Great Decisions Groups Forming

KALAMAZOO — Dr. Paul Fried of the Hope College history department, has been named to the state steering committee of the foreign affairs "Great Decisions" discussion project that will get underway in Michigan during the week of Feb. 27.

The project will give opportunity to citizens all over Michigan to study and discuss eight critical issues pointing up the state of the United States in world affairs.

Local committees are being organized in several cities, including Holland.
The Great Decisions project, sponsored by the public affairs committee of the Michigan Adult Education Association and the Foreign Policy Association, is unique in its provision for participants to report their opinions on unsigned fallouts which are summarized and the results taken to the State Department in Washington.

WOMEN ESCAPE INJURY—Neither of the Fennville women, riding in the above car, nor the truck driver were injured when the vehicles collided at 2:30 a.m. today on snow covered US-31 bypass at the M-40 intersection. Both vehicles were heading southwest on US-31 when the car driven by Cynthia Bale, 44, route 1, Fennville, made a left hand turn striking the side of the truck. The trucker, Edwin Ricketson, 39, Muskegon, said he swerved his vehicle but was unable to avoid a collision. Both vehicles, locked together, skidded through the intersection and ended up in the northeast bound lanes. The passenger in the car was identified as Alice Stevenson, route 1, Fennville. The women were on their way home after work. Damage to the semi was estimated at $1,000 while the 1934 model car was judged a total loss according to Allegan and Ottawa County deputies who investigated. Mrs. Bale was issued a ticket for making an improper left hand turn. (Sentinel photo)

Special Assessments Proposed for Parking

City Council has taken under advisement a report prepared by City Manager Herb Holt on establishing a special assessment district for improving offstreet parking lots on Ninth St., one project covering the area of three houses between River and Central Aves. condemned a few months ago in Circuit Court, and the other the so-called Gaylord property just west of River Ave.

The report, presented to City Council at its regular meeting Wednesday night, is the first attempt to establish a special assessment district on a parking project in the city. Special assessments usually refer to paving or sewer improvements. The matter had been referred to the city manager for report at the next Council meeting.

Plans call for a special assessment benefit district to be set up separately for each area, the one area costing $9,360 and the Gaylord property $3,374.

Under the city managers' plan, all commercially zoned property except the post office and Armory within 675 feet walking distance of each area is included within each benefit district. Two factors have been used to apportion the cost of improvement among the several properties in each district.

Forty percent of the cost is to be apportioned on the ratio that the assessed land value of each property bears to the total assessed land value in the district, and 60 percent of the cost is apportioned according to distance from the lot with those closest paying the most and those farthest away the least. However, there are the following exceptions in the 60 percent distance factor: property in use as a residence or church, vacant lots including parking lots but not used as car lots, service stations or garages, and properties which have adequate offstreet parking.

Councilmen listened intently to the proposed program, but rather than take immediate action they felt it would be better to wait reactions from local citizens, and study the matter further. Costs have been figured for all properties in the district and they range from a high of $494.64 to a low of $136.

The city acquired the one site through condemnation proceedings at a cost of $66,000 and the other through direct purchase for $18,000, both prices chargeable to the parking meter fund. The latter house is now being torn down.

There had been some discussion earlier of establishing a special assessment district for the purchase of parking lots, but the time element was such that arrangements could not be completed legally, and the purchase was made through the parking fund. Had this been completed through special assessment, purchase and improvements would be near the $100,000 mark instead of the proposed $12,734 figure.

If Council adopts the program later, a special hearing would be scheduled before it could become effective.
City Clerk James E. Townsend pointed out that the deadline for tenants moving from the three condemned parcels had been reached and requested instructions on further procedure.
Clifford Hopkins, one of the former owners, appeared before Council and said it would take another week or 10 days before his new place would be ready for occupancy and requested a two - week extension. Council was sympathetic to his problem and felt the extension could be granted, but because

Probation Given In Shooting Cases

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Mrs. Margaret Stoutmyre, 25, of 311 North 736th Ave., who pleaded guilty Jan. 18 to a felonious assault charge against Mrs. Katherine Simpson last Oct. 17 in Olive township, was placed on probation two years when she appeared in Circuit Court today.

While on probation, the home may have no weapons or firearms of any kind and the probation officer was ordered to see that there are no weapons. The gun which Mrs. Stoutmyre used in the assault last Oct. 17 has been confiscated by officers.

Other conditions are that Mrs. Stoutmyre pay $100 costs and $5 a month oversight fees and refrain from use of any liquor. The court said it gave special consideration because Mrs. Stoutmyre has no criminal record and she is the mother of three small children.

Albert Simpson, 35, route 2, Holland, who was found guilty by a jury Jan. 23 of felonious assault, also was placed on probation two years, conditions of which are that he spend the next 60 days in jail, pay $200 costs, $5 a month oversight fees, and no drinking. Firearms of any kind in the home or possession were forbidden.

The alleged offense occurred Aug. 17 when he fired several shots at his wife, Katherine, and a 25-year-old friend, Manuel Davis. The court pointed out that Simpson had been picked up about five years ago for unlawful use of firearms and was given a year's probation.

Improved Creston Battles Christian Here Friday Night

An up and coming Grand Rapids Creston basketball quintet invades the Civic Center Friday night to tangle with Holland Christian's Maroons. The two clubs have not met previously this season, as they play a home - and - home game on a two-year arrangement.

Winners of the last three games, the Furniture City club appears to be jelling as a unit after a rough beginning this season. They reached perhaps their highest point last Friday when they stopped Grand Rapids Christian, 53-40. Previous to that they had notched victories over Grand Rapids Central and Muskegon Catholic. They opened their season with a win over Alma but then lost some heartbreakers to Grand Rapids City League title contenders.

The polar bears are coached by young Bob Johnson, son of the fabulous Okie of Muskegon Heights. Johnson has done a fine job at Creston, a school which had been in the cage doldrums for many seasons. So far this year, Creston has shone on defense, holding several of the top clubs to low point totals. In their last three contests their offense has started to click along with the defense and it has resulted in victories.

Christian, meanwhile has been spurred on by their time victory over St. Joe last week, and spirit has been running high in the Dutch camp. The Dutch did not practice Monday, but washed out the remainder of the week.

Coach Art Tuls was naturally pleased with the performance of his starting five against the potent Bears last week. But he also had high praise for several reserves, including three juniors, who have been coming along in recent weeks. In fact at one stage of the pressure packed St. Joe tilt, four juniors saw action, including Junior starter Dave Klaver. Other Mulder at the guards and Ned juniors seeing considerable action are Herm Tuls and Roger Joldersma at center. Cal Dykman, a senior, has also been used frequently.

Tuls is hoping that his club can continue to set the same pace which saw them win four out of their last five starts against top flight opposition.

The varsity tilt is scheduled for 8 p.m., while the reserves will clash in a 6:30 preliminary.

Allegan Resident Found Innocent In Picketing Case

ALLEGAN (Special) — A six-man Municipal Court jury late Wednesday afternoon found George Kurtz, 55, of Allegan not guilty of picketing in violation of the state right - to - work statute.

The trial was heard before Judge Ervin L. Andrews in the Circuit Court room. Jurors deliberated nearly two hours and did not arrive at the not guilty verdict until they returned once for additional information and again to bring a verdict of "guilty of picketing."

The jury was told by Judge Andrews they would have to bring in a verdict of guilty or not guilty as charged, and a few minutes later they returned with a not guilty verdict.

It was the second court case to grow out of the two strikes now in their fourth week in Allegan. This particular incident concerned the strike at the L. Perrigo Co. Kurtz is an employee of the company and testified he had been instructed to picket the Tripp Trucking Co. terminal because the firm was storing and shipping material for the Perrigo firm.

Prosecutor Dwight M. Cheever said the trial was a test of the right - to - work statu and charged that Kurtz had attempted to intimidate by inducing Donald Nash a truck driver for the Tripp Co. Nash had refused to cross the picket line to put his truck in the terminal. A warrant for Kurtz' arrest was issued on a complaint signed by William Tripp, co-partner in the trucking firm and vice president of the Perrigo Co.

Nash testified that Kurtz had made no attempt to stand in front of his truck and had made no threat. Leo Hoffman, attorney retained by the Perrigo Co. in its current labor troubles, testified Kurtz was walking on the driveway leading into the terminal and was told he was picketing illegally and had been asked to move so that the truck could go through. He added that Kurtz was "peaceful, quiet and well behaved" and he only refused to move in the driveway.

William Tripp and Police Chief Howard Falk also testified as prosecution witnesses. The defendant was the only defense witness. He said he had been picketing at the request of union officials when he was arrested.

He testified he was patrolling a 30 - foot stretch of sidewalk and had not stood in front of the truck nor had any conversation with Nash, the driver.

The defense attorney was John P. Boeschstein of Muskegon.

Council Drafts Resolutions on Legislative Bills

As legislative contact man for City Council, City Attorney James E. Townsend Wednesday night called attention of Council to three bills before the state legislature which have some bearing on city government.

One is House Bill No. 6 to regulate the hours of labor of policemen in municipalities of over 10,000 population. Council framed a resolution pointing to its belief in home rule, a stand it has taken in numerous other cases of this type, and instructed the clerk to send notice of its disapproval of the bill to State Rep. George Van Peursem, State Sen. Clyde H. Geerlings and State Rep. Harry Litovich, chairman of the city corporations committee.

House Bill No. 7 would provide that any concession in any public building owned and operated by any county or city shall be operated by a blind person. In view of the fact that Council awarded a concession contract to the Junior Chamber of Commerce for Civic Center, a resolution was adopted that while Council was in sympathy with such a purpose, it stated its opposition to decisions being made at a state level rather than the municipality involved. Copies will go to Van Peursem, Geerlings and Rep. Lloyd Bills, chairman of the state affairs committee.

Senate Bill 1059 is designed to facilitate the collection of personal property taxes by providing for a special method collection where there is a danger of loss because of transfer of ownership between the date of assessment and the date that the lien attaches to specific personal property.

In resolution adopted, the city indicated its approval of such legislation as a necessary and effective means of collecting validly assessed taxes in certain situations and directed copies to Van Peursem, Geerlings and Sen. Harry F. Little, chairman of the senate judiciary committee.

Copies of all three resolutions also will be sent to the Michigan Municipal League.

Earlier in the meeting, a communication from U.S. Sen. Charles E. Potter was presented enclosing a copy of Senate Bill 1032 introduced a year ago relative to Great Lakes connecting channels. Potter promised hearty cooperation toward enactment of this legislation.

An offer from Dirk Kuiken to sell to the city for $350 a parcel of property 120 by 100 feet located west of parcel recently purchased by the city just south of 10th St. if extended between Lincoln and Fairbanks Aves. was accepted, chargeable to the motor vehicle fund.

City Clerk Clarence Greengood reported that the removal of the house at 13 West Ninth St. had been tabled from the Jan. 18 meeting and reported that the city attorney had ruled that the previous bidder could withdraw his bid. Three new bids were entered, and Council okayed a contract with Capitol Lumber and Wrecking Co. for low bid of $375, chargeable to the parking meter fund.

After final reading, Council adopted a new ordinance amending the building code of Holland.

Oaths of office were filed for Helena V. Winter, member of the Planning Commission for three years, and Harry Harrington, member of the distribution committee for the Greater Holland Community Foundation for five years.

A petition requesting vacating an alley lying between 19th and 20th Sts. running from Van Raalte to Harrison Aves. except for the east 232 feet was referred to the Planning Commission. The 16th annual report of the Ottawa County Department of Social Welfare for 1935 was presented. It was referred to the city manager for study and will be placed on file in the city clerk's office.

A public hearing was set Feb. 15 at 7:30 p.m. for a variance from requirements of the fire district ordinance to permit remodeling of a commercial building at 128 East Eight St. for occupancy by a tavern. The application came from Andrew Klomprens.

Councilman John Van Eerden suggested that the city give consideration to water fluoridation for Holland, pointing out that a number of cities have launched this service with good success. Council voted to refer the matter to the Board of Public Works for study and report back to Council.

Hollander Beverage	6	2

H. E. Morse	5	3
Sears	4	4
Barber Fords	3	5
Vets	0	8

Hollander started slowly but a 44-point second half told the story, and turned the game into a one-sided affair.

Sears, behind the shooting of R. A. Van Dyke and Dale Van Dord jumped ahead in the first period, 24-18.

The Beverage five had a hot streak going in the second quarter and got balanced scoring from Bob (Shorty) Van Dyke, Lou Van Dyke, Fuzz Bauman, Jack Kempker and Dell Koop. The winners managed to pull ahead 37-34 at halftime.

The winners kept going in the third quarter and upped the lead four more points to lead at the end of the period, 60-53.

A 21-point effort in the fourth quarter, with Bauman coming in for the majority of buckets, pushed the winners into the lopsided situation.

Hollander enjoyed balanced scoring and saw five men get in the double figures. Kempker and Shorty Van Dyke each had 17; Bauman, 15; L. Van Dyke 12 and Koop, 11.

Other Beverage scorers were: F. Van Dyke, 3; R. Israels, 4; R. Beckman, 2.

Gord Grevenoud led Sears with 18 while R. A. Van Dyke followed with 17 and Van Dord potted 16. Other scorers were: K. Van Tatenhove, 4; D. Hulst, 6; T. Beerhuis, 4 and D. Schout, 2.

Economy found itself sweating and behind the Vets 40-36 at the end of the third quarter but a sharp 20-point offense coupled with a scrappy defense in the last eight minutes kept the Grocers knotted for the lead.

The winners started fast and worked to an 18-9 first period lead. The basket went cold for the Grocers in the second quarter and the improved Vets came up within one point at halftime. The intermission score was 28-27.

A change of scenery didn't help and Grocers were outscored again in the third period and fans began to sense an upset.

But the winners came alive behind Al Nelson and Ron Fortney and went on to win.

It was Fortney's uncanny ability at the foul line that made the difference. Fortney sank 14 out of 16 for the best display of foul shooting this season. He added six buckets and ended the evening with 26 points for top honors. Nelson was next with 18.

Other Economy Scorers were: R. T. Schreier, 6; B. Vryhof, 2; D. Bloemendaal, 2 and B. Kramer, 2. Jim Slaght paced the Vets with 13. Other scorers were: Dwayne Grissen, 4; Del Grissen, 8; G. Botis, 7; R. Fedders, 8 and H. Poest, 9.

Morse had some good eyes and racked up the highest point total of the season in knocking over Barber Fords.

Nykamp, in popping 30, hit from all over. John Mulder, also had himself a good night with 11 buckets for 22 points and Bob Altena added 18. Other scorers were: S. Disselkoen with 12 and R. Bekius, 4.

The winners had 26 points in the first quarter and pretty well iced the game right off. The first period score was 26-14 and the halftime count was 48-31.

The third period score was 64-42. John Jelles led the Fords with 18 points. Other scorers were: D. Spaan, 6; B. De Young, 15; R. Sisson, 5; M. Peelen, 3; R. Vander Lugt, 6 and A. Bieri, 9.

Educator Is Enthusiastic Over Fulbright Program

The Fulbright program for exchange teachers is working out well in the Netherlands, according to Dr. Johanna J. Van Dullemen, a leading Dutch educator who last year was appointed executive officer of the U. S. Educational foundation in Holland which administers the Fulbright program.

Dr. Van Dullemen, who lectured in Holland, Muskegon and Grand Rapids on Tuesday, was high in her praise of the Fulbright program which aims at international understanding. But she was realistic too, and said seven years of program operations revealed that the older teachers and scholars have worked out better than the younger ones. Fulbright scholars must be mature and adaptable, she said.

At present there are 65 Americans in the Fulbright program in Holland, 32 students, 19 teachers and the remainder doing advanced research. The average age is 27, a higher average than usual, according to Dr. Van Dullemen.

She spoke highly of Barbara Lampen, local teacher who is spending the year as a Fulbright exchange teacher in Ede, while Dr. Van Dullemen is teaching in the local system. "Miss Lampen has a great advantage because of her musical talent," the educator said. "She has organized a choir and even taught the Dutch students Negro Spirituals, something seldom heard in the Netherlands. They were so good they appeared on radio."

Two other Hope College graduates, Grace Huizinga and Clara Van Til, also are in the current Fulbright program. The program in the Netherlands calls for a 20-year program and has been in progress since 1948.

Dr. Van Dullemen has studied surveys of Fulbright programs all over Europe and was particularly interested in how the students "liked" the foreign countries. "I knew that students liked Holland and hoped my country would head the list, but that is not so. Denmark is the best liked place and it really is easy to figure out. Nearly everybody in Denmark speaks English and it is a gay, friendly country. One look at the friendly program for American students would explain this. Denmark has a series of gay social activities while Holland emphasizes the rigid scholastic theme. No wonder!" she said.

She added that the Dutch students all like their American teachers not only for the general interest associated with a foreigner but because they are more lenient, but the principal attachment is because the American teachers treat the students like grownups and meet them on their own level.

In general, she said, it is perhaps equally as difficult for the American teacher to conform to the high rigid educational standards in the Netherlands as it is for the Dutch teacher to understand the informal American system. "There are many advantages in each program, and many reasons why systems are different," Dr. Van Dullemen said.

She told an interesting incident about the Thanksgiving day dinner for the Americans which followed a special service in the old Pilgrim Church. To make this a real American Thanksgiving dinner, Dr. Van Dullemen arranged to have pumpkin pie — something almost unheard of in the Netherlands. She obtained the canned pumpkin from England and got the recipe from a girl in the embassy. Restaurant cooks followed the recipe faithfully and the pie turned out so well that all the men requested two pieces.

The educator has been on a month-long lecture tour in America, ending Tuesday in Holland, Mich. She is scheduled to spend another month on Fulbright affairs in Washington before returning home. This was her fourth visit to America, but her first to Holland, Mich.

Kazoo Five Stops Holland, 59-52

Dutch Threaten Often But Falter For Eighth Loss

An ever-threatening Holland High school basketball squad faltered in the final quarter Tuesday night on Civic Center court and bowed to the Kalamazoo Central quintet, 59-52. A crowd of approximately 1,300 fans turned out to see the clash.

The loss was Holland's eighth straight while the Maroon Giants have now climbed above the 500 mark with a 5-4 season total. In an earlier meeting, the Kazoo boys had a far easier time stopping the Dutch, 70-48.

Coach Fred Weiss' Holland High club was in the ball game all the way, but didn't quite have the guns when it needed them in the final quarter to snatch the win from the on again, off again Kazoo squad. The Dutch played a fine second half, outscoring the invaders, 25-23. After trailing by nine points at halftime, the Hollanders fought back to a one-point deficit at one stage in the third quarter, but couldn't close the gap.

Sparked by John Kleinheksel, Sherri Shaffer and Ron Van Dyke, the Hollanders more than held their own on the boards and missed numerous tip-in possibilities, particularly in the first half.

Coach Bob Quiring's Kazoo outfit employed a full-court press throughout the game. Although the press did bother the Dutch on a few occasions, it proved far more costly to the Celery City team. It caused them to commit several close guarding fouls, and many times left them with a weak defense in the Holland front court. On numerous occasions, the Dutch took advantage of the close defense by breaking a man loose for an easy counter.

While Holland's defense was designed to stop the high scoring Kazoo pivots, Del Beelick and Bob Brown, it did permit outcourt shooting by the Maroons, which the winners did well.

The first period was a nip and tuck affair with both the locals and Kalamazoo trading baskets throughout much of the quarter. Two quick baskets at the close of the period provided the winners with a 16-12 margin going into the second stanza.

Kalamazoo took advantage of several fast break opportunities in the second quarter to move out to a 10 point bulge with two minutes left in the half. At this point, however, the locals held firm and played on even terms to close out the half on the short end of a 36-27 score.

Holland capitalized at the foul line at the start of the third quarter. Hitting six straight the Dutch pulled to a 38-33 margin, before Kazoo again lengthened the lead. The Hollanders came right back, however, with a basket and two foul shots to trail only 43-42. But four straight points by Kazoo gave them a 47-43 lead going into the final quarter.

Building their lead to 57-49 with four minutes remaining, Coach Quiring instructed his club to go into a stall. During the remaining minutes they took just two shots at the hoop as they controlled the play against the hard pressing Dutch.

From the foul line, Holland had 16 out of 29 and Kalamazoo, 11 out of 19. Bill Japina and Dick Vander Yacht tied for Holland point honors with 12 apiece, while Bill Holmes had 17 for Kazoo and Beelick had 15.

On Friday, the Dutch travel to Muskegon to meet the Big Reds.

Ed Burton Sets Scoring Record With 45 Points

Paced by a new school individual scoring record of 45 points by Ed Burton, Muskegon Heights basketball juggernaut rolled to its ninth straight victory of the season at the Heights Friday night.

The host club set Holland down for the second time this season, 85-61.

Holland's 61-point outpouring, good enough to win most high school games, wasn't enough against the No. 1 ranked class A team in Michigan. The Dutch now stand at one victory and seven defeats for the season.

Burton's fabulous night included 18 field goals and nine free throws. His brilliant performance shades his brother's old individual scoring record of 36 points. M. C. Burton currently is playing freshman ball at the University of Michigan.

Both teams dilly-dallied briefly at the opening of the contest, but from then on the Heights really began to bristle and at the end of the first quarter, the count stood at 21-10. During that first eight minutes, Burton accounted for six of his team's points while Ken Howell made eight.

The eventual victors continued the pace in the second quarter while Holland also came to life. The Dutch outscored the Tigers 20-19 and at halftime the score was 40-30.

The Heights, again paced by a 14-point contribution from Burton, outgunned the Dutch with 22-18 points in the third quarter and when the whistle sounded it was 62-48.

Egged on by a partisan crowd of some 1,600 fans during the fourth quarter, the home team really rolled and piled up the one-sided win. Again Burton, with some timely feeding from his mates, scored 19 points to post the new record.

The 85-point total also eclipsed the old gym scoring record of 84 points. And the fans loved every minute of it.

Holland played good ball for the evening, but it wasn't enough to match the class of Coach Okie Johnson's potent club. Coach Fred Weiss' crew missed a lot of shots that might have made a difference. The Dutch made 34 percent of their shots from the floor.

Behind Burton in the Heights scoring column was Bob Slezak with 12. Slezak and Forward Ted Perry, Burton's consistent feeder, played their last game for the home team. Both graduate at the end of the first semester.

Couple Wed in Zeeland Church

Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Joy Hoeksema

Miss Phyllis Ann Molter became the bride of LaVerne Joy Hoeksema last Friday, Jan. 20, in Third Christian Reformed Church of Zeeland. The double ring rites were performed by Dr. J. H. Bruinooge before a setting of palms, candelabra and bouquets of white mums.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Molter of 53 East Central Ave., Zeeland, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hoeksema, 810 East Eighth St., Holland.

Music for the rites was provided by Mrs. Hugh Koops, organist, and Warren Plaggenmakers who sang "O Promise Me," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

For her wedding, the bride chose a floor-length gown of white tulle, styled with an elongated bodice with pail sleeves. She wore matching panties. Flounced tiers formed the bouffant skirt. A band of crystal-encrusted tulle with pearls secured her veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and ivy centered with three gardenias.

Miss Geraldine Wagner attended the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Joyce Karst, N. cousin of the bride, and Miss Vera Molter, sister of the bride. They wore ballerina-length gowns of blaze blue iridescent tulle with matching satin slippers. Their headpieces were fashioned of blue veiling. They wore white wrist-length gloves and carried white velvet muffs with white mums.

Attending the groom as best man was Wayne Westenbroek. Ushers were Roger Bartels, the groom's cousin, and Norman Hoeksema, his brother.

A reception for 150 guests was held in the church basement. Assisting about the rooms were Misses Marilyn Dokter, Marilyn Hanson, Muriel Hansen, Beverly Hoeksema, Lois Roelofs, Judy Lokers, Sandra Boonstra and Carol Dutmer.

For their western trip, the bride wore a gray suit with red and white accessories and mouton jacket. The newlyweds will make their home in Tacoma, Wash. The groom is stationed with the U. S. Army at Fort Lewis, Wash.

The bride, a graduate of Zeeland High School, was employed at the General Electric Co. office before her marriage. The groom is a graduate of Holland High School and before induction into service was employed at Sears and Roebuck.

Quito, Ecuador--An Interesting Contrast of Ancient and Modern

By Mathew J. Wilson
(This is the second in a series by Mr. Wilson, who, with Mrs. Wilson is touring South America.)

We arrived at the hotel El Panama at 10:30 p.m. but up again at 6:30 and did not get to enjoy the lovely swimming pool or other advantages of this resort hotel. Flew out at 9:10 a.m. landed at Cali in Columbia and Quito, Ecuador at 12:25 p.m.

Met by a lovely young lady who was to be our guide for the next eight days. Checked into the Humboldt Quito Hotel (named after the German who discovered the Humboldt Current on west on South America as well as climbing some of their highest peaks.) Since we were at an elevation of 9,400 feet and were short of breath we decided to relax and try to get ready for the next seven days.

Just as I was getting ready to leave for the Rotary Club meeting, all the light in Quito went off. I walked the six flights down an unknown inside staircase lit by candles at each landing and got to the street. Found a cab and through very dark streets to the Tennis Club where the meeting was held. There lighted and a very interesting group.

The first British Consul returned me to the hotel at 9:40 and the lights had just gone on a few minutes before so that I did not have to climb those six flights in that altitude.

Quito is a most interesting place and the first night you are kept awake by church bells every 15 minutes from many churches. This old Spanish town was founded by the conqueror Pizarro who founded Peru. It is still a marvel to see how those Spanish Conquistadores ever covered so much territory over such rugged and varied territory and subdued the many Indian tribes that they encountered.

The city is modern in some respects and ancient in others but overall is intensely interesting. Many beautiful churches, both outside and inside. A new residential section is as modern as you might wish, yet along with modernity you have Indians in native dress with heavy loads on their backs, the ever present burro and shoe shine boys and peddlers.

We visited the Ecuador Monument at high noon and had some mail cancelled here at 0-00 latitude. The sun rises and sets every day at 6 a.m. and 6 p.m. We had pictures taken with one foot in the Northern Hemisphere and the other in Southern. It is cool here because of the altitude even though you think of being on the Equator as hot. Also received our official plaque showing that we had crossed that part of our terrestrial sphere.

One overnight trip was made by Pan American Highway to Ibarra and stayed overnight at a rather good hotel Turista. The road is rough but good being made of rock and Indian labor. When surfaced it should be O. K. Very curving and through many quaint Indian villages. Passed many Indians loaded with all sorts of things they were carrying to the Saturday Market at Otavalo. They carry tremendous loads 30 or 40 miles each week for a very little money. But the market is their only source of amusement and get together and must mean a lot to them.

We were up at five in order to be at the market by seven and as is typical of most markets we have visited their goods are laid on the ground for sale, sometimes under cover and more often not. Live stock, all sorts of vegetables, foods, leather goods, woolen ponchos, raw wool, fruits, baskets, copper goods, pottery, firewood, lovely embroideries made right there without hoop or a drawn design, home wrought iron, candles, etc. We saw oranges, blackberries, bananas, papaya, limes, lemons, and later there would be apples and peaches. Of vegetables there were carrots, cabbages, potatoes, beets, radishes, leeks, onions, corn, wheat (both measured out in little bowls) millet and tomatoes.

Mothers March Nets Near $7,500 In Holland Area

Slippery Conditions Slow Volunteers In Polio Canvass

Icy roads and slippery walks slowed down the Mothers March on Polio to a crawling cadence Saturday night, but the spirit of giving wasn't slowed at all. And the 1936 Mothers March became the most successful to date with some 450 mothers and fathers collecting almost $7,500.

The incomplete total was $7,470.19 this morning. Some volunteers had not yet turned in their collections, and at least one volunteer was making her rounds in a rural neighborhood today because of the slippery conditions Saturday night. Fortunately, there were no weather casualties during the March, although it was probably the roughest going of all local marches. Volunteers started a half hour earlier than last year and many captains didn't report until 10 or 10:30 p.m. Previously, most areas had been covered in one hour with reports rolling in soon after.

Sponsoring organizations, Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary and Kiwanis Queens, had only praise for the many women and number of men who volunteered their services. All involved were more than pleased with the successful results.

The amount collected was more than one-third of the polio fund goal set for Holland area — $22,265. Goal for the entire county is $58,244.

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Total of $4,540 was raised Saturday night in the Tri-Cities Mothers March Light Drive for Polio. Individual totals were $2,740 for Grand Haven city, $540 for Ferrysburg and $1,260 for Spring Lake. The Penny a Pound plate rides were cancelled again Saturday for the second week because of weather conditions. Airport Manager William Layne said the project will not be rescheduled. However, anyone having tickets for the rides over Grand Haven may use them at anytime in the next three weeks, when the weather is good.

Persons With Income Less Than $5,000 Should Use Form 1040A

Today we shall explain the use of the so-called simplified or wage earner's return filed on Form 1040A. This Form 1040A is on a card 3 1/2 by 7 1/2 inches.

On one side it has 10 questions pertaining to identification such as your name and address, etc., the amount of money you have earned and the tax withheld. The other side is for the purpose of listing your dependents and exemptions.

This form may be used by any taxpayer who has total income of less than $5,000 and consists entirely of wages reported on withholding statements (Form W-2) and not more than $100 total of other wages, dividends, and interest.

A husband and wife may file a joint return on this form provided their combined incomes do not exceed the above limitation.

The advantage of filing this type of return is that it only takes the average taxpayer from five to 10 minutes to fill out completely. Upon receipt of this card form the Internal Revenue Service will compute the tax and bill the taxpayer for any additional tax he owes or send him a refund check if he has paid in excess of his actual tax.

Zeeland Records Its Ninth Win Of Cage Season

ZEELAND (Special) — In a Ken-New-Wa League basketball game played at Holland Armory Friday night, the Zeeland Chix ran roughshod over Sparta to post an easy 61-44 victory.

The win gives Zeeland a 9-2 record for the season so far and keeps the Chix in the runnerup spot behind Fremont in the league standings.

Coach Mel Bouma had a chance to see what some of his second stringers could do Friday night as he played them freely in the second and fourth quarters.

At the end of the first quarter the count was a lopsided 18-6 with Zeeland firmly in command. At the half it was 37-22 and at the third quarter it was 55-39.

The winners used a sizzling fast break to good advantage time after time to roll up the point total. Zeeland hit a good 35 percent from the floor while Sparta hit 30 percent.

Wissink paced Zeeland's scoring with 14 points on six field goals and two free throws. High for Sparta was Bradford with 15.

Zeeland has somewhat of a respite from the basketball wars until Feb. 7 when the Chix take on Holland Christian at Civic Center. Christian and Fremont are the only teams that have beaten Zeeland this season.

In the reserve game Friday, Zeeland won 57-37 with Max DeJong jumping in 21 points. It pushes Zeeland's record to 10 wins and one loss so far this season. The winners had quarter advantages of 20-11, 30-20 and 46-28.

Hope Iced Out; Complications

The postponement of the Hope-Adrian MIAA cage contest at Adrian Saturday night, due to the sleet storm, may have caused some involved complications. Hope Coach John Visser reported today.

Adrian which struggled through the first semester games without the services of several key ball players, including their ace, Roy Hughes, because of scholastic eligibility, may use the players at the beginning of the second semester which is today. It is expected that the Bulldogs will be at top strength when they invade Calvin Tuesday night.

Had Hope been able to make the trip Saturday night, Adrian would not have been permitted to use the ineligible players. However, since the game will now have to be played sometime in the second semester, the problem arises as to whether these boys may play against Hope.

Coach John Visser says that this is one the commissioner will have to decide or he may call in all member clubs to settle the issue. At any rate, Visser says no date has been set for the replay, and it may be some time before it is scheduled.

Marks Second Win Of Maroons Over Bears This Year

ST. JOSEPH (Special)—Holland Christian's Basketball quintet continued its mastery over the highly rated St. Joe Bears here Friday night by edging the Bears 64-61. With the gym packed to the rafters, both clubs staged a tremendous contest, flashing smooth operating units with contrasting styles.

Christian now is the only club to have beaten the Bears twice this season, their only other loss coming at the hands of Chicago Dunbar. In an earlier meeting the Dutch dropped the Bears from their No. 1 rating to their present third, by eking out a 62-60 win.

Neither Coach Art Tuls of the locals or Ray Haack of the Bears could have asked much more of their ball clubs. Both played better ball than in the first meeting this season. Neither made many mistakes and had fine shooting percentages. St. Joe, limited to just 49 shots by a good Maroon defense, hit 20 baskets for a very good 41 per cent. Christian meanwhile, took 59 shots and also hit on 20 for a 34 per cent average. It was the same from the foul lane with the Dutch hitting 24 for 32 and St. Joe 21 for 35.

It was the tremendous team spirit and heady play, however, which gave the Dutch the win. Although the tilt was nip and tuck most of the way, the Bears did move into an eight point lead early in the fourth quarter. With four minutes left, the Bears led 57-52 and then went into what proved to be a costly rotary stall. With the minutes ticking off, the Dutch stole the ball twice to trail 57-56 with 1:39 left. By this time Christian's ace, Dave Vander Hill, was on the bench with five fouls.

Then things began to happen. Warren Boer calmly sank two free throws to give the Dutch a 58-57 margin. St. Joe's clever Allen Ross countered immediately on a driving layup to give the Bears a 59-58 lead. With just 57 seconds left, Christian's Dave Bos sank a beautiful jump shot for a 60-59 lead. However Ross came right back with two successful free throws to give the losers a 61-60 edge with 30 seconds left. But once again the Dutch rose to the occasion, as Bos connected on another jump shot for the game winning bucket. It was all over but the shouting at Christian's Herm Tuls hit two from the foul lane with two seconds left.

St. Joe, anxious to avenge the earlier defeat, was really fired up at the start of the game and raced to a 9-2 lead before the Maroons fought back to narrow the count to three points. From this point on the Bears managed to keep a five point margin to hold a 19-14 bu're at the end of the quarter.

Christian kept the pressure on in the second quarter as they crept to within one point, five different times throughout the period but couldn't close the gap. St. Joe held a 32-31 margin at the intermission.

The Dutch took their first lead of the game with just one minute gone in the second half when they moved out in front 35-34. The lead see-sawed for a time before the Bears again stepped up the tempo to pull out to a 50-45 lead going into the final stanza.

Coach Ray Haack's club built up their margin to eight points in the early stages of the final period, before the determined Dutch began their drive which ended in the ultimate victory.

Jason Harness, St. Joe's ace, who had been sidelined the last two games came in the second quarter, and played about a half before leaving in the final quarter when he picked up his fourth foul. Christian's Vander Hill once again did a tremendous rebounding and scoring job. Then of course, Christian's Warren Boer along with Ross of St. Joe did fine playmaking for their respective clubs.

Christian next entertains Grand Rapids Creston on the Civic Center Box score:

(Mr. and Mrs. Matthew J. Wilson of Holland are on an extended tour of South America. This is the first in a series to be sent to The Sentinel by Mr. Wilson. — Editor.)

Leaving Holland in a snowstorm Jan. 2, we ran out of it in Indiana. Proceeding south with gradually warming weather we reached New Orleans where it was summer weather and people swimming in motel pools. We spent some time re-photographing the Old French Quarter in color and Stereo, took care of last minute details of our trip and put car in storage for three months. Incidentally the Old Coffee House in New Orleans serves square doughnuts.

Jan. 7 up at 4:30 a.m. to be at airport for 7 a.m. flight to Merida, Yucatan. We were met and whisked to the very nice Mayaland Lodge at Chichen-Itza. This lodge has improved its facilities, food and services since we were there six years ago. It now caters to American tastes, has good electric lights that do not get turned off at 10 p.m., and several new cottages.

We spent two days there revisiting and taking in color the always interesting Mayan ruins of a civilization lasting before Christ and up to about 700 A.D. They were master builders, astronomers and evidently had a highly developed form of religious worship. No one knows where they disappeared to. Beautiful carvings, some looking Egyptian and one face very much like our Savior. Some pyramids are very high so this time I passed up the two highest because the steps are very narrow and very high.

Thence to Uxmal to a very nice hotel now being built. The workmen, carpenters, masons, tile setters, etc., get only a dollar a day and meat costs them that for two pounds. They are not happy and to me that is what may cause them to adopt Communism. They work from about 6 a.m. to 11 p.m. to make ends meet. Everything is done by hand and no power machinery at all. Tiles are cut and filed by hand to fit, mortar hand mixed and carried and everything inefficient. As I said before, what Central America needs are Industrial Schools and more modern methods to improve building trades. The men make little money but for what they accomplish in a day is not worth more than they are paid. Our friend in Managua has just moved into his new home which took two years to build and a very costly proposition of which he had no control.

Uxmal has many interesting Toltec buildings and was even more interesting to me than our last visit.

Up at 6 a.m. and flew from Merida at 8:30 for 1,380 mile flight to Panama. Landed at Guatemala City. San Salvador where we saw friends at the airport for an hours visit, then Tegucigalpa, Honduras again, and then a short half hours visit at Managua airport with our friends the Cabrerias. You will recall Rafael Cabrera's interview and picture in The Sentinel several years ago when he was returning from International Red Cross as a delegate from Nicaragua. He is National Red Cross President there.

Several hours later, shortly before midnight, a neighbor saw two cars drive into the darkened station driveway and notified police. Fearing that a burglary was then in progress deputies and Holland police converged on the station.

Two startled youths told officers they were waiting for friends. An investigation revealed the break-in.

The youths denied having anything to do with the break-in and said it was just coincidence they were there. The youths were questioned and released.

Deputies put a pickup order for the 1954 green car with the Illinois plates, which had an Oak Park safety sticker, on its windshield, but had no luck.

Maroon Seconds Lose First Game

ST. JOSEPH (Special)—Some uncanny outcourt shooting in the final quarter enabled the St. Joe reserves to edge the previously undefeated Holland Christian Little Maroons 53-51, here Friday night. The Dutch now have a 10-1 mark and the Little Bears an 8-2 record.

Christian held the upper hand throughout and owned as much as a 13 point lead in the third quarter. However then the Bears began finding the range from out, while the Dutch were having trouble finding the hoop.

The Little Maroons raced out to a 15-7 lead at the end of the first quarter and were still leading 30-21 at halftime. After the Dutch were leading 38-25 in the third, the Bears began to move and only trailed 40-35 at the period's end. The lead cea saved in the final period, but the Dutch just couldn't cope with the fine Bear shooting in the last hectic minutes.

Jim Kool led the Little Maroons with 22 points, followed by Jim Meurer with nine. Cal Klaasen and Jerry Altema with seven each and Dan Bos with six. Dase led St. Joe with 19.

Third Burglary In Six Months

Burglars hit the Wooden Shoe Texaco gas station on US-31 bypass near 16th St., early Friday for the third time in six months.

The latest break-in netted the thieves an estimated $500 worth of new automobile tires.

Ottawa County deputies said entrance was gained by smashing a small pane of glass on the south side of the station. The thieves then opened a large window and tossed out the tires.

Deputies said the station attendant was lured from his job by two occupants of a late model car bearing Illinois license plates. They said there was a motorist whose car was in a ditch near Zeeland and needed help.

The attendant looked up the station and left with his wrecker. He failed to find the car in distress and drove home. It was around 8:30 p.m.

Several hours later, shortly before midnight, a neighbor saw two cars drive into the darkened station driveway and notified police.

Fearing that a burglary was then in progress deputies and Holland police converged on the station.

Two startled youths told officers they were waiting for friends. An investigation revealed the break-in.

The youths denied having anything to do with the break-in and said it was just coincidence they were there. The youths were questioned and released.

Deputies put a pickup order for the 1954 green car with the Illinois plates, which had an Oak Park safety sticker, on its windshield, but had no luck.

Hamilton

The Hamilton Discussion group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Billet on Jan. 20. A report of the Women's Committee meeting held at Monterey Center was given by Mrs. Ben Eding. John H. Albers reported on some of the proposed legislative bills as follows: School bus regulations, fixing hours of township meetings, exemption of 2% tax on farm gas, drainage code and highway hunting laws.

The topic for the evening was "The Guaranteed Annual Wage and its Effect on Farmers". It was agreed that it was not a good thing for farm people as it lessened their buying power and create an increase in costs. About the only way a farmer could increase his net income would be to do more specialized farming instead of diversified farming. It was decided. Lunch was served and a social time followed.

Mrs. Herman Nyhoff and Mrs. Robert Nyhoff left by plane Monday evening for Limestone, Maine, upon receiving word that Robert had received a leg injury as he was servicing a plane at the air base.

They arrive on Tuesday and called to state that Robert would be flown to a Washington, D.C., Hospital. His mother and wife will also go to Washington to be with him as he undergoes surgery.

The pair was picked up by city police at 11:45 p.m. Wednesday after attempting to gain admittance to a tavern on Beech Tree St. The pair was reportedly uncle and nephew.

Young Peoples Groups Merge to Form Federation

Tabulation of a vote conducted among the young people of Christian Reformed churches in the United States and Canada gave a resounding 94 percent approval to merge the present two national Federations, the Young Calvinist Federation (YCF) and the American Federation of Reformed Young Women Societies (AFRYWS). The single new organization is called the Young Calvinist Federation of North America.

The desire to serve and to unite all types of youth organizations in the Christian Reformed Church prompted the negotiations. The Federations were encouraged by the Synod of the denomination through its Synodical Youth Committee.

To carry out the plan, each Federation appointed three members to work out the details and a Constitution. Serving this committee were Dr. Clarence De Graaf, professor of English at Hope College, Holland, and president of the YCF; the Rev. William P. Brink, pastor of Bethany Christian Reformed Church, Holland, and Richard Postma, Grand Rapids, YCF director.

For the AFRYWS Mrs. Tillie Gelderloo Jaarsma, Grand Rapids, president of the AFRYWS; Anne Weessies, Kalamazoo, and Hester Monsma, Grand Rapids, secretary of the AFRYWS.

This committee worked out a new Constitution which was submitted to the annual convention of the Federations in 1954 for study. In August of 1955, both Federations approved the Constitution and By-Laws for submission to all member societies of both Federations for a vote, resulting in the overwhelming approval of the memberships.

An interim committee will now direct the actual changeover as each Federation continues to carry on the usual activities until a board is set up on the new Constitution.

Local men serving on the interim board which met Jan. 20 are Dr. De Graaf, Rev. Brink and John Spykman.

The Holland-Zeeland League is affiliated with the YCF. League president is George Brink of East Saugatuck.

As of Jan. 25, he is in arrears $126.50, and the court postponed the matter until Feb. 8 by which time he will be required to have the amount in the hands of the friend of the court.

Bruce Matin, 38, Grand Haven, also brought in on a writ of attachment, was ordered Friday to pay $20 per week beginning Feb. 3. According to a divorce decree granted his former wife, Rosetta, Grand Haven, June 28, 1954, he was required to pay $15 a week and as of Jan. 20 is $735 in arrears.

He was taken to county jail and will be released to Muskegon county authorities.

Alfred Tennyson's poem, Enoch Arden, has been used to name a divorce statute.

B and C League Teams Bunched

Two Teams Tied For Top Spot in Both Circuits

Steffen's Market and Overkamp's Washer Parts in the C League, and Wooden Shoe and Baker's Market in the B League remained tied for the lead in their respective leagues following Recreation League play in the Civic Center Monday night.

In C play, Steffen's turned back the West End Merchants 32-16 to stay in the lead and they were joined by Overkamp's, who defeated Scotts, Inc. 42-21. In the other game, Kitchen Planning scored win number three by beating the All Americans 47-31.

Over on the other court, Wooden Shoe ran over Bor's Bootery 55-27 while Baker's stayed in the running with a 53-41 win over Dutch Novelty. In the third game, Ter Haar stayed one game off the pace with a 59-34 triumph over Stam's Mobilgas.

Steffen's Market started fast in scoring their win. Led by Ken Etterbeek, the winners went ahead 22-8 at halftime and then coasted. Etterbeek led the scoring with 11 followed by Ted Boeve with 10. Patterson led the losers with five.

Overkamp's had a big second half in recording their win. Ahead 13-11 at the midway point, the re-primed netted 29 points to Scott's six in their big rally. S. Vander Sluis and Nelson Jacobs sparked the winners with 13 each while Rog Wierda had eight for the losers.

Kitchen Planning, led by George Moeke with 11 points, beat back the All American's attempt to win game number one. Don Hulst had nine for the losers.

Wooden Shoe stayed in a tie for first place by beating last place Bor's Bootery 55-27. The shoes started fast and were never headed. Den Uyl hit for 15 in a winning cause while Ray Dedoes netted 10 for Bor's.

Baker's Market used their fast break to good advantage in the second half to pull away from the Novelty five. The halftime score showed the Grocers leading by only two, 27-25. Ron Japina netted 21 points for Baker's while Bruce Ming and Ron Bolhuis hit for 10 apiece for the losers.

In the final game, Ter Haar's stayed in contention with their lopsided win. Again it was a strong second half that turned a close game into a rout. Ken Zuverink hit the hoop for the Clothiers with 16 points. Bill Heyboer led a losing cause with 15.

With three weeks of play remaining, this is the way the standings look:

Property Owners In Pigeon Lake Area Plan Meet

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH. — A general meeting of about 100 resort property owners in the Pigeon Lake area of Ottawa County will be held here sometime within the next two weeks, to discuss a proposed power plant to be built in the area.

Three members of a temporary committee formed by the property owners met with Consumers Power Co. officials during the weekend to discuss the company's plans for the area. Consumers revealed recently that it is acquiring 1,200 acres of land in the area as future site for a power plant.

Consumers officials said the company plans to build two breakwater piers 2,500 feet out into Lake Michigan and to dredge a narrow waterway between Pigeon Lake and Lake Michigan to make it 300 feet wide and 36-feet deep. Consumers also plans to build a turning basin in Pigeon Lake and docking facilities for at least two coal boats.

Officials of the property owner's committee told Consumers officials that Pigeon Lake would be ruined if used by coal boats and asked the company to build facilities on Lake Michigan north of the waterway to unload coal boats. Consumers officials said they would look into that possibility but said they doubted if it would be feasible.

Example 2: An individual whose income is under $5,000 all of which is from wages but owns his own home, has interests and taxes, therefore, lists all his personal deductions which, in this case, exceed 10 percent of his total income. This type of individual would fill out page 1 and 2. He would also fill out the bottom of page 2 computing his own tax. The rate of tax is on page 14 of the instruction booklet.

Example 3: An individual whose total income is over $5,000 and is from wages and who claims the standard deduction, must fill out page 1 and only the bottom part of page 2, which is the tax computation.

Example 4: An individual who earns over $5,000 from wages and wishes to claim specific deductions must fill out page 1 and page 2 listing all of his deductions.

Example 5: An individual who has other income must show it on page 3 of the return in its proper section.

Example 6: Any individual who has other income from rents, interest, dividends, and so forth would want to fill out page 4 of the return in order for him to receive tax credit for dividends received and retirement income, if he is eligible and entitled to such credit.

In order for the taxpayer to avail himself to all of the benefits he is entitled to and, thereby, reduce his taxes to the just amount that he should pay, it is necessary for him to understand which of the two methods he would elect to use to give him the greatest deductions, thereby reduce his taxable income. By that, we mean, would he use the standard deduction or itemize his deductions.

The standard deduction automatically gives him the benefit of deductions equal to 10 percent of his income (adjusted gross income). In this case no receipts of bills are necessary and even though the taxpayer does not have actual deductions equal to 10 percent by using the standard deduction.

Limitation on standard deduction — the standard deduction is 10 percent of adjusted gross income, but not more than $1,000 for all taxpayers except married persons filing separate returns. For married persons filing separate returns, the standard deduction is 10 percent of adjusted gross income, but not more than $500.

To claim specific deductions, one must determine what he can claim. Briefly, taxpayers are allowed as deductions certain personal expenses which are listed as follows:

Contributions.
Interest.
Medical expenses.
Child Care.
Losses from fire, theft or accident.
Miscellaneous.

A more detailed explanation of each of the above deductions will be explained in subsequent articles.

Car Hits Pole

A car driven by Madeline H. Kelava, route 2, Grand Haven, crashed into a pole on slippery pavement at 5:05 p.m. Monday at the corner of 138th Ave. and Felch St. Mrs. Kelava was driving south on 138th Ave. when the car went out of control. It was snowing at the time. The right front of the 1954 model was damaged to the extent of $350. Sheriff's officers investigated.

Individual Doesn't Have to Fill Out And Complete Every Item on Return

As previously explained the income tax return is designed to cover every type of taxpayer whether a workingman, professional, business man, or executive.

Therefore, it is not necessary that the individual taxpayer fill out and complete every item on the return.

Example 1: An individual who has income of less than $5,000, completely from wages, and claiming standard deductions would fill out page 1 only of form 1040. He would determine his tax from the taxable on page 16 of the instruction booklet. (This individual could file the simplified form 1040A instead, if he wanted to.)

Before giving you another example, we should explain what we mean by standard deduction. The law states that you are entitled to certain personal deductions such as contributions, interest, taxes, medical expenses, etc. provided you list (and be able to prove) all of these on page 2 of the return.

Now, as an alternative, the Government automatically allows you 10 percent of the total income as a deduction if you do not wish to list all of these items on page 2. This is already computed in figuring the tax shown on the taxable. Therefore, if you do not list these deductions, you are given what we call the benefit of the standard deduction.

Example 2: An individual whose income is under $5,000 all of which is from wages but owns his own home, has interests and taxes, therefore, lists all his personal deductions which, in this case, exceed 10 percent of his total income. This type of individual would fill out page 1 and 2. He would also fill out the bottom of page 2 computing his own tax. The rate of tax is on page 14 of the instruction booklet.

Example 3: An individual whose total income is over $5,000 and is from wages and who claims the standard deduction, must fill out page 1 and only the bottom part of page 2, which is the tax computation.

Example 4: An individual who earns over $5,000 from wages and wishes to claim specific deductions must fill out page 1 and page 2 listing all of his deductions.

Example 5: An individual who has other income must show it on page 3 of the return in its proper section.

Example 6: Any individual who has other income from rents, interest, dividends, and so forth would want to fill out page 4 of the return in order for him to receive tax credit for dividends received and retirement income, if he is eligible and entitled to such credit.

In order for the taxpayer to avail himself to all of the benefits he is entitled to and, thereby, reduce his taxes to the just amount that he should pay, it is necessary for him to understand which of the two methods he would elect to use to give him the greatest deductions, thereby reduce his taxable income. By that, we mean, would he use the standard deduction or itemize his deductions.

The standard deduction automatically gives him the benefit of deductions equal to 10 percent of his income (adjusted gross income). In this case no receipts of bills are necessary and even though the taxpayer does not have actual deductions equal to 10 percent by using the standard deduction.

Limitation on standard deduction — the standard deduction is 10 percent of adjusted gross income, but not more than $1,000 for all taxpayers except married persons filing separate returns. For married persons filing separate returns, the standard deduction is 10 percent of adjusted gross income, but not more than $500.

Holland in 1918

(Following is another in a series of articles taken from news of the Holland Daily Sentinel published more than 37 years ago.)

"The worst storm in twenty years," was the official weather bureau report about the storm of last Sunday, Jan. 12, issue of the Holland Daily Sentinel published in 1918. The first intimation of the storm came by a long distance message to central in Holland from Chicago giving warning that a storm with a velocity of 70 miles an hour was sweeping over Chicago and was headed this way. Soon after, the storm struck in all its fury and it is still at it.

Not only in Holland but in Grand Haven and other parts of the county as well the petition addressed to the Board of Supervisors asking that body to provide the county nurse with the necessary equipment to enable her to do effective work is being liberally signed.

Through the efforts of the city fire department, Holland is well protected against fire under the unusual circumstances of the blizzard. An outside team has been hired and sleighs have been rigged up at the two departments so that responses to fires can be made in that way. The sleighs have been equipped with hose and ladders and the firemen will be able to do effective work should a fire break out.

St. Louis, Mich., like Holland, will go on a sugar diet Monday, Jan. 14. The city clerk is now issuing sugar cards and the allowance is one pound per week for each member in a family.

Holland High School basketball five traveled to Grand Haven Friday night and defeated the county seat players by the score of 25 to 13. The local boys came back on the late train, pulling into Holland shortly before the big storm broke.

The Rev. John Van Ess, missionary of the Reformed Church in Arabia, will give an address for men only in Trinity Church next Wednesday.

With the bright sunny dawn that greeted the city Monday morning when it awoke to a new week of work, efforts were immediately begun to repair the damage of the storm and to open the usual lines of communication with the outside world and from one part of the city to another, according to a story in the Monday, Jan. 12, issue.

With Allegan county pledged to a policy of pushing the project of the erection of a tri-county tuberculosis sanatorium, it is almost certain that the Ottawa County board of Supervisors will take a similar step at their session this week.

Third Reformed Sunday School closed the most successful and prosperous year in its history for 1917. According to the annual report of the treasurer the total collections reached $2,590.23 of which amount $1,441.32 was donated for missions and benevolences.

The storms of last week Sunday cost the city between $1,200 and $1,500. This is the estimate made Monday by Mayor Vandersluis in checking up some of the items that went into the list for keeping the sidewalks and streets open and for hauling away the excess snow from Eighth and River Ave.

In spite of the worst storm in the present generation, about nine per cent of the Sentinels were delivered to the subscribers Saturday. The paper came from the press at noon, as usual with the Saturday edition, and it took some of the boys most of the afternoon to cover their routes.

Next Monday evening, Jan. 21, members from Holland's seven public schools will present a most enthusiastic and entertaining patriotic program in the high school auditorium. Proceeds from this entertainment will be used to establish a free dental clinic in connection with the city hospital. Tickets are 15 cents for everyone.

John Van Sztama of Zeeland enlisted Saturday in the ordinance corps at Grand Rapids.

Father Wykoff, of Grace Church was in Grand Rapids Sunday where he was the principal speaker at the Annual Epiphany rally of all the Episcopal church schools of Grand Rapids and the Western Michigan Diocese.

Prosecuting Attorney Fred T. Miles Tuesday issued the detailed report of the work done in his department during the six months ending Dec. 31. This news story appeared in the Tuesday, Jan. 15, issue.

Hospital Boosts Its Room Rates Effective Feb. 1

New Ward Rate $11.50; Increased Costs Make Rate Boost Necessary

An increase in room rates at Holland City Hospital, effective Wednesday, Feb. 1, was announced Friday by John F. Donnelly, president of the Hospital Board. The increase will be generally $1.50 a day.

New rates follow: wards, $11.50; semi private rooms, $14; private rooms, $17.50 and $18.50. Hall beds will be $10 when it is necessary to use them. Nursery care for newborn will go up 50 cents to $4 and if the baby stays after the mother is discharged the rate will be $6. All other charges will remain the same.

A survey conducted the past two weeks indicates that the new rates are on a par with hospitals of comparable size and service, and below those of the Grand Rapids hospitals.

The increase is the first in rates since July 1, 1954, and has been necessitated by constantly increasing costs of operating the hospital. The hospital board delayed the increase as long as possible but when the financial report for the month of December showed a loss of over $5,000 it became apparent that new rates would have to be put into effect as soon as possible.

Increased costs are largely due to salary adjustments made in July which amounted to 5 percent for all hospital employees. With payroll expense constituting almost 72 percent of the total expense of the hospital, this has meant total salary expense has risen from $14.83 per patient day to $15.75 per patient day during the current fiscal year, although other costs have remained at about the same level. Costs other than salaries amount to an additional $6.69 per day, covering maintenance, food, x-ray, laboratory, operating room, fees, dressings, drugs, etc.

Another interesting fact disclosed in the survey was that Holland Hospital has a higher percentage of its salaries going to nursing than most hospitals. Yet, salaries are generally below those of the other hospitals contacted. This means that patients in Holland Hospital are receiving more nursing care than in most hospitals.

Ottawa County Farm News

By Richard Machiele
County Agricultural Agent

We had an excellent attendance at our Small Fruits and Vegetables meeting at Allendale this past week. Many Ottawa County folks apparently are interested in the production of these crops. Our panel members all assured us that the outlet for fresh fruits and vegetables was good and that markets for the next few years should bring fairly good prices. Processors especially said that the demand for the products has been increased continually. However, there was one note throughout the entire meeting that was brought up repeatedly and that is any product sold on the fresh market must be a quality product.

We are having a follow-up meeting to discuss the production of these crops scheduled for Feb. 16 at Allendale Town Hall. Those who could not attend the last meeting are invited to come to this one. Production practices for all fruits and vegetables will be discussed by specialists from Michigan State University.

Elmo Heft, Gerrit Butth and Gerald Poest were honored at Michigan State University Tuesday night as members of the (500) Club, a group of dairymen whose herds have averaged 500 pounds of butterfat in the past five years. Elmo's herd was fifth among the 38 honored members whose herds averaged 500 pounds or more. His Holstein herd averaged 554.4 pounds of butterfat and 14,617 pounds milk. Gerrit Butth stood 18th among the 38 members and Gerald Poest was the 20th. However, the Butth herd of 63 cattle was the one having the greatest number of cattle in the top 38. That is an additional accomplishment. Congratulations to these folks. I am sure that success is due to a good program of selection, feeding and management. I think too that their membership in the local DHIA has kept them continually aware as to what their production would be.

We are looking for a site for our oat variety trials this spring. The farm crops department has again told us they would be willing to supply seed for such plots in the county. We probably will have four or five varieties of oats which will be repeated three times in the plot which means that we will need a piece of land from 12 to 15 drill widths wide and 150 feet long. If there are any interested farmers who are willing to let us use this land for one season, we will be glad to hear from you. I might say that the oats grown on the plots become the property of the farmer at harvest time.

We also have a list of the Ottawa County farmers who made the 400 Club. This is a club of farmers whose dairy herds tested in KHIA in Michigan have averaged over 400 pounds of butterfat for the last five testing years. Those Ottawa County farmers in this club are: John Ter Horst, Hudsonville; Hecksel Bros., Coopersville; Harold Ter Haar, Zeeland; Harold Jensen & Sons, Jenison; Eugene Brower, Zeeland; Groen Bros, Hudsonville; Arthur L. Van Farow, Hudsonville; Harold Busman, Coopersville; Edward Koops, Holland and Scott Holmes, Nunica.

We have had a number of inquiries about a new lawn grass called Meyer Zoysia or the new Emerald Zoysia. According to James Tyson, turf grass specialist at Michigan State University, these grasses are not recommended for Michigan except for some golf tees in the southern part of the state. In seven years of tests at East Lansing, Meyer Zoysia didn't begin to green up until May 15 or June 1. Then it went off color with the first frost. During spring and fall, when the cool climate grasses are at their best Meyer Zoysia has been dormant. It grows so slowly in the rest of the cool season that other grasses will almost crowd it out of the turf.

If you are interested in lawn seed, it is best to stay with the well-known varieties such as Merion Bluegrass, Kentucky Bluegrass, the red fescues and bent-grasses.

It has been proven in this county and in other places that contouring corn land reduces water-shed runoff. According to some recent figures, contoured corn land absorbs 36 percent more moisture per year for a 14-year average than would straight corn rows. Average yearly runoff on a four-acre water-shed was 4.47 inches from a straight row corn field grown in a corn, oats, wheat rotation. Where the same practices were used but the corn was contoured, the average runoff was 2.85 inches.

If your land is such that water runs off quickly, you might consider either strip or contour cropping. I am sure that it is going to return big dividends to you. Bill Miller working as a conservationist in the S.C.S. District office, Post Office Building, Grand Haven, would be happy to hear from any one who would like to set up such practices. Drop him a line.

Club Fascinated By Tall Tales

Tall stories of life in the Catskill mountain area up the Hudson river from New York provided an entertaining hour — long talk for members of the Woman's Literary Club Tuesday afternoon as told by Frank DuMond, director of the Grand Rapids Public Museum.

Mr. DuMond, a ninth generation descendant of Grandpappy DeMond who migrated to the new world with Peter Stuyvesant in 1647, told how his original ancestor disliked the flat country of Manhattan and with his Dutch bride went up the river 90 miles to live in the Catskills which were somewhat similar to the mountains he had left in the French highlands.

With full knowledge of techniques of turning a good story, the Grand Rapids museum director launched into a series of tall tales linked with a certain continuity which moved from wolves, shotgun farming, extreme cold and heat, excessive rain, popping corn, hen eggs so big it took only six to make a dozen, square eggs, wild animals and, of course, fish stories.

One tall tale concerned a water auger in which DuMond's forebears drilled holes in the water to have fish pop out right into the boat. He said he was looking for such a water auger for the museum and would be happy if anybody in Holland could produce an instrument which could be authenticated.

Mrs. Alvin D. Bos, club president, announced that the club would celebrate the clubhouse birthday next week with Mrs. George W. Francis of Saginaw giving an illustrated book review in costume of "Grandma Moses." Tea will follow.

Hostesses Tuesday were Mrs. Don Myaard and Mrs. Carroll Norlin.

Ottawa County 4-H News

By Willis S. Boss
4-H Club Agent

Highlights of Farmer's Week at Michigan State University, East Lansing, have been noted by people who attended. Monday was the Horse Show with many 4-H members taking part in the various classes. Ottawa County has no 4-H horse project but much interest is shown in the county.

The annual 4-H Crops and Egg Show was held in the east and west sides of the Stadium. The 4-H Club Department sponsored the show.

Another 4-H highlight will be staged on Thursday evening when 42 talented 4-H youngsters will present a musical program. Farmer's Week will close on Friday. 4-H leaders, 4-H members, and many other persons visiting the show will gain much from viewing exhibits and hearing programs.

There are some 4-H members raising beef in the county who have not sent in their names for enrollment. This is important as a meeting is going to be scheduled for the future and we should know who have beef projects.

Twenty-four members have already enrolled in the project. Their names are — Jay Alfrink, Zeeland; Jack Mc Duffee, Byron Center; Herb Berens, Zeeland; Wayne Ter Haar, Zeeland; John Klooster, Byron Center; Carol Klooster, Byron Center; Wesley Wiggers, Zeeland; Dennis Wiggers, Zeeland; Robert Raterink, Zeeland; Carl Van Belkum, Hudsonville; Glen Berens, Hudsonville; Ray Koop, Hudsonville; Michael Conley, Nunica; Pat Conley, Nunica; Jim Dyke, Coopersville; Leroy Dyke, Coopersville; Jerry Eisen, Coopersville; Jerry Hanchett, Coopersville; Roger Jewell, Coopersville; Dave Kober, Conklin; Steve Kober, Conklin; Irene Timmerman, Nunica; Richard Timmerman, Nunica and Roger Timmerman, Nunica.

The Achievement Days have been scheduled as follows — March 26-27 — Coopersville area at Coopersville High School; March 28-29 — Holland area at Holland Civic Center; April 2-3 — Hudsonville area at Hudsonville High School. Members and leaders should circle the dates on their calendars and work harder toward project completion at this time.

Another thing for 4-H members to remember is the Talent Show which is held at this time. More details about this will follow in a letter to leaders as well as appearing in this column.

Any and all members eligible for a 4-H scholarship should write the 4-H club office soon to get their application in. There are some details which must be answered and time is running short.

Special music was furnished by Mrs. G. Oosterbaan and Mrs. B. Rowan of Beechwood Church. Mrs. C. Kuylers, retiring secretary, led the consecration prayer.

The Ladies Aid Society and the Friendship Circle of the entertaining church were in charge of the social hour. Mrs. Don Koolman offered the closing prayer.

Hospital Construction Is Month Ahead of Schedule

Work on the new $1,300,000 addition to Holland Hospital is progressing a month ahead of schedule, John F. Donnelly, president of the hospital board, said today.

Contractors have taken full advantage of good weather conditions, Donnelly said, and if work continues ahead of schedule, the new addition may be ready for occupancy by the end of the year. After that, there will be three or four months of remodeling in the present building, work that cannot be done before services are transferred to the new building.

Workers currently are working on superstructure for the upper floors. The four-floor addition calls for a basement, a ground floor and two upper floors. The top floor will be on a level of the second floor of the current hospital. Original plans had called for a "fifth" floor, but these plans were changed more than a year ago in a general shift providing for all services in a four-floor unit. Original plans also had called for a 125-bed hospital, and the shift provides for 128 beds.

Part of a "fifth" floor will be built over that section containing the elevators and service cores areas to connect with the present third floor. There may be some confusion in the minds of local residents at present on how the "fifths" will be defined in old and new areas. This will be easily understood when the new building is in operation with main entrances in the new part. The confusion results from the slope of the hill which establishes different levels for the units.

Architects for the addition are H. E. Beyster and Associates of Detroit. Martin Dyke and Sons of Holland are the general contractors.

Donnelly said the hospital board was well pleased with progress thus far, and hopes the pace will be maintained so that the new addition can be put to use as early as possible.

The check was endorsed by Avants.

Last July Avants was returned to Michigan by officials after serving a term at the Terre Haute penitentiary.

Kenneth Wright, route 4, and James Hamburg of Holland, whose joint case of conspiracy was to have been tried Feb. 6, has been postponed until the April term at the request of the attorney for one of the defendants.
