GET YOUR BOOZE AT THE CITY HALL BAR

CHIEF VAN RY GETS TWO MORE TRUNKS FILLED WITH WET GOODS.

Also Picks Up a Carpenter's Tool Chest Filled With "Red-Eye"

Who lost a trunk of booze? Owner may get same at the City Hall bar where it will be dispensed by "bar keep" Chief Van Ry.

The police of Holland have picked up two more trunks filled with fire water, and have placed them in the commissary department located on the Corner of River Avenue and Eleventh street.

An innocent looking tool chest supposedly filled with braces and bits and with hammers and saws, was found to be overflowing with bracers of a different nature. This was also hauled to the tool room at Police headquarters.

Mr. Van Ry now asks that the owners of the liquor call on him and lay claim to their possessions.

The claim department is ready for business, but the chief also has a small document in his inside pocket that will be exchanged for the baggage check. It is a warrant made out for "John Doe" whoever that individual may be.

No doubt the claimant of the liquor may answer the description of John to a "T" and the "Doe" will no doubt follow afterward in police court.

MR. E. P. UNUM PLANS SURPRISE OLD MAN DOLLAR HAS BARGAINS UP HIS SLEEVE FOR MARCH 13

Holland retailers are friendly rivals in a contest to offer their patrons the best values on Dollar day which event takes place on Thursday March 13. Buyers for local stores report that they have picked up some good bargains in the big centers despite the fact that the market continues firm. This stimulates the friendly rivalry between retail stores and has put a new zest into preparations for Dollar day.

TREASURER, TREASURER, WHO WANTS TO BE TREASURER?

HOLLAND TOWNSHIP ALREADY HAS EIGHT CANDIDATES IN THE FIELD.

The good book says "that money is the root of all evil." A wag says, "Give us a lot of the root."

Holland township also has a lot of men that want to see the color of the gold that the taxpayers of that township have to contribute each year. Thus far there are eight candidates for treasurer, each in turn buttonholing friends for the purpose of connecting them up with the township's strong box.

The candidates who have announced themselves are Gill Vogel, Dick Plaghuars, William Van Appledorn, Gerrit Lemmen, Peter Hamelink, Kluus Vanden Bosch, Leonard Dekker, and Tenuis D. Bos.

Peter Vander Ploeg stands for reelection as highway commissioner, but will be opposed by Peter Kulyers.

Charles Eilander as clerk and John Y. Huizinga as supervisor will have no opposition, it is said.

The caucus has been called for Saturday, March 15, at the town hall.

B. STEKETEE

IS STRONG FOR AN EIGHT HOUR DAY

BUT LIFE IS MORE THAN MAKING A LIVING, SAYS DR. VANDER MEULEN

Former Local Pastor Was the Victim of Work of Irresponsible Reporter

Dr. J. M. Vander Meulen, of Oak Park, Ill., sends this paper the following communication:

"I want to thank you for the correction published in your paper of the misrepresentation accorded me by the Chicago Press of my position on the 8-hour day for the laboring man. In order that you may know just what I said in the sermon that was so misquoted, I am sending you a copy of that portion of it. Oak Leaves, our Oak Park weekly, offered its columns to me for that purpose and I am forwarding the article to you.

Cordially yours,
John M. Vander Meulen.

The extract from the sermon follows:

"Jesus said: 'Are there not twelve hours in the day?' The emphatic thing that is implied in these words of our Savior is a serious view of the value of time.

"And it is just here that we face the most serious objection that might be made on the modern demand for an eight hour day. There is, to be sure, another objection that might be urged against it by its opponents. It might be urged that it has to some extent been begotten in selfishness in the womb of class spirit. For it is difficult to see how it can be so applied that all men shall alike share in the benefit of it. How, for example, are you going to give the farmer an eight hour day in summer, or even, if he have considerable stock, in winter? How is it going to apply to our cooks and our nurses and our mothers who are often obliged to be both? And how are you going to make it work for the busy doctor? The benefits of it seem to accrue only to one class of society, the so-called laboring class. It is not born sufficiently out of the spirit of justice, if by that you mean universal justice, justice to all.

"Well, I answer all that objection by saying that it is better that one class should get it than none at all, that that class gets it which on the whole needs it most, and that the benefits which begin with one class will probably in course of time percolate to all.

"The more serious objection that might be urged against the demand for an eight hour working day is that it is often unaccompanied by a serious appreciation of the value of time. In other words, if a man says to me, 'I want for myself the eight hour working day,' I feel like putting the question to him in reply, 'What for?' Possibly he may answer, 'That is none of your business. I demand it is my right and I will do with the rest of my time whatever I please.'

"But when he says that he is back once more in that old conception of individual right, irrespective of the interests of society, which is the very thing against which he has rightly protested in the mouth of capital. I do not subscribe to the individualistic doctrine that a man has a right to do with his time or his talent, any more than he has a right to do with his money, just what he pleases irrespective of the good of society in general. And so I come back to the demand for an eight hour day with the question, 'What for?'

"Alfred the Great is said by means of candles of equal length to have divided the day of twentyfour hours into three periods of eight hours each. One of these periods, he devoted to work, one to sleeping and eating and exercise, and one to study, devotion and self improvement.

"Now if that is what your eight hour day man wants, I am strongly for him. It ought not to be necessary in these days of machinery and invention and of the enormous increase of wealth for any man to have to spend more than eight hours a day in the making of his living. It would not be with a just distribution of wealth.

"And the laboring man ought to have sufficient time for his favorite diversion, for the increase of his future efficiency, for the accomplishment of some by-product of his own tastes, for association with his family, for the culture of his soul, for the performance of some genuinely altruistic service. And if that is what a man wants his eight hour day for, God bless him, I will vote for him and speak for him and use whatever influence I have for it, and do it with great enthusiasm.

HOLLAND WOMEN SHOW US WHAT YOU'RE MADE OF

MARCH 5, NEXT WEEK WEDNESDAY, IS YOUR FIRST ELECTION DAY

Show the Men That You Really Deserve the Ballot By Casting It

The women of Holland are going to be placed on trial next week Wednesday, March 5.

This will be her first chance to vote and the men folks are going to be the jury and will pass judgment on whether she deserves the ballot or not.

Thru some fool legislation at Lansing, a primary election, to place in nomination a lone school commissioner, was brought about.

This primary date could just as well have been set for March 18, twelve days later and at a time when spring primaries for city officials are being held generally throughout the state, in cities as large and larger than Holland.

In that case Holland would have saved about $300 which it will cost this city to run this election next week Wednesday.

But that is aside from the point in question. The primary is to be held next week and the women have their first opportunity to cast the ballot.

The office to be voted on is a very important one and concerns the women vitally. It involves those that are nearest and dearest to them, namely, the children. A school commissioner for Ottawa county must be elected whose duty it is to select and examine the teachers who are instruments in the education of our children. This official must also look after the general welfare of our entire rural school system and has not a little to do indirectly with our city schools.

Sanitation, ventilation, conduct of teachers, department of pupils and many other matters come within the scope and are part of the duties of a county school commissioner. Surely the women of Holland and vicinity cannot help but see the importance of such an election and it seems also that if ever they should be interested in the ballot, the importance of the office and the official to be voted for, should occupy their attention most earnestly. It seems that nothing could or would strike nearer home, so to speak, than a question that pertains to and involves our school system.

Next week Wednesday the women of Holland should bring out a large woman's vote. Besides, the local organization, that has been advocating women's suffrage for so many years, should attempt to get out a majority of the registered vote. The ladies should show us.

Ladies, set some of our men an example in Americanism, in fact if hubby is reluctant about casting his ballot, the lady of the house should show him how to be a real American, even if she has to take him by the ear and march him to the polling place.

DOLLAR DAY THURSDAY, MARCH 13TH

Holland's third "Dollar Day", is near at hand. Thursday, March 13th is the day selected by the merchants' retail committee.

Holland's first dollar day was a great success. Holland's second dollar day was a greater success, and it is hoped and expected if weather conditions are favorable that Holland's third dollar day will be the greatest success.

The merchants are already figuring out flattering bargains for the buying public to feast on.

The local press will have more to say later about the plans that are now being made.

Dollar Day in Holland Thursday, March 13.

am able to learn their attitude in regard to this question is so largely a negative one; that they are merely insistent in demanding from society an eight hour day for the laborer without urging upon him the chief reason for which he ought to demand it; that they fail to provide him with the inspiration and suggestion, to say nothing of the leisure for the best welfare of himself and his family and society. The chief value of an eight hour working day for any man depends on whether, along with that, there goes the serious appreciation of the worth of time employed in these words of our Savior, 'Are there not twelve hours in the day?'

"It was, like all the rules laid down by Jesus, a very sane and normal one; simpler and more normal, I think, than that of Alfred the Great. Jesus apparently divides the day into two equal periods instead of three; twelve hours for sleep and food and recreation; but the other twelve hours for the serious business of a man or woman, eight of this latter twelve, perhaps, or even less, if that is possible, for the making of a living, but the remainder of it for the making of a life."

LOCAL CHURCH TO BE ENLARGED; COST, $12,000

FOURTEENTH STREET CHRISTIAN REFORMED CHURCH DECIDES

ON THIS MOVE Will Increase Capacity by 300; Pastor's Salary Is Also Increased

A congregational meeting was held Wednesday evening in the basement of the 14th St. Christian Reformed church for the purpose of discussing the plans for remodeling the church-building.

The plans brought before the meeting provided for the building of two additions, one to the east side, and a second addition to the south side of the church. The two additions will increase the seating capacity of the auditorium by about 300, while at the same time it will add more rooms to the basement. The present entrance, always considered inadequate, will be entirely done away with, and two new stairways will be provided for, both on Central avenue. The plan, including a new heating system was estimated at $12,000.

A most excellent spirit prevailed throughout the meeting which was well attended. Harmoniously the plans were discussed and adopted as they were laid before the congregation. In fact, the meeting was a record-breaker. In spite of the fact that thousands of dollars were involved the plans were accepted with enthusiasm.

As a proof that an excellent spirit prevailed to the close of the meeting, and at the same time to prove her appreciation of the work of and her love for her present pastor, Rev. H. Hoeksema, the meeting unanimously decided to raise the pastor's salary to $1800.

CLASS RESUMES ITS PRE-WAR SCHEDULE

MEETINGS WERE DISCONTINUED DURING PROGRESS OF THE CONFLICT

The Excelsior class of the Third Reformed church held its regular monthly business meeting at the home of its teacher, Fred Beuwoek, Wednesday evening, for the first time since the boys of his class returned after serving Uncle Sam. These meetings were called off on account of the war and now that practically all the boys are back the meetings were started again. The following officers were elected.

President, Francis Ihman; vice-president, Daniel DenUyl; secretary, Raymond Knooihuizen; treasurer, Rendier Muller; sergeant at arms, Benjamin Rutgers.

Four new members were added to the class roll call, namely, Fred Plasman, Raymond Zwamer, Harley Dangremont, Richard Klassen. This ended the business part of the meeting and the following program was rendered: Humorous reading, Ted Dubbink; Raymond Zwamer then gave us a very interesting talk on his travels in and around Egypt. All the popular songs were sung and games were played, and refreshments were served.

HOLLAND MAN DIRECTOR IN PAPER CO.

HAVE PROSPEROUS YEAR IN PAPER MAKING

Stockholders respectively of the Bardeen Paper company, Wolverine Paper company and Mac-Sim-Bar Paper company of Otsego were informed at their annual meetings, recently held in Kalamazoo, that the three concerns had passed through the most prosperous and profitable years in their history. In each case the reports were most flattering.

With all the strenuous war elements introduced, 1918, was shown to have been a wonderful period of business and profits. For each concern the gross earnings were considerable above the average for any corresponding period.

J. A. Vander Veen of this city and F. C. Hall formerly of Holland now of Grand Rapids have been re-elected directors of the Mac-Sim-Bar Co.

NO MORE SCHOOL INSTITUTES THIS YEAR

The "flu" epidemic has put a crimp in the teachers' institute business in Ottawa county, as well as in most of the other counties in the state. At that Ottawa was luckier than most counties where no teacher's institutes were held at all this year. Ottawa had one institute in October before the "flu" epidemic was on in full force, while many other counties had postponed the institutes till later and now will not hold them at all.

Ottawa also will have no other institute this year. This is on the advice of State Commissioner Fred L. Keeler. In a circular letter to the county school commissioner he advised that no more institutes be held because much time has already been lost in the schools and all the remaining time should be devoted to actual school work, he said.

HOLLAND MAN SERIOUSLY WOUNDED

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. James Van Ark, 64 E 20th street, stating that their son Herman, now stationed at Châpelles, France, had his left hand badly shattered during the fighting over there, and has been laid up in a hospital for several months.

Altho this member is now pretty well healed, as far as the parents can learn, the young man will return with a very much disfigured hand.

Word has also been received that a brother, Bert Van Ark, has been ordered with his company, into Germany, and at the present time he is stationed within the Hun border.

BIG MISSION MEETING TO BE HELD HERE

A mass meeting in the interests of the foreign mission campaign of the Christian Reformed church will be held Thursday night at 7:30 in the Central avenue church building. Addresses will be delivered in both the Holland and English language by Rev. Lee S. Huizenga, M. D., and Rev. John C. De Korne, and the Calvin College quartet will sing.

The 1918 synod of the Christian Reformed church decided to assume responsibility for a foreign mission field in either the Sudan of Africa or China. In order that an intelligent choice might be made between those two fields, the synod appointed Dr. Huizenga and Mr. De Korne to investigate those two fields in person and return to report to the 1920 synod which would then make a final choice. Preliminary investigations were begun in New York City, and it was found that so much information could be secured there that the Board of Heathen Missions decided that a tour of inspection was not necessary, but that a decision between the two fields could be reached on the basis of information obtainable here.

In the near future the committee appointed by the synod expects to submit its report to the synod. In the meantime the members of the committee are conducting a campaign throughout the entire Christian Reformed denomination in the interests of this new work. They are disseminating information with respect to the missionary situation in general and China and the Sudan in particular, and are also working to establish a fund of $50,000 to report to the 1920 synod so that funds will not be lacking to commence the work as soon as the decision is officially made by the synod.

Dr. Huizenga and Mr. De Korne have been engaged in this campaign for nearly two months, and they are just now finishing the work in Michigan. They report that the membership of the Christian Reformed church is heartily in favor of the new enterprise.

It is expected that Rev. E. J. Tunk, president of the mission delegates of the Christian Reformed church, will preside at Thursday night's meeting. Dr. Huizenga is very well known in Holland and surroundings, as he was for years the medical missionary of the the Holland churches on the Indian mission field in New Mexico. A week ago Sunday he delivered short addresses in each of the six Christian Reformed churches by way of preparation for Thursday's meeting.

COUNCIL DECIDES NOT TO CHANGE DATE OF PRIMARY

There is to be a primary election in Holland as well as in the rest of Ottawa County on Wednesday, March 5. This was finally decided Monday evening at the special meeting of the Common Council. The election is to be held as scheduled and no change will be attempted.

The primary on March 5 is for the nomination of a county school commissioner. No other business will come up before the voters. That being the case and in view of the fact that the regular spring primary will be held on March 18, it was suggested that the two primaries be combined thus saving expense to the people.

But there were too many difficulties in the way. In the first place, the rest of the county will hold the primary. If Holland should not follow suit, this city would have no voice in the nomination of a school commissioner because the law requires that the votes shall be counted three days after the primary. Thus Holland would be left out entirely.

Furthermore, the primary is provided for by state law and no city has a legal right to change that law. If Holland should do so it might invalidate the entire election and might get the city and the county into many legal difficulties that would cost more than the election itself.

The aldermen were unanimous in their declaration however that it was a shame that the city must spend all that money for an election that could just as well be held two weeks later. Several aldermen declared in favor of passing a resolution at the next meeting asking the state legislature to change the law so the school primary can be held at the same time another primary is held. And to show their good faith several of the aldermen offered to serve for nothing at the primary this year so as to make the bill as low for Holland as possible.

COLLEGE ROMANCE ENDS IN MARRIAGE

The termination of a college romance took place Tuesday afternoon at Grand Rapids at a quiet home ceremony when Rhea E. Oltman, daughter of Mr. Louis P. Oltman, Wealthy St., S. E., and Ensign G. Marvin Brower, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Brower, of Hamilton, Mich., were united in marriage.

Both Ensign and Mrs. Brower are graduates of Hope College of the class of 1917. While in college, Mr. Brower distinguished himself as editor of "The Anchor," business manager of the first "Milestone," president of the Student's Council, founder of the Hope Text Book agency, Intercollegiate debating, Cosmopolitan Literary society and Intercollegiate track. Miss Oltman was prominent in Y. W. C. A. circles, Sorosis Literary society, and was on both the "Anchor" and "Milestone" staff. She also played on the girl's basketball team.

The bride wore a traveling dress of navy blue taffeta and carried a bouquet of violets and pink roses. Thirty guests were invited to the wedding, immediately after which the bride and groom departed for Newport News, Va., where Ensign Brower is stationed. Those from Hope College attending were Messrs. Gerrit Van Zyle and Ray Oltman, and the Misses Bertha and Clara Brower.

NEW CHORUS IS ORGANIZED IN ZEELAND

A large number of young people of the North Street church of Zeeland met in the church parlors and organized a chorus. George Dok was chosen as director.

The chorus will meet every Tuesday evening at 7:45 to prepare for the rendition of an Easter cantata to be sung at Easter time. Rev. J. H. Geerlings was elected president of the organization; Miss Lena Moeke, sec'y; Henry Etterbeek, treasurer. Rev. John H. Geerlings, John Van Koeveering, John Poest and John Van Hara will serve as music committees.

Dick Hompkes and Lou Bouwman, deputy sheriffs, are making investigation of complaints of burglary made by North Side residents. Henry Schut reports that several bushels of oats and buckwheat were taken from his barn and Ralph Gunn's place also was entered and several bushels of oats were stolen. At the home of Mrs. Goldhill a widow, some 30 cans of fruit were taken.

ZEELAND MAN WILL COLLECT INCOME TAX

Thomas Keppel, formerly of Zeeland now of Detroit, arrived in Holland Monday to take charge of the collection of income taxes in this city and the surrounding community during the next five days. The appointment of Mr. Keppel to this office will be popular with the people of southern Ottawa who are called upon to pay income taxes. Not only is Mr. Keppel personally acquainted with the people in this section, but the fact that he can speak the Holland language will be welcome to many farmers who are more at home in that tongue than in the English language and who can thus explain their income tax problems in a more complete way.

Mr. Keppel has been connected with the internal revenue department for several years, taking that position on resigning as assistant cashier of the Commercial and Savinrs Bank of Zeeland. His headquarters have been in Detroit, but he has served for the department in many sections of Michigan.

Mr. Keppel's headquarters will be in the postoffice and he will make every effort to meet all the local taxpayers who apply to him. To do this he has arranged to be in his office every morning at 8:30 and he will stay every day until six o'clock. In special cases he will make appointments for meetings in the evening to accommodate persons who find it impossible because of their work to meet him during the day. But in order that no person who is entitled to evening service may be deprived of the opportunity, only those who actually need it are asked to call at night. All who can possibly meet the collector during the day will be required to do so.

Another fact to remember is that it is likely there will be a rush on the final day, so that it is the part of wisdom to call on the collector early in the week. Mr. Keppel will be at the postoffice until Friday evening. After that he will go to Grand Haven and Zeeland. Those who wish to have the benefit of his advice should call at the postoffice at the earliest opportunity.

CHICKEN WILL FIGURE IN A SLANDER CASE

"Oh you chicken!" is the refrain that will figure prominently in a local justice court slander case that is to be tried in Justice Van Schelven's court on March 4. But the chicken in this case will not be the variety that is referred to in the old song, but it will be the real thing, the kind that goes into potpies and that furnished the drumsticks which are put on father's plate at the Sunday dinner.

Mrs. Mamie O'Connor is the complainant in the case and Mrs. Elizabeth Gilmore is the defendant. The women are next door neighbors, living on East Seventh street and they seem to have mixed it considerably, according to information brought out at the preliminary hearing in Justice Van Schelven's court.

In brief, Mrs. O'Connor says that Mrs. Gilmore said that Mrs. O'Connor had stolen a chicken from another neighbor and had eaten it. Mrs. O'Connor claims that Mrs. Gilmore told this story to still another neighbor and that is the basis of the suit.

Did Mrs. Gilmore say it or did she not? will be the question that will figure very prominently in the trial. Justice Van Schelven waived the right to ask bonds from Mr. Gilmore and the trial was set for March 4 at 9 o'clock in the forenoon in the city hall. Prosecutor Miles will take care of the case for the people and Att. D. Ten Oate will appear for the defendant.

Another interesting feature of this case will be that it is likely that a woman jury will try it. Chief of Police Van By is considering drawing up a panel of women. This will be the first time in Holland's history that a local case was tried by women.

GEORGE H. HUIZENGA & CO.

MOVES TO NEW STAND

The George H. Huizenga & Co., local jewelers, have moved to their new location in the Blom Building at 13 West Eighth street. The store has been remodeled and redecorated thru-out and is a model in its line. Joe Kooiker, the manager says he is not yet settled, but will be within a few days.

They are however in shape to handle customers. A grand opening will be one of the features of this popular jewelry emporium soon.

WANT TO BOND PARK TOWNSHIP FOR $20,000.00

Saturday evening about 25 Park township people met in Austin Harrington's office and started the work which is hoped will result in completing the good road on the Alpena Beach Road to the lake. The petition was agreed on and a number of signers secured at the meeting, to have the town bond for $20,000 for this road. The idea is to build 16 feet wide and of concrete or some equally good material. This amount of money is expected to be large enough to build about one and three quarter miles and with the promise of one mile to be built by the county to connect the road will be completed.

Among a number of good arguments advanced for this road were the following. Park township is a summer resort township. About seven-eighths of the value is in resorts and only one-eighth in farm land. Resorts will not grow unless there are good roads leading to them. Neither will a good class of people come in. Several instances were given of sales almost completed and spoiled because an automobile got stuck in the sand when the parties were going to look at the land. Instances of undesirable people wishing to buy small lots and building shacks on them were given. Such resorts would add very little to the value of the township, but would effectually prevent any desirable people from buying in the neighborhood.

The reports from those most interested in the resorts were plainly in favor of the good roads. When the township was separated from Holland township argument was made that good roads would be the main result. The last few years have almost stopped any thing but with the return to more normal times the moral obligation on the township is strong to keep faith with the largest taxpayers and those whose removal from town would leave it poor indeed.

On the south side of Black Lake, a strip of land, less than one eighth of the total area of the township contains about one half of the valuation. The Lake Michigan shore, of about the same size, can be made of equal value if it is built up by the right class of people but they won't go to a place if they can't go in an automobile.

The good roads are almost all arranged for the south side, said another argument advanced at the meeting. The north side helped their bond proposition. They are glad to help the north side now for the good of the whole township. This sentiment was expressed by several persons who have sounded the people of the south side.

For the farmer the road would be a very good thing, it was argued. The increase of resorters would give him a better market for his milk, eggs and other produce in the summer. There would be more work generally. It would help get the side roads fixed up because the good roads would be turned over to the county to keep up and the money raised by the town could then be used on the side roads. He could haul more cheaply. Holland has seen the gravel teams add another wagon and double the load that a team can haul easily. Because of the slope of the hills on the Alpena road the good road would easily add one half to the load to town and double the load from town. It would take only a few such loads a year to pay his tax. It was estimated that the repair money spent on the gravel would pay the interest on the bond. Then the tax to retire the bond would be about $10 per $1000 valuation if paid in one year. But when spread over a term of years this is very small.

The petitions are now being circulated and tax payers are being given a chance to sign them.

HOLLAND SKYSCRAPER TO BE VACATED

Holland's skyscraper on West 8th street, next to "Vaudie's" bill boards and street garden is to be vacated.

All the floors of this large building were occupied by the shoe shining parlors.

The enterprising Greeks who remodel hats for fastidious heads and put the mirror shines on all manner of feet have outgrown their present quarters, and have gone into the building across the way, formerly occupied by the Van Dresher restaurant. Here the firm of shoe shiners have room for expansion no matter how big the customer's head or feet may be.

The moving of the Greeks has started a little lively competition next door. The Charter barber shop to the east has also been fitted out with a complete line of shining accessories and customers who feel in need of a properly blacked pair of shoes can either get it in the Greek or the Dutch style. Take your choice.

MAN WHO RECEIVED

GOLD MEDAL FIRST

TO BE DRAWN

Peter Costlos who has been cited for bravery in Northern Russia, during the severe fighting there, devoting himself to duty under heavy firing in the Drina campaign was the first Holland boy to leave this city to go across His draft number was 1456, and he was sent to Camp Custer in September, 1917.

He had been in the regular service for three years before this, and had received an honorable discharge.

No sooner was he dismissed from the service than the draft took him again, and he again re-entered anxious to get into the fray.

He was immediately appointed as a sergeant and because of his knowledge of army work, he stayed at Camp Custer until the 85th went over to Russia and he has been doing valiant work ever since.

Peter Costlos lives at 78 West 19th street in this city. The fact that this young Holland man is in Russia alone is worth a gold medal.

SHOULD PROVIDE

AMUSEMENT FOR LOCAL BOYS

That the boys of the city from about 12 to 16 years of age are not being given the attention they deserve at the hands of the city and of the public in general is the opinion expressed today by Rev. J. F. Bowerman, pastor of the local M. E. church. Rev. Bowerman believes that something should be done in the line of providing recreation for boys of that age and that it would richly pay the city to go into a venture of this kind.

Last week Mr. Bowerman delivered an address before the Woman's Literary club in which he referred to the soldiers' canteen that is being conducted in the Hotel Block. Some people seem to have gotten the notion that he spoke disparagingly of this movement when he incidentally called attention to the need of recreation for the younger boys. He declared Monday that it was not at all his intention to say anything against the canteen but that he was heartily in favor of it. But if it is a good thing for the returned soldiers, he continued, providing recreation for boys of younger age is just as much needed. He merely used the canteen as an illustration of the city's needs in this respect.

The M. E. church in this city has put off foot a movement to provide amusement for the boys of that congregation. But that is a denominational affair and Mr. Bowerman believes that recreation for the city's boys should be made a civic affair. The experience of that church has convinced him that there is a great need for recreation for boys in Holland and he is calling attention to this fact at this time when the subject is before the people. The city should not leave the young boys to their own devices, he said, but should assume responsibility to provide amusement for them.

PIONEER DIES; WAS NEARLY SEVENTY-EIGHT

William Elferdink died at his home at 338 River avenue at the age of nearly 78 years. Mr. Elferdink lacked but a few days of having reached his 78th birthday. He is one of the well known pioneers of this community and has lived in this city a long time.

The deceased is survived by the widow and three children, Johanna, Henry and Catherine. Also by one sister, Mrs. S. Spritsman.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home, Rev. M. Flipse, pastor of the Third Reformed church officiating.

HOSPITAL IS TURNED OVER TO THE CITY

Holland Hospital was turned over Monday evening by Common Council resolution from the Holland Hospital association, to the City of Holland. The formal action taken Monday night by a unanimous vote of the aldermen makes the transfer an accomplished fact, but the details connected with the transfer of the deed and other formalities are to be worked out by a special committee that is to meet with a committee of the hospital board.

This move has been in contemplation for some time. The project was originally proposed by the late George E. Kollen and he was one of its strongest advocates. And the hospital board was now unanimously in favor of turning the property over to the city and of letting the city operate it as a municipal hospital.

C. M. McLean, president of the hospital board presented the case clearly and convincingly to the aldermen Monday evening. Mr. McLean said that the hospital had been admitted as an experiment in Holland. Men and women interested in a hospital project, he said, had for years believed that Holland needed a hospital, but they had not felt that the city should be asked to make an experiment that might easily fail. Therefore these men and women had gone down into their own pockets and had taken up a subscription with which to make the experiment with a view of turning the hospital over to the city in case it was a success and with the further view of taking the losses in silence in case it should be a failure.

But the hospital has been a splendid success, he said, and hence the time has come to turn it over to the city. The hospital has been largely self-sustaining. Up to January 1, 1919, the expenses have been $300 per month and the income has also been $300 per month.

Mayor Bosch made a short address in favor of the project and declared that the health of the city was of vital concern. He declared it was the city's business to operate the hospital and that the aldermen now had an opportunity to take a step to which they could point with pride and for which their descendants would honor them.

Every one of the aldermen made a brief address in favor of the move, and then members of the hospital committee also spoke along the same line, namely Mrs. Browning, Mrs. Thurber, and Henry Winter. In the end a rising vote of thanks was given to Mr. C. M. McLean for the hard work he has given to Holland's hospital as president of the board. Finally the following resolution, offered by Ald. Prins and supported by Ald. Lawrence was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, the trustees of Holland hospital association, a corporation, have made a proposition to the Common Council of the City of Holland, to transfer to the City of Holland, the hospital building now owned by said association and located on Twelfth St. and Central Avenue in said city, together with all of the equipment situated therein and owned by said association, the same to be transferred to said city without consideration, provided the Common Council will assume the management and operation of said hospital and will conduct the same as a City hospital under the authority granted to the Council by Section 6 of Title 10 of the City Charter, such transfer to be made by said Trustees when especially authorized so to do by a vote of the stockholders of said association.

Now therefore, it is hereby resolved that the council accept the proposition thus made by said trustees of said hospital association and take over from said association the title to said property, now representing an investment of upwards of about Fifteen Thousand ($15,000) Dollars, and hereafter, as soon as the necessary transfers and arrangements can be made, conduct, operate and manage said hospital as a city hospital, and

Resolved further, that the Mayor be authorized and requested to appoint a committee of three, of whom he shall be the chairman, to arrange, work out, and report to the Council the details of such transfer and a program for the management, control and operation thereof.

VARIED PROGRAM GIVEN BY JUNIORS

A very entertaining program was given at the Woman's Literary Club Tuesday afternoon by the Junior members of the club, Miss Forne White acting as chairman. The first number on the program was a vocal solo, "A Lovely Little Dream," by Miss Virginia Van Verst. This was followed by an encore. A piano solo was given by Miss Gertrude Kramer who also responded to an encore. A two act comedy "Miss Daulton's Orchids," was cleverly staged and enacted. The members of the cast were, Katherine Mc Bride, Ruby Spears, Mabelle VanDyke, Katherine Prakkien, Maxine McBride, and Beatrice Osborne.

Between the acts Miss Colombe Bosch read "The Green Door," by O. Henry and Miss Helene Van Raalte sang "A Southern Serenade," and "I am a Captain of the Broomstick Cavalry." At the close of the meeting the club was invited to inspect the free dispensary in the annex to the hospital, which was thrown open to the public.

The annual election of officers will be held next Tuesday.

Miss Wilma Meyer left for Mt. Pleasant to visit for a few days her sister Marguerite, who is teaching school there.

A NEW PLAN IS LAUNCHED FOR HOLLAND FAIR

At a meeting of the Holland Fair association a great many important plans have been discussed. Secretary Arendshorst has just received $375.00 from the State of Michigan as Holland fair's share of the State reward.

This cleans up a few of the small hanging debts, and gives the Holland Fair association a small balance in the treasury. The Holland fair has been bumping up against two bad years, because of the war and bad weather.

The directors who are quick at figures estimate that at least 2,000 soldiers and their best girls failed to attend the Holland fair because they were not here to go.

We do not know how true these figures are, but there is no doubt that the absence of the young men because of their being in the service, cut down the attendance of the fair considerably.

This year however the directors are enthusiastic and very optimistic and are forming a plan to get some ready money and thus put the fair in better financial condition.

The plan is to sell membership tickets extending over a period of two years. These membership tickets entitle the holder to seven admissions to the fair each year, or fourteen admissions in two years. The ticket can also be used to gain entrance into the grand stand or the inner circle of the race course for an automobile party.

The memberships if adopted will be printed much in the form of a meal ticket, and as the holder of the ticket passes through the gate, said ticket will be punched, and the owner will pass inside.

The price of these tickets is set at $5.00 for the two years, and the association hopes to sell in Holland and vicinity at least five hundred of these two year membership tickets.

One of the big attractions at the coming fair, if it can be secured, is a large consignment of war relics.

Secretary Arendshorst is in communication with Senators William Alden Smith, Charles Townsend, and Congressman Mapes. It is the intention to have on exhibition relics that have actually been used on the battlefields, and many of them, engines of war that have been captured from the huns.

Battle-scarred airplanes, a tank, cannons of different kinds, and all the big and little war accessories will be among the exhibits that the government may send to Holland during fair week.

The race card is going to be more local this coming year. Classes will be arranged for purely Holland, Ottawa and Allegan county horses.

The farmer boy will have a chance to race his "nag" against the one of his nearest neighbor thus creating a more personal interest, and friendly rivalry, and at the same time allowing some of the purse money to remain at home. Of course this does not mean that Holland will not have some of the fast ones from abroad for this class of racing is also being arranged for, but Ottawa and Allegan county citizens also want to see what can be accomplished in speed from local horse flesh, trained by local horsemen.

At the meeting the directors also selected the different committees. In most instances the chairman of the committee was alone appointed and will be given instructions to appoint his or her own helpers, for in that case it was that the appointed chairman would select helpers that would really work, instead of being surrounded by a lot of figure-heads, whose duties ended after their names appeared in the paper.

The live committees appointed for the fair of 1919 are as follows: Executive—O. C. Schaap, H. Siersma, A. Harrington, M. C. VerHage, Wm. Vander Ven, J. Lokker.

Concessions—O. C. Schaap, J. Arendshorst, S. W. Miller.

IS HOLLAND TO HAVE Y. M. C. A. BUILDING?

The first real constructive move in the right direction towards the building of a Y. M. C. A. in this city, was started when the Victory club composed of the liveliest and most energetic men in town, gathered at Masonic hall to discuss at their semi-monthly dinner the feasibility of conducting Y. M. C. A. work and the advisability of constructing a Y. M. C. A. building in this city. In order to be enlightened along these lines they invited Secretary O. E. Fields of the Grand Rapids Y. M. C. A. to Holland, asking him to give the desired information relative to the conducting of a Y. M. C. A. in a city the size of Holland.

Before Mr. Field was introduced, Prof. J. B. Nykerk, who presided over the meetings, gave some idea as to the extent of the "Y" work that has been and is now being accomplished, as is shown from a report given by the president of the association, Mr. J. Fris. who in detailed form shows the activities of the present association, and the handicaps it is compelled to overcome.

President Fris says:—

"The letter 'Y' has never been used in Holland as much as it is being used today. It seems to be on every one's tongue. What is the reason? The biggest reason of course is the war. The boys in the camps know what a Y. M. C. A. means. They have written home about this big institution that has made so many boys feel at home while in training. The Y. M. C. A. is and should be a place for boys and men. It should not only be a place for their physical welfare but also for their spiritual benefits.

"Holland 'Y' has never been a strong institution but this year everyone seems to be taking hold. The local organization got started with its year's work about the first of December and chose its officers as shown on the above letterhead. Each week more new members are taken in. At present we have 75 live members, that is, those that take an active part in the gym work that is being conducted on Monday and Wednesday evenings at the high school.

"The following program is carried out on the above named nights under the supervision of our secretary, John H. Schouten: setting up exercises, indoor baseball, basketball, boxing, wrestling, punching bag exercise, and spring boards and track work. All members of the 'Y' are working boys and men. This fact you must not lose sight of. We are running the 'Y' this year, solely from the membership dues which are but $2 per year.

"We could easily double or triple our 'live' membership but we are having hard times as it is accommodating the ones that come now. When you have about sixty or seventy on the floor at one time, it is quite a problem to give each something, so as to keep them busy. If we had more nights to use the gym, we could form a business men's class. There are about fifty business men who have told us that as soon as we can give them a night they would join the 'Y'. The factories are full of boys, who lacking to get some exercise when they need it, but they know how crowded we already are and do not come out.

"On Tuesday nights, we have indoor baseball. At present the Shoes are having a seven game series with the Chemicals for the city championship. All the money taken in at these games is handed over to the Holland 'Y'.

"Another feature of the 'Y' this year and which is meeting with such big success is the Sunday afternoon meetings. The canteen in the hotel block is conducted by the 'Y' from 1 to 4 p. m. and then the Woman's Literary Club rooms are thrown open for an hour. Miscellaneous programs are given here. The idea is mainly to keep the boys off the streets on Sunday afternoon and give them a place to go.

"One other thing we must not forget to mention is our basketball team. Holland 'Y' is becoming known, not only in our own city, but throughout the state, through its basketball team.

"Finally, we can only say, we would like a real home for our Y. M. C. A. You may still ask, do we need it. Is the time ripe? The only answer we can give is—come to our meetings on Monday and Wednesday evenings. Come to the indoor baseball games on Tuesday night. Come to our basketball games. And come to our Sunday afternoon meetings. If you do this no one will be able to say, do we need a building, but everyone will have to say—Holland must have a Y. M. C. A. We must take care of our boys."

Mr. Field after being introduced said: "The Y. M. C. A. originally was organized for a selfish purpose. Many years ago a dozen men in England got together and organized themselves into an association that stood for cleaner living, higher ideals, and more wholesome associations.

"The religious element was not thought of, but in short men of better principles wished to be secluded from the more sordid class of men.

John Van Huis and Martin Wiersma attended the auto show at Grand Rapids Thursday morning and were Muskegon visitors in the afternoon.

ICE KING HAS MADE EFFORT TO SAVE CROWN

Altho the folks in this region had begun to despair of an ice harvest this winter, the U. S. Weather Bureau holds out real promise to those who were worrying about a "no ice" summer to come.

In fact some of the local concerns which require ice in their business had begun to make arrangements with the artificial ice king or were making inquiries in the Northern Michigan cities where the ice is said to be plentiful and of good quality. But the prophet of Holland has spoken, and even while we were getting May's zephyrs in February the old hunter, trapper and weather prognosticator, J. W. Flieman, who is more than eighty years old, ventured the prediction that the month of March would bring us the necessary ice.

Medicine Hat, from which the weather wires have been cut all winter, has sent a wireless that a cold wave is on the way, freshly turned out from the weather factory. It has struck Holland, and this morning the citizens got up with an old fashioned shiver of former winters.

Thirty-six hours of cold have been marked on the weather slate, and unless something happens to upset the calculation, old Ice King will hang on to his crown in tip-top shape for the next few days.

Cold weather is however predicted, and if the Holland housewives have been preparing for spring, it may be well for them to undo some of these preparations, and keep the home fires burning.

Prophet Flieman has spoken.

John Van Tatenhoven of the P. S. Boter store was in Kalamazoo on business Friday.

WINTER FESTIVAL NETS BIG SUM FOR LOCAL CLUB

That the Winter Garden Festival held in the Woman's Literary Club house a week or two ago was a success in a financial way as well as because of its program and display of beautiful summer scenery, was shown this afternoon when Mrs. N. Bosch, chairman of the January committee in charge of the affair, announced to the members that the total sum realized through the festival for the club was $117.84.

Although it had been expected that the sum realized from the Festival would be a substantial one, the announcement came in the nature of a particularly pleasant surprise to the members of the club who had not anticipated that so large a sum would be left for the club after all the necessary expenses had been deducted.

The members of the committee put in a great deal of hard work to make the event a success and this favorable financial report was the subject of much gratification on their part.

The committee was composed of the following members: Mrs. N. Bosch, chairman; Mrs. G. W. Van Verst, Mrs. S. R. McLean, Mrs. E. W. Cleveland, Mrs. Arthur Visser, Mrs. Mayo Hadden, Miss Lida Rogers, Mrs. E. C. Brooks, Mrs. A. Mulder, Miss Christine Van Raalte, Miss Mabelle Geiger, Miss Harriet Stokete, Mrs. R. Vischer, Mrs. B. Meinecke, Miss Mae Brusse, Miss Anna Dehn, Mrs. Henry De Kruif, Mrs. A. T. Godfrey, Mrs. H. Boone, Jr., Mrs. M. J. Kohn, Mrs. C. J. Lokker, Miss Jennie Karsten.

HOLLAND AIR

FIGHTER RETURNS

Lieut. Mayo Hadden, who has been in France in the air service since Sept. 1917, arrived home Saturday evening. Lieut. Hadden arrived in the harbor at New York Thursday on the steamer "Canopus" and he wired that he would arrive in the home town on Saturday night. The message naturally was glad news to the family.

Mr. Hadden was one of the first from here to enter the air service when the war broke out. He received his ground training at Champaign, Ill., and was one of the first to be sent to France, where he arrived in September of the year America entered the war. His air training was completed abroad and soon after the Holland man was flying over the lines of the enemy.

He was in the Metz sector during the St. Mihiel drive and took an active part in that campaign.

MANY ATTEND

FINE ENTERTAINMENT OF LOCAL LODGE

One of the most elaborate and enjoyable annual parties ever held by the Star of Bethlehem, O. E. S. Chapter No. 40, was that given Friday night in the lodge rooms. Preparations had been made for it for some time past and the various committees had worked hard to make the details of the event all that was hoped for. Those who attended the party Saturday declared it the most successful event of its kind they had attended.

It was a Washington's Birthday party. The hall was beautifully decorated with twigs, blossoms, flags and bunting, giving a festive tone to the gathering that interpreted well the spirit of the meeting. Each year at about this time the Star of Bethlehem gives a party, but it is believed that this one eclipsed them all.

Ninety couples were on the floor to enjoy the dancing. There many interesting features in the dances but the finest of them all perhaps was a waltz by "Star" light.

John Van Vyven sang several solos and Lacey's orchestra furnished the music for the evening. The members and guests enjoyed a bountiful cafeteria lunch. There was not a hitch in the enjoyment of the evening's entertainment.

PETITIONS OUT

FOR VARIOUS CITY OFFICERS

The nomination petitions for the various city officers must be in the office of the city clerk in the city hall on March 4 at four o'clock in the afternoon and petitions are now being circulated for the aldermen in the various wards, at least for those who are up for re-election, while similar petitions are being signed for men outside of the council now who aspire to the office.

In the first ward Peter Prins is up for re-election. So far as known now there is as yet no one running against him.

In the second ward two aldermen will have to be chosen. Ald. Brieve is up for re-election. While Alderman Smeenge has made no attempt to have petitions circulated, friends are circulating them and he will probably make the race.

In the third ward Nick Kammeraad a veteran of the council, who has been out for a year, is understood to be making the race. At least petitions for him are out. Ald. Congleton, so far as known, will not run for re-election.

In the fourth ward Ald. Wm. Lawrence is up for re-election and it seems likely that he will run away with the nomination and election. So far as known there is no one running against him.

In the fifth ward Ald. Dykstra is up for re-election. Mr. Dykstra is strong in the ward. The only opponent announced so far to run against him is "Bill" Poppe.

In the sixth ward Ald. Vander List will be up for re-election, with no opposition so far.

DEMENTED WOMAN TAKEN TO THE ASYLUM

For the last two years a woman by the name of Anna Slayer who with a family of children lives near the Antline factory on the North Side, has been the cause of a great deal of annoyance, not alone to the neighbors but to pedestrians, and especially to motorists.

It is doubtful if there is an auto driver in the city who has not encountered her.

This poor woman, who it is found, is demented, would stand in the road with a large stick, compelling the driver to stop his car, and would then proceed to tell the occupants her domestic troubles, which were all imaginary, and had never occurred.

She kept Deputy Sheriff Homkes and Chief Van Ry at their wits ends trying to evade her. Her stories were always the same, and the repetition of them to the officers became so regular and monotonous that the chief decided to put an end to her troubles.

He laid the case before Judge Danhof and when the lady came again the chief told her to return the next morning and he would help her with her troubles.

Commitment papers to the Kalamazoo insane asylum were made out and when she returned the next morning Deputy Sheriff Homkes had an auto ready and Miss Nellie Churchford acted as matron.

When the unfortunate woman saw what was up she made things lively at the City Hall, her screams of protest could be heard all through the building.

Miss Churchford soothed the lady however, and succeeded in getting her into the waiting vehicle, and she was driven to the state institution in order to see what can be done for her.

Gives Interesting

Pictures of Life of Holland Boys in Russia

An interesting picture of the life of the Holland boys in Russia is contained in a letter from Pvt. Thomas Halley, Co. D, 239th Infantry, A. E. F., at Elope, Russia, to his parents in this city. The letter is dated Dec. 31, 1918 and has just arrived. At the time the letter was written the Holland and Zeeland boys were receiving plenty of mail and packages from home, according to Private Halley. He devotes a considerable part of his letter to the enumeration of what he and his fellows were receiving in the line of mail. Continuing Mr. Halley says:

"The weather so far has not been as bad as last winter at home. There are no thaws, just a steady cold but we have warm clothes so don't mind it. We look like polar bears with our white fur caps on. I've jumped from No. 8 shoes to 12 since being here. I have on No. 12 Shackton boots. I wear three pairs of socks with them and my feet are always warm. I sleep in a good warm house every night."

"I have received all the papers too. That was pretty good about putting the cigars and candy in them. I got them all right. There are lots of Holland boys with me. Frank Helmers is right in the same house that I am in. I see Bennie Lievens, Guy Ingham, Pierce and others every day. Frank was not sick. I don't know how that could have gotten around. The corporal of our squad bought a cow the other day for one thousand rubles or one hundred dollars in our money. Of course he sold a lot of it to different other fellows, but believe me we had some fine steaks for about a month. You see we get our regular amount of eats from the government and if we want any extras, why it's just up to us to get them, as long as we have the money. We can buy eggs, chickens, and such stuff from the Russians. We cook our own meals and by the way I think I will be able to show you and Madge a few things about cooking when I get back."

SIX MILES MORE OF CONCRETE TO BE LAID IN LAKETOWN

Allegan County has been very backward in the construction of roads especially in Allegan city.

Pennville, Saugatuck and other places are waking up to the great needs of good roads.

The sentiment for good roads that prevails in Ottawa County has gained so much headway that the germ is also lodging in the townships adjacent to Holland.

Laketown has already built from six to eight miles of beautiful pike road, connecting with Holland, and now enough signatures have been secured under the Covert act to build six more miles of concrete, leading into Fillmore. This stretch of road will run through Graafschap, parallel with the pike, and will then branch off to the east.

There are many well-to-do progressive farmers living in this district, who are bound to have good roads, and it is hoped that with the spirit shown in Northwest Allegan county, Allegan City may also perk up and start a live good roads movement.

HUNDREDS AT OPENING OF DISPENSARY

The opening of the Free Dispensary in Holland on Tuesday afternoon marks the beginning of a public service, which in time will be a most valuable and important one to the people of Holland insofar as medical service is concerned. It is the result of a persistent and earnest effort on the part of the Woman's Literary Club, through their Civic Health Committee, who first of all secured the use of the building on the hospital grounds, called the Hospital Annex, through the courtesy of the Hospital Association. They set about to accumulate a fund, with which to make the necessary repairs on the building and to get the needed equipment. The public took kindly to the proposition, and through donations of money and labor and material, the committee has been able to complete the project. It affords a most pleasant and a well equipped place in which to do the work for which it was designed.

The committee wishes to express its appreciation to the following individuals, firms and clubs whose generous support made the project possible. Christmas Seal Sale for 1919, $200; the Van Baalte Ave. P.T. club, $80; Junior H.G. P.T. club, $75; Froebel P.T. $50; Washington P.T. $50; Lincoln P.T. $50; Entertainment by the public schools, $75; Benefit by the Strand Theater $60; benefit by the Knickerbocker Theater, $15; Simon Kleyn, $5.00; Miscellaneous, $3.90.

By way of materials and equipment the following firms and individuals contributed: lumber—Board of Public Works, Scott-Lugers Lumber Co., Bolhuis Lumber Co., Holland Lumber & Supply Co.; mirror for door, A. Postma; hardware, De Pree Hardware Co.; Plaster, James Leenhouts of the Grand Rapids Plaster Co.; sewer tiling, Koppel's Sons; three radiators, Dick Botter, A. H. Landwehr, Dr. Leenhouts.

On the plumbing contract that totaled $250, the sum of $130 was donated by Damstra Bros., Geo. Van Landegend, H. Kraker, P. Bontekoe & Sons, D. Steketee, and Yonker's Plumbing Co. Electric fixtures were donated by C. M. McLean and Chas. S. Bertsch; linoleum by Jas. A. Brouwer, VanArk Furniture Co., and DeVries & Dornbos; shades by Jas. A. Brouwer Co.; furniture by West Mich. Furniture Co., C. P. Limbert Co., Thompson Mfg. Co., W. H. Wing, Mrs. Frances Browning, Mrs. G. W. Van Verst, Mrs. E. J. Blekkink; dental chair, case, cuspidor and screen by Holland dentists; operating table, stands, etc., by the Holland doctors; towels and blankets by the Red Cross; quilts, sheets, pillows, basins, bowls, pails, etc., by John Vanderluis, DuMez Bros., A. Steketee & sons, G. Van Putten, J. & H. De Jongh, B. Steketee, John Nies' Sons, J. A. Vander Veen, A. Peters, S. L. Schadelee.

Labor was contributed by the following: all the carpenter work, in charge of A. Smeenge, by the Contractors, Carpenters and Journeymen's organization; all the plaster work by the Bricklayers and Plasterers Union; sewers by the Board of Public Works; Painting by J. C. Hoek & Son, L. Vissers, Wm. Dinkelo, F. B. Kammeraad; electric wiring by De Fouw and Chas. Bortech; lathing by Fred Van Lente.

That the public was interested in the Free Dispensary was shown by the large number who came to inspect the rooms. The ladies served tea and report over 300 visitors.

An important feature of the occasion was a conference in the evening by the dentists and physicians to determine upon the plan of operation. A question arose as to what effect the transfer of the hospital property to the city might have upon the dispensary. A conference with the Mayor and members of the council assured the committee of the W. L. C., as well as the physicians and dentists, that there would be no interference or change of the plans on the part of the city—for the present, and they were urged to go on with the present plans.

It was agreed among the doctors and dentists that those who volunteered their services would serve alternately the dispensary on Tuesday, the doctors on Friday. It was also agreed that, for the present, the services would be limited to children of school age, under the supervision and direction of the city nurse. While it is understood that the object of a Free Dispensary is to serve only those families who are unable to pay for the service, it was the consensus of opinion among the men present, that in the matter of examination and diagnosis there should be a considerable latitude allowed as to who are eligible. It was suggested that the teachers cooperate with the city nurse, and the parents of the city so that the free dispensary may become of the greatest possible use to the people of Holland.

The Civic Health Committee of the W. L. C. through whose efforts the Free Dispensary was made possible, is composed of the following members: Mrs. A. Leenhouts, chairman; Mrs. G. H. Thomas, Mrs. G. J. Van Duren, Mrs. E. E. Fell, Mrs. G. A. Stegeman, Mrs. J. F. White, Mrs. J. J. Good, Mrs. E. J. Blekkink, Mrs. A. C. Keppel, Mrs. G. Oatheart, Mrs. H. J. DeVries, Mrs. B. J. DeVries, Mrs. D. Tencate, Mrs. C. J. Lokker, Mrs. D. Vander Haar, Mrs. B. P. Donnelly, Mrs. T. A. Boot, Mrs. M. Dykema, Miss Mildred Drescher, Miss Marie Barendse.

SECOND SOCIAL HIT PULLED OFF BY O. E. S.

The second party of a series given by the O. E. S. Chapter 429, of this city, held at Masonic Hall was pulled off Tuesday evening with 135 members and guests present.

It took twenty-three tables to accommodate all the players of "500" who participated in the fascinating game of cards.

Mrs. David Snyder was the winner of the lady's prize, while the gentleman's prize fell to Mr. Francis Carr.

Card playing lasted until 10 o'clock when the music struck up for dancing. The gathering Tuesday evening had a sort of a military aspect. Many soldiers and officers who have recently returned home and some who were in Holland on a furlough were present in uniform.

Refreshments were also one of the features of the evening.

These series of parties during the winter months have struck a popular chord and as the date for them approaches they are looked forward to with pleasure by both members and the invited guests.

WM. VANDER VEN IS RE-ELECTED TO STATE OFFICE

An important annual meeting of the Michigan State Canners' Association was held at the Hotel Pantlind in Grand Rapids Thursday. A very instructive program was carried out. Sanitation of Canning was discussed thoroughly and a committee consisting of Mr. E. P. Daggett, B. A. Mott, H. M. Royal, W. H. Thomas and Wm. Vander Ven were appointed to confer with the Food and Drug department of the state of Michigan and also with the National Canners' Association.

The committee has been named for the purpose of forming plans to keep canning plants in the most wholesome and sanitary condition.

It is the intention of the association to have daily inspections made of all canneries in the state. Those canning companies who comply strictly with the laws of sanitation laid down by the state and national associations and who cooperate with the state and national food and drug department will be given a credit mark on their goods. The state association will place its seal of approval upon every case of canned goods coming from any concern that has lived up to all the mandates exacted from them relating to clean products and sanitary handling in their respective plant.

The canners of the country are endeavoring to place canned goods at the highest possible standard as to quality and cleanliness and thereby to create among consumers a feeling that canned products from a cannery are in every way as clean and put up under as sanitary conditions as when canned in the home by the housewife and in many instances even more so. There are at present 37 canning factories in the state and most of them were represented at the meeting.

Wm. Vander Ven of the Holland Canning Co. was re-elected secretary and treasurer of the Michigan State Canners association; W. A. Godfrey, of Benton Harbor is president and E. B. Gill, of Central Lake, vice president.

Ralph Zuwerink of Zeeland, arrived at Camp Custer and received his discharge from military service. Zuwerink was one of the first draft contingent called by the local board and left for camp in August, 1917. He was transferred to Waco, Texas, after a few weeks and joined the 126th Infantry. When that division embarked for overseas Mr. Zuwerink was taken ill with pneumonia and remained in New York until the summer of 1918 when he sailed for France. He saw some hard fighting in the Verdun sector and received a gun shot wound in the right leg in action with the 51st division.

HOLLANDERS GET PASSPORTS TO VISIT IN HOLLAND

Hollanders of Grand Rapids numbering from 8 to 12 each week, obtain passports at the district attorney's office to return to their own country. Even after being told that the new immigration law provided that they may not return to America, they do not reconsider their decision, and say that they are returning to go into business there or that they are merely returning for a visit, a privilege which has long been denied them during the war.

LEGISLATURE TO TAKE UP GAS QUESTION

Apparently the fight between the Holland City Gas Co. and the City of Holland has just begun.

City Attorney Charles H. McBride has been at Lansing for a few days taking up Holland's gas difficulties with the Michigan League of Municipal Attorneys, who are to assist in fighting the case in behalf of the city of Holland.

This league of attorneys was recently organized with all the city attorneys from the different cities of the state forming the membership.

These legal lights have banded together to jointly fight public service companies, who demand, according to their judgment, unjust rates, changes in franchise, or any other exactions that do not fall in with the stipulations required by a franchise.

A committee of these attorneys headed by Charles H. McBride took Holland's case up with the committee on state affairs in the senate at Lansing. They brought their grievances in the form of a resolution, which was favorably acted upon by both the State Municipal League of Attorneys and the Senate committee.

The resolution embodies Holland's case and follows below:—

Whereas, The United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the sixth circuit in the case of the City of Holland et al. vs. The Holland City Gas Company, decided, on Feb. 13th, 1919, that a public service corporation could voluntarily go into bankruptcy thereby nullifying its contract and franchise with a municipality, and

Whereas, This is the first time that it has been held in the courts of the United States that public service corporations could be adjudged bankrupt on voluntary proceedings and this decision is of far reaching effect and endangers the public utility franchises of all municipalities of this state, and as these municipalities are vitally interested in this matter; therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring) that the Attorney General be requested to appear in said proceeding and take such action as may be necessary to secure a reversal of said decision and appeal therefrom and take such other steps as may be necessary in order to finally determine the status of public service corporations which may hereafter seek to be relieved of their franchises by proceedings in bankruptcy.

Miss Wilma Meyer left for Mt. Pleasant to visit for a few days her sister Marguerite, who is teaching school there.

HIRAM H. SEVEY

Republican Candidate for the nomination for

COUNTY SCHOOL COMMISSIONER

Your Support will be Appreciated

PRIMARIES MARCH 5, 1919

From The Coopersville Sun, Feb. 13th

In another column will be found the announcement of Hiram H. Sevey, of this place as a candidate for County Commissioner of Schools. We heartily endorse Mr. Sevey for this position, knowing that if elected he will give his best efforts to the duties of the office. Mr. Sevey has taught school in Ottawa County for over thirty years, teaching in eight townships of the County during that time. He also put in one year at Ferris Institute.

He graduated from the Ottawa County Normal at Grand Haven in 1907 and from the State Normal at Kalamazoo in 1916, thus his qualifications are all that could be desired from an educational standpoint, and he is a man of integrity and high ideals, which further qualifies him for the position.

North Ottawa is entitled to the office and we know of no other man who is better prepared for it than Mr. Sevey.

His nominating petitions have been generously signed and on Primary election day Ottawa County should go to the polls and give its support to Mr. Sevey, feeling confident that if given the office he will perform his duties faithfully and well.

The present incumbent has held the office for eight years. Mr. Sevey is deserving of your support.

GIVES STORY OF FAMOUS AMERICAN BEFORE S. P. CLUB

That many of our governmental institutions of today found their origin in the mind of Alexander Hamilton, that his brain conceived and executed the constitution itself, that he was the originator of the Monroe Doctrine, that much of our federal laws dates back to Hamilton, that the banks of today are operating on the plan originated by him, that he was the brains of George Washington in his non-military activities and wrote most of Washington's famous farewell address—these were a few of the claims made for the man who was one of the most romantic figures of the Revolutionary Days by Henry Winter in a paper on that subject read before the Social Progress club when it met Thursday evening at the home of Mayor and Mrs. N. Bosch.

The paper contained a complete story of Hamilton's life and called attention to the many things that he crowded into forty-eight years, at which age he was killed by the bullet or Aaron Burr.

A vivid picture was drawn of the hates and jealousies of the public men of that day. Those jealousies were fully as strong as those of today among public men, as they had this added significance, from a historical point of view, that in them lay the origin of the political parties which dominated the country from the Revolutionary War to the Civil War. Hamilton's and Jefferson's hatred for one another caused them to align themselves in opposite camps, Hamilton as the exponent of centralization and Jefferson as the father of the state's rights idea.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Prof. and Mrs. W. Wichers when Arthur Vischer will read a paper on "The Effects of the War on Industry."

CENTENARY OF LOWELL'S BIRTH IS CELEBRATED

The centenary of the birth of James Russell Lowell, American poet and scholar, was fittingly observed at Hope College during chapel hour Friday morning, Dr. J. E. Kuizenga of the Western Theological seminary giving the address. Dr. Kuizenga spoke of his college days and how he came to love the great author, due firstly to the portrayal of that author by Prof. J. B. Nykerk of the English Department, and of the second he says, "In our literary society we were becoming young Bohemians. We thought that we must be and do something daring, something above and beyond the reach of the common folk, and then Prof. Nykerk had us read from that matchless poet, in whose life there was not one flaw, and I was inspired, and I learned that there can be no greatness in life that plays fast and loose with the fact that God has put in us."

"Lowell was a thorough autocrat, yet he believed in the heart of humanity. He was steeped in culture, yet he revelled in the lowliness and sweetness of true manhood. The author loved womanhood, as his poems on home life show. His messages ring true to the truest and best religion I ever found in the old Book, and are suffused with the culture of the ages."

"In Lowell's age it was that in order to be a man of letters, it was necessary to be above patriotism and country. But Lowell, the steeped in literature, was a noblehearted American. He struggled for the realities of American life, and by going beyond all jingoism and politics, he proved himself a great scholar. His works ring true to the deepest sentiment in manhood and womanhood."

"Lowell deeply loved nature. His lines to a dandelion and his papers on nature, prove that. The great scholar, he expanded his soul in nature."

"Lowell had the capacity for putting things in supremely beautiful form. He had the power of saying things in the right way. Lowell stands as the chief among the American men of letters as a seer, and of the thinkers, doers, and sayers, the latter are those usually who prevail."

Dr. Kuizenga closed with an exhortation to the students that the great poet might inspire them to greater literary expression urging that now was the time to master the flexible English language and gain strength for the bigger things ahead.

On reading and filing the petition of the Auditor General of the State of Michigan praying for a decree in favor of the State of Michigan, against each parcel of land therein described, for the amounts therein specified, claimed to be due for taxes, interest and charges on each such parcel of land, and that such lands be sold for the amounts so claimed by the State of Michigan.

It is ordered that said petition will be brought on for hearing and decree at the March term of this Court, to be held at Grand Haven, in the 17th day of March, A. And it is further ordered that in pursuance of said decree the lands described in said petition for which a decree of sale shall be made, will be sold for the several taxes, interest and charges thereon as determined by said decree, on the first Tuesday in April, next, beginning at 10 o'clock A. To the Circuit Court for the County of Ottawa in Chancery:

The petition of Oramel B. Fuller, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State, respectfully shows that the lands herein described are delinquent for taxes and interest thereon, and that the same are subject to sale for the same under the provisions of the general tax laws in force prior to the passage of Act 200 of the Public Acts of 1891, and which taxes remain unpaid.

Your petitioner further shows that in all cases where lands are included in "Schedule A" as aforesaid for taxes of 1890 or of any prior year, said lands have not been sold for said taxes or have been heretofore sold for said delinquent taxes and the sale or sales so made have been due and remaining unpaid as above set forth, your petitioner prays a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of said lands, for the payment of the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fees and expenses, as computed and extended in said schedule against several parcels of land contained therein, and in default of payment of the said several sums computed and extended against said lands, that yet said parcels of land may be sold for the amounts due thereon, as provided by law, to pay the lien.

Your petitioner further shows that the said taxes on the said described lands have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent; and the same being now having been paid, and the same being now due and remaining unpaid as above set forth, your petitioner prays a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of said lands, for the payment of the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fees and expenses, as computed and extended in said schedule against several parcels of land contained therein, and in default of payment of the said several sums computed and extended against said lands, that yet said parcels of land may be sold for the amounts due thereon, as provided by law, to pay the lien.

Your petitioner further shows that the said taxes on the said described lands have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent; and the same being now having been paid, and the same being now due and remaining unpaid as above set forth, your petitioner prays a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of said lands, for the payment of the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fees and expenses, as computed and extended in said schedule against several parcels of land contained therein, and in default of payment of the said several sums computed and extended against said lands, that yet said parcels of land may be sold for the amounts due thereon, as provided by law, to pay the lien.

Your petitioner further shows that the said taxes on the said described lands have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent; and the same being now having been paid, and the same being now due and remaining unpaid as above set forth, your petitioner prays a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of said lands, for the payment of the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fees and expenses, as computed and extended in said schedule against several parcels of land contained therein, and in default of payment of the said several sums computed and extended against said lands, that yet said parcels of land may be sold for the amounts due thereon, as provided by law, to pay the lien.

SOUTH OTTAWA

HAD BUT ONE
COMMISSIONER

If N. J. R. Stanton is renominated and elected to the office of commissioner of schools for Ottawa county, at the spring county primaries on March 5, this end of the county will again be represented as it has been for the past two terms. Mr. Stanton is not asking for support because he is from this end of the county. A school commissioner is commissioner of the whole county and the Holland man during his two terms of office has given as much attention to the north side of the county as to this section. He is not using county sectional lines as an argument for renomination, but the fact remains that this section of the county in the past thirty years has not had the lion's share of school offices.

The suggestion was made in a north Ottawa paper that it was time that north Ottawa should have the position. This statement caused the News to look up the incumbents of the office for a generation, and it was found that Mr. Stanton was the first man from this end of the county to hold office of school commissioner in about thirty years.

Miss Cora Goodenow, who was commissioner way back in the nineties came from Talmadge. Her successor, C. C. Lillie, was also from Talmadge. Next in order came Louis P. Ernst, whose home was in Coopersville. After him the office was held by C. Kelley, also of Coopersville. The man who preceded Mr. Stanton in the office was also from Coopersville. His name was Martin De Graaf.

So if the argument of locality had any force then this section of the county still has a good many commissioners coming before it has caught up with the north end of the county. But that argument is of course not worth anything and Mr. Stanton is not using it.

OLD OMAR CHARMS

THE CENTURY CLUB

Members of the Century Club and guests were given an unusual treat Monday evening at the home of President E. D. Dimment in the rendition of a song cycle, "The Persian Garden" by Liza Lehmann. The weird oriental strain of the music was soulfully and artistically interpreted in solos, duets and quartets, by the Misses Evelyn Keppel, Mabel Anthony, Messrs. Frank Kleinhessel of Muskegon, and Roscoe Page, accompanied by Mrs. Page at the piano.

At the beginning of the program Mrs. Page gave a short explanation of the mysterious words which accompany the music. They are taken from Rubaiyat, a poem by a Persian author, Omar Khayyam, who lived in the eleventh century. He was regarded as an agnostic, and also a creature of fiery moods, his general theme is "Eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow we die." However, the weird beauty of his verses appeal to all, despite their pagan hopelessness. Liza Lehmann, a talented English singer, has written many beautiful things but the Persian Garden, is considered her highest achievement.

Father Wyckoff and Oscar P. Nyström represented the men of Grace church, of this city, at the meeting of Grace church at Gr. Rapids Monday night of the Mens' club. The principal speaker was Lieut. Mark McKee, of Detroit whose subject was the "Farmer-non-Partisan League." There was a big attendance and the subject proved profoundly interesting and was handled in a masterly manner.

Motions and Resolutions

On motion of Ald. Wiersema.
Whereas owing to the recent great World War, this city together with all other cities is being overrun with solicitors selling or taking orders for books supposedly pertaining to said War, and
Whereas, we believe at least a number of these books to be unreliable and untruthful, and
Whereas, we feel it to be an imposition on our citizens, especially the housewives, to be bored and pestered by such solicitors, and
Whereas, our Mayor has informally expressed himself as being unutterably opposed to the granting of permits for such and other purposes, notwithstanding the fact that it has to turn down some of them where he realizes their financial need, therefore
Resolved, that this Council in regular session assembled does hereby unanimously stand by the Mayor in his attitude in discouraging and in refusing to grant permits indiscriminately.

Carried.

On motion of Ald. Brieve.

The following were designated as places for holding the Primary Election, March 18, 1919:

LOCALS

Dollar Day in Holland Thursday, March 13.

Beginning Sunday, March 2nd, Pere Marquette trains 101 and 108 will perform daily service between Holland and Pontwater. Heretofore, this service has been daily between Holland and Muskegon, and daily except Sunday north of Muskegon.

Allegan merchants have designated Wednesday, March 19 as Dollar day in that town.

The Devries residence on River Ave. and 13th street is undergoing considerable repairs. The large stone home is being redecorated and remodeled throughout. It is said that at least $1,000 will be spent in putting this large home in modern shape.

Miss Josie Tabbert gave a farewell surprise party at her home 135 E. 16th street in honor of Miss Jeanette Stekase who is to leave this week to go to training at Hackley hospital in Muskegon. A program was given and the girls presented Miss Stekase with some very useful gifts after which games were played and refreshments served. A flashlight picture was taken of the group. Those present were the Misses Helene Visser, Josie Boonstra, Jennie Mour, Maggie Tierman, Jennie and Jessie Van Dyk, Nellie Altona, Jeanette Breen, Alice Althuis and Hazel Kraai.

An erroneous statement has been going the rounds in the country that the Holland Canning Co. was going out of the wax bean business. This is obviously a mistake as their advertisement in this issue will disprove. Not alone will they put up all the wax beans the farmer can bring, but the company will also make contracts for tomatoes and other small fruit.

Fred Meppelink, the drug clerk, who has received his discharge from the service, has taken a position at Doesburg's drug store.

Nearly 600 women voters have registered in Allegan City. The poll books contain the names of about 600 men. In anticipation of the increased vote at the coming election the council has provided additional voting booths. It can be safely predicted that fully 1,300 ballots will be cast and the results are causing unusual speculation among the city politicians.

Allegan Gazette—Two grizzly and one black bear pelts have attracted considerable attention in one of the windows of the Grange store this week, the prizes of Axel Peterson, et. of Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson of Wat. a township. Mr. Peterson came home to visit his parents and he mustered out of service at Camp Custer, bringing with him eight bear skins he had taken in the vicinity of his ranch in Montana. The largest animal whose skin was shown here this week weighed over 800 pounds and was caught in a trap. Mr. Peterson has a fondness for catching big game, and to add variety to the sport he will go next season to Alaska to try his skill at hunting polar bears.

Mrs. Nancy Wood of Scottville, Mich. is visiting relatives in Holland and vicinity.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. N. Prakken, 71 West 13th street. Henry Geertlings will give an address on the "Dark Spots in Holland." Special music will be furnished. This will be the last regular meeting before the annual meeting and all members are requested to be present. Visitors are always welcome.

The funeral of William Wilson will be held from the home, 163 East 16th street, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Nellie Churchford will officiate.

WAS REPORTED DEAD AND WOUNDED, BUT IS ALIVE AND WELL

Peter Marcusse, former bookkeeper at T. Keppel Sons' coal office has arrived safely in New York City, as indicated by a dispatch received by John Gijpker of this city.

Some time ago Marcusse was reported dead, having been killed in battle. Shortly afterwards he was reported severely wounded.

His friends will be greatly pleased to hear of his safe arrival in New York City.

JUNIORS OF THE HOLLAND HIGH TO GIVE A PLAY

DATE SET IS FOR THURSDAY MARCH 13

The Juniors of the H. S. will make their formal bow to the public on Thursday, March 13 in the Drama, "The Camouflage of Shirley."

The Juniors make no claims for themselves—they simply ask you to see them in this play to be staged in the H. S. auditorium.

They are working hard to have ready a fair presentation of a patriotic drama, written in 1918 by Sydney Barbee. The scene of the play is an Atlantic seaboard resort and the play has dash, humor and sense.

The first semester eleventh grade English classes have been studying advertising and today they are having a lesson in salesmanship with a view to an immediate and practical application, namely, to sell the tickets for their upper class men. These boys and girls have been promised extra English credit for the success they attain. All persons purchasing these tickets will thus help them to gain these credits and the public is earnestly urged to at least listen to their story. The tickets marked with the name of the play "The Camouflage of Shirley," and the date, March 13 go on sale today for the first time.

WILD SQUIRREL VENTURED INTO VILLAGE

A large fox squirrel promenaded on the sidewalk of one of the main streets at Spring Lake Friday afternoon and others are occasionally in the village now. A few years ago these harmless and beautiful little creatures were very numerous in this locality but are very scarce now. The nut crop was not very abundant last season and the squirrels probably come to the village for food.—Grand Haven Tribune.

AUTOMOBILES HANDICAP FIREMEN IN ALLEGAN

HOLLAND NOT THE ONLY PLACE WHERE FIRE FIENDS TROUBLE FIRE FIGHTERS

Not so much lately, possibly because Holland has had so many fires, that the going has become an old story, but Holland firemen have had considerable trouble in the past because of the fire fiends in autos who race about the apparatus after an alarm has been sounded.

Allegan is also having trouble as the following clipping from the Allegan Gazette will show:

"The fire department has concluded to no longer tolerate the fast-growing custom among individuals to monopolize the streets in time of fire. The city has a very good ordinance which covers the cases and the police have been instructed to arrest and prosecute all violators of its provisions. The two most important features of the ordinance are those designed to control the movement of vehicles. One section provides that when an alarm of fire is sounded all teams and automobiles shall take to the right-hand side of the street and proceed in an orderly manner, leaving the center of the street open for the free passage of the fire men. Any person who obstructs the way in any manner is liable to prosecution. Another section provides for punishment of any person who shall drive any vehicle or automobile over a line of hose. This is even more important than the means to keep the street open. Another feature to which the attention of parents of children is called is to instruct them to keep out of the street when there is a fire. During a run last Saturday evening a small boy narrowly escaped being hit by the chemical machine. The boy was paying no attention to what was passing in the street back of him and started to cross Chestnut-st. just as the chemical machine turned the corner. The siren was sounding, but the boy seemed not to hear it. The driver of the car killed his engine and managed to turn out enough to barely miss the lad.

RECEIVES CABLE FROM HUSBAND ON RUSSIAN FRONT

Mrs. Howard Pellegrom of Grand Haven this week received a cablegram from her husband Lieut. Howard Pellegrom of the 339th Infantry, now fighting the bolsheviks in northern Russia. Lieut. Pellegrom's regiment has seen some hard fighting in the north, and his cablegram relieves considerable anxiety concerning him. His message was brief but most satisfying to those at home. "All well," informs the ones at home that he has thus far escaped the perils of war.

MAKES 1,200 LOAVES PER HOUR

Allegan Gazette—Weldon Smith, who makes the "bread with the hungry smell," has placed in his bakery another labor-saving machine for the moulding of loaves. The dough is placed into the hopper at one end of the machine, and when it comes out at the other end it is ready for the oven. The capacity is 1,200 loaves per hour. Besides being much more rapid than man power it lessens the contact with human hands, a feature Mr. Smith wishes to utilize whenever he can.

ALIEN BOY PAYS $10 LICENSE

A boy not an American citizen paid a $10 license fee to Justice Robinson after the game warden Dick Homkes had caught him trapping near Zeeland. An American citizen is compelled to pay only $1 but an alien must pay $10 for the same privilege.

Henry Ter Haar and Preston Mulder took in the auto show at Grand Rapids Thursday.

TAX REPORT GIVES FIGURES FOR OTTAWA

ASSESSED VALUATION HAS GONE UP; RATE HAS NOT

That the tax rate in the city of Holland has not been exorbitant in comparison with the rate in other cities in this part of the state is brought out by the tenth annual report of the Board of State Tax Commissioners and State Board of Assessors, published today. According to that volume, the average rate of taxation for each $1,000 of assessed valuation for all purposes in this city during the years from 1912 to 1917 inclusive was as follows: 1912, $23.72; 1913, $24.97; 1914, $19.76; 1915, $16.09; 1916, $17.31; 1917, $19.85. Thus the tax rate in this city has had its ups and downs during these years, but at the end of the period it was still considerably lower than at the beginning.

The record of the city of Grand Haven during the period mentioned was as follows: 1912, $29.38; 1913, $29.46; 1914, $19.81; 1915, $21.60; 1916, $23.69; 1917, $24.40. This seems to show that the Holland rate has compared favorably with the rate of the sister city of Ottawa county during the period.

The city of Zeeland fluctuated as follows from 1912 to 1917: 1912, $24.10; 1913, $24.99; 1914, $17.20; 1915, $16.70; 1916, $16.92; 1917, $19.35.

The assessed valuation of real estate for Ottawa county in 1912, according to the report, was $20,339,499 while in 1917 it has climbed in this county to the sum of $37,507,080, or very nearly doubled. Allegan county during that same period had climbed from $21,638,716 to $36,673,865, beginning with more than Ottawa but ending the period with less. The assessed valuation of personal property in Ottawa in 1912 was $5,171,544 and in 1917 it had climbed to $9,895,876. Personal property in Allegan county during the same period climbed from $3,858,491 to $4,673,780.

The actual sum paid out in taxes by Ottawa in 1912 was $507,921.13 while in 1917 it had climbed to $914,212.02. During the same period the actual sum paid in taxes in Allegan county climbed from $448,623.16 to $624,150.88.

SOLDIER WRITES ABOUT A QUEER OLD COUPLE

Mrs. A. Eckes of Nunica has received a letter from her son, Corp. Frank Carakodon of Co. L, 120th Infantry. The young man says:

"Dear Mother—

"It is over six weeks since I received a letter and I hope it won't be six more.

"I suppose you wonder how these Dutch people treat us. The old ladies are about the same as the French and it does not take the American a year to make friends. The men have little to say. Keeping quiet is the easiest way for them to keep out of trouble. We go into a wine shop where a dozen or more Dutchmen are sitting around drinking beer. They don't bother us and we leave them alone.

"A chum and myself sleep in the front room of a Dutchman's house. He is a sour-faced guy and if he ever smiles, his face will sure crack. I never saw him ever grin. His wife, 56 years old, is a nice old lady. She washes our clothes and mess kits. If she has anything extra for supper she is sure to give us some of it. My chum was sick for a week and she watched him night and day. If we need something that we want, something that we can't buy in our town, she goes to some town or finds some one who is going and has them get it for us.

"Of course it's hard to make them understand but we do it somehow. Just to show you how we have to get along I will relate a little happening—In this house where I stay is a girl about 18. A chum across the road spends most of his time sitting in their kitchen. He talks to the girl in English and she understands. She talks in German and he understands. Yet neither of them can talk the other's language. If I can get a line on what they are talking about I can most always make out what they say.

It was the same in France, altho it is much easier to make the Dutch understand.

"I suppose you wonder how the war affected me. Well after the last drive which took about twenty days I felt ten years older. But since I have recovered a whole lot and feel younger now. But I sure will be like a five year old kid when I strike the old home trail again, so goodbye and best wishes.

MUSKRAT HIDES ARE BOOTY IN SPRING LAKE

With the high prices on muskrat hides, pelts are pretty valuable to leave around just now. Sunday night Levine & Katz store at Sp. Lawe was taken away. Last night Jack Buss lost 34 hides which he had stored in his place in Spring Lake. Muskrat thieves appear to be operating with a vengeance in this territory just now.

HOLLAND MAN MARRIES A DRENTHE BRIDE

WEDDING MARCH WAS PLAYED VIA EDISON'S PHONOGRAPH

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Daining of Drenthe when their daughter ter Agaes was united in marriage to Augustine De Witte of Holland last Thursday, Feb. 20. The bride was dressed in a simple voile and carried a bouquet of Carnations and Ferns. Then the loving couple marched down to the altar while Hearts and Flowers was being played on an Edison phonograph. The rooms were decorated with Evergreen and Carnations, creating a very pleasant effect. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. D. Vander Werp.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was in order and covers were laid for sixty guests who were composed of near relatives and neighbors of the bride and groom.

Cornell Van Leeuwen was master of ceremonies. Many useful and beautiful gifts were received. The happy newly-weds will reside at the groom's farm home near Holland.

NOTICE OF MEETING

To whom it may concern:

Whereas, on the 18th day of February A. D. 1919, an application was filed with Bar and Kammeraad, County Drain Commissioner of the County of Ottawa for the locating and establishing of a certain Drain, which said Drain was described in said application as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a point on the Township line between Holland Township (Sec. 5) and Olive Township (Sec. 32) just east of the Railroad right of way about 87 rods more or less from the section line North and South between Section 31 and 32 in Olive Township and running thence east along north side of the highway about four rods;

Said drain is necessary to the public health, convenience and welfare and to drain valuable farm lands which cannot now be used; that said drain will traverse the townships of Olive and Holland in said County.

Therefore notice is hereby given that in accordance with the statute in such case made and provided, a meeting of the Township Board of the Township of Olive will be held on the 11th day of March A. D. 1919 at the residence of Bert Hop in the Township of Olive in said County of Ottawa at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of said day for the purpose of determining the necessity of said Drain and whether the said proposed drain is necessary and conducive to the public health, convenience and welfare. At said meeting any and all persons owning lands liable to assessment for benefits or whose lands shall be crossed by said Drain may appear for or against said proceedings and may be heard in relation thereto.
