLean, 13; Dr. A. Leenhouts, 12; D. B. K. Van Raalte, 12; E. G. Landwehr, 12; C. R. Huntley, 12; E. D. Dimmet, 13; F. Duffy, 12; B. A. Mulder, 12; C. Dornbos, 12; O. Peterson, 11; Charles H. McBride, 11; Thomas Marsilje, 11; M. P. Donnelly, 11; D. Weststrate, 10; C. J. McLean, 10; John VanTatenhove, 10; Walter Groth, 10; George Schurman, 10.

HOLLAND GETS MORE PUBLICITY ON ITS TULIPS

From way down east in Brattleboro, Vermont the Daily Reformer says according to a copy received at the Holland City News desk.

"Holland, Mich., will have 1,000,000 tulips in bloom, its residents hope, at next year's annual tulip festival. During the last three years the town has imported 2,250,000 bulbs."

No doubt thousands of other publications throughout the nation are publishing similar local and articles. It all helps Holland. Ernest Fairbanks, E. 10th street, who made an eastern trip recently, took the newspaper home with him.

LADIES' AID REMEMBERS
CHARTER MEMBER OF 81

The meeting of the Ladies Aid society of the Ninth Street Christian Reformed church took on rather a social atmosphere and it was indeed fitting to honor one of its charter members. Mrs. M. Jansen, who was celebrating her 81st birthday anniversary, was invited to the Ladies' Aid Wednesday afternoon, and came accompanied by her two daughters, Mrs. John Kooiker and Mrs. Bert Smith. A large cake had been provided with the figures "81" in candles embellishing the top.

The daughters had invited the mother to again attend one of these meetings on this occasion and after the business meeting, during the social hour, the surprise was made known and it surely was a surprise to this fine old lady. In the program a Dutch psalm, a favorite with Mrs. Jansen was included. It was a real enjoyable afternoon, not only to the mother and daughters, but to the gathering members as well.

ZEELAND CITIZEN DROPS IN STREET WITH APOPLEXY

Marinus Bal, Zeeland, who is seventy years of age, and for many years a resident of that city, suffered a stroke of apoplexy while walking on Main street near Church street and was brought to his home. He has since almost completely recovered.

Mr. Bal was suddenly seized while walking along the street and after trying to support himself by leaning on a truck at the curb he sank to the ground.

He was carried into Bareman's store in an unconscious state until he could be taken home. A crowd soon gathered around the inert body in the street.

Pilot rules for the Great Lakes, issued by the department of commerce, include two new items, resuscitate for the drowned and storm warning signals. A copy has just been received by Wm. Phillips, deputy customs collector at Grand Haven.

Two petitions were filed with County Clerk William G. Tisdale, Allegan county, for the office of county school commissioner, to be voted on at the April election. They were Guert V. Fales, incumbent, and Mrs. Mary Wilson Hare, both of this city.

Relatives and friends of Rev. John E. Kuizinga will be pleased to learn of his gradual recovery from an operation for appendicitis and gall-stones in the hospital at Princeton, N. J. He expects to be released from the hospital in a week or 10 days.

SEES THE FIRST ROBIN— GROUND HOG IS NEXT

Some one must be first to see and hear the first robin. This year in Holland it was Ben J. Kamferbeck of the News. Ben lives on Graves Place and yesterday morning spied a "Red Breast" perched in a tree in Frober School yard, sending forth its springtime lay. Surely a welcome song despite the mild winter up to this time. Mr. Ground Hog will be heard from next Tuesday. Hope it's a dark day.

KRAMER HEADS HOLLAND CITY STATE BANK

Ott P. Kramer is reelected president of the Holland City State bank at an organization meeting of the board of directors held Monday afternoon.

Peter Bontekoe
Still On the Job
As Patrolman

SOME ALDERMEN SAY THAT THIS IS NOT THE END
OF THE MATTER

Police Board Exonerates Officer
to Communicate With the Common Council

The Holland Police Board in compliance with the request of the Common Council, held a special meeting to consider the request made by that body, asking for Patrolman Bontekoe's resignation.

Ald. Brieve, at that council meeting, presented a statement signed by A. W. Goodes, proprietor of the Central Service Station, relative to an incident where Officers Bontekoe and Wierda discovered a person at his filling station at about 2:15 on Sunday morning, December 28th, 1930, trying to get enough gas out of the hose to run to the Yellow Cab Co.

The officers did not arrest this man and Mr. Goodes then believed that the party had a key to the pump, since he had been consistently up to this time, been losing gasoline at this station. The matter of negligence and poor judgment on the officers' part was discussed by the council at some length, and on motion of Ald. Kleis, seconded by Brieve, the council recommended to the police board that they ask Officer Bontekoe for his resignation.

That in substance was the communication sent to the police board. It appears now that A. W. Goodes, proprietor of the Central Service Station corner of Ninth Street and Central Avenue, has resigned his first communication for according to a letter in file in the city clerk's office, Mr. Goodes makes the following statement:

"After due consideration I would like to have you ignore my statement in the minutes of the common council and which I told the city clerk to withdraw. It is my opinion that there is a possibility that someone else might have been ahead of the car that this man had driven to my place of business."

"The officers' report accounts for only six gallons of gasoline, whereas there was actually sixteen missing."

"I wish to add that I have observed Officer Bontekoe in his work and believe him to be a very capable officer. I am desirous that he should remain as a member of the police force of the city of Holland in the best interests of all concerned."

Since the first communication was apparently withdrawn by the principal in this episode, the police board undoubtedly felt that this exonerated Bontekoe and Wierda on the specific charge upon which the common council based their communication to the board.

Anyway City Clerk Peterson has on file not only a copy of the council's request and the retraction of Goodes, but the reply from the Police Board as well.

The reply follows:

1. The department had no previous knowledge of the loss of gasoline from the oil station.
2. At the time the officers were at the station the car and the driver had in no way broken any law.
3. Officer Bontekoe in selling the party the gasoline used the only legal method open to him to determine the amount of gasoline in the car.
4. Both officers were satisfied that the party did not steal any gasoline and both recognized the driver and the car as being resident of this city.

Bontekoe was called before the commissioners to give his version of the matter. He explained that he and Wierda were driving down 9th street when they noticed the car parked at the station. Turning around at River avenue, the two returned to the station in time to see the young man step out of the left side and walk around to the rear of his car.

He told them the tank on his car was empty and he had been trying to reach an all-night station nearby. Bontekoe stated, who told of selling the young man six gallons of gasoline from one of the pumps at the station and then measured the amount in the tank to verify the boy's statement that his car was out of gasoline.

By this precaution the officer said he knew that the youth had not taken any gasoline. The officers recognized the car as one which had been parked downtown often and was

MANUFACTURING
CRIMINALS

The law-makers of America have apparently gone into the business
of "manufacturing" criminals.

During 1929, 43 states passed 16,921 new laws out of a total of over 50,000 which were proposed.
This is at the rate of 46 laws per day, including Sundays and holidays.

It is no wonder that practically every American city has a "crime wave" of some magnitude. As a nation we are burdened with the greatest weight of laws in world
history—many of them obsolete, conflicting and unenforceable. All of us are law-breakers, for the simple reason that there is a law governing almost every human act.

Patrick Henry once said that one of the things necessary to the maintenance of free government
was "a frequent recurrence to fundamental principles." During the past quarter century we have strayed
about as far from the fundamental principles established by the founders as possible.

As Judge Collingwood said Sunday
to an audience of 1,500, "We are the most law-bound and at the same time the most lawless people on earth."

As a result we have more crime
than any other nation in the world.
The cure is simple: Stop passing laws that react against good citizens and get after the real criminals. Make justice swift and sure.
Weed out the vast amount of waste
matter in the statute books.

As long as wholesale law-making continues there will be wholesale
law-breaking and crime will flourish.

Nagging persons are soon shunned and disregarded and likewise
our labyrinth of laws are surely nagging the nation toward that turn of mind.

The First Reformed Senior Christian Endeavor society will take charge of the evening service at Fitch church Sunday evening.

Henry Siernia of North Holland
is at Grand Haven helping George Borch the new county drain commissioner.

Still Gold to Be Found
Lady Shoots Lady
Wickersham Report
To Detect Falsehood

There is still gold to be found, if you know where to look.

At Alamos, in the state of Sonora, where Governor Elias rules, an American, L. S. Patterson, bought an old mine from Filipe De Iza. After six months, discouraged, he sold the mine back to De Iza. The latter went to see what work Patterson had done,
tapped a rock with a small hammer, uncovering a vein of gold now yielding $2,000 a ton. But don't let that persuade you to buy stock
in a gold mine. When it runs $2,000
a ton they don't sell it.

A lady who lives in Oklahoma
fired two shots into Miss Charles Cardell, aged twenty-eight, and Miss Cardell may die.

Jealousy sent the bullets on their way. Such incidents have been frequent since the day of 40,000,000
years ago, when Mrs. Big Tooth split the head of a younger cave
lady trying to steal away her husband.

A jealous woman usually kills the other woman to save her husband.
And that, although she doesn't know it, is done in obedience to atavistic impulse, to protect the children who need a father.

The jealous husband often kills his wife. That is done to protect his important self-respect.

It is easier than killing the man,
and he can get another wife without trouble.

Every newspaper, congressman,
clergyman, and at least 50,000,000
others have discussed the Wickersham prohibition report. The discussion will continue, with minority members telling what they think. The fact is that the commission recommends, by a majority vote, to do nothing except to spend more money on enforcement, without according to the commission's unanimous opinion, does not enforce.

Chicago's police have a "lie meter," that, attached to the arm of a suspect under cross-examination
tells when he is lying. It works, because the human heart, not taught to lie, changes its beat
when the anxious process of lying begins. In India barefooted natives give testimony lie with straight faces. But they twitch their big toes, and lawyers watch their feet.
A well-known capitalist twitched
his thumb when bluffed at poker
and lost large sums until he began
holding his cards with four fingers,
the thumb kept hidden.

Douglas Fairbanks has gone to India, taking letters from the Duke of Sutherland to the Maharajah of Mysore, and letters from other dukes to other maharajahs, princes and potentates, plus a letter of credit, which is important. Fairbanks will shoot real tigers from the back of a real elephant in the Mysore territory. His cameraman goes along and his director, to tell
the tigers what is expected of them.

Distance lends enchantment, perhaps. It surely creates indifference.
Under the heading, "Millions Dead of Famine," you read
six lines of Associated Press copy
to the effect that in China's Shensi province alone 2,000,000 have died of hunger and 400,000 have been sold into slavery within a short time. Are we our brothers'
keepers? Not if the brothers live 7,000 miles away.

Bishops of the English Episcopal church decide that prayer by radio is good, because it brings
family prayer back into the British home.

Nevertheless, prayer broadcast,
instead of being addressed directly to the Almighty by the individual,
seems a little too scientific.

No radio set is necessary to reach the throne of grace.

Dr. Hornell Hart of Bryn Mawr college, where many young women accumulate knowledge back of their high brows, tells parents that early marriages are usually failures.

Those married before twenty are ten times more apt to land in the divorce court than others. Trial
marriages fail because they are experimental and secret.

They fail also, although Doctor Hart doesn't mention it, because the man in such a marriage lacks
respect and affection for the woman.

The great philosopher Plato
would have women marry well past thirty and men past fifty. But that depends on the breed and the individual.

The mother supplies her child's mental and physical strength. She should have children when her strength of mind and body is at the maximum.

The father supplies part of the child's mental ability. He should marry later, giving such brain as he has a chance to mature fully.

Philadelphia's Liberty bell, silent
for one hundred years, will issue
thirteen cracked sounds, one in honor of each original state, on Washington's birthday. If Washington at the sound could rise, like Napoleon's old soldier when he heard the cannon growl, he would be interested in the forty-eight
United States of 1931.

He would wonder at our only
submitter to organized crime, the Kurtz, and higher up, but would be proud of the country's size and power.

HOLLAND MAN WOULD BE
SCHOOL EXECUTIVE

R. P. Leestma of this city has announced his candidacy on the Republican ticket for the nomination of county school commissioner at the spring primaries. Leestma is a graduate of Hope preparatory school, received his life teacher's certificate at Central State Teachers college and his bachelor of arts degree at Michigan State Normal college. He has taught 20 years in the rural, grade and village high schools, including Jamestown, Allendale, Douglas and Fruitport.

CELEBRATED WELSH IM-PERIAL SINGERS COME TO
"CARNegie HALL"

The world renowned Welsh Imperial Singers, following their triumphal tour in various European countries, Canada and Newfoundland
are now making a transcontinental tour this season under the management of Redpath Bureau.
They will appear at Carnegie Hall,
February 13, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. R. Festyn, celebrated director who organized this group of singers
and who will conduct them on their present tour, has had a most interesting musical career. For many years he has held the distinction of being one of the most prominent tenor soloists and choral directors of the British Isles. His first visit to the United States was in 1908
when he became leading soloist with

the Filipino Constabulary Band at Atlantic City. This popular musical organization made a cross-country
tour. Mr. Davies liked the Pacific Coast to well he remained there
for several years, and made a name for himself not only as a singer and teacher, but as a great choral director as well. He has conducted some of the biggest musical festivals of this country, the biggest of all being the Great Festival held at Stanford University Stadium,
where he conducted a chorus of 10, 000 voices, accompanied by six full bands. Mme. Schuman Heink and he were the soloists. A crowd of 50,000 heard this magnificent chorus.

Hearing many Welsh choirs from time to time, supposed to represent Wales, Mr. Davies felt that the American people were not hearing
the best that Wales could produce.

OTTAWA COUNTY TO SEND
EGGS AND CORN TO M. S. C.

Ottawa county will send exhibits
of eggs, corn and potatoes to compete in the Farmers Week exhibits at the State College Feb. 2-6. The Zeeland High School Agricultural
Club under the direction of Otto Pino will send exhibits of eggs to compete in the high school students class. A number of hatcheries also will exhibit eggs.

Frank C. Hambleton and Collar
Brook from Coopersville will exhibit corn. Boys corn club members from Hudsonville and Coopersville and potato club members from Lamont
and Coopersville will exhibit corn
and potatoes in the club division.

Over a hundred muck farmers attended the muck soils schools held in Ottawa County last week. The first lesson on formation of muck
was reviewed and the second lesson covering drainage was covered in an illustrated lecture by Paul
M. Harmer from the State College.

A number of muck samples were tested at the meeting and recommendations given on management.
The third lesson will cover cultural methods and the fourth fertilization.

PRESIDENT DIMMENT
REMAINS UNTIL FALL

Hope college students will not greet their new prexy at the opening of the second semester Monday, as originally anticipated.

Dr. Edward D. Dimment will continue as head of the institution until the close of the school year in June and Wynand Wichers, who was elected by the board of trustees at a special session in September to succeed Dimment, will assume the office next fall. Wichers, meanwhile, will continue with the First State bank as vice president and cashier.

Wichers' election as president
will be presented at the June meeting of general synod of the Reformed Church in America for confirmation.

SZEKELY AIRCRAFT CO. IN BIG CAPITAL MOVE

The Szekeley Aircraft & Engine
Co. has become associated with a gigantic capital movement, which will make the concern one of the largest light aircraft industries in the country. Negotiations will be completed within a few weeks it is stated. Orders from several concerns will necessitate an increase in the manufacture of engines from one to four each day.

URGES PAPER BALLOTS IN PRIMARY ELECTIONS

Use of paper ballots to replace voting machines in all primary elections is advocated in a bill
prepared by Assist. Pros. Thaddeus B. Taylor for submission to the state legislature.

Advantage of position in arranging the names of candidates on the voting machines cannot be avoided
as it can through the use of paper ballots, Mr. Taylor holds. While rotation of the name is still practiced, he said, it is possible under the new system for a candidate to garner nearly all of the "casual"
ballots even if his name is given
"preferred" position only in the most heavily populated precincts.

Holland and other cities in Michigan nearly "got their foot in it"
with the Groesbeck-Brucker gubernatorial fight last fall when voting machine votes were contested as being an illegal method of voting.

The supreme court the last minute decided otherwise and that made the recount fall flat.

ALLEGAN SLAPS ITS
CONGRESSMAN

A long list of cities in Michigan
in which postoffices are soon to be built, are building or for which sites are to be acquired, was published this week; but nowhere in it is mentioned that one in Allegan
that Congressman Ketcham promised to provide right away. It's after election now.

REFORMED CHURCH GIVES
REPORT ON BENEVOLENCES

Receipts for denominational benevolences in the Reformed Church in America totalled $319,313 for the eight-months' period ending
Dec. 31, as compared with $404,
917 for the corresponding period in 1929. A gain of $10,000 was reported in the December receipts over December, 1929.

council has elected the following:

president, John Good; secretary and executive, P. H. Norg; treasurer,
Henry A. Geerds; commissioner,
William Meengs.

nance, Henry A. Geerds; organization, E. P. McLean; training, Eg-

Scouts, Chester L. Beach; health and safety, R. H. Nichols; court

LARGEST KILL IN 10 YEARS

More than 66,000 white-tailed deer were killed in four states during the 1930 hunting season. Pennsylvania led with 26,000. Michigan was second with 17,500. Minnesota's kill was third, and New York scored 7,500. It was the greatest kill in the last 10 years. But the kill has not endangered the future foundation or breeding stock. All of the states named, except Minnesota, confine deer hunting to males
only. Estimating the number of does by the number of bucks killed
it may be forecast that the extermination of deer is still some way off.

FORMER MISSIONARY OF RE-FORMED CHURCH TO
PARAGUAY DIES

Mrs. M. Estelle Whitmore, age
82, former missionary in Paraguay
for the Reformed church, died Sunday at the home of her son-in-law,
Rev. H. E. Kilmer, Grand Rapids.
Mrs. Whitmore retired from missionary work six years ago because of ill health. She was born in Bak-ersville, Md., and was married to Rev. David M. Whitmore, who died in 1883. She founded and edited the Woman's Journal, a missionary magazine of the Reformed church in the United States and was one of the first presidents of the Woman's Missionary society of the Reformed church general synod.

ALLEGAN FURNITURE FAC-TORY WINS DISTINCTION

Allegan Gazette has a reason to be proud and this time exceptionally
so, as her fame is to be broadcast to the world. We refer to the fact that the Baker furniture factories
are to furnish the furniture for one of the rooms at the Colonial and Overseas exposition to be held in Paris the coming spring. They are to supply the furniture for Lafayette's room, from Mount Vernon,
which will be shown at this exposition. Their selection to supply the furniture for this historical chamber, with the bed specially reproduced, certainly is indicative of their accuracy in period designing.

ALLEGAN FAIR WILL
BE HELD AUG. 4-8

Dates for the Allegan county fair have been set for Aug. 4 to 8.
A contract has been signed with the Earl Taylor Revue Co. to furnish free attractions. A change of program will be made each afternoon and evening.

FENNIVILLE OPPOSES SUB-STITUTION OF FEDERAL APPLES
STANDARDS FOR STATE LAW

General opposition to the proposed substitution of the federal apple grades for the Michigan
standards was expressed at Fenniville a few days ago at a conference of shippers under the joint auspices of the Fenniville Fruit & Produce exchange of Grand Rapids
and the Wolverine Fruit & Produce exchange of Grand Rapids of the local exchange, presided.

The shippers voted to tighten the Michigan standards by having the definition of the "commercial"
grade written more clearly. Twenty-two shippers took part in the discussions.

This action was quite unexpected
as the general impression was given at the annual meetings of the Michigan State Horticultural society
and the Wolverine Fruit & Produce exchange in Grand Rapids that the federal standards should be made the legal state grades. The horticultural society went on record
to that effect in December. H. D.
Rootman of East Lansing, secretary of the society, attended the conference here Tuesday.

Michigan state college was represented by Prof. Roy E. Marshall.

New Hope Pres.
is Main Speaker
at Large Event

DINNER IS HELD AT HOTEL
BRISTOL IN DOWNTOWN
NEW YORK CITY

Centralites at New Brunswick and Others Wire Greetings

Amid cheers, songs, and hand-
shaking, the Hope College Alumni Banquet for the Eastern District
was held Monday evening, January
19th, at the Hotel Bristol, 129 West 48th Street, New York City. One hundred "grads," with wife or sweetheart, gathered at six o'clock
to meet old friends and to talk
over the old times and the new.

The speaker of the evening was Hope College President-elect Wynand Wichers. In the course of his address he told those present of his plans for the future of the college, and of his hope for the successful maintenance of the denominational type of college. When he was introduced by Chairman Paul
C. Hunter, and when he climaxed his address with a stirring plea
that Holland and Hope colleges be equipped to "export well educated men," the audience burst into prolonged applause.

Features of the evening were spontaneous cheers and songs
called back and forth by the younger alumni. "Aunt Dinah's Quilting Party," "Bring the Wagon Home,
John," and "In That Dear Old Town of Holland, Michigan," were sung many times. Prominent among the leaders of this share of the fun
were the "Macy Twins," the Misses Lois De Wolfe and Wilhelmina
Walvoord, now of New York City.
Telegrams were received at the banquet from two groups, the New Brunswick Centralites of Pella, Ia., and from Dr. S. Zwemer and Dr.
J. Kuizenga of Princeton Theological Seminary. These were read amid much applause.

Tickets for the affair were in the hands of Henry Wackerbarth and Alfred Bental, now of New Brunswick Theological Seminary. Paul Hunter, chairman, reported the banquet the best attended affair of its type for Hope Alumni in recent years. Those present were as follows:

Tom Ten Hoeve, Rev. E. O.
Schwitters, Mrs. Schwitters, Raymond Steteket, Jack Soeter and girl friend, Paul Hunter, Bill Hey-

ten, Mrs. Scholten, Mrs. Hoeksema,

INDIA and Its Peoples

By Capt. L. R. Cloud Robinson

Night in Lahore

OWING to the serious rioting
which occurred in Lahore, following Mr. Gandhi's passive resistance movement of 1918, the city
was placed under martial law.
Among other regulations, public meetings were forbidden and the inhabitants required to be in their homes by eight o'clock at night. It was assigned to the command of a troop of horse which nightly patrolled the Indian city, that same city which Kipling called "The City of Dreadful Night."

A ride through an Indian walled
city at night, under the restrictions
of martial law, is a strangely weird experience. Our patrol sets out some hours after sunset; we walk
along the Mill and through Anakali
to the Lahore Gate. Only an officer on a motor cycle and the troops at the telegraph office are seen. Perhaps a man here and there is sleeping outside, on an old charpoy or throwing his head out to see who
are these disturbers of the night;
and then "Halt! who goes there?"
It is the sentry at the city gate and we pass still farther into the heart
of silence and semi-darkness.

The streets get narrower, and the atmosphere gives one's olfactory
organs more and more varied, un-
asked and undesired experiences.
Even the houses, with unfriendly
and unwashed expression, frown
upon us as we pass under their overshadowing upper stories. Like old bags, worn and decrepit with age
and clothed with rags, they seem to resent the appearance of well-fed
men and horses, wandering into their silence and self-satisfaction.

One wonders if all the products of our universities, who talk glibly of the East—its glamour, its wisdom
and ancient thought—have seen the cities of the people and how the common Oriental mind expresses its daily life is concerned. For, after all, it is results that count, and however superficial and artificial Western civilization may be, it has brought about a greater cleanliness,
so our solitary patrol marches
on—sometimes in threes, sometimes in pairs, and sometimes our horses
must walk in single file. Not a soul is to be seen; only an occasional light looks down into the dingy street, and Peeping Tom appears at the window for a furtive glance.
Dogs show their annoyance in noisy
fashion and slink away in mysterious holes and corners. The journey is uneventful. Winding, irregular streets are aggressive in the silence and lifelessness. Only the stars above seem to possess any animation as they glitter over this city of the dead.

SIXTH REF. C. E. SOCIETY
HOLDS BANQUET

About sixty members and friends
were present at the banquet of the 6th Reformed church Christian Endeavor societies held Tuesday evening in the church parlors. The room was beautifully decorated in red and white, the colors of the C.
E. During the supper, C. E. songs were sung under the direction of Andrew Slager, accompanied by Louis Verburg at the piano. Herbert Wybenga, president of the Senior C. E. introduced the toastmaster, Bernard Vanderbeek, who in turn introduced those who took part on the program. The following program was given: two duets, "Teach Me to Pray," and "My Task," by Miss Eleanor Hietje and Miss Dor-

A Mistake

In the Montgomery Ward Co. advertisement on the last page of section two of this issue a large announcement appears. Among other values in their all American Furniture sale curtain sale is included. In some way the fringe curtain and ruffle curtain cuts were transposed. The printer placed the wrong cut over the wrong reading matter and the error was not noticed until this section was printed. The advertisement should read just as the one below.

A FARM CROP FIFTY YEARS HENCE

Trees are the best crop for 750,000 acres of southern Michigan soils which are not adapted to the growing of ordinary field crops due to slopes, erosion, or the type of the soil itself, according to members of soil and forestry departments at Michigan State College.

Plantings on cutover lands in the northern part of the state have been advised for several years but the recommendations for southern Michigan have been brought about by agricultural conditions which make it unprofitable to grow the common crops on lands which are hard to till or which will not produce good yields.

Mixed plantings of white pine and Norway spruce are recommended for lower Michigan. The trees can be set as seedlings in furrows or in holes dug with a spade. The seedlings should be spaced about six or eight feet apart each way.

About 1,200 seedlings will be needed to plant one acre. Cultivating, fertilizing, or watering are not recommended after the trees are set.

Norway spruces can be thinned out for Christmas trees eight or ten years after planting. Trees from 20 to 30 years old will furnish pulpwood, 40 year old trees are large enough to cut for railroad ties, and trees which have passed the 50 year mark will be large enough to yield saw logs.

Van's Chemical Plant Figure in a Merger

HOLLAND COMPANY CONSOLIDATES WITH SMITH AGRICULTURAL CHEMICAL CO.

Officials of one of Holland's diversified manufacturing concerns, namely, Van's Chemical Co., manufacturers of high grade fertilizer have recently consolidated with Smith Agricultural Chemical Co., an establishment having large fertilizer plants in Columbus, Ohio and Indianapolis, Ind.

The Van's Chemical Co. is an old established concern, located two miles north of Holland, just off U. S. 31, and is doing a very gratifying volume of business throughout Michigan.

This consolidation will give the local company a much greater advantage than it has heretofore had in serving the fertilizer trade in this territory.

The Van's Chemical Co. manufactures twelve brands of commercial fertilizer, for which it has had a great demand. Organized six years ago, the business has steadily grown until it now manufactures 5,000 tons yearly, which will undoubtedly be greatly increased under the new arrangement.

The concern operates its own trucks, thus making prompt delivery of their products to the dealers' warehouses. The officials of the company feel that the excellent quality of Van's product augmented by this unusual delivery service has contributed largely to the success of the firm. To this might be added that western Michigan, the best agricultural section in the entire states, is thus served.

The Holland men connected with this local fertilizer plant are all well known persons of business experience and the success of this enterprise in the past can be attributed largely to them.

The management of the Van's Chemical Co. will remain the same, with Dick Miles, president and general manager, Ernest H. Post, vice president, both of Holland, Mich. H. Albert Smith, vice president, J. E. Powell, secretary and C. S. Schmelzer, treasurer all of Columbus, Ohio. The above officers also comprise the present board of directors.

Wm. C. Vandenberg, founder of the company aided materially in bringing about the re-organization.

FENNIVILLE FRUIT GROWERS GET "BUM STEER"

Several Fennville fruit growers were somewhat excited when they received notices from Washington officers to be prompt in taking out government licenses, under the perishable agricultural commodities act. These notices were in error, for growers whose sales of fruit and vegetables consist only of products of their own raising, are not required to be licensed. Should a grower buy in car lots or should he market the product of others on commission, he would be classed as a dealer and be required to obtain a license, assuming that the transactions were in interstate commerce. Persons buying solely for sale at retail are not required to be licensed unless their car lot purchases for that purpose exceed twenty in any calendar year. This licensing act is intended to stop some of the dishonest acts of produce dealers who contract for the purchase of produce and then reject the shipment in case the market drops. In such a case the offender would lose his license to do business. The plan worked well during the war when Food Commissioner Hoover originated it.

AT LEAST 1,500 HEAR JUDGE COLLINGWOOD DISCUSS THE DELINQUENCY QUESTION

As An Aside, Praises Holland and Eulogizes Hon. G. J. Diekema

It was a large, appreciative and intelligent audience that greeted Honorable Charles B. Collingwood, Judge of the 30th Circuit, District of Michigan, at Hope Memorial Chapel, Sunday afternoon, when he spoke on the subject, "Delinquency—Cause and Cure."

The meeting was in charge of former Mayor E. P. Stephan and those who accompanied Mr. Collingwood to the stage were former Judge Orien S. Cross, an intimate friend, present Judge Fred T. Miles, Rev. J. C. Willis, pastor of the M. E. church, Mr. John Breen, Mr. R. E. Champion, Prosecuting Attorney John Dethmers, Mr. Dick Boter and Mr. Charles Gross.

After a short program of pipe organ music, Mr. Stephan called upon Dr. Willis to open the exercises with prayer.

It was altogether fitting to have Judge Miles of the Ottawa and Allegan Circuit introduce Judge Collingwood. Judge Miles, in his introduction, said: "In introducing our guest speaker, a man of high ideals and a jurist of well known ability, I will endeavor to be brief. I do not want you to draw the conclusion that I am the speaker of the day. However, since woman be- guiled man in the Garden of Eden to disobey the law of God and man, since then the children of men have been beguiled in wrong-doing."

"There seems to be a contempt for law in this day and age and if this condition of affairs continues with strides in the future as it has in the past, America will go the way of the ancient nations, only the time will be much shorter."

"Some advocate the enforcement of law through capital punishment. The anarchist wants no law at all, then no laws will be broken. No doubt there are a great many remedies suggested but up to this time all have fallen short of solving the problem. It seems to me that men who have dealt with crime, men who have seen the working out of laws, men who have meted out punishment to law breakers, should have first hand information when it comes to cause and effect, and the suggestion of a remedy, and it

COAST GUARDS ARE GIVEN DEVICES TO AID FLIERS

A set of small balloons and a large arrow was received by Capt. William Preston, in charge of the U. S. Coast Guard station at Grand Haven, which have been furnished by the Kohler Aviation lines running planes from Grand Rapids to Milwaukee.

Information will be furnished daily as to the "ceiling" and wind velocity and other information necessary to safety of air navigation.

The balloons are sent up 500 feet or more with a certain kind of gas, and the large arrow will be placed on the sand to indicate to pilots to stop at either Muskegon or Holland.

It is well that they should speak. "We have with us this afternoon such a man who has had twenty-five years of experience as a circuit judge at the state capitol at Lansing. He has stood for law and law enforcement and he brings a message that cannot help but be of deep interest to this large representative and intelligent audience."

"It is a pleasure and a privilege to introduce to you Judge Charles B. Collingwood."

Mr. Collingwood seemed rather surprised at the tremendous size of his audience. It was noticeable that he was thoroughly pleased in receiving such a fine reception. He stated that up to this time Holland had no crime waves to contend with and he stated that Holland, as a law-abiding city, was well known throughout the state and even beyond. He said the whole atmosphere and what we have here and what we stand for shows the inherent trait of the Netherlands who came here to carve out their destiny religiously as well as otherwise. The Hollanders have left their mark on the nation, the speaker said, not alone in Holland, Michigan, and the Middle West states, but New York, Pennsylvania, and other Eastern centers. They were a potent factor in laying the foundation of the greatest nation on earth.

Mr. Collingwood said that he could not refrain at this time to make reference to our noble townsman, the Honorable Gerrit J. Diekema, whom he had known and intimately so, for many years.

Mr. Collingwood said: "I have watched my friend rise higher and higher, to places of trust in his state and in his nation. He has filled them all with a thoroughness that made him an outstanding figure in our national life. His honesty of purpose, his self-sacrificial administration of the duty set before him, brought trust, respect and love from all those with whom he came in contact."

"It was inspiring to me to see him elevated to the highest place in the nation's diplomatic circle. I feel that this was the height of Mr. Diekema's ambition and it was the rounding out of a full and beautiful life. It was most fitting and a wonderful stroke of diplomacy on the part of President Hoover to have chosen Mr. Diekema for this post at the Hague. During the short period as a minister from this nation, he has left his impression on the land of the embassy—he has been the emissary of peace that cannot help but radiate beyond the borders of the Dutch nation."

Continuing, Mr. Collingwood said: "I once heard Mr. Diekema speak on the romance of this nation, a nation where you can trace its foundation from the very beginning, a nation that has been a home to the oppressed, a nation that began with the romantic story of the stockade, the Indians, the church, altogether a romantic picture. But there were plenty of trials and tribulations and defense against the 'Red man' in those pioneer days."

Then continuing in his speech Mr. Collingwood said as follows: "When our forefathers blazed the trail and the Indians were upon them, they rang the church bell so the entire colony might gather in order to defend their little band."

"It is time that this nation again gather at the church and ring the alarm bell for the enemy is on us and it is time that we gird ourselves and combat this slowly creeping, slimy enemy, endeavoring to gnaw at the very vitals of this nation. I figure that this secret army is composed of 350,000 unscrupulous men and women, who through predatory methods and a well organized force, seek to feed on the enterprising, law-abiding people of this nation."

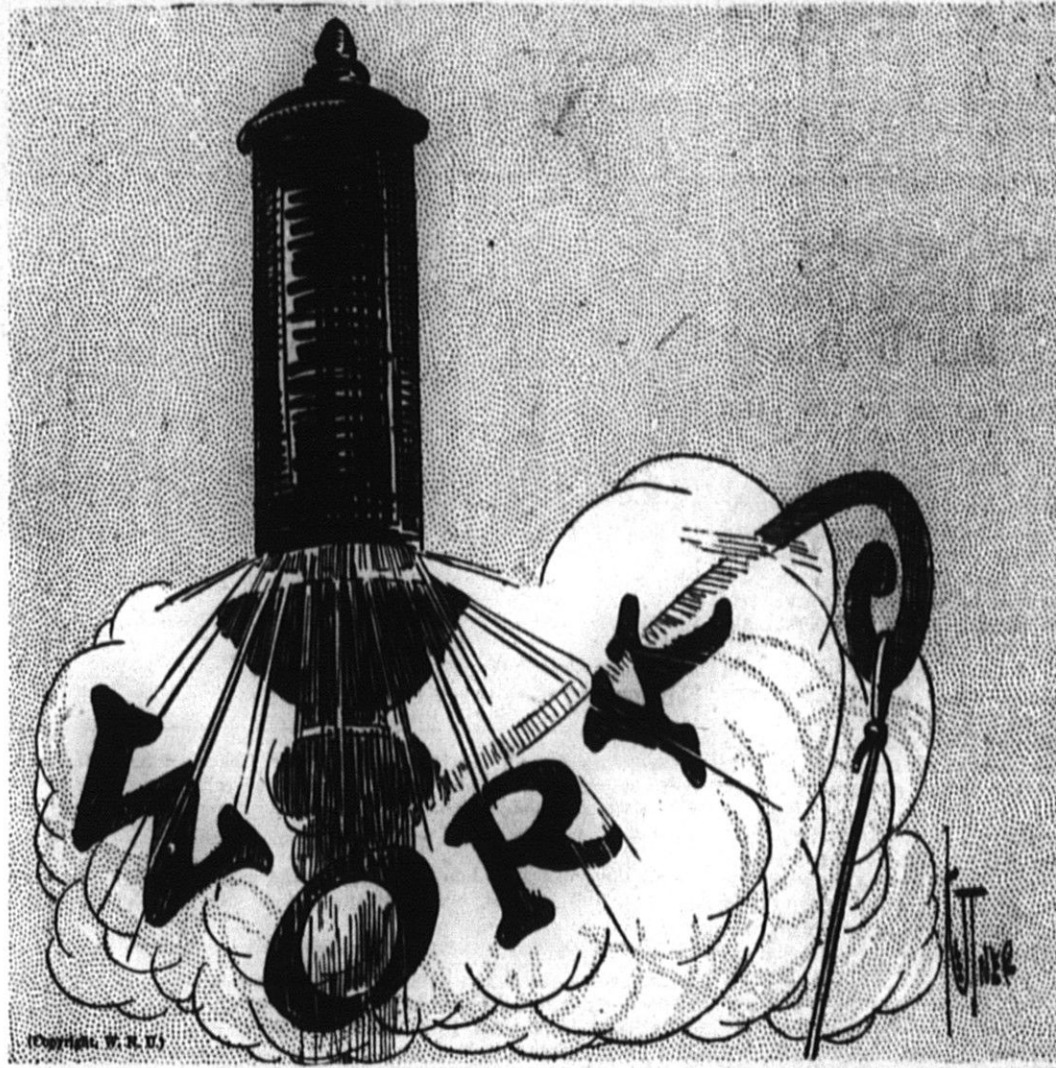

"As proof, I point to the national press. Crime seems to be the dominant feature on the first page. The large cities seem to be controlled by the criminal class. I need mention only one name to bear out my contention—Al Capone. But there are hundreds of Al Capones working night and day, who with their henchmen ply their nefarious trades."

"The United States government and the citizens therein must take up this matter seriously. It is almost unbelievable that crime costs the nation annually from ten billion to fifteen billion dollars. Remember, not millions, but billions wasted on this criminal class. What are you going to do about it? Some say make more laws—why, we are the most law-bound people on this earth today and at the same time we are the most lawless."

"Let me cite you that in this nation there are fifteen murders annually to one in England. Last year 12,000 men, women and children were murdered and a lamentably few of these only a small percentage were convicted and punished. In this nation during the past year there were 80,000 burglaries and hold-ups, about equally divided as to number. It surely does not speak well for law and law enforcement."

"Repeatedly legislators have urged for capital punishment. Such a bill will come up again at the present session. I believe that this will not solve the problem. Jurors, in trying a murder, dodge the death sentence. Many of them will not have it on their conscience that they were the cause of putting a human to death. This fact brings disagreement in cases, retrials and tremendous expense.

"The next thing to do is to put offenders in prison. We are boasting that at Jackson the largest prison in the world has been built where 6,000 prisoners can be harbored and that quota has nearly been reached. At Marquette, where the worst offenders are sent, there was room for 500. Within recent years facilities had to be enlarged so now 1,500 prisoners are herded together. At Ionia Reformatory, there was room for 700 youngsters, first offenders, now with remodeling, tearing out the cell partitions, room has been made for 2,000, most of them 20 years of age and under."

"I quote from the State Commissioner of Pardon, who says that the state reformatory is not a reformatory, but a sinkhole of iniquity. These young men are not segregated from old offenders but mingle with the hardened ones. What becomes of them? It is like putting a few rotten apples in a bushel of good ones. It will not be long before the entire bushel is contaminated with rot. This is not a reflection on the men who conduct the prison, it is a reflection on the system."

"To prove this a test was made on what was supposed to be the finest and best reformatory in the United States. Five years was the period taken to make this test and 500 inmates were watched after their release. Every move made by these 500 was tabulated. The sad part of the story is that 85 per cent of these graduates from this best reformatory in one of the Eastern states, went back to their criminal life."

"For twenty years such a procession has passed me. They have told me about their treatment in reformatories. Their teachers are hardened criminals. They are taught the lesson that the world will be against them. They are not reformed but deformed in mind and thought. They come out far worse than when they went in and a greater menace to society where they might have been saved and become a credit to society."

"Laws do not make men better, still we must have laws. Imprisonment has failed and still I do not mean to say that we should abolish prisons. However, I do hold that we should have men at the head who are as high class as the superintendents of our public schools. Prisons come from the barbaric age. We are still thinking in terms 'an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.'"

"In the olden days there were 200 crimes, which meant hanging for the offender. In London 300 years ago men were hung in the public square for pick-pocketing and during the excitement of the hanging, fifty pockets were picked while the public gazed at the execution. Talk about disrespect for law—apparently there was a little disrespect considering the above incident."

"Holland can congratulate itself that it has no such crime wave. However, there are cities not far from you where gang life is already rampant. The lads want to look tough, they want to appear tough to their associates. First it's taking a car for a joy ride, then it's stealing a car. Smooth sailing so far. Next they say 'stick 'em up' at an oil station to buy gasoline and to have ready money. But the inevitable happens. A young man really good at heart, who could be led with the proper training, is arrested, is mighty sorry for his misdemeanor, but the law takes its course and sends him to prison for a term of years and he associates with hardened criminals. If he comes out or is paroled, no one wants to hire him for work. If he tells the truth in his application he is turned down forthwith. If he lies about it in order to get a place, it soon leaks out and he is discharged with a reprimand besides. What incentive then is there for youth to stay away from crime? He finds out just what his criminal teachers had been teaching him, that the world is against him."

"Some folks say your laws are alright, your prisons are alright, but many of your officers are not alright. No doubt, in a measure that is true. While a vast majority of the officers are not influenced by graft there are a few links in the official chain that are weak and soon the chain is broken and that means a disorganized force since through these weak spots crime is overlooked and criminals are immune against the strong arm of the law. If these weaknesses did not exist, there would be no Al Capones."

"We must have a better national police force, must supply them with better equipment for it must be remembered that the gangsters are equipped with the best modern firearms and motor-power which today plays an important part in unpunished crime."

"Judges are sometimes blamed that prisoners serve only a very small part of their sentences. This weakness is not with the judge but with the pardoning power of the governor. I believe this pardoning power should be taken away from the governor. Statistics show that a 'lifer' spends on the average of only fourteen years in prison. Just think of what kind of a gang is turned loose on society each year, many of whom should stay there for life. With an elective office this pardoning power cannot help but figure in politics."

"Many of the criminals come from fine families, many of the husbands have fine wives or mothers. Others again have very influential friends who constantly 'dog' the chief executive footsteps, asking for leniency. I want to tell you that I have had my heart strings pulled often by weeping mothers and wives when asking for intercession and a governor should As a rule, if the pardon is given, the pardoned one is the least appreciative, ignoring the effort and the tears that brought his freedom. They soon turn back to their waywardness."

"I have surely painted a black picture but it seems there is a silver lining to the cloud for I feel that the youth as a whole is solid and substantial in this nation and I know, too, that more is being done by your men and women of today to elevate youth than ever before. "Our remedy is not in prisons, not in more laws. I believe we should give the youth a better chance. I contend that the hope of the future lies in taking care of the youth if relative straighten out their offsprings, if such a thing is possible. They have the vast majority are not so fortunately situated. I have known of cases where fathers are drunkards and mothers solicit on the streets. What can you expect of members of a family of that sort? If the youth of that family goes wrong and is released from prison, they are simply shunted back into the old environments and become worse rather than better."

"Solve this problem by naming a high class man or woman in every county, whose duty it is to handle these boys and girls. This probation officer could take care of at least forty boys, constantly under his direction. They should report to him, and he should look after them. That should be his one and only duty."

"The slipshod method of today is friend' to a probationer is generally a busy man, who hasn't time to watch these things, or what is worse, a politician, who cares less and the result is that he seldom or ever sees his charge and a probation officer in that case is a misnomer."

"Now it costs the state of Michigan $500 to harbor a prisoner. Under the county system if a probation officer were given $3,000 a year it would cost about half that amount and in the latter case you would be making men out of young boys while in the prison system you will be making criminals out of them."

"You will ask, 'why is not the cheaper and the better way accepted?' The reason is clear. Through the prison system the state pays, through the probation officer system the county pays and there is where the shoe pinches and I am endeavoring to speak to the supervisors of every county in Michigan that this amount of money would be the best money they ever spent. "But remember, to save these young men and girls you must have a probation officer worthy of the name. This person should be trained for this work. He should be a high class person on a par with the superintendents of the public schools. There must be no political mixing in your parole system. Keep your politics out of your rejuvenation and your rehabilitation of the youth."

"Boy Scout work is a great work and that holds good for the Girl Scouts as well. It is one of the greatest up-builders in youth of America today. In all my years on the bench I am glad to say that only one Boy Scout came before me. I am also sorry to say that he happened to be an Eagle Scout and in turn I am pleased to relate that this young man was ashamed of what he had done. He forgot the Scout motto of doing a good deed daily. The Boy Scout and the Girl Scout system is wonderful, but there is not enough of it going on. One reason for this is because it takes money to broaden the work, but when the funds are lacking, the work is limited."

"I am not discouraged, however, I am hopeful, but we must wake up and my coming here this afternoon will be well repaid if I have said something that will help you to help the boys and girls build up their splendid bodies into fine man and womanhood, make them citizens of high character, a part and parcel of the greatest nation on earth."

As an aside, Judge Collingwood praised the wonderful Hope college mixed chorus, stating that he was much impressed with the work of these young people, which again denotes the kind of foundation upon which Holland was built."

"What Becomes of Pheasants?"

The question of what becomes of pheasants reared in the state game farm at Mason, Michigan after they are released in the wilds, is bothering the Michigan conservation department.

P. S. Lovejoy, head of the department's game division, fears that the birds, tame from constant contact with their attendants, may fall easy prey to poachers, or that they may die from starvation.

The cause of his worry is the small number of metal leg bands returned by hunters. These bands are placed on all birds released, and hunters are requested to return them to the department.

"We do not know why the bands are not being returned," Lovejoy said. "Perhaps the birds die of exposure. Perhaps they are being shot illegally, and it may be that hunters simply are negligent. Whatever the cause, we are not getting the returns that we had hoped for."

Dick Nies, Zealand shoe dealer, has his own way of aiding the poor and unfortunate. Nies will take in a pair of worn shoes in trade for new goods. The merchant then will repair them so they can be used by the more unfortunate. The local shoe man is cooperating with the missions in releasing his wares.

Holland Game Club is Now in Lime Light

GET EXCLUSIVE HUNTING BY POSTING PRIVATE LAND TO KEEP OTHER HUNTERS OUT

By Albert Stoll, Jr.

(In Detroit News)
The members of the Holland Game and Fish Association have brought to light a new and unusual stunt practiced by hunters and fishermen in acquiring hunting and fishing grounds for their exclusive use.

This is the scheme: A group of hunters will get together and start looking around for good hunting territory in their neighborhood that isn't posted against hunting. It doesn't make any difference if the land is privately or State-owned, just so long as it offers pheasant or rabbit hunting. Shortly before the hunting season opens the hunters load their cars with "No Hunting" signs and go out and post the property. This to all appearances has been done by the rightful owners, so the public thinks, and the result is that no one hunts the property except the usurpers.

This plan has been worked out with fishing streams. In one instance Swan Creek, in Allegan County, was posted against fishing for a number of miles by a group of fishermen who had no property rights along the river but who took this means of keeping other fishermen off the stream. Of course the rightful owners either knew nothing of this or labored under the impression that the posting had been done by the State for some reason or other.

Up in the deer hunting country it has been discovered that some splendid deer cover owned by the State and open to public hunting was posted in this manner by a group of Wayne County hunters. This resulted in keeping all hunters off the property except those who were clever enough to unearth this plan. Of course the "No Hunting" posters were removed as soon as State authorities discovered the deception.

It is now proposed that every bit of property posted against hunting and fishing in the State carry the name of the owner of the land, together with the names of those who have done the posting. In the event this does not appear on the sign the property would be open to the public. If illegal posting is attempted it is to be made a violation of the conservation laws punishable by a jail sentence.

The following is sent in from the Michigan Conservation Dept.:

To nail up a "no hunting" sign and enjoy a profitable lack of competition in the woods or along a fishing stream, when the woods and waters are state property, is a practice that has occurred too often on the western side of the state to pass without official cognizance, according to the Holland, Mich., Fish and Game Club. The Club reported the practice to the Michigan Conservation Commission at its January meeting and asked for action. "No hunting" and "no fishing" signs have appeared in favorite spots where it was later discovered that the signs were on property owned or controlled by the state and on which the public had a right to hunt and fish. The Commission will ask the state legislature to make such an offense a misdemeanor and will also ask that some uniform and official sign be adopted to give a semblance of legality to them, and to aid in preventing the posting of unauthorized warnings and orders.

GIRL FRIEND SKIPPED OFF WITH ALLEGAN MAN'S CAR

Thursday afternoon Estelle Danbar, of Allegan, took an automobile belonging to J. G. Prestegard from the Allegan high school. Miss Danbar drove the car into town and filled the tank with gasoline, then started for the home of her mother who lives in Illinois. The first night was spent near Benton Harbor with friends. Friday morning she drove to Chicago, the home of her mother. After she had been at home a few hours her mother questioned her about the car and, not being satisfied with her explanation, had her return it to its owner. The car was returned to Mr. Prestegard, Tuesday morning, and as the girl is a friend of the Prestegard family no charges will be placed against her.

Less than an hour after the car had been taken the state police at East Lansing were notified and the description and number of the car was broadcast throughout the state.

SALE OF 1931 CAR PLATES WAY BELOW OTHER YEARS

Sales of 1931 automobile and truck license plates, including Jan. 21, totaled $6,146,242, according to a statement Saturday by Secretary of State Frank D. Fitzgerald.

Compared with last year for the same period this is a distinct falling off. Sales at this time in 1930 totaled $11,320,506.83. Sales of the 1929 plates totaled $7,437,412.59.

In 1929 the Detroit police department extended 30 days' grace to motorists, which accounts for that figure, but the following year there was no extension.

The sale of 1931 plates was advanced to aid in the sale of new models, but the fact that an extension was granted until February 1 has caused the decided slump, in the opinion of the secretary of state. — G. R. Press.

The fire loss in Grand Haven for 1930 was less than it has been for the past several years. Fire Chief Anthony Pippel reported the loss at $23,707.68. In 1929 it was $82,982.53.

Third Reformed church, Holland, collected a total of $20,252.15 in seven years, an average of about $30,000 for each year. Total benevolent offerings for the same period were $92,123.39, a yearly average of more than $13,000.

Five Holland Jurors to Serve in Circuit Court

SEVERAL LOCAL MEN ARE LISTED; HATTIE HOLLAND OF HOLLAND IS ONLY WOMAN

The jury list for the February term of circuit court was drawn on Thursday afternoon and includes several well known men in Grand Haven and Holland. Among them are Lawrence Dornbos, president of the Rotary Club; Thomas Kiel, Tony Hoobek, John Verduin and Jerry Dykhuys, all of Grand Haven. There is one woman, Hattie Holland of Holland.

The list includes 29 jurors drawn from every township in the county. The old number was 24 but since Judge Miles has been in office the number has been increased which gives a larger group to select from should necessity arise.

As the opening day of court falls on Feb. 23, which is the legal observance of Washington's birthday, and as the 22nd falls on Sunday, Judge Miles will decide what day he will convene the court. Arraignments and arranging the court calendar will be made on Feb. 16.

Beside the jurors mentioned above there are the following: Frank Fendt, Port Sheldon; H. A. Clark, Robinson; Jacob Ruiter, Spring Lake; Henry Parps, Tallmadge; James Riplo, Wright; Klaas Brouwer, Zeeland; Carl E. Swift, Frank Harbin, Herman Damsen, John Brat, H. W. Dornbos, Holland; Gerrit Veneklaas, Zeeland; Peter Westroer, Altondale; Ralph Stengenga, Blondeville; Lewis McCune, Chester; Charles Gibbs, Crocker; Menno Van Sling, Georgetown; Frank Rinn, Grand Haven Township; Peter Dalman, Holland; Henry Mast, Jamestown; Jacob Brandsen, Olive; William Windstrom, Park; Bert Titus, Polkton.

Dean Elizabeth Conrad of Michigan State College spoke at the meeting of the Women's L. C. last week Tuesday afternoon. Pointing out the responsibilities of being in charge of more than 900 girls, the speaker told of the phases of character building which every mother should develop in her daughter. Mrs. Jay DenHerdre presided at the meeting. Mrs. F. E. DeWeese favored with two vocal solos, accompanied by Mrs. W. Curtis Snow at the piano and Mrs. J. D. French on the violin. Mrs. R. F. Keeler and Mrs. S. J. Jenks poured tea during the social hour.

The annual meeting of the Young Men's Bible class of 3rd Reformed church was held last week Monday evening. The meeting was opened by B. Dalman. Victor Notter gave two selections on the marionette. Motion pictures of India were shown by Rev. W. VanKersen. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: A. Van Dyke, president; L. Rinkus, vice-president; P. Van Ark, secretary; P. Michally, treasurer.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Gaunier Johnson, 147 Central avenue, at the Holland Hospital, a daughter, on January 24; to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Busscher, Rural Route three, at the Holland hospital, a daughter, on January 25.

THOUSANDS OF NOXIOUS FISH CAUGHT IN MICHIGAN WATERS

More than 57,000 noxious fish were removed from Michigan waters during the year 1930 according to a report of the Fish Division of the Department of Conservation.

The figure is more than double that of 1929 when 27,610 fish were reported taken from lakes and streams.

Carp predominated among the species of noxious fish taken. Individuals operating under contract with the state took 34,981 carp during 1930 as compared with 11,341 taken through the same means the previous year. Seines and trammel nets were used.

Tabulation of catches by species for the year 1930 showed: Dogfish 1,920; Garfish 3,817; Carp 35,379; Others 16,805.

Carp Not Only in Black Lake But "Big Lake"

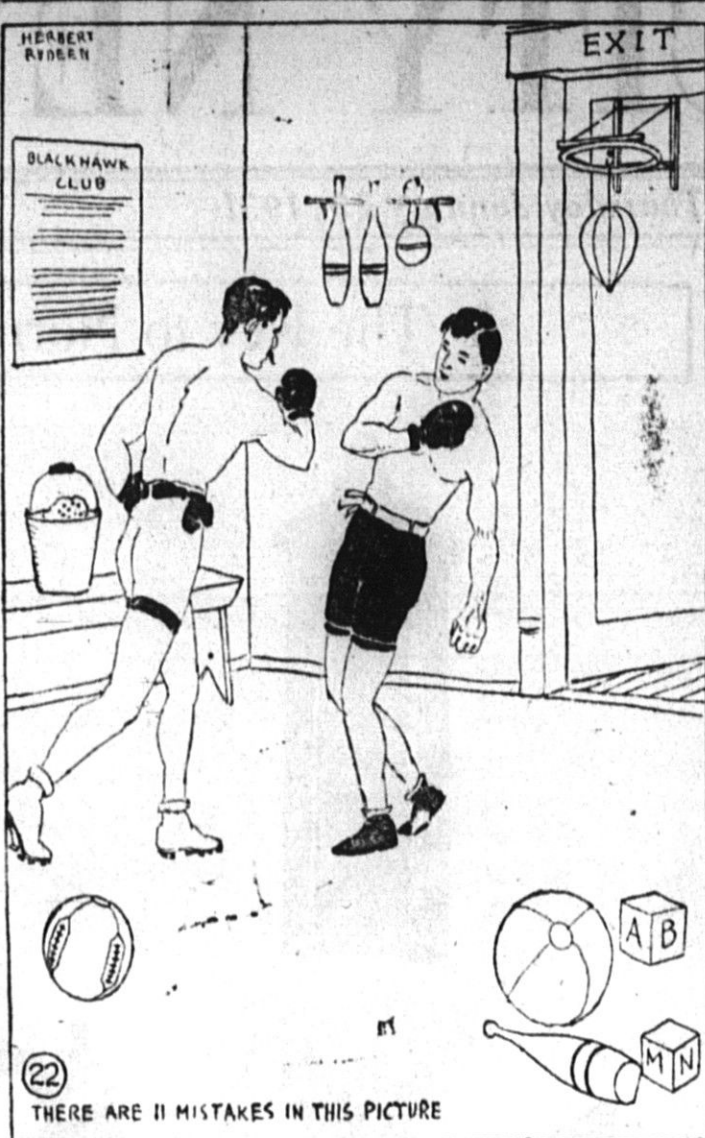

GREAT LAKES EXCEPT LAKE SUPERIOR ARE FULL OF THEM

Carp have been the "gold fish" for Holland for through the money received from its carp fishing in Black Lake the Holland Fish Club was able to buy property and build two rearing ponds, will build another and have made a small park out of its holdings on the Holland Zeeland road. The Holland club has already planted thousands of fingerling bass and thousands of other kinds of fish and if Lake Michigan is full of carp and if Lake St. Clair is full of carp, then the Detroit News, then Pete Lievenhoe, Geo. Bender or someone else appointed by the club will be able to drag in a few more "gold fish" for the club. Anyway Mr. Stoll says that one of the astonishing phenomena of the present fishing resources of the Great Lakes except Lake Superior, is the enormous annual increase in the number of carp and the growing value and desirability of this species as a food fish.

The history of the introduction of the so-called "German carp" into the waters of this country, and particularly those of the Great Lakes, is rather interesting. The carp was originally a native of Persia and China, where it was always esteemed as food. It was introduced into Austria in 1227, France in 1258, Germany 1260, Sweden 1560, Denmark 1660, England 1696. It prospered in European waters and constantly grew in favor among the poorer classes as food and in many cases furnished some angling sport.

Almost 200 years later United States fish culturists, in studying various species of European fishes, decided to bring over a few specimens of the carp. The first importation to reach this country was made in 1876 by Prof. Hessel, and the fish were planted in waters adjacent to Baltimore. Two years later, on orders from the United States Fish Commission, Prof. Seymour P. Baird made a trip to Germany and returned with 20 pair of breeding carp. These were sent to the Federal fish hatchery ponds located at Pokagon, Mich., where there had been established one of the first commercial fish hatchery in the west. The fish were kept in confinement here until 1881 when 1,093 were distributed in a number of inland lakes and streams of Southern Michigan. In 1883 some of the fish had worked their way into Lake Erie, and were captured by commercial fishermen, who appeared greatly surprised to have discovered a new form of fish life. From that time on carp spread all over the warmer waters of Michigan and the Great Lakes, working their way into inland lakes and streams connected with the Great Lakes.

WHAT'S WRONG AND WHERE?

How good are you at finding mistakes? The artist has intentionally made several obvious ones in drawing the above picture. Some of them are easily discovered, others may be hard. See how long it will take YOU to find them.

In the want ad column we explain the mistakes. Then you can see how near 100 you bat, but study the picture well before looking at the solution.

The first planting of carp made in the Saginaw Bay district was through the efforts of Lenz and Peterson, two commercial fishermen from the neighborhood of Standish. They received a number of breeding fish from a Federal hatchery established at Glenwood, near Niles, which succeeded the Pokagon hatchery. This plant was made on July 16, 1888, and undoubtedly was the foundation stock for the millions of carp now found throughout this district.

Today the carp fisheries of Michigan rank seventh in importance, being topped only by whitefish, lake trout, herring, suckers and mullets, wall-eyed pike and chubs or long-jaws. In value the carp catch brings twice as much to the commercial fishermen as the delightful perch. Last year Michigan fishermen caught 2,904,999 pounds of carp, most of which found sale in the markets of New York. The value of this catch was $123,810 and the fish are in great demand by the lower East Side residents. A large part of the catch is sent East in tank cars, where the fish are kept alive and are sold in this condition.

Saginaw Bay leads all other waters in carp productivity, Lake Erie second, Lake Michigan third, and Lake St. Clair fourth. There are none to be found in Lake Superior, owing to the temperature of the water and the dearth of muddy feeding grounds.

The teachers and officers of the grades department of the Sixth Reformed Church Sunday School will hold a meeting tonight, Friday, in the church parlors. A short business meeting will be held after which a program will be given in charge of Miss Rolene Van Voorst and Miss Christine Spykhoven. A social time will be enjoyed and refreshments will be served.

Those present were Miss Genevieve Terhaar, Miss Sarah Schrottenboer, Miss Anna Schilleman, Miss Hazel Veldheer, Miss Anna Veldheer, Miss Margaret Knoll, Ida Bertha and Katherine Nienhus, Miss Lillian Kraal, Miss Katie Koetsier, Miss Janet DeWitt, Miss Mildred Vice, John Vinkemulder, Jack Jongschry, Gerben Terpstra, Arend Hovenaga, Hollis and Albert Nienhuis, Harold and Gerald Veldheer, George and David Bush, Ray Bultema, Ray Houting, Mrs. J. Beerboom and Mr. and Mrs. C. Veldheer.

Rev. Wm. Van Kersen, of the Reformed Church House, spoke at the Lion Club meeting Monday afternoon at Warm Friend Tavern. He told of the living conditions of the people in India and Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kalmink entertained with a birthday party at their home at 81 East Fifteenth St. Tuesday evening in honor of their daughter, Miss Fay Gladys Kalmink, the occasion being her sixteenth birthday. Games were played and prizes were awarded to Miss Marian Vander Ploeg and Miss Phyllis Greengood. A delicious lunch was served. The guests were Miss Albertina Brat, Miss Jeanette Staal, Miss Marian Vander Ploeg, Miss Phyllis Greengood, Miss Helene Dykman, Miss Josie Last and Miss Fay Kalmink.

PROGRAM OF 1899 PRESENTED AT CENTURY CLUB

The Century Club held a regular meeting Monday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McLean. A delicious supper was served by the committee, Mrs. W. H. Wing, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tappan, Mrs. C. J. Lokker, Miss Myrtle Beach and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Yeomans.

Mr. McLean told of the formation of the Monday night club in 1894 and how two years later the Century club was organized. He read a list of 50 members now living who were among its founders. The audience sang "Auld Lang Syne." Miss Laura Boyd read a budget written by Miss Lena DeFree in 1900.

"Robin Adair" sung by Mrs. W. H. Wing in 1899, was rendered by Mrs. D. B. K. Van Raalte. Mrs. Myrtle Koon Cherryman of Grand Rapids, who many times in the past had entertained the club, assisted by Mr. Frost read "A Hundred Year's Old" an exquisite little play given by Otis Skinner last season under the title Papa Juan. Between the acts a trio composed of Mrs. John Telling, Mrs. W. Curtis Snow and Chester Beach, in costume, sang a patriotic number which had been rendered by Miss Yates, Miss Nellie Pfanstiel and Prof. J. B. Nykerk in 1899.

Mrs. Arthur Visscher and Mrs. W. Curtis Snow sang "Valley Forge" which Mrs. G. W. Browning and Miss Yates had presented in 1899. The program was closed with ## the singing of "Scotland's Burning" by the audience.

All those who took part in the program were dressed in costume of the last century.

KELVINATOR CORPORATION MAKES BIG GAIN IN 1930

Increased net profits are replacing predictions as harbingers of returning prosperity. Outstanding among a constantly increasing number of annual statements of well known corporations reporting gains is that of the Kelvinator Corporation of Detroit reporting a net profit of $1,601,016.37 as of September 30, 1930, an increase of 31 per cent in its net profits over those of 1929. This represents a profit of $1.35 per share on 1,182,136 shares outstanding as compared with $1,221,383.73 for the previous fiscal year of $1.02 per share on the 1,179,859 shares then outstanding.

Commenting upon the statement, George W. Mason, president of the Kelvinator Corporation said, "This remarkable net profit increased over the banner year of 1929 in a year that has been regarded as extremely poor, it is an indication of fundamental soundness in American business and is further evidence of the fact that there was no loss of actual wealth in shrinkage of inflated securities during the ## past year. Real Prosperity is a prosperity of production and distribution, not of paper values.

"This increased profit was after deductions for charges against operations for the fiscal year, and had been made covering all tools and die charges and experimental work involving the expenditure of $463,841.62. In addition the heavy expense of introducing the new Yukon line of Kelvinators and the new line of Leonard electrical refrigerators was charged off."

"Sales of Kelvinators for domestic refrigeration increased in both units and dollar value, the actual increase in dollar sales being 31% over those of 1929. The popular priced Yukon model is largely responsible for this appreciable stimulation of Kelvinator business, and we have planned increased production to meet the expected demand. The new model is being sold in vast quantities to thousands of families who find for the first time, an electric refrigerator of high quality available at a price they can readily afford."

The time is rapidly passing when it is necessary for the refrigeration manufacturers to educate the public to the advantage of proper food protection, and the economies of greater enjoyment of life which the automatic refrigerator brings.

Plowing Without Sowing

THE FARMER who carefully prepares his soil—plows, fertilizes, prepares, but does not sow—what do you think of such a farmer?

AND yet hundreds of people in our community are toiling, tilling — plowing without sowing. How can you expect a harvest of money in the days to come if you do not plant some of it in an account here? Ceaseless tilling of the soil without sowing seed is no more useless than endless work without saving.

Does It Mean a Damage Suit?

If someone is hit on your premises and the ambulance rolls up to your door, will it mean the possibility of a damage suit and money out of your pocket, or will it simply be a matter of your reporting the accident to the agency in which you carry an ADE-QUATE Public Liability Insurance Policy?

Better call US today if you are not protected.

"Buying a refrigerator is like buying a piano—it is something you do only once in a great many years, once in a lifetime, if you get the right make.

"You have to be sure you are right, sure you are getting the best, because if you don't, you are going to have years to realize how bad your judgment was.

"Buying one for your home and buying hundreds to sell to your friends, neighbors, and townspeople is the same thing—you want the best there is, nothing else will do.

"In order to find out which was the best I went to Detroit where I could study and compare the leading makes.

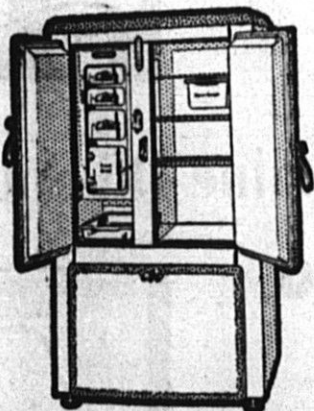

"I talked to the men who built them --- to the men who sold them---and to the men and women who bought and used them. I compared the different makes, point by point. I saw them made and I saw what they were made of.

"When I came back to Holland I had a direct factory connection with the manufacturer who was, and still is, building the best electric refrigerator on the market. That manufacturer was KELVINATOR---the oldest manufacturer of domestic electric refrigerators in the business.

"That was four years ago. Since then the people of Holland have bought more than 200 Kelvinators. And there isn't an owner among them who does not believe the same as I do -- that Kelvinator is the finest electric refrigerator made.

"I know the people of Holland want the best in electric refrigeration--that's why I handle Kelvinator."

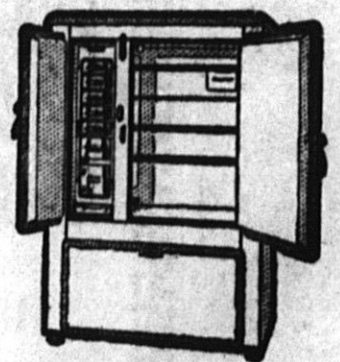

There is a KELVINATOR for every size home and every size income and any Model may be purchased on the Re-DisCo. Monthly Budget Plan, the easy, convenient way to own the finest electric refrigeration. Get your Kelvinator now and enjoy the advantages of AUTOMATIC refrigeration.

Communication from the Board of County Road Commissioners.

Grand Haven, Michigan,
January 3, 1931.

To the Board of Supervisors of the County of Ottawa:

At the October session you suggested by resolution, that the Board of County Road Commissioners discontinue the services of its special attorney and make use of the Prosecutor's services for our legal needs. It is difficult to estimate the value of special counsel at hand as we have had for several years. We know that we have avoided many legal entanglements and law suits by having an attorney sit in council at each of our meetings. He handles all of our Court work in a manner that we could scarcely expect of the Prosecutor's office.

It is anticipated that our Court work will be less during the next year than it has been for some time and we have accordingly asked our attorney if he would be agreeable to a reduction in fees. He is willing to serve for the ensuing year for $900.00 and render any services required of him. This is in lieu of the $1200.00 which we have paid during the last few years when our Court work was heavy.

We would like you to turn this matter over to the Good Roads Committee for thorough consideration with a view to extending us the right to use our discretion in the employment of special counsel. We have filled with this in the Good Roads Committee and the Board with the consideration thereof.

Yours truly,

Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Ottawa.

Mr. Roosenraad moved that the communication be received and placed on file.

Mr. Heneveld moved as a substitute motion that the matter be referred to the Good Roads Committee and the Special Committee that was appointed at the October session for investigation and report which motion lost.

The vote was then taken upon the original motion which motion prevailed.

The Chairman appointed the following committee to draft resolutions on the death of Mr. Gerrit J. Diekema and Mr. Geo. H. Root. Messrs. Misner, Lowing and Graham.

Miss Margaret Bilz addressed the Board and requested each supervisor that when they make up their jury lists that women be included in said lists.

Mr. Dragt moved that the Board adjourn to Tuesday, January 6, 1931 at 10:00 A. M. which motion prevailed.

FOUR LIVE DEER HAVE BEEN SECURED FOR AL-
LEGAN GAME RESERVE

Four deer, two males and two females have been procured for release in Allegan county. They were bought by Sheriff Guy Teed and turned over to the Allegan Rod and Gun club the latter part of the past week. The club will release them in the Kalamazoo river flats in Manlius township where they have arranged for their care and feeding. The officers of the club have been endeavoring for some time to procure at least a pair for release in the county, but up to this time had been unable to do so. Their latest endeavor was to try to secure enough by public subscription to enable them to buy a pair, but owing to the present economic condition they had to abandon this idea and were about to give the matter up for the time being when Conservation Officer Plotts interested Sheriff Teed in the matter and he agreed to buy the four. They probably will be yarded for the coming summer in the vicinity in which they are to be released.

The presence of deer in the resort country a few miles south of Holland is a valuable asset to this vicinity especially if the deer can be saved and multiplied.

The territory in the vicinity of their release will be posted and a reward of two hundred dollars offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person killing or attempting to kill any of these deer is to be offered.

Next week Friday evening Zeeland entertains Grand Rapids Christian High School. Both girls and boys teams will play. Records show the teams to be evenly matched and good games are anticipated.
