Burglars Take $6000 In Loot From Two Stores

IN BOTH INSTANCES FRONT DOORS OF HOLLAND AND GRAND HAVEN BUSINESS PLACES FORCED

Rose Cloak Store of This City Loses At Least $3,500 In Merchandise

The Holland police believe that a gang of professional burglars are making raids on business houses of Western Michigan. Monday night burglars entered through the front door of the Rose Cloak store, 37 E. Eighth street, and made a clean sweep of at least one dress department containing nearly 300 dresses. The loss is totaled between $3,000 and $3,500.

Patrolman Frank Van Etta was on the beat and passed the Rose Cloak store eight minutes after 12. He saw nothing unusual and proceeded on to the Pere Marquette depot. He returned to headquarters, punched the clock, and proceeded to make the beat again. When he returned shortly after 1 o'clock he met Arie Zoet, who had picked up a couple of coat hangers on the street and called Van Etta's attention to it. They both immediately made an investigation and the robbery was discovered.

The officers awakened Mr. Thad Taft, the proprietor who lives over the store, and Mr. Taft then remembered that he had heard a noise shortly after 12:30, but as noises are frequent on main street, he paid no attention to the matter. Mr. Taft had remained up late to finish some figuring that had to be done and for that reason he had retired later than usual.

When an investigation was made it was found as near as could be checked that between 225 and 250 dresses had been stolen at a loss of approximately $3,500.

Chief Van Ry immediately notified all police stations along the main trunk lines out of Holland but he had very little information to give to base a clue on. The nearest and about the only clue was given to Mrs. Taft by friends of the store. They stated that at about 8:30 they walked by the Rose Cloak store and saw in the long dark entry way one short and one tall man pressing their faces against the door window. Both men wore caps. They were strange looking people and when the passersby stopped, the two strangers left immediately, looking in at the Knitting Mills and other stores in the neighborhood.

The description of these two men seems to correspond with the two who staged a hold-up in Grand Rapids a few days ago. The newspapers called them the "Mutt and Jeff" hold-up men.

Mr. Taft is inclined to think that practically the whole store might have been looted had he not gotten up from his work in quest of a bunch of keys that he needed. This was shortly after he had heard the noise.

All evidence shows that the burglars made a quick get-away, dropping many dresses on the floor as they rushed out, apparently startled when they heard the proprietor walk on the second floor.

Without doubt there was a large automobile in waiting to receive the goods, although no one was found who had seen a car in that vicinity. It appears that the burglars overlooked the coat and fur department as nothing in that department was taken.

Police state that it does not take a professional burglar long to enter through any door, not over a few minutes with modern burglar tools, and without doubt these professionals knew every minute just where the one policeman on the beat was.

Patrolman Plaggenburg, who was on the beat earlier in the evening, tried the door of the Rose Cloak store, as is his custom at 11:30. He found everything properly locked and nothing unusual in the vicinity.

Mr. Taft states there is no burglar insurance and while he deprecates his loss, he is thankful that no injury came to anyone by meeting up with such desperate characters, who do not hesitate to shoot when cornered.

The Rose Cloak Store immediately wired for some new stock and Mrs. Taft has gone to Chicago to buy a new supply of dresses to take the place of those lugger off by the burglars.

The same night the Style Shop at Grand Haven, owned by John Grubinger, was also entered through the front door and 150 dresses and a quantity of skirts were taken, the loss being estimated at $2,000. The loss was noticed by one of the sales force, George Applequist. He arrived at the store at 8 o'clock in the morning and when his key refused to open the door, he found the lock broken and he immediately called Sheriff Steketee and it was discovered that a big part of the stock from the cases and some from the racks was missing.

Further search revealed the loss of a wine colored broadcloth coat trimmed with black fox collar and cuffs, size 14, and priced at $69.50, and a handsome pair of pajamas in black and white, priced at $25. The dresses ranged in price from $39.50 down and included all of the new spring stock.

Mr. Grubinger stated that there was no insurance and the loss would be quite a severe blow. There is no evidence that the merchandise was taken out the back way and it is believed the robbers made their way out the way they came in.

The sheriff believes the robbers had a small wrecking bar, about a foot long and a half inch wide with which the Yale lock was pried open. He says the trick is one which has been used on a number of stores robbed in the past.

Officer Lawrence DeWitt, formerly of Holland, was on the downtown beat Tuesday night and he stated he had tried the door between 11 p. m. and midnight. He said the door was all right at that time. Mr. Applequist was in the store about 9:30 p. m. as is his custom, to turn off the win-

HOLLAND FOLKS ATTEND SURPRISE

Dick Vander Haar and John De Groot of Holland with sixteen other friends from Grand Haven and elsewhere surprised Herman C. Nyland at Hillcrest Manor, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. The party was arranged by Miss Esther Dean Nyland, a daughter. An enjoyable game of cards was indulged in and Mr. Vander Haar was one of the prize winners. There were elaborate refreshments and the tables were artistically decorated in valentine suggestions interspersed with tall red tapers and flowers.

HOLLAND CHRISTIANS PLAY GRAND RAPIDS TEAM FRIDAY NIGHT

Holland Christian High's basketball team will stack up against Grand Rapids Friday night. Holland defeated Grand Rapids in the first game, Jan. 9.

Coach Muysken's team won its fourteenth game of the season Friday night. It had one defeat—by Grand Haven—and that by a margin of only one point.

Holland Christians now have lost one game in three seasons, covering schedules totaling 50 games. For two seasons they stood up in the state tournament until they reached the finals.

SAFETY TRAFFIC DRIVE WILL BE MADE AT ZEELAND

Local car owners are due for another jolt at Zeeland, that is, those who have been in the habit of running about the street with defective lights. This has become quite a nuisance again and it has become necessary to begin tightening up a bit.

Beginning this week, Zeeland police have been instructed to arrest all those driving on the streets of this city with defective lighting. The requirements are that both headlights and the tail light are lighted within one hour after sunset. The rear white light must be directly over the rear license plate so that the license number is distinctly visible at a distance of fifty feet at all times.

HOLLAND REPUBLICANS NAME DELEGATES TO OTTAWA CO. CONVENTION

Tuesday evening the six Holland wards were represented at the city hall to name delegates to the Ottawa County convention to be held next week Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the court house at Grand Haven.

The spirit in nearly every ward was amicable and in at least five of them those present decided that the delegates chosen should be the ones who took enough interest in political affairs to attend the caucus and consequently all those at the city hall were placed on the delegation first.

The delegation going to Grand Haven will consist of a list of delegates to be sent to the State convention at Kalamazoo on Friday, March 6th.

The delegates as chosen by wards Tuesday night follow:

First Ward: Simon Klein, chairman; Al Joldersma, secretary; delegates as follows: Albert Kleis, Sam Miller, Simon Klein, Henry Luidens, W. B. Mulder, A. C. Joldersma, J. M. Arendshorst, S. L. Henkle, Henry Prins, Marguerite Cook, Edith Walvoord, Mrs. Marius Mulder, A. C. Keppel, Marine Brandt, Gerard Cook and Andrew Klomprens.

Second Ward: John Wolman, chairman; Arthur Drinkwater, secretary; delegates as follows: Frank Briveles, John Wolman, Arthur Drinkwater, Louis Bouwman, and Dr. Albert Curtis.

Third Ward: E. P. Stephan, chairman; Ben Mulder, secretary; delegates as follows: N. Kammeraad, Wm. Brusse, Dr. J. C. Willis, Charles H. McBride, E. P. Stephan, Arthur Van Duren, Ben Mulder, Wm. C. Vandenberg, Henry Van Lente, Andrew Hyma, Jake Zuidema and Roy B. Champion.

Fourth Ward: H. Pelgrim, chairman; Benj. Brouwer, secretary; delegates as follows: Judge Orien Cross, Thomas N. Robinson, Ben Habing, Wm. Lawrence, Ben Brouwer, Peter VanArk, Clarence Lokker, Chris Nibbelink, Carl Hoffman, Norman Cobb and Jake Lokker.

Fifth Ward: H. Vander Warf, chairman; H. DeWeerd, secretary; delegates as follows: F. Yonkman, Fred T. Miles, Henry DeWeerd, Henry Vander Warf, Peter Lievens, Peter Damstra, Abel Postma, Mrs. E. J. Leddick, Henry Bosch, Walter Groth, Archie VanderWall, Frank Lievens, Earnest C. Brooks, Peter Huyser and Dick Boter.

Sixth Ward: Gilbert Vande Water, chairman; John Galien, secretary; delegates as follows: Wm. A. Telmsman, John Galien, Arie Vander Hill, Gerrit Vander Hill, Gilbert Van De Water, John Van Vliet, Peter Wierda, Peter DeKraaker, George Slikkers, John Kampen.

There is a night light burning in the rear of the store all night. Several stories were afloat that lights had been seen about 10 p. m. The officers give no credence to this story and believe the job was pulled in the early hours of the morning in question and that it was the work of an organized gang. Mr. Grubinger stated that the merchandise could easily have been moved in 10 minutes. The dresses, on the hangers, were probably lifted off in one or two moves and the getaway quick, he said.

People living in an apartment over the Ekens store were questioned but they had heard nothing of the affair.

The only clue which may lead to an arrest was a story that came from Deputy Sheriff William Hieftje of Zeeland. He was driving on US-31 near the Stone school, just south of Grand Haven about 7:30 a. m. when he noticed a sedan stop and a man pick something off the road. As he passed the car he noticed the man had a garment in his hand.

Political Pot In Holland Is Simmering

LITY PRIMARY BALLOT ALL MADE UP FOR ELECTION MONDAY, MARCH 2

All candidates wishing to run for office in the city at large and in the wards have filed their petitions and the ballot is made up and the clerk is already in possession of Absent Voters' Primary ballots.

It appears that the following candidates in the city at large have no opposition: Nicholas Sprietama for city treasurer, Oscar Peterson for clerk, Samuel W. Miller for justice of the peace and C. J. McLean for the board of public works.

Undoubtedly there will be a big battle for supervisor and city assessor with the following field running: Peter G. Damstra, August Kasten, Henry J. Dykhuys, Archie E. Vanderwall, Henry J. Luidens and John J. DeKoeper are candidates for supervisors, two to be elected, and Peter H. Van Ark, ex-Mayor E. P. Stephan, Casper W. Nibbelink and John Galien are candidates for assessor. Van Ark is seeking a second term.

In the aldermanic race, Albert Kleis of the First ward, Andrew Hyma of Third ward, Benjamin Steffens of the Fourth ward and Benjamin Veltman of the Sixth ward have no opposition.

Petitions have been filed by the friends of Arie Vander Hill and Henry Cook in the Sixth ward but these were withdrawn at the eleventh hour.

In the Second ward, Frank Briveles who has held the office 16 years, is opposed by Simon DeGroot, and George M. Moomey. Abel Postma in the Fifth ward is opposed for reelection by Joe H. Geerds, Peter J. Huyser, Nicholas J. Jonker and Frank M. Lievesche.

For contest in the Second ward, candidates in the Fourth are Peter Roos and H. J. Kuipers, and in the Fifth Peter A. Lievens and Louis Kolean.

ZEELAND LAD UNCONSCIOUS FOR TWO DAYS

Andrew Lampen, a young son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lampen, who lives with his parents on the South State St. road, Zeeland, was rendered unconscious when struck by a car driven by Theodore Kouw, Friday evening.

Young Lampen was crossing the Main St. near the city hall at Zeeland when the car struck him to the pavement. He was picked up unconscious and brought to his home, one-quarter mile south of the city limits. He remained unconscious for nearly two days, due to concussion. He is now apparently recovering from the injury.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER TO BE OBSERVED IN ZEELAND

The World Day of Prayer for Missions will be observed at First Reformed Church, Zeeland, on Friday, February 20, at 2:30 p. m. The general theme this year is to be "Ye Shall Be My Witnesses" and all women of the community are invited to participate in the services when Christian women throughout the world will be gathered together in united prayer for the great cause of missions.

Zoning Matter Reminds One Of Old History

KLOMPRENS PAINT AND BODY REPAIR SHOP NOT OUT OF BUSINESS AS SOME WOULD THINK

It appears that in writing up the story where Judge Vander Werp sustained the zoning ordinance in making West Tenth street, near River avenue, a commercial zone rather than a manufacturing zone, the heading over the article in the Holland City News, according to Harry Klomprens, proprietor of the Klomprens Paint and Auto Body Repair Shop, was misleading and many had asked him whether he had gone out of business. The entire matter was fully explained and was correct as it appeared in that article below the heading in question. However, that there may be no misunderstanding, we wish to say that Mr. Klomprens is well established in business at the old stand and will remain there. Far be it from the News to allow any misconception to in any way bring harm to our old friend and neighbor, who has been a substantial citizen and an artist in his vocation for many years at this particular stand.

While we are on the subject, the editor's mind harks back to the time when this whole corner, nearly to Hope church property, was filled with manufacturing enterprise. Sixty-five years ago the old Deming Foundry and Machine shop stood on the site now occupied by B. F. Hallet & Son, sheet metal workers, at 64 West Tenth street. This foundry extended beyond this shop, occupying part of the site now owned by the Klomprens Paint Shop.

It was in this shop, a large two-story wooden structure, where the late Al Huntley learned his trade as a machinist. For years afterwards Mr. Huntley conducted a shop on W. Seventh street, shortly after the Deming Foundry had burned, the burning taking place some forty years ago on a Sunday afternoon.

The home of the Demings was directly west of the foundry building. It was a small cottage adjoining the Hope church property and Mrs. Deming, a most wonderful lady, had the most beautiful flower garden that Holland possessed in those days. It was a beauty spot, sandwiched between heaps of casting boxes and smoky rookeries. The contrast was indeed marked.

Another conspicuous feature of this home was that it was sur-

The cheese factory at New Holland is under construction. The contractor for the building is Mr. J. A. Stegenga. The lowest bidder on the milk cans was a man named Carpenter, of Grand Rapids.

The City of Milwaukee, a new iron steamer, for the Goodrich Transportation Co. was launched at Wyandotte Saturday last. The total cost is $175,000. She is a large and handsome vessel designed for passenger and freight business between Grand Haven and Milwaukee.

Note: This old boat was later purchased by the Graham & Morton Transportation Co. and was renamed the City of Holland, plying between Holland and Chicago. Some ten years ago the side wheeler during a storm struck the north pier at Muskegon harbor and sank in the channel and several lives were lost.

The sixth annual meeting of the Holland Soldier's Union was held on Lincoln's birthday and arrangements were made for a gathering on Washington's birthday to be held at the City Hotel where a supper is to be served. Preparations are already going on for suitable Decoration Day exercises and a railroad excursion to Grand Rapids in the summer has also been planned. Election of officers was also in order. The president being James Fairbanks; vice presidents, Capt. Martin De Boe, Derk Miedema and John Nies; secretary, Gerrit Van Schelven; treasurer, Henry Clay Matrau; historian, Wm. Wakker. Note: It appears that this soldier's organization later resolved itself into the A. C. Van Raalte Post, G. A. R., of which there are only three left, Mr. John Douma, Mr. John Wise and Mr. Gerrit Doesburg.

Congressman Nicholas Longworth and Miss Alice Roosevelt were married in the magnificent East Room of the White House. Miss Roosevelt is the oldest child of President Roosevelt.

Al Walters defeated the Holland pool "champ," Wm. Blom at the Cody Hotel at Grand Rapids. Blom now challenges Walters with a $10.00 side bet, the game to be played in Holland—Emerson Dickerson, stake holder.

Here's a record breaker for a poultry fancier. Geo. O'Dell a farmer near here, has a faithful

Shortly after the fire, the son, George Deming, rebuilt the foundry of brick which is the building now occupied by Hallet & Son on West Tenth street.

During the seventies and eighties R. K. Heald conducted a farm implement and repair shop on the site of the present Colonial theatre. It was a long one-story wooden building and the repairing of reapers, self-binders, fanning mills and the like was done under a roughly constructed roof in what was then an open space on West Tenth street.

During that same period and for many years afterwards, Peter Wilms, a veteran of the Civil war, had a two-story wooden factory sandwiched among other buildings just southwest of what is now the Colonial theatre. In this factory he made the first spring tooth farm harrow put on the market in this country.

These were also the days of drive-well pumps, also made in this factory. Mr. Wilms also installed the pumps and had large drivers for this purpose.

Forty years ago Jim Huntley erected his planing and wood-working mill which extended from River avenue, the full length of the Colonial theatre building.

The site of the present Klomprens Paint shop was then the location of the Huntley lumber yards which were surrounded by a high picket fence. After the death of Mr. Huntley, the business was continued for a time but finally the machinery was removed and the building was converted into a seed store and later was occupied by the J. Y. Huizenga Coal Company. Not so many years ago this same building was remodeled into what is now known as the Colonial Theatre.

Directly to the south where Arnold's Confectionery store is located, was also a busy noise-maker. It

Jurors to serve in Circuit court Grand Haven from Holland are: Albert Hidding and Geo. Huntley. From Holland township, Derk Pyle.

Alle D. Zuidema, formerly organist of the Fourteenth street Christian Reformed church, has completed a very successful half-year's work at the Detroit Conservatory of Music. He has accepted a position as organist in Preston M. E. Church, Detroit and was also appointed instructor in piano in the Educational Institute of the Detroit Y. M. C. A.

Dyke & Jonkman Construction Co. is the new name for a contracting firm incorporated for $5,000 capital stock. The principals are Fritz Jonkman, president; Frank Dyke, secretary and treasurer.

At a congregational meeting of the Graafschap First Reformed Church it was decided to move the building to Central Park. Note: Before this was finally accomplished there was considerable opposition on the part of the minority members but the moving finally took place and the church is the one now presided over by Rev. Van Dyke.

Miss Levena Coppon is spending the winter in Florida visiting at Jacksonville, Palm Beach and Miami.

Miss Bertha Fris of Holland and Mr. Harry A. Brummel of Detroit were wed by Rev. Herman Hoeksema of 14th street Christian Reformed church. Note: Miss Fris is the sister of Jake Fris of Fris Book Store.

John Vander Sluis becomes a candidate for mayor.

Tom Tracy section foreman on the Saugatuck division of the Holland Interurban saw coming up the track a beautiful red fox. The animal is very scarce especially around here and one fur is worth at least $20.00. Paul Estelle and Cornelius Seedyke have already shouldered their guns and have gone to Gibson where Mr. Fox is supposed to have been seen.

The north side of Tenth street was also not free from manufacturing. Directly south of the present location of the Huyser Meat Market on River avenue, there was a wagon making industry conducted by Mr. Beart, brother to the late Dr. Beart of Zeeland, and old Squire Isaac Fairbanks was the agent for thrashing machines and engines. There was a large open space back of these River Avenue buildings connected with an alley from Tenth street and in that open space farm implement demonstrations were given and Mr. Beart also used this space for a burning bed where iron tires were heated for the wheels of his new wagons. Your editor knows, for this operation was of great interest to the "kids" of those days.

On the present postoffice site, an old red planing mill stood, called the Phoenix. This was a busy spot conducted by "Ryn" Werkman and later purchased by B. L. Scott and finally it became the Scott-Lugers Lumber Company and was razed nearly twenty years ago when the postoffice was built.

Since the founding of Holland, this particular corner of Tenth street and River avenue has been the site of manufacturing establishments and it was a busy, noise-making corner considering that two planing mills were going full blast. To these noises were added the whirling of machinery, lathes, the breaking of iron for the smelting furnace and the clanking of sledges on a smithy's anvil.

However, it was the nucleus for greater manufacturing enterprise in Holland. Aside from the Cappon-Bertsch Tannery interest, Holland's industrial mainstay, this little group at that time was considered of great importance as this relates to industry.

Civil Cases Will Occupy Court's Time

FEW CRIMINAL CASES UP FOR TRIAL AT PRESENT SESSION

The February term of circuit court promises to be light with almost no criminal cases to inaugurate the new county prosecutor, John Dethmers, into the routine of the office.

The following pleaded guilty to charges when arraigned before Judge Fred T. Miles: Ray Bleeker and Delbert McClure, burglary; Frank Shaw, liquor law violation; Stewart W. Jameson, unlawful use of automobile.

William Serne, charged with forgery, pleaded not guilty; May Regelin and Peter Olman, charged with lewd and lascivious cohabitation, pleaded not guilty; Gerrit Mollagrat, charged with carrying concealed weapons, entered a plea of not guilty.

The civil jury and non-jury cases were pretty well prepared by the attorneys and will form the bulk of the court session. There are only a few local cases listed.

Following the convening of the session, Elbert Parsons of Holland introduced a resolution on the death of Gerrit J. Diekema which was received and placed on file. The content of the resolution was the same as that drafted by the Bar Association shortly after the death of the once well known county attorney, who became United States Minister to the Netherlands.

Mr. Burggraaf then entered Free university, Amsterdam, Holland, and passed his doctor's examinations in 1927. He was occupied with research work at the libraries in Edinburgh, Scotland, five months and returned to Holland in January, 1928, and was awarded his cum laude degree.

Mr. Burggraaf returned to the United States in August, 1928, and accepted a call to the Reformed church in Milwaukee, Wis.

ALLEGAN COUNTY MAN FACES THIRD WET CHARGE

Holland of Chicago, who were arrested in this city 10 days ago for robbery of a railway mail car in transit on the Pere Marquette between Chicago and Muskegon, are wanted in Hammond, Ind., on a charge of stickup and robbery, according to telegraphic advices received by Police Chief Frank Van Ry.

Following their written confessions to the charges preferred against them in United States Commissioner Arthur VanDuren's court, the men were held for trial to federal court in Grand Rapids in March. Bail was set at $3,000 each, unfurnished.

SPRING LAKE URGES CHANGE IN ELECTION OF SCHOOL OFFICIAL

A resolution to be drafted by a group of Spring Lake citizens asking that election laws be changed governing the nomination of a county school commissioner, so that this election will coincide with others in the year, will be presented to the legislature. The resolution also will contain a clause limiting the vote to rural communities, as cities do not come under the jurisdiction of the county commissioner.

Will Connelly, William Spencer and Samuel Falls comprise a committee selected to draft the resolution.

State Game Department Picks up 500 Guns During Past Years

More than 500 guns were confiscated from conservation law violators during the year 1930. According to the Law Enforcement Division of the Conservation Department, 228 rifles and 353 shot-guns were taken because they were being used in violation of conservation laws. All of these guns are sold at public sale at the Department's Lansing office.

During the year the Department confiscated 887 traps, 813 muskrat pelts and 10,454 pounds of fish in addition to other pelts, several automobiles, motor and row boats, and implements and materials used in violation of conservation laws. The Division reported 4,260 convictions for violation of conservation laws for the year; 2,130 of which were fish law cases; 1,506 game law cases; 645 fur law cases and 45 miscellaneous conservation law cases. Violators paid $59,400.27 in fines, $39,041.80 in court costs and served an aggregate of 9,360 days in jail.

Exchange Club To Aid In Health Program

Preliminary to a possible future health program in Holland, City Physician Dr. William Weststrate proposes to launch a plan that will mean better health for Holland. The program committee of the Exchange Club secured Mr. W. A. McIntosh, of Michigan Department of Health, as the guest speaker at Wednesday's luncheon.

At this meeting there were members of the Common Council and also members of the recently appointed Civic Health Commission, who were present to hear what Mr. McIntosh had to say.

Dr. Weststrate introduced Mr. McIntosh and said he was glad to avail himself of the opportunity because he said, he wanted to present an idea which has been growing in his mind for the past two years, ever since he became identified with the public health office of Holland. He stated that here in Holland we are self-satisfied, banking on the record health standing that Holland has but there are many things left undone.

He stated that he had made a survey of Holland's health conditions through the different organizations and their activities and he presented the result to the Board of Health on Tuesday evening and as a result a Civic Health Commission has been appointed by Mayor Brooks to extend co-ordination in Holland's health activities.

He then proceeded to introduce Mr. McIntosh who placed public health under five heads, motives, objectives, policies, modern conception of public needs and broad functioning of health departments. He says that civilization is learning to combat anything that destroys. The objective is to evolve a people, health in body and mind. He said that as far as health is concerned, we are still in Egyptian bondage and still many "dead seas" have opened up.

Typhoid, smallpox, diphtheria can be eradicated. Still there is much work to be done. Health must be worked for; we must put our shoulder to the health wheel and push it along.

It was thought that it was possible to legislate disease out of existence. Health officers should exercise police power but should bring about better conditions through health agencies and this can only be done through health organizations and team work.

Many health precautions are taken in the selling of proper milk, clean food and in many other ways. But that is only on the edges of health work. Health officials should know about infant mortality, defective children and many other phases of health should be on the program.

School children should have their teeth looked after. This is a very important attribute to the health of children.

The great thing is to establish a program, the speaker said, and then follow it out to the letter and not in a haphazard way as is so often the case.

The health commission appointed are composed of the following: Mayor Brooks, general chairman; Dr. Weststrate, Miss Alma Koertje, city nurse; Dr. R. H. Nichols and Otto P. Kramer of the Board of Health; C. M. McLean and Mrs. Dick Boter, of the hospital board; Alderman Andrew Hyma and Fritz Jonkman of the common council; Dr. A. Leenhouts and William A. Hendon of the Board of Education; Mrs. C. Berzen and Mrs. J. C. McLean of the Woman's Literary club; C. Dornbos, of the Merchants' association; Frank Lievens, of the Chamber of Commerce; Dr. G. W. Van Verst, of the Exchange club; John Vande Broef of the Lion's club; and E. E. Fell of the Rotary club.

Rev. William Pyle, pastor of First Reformed church of Orvel, returned to his pastorate after an extended stay at the Mayo clinic in Rochester, Minn.

Tourists' Dock Would Cost City About $60,000

OPENING OF EAST NINTH STREET SETTLED BY FOUNDRY COMPANY

The regular meeting of the Common Council was not of long duration Wednesday night. For some time the question of dockage for tourists has been discussed and suggested by the Chamber of Commerce. Alderman Yonkman, chairman of a special committee, stated that they had investigated the cost, which would be at least $60,000 if the job was to be properly done. They did not feel as if they wished to recommend going into that expense just now but suggested that the Chamber of Commerce endeavor to

Standardized Traffic Laws Needed

During 1931 extensive revision of traffic laws will take place in many states. It is an unfortunate fact that legislation probably will,
as in the past, vary from state to state so that the motorist who crosses boundary lines will be in a quandary as to what is legal and what is not in the matter of driving
an automobile.

This lack of state cooperation
has unquestionably been largely responsible for the barriers in the way of accident prevention. Various organizations have sought to create a national traffic code suitable to the needs of all states. A federal traffic ordinance has been suggested. This would not only be a violation of the state's rights principle of government, but would lead to the creation of another great federal department, extending into every community at the public expense.

The proper way out is for the
states themselves to pass legislation which is satisfactory to the greatest possible part of the nation.
Varying speed and right-of-way
laws, different systems of traffic control, unequal standards of qualifications for drivers' licenses—all contribute to the accident chaos.
The experience of the past, in which fatalities and injuries have increased by leaps and bounds, gives us a foundation on which to advance highway safety on a national scale through uniform state legislation.

LITERARY CLUB TO ELECT OFFICERS ON MARCH THIRD

nated: President, Mrs. Jay DenHerder; first vice-president, Mrs. C. C.
Wood; second vice-president, Mrs.
George E. Kollen; second vice-president, Mrs. Harvey Kleinheksel;

and banquet of the Elizabeth Schuyler Hamilton Chapter, D. A. R.,
will be held Friday evening,
February 20, at 6:30 o'clock at the Warm Friend Tavern. Wynand
Wichers, president-elect of Hope College, will give an address on a patriotic subject.
On Sunday evening the Chapter
will commemorate the birth of George Washington by attending
Trinity Reformed church in a body.
Members will wear the rosette and will assemble in the church parlor

NEW POLICY ADOPTED BY THREE HOLLAND BANKS

Effective March 1st, the three banks of Holland, namely the First State, Peoples State and Holland
City State bank, will make monthly service charges of fifty cents on all checking accounts having a minimum balance during the month of less than $50. The charges will be entered against the accounts at the close of each month.
This charge will not apply to the accounts of religious, charitable or educational organizations and will not include savings accounts.
This small service charge is designed to partially cover the cost of handling these accounts and to make it possible for the banks to continue this service without too great a loss.

This Week

by ARTHUR BRISBANE
We Postpone, France Not
Crime's Jackals
Russia Will Nurse Babies
Prosperous Ireland

We decide to postpone the building of airplanes, submarines, airplane carriers and submersible airplane platforms for a special session.
The French, logical, determined,
allowing nothing to interfere with national defense, proceeded to build a series of armored cruisers of 23,000 tons each to offset the marvelously efficient German cruisers,
called "miniature battleships."

And France will continue building submarines. She knows that airplanes and submarines represent,
in the highest degree, the power to punish other nations, and that the nation with power to punish is the one that will not be provoked or attacked.

If anybody attacked this nation
through the air, it could only burst into tears. It isn't prepared to resist or punish anything.

In Britain a car called the
"Roral," with two sets of wheels,
has been successfully tried on British railroad tracks and highways.
On the tracks it rolls on regular steel wheels. Arrived at the end of its rail journey, rubber-tired
wheels are lowered below the level of the steel wheels, which are inside of the wheels with pneumatic
rubber tires.

And the coach motor bus or truck
is ready to leave the rails and finish its journey on the highway.

If our railroads used such vehicles, motor trucks and buses
could not successfully compete with railroads between large cities as they do now.

And the value of the railroads'
rights of way would be at least doubled.

When a lion goes hunting, jackals follow. When he has eaten his fill they eat.

Crime develops the jackal. When a killer has finished his man and left him lying dead in an alley, in the rear of 637 South State street, Chicago, two young men, twenty
and twenty-two years old, following the murderer at a distance, stripped the corpse of its clothing as their share.

Detective Harold Fogarty got them and the clothing, including the shoes. A photograph shows one of the youths laughing as the clothing is held before them.

In connection with Russia's plan
to conscript women for industry,
government taking care of the babies while their mothers are at work, you read that this is done because of the "present serious shortage of labor in Russia." You wish we had that shortage here and wonder how Russians manage it.
Russia's plan to open gigantic government nurseries to care for babies while mothers are working in mills, forests, fields, mines or factories, will present problems that not even Stalin can foresee. Separating women from their babies
may be a dangerous experiment,
even in Russia.

It is pleasant to hear of anyone's happiness, and you will be delig-ent to know that Ireland is highly prosperous, "riding the wave of world depression." In 1929 the Irish exported more than $225,000, 100 of goods, which is better than merely shipping money to British landlords. Irish banks are steady.
The Irish Free State budget is sound. Those that used to say "the Irish can govern anybody but themselves" may have been mistaken.
They can also govern themselves,
if you get off their backs.

If you ever become well acquainted with a lady named Guillermina
Guerrero, or one like her, don't talk
with her affections.

Maximino Aceval did that in Mexico City. Guillermina dressed herself as a boy, found faithless Maximino in a cabaret, dancing with another girl, followed, and shot them
both.

An opera like "Cavalleria" or
"Pagliacci" represents no exaggeration. The Latin temperament feels everything, especially neglect, strongly. Those that know say the affections are as violent as the jealousy. It must be an exciting life.

People in New York, greatest state in population, are too busy to add to population as they did once. The birth rate has fallen below sixteen years. Birth control advocates say the state is getting "fewer and brighter babies,"
but that is not convincing.

To offset the decreased baby crop
the general death rate is at its lowest for all time. Of 1,000 population only 11.7 die in a year. Deaths from tuberculosis are diminishing steadily, thanks to science. On the other hand, cancer and diabetes
rather more and more victims.

A boy could carry all the books
that Lincoln had opened when he was elected President.

The qualities born in his brain,
inherited from his father and mother and ancestors 1,000,000 years
back, made him what he was.

If he had succeeded in his efforts to secure a modest position in the interior department, Lincoln might have gone through life unknown.
But none the less he would have been Abraham Lincoln.

Thousands of men as great have lived and died "without fame" and many are alive now that will never be heard of. A combination of power, circumstances and opportunity is necessary in the making of a great man.

VESPER PROGRAM WILL BE GIVEN BY STUDENTS SUNDAY

A Vesper program will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Hope Memorial Chapel. The students in the Hope College School of Music, who will give the program, will be assisted by the Hope College Chapel Choir.

The program will include several organ numbers and two selections
by the chapel choir, composed of 75
voices, under the direction of Prof.
W. Curtis Snow.

Chris De Jonge Not to Head the Zeeland School

FORMER SUPERINTENDENT
ASKS LONGER LEAVE OF ABSENCE, ROGERS
RETAINED

At the regular meeting of the board of education of the Zeeland
public schools, held on Tuesday evening, Superintendent M. B.
Rogers was again engaged for the position for another year, and Principal Thomas Dewey was also secured for his position for another year.

These school officials are usually engaged at the February meeting
in order that they may plan proper provision for the teaching staff—
as a rule the desirable teachers
being retained for another year.

The place was tendered to Mr.
Rogers when it was learned that former superintendent, Chris A. De Jonge, did not expect to return to the schools for the year 1931-1932.
A year ago Mr. De Jonge requested
one year's leave of absence in order
to take up additional college work,
which was granted him by the board. At this time he asked for an extension of another period of a year to complete his studies, and the Zeeland school board was glad to extend him that privilege. This will give Mr. De Jonge an opportunity to return to the Zeeland
school system as its superintendent
at the opening of the school year
in the fall of 1932.

Meanwhile Supt. M. B. Rogers
has been filling the superintendent position with satisfaction to the board of education, the school community and the citizens as well. Mr.
Dewey, in addition to his work as principal, will continue as athletic director. He, too, has made good in this double duty.

Another matter of great importance discussed at the meeting was a plan to reduce the rate of school taxes for the coming year. Everyone directly connected with school
work will be enlisted to cooperate in economies that will make this possible. During the past summer
the board of education was compelled to make extensive repairs in remodeling the old grade building
which required an expenditure of about $12,000.

The changes were imperative,
but since these are completed, it is thought that a material lowering
of school expenditures are in order.

OTTAWA COUNTY FARM NOTES BY C. P. MILHAM, COUNTY FARM AGENT

The local leaders training school
at Allendale was attended by fifty people representing the fifty-one
boys and girls clubs in Ottawa County. Mrs. Harriet Shaver and
P. G. Lundin from the State College club department gave instructions and demonstrations for the leaders in clothing, handicraft and hot lunch projects. The leaders in turn will present the same information and demonstrations to the boys and girls in 4 H projects under their supervision. Plans were made for the local achievement day
exhibits and county achievement
day in May when county champions
in health and in the club projects
will be selected.

Miss Esther Lott, home demonstration agent, and C. P. Milham, agricultural agent reported that there will be a higher percentage
of finishers in club work this year than in any previous year due to the great interest of the members
and enthusiasm of local leaders.

The last of a series of four muck
schools in the county will be held February 24. Subjects to be discussed by Paul M. Harmer, muck soils specialist, from the State College will be Commercial Fertilizers
for 1931 and prevention of wind injury on muck soil. A request for Mr. Nelson, plant disease specialist to come with Mr. Harmer has been made to discuss diseases of crops grown on muck. Both lectures will be illustrated. Meetings will be held at Hudsonville High school at 9 A. M., Zeeland High school at 1:30 P. M. and Court House, Grand Haven, at 7:30 P. M.

Mr. O. I. Gregg, landscape specialist from the State College, has completed a landscape design for the county courthouse block in Grand Haven. This plan was made possible through the buildings and ground committee of the Board of Supervisors. David M. Cline, Spring Lake; Phillip Roshack, of Grand Haven and Frank Hendryck
of Grand Haven township co-operating with the agricultural agent. Mr. Gregg is well known in the county for his excellent lectures on landscaping and because he has drawn landscape designs
for over fifty Ottawa County farm homes.

A large percentage of farmers
cooperating in the farm accounting project completed their books on February 1st, attended the checking meetings and started new books. There is still an opportunity for farmers to cooperate in the farm accounting work. Agricultural Agent Milham will assist all new cooperators in starting accounts and opening inventories.

LOCAL HATCHERY IDENTI- FIED WITH CHICK SERVICE PROGRAMS OVER WLS.

Cherrywood Poultry Farm, Holland is a member of The Baby Chick Poultry Service, which has started a series of radio programs
over WLS, the Prairie Farmer Station, Chicago. The program goes on the air Saturday at 1:15 P. M.
and will continue each Saturday at the same time. The programs will consist of timely poultry information of interest to every poultry raiser. There will be plenty of fine entertainment, too. Each program will feature such favorite radio
stars as, Bradley Kincaid, familiarly known as the "WLS Mountain Boy"—Clem and Harry, the popular harmony team—Pie Plant Pete,
with his old time ballads—and
many others.

Cherrywood Poultry Farm are displaying an attractive triangle
emblem, which identifies them with The Baby Chick Poultry Service
radio programs over WLS. They invite you to tune your dials to WLS, Chicago, (344.6 meters—870 kilocycles) every Saturday at 1:15 P. M. and hear these programs with their compliments.

POULTRY AND EGG MEETING AT HAMILTON, FEB. 26TH

Four Poultry meetings have been scheduled for Allegan county. Mr.
E. R. Hancock, Ext. Specialist in Poultry Husbandry from Michigan State College will be in charge of the discussion. Schedule as follows: Hamilton Co-op Garage,
Hamilton, Feb. 26th at 2 P. M.; Pullman Town Hall, Feb. 26th at 8
P. M.; Plainwell Baptist Church,
Feb. 27th, 2 P. M.; Burnips Co-op
Creamery, or Town Hall, Feb. 27th
at 8 P. M.

Owing to the very low price of eggs and poultry products, the discussion will be along the lines of business to be conducted in 1931
and the "Baby Chick Problem." All who are interested in Poultry work
are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE TO BE HELD HERE

The annual Teachers' Institute of Ottawa County is being held today
at Grand Haven and tomorrow,
Friday, at Holland.

The teachers of north Ottawa are meeting today at the Ferry school
in Grand Haven.

The south Ottawa County Teachers will meet Friday in the Holland High School auditorium. The first session will begin at 9 o'clock
in the morning.
The principal speakers on the program for the meetings are Dr.
William G. Spencer, president of Hillsdale College, and Dr. Smith
Burnham of Western State Teachers College.

G. G. Groenewoud, County School Commissioner, is in charge of the sessions at Grand Haven and Holland.

A great number of Ottawa
county trappers sent a petition to Representative Fred McEachron requesting his aid in changing the muskrat trapping season from
Nov. 15 to Dec. 15 when, it is claim, trapping time is better because of less ice. Many unemployed of this county made a living
during the muskrat season last year.

Albertus Michmershuizen, retired
merchant, is wearing a derby hat
which he won from Police Chief Frank Vanly on a presidential election bet in 1892. He picked Cleveland as the winner over Harrison. When the derby vanished
from style five years later Mich-
mershuizen boxed the hat.

Sheriff and Mrs. Cornelis Steket-ee and Under-sheriff and Mr.
Marvin Den Herder attended a Metropolitan Club banquet last night at Holland. The Metropolitan Club is made up of policemen
and firemen in this section of the state. The principal speaker at the banquet was Fire Marshal Fred Higgins of Grand Rapids.—Grand Haven Tribune.

Gerrit Nonhof, student at Western State Teachers College, at Kal-amozoo, spent the week-end in Holland.

COUNTY AGENT SEES PRICE DROP DUE TO UNDER DE- MAND FOR DAIRY FOODS

An under-consumption, rather than an over-production of dairy products is the chief reason for this recent drop in prices in this county and reflects the condition over the county, declared C. P. Milham, county agent, when discussing the dairy and poultry business in this county recently. He said statistics show the large cities like Detroit and Flint had fallen off 70 to 80 per cent in the milk demand, due
to unemployment.

Regardless of the almost perfect
food value of milk and bread, he observed, these two staples are usually the first to fall off during a hard times period. Milk is the only substance whose sole function in nature is to serve as a complete
food and at any price is usually the cheapest, he said, relatively to food prices.

As the amount of milk is increased each day less expensive cuts of meat may be purchased and coarser vegetables can be used,
said Miss Lott, home demonstration agent. A recent series of lessons in the Home Demonstration department has been stressing the value of milk desserts.

Farmers in some parts of the county are receiving $1.25 to $1.40 per hundred pounds. The present low price is tending to make some farmers dispose of unprofitable
stock, but the county agent does not believe it is affecting the staple stock of the dairymen. That the future of the dairy business depends upon industrial conditions,
there is no doubt he says. Also upon legislation governing the coloring of oleomargarine. A colored oleo can be made from palm oil
which a recent decision says is not subject to the 10 cent tax as it is not artificially colored. The day
the decision was made butter dropped seven cents and the price has been falling steadily. An effort is being made to change the law to cover all oleos.

The drop in poultry prices and eggs too has been drastic. In the storage houses of the country
there was on hand, December 1, 1-500,000 cases of eggs more than any previous record. This makes about four eggs per capita. In order to save their credit storage
men who were suddenly called un-
on by the banks, dumped millions of eggs upon the market with the resultant low prices, continued Mr.
Milham, who has been studying the situation carefully.

The result is there is one-half the demand for baby chicks this spring and consequently the price
of eggs will rise again in the fall
through a natural shortage, he believes. Poultry men are discouraged, of course, but his advice is to get into the game strongly this spring, for storage men generally expect to recoup their losses next year by a shortage in the egg market, he further stated.

HOLLAND BANKS ARE NOW COUNTY DEPOSITORIES

Finance Committee Empowered to Accept Bonds of County
Officers

The finance committee of the board of supervisors, unable to comply with the requirements of the bonds for several of the county
officers, was empowered by the board Monday afternoon, to approve and accept the proper legal bonds when they are furnished by the county officers. The move was made following a report from the committee on Monday afternoon
recommending this action.

The following banks were named as county depositories for the county funds; Grand Haven State Bank, Peoples Savings Bank, Spring
Lake State Bank, Nunica State
Bank, Coopersville State, Peoples
Savings Bank Coopersville, Berlip
State at Marne, Conklin State, Hud-
sonville State, Jamestown State, Zeeland State Bank, State Commercial Savings, Zeeland. First State Bank of Holland, Peoples State of Holland and Holland City State Bank.

The committee includes,
Bruno Peter, chairman; Cornelis
Roosenraad, Albert Hyma, Benjamin Brower and William E. Slater.

The board voted an appropriation of $150 toward continuation of educational work among the electorate
of Ottawa county for delinquency
among minors and first offenders.

The board also accepted an offer
of the Ottawa County Delinquency League for co-operation with the board, consisting of Peter G. Dan-stra of Holland; Roy Lowing of Georgetown; Philip Roshack of Grand Haven; J. J. Moeke of Zeel-
and; and C. Goodenow of Marne.
The committee of the league consists of Dick Boter, J. J. Riemersma and W. J. Brouwer of Hol-
land.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stern were hosts at dinner last Sunday entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Hadden and daughter, May of Holland in observance of the birthdays of Mr.
and Mrs. Walter Stern. The most important guest on this occasion was little Donald Albert the two-year-old grandson of the hosts and out-of-town visitors. — Allegan

Seven Birds of Prey

There are seven birds of prey native to the state that stand in need of protection and these seven
all belong to the same order as do our most destructive hawks. They are the golden and bald eagle, the turkey buzzard, the osprey or fish hawk and the three falcons. In no particular instance are any of these species numerous and they apparently are being shot with as great a regularity as are all hawks and owls. The destruction of these birds has been on for years and they are becoming rare. Unfortunately, we have a law that allows the killing of hawks at any time of the year, and all of the seven
mentioned above bear a close relationship to the true hawks and are killed under this technical understanding of the law. The present law should be amended to exclude the above mentioned birds
by name and then the state will be in a position to prosecute without fear of having their cases
thrown out of court.

ALLEGAN COUNTY FARM NOTES

Leaders of the Home Economics Home Management classes will meet on February 25th, at 10:00 A. M. in the Court House for the fourth lesson, "How to Select and Care for Equipment," given by Miss Cona Stautz, Home Management Specialist from Michigan State College. The meeting is under the direction of A. D. Morley, County Agr'l agent. This lesson will include a discussion of equipment necessary for the kitchen. Reports on what equipment we would purchase if limited to various sums of money will be considered. Qualities, use, preparation and care of different materials used in equipment, will be discussed.

Mr. E. C. Sackrider, Specialist from the Soils Dept. of Michigan State College will hold the third local leader at the court house in Allegan, Tuesday, February 24th, beginning at 10 A. M. The leaders of the ten local groups in first year soils work are very good men and many stimulating discussions take place. The men who complete the first year's work are eligible to go on with advanced work next winter, when it is planned to have both first and second year groups in the county.

Dr. Paul Hammer, Mich. Soils Specialist from Michigan State College, will hold the last of a series of winter meetings for muck farmers at the Hopkinsburg Grange hall on February 25th, beginning at 2 P. M. A great deal of interest is shown in these schools by the muck farmers. Attendance at these meetings come from all sections of the county.

Do you think there is sufficient alfalfa being grown in your county? What are the things that are helping farmers to secure better alfalfa crops? What can I do for hay in 1931? These, and other questions, will be discussed at a series of soils and alfalfa meetings which are going to be held in Allegan county on March 10th and 11th, according to County Agr'l Agent A. D. Morley, who is arranging the schedule. Farmers who had alfalfa hay to cut in 1930 were fortunate and those who have their hay problem solved for this coming year are in good luck. Even in good, normal years a mow full of high protein hay will go a long way towards cutting feed costs.

How Grand Haven Views the Game With Local High

"BUD" HINGA'S MEN SUFFER SLAUGHTER ON HOME COURT—RESERVES ALSO BEATEN

Grand Haven Tribune:—Grand Haven High School's powerful basketball team continued to play in the same sensational manner that has characterized its play all season and defeated Coach Bud Hinga's fighting Holland five, 32 to 14, Friday night thereby clinching the Southwest Conference class A championship. As a result of winning the title, Grand Haven will enter class A state tournament competition next month.

Before a crowd that packed the Holland Armory to capacity, the Holland team romped to a 7 to 2 lead in the first quarter and were never in danger except in the second quarter when Holland came within two points of tying the score. Huttenga and Co. outscored the Hollanders again in the second quarter, leading 14 to 5 as the two teams left the floor for intermission.

Grand Haven scored eight points to the home team's five in the third quarter, the Dutch defense tightening somewhat as they started to use the man-to-man style of defense. Coach Cohrs waited until

Tells of Trip From Holland to Dark Africa

MISS BREEN, MISSIONARY, SAW MANY THINGS OF INTEREST IN MAKING JOURNEY

By MISS NELLE BREEN,
Missionary in Africa

We were both glad when August 6th came and the Steamer Appam left. It was a fine trip, the weather was just ideal and it was so pleasant to have a companion interested in the same things, both going out as workers for the Lord. We soon found there was quite a group of missionaries so we had a good time together. One couple had a little youngster of three and he afforded quite an entertainment.

It was my job to tell him stories. Mother has a picture of him. We often had a regular hymn sing.

One never can write a whole letter at a time for some one is always coming to greet and it would be impolite to continue.

We had hoped to stop at the Canary Islands, but we passed them in the dark. We did get a chance to go ashore at Freetown, Sierra Leone and at Lagos before disembarking at Port Harcourt.

How interesting it all was but how totally different from the interior where we are.

Mr. Collins of the C. M. S. met me at Port Harcourt and helped there.

It was wonderful how there had been someone provided to help at each stop.

The same night I left on the train for Makurdi. The trains are small and crude, no bed but the regular seat, no diner, but it has a tiny board projecting from the wall for a table. The chief steward of the boat had sent me a lunch for the train so I did not have to open my boxes of provisions. Rev. Forbes, our field secretary, had sent a wire to the boat telling me some one would meet me at Makurdi, as also their house boy would with provisions and camp furniture, if there was no place to stay.

But the Michies, who were there in Makurdi, Africa, for bridge construction, were kind enough to let me stay with them until a river boat came. It first seemed as though I would have to wait weeks, but the manager of the Niger Co. went with his own boat, inviting us to go as his guests. This was a real treat.

Arriving at Ibi, Miss Veenstra was waiting for me. We spent the first night talking instead of sleeping. After the week-end, Rev. Forbes took us on his motorcycle to Wukari. We spent a month each at Wukari and Donga before going home to Lupwe. Our home was right on the edge of the native town in Wukari and in the midst in Donga, so I saw real native life. Miss Veenstra did the preaching and individual work that these Christians needed, since both stations are without a worker. Many of these Christians have most interesting histories and if the Lord permits, I may tell you some when I return.

Most of my time was spent with language study and at first learning to ride the bicycle. The latter afforded amusement for both the natives and ourselves. But I did learn anyway and used it trekking from Donga to Lupwe, some 55 miles.

It was interesting, although some of the way was pretty hard as the path was often no wider than our little paths, but with high bush grass on either side. Sometimes it was so steep up the hills or so stony and rough we walked. A few times the only bridges were a few branches across a deep stream, then we depended on the native porter. He was a great help and a fine worker.

We stayed in Takum where our church is for the week end. Being the new worker, swarms came to greet and see the curiosity. They have a fine group of Christians and the church is working as an indigenous church.

There are three elders and a deacon. They do quite a bit of preaching. One has charge of the school of the Christians. This man was formerly a Mohammedan, so it is wonderful to now see him preach for the Lord Jesus.

JUDGE PERKINS RAPS PRIVATE GAME PRESERVES BEFORE SPORTSMEN

Grand Rapids Herald:—The private preserve law was assailed as unconstitutional and according special privileges in conflict with American theories of democracy by Judge W. B. Perkins of circuit court in an address before the West Michigan Game and Fish Protective association Thursday night.

The law, he stated, gives a "favored few" the privilege, in effect, of violating bag limits and closed seasons, and works an injustice as great as would a statute permitting those who plant fish fry in streams bordering on their property to catch half of them beyond the regular open season.

The association went on record as endorsing Sen. Ernest E. Conlon's bill for uniform time throughout the state. The next meeting will be March 12 in the street railway hall on Ionia ave. Motion pictures of outdoor life will be exhibited.

The junior clan of Saugetuck will present the play "The Nut Farm" in the Odd Fellows hall Thursday and Friday nights, Feb. 26 and 27.

Remember these Talking Pictures are shown today, Friday and Saturday of this week at the Ford Show Rooms on River Ave., Holland

the score was 30 to send in a full reserve team and these boys showed up to good advantage.

There was no outstanding star on the Grand Haven team, each player handling in a creditable showing. The local offense, centered around Capt. Huttenga and Babcock, clicked with clock-like precision most of the time during the game and completely baffled the Holland guards. Huttenga again led the scoring with 15 points, parting the meshes from all angles and playing a smooth floor game. He rounded up his conference basketball career in a blaze of glory and now leads the conference in individual scoring with 60 points. Babcock played a nice game at forward as did Boyink. The local guards played their usual air-tight ball and held the Hollanders to five field goals, four of which were made from mid-court. Te Roller and Sleighter played best for Holland, being the only ones who found the loop to any effect at all.

Coach Bosworth's reserve team helped keep the large number of local fans who journeyed down to the Windmill City in a happy frame of mind by downing the Holland reserves, 22 to 14. Holland led at the end of the first quarter, 5 to 4, but the local team tied up the count to have it read nine all at the end of the first half and got to clicking in the third canto to go ahead, 18 to 11. Vance Yeme, Grand Haven guard, played an exceptionally good game at his position, getting the ball off the back-board and intercepting Holland passes time after time. Donker led the local attack with 10 points while Maddocks, forward, got eight. Essenburg played a nice brand of ball for Holland.

The Grand Haven reserves can now claim the conference title in the reserve division, defeating four league teams and losing no conference games.

STATE POLICE SOUND WARNING TO FISHERMEN

Complaints that some of the fishermen on the lake bays of Otwa county, are destroying fences, docks and other property have been registered with the state police. It is reported that fence posts and the lumber from docks are being used for fire wood. One man complained that fishermen had destroyed his last year's fence posts which he valued at $15.

The state police are warning the fishermen today that this malicious destruction of property must cease or arrests will be made. It is believed that if the value of this property is realized, no further complaints will be necessary.

HOLLAND DRIVER IS HELD ON HIT-AND-RUN CHARGE

Fish Experts Say Most of Hooked Fish do Live

ONE REASON WHY UNDER-SIZED FISH MUST BE THROWN BACK BY FISHERMEN

Here in Holland fishermen have often discussed the fatality of undersized fish after these have been pulled up by a fisherman. Many contend that the fish catch limit should be raised about 75% but that undersize fish should be kept and counted in making the limit. They say that most hooked fish die anyway and a dead fish in the water not only contaminates but kills other fish.

The following clipping from a state paper may be of interest: "Do undersize fish taken by anglers live after they are released in the water? Most of them do, the fish division of the conservation department answers, basing its conclusions on experiments that have been undertaken at the Harrietta hatchery. Ever since a size limit was placed on game fish in Michigan, anglers have argued on the question of whether the small fish lived when returned to the water after being hooked.

Last fall the fish division began some experiments with brook trout at the Harrietta hatchery. Six hundred undersized fish were taken from the hatchery feeding ponds and returned to the water. A. J. Walcott, hatchery overseer, caught 200 undersize trout with an artificial fly and returned them to the water. Checking up later Walcott found that but two and one half per cent of those returned to the water died during the next fifty days.

"Using an ordinary hook Walcott also caught 200 more young trout and returned them to the water. In the same way he caught 200 trout with a hook from which the barb had been removed. A later check showed that but 10% per cent of the fish caught with a barbed hook died after they were replaced in water and 9% per cent of those caught with a barbless hook died during the same period.

"Next spring more experiments of the same nature will be made. At that time water temperature will have risen and other conditions will be different. If these experiments show the same results as the first, the fish division believes that it will have an approximate idea as to the damage done undersize fish hooked and returned to the water.

"All of the precautions urged of all fishermen, that of carefully removing the hook, and wetting the hands before touching the fish, were observed in making the experiments."

The News feels that the last paragraph is just where the shoe pinches. Not one fisherman in 25 will use parlor method when he finds a small fish on his hook. He will either become disgusted, lure the fish off, gills and all. That being the case, we believe that after all the fish limit should be raised and all fish caught should be counted. Fish a trifle shorter than the legal length will make no difference to the frying pan or the palate.

HENS ON LAYING SPREE DUE TO WARMTH. PRICES IN ILLINOIS HIT BOTTOM

Eggs have become so cheap in the neighborhood of Frankfort, Ill., that one grocer said he had decided he could give away to give away 500 dozen of them today to his customers in an effort to stimulate business. The regular retail price is 15 cents a dozen. A laying spree by hens, due to the warm weather, was given as the reason for the low prices. In Centralia eggs sold down to 11 cents a dozen, the lowest price in 75 years.

Calvin Meets Third Defeat at Hands of Hope

HOPE ROOTERS FILL ONE SIDE OF GYM

The Hope college basketball team made it three straight over their old rivals, Calvin college of Grand Rapids, when the Schoutenmen downed the Knights last Wednesday, 31 to 26. Although Hope failed to play an impressive brand of ball, the team looked good enough to down the determined Calvin quintet.

Hope held the lead during the entire game, but Calvin fought doggedly, and at no time during the forty minutes of play were the Hope followers confident of victory. Our boys left the court at the half with an 18 to 13 advantage.

Captain Clarence Becker was the outstanding Hope man in the fray. Playing before his home town crowd, Becker led the scoring with nine points. Van Appledorn and Bontekoe shone for Calvin.

Saturday evening the Hope basketball squad invaded the Hornet stronghold in Kalamazoo and came out, after an overtime period, at the long end of a 28 to 31 score.

Our squad made a bad start and the game proved very uninteresting for a Hope fan during the first half. In fact, Kalamazoo had nine points before we had begun to score, and also enjoyed an advantage of ten points at the intermission.

During the second period however, our offense got under way and Hope began to threaten their lead at times. Nevertheless they continued to set the pace and it was only after there were mere seconds left to play that Slighter tied the count at 27 all with his foul shot.

The overtime period was exciting to say the least, at first the Kalamazoo went into a one point lead, but Dalman managed to win the game by scoring 4 points with his two foul shots and a field goal.

Slighter, Sophomore sensation, turned in the best performance of the evening, and raked in 12 points for scoring honors. This was an especially fine piece of work since Murdock, star Kalamazoo guard, was watching him. The next ranking scorers were Dalman 10 and Spoelstra 8.

A Hope negative Men's debate team lost by one vote to Michigan State on Monday the 9th. It was an audience decision, and the results tell how close the debate was. The debate took place in Nashville, Michigan before a group of local people. Both Henry Kleinhessel and Arthur Ter Keurst representing Hope debated well and it is very probable that had there been judges Hope would have received the decision.

On Saturday an affirmative team journeys to Battle Creek to meet that college in a radio debate. This debate will be judged by Prof. Simpson of Kalamazoo College, who will listen in. The team which will represent Hope has not been definitely chosen.

Thursday, the nineteenth, a Hope negative team meets Albion before Grand Rapids Union High School at two o'clock.

Only In Kelvinator CAN YOU GET ALL OF THESE FEATURES

There are many fine refrigerators, other than Kelvinator, on the market today, and the above statement is made with all due respect to the merits of these well-known products.

However, it is literally true that Kelvinator alone gives you ALL of these essential features—features you will most certainly want in the electric refrigerator you buy.

WORLD'S FASTEST FREEZING SPEED—From water to ice in the average time of 80 minutes—nearly 2 hours faster than ordinary freezing speed—a feature which insures the fastest freezing of ice cubes and frozen desserts of any refrigerator.

4-WAY COLD—Four different temperatures in the one refrigerator and all automatically and scientifically controlled. These four temperatures, each independent of the other, supply the correct temperatures for every refrigeration need. The exclusive Kelvinator 4-Way Cold gives [1] below-freezing temperature in the Frost Chest; [2] superfast freezing of ice cubes and desserts in the Iso-Thermic Tube Tray; [3] fastfreezing trays; and [4] the correct temperature for food preservation in the food storage compartment.

FROST CHEST—This feature is a cold-storage compartment for keeping fish, game, and frozen foods below freezing temperatures, indefinitely. Can also be used to store ice cubes when an unusually large quantity of cubes is needed.

KOLD-KEEPER—An exclusive Kelvinator engineering feature that was introduced in 1914 and used ever since. The Kold-Keeper serves as a reservoir of cold that reduces starts and running time of the condensing unit; insures the correct temperature distribution; and will refrigerate for more than 12 hours without power—an important safety feature. It maintains an average temperature of 20 degrees on the surface and stores cold to be used as needed.

FULLY AUTOMATIC OPERATION—Another Kelvinator feature that has won much praise from women everywhere is the fully automatic control of four different temperatures in the refrigerator at the same time—and all four temperatures are scientifically correct. No lever to operate—nothing to get out of order—nothing to forget—no danger of freezing the food in the food compartment, because the sub-freezing temperatures in the Frost Chest and Ice Cube Trays are automatically controlled, independently of the temperature in the food compartment.

ISO-THERMIC TUBES—Another exclusive Kelvinator engineering feature that contributes materially to the satisfaction of owning a Kelvinator. It is the Iso-Thermic Tube that gives Kelvinator the world's fastest freezing of ice cubes and frozen desserts. Its operation is automatic; requires no adjustments and it does not affect temperature in the rest of the cabinet.

Combined with the foregoing, is a long list of Kelvinator features, each of which contributes to the efficiency, the performance, and the inherent quality of Kelvinator. The electrically lighted interiors; balanced doors; bar shelves; large ice capacity; the convenient table top; one-piece side panels; two-tone Chrome Hardware; Kelvatex Insulation; the Kelvin Crisper; the beautiful Chrome tray fronts; thick, durable door gaskets; the time-tested, quiet, powerful compressor; and many other combine to make Kelvinator the finest electric refrigerator built today.

Only in Kelvinator can you get ALL of these features—features you will unquestionably want in the refrigerator you buy.

*On Such Liberal and Long Terms Everyone Can Own
a Kelvinator . . .*

There is a Kelvinator for every size home and every size income, and any Kelvinator Model may be purchased on the ReDisCo Monthly Budget Plan—a small down payment, as low as $10.00, and the balance in monthly installments as low as 28 cents a day, depending on the Model you buy. Next Sunday the American people at home and abroad will commemorate the birthday anniversary of George Washington, the great patriot and our first president. The nation has prospered on the foundation laid and through principles fostered by him.

We often express discontent and believe our burdens hard to bear when stressful times occasionally come, but remember that the lot of Washington was not a "bed of roses." Revolutionary days proved to be the most trying period in this nation's history but a great leader in the person of George Washington was available and it was his leadership, which led him through untold hardships of poverty, pestilence and war, bringing ultimate success to the thirteen colonies, that has made this nation what it is today.

The officials of this banking institution join with millions of other "true blue" Americans in commemorating the birth of this great and noble patriot.

Mrs. French read a paper showing the history and development of the orchestra and demonstrated the arrangement and composition of the modern symphony orchestra. Mrs. French opened the musical portion of the program with a violin solo, "Air from A Minor Concerto" by Goldmark played by Mrs. French, accompanied by Mrs. Harold Karsten. Four numbers were then presented by an orchestra composed of ten young people of the Junior High school under the direction of Eugene Heeter.

Mr. Heeter told of the problems connected with the organization of an orchestra and demonstrated with the group present what excellent results can be obtained. The numbers presented were "Dance of the Happy Spirits" from Orpheus by Gluck; "Minuet from F Major Concerto" by Handel; "Andante Movement" from Surprise Symphony by Hayden and "Norwegian Dance" by Grieg.

Mrs. F. E. De Weese closed the program with a short resume of current musical events.

Inter-Sorority
Games Begin
This WeekGIRLS TRAIN IN EARNEST FOR COMING CONTEST

What? Didn't you know that the inter-sorority basketball games are going to be in full swing soon? Well, they are, and will undoubtedly be very exciting and interesting.

Last year, as a result of the games, Dorian took the honors by winning the cup. Sorosis followed second. There was a great deal of competition in these games, and it looks as if there will be just as much or more this year. Last Thursday night was supposed to have been the date for the first game, but owing to the many other outside activities, it was postponed. The first game to be played is scheduled for this week, the girls have been practicing extremely hard and have displayed a great deal of enthusiasm for the great winter sport, which up to last year had always been considered the special province of the boys. To reverse the old epigram, let us say, "May the best woman win!"

Divinity Guild
Meets First Time
Under New Name

REV. TER KEURST WILL SPEAK
AT NEXT MEETING,
FEB. 19

The "Divinity Guild," previously known as the "Home Volunteers," held their regular weekly meeting Wednesday P.M. at the usual hour in Hope Chapel.

The devotional features of the program were in charge of Henry Van Raalte.

Melvin F. Dole gave a synoptic report on the book "As to Being Reformed," by Rev. Kuiper, President of Calvin College.

A short discussion followed the report, each member expressing some idea brought forth in the report. As there was no important business to discuss or transact, the meeting was adjourned with the Lord's prayer.

The next meeting of the organization will be held Thursday, February 19, at which time Rev. Ter Keurst will speak on "The Christian and His Amusements." Every student is invited to attend this meeting; to hear and greet the new pastor of Trinity Church.

LINCOLN PROGRAM AT Y. M.

On Tuesday, February 10, the Young Men's Christian Association of Hope College held its regular weekly meeting. Mr. Roger Voskuil opened the meeting with a song service. Mr. Clarence Becker read the scripture lesson. This was followed by a series of sentence prayers. Mr. John Mullenberg furnished the special for the evening by rendering two trombone solos. Since the birthday of Abraham Lincoln was but two days hence, the main theme of program had Lincoln's life as a background. Mr. Justin Vander Kolk gave a fine address on the words of the great Emancipator "With Malice Toward None."

Between 3,000,000 and 4,000,000 pieces of Christmas mail find their way to the dead letter office every year in U.S., because of illegible or incomplete addresses and failure of senders to put their return address on letters and packages.

DIMINENT ADDRESSES Y. W.

"Y. W." last Tuesday was well attended, and all of us who were there received a real message. Dr. Dimment was the speaker, with "The Unbidden Guest" as his topic for discussion. He told us about Lincoln, the great American whose motto was 'to give the last full measure of devotion' to his God and his country. Dr. Dimment urged us to take that as our motto too, and when the "Unbidden Guest" knocked, we should answer with our 'last full measure of devotion.'

The special music of the meeting was a duet, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," sung by Louise Kieft and Mildred Klow.

Reverend Joshua Hogeboom, '25, is pastor of the Dutch Reformed Church in Fairview, Ill.

Welsh Singers
Delight Large
AudienceIMPERIAL CHORUS MORE THAN MEASURES UP TO EXPECTATIONS

The last number of the Lyceum Course was given Friday night by the Welsh Imperial Singers directed by Mr. R. Festyn Davies. This body of fourteen true Welshmen made a striking and pleasing appearance dressed in characteristic red jackets. In the fine rendering of their program, they upheld the fame of their country which is known as a nation of singers. Although each member of the group is a soloist, the ensemble work was excellent. From their repertoire of one hundred numbers, they sang the following:

"The March of the Men of Harlech," which is their national hymn and always opens the program.
"Farewell to the Highlands," Panton.
"Killarney," Balfie.
"Hymn to Apollo," Gounod.
"Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," Arr. Perkins.
"Boys of the Old Brigade," Parks.
"The Lost Chord," Sullivan.
"Goin' Home," Dvorak.
"O Peaceful Night," German.
"All Through the Night," Arr. Rogers.

"Watchmen, What of the Night," Sargeant, a Tenor and Baritone Duet.

"Annie Darlin'," "Mary Darlin'," "Three Green Bonnets," "For You Alone," "Lorraine," were Tenor solos.
"Credo" (Othello), "Revenge," were baritone solos.
"O Isis and Osiris" (Magic Flute by Mozart), "Floral Dance," "Just a Little Fellow," were bass solos.

We join in the hope of the director that they may appear here again soon, for these singers fulfilled every promise of excellency that preceded their coming.

Girl Debaters
Lose to Kazoo, and Defeat AlmaNEGATIVE TEAMS CARRY THE DAY IN BOTH CONTESTS

On Thursday evening, Hope participated in two of the series of Women's Debates on the subject of "State Medicine." Hope's affirmative team, consisting of Arloa Van Peursem, Marion Warner, and Louise Kieft, waged their battle in the beautiful library building at Kalamazoo College, Kalamazoo. The speeches were constructive and well given, and after a clever combat, Judge Henry, of Battle Creek, gave the decision to the negative team of Kalamazoo College. The decision was made on the basis of case, evidence, refutation, and presentation. We are sorry that our affirmative lost, but we are proud of the way in which they competed for their college.

Hope's negative team met the affirmative team of Alma College at Grave's Hall. The negative team, however, proved more successful. Beatrice Visser, Nella De Haan, and Josephine Rodenberg were the members of this team. After a clever display of their debating talents, the unanimous decision announced by the judge was in favor of the Hope team. Hurrah for our Women debaters! We also wish our girls' debating teams success in their coming struggles!

St. ValentineMASONIC TEMPLE SCENE OF
HEART'S DAY FROLIC

The Emersonian Society had a Valentine party Thursday night, February 12, in the Masonic Temple. The party began humorously, and remained that way throughout the whole evening. Lester Ellerbrook opened the program with a talk entitled "Hello and How Are You?" Mr. Neil Van Leeuwen contributed a vocal solo entitled "For You Alone." The next number was given by Leon Winstrom, a freshman, on "Green Hearts." (Mr. Winstrom holds the theory that it is a good thing that a freshman's heart is green because if a plant is green it means that there is life within and there are signs of growth, being red, is Sophomore heart, being red, is like a lobster that turns red when it is half boiled, and the Senior's hearts are like cut and dried timber in which there is no life.) Dr. Herman Jansen, an alumnus of Hope College and an Emersonian, favored the party with a tenor solo. Nicholas P. Cuperly had the privilege of speaking on the Subject, "Will You be my Valentine." Harry Ver Strate concluded the program with a novelty number. Harry K. Smith presided at the meeting and held the position of toastmaster. Upon the conclusion of the program, the group retired to the fourth floor where a delicious lunch was served. The party was closed by the men singing the Emersonian song.

OF STATE

The Michigan Bell Telephone company has planned for 1931 an expenditure of approximately $22,000,000 for new construction, Burch Foraker, president of the company, announces.

This work has been engineered on the basis that business and industrial conditions will improve as the year 1931 advances.

The contemplated expenditure will be made from new capital, entirely for new plant and equipment, Mr. Foraker said, and he expects the program will be followed unless conditions unforeseen arise.

In addition to the construction expenditures for new telephone plant planned for 1931, there will be spent approximately $22,689,000 for maintenance and operation of the company's service in Michigan, making total expected expenditures of approximately $44,689,000.

The telephone program engineered for the year includes the completion of new buildings at various points, construction of additional long distance lines and cable, and installation of considerable dial central office apparatus and other exchange equipment, for the purpose of extending facilities and further improving the present high grade of service.

Building construction planned for 1931, will cost, including sites, $1,600,000, and new central office and subscribers' telephone equipment will cost $14,400,000. New exchange plant expenditures planned will total $6,140,000, including $1,125,000 for pole lines, $1,592,000 for aerial cable, $1,052,000 for aerial wire, $685,000 for underground conduit, and $1,686,000 for underground and aerial cable.

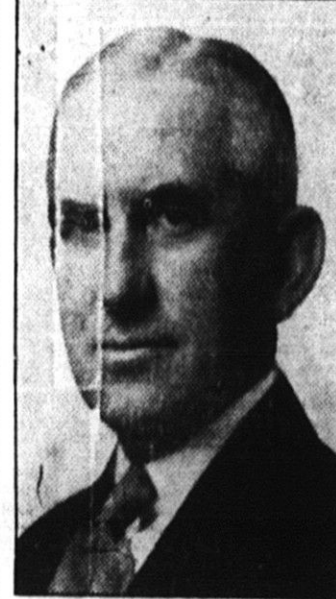

Long distance telephone plant construction projects contemplated total $1,060,000, including $300,000 for additional circuits in storm-proof cable.

Material requirements for the year under this program will include 44,000 poles, 500,000 pounds of bare copper wire, 3,400,000 feet of wire strand, 1,117,000 duct feet of clay conduit, 25,500 crossarms, and 1,561,000,000 conductor feet of wire in cable.

It is planned to place new central offices in service during 1931 at Saginaw, Benton Harbor, Big Rapids, Detroit, Scottville and Escanaba. Large additions to local exchange facilities are engineered at many points, among them being Detroit, Ann Arbor, Battle Creek, Grand Rapids, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Lansing, Ypsilanti, Bay City, Saginaw and Marquette. Among the long distance facilities projects under consideration are the building of a cable between Saginaw and Reese, and completion of that now under construction between Grand Rapids and Big Rapids.

The Michigan Bell company now has 675,000 telephones in service, of which 292,000, or 42.75 per cent. are dial operated. A net gain of 25,000 in the number of telephones in service is anticipated during the next twelve months.

REFRIGERATION REGARDED AS ECONOMIC AND A
HEALTH NECESSITYDr. Westrate Emphasizes Importance of Food Care and Preservation

The vital importance of adequate refrigeration in the preservation and care of foods is receiving more widespread recognition every day among the housewives of America according to a statement made by Dr. Wm. Westrate, city physician.

"From both a health and an economic standpoint," said Dr. Westrate, "the proper care and preservation of food stuffs through adequate refrigeration is a subject of utmost importance to the housewife."

"It has become pretty generally known that proper refrigeration must be supplied for perishable foods, regardless of the prevailing outside temperature.

"Few people, however, realize that on the average these are only 19 days during the year when the outside temperature is such that food may, with safety, be stored in a window-box refrigerator. This may be news for many home managers who would like to make a window-box for their refrigerator during the winter months, but it is a fact. The U. S. Department of Agriculture has, after much experimenting determined that too low a temperature is just as bad for perishable foods as a temperature that is too high. Below 32 degrees some foods freeze and the low temperature causes a definite chemical change which destroys the delicate flavors and decreases the vitamins, which constitute their greatest value as foods. A sudden rise in temperature, maybe only a few degrees will cause many foods to spoil quickly. "And from the standpoint of health there is the economic aspect of inadequate refrigeration."

"A well known food authority has declared that the average American family spends $629.00 a year for food stuffs, ten per cent of which is wasted. He added that, with a realization of the necessity for keeping perishable foods in a temperature constantly under 50 degrees, the people of the country might save three-quarters of a billion dollars that is now wasted through indifference, lack of knowledge, or false economy. "However, campaigns of education on the question of refrigeration have made millions of men aware of the importance of food preservation. The day of the window box refrigerator is rapidly passing."

"Adequate refrigeration all the year round is essential in the preservation of foods. It gives greater enjoyment of the food, retains the health-giving properties; and is decidedly more economical because of the elimination of spoilage and waste and the prevention of sickness which often can be traced directly to food that has become contaminated because of the lack of refrigeration."
