Gift at the End Of Bible Text Crowns Birthday

FORMER MAYOR STEPHAN
REMINISCENT AT JAMES
A BROUWER BANQUET TO EMPLOYEES

The family gathering at the home of Mr. James A. Brouwer, which marked the eightieth anniversary of his birth, was not the end of the celebration. On Thursday night it was Mr. Brouwer's wish that he meet with the employees of the firm and for that reason the private dining room at the Warm Friend Tavern was all aglow at 6 p. m. when those associated with the firm gathered in honor of the occasion.

One of the pleasing features was the presence of one of the old employees, former Mayor E. P. Stephan, who had been in the employ of Mr. Brouwer for 23 years. He and Mrs. Stephan were special guests at the festive board and Mr. Stephan, who was introduced by William J. Brouwer, the son, was in a very reminiscent mood and gave an interesting story of furniture in the earlier days when he was still with the firm.

Mr. Stephan dwelt at some length on the upbuilding of the Brouwer Furniture store and many unusual incidents, some very amusing, that transpired during his many years of service. He distinctly remembered the building of an entirely new store within a 90-day period, constructed of brick, fully described in our last issue.

Another very unique and pleasing feature was the presentation of a small testament, beautifully bound, to each of the 22 employees. Mr. Brouwer, in his presentation, had written the texts he desired them to read. The last notation was Psalm 103, and in the pages of that psalm each Bible contained a substantial gift for the employees present.

Mr. Brouwer's greetings came in the following form:

In memory of my 80th birthday may I show you how to live and die happy? Please read the following passages:

Matt. 4:17; Psalm 32:5; Matthew 11:28; Matthew 16:26; Matthew 18:11; Matthew 6:19, 20, 25, 30; Matthew 10:32; John 3:16; John 11:25, 26; 1 Thess. 4:13, 14; Romans 7:18-25 and 8:1; 1 John 1:7, 8, 9; Psalm 103 (gift was placed here).

When you have experienced the above you will see with the Apostle John, Rev. 22:20.

JAS. A. BROUWER.

Feb. 20, 1934.

An interesting fact was revealed that many of the employees have worked for this organization 10 or more years. Mr. Dick Rotman has served 24 years, William J. Brouwer 24 years, Albert Brouwer 24 years, Richard Overway 22 years, Fred Beuwkes 19 years and John De Graaf 11 years.

The program was opened with introductory remarks by Mr. William J. Brouwer, after which the crowd joined in singing. After that a solo was rendered by Myra Jean Brouwer accompanied by Marjorie Brouwer, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Brouwer.

Mr. A. Buter then made several appropriate remarks acting as representative of the sales organization of this store. Then Mr. Richard Overway gave a talk, representing the men who take charge of the outside work of this store.

The next number was a dialogue by Myra Jean and Marjorie Brouwer; this was followed by remarks by Mr. Fred Beuwkes who represented the James A. Brouwer Company officials. After this Marjorie sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. William J. Brouwer. Mr. E. P. Stephan, who worked for Mr. Brouwer twenty-three years then gave a paper on reminiscences; after which two dialogues were given by Mrs. Anna Beuwkes and Mrs. Anna Beukema. Mr. James A. Brouwer then closed the program with a response, thanking all present for the entertainment and their good will and then presented each of his employees with a gift.

JOURNALIST IN EAST

Mrs. Marjorie McBride Daugherty, like her sister, has become quite a newspaper woman. She is now writing in the Sunday edition of the Boston Advertiser, taking care of the feature writing and editing the woman's department. She started as a cub reporter, but her possibilities were soon noticeable and advancement came rapidly.

Her sister, Maxine, who wrote for the New York Sun, is now a story writer and her contributions are accepted as fast as she can get them out. Two stories are published in the March Delinquent and also in the March American.

Mrs. Daugherty recently interviewed Mary Pickford and Ray Francis, movie stars. Word has been received from Washington that Congressman George Foulkes, Democratic leader, will be present. The list of speakers will include Governor William A. Comstock, Attorney General Patrick O'Brien, James Mogan, head of the sales tax department, and M. Thomas Ward, first assistant attorney general.

Music for the dance will be furnished by Herb Van Duren and his orchestra. The Misses Cornelia and Margaret Stryker, Hope college students, will present several feature numbers.

Mrs. Nellie Vander Meulen's Sunday school class of Third Reformed church will meet this Friday, evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ray Soderberg, West Twelfth street.

KITCHEN IN ZEELAND HALL

Already many requests have come in for the use of the new Zealand City Hall and the "city fathers" are planning how best to handle this situation. The Metropolitan Club will get the first date, March 12, except a couple of caucuses. A charge is to be made for the use of the kitchen of $1.00 to $2.50. Holland should have a kitchen in its hall, then the mayor and alderman could "cook up" some thing. Anyway, if Zealand has as much use for a hall as Holland has they will find it a real convenience. The use of the Holland City Hall is simply a continuous performance.

BEAUTY GOES EVERYWHERE —EVEN IN ZEELAND

City Attorney Jarrett N. Clark reported to the Zealand common council on the petition signed by the beauty shops in the city and stated that there is no law or ordinance to prevent the beauty shop which is planning to locate there from doing so. Such matters have come up in Holland and other neighboring cities repeatedly with the same result. No state law or city ordinance may be drafted that will bring about restraint of trade.

OSBORN WILL TALK AT GANGES CHURCH

Word has been received at Ganges from former Gov. Chase S. Osborn from his winter home at Poulan, Ga., that he will be the speaker at the Ganges Methodist church Memorial day program. Mrs. Russell Knox of Ganges will be in charge of the program. Working way ahead of time. That's fine!

CATCHES GAME VIOLATOR THROUGH HIS TRUCK

The tracks of a sleigh in the snow led to the arrest of Alvin Paulsen, Manistiquie, on a charge of setting a net in Indian lake, Schoelcher county. Leo J. Mariatt and Frank Gengler, conservation officers, discovered the net while patrolling and noted the sleigh tracks. They followed them to a dwelling at Harrison Beach, where they obtained an affidavit from the occupant, incriminating Paulsen. Paulsen was found guilty by a jury and given the maximum jail sentence of 90 days.

MOUTH STAYS SHUT WHILE FROG SINGS

A frog does not open its mouth during the ordinary course of its singing, but it can scream with its wide mouth open when occasion demands. A frog being grasped by a large snake has been observed to do this piteously, making a startling noise.

LIQUOR STORES WILL CLOSE AT 6:30 P. M.

Retail liquor stores throughout the state will close at 6:30 p. m. instead of 7:30 beginning Feb. 26 with the exception of six Detroit stores, says an announcement by Frank A. Picard, chairman of the liquor control commission. Stores will continue to remain open until 9 o'clock Saturday nights.

The marriage of Miss Kathleen Dalman to Edward Nyland, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nyland, was announced by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beuwkes of this city. The ceremony took place Wednesday evening at the Beuwkes residence, 112 East Ninth street. Rev. Henry D. Ter Kuiper, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, performed the double-ring ceremony under an archway decorated in pink and white. Other decorations consisted of a large white bell and bouquets of mixed flowers. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Berger of Holland. The bride looked charming in a gown of light blue crepe and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. Immediately after the ceremony a three-course dinner was served to the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Nyland will make their home at Montello Park after March 15. The bride is a graduate of Holland high school. Mr. Nyland is employed by the Brummer and Fredrickson hatchery.

The Flying Dutchmen noised out the Kalamazoo Laundrys in an overtime game, 29 to 28, Tuesday evening. Cook of the Flyers, tossed in the deciding free throw after the fourth period, which ended 27-all. Spoletta with 12 points, led the locals in scoring. The Laundrys were paced by Hackadonian, who tossed in 13 points for the visitors. The Holland five was ahead until the last quarter, when the Shaw brothers furnished the offensive spark necessary to give the preliminary a thrilling ending.

The Bay View Furniture Co. Is 36 Years Old

MR. PELGRIM, SR., HAS BEEN THE HEAD ALL THIS TIME

The Bay View Furniture Co., one of the oldest furniture factories in this city, is celebrating its thirty-sixth birthday today, and it has quite a record to show in the way of unusual circumstances. Henry Pelgrim, Sr., has been secretary and treasurer all this time, and Peter De Spelder and John Vander Veen, both of this city, have also been directors during these many years. William Lawrence, former alderman of the fourth ward, and John Breen have been with the firm since its inception and are still in the work shop of the Bay View.

George Pelgrim, the president, states that the books show that the average number of wage earners during these 36 years were a little over 100; that 20,000 pieces of furniture were turned out and sold annually during that time on the average.

The total amount of taxes paid has been $85,000, and the wages paid was a trifle over $2,000,000. Before the Bay View occupied the building it was for a short time utilized by a local organization called the Carriage and Bending Works, conducted by Mr. Den Blyker of Kalamazoo. That was before the advent of the automobile. Considerable local capital was invested but the enterprise did not prove successful and lay idle for about a year when the Bay View Furniture company bought the building and this furniture industry has been a going concern ever since.

Since the Bay View acquired the building 36 years ago it has been enlarged repeatedly and is now considerably larger than the old original structure.

NEWS ITEMS TAKEN FROM THE FILES OF HOLLAND CITY NEWS FIFTY, TWENTY-FIVE AND FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

A little stranger put in an appearance at the Dr. O. E. Yates home at River and 11th Sts. It's a girl. Note: The home was located on the City Hall site in a sort of "sunk gardens," owned first by Dr. Ledeboer, one of Holland's first mayors. Dr. Yates also became mayor of this city. All this was long before a city hall was thought of on that site.

John Kolvoort and G. Travis of Hamilton have purchased 20 acres of land there and are to start a brick yard. Note: There has been a brick yard at Hamilton for some years.

Brother Leonard Mulder of De Grandt was again the father of a boy. The youngster came on Friday, Washington's birthday, and his name is Marinus.

Jacob G. Fry, Post No. 46, G.A.R., Ganges, will give an entertainment at Lamoreaux Hall, Pennville, Tuesday. Note: Undoubtedly both post and hall are a thing of the past.

The stove factory of Jos. Fixten on River and 5th Sts., on Black lake, will begin running Monday. Over 5,000 cords of stove bolts are ready to cut and shaped into barrel staves. Note: Most of these bolts were brought to town by farmers on hob-sleighs, but that was when Holland was surrounded by woodland. The woods disappeared and the factory was through.

SENIOR PLAY AWAITS AUDIENCE

A full evening of wholesome entertainment awaits you at the Holland high school auditorium on March 19, 20, 21 and 22. This is a simple, engaging, refreshing play of well-blended humor and sentiment. The story is taken from Joseph C. Lincoln's widely read story "Shavings."

The outstanding and dominating character is a lovable, sweet-natured, self-suppressing philosopher, grown old before his time and foolishly regarded by the natives as a harmless crank, worthy of the name of "Shavings." This difficult role is carried by Mayo Hadden, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Hadden of 106 West Eleventh street. Excellent work is being done by this young man and he is supported by an exceptional cast.

The tranquility of his life is undisturbed until a beautiful widow and her little daughter rents his cottage and then begins the romance. The part of the young widow is played by Adelaide Kooler and the daughter is played by Irene Overbeek. Dramatic complications arise concerning the widow's brother, played by Glenn Loveland, who has served a prison term, and the village banker and his daughter, played by Lloyd Van Lente and Louise Schippa, respectively. The village skink, played by Gordon Greenowood, his son, portrayed by Homer Loker, a major in the aviation corps, done by Herbert Harrington, a village gossip, played by John Stokes, and a salesman, portrayed by Donald Elferding, complete the great variety of characters.

The play is singularly effective in its appealing scenes, and it is always as clean and refreshing as a breeze from the very hills of New England.

Friend "Abe" did not pay much attention to the half century "milestone" and at 24 East 9th St. he had settled for an evening at home with "Mrs." a big, black cigar, the large easy chair and the Literary Digest. These comforts for the night were short lived when a dozen friends crashed the portals and deposited an appropriate token of esteem—and a good time was had by all. Thousands Are Zeeland Guests At Dedication

TODAY, FRIDAY, WINDS UP
THREE-DAY CELEBRATION

In our last issue the Holland City News painted the picture as well as the dedicatory program of Zealand's new city hall, a very commodious and serviceable building.

Wednesday was rural day and the whole countryside was present. The auditorium seating 700 could not begin to accommodate the guests who filled every part of the building even to the basement. There were at least 1,500 ruralists present.

The farmers were given a feast at noon and not less than 2,000 bushels of potatoes, a barrel of sauer kraut, hundreds of frankfurters, pounds of beans and gallons of coffee were served. A program was presented as follows:

After the invocation by Rev. H. E. Oostendorp, an address of welcome was given by Mayor J. H. DePree, with responses by Alex. Klooster of Jamestown.

Chairman M. C. VerHage presented J. W. Calland of Decatur, Indiana, field representative of the Michigan Central Sugar company, who stated that the present plan of 50 per cent co-operative contract was a gold mine for the sugar beet farmer. M. R. Allen of the Lake Shore Sugar Co. of Holland, urged the beet growers to sign contracts as soon as possible. J. D. Kelly of the Holland plant discussed field problems.

The farmers interested in sugar beet growing passed a resolution authorizing the sending of telegrams to Senators Vandenberg and Couzens and Representative Carl E. Jones asking them to make every effort to prevent the passing of any legislation by congress which might injure the beet sugar industry.

Paul Van Dienne spoke on "Federal Farm Loans." A one-act comedy, "Troubled by Ghosts," was presented by the Forest Grove players. Music for the dinner was furnished by the high school German band.

At 6:30 p. m., a supper was given to 125 CWA workers who were employed in the construction of the building. The program included invocation by Rev. R. J. Vandenberg, address by Mayor DePree, music by the CWA quartet and the Hill Billies, and movies. The American Legion band furnished music during the supper.

Today, Thursday, three of Zealand's old citizens have come back and are taking part in this program on the second day, namely Dr. Wynand Wichers, president of Hope college, President Chris De Jong of the University of Chicago and Stanley De Pree of Ann Arbor, who is an artist of note. It is said that more than 2,000 are thronging Zealand today.

The last day, Friday, Zealand will be host to the counties and cities in the neighborhood and Holland's mayor and aldermen and city officials together with newspapermen have a special invitation not only to see the city hall but also to have a smoker.

Zeeland is certainly doing the thing fine and Holland is pleased that the city is adorned with a fine, commodious and serviceable city hall which is an ornament to that substantial town.

FURTHER TOXOID TREAT- MENTS IN RURAL SCHOOLS

Toxoid treatments for prevention of diphtheria will be given in several schools of the county during March. The present type of treatment requires two injections. These are given three weeks apart. A group of 120 children, many of them under 1 year of age, were given this treatment a few weeks ago. These were carefully watched every day for any reactions. In this entire group there were no reactions other than slight redness at the point of injection in very few cases. The treatments are recommended to be given as soon after six months of age as possible.

EDITORIAL ... WHATEVER YOU DO—VOTE!

Monday is primary day and Holland has never had such an array of candidates as this year. There are men in all walks of life running for the different offices, a fine field to select from. On the whole they are public-spirited citizens whom we sincerely believe have the interests of the city at heart. Up to now the campaign has been rather clean, far and above the campaigns in other cities not so far away.

On the first page of section 3 of this issue will be found a complete ballot such as will be given you at each polling place. It is well to study this ballot carefully, picking the men for their respective offices who are eminently qualified to serve.

However, whatever you do, no matter who your choice is, do not forget that God-given right to vote at the polls. In this Republican form of government you are given that prerogative to use and not to abuse.

The most disgusting citizen is the one who continually kicks on the sidelines against the order of things and against the men or women who succeed to office and the kickers themselves, you will find, have not voted and are in a measure responsible that the right official had not been elected.

True Americans use their voting power while those who are neglectful continuously kick aside their right of citizenship which no one else denies them.

Vote Monday!

DOLLAR DAY!

Thursday has been and today is Dollar Day in Holland. Scores of merchants have some very fine bargains to be secured for "one buck" (pardon the expression). The news contains several Dollar Day ads and you are a ruralist, drive into town and see if you can't find it easy to make a tour of the shopping districts. Practically all merchants have exceptional bargains this week. Not a few are carrying their sales day over even into Saturday as will be seen in some of the announcements in this issue of the News.

Anyway whether Dollar Day bargains or other kinds the merchants of this city are doing their best to give substantial price and quality.

We welcome you to Holland.

WE ARE SORRY

Because of last minute advertising and belated news the sugar beet essay of Miss Bettie Chapman will be held over to next week.

SON OF FORMER BLOOD- HOUND MAN ACQUITTED

Albert Bonner, aged 30, Coopersville, charged with the larceny of 100 bushels of grain from the farm of Cornelius DeMeestra, Polkton farmer, was found not guilty yesterday morning after the jury had been out about one and a half hours.

The case was begun Monday morning. The chief witness for the people were William Cook, serving time at the Ionia Reformatory, and Jack Bloomshine, Muskegon, on probation for larceny. Character witnesses were introduced by the defendant who testified that the above witnesses were known for falsehoods and general unreliability.

Mr. Bonner is a son of A. E. Bonner, bloodhound raiser, and ex-deputy sheriff of Ottawa county. There was considerable interest in the case and the court room was filled with interested listeners from here and Coopersville.

The theft of grain was made on August 14. The chief witnesses claimed Bonner was with them and that the grain was carried away in bags on an automobile. Officers attempted to trace the theft later by means of a patch of grain which grew up in the vicinity of where the car had been driven and which is believed grew as the result of a rip in one of the bags which spilled out a quantity of oats. Charles E. Misner was the attorney for the defense.

BAND CONCERT IN BORCULO

EVANGELISTIC MEET- INGS AT LAKETOWN

Rev. C. W. Meredith, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church at Holland, and also of the church at Laketown, has secured the services of Rev. Henry Dekker of Shelby, Michigan, for a two weeks' meeting at the Laketown church.

The meetings will begin on Monday evening, March 5. Rev. Dekker is well known in Laketown community, having passed the mail through that section for eighteen years, and later having owned and managed the Laketown store. Rev. Dekker left the community when he went to Cincinnati, Ohio, to prepare for the ministry. Since leaving Bible school in Cincinnati, he has been preaching at various churches in northern Michigan. This will be his first appearance as a preacher in that community. Rev. Dekker's son, Rev. Willard Dekker, who is also preaching in northern Michigan, will assist in the meetings also.

Services will be held each evening at 7:45 p. m. (fast time) except Saturday. Sunday services will be held at 2 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services.

Mrs. Bert Ten Brink's group of the women's home missionary society of First Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. Willis Haeght, 301 East Eleventh street, this Friday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock.

EDWY C. REID

The editor of the Holland City News wishes to contribute his humble testimonial and heart-felt congratulations and best wishes to Edwy C. Reid, who from his very youth up has spent his life in a newspaper office, and for more than six decades has honored the profession—conducting a most worthy publication of his own, namely the Allegan Gazette.

The state papers have been filled with resumes of the accomplishments wrought by this man from the "printer's devil" period at 16 until his birthday anniversary at 82. These are most eventful years and not only has Allegan, his city, benefited by them, but Allegan and Ottawa Counties and Western Michigan as well.

Your editor conducted the Holland City News at the age of 20 and is still in the harness at 62. Brother Reid may not know it, but through his publication I have "sat at the feet" of this illustrious and able editor to learn, to absorb, and to acquire for my own, many of the lessons he taught through his columns.

Mr. Reid typifies the finest traits, the highest character and the staunchest loyalty dominant in the best of American manhood, and these traits have been paramount in his publication from week to week. Mr. Reid stands for wholesome living, for law obedience, civic and religious uplift, and for all such things as make a city and its environs one of wholesomeness, carrying with it civic development and civic pride.

The files of the Allegan Gazette will show many vitriolic contributions. However, these thoughts and exposures were in the cause of right and righteousness. Even the enemies of yesteryear, a little mellowed with time no doubt, admired his courage and his honesty of purpose. Caustic as he could sometimes be through his columns, he was in reality a man with a benevolent nature, had sympathetic understanding, but withal justice dominating his make-up.

A "biting" pen in one hand and a beautiful rose in the other—that was the paradoxical characteristic of Mr. Reid. While he wrote for right and sometimes bitterly, bitterness did not permeate his being. His cause expounded, he turned to flowers and the beautiful things in nature; he watched grow what Almighty God alone could create. Edwy Reid could fight his foes with a smile and could extend the warm hand of friendship after the battle was over.

The editor of the Holland City News extends to Mr. Reid his earnest felicitations and may God spare him not alone to Allegan but also to his neighbors for some time longer—is our sincere wish.

ANNOUNCEMENT

INTRODUCING CANDIDATE FOR POLICE COMMISSIONER TO THE CITIZENS OF HOLLAND:

On Monday, March 5, you will have an opportunity to vote for a candidate as member of the board of police and fire commissioners. This is an office that can take much of one's time and gives nothing in return, except the satisfaction of doing something worthwhile for the best interests of the City of Holland.

I have placed my name in nomination and if elected will do my part. My knowledge of politics is very limited, but if you want to know about the best machine for fabricating lumber and making the finest furniture, I can tell you much about it. I came to Holland in 1901 by the way of Allegan and the Ypsilanti State Normal college, when our public schools needed a chemical and physical department to place and keep it on the University of Michigan approved list. Thus I am greatly interested in education and our public school system, which is second to none in the state, for a city the size of Holland.

My summers were spent managing Post & Everett's new hotel at Waukegan, when the easiest way to get there was in Captain Frank Van Ry's "Gladys," or Captain Andy Harrington's more palatial "Post Boy."

Later, from the University of Michigan, I was stationed at Omaha with the Union Pacific Railroad Company on Boiler Waters, and from there in 1906 went out to Somerset West, near Cape Town, South Africa, as chemical engineer on power and supplies, and finally as chemist on high explosives for the DeBeers Diamond Co., or explosives works as it was called.

For the past 25 years I have been connected with the Buss Machine Works on West Eighth street.

I am giving this brief outline of my past experience and qualifications for the benefit, particularly, of the citizens of our city with whom I am not personally acquainted.

Your support at the polls next Monday will be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully yours,
M. EVERETT DICK,
113 West Eleventh Street.

HOLLAND C. OF C. OBJECTS TO FURNITURE PROJECT

Holland Chamber of Commerce Wednesday wired its protest to Congressman Carl E. Mapes against the proposed $500,000 federal furniture factory in West Virginia. The message reads: "With hundreds of unemployed men, women, boys and girls and idle furniture factories hungering for business, Holland regards the proposed factory as economic folly. Michigan is one of the six big federal tax-paying states and we will be obliged to pay heavily to construct this needless building to take bread from the mouths of our own people. Holland factories are equipped to supply the post office department with is furniture needs."

Congressman Mapes led the fight that led Wednesday to the adoption of an amendment to the post office appropriation bill Wednesday to prohibit the use of certain specified funds for a projected government furniture factory at Reedsville, West Virginia. Mrs. Roosevelt's project. Mapes opposed the appropriation on the ground that it would put the government into competition with privately owned furniture factories suffering severely from the depression.

PIEPER OPTICS DEFEATED
BY G. R. KROGERS

The Grand Rapids Kroger basketball team defeated the Pieper Optics by a score of 28 to 27 in a thrilling game at Beechwood school Saturday evening.

The Krogers grabbed an early lead and were ahead at the first quarter, 9 to 4, and at the half, 14 to 11.

The Piepers came back strong in the third quarter and grabbed a 16 to 19 lead. In the final period Dykstra, Pieper center, was hurt when he collided with a Kroger player and hit the wall and was forced to leave the game. This proved to be a bad break for the Piepers as the Krogers soon pulled up and were 1 point behind with about 30 seconds to go when Novakowski slipped in a basket to win the game for the Krogers.

Pascual Costello, the handsome boy from the West, won the main go over the veteran Jim "Moon" Mellin, on last week's card in the local ring. Mellin secured the first fall in 22 minutes with a body slam and a quick knee pin. Costello gained the second fall in 12 minutes with the use of his well developed drop kick and the third and deciding fall also went to him when "Moon" Mellin missed on a flying Sonnenberg butt and fell out of the ring onto the floor.

The semi-windup saw Vern Clark of Omaha, Nebraska, take the bad boy Benny Wilson of Fort Worth, Texas. Clark won the first fall in 16 minutes with a few hard tackles and a pin. The second fall came in 13 minutes with the referee, L. Z. De Witt of Grand Rapids awarding it to Clark because of Wilson's dirty tactics.

Promoter Conroy also announced that he will have Pete Paneroff of Battle Creek working the 1 hour semi-go against Kenneth Bannard of Sturgis, Michigan. Slim and Jim of station WOOD fame will again entertain during the rest periods with their quaint songs and harmony. Also that due to the Fifth district Democratic organization banquet at the Masonic temple on Monday, March 5, he will have his wrestling show on Tuesday, March 6.

Holland Plant Will Operate Coming Season at 100 Per Cent.

The employees of the H. J. Heinz Company, together with the local officials and representatives from the home office, gathered Thursday at Masonic temple, more than 300 in number, including the families of the men employed. The occasion was the first banquet of the recently organized "57 Club," organizations that play a part in the lives of H. J. Heinz Company employees everywhere.

It is very gratifying to the H. J. Heinz family here that the club enrollment included every employee or in other words, 100 per cent. The Eastern Star ladies were in charge of the banquet and the tables were neatly arranged and the decorations and other embellishments were patriotic and timely, appropriately marking the birthday anniversaries of our two greatest presidents.

The toastmaster for the evening was E. L. Fish, president of the "57 Club," and he ably introduced the speakers and announced the different innovations for the evening.

H. J. HEINZ, Founder.

Mr. J. A. Hoover, who has been the able manager of the local plant for a score of years, gave the address of welcome. He stated that the best of understanding existed between employer and employee in the Heinz plants everywhere and the Holland plant was no exception. He commended the amicable co-operation in the Heinz family at Holland and in closing lauded the name of the founder, who more than 65 years ago began the operation of Heinz products in a small dwelling house and that humble beginning was the nucleus of the tremendous organization that nearly encircles the globe.

Mayor Nicodemus Bosch, who was also present, extended the gathering greetings from the city, giving official recognition of the event. Mr. Bosch stated that it afforded Mrs. Bosch and him great pleasure to be a part of a gathering of this kind as guests and he paid the highest tribute to the local company, stating that it was an institution of which Holland was justly proud, an industry that not only brought a livelihood to labor but to the farmer as well.

Alfred Fairhead, retired Heinz salesman who served the company for more than 30 years, also greeted the club and introduced employees who had attained 20 and 10 year service medals.

The guest speaker of the evening was Mr. J. R. Bechtel of the home office in Pittsburgh, who brought greetings from Mr. Howard Heinz, son of the founder, now president of the organization. Mr. Bechtel told of "57 clubs" at

GOLD WATCHES GIVEN TO EMPLOYEES

Rather an interesting sidelight was brought out at the Heinz banquet when it was made known that the company gives gold watches and gold medals to faithful employees who had worked for the company 10 and 20 years.

In the United States, Canada and Great Britain 1974 gold watches were worn by employees having served 20 years and 734 gold medals to those who had served 10 years. Twelve of them were women.

In Holland six men are wearing gold watches and one lady. Twenty-eight men are wearing gold medals and two ladies.

The gold medals have a bust relief of the founder on one side and the name and the time of service of the man or woman on the other side. This inscription of service is also inscribed in the watch case.

other Heinz factories and of the wonderful opportunities these organizations afforded. He commended Holland upon its 100 per cent membership, and hoped that the Holland employees would enjoy the benefits that such an organization afforded.

Mr. Bechtel likened the character of Mr. H. J. Heinz, the founder of the company, to that of George Washington, whose birthday anniversary we are now celebrating. He stressed the earlier training in the life of our first president, pointing out that his uprightness, honesty, of purpose, industry, righteousness and his belief in Almighty God were paramount attributes throughout his life.

He also stressed the tremendous will power and determination of George Washington which sustained him in carrying through the objectives so necessary to fulfill those things that had to be in order that the colonies would be the nucleus to a great nation such as we are today.

The speaker said that much has been written relative to Washington's religious environments but enough is in evidence through letters, documents and tradition that stamped Washington as a devout religious man.

In closing, Mr. Bechtel gave very gratifying information that the Holland plant would be operated on a 100 per cent basis.

The toastmaster of the evening was E. L. Fish, president of the "57 Club." Invocation was by Rev. Thomas G. R. Brownlow of the Methodist church. The Holland High school brass quartet, composed of Richard Schaftner, John Olert, Connie Steketee and Frank Working, played during the dinner.

Following a brief intermission after the speeches, the club members and families were entertained by a program of talent of the employees. The "57" club orchestra played several numbers and a quartet composed of Walter Freestone, Blaine Timmer, E. L. Fish and Bernard Hill, sang several selections.

Four-year-old Donna McCormick presented a reading, "The Boy and His Stomach." Joyce McCormick offered a reading entitled "Jennie Entertaining Sister's Beau."

George Bosworth played a saxophone solo, and Miss Jeannette and Ren Alferink entertained with songs with guitar accompaniment.

"Guess Me" was the subject of a presentation by Ike Shagonaby, while Henry Holtgreits, Blaine Timmer, John Bouwman, John Wyman and Bernard Hill appeared in a humorous skit. Music was presented by a Hawaiian guitar quartet consisting of Miss Zwanetta Stegink, Miss Lydia Arens, Jim Rotman and H. Holtgreits.

Miss Hermine Derks read "A Cheerful Hostess," and the kitchen band was presented by eight employees. A budget was offered by Miss Harriet De Neff. The program closed with the group singing the strains of "Till We Meet Again."

C. B. McCormick, chairman of the entertainment and educational committee, had charge of the latter half of the program.

Anton Seif, Local Brewer Passes Away

BOUGHT OUT BREWERY HERE FROM E. F. SUTTON IN 1879

The funeral services over the remains of Mr. Anton F. Seif, Sr., took place Monday afternoon at Zion Evangelical Lutheran church, Rev. William Schumacher, the pastor, officiating. The church was crowded to capacity in respect to the pioneer brewer who died at the age of 87 years.

Mr. Seif died early Friday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Emil Zieske, 160 West Tenth street, after an illness of one month.

Mr. Seif was born in Germany October 9, 1849. He received his early education in the German schools, but was forced to leave school to support his widowed mother. He often spoke of his activity as a musician in a school band in Germany.

He came to this country a short time after the Chicago fire, and he worked in Chicago for some time. He gained his brewing experience as a youth in Germany, but improved his art in this country when he took up residence in Milwaukee.

He worked for two of the leading brewers of the "Cream City." It was in Milwaukee that he married and shortly afterward came to Holland.

In 1879 he formed a partnership under the name of Zeep and Seif, both of Milwaukee, and purchased what was then known as the Sutton brewery. This was a wooden structure with a few large vats and later was transformed under the proprietorship of Mr. Seif into a large brick structure. The Mr. Sutton mentioned in this article was the father of Walter Sutton of this city. Mr. Zeep's continuance with the firm was only of short duration. Most of the time the company was under the firm name of the Holland City Brewery.

The files also state that Mr. Seif secured a license to sell beer in bottles and kegs to the folks in the neighborhood who wanted beer. There were many beer drinkers in those days who did not visit saloons, but had a small keg sent to the house week-ends, which cost them $1.00, the price of a few bottles today.

Mr. Seif held the respect of the citizens of this community and was an orderly and law-abiding citizen all his life.

Mr. Seif has lived in Holland for 54 years and for 36 years in the brewing business in this city. He retired and the work was taken up by his son, Anton, Jr., who continued brewing until the Volstead law was made effective.

For a short time the buildings at the corner of Tenth street and Maple avenue were utilized for the manufacturing of fine cheese but this enterprise was found unprofitable. For the past ten years the Holland Hiteh company has occupied the buildings and some of the older ones were torn down.

One of the highlights of the brewing business in the olden days here was the harvesting of ice. It took weeks to fill the large ice houses and it took a small army of men, bob sleds and horses to draw the harvest from Black lake to Tenth street, where the cakes were drawn up a chute by a span of horses.

Mr. Seif was a public-spirited citizen and was one of the members of our earlier fire departments and hook and ladder companies, when our hose cart was composed of a two-wheel affair and drawn by men; later it was attached to a drag drawn by horses. This was before the advent of the water works and when Holland still had street wells placed at intervals near the crossings, generally dry when water was most needed.

Mr. Seif was a member of the local chapter of the Masonic Order, and also belonged to the Odd Fellows.

In addition he was a charter member of Zion Evangelical Lutheran church and liberally aided this congregation financially. He served as trustee of the church for a number of years.

Until Labor Day, 1932, he was active in spite of his retirement. On that day he was injured in a fall, and since the accident has not taken his long walks that had been a part of his every-day routine.

He leaves one daughter, Mrs. Zieske, and two sons, Peter of Milwaukee, and Anton, Jr., of this city. Four grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren also survive.

His body lay in state at Dyckstra funeral home and at the home of his son, Anton, Jr., 164 West Tenth street, where short prayer services were said before the services at the church.

At the home William E. Schumacher, accompanied by Gerard Hanchett, impressively sang a solo.

Burial was in the Seif family plot in Pilgrim Home cemetery. Pallbearers were J. A. Drinkwater, Karl Hansen, Harry Knipe, Herman Damson, G. Armbruster and J. Looman.

Among those from out of the city who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Seif, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Seif, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Seif, all of Milwaukee, and August and Edward Wunsch of Ravenna.

ALLEGAN FIRE TRUCKS ARE INSURED

Insurance policies, to protect the city and drivers of Allegan fire department trucks in both liability and property damage, were bought by the Allegan city council Monday night and go into effect at once.

All three of the city's trucks are covered with five and ten thousand dollar policies, covering liability and five thousand dollars covering property damage.

Trucks and firemen have been unprotected in the past and the new policies cover a one-year period at a cost of one hundred and sixty-eight dollars.

$10 WORTH OF MATCHES CAUSE $100,000 DAMAGE

More than one-half of all of the forest fires occurring in Michigan last year were caused by smokers and contrary to general belief it was the lighted match, carelessly tossed away, instead of lighted cigar or cigarette that caused most of them. This means that about ten dollars' worth of matches was responsible for a $100,000 property damage.

"Take the lighted match out of our woods and forest fires will be reduced almost 40 per cent," say the fire wardens. They point out that experiments have shown that the carelessly thrown cigarette or cigar butt will not always start a fire even in highly inflammable material, but the burning match, if tossed where there is any kind of vegetation, is certain to start a blaze.

This is something for every fisherman, hunter and camper to remember, for it is the unthinking few who are responsible for this unnecessary destruction each year and if they must continue to smoke while recreating they ought to make sure that their match is out before throwing it away.

DEADLINE FOR AUTO PLATES IS MARCH 10

Frank D. Fitzgerald, secretary of state, announced today he will extend the deadline for the purchase of new automobile license plates to March 10. Fitzgerald previously had set the extended deadline to March 1. Fitzgerald said he was making the extension independent of any requests from the legislature. Two resolutions urging him to grant an extension to April 1 had been introduced in the legislature. Fitzgerald said the March 10 date would be the last extension regardless of any action by the legislature on the resolutions. He said the so-called sticker plan for installment purchase plates should offer sufficient relief for those who are unable to pay the full price at this time.

Many Game Violators In State January

MORE THAN HALF FOR ILLEGAL FISHING; TRAPS AND GUNS ARE TAKEN

Fishing law infractions in January during which the new law requiring possession of a license for inland lake fishing was enforced for the first time, topped the list of all game law violations numbered for the month. This is shown in the monthly report of the Division of Field Administration, Department of Conservation. One hundred ninety-one persons were apprehended in Michigan during January for game law violations of various kinds. More than half that figure, 103, were taken into custody for infractions of the fishing laws. Forty-two individuals were apprehended for fishing without the formality of obtaining a license. Conservation officers, throughout Michigan, the report shows, laid emphasis during the month on the necessity of observing the new law requiring a license for fishing on inland lakes, as well as on trout streams in season. While the regulations became effective for the first time in the conservation history of Michigan, officers' reports showed that neglect and carelessness in many instances were responsible for offenses instead of ignorance of the law.

Of the remaining arrests, 55 were for violations of the game laws, 24 for illegal trapping, four for buying furs without a license, two for possession of moose hide and meat, two for failing to report furs and one for destruction of timber on state lands. Fines totaling $597 and costs, amounting to $841.65, were collected. Fines and costs aggregating $197.50 were assessed to be paid later. A total of 869 days in jail sentences was imposed, 15 violators placed on probation and fines suspended in 70 cases. One offender was dismissed, seven cases were lost and five respondents appealed to circuit court. Total arrests for the month, the report shows, was one less than that for December. There was a decrease of nearly 100 per cent in hunting violations and nearly 200 per cent in trapping offenses as compared to December. Fishing violations increased 500 per cent in January over the previous month. Conservation officers reported confiscation of 128 traps, seven shotguns and three rifles. Approximately 400 pounds of fish and venison were taken and turned over to welfare agencies. Twenty-five muskrats, two raccoon and mink pelts and part of a moosehide were confiscated.

Fishing law violations were divided as follows: Fishing without a license, 42; illegal spearing, 34; possession of speared walleyed pike, 3; exceeding legal limit, 3; attempting to catch trout, 2; illegal possession of fish, 2; spearing in closed season, 1; possession of underize fish and fishing with too many ice lines, 2. Hunting without a license caused arrest of 12 persons, illegal possession of venison, 4; trapping or taking muskrat in closed season, 7; killing deer in closed season, 4; killing deer, 3; netting in inland waters, 2; carrying a rifle in deer area without permit, 3; possession of a shotgun and buckshot in closed deer area, 2; possession of pheasant in closed season, 1; setting untaxed traps, 2; and trapping without a license and in closed season, 1 each.

We spent years in developing our own tomato seed and our farmers use this pedigree seed or tomato plants we grow especially for them to use. We prepare the tomatoes and set them to slow simmering the day they are picked—for freshness. We blend in spices which we know are pure and fine because we go clear round the world to select them in person. We seal the Ketchup while still hot, to keep its flavor fresh. That's the way we make the largest selling ketchup in the world.

ZEELAND

The Zeeland fire department was twice called on today to answer alarms from country residences. The first alarm came at 4 o'clock this morning when the barn on the farm of Martin Glass, 4 1/2 miles north of Zeeland, was destroyed. In the barn were 13 head of cattle, 2 horses, 300 chickens and considerable farm equipment, all of which were lost. The loss was set at $4,000. The Zeeland department was unable to save the barn, but did succeed in saving the home and other buildings which were threatened by the flames. The loss is partly covered by insurance. Again at 6 p. m., the fire department was called out, this time to the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cowle, 3 miles northwest of town, where the residence was destroyed, despite the efforts of the department. The flames, which had started in the roof, supposedly from chimney sparks, had gained such headway that efforts to extinguish it were futile. The flames were fanned by a northwest gale and spread so rapidly Mr. and Mrs. Cowle were unable to save anything but the clothing they were wearing. The loss was set at $3,000 with no insurance.
