Christian Schools Okay New Budget

A record budget of $1,488,905 for the 1971-72 school year was adopted by the Holland Christian School Society at its annual budget meeting held Monday night in the high school auditorium.

The new budget is about $90,000 over last year's figure, Supt. Mark Vander Ark said today. He reported that the 6½ per cent increase was reflected mainly in a $60,000 boost for next year's instructional expenses. He said the salary increases will go to a staff of 120 teachers responsible for the 2780 students enrolled in the system.

With the adoption of the new budget the Holland Christian School teachers will be able to follow the National Union of Christian Schools recommended salary schedule. The ranges for A.B. degree are $6,950 minimum and $10,750 maximum while the masters degree runs from $7,350 to $11,600.

The increased budget adopted by the 265-53 ballot vote will also mean increased contributions or tuition for the coming school year by the families supporting the school, Vander Ark said.

While the group was adopting the new budget for next year, they also heard Paul Baker outline plans for a COD (Cash for Operating and Deficit) drive scheduled amongst the friends and patrons of Holland Christian Schools on March 22. Goal of the drive is about $100,000, Vander Ark reported.

Picket Lines Halt Work At Addition

Members of a carpenters' union representing pile drivers set up picket lines Monday at the construction site of an addition to Holland's sewage treatment plant.

The picketing involved an alleged dispute with union pile drivers who have been working without a contract since the old pact expired last May. At issue is a wage differential aimed at making union pile drivers more competitive with non union workers.

The pile drivers are represented by locals 1908 and 100 of the Southwest Michigan Carpenters and Joiners, AFL-CIO. Affected by the picketing are pile drivers of Elzinga & Volkers Inc., working as a sub contractor for Owens - Ames-Kimball Co. of Grand Rapids.

Paul Elzinga of the Holland firm said negotiations over the wage differential broke down in November. The differential sought to hold back an increase in wages in an effort to combat non union competition in the Holland and Grand Rapids areas.

Reach Agreement Ending Strike At Sewage Plant Site

Construction work at the site of an addition to Holland's sewage treatment plant resumed Wednesday after an agreement was reached in a contract dispute which led to a strike Monday.

The strike by pile drivers represented by Locals 1908 and 100 of the Southwest Michigan Carpenters and Joiners union, AFL-CIO was against Elzinga & Volkers Inc., of Holland, working as a sub contractor on the project.

Paul Elzinga, executive vice president said the dispute involved wages and said the contract was signed "as the only way to get back to work." Agreement was reached Tuesday and picket lines were removed.

Keith Clinton, secretary of the Southwestern Michigan Carpenters District Council, said in Grand Rapids that wages were an issue in the dispute which held up signing of a new contract replacing one which expired last May. Negotiations had broken off in November. Elzinga said the new agreement provides for wage hikes of about 20 cents an hour.

Landfill Case Under Advisement

GRAND HAVEN — A hearing on the suit brought by Olive township board against the county board of commissioners and the road commission, in an attempt to halt a county-wide sanitary landfill ended at 3 p.m. in Circuit Court Monday and Judge Raymond L. Smith took the case under advisement. Eleven men testified.

About 25 spectators were in the courtroom, mostly Olive residents. J. W. Bussard, counsel for the township, emphasized through testimony by Supervisor Lester Veldheer and Chairman Clarence Reenders of the West Ottawa soil conservation district that the 180 acres decided to the county by the U. S. government back in 1965 was accepted with the understanding that it was to be used for "parks and recreation" and minutes from several proceedings of the old board of supervisors were produced to prove this point.

The township also claimed that the dumping area would spoil a small roadside park east of the dump site and would also pollute a trout stream, Pigeon Creek, 1,000 feet south of the site.

Attorney Peter Boter of Holland represented the Road Commission and claimed that zoning in the township does not apply to county-owned land and the plaintiff cannot prove that a dump would be a nuisance.

The county produced several witnesses, the last one being Dr. Leo Jacobson of the University of Wisconsin, recreation consultant for the county board, who testified that a landfill on the Olive township site would later be developed as a park, adding to its value.

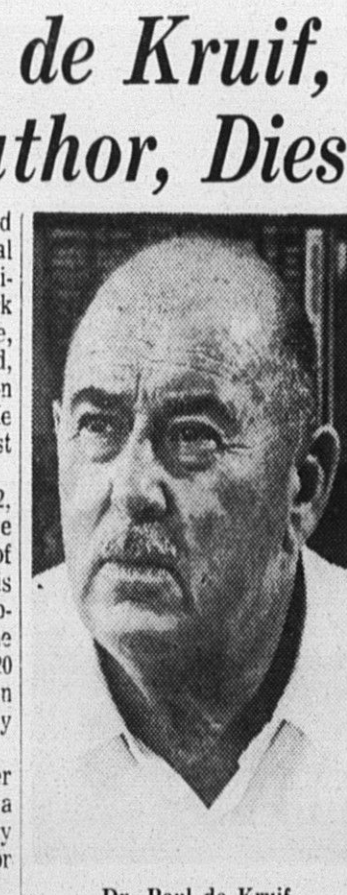

Judge Smith gave the defendants two weeks to prepare an answer to a brief filed by the plaintiff. Much of the testimony was accepted under protest by the defendants.

Downtown Mall Studied In Zeeland

ZEELAND — Three possible plans for a drive-through mall for downtown Zeeland are being considered by the Zeeland Chamber of Commerce. This proposal is part of the 1970 plan adopted by the downtown merchants in 1964.

All three plans retain the two-way traffic on Main St., and also the parking, although to a lesser extent than at present.

Scheme 'A' involves the incorporation of thoroughfares at each end of the block. Landscaping would be kept to a minimum, using primarily sod, shrubs and trees. The plan would still permit the parking of 33 cars. The approximate cost is $6,000.

Scheme 'B' extends the thoroughfares. Landscaping would be more extensive, using paved areas, benches and limited play areas. A covered pedestrian cross-over is placed slightly west of the center of the block. Parking would be limited to 17 cars. The approximate cost is $32,000.

Scheme 'C' is a variation of 'B'. The parking is modified and a second pedestrian cross-over has been added. Fifteen cars can park and the cost approximately $34,000.

In all schemes, there is incorporated an attended play area where mothers can leave their young children while shopping in the mall.

The plans are proposed by Robert A. Reid, architect, William and Works, engineers and consultants, and I Paul Jones planner.

The Shopping Center committee has already considered the plans and favors less areas devoted to planting but does favor two or three crosswalks.

Andrew Regnerus Succumbs at 70

KALAMAZOO — Andrew Regnerus, 70, a former Holland resident, died Wednesday at Kalamazoo State Hospital.

He was formerly employed at the Louis Padnos Iron and Metal Co. in Holland.

Surviving are two brothers, Isaac Regnerus of Riverside, Calif. and Leonard of Lake Worth, Fla.; a sister-in-law, Mrs. George Regnerus of Holland; two stepchildren, Herman and John Kliffman, both of Holland and four stepbrothers, Wiegner De Boer and Gus De Boer of Grand Rapids, Walter of Byron Center and Louis of Florida.

City Council expects to go ahead with plans for a downtown mall Wednesday night but will shift priorities to provide more downtown parking first and delaying mall construction until June, 1972.

At a press conference in the mayor's office Monday, Councilmen and City Manager William L. Bopf said Council expects to act Wednesday on publishing its notice of intent to sell bonds to develop a mall on Eighth St. between River and College Aves., leaving Central Ave. open.

Council also expects to direct the city manager to complete a preliminary parking report by June 1, giving full consideration for attendant parking lots eliminating meters in such lots and allowing merchants to develop a validated parking system.

It is expected the use of the recent organized Building Authority as the financing mechanism will undoubtedly be the main choice but options should not be closed to contributions, private lots and other non-tax methods.

Council took action Sept. 16, 1970, declaring the mall a necessity, based on revised plans submitted by the Downtown Development Corp., which has been studying the mall more than two years. Council's action referred to a "mall concept" rather than specific plans on plantings. Since then, plans have been redrawn with regard for a serpentine service road.

Mall plans the past year have been scaled down from $2 million to $150,000. More recent promoters of a "parkway concept" have not presented specific plans to Council, and contemplated action is based on last year's plan for a closed mall.

The time table establishes construction date for the mall as June 1, 1972, allowing sufficient time for one-way traffic on Seventh and Ninth Sts., and expanded parking. Mall construction would be financed by special assessment. Full completion would be Sept. 1, 1972.

The city manager's study on parking will give full consideration for attendant parking lots eliminating meters in those areas. This would allow merchants to develop a validated parking system. At present, the only city-owned lot large enough for such a change would be the one on Seventh St., site of the former VFW building.

Preliminary reviews indicate costs between $500,000 and $1 million, to be financed through nontax dollars. City Manager Bopf pointed to plans for a new police building and District Court downtown, which together with a new mall and additional parking of over $2 million, expresses the city's faith that a dynamic downtown will be a significant urban asset. He said the valuation of downtown represents approximately 7 per cent of the city's total valuation.

Attending the press conference besides the city manager were Mayor Nelson Bosman and Councilmen Lou Hallacy, L. W. Lamb Jr. and Morris Peerbolt. Mrs. Martha Brandsen, 74, of Riley St., route 4, died at Holland Hospital Tuesday following a short illness.

She was a member of the North Holland Reformed Church, the adult Sunday School class and the Guild for Christian Service of the church.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Gerrit M. (June) Van Kampen and Mrs. Peter (Alma) Van Kampen, both of Holland; six grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Dick Knoll and Mrs. Sibon Timmer; two brothers, Bert and Lubert Vander Zwaag; a brother-in-law, Harry Zwiers, all of Holland, and several nieces and nephews.

ARTIST'S PORTRAYAL OF NEW DUTCH CLASSIC TRACKER ORGAN.

Classic Dutch Organ Gift to Hope College

Hope College has been given a $42,500 Dutch classic tracker organ for the gallery of Dimment Memorial Chapel by an anonymous donor.

The organ, built in the Netherlands by Pels and Van Leeuwen organ builders of Alkmaar, will arrive at Hope later this month. Reconstruction of the organ in the Chapel will take about six weeks.

Plans for the new organ began over a year and half ago when Roger Davis, professor of organ at Hope, drafted the tonal specifications and presented them to the college administration and to the donor. The donor had previously indicated a desire to donate an organ for a smaller auditorium. Davis pointed to the better acoustics in the larger Dimment Chapel.

"Pipe organ music needs a large room with good acoustics. This is why the organ sounds so impressive in the Hope College Chapel," said Davis. He added that the best place for organ music at the college, and even in Holland, is the chapel. "It would be a mistake," Davis stated, "for the college to put a beautiful new organ anywhere but there. In addition to the excellent acoustics, the chapel is traditionally the place for organ concerts."

With the revival of Baroque music a demand has been recognized for instruments which can recreate this music. This is particularly true of the organ, stated Davis.

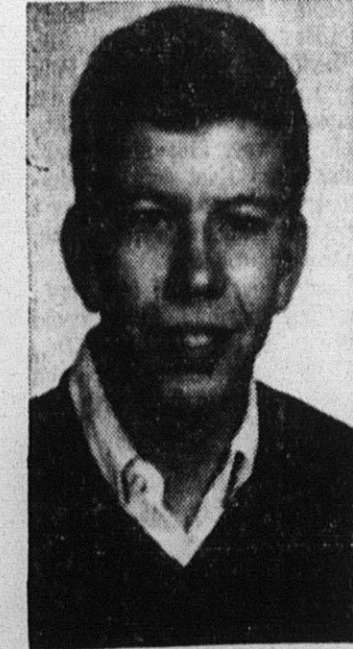

According to Davis, both he and the late James Tallis, former professor of organ at Hope, studied in the Netherlands where they heard and played some of the fine and beautiful classic organs of the eighteenth century. Both became aware of classic organ.

The new instrument will complement the E. M. Skinner organ presently in the Chapel. The Skinner organ is one of the few remaining large American romantic organs dating from the 1920's which has not undergone tonal changes.

The new organ will be self-contained in an oak case with polished tin pipes forming a prospect across the front of the case. The key action is completely mechanical, like that of a piano. The wind pressure is very low and the sound of the instrument will be light, clear and articulate. The full organ sound will be rich and brilliant, never ponderous or heavy, stated Davis.

When the organ is assembled, Mr. Davis will play the first public recital. The date of the recital will be announced at a later date.

terests to all concerned.

Mayor Nelson Bosman reminded the audience that this was not a public hearing on a mall. Although there were many persons in the audience of close to 40 who approved the recommended mall design, none rose to speak, and the discussion reverted to Council.

Councilman L. W. Lamb Jr. made the motions on publishing notice of intent to sell bonds of $150,000 to develop a mall, and to instruct the city manager to proceed with a study for additional parking and obtain options, resulting in unanimous votes on both issues.

Councilman Louis Hallacy said some confusion on the mall has developed since Council approved a mall concept last September, but he said all factions agree that something must be done downtown, and he felt the first priority was parking, a subject mentioned widely by merchants, employees and shoppers.

He also pointed to the million-dollar police complex under study and general expansion plans of Hope College to the east, all in keeping with looking ahead 10 to 20 years. He said he had given considerable thought to a parkway plan with the thought of a closed mall later, but he concluded costs would be duplicated.

City Manager William L. Bopf said he would have his assistant, Terry Hofmeyer, head a committee of four to complete the preliminary parking study by June 1. Others would be representatives of the auditor's department, the department of environmental health and the engineering department.

Guidelines in the parking study list proposed new parking lots, revisions to existing lots, the concept of eliminating meters in attended lots allowing for a validated parking system, use of the new Building Authority in financing new lots, and a target date for constructing the majority of lots May 1, 1972, with full completion by September, 1972.

Council lists construction of the mall as June 1, 1972, safely allowing for implementation of the one-way traffic system on Seventh and Ninth Sts. and construction of additional parking. The $150,000 cost of the mall will be financed by special assessment.

Arthur B. French, M.D., will address students on the Hope College campus March 12. His talk, titled "Of Mink and Men: Absorption and Malabsorption," is one of a series being given this scholastic year at more than 80 schools, sponsored by the American Medical Association Council on Foods and Nutrition.

The programs will tell undergraduates about recent developments in health care, and will try to stimulate interest in medicine and allied health fields. The colleges involved all have pre-medical or biological sciences courses, but are located outside the influence of a large medical center.

Dr. French is professor of internal medicine at the University of Michigan Medical Center in Ann Arbor, and director of the clinical research unit there. He is active in medical research, and has written more than 45 papers on his work, and he was on the editorial board of the American Journal of Digestive Diseases from 1961 to 1968.

Excessive Sewer Fee Protested

A former councilman, Melvin Van Tatenhove, appeared before City Council Wednesday night to protest his sewer service charge of $24 for a commercial operation which formerly cost him $6 per quarter.

Van Tatenhove said light and water charges are the same for commercial and residential uses, and protested a $24 charge for sewer services geared to a water bill of $4.32. The residential charge would be $12, he said.

He added he was sympathetic to senior citizens facing the boost to $12 on fixed incomes, and he proposed (1) commercial and industrial charges conform to residential rates like on power and water, and (2) establish a minimum rate of $6 for those households that use less than 800 (he wasn't sure just what the limitation should be) cubic feet of water. This would aid elderly persons not using great amounts of water and those persons living alone, he said. He asked that credits be made retroactive to the first billing.

Van Tatenhove's remarks were made toward the close of the meeting under communications from the audience. No Council discussion followed.

In other business, Council approved a proposed program from the March of Dimes Teen Action program on collecting glass bottles and jars for recycling, and suggested that leaders consult the city manager on use of public areas for collection depots May 1 and 8. Mrs. Paul Van Kolen heads the program with Norm Tietsma as student chairman.

Later in the meeting, Councilman Elmer Wissink referred to a communication he received on another environmental project and he commended all efforts of groups engaged in improving the environment, pointing to the need for continuing effort in such programs. Both he and Council commended the Teen Action program on its efforts.

Council confirmed a certification from Councilman Peerbolt, Peerbolt's Inc., for a $156.48 purchase for Windmill Island.

Claims against the city from Mrs. Alvin Tyink, 85 East 39th St.; Roger Hattem, 285 Hope Ave.; Ideal Dry Cleaners, 148 College Ave.; Casey Harthorne, 1222 West 32nd St. and Ernest Penna, 23 East 26th St., were referred to the insurance carrier.

Council approved a gift of $20.30 from the Maplewood Reformed Church Couples Club for the police department's school education fund.

A single bid of Houting and Meeusen for demolition of city-owned buildings was approved. The bid listed $290 for a building at 259 East Ninth St. alley, and $490 for a dwelling and garage at 244 Fairbanks Ave. It was pointed out this is in keeping with the city's aim to remove old buildings regarded as eyesores.

Council approved bid of R.G. Moeller Co. for two Wayne Model 1-984 street sweepers in net amount of $24,424 with two trade-ins. It was the lowest of three bids and also regarded as best bid.

Mayor Nelson Bosman appointed Mrs. Frank Moser to the Human Relations Commission succeeding Ed Ribbens.

Paul Danielson, Waverly Rd., pointed out no action had been taken on improved traffic signs on US-31 bypass at Eighth or 16th Sts. and City Manager Bopf said the State Highway Department has completed a study and a report is forthcoming at the next meeting.

3 Sewer Projects Get Okay

A half hour was devoted to public hearings on three sanitary sewer proposals at a regular meeting of City Council Wednesday night, and all three installations were approved unanimously.

Only one proposal, Waverly Rd. from Eighth to 16th St., had some objections as evidenced by four letters and three residents who appeared. City Manager William L. Bopf explained the $950 cost per benefit, adding that of the estimated $87,000 cost, the city was picking up the tab for $35,000.

Other sewer projects approved were in Cambridge Ave. from Eighth to 12th Sts., and in 40th St. from the C and G railroad to 1,320 feet east of Waverly Rd. The Cambridge installation cost is listed at $39,000 with $14,000 financed by the city.

The 40th St. installation costs $29,000 or $15.81 per front foot. Charles Cooper of Holland Motor Express, one of four property owners, agreed to advance the money necessary for immediate construction since he anticipates starting construction of a terminal and office April 1. Bopf said sewer construction will start probably in May or June.

Advance payment covers the entire installation. Funds will be refunded when bonds are sold and payment put on a 10-year basis. Owners also will be refunded in case service is extended across the street in what is currently township property.

No opposition was voiced at a hearing on an application from Dr. Ronald Lambert for a fire district variance for constructing a dental clinic on the north side of 30th St. between Washington and Michigan Aves. and the request was unanimously approved.

Tabled from last meeting was a city manager's recommendation for a planning specialist to be reassigned within the department of environmental health, and this was granted provided no replacement be hired until considered in budget study.

A communication from the Liquor Control Commission requesting Council action on a request of Shop-Rite Markets of Grand Rapids, Inc., for transfer of ownership of a 1970-71 SEM licensed business from Vans Food Department Stores Inc. located at 694 Michigan Ave. was referred to the city manager for study.

Council approved a resolution prepared by Detroit Bond Counsel Dickinson, Wright, McKean and Cudlip on issuing public improvement special assessment bonds totaling $219,000.

Also approved was a city manager recommendation on terminating an order for a GE 115 computer in favor of a Honeywell 115 unit. He explained that since the computer study, the GE computer division has merged with Honeywell. The change was recommended by the Computer Services Advisory committee.

The city manager also reported that the Department of Natural Resources has accepted the engineer's revised estimates and technical specifications for development and a gravel surface facility in connection with the Kollen Park expansion. The Department indicated it will attempt to increase its appropriation from $45,000 to $54,000 provided the city increase its share from $5,000 to $6,000. Council approved unanimously.

Accepted with regret was the resignation of Lucien Raven from the Board of Review due to a car accident in Florida which delayed his return to Holland earlier this week.

A communication from Consumers Power Co. advising it is considering an increase in electric rates to all municipal pumping service customers and terminating its existing contract with the city March 1, 1971, was referred to the Board of Public Works for recommendation.

A letter from the Dena Glad-

The Library Board's proposed budget for fiscal year 1971-72 was referred to the city manager for later consideration by Council.

Smith-Greenwood Gets 1st Prize for Sculpture

David Smith-Greenwood of the Hope College Art faculty has recently been awarded a first prize in sculpture at the regional art exhibit presented by the Hackley Gallery of Art in Muskegon.

The award winning sculpture was one of a series of bronze works entitled "Fuggum" which incorporated gum ball machines, toys and life-casts of the artist's hands.

Mr. Smith-Greenwood also has two works currently on exhibit at the Lansing Community Art Gallery.

ALLEGAN — An expert in bridging generation gaps moved his base of operation from Allegan to Fennville Monday.

James Tackmann, director of program since 1968, assumed his new duties as elementary principal in the Fennville Public Schools after five years of overseeing the phenomenal growth of the community schools project here.

His Allegan duties will be divided among school faculty members until a replacement is found. Assistant High School Principal Ronald Fite will take over operation of the adult education program and Donald Miller, principal at Pine Trails elementary school will be in charge of the summer day camp.

In his new position, Tackmann succeeds Lloyd Miles as principal. Miles resigned Oct. 16, 1970, and the assistant principal, Mrs. Marian Overhiser, had assumed the duties until Tackmann was named.

Under Tackmann, the Community Schools program in Allegan has touched the lives of thousands of Allegan area residents, from five-year-olds who learned to swim at summer day camp to senior citizens who learned to play all over again in the "golden age" groups he helped organize.

But his talent for bridging generation gaps probably is most evident in the adult high school program, now in its third year, which has attracted students from 18 to 68. In its first year the school granted diplomas in a full-scale graduation ceremony to 32 area residents who, for one reason or another, had not previously completed high school. Last year there were 55 graduates and this year's senior class numbers 50. Tackmann probably is proudest of the "school spirit" generated by the adult classes. "Lots of them even order class rings," he said, "there's none of the 'night school' atmosphere."

Accountants Hear Talk On Nursing Homes

Members of the Holland Chapter of the American Society of Women Accountants met in regular session Tuesday, in the Festival Room of the Hotel Warm Friend.

Miss Ruth Kronmeyer, vice-president and chairman of the program committee, introduced Robert Dykstra of Zeeland, who spoke on the subject, "Nursing Homes — Financing and Accounting." In his position as part owner of four area nursing homes and also operator of the Advance Business Service, Mr. Dykstra brought out details involved in the accounting for nursing homes. Living by the Law of Love
Luke 10:25-37
By C. P. Dame

When a community chest drive is planned it is not unusual for the leader to read the Parable of the Good Samaritan or to refer to it. Most people have at least heard the term, "Being a Good Samaritan." It takes love to be a Good Samaritan.

I. The subject of eternal life is still with us. "And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted Him" that is tried Jesus. Luke uses the word "lawyer" almost synonymously with the word "scribe." Evidently the lawyers were scribes who studied the law and its meaning for daily life. The scribes and the Pharisees believed in a future life but the Sadducees did not.

This lawyer was interested in and concerned about eternal life. Many in our "now generation" do not care to talk or think about the future. Jesus referred this lawyer to the law in which he was supposed to be an expert and the lawyer gave an answer which won the approval of Jesus. It may be that he had heard Jesus quote the summary of the law, to love God and our neighbor. Jesus told the lawyer to keep the law — "this do, and thou shalt live."

Jesus accommodated Himself to the lawyer who wanted to know what he should do to inherit eternal life—to earn it by his own efforts. If he had seriously faced the demands of the law, what was involved in keeping it, he would have realized the impossibility of it and asked another question. He did venture a second question, asking who his neighbor was.

II. Loving one's neighbor involves action. Take a look at the parable and note that no person in the lesson is named. A man was robbed and beaten as he was going from Jerusalem to Jericho on a road that was notoriously dangerous. A priest came along first and then a Levite. Both hurried on, passing by on the other side, very likely making excuses to themselves for their haste and neglect. Next a Samaritan came, saw the man, took time to bind up the man's wounds, placed the wounded man on his beast, took him to an inn and made provisions for him.

When Jesus asked who was a neighbor to the beaten, robbed man, the lawyer answered, "He that shewed mercy unto him." Fitting was the remark of Jesus, "Go, and do thou likewise."

The needy in all parts of the world are our neighbors. Did the lawyer only hear these words or did he really go and do so? Belief and behavior belong together. "What does it take to be a Good Samaritan?" What is your opinion?

Life of Dr. Kollen Told To Century Club Group
Century Club members and guests were informed and entertained by the glimpses into the life of Dr. Gerrit Jan Kollen which Dr. Paul Fried shared with them Monday evening.

The speaker said he became interested in Dr. Kollen's life when he read a report of the life of Winifred R. Durfee written by a student in his local history class. Dr. Fried read excerpts from letters written by Dr. Kollen in 1901 regarding the hiring of Mrs. Durfee as Dean of Women and teacher of three classes for Hope College at a salary of $550 per year and free living quarters.

Besides the college archives he had access to boxes of material found in G. J. Diekema's offices when the First National Bank did some remodeling. Also he had visited Mr. Kollen's daughter, Estelle Pelgrim, now living in Florida who allowed him to make copies of diaries and letters that told of Dr. Kollen's experiences in Europe.

The letters were written in 1913 where Dr. Kollen was one of three American delegates to the World Opium Conference and had attended the opening of the Peace Palace in the Hague.

Dr. Fried said he considered Dr. Kollen one of the great men of his time, being a typical American hero — a self-made man.

Fennville Knocks Vikes Out of Class C Tourney

HOPKINS — Fennville broke away from Hopkins in the second half here Tuesday night to knock the host Vikings out of the Class C District basketball tournament, 78-69.

Co-Captain guard Larry Osman led the Blackhawks surge with three straight baskets to give Fennville a commanding 44-34 lead after the Hawks only led by four points at the intermission, 38-34 in the foul-marred contest.

Center Jim Keag paced the Blackhawks with 19 points while teammates Mike Duffey, John Van Voorhes, Osman and sub Mark Schoeneich followed with 11, 10, 10 and 10 respectively.

The young and shorter Vikings were led by Bob Walker's 19 counters while Lynn Newell chipped in with 17 and reserve Mike Pavlak added 13 for the losers.

Van Voorhes, who made some fine moves like Class A players, put the Hawks on top at the conclusion of the first period, 17-15 on a tip in.

With Osman doing a fine job of setting up Fennville's plays and Keag controlling both backboards, the Blackhawks increased their margin to four points at the half to set the stage for Osman's heroics.

The scrappy Vikings never gave up against their bigger opponents, as they tallied 20 points in the final period to 21 for the winners.

Fennville was charged with 16 turnovers while Hopkins committed 23 in a "ping-pong" type of contest that saw both teams running up and down the court at full speed to the delight of the large crowd.

The victory was sweet for Coach Sam Morehead's Hawks, who gained revenge from an earlier 88-69 loss to the Vikings.

Fennville will play fourth Hamilton Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the semi-final game and Morehead couldn't help but look forward to meeting the Hawkeys, as he said, "anything can happen when we play Hamilton and the team with the best percentages will probably win Thursday's tilt."

"It was a fine team victory for us and I was happy to see Schoeneich, Jim Sexton and Carlos Alfaro come off the bench and do the job for us tonight," concluded Morehead.

Dr. James Barker Addresses Meet Of Xi Beta Tau

Dr. James Barker, head of the Holland-West Ottawa Special Education program spoke to the members of Xi Beta Tau at the home of Mrs. Jack Starck. He talked on the revolutionary change taking place in today's education system, noting the need for individualized instruction, instead of mass standards for everyone.

Lecture type learning will be replaced with performance. They will move away from the grading system, and instead of the time element as to how one accomplishes his work, it will be graded on the performance that he is capable of.

They hope to have computerized programming for a student, and he will be taught the subjects he is capable of learning. Getting away from the use of subjects that are required of everyone, even if they are unable to cope with them. This would remove the pressures put on the younger generation by society, and make for a more content individual.

The business meeting was then called to order with the opening ritual. Plans for the potluck were discussed for March 15 at the VFW Hall. Rushing of new members will be postponed until after this meeting.

It's 'Do Your Own Thing' For That Spring Outfit

This spring, women may wear any skirt length, may combine colors and fabrics, and may definitely do their own thing.

Such was the verdict of forthcoming seasonal apparel at a style show Tuesday afternoon for members of the Women's Literary Club put on by Jacobson's.

Spring styles ran the gamut from short-skirted golf outfits and short shorts (no, not hot pants) to the knee-length outfits in varying styles, the below-the-knee styles, the midis, and in a few cases even longer.

Coordinating accessories were equally interesting. Besides scarves of varying sizes and colors, were belts (often wide belts worn higher than the waistline), exciting arty jewelry, usually of a single piece, footwear featuring straps and heel slings, chunky heels and shiny boots including shin-shams, a glove-like article which matches the shoes, and (wonder of wonders) hats, and smaller purses.

The popularity of the pantsuit past season has spawned pant outfits in new styles and materials including a bloomer outfit. Dramatic, sweeping capes were modeled with real flair.

Soft pinks and blues in floating chiffons and voiles vied with splashy colors in pue silk, plus a variety of fabrics with a surprisingly large numbers of woolens. Washables in polyester were particularly popular.

Resthaven Guild Meets; Hears Review of Book

Resthaven Guild met in the First Presbyterian church sanctuary on Friday evening as guests of the Women's Association of the church with Mrs. Al Dyk in charge of arrangements. The president, Mrs. Everett Hart greeted those attending and extended a welcome during the devotional period. Her topic was Christian unity.

She introduced Mrs. Al Kane presenting a review of the book "Handicap Race" by Dorothy Clark Wilson. The story is an account of the life of Roger Arnett, well known in College sports events in the field of track. In 1928 he was the national champion distance runner winning the six-mile race in college competition, for Eastern Michigan Normal School, now Eastern State University. He continued to be a winner and was suggested as a possible entrant for the Olympics. But in 1932 he suffered serious injuries in an automobile accident which made him a paraplegic. His heroic and courageous efforts to continue living a useful life in spite of almost unsurmountable difficulties make for a gripping human interest story. After a long hospitalization and therapy he was successful in founding a bulb growing business. He married and he and his wife adopted two children, one a handicapped child. He also finished his college course and took night classes to fit him to work with the handicapped in nursing homes, hospitals and wherever there was need. Some of his commendable rules for living are: 1. Have faith in God; 2. Have patience; 3. Work hard; 4. Do not give up hope; 5. Engage in physical competition; 6. Be useful; 7. Have love for those in need; belong to a group; 8. Have creativity and begin to live the eternal life now.

Mrs. Maude Dogger, Guild president thanked those taking part and read a short prose selection "The Guidance of My Lord."

The 1970 annual and the current treasury reports were given by Mrs. Edward Spruit. The activities of the Guild were reviewed by Mrs. Willis Van Vuren.

There will be a birthday party at Resthaven honoring 22 residents in early March to be given by Maple Avenue Christian Reformed Church.

Holland Chalks Up 14th Victory

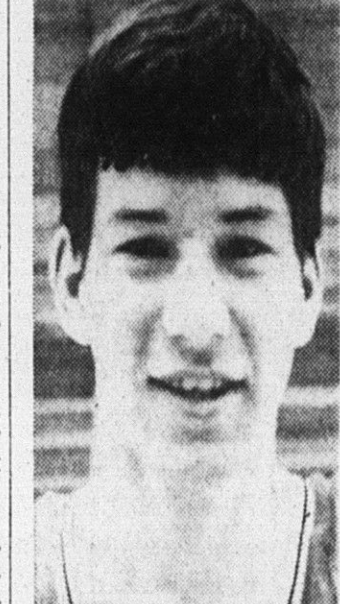

The Holland High Dutch put on their wooden shoes here Friday night on the basketball court as they danced right past the Mona Shores Sailors to the tune of 73-58 to give Coach Don Piersma his best won-lost record ever in his nine years at the helm of the Dutch.

Holland's victory gives them an overall 14-2 record heading into the state cage tournaments. Piersma's best previous mark was 12-4 in the 1963-64 and 1964-65 seasons.

The Sailors ended the regular season with a 8-8 mark and fell to the Dutch in their first meeting earlier in the year, 65-71.

It was evident from the start that the long lay-off hurt the Dutch in the early going when they just couldn't seem to put anything together.

Holland hadn't seen action since Feb. 16 when they bombed Benton Harbor, 99-77 and

Jim Helmink ... pours in 36 points

Piersma commented after the game, "those 10 days off really hurts us out there tonight but wasn't that Jim Helmink something else."

Indeed he was, as Holland's hot shooting forward, who can hit from anywhere on the court, led all scorers with 36 points and took down more than his share of rebounds.

Helmink has been called "the best" forward they have seen by many opposing coaches this season and has a good chance of making first team all-state.

Senior forward Tom "Buck" De Vries, who was playing his last game in the Fieldhouse along with center Greg Slenk, guard Mark Frego, Bill Wood, Helmink and Ravan Woodall was the only other Holland player to reach double figures with 10.

Guard Jim Vanderweele paced the losers with 19 markers while center Brian Gibson and guard Frank Howell added 12 and 10 in that order.

The Dutch made 20 of 64 shots for a 45 per cent clip while the Sailors were icier than the water in Lake Michigan as they only hit on 22 of 73 attempts for 30 per cent.

Mona Shores made four less turnovers than Holland, 21-17 in a foul marked contest that saw 23 fouls called on the Dutch and 18 on the Sailors.

Things didn't look so rosy for the Dutch in the first period, as the Sailors jumped out to a 6-0 lead before Helmink started to find the range from all over the court.

Helmink tallied 12 of Holland's 14 points in the first eight minutes of play as Mona Shores tied the game at 14-all at the conclusion of the period. Although leading by five points, 30-25 at the half, the Dutch started to put the frosting on the cake early in the third quarter, as they outscored Mona Shores, 9-0 and 7-2 on two different sprees.

The splurge was led by the fine shooting of Steve Shinabarger, playmaking of Frego and strong board work from Helmink and De Vries.

Helmink started off the fourth stanza by coming up with another of his famous "scoop" shots to give the Dutch a 57-41 bulge.

Slenk also came to life in the final eight minutes, as he followed in two missed layups with buckets and was clearing the boards from both ends of the court with authority.

Bauman's reserve team ended its season on a happy note by edging the baby Sailors in overtime, 77-76 on a basket by Jed De Boer with 22 seconds left to play.

De Boer led all scorers with 29 markers while Steve Miller and Ron Israels helped out with 17 and 14 respectively.

The Little Dutch finished their season with a fine 9-6 record. Holland (73)

Dr. Tharin Shows Slides of Trip To Mineral Club

Dr. J. Cotter Tharin, chairman of the Hope College geology department, spoke to more than 100 persons at the meeting of the Tulip City Gem and Mineral Club on Wednesday evening.

He was introduced by Clarence Nies, chairman of the program committee. Dr. Tharin, who sponsored a trip which 30 students and some faculty members took last summer, which included 3½ days on the Colorado River, showed slides of this trip.

It was just 100 years ago that Major John Wesley Powell placed three small boats in the Green River of Wyoming and began a journey which terminated 90 days later in what is now the state of Nevada. Major Powell was the first white man to view the Yellowstone area. As a result of that journey through the Grand Canyon and subsequent studies of the Colorado Plateau, many theories about the land surface evolution, erosion, age of the Rocky Mountains and various other aspects, have been definitely altered.

Dr. Tharin's group began their trip at Lee's Ferry in two large pontoon rafts and traversed 80 miles of the river, stopping each night to camp among the banks. They rode through 60 rapids, and also saw a number of caves along the way which had been occupied by a tribe of Indians until about the year 1275. As near is known, there have not been Indians in that area since that date.

As the group progressed to their destination at Phantom Ranch, they noticed the rocks became progressively older, from the Paleozoic age to the Pre-Cambrian age, over two billion years old, Dr. Tharin said.

President John Kinschott presided at the business meeting and introduced new members, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Menzies, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Nickrent and their son. Prizes were awarded to Jesse Vanderborgh, Vivian Bolhuis, and Don Tourteloutte. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Mickey De Ridder, Mrs. Arthur Banks, and Mrs. Marvin Wabeke.

2-Car Collision Near Allendale Injures Six

ALLENDALE — Six persons suffered minor injuries Saturday in a two-car collision at 68th Ave. and Pierce St. in Allendale Township. All were treated at hospitals in Zeeland and Grand Rapids and released.

Ottawa county sheriff's deputies said cars driven by Lee Dyke, 48, 11340 68th Ave., southbound on 68th., and Gary Weekley, 25, 9987 96th Ave., eastbound on Pierce St., collided at 5:39 p.m.

The Weekley car was struck broadside and the impact forced the Weekley auto into a utility pole.

Dyke suffered facial lacerations and was treated at Zeeland Community hospital. Weekley, his wife Frances, 22, and three children, Steven, 5, Greta, 2, and Karl, six months, were treated at Butterworth Hospital in Grand Rapids.

Adrian Upsets Hope for First MIAA Triumph

ADRIAN — When misfortune hits Hope College's Flying Dutchmen, it strikes with both fists.

Not only did Adrian's offense pummel Coach Russ DeVette's team, 90-69, Saturday, but the Adrian defense eliminated hot-shooting Dan Shinabarger's hopes of winning the MIAA basketball scoring crown.

A well-balanced scoring offensive by Adrian's starting five plus sharp defense kept the Dutchmen off balance and enabled Adrian to lead throughout the game, despite the fact that Hope's Dan Shinabarger and Marty Snoop led all scorers with 21 and 18 points respectively. Adrian led at the half 46-29.

Mounting the scoring attack for Adrian were Bill Kaiser, Brad Lyons and Jim Okenka with 15 points apiece and Gary Barcus and Steve Balyo with 14 each.

The loss took its toll on left-hander Shinabarger, as he went into the game needing 34 points to tie and 35 to beat Alma's Charlie Hudson for the MIAA scoring championship. Shinabarger was off by 13 points, and as a result finished second to Hudson for the second year straight.

Hope ended the season with a 7-5 win-loss record in the MIAA to share third place with Kalamazoo College while posting a 13-9 record overall. The loss gave Hope the dubious distinction of being the only MIAA school to lose to the Adrian team.

Saturday's win left Adrian with a 1-11 record in the MIAA and a 2-20 score overall.

Hope College Presents String Quartet Concert

The Guarneri String Quartet performed Friday night in Hope College's Dimmet Memorial Chapel, representing the fourth in a series of six events of the Hope College Cultural Affairs Great Performance Series. They performed the works of five composers, opening the program with Beethoven's quartet in C minor, Op. 18, No. 4, followed by Stravinsky's Concertino, Antonio Vivaldi's Six Bagatelles, Op. 9, and Meditation on an Old Bohemian Choral, Op. 35, written by Josef Suk. Following intermission they played Robert Schumann's Quartet in F major, Op. 41, No. 2.

The program, while relatively brief, displayed a masterful dexterity of talent by each member of the group. Each in turn took the control, leading the quartet along with the abundance of musical taste and understanding. The members of the Guarneri, violinists Arnold Steinhardt and John Dalley; Violist Michael Tree and cellist David Soyer, are young men and have been together for a relatively short time, but they present a refined style of performance and sharp instinct for the ensemble form. Founded at Vermont's Marlboro Music Festival, the quartet takes its name from a European Quartet called the Guarneri. They are both named for an 18th century violin maker. While the quartet presents composers such as Berg, Webern, Sessions, Kirchner, Schoenberg, Bartok, and Hindemith. The Guarneri opened its 1969-70 season with an inaugural concert at Alice Tully Hall in Lincoln Center and received a standing ovation. Their schedule this year consists of over 100 concerts in Europe and the United States. All four members of the quartet are faculty members at the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. In December of 1967 the Guarneri made a recording with Arthur Rubinstein of the Brahms Piano Quartet which was the first in a continuing series of chamber music recitals.

West Ottawa Upended By O-K Red Foe

West Ottawa ran into fired up Grandville Friday evening and lost, 83-68 in an O-K Red Division basketball game. The Panthers didn't look like the team that won its last two games over rugged Kentwood and Forest Hills as West Ottawa was bugged with turnovers and fouls.

The game started with the Panthers almost in complete control and it looked as though the game would be a repeat of the last two. Mike Gorman, Keith Raak and Jim Bagladi seemed to have the boards under control and the Panthers were setting up their plays nicely with Jack Glupker getting seven points.

West Ottawa had an eight point lead 18-10 at the end of the period and the fans settled back for what appeared to be another win.

However the Bulldogs started a hard press in the second period and the Panthers started to turn the ball over. Grandville started to find the range from the field and tied the score at 18-18.

The game was pretty even for the rest of the period with Gorman's good rebounding and Ron Holstine showing a lot of hustle, the half ended with Con Zommermaand sinking a field goal at the buzzer to give West Ottawa a one-point lead, 33-32.

The third period saw the Grandville Bulldogs hitting on everything they would shoot and the Panthers couldn't find the range. Again the hard press on West Ottawa saw several turnovers and the Panthers rebounding was not up to par, and at the end of the period West Ottawa was down by 10 points, 56-46.

The final period was much of the same as the Bulldogs could do no wrong. This showed true in the statistics too as Grandville shot 61 per cent in the second half.

The game saw several seniors playing their last regular game. They included Glupker, Holstine, Raak, Doug Cook and Bagladi. All the players and their parents were introduced at the half time intermission.

Glupker was the only Panther player to end up in double figures at 13 with Cook and Zommermaand scoring nine points each. Overall West Ottawa shot 40 per cent compared to the Bulldogs 43 per cent. The Panthers were guilty of 27 turnovers and lost in the rebounds 45-21.

West Ottawa's Junior Varsity also was defeated by Grandville 53-46. The Panthers were down by 19 points at the half and came on strong in the final two periods but couldn't overcome the deficit.

West Ottawa Strokes To Invitational Swim Title

Dutch Score 106 Points In Meet

West Ottawa's swimming team stepped one step closer to the state swimming crown as they stroked to a first place in the Ninth Annual Southwestern Invitational Swimming Championships held in the West Ottawa Natatorium Friday and Saturday.

The pack of powerful Panthers displayed their prowess as pool, meet, and varsity records fell in several events.

Opening the meet, the local strokers pulled for first place in the medley relay as Mike Battaglia, Steve Hopkins, Jon Helder and Dave Ketchum combined to register a time of 1:49.9. Holland quartet of Jack Beukema, Dave Holt, Bruce Keen and Dick Beedon pulled for fourth.

The Panthers continued to pull ahead in the 200 - yard freestyle with John Boes and Ron Leeuw tallying third and fourth, while Holland High's Jim Bradford walked away with top honors in the same event.

In the individual medley, ace Kevin Mc Cully from Loy Norrix pulled way out in front, to capture first place and set pool and meet records with his time of 2:06.7. His time erased the old mark of 2:08.0 set in 1968 by Frank Smith of St. Joseph.

Scoring for the Panthers in the same event, Jeff Helder and Jim Streu took home fourth and seventh place points.

Although unable to grab a first in the 50 - yard freestyle, the Panthers demonstrated their tremendous depth as all four swimmers entered in the event scored. Rick Hamstra snatched a .23.0 second spot, with Rick Zavadi and Fred Nelis in third and fifth places respectively, and Jim Timmer in ninth, for a total of 39 points earned in that one event.

Dan La Sarge from Grandville was the show - stopper of the entire meet, as the ace diver entered the finals with 293.20 for 8 dives and sunk three additional dives for a total of 451.90 points, to set a meet record, and also post the best total in the state of Michigan for the current season diving 11 dives.

Maneuvering for points in the diving competition for the Panthers, Dan Troost, Dave De Feyter, and Don Mac Donald came off the boards in 2nd, 4th and 7th places, with Holland's Dave Sundin fifth.

After setting pool and meet records in the butterfly in the preliminary competition, Rick Zavadi came back in the finals to set the pool, meet, and varsity records once again with his time of :55.3.

Also scoring in the butterfly, brothers Jon and Jeff Helder placed fifth and sixth respectively, while Holland's Dick Beedon posted fourth place.

In another tight race, Rick Hamstra tied a varsity record for the Panthers in the 100-yard freestyle with a :50.6 clocking, while Holland's Jim Bradford chalked up a :50.7 second place for Holland's varsity mark.

Other scorers for the Panthers included Ken Wiley, Fred Nelis, and Steve Zavadi, fourth, seventh, and eighth, while Scott Maentz took home 10th for Holland.

In the 400 - yard freestyle, John Boes, having set the varsity mark of 4:10.5 in the preliminaries, returned to post third in the final competition, with Ron Leeuw and Greg Pierson in fifth and 11th, and Holland's Dave Ter Haar in 10th.

On a judges' decision, Battaglia was inched into second place in the backstroke with his time of 1:01.1, identical to the first place time, while Gary Van Kampen stroked for sixth spot.

After much scoring and re-scoring in the breaststroke, Panther strokers Steve Hopkins and Randy Hamstra were sorted into third and fourth places, while Jim Timmer took home tenth place for the local strokers, and Bruce Keen in sixth for Holland.

With a victory in the bag, the freestyle relay team composed of Jim Streu, Dave Ketchum, Steve Zavadi, and Ken Wiley put up a good fight, to end in third place with a time of 3:36.7, 1.5 seconds behind first place.

Holland's relay team composed of Jim Beukema, Dave Holt, Tim Holt, and Scott Maentz was awarded sixth place.

Saugatuck Dumps Falcons In D Tourney Tilt, 65-55

GRAND RAPIDS — If you chose a spot anywhere on the court and stood there long enough, you were bound to get fouled. That's the way it was Monday night at the Grand Rapids Union High School gymnasium where Saugatuck dumped Allendale, 65 - 55 in Class D District basketball action.

Two Allendale players, Rod Bosker and John Herrick, were sent to the bench with injuries. Both came back into the game, but Herrick soon was back on the bench once again with another injury.

In a game both marked and marred by errors, fouls and frequent turnovers the Saugatuck Indians outscored, outrebounded and outplayed the Allendale quintet in preparation for Wednesday's clash against the Holland St. Augustine Vikings.

The game started out even enough. After six minutes of play the score was tied 11 all with Saugatuck's hot - handed Bill Brackenridge canning four buckets. But with 2:17 to play in the first quarter the Indians tallied eight quick points to lead Allendale, 25-15.

The second quarter was more of the same; Saugatuck outscored Allendale 16 - 15 with Brackenridge adding eight more points to the total. Saugatuck led 41-30 at the end of the half.

The third frame saw the beginning of a comeback for Allendale as they outscored the winners, 16 - 11. Brackenridge threw in three more buckets but was outgunned by Tom Stellard who popped in four long jumpers, including a 20-footer at the sound of the buzzer. Saugatuck led 52-46 at the end of three. The final quarter got off to a slow start with a minute and a half gone before either team could alter the score. Then Allendale's Bern Rotman came alive with four tallies to narrow the gap to 59-55 with 1:11 remaining in the game. Allendale never knew what hit them.

In a flurry, John Bekken scored while Allendale booted the ball; then Bob Tucker scored for the Indians, stole the ball from the losers and Randy Neusma iced the game with his third long jumper of the quarter.

First Period Downfall For Holland

MUSKEGON — Holland High's dream for a District and State basketball championship came to an end here Monday night as the Big Reds of Muskegon upset the highly rated Dutch five, 85-74 in L. C. Walker Arena.

An icy first period proved to be Holland's downfall as the mighty Dutch ended their overall season with one of the school's best marks at 14-3.

Muskegon raced out to a commanding 16-8 advantage at the end of the first period which saw Holland only make one field goal out of 11 attempts for an unheard of nine per cent average.

Six-foot forward Wayne Knox, not only contributed 14 points to the winners attack, but held Holland's leading scorer Jim Helmink to only 15 points which is his low total for the year.

Holland's ace scorer went into the tournament with an average of over 25 points a game but Knox was sticking to Helmink like glue and when Helmink did take a shot, it usually was a poor percentage one.

Reserve guard Dave Brownson put some spark into the Dutch machine in the second quarter by sinking six straight free throws and hitting one bucket for eight points as the Dutch were battling back against the fired up Muskegon five.

After trailing 18-8, the Dutch came to life and cut the gap to one point, 23-22 with 3:13 to go in the first half on Helmink's charity toss.

That was as close as Muskegon let the Dutch get in the foul-marked contest which saw both teams running into serious foul trouble as Holland trailed by seven points, 37-30 at the half.

With the Dutch on the short side of the score, 56-42 and little time left in the third stanza, Holland outscored Muskegon, 9-0 to cut the deficit to five points and had its fans seeing visions of victory coming up.

The surge was led by the scoring and rebounding of Tom "Buck" De Vries, who drove around, over and through his man for "dog" shots to put the Dutch back in the contest.

De Vries heroics were all in vain as the Big Reds held off the Dutch to advance into Wednesday's action against Grand Haven.

The Dutch battled the Big Reds on even terms in the second half as they poured in 45 points to 48 for the winners. Holland finished the game with a percentage of 38 on 21 of 56 from the field while Muskegon made 27 of 53 attempts for 50 per cent.

De Vries finished out his career with his highest score ever with 28 markers on eight field goals and 12 free throws.

Besides Helmink's 15 counters, Brownson and Mike Riksen added 13 and 10 respectively. Riksen showed a lot of determination on the court for Holland Monday evening while Brownson regained his scoring touch in the final tilt.

Tennis star Dave Emig led Muskegon with 21 counters while Ray Turner, Eric Morris and sub Wayne Knight tallied 14, 11 and 11 respectively.

Emig, Morris and Steve Carlson fouled out for Muskegon while Helmink, and De Vries were called for five fouls for Holland.

The Dutch enjoyed one of their finest floor games of the season with only 13 turnovers compared to eight for the Big Reds, who upped their overall

Jenison Clips Eagles' Wings in Tournament

HUDSONVILLE — Jenison High School's basketball team moved into the semi-finals of the Class B District Tournament held in Hudsonville High School's gym, as they downed Hudsonville, 66-59 Monday night.

The Wildcats broke a 59-59 tie with less than two minutes left in the game, scoring seven straight free throws, four by substitute center John Van Tubergen who took game scoring honors with 20 points, and three by guard Bob Bloomer.

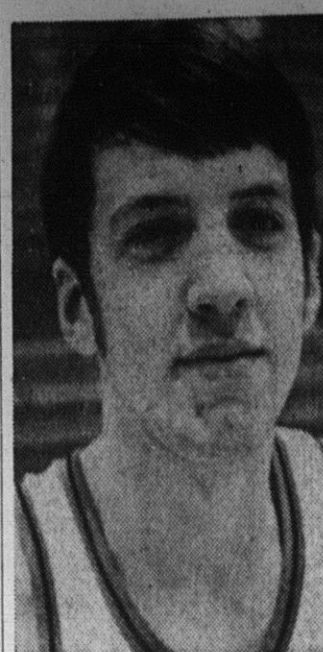

Jenison won the game at the charity stripe, as Hudsonville scored four more baskets than the Wildcats, 27 to 23, but the Eagles were called for 24 fouls compared to only eight for Jenison. The winners hit on 20 of 30 from the line.

The closely contested game was tied 14 times with the lead changing hands seven times. Eleven of the ties were in the first half.

The first quarter, which was knotted six times, ended in a 17-17 deadlock.

Hudsonville took its biggest lead of the game at 29-25 with 3:15 left in the half, and held a 32-29 margin before Jerry Root hit two fielders and Van Tubergen one, giving the Wildcats a 35-32 lead at the half.

Dan Nederveld, who kept the Eagles in the game with his fine play, gave Hudsonville its last lead, 36-35, Jenison moved mark to 10-7. Muskegon won the LMAC championship this winter with a 9-3 record.

It was a tough defeat for Holland to take after one of its best seasons ever and a disappointed Coach Don Piersma said after the game, "we had a real fine year but the Big Reds were just better than us tonight. It's as simple as that."

"We didn't put enough offensive pressure on them and Knox did a fine job on Helmink," Piersma concluded.

Even though starting center Greg Slenk of Holland played most of the game, he wasn't up to par because of a freak accident last weekend up north when his knee was run over by a car while trying to push a stuck car and slipped.

Vandals Damage Telephones In Outdoor Booths

A number of outdoor public telephones in the city have been damaged by vandals the past few days and Michigan Bell Telephone Co. officials here have become concerned about the rash of vandalism.

"We are concerned for those who want to use telephones in an emergency and the fact that some people do this sort of thing to eliminate use of telephones," Carl Marcus, manager of the local telephone office said today.

Since last Friday at least nine incidents have been reported where finger dials on the telephones have been broken, making the telephones inoperative.

Marcus told of one patron who went to two telephone booths to use a telephone and wound up in a service station to use an indoor telephone.

He said company personnel check the booths as often as they can but most of the inoperative booths are reported by customers who have had to go elsewhere to use a public telephone.

"It is a shame that those of us who find these telephones of great use are penalized by a few vandals who get pleasure out of destroying property," Marcus added.

Holland Swimmers Drop Final Meet

ST. JOSEPH—Holland High's swimming team absorbed its eighth defeat of the season, sinking 74-31 at the hands of the St. Joseph Bears Monday evening in the St. Joseph Natatorium.

Coach Bob Andree commented "The only bright spot in the meet was Dave Sundin setting the team diving record."

Co - captain Jim Bradford snatched first place in the 200-yard freestyle with a 1:55.5 clocking.

Maneuvering for 195.50 points in the diving competition, Sundin recording a new team record, although his points were good for only third place in that event.

Distance man Dave Ter Haar captured top honors in the 400-yard freestyle with his clocking of 4:36.8.

Trying for a state qualifying time, but falling short in the freestyle relay was the second place quartet of Dick Beedon, Dave Holt, Bruce Keen and Bradford.
