Merchants Hear Worth While Business Facts

MR. LANDWEHR OPENS THE EYES OF HOLLAND BUSI-NESS MEN

Gives Common Sense Facts That Should Go a Great Way in Meeting New Competition

Austin Harrington, president of the Merchants Association, who was also toastmaster at the banquet given in Masonic Temple to at least 275 Holland merchants and their wives Monday evening, handled the situation admirably, and called the different numbers on the program in a pleasing way. The Colonial orchestra gave an excellent program of music, the special minstrel show and the Chevrolet sisters, were extraordinary features.

The real headliner of the evening was Mr. Charles Landwehr of the Holland Furnace Company, and he surely was a surprise, giving much food for thought. He in a pleasing manner and without rankling statements, but thru hard facts, pointed out to the Holland merchants their shortcomings and how these could be remedied, and also told which fundamental principles in business spelled success.

Mr. Landwehr said in part: "I have been connected with the Holland Furnace Company for the past twenty years, but this has been the first occasion that I have had to become real well acquainted. It is indeed a privilege to stand before all 'Main Street' of Holland, a city first in church work, a place known as a model city, the world over. Holland has great possibilities, and those possibilities can be enhanced according to the efforts of the people who live there."

"When we get to the problem of retailing there are fundamental principles that govern all business. If we fail to follow these fundamentals, then we fail in business."

"What are the fundamental principles that govern our business? Know the facts about your business; be progressive; be open minded; work hard; there is no easy way. If you are right, your business will be right. Analyze your business."

"What methods do you adopt? Have you a real plan? If you haven't it will reflect in your business. You must merchandise the kind of goods that people want. The average retailer has failed to educate the public as to what goods they have on their shelves. An example of this education is shown in the sale and manufacture of automobiles. It was real salesmanship that brought about the selling of fine and expensive cars. No where has salesmanship been so dominant as in the automobile game, and it has put America on wheels, and it has made America's capacity for business grow by leaps and bounds."

"The fundamentals in business should not be lost sight of. The money budget should be adequate. The buying of goods at the right price is of tremendous importance. This being the case, then the goods are already half sold. One must keep himself well informed on the markets, he must 'know his stuff,' for if he does not, failure is inevitable. Assortment is also essential. This means choice. After we have the goods we must find a buyer for these goods."

"The loose ends in business is that part that you never get. One of our men has figured that within the trade radius of Holland there is a potential market area, needing fifteen million dollars worth of goods. The needs for living alone would exceed ten million dollars. This is not all going to Grand Rapids or Chicago, surely, but if each individual merchant will improve his methods so that he will attract to his business, a large proportion of these goods will be bought in Holland."

"The merchant must have merchandise to meet the popular demand. Educate your trade to a turnover system. If you make the sale, you have got to give what you agree to give. If you fail to please even a small proportion of the customers, you will find it uphill business to build a bigger business, and with all, making collections is indeed very necessary."

"Management of the business is all important. A man who has his money invested should know where his money goes. He should keep in close touch with his deputies, having a general supervision of his employees, having them do what he expects them to do."

"Harmony is very important. Team work is an essential feature, denoting that all are interested in (Continued on page two)

NO WONDER "CAPT." IS FOR GOOD ROADS

Rather an interesting bit of history was told by Austin Harrington, president of the Merchants Association, during the evening banquet, when he told of his birthplace, a lumber shanty that stood on the old Crate place on Black Lake, US31. This is the site where Jack Stevenson has recently built such a beautiful home. Captain stated that his father, George, and his dear mother, with Austin as a babe in arms, came to Holland with an ox team regularly to trade. He told how the oxen swung lazily through pitch holes, over corduroy roads and in deep sand, through the Indian Village on the bluff where H. J. Heinz is now located, and so into the colony streets. These four miles would take the oxen about an hour and a half to negotiate while now the auto does it in a few minutes.

Mr. Harrington stated, in giving this anecdote, which happened to fit the occasion, "Is it a wonder that I have always been a champion of good roads and ever will be?"

COMMON COUNCIL

The common council proceedings of last evening will be found on page two of this section. It was a short meeting, not many things of great importance coming up.

COLORED HOLD-UP MEN RELIEVE CAR DRIVER OF HIS MONEY

Two colored men held up Art E. Jenkins of Grand Rapids, driving on the lonely stretches of Crocker Flats in North Ottawa county Tuesday night about 11:30 and robbed him of his roll consisting of $20. They were real stick-up men and frisked the poor wayfarer in professional style, he told the officers.

The state police and Sheriff Steketee and his men were on the trail of the road agents within a short time but could find no traces. They drove to Coopersville, Nunica, scoured box cars and beat the surrounding country the rest of the night.

Jenkins told the officers he was driving along when a large colored man jumped from the side of the road brandishing a mean looking gun. He halted and in no time the money was lifted from his clothes. He could not describe the thugs other than that he wore a gray overcoat and had a very decided southern accent.

A little farther down the road another colored man was walking, evidently on guard. There was not a car in sight and it was done in the winding valley near Crocker Creek so that no farm lights were visible. Jenkins said he was mistreated and that nothing else was taken. When allowed to go on the hold-up men walked rapidly in the other direction.

When Jenkins arrived at Coopersville he called the deputy, who in turn got out the local officers. Jenkins was thoroughly frightened by the experience. A Chevrolet car was noticed traveling at a high rate of speed toward Grand Rapids about that time of night, but this is the only possible clue which the officers could trace. This is the boldest crime of this type reported here for some time.

"THREE TRIALS" CAUSE OF SERMON SERIES

Sunday evening Rev. C. P. Dame of Trinity Church will preach the first sermon of a short new series of Sunday evening sermons. The subject of this new series is "Three Trials." The following sermons will comprise this series: Feb. 23, "The Trial of a Thankless Son"; Mar. 2, "The Trial of a Tempted Daughter"; Mar. 9, "The Trial of a Thoughtless Parent." The services in Trinity Church begin at 7:30 o'clock. Young and old are invited to hear these messages which are more or less related to the home life upon which so much of our happiness depends.

HARRY BECKMAN TO LEAD HOLLAND GRIDDEERS

Harry Beckman has been elected captain of Holland High football squad for the 1930 season, succeeding Bonnett, who will graduate with the 1930 class in June. Beckman began his gridiron career as a freshman, but was forced to stay on the bench the following year owing to an injury suffered in a swimming accident. Last season he filled a halfback position.

HAYDEN CASE MAY NOT COME UP THIS TERM

The case of the People vs. Ralph T. Hayden, Holland, may not be ready for trial this term, it was announced by his lawyers, Robinson & Parsons. The case against Harry Fik, charged with larceny, was dismissed. There were 11 civil jury cases ready for trial. The case of William Fant vs. Peter Jansma was settled and the case of George C. Nichols vs. the estate of William S. Nichols was put over the term. In chancery there are 26 cases ready for the judge to hear. The divorce case of Elizabeth Lutz vs. Frank Lutz has been dismissed, as has the suit of George Carlson vs. John V. King.

Alvan Batema of Holland, 16 years old was sent to Lansing to the State Industrial School. He violated his parole when charged with larceny and will be taken to Lansing in a few days, after sentence from the probate court.—Grand Haven Tribune.

A man and a woman were arrested and 50 gallons of alcohol were confiscated by state police on M-31, half way between Holland and Grand Haven early Saturday. Those taken into custody were Mrs. Frank Van Dahl, 35, and Joseph Hutton, 40, both of Hammond, Ind. They were locked up at the Ottawa county jail.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morris, a son, on Feb. 20.

First Colony Vessel Owned Here
Was Schooner Knickerbocker

By Wm. O. Van Eyck

Most of the Holland immigrants that came here in 1847 landed at or near what is now the foot of 5th street in this city. All the Zeelanders who came in July with Rev. C. Van der Meulen and the Frislanders who came with Rev. Ypma, lived during the summer months in large sheds built for them. While the leaders and heads of families went at once to what are now known as Zeeland and Vriesland, to prospect and buy land, yet during 1847 and part of the following year many of them still continued to live here in the village. All of the settlers—those of Van Raalte, the Zeelanders, the Frislanders, and the Groningers—considered themselves at the time as one; and naturally established, as a temporary necessity, a kind of local government, which they called "De Volksvergadering," the People's Meeting, to administer such of their joint affairs as could not properly be controlled by the regular township organizations.

One of the first and main concerns of "De Volksvergadering," was to provide for the importation of the necessities of life, such as flour, sugar, salt, and corn meal; and the second concern was to procure at once the necessary building materials. There were as yet no stores, no railroads, no vessels, no roads except trails; and the colonists were, during the year 1847, often—very often—on short rations. Everything had to come from Allegan, Grand Haven, Grand Rapids, or Singapore. Though living amongst the giants of the forest, such was the irony of fate that practically all the lumber the settlers used during 1847 was rafted or hauled on scows from Singapore over the big lake and Black Lake to Holland, and thence some of it on Black river to Groningen. Provisions also were brought on rafts or scows from Saugatuck and Grand Haven. There is indeed a record of a party of Zeelanders who purchased supplies in Grand Rapids and who took them by river boat to Grand Haven, thence by scow, drawn by a horse, along shore to the mouth of Black lake, and then on Black Lake and river to the head of navigation at Groningen, the whole trip taking about three weeks.

To introduce some regularity and order in the matter of supply, the People's Meeting projected on a rather large scale what became known as the "Colony Store" in the village of Holland. This was a co-operative affair, or a stock company. The idea was to buy at wholesale and in mass, and to retail at cost plus actual expenses. R. Grootenhuis was manager, and J. Van de Luyster, Jr., assistant. Goods were bought in the East and shipped here; and, to facilitate the delivery of the goods, it was also decided to purchase a colony vessel.

Mr. D. Versteeg, who in 1886 published a little book on the Holland settlements in Michigan and Iowa, says that the Colony store was started "in the fall of 1847." That he is correct in this statement is shown by a reference to this matter in a letter of Miss Cornelia M. Van Malsen (who a few weeks later became Mrs. J. Van de Luyster, Jr.), which was written to her mother, The Netherlands. In this letter dated Nov. 16, 1847, she says, "They are building a large wooden house and a store for a company for which we are to work." The reference is to the Colony Store; for it is well known that Van de Luyster, Jr. was one of the managers of that store. The only reference I have found that touches the purchase of the colony vessel is in a general letter of advice sent by Rev. Vander Meulen to his friends in the Netherlands, and which, though written in his log house at Zeeland, was dated Holland, Oct. 8, 1847. The part referred to says, "We have already two sawmills and will soon have two gristmills. A negotiation for money has been undertaken and has been so effective that we have bought a vessel for the transportation of wood. There is still much to be done here. Millions of trees are found here from which much money can be made; although we had a hundred sawmills they would have plenty of work, for opposite to us is Milwaukee, southwest of us Chicago, which both hanker for wood."

This letter certainly shows the unity of the settlers at that time. The date also of the purchase of the colony ship is definitely fixed as before Oct. 8, 1847. The "negotiation for money" mentioned refers no doubt to the general plan for the Colony store.

According to this and other evidence the Colony Vessel was bought to carry goods from Chicago, Detroit and Buffalo, for the Colony store; to carry immigrants from different points on the Great Lakes to the Colony; and especially, as the above quotation shows, to transport for the colonists their wood, that is, their staves, shingles, bark and lumber. It is also evident that in 1847 the settlers knew that in a short time the exportation of their wood products would be their main stay, as it subsequently proved to be.

The vessel bought for the colony was the schooner "A. E. Knickerbocker." And here it is proper to quote what the late Gerrit Van Schelven says in the sketch he gave in 1876 of "The Early Settlement of Holland." Mr. Van Schelven, in lack of other evidence, obtained his facts from the surviving settlers; and what he found is without doubt substantially correct. He says, "In connection with

CLOSE SCHOOL WHEN BABY IS BORN

The grammar department of the Forest Grove school was closed last Thursday and Friday as the teacher, Carl Schermer of Vriesland, and Mrs. Schermer had just welcomed a new addition to the family. Classes were resumed the next Monday with the teacher being very pleasant and patient with the children.

was Ale is doubtful. The statement that the Knickerbocker later on traded at our harbor many times, though disputed, has upon fuller investigation, been found to be correct. While I can find no reference to the vessel for a few years (the vessel records for 1847, 1853, the Knickerbocker is reported as lying "before our harbor" and is referred to as "the first vessel that sailed to and from the colony here." In June, 1854, in a report on exports from Holland for a month, the Knickerbocker is mentioned three different times, as departing with 44 cords of bark, 43 cords of bark, and 40,000 staves. These citations from the local paper, De Hollander, settle the matter.

In looking into Beer's "Great Lakes," I found an item (like a needle in a haystack) that in the year 1855 the schooner A. E. Knickerbocker, built before 1843, was wrecked on Lake Michigan, with the loss of one life. So then, like all other vessels sooner or later, our Colony Vessel went to Davy Jones's locker.

ZEELAND MERCHANTS WILL HOLD FARMERS' DAY TO START BOOSTING CITY

Arrangements for a community-wide Farmer's Day at Zeeland are rapidly nearing completion by the various committees engaged in this work. Speakers have been secured after changing the original date proposed by the merchants and professional folks of the city who are unitedly undertaking to entertain the farmers all day Saturday, March 1, at the high school gymnasium.

The sessions will open at about 9:30 a. m. Three representatives of Michigan State College will at that time discuss major poultry and farm problems.

During the noon hour the businessmen have agreed to serve the guests a piping hot luncheon. The coffee, of course, will flow freely.

During the afternoon, another informative as well as interesting program will be provided. The details as to the subjects cannot be stated at this time, as all these matters have not been conclusively arranged. Watch for further announcements next week and keep the date open.

Troop six of the Boy Scouts will give a demonstration for the regular meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution on next Monday in the city hall. William Meengs has charge of the troop.

Rev. William Wolvius of Holland officiated at the Sunday morning services at Calvary church, Grand Rapids, and at the afternoon Holland services at Third church.

Dr. S. C. Nettinga of Holland will preach in the Holland language at the First Reformed church of Zeeland on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 23rd.

When Chester Jesup, the diamond salesman, was arrested in Holland recently it was found upon a search of his clothing that he had about $1500 to $2000 worth of diamonds secreted away in a pocket of his coat. In attempting to make a sale at Holland he had claimed that the gem was an old keepsake belonging to his mother, which he wished to sell because he was short of funds for immediate needs. Attempts were also made to sell in Zeeland.

Walter Groth, manager of the Holland Gas Co., motored to Three Rivers Wednesday on business.

Local Resort Preparing For Next Summer

A $5,000 BUILDING
PROGRAM PLANNED
BY PINE LODGE

Pine Lodge assembly is seeking to raise a special fund of $5,000 to finance a building program covering six cabins and an auditorium seating upward of 700 persons in order to develop better housing conditions and larger audiences for the summer conferences.

Indications an attendance of at least 100 at each of the boys' and girls' conferences. Rev. John E. Kuizenga of Western seminary has the promise of $500 of theology, which means enlarged school.

Plans are under way to hold a teachers summer school the last two weeks in July. The general Bible conference, at which Rev. Samuel M. Zwemer is to be one of the speakers, will be held in August.

The Western Michigan diocese of the Episcopal church will hold its summer school of 150 delegates at Pine Lodge June 21 to 28.

HEAR MINISTER DIEKEMA OVER RADIO SUNDAY NOON

Radio fans the world over will be able to hear Minister Diekema from the Hague next Sunday at one o'clock "our time" for at that time he has been invited to speak in the Dutch program broadcasted Sunday.

Holland-Ottawa and Allegan county folks will be intensely interested in this program as will his many friends throughout the country for they haven't heard his voice now for the past four months and that surely is unusual in this vicinity.

There will be a national hook-up and Mr. Diekema will be heard over any station connected with that broadcasting chain. Therefore it will be easy to pick up on the radio.

Willis A. Diekema, oldest son, received a cablegram from his father advising him of the program which is being prepared for Sunday afternoon.

FENVILLE MAN HAS VALUABLE PAPER SIGNED BY ABRAHAM LINCOLN

A relic of Abraham Lincoln, that is of great interest at the present time, when the 121st anniversary of the Emancipator's birthday has just been observed, is the highly prized possession of a Fenville man, L. H. Bourne, of the Fenville Lumber company. The historic souvenir is a commission signed by Abraham Lincoln as president, and Edwin M. Stanton as secretary of War in Lincoln's cabinet, appointing Lewis H. Sanger of Illinois, to be a First Lieutenant in the 17th U. S. Infantry, his rank dating from August 9, 1862.

The date on the commission is June 8, 1863, indicating that the appointment was retroactive. The commission is on parchment paper that is almost indestructible, and the signature of Lincoln is still quite black, but that of Stanton is somewhat faded. Lieutenant Sanger, to whom the commission was issued, was an uncle of Mr. Bourne.

Mr. Bourne has received several offers to sell the precious document, as high as $75 having been tendered for it, but he values it too highly to part with it even at a much higher figure than that.

OFFICIAL CITY PRIMARY LOT IS THIS ISSUE

On page 3 of section 1 of this issue will be found the official primary ballot in legal form. Readers interested in the coming elections will find there the names of the candidates for city officers as well as for the separate wards as these relate to our city government.

MORE DISCUSSION TO FOLLOW ON REFORMED AND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH UNION

Plans are being formulated for holding regional conferences within the boundaries of the five synods of the Reformed Church in America, at which opportunity will be given to discuss the proposed merger of the Presbyterian and Reformed denominations.

Subcommittees have been named for each synod to arrange for these conferences, if possible, before the annual spring meetings of the classes in the various groups. Efforts will be made to get complete consistories in attendance.

General synod's permanent committee on closer relations with other denominations already has adopted a resolution, expressing desirability of the union, provided substantial unanimity of all sections of the Reformed Church in America can be obtained.

The committee for the Chicago synod is composed of Rev. T. W. Mullenberg of South Holland, Ill., chairman; Rev. John A. Dykstra of Grand Rapids; Rev. Gerrit J. Heikba of Grandville; Rev. S. C. Nettinga of Holland and Elders J. De Young and John N. Trompen of Grand Rapids.—G. R. Press.

Young Lady's Head Crushed Frightfully

ALLEGAN COUNTY GIRL, 19,
KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE;
DRIVER IS ARRESTED

Edward Veldhof, age 21, of Hamilton, is in the county jail at Allegan, facing a charge of negligent homicide, as a result of his automobile striking and killing Lena Van Liere, 19, as she was walking from the East Saugatuck church Sunday.

The fatality occurred about a half-mile north of the church, near the home of the girls' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Van Liere. Lena's sister, Johanna, 19, was walking with her.

Gomer C. Clay Benson and Sheriff Guy Tweed, who were called to the scene, took sworn statements that alleged Veldhof was driving on the wrong side of the road. From information received it appears the girl was instantly killed when struck by the young man's car. It is said that the head was so badly crushed that the brains oozed out on the highway. Her sister although dodging out of the way of the on-coming car was not injured. The car, for some reason unexplained by the authorities, was also on the left hand side of the road and traveling in the same direction, officers charge. Officials say that the man claims he did not see the girls.

Miss Van Liere is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Liere, six sisters and two brothers. The funeral service was held on Thursday afternoon at the home and at the East Saugatuck Christian Reformed Church, the Rev. H. M. Van der Ploeg officiating. Burial was made in the East Saugatuck Cemetery.

SUFFERS FRACTURE OF SKULL SUNDAY DIES WEDNESDAY

Miss Agda Peterson of Grand Haven died Wednesday in Holland hospital due to a fractured skull received in an automobile accident near Holland while on her way by automobile to South Haven.

Miss Peterson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson and was a teacher in the South Haven schools. She was traveling with Ralph Van Toll and Miss Isabella Baker, also of Grand Haven, with Van Toll at the wheel. Upon nearing Saugatuck their car struck an icy spot on one of the turns and skidded into a tree. All three were injured and were taken to Holland hospital where it was found Miss Peterson was suffering from a skull fracture. Miss Baker sustained a broken collar bone and Van Toll has two fractured ribs, but they were able to return to their respective homes.

Noted Dutch Literary Man To Lecture

FOURTH HOLLAND MAN TO TRANSLATE LECTURES

Dr. Winfield Burggraaf, pastor of the First Reformed Church of Milwaukee and well known by many people in this city was given a two weeks leave of absence by his consistory from March 17 to 31, during which time he will be in Princeton, N. J. at the Princeton Theological Seminary at the request of Dr. V. Hepp of the Free University of Amsterdam, Netherlands, who is to give the Stone Lectures there. Dr. Burggraaf is engaged in translating these lectures from the Dutch into the English. The lectures have as their general subject: "Calvinism and the Philosophy of Nature." Dr. Burggraaf studied at the Free University in Amsterdam and while there won the friendship of Dr. Hepp, who teaches systematic theology in that institution.

Dr. Winfield Burggraaf, pastor of the First Reformed Church of Milwaukee gave an address recently before the Milwaukee Ministerial Association on the subject, "What Does It Mean: The Word Became Flesh?"

Increase Taxes in Cities of Netherlands

Many public improvements in larger cities of The Netherlands are resulting in high taxes, according to A. Malade of Rotterdam, who, accompanied by Mrs. Malade, is in Grand Rapids as the guest of Architect Christian Steketee. Mr. Malade is a real estate man in Rotterdam and lives in Wassenaar, a nearby town.

A weight tax on automobiles is being used to defray highway building activities, the country constructing many new roads. The tax on an Essex car is approximately $30 per year for this purpose, he says. In the cities taxes of various kinds are considered high. A resident of Rotterdam, with the equivalent of an $1,800 income, pays about 10 per cent taxes, Mr. Malade says.

Rotterdam is growing rapidly, resulting in much new construction. Residences continue to be constructed of stone with tile roofs, although new and improved features are constantly being added. So-called garden villages in which a group of one-family houses are being constructed with special garden facilities, are popular in the newer sections of Rotterdam, he asserts. Few laboring men own their homes, however.

Ray Nies, B. H. Bowmaster and Jacob Zoernman attended the hard-wear convention in Grand Rapids Wednesday.

The Holland High school girls' glee club will sing at the Sunday evening services at Third Reformed church.

GIVE ONE DAY'S INCOME TO MISSIONS

Next Sunday has been designated as Foreign Mission Sunday and a special offering of a one day's income has been asked by the Board of Foreign Missions to wipe out the deficit, and the Reformed Church of Forest Grove has adopted this regulation and Sunday will mean some collection in that prosperous farming community.

HOLLANDERS LEAD AS ORANGE EATERS NOT BECAUSE OF WILLIAM OF ORANGE

The Netherlands holds the record for orange eating, although this little country produces none of the fruit whatsoever.

During the past year, every good Dutchman got away with at least 51 oranges. Sixty thousand kilograms of the juicy fruit were eaten by all the inhabitants.

Spain, one of the best producers of oranges, came in as second with only 41 per head. England was third with 40 for every beef eater. We hardly think William of Orange, the "Abe Lincoln" of the Netherlands had anything to do with it and yet there might be some sentiment that way, since the name of the great man and the fruit the Dutch appear to love so well, are pronounced and spelled the same in both the Dutch and the English languages.

HOLLAND FOLKS WILL AGAIN APPEAR AT "LIT."

The Zealand Ladies' Literary Club will meet Feb. 25. There will be a piano solo by Clarence Dykema and Prof. Bruce Raymond of Holland will give the last of his series of three lectures. His topic will be "The Rise of the Common Man." Mrs. Hein Derks will be hostess.

The Book Review Club will meet at 2:15 and Mrs. Willard Claver will review "Good Companions" by J. B. Priestley.

MANY LAWS GOVERNING BARBERS—BUT HOW ABOUT A LOST HAT

Divers laws to regulate barbers and barber shops are in force in Michigan. Laws for licensing and regulating, laws relating to apprentices, and to guard against contagious and infectious disease of the face. But no law, not even a Supreme Court decision, as to whether the owner of a barber shop is liable when a customer hangs his good hat on a peg and another customer takes it, leaving a bum bonnet in its place.

The Supreme Court of Georgia, however, holds that the owner of a barber shop is not liable.

Chief Justice Bleckley of the Georgia court, noted for his wit and humor, as well as his legal attainments, made these quaint observations in the opinion:

"It hath never happened from the earliest times to the present that barbers, who are our ancient order of small craftsmen, serving their customers for a small fee, and entertaining them the while with the small gossip of the town or village, have been held responsible for a mistake made by one customer whereby he taketh the hat of another from the common rack or hanging place appointed for all customers to hang their hats, this rack or place being in the same room in which customers sit to be shaved. The barber is a craftsman laboring for wages, not a capitalist directing a business of trade or trust."

HOPE GIRLS' GLEE CLUB TO GIVE CONCERT TONIGHT

A concert by Hope college girls' glee club is to be given at North Park school under auspices of Mrs. Glenn Hunsberger's Sunday school class of North Park Presbyterian church, Grand Rapids, Friday evening. The club recently placed first in intercollegiate competitions in Michigan and just has completed a tour. The club is composed of 24 vocalists and two accompanists.

Employees of the J. C. Penney company attended a district banquet in Grand Rapids Wednesday evening.

REMEMBER THIS FISH?

Anyway it stirred up considerable commotion about three years ago and brought out rather a large crop of continued newspaper stories. Yes, the fish is dead by this time, but the claimants are still very much alive. Possession is "nine points of the law," so you can plainly see who hold the nine hand. The fish is re-published to remind you that if the ground hog keeps on with "his stuff" as he has, that spring is right around the corner and it is time to be looking after your fishing outfits.

The Holland High school girls' glee club will sing at the Sunday evening services at Third Reformed church.

"TWENTY-THIRTY"

It is rather refreshing, especially in the present business turmoil brought about by the constant changing in business methods to gether with a stressful period, to hear a real constructive, a real helpful and a real worthwhile dis- course as was given by Mr. Charles Landwehr of the Holland Furnace company, the principal speaker at the Merchants' banquet Monday.

His subject, "Twenty-Thirty," was bubbling over with facts that could be applied to any business. There was not a mean phrase in it. There was no fault finding because of how others did business but Mr. Landwehr simply brought out "How are you running yours?" In simple language he pointed out that a merchant who conducted his business improperly was doomed to failure. He then applies the proper method. He portrays so many im- proper methods and immediately applies methods that are obviously so proper that it would be a "dumb-bell" business man who cannot "see the light."

Mr. Landwehr points out through facts and figures that the trade radius is here, that the volume of business is to be gotten if only the proper methods are applied.

He says further that there is business enough to go around if we go at the matter right. It must be said that business methods in Hol- land during the past ten years have improved wonderfully, whether that be in the neighborhood store or on "main street." Our home merchants know how to merchandise better, they know how to display better, they know how to advertise better. The merchant that is constantly watching his neighbor works while his neighbor works would be far better off to forget his neighbor and work himself, thinking up new ideas. The one will have a frazzled nerve accompanied with a grouchy disposition which does not attract customers while the other will be hopeful with new ideas and possibly a smiling face which to the contrary attracts patrons. Add to this pleasant attribute your personality that has made you friends and you won't go far wrong in your enter- prise.

Elsewhere in this issue the dis- course of Mr. Landwehr can be found as near as your editor could take it as it was spoken by Mr. Landwehr. Turn to it and no mat- ter if you're a "butcher, a baker, or a candlestick maker," you'll find lessons there that you can apply in any business. Give it a try and watch results.

STRESSING SAFETY
IN AUTOMOBILES

To give an idea of the magnitude of the automobile industry and its bearing on employment and gen- eral business conditions, it is inter- esting to note a recent report that one manufacturer of steel automo- bile bodies, in a Philadelphia plant alone, used 140,464.3 tons of sheet steel in the production of all-steel automobile bodies in 1929. This would make a 16-foot wide strip of steel 2,302 miles long.

The use of all-steel bodies has been growing rapidly as a safety feature of automobiles but one can scarcely realize that this much steel can be used by one plant in building one part of an automobile in one year.

American cars, in all price classes, feature steel bodies. Exhaustive tests and practical experience have proven that this type of construc- tion offers the occupants of a car greatest possible protection in an accident. The trend toward greater automobile safety is unquestion- ably responsible for saving thou- sands of lives each year.

The February meeting of the Longfellow Parent-Teachers as- sociation was held Tuesday evening. The meeting opened with com- munity singing led by Frances Spoel- stra, after which S. H. Houtman led the devotion. The following program was given: two piano solos by Miss Josephine Fris; a group of songs by Mr. Walter Groth; Prof. Bruce Raymond of Hope College gave a very interesting and inspir- ing address on George Washington. "What he can mean to us" Miss Josephine Fris then gave a very beautiful pantomime of the song "America." Harry Houtman and Louis Mulder entertained with mu- sic on the saw and accordion. After the program a business session was held. Mrs. Liedtke, who has been secured to fill Miss Carlson's place, was introduced. Fred Jonkman of the common council explained the use of the voting machine. Refresh- ments were served by Geneva Church and committee.

Mr. Hughes, Chief Justice
Henry Ford's New Plan
No Bolshevism Needed
A Real Stigma

Mr. Hughes is now chief justice and the people have in their service a man of great ability, profound knowledge of the law and highest integrity. They know that Mr. Hughes, for the sake of public ser- vice, exchanges a private law prac- tice worth $500,000 a year for the small wages paid by the richest na- tion to its highest judges.

Henry Ford will spend $100,000,000 establishing schools that will enable students to "fit into life" when they come out at eighteen years of age. He says: "The reason we have so much crime and racketeer- ing is because schools do not teach our young men how to fit in the world. Racketeering is nothing but a revolt against the present improper system of teaching."

Schools at present are better than they were 50 years ago before rack- eteering became a science. Students should all learn to use their hands, particularly those not well adapted to using their heads. It would be waste of time for men of the type of Voltaire, Milton, Moliere or Beethoven to learn a trade, but they are scarce.

Mr. Ford should modify his resolu- tion to "devote the rest of his life to educational undertakings." Part of his effort should produce tractors of the caterpillar type—plenty of power with the traction "track" fully inclined, protected from dust.

In one column you read about a "mob" of 1,200 idle men, fighting mobs in Cleveland, twenty in the mob injured and some of the officers hurt.

In another column you find com- fort, perhaps, in news from Wash- ington that our national banks have resources of over twenty-nine bil- lions of dollars.

Seven thousand four hundred and eight institutions have on deposit more than twenty-two billions.

A country so rich ought not to have so many men willing to work and idle.

You are told that the mob of riot- ing unemployed in Cleveland had been influenced by "Bolshevik propa- ganda."

It is very easy to say "Bolshe- vism." But when a man is out of work, worried and perhaps hun- gry, he needs no help from Lenin to make him dangerously dissatis- fied.

Men adrift on a raft in midocean had never heard of Lenin or Bolshevism have killed and eaten each other.

Five states of the South, highest in illiteracy, are conducting educa- tional campaigns to reduce "the stigma."

Our census takers list the illit- erates.

Iowa has only 1.1 percentage of illiterates, lowest in the nation. Nebraska came first until 1920, and is striving to regain the champion- ship.

However, persuading or forcing hard-working people to study at night when they are tired out, and learn enough about their A B C's to remove the illiteracy stigma is not doing much.

To be able to read and write when you lack leisure to do either, and have no access to books worth while, is no help.

As well teach a man 5,000 miles from Egypt to read hieroglyphics as Egyptian monuments.

Hard, underpaid labor and lack of work are a "stigma" worse than illiteracy.

The world still loves titles. In a Los Angeles lawsuit about money collected for a newly invented re- ligious "cult" you meet a mild- looking gentleman called "The Four Winds of the Whirlwind." He wrote down with his typewriter 50,000 pages dictated by angels to the priestesses of the "Great Eleven Cult."

"Concords of stars led the priest- esses to various locations, and there the angels did their dictating."

Men and women gave tens of thousands of dollars in return for nonsense of this kind, which proves that the human race is largely fool- ish.

Ogden L. Mills, assistant secre- tary of the United States treasury. In a few words convinces you that this country has genuine prosperity if prosperity consists in getting more of life's good things than any- body else gets.

The United States has only 7 per cent of the world's population and yet, says Mr. Mills, "that 7 per cent consumes approximately 48 per cent of the world's coffee, 55 per cent of the tin, 56 per cent of the crude rubber, 21 per cent of the sugar, 72 per cent of the raw silk, 36 per cent of the coal, 42 per cent of the pig iron, 47 per cent of the copper and 69 per cent of the crude petro- leum."

"Out of nearly 32,000,000 automo- biles in the world on January 1, 1929, more than 24,000,000 were owned in the United States."

We certainly get our share. Per- haps the World court will tell us we get too much.

Thomas A. Edison believes that prohibition is possible and sure to come. "Fully automatic machin- ery," Edison says, will provide the laborer with a home and many lux- uries, but he must not drink.

The Van Raalte school Parent- Teachers meeting was held Tues- day evening and was opened with prayer by Mr. Peerbolt. John Lam and Raymond Spilck rendered sev- eral selections of old tunes on the clarinet. Mrs. Peter Van Ess gave a talk on her experience among the Winnebago Indians. A girls' sex- uality from Holland. High school gave three vocal selections under the direction of Miss Tracie Moore. High school students presented a play, also under the direction of Miss Moore, and Miss Hazel Al- bers, called "Hans Van Smash." Refreshments were served after the meeting.

INDIANS CHARY OF WHITE DEER

The Michigan Indians never would shoot an albino or white deer, according to Rueben S. Bab- bitt, conservation officer at Gray- ling. Such an animal, they believed, was favored by the gods. They were also superstitious about kill- ing wolves, because of their re- lationship with the Indian dogs.

Business Facts

the business. With cooperation lacking, the business is bound to suffer. Equity in business should not be forgotten. A good merchant must see that his prices are right, and at the same time adequate, admitting of a profit. Unless this be true he will not have a very glorious feeling at the end of the year when he takes his inventory.

"I have a great respect for the average merchant. He will put in longer hours and work harder than any other business man. You should learn all about your busi- ness before you start. In fact, you should educate yourself before the start is made. If the average busi- ness man had the education that the professional man requires, we would not have the large number of failures reported from time to time. I believe in taking business lessons. Profit by the success of a merchant in your home town or a neighboring town. Be progressive in your business. Changes are coming so rapidly, good roads have changed all man- ner of merchandising; while a city like Holland should have all the merchandise that buyers in a trade radius demand. If they have, cus- tomers would not go to Grand Ra- pids and other trade centers. Re- tails and the customer is the final boss. You cannot make him buy unless you have the proper goods to sell. Merchants should not over- look the fact that nationally known goods are articles that move the best. Holland is becoming like a big magnet and with improved buy- ing conditions, and larger assort- ments, buyers will be attracted to this city."

"I am told that Warm Friend Tavern served one hundred thou- sand meals last year. A lot of meals to eat, but I don't know that many of these Tavern guests have purchased in Holland, and more will if you keep up the as- sortment, improve it as you go along, and remember, I am not saying that you are not doing this, for I am buying from Holland mer- chants. I am well satisfied, and am well treated."

"There is enough business to go around if you go after it right. Salesmanship is the greatest thing in business. Your salesmen should know how to demonstrate, tell an interesting story to the customer on each article. Being able to tell a customer why a $15.00 chair is more serviceable than a $15.00 chair and make the sale, is salesmanship."

"Many years ago I compiled a catalogue containing 12,000 pic- tures and articles. I wrote a little salesman's romance about each article, with suggestions that inter- ested the buying public. How vivid you make this romance will tell through the volume of sale as to whether the story is effective. Train yourself and your men in salesmanship. If you don't do this, you are missing something."

"If you enter the day without a plan you are bound to fail. Make every day a bigger day. Let each day stand by itself thinking posi- tively for that day. Following this will make all days good days."

"New ideas bring success. Some ideas may bring tremendous profits. We have a young man in our employ who brought us a new idea that has made us a great deal of money. This young man is a doer, a thinker, a man with an open mind. If you are not open minded, you are already going in the wrong direction. Habits are bad in business, if the habit is bad."

"My last thought is work. Work will reward workers, but will never reward shirkers. Service is the essential thing. We are master ser- vants to one another and unless you are a master servant, a master salesman, you will find some real competition. Have the real desire to serve. Do business up to the minute and it will be difficult to beat you out."

Dinner prepared by Star of Beth- lehem No. 40. O. E. S. Music by Colonial Orche-tra.

Vandenberg Bros. Oil Company presented each guest present with a token. The ladies were given flowers, and the gentlemen cigars, but Capt. Harrington would not allow the men to smoke until a vote was taken by the ladies present. The women graciously gave a unanimous vote to allow the men to smoke which brought a gale of laughter.

Another amusing incident oc- curred when Mr. Harrington called forth the best ticket sellers. The contest was between Carl Swift and Charles Bennett, the latter winning the prize of a derby hat of Dutch vintage several sizes too small. The incident was the cause of a great deal of merriment.

The minstrels had many take- offs on local business men that were amusing indeed. This number was presented through the courtesy of the Topp Radio Shop.

The Majestic Minstrels who were presented through the courtesy of Topp's Majestic Shop of Washing- ton Square, were enthusiastically received by the audience.

Considerable curiosity was aroused concerning the identity of the participants of the minstrel. The entire cast was composed of local boys. The end men were Roy Heath and Jim Nelson who have been heard repeatedly in Holland and are considered unsurpassed as amateur black-face comedians.

The audience was greatly amused when they heard a darkey speak Dutch. This Holland darkey was Charley Hanson.

The quartette was composed of Barney Kamerzad, Garry De Weerd, Cass Topp and Heine Topp. They received a great hand after each song.

This was the initial performance of the Majestic Minstrels. They were coached by James Molenaar, formerly of Chicago who conducted radio auditions of WCLP in various parts of the country at the time they were making their search for amateur radio talent.

SECOND SPEAKER
TELLS PROBLEMS
OF MERCHANTSMust Not Kill Off Small Business
for It Would Destroy Initiative

The members of the Holland Ex- change club listened yesterday to an interesting address on "The New Competition in Business," by Mr. David P. Chindblom, President of the Miller Baking company of Grand Rapids, Michigan. He tried to present a fair and accurate analysis of business methods as affecting us daily. His desire and aim was not to present a solution as much as to show us the serious- ness of the situation and ask for careful consideration.

"In this month of February," the speaker said, "we naturally think of Washington and Lincoln because of their organization and preservation of our country. Today we face the housing up of many of these bonds. A few years ago, trust-busting was the big business of our country, but now we are convinced that it is not size that is so dangerous but methods used. Any business man has a right to develop his business to as large an extent as opportunities and means at his disposal make possible but he must be fair in doing so."

"The great danger in our present business crisis," the speaker argued, "was that the individual is being crushed out. Imagine a main street of a city with all its local merchants removed or wiped out of business. He did not want to see such a condition prevail as this might lead to communism and so- cialism. Individual ability and initiative must be considered but all must be given a fair chance. Kill a man's initiative and you make him a mere machine and harm him mor- ally and spiritually. The hope must still be held up to every American boy and girl that he or she may rise to the height of ability warranted."

"The speaker concluded by say- ing that 'we must be fair to both sides. Unfair methods should not be used against big business either. Calling names or starting boycotts are poor methods in busi- ness to follow in America,' the speaker contends. 'Another fact is that the average merchant gives too much credit. In a small way he starts out giving a ten per cent credit but as his business in- creases the credit line increases proportionately with the result that he finds himself financially em- barrassed often and he sees his profit dissipated. Too much credit is the cause of many failures.'"

"This is a busy machine age and more and more the individual is being swallowed up. How to settle this problem challenges serious thought," the speaker said.

Mr. Fred Beuwkes and Ernest Hartman were welcomed as new members. The speaker was intro- duced by the chairman, Albert E. Lampen. Mr. Chindblom left such a favorable impression that an en- deavor will be made to secure him for the Rotary and also for the Holland Merchants' association for future meetings.

ZEELAND GIRL WILL WED SOON

Miss Helen Welling entertained a number of her friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cham- berlain on West Central Ave. at Zeeland last Friday night with din- ner and a bridge party. The guests were all seated at small tables where the heart-shaped place cards announced the engagement of Miss Helen Welling to Mr. Gerrit Kem- me with the date for the wedding set for June 19.

After a most delicious dinner the ladies turned to a delightful evening of bridge, the prizes going to Gladys Meeboer, Mrs. Bennett, and Mabel De Jonge.

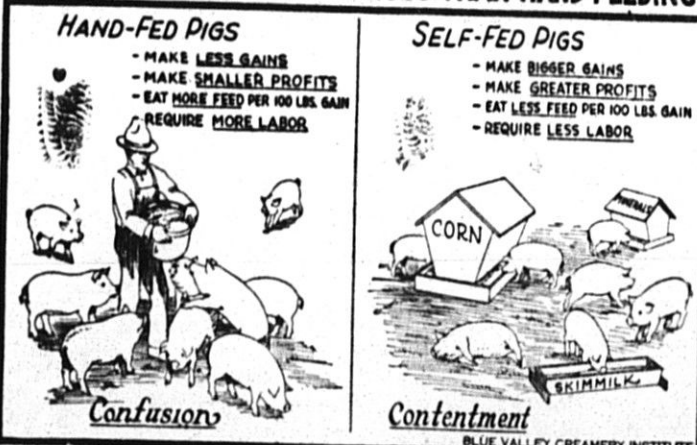

Those present were Mrs. Ethel Beukema, Mrs. Rose De Jonge, Mrs. C. E. Boone, Mrs. M. B. Rog- ers, Mrs. T. Dewey, Mrs. T. Van- der Brink, Mrs. C. W. Bennett, Mrs. E. Van Bree, Mrs. H. Borst, Misses Mabel De Jonge, Anne J. Boonstra, Gladys Meeboer and Antoinette Van Koevoering besides the hostesses, Helen Welling and Mrs. Chamberlain.

The Board of Public Works held their regular meeting Monday evening at which time they were approached by the financial com- mittee of the common council in regard to aid for the year's city budget, which after some discus- sion was fixed at slightly more than last year, $49,790.

"SELF-FED PIGS" MAKE BEST GAINS

Experiments Show They Are More Profitable Than Those Hand-Fed

SELF FEEDING MAKES BIGGER HOGS THAN HAND FEEDING

Pigs that are required to be hog- gish at feeding time are not the ones that make the biggest and most profitable gains, says the Blue Valley Creamery Institute. Pigs that are fed by hand two or three times a day rush to their troughs at feeding time to make sure that they get their share of the feed. However, when they are fed from self-feeders, in which feed is wait- ing for them to eat at their leisure, there is no confusion and bolting down to their feed as is the case when they are hand-fed.

Self-fed pigs are more profitable than those fed by hand, according to the results obtained at six differ- ent agricultural experiment sta- tions in which groups of pigs from a self-feeder in a dry lot were com- pared with other groups hand-fed. In these trials the pigs that were fed from self-feeders averaged 11 per cent greater daily gains than those hand-fed, and in making these

ONE OF HOLLAND'S OLDEST CITIZENS SUCCUMBS

Simon Lievesne, one of the oldest residents of Holland, passed away Sunday evening at the age of 83 years.

Mr. Lievesne was born in The Netherlands on Dec. 7, 1846, and came to America with his parents at the age of six years. The family first settled in New York state, later moving to Port Sheldon where Simon Lievesne became a sailor on lumber barges between Port Shel- don and Chicago.

Mr. Lievesne married Miss Mary De Kraker in 1879 and they came to Holland in 1884 where Mr. Lievesne engaged in the moving of houses and heavy machinery.

Mr. Lievesne is survived by four sons, Jacob N., Peter A., Ben H., and Frank M. Lievesne. One brother, Mr. H. Lievesne, and one sister, Mrs. O. H. Robbins, both of Grand Haven, also survive.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the home of Frank M. Lievesne, 63 West 17th street, and at 2 o'clock from the Seventh Reformed church with Rev. P. Van Eerden officiat- ing. Interment took place in the Pilgrim Home cemetery.

Twins at 81 Years Celebrate Their Respec- tive Birthdays Jointly

To have lived well beyond the allotted three score and ten years, to have celebrated their golden wedding anniversaries and to still be enjoying good health and happiness is somewhat of a rarity for any family group but when that distinction comes to a twin brother and sister, as it has the last week to Age VanderWagen and Mrs. John Bronsema of Ferrysburg, it is rare indeed.

The brother and sister, living side by side for the past 81 years, are continuing their lives much as they have for the past 60 years, enjoying their quiet home in Ferrysburg, each fortunate still to have their wedded mate beside them. Mr. and Mrs. VanderWagen celebrated their 57th wedding anniversary on Dec. 22 and Mr. and Mrs. Bronsema celebrated their wedding anniversary on Feb. 19.

Mr. VanderWagen and Mrs. Bronsema were born on December 27, 1848, in Province, Netherlands. They spent their youth in the old country, but in 1873 the brother

DUTCH QUEEN GIVEN FOUR RARE HORSES

A team of four magnificent "Nonius" horses has recently been added to the royal stables of Queen Wilhelmina, presented to her majesty by the Hungarian government. This breed is limited and specimens are rare. It was established during the Napoleonic Wars and has been carefully fostered ever since.

These three men, August Covarelli, John Polombo and Benny Carini, all of Detroit, were arrested near Trenton by conservation officers. Judge W. J. Vreeland of Trenton sentenced each to pay a fine of $75 and serve 30 days in jail.

SONGBIRD SHOOTING RATHER EXPENSIVE

Fines aggregating $225 and jail sentences aggregating 90 days were imposed on three Detroit men convicted of shooting songbirds. In addition their guns were taken and their automobiles confiscated by the department of conservation.

RAISES ONE LEG WHEN SWORN IN AS A WITNESS

Armless Man Puzzles Judge Here, Old Issue of Newspaper Reveals

Grand Rapids Herald—From an old scrap book of newspaper clippings collected between 1848 and 1855 by the late Mrs. Sarah D. F. Ewing, and now owned by her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Frost, 627 Lyon St., N. E., contains a humorous event in the early court history of the city.

The item apparently clipped from some out-of-state paper, reads: A correspondent in Ottawa county, Michigan, from whom we are always glad to hear, gives us the following: Scene in the mayor's court at Grand Rapids, Mayor Church presiding. Witness called up to be sworn by the clerk.

Clerk—You do solemnly swear—Mayor (with dignity)—Stop, the witness will hold up his right hand.

Clerk—The man has no right hand your honor.

Mayor (with some asperity)—Let him hold up his left hand then. Clerk—He has had the misfortune to lose his left hand, also, as your honor will perceive.

Mayor (savagely)—Tell him to hold up his right leg then, a man cannot be sworn in this court without holding up something. Silence gentlemen. Our dignity must be preserved. (Witness sworn on one leg).

Bees Seldom Inactive

Honey bees do not go into a true state of hibernation during the winter but remain active within the hive, although they do not venture abroad, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. To keep warm, the colony practices a marvelous system of insulation and exercise. A large number of bees form a more or less spherical cluster, those on the outside having their bodies packed close to each other, parallel and with their heads up.

This formation constitutes an insulation shell. Inside, the other bees keep up a constant twisting and squirming motion to create heat. This is so effective that the temperature inside the shell seldom drops below 57 degrees Fahrenheit.

PROHIBITION IS DRIVING THOUSANDS INTO EXILE

Prohibition is one of the reasons impelling Americans in ever-increasing numbers to leave the United States and take up permanent residence abroad, according to official information obtained here today. There are now 392,968 Americans registered with American consuls as permanent residents of other countries, claiming and receiving the protection of the American flag, and increase of more than 100,000 since prohibition went into effect a decade ago. Most of these are wealthy people and it is of American money finds its way into foreign countries.

Before one of the most representative crowds that has ever found its way into Carnegie gym the Hope college varsity tossers were forced to slip before an accurate attack of Coach Barkley's quintet, 22-19. Invading the city with a chance to gain the undisputed leadership of the M.I.A.A. conference, Kazoo found the Hope team a game one, and before the contest had been completed, had turned in one of the best games of their season.

Shortly after the opening whistle it became evident that the battle was to be a defensive one. Close guarding on the part of both teams held down the offensive moves. Kazoo won mainly because of its superior shooting from down the floor. A chart of one game showed only one shot being caged from within the foul line.

Kazoo took the advantage at the beginning of the game and were headed for only a few minutes in the first half. The intermission found the Hornets 10-9 in the fore. Hope could not quite catch the "Kazooks" in the last half, although the entire team worked hard and played a better brand of ball than in the first twenty minutes.

Ducks are Killed Needlessly in Haven Harbor

Hoodlums Dispatch Them With Stones, and Oil on Water Cause Their Death

Sport writer, Jack Van Coevering, writes about wilful destruction of ducks in Grand Haven Harbor: Visitors to the harbor at Grand Haven are beginning to ask the question: Why are there so many dead ducks lying around on the ice in the "government pond"? Every year, hundreds of "old squaws," the hardest fowl of the duck family, make their winter home in the Grand river harbor, and the fatalities this year have stirred the lovers of these winter visitors.

Inquiry regarding the dead ducks reveals that at times, hoodlums, armed with stones and rocks, make a raid on the ducks, merely for the sake of improving their marksmanship. Asked why they pick on the ducks, the answer is: "For what good are they, anyway?" Year after year, these harbor ducks provide a welcome attraction against the snow and ice-covered landscape, this very fact is their good excuse for being. Ducks have been reported to have been maimed by the rock-throwers, with the result that they crawl up on the ice to die a painful death. It is also reported that some of the ducks make their way through the water intake to the reservoirs in pursuit of minnows. A screen at the mouth of the pipe would easily overcome that.

Another clue to the dead and dying ducks lies in the thin film of oil which is sometimes seen on the surface of the open water where the ducks congregate. Whether this is a factor or not is uncertain. Dr. Miles Pirnie, ornithologist for the Department of Conservation will soon undertake an investigation as to the causes of the death of the old squaws.

It must be admitted that the old squaws are of little value as food, since their flesh is rank, fishy and tough. But like all other ducks they are fully protected against shooting at this time of the year. The old squaws do not seem to be at all particular in regard to food, eating quite a variety, such as sand fleas, small mollusks, crustaceans, beetles and marine insects, together with some seaweeds and a quantity of sand. Their vegetable food includes teal moss, duckweed, blue-flag, water plantain, pondweed and pickereel weed.

Old squaws, or long tailed ducks, are lively, restless, happy-go-lucky little ducks, associated in our minds with cold gray skies, snow squalls, and turbulent wintry waves. Though happy and gay enough during the winter, the height of their merriment is seen in the spring, or when the first signs of the breaking up of winter announce the coming of the nuptial season. Early in the spring, they become more restless than ever, as they gather in merry flocks in the harbors. People who are interested in the antics of waterfowl, may have an opportunity of observing the old squaws in the Grand Haven harbor during the courtship season, which is very prolonged and very variable. The males, in various stages of budding nuptial plumage and fired with the enthusiasm of mating time, gather in little groups about some favored female in fantastic postures, rushing, flying, quarreling, and filling the air with their musical love notes. If noisy at other times, they are still more so now, vying with each other to make themselves seen and heard; it is a lively scene, full of the springtime spirit of joy, love and life.

The increasing warmth of the sun and the stimulus of the courtship activities, starts the restless birds on their spring migration by various routes to their summer homes on Arctic shores. The ducks in the Grand Haven harbor are due to begin their migrations any day now, since they begin to leave Michigan during February and March. April 3 is the last recorded date for the bird in this locality. As late as June, however, old squaws may be seen in Lake Superior. The birds nest in the north shore of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, on the south coast of Labrador and in the high northern latitudes of Alaska.

ALLEGAN WILL ALSO CELEBRATE BLOSSOM TIME

Allegan will take part in the annual blossom festival and tour May 5 to 11, it was decided Tuesday. Two St. Joseph newspapermen spoke here Monday before the Rotary club and the Allegan Business and Professional Women's club and found local sentiment decidedly in favor of the movement.

The blossom queen, "Miss Allegan," will be chosen in a few weeks. Any pretty Allegan girl, between the ages of 17 and 25 and unmarried, may be registered with any member of the Allegan Business and Professional Women's club, in the competition for final selection of queen.

WHY EGGS ARE SOMETIMES SLOW COMING NOW

One reason eggs are scarce on the farm in fall and winter is because the fowls don't get enough protein in the ration for rapid growth in summer and the hens don't get enough protein during the winter to produce eggs. Proteins from animal sources are generally better for feeding poultry than those of vegetable origin, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Meat scrap, fish meal, milk, and tankage are all good sources of animal protein, and in addition supply valuable mineral. High-vegetable-protein feeds, such as soybean meal, cottonseed meal, peanut meal, and gluten meal, if used in the poultry ration, should be supplemented by additional minerals.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris entertained on Tuesday night in honor of Justice C. E. Burr's birthday anniversary, where cards were the feature of the entertainment. A midnight luncheon was served at a table gay with valentine colors and covers were laid for the following: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Oosting of Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Simpson of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lindgren, and the hosts.—Grand Haven Tribune.

WICHERS SAYS THERE IS TOO MUCH PICKING OF FLAWS IN LIVES OF GREAT MEN

Monday night was a gala occasion for the Zeeland Exchangeites. At this time Exchange Club members met with their wives to commemorate the birthday of George Washington. The club rooms were attractively decorated and a delicious banquet was served.

Mr. Wynand Wichers of Holland was the main speaker of the evening. He touched upon the different phases of Washington's life, comparing or contrasting him with Abraham Lincoln. He discounted the efforts of some modern biographers to belittle our national heroes by hunting around for the uncouth things in their lives and holding these up to the public.

Mr. Wichers believed this undue attention and emphasis of the small mistakes in a great man's life gives us a distorted picture of him. He pointed out that Washington in spite of his frailties was a great man and would continue as a great world figure.

Miss Jean Van Haven entertained the audience with some humorous readings and Mr. C. A. De Jonge gave a stereoscopic lecture on the life of Washington. This lecture proved instructive as well as entertaining. Since the speaker had visited many of the historical spots pictured on the slides, he was able to describe and explain them as actual scenes of life.

A male trio, consisting of A. Kooman, G. Van Hoven and H. Berks, and the Zeeland Merry Makers furnished music for the occasion.

ZEELAND FAMILY CELEBRATES MANY BIRTHDAYS IN FEBRUARY

February is known as birthday anniversary month by the family of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson of this city. In February three of the eleven children were born to the Johnsons and the mother, Mrs. A. Johnson, also celebrates her birthday anniversary this month. All the anniversaries come within three days of each other. Not to be outdone two of the grandchildren also celebrate their anniversaries in February. The sextet includes Mrs. L. Johnson, Feb. 27; two daughters, Mrs. Robert Newhouse of Holland, also Feb. 25, and Maggie Johnson, Feb. 24. A son, Martin Johnson of Grand Rapids, Feb. 23; two grandchildren, Joyce Carolyn Elenbaas, Feb. 16, and Robert D. Johnson, Feb. 11.

Albert Johnson, Sr., is a veteran rural letter carrier out of this city.

ZEELAND PASTOR WILL RESUME WORK THIS WEEK

Because of the illness of the pastor, Rev. Wm. Kok, the services in the First Chr. Reformed Church at Zeeland were conducted by three fellow ministers. Rev. Peter Kosten of Zeeland had charge of the services in the morning. Rev. Wm. Hendriksen of the Third Chr. Reformed Church conducted the afternoon service, while Rev. H. Dykhuys of Jamestown preached in the evening.

Rev. Mr. Kok was quite ill for the past two weeks but he has been improving rapidly and will probably be able to resume his duties on the pulpit next Sunday.

SAUGATUCK IS SEEKING HOLLAND ADVICE ON BETTER ELECTRIC RATE

A committee from the Saugatuck chamber of commerce comprising President Charles Parrish and L. R. Brady, vice president, and Village President H. E. Kreeger recently attended a meeting of the Holland board of public works to ascertain the cost and feasibility of Holland supplying Saugatuck with electric current.

The committee is working for a better rate and is considering several sources of supply.

PASTORS ARE POPULAR: GET CALLS

Christian Reformed churches at Drenthe and North Blendon have renewed their attempts to get regular pastors. Drenthe has issued a call to Rev. G. W. Hylkema of Orange City, Ia., and North Blendon Reformed Church seeks Rev. H. M. Vander Ploeg of East Saugatuck.

OTTAWA POULTRYMEN TO MEET IN ZEELAND

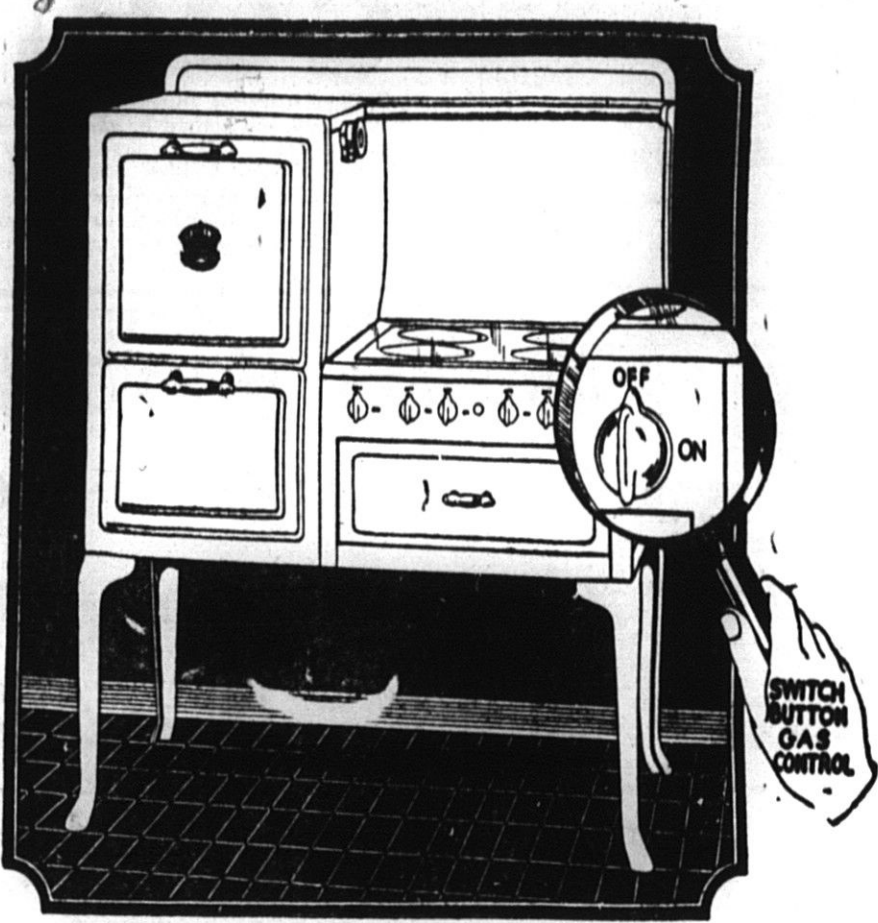

Zeeland poultry men will hold a meeting Thursday afternoon, Feb. 27, for Ottawa poultrymen and hatcherymen in the city hall, Albert Angell, Jr., nationally known poultry expert, will speak.

BRIDGE GRADING BRINGS WORK TO IDLE

Mayor Ernest C. Brooks, who has been co-operating with the Ottawa County Road Commission and hastening along the bridge project over Black River authorized by the state, has already done a great deal of work along those lines, especially as this relates to the approaches to the proposed new bridge on River Avenue. Work has been started on this early so men who are unemployed would have an added avenue to get employment. Consequently the wider grade at the bridge site has been undertaken.

Mr. Brooks has been following this matter closely and he has been receiving the co-operation especially of Austin Harrington, chairman of the Ottawa County Road Commission, who saw to it that the dirt necessary for the fill was secured at a most reasonable cost, most of it coming gratis.

WASHINGTON KNEW MEN

HE knew men, and knew economics. And never did he make a wiser move than when he appointed Alexander Hamilton Secretary of the Treasury. Hamilton was the founder of our national banking system, the redeemer of our currency; the man whose foresight has made our country the richest as well as the greatest in the world's history. Yes, George Washington knew men.

Do you know men—and Banks? Do you realize that this institution can do for your financial status what Washington's man Hamilton did for this country? We hope you do, for we would indeed be gratified to do business with you.

RESOLUTIONS ON DEATH OF
GEO. A. FARR, JR., READ
IN COURT

The following were arraigned in Ottawa County Circuit Court before Judge Miles: John Southwell, liquor law, plea of guilty to sale; Mrs. Matt Krompach, liquor law, plea of guilty to possession; John Hyde, liquor law, plea of guilty to sale; Peter Moenkamp, liquor law, stood mute, plea of not guilty entered for him; Joseph W. Hutton, guilty to charge of possession and transportation; Dick Knoll, non-support and desertion, not guilty; Raymond Schippers, extortion, stood mute, plea of not guilty entered. The following cases were reported as ready for trial: James Sink, intent to defraud; William T. Ghysels, Harry Zoerman and Everett Tuttle, statutory charges; and Harry Fik, larceny, dismissed. An order for the dissolution of the Superior Poultry Farm, Inc., was allowed on the application of Adrian Vankoeveering, Fred P. Kieft was appointed receiver. Judge Miles ordered judgments rendered in the matter of Wichers Lumber Co. vs. Lincoln Avenue Coal Co. in the sum of $1,449.35; $1,571.86 in favor of Peter Van Zylsen vs. Paul Mastenbrook; $6,848.32 in favor of Grand Haven State bank vs. F. J. Clark et al.

John Hyde was sentenced Monday afternoon to 60 days in the county jail and to pay the costs of $8.65. He was arrested in a raid at his daughter's home Feb. 8 as he was wanted on a warrant issued in 1928.

Judge Fred T. Miles opened Ottawa County Circuit Court Monday at 10 a. m. for the first time since he has become circuit judge of the twentieth judicial circuit of this state, with little to mark the event save a beautiful vase of roses on his desk, bearing the card of C. E. Misner, city attorney of Grand Haven. The attentive, pleasant new judge, who remarked he hoped it was indicative of the feeling of cooperation among the attorneys of the county.

"I am greatly appreciative of the courteous manner in which the attorneys have greeted me on this, the first day of my term and I look forward to the coming years of work among them as pleasant ones."

Former Judge O. S. Cross was in the court room in company with his partner, Daniel Tencate, of Holland. Although the others in court could hardly accustom themselves to seeing the well known judge in other than the judge's chair, he himself seemed to have always been engaged in the practice of the law, which through his long service as judge of this district and many courts of Michigan, he has so wisely administered.

A resolution on the death of George A. Farr, a son of one of the best known old time lawyers of this court, prominent attorney in Michigan 30 years ago, was read by D. F. Pagelson, Mr. Farr practiced in this court several years, before moving to California, where he died a few months ago. The court calendar was read, which appears to be a long one. Several important cases are listed among them, the Ralph T. Hayden suits, which involves many Holland business men, it is said.

Mrs. Matt Krompach, wife of a man who is now serving time at Jonia, was arraigned on a sale of liquor charge and leaving a place she pleaded guilty to the second count.

Monday afternoon a long list of criminal cases were arraigned and the calendar arranged. The jury will be called on Monday, Feb. 24. Judge Miles, who has just closed his first term in Allegan county, will return there Tuesday to finish up some business. He anticipates sitting on most of the cases in the Ottawa session as there are but two or three in which he was engaged previous to becoming the judge of this circuit.

The resolution reads as follows: WHEREAS, the Infinite Ruler of the Universe has in his wisdom seen fit to remove from his earthly labors a former member of the Ottawa County Bar, George A. Farr;

BE IT RESOLVED that in the loss of our brother Farr the Bar of Ottawa County has lost a bright, upright member, and the community in which he resided a useful, upright and worthy citizen, and that his family has lost a beloved brother.

George A. Farr was born in the City of Grand Haven, Michigan, some forty-seven years ago. He was educated in the public schools of Grand Haven and afterwards entered the University of Michigan in the law department. After being there for some time he left the University and entered the office of George A. Farr, one of the eminent lawyers of this county and state. After being with his father a short time, he engaged in the manufacture of piano supplies with Mr. John Cori in the city of Grand Haven, after which he returned to the University of Michigan and was graduated from the law department. He was in his father's office for some time, but finally decided to go west and located in California where he was engaged in ranching. His death came suddenly at the home of his sister, and he was buried beside his father and mother in Lake Forest Cemetery, Grand Haven, Michigan.

It is impossible in the cold formality of any official resolution to adequately express the sentiments and emotions that stir our hearts, yet we feel that we would not be just to the memory of this brother did we not attempt at least to embody in these resolutions such expressions as would convey to his family and to the world at large our conception of the esteem in which we held him and to make permanent record of our respect for him while living and the tender memory in which he is held since his passing.

BE IT RESOLVED that a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the family of our deceased brother and that the same be extended upon the minutes of the Ottawa County Bar Association.

HAMILTON TO HAVE
POULTRY MEETING
FEBRUARY 28

The poultry department of Michigan State College is cooperating with the Allegan county agricultural agent and they are holding two all-day schools in the county this month.

The poultrymen of the county have had a great deal of difficulty this winter and will derive great benefit if they will attend one of these schools.

The following schedule has been arranged:

Feb. 27, 10 a. m., Hamilton Co-operative garage.

Feb. 28, 10 a. m., Allegan City Hall.

Any poultryman with sick chickens or any other problems should be present.

HOPE PLAYS OLIVET
FRIDAY AT HOLLAND

Hope college and Holland High school quintets are scheduled for home games. Friday Hope meets Olivet on Carnegie court and Holland will play a return game with Western State High in the Armory. Holland Christian High quintet will play Christian High boys' and girls' teams at Grand Rapids Friday. The boys' team has an undefeated record of 14 games.

ALLEGAN COUNTY CLUB
LEADER TO CONFER
IN ALLEGAN MARCH 1

Owing to the number of 4th clubs in Allegan county and the condition of the roads the past few weeks, the county agent has made arrangements to have the local club leaders conference in Allegan on March 1st, beginning at 10 a. m.

Each leader is requested to bring some of the articles made by their club for the purpose of inspection and discussion by the state club leaders, who will be present on that date. The leaders may bring as many of their club members as they wish to this meeting.

SIXTH REFORMED CHURCH
HOLD CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

Last Friday evening the congregation of the Sixth Reformed church held a meeting of more than ordinary importance for the congregation. It was the meeting at which the congregation heard the financial report of the past year. The pastor, Rev. J. Vanderbeek, presided and addressed the meeting urging the need of prayer, consecration, and co-operation. The financial report was read by S. C. Verburg, clerk of consistory, which showed that there was a balance on hand of $720.90. The budget for the coming year was also read by Mr. Verburg and discussed.

The item of greatest interest in the budget was that henceforth the church will ask no more aid of the Board of Domestic Missions but become a self-supporting church. It had been receiving the sum of $500 during the past year. Dr. S. Vander Werf, Secretary of the Board, was present and extended the congratulations of the Board.

The meeting was enlivened by hearty congregational singing and by a mixed quartet consisting of Eleanor Hieffje, Dorothy Dalman, Vengoe, who rendered several selections. After the meeting the congregation repaired to the basement and enjoyed a social hour together.

Stewart Gross of Holland was a guest at the Valentine party given by Miss Marie Baumgardner at Hillcrest Saturday evening.

Ray N. Wightman, a farmer living four miles west of Fennville on M-89, saw the first robin of the spring at his farm Thursday.

memory in which he is held since his passing.

BE IT RESOLVED that a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the family of our deceased brother and that the same be extended upon the minutes of the Ottawa County Bar Association.

REFORESTATION IN ALLEGAN COUNTY

Owing to the great interest in reforestation and windbreak plantings, the county agent of Allegan county has arranged for a series of meetings the 25th and 26th of February. The meetings will be conducted by Mr. Kroodsmma, forestry extension specialist from Michigan State College. The first meeting will be held at the town hall at Douglas, February 25, at 7:30 p. m. On February 26 the forenoon meeting will be held at the Floyd Barden farm, five miles west of Pullman, at 10 o'clock. In the afternoon another meeting will be held at the Fennville high school, at 1:30. Windbreaks in orchards and reforestation of unutilized and cut over land will be thoroughly discussed.

The regular meeting of the board of directors of the Merchants' Credit Bureau was held Friday afternoon at which time the following officers were elected: Milo DeVries, president; William Visser, vice-president; James Klomparsen, treasurer; and Norman A. Cobb, secretary and manager. The rest of the board includes Andrew Du Mez, Jack Boonstra, and William Deur.

Staged at the Masonic Temple
Hall

Miss Lida Rogers, backed by her biology classes of Senior high school, has made arrangements to again launch a conservation program this year. You will remember how a few years ago the big hall in the Masonic Temple was filled with wild life. Some of these exhibitions came from the State of Michigan from the conservation department, others were local, and one pleasing feature was the exhibit of bird houses built by the pupils of the public schools for which prizes were given.

You will remember that Masonic hall was parceled off with booths and the exhibits were neatly arranged therein, many of them having a wild-life background of trees, shrubs and undergrowth. The enemies of birdlife were shown. The means to exterminate these enemies were also set forth.

All during the week there were lecture periods when men interested in birdlife talked to the patrons who came.

It was one of the most worthwhile exhibitions seen here in years and was attended by thousands and the desire to repeat a display of this has often been spoken of.

The program this year includes a birdhouse building contest for the boys and poster contest for the girls. The birdhouse contest is open to any boy in the school of the city above the fifth grade. It is open also to the boys in the rural schools in the vicinity of Holland and to the boys in the parochial schools of the city.

First, second and third prizes of one dollar, seventy-five cents and fifty cents, respectively, will be awarded to the houses entered by each grade, and similar prizes will be awarded to the houses in the rural class. A further prize of five dollars will be awarded to the best entry in the contest regardless of year, and two and one-half dollars will be awarded to the next best entry. The prizes are very generously being offered by the three banks of the city.

The birdhouses together with the conservation posters made by the girls in the biology classes will be on exhibition at the Masonic Temple during the week of March 17. This display will be supplemented by work on various other phases of conservation exhibited in booths in the exhibit hall. Each booth will be in charge of a student committee from the biology department.

The department has been especially fortunate in securing for that week the services of Walter Hastings, official photographer for the State Department of Conservation. Mr. Hastings will be here for two days showing his fascinating films of Michigan wild life, to various groups of students and townspeople. Friday will be rural school day when the afternoon showing of pictures will be especially for the pupils, teachers, and patrons of the rural schools.

This program of conservation is being sponsored by the biology classes of senior high school under the supervision of the instructor, Miss Lida Rogers. Conservation work has been a feature of this department for a number of years, the work culminating each year in an exhibit of a more or less elaborate nature. During these years, as a result, a large number of bird houses have been erected in the city, adding materially to the bird population of the locality. These houses are well and substantially built and of late years an increasingly large number have been sold to the townspeople. The money realized from the sale of houses belonging to the department has been used to purchase bird slides, to finance the exhibits and to carry on other helpful projects.

It is expected that a large number of boys will enter the contest and the public will look forward eagerly to the exhibit and to the opportunity of seeing the Walter Hastings films on March 20 and 21.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago)
(© 1929, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for February 23

THE TWELVE SENT FORTH

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 9:35-38.

GOLDEN TEXT—The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few. Pray ye therefore, the Lord of the harvest, that He send forth laborers into His harvest.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus' Helpers at Work.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus' Helpers at Work.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Helping to Win the World for Christ.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Recruiting Christian workers.

I. The Plenteous Harvest (9:35-38).

1. Christ's compassion (v. 36). As He went on His rounds preaching the gospel of the kingdom, He saw the multitude as sheep having no shepherd. This aroused His sympathy for them.

2. A plenteous harvest and the few laborers (v. 37). He saw the whole needy world as a ripened field of grain ready to be harvested, with but few who were willing to labor in the harvest field.

3. Pray ye the Lord of the harvest that He will send forth laborers into His harvest (v. 38).

Those whom He would send forth as laborers into His harvest should pray for other laborers.

II. The Twelve Sent Forth (ch. 10).

The sending forth of the twelve shows the method adopted by Jesus Christ in the propagation of the kingdom. It should be clearly borne in mind that the chapter does not outline the policy of the missionary endeavor in this age. In order to show the dispensational aspects of the lesson, the following divisions of the chapter are suggested:

1. Instructions bearing immediately upon the apostles' work to the death of Christ (vv. 1-15).

In strictness of interpretation these teachings cannot be applied to any later period.

(1) The ministers chosen (vv. 1-4). These twelve humble men were chosen and commissioned to carry on the work of propagation of the kingdom. These twelve stood in a peculiar relation to Israel. (2) The sphere of their mission (vv. 5, 6). They were only to go to Jews. They had no message for Gentiles, or even Samaritans. After Pentecost this sphere was widened (Luke 24:46-48; Acts 1:8). No such restriction obtains with reference to ministers today. The middle wall of partition was broken down by the death of Christ. (3) Their message (v. 7). By "the kingdom of heaven is at hand" is meant the promised kingdom of Israel was at hand; that Jesus Christ, the promised king, was present and ready to set up His kingdom. After the church is translated, the same message will be taken up for a brief time by the believing remnant (See Acts 13:18; Rom. 11 and Rev. 7). (4) The supernatural authentication of their mission (vv. 8-10). They were clothed with power to work miracles. These wonderful works were really done by the twelve. (5) Their maintenance (vv. 9, 10). They were to make no provision for their support, but to depend wholly upon the Lord who sent them. Since they had received the message and power gratuitously, they were to give it out in the same way. (6) Responsibilities of those to whom the message was delivered (vv. 11-15). If the people would not receive them or hear their message they were to turn from them and pronounce judgment upon them.

2. Instructions concerning the testimony from Pentecost onward (vv. 16-23).

After Pentecost testimony for Christ would be fraught with great danger. Both Jews and Gentiles would assail the messengers with the bitter persecutions. They were scourged in the synagogues before heathen magistrates. Instead of bringing peace to hearth homes, they brought divisions of the fiercest kind among families. In their defense they were to rely upon the Holy Spirit to aid them. These conditions were literally fulfilled in the period from Pentecost to the destruction of Jerusalem. Since the fall of Jerusalem, no one has ever been scourged in a synagogue. Verse 23 seems to carry the work forward to the time of the preaching of the gospel of the kingdom in the tribulation time. The Lord's coming then is so speedy, that their testimony is cut short.

3. The teaching applicable in all ages (vv. 24-42).

The disciple has the position of oneness with the master. He is courageously to declare the whole counsel of God, though most violently opposed. Though the testimony result in the most bitter opposition, the messenger should not be surprised or discouraged, for so completely is the Lord identified with His disciples that He accepts treatment of them as treatment of Himself.

HOW THE HAVEN PAPER WRITES UP HOLLAND DEFEAT

Both Local Teams Bested by County Seaters

Grand Haven Tribune.—Grand Haven high school redeemed itself against Holland last night and won a hard fought game from the Dutchmen by a score of 27-19.

After trailing for most of the first two periods the old fighting spirit came into evidence and although the local boys were behind at the quarter 8-7 they came to life in the second period and at half time were leading 16-14, due to the consistent foul shooting of Carlson and Schultz and spectacular shots by Capt. Huttenza. Van Kolken was the big noise for Holland in the first two cantos, snaring three baskets.

The second half opened with Huttenza increasing the lead with a short shot. With the help of Schultz and Carlson the lead was increased to 23-16 at the quarter. The last quarter was hotly contested with Holland trying vainly to work through the strong defense of the locals. Schultz ended the scoring with a free throw, making it four counters out of six attempts.

The whole Grand Haven team played as a unit and there were no outstanding stars. Huttenza, Schultz and Carlson all figured heavily in the scoring and Ennenga and Dirksen proved themselves two of the best guards ever to be developed by Coach Cohrs. The fact that Holland succeeded in making five points in the last half shows how the locals can clamp down when they want to.

Van Kolken was the most dangerous man on the Holland aggregation with five field goals to his credit. Bonnette was a bulwark of defense and spoiled many almost sure chances.

Things are looking up in the local camp and just in time, for the tournament is only a few weeks away. Muskegon Heights is next on the schedule and this should be another hot game.

Favorite Bible Passages of

Arthur Capper
U. S. Senator from Kansas.

The Beatitudes: Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for My sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.—Matthew 5:3-13.

The Lord's Prayer: Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so on earth. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins: for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.—Luke 11:1-4.

Zeeland, supporting the affirmative, was represented by the Misses Winona Wells, Alice Kette and Helen Clark. Grant was represented by Misses Fannie Beigman, Helen Miller and Lucille Bitgood, who were coached by Miss Kress.

Friday morning Zeeland residents were called to a fire that might have been very disastrous for the Boonstra Mercantile Co. Dick E. Boonstra, one member of the firm, was tending the furnace when a defective smoke pipe caused fire to catch the rafters of the basement. The fire department was immediately summoned, and through their efforts and of Mr. Boonstra the fire was quickly put out. However, dense clouds of smoke had surged through the basement and the first floor, causing considerable damage to the stock. The amount of damage has not been estimated.

The Boy Scouts staged their banquet at the Zeeland high school gymnasium and all present agreed that it was the most successful banquet ever staged by local Boy Scouts. Over fifty Boy Scouts and fathers were present. The banquet was served by the scouts themselves under the supervision of Mrs. A. Van Dyke and Mrs. H. Dekker, scout mothers. During the course of the evening, pictures of Boy Scout camp life were shown. F. J. Geiger, scout executive of Ottawa-Allegheny area was present and was one of the speakers of the evening. Mr. Geiger is about to leave for a new position as Boy Scout work in Elkhart, Ind. He expressed regrets at leaving the community and especially of severing connections with the Zeeland troop, which he called the "crack troop." He also spoke on Scouting in general. Wm. Van de Water, scoutmaster for Zeeland troop and scout commissioner of Allegheny-Ottawa area, then gave a resume of Boy Scout week activities, which closed last night. Local Scouts have taken great interest in this year's celebration and have shown the public in their programs and exhibitions that this is a worth while movement. After the things both fathers and sons engaged in games such as indoor basketball, basket ball and volley ball. All enjoyed themselves to the extent and left for home at a late hour.

The annual Washington party of the local Exchange was scheduled for Monday night with wives of members invited. Wynand Wichers, cashier of First State bank of Holland, was due to talk. A stereopticon lecture by C. A. De Jonge was listed.

ZEELAND

Zeeland Christian defeated Creston Christian of Grand Rapids 16-10 in a hotly contested battle here last night. Van Kipple and Heyboer starred for the winners, Vander Wal and Doornbos for the losers.

Zeeland defeated Grant by unanimous decision at Zeeland Friday night in the local high school debate contest on the question of abolishing the jury system. Zeeland, supporting the affirmative, was represented by the Misses Winona Wells, Alice Kette and Helen Clark. Grant was represented by Misses Fannie Beigman, Helen Miller and Lucille Bitgood, who were coached by Miss Kress.

Local News

Anthony Weller attended the Michigan State Nurserymen's convention in Detroit.

Miss Edith E. Wilson, 72 years old, an aunt of Mrs. F. X. Lake of this city, died suddenly at the Lake home Saturday morning from a heart attack. The body was taken to Port Huron, the former home of the deceased, and burial took place on Tuesday. She has been a prominent business woman for nearly 50 years and was associated as one of the firm in the largest dry goods store in that city. She had recently severed her connections with the firm and had only returned to the Lake home a few days before the end came.

Among the glimpses of his trip to Europe in the interest of the World's Christian Endeavor convention, of which he is president, to be held in Berlin in August, Rev. Daniel A. Poling, president of the general synod of the Reformed Church in America, has this to say about Gerrit J. Diekema, American minister at The Hague: "The Reformed Church in America has a distinguished representative at The Hague, Gerrit J. Diekema, the new American minister, with his wife, has captured the hearts of the Dutch. The fact that Mr. Diekema is the son of Dutch immigrant parents and that he speaks the language of his father and mother gave him an immediate and favorable hearing. His own personality has done the rest. A purser of the North sea boat on which I crossed to Flushing became eloquent in describing the new minister and the Dutch papers are filled with incidents of his life."—Grand Rapids Press.

Including the $290,000 for improvements this year to the municipal power plant, the Holland Board of Public Works will have earned and spent in the last nine years in the neighborhood of $1,706,547.56, adequately keeping pace with the rapid growth of the city. This sum is for the water and power systems only. In addition to operating and improving the large electric and water systems necessary for a city of this size, the board has been able to aid the city each year when it draws up its budget, thus lowering to a certain percentage the taxation. Other projects in which the board has aided the city include the building of the Holland City hospital, which was completely paid for several months ago from the earnings of the Board of Public Works. According to the thirty-fifth annual report of the Board of Public Works, in the year 1921 the expenditure was $131,369.85, with expenses lowered a bit in 1922, amounting to $129,719.91. In 1923 they had been lowered even more, to $129,645.50, while in 1924 they were down to $126,425.97. Operating expenditures in 1925 had gone back up to $138,399, while in 1926 they had climbed to $145,579.40. A little lower than the previous year, expenses amounted to $143,809.24 in 1927, and in 1928 to $151,975.71. Last year expenses for water and light were $214,941.24. This brings the total sum for the nine year period for both water and light to $1,416,547.56. The difference between the two items may be seen when it is shown that for the nine years the water expenses amounted to $340,912.19, while for lights it was $1,075,635.37. The Board of Public Works handles a good deal of the money spent in the city, and aids the city officials and taxpayers in many ways. Its reports indicate a sound financial condition and a determination to keep up with the growing demands of an ever-increasing city population, an official pointed out.—Holland Evening Sentinel.

SAUGATUCK CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION ON JULY 14-16

At the mass meeting held in the village hall for the purpose of planning for Saugatuck's centennial and homecoming, a representative crowd of citizens was present and all were enthusiastic and pledged support for the event.

Not only were Saugatuck and Douglas citizens present but a few from Laketown, Waneis, Fillmore, Ganges and other townships closely identified with Saugatuck in the lumbering days.

Mrs. D. A. Heath was chosen as general chairman and Mrs. Fred Wade as secretary. Chairmen of important committees were appointed and the wheels started for the big celebration to take place July 14, 15 and 16.

A program was outlined and the support of nearly every business place in the town was pledged, giving promise of a gala celebration in the first settlement in Allegan county. Saugatuck was settled in April, 1830.

GRAND HAVEN, KAZOO MEN HELD HERE FOR HOLLAND DEPORTING

Because they entered this country without the necessary papers, Charles Priem, age 22, Kalamazoo, and Jan Warnaar, Grand Haven, are in Kent county jail facing deportation charges preferred by immigration officials.

Their mode of entry and lack of proper papers came to light when Priem, a cook, and Warnaar, a painter and paperhanger, made application for naturalization papers. Although they did not come together, they told officials they rowed to shore in small craft from the ships that transported them to this country.

They will be permitted to attempt legal re-entry into the United States in the next quota providing they pay their transportation back to Holland.

SIX CASES GROW OUT OF HOLLAND MOTOR CO. DEALS

Six cases against Ralph T. Hayden are listed on the docket in Justice Cornelius DeKeyer's court as an aftermath of transactions connected with the Holland Motor Co., which some time ago went into receivers' hands.

The plaintiffs are Harry DeKoster, John Siebelink, Albert Vander Schraaf, George Overway, John Reimink and Arthur Pickering. The cases will be tried in the order named by jury.

The plaintiffs charge trespassing on cases and fraud, involving various financial deals.

SONS OF THE REVOLUTION TO BANQUET AT WARM FRIEND TAVERN FEB. 22

The Michigan society, Sons of the American Revolution, will hold its thirty-fifth annual convention Feb. 22 in Warm Friend Tavern. Charles Hamilton McBride of this city is president. Mayor E. C. Brooks is vice president and Dr. A. C. V. R. Gilmore is secretary-treasurer. About 50 members are enrolled.

The program will be featured with a banquet at which members of the D. A. R. and their escorts will be present. Covers will be laid for about 125. A photoplay, "Yorktown," picturing the surrender of Cornwallis, will be shown. A business session will be held. The photoplay film also will be shown in Holland High school auditorium Feb. 21.

Three $10 prizes will be presented to the winners in the essay contest covering colonization subjects. About 50 papers were entered.

HOLLAND PUPILS CAN ENTER POSTER CONTEST LAUNCHED BY STATE

Rules and details concerning a state-wide forest fire prevention poster contest in Michigan, in which prizes will be given school students for winning forest fire prevention slogans and posters, will be announced by the Department of Conservation within the next week.

The contest, which will be conducted by the forest fire and educational divisions of the department, will seek to obtain interest in forest fire prevention by effective fire prevention slogans and posters for use throughout the state.

Separate contests will be conducted for grade and high school students. Prizes will be given from which winning slogans and posters are submitted and five cash prizes will be given for the winning entries in each of the contests.

STATE POLICE CONTINUE TO ARREST VIOLATORS

The state police, continuing their campaign against the motorists who fail to have sufficient lights and operators licenses, arrested three offenders on Friday night, who will be arraigned within the next few days. They were: Albert Johnson, Grand Haven, Route 1, having one headlight and no tail light; B. Boonstra, Zeeland, one head light and no operator's license, and H. J. Berkel, Route 10, Holland, no headlight and no tail light.—Grand Haven Tribune.

DISCOVERER OF PROCESS TO TAKE SUGAR FROM BEETS IS DEAD AT 87

Dr. Joseph M. Hirsch, noted chemist, died at the age of 87. He was credited with discovery of the process for the recovery of sugar from beets.

A graduate of Prague university, he attended the University of Munich and, shortly after coming to America, became a teacher of chemistry in Cooper Union Institute.

Among other important discoveries credited to him is that of a fluid by means of which documents burned in the Chicago fire were made legible.

His discovery of the beet sugar process was made during the Civil war. The American Institute of New York city awarded him a medal for the work.

MYSZKA TO FIGHT ON HOLLAND CARD

Meets Duane Duncan in Wolgast-Frisco Show Feb. 25

A complete card has been arranged by the National Guards Boxing club for a show to be held at the armory Feb. 25 during the convention week of Holland furniture men. The main bout, between Al Wolgast and Frankie Frisco, is supported by one of the best cards ever arranged for the local fans.

Tony Myszka of Grand Rapids and Duane Duncan of Kalamazoo, heavyweights, will meet in a six-round semi-final bout. Alex Miller and Freddie Beals of Lansing are on for six more rounds at 135 pounds.

Rusty Knoll, the Holland hard-hitting middleweight, will go six rounds with Billy Hall of South Haven. Ray Weyschede of Holland and Neal Remeyns, also of this city, may meet in the first bout of the evening. These lads are out to settle a personal grudge.

HOLLAND JUNIOR BOWLER ROLLS 608 SERIES COUNT

Little Charlie Looman, pin boy at the Green Mill alleys, made a record count for a junior bowler in a match game the other evening. Charlie and his team were rolling pinsetters from the Levease alleys and getting beat. Charlie, who has a hard effort lifting the emerald sphere, started with a meager 165. Then he saw that his club needed assistance, so toppled 230 and 213 pins in the last two sets. "A 608 series isn't bad for a kid," is Charlie's comment on the affair, "and what's more, we got the best junior team in the city."

KAZOO DEFEATS HOPE TO ASSUME LEAD IN M.I.A.A.

Kalamazoo college went into undisputed leadership in the M.I.A.A. race here Friday by handing Hope a 22 to 19 defeat. It was the first reversal Hope has received on its home floor this season. Kazoo took a 9 to 5 lead at the half and, by some exceptional long-range shooting in the last half managed to offset a Hope rally. M. Schaeue was high point man for the winners, while Spoelstra and Cook divided honors for Hope.

Coach Jack Schouten of Hope college has issued his first call for candidates in baseball and track. Schouten has two veteran pitchers in Popping and Van Lente. Other veteran players include Steffens, Japinga, Juist, Brink, Verstrate, Mulder, and Flikkema. Scudder and Meengs are veterans in track. A fresh team may be organized.

Olivet Friday, Alma Tuesday Is Court Card

M. I. A. A. Prophets See Their Castles Crumble as Dope Upsets With Each Game

Olivet will be here Friday to close the four week home stretch of the Hope varsity team. Our cagers have done remarkably well on the home court this season, losing but one game. But Olivet will bring one of the best combinations in the conference. The Congregationalists lost a close decision at Alma last Saturday and will be raring to go again by Friday night.

It will be remembered that Olivet defeated Hope in the opening conference game by four points. In that battle both clubs were tied at the half and it was only in the final moments that the Crimson surged ahead. Willson, Johnston, and Cardwell will be the boys to stop Friday. The first two are forwards who have been scoring consistently this winter, while Cardwell is a high rated center.

Hope's standing in the conference can be materially changed with a victory. It is not such a long jump from fifth to third place, as the standings show, and with the continued students support, this bit of action will be made.

The varsity boys travel to Alma next Tuesday to meet the conference pace-setters. As all the scores have been close, the Orange and Blue men are giving a big chance for coping this game. Olivet came within one point of it last week. Alma has Gussin, guard, and Simmons, center, who are vying for high scoring honors in the association, supported by a veteran team.

Through the generous invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Becker of Grand Rapids the Varsity squad enjoyed a big banquet after the Calvin game. The players and their fair guests met at the "Hong Ling Lo" cafe and partook of a steak dinner amid much merry talk. The list of guests was as follows: C. Van Lente, A. Cook, C. Becker, H. Dalman, W. Spoelstra, H. Japinga, T. Van Hattma, J. Juist, L. Hoffman, T. Beaver, H. Kruijenga, Julia Van Dam, Ruth Bolhuis, Betty Smith, E. Bolling, Arloa Van Peursom, D. Brower, E. Gahagen, Anne Koeman, Berdean Welling, Klerekooper, Mr. and Mrs. J. Schanten and Bessie Schouten, H. Hoover, Elizabeth Henning of Grand Rapids.

From The Farewell Address

... As avenues to foreign influence in innumerable ways, such attachments are particularly alarming to the truly enlightened and independent patriot. How many opportunities do they afford to tamper with domestic factions, to practice the arts of seduction, to mislead public opinion, to influence or awe the public councils! Such an attachment of a small or weak towards a great and powerful nation dooms the former to be the satellite of the latter.

Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence, I conjure you to believe me, fellow-citizens, the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake; since history and experience prove that foreign influence is one of the most baneful foes of republican government. But that jealousy, to be useful, must be impartial, else it becomes the instrument of the very influence to be avoided, instead of a defense against it. Excessive partiality for one foreign nation, and excessive dislike of another cause those whom they actuate to see danger only on one side, and serve to veil and even second the arts of influence on the other. Real patriots who may resist the intrigues of the favorite are liable to become suspected and odious, while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people to surrender their interests.

The great rule of conduct for us, in regard to foreign nations, is, in extending our commercial relations, to have with them as little political connection as possible. So far as we have already formed engagements, let them be fulfilled with perfect good faith. Here let us stop...

OTTAWA & ALLEGAN LISTED IN COUNTIES WITH STATE PARKS

In 1923 the Legislature passed an act providing for county parks. The general provisions of the Act are that Boards of Supervisors may purchase, or accept gifts, of lands for parks. By virtue of the act 23 of the 83 counties now have county parks. The total number of the parks is 77; total acreage, 2,891; total value, $1,184,342.37; annual maintenance and operating cost, $163,748.29. The average acreage of the 77 parks is 38.2. These are the 23 counties and the number of parks in each, as distinguished from State parks:

Allegan, 2; Baraga, 2; Delta, 5; Gogebic, 5; Houghton, 1; Huron, 5; Ionia, 1; Iron, 2; Jackson, 8; Kalamazoo, 1; Kent, 9; Lapeer, 1; Marquette, 2; Menominee, 7; Midland, 1; Montmorency, 1; Muskegon, 11; Oakland, 1; Ottawa, 2; Sanilac, 1; Shiawassee, 1; Washtenaw, 2; Wayne, 6.

Thirty-eight of the 77 county parks reported a total of 3,072,400 visitors during 1929. The total for the State parks in '29 was 7,434,000.

MAINTAINING A POLICY

A new schedule of long distance telephone rates, to become effective on January first, will save the public more than five million dollars annually.

Approximately forty-five million calls a year, the majority interstate, will be affected by the reductions.

This is in accord with the established principle behind the telephone industry—to give the public the best possible service at the lowest possible cost.

DIRTY CHIMNEYS BAD FOR FARM FIRES

Defective chimneys and heating apparatus are one of the principal causes of farm fires says the United States department of agriculture, which recommends the following precautions: Chimneys should be built from the ground up and should not be used to support any part of the house. They should be substantially constructed with walls at least 8 inches thick. Defective chimneys should be rebuilt and faulty heating apparatus repaired. Stoves should rest on substantial fire-resistant bases and should be safe distances from wooden floors, walls, and woodwork. When stove pipes are passed through walls or ceilings a ventilating thimble of ample size should be used. Chimneys and flues should be cleaned frequently, and ashes should be kept in metal cans, never in wooden boxes, barrels, nor on combustible floors. Fire-retardant roofing should be used whenever possible.

MORE HOLLANDERS CAN NOW COME INTO AMERICA UNDER NEW QUOTA

Under the national origins quota the total of new immigration would be 153,714 yearly, as against the present 164,647, according to Washington, D. C. Immigration from The Netherlands will be increased through operation of the new national origins immigration act. Its quota under the old law of 1924 was 1,648. The new law will permit entry of 3,153.

Poland will have an additional entry of 542 nationals, its quota being increased from 5,982 to 6,524.

The total for England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland would be increased from 34,007 to 65,721, while the quota for the Irish Free State would be reduced from 28,567 to 17,853.

Immigration from Germany would be cut from 51,227 to 25,957; that from Sweden would be reduced from 9,561 to 3,314, and that from Norway from 6,453 to 2,377.

Gospel Teams Have Been Doing Much Traveling About This Year

— Hope College Anchor —

Hopeites are frequently taking advantage of the many opportunities they have of amplifying the religious and Christian influences of their campus life. They appreciate that experience thus acquired will be invaluable training for the various positions of social leadership which college students almost invariably anticipate. Much of this actual Christian effort is effected by the student gospel teams annually organized under the auspices of the Association Union. These teams have already been active and promise to make this year outstanding in respect to the off-campus religious efforts of the students.

On thanksgiving Sunday, last November, a team composed of Messrs. M. Meegs, C. Rylaarsdam, R. McGilvra, and H. Woltman conducted the services in the Methodist churches of Tascos, Glenn, and Ganges. The happy memories of this trip are still a source of inspiration to those who participated.

On the 18th of January another team had complete charge of the C. E. meeting and evening service at Dr. R. Veltman's church in Muskegon. "Duck" Elzinga led the C. E. meeting, while "Len" Hogenboom preached the sermon. John Mullen berg provided special music. Several others assisted in the services.

The co-eds are also active in this type of work. Several teams have taken charge of C. E. meetings in and about the city. One team emulated the men most conspicuously, and conducted the regular Sunday services at: Tascos, Glenn, and Ganges. "Ann" Koeman was in charge and preached the sermons.

During the recent week of prayer a group took charge of a meeting for Rev. J. C. Brower of the Emmanuel church of Grand Rapids. Several brief testimonials were given, and Mr. H. Friesma sang a solo, "The Penitent." Mr. Roy Mooi was in charge.

Another phase of student work of a religious nature is the Sunday school. This work is at present supervised by Melvin Oosting. Schools, entirely in charge of students, are conducted in the outlying communities within the environs of Holland. Many of those reached would otherwise be without any religious influence. A good school is at present being conducted in what is known as the Robinson district, located about twenty miles north of Holland. Another school will soon be organized at Agnew, on the Grand Haven road.

Zwemer to Wind Up Conference

Fellowship Supper at Hope Church On Saturday Evening For Students

All day Saturday, Dr. S. M. Zwemer will be in charge of the Student Volunteer conference held in our new Chapel.

Dr. Zwemer will first lead the morning watch service at 8:30 A.M. At 6:00 o'clock Saturday night, a fellowship supper will be held at Hope Church, at which time various foreign students will represent their countries by toasts. The tickets are only 60c and a good dinner (the kind Hope Church is noted for) should make everyone eager to come.

Finally, the big event of the evening will be at 7:30 P.M. when Dr. Zwemer will speak on "Witnessing Throughout the World." He is always interesting—well read and full of experiences making him the great figure he is today. So, come out and have a good time during the Student Volunteer Conference!

Big Valentine Party Attended by Ladies

Annual Event Usually Held By Mrs. G. J. Diekema

The annual Valentine's Day Tea for senior girls, women of the faculty, and professor's wives was held last Friday at the home of Mrs. W. Olive, 268 Maple Avenue. Due to the absence of Mrs. G. J. Diekema, no tea was given by Mrs. Olive so that this yearly social event might continue. It is said that the senior girls were glad to have an opportunity to wear their new long dresses. Refreshments carrying out the Valentine theme were tastefully served.

The Milestone editor arranged to have a picture taken of the event. Thus will purchasers of this year's annual possess a permanent souvenir of the occasion.

Campus "Y" Groups Met Monday Eve

Fumi Watonobe, who has taught for several years in Ferris Institute, and who is now doing special work at Hope, addressed Y.W.C.A. Monday night. Miss Watonobe's talk dealt particularly with the young people of her country and their work. She spoke especially about the Y.W.C.A. in her country and the influence which the association had in the Christian activities of the girls of Japan.

The Y.M.C.A. meeting this week was held on Monday because of the conflict of the Calvin game last night. Gordon Alexander, freshman of New York, led the meeting and discussion on the subject "What If?" placing his chief "What If?" in "What if the students of Hope College were loyal to the principles of Hope's Campus?"

"There would be three distinct results," he said, "first to the student himself, then to the student body, and finally to the world at large." He stated the two main principles as being "to make Christ King of the Campus," and to "Do God's Will."

Prof. Welmers Heads Course in Dutch

A studious class of twelve men, who boast of "true Hollandish blood," meets four times a week under the leadership of Professor Welmers. The aim of the course is to give those, who have some command of the Dutch language, a better knowledge of the grammar and the ability to speak Dutch fluently.

The text book selected by Mr. Welmers is "Gereformeerde Prediking" (best pronounced by beginning with a sneeze or a cough) which being interpreted is "Reformed Preaching."

Fred Wynyarden (there comes his name again) erstwhile star of gridiron and court, bids fair to be the Dutch star. It is surprising how well Fred enunciates these long Dutch words. Reports from the Knick house are to the effect that Fred says some suspicious sounding words in his sleep every night. We think it may be traced to the Dutch class.

OTTAWA COUNTY CHILDREN OFFERED IMMUNIZATION

Georgetown Township is again offering toxin-anti-toxin for the eradication of diphtheria free of charge to the children of the township. Diphtheria is a dreaded disease and one to be feared as Michigan had the highest death rate from the scourge for 1928 of any state in the union. Since January 1, 1930 Ottawa County has already had one death in a child under six years. Many of these deaths could have been prevented had toxin-anti-toxin been administered by a physician in three doses at intervals of one week. Because of the bad roads some schools cannot be reached at the present time but immunizing will begin on Tuesday, January 28th, in the following schools: At 9:00 a. m. Hudsonville Public school; 10:30 a. m. Hudsonville Christian school; 11:30 a. m. Alward school, district No. 5. Madge Bresnahan, County nurse, with headquarters at Grand Haven, is urging parents of children of preschool age to take advantage of this service as well as those of school age, who did not have toxin-anti-toxin three years ago.

Supt. Chris De Jonge of Zeeland is in charge of the elimination contest in Grand Haven high school to determine who will represent this school in the annual district declamation contest which will be held soon. The senior and junior classes will contribute two in the oratorical department, the freshmen and sophomores two declamations.

USE DUST AND OIL TO FIGHT POULTRY PESTS

Lowered Egg Yield Traced to External Parasites on Fowls

METHODS USED TO RID THE FLOCK AND POULTRY HOUSE OF EXTERNAL PARASITES

EXTERNAL parasites on fowls cause a drop in the egg yield, a weakened physical condition and no end of discomfort at all seasons of the year, says the Blue Valley Creamery Institute. The secret of eliminating the two most common external pests on fowls is to remember that lice cannot stand fine dust and that mites are killed by strong, oily solutions.

Sodium fluoride is recommended by a number of agricultural colleges as a means of ridding a fowl of lice. A small amount, about what one can hold between the thumb and first finger, is gently sprinkled into the feathers near the skin at the tail, head, beneath the wings, on the breast, neck and back, and in the fluffy feathers covering the abdomen. The powder tends to irritate the membrane of the eyes and nose of the operator as well as the fowl, so care should be taken in using it. The best results are obtained when the powder is placed in a small tub, large pan or box and the hen placed on her side and her feathers filled with powder.

The common chicken mite is the most troublesome of all the external parasites of poultry. Badly infested hens will cease laying and become poor in flesh and often other chickens will suffer from diarrhea and break down generally. The mite is very small and spider-like in appearance. It has sharp mouth parts which it inserts into the fowl's flesh to obtain blood. When hungry, it is yellowish-white; when full of blood, it is red. It remains hidden about the house in the daytime and is usually found in cracks and crevices in the perches, in the walls near the roosts and nearby where the birds roost. The mites will usually swarm out when a little kerosene or crude oil is poured into their hiding place. Thorough spraying with one part of reliable coal tar disinfectant to 15 parts of kerosene oil and painting the roosts and nests and adjoining woodwork with this mixture of strong wood preservatives or carbolineum is effective. In applying paints or sprays, be sure to saturate all of the cracks, crevices and joints carefully. A good spraying of whitewash inside the house twice a year helps to eliminate these dreadful pests.

NOTICE!

Proposed Amendment to the Charter of City of Holland

Notice is hereby given to the qualified electors of the City of Holland that there will be a Special Election at the time and places of holding the next Non-Partisan Primary Election in each of the several Wards of said City on

Monday, Mar. 3rd, 1930

There will be submitted at said Election a proposed Amendment to the Charter of the City of Holland as follows:—

Amendment OFFICIAL BALLOT

[Instructions]

If you desire to vote in favor of amending the City Charter by changing the provisions of Sec. 5, Title 27, so as to permit the levying of taxes upon any lot or land by Special Assessment up to the full assessed value of such lot or land, for any one improvement, you will turn down the voting point over the word "Yes."

If you desire to vote against this proposed amendment, you will turn down the voting point over the word "No."

The following Amendment to the City Charter has been duly proposed:

Charter Amendment

"Shall Section 5 of Title XXVII of the Charter of the City of Holland, limiting special assessments for any one improvement in any one year to 50% of the assessed value of the property, be amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 5. The cost and expenses of any improvement which may be defrayed by special assessment shall include the costs of surveys, plans, assessments and costs of execution and construction. In no case shall the whole amount to be levied by special assessment upon any lot or premises for any one improvement exceed the value of such lot or land, as valued and assessed in the annual assessment roll for the current year; any cost exceeding that per cent, which would otherwise be chargeable on such lot or premises, shall be paid from the general fund of the city."

NOTICE is further hereby given that the place for voting upon the above Amendment to the City Charter in each of the several Wards of the City will be the same as for the Non-Partisan Primary Election and the hours for voting upon said Amendment will be the same as for voting upon all other matters at said Election. The Polls of said election will be open at 7:00 o'clock A. M. and will remain open until 8 o'clock P. M.

OSCAR PETERSON, City Clerk

Dated: Feb. 17, A. D. 1930.

Albion "Paints Town Red" After a Victory

Celebrating the victory over Alma last week, several hundred Albion students got into a peck of trouble. Going to the theatre to rush their way in, the students were confronted with the manager who called out the police to stop the celebrators. An attack on the building followed and twelve of the participants were jailed. But the action of the students was not quelled. With pickaxes and other weapons they tore down the jail doors and released their companions. Large vans were converted into patrol wagons to accommodate numbers of the group to the county jail at Marshall, but vandals disabled the trucks. Over fifty students were placed under arrest. One pleaded guilty and was sentenced to ten days in the jail and a $50 fine. The remainder awaited defense offered by the college.

We trust that there is nothing in the rumor that the Girls' Glee Club sang "The Prisoner's Song" on its visit to the state institution.
