If my first administration as county School Commissioner meets with your approval, then I hope sincerely that you will accord me a second term.

Primaries, March 3

GOOD ROADS in the country are a most important factor in the enjoyment of rural life. The next best thing to a home is a good road by which to reach it. Although good roads are expensive to construct, they are of too much value to be neglected.

IN APRIL, NINETEEN ELEVEN, the county road system was adopted and 600,000 dollars and was placed in the hands of a county road commission to be spent in building roads.

WHY NOT elect a business man and practical good road enthusiast on the county road commission to aid in wisely spending the remainder of that bond issue to the best interests of all townships in the county?

"BUILD AS MANY MILES OF THE BEST TYPE OF ROAD THAT A COMMUNITY CAN AFFORD" is the policy of WILLIAM M. CONNELLY.

A VOTE FOR WILLIAM M. CONNELLY for the nomination as county road commissioner on the REPUBLICAN ticket at the Primary Election on MARCH 3 NINETEEN-FIFTEEN will be a vote for GOOD ROADS and a business-like administration expenditure and handling of the county's funds.

HOLLAND CITIZENS HEAVY CREDITORS

PERCY G. MAYHEW CO., WENT BANKRUPT FOR THOUSANDS

Attorney VanDuren Heaviest Holland Creditor

The Michigan Tradesman contains a large list of Holland Creditors who are reported in the bankruptcy proceedings held in Grand Rapids recently where claims are being filed. The first general meeting of all the creditors will be held on February 23. Of all the claims filed the one of Arthur Van Duren is the largest.

The schedules are not complete for the reason that information to make them so is not now available and the exact amount of assets and liability is in doubt. The following have been listed thus far as creditors of the estate:

Preferred—City taxes, $90.84; Water taxes, $19.43; Light and power rates, $45.53; Margaret Dalman, 12.29; Alce Beekman, 10.19; Dena Beltman, 6.50; Martha Soloth, 56.00; Geneva Lyons, 77.68; Emma De Haan, 48.00; Martha Kramer, 22.25; T. Smith, 85.20; Louis Witvliet, 27.00; all of Holland.

Shaw, Chicago, $317.00; Tyler Van Landegand, Holland, $300; Charles Bolt Co., Cincinnati, $75.93; G. Reis & Bros. New York, $19.51.

It will be remembered that Mr. Mayhew suddenly disappeared from Holland about four months ago and that it was alleged by a Trust Co., of Grand Rapids that securities belonging to the mother of Mr. Mayhew had disappeared from a safety deposit vault to which he had access. Mayhew was found two months after his disappearance by the Burns detective agency and was brought to Grand Rapids. On Christmas day his good mother who was in the East telegraphed to the authorities in Grand Rapids asking them to let her poor boy go and the matter was fixed up between the Trust Co., and the Mayhew family. The bankruptcy is the aftermath of the Mayhew episode.

The old home of the late H. D. Post

The above picture is the old homestead of H. D. Post one of Holland's pioneers and the city's first postmaster. This house was built in 1857 ten years after Doctor Van Raalte located on Black Lake with his band of settlers. The house was located on the site of the building what is now the Holland Interurban Waiting Station on West Eighth St., and the oxen for that was the only means of conveyance at that time, are standing on the north side of 8th street. The river and wood are also dimly visible. There was only one house in Holland North of the Post house and that was located East of the Fileman property on Seventh and River streets and was the home of Rev. Dr. Vander Wall. The builder of the Post residence was John Kramer father of Otto Kramer, and he had a young boy helper by the name of John R. Klein, father of Simon Klein of this city. This photo was taken from an old tin-type, kindly loaned the Holland City News by Mrs. C. S. Dutton, daughter of Mr. H. D. Post.

The picture was reproduced by Paul Coster of the Coster Photo Supply Company, who made a good job of it.

VERY LITTLE DOING AT HOLLAND HAS THREE COUNCIL MEETING MARKETS FOR FARMERS

HOLLANDER COMPLAINS THAT STREET IS BROKEN UP NEAR HIS HOME.

The meeting of the common council last evening was one of the quietest meetings held in some time and the amount of business brought up for consideration was small. Chairman Pro-Tem Congleton took the chair while Mayor Bosch occupied the alderman's position and business was transacted very quickly.

Alderman Prins reported that the sum of $93 had been expended for temporary aid during the past two weeks.

The gas tests for the past two weeks are as follows: Number, 35; highest, 625; lowest, 578; Average, 608.9; 6 were below 600.

A request from the Alpena News for a thorough description of the method of filtration used by the Holland municipal water plant was referred to Superintendent Champion.

A letter to the council written in Dutch script took all the Hollanders in the council to translate it. Finally Alderman Kammeraad explained that a resident of East Nineteenth Street was complaining because the street near his house was broken up and he was compelled to go through another man's yard to get into his house. He asked the council not to let such a thing happen again.

The following men were appointed as election inspectors in the different wards: 1st, M. A. Sooy; 2nd, John Cline; 3rd, Gerrit De Vries; 4th, Wm. Lawrence; 5th, 1st, Pre. John Luidens and Alex Van Zanten; 2nd Pre. Simon Bos and Jake Spranz.

The council will hold its next regular meeting two weeks from Friday instead of on Wednesday as primary comes on Wednesday.

NOW HAVE 4200 ACRES OF BEETS CONTRACTED FOR

The Holland-St. Louis Sugar Company reports that they have 4200 acres of sugar beets on their books. They wish to thank the farmers for the way that the contracts have come in in the last few days.

HOLLAND CANNING CO., MAKING LIBERAL CONTRACTS

They Are Also Signing Contracts For Berries Extending During Life Of Plant

The sugar factory and the pickle factory are not the only boom to the farmer in this vicinity. There is a third avenue where he can market his goods.

The Holland Canning Co., managed by William Vander Veen, located at the foot of Central Avenue on Fifth street are making liberal contracts for different produce that are raised by the farmers in this vicinity and it would pay the agriculturalist to call on the Holland Canning Co., and see what they have to offer.

The company is also fostering a new line and advice the farmers to plant berry bushes as a side line. There is money in berries for the farmer and the Holland Canning Co., guarantees to contract for all the berries extending for a time covering the life of the plant, making a liberal agreement for the berries so raised.

HOLLAND TOWN

The mild weather of the last few days has brought out the "First Robin Stories," but the prize story of them all was told today by Peter Klassen of Holland Township. Klassen came to the city today with a tale that has put all the others in the discard.

Klassen lives about a mile east of the city on Rural Route No. 2, and he is very sure that he has seen the very first robin of the season. He is so sure because is particular robin has not left the Klassen farm all winter. Last fall when all the other robins migrated to the south the Klassen robin grew an extra crop of feathers and decided to stick it out for the winter.

According to Klassen there has been a flock of sparrows on his farm all winter, and a robin and a black bird have attached themselves to the flock, having become members of it in full standing. Each day the flock of birds including the robin and the black bird, come to the Klassen home to pick up what food they can find. They have hardly missed a day so far this winter, and the robin and the black bird are always with the flock.

Klassen invited those who doubt story to come to his farm any day the week to see birds with their own eyes.

The quarantine has been lifted from the place of Peter Bareman just north of the Zeeland limits on the Borculo road, where quarantine had been enforced for the past several weeks on account of a disease developing among a herd of swine which had the appearance of hoof and mouth disease. After experiment for some time Dr. Throne, the federal inspector pronounced the disease as necrobacillosis, which is very similar to the above mentioned ailment. The inspector gave permission to have the remaining four of the hogs dispatched and the premises disinfected, which was promptly done.

NOTICE OF MEETING

To Whom It May Concern:

Be It Known, That on the eleventh day of January A. D., 1915, an application was filed with Henry Sierma, County Drain Commissioner of the County of Ottawa, for the cleaning out of a certain drain, which said drain was described in said application as follows, to-wit: As the Bazan Drain.

The said Drain needs cleaning out from a point at beginning of said Drain to a point where it terminates.

That such cleaning out is a necessity by reason of being filled in with sand, weeds, wood or brush and some alteration where it can be straightened and made wider; that said drain will traverse the township of Holland.

Be It Further Known, That on the 26th day of February A. D. 1915, a meeting of the township board of the township of Holland will be held at Jacob Skipper, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon for the purpose of determining whether or not the said proposed cleaning out drain is necessary and conducive to public health, convenience and welfare; that at such meeting all persons owning lands liable to assessments for benefits, or whose lands will be crossed by said drain may appear for or against said drain proceedings.

Given under my hand this 15th day of February A. D. 1915.

The Board of Police and Fire Commissioners have decided not to take out any accident insurance for the firemen and policemen as tentatively agreed on at a previous meeting. The cost of insurance for all the employees would amount to a considerable sum of money every year. This would guarantee the city under the employers liability act. However the commissioners decided that it would be cheaper for the city in the long run not to invest in insurance, but should any accidents occur to the men that the city pay the compensation. As the compensation is not paid all at one time, but in weekly installments, this would not burden the city to any great extent.

Henry Luidens, cashier of the 1st State Bank, is a man who is linked with a good many things that are truly American. The banking staff of the First State presented him Friday with a large bunch of American beauty roses, in honor of the fact that he is a half century old. Luidens' birthday for the past 50 years has been coming on Lincoln's birthday. Early in life he saw a good omen in having his birthday on the same day as the great emancipator. Therefore, 24 years ago he struck the newly organized First State bank for a job and started at the foot of the ladder in the banking business on the 22nd day of February, which is the birthday of the father of our country, the man who did it with his little hatchet. Today Mr. Luidens is cashier of the prosperous bank. Mr. Luidens has a brother-in-law, Nieman Smith, whose birthday also comes on the same day as Lincoln's.

EUROPEAN WAR WILL INCREASE THE NUMBER OF RESORTS AT MACATAWA THINKS PRES. SWAN A. MILLER

Macatawa Management Making Plans for Many Improvements At That Resort.

That the war in Europe will benefit the resorts all over the United States and that Macatawa Park will receive its share of the business is the opinion expressed by S. W. Miller, president of the Macatawa Park association. Those who can afford it will very likely flock to San Francisco, and in fact the travel west is already being felt by the railroads. However the men who must remain in touch with their business will flock to the smaller resorts with their families. Many improvements were made at Macatawa Park during the past season and with the opening of spring building on several new cottages will be commenced.

The Bay View hotel is now open and the Grand Hotel will very likely open up some time in May. Macatawa Hotel will open the latter part of June according to the present plans.

The bath house will very likely be improved and made larger. It is planned to build the sea wall out around the bath house and to build a basement in the bath house which will provide for some 100 more rooms for bathers.

Reduction No. 3 On Goodyear Tires

Making Total Reductions 45% in Two Years To Give Always the Most for the Money

We are glad again—for the third time in two years—to announce a big reduction on Goodyear tires, effective February 1st.

Goodyear policy on price is to give the utmost in a tire at the lowest possible profit. Our reductions are made to that end, without ever reducing the quality.

That always means, with our matchless output, more for the money than any other maker can give.

As rubber came down our prices came down. As our output multiplied, reducing factory cost, our prices came down with it. In two years our reductions—including the present—have totaled 45 per cent.

Last year we increased our output 26 1/2 per cent. A few days ago the embargo on rubber was modified so that supplies seem assured. The market price for rubber seems for a time established. Fabric costs less than last year. So, under our minimum profit policy, we announce the new reduction.

Only Fair Basis

We consider profit margin on a tire the only fair price basis. We keep that margin just as low as our line allows.

While we do that, Goodyear tires will always undersell any tires that compare with them. That is because we have the largest output.

We have a new factory, modernly equipped. And we have worldwide facilities for buying rubber, of our extra grade, at the lowest market price.

For a long, long time most tires have sold much above Goodyear prices. Some have sold one-third higher. A few have sold lower, as some always will, because of less rubber, less quality. But we can and do, under all conditions, give more for the money than any rival tire can offer.

The Best We Know

Goodyear Fortified Tires offer the best we know. They are built to give you the lowest cost per mile. They minimize tire trouble in five costly ways employed by no other maker. And they are always the same, regardless of price reductions.

Most tires will always sell higher, because of smaller output. Some tires will always sell lower because of lower standards. But we promise you that none will ever give better than Goodyear value.

This policy has made Goodyears the largest selling tires in the world. It will make them more so as more men find them out.

Ask your Goodyear dealer for our new price on the size you buy.

The rooms were artistically decorated with sweet peas and carnations, and because of the proximity of the Valentine season decorations in hearts were in evidence especially in the serving of the dainty refreshments. The function was marked by a delightful spirit of informality. A feature of the afternoon's entertainment was a writing game in which Miss Elma G. Martin was the prize winner.

The Young Men's Society of the Prospect Park church held their 5th annual banquet Friday night in the church parlors. The Rev. He made 16 of his team's points. Holland players were: forwards, Kronemyer and Van Zoeren; center, Kruidinier; guards, Douma and Smith.

ATT. T. N. ROBINSON TREATS DIVORCE SUBJECT BEFORE SOCIAL PROGRESS CLUB

Discusses It With Vigor and Earnestness in Its Historical, Legal and Moral Aspects.

In a scholarly paper and a paper moreover that was marked by earnestness and vigor, Att. Thomas N. Robinson Tuesday discussed the divorce problem before the Social Progress club when that organization met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Champion. Mr. Robinson treated the subject in its historical, legal and moral aspects. Beginning far back in the history of the human race he told the history of divorce from the earliest days to the present time. He told of the methods of di-vorice among the early Hebrews, the early Romans and other people, giving the viewpoints of writers of authority of those countries about the fundamental principles underlying their acceptance or rejection of the privilege of divorce. He traced the divorce question through the Bible, beginning with the ideas of the early Hebrews and tracing it to the positions taken by New Testament writers on the same question.

Coming down to the present the writer discussed the divorce problem in its legal and moral aspects. In discussing divorce from the legal point of view, he gave the various views of great jurists on this question, the various ways in which the different states look upon it as is shown in their laws and especially the way in which the divorce law of the state of Michigan operates.

Turning to the moral question involved in divorce Mr. Robinson outlined the two opposing views on the divorce question. On the one hand there are those who believe in and on the other hand there are those who absolutely deny the moral right of the state to grant divorce to a married couple. Among the believers in divorce there are various classes or rather various degrees of belief or disbelief in it. Many of them believe in very strict divorce laws while there are others who go so far as to advocate trial marriages and the laxest possible divorce laws. Opposed to these are the persons who are against divorce for any cause whatsoever. Both sides have had able advocates. The former base their opinion on the principle that the individual, if innocent, should not be made to suffer for a supposititious good of society; the latter the law of the greatest good to the greatest number, declaring that often the individual must suffer that society may be benefited and declaring that the absolute eradication of divorce for any cause would be a benefit to society because it would enhance the sanctity of the marriage tie and would safeguard the home. The writer of the paper briefly defended the latter standpoint.

The members of the club in a two hour discussion took sides for one or the other of these opposing points of view and the debate was a spirited one.

WOMAN'S LITERARY CLUB DE-VOTES PROGRAM TO MICHIGAN AND ITS RESOURCES

"See Michigan First" Is the Sentiment of Those Who Presented Papers at the Gathering.

The Woman's Literary club celebrated its Michigan day Tuesday.

The first number was the roll call when each member was given the opportunity to speak on any Michigan product which interested her.

In Mrs. Blekkink's paper "Michigan as a Summer Resort" some of the interesting Indian legends about some of the summer resorts were related.

Before reading "The Joy of the Hills", Mrs. Fajl told something of the life of its author, Edwin Markham, whose "Man with the Hoe," was so much discussed some years ago. His "The Wall Street Pit," a great contrast to "The Joy of the Hills," was also read.

Mrs. Bruske told the substance of some of the bills which are to be voted on by the Michigan legislature. The general federation of Woman's clubs of Michigan had urged all the club members of Michigan to re-endorse these bills. They are: the Palmer-Owen bill; the bill providing for an industrial home for women; (amendments suggested by the Federation provide for the cottage plan, classification of women delinquents, and for industrial training; and the bill providing for the teachers' retirement annuity. The Holland Woman's Literary club voted to re-endorse these measures.

Miss Post read a paper on that little known part of our state, the Upper Peninsula.

In the Upper Peninsula there is a population of about four hundred thousand and there are resources enough for twice as many people. These are now more economically used than formerly. There are immense forests and there are many wild animals in them. Logging is still an important industry there.

Iron and copper mining are the chief occupations of this region. Miss Post told of a visit to an iron mine and of one to a smelting plant.

Houghton is the largest village in the county. Its College Ave. is the Lake Shore drive of the town. In 1866 the Calumet mine was discovered and soon afterward the Hecla. From these came much of the wealth of the town.

In the village of Norway saloons are in two classes. Those on the main street are law-abiding but there are many others of a worse class.

The schools of this region are very good and the teachers' salaries are much higher than those of the southern peninsula. The school is a social center and a large percentage of the graduates go to higher schools and colleges.

Miss Post would narrow down the saying "See your own county first" to "See Michigan first."

Mrs. Pifer concluded the program with the reading of an original revision of Roy K. Moulton's "Made in Michigan," which was particularly in favor of Holland and Western Michigan.

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER THIRTY FIVE YEARS AGO

At the annual meeting of Fire Company Columbia No. 2, held recently the following officers were elected, P. Kleis, foreman; J. Beukema, first assistant; K. Van Haften, second assistant; U. De Vries, Sec'y; J. Ter Vree treasurer.

We notice that there are at present four young men of this city attending the Grand Rapids business college: J. M. Cappon, R. A. Kanter, M. Rogers, and Henry Schepers. This college is better attended at present than for five years past. The principal and proprietor, Prof. C. G. Swensberg, has a reputation as an instructor second to none in the West.

The fact that a steam-engine is being erected in a flour mill in Jerusalem is a startling announcement, but it is an evidence of the progress of civilization. The "infedels" who have thus introduced modern inventions to the "holy" city are a firm of Wurtemberg colonists, who, with the characteristic enterprise of the Teutonic race are doing as the Oriental powers will let them to make the historic and old world cities march with them.

Messrs. Breyman, Burke and Harringtons were out hunting on Wednesday and brought home 22 rabbits and it wasn't good day for rabbits either.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Miss Maggie Plugger will sing at the concert to be given in Lyceum Hall next Tuesday evening.

Prosecutor Mc Bride reports 260 criminal cases disposed of in this county during 1884. Fifteen less than in 1883. Forty-four were in Circuit Court.

Mr. John A. Otte, a graduate of Hope College, at present studying medicine at Ann Arbor, Mich., had the pleasure a few days ago, of being asked by President Angell, of the University, in behalf of the American Board of Foreign Missions, whether he was willing to go to Aintab, Turkey, as medical missionary, in order to take charge of the medical department of the mission college at that place. As Mr. Otte feels so warmly attached to the Reformed Church, and it being his earnest hope to serve her as missionary, he declined the very flattering offer of the American Board.

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO

The engine for the West Michigan Furniture company has arrived and is being put in position. Other machinery is coming in daily and being arranged on the first floor. Every effort is made to commence running by the first of March.

Among the building projects of next season we can mention one continuous two-story brick block of five stores, on the north side of Eighth street, between Cedar and Market. Of these Messrs. Notter and Verachure will put up a double store front, at their present site; R. N. Jones & Son, jewelers, will come next west, and they will also veneer the store they now occupy. The fifth will be erected by parties from Flint, 10 feet deep, to be used in the produce business. All of which will add materially to the activity and appearance of that part of Eighth street.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Our new postmaster C. De Keyser is in receipt of his commission; it arrived Monday. The transfer will not take place until at the close of the present quarter, March 31. This is in accordance with precedent. Jacob Hoek is slated for the position as assistant.

Ward & Russel have taken the contract of building the new block for F. C. Hall.

Berend Kamps, a well-to-do farmer in Graafschap, about five miles south of the city, had his large barn entirely consumed by fire Monday. He also lost 11 cows, 17 sheep, several horses and small cattle, and all his hay, grain and farm implements. The origin of the fire is not known and there is no insurance. Loss $1,700.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

J. B. Vander Meulen, son of Berend Vander Meulen was severely injured while working in C. L. King & Co's factory last Saturday. The freight elevator would not operate and Mr. Vander Meulen was told to put it in running order. He stood and the elevator followed by Mr. Van a crowbar was trying to force it loose. When the machinery holding it broke and the elevator followed by Mr. Vander Meulen fell to the basement a distance of twenty eight feet.

C. L. King left yesterday for Rome, Ga., where he will engage in business. E. B. Standart of the firm of Kanter & Standart will occupy the house recently vacated by Mr. King. Albert Koning presents William Scott driver of Earle Hose Co. No. 1, with a large St. Bernard dog. The dog takes special delight in occupying the drivers seat for the sleeping quarters and enjoys the friendship of the horses.

TEN YEARS AGO

The stock holders of the Holland Steel Stamping Works met yesterday and elected officers and directors for the ensuing year. The following were named: President George E. Kollen, Vice President, Peter Brusse, Treasurer, A. Van Putten; Secretary, Filmore Bird, Directors, A. Van Putten, George E. Kollen, Peter Brusse, Filmore Bird, John Roost. G. W. Browning wired W. H. Wing that he and his family arrived safe in sunny California.

The People's State Bank held their first meeting Friday evening and elected the following directors: Geo. P. Hummer, W. C. Walsh, A. Visscher, C. J. Lokker, L. Van Putten, D. B. Yntema, J. H. Klenheksel, B. D. Keppel, D. J. Te Roller.

A new apparatus will be added to the equipment of the fire department. Albert Kloster the fire chief has ordered from Larkin & Co., of Dayton Ohio a new type of fire nozzle. The nozzle will throw a solid stream and also a spray. The spray will act as a shield to the pipe men protecting them to a large degree from smoke on entering a building, and also moderating intense heat when fighting a fire at close range. The company sends this nozzle on trial if it is found to be satisfactory, each department will be equipped with them.

PUBLIC PULSE

Editor Holland City News:

Noticing that you have a column in your paper devoted to the "Public Pulse" I take the liberty of writing my opinion on a matter which I notice is causing quite an agitation in Holland, namely the boulevard system.

Leaving Holland in 1909, I have since then made my home in Gary, Indiana, which, you no doubt know, is the youngest, but at the same time the most modern city in the world. Being built on nothing but sand, Gary has been compelled to pave all of its streets, and now has more than one hundred miles of streets paved with brick, cement, asphalt, macadam, etc. Beside this they have an all auto-truck fire department with over 60 fully paid firemen, nearly one million dollars worth of the best schools, and a police force of over 100 men, made necessary by its floating population, and its proximity to Chicago. Imagine if you can what the total city tax is on an ordinary home to keep up such a complete system. Yet, notwithstanding all these expenses, Gary's progressive citizens were unanimously in favor of boulevard lights. During the summer of 1910 the first unit was installed, extending on both sides of Broadway, the main street, and consisting of three light poles, 50 feet apart. Gary at that time had a population of 15,000. Since then from time to time they have added to this until now with a population of slightly over 30,000 Gary has nearly five miles of boulevard lights. These lights burn from dark until 11 p m every night the year round; the power is bought, not furnished by a municipal plant, and still the taxes per thousand valuation is not over 50c per year. The citizens of Gary, would not be without these lights, they put life into a city, people find it a pleasure to be able to recognize each other 25 feet away; they cut down the percentage of crime and when a stranger visit a city with a boulevard lighting system, he leaves with the impression that its citizens are wide awake and progressive, and instead of hammering that particular city when the occasion arises he boasts and that more than anything else is what brings prosperity. Hoping that Holland will carry this measure with an overwhelming majority, I beg to remain, yours for boulevard lights.

OTTAWA COUNTY JUSTICE TURNED DOWN COUPLE WHEN ASKED TO TIE QUESTIONABLE KNOT

How an Ottawa County Justice of the Peace passed up the chance of receiving $100 as a fee for performing a wedding ceremony was one of the sensations of the trial in progress before Judge Perkins Grand Rapids, in which Charles P. Dickerman, a wealthy saloon keeper is seeking to have his marriage to Rose Dickerman annulled.

The distinction of having been offered the large marriage fee belongs to Charles Dickinson, justice of the peace of Grand Haven, who was a strong witness for the complainant.

Justice Dickinson told graphically how he went to the little cottage where the wedding was supposed to be performed, of certain things that occurred there that caused his suspicions to be aroused and finally his making a dash for the door. Witness then proceeded down the roadway and was overtaken by the chauffeur in the auto who suggested that the justice get in and ride to his home.

"I asked Dickerman if he wanted to marry this woman," said the justice. "And he replied, 'Not on your life'. Somebody said, 'Come on Charlie, just for fun.' At this he replied: 'No; no skirts for mine.'"

The witness then said that in another room Mrs. Dickerson urged him strongly to perform the ceremony. "She said," declared the witness, "just sign this certificate. He thinks it is a mortgage or a bill of sale. I will send you $100 tomorrow." But he refused and another justice tied the knot.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Third Reformed church will hold a banquet in the church parlors on Friday evening of this week. The banquet will begin at 7 o'clock. The banquet proper will be followed by a program of toasts when several speakers will give after-dinner talks. This part of the program will be supplemented with music and games.

TWO BROTHERS HOOK 1400 FISH ON BLACK LAKE IN FOURTEEN DAYS.

John C. John and William John living west of the city, during the past fourteen days caught 1400 fish through the ice on Black lake, an average of one hundred a day. Most of the fish were perch with a sprinkling of other varieties. Most of the fish were good sized, some of them tipping the scales at a weight of over three pounds.

Other fishermen have made good catches and unless the weather gets so mild that the shanties will have to be taken away some good fishing is expected before spring.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO HOLD FIRST REGULAR MEETING ON FEB. 26.

Committee Apointments To Be Announced at That Time By Pres. A. H. Landwehr.

The first regular meeting of the Holland Chamber of Commerce will be held a week from Friday evening, namely on February 26. President A. H. Landwehr announces that that meeting will be of extraordinary importance. Several matters of vital importance to the city and to the organization will be discussed at that time and plans will be laid for active work in the immediate future that are expected to have far-reaching results.

Of interest to the members of the new organization is the statement by President Landwehr that at that first meeting the committee appointments will be announced. There is considerable interest in what the personnel of the various committees provided for in the constitution will be since it will give something of an indication of what can be expected from the new commercial body in active service.

Although the lists for charter membership have closed, that does not mean that the efforts to secure new members will be discontinued. The committees will keep at the work and the ambition of some of them is to boost the membership up to the 400 mark. And during the immediate future is the time to secure new members. There are still a number of sources from which new members can be expected. Moreover a larger representation of the laboring men in desirable and efforts may be made to secure members from this class.

MOON IS ON THE WATER WAGON

THIS MONTH

FIRST TIME SINCE 1847 THAT SUCH IS THE CASE

There will be no full moon this month.

More than that it will be the first time since 1847, according to Prof. Harold Jacoby of Columbia university, that this phenomena has occurred in the United States.

The lunar month consists of 29½ days. Last month there were two full moons, one of them coming just at the end of the month, and as this month contains but 28 days, the full moon will arrive the first of March.

In 1885 Europe had no full moon during February, but the full moon was visible in America on the night of the last day February that year because of the five hours difference in time.

Therefore, this month makes the first time the condition has occurred in this country since 1847.

ALL COUNTY CANDIDATES ARE STARTING ACTIVE WORK

Contests Are Likely to Bring Out Fairly Large Vote On March 3.

With primary election day but two weeks off the candidates for road commissioner and county school commissioner are getting busy. The primary will be held in Ottawa county two weeks from yesterday. So far there has been little stir in regard to the school commissioner's nomination, the candidates for the republican nomination, Mr. Stanton of this city and Mr. Blanchard of Coopersville having confined their activities mainly to formal announcements in the newspapers.

But the county road commission fight is beginning to warm up a little. There are three candidates quite prominently mentioned for the republican nomination, namely the present incumbent of the office Richard Dykema, Wm. Connelly and Mr. Hammond. A representative of Mr. Connelly was in Holland yesterday to see the people of this city in regard to his candidacy, and the Spring Lake man is making a very active campaign throughout the county.

In view of this road contest and in view of the interest that has been aroused in Allenadale and Polkton townships in regard to the vote for bonding for a new bridge across the Grand River, it is expected that the vote on primary day will be quite large.

Under ordinary circumstances there would be little interest in the March county primaries and the vote usually is extremely light. About two weeks later the Holland City primaries will be held. There is also unusual interest in them this year because of the boulevard light question. But it has been argued that the two primary days might as well be held on the same day, saving the city trouble and expense and the voter valuable time. Moreover a better vote would be assured.

BIG MUSICAL ORGANIZATION TO APPEAR DURING NEXT SUMMER'S CHAUTAUQUA

Bland's Chautauqua band, an organization of eight years successful experience, accompanied by Miss Jean Macdonald, a Scotch Canadian of youth and beauty, as well as ability, will make up the entertainment part of the program of the first day of the Lincoln Chautauqua in Holland this season. This is a big announcement as Holland people will be interested in the better standards of chautauqua music and entertainment.

On the same day Ex-Senator Wm. E. Mason of Illinois undoubtedly one of the best known political characters appearing on the chautauqua platform today will speak in the afternoon. Senator Mason's appearances last summer in Indiana with the same management were marked as real events in the lecture history of these communities. He is an author and decided humorist, in addition to his political and social interest and authority. He has spoken in Holland twice before.

ANTHONY VAN ROEKEL HELD HERE FOR ALLEGAN COUNTY AUTHORITIES

Is Said to Have Pointed Gun At His Wife and to Have Threatened Ending His Own Life.

Anthony Van Roekel of this city was lodged in the city jail Friday after stirring up a row in Graafschap at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sagers yesterday afternoon. Van Roekel is said to have pointed a revolver at his wife, who was staying at the Sagers home, and to have made threats that unless she came back to her home in Holland he would end his life. The women, Mrs. Van Roekel and Mrs. Sagers, who are sisters, were at home alone and they escaped out of the house and took refuge at the home of a neighbor. There they remained, according to their story to the Holland police, until 7 o'clock when Mr. Sagers, who is a milkman, returned home.

The latter, according to the story told the Holland police managed to get the gun away from Van Roekel. He called up the Holland police. Since it was within the jurisdiction of the Allegan county authorities the Holland police could not make the arrest. The Graafschap man was told however that if the prisoner was brought to Holland he could be lodged in the local jail and held here for the Allegan authorities.

This noon a member of the Allegan county sheriff's force arrived to investigate the matter and a formal charge may be lodged against Van Roekel.

The threat of Van Roekel, according to statements made to the police, is the outcome of domestic troubles. The Van Roekels were married last October. Recently, according to the statements made to the police, domestic troubles separated the pair, Mrs. Van Roekel going to the home of her sister in Graafschap. His pointing the gun at her and threatening to kill himself is said to have been done in an attempt to get her to come back to her home here.

Two men from this city, Gilbert Vander Water and Simon Scherhorn, were summoned by Mr. Sagers to help him take Van Roekel to the Holland jail. They went to Graafschap in a buggy and brought the man in.

ANTHONY VAN ROEKEL MUST REPORT WEEKLY FOR ONE YEAR.

Circuit Court Case Is Disposed Of Today In Record Breaking Time.

Anthony Van Roekel who Friday night displayed a gun and threatened to kill himself if his wife would not return to him, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sagers in Graafschap, is out on probation for one year. He must report his conduct to Attorney T. N. Robinson once every week during the year.

Probably the quickest piece of work was put through in Allegan county for some time was hurried through Monday by Mr. Robinson as counsel for Van Roekel. Van Roekel was taken to Allegan Saturday afternoon by Sheriff Short and held in the county jail. Monday morning Van Roekel was arraigned before Justice Cook in Allegan on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. He waived examination and was bound over to circuit for trial at the present term of court which opened Monday morning. Mr. Robinson had his client immediately arraigned before Judge Cross in circuit court where Van Roekel pleaded guilty to the charge of carrying concealed weapons. Judge Cross then released Van Roekel on probation with the understanding that if Van Roekel gets in trouble during the time of his probation he will be sentenced for the present offense. Van Roekel must also pay the costs of $8.45.

REMARKABLE PROGRESS MADE IN WESTERN MICHIGAN ALONG DEVELOPMENT LINES.

Since 1905 More Than 700 Miles of Highway Have Been Improved In This Section

Since the organization of the state reward system there has been an awakening to the needs of better roads that has been remarkable. Since the system of state rewards was established Michigan has shown a remarkable advance in road building.

It is shown that in western Michigan since 1905 more than 700 miles of public highway has been improved in this section of the state, and more than $2,000,000 has been expended for better roads; while nearly $500,000 has been received from the state in the 20 counties commonly designated as western Michigan.

The standing of the 20 counties on the basis of miles of road improved as given by the state highway department is as follows: Montcalm, 62.7; Wexford, 62.6; Oceana, 60.8; Mecosta, 60.6; Muskegon, 60.4; Manistee, 55.7; Mason, 50.6; Antrim, 48.4; Benzie, 45.1; Kent, 44.7; Grand Traverse, 39.2; Kalkaska, 36.7; Leelanau, 33.4; Osceola, 30.3; Emmet, 21.4; Missaukee, 20.6; Lake, 10.3; Ottawa, 10.1; Charlevoix, 9.7; Leelanau, 6.6.

The above figures are for the nine years ending with June last. Since the first of July many miles of road way have been completed. This is especially true for Leelanau county, where the main highways are being turnpiked and covered with gravel at a surprisingly rapid rate.

Muskegon, of the 20 counties has made the greatest expenditure for road improvement purposes. In nine years it spent almost a quarter million of dollars. Oceana county was second in the amount of expenditure, its road builders having used $212,667.93. Wexford's spendings amount to $164,031.40. Other counties using over one hundred thousand dollars each are: Manistee, Mason, Mecosta, Grand Traverse, Antrim, Montcalm, Kent and Kalkaska.

Of the 20 counties Oceana has received the largest amount of state rewards, it having nearly $50,000 to its credit. Muskegon is second with $57,656 to its credit and Wexford third with $35,262.

John E. Bennink of the Senior class of the western Theological Seminary received notice Thursday that the Emanuel Reformed church in Roseland, Ill., had voted to extend him the promise of a call. Mr. Bennink has also been considering a call extended recently by the Reformed church in Cutting, N. Y.

CENSUS OF BIRDS IS BEING TAKEN BY GOVERNMENT

From the census of the bird population, now being taken under federal supervision, it is quite likely that some valuable as well as surprising and interesting data will be developed. Most of us, probably, have entertained some very vague ideas regarding the numbers of birds and their general distribution, but few of us have realized that the general average for the country as a whole is approximately only a thousand pairs to the square mile. Preliminary reports compiled from the figures of the census takers give this as a fair estimate of the nation's bird population, but suggest, at the same time, that the estimate is more liberal than conservative. From the same source, too, we learn that the robins which herald the advent of spring, number no more than fifty pairs to the square mile.

Doubtless a good many of us, if we had been called upon to approximate the robin population, would have put the figures much higher. Nor would we have given much credence to a statement to the effect that that most abundant bird, at least east of the Mississippi river, is this same red-breasted advance guard of his migratory fellows. The palm for numbers almost all of us, off-hand, would have awarded to the English sparrow. However, the government maintains that there is no disputing the figures, even though they are not yet complete.

It is brought out, moreover, that, contrary to our general belief, forests support but little bird life. The feathered tribe evidently prefers the plains, the meadows and the fields, and finds nesting places, not deep in forest shadows as we might have supposed, but in trees and shrubs on woodland edges or standing more or less isolated, or in orchards. In short, one might conclude that the birds, with only few exceptions, are far more neighborly in disposition as far as man is concerned than we imagined. The importance of such facts in assisting us to conserve bird life is, of course, obvious. And not the least important of these is the general assertion regarding their habits from which we may draw the inference that birds look more than ever to cities for food and shelter in the unfavorable weather of winter and spring. This ought to suggest to the city resident that he can do a great deal more than he has in the past to provide the sustenance essential to conserve the bird population.

EMA "ONE OF THE GREAT MEN OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY"

According to Thursday's issue of the Benton Harbor News-Palladium Hon. G. J. Diekema of this city will be one of the speakers at the annual banquet of the Congregational church of Benton Harbor on Washington's birthday. The News-Palladium has the following comment on the Holland man:

"There is no better speaker for an occasion of this kind than Mr. Diekema and the committee are to be congratulated on getting him to speak on this occasion. He is acknowledged to be one of the great men of the Republican party, and his prospects for being nominated and elected governor, are considered by the thinkers of the state, as excellent."

ABNORMALLY LARGE NUMBER OF FUNERALS ARE BEING HELD.

Pneumonia Claims Many Victims; Much Illness With Winter Disease.

Not only is there an extraordinary amount of illness at present but the death rate in this city during the past week or more has been abnormal. During the last week a single undertaker handled ten funerals, some of which however were outside of the city of Holland. There are many cases of pneumonia at the present time, and several deaths have resulted from this disease the past week or two.

Following is the list of deaths reported for Monday the largest one, reported in a single day for many months:

John Wynn, aged 71 years, died at his home in Saugatuck, after a lingering illness. The funeral was held Tuesday at 2 o'clock from the home and interment took place at Saugatuck.

Mrs. Sarah Lick died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. F. Pixley at Ottawa station Saturday at the age of 81 years. She had been a resident of Ottawa Station for 51 years. She is survived by three sons: Ray of Ottawa Station, David of North Dakota and Fred of Wisconsin.

The funeral was held Monday at two o'clock from the Ottawa Station school house.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Saunders of Buffalo, New York, died at the home of its parents there. The body was brought to Holland and buried in Pilgrim Home cemetery Saturday.

Henry Bird, father of Charles Bird the Saugatuck druggist, died at the home of his son at the advanced age of 98 years. Though within less than two years of reaching the century mark, Mr. Bird retained his faculties to quite an extent up to the time of his death. He was buried in Saugatuck Sunday.

Ernest Veldhoen died at the home of his parents at 39 Cherry street, this city, at the age of six years, Saturday. The funeral was held from the home Tuesday at two o'clock. The Rev. M. Broekstra officiated.

Mrs. Harriet Brooks-Haight, died at the home of her son, W. B. Haight 34 E. 8th St. Monday morning. Four weeks ago she caught a cold which turned into bronchial trouble and pleurisy.

She was born May 14, 1836, being at the time of her death 78 years, 9 months and 1 day old. She was married to Timothy V. Haight, Oct. 30, 1876, who preceded her in death on March 4, 1911, at Otsego.

Her home for the past 35 years has been near and in Otsego, where she resided until last November when she came to Holland to spend the winter with her son, W. B. Haight.

Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Haight were the parents of six children, all of whom survive her, except the youngest son, who died six years ago. The following survive: Wallace B. of this city; Arthur J. of Olivet; Mrs. Rose D. Simmons of Allegan; Miss Lillian M. of Portland, Ore.; Pansy T., of Otsego; and six grandchildren. The remains were taken to Otsego for burial by the side of her husband and son.

Central Avenue Christian Reformed church Monday night extended a call to the Rev. C. De Leeuw of Pellis, Ia. This is the fourth attempt to secure a pastor since the Rev. R. L. Haan accepted the call to Grandville Avenue church, Grand Rapids.

MANY MEN TO BE NOMINATED AT MARCH PRIMARIES

MANY CITY OFFICES TO BE FILLED AT MARCH 10, PRIMARIES

Retiring Men Have All Been Faithful Servants

The fact that we have no mayor to elect at the spring non partisan primaries to be held March 16 and in accordance with the city Charter does not say that there will be nothing to go to the poles for. This in fact is a most important primaries and good men should be chosen regardless of any former party affiliations. The men who's term of office expires and the offices to be filled are as follows:

A City Clerk, in the place of Richard Overweg, whose term of office expires.

A City Treasurer in the place of Herman Van den Brink.

A City Assessor in the place of Chris Nibbink.

Two members of the Board of Public Works in the place of E. P. Stephan who was reappointed to fill vacancy and A. B. Bosman whose term expires.

Two members of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners in the place of Peter Van Dommelen who was appointed to fill vacancy, and Henry Brusse whose term expires.

One member of the Park Board in the place of W. J. Garrod.

One member of the Board of Health in the place of Dr. T. Boot.

One member of the Library Board in the place of Raymond Visscher.

Two members of the Harbor Board in the place of G. J. Diekema and C. Ver Sohere.

One justice of the peace in the place of M. A. Sooy.

The election of a City Clerk according to the new Charter is to alternate with that of the Mayor namely one year the mayor is elected, and the next year a City Clerk is elected. Mayor Bosch holds over until next spring.

There are several men whose names are mentioned above whose term of office expires who will no doubt have no opposition. They have been deserving servants of the people and have handled their respective offices very efficiently. In fact the News thinks that every man mentioned in the above list whether his term of office expires or whether he was placed in the office to fill vacancy; there is not one among them that has not been a credit to the office, and the voters of Holland could do worse than to return these men to the different responsible posts which they have so ably filled in the past.

The News had nearly forgotten that five aldermen must also be nominated in the primaries. In the First Ward, Peter Prins, retires. In the Second Ward, Vernon F. King will step out. In the Third Ward, Frank Congleton's term ends and he should be returned. In the Fourth Austin Harrington retires and will not run again. In the Fifth, Alderman Arie Vander Hill must be renominated and elected. It is said that there are several candidates in the Fourth ward, and that Ald. Prins in the First and Ald. Vander Hill in the Fifth will have opposing candidates. Prins and Vander Hill were elected by the great Progressive wave two years ago.

Every High School Should Have a Dean for Girls Says the Western School Teacher

To offset the tendency of high school girls to wear the blouses cut too low in the neck, their skirts too short and their hair too high, a western school teacher believes a dean for girls should be provided for every high school.

"Mothers to a certain extent lose the control and confidence of their daughters after they have reached the high school age," says the teacher. "A motherly woman who understands how to deal with growing girls should be placed in each high school to advise the young women."

"The tight skirt and the split skirt have gone, but other evils have appeared. The girls are wearing their skirts too short, their hair too high and their blouses too low in the neck. If mothers fail to detect these as well as other offensive things, there should be a woman provided by the school board to help the girls along."

DEATH OF AGED COUPLE OCCURRED BUT DAY APART

Mrs. Dowd Died While Being Taken To The Poor House—Double Funeral Is Held

Deaths occurred scarcely more than a day apart of John Dowd and his wife Mary Dowd, 177 East Fifth St., both close to seventy years. Friday Mr. Dowd passed away after a few days illness with a severe attack of pneumonia and Saturday afternoon Mrs. Dowd fell dead just after being placed in an automobile in front of her home by Alderman Prins and Poor commissioner Van Zanten preparatory to taking her to the poor house. Mrs. Dowd suffered stroke of paralysis about a year ago and since then she has been paralyzed from her waist down. When her husband died she consented to go to the county infirmary at Eastmansville to spend the rest of her days. She was assisted to the automobile but as she was placed in the seat she sank down and died in a few minutes.

The funeral of both Mr. and Mrs. Dowd took place Monday afternoon in Grand Rapids when the bodies were laid to rest in the Fairplains Cemetery. The caskets were lowered into the grave at the same time. Services were held from the home of their son, Mr. Dowd, 822 West Leonard Street, Grand Rapids.

Echos of the Mitting Bankruptcy.

In the matter of Alfred Mitting, bankrupt, Holland, the final meeting of creditors was held recently. The final report and account of the trustee showing that he had neither taken in nor paid out any money belonging to this estate was considered and allowed. The meeting was held open pending decision as to creating a lien on the bankrupt's exemptions for actual administration expenses. There will be no dividend. The creditors in this matter are numerous and represented for the most part parties who had advanced money for stock.

JOE DODGED BY MANY TO BE TACKLED BY THIRTIETH DISTRICT SENATOR.

Lansing, Feb. 18—Senator J. C. Wood of the 30th district is going to write a primary election law. Senator Wood is without doubt the hardest working man in the entire legislature. He likes his job and works at it. He studies every bill from every angle and when he has finished he comes pretty near knowing all about it and where it conflicts with some other law and all the rest of it.

Therefore he is looked upon as the one man having both ability and the desire to work hard enough to sit down and write an entirely new primary law from beginning to end, to rewrite at the same time a greater part of the general election law, and system somewhere near upon the map to attempt to put Michigan electoral system somewhere near upon the map. It's going to be a long hard job and few of the members cared anything about tackling it.

Senator Wood has many well defined notions in mind relative to the law he will draft. Other ideas he will seek conference upon before writing them. "The more I think of it," he said, "the bigger the task appears and I begin to wonder whether I can do the whole thing in time to get it through this session of the legislature."

The best proof that a boulevard lighting system is a good thing for a town and helps to make it grow, giving it a snap and ginger and pride in itself that is too often lacking, is the universal opinion of everyone who comes from a city where they have it. No matter if the person comes from the east or the west, or whether he be business, professional or workingman, his answer is always the same. "The people would never go back to the old arc system." Letters and interviews have been published from Battle Creek, Ann Arbor, Flint, Gary, Albuquerque, Kalamazoo, Lowell, Muskegon and Grand Haven, and the answers are all the same. What better recommendation does anyone want?

GEO GETZ SENDS CHECK FOR ONE HUNDRED FOR BOULEVARD LIGHTS.

THREE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-EIGHT ENJOY BIG SPREAD IN HIGH SCHOOL GYMNASIUM MONDAY NIGHT

BIG FUNCTION MARKED BY THE SPIRIT OF OPTIMISM, GOOD FELLOWSHIP AND CO-OPERATION.

The largest banquet of any commercial body ever held in Holland was that of the Chamber of Commerce in the high school gymnasium Monday the first annual event of its kind. By actual count 388 sat down at the rows of tables. With the speakers' tables ranged along the north wall and all the other tables at right angles with it, each person in the hall was within easy reach of the voices of those who addressed them. With pictures of Lincoln and Washington facing each other across the long hall and the girders and galleries gay with flags and bunting, and with mottoes, "Do it For Holland," the scene was a beautiful one. Two flashlight pictures of the large assembly of guests were taken by Paul R. Coster.

The whole banquet was marked by that enthusiasm and that good will that makes for the success of any organization, and as a result of the big spread there is a feeling of unity and solidarity among the commercial interests of Holland such as has perhaps never before existed. To the tunes of popular airs, played by Lacey's orchestra, the guests took their places, and so large was the crowd that it required some ten or fifteen minutes for all to file into the banquet hall. Dr. A. F. Bruske pronounced the invocation.

The banquet was prepared and served by Nicholas Hoffman of the Boston restaurant. In addition to the food being substantial and palatable and well prepared, the service was very nearly perfect. The caterer had provided an army of waiters so that each table was liberally supplied. In this way all delay was eliminated and the feast was served with so much dispatch that it received the warm commendation of the guests.

The eating over with, A. H. Landwehr, president of the Chamber of Commerce arose to introduce the toastmaster of the evening, Hon. G. J. Diekema. And in passing it may be remarked that altho he did not attempt to make a set speech, Mr. Landwehr compared favorably with the other orators of the evening as a public speaker, and that statement does not in any way detract from the other speakers.

"Be in the vanguard" was the burden of Pres. Landwehr's talk. "Do not wait for other cities to take the lead. Let us take the lead ourselves. And let us do this in business lines not only but in all lines—in moral lines in aesthetic matters, in artistic matters and in every other way. Get back of such movements as the boulevard lighting system, for instance, and help push it along. Get back of all worthy public movements. Help in building for the present not only, but help in building monuments for the future. Let us get close together and work together for the common welfare, and it will redound to the interest of all."

In introducing Mr. Diekema as toastmaster Mr. Landwehr gracefully said that two years from now he hopes all the guests of the evening could come together at a big banquet to celebrate the election of Holland's foremost citizen to the governorship of the state of Michigan. This elicited uproarious applause that lasted for a long time.

Mr. Diekema began by mystifying the speakers of the evening and the non-Hollanders in the hall by pronouncing a few sentences in the Holland language, explaining later to the speakers that he had told the audience what he really thought of them. He traced the history of the formation of the new organization, the outgrowth of two smaller societies, and called attention to the fact that this was the right kind of step for the two organizations to take and in keeping with the motto of the Dutch people that in unity there is strength. He predicted for the new Chamber of Commerce a bright future.

State Railroad Commissioner, who spoke on the subject, "Holland and Its Best Interests."

There was a certain freshness and vigor about the address of Mr. Glasgow that is not always found in after dinner speeches. His address did not consist merely in patting the people of Holland on the back. He said without apology that he believed there is considerable room for improvement. He told of his visits to Holland many years ago, and in those days he had often wondered, he said, what could be the matter with Holland. Here was a city that had natural advantages that are greater than those of any inland city in the land. "Here was a city," said the speaker, "that had matchless facilities for rail transportation by steam road and electric road, surrounded by fertile farming communities, and yet it was sitting back and staying about where it was. During recent years Holland has taken some strides in advance, but there is still much opportunity for advancement. What was the trouble all those years, and what is to a lesser extent the trouble at present?"

And Mr. Glasgow answered his own question by giving an analysis of Dutch character. He said the Dutch are honest, sincere, are marked by the highest integrity, have very high ideals in morality and religion and public welfare. But the one thing needful that they are inclined to lack is the spirit of push—the spirit that goes out to the world at large and goes after business. The Hollander for the most part is too prone to sit still and enjoy what he has without reference to the rest of the world.

"Society is so constituted," continued Mr. Glasgow, "that we must fight for what we get. We must reach out. And that is true of cities as well as of individuals. But I am glad to say that Holland is changing and changing fast. This splendid new organization is evidence of the change, and the change means a new day of progress for the city of Holland."

"But this new organization has yet to prove itself in actual work. It can be successful only in so far as the membership is willing to buckle down and do hard work for it and for the city. All the members should be actuated with one purpose and should stand together for the welfare of Holland. Each man should exude enthusiasm for Holland and only in that way can it be a success. As in a tug of war each man should pull as though the victory depends on him alone."

"The history of a city is the history of its people. Some people are born, live and die, and they never leave any impression on their communities. They merely live and do nothing for others. Their lives are often selfish, and usually ineffective. Others there are who make their personalities count and to do something for their communities. They give their talents and their powers for the good of others. And the same thing is true of cities. They must make their personalities felt and only by doing that can they make an impression in the general struggle for advancement."

John I. Gibson, secretary of the Western Michigan Development Bureau, spoke in his usual happy vein. As a matter of course his subject was "Western Michigan." That is Mr. Gibson's invariable subject; it always stays with him and he always stays with it. But each time he talks on it he says something new. That is because he is the best posted man in the world on that particular subject.

Introductory to his real address he congratulated Holland on its new organization. And he seconded the sentiment of Mr. Glasgow, namely, that the organization can succeed on in proportion as the membership supports the officers.

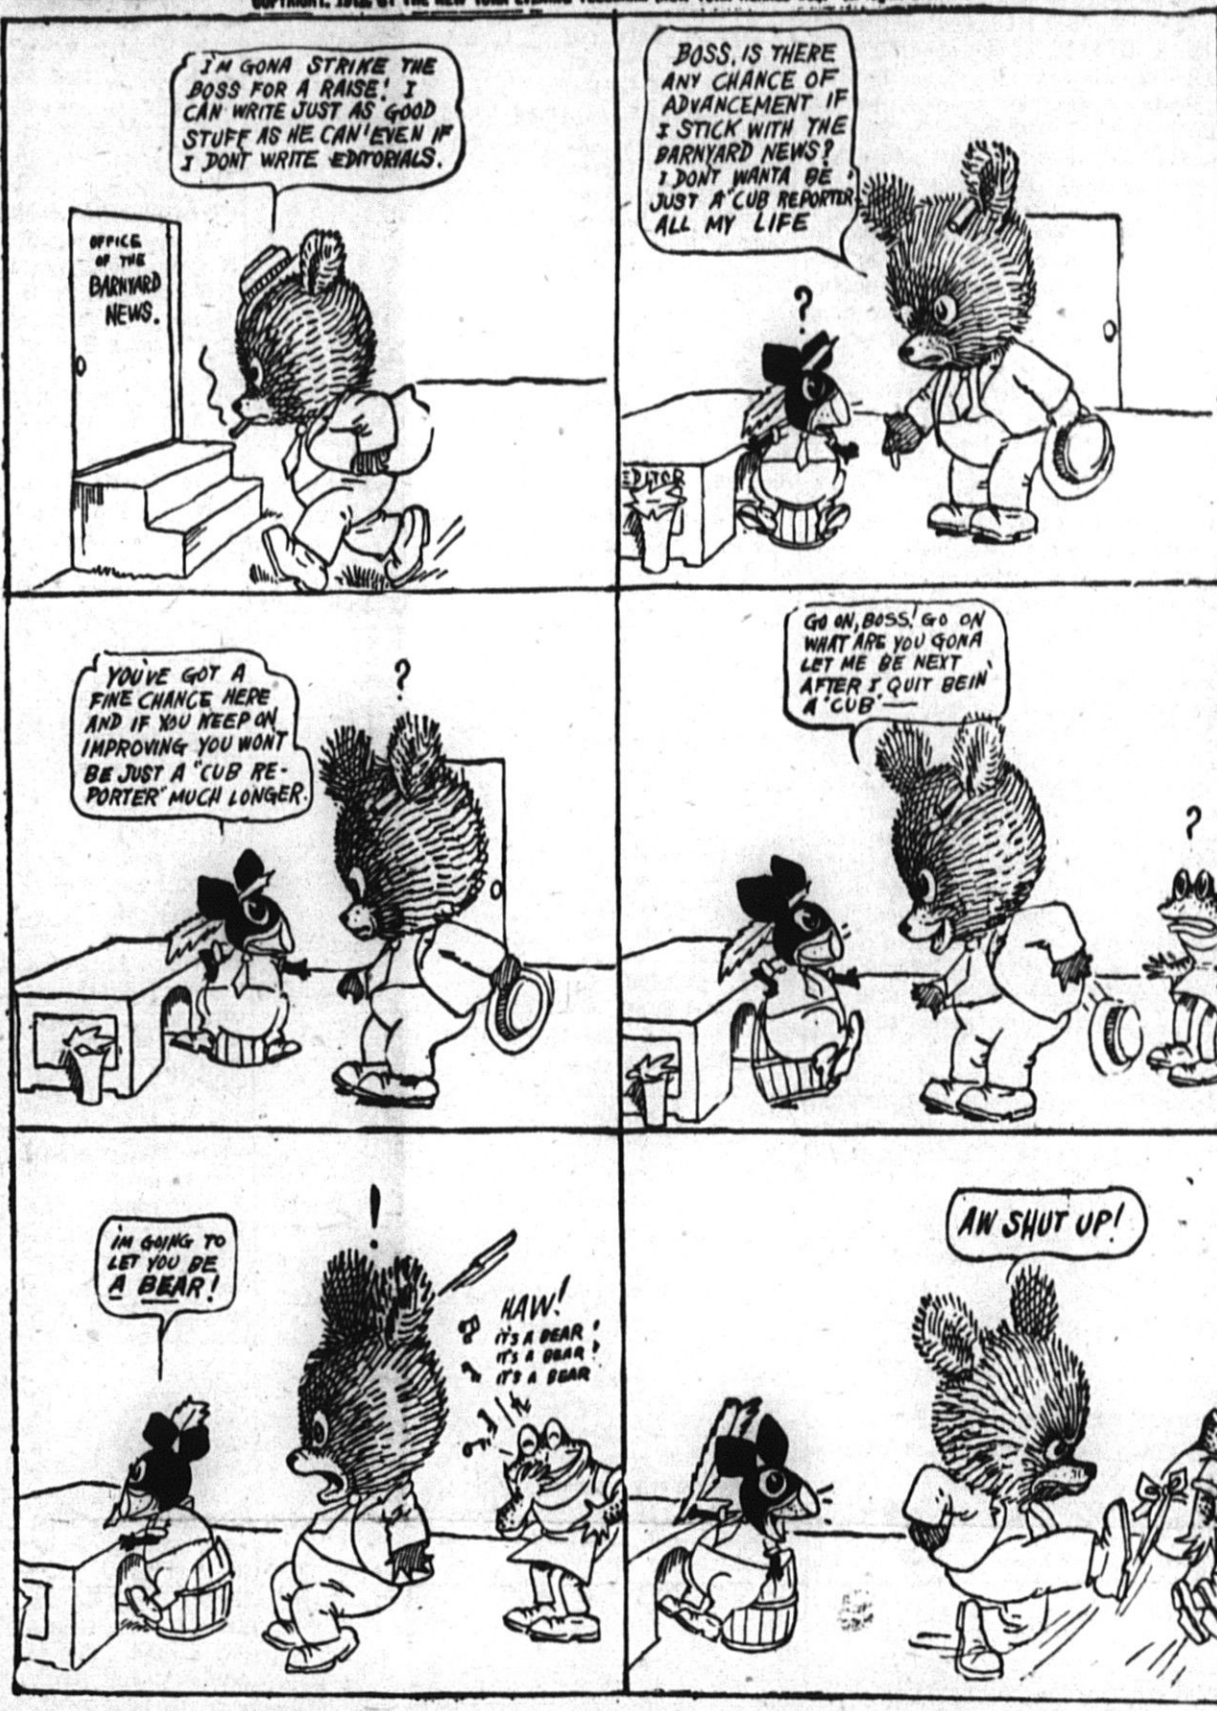

He told of the history of the Western Michigan Development Bureau, how it was organized six years ago, what it has done for this part of the state and what it hopes to do. As an illustration of what Western Michigan can do in fruit he declared that the past summer one thousand carloads of cherries had been shipped out of this territory. He predicted that in ten years Western Michigan will be the great fruit belt of the United States. He illustrated by the success of Mr. Getz on the lake shore soil what can be done with that soil all along the lake, how it can be made to yield rich returns. He said there are 13,000,000 acres of unoccupied land in Michigan waiting for settlers and there is unlimited opportunity for expansion.

"I'd like to see Michigan as a state take hold of this," he said. "It is a great work taking the landless men to the manless land. All wealth comes from the land. This is no new truth. Adam Smith said it long ago in his 'Wealth of Nations'. And more than that we come from the land and are brothers to the trees and flowers. And in the end we will all go back to the land."

"Since the Bureau began its work over five thousands new settlers have come to Michigan, and more are coming each year. And each additional settler increases valuation by a thousand dollars."

Mr. Gibson told of the workings of the organization. He instanced the fact that during the past year he had traveled 26,000 miles in the interests of the bureau. He closed by urging all to help along the various spiritual, social aesthetic movements, and above all else to help along the spirit of brotherhood.

Although not on the program, F. H. Alfred, general manager of the Pere Marquette railroad, was called upon by Mr. Diekema for a few remarks. He said that the P. M. has made the best record in its history during the past six months, and that it is going to continue to make improvements. He said the road now had $800,000 ready to spend on new rails and ties, the coming year. In answering the question, "What is Wrong with the Pere Marquette?" he said that the road needs more revenue and that such bills as the fifty-car limit bill are hurting it. He made the plea for the 2½-cent passenger rate.

Senator Walter S. Taylor of Kalamazoo, president pro tem of the Michigan senate, spoke on the subject, "Peace—Its Effects and Defects." He declared that a city can have too much peace as well as too little peace. A city may be too contented. Neither a city nor an individual can stand still. Both can have too much complacency and self-satisfaction. A city cannot have too much harmony and optimism, but it must be the right kind. It must have vigor and vitality. A touch of pessimism is all right. Often it works like a tonic. But it must be the right kind of pessimism. It must not be the kind that throws a wet blanket on enthusiasm.

Touching on the subject of trading at home, Mr. Taylor said that the local merchants should be given first consideration. He declared he was not one of those who believed that the consumer should sink all personal considerations and should buy at home merely for the sake of buying at home. He declared the consumer has his interests to look after and must buy where he can do the best. But in all cases of doubt the home merchants must be given the benefit of the doubt. And in his turn the home merchant must do his share. He must be up to date and look out for the interests of the home people. It is up to him to make an active fight for the home patronage.

"Opportunity must be grasped when it comes," concluded the speaker. "It is perhaps not true that it comes but once. But even if it comes oftener it must be taken when it comes. It comes oftener than once but it does not kick the door in. It merely knocks."

The last speaker on the program was Hon. Milo D. Campbell of Coldwater. His theme was "The War and Beyond the War." At the outset he declared that the private citizens of this land are not under the same necessity as President Wilson and other government officials of keeping still about the war. He declared each citizen has a right to have an opinion and to express it.

"And after the war is over," he continued, "what will it result in? Will it mean world peace or world militarism?"

Though speaking as a critic of Germany and Austria, Mr. Campbell disclaimed any hostility to the German people. He declared he was not against the German people but against the system of militarism. He said Germany and Austria are enslaved under that system. He declared that while Sir Edward Grey was sending telegrams asking for peace Germany and Austria were already lined up in battle array and nothing could prevent open hostilities. War was inevitable because of the long years of militaristic preparations that had preceded it. He declared that at the Hague conference eight years ago all the great nations of the world had agreed on compulsory arbitration except Germany and Austria. He said leaders of German thought had enunciated the pernicious doctrine that "necessity knows no law."

Mr. Campbell gave a great many facts about the present conflict and ended his address with a plea for peace and for the ending of the system of militarism.

That the most popular song in England today has invaded Holland was shown Monday at the Chamber of Commerce banquet. When Lacey's orchestra played "It's a Long, Long Way to Tipperary" the banqueters applauded loudly and called for more. The orchestra obligingly repeated and still the crowd called for more. Here and there someone began to hum the song and before long scores of those in the hall were singing the song that the English soldiers are singing in the trenches. The orchestra was compelled to play it a half dozen times.

Lacey's orchestra, by the way, furnished an exceptionally fine concert Monday. The players were applauded again and again. It was one of the best programs of banquet music ever given in this city.

In every way the artistic features of the banquet were of a high class. The programs for instance were a work of art. The covers contained a Dutch windmill scene in brown tint and there were several illustrations in the booklet giving scenes in Holland. The work was done by the Holland City News.

George Getz Again Shows Liberality To Holland.

George F. Getz of Lakewood Farm who has done more for the Holland fair association than any other man has again showed that he is interested in Holland and is willing to do all of his share and more to help this city take its proper place. Monday at the Chamber of Commerce banquet Toastmaster G. J. Diekema read a letter from Mr. Getz in which he expressed his regrets at not being able to be present. Enclosed in the letter was a check for $100 for the boulevard lighting system. Mr. Getz expressed his hearty approval of that lighting plan and declared it would help toward putting Holland to the front.

FORMER SHERIFF HENRY DYKHUIS HAS TALK WITH BERT TIBBETTS

Convicted for the Murder of Jackman at Shackleddale.

While in Jackson where he went with Henry Wierda, Undersheriff Henry Dykhuis of this city saw Bert Tibbetts who is serving sentence for the murder of Humphrey Jackman, at Shackleddale, this county. The Jackman murder was committed just as Henry Dykhuis was beginning his first term as sheriff of Ottawa County about fourteen years ago, and Tibbetts has been in prison since that time. He has made repeated attempts to secure a pardon or a parole and during his long term he has been a teacher in the prison Sunday school.

When former Sheriff Dykhuis talked with Tibbetts the young man asked the sheriff to sign a petition for leniency in his behalf but the officer refused to have anything to do with the matter. He informed Tibbetts that he bore him no grudge, and that he would do nothing to hurt him, but he must look elsewhere for help also. The part played by the former sheriff in bringing Tibbetts to justice would hardly admit of an effort now in behalf of the prisoner.

STUDENTS OF SEMINARY ENTERTAIN GUESTS AT THEIR HALL.

Seminary hall was the scene of a very pleasant and successful entertainment Friday night. The occasion was the second annual "House warming" given by the students residing in the hall. The large reception rooms were brilliantly decorated, appropriately in keeping with Lincoln's Birthday. The punch table was placed within an enclosure made of rails above which a beautiful bass relief prole of Lincoln was hung.

The chairman of the evening was John E. Bennink. He opened the exercises with a few introductory remarks. The program included two vocal solos by Mrs. Milton Hoffman, a piano solo by Miss Florence Stronks, a vocal solo by Miss Henrietta Van Zee and remarks by Dr. J. W. Beardslee, Sr.

Cornelius Yskes of Holland, who was arrested last September, on the charge of non-support and pleaded guilty at the November term of court was released Saturday by Judge Cross and allowed to go on probation for two years. Yskes had been confined in the county jail for 146 days.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
To the Circuit Court for the County of Ottawa in chancery.
The petition of Oramel B. Fuller, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State respectfully shows that the list of lands hereinafter set forth and marked "Schedule A," contains a description of all the lands in said County of Ottawa upon which taxes were assessed for the years mentioned therein, and which were returned as delinquent for non-payment of taxes, and which taxes have not been paid; together with the total amount of such taxes, with interest computed thereon to the time fixed for sale, and collection fee and expenses, as provided by law, extended against each of said parcels of land.

Your petitioner further shows that in all cases where lands are included in "Schedule A" as aforesaid for taxes of 1890 or of any prior year, said lands have not been sold for said taxes or have been heretofore sold for said delinquent taxes and the sale or sales so made have been set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, or have been cancelled as provided by law.

ZUTPHEU MAN SPENT ANXIOUS TWENTY MINUTES IN SEVEN FEET OF WATER IN CISTERN

Henry J. Nyenhuis of Zutphen while doing some work about the house fell through the roof of the cistern. The cistern contained about seven feet of water. All the members of the family were away from home and he had to hold on to the side of the cistern and call for help. His father, John Nyenhuis who lives but a short distance away heard his cries and went to Henry's assistance, pulling him out of the cistern with a rope. The young man was in an exhausted condition, having been in the cistern for about twenty minutes.

OTTAWA COUNTY EDUCATION OFFICIALS GATHER IN GRAND HAVEN.

Discuss Problems Pertaining to the Management of Rural Schools

The annual school officers' institute for Ottawa county was held on Saturday at the court house in Grand Haven.

Nelson R. Stanton, county commissioner of schools, called the meeting to order at 9:30 and introduced G. N. Otwell as instructor. Mr. Otwell is assistant state superintendent of public instruction.

The court room was filled with school directors and representatives interested in Ottawa county schools and in addition several from the county normal school.

Questions pertaining to school law and school management were freely asked and answers made by the instructor.

Upon the question being asked by the instructor as to the number of school districts represented at the meeting which availed themselves of the free text book provision of the law, the instructor expressed himself as great gratified at the number of such districts in Ottawa county.

A hundred and eight delegates were present at the meeting. The following represented Holland and Zeeland townships: D. Klein, Samuel Kurz, Jacob Van Dyk, Bert Van Lenta, H. Van Lier, C. Eilandner, H. W. Harrington, Jacob Witteveen, F. Nielson, F. Heyboer, H. Frost, A. K. Boonwer, C. Razon, B. Witteveen, H. Plagemeyer, J. L. Hop, G. H. Kraght, G. Groenewoud, H. H. Kragt, K. Weener, H. Says Mother Is The Great Teacher of More Importance Than the School.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. J. Veldman. It was a mothers' meeting and a large number of mothers were present to consider the questions pertaining to the welfare of boys and girls. Miss Maud Zwemer read the story of Hannah and other Bible mothers and hymns, prayer and roll call formed the preliminary part of the program. The feature of the program was a very able and very inspiring paper read by Mrs. D. B. Yntema on the subject, "What Parents Might Teach Their Children." She declared that the education of the child is of the first importance. The mother is the child's great teacher. The father's help is necessary and the aid of the school is also invaluable. But both are only supplementary to the work of the mother.

"What life lessons ought the mother to teach the child?" the five points—1st, Dignity of Labor; 2nd, Value of Truth; 3rd, Importance of Economy; 4th, Necessity for Clean Living; 5th, Love of His Religion.

Each lesson was illuminated by experiences from real life and careful observations that were of value to all mothers.

Mrs. Klassen sang, "My Mother Dear," and a lullaby, accompanied by Miss Girard. The question box was in charge of Mrs. F. T. Miles. Very fine refreshments were served and the afternoon was spent in discussing many vital questions of the day that affect the children.

Sharpens the Appetite. Jokelegh (visiting Subbubs)—"And you have a grindstone, too. Will it put an edge on a dull appetite?" Subbubs—"Certainly! If you turn the handle long enough."

And the Reason?

The motor wise American public saw all cars alongside the Paige and compared them with the Paige. They compared them for beauty of design, comfort, power. They compared them feature for feature, value for value, price for price—with the Paige.

They said "Here are 'Sixes' which cost $100 and $200 and $400 more than the Paige 'Six'. And yet in self-evident dollar-for-dollar value we'd rather pay more for the Paige 'Six'. And we're asked to pay less—much less—for the Paige."

And they did pay less. And, paying less for more value, they bought a million dollars worth of Paige cars and established a new sales-record and a new epoch in the long series of Paige successes.

Can there be more conclusive proof of Paige Leadership than this?
