U. S. Presidents Find Origin in The Netherlands

ROOSEVELT FAMILY TREE
TRACED TO LITTLE
DUTCH VILLAGE
IN ZEELAND

An investigation conducted by representatives of the Holland-America Line to find the family seat of the Roosevelts in Holland has brought to light evidence that the ancestors of the family that gave two presidents to the United States, originally came from the little town of Oud Vossemeer, in Zeeland. In this village of only 2,000 inhabitants, on the island of Tholen, the official records show that generations ago the Roosevelt family were leading citizens and the Roosevelt coat of arms is prominently displayed on the mantelpiece over the fireplace in the town hall.

J. J. Versluys, mayor of Oud Vossemeer, is now conducting an official investigation among the archives to link the Roosevelts of the Zeeland village with the ancestors of the late President "Teddy" and the now President Roosevelt. The name Roosevelt turns up frequently in the history of Oud Vossemeer. In some cases it is spelled with one "O", but the spelling of proper names was hardly fixed during the 18th century; people often spelled their names in different manners in different documents, thus it made no difference whether the name was spelled with one or two "O's", whether it ended in a "d" or "t",

JAMES DE YOUNG
President of the Board of Public Works

WHY HOLLAND VOTERS SHOULD VOTE "YES" ON THE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS AMENDMENTS

It is of vital importance that the voters of Holland next Monday vote "yes" on the changes in the charter as these relate to the Board of Public Works. It is imperative that this vote be favorable in order to further continue the workings of the Board of Public Works in an orderly way.

To show how vital these changes are at this time is indicated by the following interview in questions and answers given by our venerable citizen James De Young, present president of the Board of Public Works, often mayor of the city of Holland, and for a long time superintendent of the Board. Mr. De Young has been a most trusted citizen and he knows by personal experience what the needs of the Board of Public Works are, and the business policies necessary, to continue the unprecedented success of the past into the future. This is what Mr. De Young has to say:—

1. Do you approve of the proposed Amendments to the City Charter?

Yes, I approve of them because they will enable the Board of Public Works to continue the operation of the Water and Electric Power Plants in the same efficient and profitable manner as heretofore.

2. Why are the Charter Amendments necessary to enable the Board of Public Works to continue the operation of these plants as heretofore?

From the time that the Water and Electric Plants became profitable it has been the custom to use these profits in improvements and extensions to the plants. Beginning with 1923 a large portion of the profits of the plants have also been used by the Common Council to pay the City's bonds as they came due and also for such other City purposes as the Common Council deemed wise. Sometime last fall the question arose as to the authority of the Common Council to use or authorize the use of more money in any one year than 1 1/2% of the assessed valuation of the City without the approval of the taxpayers, and the City Attorney was asked for his opinion on the matter.

Mr. Parsons decided that the Common Council had no such authority, and Mr. Parsons' opinion was upheld by the State Attorney General. The proposed Charter Amendments are principally for the purpose of giving the Common Council this authority, which it now lacks, and which will enable the City to receive the full benefit of its Municipal Water and Electric Plants. Is the taxpayer justified in believing that the Amendments will give the Board of Public Works too much power?

No—No money in excess of $500.00 could be used for any one project without the approval of the Common Council.

4. Should the taxpayer feel that some of his rights are being taken away by the Amendments?

No—The proposed Amendments will merely legalize the practices heretofore followed in the use of the surplus earnings of the Water and Electric Power Plants. What defense have you for the so-called violations of the Charter in the past?

No defense at all—We need none. When the present City Charter was adopted no one imagined that the Water and Electric Plants, and especially the Electric Plant, would turn out to be such a gold mine for the City as they now are, and no adequate provision was made in the Charter for the proper management of the Plants. The proposed Amendments will correct this condition.

6. Will the City—and the taxpayer in turn—suffer if the Amendments are defeated?

Yes, I think so. If the Amendments are defeated it will be necessary to hold a special election every time an extension or improvement to the plants must be made which requires amounts in excess of $1,000.00. Since improvements and extensions are constantly being made, this would require many special elections which would mean an additional expense to the City and also cause delays which would seriously impair plant operations. Further, if an accident to either the Water or Electric Plants should occur and the cost to repair same exceeded $5,000.00, nothing could be done until after an election was held and the taxpayer authorized the use of enough money to make the necessary repairs. Under such conditions it would be impossible to keep the Plants in their present highly efficient condition, and in my opinion they would soon run down, become inefficient and unprofitable. In this way the City, and in turn the taxpayer, will suffer if the Amendments are defeated.

The proposed Charter Amendments have the unanimous approval of the Common Council and the Board of Public Works, and if the people of Holland believe that their Water and Electric Plants have been well managed in the past, they should give the Amendments their unanimous approval.

With your permission I would like to give some of the facts concerning the Holland City Water and Electric Plants. The total gross investment in the Water Plant to December 31, 1935 is $546,848.59. The total gross investment in the Electric Plant to December 31, 1935 is $1,420,088.38. Both plants have paid for themselves and cost the city nothing. In addition to paying for themselves, they have given the people of Holland services of the highest class at the lowest prices. Further, from the surplus earnings of the two plants the City has received $745,713.34. This money was used

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The members of the Board of Education had quite a problem on their hands caused by children staying out of school and "running away" unthinkingly of a state law. The board on Feb. 8, 1886, had the matter up for discussion and that body then decided that children between the ages of 8 and 14 years shall be compelled to go to school. Further, that the Holland School Board is the best judge of whether children shall be educated. From other file copies it appears that some parents were very lax about sending their children to school, feeling "that the rearing of them was their business, not that of outsiders." When the law was enforced that situation was cleared away once and for all. Those on the school board, as the body was called then, were Rev. N. M. Steffens of the seminary, Rokus Kanters, Patrick H. McBride, C. J. De Roo, Dr. Henry Kremers, E. J. Harrington. All have passed away except Mr. De Roo, often mayor, who now lives in Flint. All but Mr. Steffens, the men above were mayors of Holland.

We are informed that 29 cottages will be built at "Park Grove" on the banks of Macatawa Bay near Scott's Park House. The lots belong to former Mayor Edward J. Harrington. The cottages will be built for speculation. Note: The place was later called Harrington's Landing. There was quite a building boom later and the place was called Virginia Park. The late P. McCarthy built a sizeable hotel there called the Virginia which burned 25 years ago. Hub Harrington still owns much property there since a large tract originally was owned by his father. Even the new school was called Harrington school, showing the influence and bearing existing because of this early resort. And by the way it might be interesting to know that at "Harrington's Landing" you will find the deepest part of all Black Lake—the depth there is nearly 60 feet.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James A. Browner, Sunday morning, Feb. 14, a daughter.

Jacob G. Van Putten, who served as deputy city marshal, declined to serve further and Frank Van Ry, a big sailor, was appointed in his place and from all appearances he will fill the bill. Note: The late Mr. Van Putten was postmaster, alderman, mayor and head of the Holland Furniture Co. Frank Van Ry has been a lake captain, was marshal, so elected, became sheriff and now for 25 years has been chief of police here, with a slight intermission only, and he is still running strong despite his three score and ten.

The Holland City News has just completed its 15th volume. We consider it the best weekly published in this country—Evening Tribune, Grand Haven. Note: There were a column of tributes from the Cedar Springs Clipper, Fremont Indicator, Vriehuis Baster, Detroit Evening Journal, Grand Haven Courier-Journal, Muskegon Social Drift, De Groot, Grand Rapids Telegram, Coopersville Observer, etc. The paper then was edited by Will Rogers, who has long since passed away. The News has added 50 more years to these 15 and your editor has been in charge and is entering his 45th year of service covering this last 50 years. We hope that we have lived up to the high mark made by "Bill" of a half century ago who was an able scribe as is indicated in the many newspaper comments at the time. With the 23rd day of February, 1872, the Holland City News "saw the light of day" and so did the present editor. The founder of the paper then was Dr. Morris and we sincerely hope that competitive jealousy was not the reason for omitting my name from the birth list.

VETERANS SHOULD HURSTLE UP ON BONUS

Russell Rutgers Clothing Emporium on the second floor of the Vander Veen building, is still open evenings to take care of veterans of the World War in order to get their bonus papers made out and adjusted.

While this will be headquarters during the day for some time yet, the place will not be open during the evening after a few days.

The stragglers always seem to have all the time in the world, but commander Fred Sundin of the Veterans of Foreign Wars urges all veterans who have not taken care of this important matter to do so at once.

250 veterans have already complied at that office and, jointly, nearly 200 at the Red Cross at the City Hall and at Legion Headquarters at the Holland City State Bank.

THE BAD ACTING MONKEY GETS A FAMILY AT HER NEW HOME AT BROOKFIELD CHICAGO

Quite an event has taken place in the world at Brookfield, Ill. near Chicago which was completed after many years of building. It will be remembered that George F. Getz, for many years Holland's Santa Claus at Lakewood Farm, disbanded his zoological gardens here and the jungle animals, including the monkeys and elephants, tigers and lions, etc. were all shipped from Holland to this large Brookfield Park.

It seems that one of the obstreperous monkeys, called Sally, who always shook her cage and made more noise than the hundreds of others taken together, struck up an acquaintance with a similar species of monkey, named Mike. The result is fully given in the Chicago American under the caption, "Baby 'Chimp' Thrives at Brookfield Zoo."

(Chicago American) For twelve days the Chicago Zoological Park at Brookfield has been in such a dither that it completely forgot to announce a birth—Adam, two pounds, male, born to Sally and Mike, chimpanzees, in the monkey house.

With a twelve-day start pretty well assured that the baby will live, the officials are able to calm down enough between feedings to herald the unique event.

Robert Bean, assistant director, who named Adam and is prouder of him than Adam's pappy and mammy, said today:

"Sally's a wonderful mother. It looks as though the baby will live. Only one chimpanzee born in this country has lived beyond the first year, one in Toledo. None has ever been born in Chicago before. The entire battle is whether the mother will supply holds out, and Sally is plentiful. She's a perfect mother."

Sally was kind of a mean character before Adam arrived. She was kept in a reinforced cage while the monkey house was being built, and particularly disliked women. But now, says Mr. Bean:

"Her disposition is much better. She will let any one feed her bread and water and likes to have her back scratched. Formerly she was choosy about her friends. She didn't like me, and only one keeper in the monkey house was in her good graces. When the baby came Sally took his mouth in hers and blew breath into the little body. When he first cried five minutes later she was delighted."

PAPA DOES A JIG.

"Mike was so excited he kept screaming and dancing around. He was in the cage with her, and when he's allowed to see Adam now he sits caviars."

Adam is covered with long, black silky hair and eats or sleeps all the time. Sally holds him constantly and won't release him to anybody.

Sally weighs 110 pounds and was brought here from the George Getz zoo in Holland, Mich. Mike weighs 150 pounds, was born in Africa, and visited Cuba and Hollywood before settling down in Brookfield.

It is rather interesting to know that some of the Lakewood farm staff from Holland went to Brookfield when the zoo was transferred two years ago and have since made good as caretakers. Those who left Holland for their new home are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Ryenga, Mr. Morris Ryenga and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodruff.

Editorial

THOSE AMENDMENTS

The voters of Holland will be called upon Monday to vote not only on a ballot from which will be chosen our next public official staff, but they will also be called upon to vote a second ballot containing two amendments. These amendments have to do with the handling of funds by the Board of Public Works and Common Council, jointly.

On this page in large type is a complete review in questions and answers given by Mr. James De Young, president of the Board of Public Works, in which he, in lucid and concise form, tells the voters why we should vote "yes" on these amendments.

The questions and answers are clear cut and the reasons cannot possibly be misunderstood. The Holland City News endorses every word of it. Through fifty years of official life, Mr. De Young has never advised wrongly. The reasons why are written all over that honest face of his which appears on this page.

The News could not amplify on the reasons given by Mr. De Young. They cover everything. In short, our water and light plant was started in the "horse and buggy days" as a small outfit and we wrote the charter to fit the plant. The little one horse station has grown to be a tremendous public service institution of which we speak in millions. We are, however, still tied down to the $500 latitude expenditure clause, stipulated in the charter of two score years ago.

The fact of the matter is, the city officials and the Board of Public Works have violated this clause repeatedly. If they hadn't we wouldn't have had this blessed hospital of ours, a godsend to those who could not go abroad to be taken care of.

The earnings of the plant would not have paid thousands of dollars of city indebtedness in bonds, thereby saving interest and lowering the taxes. It would not have invested its surplus funds in government bonds and bought its own city bonds from which added money was derived, unless it violated the Charter.

Wonderful things have been accomplished, and while not strictly legal, every penny was honestly and judiciously spent making more money for the city through interest, others being a boon to the community. Holland would have been in a sorry plight indeed during that terrible 1933 when at least $100,000 was needed to feed its poor, had it not been for this avenue.

A break down at the plant might bring damages costing thousands of dollars, a break in the water mains might occur; a disabled turbine; a going wrong with any of the expensive machines that might deprive us of light or water; something might go "haywire" at our sewage disposal plant jeopardizing the health of the present charter. Applying the present charter it would mean that a special election would have to be held before any relief could be made available since no money could be legally used unless a special election as is now exacted by the Charter of 50 years ago, was complied with. And then, elections are sometimes misunderstood and might bring further delay. In the meantime there might be a possibility of a lightless or a waterless city augmented by a condition that might cause an epidemic.

Under such conditions and with such great responsibilities the kind of men now serving would be very reticent about serving further. But let it be said they have served faithfully, honestly and well without pay.

Our Board of Public Works and our able staff at the Board of Public Works office has made the money for us. They have handed Holland a $2,000,000 plant "on a silver platter" and not alone that, the plant has paid city debts, has thrown in a hospital and has given service par excellence at rates that are exceedingly low.

For instance, the Holland City News light and power bill, for all its presses, job printing and plenty of electric light besides an electric press heater was altogether an amount so low that to us it's a "big laugh" and about the least of our worries.

Vote "yes" on the two amendments simply to legalize a worthwhile policy, that because of the antiquated charter, has made it necessary to adopt policies that were not strictly legal.

Let us place the Board of Public Works and the Common Council on a legal basis in their business relations, so they will not be embarrassed any longer by charter regulations that applied 50 years ago, and that, like the "blue laws" are obsolete today.

CONDITIONS IMPROVING BUT DRAINAGE IS PROBLEM

Road conditions in Ottawa county have improved considerably since the thaw began and Carl T. Bowen, county engineer, estimated half of the county highways including all trunk lines and county roads, had been plowed. Many township roads were opened by the thaw.

The North Shore road to the coast guard station was opened this morning by county plows after the coast guards shoveled off the highest drifts. WPA shovel gangs leveled drifts on U.S. 31 between the bridges yesterday and the road was widened with plows. Similar steps were to be taken on all trunk lines where lanes were narrow.

M-21 between Holland and Grand Rapids is routed over low land under water, in many places reaching to ear door sill. Mr. Bowen said drains were being made to carry off the water.

Farmers organized in volunteer shovel gangs have been of great help, Mr. Bowen said.

Parsons Says Amendments Should Pass

CITY ATTORNEY ADVISES
VOTERS ON CHARTER
AMENDMENTS

City Attorney Elbern Parsons, the man who called the council's attention to the phases of the old charter under which the Board of Public Works had been working for a number of years, not altogether legally, stated to the News that the charter absolutely must be changed in order to have that Board and plant run efficiently. There are only two things they can do—have the charter changed to meet the needs of the Board of Public Works or continue as they have, which while honestly conducted thus far, is nevertheless illegal, Mr. Parsons contends.

Mr. Parsons with a committee of

ELBERN PARSONS
City Attorney

councilmen and city officials drafted the amendments found elsewhere in this issue and which will be one of the ballots voted.

Mr. Parsons says, "The needs for a change are imperative and we might as well change them in a business like way and legally so, rather than continue illegally and be hopelessly embarrassed when emergencies for the spending of money arise. The business of the Board of Public Works has far outgrown any assumptions made in the old charter. It must be strictly understood that the Board of Public Works and the Common Council are in full accord on this matter and jointly they will be held responsible for the city funds as of yore."

BELIEVE FLOOD DANGER ON GRAND RIVER LESSENER

Danger of high water was believed minimized today as the coast guard cutter Escanaba smashed its way toward the Grand Haven bridge over Grand River between the county seat and Ferrysburg, breaking ice in the channel to relieve pressure in case of high water.

The Escanaba docked yesterday soon after noon, having stopped at the coast guard station to take the power surfboat in its davits. The surfboat, to be sent to the flood districts of the Ohio and Mississippi river if necessary, was unloaded at the Grand Trunk dock ready for a flat car. District headquarters received no word after getting stand by orders yesterday morning from Chicago division headquarters.

The Escanaba was expected to return to Muskegon as soon as it had broken ice beyond the wing bridge on U. S. 31. This was accomplished about noon yesterday. River ice was from four to 12 inches thick and the cutter had no trouble. Lieut. Commander Olson had received no orders to return to aid Muskegon shipping, but anticipated them.

SECRETARY OF STATE TO SPEAK BEFORE EX- CHANGE CLUB

The Exchange Club next Monday noon is to have a real headliner. Orrville E. Atwood, Secretary of State, will be the guest speaker in Warm Friend Tavern and while he has given no subject, what he will say will be very interesting. Maybe he will tell us that auto licenses will be extended till April 1st, but we doubt that very much.

Mr. Atwood has had considerable experience in the state official business and he has many subjects to choose from.

Jake Fris, president of the organization, will open the meeting and Frank L. Lense will be called upon to introduce the state official. Landlord Lillard promises a good feed and there will also be musical diversion. As a special feature Mrs. Charles Miller and Mrs. Herman Weller will sing appropriate numbers that will fit into the occasion.

CANDIDATES TO BE VOTED ON IN HOLLAND AND PARK TOWNSHIP PRIMARIES

The ballots of Park and Holland Township to be voted on next Monday according to those candidates who filed in ample time for the spring primaries are as follows:

"TEDDY" ROOSEVELT

or whether it was preceded by "van". The town still counts three houses that have belonged to the Roosevelt family, and in Oud Vossemeer's Netherlands Reformed Church is a large brass chandelier that was donated by one of the ancestors of President Roosevelt. Engraved on the shiny brass is the inscription:

"Johannis van Roosevelt, in life schoolmaster in Scherpenisse, son of the late Pieter van Roosevelt, in life schoolmaster and sexton in Oud Vossemeer.

To and for the use of this church." In the little town hall of Oud Vossemeer, where mayor and aldermen sit in the same room and where the entire official life of the town is transacted, is found the most convincing evidence that the Roosevelt family originated there. The mantelpiece is decorated with the coats of arms of many of the ancient families, and in the upper right hand corner is the crest of the Roosevelts. The archives also show that a Zeeland farmer, Klaus Roosevelt, with his young wife, Janette Govers, centuries ago journeyed to America and the investigators are trying to find whether this couple were ancestors of our two presidents.

It was not until the town council began its investigation that the inhabitants of Oud Vossemeer realized that their Roosevelts and the two Presidents of the United States by that name were of the same family, and that their little town was in effect the cradle of the illustrious line. Today it is the main topic of conversation.

BALLOTS FOR NEXT MON- DAY IN THIS ISSUE

The entire city ballot, just as it will be handed to you at the polls will be found on the last page of this issue.

All the names of the city officials who are in this campaign, will be found in the proper places in this ballot.

Elsewhere will be found the ballots of the two Amendments. The printing of these ballots today gives you people time to study them in detail and closely before next Monday.

FALL FROM TRUCK FATAL TO

GIRL ON TRIP WITH FIANCE

Miss Bertha Troost, 23 years old, of Holland, Mich., was fatally hurt Saturday when she fell to the pavement at Harrison and Jefferson streets in Chicago from the cab of a truck driven by her fiancé, Garrett Kienstra, 27 years old, also of Holland. Kienstra said the young woman fell out when the cab door flew open as he was turning the corner into Jefferson street. She died shortly after Kienstra took her to St. Luke's hospital.

Kienstra and Miss Troost were soon to be married and that he brought her from Holland early Saturday to visit her uncle, Edward Johnson, 5204 Cullon avenue. He was held for the inquest Monday.—Chicago Tribune.

Miss Bertha Troost is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Troost, 172 W. 18th St.

The truck in question is owned by Lemmen Transfer Company of Holland and makes the runs between this city and Chicago.

The body of the young lady was taken from Chicago to Holland Monday night and the funeral services were held yesterday at 1:30 o'clock at the home and at 2 p.m. from the Fourth Reformed Church.

Rev. Henry Van Dyke officiating. Interment took place in Fairlawn Cemetery.

Friends were given an opportunity to pay their respects from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Tuesday at the home.

Miss Troost is survived by her parents, four sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Marvin DenHerdter of Grand Haven, Mrs. J. Klomparsen and Horace Troost of Muskegon, Mrs. Darius Smith of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Ben Molenaar and Charles Troost of Holland.

Gary Kienstra who attended the inquest, was released from custody when the police were convinced that the death of the young lady was purely an accident.

Miss Troost and Kienstra had planned to be married next month. She was riding with her fiancé in a truck operated for the Lemmen Transfer Co. of this city. They had left the city Friday evening.

Miss Troost planned to visit an uncle, Edward Johnson, 5024 Cullon Ave.

Before driving for the Lemmen Transfer Co., with whom he had been employed for the past six months, Kienstra was employed at the Geerts Electric Co. of this city.

Miss Troost was employed for several years at the Holland Shoe Co.

W. CURTIS SNOW

MEMORIAL CONCERT AT

TRACTS LARGE CROWD

The W. Curtis Snow Memorial Concert was held Tuesday evening in the Hope Memorial Chapel and more than 1,200 persons attended the concert which was one of the finest ever presented here. Opening the program with the two movements of Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony," the Holland Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Eugene F. Heeter, gave one of the finest performances since its organization six years ago.

In two stirring organ solos, Palmer Christian, University of Michigan organist, with whom Mr. Snow was studying, brought the powerful 4-manual Skinner organ to life in the playing of Cesar Franck's "Fantasie," and the familiar "Thou Art the Rock." Mulet, both favorite numbers of Mr. Snow.

Arthur Hackett, distinguished American tenor, followed with a powerful solo, "Sermon on the Mount," by Beethoven. He was accompanied on the organ by Mr. Christian.

A solo piano number was given by Joseph Brinkman of the University school of music. Mr. Brinkman was heard in a brilliant performance of Cesar Franck's difficult "Prelude, Choral and Fugue."

Closing numbers on the program were from Handel's "Messiah," the 150 voices of the Choral Union wailed into full voiced utterance under the inspired direction of Dr. Earl V. Moore of Ann Arbor.

Orchestra and organ were subservient to the chorus, fulfilling requirements in the difficult accompaniment. Solo parts were taken by Mr. Hackett, who gave a sympathetic interpretation of the recitative, "Thy Rebuke," and the aria, "Behold and See." The chorus sang "Behold the Lamb of God," "Worthy is the Lamb," and concluded with the magnificent "Hallelujah."

Dr. Wynand Wickers, president of Hope college, opened the memorial concert by paying tribute to Mr. Snow.

ICE 36 INCHES THICK

REPORTED ON S. LAKE

Jacob Vander Waken of Perryburg, veteran ice cutter, reported today that ice 30 to 36 inches thick has formed in Spring Lake. He cut ice yesterday around the Spring Lake Yacht club docks, to prevent ice from jamming and damaging the docks. He has several other places on the lake where he will cut away the ice.

At times, he said, the ice was so thick that the regular saws which are used were almost too short to saw through the unusual depth. He was formerly employed when ice was put up for summer supplies. During those days the usual thickness was between 12 and 18 inches. He says that there are several places in the lake that are bubbling up and which indicates that the ice will break up if the present temperatures continue. Ice in Black Lake is only from 18 to 20 inches thick according to Henry Meuwissen of Central Park, who cut ice at Waukegan a few days ago. It would seem that the temperature in this vicinity is considerably higher than in the vicinity of Grand Haven.

Dr. and Mrs. Wynand Wickers entertained visiting artists from Ann Arbor, participants in the W. C. Curtis Snow Memorial at an informal reception Tuesday evening following the concert in Hope Memorial Chapel. Guests included Miss Betty Leslie, Miss Betty Mann and Henry Meuwissen, members of the University Symphony orchestra, Harold Towner, director of Grand Rapids, Dr. Moore, director, Palmer Christian, organist, Joseph Brinkman, pianist, and Arthur Hackett, tenor, of the University School of Music.

Mr. and Mrs. H. De Fouw are spending a few weeks in Florida.

NEW SALVATION ARMY WILL

ASK HOLLAND FOR FUNDS

The campaign to raise $3000 to finance the work of the Salvation Army in Holland and the county during the year was officially launched at a meeting of the newly formed Holland Salvation Army Executive committee, held in the director's room of the First State bank, at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Members of the committee were out today calling upon those from whom it is hoped to get contributions of over $20, usually classed as special gifts. The general up-and-down-the-street solicitation will be made next week.

Rev. Dr. Thos. W. Davidson, pastor of Hope Reformed church, who was elected chairman of the committee, spoke in praise of Nellie Churchford and the work which won for her the love and esteem of everybody. "We need the Salvation Army in Holland," said Dr. Davidson. "As a branch of a noted world-wide institution it will be an especial blessing to a class of people not reached by any other agency. It serves with never a question of nationality, religious belief or color and it reaches down to the depth of society to rescue men and women in despair. I believe we are able officers taking hold of the work, who first passed through the Army's training college and since have had plenty of experience. The year's budget of $3000 seems small and I hope the people of Holland raise it. I believe they will."

Major Wm. H. Fox, of Grand Rapids, commander of the Western Michigan division of the Army, started for Holland to attend the meeting and explain his plans for the work here, but was blocked by high water. Adjutant Clare Edwards, officer in charge, took his place and made a very impressive address, as did her assistant, Envoys Genevieve Shafar.

The organization of the committee was completed by the election of Mrs. Roy Chapman as first vice chairman, John D. Kelly, second vice chairman, Cornelius J. Meulen, treasurer, Mrs. W. J. Olive, chairman of the women's division of the campaign and Adjutant Edwards secretary of the committee.

Vance Mape, Rev. L. Van Laar and Clarence Jarvis were elected members of the committee.

The entire committee consists of Rev. Dr. Thos. W. Davidson, John D. Kelly, Louis J. Vanderburg, Dr. A. Leenhouts, Cornelius Vander Meulen, Dr. Wynand Wickers, E. E. Fell, Henry W. Wilson, Mrs. Geo. E. Kollen, Mrs. W. J. Olive, Mrs. Roy Chapman, Vance Mape, Rev. L. Van Laar and Clarence Jarvis.

INTERESTING PROGRAM

PRESENTED AT MUSIC

CLUB MEET

An interesting program was presented at a meeting of the Holland Music Club on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Martha Robbins as hostess. The program included current events presented by Miss Ruby Hughes who stressed particularly the performances of new musical numbers and new artists.

Miss Sarah Lacey presented an interesting paper and fine program of musical numbers on Latin American music. She brought out the fact that music was considered to be of great enough importance in most of the South American countries that it is subsidized by the governments. Not only are there conservatories in a number of the largest cities, but also money is provided for scholarships for study in the famous European musical centers. Interest in music of all kinds is intense while the people are noted for their marked musical talent and their excellent musical memories. Indian, Spanish and negro influences are noticed—all of which are modified by the native characteristics of the peoples of the different countries. It was brought out that in Argentina music is fundamentally of the dance type—the fandango and the tango being common forms. Illustrative of music of the Argentine Richard Keeler accompanied by Miss Lacey played a violin Selection "Vidale" by Williams; Miss Nella Mayer a piano number "Huela" by Aguirre; and Mrs. Delbert Fogarty, also accompanied by Miss Lacey, sang two selections—A Hideo song, "Hymn to the Sun-God" by Bernberg and "The Obscure Flower" a folk song by Palma.

To represent the musician music Mrs. Fogarty sang the well-known "Estrellita" or "Little Star" by Ponce. Miss Evelyn Beach, pianist, played Ganel's "Mexican Dance No. 1," and Mr. Keller Serradell's "The Swallows" and Yradiers "The Dove." Two of Miss Lacey's piano pupils, Maxine Den Herder and Shirley Shaw, played a duet "Over the Waves" by Rosas.

In Chile an ardent influence is noted, it was stated, which fact was brought out in the two examples of music of this country. The first was sung by Mrs. Fogarty Soro's "Abe Marie," while Miss Lacey presented the other, also a Soro number, "Serenade Sentimental."

To illustrate Brazilian music Miss Beach played "The Segundo Estude of Octaviano and Noporenceno's 4th Negro Dance," both showing Indian and negro influences.

It was generally felt that the world has not yet had a chance to appreciate the music of the Latin American countries because it is so difficult to obtain their musical scores. When these are more accessible South American music will undoubtedly receive the recognition that the other arts enjoy at the present time.

Each of the music pupils that the Holland Club is sending to Grand Rapids on March 28th to enter the Junior Music Students contest sponsored by the State Federation of Music Clubs played a selection for the club members. The Holland contestants are Peggy Stroop, a pupil of Miss Hughes, and Shirley Shaw and Ruth Van Appledorn, pupils of Miss Lacey.

To bring a worthwhile and delightful afternoon to a close, the hostess served tea with Miss Jennie Karsten, the club president and Miss Lacey pouring.

The next meeting will be held March 11th at Mrs. P. N. Prins on West 12th Street when Miss Ruby Hughes will present a program of Irish music.

The Play "Cappy Ricks" which had been postponed will be presented March 12, 13 and 14 in the Virginia Park Community Club.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Dorn of Holland left Monday night for Chicago where they attended the funeral services of Mr. Dorn's father.

FINDS SHE'S HOLDING

A LARGE TARANTULA

The biggest tarantula ever discovered in Fremont was found in a store there this week. Mrs. Hannah Bierce, a clerk, after cutting some bananas from the stalk, felt something in her hand. At first, she thought it was a dried leaf, but when she felt it move she discovered the huge spider. It fell to the floor without biting her. It measured five inches.

The American Legion Auxiliary met in the city hall Monday night. Bobby Bos played the drum, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. William Bos who also had charge of the program, and the Montello Park Band favored with several selections. During the business session it was decided to send one dozen large sheets to the orphan billet at Otter Lake. Plans also were made for a card and greeting shower honoring Mrs. C. J. Van Duren who is confined to Holland hospital. Cards should be sent this week. The membership quota of 115 has been reached and several new members were introduced. Mrs. Chester Van Tongeren announced that two prizes of $5 and $3 will be given to Senior High students and two prizes of $3 and $2 will be awarded to Junior High students in the annual poppy poster contest. Prizes have been won by Holland young people in the state contest for the past two years, it was explained.

AN OLD HOLLAND FIRM

IS ENLARGING WITH

MORE DEPARTMENTS

John Van Tatenhove, owner of the French Cloak store announces that in the future he will conduct a double store.

The old emporium, always beautifully arranged, will remain as it is, but the building to the west, also owned by Mr. Van Tatenhove, has been done over, in fact remodeled throughout. The rear of this building has the appearance of a veritable fairyland. This room will be a delight to the children of Holland and vicinity. The artists have taken pictures right from the nursery rhymes, and have transplanted them into the "Little Miss Shop" just west of the French Cloak Store. "Jack and the tall beanstalk," "Jack and Jill went up the hill," "Little Jack Horner" who became involved in a pie eating contest, "the three little pigs" and other nursery lore pictures are neatly arranged and cannot help attract the eyes of youth, and tickle the minds and hearts of those who are older grown, when they hark back to the brightly colored pictures they remember so well when "Old mother Hubbard and her little hungry dog" still held sway in their minds as truths, instead of fiction.

Anyway this department will be devoted to a large stock of children's ready to wear, in other words all those things that "top" out the "What's" from head to foot.

What was formerly the millinery shop in the front of the building will continue to be used as such. This department too has been completely remodeled and redecorated. The "Little Miss Shop" will be in charge of Mrs. Bertha Salobury, while Mrs. Wanda Van Leeuwen will be in charge of the Millinery Shop.

The French Cloak Store has been a substantial "Ladies ready to wear" firm for a quarter of a century and John Van Tatenhove has been in charge for over eighteen years.

The rejuvenated double store will be open for the public today, (Friday.)

The weatherman has completely changed conditions within a surprising short time. In two days the huge drifts have become ordinary snow banks. But if the main roads have been greatly improved the blocked side roads have become utterly impassable for horse or car.

Well we have enjoyed a double surprise this winter. For a long time we were amazed at the drifts and now we are even more amazed that they are gone. Fortunately there is no frost in the ground and a great deal of the water is absorbed by the ground.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hagelkamp and daughter Geraldine of Milwaukee, Wis. spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and YOU'LL notice how easily the New Ford steers the first time you drive it ... particularly when you take sharp curves or park in a short curb-space. A new 17-to-1 steering gear ratio, and other refinements make this the easiest handling Ford car ever built.

For years the finest cars have been distinguished by a V-type engine. The Ford Motor Company completed one of its greatest achievements when it introduced this type of engine to the low-price field. But progress did not stop here. Every feature of the New Ford for 1936 was made to measure up to the quality of the V-8 engine—driving ease included.

NAME OF STYLE IMPORIUM EMULATED IN DECORATIONS

The Rose Cloak Store, known for a quarter of a century by that name, has amplified on this most popular flower in their recent remodeling and decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Taft recently got the "remodeling bee" and while snow was heaps high, they thought of spring and sunshine beyond. They have just installed modern recessed cases for gowns, cloaks, ensemble and other ladies wear. These cases all for convenience, better display and all round service for an enterprise of this type. Each case is indirectly lighted, giving a pleasing effect to the whole arrangement.

The decorations are in three shades of Rose, emphasizing the fact that the name of the store is implied. It is altogether a pleasing arrangement and the artistic concept that can be seen originated with Mrs. Taft who has repeatedly been honored because of her show window displays.

The "Rose Cloak Store" stands out as the harbinger of spring, considering that the "Easter promenade" is just in the offing.

OTTAWA FARM PLAN BODY MEETS MAR. 3

The Ottawa county farm program planning committee to formulate a crop control plan is to hold its first meeting March 3 at 1 p.m. in the court house, Leo R. Arnold, county agricultural agent, announced today.

Mr. Arnold said the committee's efforts might come to nothing if a control program was not designed to replace the defunct AAA but that the farmers were going to make plans anyway. This program, he said, will originate with the counties, be sent to state headquarters and then relayed to Washington.

The planning committee is composed of Ellis Peck and Frank Hambleton of Wright township, Glenn Taylor of Polkton, Samuel Rymer of Spring Lake township, Roelof Bronkema of Tallmadge, John Hassold of Chester, Charles Lowing of Georgetown, Dick De Kleine and Alex Klooster of Jamestown, Jack Atkins of Allendale, Frank Garbrecht of Port Sheldon and Frank Hendrych of Grand Haven township. The news again points out not a committee man from around Holland.

The Junior Boys' society of the Sixteenth Street Christian Reformed church held a meeting Sunday in the church basement. A program and Bible discussion was held.

A joint meeting of the United Spanish War Veterans auxiliary and camp was held Friday evening in the G. A. R. room of the city hall. A patriotic program was presented.

Leo Hoffman, chairman of the city Republican committee, has announced a caucus to be held March 18 at the Griswold auditorium, at which time nominations for mayor, city clerk, treasurer and two justices will be made.

HARBINGER OF SPRING

Sure signs always of spring are the offerings of strong, vigorous chicks; high quality chick starting feeds; and fine brooding equipment that appear in the City News advertising columns at this season of the year. Particular attention is called to the Lakeview Poultry Farm's display ad in today's paper, with others to follow. They make a special inducement to order chicks at least three weeks in advance.

11,000 Increase
Shown in Acres
of Allegan CornONE-THIRD MORE COWS RE-PORTED IN COUNTY IN PAST YEAR

An eleven thousand acre increase in corn in Allegan county is shown by the farm census report from the Department of Commerce and the bureau of the census at Washington, in a bulletin just issued.

Corn harvested for all purposes
amounted to about 11,000 more acres in 1934 than in 1929. In 1929 the acreage of corn harvested for all purposes was 39,592. By 1934
the acreage had risen to 50,105.
Corn harvested for grain increased from 18,894 acres and 391,458
bushels to 33,686 acres and 722-499 bushels.

The wheat crop increased about 1,300 acres and 8,000 bushels between 1929 and 1934. The gain in oats was about 1,600 acres, barley 900 acres, sugar beets 800 acres,
Irish potatoes 1,400 acres and hay
about 1,000 acres. Production of potatoes more than doubled, increasing from 207,310 to 594,293 bushels.
Land from which crops were harvested expanded almost 17,000
acres.

About one-third more cows were in the county on January 1, 1935
than on April 1, 1930, the increase being from 19,718 to 25,753. Hogs decreased about 2,000 with 10,941
being reported on January 1, 1935.

The number of farms was greater by 320 and the value of farm land and buildings dropped over six and one-third million dollars between 1930 and 1935. The 5,620 farms in 1935 averaged 74.2 acres in size and had an average value per acre of $55.60.

Full owners operate 3,898 farms
now but in 1930 there were 3,963 full owners. Part owners show a gain in 1935 with 744 reported. In 1930 there were 558. There were 936 tenants in 1935 and 727 in 1930. The average value per farm is placed at $4,127 in 1935 and in 1930 it was $5,576.

In 1935 there were 214,569 crop
land acres harvested and in 1930
there were 197,681. There were 4,795 acres in crop failure in 1935 and in 1930 there were 4,393. In 1930 there were 40,224 idle acres and in 1935 there were 36,066.

There are more than 300,000
acres of land available for crops, according to the 1935 census and in 1930 there were only 291,200
acres.

The number of horses and colts,
all animals over three months of age, decreased from 10,671 in 1930 to 9,908 in 1935. Cattle increased from 33,230 in 1930 to 40,601 in 1935. Cows and heifers 2 years old and over increased from 19,718 in 1930 to 25,753 in 1935. Sheep and lambs decreased from 15,342 in 1930 to 7,769 in 1935. Hogs and pigs decreased from 12,938 in 1930
to 10,941 in 1935.

In 1935 there were 722,499 bushels of corn produced, 492,386 bushels of wheat threshed; 724,888
bushels of oats threshed; 40,539

WIFE OF U. S. PRESIDENT IN GRAND RAPIDS

Mrs. Franklin Delano Roosevelt wife of the president of the United States is to visit Grand Rapids on Monday evening March 9, and will give a lecture at Fountain St.
church.

"Mrs. Roosevelt's appearance in Grand Rapids is without political significance. In New York recently, her manager stated that it was Mrs. Roosevelt's specific request that no social or political functions be planned in her honor, because pressure of her work would prevent her participating."

Tickets to the lecture are now on sale. Mail order reservations are now being received by the Fountain Street church officers in Grand Rapids. Applications for tickets should be accompanied with remittances for the seats desired,
which are available in a price range of 75c, $1.00 and $1.50. The subject of Mrs. Roosevelt address will be "The Threat Against America's Peace."

Hens in Contest Cackle at Cold

Hens in the Michigan Egg Laying contest at Michigan State College, East Lansing, are cackling their delight at the cold spell as they set new record highs for winter production.

Temperatures as cold as 10 degrees below zero hold no fears for these 630 competing birds. They laid more and bigger eggs to attain a January average production of 54.4%, as compared to the estimated laying average of about 35%
throughout the state.

These facts are revealed in a summary of the Michigan Egg Laying Contest results for January prepared by C. G. Card, professor of poultry husbandry at the college. The hens remain at the college for the duration of the competition which lasts until October 23, 1936, and are housed in ordinary chicken coops.

"The secret of our success in egg production in January lies in the feeding," Professor Card says.
"Cold weather does not hurt if fluctuations in temperature are at a minimum as they have been this year. We have long noticed that birds in the Upper Peninsula have higher winter production because their weather, although cold, is usually more stable than down here."

"We have kept high records because we used about 25 pounds of feed, divided equally between mash
and grain, per hundred birds daily.
Most farmers do not keep up feeding and as a result have exceptionally low production this winter.
The estimated average for poultry
farmers in the state this winter
has been about 35%."

The record production for January was made by the New Hampshire breed with an average of 64.7%, Professor Card stated.

LANGVELD SERVICE STA-TION DAMAGED BY FIRE

Late Thursday night fire was discovered in the M. D. Langveld Service station on the north east corner of River Ave. & 7th St.
Damage is considered to be a little over $1,000.

The fire appears to have started from an overheated boiler and was discovered by Henry Kamphuis who was attracted to the scene by a muffled explosion. When he opened the basement door clouds of smoke poured out to the floor above.

The firemen were on hand quickly and the work was in charge of assistant chief Kammerling because Chief Blom was ill at home and had been for more than a week. The fire had eaten between the walls before the firemen arrived. The heating plant will have to be renewed.

The firemen battled the midnight
blaze in sub zero weather but soon
had the fire out.

An accident which occurred during the fire was when fireman Martine Brandt slipped on the icy concrete which was covered with oil and water and hurtled through the open door to the basement below.
He was stunned for a time and was nearly covered with water which poured into the small basement
until Ted Wyma, fellow fireman, noticed his predicament and brought him to safety. Aside from smoke inhalation and the taking in of oily water, Mr. Brandt has practically recovered.

Mrs. Peter Roossien, who celebrated her birthday anniversary Thursday, entertained with an all-day party. Guests were Mrs. Henry Overway, Mrs. John Boone, Mrs.
Roossien, Mrs. Albert Bremer, Mrs.
Frank Eby, Mrs. Corneal Zeedyk
and Mrs. George Zonnebelt.

TO TAKE CARP OUT
OF FREMONT LAKE

The Fremont Fish and Game Club will again make an effort to eradicate carp from Fremont Lake
this spring and have contracted with the Sewer Brothers from Saugatuck to do the work. Last year about seven tons of carp were taken and stored in a creek until shipment could be made. In the meantime the county road commission placed chloride on the road and rains washed some of the chloride into the creek killing most of the carp. Only 1,650 pounds of the 14-000 pounds taken from the lake were sold. Precautions will be taken to prevent a similar occurrence
this spring. Joe Brinkman, Willis Smith and Harvey Dunning have been appointed a committee to take charge this year.

Another project that has involved considerable work is the feeding of birds in this vicinity and furnishing feed to farmers, who will see that the birds are fed.

The club has appointed Joe Brinkman, Harry Geeting and Gail Saum to cooperate with landowners around Fremont lake in an effort to establish a suitable level for Fremont lake. It is hoped that work can be done this spring in an effort to make even better fishing conditions. The club is also investigating the possibility of bringing live rabbits into this territory in an effort to increase the cotton tails. The club is contacting producers in Oklahoma and Kansas
who agree to deliver live rabbits.
The annual election will be in April.

Teachers of the East Junior high school, the former Froebel No. 2 building, entertained 40 mothers at a Washington tea Thursday afternoon in the school. Mrs. Fritz Liedtke and Miss Marian Schackson poured.

Cornelius Vander Muelen cashier
First State Bank and Hope Alumnae of the class of 1900 and local banker gave a talk before the college student body in Memorial Chapel Friday. Commemorating
the birth of George Washington.

The speaker stated that it is a wise nation that knows its own father.

Vander Muelen likened the life of Washington to a masterpiece, and his talk was woven about the metal and workmanship of the key.
The speaker said that in the life of Washington we find courage
that is moral as well as physical,
a deep sympathy for human beings,
honesty and the capacity to think straight.

"It was the underlying pattern
of great leadership in Washington's character that led this country
out of its state-rights controversy
and saved for us the constitution,"
he said.

OTTAWA COUNTY INSTITUTE
HELD HERE, ZEELAND
MAN AGAIN HEAD

At the annual Ottawa county
teachers institute held at Holland
High auditorium Friday, Miss Lilian Herstein of the Chicago board of education was one of the speakers. "Recent Trends in Education"
was the subject of the talk at the afternoon session.

Fred Atkins Moore executive director of the Adult council of Chicago, spoke in the forenoon on the "Europe Nobody Knows."

Officers of the Ottawa county MEA district were chosen at a business meeting which followed the forenoon session. Louis Roberts of Zeeland was re-elected president and Gerrit G. Groene-woud, of Holland county school commission, was renamed to serve as treasurer. Miss Wilma Abels of Hudsonville was chosen vice president, succeeding Miss Jennie Kaufman of Spring Lake and Stephen Mead of Grand Haven was elected secretary in place of Dick Mouw.

The teachers passed resolutions
endorsing Dr. A. J. Phillips of Lansing, acting secretary of the H. E.
A., for the permanent appointment and also urged an investigation by the association of rural school teachers' salaries. In one county nine rural teachers received $85 monthly and one $100, it was reported. Reports on Allegan, Ottawa, Kent and Muskegon county rural teachers' salaries revealed Muskegon rural teachers as being best paid.

The Holland schools were closed
for the convention.

A Dog is Hero of This Winter Rescue Tale

(Grand Haven Tribune)

Winter blizzards this year have brought to light hundreds of stories of rescue from storms and here is the story of "Buttons", a cocker spaniel, rescued from certain death by "Inky" a coal black chow.

Noel Carpenter, owner of Inky,
who lives on Spring Lake, was disturbed late one afternoon by the insistent barking and antics of his dog. He finally decided to brave the raging storm and find out what the dog was apparently trying to tell him.

"Inky" ran ahead barking and leaping along in the storm, until at times lost him from sight, until he came to a huge drift of a steep bank overlooking the lake. Mr.
Carpenter trudged along certain that the dog knew there was something wrong.

He looked down the bank and almost buried he saw what appeared to be a dead dog. Barks of delight, if so they could be interpreted, showed that "Inky" knew his mission had ended as Mr. Carpenter picked up the little dog and carried him to his home, where he was thawed out and brought back to life, with the care that would have been given to any half-frozen warfare.

The spaniel had been wandering
along the shore line where the ice is slushy due to springs and was covered with balls of ice. He apparently had attempted to get to the house and was caught in the drift where he was freezing to death when "Inky" found him.
Now "Inky" is a dog that does not relish strangers on his premises, said his master. Had the dog come to the place in the usual way there would have been trouble.

MONEY RECEIVED ON GOVERNMENT GRANT

On Monday the Saugatuck Village Clerk, R. W. Clapp, received a check for $6,818.00 as part payment of the government grant for the building of a beach road.

There has been considerable work done on this project but the weather conditions have been such that no work could be done on the grading as the snow is too deep.

Sheriff Fred Miller reports that over 20 establishments selling beer
for consumption on the premises have been inspected by him at the request of owners, who must obtain licenses from the state liquor control board by May 1. Applications for such licenses, which include fingerprints of proprietors, must be filed by Mar. 1.

HOLLAND YOUTH IS HELD ON CHARGE OF
ATTEMPTED ROBBERY

Jesse Nicol, 17 years old of Holland, formerly of Allegan, was bound over to circuit court on $500
bail when arraigned before Justice Elburn Parsons on a charge of attempted robbery. He did not furnish bail and was taken to the county jail in Grand Haven today.
It was expected he would be arraigned next week in circuit court.

Nicol was arrested by Holland
police Feb. 14 after an alleged tussle with Harvey Maris, Holland barber. Nicol, it is charged, entered the Maris shop, attempted to rob the cash register and escaped
after a struggle with Maris. Nicol was arrested later on a description
furnished by Maris.

operated since last Aug. by Fred
G. Timmer, trustee, and Mr. Olin-

GOES 25 MILES TO ATTEND
CHURCH TWO MILES AWAY

Joe Mast of Vriesland, who has two miles to go to attend church services, was forced to travel nearly 25 miles Sunday, due to blocked roads. Mast traveled from his home on the Vriesland road to Holland and then to Drenthe to attend services. In order to return home he had to make the long trip
a second time that day.

Many farmers of this vicinity
drew their cars to the main highways on horse-drawn sleds and then dug shelters in the banks of snow on the highways. They mostly were persons who had work in town. They left their cars in the snow stalls, walking to their homes
at close of the day's work.—Grand Rapids Press.

Something like a dust storm happened here last Thursday night. There was plenty of evidence on the snow next morning. Now where in Texas did that come from? Must be it did come from Texas or thereabouts for snow covers everywhere this side of that state. It was a strange manifestation. It develops that at this time there was a severe dust storm in Colorado. That is a long way off for dust to reach Michigan, but it may be remembered that last summer we had a similar storm of dust which came from Dakota which is nearly as far away as Colorado.—Allegan Gazette.

Vision and Service—Luke 9:28-43

Henry Geerlings

The transfiguration of Jesus is such a remarkable event that one approaches it with wonder and awe and exaltation of spirit. We should like to understand it fully, but we cannot. We should like to write about it adequately, but one finds his vocabulary falling him. We should like to lift the veil of mystery that hangs over it, but it will not lift.

One wonders why this extraordinary glory and light that shone upon the face of and person of Jesus was not always there. One wonders how it could be hidden. It was a glory that came from the inside and not from the outside. The glory of His lighted mind must have broken through the thin walls of flesh for a brief while and then faded away. We do know that a great soul can make and does make a great face. We do know that according to the suggestion of the great poet God gives us one face and we make another. We do know that the face is the show window of the soul. Long ago have we learned that we may be able to conceal our thoughts as to their meaning, but we cannot conceal them as to their character. They tell their own story in our faces. No wonder we say that some people have the face of an angel and others the face of a saint. If we dwell long enough upon great and good themes our faces will be something of an identification card. If we think evil persistently people will avoid us. So when we look upon the transfigured Christ we see the light of a great soul telling the story of his inner life and we instinctively feel that we are in the presence of divinity. We feel that we are interpreting the purpose of this transfiguration event correctly when we say that it meant more for Jesus himself than for His disciples. May we say it reverently that He needed it as He faced the cross that loomed up in the not far distance. It was a supreme trial through which He was passing. His soul was struggling up the steep and rough hill of redemptive necessity and He needed courage to face triumphantly the issue. He needed a deeper consciousness of who He was and what the glory and grandeur of His mission to earth were. The voice of divine approval was given. Heaven sent its representatives, who once had struggled and triumphed here, to talk to Him about His way out of this sinful world. Somehow there must have come to Him the conviction in this transfiguration experience that His struggle was not in vain, but must lead to glory and victory. And then, too, this mountain scene was in the nature of a great revelation to the three favored disciples. Their conviction that He was more than they was greatly stimulated and deepened. The unique glory of this personality would impress itself upon them so that they never could forget it. In all their after years memory would take them back to this marvelous mountain experience. Peter referred to it in a rapture of confession. It was a divine light that lighted up their souls in many a dark hour as they traveled across this troubled world.

And we cannot pass over the suggestion that Moses and Elijah bring to us. They came from the other world. This argues for the continuity of life. This means that death has no power over the integrity of the human personality. They appear on the mount as Moses and Elijah and were so recognized. Their identity was unimpaired. We do not like to think that whatever changes we undergo in passing from this world into the unseen world by way of death we shall be ourselves there. We like to feel that as we are capable of thinking and loving and appreciating the highest and best here so shall we be over there—only more so. This would be a tragic world if it piled on the scrap heap of time such great and masterful personalities as Moses and Elijah. And now being thoroughly human we find ourselves in sympathy with Peter who thought it was good to be on that mount. It was a marvelous experience and we feel that had we been there we too would have wanted to prolong it. We come with reluctance out of our highest and thrilling experiences. We dread the humdrum and the commonplace and the drudgery and the everyday of life. But possibly the unique and the exalted would soon become common if we dwelt with it too long. And besides all this duty calls us from the heights to the common levels of life where the inspirations of the great moments are to make us more capable for serving in our common and every day life. There is so much to do where the crowds go by that we need to live in our house by the side of the road that we may be a friend to man.

"...BUT I CAN TELEPHONE"

You hear it all over Michigan . . . as winter storms put a stop to many everyday activities or make them extremely difficult.

In numerous communities the physician cannot reach the bedside of his patient. But he can prescribe and diagnose by telephone.

A salesman is cut off from his customer by snow-clogged roads or uncertain rail transportation. But he can transact business over the telephone.

Delivery of the weekly letter to the folks back home may be delayed by winter's grip. But telephone wires carry the sound of loved voices instantaneously to anxious ears.

The telephone is so much a part of our day to day activity that we accept it as commonplace. But in time of widespread emergency, we see how far its value to all the people outweighs its cost.

have been spending six weeks on an automobile trip to southern California, returned home, having enjoyed good fortune as well as much pleasure during their trip. The trip was undertaken principally to visit their children, Mr. and Mrs. John Heyboer, formerly of Zeeland, but now residents of Redlands, Calif. They followed the southern route on both their out and their return trip which runs by way of El Paso, Texas, avoiding the snows of the more northern routes. Although the distance is a little over 2500 miles, their speedometer registered more than 7000 miles traveled during these six weeks. Among the families of former Zeeland residents now living in California visited by them were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Woodstra, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wagner, Mrs. R. Haakma, a daughter, Jennie Haakma, all at Redlands; and their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Van Koeveing at Rialto, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Van Koeveing and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Van Koeveing at Glendale.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

BUTTER and eggs are high due to continued cold and stormy weather. Egg prices will drop sharply as soon as better weather prevails. With the arrival of Lent there is an increased interest in fish. Bad weather has made fresh fish almost unavailable so that the choice consists of frozen, salt, smoked and canned. Canned salmon is liked by most people and can be used in a great variety of ways. Red Salmon and pink are interchangeable in practically any recipe. Red salmon is less plentiful and much more expensive. It has the advantage of a more attractive color, somewhat more fat and more of the fat-soluble vitamins A and D. There are excellent values in lamb and beef, in many vegetables and in apples, oranges and Anjou pears. Here are three menus for Sunday Dinner at different budget levels.

- Low Cost Dinner
Steamed Canned Salmon Egg Sauce
Boiled Potatoes Spinach
Bread and Butter
Fruit Gelatin
Tea or Coffee Milk
- Medium Cost Dinner
Pot Roast of Beef Celery

- Very Special Dinner
