County Delegates Named for State GOP Convention

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Twenty-seven delegates and 27 alternates for the state Republican convention in Detroit Feb. 9 were named at a convention of Ottawa County Republicans Wednesday night in the court house. Keynote for the occasion was State Rep. George Van Peursem of Zeeland, speaker of the House of Representatives.

Delegates to the state convention are Carl C. Andreesen, Mrs. Arthur C. Yost, Mrs. Wendell A. Miles, State Sen. Clyde H. Geerlings, Gerald J. Van Wyke, Alden J. Stoner, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Tague and Mrs. A. Hubbel Loomis, all of Holland; Corey Van Koeveering, Yvonne De Jonge and Glen R. Geerlings of Zeeland; Doris Garter, Marvin Smith, Lawrence Gardner, Dr. Harold H. Swartz, James W. Scott, Allen Moore, Mrs. Jane Lilley, Edward Meany, Henrik Stafseth and William C. Michele.

Delegates - at - large are Gerald Vanderbeek, George Van Peursem, George Van Koeveering, Harry Lieffers, Jr., and James Busard.

Alternates are Mrs. Carl C. Andreesen, Arthur C. Yost, Mrs. Bruce M. Raymond, L. C. Dalman, Leona Postma, Hazen Van Kampen, John Van Appledorn and William Jesiek, all of Holland; Don Vos and Marvin Verplank of Zeeland; Marvin Pratt, Clifford Burmeister, Fred Den Jerdy, Martin Dykstra, Jerry J. Hammond, Ruth Scott, Donald Overbey, Arlene Bush, Tom Otley, James Wierenga, Jr., Vera Duckworth.

Alternates - at - large are Avery Baker, Mrs. Jerry Hammond, Mrs. Helen Swartz, Mrs. Henrik Stafseth and Mrs. Corey Van Koeveering. George Van Koeveering, county chairman, presided and Fred Den Herder served as clerk. Mrs. Marvin Verplank of Zeeland was temporary chairman. Carl Andreesen read resolutions which were adopted by the convention.

In his keynote address, Rep. Van Peursem talked on "What's right with the Republican party" and he cited a long list of accomplishments and gains. He said strong grass roots support is responsible for much of the success of the GOP program. In discussing some of the controversial topics of the day, Van Peursem said a public servant often can't be responsible to the people and be politically smart at the same time. He said the Republican party in the long run is emerging as a party of responsibility.

He said Michigan is in sick financial condition, and at some point the people must decide how much they want in the way of public services and how much they are willing to pay. He quoted Sen. Geerlings recent statement that if people insist on more and more services, a state income tax is the only answer, and he emphasized Geerlings' warning that people must think carefully about this move because once a state income tax is instituted there is little likelihood of its removal. Van Peursem said Michigan is spending more for education than any other state outside of California and New York, and Michigan ranks third in its mental health program, but is seventh in population.

Attention was called to the Lincoln Day banquet Feb. 12 in Van Raalte's restaurant in Zeeland with U. S. Rep. Patrick Hillings of California as speaker.

Peter R. Wilds, 70, Of Grand Haven Dies

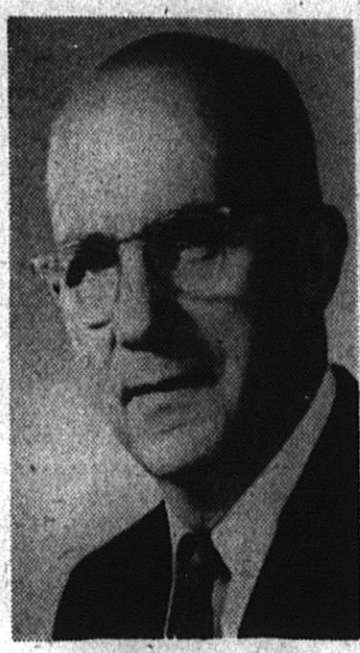

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Peter R. Wilds, 70, North Second St., died Friday following a long illness at the Michigan Veterans Facilities at Grand Rapids where he had been for the past two years. Born in Grand Haven, Jan. 13, 1887, he was a talented musician. He played with several orchestras in Grand Haven and Kalamazoo before organizing his own on two different occasions.

He had been away from Grand Haven for some time and returned about 20 years ago coming from Grand Rapids. He attended the Presbyterian Church and was a member of the VFW. He was a veteran of World War I and was a Corporal with the 339th Infantry, 85th Division Headquarters Co. and served overseas in Russia with the Polar Bears Division in the Occupational Forces. He also played in the Army band.

He is survived by a son, Lawrence of California; one brother, William, retired county clerk and several nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be held from the Kammeraad Funeral Home Monday at 1:30 p.m. with the Dr. Wallace Robertson officiating. Burial will be in Lake Forest Cemetery with military rites at the grave.

Two Cars Damaged

Cars driven by Lester Volkers, 47, Zeeland, and Lee Posma, 18, Zeeland, Wednesday received damage estimated at $100 each following a collision at 112th Ave. and Lakewood Blvd. Ottawa County deputies said neither driver was injured.

Edward Vermaat

Vermaat Accepts Another Position

Edward Vermaat, principal of South Side Christian grade school, announced this week that he is leaving Holland at the end of the school year, to accept the principalship of the new Millbrook Christian School in suburban Grand Rapids.

Vermaat has been principal of the local school for eight years. He came here after the South Side School had been opened for about a half a year. He also taught the sixth grade here.

Millbrook, although smaller, is a growing school, Vermaat said. At present, the school which opened only two years ago, has five rooms and 120 pupils. However plans already are underway for another five - room addition, he said. The school which operates six grades, is located in a new residential section south east of Grand Rapids.

The local principal has had 32 years of teaching experience, all of which were spent as a principal. He came to Holland from Sheboygan, Wis. He has also taught, among other places, at Motline and Cuterville.

The Vermaats, who live at 104 East 25th St., will move to Grand Rapids, sometime this summer. They have two children, Adele, a nurse at Blodgett Hospital and Peter, who is a senior at Calvin College.

Hugh Schaddelee Gets 'Top Billing'

Holland has come in for top-billing for the second time in recent months in a national sports magazine — perhaps an unprecedented honor.

First it was Tom Maentz, captain of the University of Michigan football team last fall, whose picture along with Ron Kramer appeared on the cover of a recent issue of Sports Illustrated.

This week, Sports Illustrated has "done it again" as far as Holland is concerned. This time the cover picture is of Hugh Schaddelee of Holland and Grand Rapids, owner and skipper of the yacht Hilaria.

The 55-foot yawl carries the Macatawa Bay Yacht Club colors, and Holland is its home port.

Inside the magazine there's an article about the Miami to Nassau race scheduled for Feb. 5. It describes a hassle between eastern coast yachtsmen and those in the southern ocean racing circuit about the "toughness" of sailing in the two places.

Schaddelee will be trying for first place in the Miami - Nassau classic and warmed up for the big event by placing second in the recent overnight Miami to Gun Cay race (see sports page).

Superior Shooting By Bears Results In 63-55 Victory

ST. JOSEPH (Special) — Hitting a phenomenal 55 percent of their shots in the second half, the St. Joe Bears stopped the Holland Christian cagers, 63-55, here Friday night. A packed house saw the Dutch go down to their fifth defeat, while the Bears were coping their seventh win in 10 starts.

Superior shooting was the plain and simple story of the ball game. While the Bears were especially hot in the second half, their first half wasn't bad either, as they compiled a 45 percent average for the entire game. They took 31 shots in the second half and hit on 17 while in the entire game they had 28 for 62. Christian's average was also good as they connected on 20 out of 56 for a respectable 36 percent total.

Even though the Maroons were hitting well, they missed several easy layups at crucial points in the contest. While the Dutch were using a smooth control game for close-in shots, the Bears were quite the opposite. With the exception of Jason Harness, the classy Bear who pumped in 30 points, the St. Joe players were letting fly and connecting from different parts of the floor in their familiar surroundings. Most of Harness' points came from a hook shot right under the basket, after being fed by one of his teammates.

Coach Art Tuls' outfit was in the game until the end, after controlling the play and much of the scoring throughout the first half. The Hollanders led throughout most of the first half, and fell behind by two points just before the horn sounded. The Holland mentor rotated nine men throughout the ball game, while Coach Ray Haack used just two subs in the entire tilt.

Both clubs were about even in the rebounding department. Harness and Dave Dase did the best for the winners, while Christian's Warren Otte, Cal Klaasen and Ned Joldersma were the Dutch standouts.

Christian operated its control pattern smoothly in the first period and dominated the play, holding a 12-6 lead at one stage. All of the starters scored in the period with Dave Klaver leading the way with six. The Maroons received a jolt at this point, when Otte, a key man in the Dutch offense, picked up his third foul and had to sit out the next two quarters. At the end of the period, Holland led 12-9.

With Harness leading the way in the second stanza, the Bears forged ahead of the Maroons momentarily. Christian again took over, however, midway in the period to lead, 20-19. The lead see-sawed again until Klaasen put the Maroons ahead 26-24 with a minute remaining in the period. A one-handed by Dase and a hook by Harness again pushed the Bears into the lead to give them a 28-26 halftime margin.

Christian couldn't regain the lead again, but stayed within three or four points until midway in the third period. Two quick baskets gave the winners a 43-34 lead, before the Hollanders narrowed the count to four points. By the end of the third period, the Dutch trailed 45-39.

The Bears upped their margin to 12 points at one stage before the Maroons, with four juniors in the lineup, again pulled up to a five-point 51-46 deficit. Play slackened considerably at this point as the Bears were content to wait for good shots, while the Dutch were trying desperately to get the ball. The Bears led 63-50, before the Dutch rallied briefly for five points, but it was too little and too late.

The contest was a clean affair with only 23 fouls called, nine against the Dutch. At the charity line, Christian hit on 15 of 24 while the Bears collected on seven of 16. Klaasen led the Dutch with 10, and four other boys got eight. Behind Harness with his 30, was Dase with 12.

Christian's next game is at Grand Rapids Creston on Friday.

Guy Vander Jagt

Jaycees Honor Guy Vander Jagt

Guy Vander Jagt, a 1953 Hope College graduate who has just completed a semester of work at Western Theological Seminary, was named today one of the five outstanding young men in Michigan by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Vander Jagt is a senior student at the Yale Divinity School, but had received special permission to take a semester's work here to be near his mother, who died recently in Cadillac.

Last summer, Vander Jagt studied in Europe as a Rotary fellow. In the summer of 1952, he was Holland's second community ambassador and also spent that summer in Europe, living with a German family.

While at Hope, he won all possible Michigan Intercollegiate Speech league first places and won the Hearst international speech prize of $1,000.

He will be honored with the other outstanding young men at a banquet in Grand Rapids on Feb. 9.

Phil Harrington Now in Moscow

Phillip Harrington, Look magazine photographer and son of former Holland mayor, Harry Harrington, is in Moscow after a visit to Red China according to a United Press dispatch received by The Sentinel Wednesday night.

Here in Holland, Harrington's father said he "hasn't heard" from his son and is "glad to know" he will return to New York City shortly.

The dispatch also announced William Worthy, a reporter for the Baltimore Afro-American, is on his way to Moscow. Worthy, Harrington and Edmund Stevens, a Look reporter, entered Communist China despite a State Department ban.

It was reported that Stevens will remain in Moscow and Worthy is expected to return to the United States soon. Worthy, who entered China, Dec. 26, signed a statement before leaving Hong Kong in which he absolved the United States of any responsibility for his welfare and property.

The State Department said it "deplored" the action of the three newsmen.

$15,000 Sought In Boy's Death

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — John C. Serne of Holland is seeking $15,000 judgment from Mrs. Mabel Van Cura, route 1, Grand Haven, as the result of an accident last May 28 in which Serne's son, John Albert Serne, was fatally injured.

Serne, who has been appointed administrator of the boy's estate by the Ottawa Probate Court, is asking a jury trial. The information sets forth that the 14-year-old boy who was riding a bicycle was hit from the rear by Mrs. Van Cura's car on Ottawa Beach Rd. between 152nd and 160th Aves.

Mrs. Van Cura was convicted by a Circuit Court Jury Nov. 7 of a negligent homicide charge and was assessed fine and costs of $150. Plaintiff claims that at the time of his son's death, the boy was employed and earning approximately $50 a week which was turned over to the parents.

Holland Riflemen Win Fifth Straight

Holland's Rifle club won its fifth straight match and its first of the second round with a narrow 1,441 to 1,438 count over Kalamazoo Saturday night in a Southern Michigan Rifle League match.

The win gives Holland a two match lead. Jarvis Ter Haar was the meet's top scorer with 297.

In the entire club effort Kalamazoo totaled 3,097 and Holland 3,042 while the five top scorers on each side fired identical totals of 1,432.

Holland won the prone shooting by one point and the kneeling by six points. Kalamazoo took the sitting by a single point and the standing by three points.

C. Baker followed Ter Haar with 288 for Holland. Other Holland shooters included: G. Bonnette, 287; J. Weenun, 280; V. Avery, 280; J. Meuer, 279; A. Clark, 277; J. Clark, 274; T. Smith, 269; L. Van Ingen, 262 and F. Handberg, 249. G. Nash led Kalamazoo with 290.

Smoke, Water Damage
Results in Home Fire

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Considerable smoke and water damage resulted from a fire today in a new ranch type home owned by Edward Zysk on Lloyd's bayou on route 2, Spring Lake.

The blaze was noticed about 2:30 a.m. by two sons, Edward, Jr., and George, who were sleeping in a room adjoining the recreation room in the basement while their own room on the main floor was occupied by a convalescing relative.

Fire damage was confined to a sofa in the recreation room, believed caused from a spark from the fireplace in which there had been a fire at 8:30 p.m. Damage was in the end of the sofa nearest the fireplace.

Routine Business Marks VFW Auxiliary Meeting

At a meeting of the VFW Auxiliary Thursday evening in the VFW hall, members voted to donate $25 to the polio drive. Mrs. Frank Balkovitz, president, conducted the meeting and appointed Mrs. Clifford Dengler, as chairman of the Red Cross Canteen and Mass Feeding committee.

Announcement also was made that Mrs. Dengler, community service chairman, recently presented a flag to Cub Scouts of Harrington School at a meeting for Cub and parents. She was accompanied by Mrs. Jeanette Kole.

The next meeting, Feb. 14, will be a Valentine party at which time secret pals will be revealed. Lunch was served by Mrs. John Sas and Mrs. Ben Roos.

Allegan-Ottawa Mental Health Group Expands

Allegan County members of the Allegan-Ottawa Committee for mental health held a dinner at Moll's Restaurant in Otsego Monday. Meeting with the group was Mrs. Robert Horner of Holland, chairman of the two-county committee and Donald Kuney, field representative of the Michigan Society for Mental Health.

The Allegan-Ottawa Committee is affiliated with the Michigan Society, a citizens group for promoting better understanding on mental health problems and for the prevention and cure of mental illnesses.

The society is a member agency of the United Health and Welfare Fund of Michigan. All local memberships and contributions made directly to the society are shared on a 50-50 basis with the local affiliated committee for educational work at the local level.

Allegan members of the committee reviewed the program in Allegan County since the organization a year ago. It was agreed that more effective work of promoting mental health education in the county could be done if a sub-committee within the frame work of the two county group were organized.

It was also suggested that working groups of interested citizens in each of the general urban sections of the county be organized. Such groups could explain the work to the citizens in the county. They could encourage and aid local parent, church, service and social and farm organization in developing programs for better understanding.

Judge Harold Weston of Allegan, Mrs. Forest Burchfield of Plainwell and Fred Carroll of Otsego were designated to make plans for organizing and expanding the county work.

Kuney offered the services of the Michigan Society for Mental Health to the committee in aiding project and program planning. He explained that the society had helped other affiliates in organizing workshop meetings and programs for teachers, law enforcement officers, ministerial groups and parents.

Allegan Delegates To Back Reynolds

ALLEGAN (Special) — Allegan County's 16 delegates and 16 alternates will attend the Feb. 9 state Republican convention at Detroit with instructions only to support Vervy J. Reynolds in his bid for the chairmanship of the State Central committee. The endorsement of Reynolds came early in the county convention held Wednesday night in the IOOF Hall, with an unusually large number of delegates on hand.

Keynote speaker, Ardale Ferguson of Benton Harbor, charged in his address that the state budget of $411 million is "taking the state to the brink of economic disaster." State Rep. Ben Lohman of Hamilton backed Reynolds' chances at the state convention, saying the Allegan man was running well ahead of the field as far as the members of the state legislature were concerned.

Delegates include David Lundquist, Plainwell; Clifford Averill, Martin; Fred Hilbert, Wayland; Miss Doris Fleser, Moline; Arnold Ross, Hopkins; Mrs. Marguerite Lovette and Alan Morris, Otsego; Fred McDonald, Reynolds, Dwight M. Cheever and Chester Ray, Allegan; John Klingenberg and Lohman, Hamilton and Everard Thomas, Douglas.

Saturday Noon Deadline For Obtaining Petitions

City Clerk Clarence Gervengood today reminded prospective candidates for the city primary Feb. 18 that noon Saturday is the deadline for filing petitions with his office. Petitions can also be obtained until that time, he said.

Gervengood said of the 14 petitions that have been secured, eight have been returned. Those already filed include incumbent Mayor Robert Visscher and incumbent councilman from the fifth ward John Van Eerden. Others are William Heeringa, who is circulating a petition for councilman at large, Ernest Phillips, Lawrence May and Mrs. Hester Gronberg in the first ward, Harold Tregloan in the second ward, and Richard J. Nykamp in the third.

The clerk's office will check all petitions to learn whether all bear a sufficient number of signatures of qualified electors. According to the provisions of the city charter, the clerk will then notify each candidate within five days after the deadline whether the petition is accepted.

Riemer Van Til, 80 West 18th St., this afternoon secured a petition for nomination as councilman from the fifth ward. Other fifth ward candidates so far are incumbent John Van Eerden and Ernest Johnson.

Rev. William W. Jellema

Jellema Ordained At Service Here

The Rev. William W. Jellema was ordained by Holland Classis, Reformed Church in America, to the educational ministry as assistant professor of religion at Alma College last Sunday. The impressive service was held at First Reformed Church in Holland.

Rev. Jellema became professor at Alma College last fall following his return from Scotland where he was studying at the New College, University of Edinburgh. He also was a student at the University of Basel in Switzerland.

Rev. Jellema was graduated in 1953 from Western Theological Seminary where he received his BD degree.

He entered Hope College following his release from the Navy in 1946. Pursuing a pre-law course he received his AB degree in 1950. The Jellemas have one child, William Ian, 13-months-old.

Taking part in the service last Sunday were the Rev. R. Van Heukelom who gave the invocation; the Rev. Henry Mollema, who read scripture; the Rev. Jean A. Vis who offered prayer; the sermon "We Have This Ministry" was given by Dr. M. Eugene Osterhaven. The office of ordination was in charge of Dr. D. Ivan Dykstra, president of the Holland Classis and the charge to the new pastor was given by the Rev. Francis Dykstra, pastor of Harlem Reformed Church and brother-in-law of Rev. Jellema.

Special music was presented by the church choir under the direction of Anthony Koolker. Miss Geraldine Walvoord was organist. Rev. Jellema is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Jellema of 320 South 120th Ave.

Chix Win 6th Loop Tilt

Zeeland High's basketball team won its sixth straight Kenewa League game in Holland Armory Friday night with a 71-62 win over Hudsonville.

The Chix have four straight Kenewa League games remaining and the next one will be at Fremont next Friday night.

Win No. 6 came quite easily as the Chix got the most from good ball control and worked their plays effectively behind well-patterned screens. Zeeland varied its attack and didn't attempt to fast break as often against the Eagles as in previous games.

Hudsonville led twice in the game. The final time was late in the first quarter when the Eagles were ahead 10-6.

Zeeland picked up 10 straight points just before the period closed and led 18-12 at the finish. The Eagles outscored the Chix, 22-21 in the second quarter and Zeeland left at intermission with a 39-34 lead.

Max De Jonge, who was the high point man for Zeeland with 21, made 12 of his tallies in the second quarter. De Jonge was especially effective on the backboards and filled in rebounding for Ed Boeve, who didn't play much because of a foot injury.

Zeeland kept its five-point lead

most of the time in the third quarter but on a couple occasions the Eagles narrowed it to three. A short spurt at the period's close left Zeeland with a comfortable 10-point 58-48 margin.

Norm Schut, the Kenewa League's scoring leader and the game's high point man, put on his show in the fourth period and scored 12 out of Hudsonville's 14 points.

But Zeeland, unraveled by Schut's jump shot, came through with 15, with De Jonge and Dave Van Peursem alternating on most of the buckets.

Zeeland made 23 out of 31 free shots in the game and the Eagles sank 18 for 26.

Pair Found Guilty Of Reckless Driving

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — George Whipple, 19, and Robert J. Diendorf, 23, both of route 2, Grand Haven, were found guilty of reckless driving charges in a non-jury trial before Municipal Judge Jacob Ponstein Thursday afternoon. Each was sentenced to pay $50 fine and $10.10 costs.

The pair was arrested by city police Jan. 4 on Water St. between Washington and Franklin Sts. where they allegedly were cutting in and out of traffic, swerving over the road and indulging in other pranks.

Diendorf is currently on probation from Ottawa Circuit Court on a non-support charge of which he was found guilty by a jury Aug. 12, 1955. On Sept. 12, 1955, Judge Raymond L. Smith placed Diendorf on probation for three years.

The national gun salute of the United States is 21 guns.

Holland All-Stars Edge Grand Haven

22-Point Fourth Period Results In Series Sweep

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — It took a 22-point fourth quarter plus a good defensive performance in the last eight minutes to give the Holland All-Stars a 70-63 win over Grand Haven All-Stars here in the second and final game of the annual polo benefit series.

While the Holland five more than doubled the score over Grand Haven in Holland a week ago, such was not the case here Wednesday night at Grand Haven Senior High gym.

The only time Holland did any "doubling" was in the fourth period and it paid off. Behind 52-48 going into the fourth quarter, Holland, led by Dick Plagenhoef and John Jeltse, made 22 points to Grand Haven's 11 tallies.

Holland got off to a good start and racked up 19 points in the first quarter to 10 for Grand Haven.

But the best offense by either team was by Grand Haven in the second quarter. They made 23 points, with big Fred Kalsbeek and Carl Simpson leading the scoring, and left the floor at intermission with a three-point, 33-30 lead.

The scoring was even in the third quarter with the Grand Haven entry picking up one point on Holland late in the period to carry the four-point margin into the fourth quarter.

Four Holland players scored in double figures and Jeltse led the pack with 18. Plagenhoef and Ron Nykamp each followed with 14 and John Klump popped 11.

Other Holland scorers were: Dave Schreier, 7; Earl Schipper, 4 and Bob Van Dyke, 2. Art Klant failed to score.

Dick Berg, the scoring leader in the Grand Haven City League, led the scoring with 19 points while Simpson and Bob Klukos followed with 12 each.

Other scorers included: Kalsbeek, 8; Teasley, 6; Van Hees, 4; and Marold, 2.

In the eight years of competition between the two independent all-star units, Holland holds a 12-4 edge.

Mrs. Dena Van De Veer Dies After Long Illness

ZEELAND (Special) — Mrs. Dena Van Der Veer, 86, wife of John, of Oakland, died Thursday evening after a lingering illness. She had been a patient at Pine Rest Sanatorium for five years.

Mrs. Van Der Veer was born in Oakland, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harm Ver Beek and was a member of Oakland Christian Reformed Church.

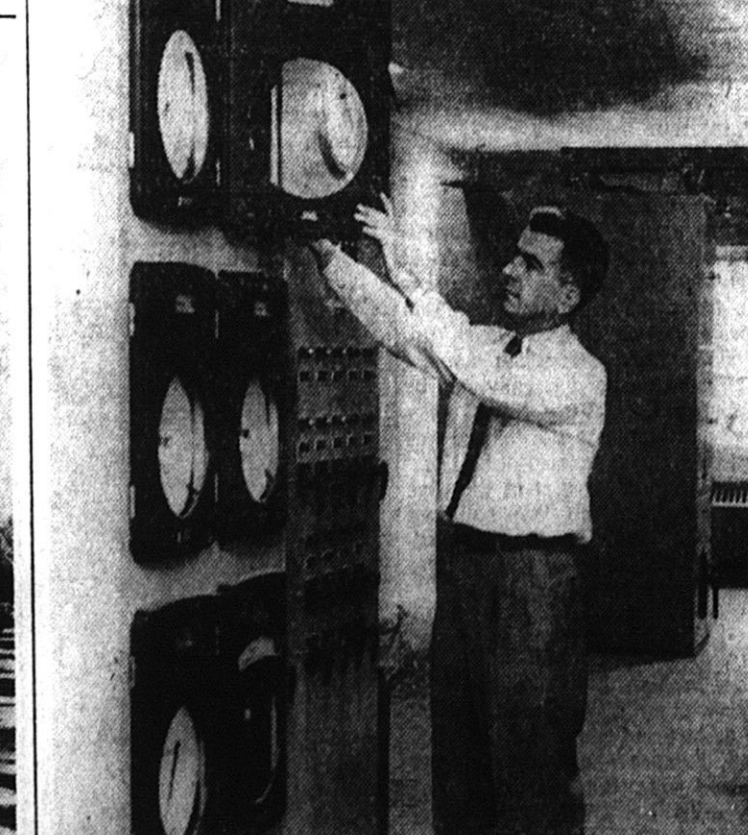

Surviving besides the husband are two daughters, Mrs. Henry Walters of Osego and Mrs. Henry Geib, of Oakland; two sons, Harm of Oakland and Walter of Holland; 13 grandchildren, 24 great grandchildren and one great, great grandchild.

Rubbish Fine Paid

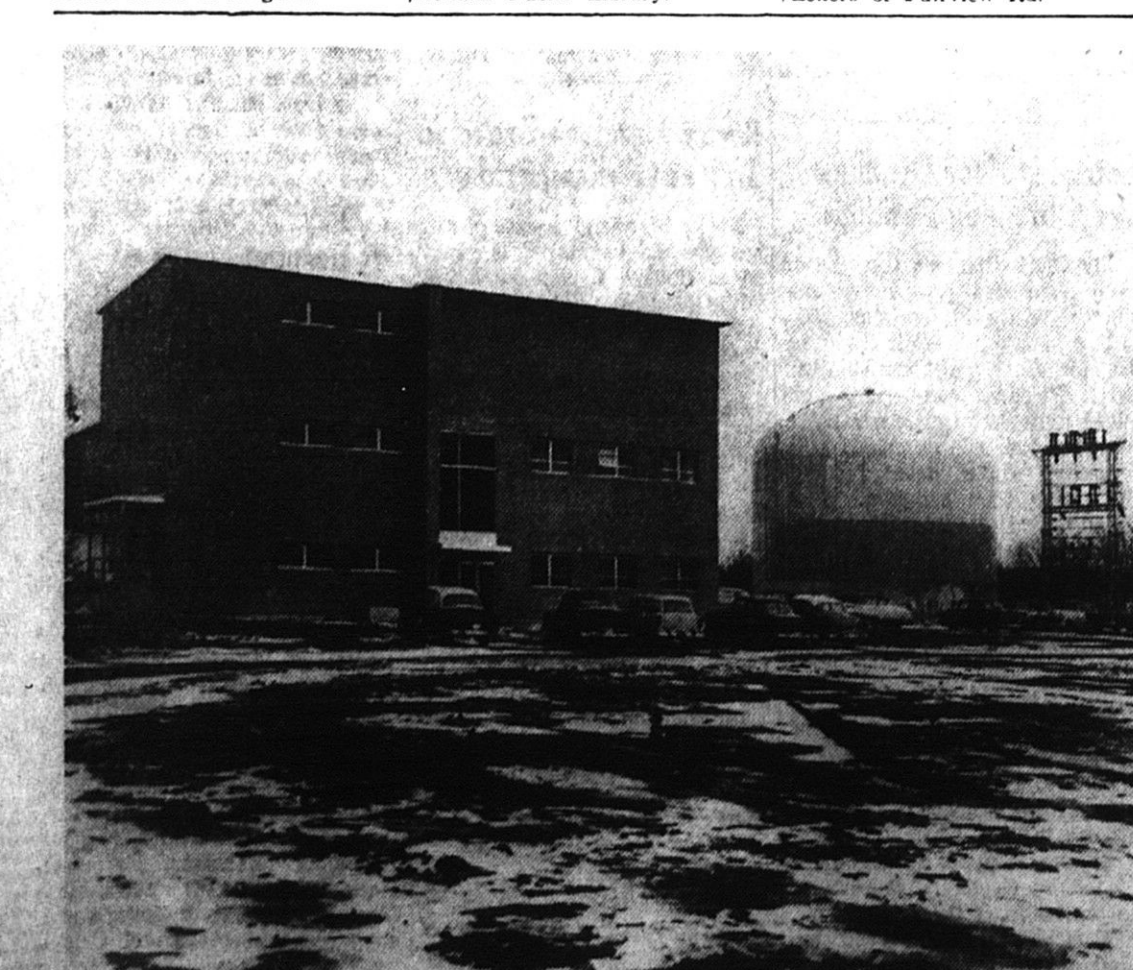

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Harold Harrington, 20, of 531 Lafayette St., N. E., Grand Rapids, paid $30 fine and $4.30 costs in Justice Eva Workman's court Thursday on a charge of dumping rubbish on a highway. Alleged offense occurred on or about Dec. 3, 1956, in Robinson township.

The arrest was by Sam Hartwell, Sr., deputy sheriff for the Ottawa County Road Commission.

Surviving are the wife, one son, Lemuel J. Jr., of Whittier, Calif., one daughter, Mrs. William E. Collison of Grand Rapids; five grandchildren and two brothers, Samuel T. Harris and Noel, both of Flint.

CONTROL PANEL — Plant Superintendent Jim Horning (above) checks the readings on a graph that keeps an accurate record of the number of gallons of water being pumped through Holland's new water pipeline. Inside each one of the glass covered cases is a circular graph that keeps an hourly record of each phase of the water pipeline operation. At a glance the operator can tell how much water is being pumped, what the hourly consumption by Holland residents is or the level of the storage tanks. Horning said that technicians will also make frequent laboratory checks of the water to insure that it meets the highest health standards as set by the State Health Department. Until the laboratory is in operation, water samples are sent to Lansing for inspection. (Sentinel photo)

COMPLETED FILTRATION PLANT — This building on Lake Shore Ave. near Tunnel Park houses the filtration beds and the main controls of the $3,000,000 Holland water pipeline system. The huge tank at right will hold 1,500,000 gallons of water. From this tank the water enters the pipes leading to the city. To the left of the main building, not shown, are the settling basins. These basins are largely underground with only a slight rise in the land contour to show their location. The point job on the tank was interrupted because of bad weather but will be completed early this spring. The land surrounding the plant, the settling basins, and the low service pumping station will all be landscaped this spring. (Sentinel photo)

Library Adventures

—Arnold Mulder

Adventures in reading may be met with in the most unlikely places. For me there was one recently in the December number of "Michigan History," the quarterly published by the Michigan Historical Commission.

Did you know how Ann Arbor got its name? Perhaps it is not of breath-taking importance after the more than a century and a quarter that the name has been on the map. But since the reputation of the University of Michigan covers the globe, the origin of the name will probably interest many readers.

Years ago Dean Cooley, of the Sociology Department at the University, observed that there is no other city in the United States bearing the name "Ann Arbor" — one of the few cases on record of the non-duplication of a place name on the map. Professor Cooley also called the name "quaint." Most of us have become so used to the name that we do not realize how odd it must sound to a foreigner.

In an article in "Michigan History," Lillian Dykstra, wife of Gerald O. Dykstra, professor of business and law at the University, tells the story of how the name "Ann Arbor" originated.

In 1823, at a time when land in Michigan Territory sold for $1.25 an acre, a native of Virginia named John Allen left his wife Ann Isabella and children in that state and migrated to Michigan. His purpose was to found a plat a village somewhere in the wilds of the state west of Detroit; he was tired of farming in Virginia and he wanted to run a store in a new frontier community. So he proceeded first to start the community that he aspired to serve as a merchant.

On the way to Michigan he was joined by Elisha Walker Ramsey and his wife, whose name was Mary Ann; but she was usually known as Ann. The party left Detroit by a low moving, oxen-drawn sleigh, after purchasing supplies in Detroit village of 1,500 inhabitants. They didn't quite know where they were going, but one night they stopped for a rest, after some 40 miles of travel. This was in January, 1824. In a natural burr-oak clearing they discovered a "huge plum tree covered with a rampant growth of wild grape vines so thick and matted that they furnished a fair shelter for the night" — to use Mrs. Dykstra's words.

Because the location looked good and was near the Huron river, they decided to stay. Next thing was to get a surveyor from Detroit village, since Michigan Territory law required an official survey if a location was to be legally platted. When the surveyor left, the founders had not decided on a name, and so the space for a name was left blank on the plat.

Ramsey's wife, Mary Ann, got into the habit of using the plum tree shelter for her washings and other household chores, even after the men had run up a log hut. She went there sometimes just to rest her household drudgery. The men began jokingly to call the place "Ann's Arbour." (In 1824 the word was of course spelled with a "u"; Noah Webster did not knock the "u" out of such words till some years later.)

Finally, when the naming of the place could no longer be postponed the men hit on the notion that since the wife of each of them had an "Ann" in her name and since Mrs. Ramsey loved that plum tree arbor, "Ann's Arbour" would be a good name.

So "Ann's Arbour" was inked in on the plat. Later this was shortened to "Ann Arbor," and still later the "u" was eliminated. Such is the origin of a famous Michigan place name.

Rickard-Osborne Marriage Announced

Word has been received here of the marriage of Harriet Osborne to Harvey H. Rickard on Jan. 12 in Albuquerque, N. Mex. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Spykhoven of Clare.

Mrs. Rickard is employed at the City Electric Company and Mr. Rickard with the National Bedding Company of Albuquerque.

Panel Appointed For Condemnation

—Arnold Mulder

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Circuit Judge Raymond L. Smith Friday appointed George A. Pelgrim, Sr., Stuart E. Boyd and Carl Harrington, all of Holland, as Commissioners to hear a case involving condemnation proceedings against the Dake Corp., Madison and North Seventh Sts., Grand Haven, filed in Circuit Court by the State Highway Department, seeking a right of way through a portion of the plant property for new US-31.

According to the highway department, damages were estimated at $200,000 Sept. 13, 1956, but an agreement could not be reached on settlement. The highway department is seeking a right-of-way for 87 feet west of the center line of North 7th St. along the west side of the Dake property. Officials of the company, who reportedly have optioned property in the south end of the city and township recently, contend the highway will force them to move operations from the present site.

Hearings will open Feb. 26 at 9:30 a.m.

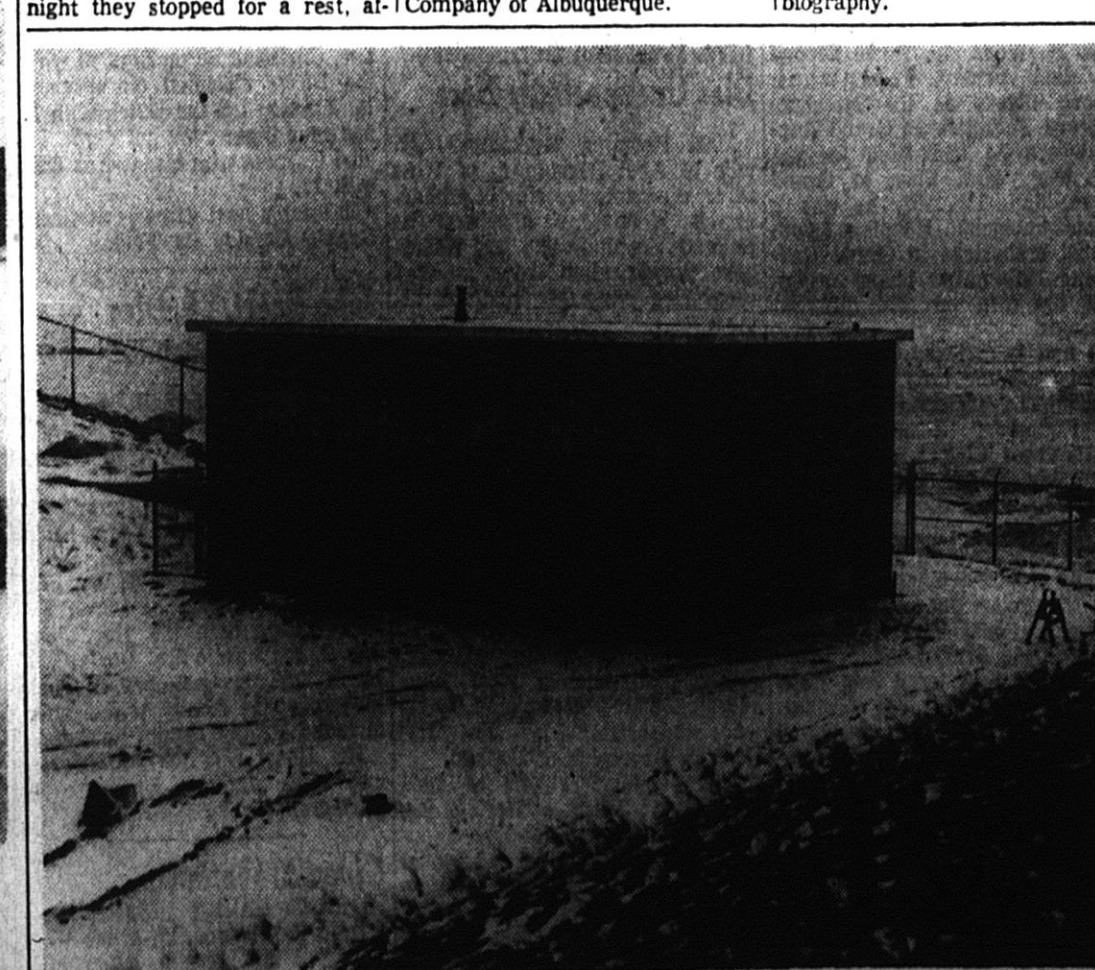

Car Hits Pole

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Lawrence Mieras, 17, Grand Haven, escaped injuries when his car went out of control on slippery Mercury Dr. and crashed into a telephone pole at 11:05 p.m. Thursday. The 1946 model was damaged to the extent of $75. State police charged the driver with excessive speed for conditions.

Firemen Answer Alarm

The reflection of a small trash fire in the windows of the Helman Rusk Co., at 18th St. and Cleveland Ave. Thursday night sent firemen to the scene when a nearby resident thought the building was on fire.

To learn a lot — read a lot. At your Holland Public Library you will find a world of books on hobbies, business, science, travel, and biography.

Lake Michigan Water To Be Valentine Gift

Within a few weeks Holland's $3,000,000 pipeline system is expected to be operating on an around-the-clock basis.

Board of Public Works superintendent Guy Bell said the single remaining major operation is to fill the four huge filtration beds with a mixture of sand and gravel.

At the present time the city is not drawing any water through the pipeline. They were shut down earlier this week to allow the pipes to be painted.

If water was coming through the pipes the cold temperatures would cause the casings to "sweat" disrupting the painting.

Workers are busy inside the filtration plant installing laboratory equipment and painting pumping equipment.

When completed, technicians will maintain a 24-hour check of the water and make frequent checks in the laboratory to insure that the water going through the pipeline into Holland homes is clean and pure.

Bell said the capacity of the pipeline is 14,000,000 gallons a day but this could be increased to 20,000,000 with little trouble.

Even this is not tops, Bell said. With a few changes and additions the pipeline would be capable of pumping over 35,000,000 a day.

Instruments already installed and working give hourly checks on the amount of water being pumped from the lake, quantity in the lines and the hourly consumption of water by residents.

One dial also registers the amount of water in the tank at 28th St. and the huge 1,500,000 gallon tank alongside of the filtration plant.

A permanent record is kept automatically by a moving pen on a graph of each operation.

Bell said the water may still have a slight chlorine taste until the mains have been flushed. This is expected to be done early this spring.

When in operation Lake Michigan water will be pumped through the 43-inch intake line into the low lift plant near Tunnel Park.

From there the water will go to the settling basins on the East side of Lake Shore Ave. near the main plant.

From the basins the water will then go into the filtration beds in the plant, then into huge storage tanks, through the pipeline into the city and finally into Holland homes.

Once in use only Lake Michigan water will be going through the pipeline. The wells in the city will be used as a standby emergency supply.

Hope Library Receives Grant

The Hope College Library has received a sub-grant in the amount of $500 from the United States Steel Foundation grant made to the Association of College and Reference Libraries, a division of the American Library Association, which has for its purpose improvement of college library collections, equipment, and programs of library service.

Miss Mildred Singleton, Hope College librarian, said the sub-grant would be used for the New York Times on microfilm.

This is the second year the ACLRL program, financed by three grants from private industry totaling $40,000. Hope College library is one of 118 college and university libraries throughout the country which were awarded sub-grants.

The United States Steel Foundation gave $30,000 "to strengthen or modernize library, teaching or learning tools." $5,000 was granted by the New York Times for library purchase of microfilm back copies of the newspaper; and $5,000 came from Remington Rand Division of Sperry Rand Corporation for library equipment.

ACRL President Robert W. Orr, director of Iowa State College Library, Ames, Iowa, said:

"The information received from Hope College Library in making application for a sub-grant will be used in building a broader program of grants next year. These grants reflect the growing concern of business leaders for development of broader reading interests and habits among students. The sub-grants are made principally to libraries in non-tax-supported, four year institutions and junior colleges planning a four-year program. They are modest sums, ranging largely from $300 to $500—none exceed $1,000. However, the aim is to place the money widely where it will make direct contributions to higher education through the library function. We look forward to expansion of the program as the value and importance of this kind of assistance to the college library receives recognition."

Darryl Vander Bie celebrated his 10th birthday Wednesday afternoon with a party at his home, 890 South Washington Ave.

Games were played after which lunch was served by his mother, Mrs. G. R. Vander Bie.

Those present were James Petreolje, Jack Van Voorst, Billy Streur, Curtis Harrington, Dick Schmidt, Clark Spyker, Robyn Zylman and Dale Poppema.

Also present were Jack and Danny Gebben, Larry Vander Bie and David Vander Bie and Darryl's sister, Pamela Vander Bie.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Coraly Scholten and Mrs. Robert Stegenda.

PSC Considering Electric Service To Macatawa Park

LANSING (Special) — The Michigan Public Commission, after an all-day hearing Friday, has taken under advisement a proposal by the Macatawa Hotel Association to discontinue electrical service to some 185 customers at Macatawa Park.

Two more hours of testimony were taken Friday afternoon and Commissioner Maurice Hunt said a decision should be rendered in two or three weeks.

Simon Den Uyl, leading partner in the Hotel Association, continued presenting his side of the case as the hearing resumed at 1:30 p.m. Friday. He estimated in a 10-year period—1945 to 1955—that he owned the association he had lost $125,000.

In an informal question and answer period between Hunt and Den Uyl, Hunt said just to get out of a public utility "is no way to do it."

Den Uyl said he wasn't trying to recoup any monetary loss but thought he was doing the right thing by terminating service. Hunt said a utility is a business and the PSC can guarantee only a fair rate of return.

Den Uyl asked Hunt, "If you were in my position, what would you do?"

Hunt said he would definitely get out of this operation by getting together with the only known prospective buyer (Consumers Power Co.). "You can't just walk out of this kind of thing," he said.

Neal "Casey" Landman, who owns a house and minnow business on the channel, was called to the stand and estimated there are 20 winterized permanent homes in the area, but said he thought not all 20 residents stayed all year. Maybe 12 stay the year around, he said.

A report was submitted by the attorney general's staff on condition of the electrical properties owned by the Hotel Association.

The report said: "The general condition of the plant at Macatawa Hotel Co. ranges from fair to poor. It is questionable how long the plant will remain in place unless additional maintenance work is done immediately. Some poles need guying immediately or they will be down in the first heavy wind. Some of the guys in use are improvisations, holding a broken pole upright."

"It is doubtful whether any other utility would attempt to operate the existing plant in its present condition. It appears that the cost of removal of the present plant would probably exceed the value of scrap removed."

Fred L. Hendrick and John H. Marsland of the attorney general's staff prepared the report.

Den Uyl's attorney, W. J. Lane said they weren't prepared to discuss the question of values in the scope of the petition to discontinue service. He said it is a practical impossibility to continue the service.

Grand Rapids attorney Harold Sawyer, representing the Cottage Owners Association, said "it is clearly an effort to recoup," speaking of Den Uyl's estimated loss.

Lake Michigan Continues Its Seasonal Decline

Lake Michigan continued its seasonal decline at about average rates from November to December, according to the U. S. Lake Survey which is associated with the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers.

The December level of Lake Michigan was 579.47, compared with the level a year previously of 579.72. The average December level for the entire record is 580.26 feet above mean tide at New York, 1935 datum.

Extreme December low was recorded in 1933 listing 577.53 feet and the extreme December high occurred in 1861 listing 582.70 feet. Last December's level was .97 foot above low water datum, the plane to which lake survey chart and federal navigation improvement depths are referred.

Lake Michigan dropped .21 foot from November to December, compared with an average .19 drop for the entire record. Probably January level will be 579.3 feet.

Fellowship Guild Has Installation of Officers

The monthly meeting of the Fellowship Guild of Sixth Reformed Church was held Tuesday evening. A candlelight installation service for new officers was conducted by Mrs. Boyd De Boer. Installed were Mrs. Robert Oosterbaan, president; Mrs. John Mokma, secretary; Mrs. Melvin Timmer, treasurer; Mrs. Henry Bauman, assistant secretary and treasurer. A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Oosterbaan.

Devotions were led by Miss Theresa Ackerhof. The program for the evening featured a chalk talk with musical accompaniment presented by the Gospel Ambassadors, including Louis Mulder, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, Miss Sena Veltman and Miss Henrietta Veltman.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Coraly Scholten and Mrs. Robert Stegenda.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE MEET — Members of the Tri-County Justices of the Peace Association Thursday night held one of their three annual meetings in Holland at Cumerford's Restaurant. Representatives were on hand from Grandville, Fennville, Wyoming Township, Grand Rapids, Rockford, Wayland, Hudsonville, Zeeland, Plainwell, Allegan, South Haven and Spring Lake. Park Township Justice C.C. Wood was in charge of local arrangements. Special guests were State Police Capts. Le Roy Hunt of Rockford and C.B. Miller of Paw Paw. Other State Police guests were Sgts. C. Bouter, Paw Paw; L.C. Brandt, Wayland and G. Hanthorn, Rockford. Following dinner the State Police officers answered questions from the floor. (Sentinel photo)

Dog Notes

By Peter Boggs

What Makes Dogs Turn Around?

During the Christmas holidays I spent some time at my brother's home. Twice during that time I came upon my 8-year-old nephew making the family dog lie down, then get up, and then lie down again. I asked him what he was trying to do and received an answer to the effect that it amused him to see the dog always turn around before lying down. Perhaps you, too, have been amused at such antics in your dog or wondered why it is that most dogs turn around two or three times before they lie down. Here's why:

Before they were civilized, dogs were creatures of the wild, existing as best they could. Many of our present day dogs' actions are throwbacks to that era. Your dog buries a bone because his ancestors buried food they killed, after eating what they wanted, so that other dogs wouldn't find the remains. Later, they would return and finish it. These same ancestors would circle around in order to mat the stiff grasses and brush for abed whenever they wanted to rest or sleep. They also turned around for another reason. They were testing the direction of the wind and always lay so that the wind blew directly at their noses, bringing the scent or odor of any approaching enemy.

What is a Watchdog?

A watchdog is a dog that watches over his master's home and gives the alarm promptly and vigorously when an unauthorized stranger approaches it, especially at night. He is not necessarily a dog big enough and savage enough to tear such a stranger's throat—although a watchdog which will, as a last resort, follow up his warning bark with a bite has much value of his own.

In ordinary circumstances a watchdog that weighs 15 pounds or even 3 pounds may sound an alarm loud enough to arouse the household.

There is an old maxim which is 100 hundred per cent true. It is this: "One good watchdog inside the house is worth more than two good watchdogs outside." Poison meat or a smashing blow with a club may make the outside watchdog useless, but the dog waiting alertly indoors is far harder for a thief to deal with.

Think twice before punishing your dog for barking at daylight visitors. Otherwise he may not bark when midnight visitors break in.

The Question Box

Question: Does a dog have to be fed only beef meat?

Answer: No, lamb and horse meat are two other meats fed to dogs, but I don't advise giving raw or cooked pork to young pups.

Hospital Notes

Admitted to Holland Hospital Thursday were Lloyd Folkert, route 5; Ken Russell, Grandville; Mrs. Albert Hulsebos, 401 Howard Ave.; Mrs. Howard Johnson, Hamilton; Linda Sue Dams, 326½ Maple Ave.; Douglas Ter Haar, route 2, Hamilton (latter two discharged same day); Mrs. Betty Michaels, route 3, Allegan; Jack Beintema, 351 James St.; Kathleen Gerritsen, 176 East 16th St.

Discharged Thursday were Paul Lambers, 986 Graafschap Rd.; Benjamin Breuker, route 1; Mrs. Donald Overweg, Grand Rapids; William Tornovish, 2022 South Shore Dr.; Georgia Overway, 200 Scotts Dr.; Kim Macqueen, 205 West Ninth St.; Mrs. Alvin Doeman and baby, 106 West 29th St.; Mrs. Henry Tammings and baby, 321 160th Ave.; Mrs. Elmer Harrison and baby, 618 Pleasant; Mrs. Kenneth E. FENNVILLE (Special) — Second place Fennville handed Martin its first basketball loss in Al-Van competition here Friday nipping the leaders, 52-51.

Playing on their home floor, where they're hard to stop, the Blackhawks managed getting the taller Martin men out from under the basket. As a result, Fennville's Jerry Smith nabbed 23 rebounds and Clarence Tyink picked off 15 to give the winners control of the boards.

Smith, who Coach Sam Morehead says is the best high school player he's ever coached, also notched 26 points to win all scoring honors and provided an overall spark for his club. Smith is 6'2½" tall and out-maneuvered players two and three inches taller in basketball.

ing the outstanding player on the floor. Morehead also had high praise for guard Mickey Morse, who "quarterbacks" the team.

It was a tight game all the way, with Martin holding a 17-11 first quarter lead. They pushed out to a 26-11 margin midway in the second quarter, but Fennville got moving to cut the lead to 32-29 at the half. The winners led at the third quarter mark, 46-41.

Fennville, playing without using a substitute, missed a chance to win by a more comfortable score by missing four one-and-one free shots in the fourth period. Nevertheless, it was the charity points that provided the winners with the upset. The Blackhawks converted 18 of 28 free tosses, while Martin hit only seven of 20.

The Fennville second team lost its second close contest in a row, bowing 36-35, to the Martin reserves. Fennville's Dave Turner led both outfits with 21 points, but the Little Blackhawks were the victims of some bad passing at the end of the game which cost them the decision.

COVERT (Special) — Saugatuck skidded into fifth place in the Al-Van league by absorbing a 44-42 reversal at the hands of Covert here Friday night.

Quincy Johnson, a veteran of Covert's league champions last year, put in the winning two-pointer in a layup in the final seconds after Saugatuck had taken a 42-39 lead with a minute to go. The Indians' Frank Lamb missed two free shots in the last minute to send Saugatuck's chances down the drain.

Covert hit from outcourt throughout the game and picked up 11 points on free throws while breaking up Saugatuck's work-in offense. Carl Jacobs topped Saugatuck with 13 points, but Henry Tallick led the winners to take scoring honors.

The first quarter ended in a 9-9 tie and Covert moved to a 16-10 margin by the half. The Bulldogs were on top, 28-21 at the end of the third period before both teams broke out with some big scoring in the final eight minutes.

Jacobs picked up four baskets for the losers in the last quarter before the Covert five pulled ahead. Frank Lamb had 12 points in the game, but Harvey Slotman, who went into the contest in fourth place in the Al-Van scoring derby, was held to six by the doubling-up tactics of the Covert defense.

The Saugatuck reserves led through most of their game, but also were beaten in the last period 36-26. Bill Figley and Gary Diepenhorst had eight apiece for the Braves.

Miss Donna Westerhof Wed to Leslie Weller

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Westerhof, route 1, announce the marriage of their daughter, Donna, to Leslie Weller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Weller, 669 Gordon St. The ceremony took place Thursday evening at the couple's home, 434 Harrison Ave.

John Heidema, pastor of New Apostolic Church of Holland, performed the single ring rites. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Uildriks.

Ganges

There will be a meeting of the qualified voters of Reid School District No. 5 Ganges on Thursday evening Jan. 31 at 8 p.m. at the school house. The meeting is being called to consider the recent recommendations of the State Fire Marshall.

The postponed meeting of the Ganges Home Club was to be held today at the home of Mrs. Ida Martin in Fennville with Mrs. Edwin Ensfield as program leader.

Youth Sunday will be observed Sunday Jan. 27, at the Ganges Baptist Church with the young people of the Baptist Youth Fellowship in charge. It will mark the beginning of Youth Week observed nationally.

The Baptist Mission Circle was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Green. Mrs. Arnold Green was in charge of the program, her subject being "More Precious Than Gold."

The business session followed and refreshments were served by the hostess. The members were unable to attend the mid-winter meeting of the Kalamazoo River Baptist Association in Kalamazoo last week Thursday afternoon due to the stormy weather.

Mrs. Isabelle McIntyre was elected president of the Hospital Auxiliary of the Douglas Community Hospital last week at the annual meeting of the society.

Mrs. Marian Van Leeuwen also of Ganges was elected vice-president. Mrs. Gene Starring entertained a few friends and neighbors at a coffee hour Wednesday morning of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nye entertained a group of neighbors at a 500 party Tuesday evening at their home. Pumpkin pie and coffee were served.

Mrs. Ed Simons was in Chicago a few days last week visiting in the home of her sister - in - law, Mrs. Clara Kragman. Mrs. Kragman was injured recently in a fall on an icy pavement near her home there.

Mrs. Bernice Knox left Monday for Lakeland Fla., where she will spend the remainder of the winter. She accompanied her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Coe Davids of Bangor, who will tour the south for several weeks.

Mrs. Ocelus Plummer is somewhat improved for her arthritic condition and able to be out.

Mrs. Mary Thompson who has made her home with Mrs. Bertha Plummer for several months is now at the home of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Coon of Otsego. Mrs. Thompson's home on U. S. 31 near here has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hasty who will take possession soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Galbreath of Detroit were weekend guests in the home of Miss Sadie Keirman.

Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thorsen were Mrs. Asa Hutchins, Mr. and Mrs. Blair Race and Mrs. Bud Johnson all of South Lyon. They also visited relatives in Fennville and Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Weed were Sunday dinner guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Hiatt of Benton Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Allen were Saturday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Allen of Niles, being called there by the illness of Mr. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gooding and daughter, Sarah, were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Dubbuisson of South Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nye were Wednesday visitors in Benton Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stehle entertained at family dinner Saturday evening. Guests were John Stehle and daughters, Marjorie and Marie; sons Gerald and Robert Stehle and Miss Bethel Bulson of Holland.

Mrs. Gertrude Lappinga, 77, Dies in Lamont

Of interest to local residents is the death of Mrs. Gertrude Lappinga, 77, Thursday night at Glenwood Convalescent Home in Lamont. Mrs. Lappinga, widow of Tobias Lappinga, resided on Parkhurst Ave. in Grand Rapids.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Neil Evertse of Grand Rapids; two brothers, Martin Ver Hake of Grand Rapids and Abe Ver Hake of Tampa, Fla.; one sister-in-law, Mrs. J. C. Lappinga of Holland; four nieces and nephews of Holland.

Calvin's Newhof Top MIAA Scorer

Paul Newhof, 6'9" center on the Calvin college basketball team, leads the MIAA scoring race following the Jan. 23 win over Olivet.

Newhof now has 141 points in seven games to rank seven points ahead of John Hannett of Alvin, last year's MIAA scoring champion with an even 300 points.

Paul Benes, Hope's 6'10" center, is third in the point derby with 127 one more than George Viviamore of Albion who stopped Hope with his last-second basket.

Hope's Warren Vander Hill is sixth with 122 points, one less than George Carter of Alma while Gary Morrison of Kalamazoo follows with 117 points in six games. The other scorers have all played seven MIAA games.

Ray Ritsma, with 109 points, is the other Hope scorer in the top dozen pointmakers. He is 10th, one point behind Jim (Jellybean) Reynolds of Hillsdale.

Municipal Court Processes Cases

Several cases were processed in Municipal Court the last few days by Judge Cornelius vander Meulen.

Charles Ridenour, 38, of 86 East 29th St., was sentenced Friday to pay $100 fine and $4.70 costs on a charge of simple assault involving a 17-year-old girl. A 60-day jail sentence was suspended on condition he consult a psychiatrist, arrangements for which already have been made. The alleged offense occurred Jan. 14 and Ridenour pleaded guilty in Municipal Court the next day.

Others appearing were Jack Kievit, of 164 Walnut Ave., speeding 45 in 30, $25; Rudolph Halach, of 1106 Ardmore, speeding 40 in 30, and crossing yellow line, $15; Duane Kenneth Kuipers, of 124 East Washington, Zeeland, $15; Cornelius Vanderzyl, 62, Muskegon, right of way, $12; George Robert, of 516 Central, improper right turn, $12.

Jury Awards Judgment In Car-Jeep Accident

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — After deliberating an hour and a quarter, a Circuit Court jury Friday afternoon awarded Philip E. Barnes of Detroit and his subrogee, Detroit Automobile Inter-Insurance Exchange, a judgment of $898.77 against Richard and Wilson Bulson, route 1, Nunica.

The suit resulted from an accident June 5, 1953, involving a car driven by Barnes and a jeep driven by Richard Bulson on US-46 at the intersection of Old State Rd. in Crookery township.

Barnes alleged he had sounded his horn as he prepared to pass the jeep and in the process of passing the jeep made a left turn into a private drive without a signal. Barnes claimed injuries to his right leg, right arm and back. He had sought $10,000 damages.

The jury was excused since this was the last jury case for the January term.

Karen Hansen Wins Contest

Miss Karen Hansen was named Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow for Holland High School as the result of receiving highest score in a written examination on homemaking knowledge and attitudes, administered Dec. 4 to senior girls in the graduating class. Her examination paper will be entered in competition to name this state's candidate for the title of All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and will also be considered for the runnerup award in the state. Four her achievement, she will receive an award pin.

The national winner in the third annual search conducted among 300,526 young women in 11,636 of the nation's public, private and parochial high schools will be named May 2 at the American Table banquet in New York City.

Miss Lavinia Cappon, Miss Gladys Wiskamp and Clifford Marcus of the high school faculty were advisers for the contest which is designed to assist schools in education for home and family living and to emphasize through a sound scholarship award program the personal qualities and sense of values necessary to successful homemaking.

Each state winner in the contest will receive a $1,500 scholarship and an educational trip with a school adviser to Washington, D. C., Williamsburg, Va., and New York City. A $500 scholarship will be awarded runnerups in each state. The scholarship of the young woman named All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow will be increased to $5,000. This year for the first time girls who rank second, third and fourth in the national finals will receive $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000 scholarships, respectively.

A WORD FOR THE SLOW READER

A Michigan State University professor has come out in defense of the slow reader. Dr. E. V. Leitch's pronouncement flies into the face of the current educational propaganda in both high schools and college.

"Speed" in reading in many cases today is the current key word of the professors and high school teachers. They are likely to be called "Directors of Communications" rather than Professors of English. But whatever name they are known by, they all, or nearly all, seem to think that speed in reading is the important thing.

Dr. Leitch, on the other hand, believes that the speed propaganda has put the emphasis on the wrong thing. Says he: "Many of the greatest minds of the past were the products of a few books which were read and reread until the thought of their authors was thoroughly assimilated."

But get two or three English professors together anywhere in America and they are sure to complain that students today don't read fast enough. Though why in heaven's name speed is important they usually are unable to explain.

Some things should of course be read fast; they should be skipped through; there is no reason why every word of every book should be read. But in a great many other cases the reading tempo should be slowed down instead of increased.

In that way a person can't hope to get through many books in a given reading period, but if he chooses his books well and makes their thought his own he will be much better off than the reader who races through several times as many volumes without getting a clear idea of what the author were after.

If a person spends a half day reading a ten-line poem, provided he really "cracks" it — the technical term the professors now use — he will be better off than he would be if he raced through a whole epic during that half day without learning what the poet was trying to say.

We have at last learned, says Dr. Leitch, that "the speed we have built into cars is at best a mixed blessing." But the "Directors of Communications" have yet to learn that, while speed may be desirable in some types of reading, in many other types it is a curse. The adage, "Not to the swift is the race," applies to reading much more than the professors appear to realize.

Drenthe

The Mission of the Twelve
Matthew 9:35-38; 10:1-8, 24, 25.
by C. P. Dame

(Based on copyrighted outlines produced by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. and used by permission.)

The person who lives without having a sense of mission is not living a full life. Christ was deeply conscious of having a mission to perform—to bring people to a saving knowledge of God. People who become Christians have a mission in life.

1. Crowds of needy people moved Jesus to compassion. Jesus healed, taught and preached. The three-fold ministry of Jesus attracted great crowds of people. There always are many sick people who will do almost anything to get well again. In the days of Jesus there were more sick people in proportion to the population than now and fewer remedies. It stands to reason that the healing ministry of Jesus won great crowds. He was not content to heal them but he also preached the gospel of the kingdom. When Jesus saw the great crowds of people who came to be healed he was moved with compassion. The condition of the people touched him deeply. Jesus saw that "they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep, having no shepherd."

The religious leaders of that day were neglecting the crowds. Is the church today ignoring the masses and their needs? In addition the masses were oppressed by the Roman rulers. Not only was Jesus moved with compassion but he was also challenged by the multitude because he saw the great harvest they presented. A crowd suggests potential converts. Today in this land of abundance there are many people with starved souls. Does the church of today see the challenge of the millions without the gospel?

2. The compassion of Jesus resulted in action. The Lord told the disciples to pray for workers who would minister to the masses. There was shortage of reapers. There is a shortage today. Jesus summoned disciples to pray. We call a committee meeting, map out a campaign, but forget to pray. Today we need workers with compassion and vision. Our times call for the right kind of workers.

Jesus called twelve workers. Matthew mentions the twelve by name. To these twelve men Jesus "gave power against unclean spirits, to cast them out and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease." To these ordinary men Jesus gave extraordinary power. It is worth noting that Jesus selected twelve men which very likely was purposeful pointing to the new Israel he was establishing.

Among the twelve there was not any one who had standing in the Jewish world of that day. All were men of humble and lowly station. Some were fishermen, one was a former taxgatherer, some were workmen. Jesus called these men that they might be with him, learn from him, and carry on his work after his departure. These men had been disciples—that is learners, and they became "apostles"—messengers. Their names are Peter, James, John, James the son of Alphaeus, Bartholomew, Simon the Canaanite, Andrew, Matthew, Judas, the son of James, Thomas, Philip, Judas Iscariot.

Jesus gave a charge to these men. They were told to go and preach "to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." They were also ordered to heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils and give freely. They were told that they could expect to meet with opposition. In this day when so many belong to the cult of ease it is well to remind people that it is not easy to be a Christian or to do Christian work. "If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them out devils and give freely." They were told that they could expect to meet with opposition. NEW SAFETY DIRECTOR — Len Ver Schure (second from right) Monday night took over the reins of the Ottawa County Citizens' Safety Council. Among his first duties was the presentation of the traditional pair of wooden shoes to keynote speaker Gerald Shipman

Len Ver Schure Named County Safety Director

Former Ottawa County Deputy Sheriff Leonard Ver Schure Monday night was appointed director of the county's Citizens' Safety Council.

Ver Schure succeeds Avery Baker who resigned late in 1956 to accept a position in Midland. Avery was also the full-time juvenile court agent in Ottawa County.

The safety director is paid $1.50 an hour plus 7 cents a mile for use of his car.

County Supervisor and safety president William Kennedy said the appointment is temporary pending the selection of a permanent director sometime this spring.

The appointment was announced during the second annual meeting of the Safety Council at Allendale Town Hall.

The council also passed a resolution praising Rep. Gerald R. Ford, Jr. for his long interest in traffic safety and urging him to re-introduce a bill in Congress calling for the placing of reflectorized tape on the sides of all railroad cars.

In opening the meeting Kennedy paid tribute to the work that Baker had done during his term on the council and during its organization.

The council acting for itself, the Michigan State Safety Commission, and the National Safety Council presented two awards to Grand Haven for its death-free record. Police Chief Richard Klompel accepted the plaques. One was for a death free year during 1956 and the other for going 44 months without a traffic fatality.

Keynote speaker, Gerald Shipman, executive secretary of Michigan's State Safety Commission, praised the work of the council, law enforcement officers and the public for its record during 1956. He pointed out that the saving of eight lives last year was a graphic example of its work. Traffic fatalities claimed 21 in 1956 while 29 died on county roads and highways both in 1954 and 1955.

Shipman urged the council to continue its excellent job and to strive and personalize the safety message.

He said the average motorist "thinks safety is fine for everyone but each individual thinks it means the other fellow."

Shipman said safety must be made the personal responsibility of each driver. He cited figures showing that 1,724 persons died on Michigan highways during 1956 even though this was 280 under the previous year.

"Unfortunately we predict that at least that number will die again this year. Who will they be? Perhaps some of us sitting in this room or some we know will be killed in accidents this year."

Shipman said "that when each of us begins to believe that we might be a traffic fatality instead of always thinking it can never happen to us then we will have made progress in safety."

Law enforcement officers at the meeting were Police Chief Jacob Van Hoff, Sheriff Gerald Vanderbeek, State Police Sgt. Milton Swingle, Deputy Pete Meeuwisen, and Hudsonville Chief Don Stratton.

Former Local Resident Dies in Grand Rapids

Clarence W. Zylstra, 51, former owner of the Holland Sport Shop here, died early this morning at St. Mary's Hospital in Grand Rapids after an illness of several months. He had been in the hospital for four weeks. Mr. Zylstra lived at 5707 West River Dr., and at the time of his death was operating the Midnite Market in Grand Rapids. His business here was sold approximately six years ago. Surviving are his wife, Ann; one son, Robert of Zeeland; three grandchildren; one brother, Morton of Grand Rapids; and his father, Gerrit Zylstra of Grand Rapids.

Ottawa County 4-H News

By Willis S. Boss, 4-H Club Agent

Farmers Week is being held at Michigan State University in East Lansing, to the theme of "Blueprints of Tomorrow's Agriculture."

We hope that you will be able to attend and see the exhibits and displays and to hear parts of the program.

We feel that this year's winter enrollment is outstanding. We have approximately 1,500 boys and girls enrolled in the 4-H projects which include handicraft, electric, sewing, knitting, etc., with some members doing more than one project.

We are especially grateful for the progress of new clubs. Among others, these include the Marshall, St. Joseph, Corwin, Zutphen, Forest Grove, North Holland, and East Crisp clubs. These clubs are mostly endeavored in either sewing or handicraft which is a new project for that area.

Dates for the Holland and Coopersville area achievement days have been scheduled and they will be held in the first week of April. The Hudsonville area achievement day is tentatively scheduled for the last week in March. Members should be aware of the dates so that they will complete their articles in time. Handicraft members should be working on their second or third article or be in the process of getting ready to finish their articles. Sewing members should be finishing up the necessary bastings, etc., so that they will be ready to go into the final details of finishing their garments.

4-H members who can perform in some way by playing an instrument, giving a reading, doing tricks, or doing any other type of entertaining, are reminded to start practicing for the talent show which will be held at the achievement days.

The dates for National 4-H Club Week are March 2 through 9. This is the time when 4-H members all over the nation will be celebrating and exhibiting the projects that they have worked on. We want to remind leaders and members to contact business people and make arrangements with them to display 4-H club work.

Candidates have been chosen by the leaders to attend the leadership conference at Michigan State University on March 2 and 3. One man and one woman will be chosen from each district. The following leaders have been nominated to represent their district: Mrs. Esther Henning, Mrs. Russell Lowing, Mrs. Elizabeth Vanderhyde, John Koning, Roland Reed, Henry Modderman, representing the Coopersville district; Mrs. Fred Abel, Mrs. Herman Van Klompenberg, Mrs. Warren Bosworth, Warren Bosworth, Ed Butler, Wayne Lowing, Albert Vredeveid, representing the Hudsonville area; Mrs. Marie Bosman, Mrs. Harvey Grover, Mrs. Fred Borgman, John Nyenhuis, Neil Zuidema, Don Essenberg, Wesley De Witt, representing the Holland district.

East Saugatuck Farmer Elected New Director

FENNVILLE (Special) — John Oetman, East Saugatuck farmer, was elected a director of the Allegan Soil Conservation district at the annual district meeting here on Jan. 23, according to Roy Van Dragt, vice chairman of the directors.

Tom Kelly, noted lecturer, gave a chalk talk and praised the work of soil conservation districts for their contributions to conservation of our most basic resource—soil.

Oetman replaces Varnum Dilley of Lacota, former board chairman, who served for 9 years.

Christ Shall Reign Through Me
Matthew 6:24-34 Revelation 11:15
Isaiah 45:22,23

by Darrell Franken

Christ Shall Reign is the present biennial theme of Christian Endeavor, and Sunday, Feb. 3, brings Christian Endeavor Youth Week to a close. During this past week young people throughout the world have received recognition for what they have done. Banquets have been scheduled. Special rallies have been held. Radio and television have given time to their programs, and churches have had young people take part in leading their worship services. This is the tribute that has been paid to Christian Endeavor and its youth.

To the Leader

Since Sunday is Christian Endeavor Day, it quite naturally follows that this meeting should be better than the average. It should also demonstrate the ability of the young people to lead. To increase the value and effectiveness of this meeting, arrange to have more than one person to lead the meeting. Choose a friend or two, your pastor, or your counselor. Have each one speak on the theme, "Christ Shall Reign." By having multiple leaders each person can present a power-packed, thought-provoking short speech, rather than a long wet-powdered dud.

Speaker No. 1

Christ Shall Reign through Evangelism. This is the title of my part of the topic. My message is based on this passage of scripture. "It is not by might, nor by power but by my spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts." God is saying that his spirit must work in the hearts of people before conversion takes place. God does not use force. He uses loving persuasion. So too, I cannot convert someone else unless God works through me. This means that I myself must first become a Christian before I can lead others to Christ. I can illustrate this in several ways. Here are two: Electricity can not flow unless a wire is attached to the source of electricity. Water will not flow into a home without being connected to the supply. So, Christianity will not flow from us to another person unless we are connected in fellowship with God.

Speaker No. 2

Christ Shall Reign through Citizenship is my part of the topic. Jesus was a good citizen. He paid his taxes. He observed Roman law. He obeyed his civil superiors. But he did more. He brought a transforming spirit of love. We too should be good citizens and obey Paul's command in Romans 13:1 "Let every person be subject to the governing authorities." (RSV) But we should also radiate the transforming love of Christ. Then people will rule with love, rather than with the desire for power. Our citizenship should begin in the home by showing respect to our parents. It should make itself known in community and national elections. It should be evident in our attitude toward rules and regulations which are set up to preserve us against evil. Here again it is well to remember that each person should clean up his own back yard before he tries to tell his neighbor how to clean up his.

Speaker No. 3

Christ Shall Reign through Leadership is the part of this topic I have been asked to take. Jesus is the sample of a good leader. He had convictions and stood up for them. (John 2:23-16) He wanted to help rather than hurt people. (Matthew 9:13 ff) That is why he carried their interests uppermost in his mind. He knew that a leader is one who is a servant to those he is to lead. (Matthew 20:27) Thinking of a "leader" as a "servant" may seem strange to some, but it is true. Those who are the leaders are usually helping others. Think of the "leader-dogs" for the blind. Are they not servants to the blind person. In the same manner, were not Paul, Luther, Calvin, and Jonathan Edwards servants to their people. May each of us renew our desire to be a leader like these men, and thus become "servants."

Zutphen

Melvin Merritt and Roy Veltema attended church services again after their recent illnesses.

Herbert Heyboes was taken to St. Mary's Hospital.

Users for this month's Church services are Rudolph De Free, Marvin Geurink, Junior Van Rhee and Leroy Brower.

Mrs. Effie Bosch spent the weekend at the home of her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brinks have bought the Jake Heyboer home in Jamestown.

Jermima Ensing, presently at Taylor University, spent a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ensing.

Donald Hamer from Detroit spent a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Kamaer.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blauwkamp and family attended the special Lake mission services on Sunday.

Two Cars Collide

Cars driven by John Zuidema, 33, route 2, Hamilton and Bernard Ridder, 27, route 6, Holland were involved in an accident at 7:30 a.m. today at the intersection of 142nd St. and 60th Ave. According to investigating deputy Henry Bouwman, Zuidema was going south on 60th he overran the corner and as he was backing, was struck by the Ridder vehicle. No tickets were issued and damage to Zuidema's car was minor and $200 to the Ridder vehicle.

Ottawa County Farm News

Richard Machiele...

County Agricultural Agent... Congratulations are in order for two of our Ottawa County farmers. This past week The "500" Honor Roll arrived at our office giving names of the Michigan Dairyman who had 500 pounds butterfat average or better for the past five years.

Elmo Heft of Conklin has an average production with his registered Holsteins yielding 14,590 pounds of milk per cow and 54.92 pounds butterfat.

Gerald Poest of Zeeland had a record of 12,901 pounds milk and 516.5 pounds butterfat. These are exceptional records. We are proud to have two on this honor roll from Ottawa County. Both of these men will receive awards at a program honoring 500 pound producers during Farmers Week.

Chemicals are playing a more important part in farming. Many farmers in the county have used chemicals for weed control in various crops during the past year. Most farmers are well satisfied with the results of such a program.

There are two methods of applying weed control chemicals. One is pre-emergence spray and the other is spraying directly on the crop.

For pre-emergence a 2-4-D Ester at the rate of one pound per acre can be used on corn. Dinitro at the rate of three to four pounds per acre can be used on potatoes, field beans, and soy beans. This is a method in which the crops are first planted and then the field is sprayed before the crop emerges.

There are some that can be applied directly to the growing crop. For corn, a 2-4-D can be applied. For oats and barley with no forage seeded, use 2-4-D Amine at the rate of 1/4 to 1/2 pound per acre or MCP at the rate of 1/4 to 1/2 pound per acre when the grain is from four to eight inches tall. If alfalfa or clover is seeded in the oats or barley, spray with MCP using 1/4 pound per acre when the grain is from six to eight inches tall. We have extension folder F-222 "Weed control in field crops" available at our office. Write for your copy.

A good many farmers this past year have used Dalapon for quack grass control in crops. Most of them have had excellent results. Dalapon has been especially successful when used in raspberries and blueberries. It can be used either early spring before the leaves are emerged or late in the season after the crop has been harvested. Those using the material report practically 100 percent kill of quack grass. We have also used it late in the season on nut grass but will not have the results of this until next growing season. We would suggest if you are bothered with quack grass that you try a little bit of it before you make a field application. For more details, write for Extension folder F-190 entitled "Chemical Weed Control in small fruits and orchards."

It is more and more apparent that farmers will have to pay more attention to the use of lime on soils. The total tonage of lime has dropped off a bit in the country. We still have a good many fields that need heavy applications of lime in order to produce a better crop.

Lime is going to be more important than ever because the fertilizers being used at the present time are making our soils more acid. In 1920 over half of the lime applied in the United States was combined in fertilizer. Now fertilizers have only one-fifth. High applications of fertilizer to increase yields; the use of more concentrated fertilizers; the use of more nitrogen fertilizers; and more liquid fertilizers all of which contain little lime or no lime at all is going to mean that you apply more lime to your soil. We would suggest that soil samples be taken through your local ASC committee so that you will know how much lime is necessary to produce a good crop.

For some time there has been a tremendous shortage of trained agriculturists. This condition is giving the folks at Michigan State University quite some concern. Most parents are of the assumption that if a young man goes to college and takes agriculture he plans to return to the farm. Present figures indicate that less than 11 percent of our agricultural graduates actually return to the farm. Another problem is that many of our boys with a Vo-ag background and enter college select fields other than agriculture merely because they do not know the many opportunities found within the broad area of agriculture. It is estimated there are 15,000 jobs for agricultural graduates and only 8,500 graduates. This, of course, includes the whole country.

We feel that some of our good farm boys should give consideration to enter the field of agriculture as a trained agriculturist. We have available two booklets: one entitled "Your Future in Agriculture and the other one "Your Future in Conservation." We would be glad to send them to any interested parent or high school graduate.

Grand Haven Has New Policeman

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Grand Haven today had a new police officer in the person of 22-year-old Peter Caputo of Grand Rapids who will be moving to Grand Haven next week with his wife, Bette.

Caputo's appointment fills a vacancy created when Officer Richard Klompel was elevated to the position of police chief. The department personnel now stands at 14.

The new appointee who was stationed on the Azores for four years with the U. S. Air Force, met his wife on the islands while she was employed for the State Department. It took the young couple five months to meet requirements so that they could be married. Nine months ago they flew to Grand Rapids for the ceremony, then a few days later returned to the Azores, making a 10,000-mile trip in 14. Caputo was discharged last Nov. 21 after being in the service since 1951 and traveling all over the world.

While in Grand Rapids for the wedding, the couple visited Grand Haven and Spring Lake where the bride has relatives, and they decided this would be a good place to settle down. Caputo is a native of New York and attended schools on Staten Island. He was employed by the New York Stock Exchange before entering the armed forces. He was assigned to the radio and television service and was instrumental in bringing the first armed service television station to the Azores.

The Tawasi Camp Fire Girls of St. Francis de Sales School held their meeting on Jan. 15. They opened their meeting with a Cerebral at which most of the girls received beads. They also practiced their songs for the Council dinner and planned to practice after school on Friday. During the Christmas vacation they had a meeting at Mrs. Bouillon's house to work on the covers for the programs for the Council dinner. Reported by Linda Vukin, Scribe.

The Awakia Camp Fire group of Pine Creek had their Christmas party Dec. 18 at Arlene Kinderman's house. Mrs. A. Vanden Berg and Mrs. G. Kinderman were joint hostesses at the party. We first caroled for the shut-ins in the community. We played games, ate lunch and exchanged gifts. On Dec. 17 we brought out White Gifts to the Nativity Scene and caroled there. Saturday, Dec. 22, we brought our favors to the hospital. On Jan. 7, we had our regular Camp Fire meeting. We checked our requirements and stressed neatness in our memory books. We are very happy that Arlene Kinderman of our group won the grand prize of $5.00 for presenting the best calendar painting of all the Camp Fire Girls in the city. Reported by scribe, Mary Streuer.

The Cesk Cha May Camp Fire group of Van Raalte School met at the home of Mrs. Souter for their Christmas party Dec. 28. We played games, had refreshments consisting of apple pie, milk, potato chips, and ice cream. We exchanged gifts, then we went home. Reported by scribe, Barbara Horning.

The Lataya Mukkinneuk Camp Fire group met in the basement of Beechwood School No. 1 on Jan. 22. Mrs. Kibby and Mrs. Nelson helped us make Valentines out of ribbons, lace, buttons, pipe cleaners, and other materials for our valentines party. Reported by scribe, Karen Karsten.

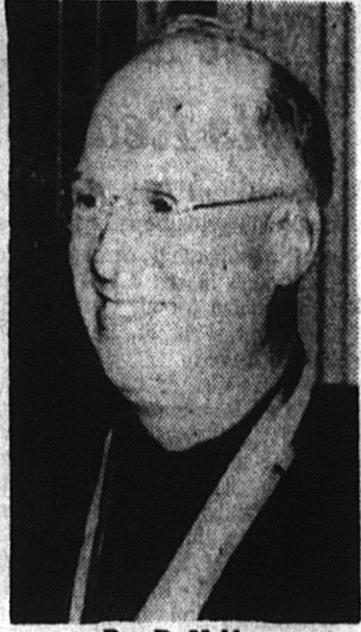

On Jan. 21 the Watomakiya Camp Fire group of Maplewood had a musical program. Each girl planned her own part in the program. Piano solos were played by Mina Kemper, Mary De Haan and Margo Naber. A vocal trio composed of Claudia Reek, Sandy Ten Cate and Pam Ter Horst sang one selection. Claudia Reek sang a hula song with motions. We then discussed the Birthday project and Camp Fire Birthday party. The president, Margo Naber, presided and opened the meeting with the Trail Seekers Desire. Mary De Haan reported.

On Jan. 14 the Okiyahi Camp Fire Girls met at the home of Mrs. Willard Connor. The girls had a special ceremony and honors were given. Caroline Connor, Diane Rutgers and Mary Lou Wierda lighted candles for having the most honors. Reported by scribe, Mary Lou Wierda.

The Tawanka Camp Fire Group of Harrington School met at the home of their leader, Mariann Kuipers. Refreshments were served. New officers were elected as follows: President, Janet Perkins; vice president, Ellen Oosterhaven; secretary, Martha Hallquist; treasurer, Sandra Gothen; scribe, Lois Aalderink. The officers of 1956 were Connie Kuipers, Judy Den Uyl, Betty Pitcher, Judy Ten Brink, Judy Avery and Jane Reno. Invitations were made for the Mother and Daughters Tea on Feb. 2. Pitcher frames for the mothers were also made. Reported by the scribe, Lois Aalderink.

The Okiz Camp Fire Girls met at the home of their leader, Mrs. Clare Walker. They elected new officers. They are President, Diane Taber; vice president, Janet Walker; treasurer, Mary Jane Meyer; and secretary, Marlene Sprick. We also worked on our memory books. The treat was given by Marlene Sprick. Reported by scribe, Marlene Sprick.

On Jan. 21 the Tanda Camp Fire group of Lakeview School held

Ben D. Mulder

Mulder Will Head Jamboree Group

Twenty-five year Scouting veteran Ben D. Mulder will serve as Scoutmaster for the local delegation of Scouts and Explorers to the Valley Forge National Jamboree, according to an announcement today by Herman Brandmiller, Grand Valley Council Scout Executive. Brandmiller noted that Mulder was one of four carefully selected adults to give top leadership to the 148 boy Council delegation to the Jamboree in July.

Lawrence A. Wade, chairman of the council leadership selection committee, explained that Mulder's long association with Scouting in Holland, coupled with his experience on many canoe trips to Canadian wilderness areas made him an outstanding candidate for the Jamboree assignment. Mulder is advisor of Post 2006, First Reformed Church, and special advisor on Exploring to the district camping committee. He has received the Silver Beaver award and the Scouters' Key.

Also appointed to Jamboree positions were Alfred Kane, Scoutmaster of Troop 10, Methodist Church, and J. Roger Baar, Scoutmaster of Troop 21, Zeeland Second Reformed Church. Both men have had long terms as successful leaders in Scouting; they will serve as assistant Scoutmasters for Mulder's Jamboree Troop.

Wade pointed out that while in past years only one adult leader from the local area has been selected for a Jamboree, the appointment of three Scouters this year was justified by the large number of Scouts planning to attend. Mulder, Kane, and Baar will accompany local Scouts on the entire Jamboree trip and will camp with them at the Valley Forge National Park.

Albert A. Walters and Elmore Van Lente have attended as leaders at past National Jamborees.

Passenger Injured As Car Overturns

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Mrs. Viola Burdick, route 1 Grand Haven, received bruises on her head and hand as the result of an accident at 1:40 a.m. Saturday. Her husband, Arthur, 42, skidded the car in attempting to make a right turn. It spun around and overturned, causing about $1,000 damage to the 1955 vehicle. The driver, who was not injured was ticketed for excessive speed for conditions. State police investigated. The accident occurred on Mercury Dr. in Grand Haven township.

Their Ceremonial at Mrs. Wajohn's house. Taking part in it were: Eva St. John, Roxanne Spaek, Merrilee Timmer, Janice Van Lente, Ronelle Volting, Susan Wajohn. Roll call and leading songs, Janice Haynes; assisting leaders, Marilyn Koeman; hostess for afternoon, Judy Reinking. Serving refreshments were Priscilla Kempker, Marla Matchinsky and Luann Moodie. Guests were Mrs. Andrew Volting and Mrs. James Van Lente. After we received our beads we went down the basement and played games. Then we roasted hot dogs in the fireplace. Reported by Judy Reinking.

The Beechwood Tawanka Seventh grade group met at Billie Schrengard's home. The president called the meeting to order first, then we discussed our hay ride party which is to be held on Jan. 31. Then we talked about decorating the Civic center and our Mother's Tea which is to be held on Feb. 2. Next we made our invitations to the Mothers Tea. Lunch was served by Billie Schrengard. Reported by scribe, Janice Tenkinck.

Zeeland

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Vanden Bosch left this week for a month vacation in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller of San Francisco, Calif., are visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller on West Lawrence Ave.

Maurice Van Loo of Chicago and Mrs. Nelson Boonstra of St. Joseph spent the weekend with relatives in Zeeland.

The Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Tanis and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dirkse left this week for a vacation trip to Florida and other points of interest.

The monthly baby clinic will be held next Tuesday Jan. 29 in the city hall auditorium from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

"Planning the Use of the Family Dollar" was studied by extension leaders in the Ottawa County home economics program at leader training meetings held at Zeeland City Hall on Thursday. Miss Lucille Ketchum, extension specialist in home management, was in charge of the meeting. Some of the topics discussed were: The 1957 financial outlook for the country as it affects family planning, how to make a family budget and how to make it work, how to get the most satisfaction with the money you have to spend, and other interesting topics.

Miss Nelva Ter Haar of Kalamazoo, where she is a student at Western State College visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ter Haar east of Zeeland the past week.

Dr. Tena Holkeboer, prominent missionary of the Reformed church spoke at the Forest Grove morning service Sunday.

Services at Faith Reformed church in this city were conducted by Dr. Henry Bast, professor at Western Seminary and Temple Time minister. The pastor, the Rev. and Mrs. E. Tanis are enjoying a trip to Southern states.

Chief of Police Elmer J. Boss of Zeeland was one of a large number of community police officers who graduated from Michigan State University's first short course for police assigned to school duty. The short course was held at the Kellogg Center on the MSU campus and was staged by the continuing Education Service of MSU in cooperation with the Michigan Police Academy.

Leaders of sessions at the short course included high ranking department heads at the University and officers in the state police as well as several municipal departments in the state, including Detroit and Grand Rapids.

Seminaries were held on such subjects as the traffic situation, police school relatives, school safety campaigns, working with children, use of audio-visual aids, special techniques with children, the green flag program, school safety patrols, the legal aspects of safety patrols and adults crossing guards, understanding youngsters, bicycle safety, drivers education and traffic engineering around schools. Films were also shown to illustrate the various types of problems involved in handling the safety problem for school children of all ages.

West Olive

The Mothers Club of Robert School held an auction last week for the Polio Fund. They raised $70.00.

Mrs. James Assink and Mrs. Fred Bakker have been appointed guardians for the Robert School Camp Fire group. Their present project is planning for a trip to Chicago in April.

Last Tuesday the ladies of the local district gathered to reorganize the West Olive School Workers Society. Cleo Walters was elected president, Minnie Berkompas, vice president; June Wennersten, secretary; Janet Hemmeke, treasurer.

Dave Polich, student at Wayne University is home for a between semester vacation. Dave will represent Wayne University at Holland High School Jan. 31 at College Night.

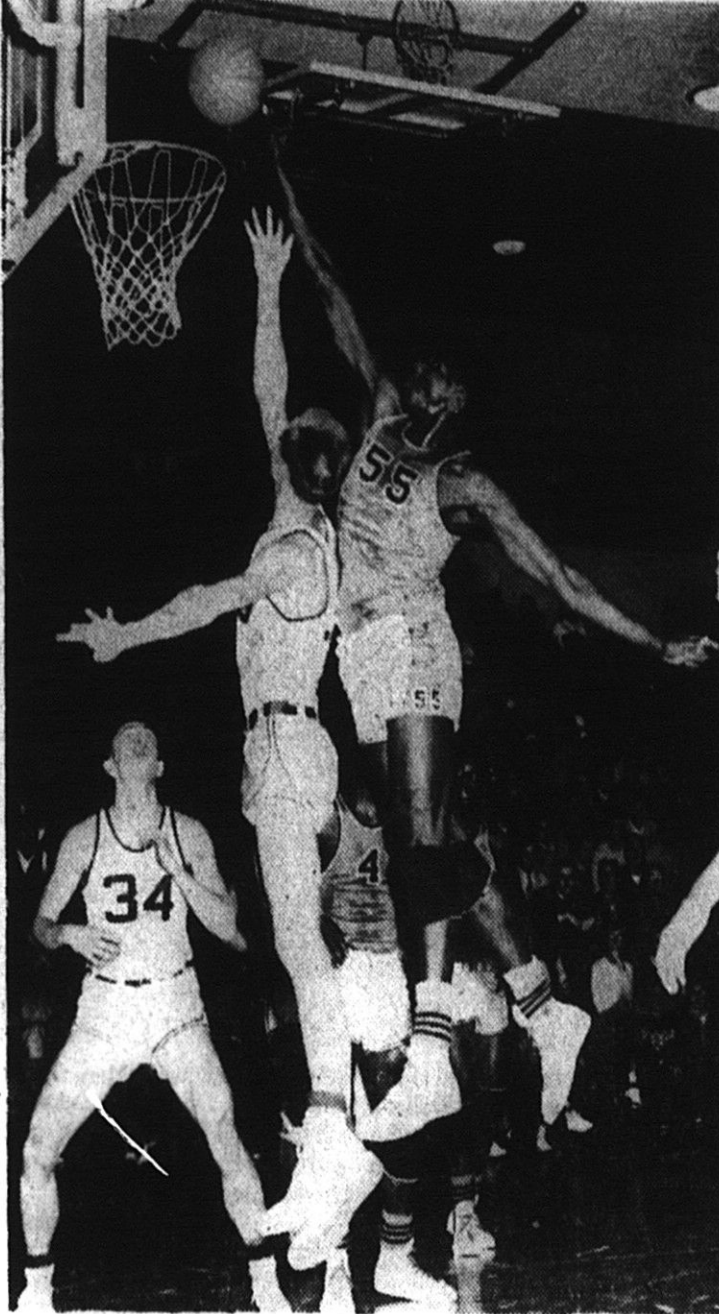

Mr. and Mrs. William Moore are receiving congratulations on a baby daughter born recently.

The Port Sheldon Township Planning and Developing Committee met Thursday night at the West Olive School. The important issue on the agenda was finding a location suitable for a new town hall. There were five sights under consideration. The group had applied for government owned land at the corner of Crowwell and Lakeshore Dr. but were turned down because Consumers Power Co. had a prior application. Other issues were getting a pay telephone station and getting a sign on the highway (official state highway sign for West Olive).

A committee of two constables, Gerald Groenewoud and Bruce Anys, was appointed to survey the dangerous road spots in the township, that is, poor vision corners or anything that may be the cause of traffic accidents. A motion was made to send a proposal to the township board to be put on the April ballot asking for a levy of two mills to run for one year to start a building and site fund, also the right to exceed the limited 15 mills taxation. The committee has planned a Citizens meeting to be held at the Connell School, if available, on March 21. This meeting will be for the purpose of explaining the tax proposal and on zoning and any other township business.

Minnie Berkompas is convalescing at Holland Hospital. Her condition is satisfactory after undergoing major surgery.

Local G.E. Plant Grants Wage Hike

An additional increase of approximately 1 percent in pay will be made for General Electric employees affected by the automatic cost-of-living "escalator" provisions, resulting in a total cost-of-living adjustment since the Better Living Program was put into effect in 1955 of approximately 2 1/2 percent.

Those employees whose pay is automatically adjusted will receive this increase as a result of a further rise in the Consumer Price Index issued by the government. The government's Index for December, issued Jan. 25 was at 118.0 as compared to the September, 1955 index level of 114.9 against which General Electric cost-of-living adjustments are computed quarterly and provide for about 0.5 percent pay increase for each full 0.5 percent increase in the Consumer Price Index.

An important feature of the General Electric "escalator" arrangements is that should the cost of living subsequently drop, only the extra pay resulting from index increases to date and subsequent index increases would be affected.

Under the five-year agreements worked out in 1955 with more than 90 unions, two separate increases of 3 percent each are now in effect and these guaranteed annual increases are separate from and not affected by cost-of-living escalator changes.

The salary rates of employees, whose compensation is handled on an entirely individual basis, are adjusted from time to time to reflect appropriate consideration of individual merit, cost of living, and other market trends, and are not automatically affected by cost-of-living "escalator" arrangements.

Pressing Defense, Red-Hot Shooting Give Giants Win

KALAMAZOO (Special)—A well-balanced scoring unit coupled with a pressing defense were more than enough to enable Kalamazoo Central to remain unbeaten in downing Holland, 78-45 before 2,100 fans at Western Michigan College gym Tuesday night.

The Maroon Giants scored 20 points in each of the first three quarters and followed with 18 in the final period. The initial 20 provided the impetus as the winners went crashing through the Dutch. A coach Bob Quiring trademark, the three-quarter court press with periods of full-court pressing was a successful defense in topping the Dutch. A close guarding Giant swarmed over every Holland ball handler and the Dutch didn't get off a pass without having to fake off a hand or body movement.

Much sharper than in their 52-48 win at Holland, the Maroon Giants hit an amazing 49 percent of their 71 shots with 35 baskets.

Allegan Voters Again Turn Down Fire Hall Issue

ALLEGAN (Special)—Allegan city property owners went to the polls in a special election and voted down a proposal to bond the city for $40,000 for a "bare necessity" fire hall.

Although the vote was light, it was decisive, 175 yes and 291 no. The special election was called after the city voted down a $60,000 fire hall in the November election. The present fire station on Trowbridge St. was condemned as unsafe by the state fire marshal last August, mainly because floors were unsafe for the total load of all city fire equipment. Since the November election, two trucks have been housed in other garages.

City officials said today that the next move would be up to the state fire marshal. Deputy Marshal Walter Burns had previously indicated there were two alternatives. One would be to initiate court action for an order requiring the city to build a new fire hall or repair the present one. The other would be indirect action through the Michigan Inspection Bureau which establishes fire insurance rates.

The $40,000 structure which the city had designed for a location on Monroe St. was to have been little more than "storage space" for the fire equipment, the plans drawn in such a way that additions could be made later.

Local civic groups including the Junior Chamber of Commerce had advocated the approval of the bond issue.

It was estimated that Tuesday's total vote of 476 was about half of the eligible vote which involved property owners only.

Plans Underway For Field Trial

A newly-fenced in 80 acre tract of ground located near Port Sheldon on the corner of 152nd Ave. and Van Buren St., will be the site of the first field trial of a series conducted by the Holland Beagle club Saturday, Feb. 2.

The B sanctioned trial will be divided into two classes and will begin at 8:30 a.m. It is expected it will take most of the day to run off the meet.

Classes include the 13-inch combined male and female and 15-inch combined male and female. Between 32 and 40 entries are expected in both classes.

Judges are expected to be Willard Vander Velde, Roy Crowley and Arthur Berg of Muskegon and Tom Schroeder of Grand Haven. The next field trial will be held Feb. 23 and another one is being planned for some time in May. Proceeds of the field trials will be used for the construction of a clubhouse.

He Changes Plea, Pays $100 Fine

GRAND HAVEN (Special)—A justice court case involving the shooting of a hen pheasant closed abruptly Tuesday afternoon when the man charged changed his previous not guilty plea and paid $100 fine and $9.80.

It all started Jan. 21 when Cor-servation Officer Harold Bowditch arrested James E. Bourdeau, 56, Comstock Park, who allegedly shot a hen pheasant on the Andrew Reister farm in Tallmadge township. Bourdeau told officers it was his brother-in-law who had his car and he pleaded innocent in Justice Kent Hastings' court in Coopersville and furnished $100 cash bond for trial.

Further investigation revealed that Bourdeau had shot another pheasant the same afternoon and identification could be made by several people. Bowditch was out Tuesday afternoon questioning witnesses. He stopped to aid a woman having difficulty with her car when Bourdeau also came upon the scene. He told Bowditch he wanted to get the matter cleared up and returned to Hastings' court and changed his plea.

Large Crowd Attends Annexation Meeting

From 400 to 500 persons attending an information meeting in Harrington School Tuesday night for residents of the Harrington, Lakeview and Montello Park school districts.

James Lugers served as moderator for the panel discussing annexation issues. Serving on the panel were Lloyd Van Raalte, Don Williams and Peter S. Boter.

The meeting which adjourned at 9:50 p.m. was described as strictly an information meeting and involved several questions and answers from the audience. Lugers said it is expected further meetings would be scheduled as annexation plans develop.

Pine Creek Neighbors Have Regular Meeting

A regular meeting of the Pine Creek Neighbors Club was held Monday night with 33 members present.

John Swierenga showed slides and demonstrated a Hammond Chord organ. A business meeting followed.

Entertainment was in charge of Mrs. Harvey Keen, Mrs. Paul Unger and Mrs. Abe Vanden Burg. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ted Everse, Mrs. Harold Dorn and Mrs. Melvin Dalman.

SCOUT FAIR — Visitors to the Boy Scout Fair March 30 at Holland Civic Center will see how canoe paddles are made by hand, thanks to the efforts of troop 44 of Maplewood Reformed Church. Eight members of the troop already have started work on the project. Carl Van Ingen, Jr., 113 East 39th St., is shown holding a white ash plank while Jerry Van Wieren, 35 West 35th St., handles the plane in the first step of smoothing the wood. Dan Caauwe and Robert Oosterbaan are leaders. Other members of the troop are Marvin Van Voorst, Don Lam, Darrel Staal, Jimmie Drooger, Allen Bos and Bruce Masselink. The group is planning a 9-day canoe trip next summer in the Algoma country east and north of the Soo when the paddles will be put to actual use.

The Seven Dwarfs of Beechwood School No. 1 met in the gym Tuesday, Jan. 23. Dawn Johnson called the meeting to order and led in the Blue Bird Wish. Sandy Van Kampen called roll. We worked on our scrapbooks and then started a project of making Blue Bird rings. Submitted by Mrs. Russell Simpson.

The Gay Blue Birds of Wauka-zoo School met at the home of their leader, Mrs. George Menken. An election for officers was held. Janice De Vries is president; Carol De Witt, vice president; Connie Aalderink, treasurer; Mary Lynn Menken, scribe. A discussion was held regarding plans for the next few meetings. We held an election which resulted as follows: President, Janyce Tregloan; secretary, Patsy Boer; treasurer, Arlene Poppema; historian, Sandy Bremer; reporter, Judy Kehrewecker. We wrote a letter to one of our Blue Birds who moved away. Sandy Bremer treated. Reported by scribe, Judy Kehrewecker.

Appeal Granted, Another Denied

The Board of Appeals Monday night approved one request, denied another and denied an application for a hearing.

The request of Mrs. Marilyn Swieringa to use the basement of her home at 61 West 30th St. for a beauty shop was denied and the request of Tony Doseman to use the addition at the rear of the store at 138 West 27th St. for laundry facilities, a walk-in cooler and a meat cutting room was approved. The board, however, stipulated that parking in front of the store be eliminated and that all existing approaches be closed by the city engineer at the owner's expense as soon as weather permits.

In other action, the request for hearing on building a vestibule at 363 Van Raalte Ave. from the Greater Holland Community Foundation was denied and Feb. 11 was set as the date for a hearing on the application of Theodore Martini to use the basement of his home at 12 East 17th St. for an upholstery shop.

The Ottawa County Board of Supervisors was given until July 1 to take out a building permit for a county building at 13th St. and Central Ave.

Members of the Willard G. Leenhouts Unit No. 6, American Legion Auxiliary, at its regular monthly meeting Monday, voted to purchase 3,500 memorial poppies again this year for their annual Poppy Day sale, held each year in May. The sale of these poppies enables the local unit to carry on its rehabilitation program.

Mrs. Henry Brower, rehabilitation chairman, reported that Christmas baskets and gifts had been sent to shut-in members of the Legion and the Auxiliary.

Mrs. Alden Stoner gave the fifth district report of the meeting held in Grand Rapids on Jan. 24. The fifth district receives the honor of having the most quota units in its district, and the local unit of being the first unit to obtain its quota within the district. Mrs. Henry Brower and Mrs. Marvin Ver Hoef attended the Grand Rapids meeting.

Mrs. Alden Stoner, president, was in charge of the meeting with Mrs. Dan Clark, and Mrs. T. Coleman serving as hostesses. Transportation chairman for the next meeting, Feb. 25, will be Mrs. Joe Nyhoff.

St. Teresa Study Guild Plans Program Series

Approximately 20 women attended a "Tour of the Church" sponsored by St. Teresa's Study Guild of Grace Church Monday night.

Mrs. Merrill Miner, president, welcomed the group and explained to the guests some of the guild's functions and plans for the coming year.

The tour led by the Rev. William C. Warner took the group from the baptismal font to the altar. He explained the symbols of the church including the use of color and church layout. A question and answer period followed concluding with an interesting discussion of various church customs.

A social hour followed in the parish hall. Refreshments were served by the guild. Mrs. Ralph Oldenburger poured.

The tour is the first in a series of educational and entertaining programs planned by the group for the year. The standing committee for program planning is in charge of Mrs. Milton Johnston, assisted by Mrs. Oldenburger and Mrs. Julius Faber. Next event scheduled is a get-acquainted fun night on Feb. 11 in the parish hall.

Hope Faculty Dames Hear of Experiences

The Hope College Faculty Dames held their monthly meeting Tuesday night in the college Koffee Kietz. Mrs. Rein Vischer opened the meeting with devotions. A short business meeting was held, with president, Mrs. E. Brand, presiding.

Miss Emma Reverts entertained the group with colored slides of her trip to Europe with the Sherwood Eddy Seminar group last summer. Of special interest to the group was her comments on the experiences they had met, among which was a tea given for the Seminar group at the House of Commons, a short trip into East Germany, and a meeting with President Tito.

Hostesses at the meeting were Mrs. G. Van Zyl, Mrs. D. Brown, Mrs. C. Kleis, and Mrs. W. Moordyk.

5th Petition Secured

D. Fred Zeerip, 54 West Ninth St., today became the fifth person to secure a petition for nomination as a candidate for councilman from the first ward. Petitions in the ward have already been obtained by Ernest Phillips, Lawrence May, Eugene Batema and Mrs. Hester L. Gronberg.

Holland Reserves Stop Kalamazoo For Seventh Win

KALAMAZOO (Special)—Breaking the road jinx, the Holland High reserve basketball team defeated Kalamazoo Central's seconds, 44-35 Tuesday night in Western Michigan College gym for its seventh win in nine attempts. The two Holland losses were received at Muskegon Heights and St. Joseph.

The talented Dutch, who have developed steadily with each game, jumped out to an early lead and made positive their intentions in the opening minutes. Holland managed to double the score in the first eight minutes and led 20-10 at the first period's close.

Although outscored by a basket in the second quarter, Holland was never in any danger and held a 27-19 halftime margin. This advantage was pushed to 10 points again at the windup of the third period as the score favored Holland 38-28.

Ball control and alert passing followed by some good shooting told Holland's offensive story. Off just a bit on their driving, the Dutch missed several layups but were able to get most of the rebounds off both boards.

Again, as has been the story in their other victories, Coach Bob Connell received balanced scoring from his club. He was able to use his entire 14-man squad against the Maroon Giants.

Hubby Harrington jumped into the front in the scoring with 12 points, the first time he has had top honors this season. Ron Dorgelo followed with nine and Dave Wehrmeyer added eight.

Jim Overbeek and Jim Van Patten each had four; Ted Walters popped three and Jack Hulst and Bob Chambers each added two. Skivington pumped 13 for Kalamazoo.

The road win was important to Connell since Holland must play five of its six games away from home. Connell feels that an impressive win on the road will bolster the team in later games.

Nursery School Semester Begins

The second semester of the Cherry Lane Cooperative Nursery School begins Friday, On Monday, Feb. 4, at 8 p.m. at the Nursery school an orientation meeting will be held for all new mothers. All mother of children who are being enrolled for the first time must attend.

During the orientation meeting a work session will be held at the nursery school. Fathers as well as mothers are requested to attend as this gives them a chance to acquaint themselves with the preschooler's surroundings and also gives dads an opportunity to participate in the nursery school. At this meeting broken toys will be mended, some new blocks will be decorated and a few toys will be made out of wooden boxes.

At a recent parent's meeting held at the Nursery school Miss Anita Samonte, speech correctionist, gave an interesting and informative talk and answered many questions. At least one parent of every child is expected to attend these parent's meetings which are held once every two months.

Business at the last meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Stuart Padnos, included the naming of a new vice president and treasurer, who were unable to continue in that capacity. The new vice president is Mrs. Paul Klomparsen and the treasurer, Frank Johnson. They will serve until the end of the semester in June.

There are just a few openings for new children in the nursery school. If anyone is interested in joining they should call Mrs. Ransom Everett, membership chairman, at 7322.

The nursery school is located on the "Y" at 16th and 17th Sts.

boards with 65" center Bob Brown leading helped achieve most of the baskets. Ball shooting was another big factor in Kalamazoo's control of the offensive play.

A 16-point surge which brought them from a 4-2 deficit to a 16-6 margin in the first few minutes of the game pretty well set the pattern. For the winners it was their best quarter of the game, as they hit nine out of 15 shots, including six in a row. All five of the Kalamazoo lads had scored in the first four minutes of the game and Jack Butler, who was a reserve in the game here, hit seven in the 14-point rally. The first quarter ended 20-11.

Tom Aye, Holland center, who had the best night of his prep career, sank four straight baskets in the second quarter to pull the Dutch within eight points, 28-20, at the five-minute mark. But the Maroon Giants scored 12 points to Holland's five and left the floor at intermission with a 40-25 advantage.

Dave (Slim) Hilbink, Holland's workhorse, was a one-man show on the Dutch side of the ledger in the third quarter with eight of the 10 points scored. He picked up a pair of buckets and four straight free shots. Aye, whose jumping was better this game than any other, added a tipin.

Meanwhile Holland was falling farther behind as Larry Brownell, the game's high point man with 20, shifted into gear. He picked up eight of the Giants' 20 as the quarter ended 60-35.

With substitutes playing a large portion of the fourth quarter, Kalamazoo continued to mount the score. Brownell added eight more before he sat down midway in the period.

Kalamazoo fell two points short of its season's high mark of 80 made last Friday against Jackson. The win was the Giants' ninth straight and showed why Central is the state's third ranked team. The loss was Holland's eighth in nine tries.

Hilbink paced Holland with 19 points, including nine charity tosses out of 12 attempts. He made three, missed three and then sank six. But team free shot honors went to Central. The Giants made eight out of 12 and the Dutch 11 out of 22. From the floor, Holland ended with 17 baskets in 54 attempts for 31 percent.

Holland plays its final home game of the season Friday night against Muskegon at Civic Center.

Jaycee Auxiliary Benefit Adds $825 to Polio Fund

While enjoying an "Evening in Paris" Saturday night, Holland residents contributed $825 to the polio fund. Typical Parisian atmosphere with park benches, lamp posts, checkered tablecloths and candles, provided the setting for the 250 persons attending the dance in the Tulip Room of the Warm Friend Tavern.

During the evening a floor show was presented by members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, husbands of the sponsoring Jaycee Auxiliary. Don Scholten acted as master of ceremonies. Al Dyk created a stir with his pantomime of Elvis Presley. A Jaycee chorus line with old fashioned bathing suits made a hit with fancy capers. Men in the line included Jack Ewart, Ed Boer, Art Schwartz, Don Gierest, J. C. Pelter and George Slikkers. Chita and Harry Van Pelt sang several selections.

An additional fund raiser for the evening was a photo taking project with life-sized cutouts of a French policeman and a can-can dancer.

General chairmen for the successful venture were Mrs. George Slikkers and Mrs. Don Scholten.

DR. JOHN E. TIRRELL, dean of Grand Rapids Junior College, was named one of the outstanding young men in Michigan during 1956, by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. A native of Holland, Tirrell graduated from Holland High School and Hope College. Guy Vander Jagt of Cadillac, also a Hope graduate, was another included in the Jaycee list.

Dutch Can't Hold Champs' Offense In Bowling, 84-48

All the dikes the Dutch had couldn't hold back the flood of points which reached new heights for Michigan's defending Class A champions Friday night at Civic Center.

Muskegon Heights rolled on to its 15th straight victory and eighth of the season with a 84-48 dunking of Holland before 1,850 fans, Holland's biggest crowd of the season.

It was the highest score compiled by the Tigers in their march to what appears to be a second straight state silver cup.

Despite their big output, it was obvious that the Heights were looking forward to the invasion of Benton Harbor next Friday night. The southern Tigers were the last team to top their northern counterparts.

Herky-jerky Ed Burton was again the show. The 6'6" all-state center ambled up and down the court, not chasing the ball but waiting for the ball to come close enough to grab. Once he got it, the big boy really left the ground.

This method was effective as he broke up several Holland offense and managed to deposit 26 points.

Even though he didn't work particularly hard, he was still the most productive man on the floor.

Holland was in the game for all of the first period but four points in the closing seconds by Willie McCarty, the Tigers leading scorer in the first half, gave the winners a 16-10 advantage.

Muskegon Heights had its worst quarter of the season in the second period, hitting only three baskets, but were aided by eight free throws. They were saved from disgrace by an even colder Holland team which picked up three buckets and a lone free toss with the result a 30-17 halftime difference.

Both teams came close to doubling their first half totals in the final 16 minutes. For the Heights it meant 54 points while the Dutch collected 31.

The Tigers made 31 out of 92 shots in the game for 35 percent and Holland had 19 baskets in 59 attempts for 34 percent.

Dave (Slim) Hilbink led Holland's second half with 11 points giving him a total of 17, to be tops for everybody but Burton. Hilbink made seven straight free shots before missing two.

Kennedy Howell, playing his final game because of February graduation, was the second man for the Tigers. He pumped 16, including five baskets in the second half. Howell, helped by his teammates' passes was the playmaker and will be missed. Ogie McCarty, who had four baskets in the fourth period, will assume Howell's spot.

Les Overway tied Hilbink with five baskets and sank three free shots to finish second with 13 points. Gene Boerman, playing his first game of the semester since becoming eligible, scored four points and was the Dutch playmaker.

The loss was Holland's seventh in eight games. The Dutch travel to Kalamazoo Tuesday night to meet unbeaten Kalamazoo Central at Western Michigan College gym. The Maroon Giants, who edged Holland by four points here, defeated Jackson Friday, 80-46.

Three Grand Haven Men in Mayor Race

GRAND HAVEN (Special) —

Grand Haven voters will have the choice of three candidates for mayor this year. Candidates are

Dr. William Creason, local dentist and present member of council;

Karel Feenstra, former school teacher, and LeRoy Cox, employed at Bastion Blessing. A fourth contender, Jacob Toxopeus, who filed for mayor Saturday morning, withdrew from the race today. He had retired from Council a year ago after serving two terms.

Mayor Claude VerDuin had announced early in December that he was retiring from Council after serving nine years, five of them as mayor. He will devote full time to his post as secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

Candidates for the two openings for councilmen are incumbent Howard Zuidema, Kenneth Bigler, Lawrence Gardner and Joseph H. Swartz. Candidates for the Board of Public Works are incumbent Hugh P. Mulligan, Al Schuler, A. J. Wessel and Steve Vozar.

Maroon Seconds Lose Third Game

ST. JOSEPH (Special) — St. Joe's Little Bears rallied in the second half here Friday night to defeat the Holland Christian reserve squad, 62-40. The loss was Christian's third against nine wins so far this season.

The final score does not indicate the closeness of the contest however, as the locals were right on the heels of the winners, until the fourth period got underway. Some terrific outcourt shooting and a good fast break spelled the difference in the final stanza.

St. Joe led 17-14 at the end of the first period, but couldn't increase the margin to hold a 27-25 halftime margin. In the third quarter, the winners increased their margin in the later stages to 43-33. The final quarter was the Bears as they outscored the locals 19-7.

Jim Hulst led the locals with 19 points, followed by Vern Wedeven with eight, Jack Bouwman, Ron Windemuller, Arlyn Lanting with four each and Bob Kapenga with one. Erickson led the Bears with 16.

Virginia Dreyer Feted On Her 14th Birthday

A surprise birthday party honoring Virginia Dreyer was held Friday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dreyer 463 Gordon St. The occasion marked her 14th birthday anniversary. Mrs. Dreyer was assisted by Mrs. Willard Hook. Games were played with prizes going to Jan De Jonge and John Dreyer. A two course lunch was served.

Attending were Sharon Van Nul, Sharon Zuidema, Jane Rietveld, Carol Kragt, Lois Hoek, David Weller, James Weller, Lambert De Vries, Craig Baker, Jan De Jonge, Wayne Van Nul, Don Romeyn, John Dreyer Jr., and the guest of honor, Rochelle De Vries was unable to attend.

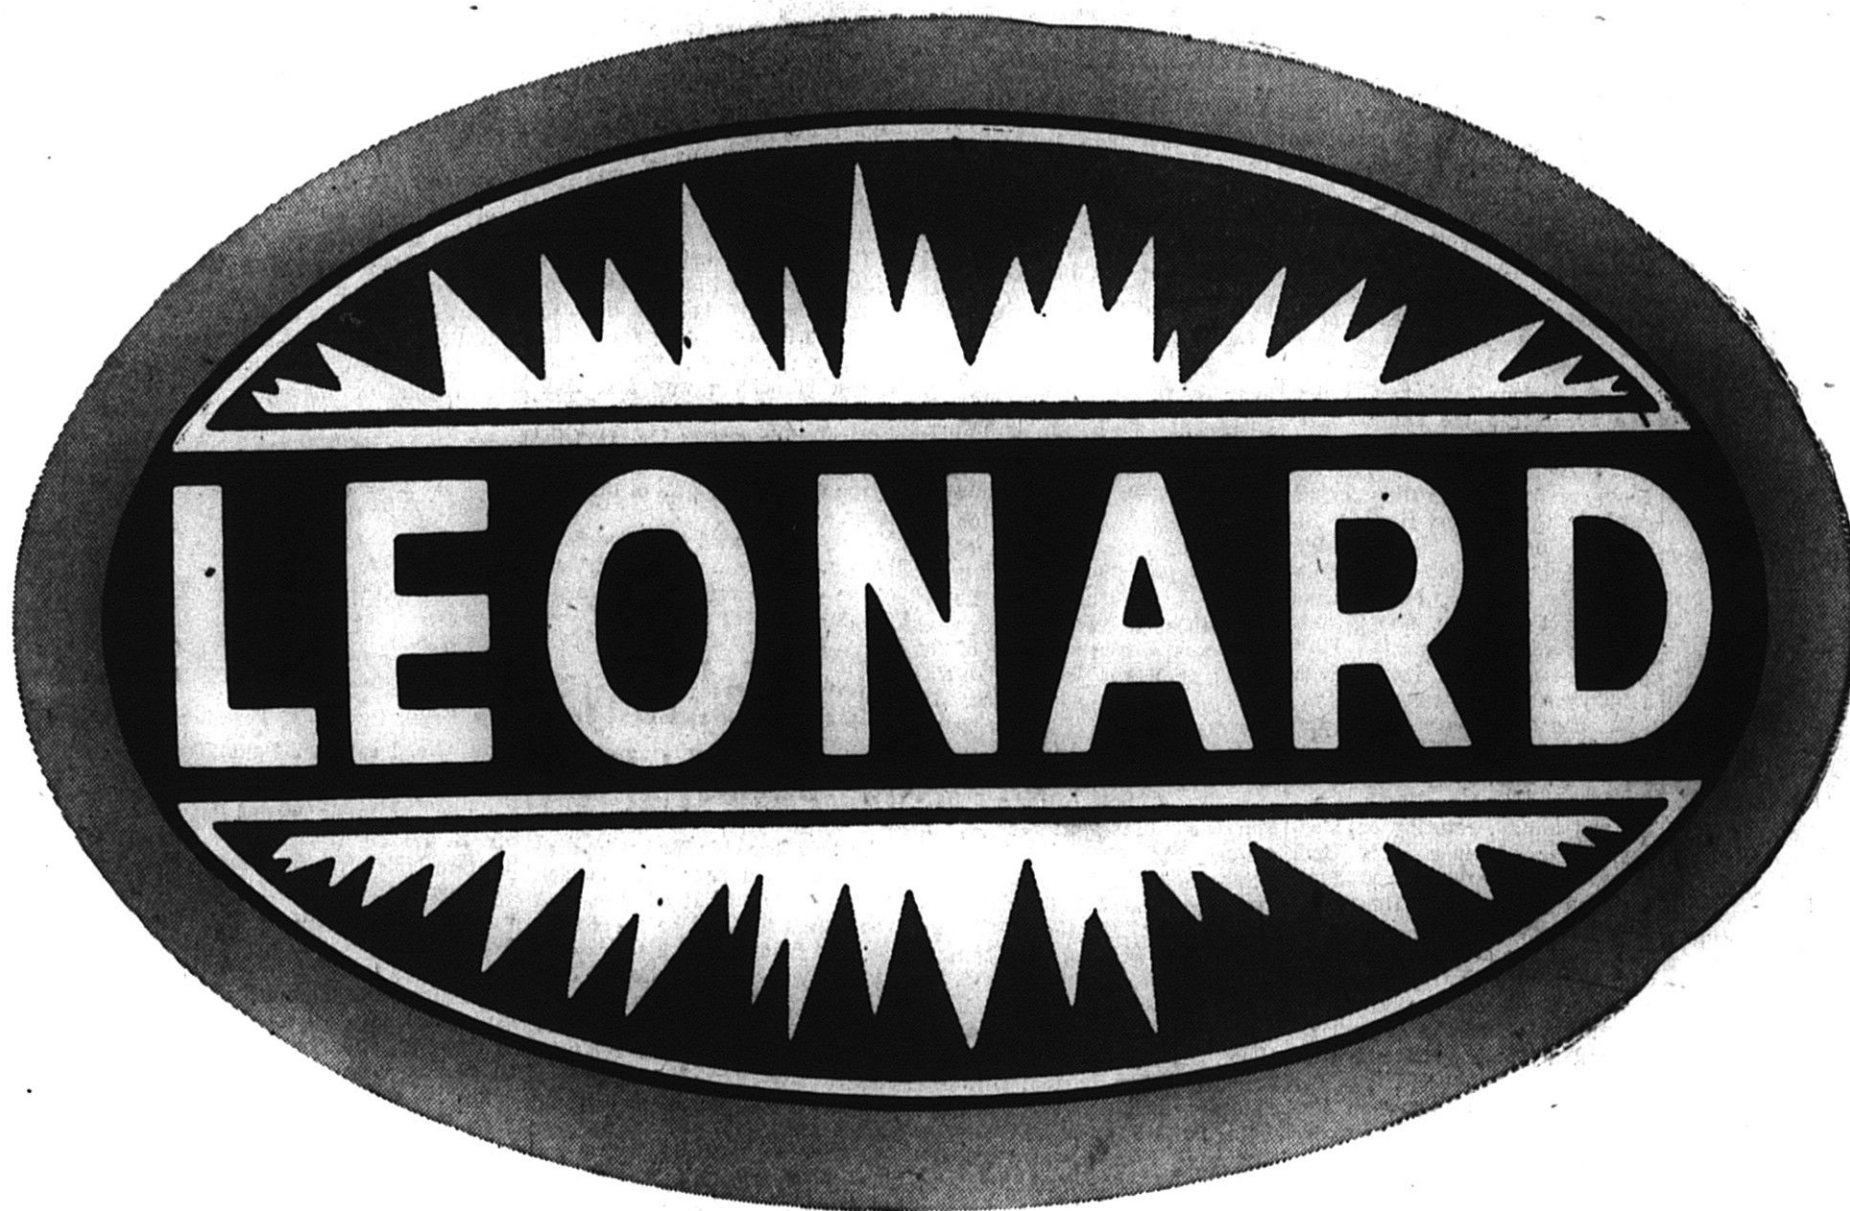

Vande Weide Quintet Hands Morse Setback

GRAND RAPIDS (Special) — Vander Weide's Plumbing of Grand Rapids stayed right at the top of the heap in West Michigan League basketball play Saturday with a 71-50 win over H. E. Morse of Holland.

The Morsemen, who have lost five games in six tries, lacked reserve strength and after a tight 16-13 first quarter the winners began to pull away. The halftime score was 36-20 and the third period mark, 65-37.

Carl Edewaards led Morse with 13 and Mulder, Nykamp and Bekius each had eight. Morrissey, former MSU player, added five. Hal Stacy, formerly of Western paced the winners with 14 and Bob Hendrickson, ex-Hope star, and Hicks popped 12. Morse meets Flynn's Soup'er Burgers next Saturday in Plainwell at 8:15 p.m.
