REPORT.

---

THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS respectfully presents to the General Synod the following Report, being the Thirtieth Annual Report, and the Fifth of Separate Action:

I. HOME DEPARTMENT.

1. OFFICERS OF THE BOARD.

In common with many other Christian institutions we mourn the death of the President of the Board, Hon. Théodore Frelinghuysen. Among the many high examples he set the Church, he gave clear and full proof of his interest in the great work of saving a lost world. We trust that his many prayers for our Missions will be graciously answered.

The office of Treasurer of the Board, temporarily held by Mr. E. A. Hayt, late Treasurer, was filled in October last by the election of Mr. J. W. Baker, whose labors have been of great value to the cause.

2. PERIODICALS AND AGENCIES.

The MISSIONARY RECORDER has been circulated as usual. The rich and full letters from our Missionary brethren, and the gleanings from all fields, have proved so interesting and useful that the hope of the Board is that the Paper may be still more widely diffused. An arrangement has been made with the Board of Publication by which the cost of the paper has been very greatly reduced. A slight effort in the Churches would render it quite self-sustaining.

Rev. Jared W. Scudder, M.D., has been employed in preaching for the Board during a part of the past year. Otherwise there have been no services besides those of the Corresponding Secretary.

3. FUNDS.

To most of the friends of our work, few points will prove so interesting as this, which relates to the supply of means for the work before us. Certainly none will be approached with greater timidity.

The receipts of the Board comprise a variety of unusual items, some of which we have not been able to introduce distinctly among the monies bestowed upon our work. What is presented elsewhere in connection with the Japan Mission will better explain what we mean.

A somewhat larger amount than usual has been received from legacies, though we may look for increase from this source in view of the separate position and corporate existence of the Board.

The sums contributed abroad are most cheering, not merely in view of the wants of the Board, but as proofs of the value of the work we are doing, and the high esteem in which our Missionaries are held by those who know them best.

Special mention must be made of the liberal offer of the London Missionary Society. Permission was given to draw upon their Treasurer for £200 sterling, to defray the expenses of Rev. J. W. Scudder's return to India, with the offer of additional £200 to sustain him in his field of labor. Inasmuch as the means for Dr. Scudder's return to India had been already provided, the first proposal was declined; the second offer remains. It is to be decided by the contributions received whether the Churches will conduct their Missionary operations at the expense of another Society. The generosity of the Directors of the London Society needs no comment, and is beyond our praise.

The receipts which the Board is able to report amount to $30,403 17, being $3,756 09 less than last year.

The Treasurer's report shows a nominal balance of $3,044 69. This sum has been entirely swept away by the demands of the first few weeks of the opening year. The Board is indebted to the Snydam Security Fund $927, to Rev. E. Doty $600—in all, $1,527.

Besides this comparatively small sum there is every prospect of increased liabilities, owing to expenses in the Mission fields. The estimates which have been furnished the Missions for 1862 are very considerably in advance of the outlay during the financial year just closed. The proposed line of expenditure for 1863 is still farther in advance of last year.

It is not practicable to continue rigid economy to the extent pursued during the year past. Retrenchment is necessarily a temporary expedient. The Board sees no reason to hope that the expenses of the Missionary work can be restricted within $35,000 for the year upon which we have entered. Even this sum is the estimate, apparently too low, which the Synod set at its last session for the year just closed.

II. SURVEY OF THE MISSIONS.

1. ARCOT MISSION, IN SOUTHERN INDIA.

The Missionaries and Stations are as follows :

Coonoor.—Rev. H. M. Scudder, M.D., D.D., and wife.

Vellore.—Rev. W. W. Scudder and wife.

Chittoor.—Rev. E. C. Scudder and wife.

Gingee.—Rev. J. Mayou and wife.

Palamanaïr.—Rev. J. Chamberlain, Jr., and wife.

Arnee.—S. D. Scudder, M.D., and wife.

Arcot.—Rev. A. Sawyer, Native Pastor.

Rev. John Scudder, M.D., and wife, not stationed.

Rev. J. W. Scudder, M.D., and wife, en route on their return to India.

Rev. Jos. Scudder and wife in this country.

During the past year Miss Louisa Scudder, having married in India, closed her connection with the Board.

Rev. Joseph Scudder has engaged as a Chaplain in the army of the United States. The circumstances of health under which he undertook this trying service give additional honor to his desire to relieve the Board from all expense in connection with him.

Rev. Jared W. Scudder, M.D., and family, sailed from Boston for Madras in the ship Star of Peace, May 26th.

In the absence of the annual report of the Mission, the Board can not present so full an account of the various stations connected with this Mission as is desirable. The statistics reported by the Classis of Arcot to the Particular Synod of New York are presented in this connection.

COONOR.

Rev. H. M. Scudder, M.D., D.D., Missionary.

Mrs. Scudder, Assistant

Native Helpers—two; one school.

The Church at Coonor has been happily delivered from some dissensions which had arisen whilst the Station was vacant.

Dr. Scudder reports a remarkable revival of religion in a British regiment near his Station. The labors of the Missionary among these and other Europeans have been greatly blessed.

VELLORE.

Rev. W. W. Scudder, Missionary.

Mrs. Scudder, Assistant

Native Helpers—two; two schools.

Some manifestations of interest have been seen at this Station, and a few souls added to the Church. This city may be regarded as the central point of the Mission. It has been well sustained in the various operations requiring the attention and labors of the Missionary.

CHITTOOR.

Rev. E. C. Scudder, Missionary.

Mrs. Scudder, Assistant

Native Helpers—three; one school.

The Church at this Station is the largest in connection with the Mission. The various Schools and other native agencies have been managed with the usual care.

GINGEE.

Rev. Joseph Mayou, Missionary.

Mrs. Mayou, Assistant

Native Helper—one; one school.

This is a new Station in the District of South Arcot. It has just been occupied by the Missionary, Mr. Mayou. It is an important point in the midst of a hopeful field of labor. A desirable house has been procured for a Missionary residence. It will, of course, be necessary to make some outlay of funds to procure a school and a catechist.

PALAMANAIR.

Rev. Jacob Chamberlain, Jr., Missionary.

Mrs. Chamberlain, Assistant “

One Native Helper.

A Church building, of sufficient capacity, has been erected and dedicated during the past year. The effect of having a suitable place for public worship has been to attract many heathen to the Sabbath services.

ARNEE.

Silas D. Scudder, M. D., Medical Missionary.

Mrs. Scudder, Assistant “

Native Helper—one; one school.

The interests of this Station have been greatly benefitted by the purchase of a school house and preaching place in a central location. The openings for religious instruction have been much greater than before. Two out-stations at Sathanbady and Nungatoor, have been occupied, or will be occupied by schools and resident native catechists. In no portion of the field can we look for so large and immediate results. The Station at Gingee is a fruit of efforts put forth by the Missionary at Arnee.

The large number of Roman Catholic Hindus found in the region south of Arnee, opens a field for labor of peculiar interest. It is computed that one million of Hindus are of this faith. They are chiefly found in the southern portion of the peninsula, where the seats of the Roman Catholic missionary efforts were located. Whilst this class of people differ very little from the heathen, they have still a release from some hindrances to the entrance of the truth which exist among the latter. Very little comparatively has been done for them. May it not be that from them a band of faithful Christian laborers may be raised up, who shall show the grace of the Gospel to their countrymen, pagans as well as papists? The Board commends this portion of the field to the warmest interest of the Synod and the Churches.

ARCOT.

The labors of the native pastor, Rev. Andrew Sawyer, have been blessed during the past year in a remarkable degree. It will be seen that the additions to the Church have been unusually large. The Pastor has been encouraged, and assisted very considerably in h work by a number of pious Hindu soldiers, in a regiment of Sepoys stationed near him.

During the past year the Church building has been greatly improved in its convenience and facilities.

One native helper labors at Arcot, and there is one school.

SEMINARIES.

The Arcot Seminary continues its hopeful work. Several of the pupils have been admitted to the communion of the Church. The Mission appeals most earnestly for means to enlarge this institution, so that a sufficient supply of teachers and catechists may be obtained. It is not easy to procure them elsewhere; whilst we prefer, on every account, to train our own assistants. Efforts have been made, with considerable success, to interest the Sabbath schools in this institution. A very considerable enlargement is needed.

The Chittoor Female Seminary appeals to us for similar aid, and for like considerations.

These institutions require a liberal support, which the Board trusts will not be withholden.

ITINERATING.

During the past year the members of the Mission have accomplished more than heretofore in touring. Thousands upon thousands have thus, for the first time, heard of Jesus and his salvation. Sowing the seed thus broadcast upon the plains and amid the jungles, we may hardly expect to learn all the effects of such labors. Never have the brethren of the Arcot Mission been permitted to rejoice in so large and interested audiences, or with the prospect of so much good being done.

The general prospects of this Mission are far more hopeful than ever before. The field we occupy has been enlarged. We have opportunities to work for Christ and for India such as we never enjoyed before. Shall we have the means of so doing?

The Native Churches have made gratifying developments in the Christian graces, as well as increased in numbers. The remarkable donation of $800 to procure the return of Rev. J. W. Scudder, M.D., is one of the most signal manifestations of Christian benevolence on record. The poverty of these Hindus, obliging them to restrict themselves in their daily food in order to contribute to this object, sets their Christian zeal in most beautiful light. May we all learn from them to deny ourselves for the advancement of the Master's cause.

2. THE AMOY MISSION, CHINA.

Missionaries (connected with this Mission during the whole or part of the past year)—Rev. E. Doty, J. V. N. Talmage, A. Ostrom, D. Rapalje and L. W. Kip, Jr.

Assistant Missionaries—Mrs. Talmage and Mrs. Ostrom.

Death has been permitted to do a sad work. Mrs. Talmage died Feb. 10th, 1862. As the wife of a Missionary, and as a personal laborer, her memory is truly blessed. In every respect her loss is a sore one. A year ago the Board suggested to Mr. and Mrs. Talmage the advisableness of visiting the United States. It is manifestly expedient that those who are subjected to the exhausting climate of India or Southern China should, at the end of ten years at farthest, spend one year in a more bracing climate. This amount of relaxation and opportunity to recuperate will not compare unfavorably with the time allowed to Pastors in our less exhausting climate. But the pressing nature of the work, a desire to postpone their visit till our country should gain a more settled condition, together with a reluctance to subject the Board to the expense of their return, led them to remain for another year.

Rev. E. Doty and L. W. Kip, Jr., whose sailing June 1st, 1861, was noticed in the last Report, arrived at Amoy Sept. 10th.

Rev. D. Rapalje, under the demands of physical prostration, spent the time from July 9th to Nov. 22d in visiting the northern ports of China, which had recently been opened to trade and to Missionary efforts. The change of climate proved most beneficial.

No intelligence having been had from the ship in which Rev. John E. Watkins and wife took passage, August 1, 1860, we have long since settled in the conviction that we shall hear from them no more.

We feel bound, in Christian love, to put on record our high appreciation of the Christian zeal and Missionary consecration of these lamented servants of Christ. Their work has been cut short, suddenly and mysteriously. They have thus early entered into the reward and rest prepared by their Saviour who called them to this peculiar service.

The Medical Mission, under the care of Dr. Carnegie, a part of the expense of which was borne by this Board, has been discontinued by the English Presbyterian Missionary Society, from which Dr. Carnegie received his appointment.

The Stations and Churches of the Mission may be thus presented :

CHURCHES AND STATIONS.	Elders.		Deacons.		Native Helpers sustained by the Mission.		Church Members, Jan. 1, 1862.		Received during 1861.		Died.		Excommunicated.		Church Members, Jan. 1, 1862. A Helper is also employed conjointly with the English Presbyterian Mission.

Schools.—At Amoy, one school is sustained chiefly by the native Churches; as also one-half of the expenses of the school for girls. There is one school at Chioh-be, partly sustained by the Church at that place.

But these statistics do not present the eventful and delightful history of the Mission during the past year. The Board asks attention to several considerations, all of them inspiring, whilst they call for profound gratitude to the gracious Lord whose work we seek to do.

The additions to the Churches are considerably larger than in the previous year; yet the Mission speaks of an abatement in the interest manifested. The facts before us show conclusively that we have abundant reasons for thanksgiving and for hope; but the earnest prayers of the Churches are imperatively needed. The additions to the Churches under our care amount to forty-two souls; the whole number of communicants is 262.

The Missionary zeal and benevolence of the Churches have been fully sustained. This is true even when we remember that Christian graces are not sustained without growth.

To these native Christians are we indebted for the favorable opening at Chiang-chiu, a large city of several hundreds of thousands of inhabitants, some thirty-five miles from Amoy. This city is the capital of a department, and the center of much influence upon the surrounding country. It will be remembered that an attempt was formerly made to introduce the Gospel there, but without success. A violent opposition was aroused, and in one instance a colporteur lost his life. But a series of unexpected providential mercies has given a place to preach the Gospel, and enabled the converts and others interested in the truth to assemble in peace.

Already have we heard of ten persons, females as well as males, admitted to the Lord's Table. The indications are most hopeful. It is one of the noblest trophies won by native Christian effort. The benevolent contributions of the Chinese Churches amount to $671 62. These Churches support three Colporteurs in labors among the heathen. The First Church of Amoy has supported a place for preaching in a part of the city distant from their place of worship. The Second Church contemplates a similar enterprise. From these developments of Christian benevolence and the true Missionary spirit, a correct impression may be gained in regard to the spiritual condition of these interesting Churches.

The most signal advance made by these Churches at Amoy is seen in their having made choice of Pastors, who are soon to be ordained to the full work of the ministry, and set over the Churches which have chosen them. The whole process of election showed a desire to follow the Divine pleasure, a sense of responsibility in taking so important a step, and a general Christian intelligence, which has even surpassed our high expectations based upon the profound Christian character of these converts. We see in this result the first fruits of fully established Christian institutions in China. Our work is in hope of having the land filled with Churches having native Pastors sustained by the people themselves.

With this blessed result the Board sees the necessity of some more developed system of church government in China. The Mission has corresponded, with some degree of fullness, on this subject. We believe that the brethren of the Mission have a growing sense of the need of a Classis. Questions connected with the application of the Constitution of our Church to foreign lands have already received the attention of the General Synod. What the Synod may or may not do in the matter is left, of course, to that body to decide. The Board has carefully sought to have all the acts of the Synod and the wishes of the Church on the subject carried out. Since there are now three well established Churches connected with our Mission, the happy time for forming a Classis has come, if the Missionaries become members of such a body.

The Mission has procured a boat for its use, which proves invaluable in prosecuting the work. The need of this assistance becomes greater since the opening of Chiang-chia to the Gospel.

In their work our Missionaries sustain relations of very remarkable intimacy and coöperation with the Missionaries of the English Presbyterian Missionary Society. That Society employs two Missionaries; nine Native Helpers; has three Churches at points more or less distant from Amoy, containing ninety-three members, of whom thirty-two have been received during the last year.

The London Missionary Society has an organized Church at Amoy; three out-stations, one of them at Ching-chiu. Their Church members number 255, of whom thirty-four were received during the past year.

These additional facts show all that has been attempted for the great region, swarming with millions of people, of which Amoy is the principal sea-port. They show how fully the Lord blesses the labors of all those who preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Ten millions of heathen, among whom our feeble labors have been marvelously blessed, ask that we give them the truth that they may be saved.

3. THE JAPAN MISSION.

Missionaries.—Rev. S. R. Brown, G. F. Verbeck, J. H. Ballagh.

Assistant Missionaries.—Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Verbeck, Mrs. Ballagh, Miss Julia M. Brown.

KANAGAWA STATION.

Rev. S. R. Brown and family, Rev. J. H. Ballagh and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ballagh reached their destination Nov. 11, 1861.

The history of this Mission can hardly be expected to afford many striking cases of Missionary success. The time for the real contest between the Gospel and the Japanese heart has not yet come. But we are permitted to rejoice that the important preliminary work has been so favorably begun. The Mission, in the person of its members, has found favor in the estimation of those whose good opinion is a most cheering sign for the future.

The expense of publishing a work prepared by Mr. Brown, bringing the Japanese more readily within the reach of those speaking English, has been borne by the voluntary gift of a British merchant. To this may be added, that another merchant, of the Jewish faith, gave special facilities for visiting Shanghai, to superintend the passage of the work through the press. The attendants upon the Sabbath and other services conducted by Mr. Brown, have manifested their appreciation by tokens of personal regard most valuable, and important in the future working of the Mission. The Board is thereby relieved from the expense of procuring a residence for Mr. Brown's family. The late U. S. Minister to Japan has given $1,000 towards building the Chapel, for which the same amount was contributed last year by Christians of the Sandwich Islands. Such a cluster of gifts fills us with wonder as well as gladness.

Nor have the labors of our Missionaries at this Station been without good spiritual results. Repeated cases of hopeful conversion have added to hope, before originated by like cause, that Japan will become the scene of the Holy Spirit's saving power.

It will doubtless be necessary, before the close of the present year, for the Mission families to remove from Kanagawa to Yokohama, on the other side of the bay. This step does not seem desirable in view of the advantages of being removed from the center of trade, and from the tendencies of all such centers in heathen lands to combine the worst types of foreign and native population.

But there seems little hope of resisting the pressure of the Japanese Government. Though Kanagawa is secured by treaty, as a residence for Americans, the right to live there will be worth very little to the Missionaries if the Government cuts them off from intercourse with the people. It will be necessary for the Missionaries to follow the other foreigners. The Lord's hand may thus be leading us to some results precious in His sight, but which are not yet manifest to us.

NAGASAKI STATION.

Rev. Mr. Verbeck and family.

The course of our brother Verbeck's labor has been one of quiet, yet most useful character. It will be remembered that Mr. Verbeck had heretofore distributed a large number of books, chiefly by sale, and those of a scientific character. He has begun to limit his distributions so as to include only publications of a more decidedly religious character. It will be seen that whilst the aggregate volumes disposed of is less than last year, an important service has been rendered by circulating so much religious truth. It is gratifying to find that the Japanese have in many cases received the Scriptures without fear, and no ill consequences have resulted to givers or receivers. So contrary has this been to the expectations of some of the most earnest and intelligent friends of the Missions, that it deserves notice as worthy of special gratitude.

Mr. Verbeck has been chiefly engaged in the preparation of his Grammar. Our hopes in regard to the value of his forthcoming work are increased by all that we learn of the spirit and the ability which mark the progress of his labors upon it.

The following is a list of works distributed by Mr. Verbeck during the past year, with his own remarks upon the subject :

Works on Science, History, Geography, &c., mostly from the London Mission Press of Shanghai, 160 vols.

Religious Pamphlets and Tracts, 170.

Bibles in Chinese, 19.

Bibles in English, 2.

New Testaments in Chinese, 18.

New Testaments in English, 3.

Dr. Bettelheim's Japanese Translation of the Gospel of Luke, 6.

Our Board of Publication's Primers and First Readers, of each, 20.

The above books and Bibles are now in the hands of intelligent men, and such as are most likely to read them and take intelligent notice of the contents. Two officers, from different principalities, and at different times, assured me on receiving the Scriptures that they would present them to their respective Princes. Whether they were sincere in this or not, it would not be easy to decide ; but it shows, at all events, that these men attached considerable importance to the volumes. Nearly all who receive the Bible say that they will lend it to their friends to read.

DISTRIBUTION OF SCRIPTURES AND TRACTS.

The Bibles, Testaments and Tracts I have made it a rule to give away, instead of selling. One of the Bibles was given to a Buddhist Priest, who came to ask for it for a friend of his. Two Bibles were taken to Yeddo by an officer friend. The number of Bibles and religious books given is yet small; but it must be remembered that this is mainly the result of the last three months, and the demand on the increase. Moreover, up to this time I have only given to those that asked, and those who I had reason to think would be glad to accept. It is a beginning, and partly an experiment. Not long since an eminent English traveler stated it as his opinion that "the receiving a copy of the Holy Scriptures would entail certain death upon any Japanese." This, if it has not been disproved before, is disproved now certainly, and hereafter I shall not hesitate to offer and give the Scriptures whenever a fit opportunity is presented.

The progress of the work in Japan is thus happily set forth by Mr. Verbeck.

REVIEW OF THE YEAR.

We have by this time gained a firmer footing in the country, obtained the confidence of the people and authorities, as well as vindicated the peaceableness and disinterestedness of our aims by living among them; we have considerably enlarged the circle of our acquaintance, and consequently influence. Taking these and many other past favors of our God as a pledge for future and greater ones, we look with more courage than ever upon our field as a permanent and eventually successful one. But this is not all. A wider and more effectual opening of this hitherto so seclusive country has been indicated by many an event during the expired twelvemonth. Among others, the permission given by the Government to the natives to trade to foreign ports, for which purpose foreign vessels have been purchased already, and the contemplated embassy to several European courts, will, no doubt, contribute to the liberalization of the minds of this people and Government. The opening process is a slow one, but none the less a sure one, and to judge from present appearances, it seems clearly evident that the prejudices and exclusiveness of the Japanese must ere long vanish before foreign influence, like "darkness before the rising sun." And then, may we not confidently trust that such a change will usher in not only a day of commercial prosperity, scientific progress and civil development, but also a day of the Lord, radiant with His marvelous light? Shall this people receive perishing things, many of which are evil, at the hand of foreigners, and shall they not receive that which is good above all things

CONCLUSION.

In each of the Missions we see special reasons for gratitude as we lay this Report before the General Synod.

In Japan we have received unlooked for and invaluable aid from foreign residents. The aggregate of their gifts equals all that we have expended upon the Mission during the past year. Each of the objects which have been advanced by this assistance had received protracted attention from the Board, but they had been dismissed, with deep sorrow, as beyond the means placed at our disposal. The facts make their suggestions of gratitude to Him who has fulfilled His promise to be with us.

The developments in the China Mission are calculated to fill us with still more heartfelt thanks. The results are the bestowment of salvation upon scores of souls, the introduction of the Gospel, and the manifestation of its saving power where the blood of our brethren, persecuted and slain for the testimony of Jesus, is developing itself as the seed of the Church. Not only has the Christian family, with its precious blessings, entered where the desolations of heathenish superstitions had before reigned, but the local Churches are receiving their complete development, so far as they can stand alone. Churches formed of converts from heathenism are about to receive Pastors, in the persons of those from among themselves who were very lately also heathen, who are to be supported by those Churches. This picture makes its own appeal to our sympathy, and to our praise of Him who hath wrought so mightily in them that believe.

From India we receive the unlooked for manifestation of Christian zeal and self-denial which has made those Churches occupy so honorable a place among the thousands of Israel, whilst every part of the work has been encouraging to a degree never before seen in that field.

In calling attention to this combination of special mercies in all our Missions, we are led to bless the Lord for His goodness. In every respect He has disappointed our worst fears. Shall we suffer the work, thus graciously aided by Him, to fail, to lack our help?

It is quite needless to show the absolute ability of the Church to do all that is asked of her. But the great question of practical duty still needs to be answered.

Entreating for the Synod and the Churches the grace which enlightens the eyes and warms the heart, to know and delight in the Lord's service, the Board commends this whole subject with deep anxiety for the results of the present year.
