LAKE FRONTAGE BATTLE MAPED FOR THE COURTS

HOLLAND INTERESTED IN THE COMING COURT
PROCEEDINGS

Resort Property Along Lake Michigan Is Involved

Detroit Free Press:

A rehearing of the Kavanaugh-Baird case before the state supreme court probably will be asked in the near future and if the motion fails lake frontage interests of Michigan will attempt to carry the case before the United States supreme court, it was agreed today at a relicted lands conference held at the Hotel Olds here under the auspices of the Michigan Real Estate association.

The decision in the Kavanaugh-Baird case, handed down early in January, held that title in all lands beyond the meander lines of the original government surveys of Michigan on the shores of the Great Lakes are the property of the state, but that the abutting land owners still have their common law riparian rights.

The decision, written by Justice Fellows admitted "that this decision is made against the overwhelming weight of authority." It throws the right to use Great Lakes shore property into a state of chaos, for under present Michigan laws nobody has any control over it except that the abutting property owner may still wharf out on it, bring his cattle across it to water, etc., and the conservation department has certain police power over it as public parks but cannot lease it.

The decision of the real estate interests represents a desire, officials said, to press the matter to the greatest possible lengths because the question is national in scope and will eventually involve millions of dollars worth of frontage on the Great Lakes in other states as well as Michigan. Most of the Great Lakes shores are now relicted because of the low water condition.

A committee, including James J. Fagan, Muskegon, president of the Michigan Real Estate association; Bert Baker, Lansing, past president of the association, and H. J. Gaffney, of Bay City, attorney for Kavanaugh in the Kavanaugh-Baird case was appointed to consider what action should be taken.

The plan of asking a rehearing on the Kavanaugh-Baird case in state supreme court was suggested principally as a means of exhausting every state court device before asking the United States supreme court for a hearing. The decision was commended from the state-wide standpoint because of its protection of the rights of the public, but it was pointed out that the right to control lake frontage land to the water's edge is what gives it value as private property, and that unless the owner can so control it, the state will lose millions of dollars in valuation, and further development will be stopped.

Real estate interests feel, however, that the right of the private property owners will not be so jeopardized. Several state officials and legislators have expressed the opinion that legislative action can be taken if necessary to control properly the Great Lakes water fronts so that no loss in tax valuations will be suffered and so that developments will continue.

INCREASE 75 PER CENT

That prices of shoes are going higher is indicated by market bulletins which show that sole leather hides have increased from 63 to 71 per cent and upper leather hides have increased from 66 to 82 per cent over a year ago this time. The average increase in sole leather prices is 69 per cent, of upper hides 75 per cent.

5,175,487 VISITORS

P. J. Hoffmaster, superintendent of state parks reports that 5,175,487 people used 48 state parks during the year 1927. This is 1,500,000 more than ever used Michigan parks in one year before.

Mrs. Jennie Vos of Ferrysburg, formerly of Holland, has a letter which was carried on the first airmail trip made from St. Louis to Chicago, dated April 15, 1926. The ship was piloted by Lindbergh. PULLETS PULL STRANGE STUNTS IN EGG PRODUCTION

Another freak curiosity in this vicinity was what was supposed on first sight to be a goose egg, but we were assured by Jacob J. Branden of Crisp that it was a genuine hen's egg. The egg was nearly perfect in shape and weighed five ounces, and by viewing it through a candeling outfit it was found that it contained only one yolk, which is a rare combination in an oversized egg. The egg was laid by a White Leghorn on the farm of Mr. Branden who is keeping it as an exhibit for a few days. This egg rivaled the one that was shown us by H. Smit of Beaverdam, about a year ago, which contained another perfect, hard-shelled egg inside the large egg.

Steel Scow for Local Dredge

HARRINGTON CALLS ATTENTION TO SHIP YARD OF 50 YEARS AGO

In last week's issue of the Holland City News an item appeared telling of activities at the local ship yards a half century ago. There were two of them the Anderson ship yards being located on the site where the Harrington Coal offices are now located.

Mr. Harrington stated that he still can hear the old coking hammer welded by the old ship builders as they built or remodeled old wooden sailing vessels.

Today you can hear the riveters tool, for Mr. Harrington is building a large steel scow to be used in connection with his spile driver, purchased last season.

The building of this craft is going on at what was formerly known as the Anderson Ship yards. The scow will soon be launched when the ice disappears from Black Lake.

Mr. Harrington tells many interesting stories of the old Mr. Anderson and his ship building operations. There were always two well greased skids in the ship yards allowing vessels to slip quietly into the waters of the bay when the job of building or rebuilding had been completed.

These were events in the early days when the launching of a boat always meant a large crowd of citizens on the side lines.

Remember that the tax blanks must be on their way to Uncle Sam on March 15, that being the last day of grace.

The Defender Manufacturing company, manufacturers of auto bumpers Allegan, has increased its capital stock from $25,000 to $75,000. G. H. Tripp, manager, announces that he will increase the staff of employees from 60 to 100.

Rev. C. P. Dame, pastor of Trinity Reformed church is preaching a series of Lenten sermons entitled, "What Shall I do then with Jesus?" on Sunday evenings. Next Sunday evening the sermon subject will be, "Shall I Forsake or Follow Jesus?"

In the caucus notice of Holland township, published in the Holland City News of last week the day was wrong. Instead of it being Saturday, March 8, it should read Thursday March 8, the meeting held Thursday instead of Saturday as in former years.

River Avenue Looking South in 1885

Taken from the site of the Ottawa Furniture Co. Plant, which was not there then. Big poplar trees stood where the Holland City State Bank now stands. Just a few one story buildings lined this sand street. You ought to have seen, the not sand, but mud street in rainy weather. Just one rig and no people when this picture was taken apparently on a beautiful summer afternoon. A Chamber of Commerce spirit changed all this

This occasion at the Schipper home is always looked forward to with happy anticipation because it comes only once in four years, when it is made a special day of rejoicing. People with rare birthdays are rare, but Mrs. Schipper is fortunate in that she did not choose to live a hundred years later when these leapyear ones will be deprived of one more birthday in the year 2000, at which time they will live eight years without a birthday.

VANISHING RURAL ISOLATION

In expanding to nationwide scope its market-news service, the department of agriculture is functioning along practical lines. The use of radio and leased-wire systems to keep dwellers in the great agrarian districts in touch with prices and other factors having to do with the disposal of their crops is another step coupling up the consumer and the producer in a manner that, it is predicted, will stabilize the markets, and work a considerable measure of benefit to those facing the problems of production and distribution.

The onetime isolation of the farmer is now largely removed because modern agencies aside from those whose application, as noted, is to be increased, have come to the aid of the rural dweller. The daily newspaper has perhaps been the most potent helper in this respect. Through the medium of rural delivery, it lays down to the producer, be he on the main highway or in the backwoods, market reports that are only a few hours old, and which serve admirably for his guidance. If there is any doubt regarding current prices, the changes that they may have undergone, the telephone puts him in quick touch with stores in town and the desired information. The would-be thrifty buyer who motors to a farmhouse in the hope of saving on his purchases finds this to be true. Good roads and motor trucks also enable the farmer to transport his wares to a top-price market, if he so chooses.

All these things have come in recent years to help the producer who lives within reasonable distance of his outlet. Therefore, while the Department of Agriculture plan will be a great benefit to those in the hinterland, it can hardly alter to any material degree conditions near the large centers of population, where knowledge of market conditions is already common, as the consumer can readily testify.

DID YOU SAY CHARACTER?

Probably no word in our language needs more to be given thought, made prominent, and emphasized in the press than character. From the selection of President to a traffic officer at a street crossing the process of selection must never overlook character. Character in the saleswoman in the mercantile establishment serves the business and the purchaser by having just that little quality—character is her most valuable asset on which to base wages. Character is a bank or insurance company is a synonym for millions of credit. Character in a President means stability for the nation.

Jefferson Made Change

News Condensed From Local and Neighborhood Papers

The Chamber of Commerce is soon to put on a drive to drive the knockers out and drive the boosters in.

Alderman Leapple like Coolidge, says eight years is enough and he does not "choose to run."

The Public Pulse is working over time in order to let the "people rule." Many of the pulvers, however, forget to come out to a school caucus or a school election, the very foundation of our well being.

Geo. Washington of Holland got drunk in Grand Haven Sunday. Here is another cause for a would be historian to get his dates mixed.

Supposing George didn't cut that cherry tree, or Betsy Ross didn't make the flag, or Patrick Henry didn't say "give me Liberty or give me death." That doesn't disprove the saying of Ben Lievese and the "Army Lot." Let's see, just what did Benny say?

But what's the use since oil has been poured out on the troubled waters?

"Diek" says that the catching of carp lowers the lake level and we might aid the mortality of the game fish.

Holland money makers find that the Federal Tax goes under the wrong name. It should be called the "out go", and not the "income tax."

Lincoln, when he said that this is a government for and by the people, did not mean that the Holland aldermen were elected simply to sit in their chairs and look wise once every two weeks, have nothing to do but pass on bills etc. He meant that the mayor and aldermen should be elected "by the people," for the purpose of serving "the people," and he meant they should be men who are capable to judge and find time to investigate the capability of any employee necessary for city service. These men are selected "by the people," for the people have elected these aldermen for the purpose of handling city affairs. Lincoln selected his own cabinet, his own generals, his own aids. But for that fact the civil war would still be going strong.

LAUGH WITH US

She: Is it dangerous to drive with one hand?

He: You bet, more than one fellow has run into a church doing it.

Why doesn't Tunney want to fight Dempsey in 1928?

Because Tunney does not choose to run.

How can you tell that cannibal is ambitious?

Because he is always trying to get a head.

"I just cleaned up thirty thousand bones on my land."

"No, graveyard."

Oh, the girls in Venice they never walk home,

But they keep their lithe figures in trim.

When occasion demands it—let's put it that way—

They indulge in a vigorous swim.

Best Man: "Wasn't it annoying that that baby cried all during the ceremony?"

Maid of Honor: "It was dreadful. When I am married I shall have engraved on the invitations, 'No babies expected.'"

Drake's Memory Honored

Architectural Term

The "recessional" building is a term applied to the new style of architecture, seen, for example, in many of the New York structures. As the building increases in height, the width of the floors is reduced, so that seemingly the building tapers.

More to the Point

"Will the women dominate the world?" is the question that of late is being asked everywhere. The question is silly. A more sensible question is "How long have the women been running things?"—Atchison Globe.

Dangerous Crossing

"Marriage," said the philosopher, "is like a railroad sign. When you see a pretty girl stop; then you look, and after you're married you listen."—Hardware Age.

It Was

It must have been a simple and happy era when the only style changes in women's clothes were caused by cutworms in the fl leaves.—Arkansas Gazette.

Tapping Maple Trees

Tapping only one place on a tree prolongs the life of the tree. Large first-growth trees may be tapped in two and sometimes three places without injury, but it is disastrous to tap in two places near together, in order to collect the sap from the two in one bucket.

Named by the Dutch

Schuykill is of Dutch origin, meaning hidden stream, and was so named because the first explorers passed its mouth without seeing it. Susquehanna is from the Indian Suckahanna, meaning water.

How the Useful Plants Came to Mankind

By T. E. STEWARD
 WNU Service

The Turnip

WITH the turnip we come again to a plant native to the temperate regions, growing wild in one of its several forms in Sweden, England, Germany, Holland, Finland, Denmark and, probably, in Siberia.

Cabbages, cultivated for their leaves; cauliflower, for its flower stalk, and rape, which is grown for the oil that can be extracted from its seeds, are all species of the same genus as the turnip. When the root, or lower part of the stem is fleshy, as is true of turnips, the seed is not abundant nor worth the trouble of pressing for oil. On the other hand, the slender-rooted varieties produce large quantities of seed. Thus the shape of the root determines the economic use of the plant.

Ancient European languages all have names for the turnip, while all of the names applied to it in India, China and Japan have the modern ring and only add to the evidence that in Asia the plant has been introduced. Old works on botany in China and India contain no mention or picture of the turnip in cultivation or wild.

De Candolle gives four conclusions regarding the Brassica or turnip species, as follows: 1. The Brassica with fleshy roots were originally natives of temperate Europe; 2. their cultivation was diffused in Europe before, but in Asia, after, the Aryan invasion of Europe; 3. the primitive, slender-rooted form of brassica napa, called brassica campestris, or of the field, had from the beginning a more extended range, from the Scandinavian peninsula towards Siberia and the Caucasus. Its cultivation was perhaps, introduced into China and Japan, through Siberia, at an epoch which appears not to be much earlier than the Graeco-Roman civilization. In the last place, he says, turnips spread into southwestern Asia at a period later than that of the Hebrew civilization, as this vegetable seems to have been known among the Hebrews.

The turnip has a name of its own in practically all of the old European tongues. The turnip is cultivated so easily and spreads so readily that it may be found in a semi-wild state almost anywhere in Europe today in spots where it has escaped from cultivation. There is abundant evidence, however, that it also grows in an actually wild state in the many regions already enumerated and is a true European.

Holland Seeks To Tax Subjects Living Abroad

IN NETHERLANDS THERE IS MUCH OPPOSITION TO THE PROCEDURE

Queen Wilhelmina Makes Speech Before National Heads

With the opening of the states general and the issue of the new budget one is able to get a ready expression of the hopes and fears felt in practically all the national markets besides the official estimate of the country's prosperity which is contained in the queen's speech just given before the heads of the Netherlands government at De Hague. A slight all-around reduction in taxation is promised, but this does not imply so much a prosperous time as one at which it is necessary to endeavor by some means to reduce the burdens which are retarding prosperity.

At the same time efforts are being made to distribute necessary taxation over a wider area, and a suggestion has been on foot for some time that income tax should be imposed upon Dutch subjects living abroad. This proposal is raising considerable opposition, both of Dutch subjects and others, as the whole principle involved touches subjects of every country who for personal or business reasons live abroad.

Foreigners living in Holland are subject to no special taxation, but they are under the same rules as Dutch subjects, so that should income tax be imposed upon Dutch subjects living in other countries the principle involved is that any person living away from the country of which he is a subject is liable to a double taxation. With the strength of feeling against it, such a method of taxation would be impossible were Holland a democratic country. The fear is, however, that the bureaucratic methods in vogue here may permit of it being introduced.

Collection Cost Great. One of the most potent objections also comes from purely economic considerations. The amount of tax which it will bring in cannot be otherwise than small in comparison with the trouble and cost which its collection will entail, while it will make still more difficult the ever-present problem of capital raising and will probably drive many Dutch business men living abroad to abandon their Dutch nationality in favor of that of the country of their residence.

That foreign competition is more than ordinarily keen at the moment is to be seen in the efforts that are being made to stem its effects in the Amsterdam diamond trade. Partly owing to the advantages which the exchange with Belgium gives and partly owing to the somewhat easy-going methods of many Dutch workmen, employers are allowing a considerable amount of work to be done abroad which might help largely to a return of the prosperity of Dutch trade. In some cases it is stated that it is impossible to get the work done at Amsterdam, as the particular kind of skill required is not available, are pointing out, however, that there is not the co-operation which would be invaluable in discovering what resources the city possesses, and that with such co-operation it is probable that every kind of diamond cutting, from the earliest shaping to the finest finish, can be done there. More definite steps also are called for to prevent smuggling between this country, the United States and Belgium.

A somewhat unpleasant sensation recently was aroused by the placing of a large order for railway material in Belgium. It is pointed out by the railway authorities that the prices demanded by the Belgian factories were from 15 to 20 per cent lower than those demanded by Dutch firms. While the Dutch railways, being a national undertaking, must make every possible allowance for a difference in prices, it was thought this difference was too great to be ignored, so that the orders were placed accordingly.

The chief difference arises from the difference in wages, those of Belgium being, on the whole, between 40 and 50 per cent lower than those of Holland. Until there is a complete readjustment of the economic position, therefore, it appears that competitive difficulties must continue.

HAMILTON

The funeral services of Mrs. Andrew Lubbers were held last week Thursday at the First Reformed church. The auditorium was filled with relatives and friends, which had gathered to sympathize with the bereaved family. She leaves to mourn her loss a husband with five children; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Van der Meer of this village, two brothers in Holland and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Nakken of Kalamazoo.

Miss Emma McMillan was operated on for appendicitis at the Holland hospital.

The Hope College Men's Glee Club gave a splendid concert at the First Reformed church last Thursday evening. The program consisted mostly of sacred music, and was very impressive. Mr. Oscar Holkeboer also gave two readings. The large audience was given a real treat and the boys are assured of a crowd whenever they come to this village.

Mr. J. Nieboer and little son returned last Saturday—and Jack is happy.

Del Van der Kolk spent the past week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Van der Kolk. Della is teaching at Cedar Springs.

A large number of stands for dip-nets are being put up or repaired along the riverfront in this village. The past few years the use of these dipnets was forbidden by law, but it is again legal to do so this year. Judging by the "talk" of the old fishermen and by the number of stands lining the river, we are assured that a good many suckers are going to be caught this spring, although it is too early to foretell which kind are going to be hauled in.

Several of Hamilton's scientists motored to Grand Rapids last week to hear the debate on Evolution put on by Mr. Darrow and Mr. Wishart. We have not heard of any conversions and frankly confess that we are rather skeptical as far as good resulting from a debate between these two men on that subject. It seems to us that it is difficult for two men to differ when they are fundamentally agreed.

Rev. D. Dykstra, missionary to Arabia, will give a stereopticon lecture at the First Reformed church this week Friday night. Mr. Dykstra has given this lecture at many other places and is proving very popular. No admission will be charged, although a silver offering will be received for Missionary purposes. The meeting will begin at 7:30. Come and take your friends with you.

A special congregational meeting was held at the First Reformed church last Monday evening. Mr. Wm. Drenten was elected elder and a committee was appointed to take steps toward the redecoration of the interior of the church.

A Washington's Birthday social was held at the American Reformed church last Tuesday evening. The social was put on by the "B" division of the Ladies Aid society with the purpose of raising funds for church purposes.

Lansing had 88 per cent increase in building construction during past year over 1926.

COUNTY SCHOOL COMMISSIONER TALKS ON MUSIC

GROENEWOLD SAID CHILDREN HAVE BEEN NEGLECTED ALONG THESE LINES

Rural Pupils Should Not Be Deprived of Art and Music in Rural Districts

By G. G. Groenewoud

County Commissioner of Schools Several teachers and parents realize the possibility of having music and art taught in the rural schools where this is not already done. At one time an attempt was made to bring this about. Apparently the time was not yet ripe for such a move. However, the time is going to come when music will be introduced into our public school system and handled by a competent music supervisor. The idea is to bring music and art to the children of rural communities by having several schools combine to pay for this supervisor of music and art.

It is a well known fact that children from the rural communities have been sadly neglected in this matter. There are only a few teachers who can sing well enough and know enough about music to teach it to the children. It is necessary to have special training and a natural gift to be able to teach music and art. In several of our schools children never sing. This would naturally be the result when a teacher is unable to sing. Under these conditions children sometimes sing when it would be better if they did not make the attempt.

The time is here when our people want these advantages. The parents from rural districts desire their children to be on an equal with the children from the larger schools when they enter the high school. It is not pleasant for a child to have to sit back when they have an opportunity to take part in such a pleasing pastime as music offers. The time is here when the parents appreciate songs well sung by their children. The children themselves always have and still do enjoy being able to sing well. It is now possible to have these advantages by having several schools join in engaging a teacher capable of doing such work.

In unity there is strength. It would then be possible for a teacher of music and art to supervise the work in five different rooms in one day, two-two-room schools and one one-room school. The children would then have the same advantages as the children from the larger cities. No doubt communities will become interested as soon as the possibility is called to their attention. It is the purpose of this article to get the people to thinking about it. The following is a possible plan which might be duplicated in any other community in this county.

These schools have been divided into groups of three, with each group having one day for music. There are five groups, which totals five days, or one week. The first column of figures represents the number of students enrolled in the school while the last figure shows the cost to the school for one day of each week for the school term.

56	Bauer (Canada Hill)	$160.00
61	Sand Hill	80.00
54	Bursley	80.00
42	Alward	160.00
53	South Blenden	160.00
28	Shack Huddle	80.00
94	Jamestown	160.00
71	Zutphen	160.00
28	Star School	80.00
50	Forest Grove	160.00
32	Yntema School	80.00
50	Drenthe	160.00
64	Vriesland	160.00
54	Sherbourne	160.00
53	Indian Creek	80.00

According to this suggested plan, approximately 770 rural school children would be served at an approximate cost of less than fifty cents per $1,000 valuation. Yet as much time would be devoted to the teaching of music as is done in the larger schools.

It would be a great aid in helping the teacher to prepare a program. The music teacher could during the allotted time, teach the songs appropriate for the occasion. Occasionally she could be present at P.T.A. meetings, or other meetings held in the community. It would open up the way for choral societies, choruses, etc. It would, beyond a doubt, stimulate an interest which many of us cannot now appreciate.

It might be well to have some one interested in such a program tell of its possibilities at the next P.T.A. meeting. There is usually someone in every community who can do that. It might also be well for the members of the school board to discuss the feasibility of it at their next board meeting. When such services can be obtained at a nominal cost it is certainly worth while considering. It would be nice if a project similar to the one suggested could be worked out before September, 1929.

It is encouraging to note that at the last meeting of the Ottawa County P.T.A. Council a resolution was passed in favor of encouraging the introduction of music in the rural schools. Very likely P.T.A. organizations will be encouraged to favor such a movement.

STEPHAN TO MANAGE THE BUSH & LANE

DIRECTORS MAKE FINAL ARRANGEMENTS MONDAY

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Bush & Lane Piano company Monday E. P. Stephan, former mayor and manager of other business enterprises, was appointed general manager of that concern.

Bush & Lane Piano company were very desirous to secure the services of Mr. Stephan and negotiations have been in progress for some time. Mr. Stephan ended his work at the Holland Furniture company a week ago, after serving that institution for 14 years. During that period of service he succeeded in making the factory a leading one in the industry so that its product became known for its quality the world over.

The Bush & Lane Piano factory is one of the finest in the city. The plant is well built and the equipment is of the best. The factory has for twenty-five years been one of the leading industries of Holland. It was financed very largely by Holland capital and it is in every respect a Holland institution that means much to Holland and whose success will be tied up with the prosperity of this city.

The appointment took effect immediately and Mr. Stephan began his work at the plant on the same day of his appointment.

The company held its annual election of officers a few days ago when Chester L. Beach was named president and treasurer, W. H. Beach, vice president and V. R. Hungerford secretary.

Mr. Stephan states that he has not fully decided just what his business plans in the Piano Co. will be but he states that he has a tremendous task ahead.

PLANE MOTORS BUILT IN PLANT AT HOLLAND

Interest was focused on a newly developed product of the C. F. Szekeley company at the meeting of the Peninsula section of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers in Holland.

The plant displayed a three-cylinder, air-cooled airplane motor which is 25 pounds lighter than any other manufactured. It is hoped that the motor will meet the urgent demand for the production of an air machine which will be within the purchasing power of the general public.

Should this new development prove successful, Holland will become the only American source of supply for such a product, since most motors of this type are now manufactured in Europe.

Grand Haven School Boy Killed With Rifle

WILLIAM SHINN, FRESHMAN, IS VICTIM OF PLAYMATES
THURSDAY

William Shinn, 16 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Shinn of Grand street, was fatally shot with a 22 calibre rifle about 4:30 p. m. Thursday while at play with two school mates, Mary Plomondon and Roy Rohl.

He was carried into the house by his mother and a neighbor, Mrs. Buhl. A doctor was called but death came almost immediately as the bullet entered his back, piercing the heart. Coroner Henry J. Boer pronounced death accidental and no inquest will be necessary.

The tragedy occurred as the result of the three young people, who range in age from 12 to 16 years, playing with the rifle which belonged to William. They had been shooting at cans during the afternoon as there was no school session. According to the Buhl boy and Mary Plomondon, William ran to place a can as a mark and gave the gun to Mary. They are not certain as to just what happened, but think the gun was cocked and went off in the girl's hands before she was hardly aware that she had the gun. Shinn was about 15 feet away when the fatal shot hit him and he dropped to the ground telling the children to "run for a doctor."

Both children were excited and hysterical, their stories varying in details as to the accident. The mother, who knew the children were there, said last night, "it was William's fault and we attach no blame at all to the two other children."

The news of the tragedy traveled fast and shocked the many schoolmates and friends of the family. William was a freshman in High School and promising material for the foot ball squad next year. He was popular in his classes and an exceptionally large fine looking boy.

He got a hunting license this fall, necessitating his parents' consent, and was fond of hunting and shooting at marks. He had had a gun for some time.

BOY SCOUT TRAINING COURSE OPENS SOON

ALSO HAVE CHAIN STORES IN NETHERLANDS

Holland Sentinel—Recently the Michigan Tradesman printed a story in which a Holland man who had made a trip to The Netherlands told of the tiny scale on that business was done in that country in comparison with the way it is done here.

A former Dutch grocer, who was in business in The Netherlands for some time, has given the other side of the picture, declaring that while in some sections business may be done on a small scale, that can also be said of some sections here.

"If we compare," he said, "we can show a different picture. Some 16 years ago I was employed as clerk in a wholesale and retail grocery business in a little city in The Netherlands, the same size as Holland, that is about 15,000 population. This firm employed not less than 18 men and used two delivery trucks and five bicycles, the latter equipped with big baskets in front. Sugar we put up, in the retail department in from one-half to 15 pounds bags, mostly five and ten pounds. If we compare this business with the one described in the article, it appears quite favorable to The Netherlands."

"Yet it is true that for delivery the stores in The Netherlands do not use so many trucks as is the case here. But I can remember as far back as 1911 and 1912 when a butcher in Amsterdam had as many as three trucks on the road delivering."

"The average grocer over there uses the bicycle with much success. It will surprise many to see how much can be loaded on the baskets which are specially made for the bicycle."

"I have never heard of a Holland grocer employing a wheelbarrow, as stated in the article in question. Yet I pity the village and small town grocer in The Netherlands. He has the same fight on his hands that the grocer in Holland, Mich., has—city grocers versus the chain stores besides he has the fight against many well organized co-operative stores run by the labor unions."

Science Club Hears Brief Discussion

The regular meeting of the Hope Science Club was held Tuesday evening, February 21, in Emersonian Hall. PATRIOT HERO IS STILL BENEFACTOR

Washington's work freed the colonies from England, and the anniversary of his birthday temporarily emancipated enslaved students from the grip of their instructors. The day was used in various activities. Some planned skiing and tobogganing trips, but the warm sun spoiled their intentions. Others sharpened their skates to no avail and waded around the four-mile course. The more fortunate journeyed to the Rapids. Fishing was a popular sport for the afternoon, but no one wasted any time scaling the "little" creatures. And if there is any truth in rumor, we understand that some students used their books to advantage.

Several days ago Mrs. Esther Johnson of Wayland purchased a sedan from Lewis Smith, Wayland dealer, and while waiting to have bumpers and heater installed borrowed a coupe to drive home. She did not return and finally Sheriff Ben Lugten was notified. Saturday evening he received a telegram from Kenton, O., where the police are holding the woman for the Allegan officers. Deputy James Holleran left Sunday afternoon for Kenton to return Mrs. Johnson, who has waived extradition.

Is To Take Place at Hill Auditorium at Michigan in May

Eric Delamarter, of Chicago, will be author-conductor of a concert for orchestra and organ at the dedication of the new pipe organ in Hill auditorium, U. of M., Ann Arbor. Earl Moore, head of the university school of music, announced last week in making public the program for the annual May music festival. Among the new artists are Tudor Davies, Welch tenor of the British National Opera company, and Leonora Corona, of the Metropolitan Opera company.—Detroit Free Press.

OK's Report On Holland Black Lake Improvement

An army engineers' report recommending improvement of Holland harbor and Black lake, Mich., at an estimated cost of $189,000 was adopted today by the house rivers and harbors committee.

The project calls for dredging of a 20-foot deep channel from Lake Michigan to the shore line of the harbor and from there a channel 18 feet deep and 150 feet wide to wharves of the city with a turning basin 400 feet wide at the inner end.

The physiotherapy room in Holland's new municipal hospital will be equipped with a diathermy outfit and a quartz light—the gift of Wilard G. Leenhouts post, American Legion, and auxiliary. This apparatus was furnished at a cost of $600; each organization providing $300. The committee superintending the purchase of the equipment consisted of Dr. William Weststrate, Dr. W. M. Tappan, Dr. A. Leenhouts, Mrs. J. H. DenHerder, Mrs. E. C. Brooks and Mrs. E. Elbers.

Gerrit G. Groenewoud, county commissioner of schools, has started agitation for the instruction of music in the rural schools of Ottawa county under direction of a competent music supervisor. Groenewoud has figured that approximately 770 rural children could be given instruction in music at a cost of less than 50 cents per $1,000 valuation of property.—Grand Rapids Press.

Officers of the Allegan County Agricultural society gathered at the Sherman house Saturday and following a dinner attended by superintendents of several high schools and agricultural instructors a business meeting was held in the afternoon.

HOLD LAST RITES IN HOLLAND FOR FORMER NEW ERA POSTMASTER

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon in the home for Frank Veltman, 80, who died in this city suddenly Saturday. Mr. Veltman was postmaster of New Era in Cleveland's administration, and had lived in Fremont, Zeeland, Grand Haven and Vogel Center. He came here 16 years ago.

The widow and several children survive.

Baby Should Not Be Born In Jail

STORK IS HOVERING NEAR
OTTAWA CO. JAIL DOOR

There is a possibility that the stork will arrive at the Ottawa county jail soon for one of the lady inmates is expecting a new arrival in the very near future. The woman is a federal prisoner charged with liquor violation and has been confined there while her husband is serving in a Detroit prison.

It appears that a pardon must come from President Coolidge in order the child may not carry the name through life that he was born in a jail.

Sheriff Kamferbeek is making every effort in behalf of the woman and the under sheriff, Mrs. Kamferbeek is busy making baby things when Mr. Stork swoops down on the county bastille.

DANCING CLUB WAS SHORT-LIVED

A STORY OF THE CAPERS OF YOUTH NOW
OLD

On February 21, twenty-eight years ago, the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. held a joint meeting on the third floor of Van Raalte Hall. The entire evening was spent in marching around the room, which was, apparently, the current idea of having a good time. For two hours the grand march continued, the music grew more and more tiresome, and nothing happened to break the monotony.

Finally one young man of the party ventured to ask the chaperon if those present might dance the Virginia Reel. The chaperon (who was the college president) replied rigorously, "My lady, all things connected with Virginia are evil!" The dance was not held, and the party ended as planned.

Next morning the committee, and various others present by special request, met in the same rooms to clean up the papers and streamers left on the floor. The twenty-four people present decided that, since there was no school that day, it would be a good time to have the dance they had planned. Someone played the piano, and things got underway.

The floor was waxed to allow the proper grace of movement. Nothing occurred to interrupt the hilarity, and the party did not break up until the noon hour, one-half hour being spent in the actual cleaning up.

The faculty discovered nothing until two weeks later, when the president, while showing a visitor the school, walked into this room and slipped on the still-waxed floor. An investigation was conducted, with the result that certain parties were requested to remain after chapel. Nobody stayed to receive the blessing (?). Next day two names were read with the command that their owners stay. The culprits would not tell the why and wherefore, so the president asked that the wax be removed. All classes and work missed while the damage was being repaired would have to be made up. The twenty-four assembled again with brooms and mops. A second party was held during this clean-up.

A photographer was called to take a picture of the crowd. A huge sign, placed in the background labeled the youngsters as "Hope's First Dancing Club." This picture still exists as concrete evidence of this tale.

Any guilty members of the present adult generation who wish to gloat over their derelictions, may inquire the whereabouts of the photo.

The above caper was never repeated in later years so that we are forced to conclude that action taken at the time was sufficiently drastic.

Frank Veltman, 80, died unexpectedly at his home here Saturday. He was born in The Netherlands, married in Virginia, where he joined a colony founded by Dr. A. C. VanRaalte and since had lived in Vogel Center, Fremont, Zeeland, Grand Rapids, New Era and Holland, coming here about 16 years ago. Veltman followed farming the greater part of several years and served as postmaster at New Era under President Cleveland's administration. Mr. and Mrs. Veltman had planned to celebrate the fifty-third anniversary of their marriage in March. Mrs. Veltman's father was the first settler in Oceana county. Veltman was one of 12 children. He was father of 10 children and Mrs. John Vandervon, his oldest daughter, is the mother of 12 children. He leaves also four brothers and one sister, one a resident of Belgium. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the home, 136 Eighteenth st. W.—Holland Sentinel.

Officers of the Allegan County Agricultural society gathered at the Sherman house Saturday and following a dinner attended by superintendents of several high schools and agricultural instructors a business meeting was held in the afternoon.

Mrs. Eliza Staley, 68, died Saturday on the A. T. Stark farm south of Allegan. She is survived by her husband, two daughters, and one son, Lloyd Staley of Chicago, Mrs. Ethel Smith and Mrs. Jessie Olsen of Otsego. Funeral was held Monday afternoon at the M. E. church, Otsego.

Despite what the ground hog may have predicted in the nature of bad weather, a harbinger of spring was seen here Monday morning when little Master Billy Vandervon saw his first robin of the year.—Holland Sentinel.

The Maple Wood parent-teachers club was held Friday, February 24. A large audience attended.

HOLLAND GIRL KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

MISS LENA KOLLEN, DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. JOHN KOLLEN DIES

Five Are Also Injured When Car Turns Turtle in Florida

Sad was the message received early Saturday evening from Coral Gables, Florida, stating that the large seven-passenger car driven by Rev. Jay Carlton Pelgrim of Frankfort, Kentucky, who had reached Florida with his family and other friends met with a terrible accident in which one person met death and five were seriously injured.

When the wire came George Pelgrim of the Bay View Furniture Company, immediately got in touch with Dr. J. Flipse, formerly of Holland, now of Florida, by telephone, told the sad story of the accident as near as he could get the details.

It seems that as the Pelgrim car was bowling along into the Buick on the main highway and the result was that the Pelgrim car turned over several times, and when rescuers came the interior of the car looked like a shambles.

Miss Lena Kollen, it was found, was almost instantly killed, she sustaining a broken neck. Miss Kollen is well known in this city having been connected with the late G. J. Kollen, president of Hope College, her uncle, and after the death of Mrs. Kollen held near Miss Estelle Pelgrim, who later became Mrs. Pelgrim.

When the Pelgrims went to Frankfort, Kentucky, she also was part of the family, and helped with the rearing of the children and as a rule accompanied the Pelgrim family on their trips abroad.

It was during one of these motoring trips that the fatal accident occurred in which she lost her life.

Mrs. Ed Albers of Holland who was in the Pelgrim party sustained a sprained ankle and a broken bone in her foot, while Miss Helene Pelgrim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pelgrim, of 12th street, also a guest, had her nose broken. Both Dr. and Mrs. Pelgrim sustained fractured skulls and were unconscious for several days.

Miss Marie Pelgrim, age 14, sustained a slight fracture of the skull but she remained conscious and her condition is not considered serious. Miss Lois Estelle Pelgrim, age 5, was uninjured.

Miss Lena Kollen is the daughter of Mr. John Kollen popular old gentleman so well known in this city.

Besides her parents, Miss Kollen is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. G. Klaasen of Holland, Mrs. George Korteling of Cedar Rapids, Ia., Mrs. Arnold Mulder of Holland, and Philip Kollen of Chicago.

Grand Rapids Business Men Are Careless

NO WONDER THE YEGGS GET THEM OFFEN

The way of the yegg is made more easy by the carelessness of employees and business men entrusted with the task of locking up business places when they close for the night, mused Heber R. Sarles, head of the Sarles Mercantile Police Service of Grand Rapids, as he scrutinized the annual report of his organization, which revealed an alarming total of unlocked doors and windows, safe lights out and even doors left wide open.

In 1927 patrolmen of the Sarles service discovered the alarming total of 409 doors left wide open in large business concerns and the more alarming number of 1062 left unlocked, almost extending an invitation to the burglar to come in and make himself at home. The men found also 137 safes that contained several thousand dollars in cash; 576 windows were found open and 137 unlocked. Several instances in which the safe and either the door or window were unlocked were reported.

The patrolmen questioned 1621 persons in buildings as to the nature of their business there and unless they were able to give good reasons for their presence either promptly ejected or taken to police headquarters for investigation. Fifty-one times the men had to turn off water faucets and turned out 1,484 unnecessary lights.

Eugene Thayer, living west of Allegan, was taken into custody Saturday evening charged with taking a meat roast out of one car and groceries from another. He is held in jail.—Grand Rapids Press.

Mrs. Daniel Barnes, aged 74, died at her home in Allegan Saturday. She was born in Watson township and passed all her life in Allegan county. Surviving are her husband, four daughters and two sons. Funeral at 2 o'clock was held Wednesday afternoon at the Church of God.

Mrs. Eliza Staley, 68, died Saturday on the A. T. Stark farm south of Allegan. She is survived by her husband, two daughters, and one son, Lloyd Staley of Chicago, Mrs. Ethel Smith and Mrs. Jessie Olsen of Otsego. Funeral was held Monday afternoon at the M. E. church, Otsego.

Lesson for April 1

JESUS THE SUFFERING MESSIAH

LESSON TEXT—Mark 8:27-35.
GOLDEN TEXT—Whoever will come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus the Great Hero.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Heroism of Jesus.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Cost of Being Loyal to Christ.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus Interprets His Messiahship.

I. Peter's Confession of Christ (vv. 27-30).

Two questions of Jesus provoked this confession: "I. 'Who do men say that I am?' (v. 27, 28). This question referred to the opinions of the people regarding Jesus. Some believed Him to be John, the Baptist, some Elijah, and some, one of the prophets. He only recognized Him to be a teacher or prophet with more than human authority and power. Jesus was not content with this acknowledgment. Had He been satisfied with this He would not have been molested in Jerusalem, for the Jews willingly acknowledged Him as much more than a human teacher. 2. 'Who say ye that I am?' (v. 29, 30). Jesus persistently claimed to be the God man, the very Son of God incarnate. He wanted the personal opinion of the disciples concerning Him.

II. Jesus' Teaching Concerning the Cross (vv. 31-33).

He charged the disciples not to make public His Messiahship as that would precipitate the crisis. The disciples had much need of instruction yet, to prepare them for the crucial hour of the cross.

1. What He taught (v. 31).

(1) "The Son of Man must suffer many things." He suffered physical weariness and hunger, ridicule and contempt and even misunderstanding and lack of appreciation on the part of his friends and disciples.

(2) "Be rejected of the elders, chief priests and scribes." These were the nation's official representatives, the very ones who should have known and received Christ and recommended His reception on the part of the nation. Truly He came to His own and His own received Him not (John 1:11).

(3) "Be killed." This announcement was startling to the disciples. They had not yet come to realize that redemption was to be accomplished through the passion and the cross. Jesus now states with definiteness and certainty that He must die on the cross.

(4) "Rise again." Though this was utterly incomprehensible to the disciples, He showed them that this would be the glorious issue of His death.

2. How the disciples received His teaching (v. 32).

So unswelcome was His teaching touching the cross that Peter, the spokesman of the disciples, rebuked Him. Peter later saw through this darkness the light of glory on the hilltops beyond (1 Pet. 1:3, 4).

3. Jesus rebukes Peter (v. 33).

He told Peter plainly that his attitude was due to his being under the influence of the devil.

II. Jesus Going to Jerusalem to Die (Mark 10:32-34).

Jesus went to Jerusalem with the consciousness of the awful tragedy of the cross before Him; the treachery of Judas, the fiery persecutions of the priests, the unjust judgment, the delivery to Pontius Pilate, the mocking, the scourging, the crown of thorns, the cross between malefactors, the nails and the spear all were spread before Him. He moved on to His fixed purpose. He had not only come "to minister but to give His life a ransom for many." The joyous outlook of the victory which was to be accomplished through the shedding of His blood led Him forward (Heb. 12:2).

IV. The Cost of Discipleship (Mark 8:34).

The law of the Christian life is suffering. To follow Christ means to turn one's back upon the world to repudiate the world means to incur the hatred of the world; to be Christians therefore means to share Christ's suffering.

1. There must be denial of self (v. 34). There is a wide difference between self-denial and denial of self. All people practice self-denial, but only Christians deny self.

2. The cross must be taken up (v. 34). This means the suffering and shame which lie in the pathway of loyalty to God. To live the godly life means suffering (II Tim. 3:12).

3. Christ must be followed (v. 34).

This means to have the mind of Christ (Phil. 2:5) and to perform the service of Christ. The blessed issue of following Christ is a life of freedom here and now, and eternal life hereafter.

Hope College News

The Floating University with a possible enrollment of 500 students for the 1928 trip will go to all parts of the world.

The visits in foreign countries are almost exclusively in co-operation with the governmental and educational organizations in those countries.

The social contacts under ideal conditions for such a long period is a liberal education in itself—a lesson in wholesome living and a training for the lessons of "give and take."

Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh has been invited to accompany the group. The Floating University will arrive in Japan at the time of the coronation of the emperor.

The Knickerbocker Society staged their big annual mid-winter stage with great success in the Grace Episcopal church parlors last Tuesday night, Feb. 21. Everybody enjoyed the well-cooked dinner and appreciated the excellent service given by the Ladies' Guild.

The program commemorated Washington's Birthday and the tenor of the toast was along this line. Toastmaster Clint Cole after a few pertinent and clever remarks,

DEBATING TEAM LOSES DECISION TO KAZOO TRIO

EXPERT JUDGE GIVES ADVERSE DECISION IN CLOSE CONTEST

After defeating Central State teachers college in their first league contest the Hope affirmative team consisting of Raymond Steketee, Stanley Verhey, and John Visser, were in turn defeated by Kalamazoo College last Saturday night.

Prof. Lewis J. Fleischman of the University of Michigan was the expert judge who decided in favor of the Kazoo College men. In giving his decision, Prof. Fleischman briefly told that he based his decision on one point, which he felt the negative had firmly established and which he thought was of sufficient weight to make the negative the victors. The Kazoo team consisted of Myrn Smith, George Allen and Winfield Hollander. The latter especially, was a very fine debater.

The Hope men, however, displayed their wares in a very admirable fashion, which brought forth words of commendation from judge and audience alike. It was generally admitted that the debate was so close that only the judge could decide the winners.

introduced the speakers.

Edwin Tellman and Warren Kreunen, accompanied by Ray Smith at the piano, rendered several cornet-saxophone duets, both as soloists and popular. The Freshman wit, Fred Wyngarden toasted to George's famous statement "I Cannot Tell a Lie." Russell Smith, a Sophomore, toasted to Washington's principle regarding foreign countries. The subject was, "Beware of Entangling Alliances."

The reputation of the Junior class was royally upheld by the toast of Johan Mulder on a statement of more recent date, namely "I Do Not Choose to Run." Mr. Mulder's speech put a very fitting climax to an interesting program.

After the Stag, the men rushed the Holland theatre.

Rumor has it that we are soon to have a Leap Year edition of the Anchor. We take this opportunity to give the men on the campus fair warning. The girls have their turn now, to do and say what they please. No comebacks allowed either. So, ye collegiate of Hope College, beware!

Voorhees freshmen are setting a new style among us. They say gym togs make the ideal costume for the weekly housecleaning always held on Friday afternoon. With some going and coming from classes, others madly chasing dirt, and even the dignified Senior instructors themselves holding impromptu classes in the corridors whenever they can catch some poor frosh, one might almost wonder what had happened to our usually safe and sane hall, supposedly occupied by staid and sedate young ladies.

Gladys Hemingsen, who attended Hope last year, was a visitor on the campus last Friday. She attended several classes to see what it was like again. Come again, Gladys.

A woman's gospel team, composed of Helen Zander, Bernadine Siebers, Marie Wagenaar, Sarah Klooster, Edith Dings, and Eva Tyse, held services in Rockford, a town just north of Grand Rapids, last Sunday evening.

George Steketee, '26, has taken over the principalship of Mason High School, Mason, Michigan. This appointment has been secured through the Educational Department of Hope College.

Miss Christine Webb and Miss Martha Barkema accompanied the Men's Glee Club to Hamilton last week.

Mrs. Vermeer and her daughter, Elizabeth, of Sioux Center, Iowa, have been spending some time in Holland, visiting Priscilla and Benjamin.

Professor Raymond was among those present at the fifth annual meeting of the Social Studies Association of Southwestern Michigan held on Saturday, February 18, at Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Sessions were held during the morning and afternoon at Kalamazoo High School. Very interesting addresses were delivered by leading instructors of the high schools belonging to the district. These were followed by lively discussions. Among the speakers listed was Miss Mary Pieters, a former student of Hope College, who at present is teaching in South High School, Grand Rapids, Michigan.

She spoke on the subject, "Teaching of Community Civics in the Junior High School." Mr. Oscar Trumble of the Department of History of the Western State Teachers College of Kalamazoo, gave a very fine address in the afternoon on the subject of "Agencies of International Peace." The speakers placed much emphasis upon methods of presentation of subjects.

Miss M. Struik, a graduate of Hope College, was elected secretary of the association.

Again, in the accustomed place, the Fraters celebrated their great brother George Washington on the eve of his birthday. A finely arranged lay-out of good things satisfied the keen appetites of the jolly Fraternals.

As though in memory of the brave Raleigh, the atmosphere clouded over into misty silhouettes ushering in the program of the evening. Frater Toastmaster Albert De Groot introduced the formal entertainment. In honor of Frater Washington, Frater Leon Bosch toasted to the lines "Recollections may they last, Of our nation's leader," past. As a break in the evening's thought, the company was favored by Frater Paul Nettinga's fine tenor solo. Frater Marcus showed the serious side to a humorous verse: "The flag stuck on a heap of bones. A soldier's doing! What tones?" As Frater Carl Damson rose, the hearts of the Frater Seniors softened to the memory of four years of Friendship, Love and Truth in the senior toast to Old Fraternal. Excitement,

CLASS WILL HONOR PROF. WINTER WITH '28 MILESTONE DEDICATION

JUNIORS VOTE TO RECOGNIZE WORK OF HEAD OF ED. DEPT.

This year's Milestone will be dedicated to Prof. Egbert Winter of the Educational Department and Teachers' Training Course of Hope College. The annual of last year was dedicated to Prof. Thomas E. Welmers, Registrar. Hope's annual has a reputation for being a high class book on every standpoint of either artistic or literary talent, and the dedication is a matter carefully considered by the Junior class of each year. The honor connected with receiving the dedication is therefore easily realized by each member of the student body.

Has Wide Experience

The selection was made in recognition of Prof. Winter's work in the institution and of his service to the students of Hope College. His untiring efforts in seeking out teaching positions for the graduating class of each year and his continued interest in alumni of the college render him deserving of the honor which has come to him.

The life of Prof. Egbert Winter has been a rapidly changing series of responsibilities in several educational institutions. He was "brought up" in Holland, having spent the first year of his life on a farm near Orange City, Iowa.

Immediately after graduation from Hope in 1901, Prof. Winter took the principalship of the Wisconsin Academy, at Cedar Grove, Wisconsin. He remained there for four years, gaining much knowledge which was to prove valuable to him in later years. Eighteen years of Prof.

Winter's life were spent in superintendent work in various places before he came to Hope College in 1919.

As Professor of Education, with a Master's Degree in Psychology from the University of Michigan, and the benefit of two years of work in the Seminary, he took over teachers' training division of Hope's curriculum.

Makes Improvements

During his years here many advantageous changes have been the advancement of the semester hours required for a teacher's college certificate from 15 to 22. Additional subjects for the course have been Classroom Management, Child Psychology, and Secondary Education courses.

When Prof. Winter first took charge of this work there were only 14 people in the course, whereas this year sees 63 of the Seniors and 85 of the Juniors taking this study. He has started a policy of finding positions for the graduates of the course, and, at no cost to themselves, the Seniors find a job waiting for them after graduation. Last year's class of 43 students, who were prepared to teach, received 125 bids for positions from various schools in the Northwest. Instead of having to teach for three years before their life certificates were awarded, the students now receive the life certificates upon graduation. These details show evidence of the work of this instructor, who is doing so much for the people who entrust the final years of their college course to his care. The dedication this Spring will be well done.

ORATORS WILL COMPETE IN M. O. L. CONTEST ON FRIDAY

MEET TO BE HELD ON THE CAMPUS OF ALBION COLLEGE

The thirty-first annual convocation of the Michigan Oratorical League is to be held in Albion College on Friday, March 2, 1928. In the women's oratorical contest Hope is to be represented by Miss Hazel Albers of the Senior class; while in the men's contest she will be represented by Mr. Jacob Pelon, of the Junior class.

Miss Albers is presenting an oration entitled, "Whither?" This oration is a plea for "plain living and high thinking" in the rush and bustle of modern twentieth century life. The oration to be given by Mr. Pelon is entitled "Mannikin or Man?" It is a plea for an expression of greater individuality and personality in this altogether too-unindividualistic world.

Students always watch the proceedings of the contests with a great deal of enthusiasm and this year is no exception. Undoubtedly many will follow to Albion and those who remain will wait in breathless suspense the results of the contest. All over the campus there is talk of the coming affair.

Hope Has Honors

The Oratorical League was first founded at Hillsdale College in 1897. Two of the original charters are still living, Dr. Blaisdell, now of California, and our own Dr. Nykerk. The first contest was held the following year. That year the school was represented by Dr. J.

W. Beardslee, of the New Brunswick Theological Seminary.

Among those who have since grown into prominence in church and other affairs we find: Dr. A. T. Broek, who gave the Convocation speech last September; A. J. Muste, who took a first in the state contest in 1903 and a second in the national contest, is now the president in the first Labor College in America; Prof. H. E. Yntema, Ph. D., a Rhodes scholar, and now in the Law School of Columbia University; C. B. Muste, the Educational Secretary of Hope in the East. Three of the present professors of the College have won honors in these M. O. L. meets: in 1917 Prof. Irwin J. Lubbers took a first place in 1920 and in 1923 Prof. S. Heemstra took first place in the state contest and a first place in the national meet of the Pi Kappa Delta held in Peoria, Illinois.

Nykerk Successful

In 1912 a women's contest was also introduced into the M. O. L. meets. From this time forward Hope sent women orators also, and was rewarded by several first places. Today the women's contest is looked upon with equal interest to that of the men's.

Dr. Nykerk has produced many of the best speakers the league has known, and it is believed that he has trained more speakers of the first class than any other coach in the league. Since 1915 Hope has obtained twelve firsts, an average of one each year, counting both the women's and the men's contests.

spice and laughter rose high when as the closing number the Fraternal orchestra struck up its repertoire of lively numbers. Frater Alumnus George Damson nicely drew the cords of the night's festivity together with words of cheer and fellowship.

Plans are now under way for the Junior-Senior banquet. At a recent meeting of the Junior Class the project was discussed and placed in the hands of committees.

This is an annual event in which the Juniors entertain the members of the outgoing class. It promises to be an event worth while.

With jest and song and the light hearted gaiety characteristic of Cosmopolitan fellowship, the Sons of Cosmos celebrated on Wednesday evening the thirty-eighth annual stag of the society. The scene of the revelries was the parlors of the Episcopal church, where forty-three members gathered around the festive boards to satisfy the clamoring of the "inner man."

The program followed out a music theme. Toastmaster De Ruiter, as "D Major," toasted to the sentiment, "On, Sail On!" With wit aplenty, William Heydorn spoke on the subject, "B Natural." Two saxophone solos were played by Elmer Den Herder to the enjoyment of all; William Kuyper, as "A Minor," gave the Freshman toast. Len Hoogenboom, representing the Sophomores, gave a comic-serious talk, taking the theme, "A Flat." William Jansen rendered a baritone solo and was encored. Toasting farewell to the Seniors, Vern Vander Hill spoke on the subject, "C Sharp." As alumni representative,

Prof. Irwin J. Lubbers gave an interesting speech under the title of "The Rest."

The Alethean Society was very pleasantly entertained on Friday evening, February 17, by Dorothy Blekkink at the home of Mrs. Zeeman, 208 W. 10th Street.

The evening was spent in a social manner. Much pep and gaiety prevailed. Delicious refreshments were served by the new officers.

ORGANIST TO GIVE LENTEN RECITALS

Dr. Alle D. Zuidema, organist of the Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian church, Detroit, a pupil of Ch. M. Widor, organist of St. Sulpice, Paris, will give a series of three Lenten organ recitals on the Dodge memorial organ in Jefferson Ave. church, Mar. 15 and 29. He will be assisted by Dr. G. K. Bolender, tenor, Willoughby Boughton, pianist, and the East Grand Blvd. M. E. choir, Frederick A. Protheroe, director. The recitals are free to the public and will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. Mr. Zuidema is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zuidema, West Twelfth street. He is a graduate from the local schools and he wed Miss De Jongh of Holland some years ago.

PRES. OF SYNOD GIVES ADDRESS TO STUDENTRY

RELATES THE HISTORY OF THE REFORMED CHURCH

Dr. J. Addison Jones, President of the General Synod, and Elder Schwab of New York City, were guests at Chapel last Friday morning.

Dr. Jones delivered a very inspiring address in which he told the students some facts about the Reformed Church of America concerning its origin and its influence. The Reformed Church represents the oldest religious organization in this country, now having over seven hundred churches and a large number of representatives in foreign lands.

He urged the students to direct their ambitions toward worthy purposes, strive for an advance in something already started and then put forth into life something above this for which money cannot pay. Having been in Europe during the World War as Y. M. C. A. Secretary he vividly portrayed some of the horrors of war. One of his great aims is to inspire people to form movements against war and he appealed to the students to do their part.

Graduates Write
Words of PageantHOPE ALUMNI CONTRIBUTE TO TERCENTENARY CELEBRATION

The Book of Words for the Tercenary Pageant, to be produced under the direction of the Hope College alumni association, is ready for the press. Being the composite writing of several authors, it has the distinction of being a representative alumni project. Miss Hanna G. Hoeckje, chairman of the parent committee and secretary of the alumni association, has had general oversight of the production, and has assembled and edited the episodes to fit the theme of the whole. Miss Hoeckje graduated in 1906, and has during her twenty-two years of teaching experience, produced several pageants, chief among which was the "Pageant of the Present," staged by the Holland Teachers' Club in 1921.

Three of the episodes are also the work of alumnae, experienced in the art of pageantry. The episode picturing the transplanting of the "Lily among Thorns," to the shores of America in 1628, has come from the pen of Miss Lois Brookmeier, 1926, who was the author of the Book of Words for the pageant presented by the Senior Class of that year at Hope.

Mrs. J. A. Dykstra, 1912, author of some missionary pageants, has written in a compelling style the episode depicting the missionary work of the Reformed Church in 300 years. The author of the "Pageant of Hope," Mrs. T. H. Elferdink, 1916, has charmingly brought in the children as the hope of the future, in the closing episode of the pageant.

The third episode, which portrays the "nurturing" of the plant in America, by means of educational institutions especially, is the work of a man of broad interests and vivid experience in educational lines, the Rev. Milton L. Hoffman, D. D., of the class of 1909.

The opening scenes are the work of a novice in pageantry, but one already recognized for his ability in interpreting literary masterpieces, Mr. Willis Oosterhof of the present Senior Class. Mr. Oosterhof but recently received the appointment to the fellowship in English at the University of Michigan, as a recognition of his scholarship during his college career.

With this group of literary artists is associated Miss Margaret Hondelink, 1928 leader of the Hope Trumeters, who has aided in adapting the music of great hymns of the church to the theme of the "Pageant of the Word." Altogether, the personnel of the writers should insure a production of literary merit and of enthusiasm for the message of the Tercenary celebration of the Reformed Church.

A good number of Hope students attended the Ottawa County Teachers' Convention which was held on Friday, February 24, in Holland Senior High School. It was not without reason that many should be drawn from other pressing duties, for one of the speakers was none other than "Tom" Skehill, famous world-traveler and lecturer. Dr. Henderson of Ann Arbor also attracted student interest.

Giving a lecture in the morning entitled "The Trojan Way," Dr. Skehill charmed his hearers with his dramatic message told in vivid faultless diction. It showed the ugly side of war.

In the afternoon Dr. Skehill spoke on the leadership of youth. Dr. Henderson gave an address entitled "Lincoln." His subject led him to a discussion of the English language. In a remarkably clever way he brought out the glory of individualism in speech and thought.

The Home Volunteers had an exceptionally large attendance at their meeting last Friday evening. Those who were present enjoyed a very interesting as well as an educational talk from Dr. Thomas W. Davidson of Hope Church on "The Presbyterian Church."

Dr. Davidson stated that our Reformed church developed from one of the twenty-one divisions of the Presbyterian church which was established at Geneva in the year 1541 under the leadership of John Calvin. Many other interesting facts concerning this particular church were given, and the Home Volunteers already realize that the series of talks they will have this semester will be of a high educational value.

Let us encourage the speakers by a large attendance at each meeting. This Friday Rev. Wm. Schumacher of the Lutheran church will give us a survey of the church.

The Hope college student body met at ten minutes to eight o'clock Tuesday morning to hear Miss Churchford. Among the prominent men who spoke were Henry Geerlings, Jacob Lokker and E. P. Stenham. Mr. Geerlings spoke on "Self Sacrifice" since he had done a great deal of the mission without pay. Mr. Lokker spoke on the "Cooperation" of these laboring men while Mr. Stenham spoke on how Christ was born in obscurity also a laboring carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hadden, West 11th street, announce the marriage of their daughter Evelyn to Mr. Walter Stern, of Allegan. The young couple left at noon Thursday for Santa Rosa, New Mexico, where Mr. Stern has accepted a position.

G. H. Tripp of the Defender Manufacturing Co. of Allegan has announced reorganization of that institution last week. The capital stock of the reorganized company has been increased from $25,000 to $75,000. G. E. Gagnier of Detroit, prominent in automotive circles, is president of the new company, Grover H. Tripp vice president and treasurer and Charles Gulick secretary. Directors are G. E. Gagnier, G. H. Tripp of Allegan, W. A. Chick of Detroit, C. H. Bruns of Chicago and E. W. Stone of Allegan.

Daniel Ten Kate and daughter Myra Rose spent the week-end at Benton Harbor with Mr. Ten Kate's sister, Mrs. O. W. Dean. Vernon Ten Kate, who is studying law at the University of Michigan, was also there for the week-end. Mrs. J. Ten Kate, the attorney's mother, has returned to her daughter's, Mrs. O. W. Dean, at Benton Harbor.

Herman Beekman of Holland was arrested at Grand Haven in a charge of driving while intoxicated and George Washington, his companion, on a charge of drunkenness Sunday afternoon after Beekman's car had hit one belonging to F. A. Mosher of Grand Rapids on M-21 near Jensen. The two men were taken to the Ottawa county jail here.

A double surprise party was given by Mrs. Henry Alderink at her home, 52 West Tenth street in honor of her two sons, Henry Jr., and John Alderink. The purpose of this party was to celebrate the birthdays of the two, whose birthdays come so near to each other. A pretty wedding was solemnized Thursday afternoon at five o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Staal on State street, Zeeland, where their daughter, Miss Mary Staal, was united in marriage to Mr. Gerrit Gerritsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Gerritsen, 316 West 16th street of Holland. The couple will reside at 139 State street, Zeeland.

A congregational meeting of the Sixth Reformed church was held last night, with John Vandervliet in charge of the program. The address of the evening was made by Rev. R. Vanden Berg, pastor of the Second Reformed church of Zeeland, on winning souls through personal evangelism. Bert Scholten was elected a deacon in the church. Following the meeting a lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed by those present.

A new electric sign has been put up in front of the Cottage Hamburg stand.

Mrs. J. H. Dobbin submitted to an operation at the Holland hospital and is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. John Snauverink spent the week-end visiting in Grand Rapids.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Gebben, 255 Lincoln avenue, a daughter at the Holland hospital.

Miss Esther Olin, who is training at the Blodgett hospital, Grand Rapids, spent Saturday home with her parents at 19 East Nineteenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robson Renwick, Jr., of Grand Rapids, are the parents of a baby girl. Mrs. Renwick was formerly Miss Doris Welch of Holland and Grand Haven and was connected with the Holland Chamber of Commerce.

The boys of Beechwood school have become interested in forming a scout troop and have held several meetings that have finally resulted in work being undertaken to establish a unit there.

Holland high was once more unlucky in the drawing held at Grand Rapids for the opposing teams in the district tournament to be played March 7, 9, 10, at the South high gym.

Because a young man who is to marry a daughter of the family soon had run out of gas when he was leaving the home of his fiancée Sunday night, the barn of Cornelius Vande Veer of Oakland was burned down to the ground about twelve o'clock last night. Vande Veer's family car was standing in the barn and when the young man found his own flivver was dry he took a lantern and crawled under the car of his prospective father-in-law to drain some gas out of it. An explosion followed and the barn was burned down. Everything in the building was burned with the exception of two horses that broke away. Hay, straw, grain, cattle, hogs, tools, the family car, and many other things were destroyed. The barn is insured.—Holland Sentinel.

Paving of Borculo road, after much agitation, is to be realized. Four and one-half miles of paving will be conducted jointly by the county and state. With this construction in view the Zeeland council voted to pave the State street that joins the Borculo stretch. The state also is making preparations for work on M-21 from the east limits of Zeeland to Holland city. The present roadbed being very badly worn. Already surveys are being made on Washington street in Zeeland over which the state purposes to carry the route, connecting the present roadbed at the New Groningen hill.

HOPE HAS CHANCE TO BREAK EVEN DURING SEASON

The Olivet game has raised Hope's standing in the M. I. A. A. to three games won and five games lost. And if they can come to win the two remaining games on the schedule Hope's final standing will be 500 with five won and five lost.

HARD-PLAYING FRESHMEN PASS UP CHANCES OF VICTORY

Playing a good brand of ball and taking advantage of every opportunity the Muskegon Junior College ball team defeated the Hope College Freshmen team in a hard fought battle, the Freshmen succumbing to the efforts of the Junior Collegians by the close score of 33-24. The Freshmen were behind at the half, 15-10, due to a spurt of the Junior team during the first half which carried the Hope men off their feet.

The visitors have no mean ball club, being second in the race for basketball honors among the Junior colleges of the state. The Freshmen could have won had they taken every opportunity as it came but they let a few chances slip and consequently they lost the game. Nevertheless, the Hope squad put up a good fight and played much better against the Junior bunch than they did earlier in the season.

Hope had trouble in stopping second half and brought victory to Hathaway, who ran rampant in the hands of the squad from Muskegon. Becker was outstanding for Hope, while Vander Werf also looked good at times. On the whole, the Freshmen did very well against their opponents who had lost two games this season and those to the high-touted Grand Rapids Junior team.

ROVERS DOWNED BY HOPE JUNIORS

In the preliminary game to the Hope Frosh-Muskegon game last Wednesday night at Carnegie gymnasium the Junior class team of Hope College met and decisively defeated the Rovers from Muskegon. The Juniors were never in danger, running up a nice score from the start and were never headed throughout the game. Van Raalte and Hyink were outstanding for the Juniors. Klaasen, Vanderpool, Kleinjan, Knol, and Pelon also got into the game for the Hope-ites. The Rovers, previous to this game, had not been defeated this season but they surely got a drubbing from the Juniors. We would like to see more battles between class teams and outside squads.

NEW GRONINGEN

The Junior Audubon Club of our local school has purchased a small Victrola for use in school, besides this the club is sending for seventy-five bird pictures to aid in its work on "Bird Friends and Their Enemies." The next work the club is taking up is the construction of winter shelter and feeding places for birds. The New Groningers surely believe in the conservation of wild life so strongly advocated in this state everywhere.

The following primary school pupils received A in their spelling test last week: Morris Schaap, Wallace Schilstra, Jasper Brower, Miner Vanden Berg, Genevieve De Jonge, and James Sterken. Donald Van Lier, a sixth grader, has very nearly an all A record for the school year. Criston De Vries follows closely but has a few more B's.

The local school pupils in the upper grades show an attendance record averaging 97.3% since school opened last fall. For a rural school where bad weather and sickness and long travel interferes this is a remarkable record.

Miss Mary Schaap at a Valentine party at the local school succeeded while blindfolded, in pinning a tail to a cat during one of the games.

This is a remarkable feat especially if it were the night prowlers we know. Anyway, the cat now has two tails and nine lives. We heard later that the cat was inanimate.

NORTH HOLLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vork, residing northwest from here, attended the funeral of the latter's sister, Miss Cornelia Ver Planke at New Groningen.

Mr. Henry Lemmen and Mr. John J. Slag had a radio installed in their respective homes recently.

Miss Cina Veldheer and Alydia Nienhuis were recent visitors at our local school.

Some young people from here attended a shower given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schilleman, newly weds, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ties Prins at Borculo on last week Thursday evening.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Will Overbeek, residing south west from here, a new son.

Mrs. Arthur Maatman, who has spent some days at the Blodgett hospital at Grand Rapids, has returned to her home here on last week Wednesday. Her condition is quite favorable.

The pupils of our local high school have received their report cards last week and we are very happy to learn that the semester examinations have been successfully passed.

The chapel of our local church has undergone several good improvements the past few weeks. The chair seats recently purchased have been arranged very orderly, the floor given a cleaning while the walls have been newly decorated. Together with the new heatrola which was purchased last fall, makes it a very cozy room.

Some chair seats have also been installed in the room where Ben Ter Haar teaches his boys.

The high school pupils had a half day vacation on Tuesday, giving their teacher the privilege of attending the funeral of his grandfather.

Subscribers to the fund demanded by the Consumers Power Co. before it would bring its lighting system into Hudsonville have met at the school to determine how the surplus of the money paid should be divided. The proposition was either to pay each one the cash that would come to him or her in this division or to put it into a fund with which to better conditions in Hughes park. The sentiment of those present was largely in favor of returning the money and that will be done.

The hunting case that has been the topic of discussion in Beaverdam since Feb. 1 finally has come to a close. Four boys of the Steenwyk and Brower families of Zeeland section were arrested for carrying firearms without possessing a permit, which under a new law is illegal. The lads appeared before Justice J. N. Clark of Zeeland in the past week and pleaded guilty. They were fined $25 each. They also were assessed costs, but allowed to retain their guns as this was their first offense. The offense was committed the first day the new law went into effect.

WHAT IS PERMANENT?

Nothing is permanent but change. The progress of today is the history of tomorrow. Our security of today is but a memory tomorrow. The abundant health which we now enjoy is too often dissipated and lost with startling rapidity. Who is there among us who can say with certainty that he will have health and happiness in a year, a month—yea even when the sun brightens the East on the morrow?

Yet why these sudden changes? What has happened to rob us of the joy of living and put in its place a husk that remains as a burden? Has something invaded the body as we walked along the street or sat all unsuspecting at our tasks? If so, why have we been free these many years or months and suddenly been gripped by this mysterious foe?

To the chiropractor who deals entirely with the cause of disease this is no mystery. He knows that the vital energy which comes from the brain through nerves and upon which every function in the human body is dependent has been interfered with. He knows that some change has taken place in the spine which has produced nerve pressure, all unsuspected by the patient. He has not been attacked by disease as an outside foreign foe. A change has occurred within his body and the only way health can be restored is to correct the condition responsible for the disease. This the chiropractor is trained to do and his splendid record of results is the only commendation he needs and the only justification he has for the public favor which is his.

The chiropractor knows that health is dependent upon the condition of the spine. He knows that air, food, water, and exercise are necessary to health. He realizes the value of a well-balanced mental state, but he also knows that all of these things may be available and illness still exist.

He knows that each and every organ must receive its quota of vital energy through the nervous system and he knows this cannot be supplied if spinal abnormality causes pressure on nerve trunks. His business is to correct such spinal defect and thus permit the natural health within to be expressed.

He knows one thing more than many Chiropractor patients do not know. He realizes the value of a regular examination of the spine. He knows that the health which has been regained through Chiropractic adjustments can be retained by keeping the spine in perfect condition. Every former patient of every chiropractor should visit his doctor once each month as a matter of health insurance. It is far better to keep the spine in good condition and thus be assured of abundant health than to neglect this matter until extensive damage has been wrought.

The man whose automobile develops the least trouble is the man who corrects little things before they become big things. The individual who keeps his spine in perfect condition, avoids the serious maladies which, when well developed, are difficult to eliminate. The slogan of every wise person should be to retain their health which has been regained from chiropractic adjustments.

Who Fostered and Brought this Development during these 50 years?

Men who were members of and were identified with, or believed in and fostered a Chamber of Commerce or a Business body of some kind—not the few knockers on the side lines, who never were members and never did help carry the civic load.

This birds-eye view of Holland is reproduced from a painting made by a prominent Chicago artist four years after the big fire of '71, and pictures every house, public building and labor-employing industry in Holland at that time. This painting, more than any one thing, shows the development of this city since then. Bear in mind that most of these buildings were wood and have since been supplanted by modern stone and brick structures. Also note what a difference there is in the limits of our city then and now. Twelfth street was about the last street south, now it is 32nd. First avenue had a few houses lining its thoroughfare, now the limits should extend to Central Park. To the east Land street, now Lincoln Avenue, was the boundry line; today we should extend nearly to the Holland Country Club, not saying anything about the north side extending to Alpena road north and Pine Lodge west.

Note Market Square with the flag staff, with engine house, council rooms, jail and cannon house on the northwest corner. Old Van Vleck looms up rather alone on Hope campus.

In those days the Grand Haven train came into Holland over a long curved bridge near River Ave., instead of via Waverly. See the Grand Rapids "cannon ball" train steam into the depot located between 9th and 10th streets.

Atmosphere to Compare With Balmy June Is Helping the Cause of an Organized Religion

Made-to-order weather in which air is conditioned to give the effect of a balmy day in June, is aiding the cause of organized religion by stimulating church attendance and making congregations more receptive to sermons and spiritual direction, according to a recent survey.
The church, regardless of denomination or creed, is turning to scientific control of air conditions within its buildings on a scale never before known because its leaders have found that there is a direct relation between good ventilation and the attitude of church-goers.
Like the public school, the theater and large industrial enterprises, the church is spending thousands of dollars to wash, filter, humidify and pump air for the health and comfort of its members.

Is Good Business
"Even the church has discovered that good ventilation is good business and that it must be progressive enough to take advantage of it," declared a nationally known leader in one of the largest denominations in the United States. "The air conditions in some churches are terrible and should be rectified.
There are few large church buildings constructed today, however, in which adequate, controlled ventilation does not play an important part. It is significant, too, that tests have shown that there is less sleeping and yawning in churches where there is an ample supply of clean, life-giving air."

Health experts and ventilating engineers agree that the air in churches should be changed completely 10 times an hour or once every six minutes for the best results. There should be a minimum supply of 25 cubic feet of air per person every minute, these experts say.

Scientists Have Model
One of the best ventilated churches in the United States is the First Christian Scientists' church in Boston, according to the engineers.
This church has installed complete equipment for not only pumping in a large supply of air by means of powerful ventilating fans, but washes and tempers the air before it is distributed through the building. When the church building is packed, stale or used air is pumped out at a rate of many tons per hour.

IN 1929

The nineteen principal American Protestant denominations in the United States now have assets of more than $100,000,000 in funds for pension purposes and last year distributed $8,079,237 to 27,516 beneficiaries.

The Methodist Episcopal denomination, which disbursed $3,252,930 in 1927 to 8,458 beneficiaries, led all denominations in the amount of pensions paid during the year.
Figures for the country were received here by Dr. Joseph B.
Hingeley, corresponding secretary of the board of pensions and relief of the Methodist Episcopal church, from Dr. Charles S. Mills, secretary of the Congregational board of ministerial relief.

Noteworthy Advance
The most noteworthy advance in the total assets during the year came from the Presbyterian church which completed gathering a $15,000,000 fund.

The Methodist Episcopal church has completed preparation of a new pension system, based on reserves and accumulations, to go into operation in 1929.

The next quadrennium will be devoted to adjusting the old and the new plans in a way that will protect the present group of retired preachers. The plan is to be presented to the general conference in Kansas in May.

The Protestant Episcopal church is shown to have the largest pension fund with $20,649,669. The Methodist Episcopal comes next with an even $19,000,000. Other leaders are Baptist, Northern convention, $13,526,513, and the Presbyterian, North, $12,348,181.

ing engineers reveal that the Roman Catholic church is one of the outstanding leaders in the movement for improved air conditions in churches and that this church organization is aggressively extending the uses of mechanical ventilation in the parochial schools.
Out of 173 orders for ventilation installations recently received by one group of engineers, denominations were classified as follows:
Roman Catholics, 29; Presbyterian,
24; Episcopal, 23; Christian Scitions, 27.

been here so long, the West Michigan Pike, now U. S. 21, the first real resort highway built in the State, has been laid so many years and the volume of summer travel has come upon us so gradually that folks have become accustomed to continuous motordaze passing through and Holland citizens can hardly realize what it means to them. The West Michigan Pike is possibly the most heavily traveled highway in Michigan, topping as it does Chicago and all the middle western states. Thousands of these cars go out of line at Holland during a season and park at the curb for a spell and surely the occupants don't simply suck their thumbs or stare at tall buildings but spend at least some money.

A sudden halt in this automobile procession would tell a real story.
Lakewood Farm and other show places here have naturally added to the volume of travel in this vicinity but it goes without saying that those who go about in cars must spend money wherever they may travel. If you don't believe that take a trip and you won't roll along many miles without loosening the purse strings.

Holland located as it is is most fortunate as are many other places in Michigan.
They say lumbering in this state is practically an industry of the past and although young forests are springing up in barren places and where stately pines stood before, thanks to belated forestation, the tourist industry has taken its place and is bringing in more money than ever was dreamed of by the most optimistic lumberman in his day a half century ago.

Michigan today has just as many acres as it ever had; it has just as many miles of Great Lake shore line; just as many streams and rivers; and its 5,000 inland lakes are just as deep and placid as they were when the first Indian paddled his birch bark canoe across their unruined bosoms.
A third of the state is idle and unproductive at this time. Fourteen million acres, or 20 of its 57 square miles of territory is wild land. Its value today and in the years to come will prove Michigan's greatest asset.

Dog, Like Mary's
Lamb, Enters School

Mary's little lamb is an old one, but the latest is a dog that entered the auditorium of the high school following not Mary, but the entire flock of students. Fido got rather familiar when he perched on top of one of the girl students desks.
There was a scream and much commotion. The dog was too much for the instructor and was ejected by the strongest student in the school, namely, Adrian Braamsen.

Experts are to decide whether the Eiffel tower in Paris, the world's highest man-made structure, is to continue as one of the distinguishing landmarks of the French capital. An inspection in May will determine whether the great tower is a menace to the lives of the Parisians.

One in every 23 American men and boys is named William, and one among each 29 of the country's feminine population answers to the name of Mary. There are 2,500,000 Williams and 2,000,000 Marys in the United States, according to a survey made by the University of California.

The year 1880 was Michigan's greatest lumber year, when the value of exports amounted to $70,000,000, but today the land from which this timber was cut is bringing the state more, from a monetary standpoint, than the lumber yielded.

Money left in the state last year by tourists, attracted here by the wild lands, lakes, streams, and scenic beauty was treble that of the lumber yielded.

Second growth provides better
cover for denizens of the wild.
The whole equipment is at hand ready to make Michigan the playground of the nation. All that is needed is fish and game, protection of the opportunity. Here conservation may play its part.
and Old Nature will do the rest.
Game can be propagated and planted. Fish can be raised and

SPRING LAKE CONCERN GETS EXCELLENT SUPPLY IN BEFORE RECENT THAW

The only commercial ice house in this part of the county yet filled is that owned by the Spring Lake Ice Co., which is ready to serve the people with ice of unusual quality.

The huge new ice house which has been completed recently at a cost of $15,000 has been the scene of such activity as between 40 and 45 men working feverishly to fill the depository before the recent thaw came which would have lessened the excellent quality of their product.

The new ice house, situated on Smith's Bayou, an off shoot of Spring Lake, is 70 by 96 feet containing 12,000 feet of lumber. Here there is no sewage of any kind permitted, there is little activity and the waters are as pure and clean as any natural ice field in the country.

There are 5,000 tons of ice stored in cakes 20 by 20 inches, each weighing 135 pounds. They are cut with a power saw, lifted on a continuous chain to the shaver which cleans off all snow and surface dirt, carried it on the elevators and shunted into one of the six compartments of the big building.

Every modern device for handling the product has been installed and the filling went through this year in record time and without a

SLEET STORMS STOP HOLLAND'S PUBLIC TIMEPIECE

Grand Rapids Herald—Holland has a tower clock whose history is brought to mind each time this public timepiece stops in its business of keeping the local citizens punctual.

Sleet storms cause ice to form on the open face, thus stopping the hands. The long hand is five feet in length while the other is four feet long.

It is atop the tower of the Holland City State Bank building and has been since 1892 when it was installed by L. P. Husen, a local jeweler at that time.

This bank was in a wooden shack, previous to 1892, located where the Fris store now stands.

NEW UP-TO-THE-MINUTE BOOKS NOW TO BE FOUND IN LIBRARY

The new assignment of books has arrived at the College library. From time to time funds are set aside for the purchase of new volumes for the main library as well as for the various department libraries.

Much interest has been displayed by the students over these new additions. Everyone should be interested. One of the marks of the man of real culture is a knowledge of contemporary literature.

Besides being new to the college library the books are all very recently published. In almost every case their copyright date is within the last two years.

The main portion of the books are biographies. The one which will presumably be the most popular of these is Carl Sandberg's "Chemist."

State Brake Test Drive Favored By Governor

A state-wide brake testing campaign in the interest of public safety soon may be made, according to Gov. Fred W. Green, who attended the automobile show at Grand Rapids.

"I am heartily in favor of a state brake testing campaign similar to the one in operation in Grand Rapids," the Governor said. "It is something we must have over this state. I shall name a committee shortly and I hope we will be able to put a suitable plan in effect by spring."

One Point of View

One who is contented with what he has done will never become famous for what he will do.

TOO MANY SCHOOL STUDENTS FAIL- ING IN STUDIES

BRINGS HONOR ROLL DOWN
IN NUMBERS CON-SIDERABLY

A recent issue of the Maroon and Orange, the high school paper, contains an editorial with the caption "That Black List," showing there are altogether too many students failing in one or more subjects, lowering the honor roll considerably in the Holland public schools.

The editorial as given is self explanatory as follows:

"Statistics in Mr. Riemersma's office for the last quarter show that fifty-five students were failing in one subject and twenty-one failing in two or more. The Honor Roll contained only one hundred and two students, showing entirely too many on the failing list and too few on the Honor Roll. It is estimated that from eighty to eighty-five are coming into the high school from Junior High and only five are leaving. This will make large classes. If a student fails it means one more in a class that is almost too full. As the failing can hardly be remedied this semester which is nearly gone, it is necessary to look ahead and lower it in the future.

"Possibly many students are planning to take five academic studies. This is a very difficult thing to do, for it means a good deal of studying outside; so unless a student has plenty of time outside of school hours to study, it would be advisable to think carefully on this matter. Another thing ought to be considered: that of a student's ability. No one who is failing or getting just passing marks will be allowed to take five academic subjects. If a student is thinking of electing debating, club, or any thing else that requires work outside he should not take five solid subjects, for, 'like as not' he will come to school with the excuse that he has had no time to study his lessons, due to his extra work.

"All these things must be considered very carefully. Think, students, before you take up too much. Do not go beyond your ability to do things well, because your studies require your best. You have already elected your subjects for the coming semester, but they can be changed if you find that you have elected too much."

American Power Looms

The majority of modern textile rugs and carpets are woven on power looms perfected by American manufacturers. Ingrain, Brussels, Wilton, velvet and axminster are the most common kinds. In addition to these, there are oriental rugs and various adaptations of the old-fashioned rag rug now manufactured on a large scale in factories, as well as fiber and grass rugs and matting.

Graham Flour

The difference between whole wheat flour and Graham flour is that there is less coarse bran in the so-called whole-wheat flour than in the Graham. Alexander Graham was the first to advocate milling the entire wheat, adding nothing to it and subtracting nothing from it. In some mills the whole wheat flour is a product of the whole wheat put through a process to take out the coarsest bran.

CONTESTS IN ORATORY TO TAKE PLACE

VICTORS WILL REPRESENT
HOPE IN M. O. L.
MEETS

Annual oratorical contests which are to determine the Hope orators for the following years will be held this year as usual. The time of the Women's contest has been set for May 11. The Raven contest, open to men, will take place two weeks later on May 25.

This early announcement is made to permit of an extensive preparation. Since the winners of these contests will represent the school in the M. O. L. contest of the following year, contestants are limited to members of the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior classes, thus barring the Seniors who would be unable to fulfill this duty.

Pays to Try

Enthusiasm always attends these contests and the keen competition makes them a fine display of oratorical talent. Hope's chances to maintain the high rank which is hers in oratory depend to a great extent upon the selection of her most capable speakers. The more entries there are in the local contest from whom a representative can be selected, the more certain are the chances for a victory over rival institutions.

The end is worth striving for and the practice in speaking is of great value in itself. Everyone with recognized ability in speaking or with aspirations along the line of oratory is urged to enter.

Report Early

Those desirous of entering must report to the Manager of Oratory, Howard Shuyter, not later than April 2.

The matter of a subject is left to personal choice so long as it is something constructive. When the aged Dr. A. A. Raven gave the Raven prize, he made the stipulation that for the first year the orations have a patriotic theme or something showing respect and reverence for old age.

The orations are to be between 1200 and 1500 words in length, not more than ten per cent of which are to be quoted. Five copies will have to be provided by those who participate in the final contest.

Prizes To Be Given

Contestants in these final contests will be chosen by a process of elimination by classes. Preliminary contests will be held and two representatives will be selected from the Freshman class, two from the Sophomore, and three from the Junior. The dates set for these contests are as follows: Women's Contest—April 30, May 2, 4, and 7; Raven—May 14, 16, 18 and 21.

Besides the honor of representing the school in the following year the winner of each contest will receive a prize. The Raven gives thirty dollars to first place and twenty to second. The amount of twenty-five dollars will go to the winner of the Women's contest.

If there is any additional information desired such information can be obtained from the Manager of Oratory.

Horses' Origin Unknown

Dubose Heyward says "marsh tacks" are the "poor horse trash" of the Carolina coast country's swamps and sea islands. "Early tradition says these horses were found by the English when they first came and that they are the descendants of runaways from the Spanish settlements to the south about St. Augustine, or horses turned loose by De Soto upon his ill-fated march to the Mississippi."

Snow Line on Mountains

Ice and snow are found on high mountains the year around above what is known as the snow line. The snow line is the line showing the limit of perpetual snow, varying with the climate in different parts of the world, but situated at approximately 1,000 feet above sea level, at latitude 70 degrees; 5,100 feet, at 80 degrees; 6,800 feet, at 50 degrees, and from 16,000 to 17,000 feet at the equator.

LAKEVIEW W. BABY CHICKS

Heavier Breeds Bring in the Cash

They make the best broilers, and the best meat! When "fried chicken time" comes, buyers not only demand plump, good-sized birds, but pay an extra price to get them! White Leghorns are a drug on the market.

Both Eggs and Meat From Lakeview Breeds

Lakeview strains of meat breeds mentioned below are bred for egg production—their egg records run only slightly less than Leghorns—yet they quickly grow to good size and weight. Easily and economically handled; broodiness has been pretty well bred out. Order your chicks now—choose the breed you want.

Washkowsky's Old Shoe

We call the attention of the American Bankers Association to the case of Mr. Washkowsky of Brooklyn. Mr. Washkowsky is hard working and thrifty, but like so many of us his education is defective; who is to blame for that we don't know. Mr. Washkowsky has been saving a part of his weekly wages for a long time, but hadn't told Mrs. Washkowsky where he was depositing his nest egg. That was a mistake, probably, but an inquiry into it belongs to another branch of education with which it is probable the bankers association cannot be held to have any concern.

But with Mr. Washkowsky's depositary it has. He chose for that purpose an old shoe. He kept the shoe and its mate in his closet, and up to the other day had tucked away in one of them savings amounting to $350. On that same other day Mrs. Washkowsky, rummaging Mr. Washkowsky's closet like a good housewife, seeking what she could throw away or transfer to another place where Mr. Washkowsky couldn't find it, as is the habit of good housewives, found this same pair of old shoes. We suppose she said to herself, Mr. Washkowsky not being present to have it said to him, "Isn't that just like a man?" and acting thereupon just like a woman she sent the shoes to the cobbler to be repaired. It was either that or the ash barrel for them, and being frugal and Mr. Washkowsky paying the cobbler bills anyway, she sent them to the cobbler.

A distraught man was Mr. Washkowsky when he next went to make a deposit in his old shoe. "What new place," he asked in that mar-similar occasions, "have you found for my old shoes?" Mrs. Washkowsky told him, expecting to be praised for her thoughtfulness. Women—but that's another branch of education.

Mr. Washkowsky went to the cobbler and found his shoes, but not the money, which we cannot but feel is not remarkable. We hope he will find it, but he hasn't yet, which again should cause no astonishment.

But what we would like to hear from the American Bankers Association is what steps it is taking to discourage people of magpie habits from keeping their money in stores, shoes, mantle clocks, behind wall pictures, under floor boards and similar places. We have made no exact calculation, but from casual evidence we are inclined to believe there are enough funds hidden away in such places in this enlightened and progressive country to pay off the national debt. Not that we advise paying it off, because that would leave congress nothing to fuss with Mr. Mellon about; but if deposited in banks our banker might have some to lend when we need it, which he now never has; he says money is very scarce. We hold it is not; it is merely in Mr. Washkowsky's shoe.

Seeing that we have been pursuing education, or something called that, for several centuries we cannot but feel this is a bad showing and that the bankers association is somehow responsible. It hasn't sufficiently impressed on the people that it has banks and what they are for. Mr. Washkowsky hasn't heard. And there are a lot of him in this country.—Kansas City Star.
