Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consump- tion, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Buck- len's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such uni- versal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not fol- low their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Heber Walsh Druggist 28-1y

CITY AND VICINITY.

Wheat 76 cents.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. K. De Maat, on Wednesday, a daughter.

The surprise which we mentioned last week will come off on March 28. Look out for them.

The common council has ordered plans and specifications for a brick engine house in the Fourth ward—26x46 feet, 14 feet high.

This is the time of the year when the announcement of J. Venhuizen, the city scavenger, will be of special interest. It will be found in another column.

Work on the extension of the north pier at St. Joseph will be commenced by contractor Crosby, of Muskegon, as soon as navigation becomes at all practicable, so that material may be shipped there by boat.

The circuit court will convene next Monday. There are four criminal cases on the calendar as follows: People vs. John Verhoeks, bastardy; People vs. Henry Dyk, appeal for assault; People vs. Owen C. Pearl, rape; People vs. Fred Lockard, perjury.

The case of Dr. J. D. Wetmore vs. the Township of Holland for the re- covery of a doctor's bill of $68, which has been pending in the courts for the last eighteen months, has been with- drawn and settled, the township pay- ing the bill in full with interest and costs.

The new weekly, "The West Michi- gan Independent," to be established at Grand Haven by Messrs. Holmes & Cronin, will make its first appearance about the 15th inst. It is said to be independent in politics, as far as prac- ticable, with decided leanings toward "labor."

The People's Party will hold their county convention in Grand Haven on Saturday of this week. The call in- cludes the nominating of a candidate for county school commissioner and the election of delegates to the judicial convention. Each township will be entitled to five delegates and each ward to three.

John Woltman of Chicago was in the city last week, to complete the trans- fer of the schr. Wonder, bought of John Nordhouse, and arrange with D. Schols of the north side ship yard for sundry repairs. Walter Johnson, also of Chicago, has an interest in the ves- sel with Mr. Woltman. She is likely to continue in the stove trade between here and Chicago.

City treasurer J. Pessink made his settlement with the county treasurer on Wednesday of this week. The as- sessment rolls of the city called for nearly $30,000, and of this amount less than $200 has been returned delin- quent on real estate—all of which re- flects creditably upon the thorough- ness with which the treasurer has at- tended to his duties, as well as upon the financial health of the city.

At a People's caucus held in the of- fice of Squire Fairbanks, Thursday evening, the following were elected delegates to the People's county con- vention to be held in Grand Haven on Saturday: Geo. Ballard, O. J. Hansen, D. Cronin, J. B. Allen, W. Baumgar- tel, F. H. Pulman, Henry Parkes, Chris. M. Hansen, R. H. Habermann, D. L. Boyd, J. A. Roost, Wm. Hayes, D. A. Reynolds, Jas. De Young, J. W. Flieman, J. W. Regol.

In speaking of the recent musical entertainment given at Friedrich's music hall, Grand Rapids, the Democrat makes the following mention of one well-known to many of our citi- zens: "Miss Eva Johnson is not known in this city, but her rich, high soprano was a real surprise and pleasure. In those rare and beautiful gems, 'Who is Sylvia,' by Schubert, and the song from Gounod's 'Blondina,' with vi-olin obligato, the character of her voice was charming. Nor was its clearness and purity less noticeable in the cele- brated Bach-Gounod 'Meditation.'"

With a view of placing themselves aright with their constituency and to remove whatever misapprehension there might still exist as regards the final outcome of the recent legislative annexation, the Lansing delegates of the territory now known as the Fifth ward will convene with their late con- stituency at the "red schoolhouse," on Saturday forenoon of this week. The meeting will be a sort of "commence- ment," a formal severing, as it were, for the time being, of former ties, the assumption of higher and loftier re- lations on the part of those that gradu- ate, with a few hearty words of en- couragement and good cheer to the undergraduates who for the present are left behind, but are expected to join them again in the near future.

It thaws, but chills.

St. Patrick's Day comes on the 17th this year.

The first blue-bird of the season was seen in Centennial park, Wednesday.

The annual meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. will be held at Benton Harbor, April 5 and 6.

Dr. Charles Shepard of Grand Rap- ids, one of the pioneer physicians of that city, died Wednesday afternoon.

De Pree has sold his interest in the drug business in Grand Rapids to his partner J. Meeusen, and removed to Lake City, Mich.

The members of the Senior class of Hope College were entertained on Fri- day evening by Prof. and Mrs. G. J. Kollen, at their home on Twelfth street.

The stove factory of J. & A. Van Putten started up again this week, with improved machinery, thus giv- ing employment to not less than twenty-five hands.

Mrs. W. Jacobusse died in this city, at the residence of her son-in-law L. Van Slooten, Saturday, aged 74 years. The funeral was held Monday, and conducted by Rev. E. Van der Vries.

The Independent Home Missionary Society of Holland will meet with Mrs. J. W. Rhoades, east Ninth street, on Wednesday afternoon, March 22. All ladies interested in helping the poor of our city are cordially invited.

There was something appropriate in the manner in which the Holland Martial Band on Monday evening, with drum and fife, reminded our citi- zens of "The Struggle for Chattanooga," and prepared them to greet the lecturer of the evening.

Under the provisions of a law passed at the present session of the legisla- ture, amending the existing statute with reference to the appointment in each county of a soldiers' relief com- mission, Judge Goodrich last week made the following appointment for Ottawa county: G. Van Schelven of Holland, Sherman Boyce of Grand Ha- ven, and Enno Pruyn of Spring Lake.

The Apollo Orchestra of this city has been approached by the secretary of music of the World's Fair, whether their services as musicians could be secured at the Columbian Exposition during the summer. The several mem- bers of the organization are so situated that they had to decline the offer. It is nevertheless no small compliment for the boys, to have been thus recog- nized.

The furniture manufacturers throughout this state are rallying to the bill now before the senate which is directed against prison furniture. The present system of convict labor in the state is said to be disastrous to the furniture trade in many lines and has in fact driven concerns out of the field in the manufacture of many ar- ticles, such as cheap chairs and bed-steads.

Room No. 7, in the central school building, was broken into during the night of Wednesday. An examination of the tracks showed there must have been more than one individual, and that they made their ascent along the fire escape, raised a window, and then forced the catch of the blinds. Every- thing in the room appeared to have been untouched. The only traces left were some crumbs and a button—just an ordinary button.

The business men of Holland appear to be very much in earnest in their present effort to establish a permanent boat line between their city and Chi- cago, and as they usually pull together and make a success of whatever they undertake, we look to see their under- taking successful in this instance. Certainly when the new steamer now building at Roger & Bird's yard in this village is in commission they will have one of the staunchest vessels on Lake Michigan.—Saugatuck Commercial

The Nautical Comedy Drama, will be the attraction at Lyceum Opera House, Saturday evening, March 11, with Martin Hayden the author in the leading role. The play and company have been greeted everywhere this season with crowded houses and it is conceded to be the best entertainment traveling. The company carries a large amount of special scenery and some of the scenes are marvels of stage mechanism, notable the storm scene on the Gulf of Mexico, which shows a storm tossed sail boat in mid-ocean, with a rain storm of real water, and any one who has ever seen a storm at sea, can appreciate the situation with- out drawing upon the imagination to any great extent. The plot of the piece is a pathetic story, interspersed with good comedy and pleasing spec- alities.

During the week nearly everybody was his own street commissioner.

Bord to Mr. and Mrs. E. Holkeboer, Thirteenth street, on Wednesday—a son.

Will Lamereaux, the barber, has moved into his new shop, the old post office, on Eighth street.

Rev. H. E. Dosker supplied the pul- pit of the Ref. church in Zeeland, on Wednesday, the day of prayer for crops.

The local authorities inform us that the ordinance forbidding the use of wheels on sidewalks will not be a dead letter this season.

Saturday last was pension day. The amount disbursed by Uncle Sam to the old soldiers in Holland and vicinity is estimated at about $2,400, every three months.

Isaac Verschure lost a part of the thumb of his right hand, Wednesday afternoon, while cutting staves at the factory. Dr. Wetmore dressed the wound.

If the weather and the roads permit the launch of the steamer "City of Holland," at Saugatuck, in the latter part of the month, will be attended by a large number of people from this city.

H. Hart, M. T. Ryan, C. R. Wilkes, R. L. Newnam, Wm. Lee, J. Blair Jr., and A. C. Calkins represented the Allegan Democracy in the judicial convention held here on Thursday. The Ottawa wing of the circuit was represented by L. Jenison, C. T. Pag- elson, M. Walsh, and Wm. Van Dre- zer.

Rogers & Bird of Saugatuck have sold their interest in the stmr. Bon Voyage to eastern parties. As soon as the "City of Holland" is launched from their yard at Saugatuck they will at once lay the keel for a new steamer for the fruit trade at that port, next season. The Bon Voyage is laid up at Grand Haven this winter.

The State teachers institute for Ot- tawa county will be held this spring at Coopersville, commencing on Monday, March 27, and continue during the week. Prof. Cha's McKenney of Oil- vet College has been appointed con- ductor, to be assisted by Sup't E. P. Church of Cadillac and Miss Elnoir Cuddeback of Grand Rapids. This able corps of instructors assure a pro- fitable time to our teachers, and none should lose this opportunity for self-improvement.

The appearances in the store of Wm. Brusse & Co., on Thursday morning, were as if some one had been taking inventory during the night. A large part of the stock had been over- hauled, some of it having been rough- ly handled. It was at once evident that the place had been burglarized. The safe also had been broken into, and for want of any money being found therein the insurance policies had been carried off. Several articles of clothing were found, as a watch, a ring, and a Columbian half-dollar. It appears that an entrance had been effected through the basement. Wm. Brusse & Co. offer a reward of $25 for the re- turn of the property, to which sheriff Keppel has added a like amount for the arrest of the thief or thieves. No clue as yet to the identity of the par- ties.

Our citizens feel a deep obligation to the Woman's Relief Corps for their efforts in securing us the opportunity of listening to Rev. Washington Gar- ner, of Albion College. The disap- pointment occasioned by his non-ap- pearance last month was more than made good by his eloquent and patri- otic effort on Monday evening. The hall was well filled, while the veterans of the late war were largely represen- ted. The speaker was introduced by Hon. D. B. K. Van Baalte and en- thusiastically received by the audience. The history of "The Struggle for Chat- tanoga," as portrayed by one who participated in it and who has since made that battle a special object of study, is such as to enlist the deep in- terest of any American patriot. A ge- ographical survey of the territory in dispute, with its strategic bearings; a resumé of the movements of the troops; the vivid description of battle and the climax of contest, with an oc- casional outburst of patriotic devotion and sentiment—all this held the au- dience in spell-bound rapture and sym- pathy with the speaker and his sub- ject. The lecture was one of the most satisfactory and instructive entertain- ments of the season. At the close a camp-fire was held in G. A. R. hall, where the ladies of the W. R. C. served refreshments and short talks were in- dulged in by the speaker of the even- ing, and comrades Van Baalte, Kra- mer, Van Schelven and Wilms.

Reed's Opportunity.

The adoption by a unanimous vote of a complimentary resolution to the presiding officer at the close of a session is one of the unwritten rules of legislative and deliberative bodies. In the national House of Representatives this rule has been followed from time immemorial, with only two or three exceptions. One of these was in the case of Speaker Reed, two years ago, when under the leadership of Mr. Mills of Texas, on a yea-and-nay vote, the Democratic members of the House recorded themselves against the passage of such resolution.

As the hand on the dial of the large clock in the hall of the House on Saturday last approached the hour of noon, and the Fifty-second Congress was about to expire, it was Mr. Reed's opportunity to get even with his opponents and place himself on record as the greater of the two. As the leader of the Republican minority he rose in his seat, and addressing the Speaker, said:

Mr. Speaker, the Speaker of this House holds an office of dignity and honor, of vast power and influence. The extent of that power and influence can not be described even by one who has been honored by its possession. All this dignity, honor, power, and influence were created, not to adorn or glorify any individual, but to uphold, support, and maintain the well-being of the people of the United States.

That that officer should be respected and esteemed concerns every member of this House, not only as a member, but as a citizen of the United States.

No factional or party malice ought ever to strive to diminish his standing or to lessen his esteem in the eyes of members or of the world. No disappointments or defeats ought ever to be permitted to show themselves, to the injury of that high place. Whoever, at any time, whether for purposes of censure or rebuke, or from any other motive, attempts to lower the prestige of that office, by just so much lowers the prestige of the House itself, whose servant and exponent the Speaker is. No attack, whether open or covert, can be made upon that great office without leaving to the future a legacy of disorder and of bad government.

This is not because the Speaker is himself a sacred creation. It is because he is the embodiment of the House, its power, and dignity.

If efforts of that kind have been made in the past, if at any time, in the heat of passion or in the flush of resentment over unexpected defeat and overthrow, action has been taken which has been thus inimical to the public good and the public order, let us leave to those who so acted the honor or the shame, and in no way give to their example the flattery of an imitation.

While, therefore, my associates and I have not forgotten the past, I am sure that I speak the sentiment of them all when I say that the Republican party, without regard to what any other party may do, or what any other party has done, will buttress, by the respectful behavior of each and every one of its members, this high office. (Applause on the Republican side.)

Therefore, placing patriotism above partisanship, placing duty above even a just resentment, notwithstanding we do not approve of the parliamentary law of the Speaker and his associates, and deem that the system re-established is undemocratic and unwise, nevertheless, by offering the customary resolution, we tender to the Speaker of this House the expression of our belief that he, like all his predecessors, has performed the trying duties of his office with upright intention and honorable purpose. (Applause.)

I offer the resolution which I send to the Clerk's desk:

Resolved, That the thanks of this House be presented to the Hon. Charles F. Crisp, for the able, impartial, and dignified manner in which he has presided over its deliberations, and performed the arduous and important duties of the Chair.

The Speaker pro tempore: The question is on the adoption of the resolution. As many as favor the adoption of the resolution will rise and stand until they are counted. Three hundred and thirty Representatives have voted in the affirmative. The Chair adds one more vote, and makes it 331. The resolution is unanimously adopted. (Applause.)

(The Speaker, Hon. Charles F. Crisp, here entered the Hall and amid general applause resumed the chair.)

The Speaker. I am sure the House will indulge me for a moment while I return to each of its members my heartfelt thanks for this expression of confidence and esteem.

In a body like this, whose members represent widely separated constituencies with interests which often seem to be and perhaps are conflicting, there are necessarily heated contests upon the floor, and naturally at times we all of us are somewhat hasty in expression, and say things and do things which we afterward regret. But I am sure the House will believe that I deal with it in the utmost candor when I say that at this moment, as the pleasant relations that have so long existed between us are about to be dissolved, toward each and every member of the House I entertain the warmest feelings of friendship; and if there lingers in the bosom of any one of my affront, fancied or real, from any ruling or expression of mine. I beg to say to him now and here that I regret it, and that if I have done that I ought not to have done, it has been an unintentional error; because I have endeavored only to discharge my duties and to enforce the rules as the House has adopted them, with courtesy, firmness, and impartiality.

I thank you again for this kindly expression, and beg to say to you that there is no incident in my career from which I shall and do derive more gratification than the incident which has just transpired in this House in the presence of all its members. (Applause.)

County of Ottawa, }

CLERK'S OFFICE, GRAND HAVEN, }
February 23, A. D. 1893. }

TO THE ELECTORS OF OTTAWA COUNTY:

You are hereby notified, That at an adjourned session of the Board of Supervisors of Ottawa County, held in the City of Grand Haven, in said County, on February 14, A. D. 1893, it was resolved by said Board:

I. That it is deemed necessary and it is hereby proposed to erect a new court house for the use of the county, on the square now occupied for that purpose in the city of Grand Haven, and also to make several needed repairs on the county jail located on the same premises;

II. That the sums of money necessary to be raised by the county for said purposes are hereby determined to be as follows, to-wit: Towards the erection of a new court house (in addition to the amount of fifteen thousand dollars, deposited with the county treasurer by the citizens of Grand Haven for said purpose), the sum of twenty-seven thousand dollars, and for the repairing of said jail the sum of eight thousand dollars, aggregating in all the sum of thirty-five thousand dollars;

III. That it is hereby further determined and proposed to raise the said amount of thirty-five thousand dollars by loan, as follows:

Ten thousand dollars, payable on the first day of February, A. D. 1894;

Fifteen thousand dollars, payable on the first day of February, A. D. 1895; and Ten thousand dollars, payable on the first day of February, A. D. 1896; all drawing interest at the rate of not exceeding five per cent per annum, payable annually, both interest and principal to be paid at the office of the county treasurer;

IV. That for the purposes of said loan the bonds of the County be issued, in the sum of one thousand dollars each, to the aggregate amount of thirty-five thousand dollars, as hereinabove determined, with the coupons attached, providing for the annual payment of the interest thereon whenever the same is to fall due; said bonds and coupons to be signed by the chairman of the board of supervisors and countersigned by the clerk, and to be negotiated from time to time in such manner and amounts as the board of supervisors may deem expedient and shall direct;

V. That upon the negotiating of said bonds the amount of twenty-seven thousand dollars is to be placed by the county treasurer upon the books of his office to the credit of the "Court House Building Fund," and the amount of eight thousand dollars to the credit of the "Jail Building Fund," in such installments, from time to time, as the board shall direct;

VI. That for the authority to make said loan and issue the bonds therefore, as hereinbefore determined and proposed, the question is hereby submitted to a vote of the electors of the county voting thereon in the several townships, wards and election districts of said county, on Monday, the third day of April, A. D. 1893, that being the time for holding the annual township meeting; that at said election the vote shall be by ballot and in manner following, to-wit: the substance of the question thus submitted shall be printed upon a separate ballot, and shall be set forth substantially in form and words as follows:

Shall the county of Ottawa raise by loan the aggregate sum of $35,000, for the purpose of erecting a new court house and repairing the county jail, that is to say: For the erection of such new court house the sum of $27,000, and for the repairing of the county jail the sum of $8,000; and shall the bonds of the county be issued therefor, payable as follows: $10,000 on the first day of February, A. D. 1894; $15,000 on the first day of February, A. D. 1895; and $10,000 on the first day of February, A. D. 1896; all drawing interest at the rate of not exceeding five per cent per annum, payable annually?

FOR the Loan..... ☐
AGAINST the Loan..... ☐

Now, therefore, you are hereby notified, in pursuance of the above and of the statute in such case made and provided, that at the election to be held in the several election districts of the County, on the above question of raising the said amount by loan in the manner and for the purpose as in said resolution contained, will be submitted to the vote of the electors as above set forth; And that at said election each voter voting on said question shall designate his vote on the ballot by a cross-mark in the square opposite the words "For the Loan," or opposite the words "Against the Loan," as he may elect.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, the day and year first above given.

GEORGE D. TURNER,

Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Ottawa County, Mich.

JENKINS GETS THE JOB.

WISCONSIN FURNISHES THE SUCCESSOR TO GRESHAM.

Cabinet Appointments All Confirmed—Strength of the Democrats in the United States Senate—How the Senate Will Vote Upon the Current Questions.

To Succeed Gresham.
Judge James G. Jenkins, of Milwaukee, now Judge of the Eastern District of Wisconsin, will be the successor of Judge Gresham on the circuit bench. Monday morning General Gresham handed in his resignation as Circuit Judge to President Cleveland, and within an hour afterward his successor was selected. He was recommended not only by the leading members of the bar of his district, but also by the Wisconsin Senators and Democratic members of the House.

DEMOCRATS HAVE IT.

'Tis Settled that They Will Control the New United States Senate.

All the States have chosen new Senators, either by election or appointment, except Montana and Washington. The Republican Governor of the former will appoint a Republican to serve until the next Legislature elects, and a Republican is assured eventually from Washington, the Legislature of that State being largely Republican. Counting the Senators from these two States, therefore, as Republicans, the new Senate will be composed of forty-six Democrats, thirty-eight Republicans, and four Populists. The members are distributed as follows:

HILL VOTED FOR THEM.

No Opposition to Cleveland's Cabinet Appointments.

There was quite a crowd at the Capitol to see the Senate in extra session. Every seat was filled, Mrs. Stevenson and friends occupying prominent places to see the new Vice President preside. He did so with perfect self-possession. The Chaplain had hardly finished his prayer when at 11:50 Major Pruden, the President's executive clerk, appeared upon the floor of the Senate bearing the nominations of the officers of President Cleveland's Cabinet. After the Journal of Saturday's session was read Mr. Pruden presented his message and on motion of Senator Harris the Senate went into executive session. The executive session lasted less than half an hour. There was a scurry among the newspaper men to learn what had been done and it was quietly announced that all of the nominations had been confirmed. There was no opposition, so far as could be learned, all the Senators voting aye. Neither Senator Hill nor Senator Murphy, of New York, had anything to say in favor of or against the nominations and voted promptly to confirm them. As soon as the doors were opened the Senate adjourned till Thursday noon.

Gray to Get the Mexican Mission.

The friends of ex-Governor Gray have received assurances that he will be tendered the Mexican mission by President Cleveland, and it is said that the Governor has been formally notified of the intended appointment. The position is said to be the best, in a financial sense, of the missions, the pay being $17,500 a year, and the cost of living in the Mexican capital is comparatively small. It is understood that Gray is arranging his business with a view to leaving for the post of duty about April 1.

Not in Favor of Stop-Over Tickets.

The Executive Committee of the Trunk Line and Central Traffic Associations are not in favor of issuing stop-over tickets from Eastern points to the World's Fair. Such a form of ticket was determined upon by the Trunk Line people a few weeks ago. In deference to the objections of the Western railroad men, however, the matter was referred to a joint meeting of the General Passenger Agents of each association.

To Suppress Slave Traffic.

Advices from the Congo Free State are to the effect that the authorities have determined to follow up the victory won by Commodore D. Hanis over the Arab slave traders, who were led by a son of Tipu Tib. The Free State officials are preparing to take advantage of the dismay caused by this signal reverse to begin vigorous operations with a view to the suppression of the slave traffic.

Big Blaze in Covington.

Fire at Covington, Ky., destroyed Meyers' Architectural Iron Works, the Crawford tobacco warehouse and a number of other buildings, causing a loss of $400,000.

Poll of the New Senate.

A poll of the new United States Senate shows that of the 88 Senators now in Washington 39 favor and 28 oppose the repeal of the Sherman law, 16 being non-committal; 41 favor and 35 oppose repeal of the McKinley tariff, while 40 favor and 20 oppose the annexation of Hawaii.

MURDER IS CHARGED.

Railroad Men Held for a Chicago Crossing Disaster.

Grade-crossing slaughter was stamped as legal murder by a Chicago grand jury and Chas. D. Law, an important officer of one of the greatest railroads in America, will be forced into court to defend himself against the charge of criminal destruction of human life. With him will be arraigned the flagman and gateman whose negligence was responsible for leaving open the gates through which a street car dragged four people to death, and the locomotive engineer whose recklessness gave the touch necessary to complete the death trap. The case upon which the indictments were based was the accident on the Pittsburgh and Fort Wayne Road at the 47th street crossing on Dec. 20. A crowded horse car was permitted to pass through the gates, and before it was half across the tracks a locomotive drawing a construction train at a furious rate of speed struck it. The car was smashed and in the wreck four persons lost their lives and many were injured. The accident was so clearly chargeable to the carelessness of the railway employees and to the absolute recklessness of public safety countenanced by the management in the running of trains, that the State's Attorney determined to make the case a matter of grand jury investigation. The jury heard the testimony and came to the conclusion that the matter should be carried further. The grounds upon which the indictment was found are that conclusive evidence was presented to show that Mr. Law had general supervision of the railroad lines and that he was responsible for the speed at which the trains were run.

HARRISON DECIDES TO LECTURE.

Accepts the Chair of the Law at the University of California.

Early Thursday afternoon President Harrison sent a note to Senator Stanford informing him that he had decided to accept the law chair at Palo Alto University. There has been considerable doubt as to whether Mr. Harrison would go to California, as he had set his heart on resuming his practice of law in Indianapolis. He would probably have adhered to this intention had not domestic afflictions changed his plans. The annual trip to California will be a pleasant diversion for him, and as his time there will not be spent in idleness, the place he has accepted will be particularly pleasing. He will go to California in October to deliver his course and it is expected that he will spend some time in sight-seeing. His salary has not been made public, but it will be large enough to save him from working if he is not so disposed. Senator Stanford was greatly pleased when he received the President's acceptance.

WHIPPED BY WHITE CAPS.

Negro Laborers in Mississippi Beaten by Cruel White Men.

Near Wesson, Miss., White Caps, numbering about fifty, went to the houses of several negro laborers and took them out to the woods, where they were whipped and instructed to leave the community at once. They also went to the home of a negro preacher and took him out for the purpose of hanging him, but before they reached the spot selected for the hanging, which was several miles distant, the prisoner effected his escape. The negroes in the affair and many of the planters who employ negro labor say whitecaps are calculated to drive away the colored labor, which, if done, will entail heavy loss to the prosperous planters.

DANGERS OF CRINOLINE.

An Attempt to Introduce the Fad Embroils a Tennessee Congregation.

In attempting to introduce the crinoline fad into the rural districts of Dade, Tenn., Mrs. Sanders caused a fight in the church last Sunday. In entering the church the cumbersome skirts brushed against several persons and Andrew Watson made a remark which insulted the lady, who informed her husband. A fight ensued, the relatives and friends of both parties engaging in the battle. Women fainting, children screaming, and pandemonium reigned supreme. Many emerged with bleeding and broken heads, vowing vengeance. Several of the parties are gunning for each other and the crinoline fad is on the decline.

Populists in Their Seats.

At exactly 10 o'clock Tuesday morning the members of the Dunsmore house, headed by Speaker Dunsmore and Speaker Pro Tem. Semple, marched in a body into Representative Hall and took their seats in the legal House of Representatives at Topeka, Kan. The Sergeant-at-Arms led the procession with a large American flag. No demonstration of any kind was permitted. The House was rapped to order and the roll called. Populist members for the first time answered to the Republican roll call. Occasionally one of them filed a protest against the Supreme Court's decision. A few of these were very bitter in tone. The formal surrender was made without special incident, and the Kansas revolution was formally brought to an end.

Set Fire to 4,000 Barrels of Oil.

The pipes of the Crescent Pipe Line Company were torn up at Mowry's Mills, Pa., and 4,000 barrels of oil poured out into the creek. The depredators chopped down a number of telephone poles, destroying communication, and set fire to the oil. The blazing oil destroyed a number of bridges and much valuable timber. It is generally believed that persons living in the neighborhood who have done work for the company and claim they were not paid are responsible.

FOSTER REFUSES GOLD.

THE SECRETARY WOULD NOT PAY PREMIUM ON IT.

Senator Teller Offers $1,000,000 in Coin from Denver Banks for the Same Sum in Legal Tender Notes, but It Is Declined—Under Fallen Walls.

Declines a Proffered Loan.

In the Senate Mr. Teller, Republican, Colorado, in order to prove the ability and desire of the West to help the Government, read a dispatch which he had received from the Clearing House Association, of Denver, offering to exchange $1,000,000 in gold coin for $1,000,000 in legal tender notes. He said that he had communicated this dispatch to the Secretary of the Treasury and had received this answer: "Will receive gold in Denver. Amount of express charges on currency will be $150, which Denver parties will have to pay. The gold will be sent through the postoffice at no cost to the Government. If I should pay express charges it will be equivalent to paying premium on gold—a thing I do not like to do." Mr. Teller's reply to this, entirely upon his own responsibility, was: "I do not think the Denver banks will pay the expense you mention. I can see no reason why they should." In view of that correspondence Mr. Teller thought that the reported strat of the Treasury Department was entirely unfounded. He was authoritatively informed that several millions of gold could be had in the same way from the extreme West if the Treasury Department desired it. If the West did not get all it wanted in appropriation bills it contributed more to the growth of the country than any other section.

CAPSIZE IN THE BAY.

Fatal Careening of the Barge Kitty M. Forbes at a Launching.

A dispatch sent from Bay City, Mich., says that twenty persons were hurled into the freezing waters of Saginaw Bay, amid flying sticks of timber and swirling blocks of ice, by the sudden careening of the lake barge Kitty M. Forbes just as the new schooner Mary McLaughlin was launched from the E. W. Wheeler Company shipyard. Three of those dashed into the water were drowned. Their bodies have not been recovered. Half a score of those rescued are injured, some fatally. As soon as all the men who managed to keep above water were rescued two divers dropped into the slip in the gathering darkness to search for the bodies of those who sank never to come up alive. The divers worked faithfully, but no bodies were brought to the surface up to 6 o'clock in the morning. It is certain that Boss Bennett and George Hawkins, two bright boys who lived with their parents in Bay City, are lost. They were seen near the rail on the hurricane deck of the Forbes just as the launch was made, and must have been pushed overboard by the struggling mass of humanity behind them. Fred Peel, a Michigan Central Railroad conductor, whose home is in Detroit, was also on the hurricane deck of the Forbes, and a friend of his who stood beside him, and who was rescued from the slip after being nearly drowned, is confident Peel was lost.

OUTRAGE ON AN AMERICAN.

A Cleveland Man, Held in a Mexican Prison, Becomes Insane.

About two years ago W. T. Adams, a well-known member of the American colony in the City of Mexico, became involved in a quarrel with a waiter in the National Theater restaurant, which resulted in his shooting and instantly killing the waiter. He was arrested and placed in Boleyn prison, where he has been confined ever since, his case not having come up for trial. Recently his mental condition was examined into by medical experts, who reported that he was insane. Jesus F. Nieto, the prosecutor of justice, is looking into the case, and has announced that Adams must be tried for his crime, notwithstanding the report of the medical experts. Mr. Adams is a native of Cincinnati, O.

ESCAPED BY THE WINDOWS.

Arkansas Female College Burned and Six Pupils Injured.

The Arkansas Colored Baptist Female College at Little Rock, a large two-story building, was burned. There were twenty pupils in the college, all of whom escaped by jumping from second-story windows. Six were injured, two of whom—Florida Neely and Hattie Turner—will die. Everything in the building except two school desks was burned. The Arkansas Vanguard, the organ of the colored people of Arkansas, had its office in the building and was also burned out. The building was worth $8,000 and was insured for $4,000. The fire is believed to have been the work of an incendiary.

NAMED IN MICHIGAN.

Durand for the Supreme Court and Harmon and Dunker for Regents.

Every county in the State, except a remote one, was represented at the Michigan Democratic Convention at Detroit, Tuesday, and the number of delegates present compared well with those at any of the gubernatorial conventions. Albert R. Morse was temporary and ex-Governor Winans permanent chairman. Judge Geo. H. Durand, of Flint, was nominated for Justice of the Supreme Court, receiving 618 of the 936 votes. For Regents of the University of Michigan, Henry A. Harmon, of Detroit, and Robert E. Dunker, of Muskegon, were nominated.

The Pugilistic MILL.

Joe Goddard, the "barrier giant," and Ed Smith, the Denver pugilist, met in the arena of the Olympic Club, at New Orleans, for a purse of $10,000, the loser to take $1,500, barely enough from the purse to defray his training expenses. The winner also took the $3,000 side wager. The result proved the greatest surprise pugilistic circles have experienced for many years, even greater than that of the Sullivan-Corbett fight. Ed Smith won in the eighteenth round, after one of the greatest contests ever witnessed in the athletic arena. From beginning to end the Denver boy showed that he was nerved to the backbone, and the fact that he fought Goddard with the Australian's own tactics shows that he never lost confidence in his ability to win.

Finds Nebraska Was Robbed.

The special committee of the Nebraska House made an incomplete report of its investigation into the State asylum staffs by contractors who furnished coal, flour and provisions. The committee estimates that the State has been robbed in these items alone of a sum not less than $25,000 a year for three years past.

May Form a New Political Party.

From what can be learned from the delegates of the American Protective Association, in session in Cleveland, there will be some action taken before they conclude their meeting looking toward the formation of a new political party.

GROVER'S GOLD POLICY.

He Will Place Every Dollar on the Gold Basis for Full Value.

A statement concerning the new administration's financial policy has been published in a Wall street newspaper. It was asserted that, above all things, the new policy will be to make every dollar of United States money as good as gold. Just how this is to be done was not explained, but the following plan was said to have the approval of Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Carlisle: First—Retire all paper money. Second—Coin silver to take its place; issue coin certificates as receipts for deposits of coin. Third—Establish an equivalent fund to hold and maintain the difference in gold between the bullion value and the face value of silver coins. To do this, purchase the gold required by an appropriation from the revenues of the Treasury from year to year, or sell United States bonds and apply the proceeds to said purchase. When the plan is carried out the money of the United States will be gold coin and silver coin equivalent with gold—the money of the Constitution.

ANTI-OPTION IS DEAD.

Beaten in the House by a Vote of 172 Years, 123 Nays.

Mr. Hatch's anti-option bill met with defeat Wednesday in the House, the vote standing: Yeas 172, nays 123, which is not the necessary two-thirds in the affirmative. Mr. Hatch moved to suspend the rules and concur in the Senate amendment to the anti-option bill. Against this motion a point of order was made but was overruled. A second was then demanded on Mr. Hatch's motion. The opponents of the anti-option bill then entered upon a filibustering campaign against Mr. Hatch's motion and business in the House came to a standstill. When afterward considered by the House and Mr. Hatch's motion to suspend the rules having been seconded by a vote of 163 to 7, the vote stood as above, 172 for and 123 against the bill.

She Comes with an Address.

Princess Victoria Kaiulani, the 17-year-old Hawaiian girl, who is anxious to find out "where she is at" in the matter of throne, arrived at New York from England on the Teutonic Wednesday afternoon. The Princess is a dignified young woman, tall, slight, straight, has beautiful black eyes and the musical voice of her race. Her sight has been affected by overstudy and she wears glasses. She talked freely and pleasantly about her life in England, but was disposed to say very little on the subject of Hawaiian politics. "You see, I really do not know what the situation is," she said. "When I left England, the news we had received made it seem as if I had no home and no people. I must wait and see what has been done and is being done before I can say more than is contained in my address to your people."

Stricken by a Strange Disease.

A strange and fatal disease has visited the people of Loretto and Sta. Anne's, Man. Scarcely a house has escaped it, and forty-eight deaths have been reported up to date, the majority of them being children. It was thought at first the disease was diphtheria, and then scarlet fever, but the doctors now do not seem to know what it is and can do little toward stopping it. Some who are reported to be better in the morning are dead before night.

Reaching for Real Estate.

Maryland has brought suit against West Virginia to recover the entire territory lying between the north and south branches of the Potomac River. Six large counties, with a population of nearly 100,000, are involved, and, in addition, if Maryland wins the suit, five other West Virginia counties will be cut off from the rest of the State.

Two Children Born in a Hack.

At Springfield, Mass., Mrs. Edward Bourden gave birth to twins in a hack, just after being turned from the doors of the city hospital. The incident was a striking example of the hollowness of intricately organized charity. She finally found refuge in the private institution of Isaac Buscall, on School street.

Fearful Blood Poisoning.

John W. Mackay, the bonanza king, who was shot last Friday by an insane man in San Francisco, has had to have his wound reopened, as it was healing too fast and blood poisoning was found to be imminent. Rippey, the assassin, has suffered a relapse, and apparently invites death by indifference.

Four Injured in an Explosion.

One hundred pounds of gunpowder exploded in the sporting goods store of Rawlins Brothers, St. Louis. The front windows were blown out and the street strewn with broken window-glass, boxing gloves, broken shotguns, rifles, etc. The injured number four.

New York's Appropriation.

The additional sum of $300,000 has been appropriated by the New York Senate to World's Fair purposes.

INAUGURAL ADDRESS.

DELIVERED AT WASHINGTON BY PRESIDENT CLEVELAND.

Full Text of the Customary Speech of the Incoming Executive—Says Tariff and Finances Should Receive Attention to Avert Dangers That Menace the Country.

Talked to Thousands.

Immediately after receiving the oath from Chief Justice Fuller, President Cleveland delivered his second inaugural address. It was as follows:

My fellow-citizens, in obedience to the mandate of our countrymen I am about to dedicate myself to their service under the sanction of a solemn oath. Deeply moved by the expression of confidence and personal attachment which I have received from the people, I deem it fitting on this occasion, while indicating the opinions I hold concerning public questions of present importance, to also briefly refer to the existence of certain conditions and tendencies among our people which seem to menace the integrity and usefulness of their government. While every American citizen must contemplate with an almost painful enthusiasm the growth and expansion of our country, the sufficiency of our institutions to stand against the rude shocks of violence, the wonderful thrift and enterprise of our people, and the demonstrated superiority of our free government, it behooves us to constantly watch for every symptom of insidious infirmity that threatens our national vigor. The strong man, in the confidence of sturdy health, courts the sternest activities of life and rejoices in the hardihood of constant labor, may still have lurking near his vitals the unheeded disease of consumption, which, while he cannot be doubted that our stupendous achievements as a people and our country's robust strength have given rise to a heedlessness of those laws governing human health, which we can no more evade than human life can escape the laws of God and nature.

Tackles the Money Question.

Manifestly nothing is more vital to our supremacy as a nation and to the beneficent purposes of our government than a sound and stable currency. Its exposure to degradation should at once arouse to activity the most enlightened statesmanship; and the danger of depreciation in the purchasing power of the wages paid to our laboring men and the consequent temptation to prompt and conservative action. In dealing with our present embarrassing situation, as related to this subject, we will be wise if we temper our confidence and our national strength and resources with the frank concession that even these will not permit us to defy with impunity the inexorable laws of finance and trade. At the same time, in order to adjust differences of opinion and our judgments should be unmoved by alluring phrases and unproved selfish interests. I am confident that such an attitude of mind will result in prudent and effective remedial legislation. In the meantime, so far as the executive branch of the government can intervene, none of the powers with which it is entrusted should be withheld when the national credit is deemed necessary to maintain our national credit or avert financial disaster.

Concerning the Tariff.

Closely related to the exaggerated confidence in our country's greatness, which tends to disregard the rules of national equity, another attitude of mind is not less serious, and that is the prevalence of a popular disposition to expect from operation of the government special and individual advantages. The verdict of our history, which is the verdict of the people, is that the government should be a government of general protection for the protection of the people's servants the duty of exposing and destroying the brood of kindred evils which are the unwelcome progeny of our selfishness. This is the duty of our public institutions and the constant peril of our government by the people. It degrades to the purposes of wily craft the plan of rule of the people, and it degrades to the purposes of wily craft the plan of rule of the people, and it degrades to the purposes of wily craft the plan of rule of the people.

Pension Expenditures.

The acceptance of this principle leads to a rapid reduction of expenditures which burden the labor and thrift of a portion of our citizens to aid ill-advised or languishing enterprises in which they have no concern. It leads to a challenge of wild and reckless pension expenditures, which overlaps the bounds of grateful recognition of patriotic service and prostitutes to vicious uses the people's prompt and generous impulse to aid the deserving. Legitimate service, every thoughtful American must realize the importance of checking at its beginning any tendency in public or private station to regard frugality and economy as virtuous and to regard pension expenditures as meritorious. The idea results in the waste of the people's money by their chosen servants and encourages prodigality and extravagance in the home life of our citizens. Under our scheme of government the waste of public money is a crime against the citizen; and the contempt of our people for economy and frugality in the home life of our citizens is a crime against the citizen; and the contempt of our people for economy and frugality in the home life of our citizens is a crime against the citizen.

Staffs by Civil Service Reform.

One mode of the misappropriation of public funds is avoided when appointments to office, instead of being the rewards of partisan promise, are awarded to those whose efficiency promises a fair return of work for the money expended. To secure the fitness and competency of appointees to office, and to remove from political action the demoralizing madness for spoils, civil service reform has found a place in our public policy and law. The benefits already gained through this instrumentality entitle it to the hearty support and encouragement of all who desire to see our public service well performed, and who hope for the elevation of political sentiment and the purification of political methods.

The existence of immense aggregations of kindred energies and combinations of business interests formed for the purpose of limiting production and fixing prices, is inconsistent with the fair field which ought to be open to every independent activity. Legitimate combinations should not be superseded by an enforced concession to the demands of combinations that have the power to destroy; nor should the people be served loss the benefit of competition, which usually results from whole some competition. These aggregations and combinations frequently constitute conspiracies against the interests

BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

The New City.

The act re-incorporating the City of Holland received the executive endorsement on Wednesday evening of this week, and is now LAW.

The immediate effect and result of this enactment is that it places Holland in the front rank of Ottawa county, and makes her the third, if not the second, city in the Fifth congressional district.

Our territory now will embrace 1850 acres, with a population of about 6,000.

The above claims are endorsed by other facts and statistics. Postmaster Van Duren informs us that at the end of the present quarter, March 31, the business of his office will beyond doubt show the annual receipts to be in excess of the sum of $8,000. This will take Holland out of the ranks of third-class offices and advance her as second-class. The only other second-class office in this congressional district is Ionia. The favorable bearing this will have upon Holland being designated in the near future as a free-delivery office, will be apparent to all.

Bernardus Grootenhuis.

The sudden death of Mr. Grootenhuis, on Friday, March 3rd, mentioned in the News of last week, has created a painful and lasting vacancy in the ranks of our first settlers. His life and services during the early period of the Holland Colony made him a prominent character, and his departure has revived, for the time being, much of the written and unwritten reminiscences of that period.

The deceased was born Sept. 12, 1814, at Ommen, Netherlands. In 1846 he joined the first party of emigrants that were destined to be the fore-runners of a large exodus and the pioneers of an extensive colonization in several of the western states. This party was under the direct leadership of the late Dr. Van Raalte.

They embarked on an American brig, the "Southerner", and weighed anchor at Rotterdam in September, 1846, crossed the Atlantic in 47 days, arrived in New York Nov. 4, and proceeded thence via Buffalo and Cleveland to Detroit, where they spent the greater part of the winter, continuing their journey via Kalamazoo and Allegan to these regions in February 1847, when they erected their first log huts east of the present city.

Mr. Grootenhuis, although a painter by trade, had mastered surveying and as such he was enabled during the early years to render the colonists in the various localities most valuable services, which were duly appreciated. He was also one of the trustees for the plated village, to regulate the sale of lots and the trust funds accruing therefrom.

In another capacity also he filled a very important position during the first and second year of the colony, and that was as manager of the "colony store." As the winter of 1847-48 approached it was evident that some supplies had to be gathered, sufficient to last them till the opening of navigation in the spring. A meeting of all the colonists, including those that had settled in what is now Zeeland, was called, to devise ways and means in that direction.

It was proposed to appoint some one to go east, among the friends of the Hollanders, and buy an assorted stock of goods and provisions, each head of a family to contribute according to what scanty means he had left. Mr. Grootenhuis was selected as such agent, and with him was also sent Mr. Young, of Grand Rapids, the father of the first supervisor of Zeeland township. He continued in charge of this store for over a year and until its dissolution. About this time he purchased the forty-acre tract of land, on Sixteenth street, which he improved, and a part of which he has ever since continued to own as his home.

For a period of ten years, from '52 to '62, Mr. Grootenhuis made his home again in Detroit and Grand Rapids, following his trade, at the expiration of which he returned to Holland.

In 1867, when the city was incorporated and set-off from Holland township, he was elected supervisor of the township, and served in that capacity for three years. Later on the board of supervisors appointed him county drain commissioner, which position he held four years. Upon the organization of Hope Reformed church, in 1861, Mr. Grootenhuis, with the late Dr. B. Ledebor, were elected the first elders.

Mr. Grootenhuis was a man of bright intellect, but not free from eccentricities. He possessed many of the traits, virtues and characteristics of the traditional Knickerbocker—honest, truthful and reliable, but often hampered with a degree of positiveness, uncalled for by the environments. He was totally devoid of those sickly sentimentalities which in certain circles prevent the naturalized foreigner from becoming a loyal, devoted American citizen. To the war for the Union he gave his two sons, one of whom made his last answer to roll-call amid the anguish of the Wilderness.

He is survived by his widow—to whom he was married in 1841; a son—John; and two daughters—Mrs. J. Kerkhof and Mrs. J. Ter Beek. His funeral took place Monday afternoon, from Hope church, Revs. H. G. Birchby and H. E. Dosker officiating.

Judicial Convention.

The Republican judicial convention for the Allegan-Ottawa circuit was held in this city on Wednesday, and called to order by the chairman of the committee, Geo. W. McBride.

On motion Edwy C. Reid of Allegan was called to the chair, Arend Vischer of Holland appointed secretary, and the following committees ordered:

Credentials — D. Stockdale, L. Mulder, Geo. D. Turner.

Organization and order of business—W. I. Lillie, F. E. Fisk, R. Alward.

The report of the committee on credentials showed the following, who were nearly all present, entitled to seats in the convention:

Allegan — D. Stockdale; E. C. Reid, H. J. Klomparsen, S. S. Fox, J. O'Brien, D. C. Henderson, F. E. Fisk, M. N. Wing, Jos. Stratton, A. W. Sherwood, J. Crispe, Geo. Hack, David Goodman, Ed. Hawley, Seth Knowles, John Strabbing, Wm. Cox. Ottawa — W. I. Lillie, H. F. Harbeck, A. Vischer, Geo. D. Turner, Chas. E. Soule, J. C. Post, R. Alward, J. Cooney, A. Lahuis, H. Pelgrim, W. Boynton, J. B. Perham, W. Diekema, L. Mulder.

The temporary organization was made permanent.

In behalf of the Ottawa delegation W. I. Lillie moved to dispense with the formality of a nomination and ballot, and to declare Hon. Phillip Padgham, the present incumbent, the nominee of the convention — which resolution was adopted by an unanimous and very expressive YEA.

Judge Padgham, in response to calls, acknowledged the nomination with thanks: "On a similar occasion, a few months ago, I pledged myself, so far as in my power, to fulfill the duties of the office. By the expressed will of the people, in November, I was placed in a position to meet that promise, and have endeavored to do so. I renew that pledge to-day. It is fair to infer from your action to-day that my efforts in that direction have been successful. Permit me to state, through you, to the people of the circuit, that if again elected to the honored position I shall discharge its duties with fear, favor and partiality."

A new committee was appointed, consisting of Geo. W. McBride, W. I. Lillie and Geo. D. Turner of Ottawa, and F. E. Fisk, D. Stockdale and Ed. Hawley of Allegan.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The attendance at the reading room last week averaged the largest of any week, since the opening of Bergen Hall.

At some future date, in the month of April, to be designated hereafter, the association will give a concert in Lyceum Hall, on which occasion the citizens of Holland will be tendered the opportunity of becoming better informed and more intimately acquainted with the musical talent in their midst. The arrangements for this concert have been left with a committee of three, consisting of Dr. J. G. Huizinga, G. W. Browning and W. A. Holley.

The next monthly social will be held Wednesday evening, March 22, in Bergen Hall. The following are charged with the necessary details: Ja's Kole, Arthur Van Duren, Henry Kiekintveld, Dirk Te Reller, Nich. Frakken, Ben. Brouwer, J. G. Winter and Cornelius Hazen.

On next Tuesday evening, at the earnest solicitation of a large number of the members, there will be a repetition of the spelling match, preceded by other literary entertainments, under direction of the educational committee.

The gospel meeting on Sunday afternoon was the largest held this winter. The services on next Sunday will be conducted by J. C. Post.

The committee in charge of the completion of the gymnasium are pushing matters to their utmost.

The chapel has been adorned with an adjustable book rest, the gift of Ja's A. Brouwer.

The enrolled membership of the Association, active and associate, is now 168.

For the Flag.

The following One Dollar subscriptions have been handed in at the News office for the colors of the new steamer "City of Holland":

S. O. T. A.

The South Ottawa Teachers' Association held their regular monthly meeting at Forest Grove, Friday evening, March 3, and Saturday, March 4.

The evening meeting was occupied by a debate on the question: "Resolved, That foreign emigration should be prohibited for five years." The affirmative was taken by L. C. Plant, assisted by G. H. Koolker, and the negative by S. B. Smith, assisted by S. Coburn. The judges selected were divided in their verdict as to the merits of the arguments, two voting in favor of the negative and one in favor of the affirmative. It seemed to be the feeling among the teachers that the two who decided in favor of the negative did so not on the merits of the arguments, but simply declared their own sentiments on the question.

The principal paper read on Saturday was on the subject: "The Bible in our Schools," by S. B. Smith. This brought out a spirited discussion, as to whether we have a right to read the Bible in districts where the patrons are decidedly opposed to it. The feeling was, that we have not.

After this, questions were asked and answered and other matters disposed of, whereupon the meeting adjourned to meet at Zeeland on April 1st.

Resolutions were also passed thanking the people of Forest Grove for their kindness and hospitality. The teachers were met at Hudsonville by teams on Friday afternoon, and enjoyed a sleighride to the place of meeting. They were also lodged and fed in sumptuous style and taken back to Hudsonville Saturday afternoon.

The teachers who attended felt amply repaid by the kindness shown them and the interest taken in the meeting.

The late Curtis W. Gray.

Coroner Gray, as he is best known to the present population of Ottawa county, died at his home in Grand Haven on Wednesday, aged 90 years. He was taken with a cold only a few days ago, which developed into the grippe, resulting in his death.

Mr. Gray was born near Brookfield, Conn., Dec. 15, 1802. When a boy he learned the tanner's trade. In 1837 he came to this state, and in 1852 he came to Grand Haven, where he has continued to reside ever since. During his first three years of residence there, he worked in C. B. Albee's tannery. He took an important part in Ottawa county public affairs in those years and in 1855 became sheriff of the county, serving eight years. He also has been deputy U. S. marshal for a long term of years and as coroner he served over 20 years.

The deceased leaves a widow and two children.

Wm. A. Gavett, agent of the C. & W. M. at Detroit, has resigned to accept a position with the Equitable Life of New York. Mr. Gavett will work in Michigan.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. Osgood,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. Kitchener,
Covington, Ark.

The Centaur Company, 77 Murray Street, New York City.

Castoria.

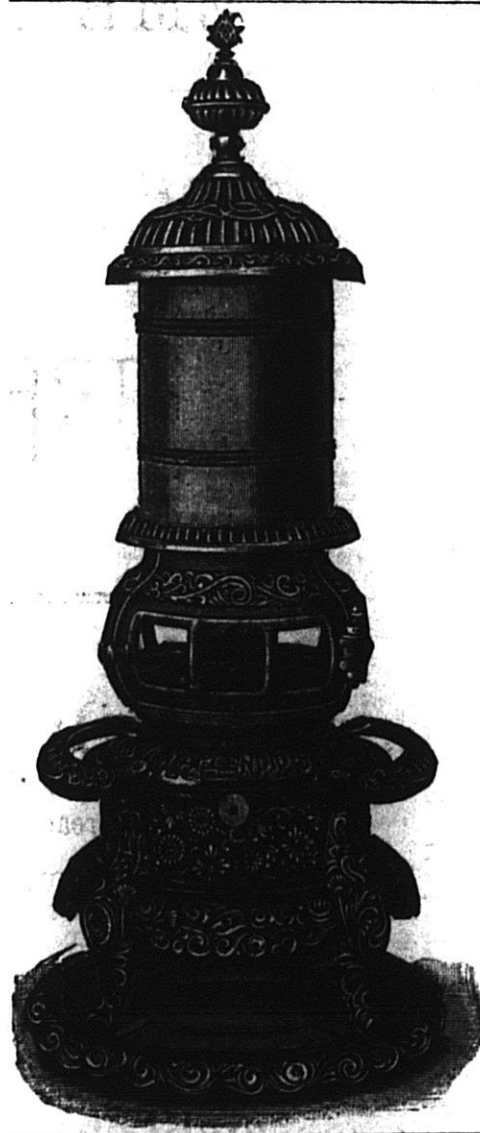

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. Archer, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

THE NEW ADMINISTRATION IS USHERED IN.

Cleveland and Stevenson Placed at the Head of the Nation Amid Great Democratic Enthusiasm—Nearly Half a Million Visitors in Washington—Chief Justice Fuller Administers the Oath—Military Demonstration—The Inaugural Ball—Gen. Harrison's Welcome Home.

Democracy's Great Day.

GROVER CLEVELAND has for the second time been inaugurated President of the United States, and the ceremonies attending his re-accession to the office were noted for more than usual pomp and splendor. These inauguration affairs are pretty big things, and this second inauguration of Mr. Cleveland was a little the biggest thing of the sort ever seen in this country, and that means, of course, the biggest affair of the kind ever seen anywhere, for no other country than ours, and no other city than Washington, can boast among its attractions a quadrennial coronation by an outpouring of the masses and an outcropping of intense partisan joy.

For more than half a day the city looked like a vast military camp, the almost interminable marching of regulars and the well-equipped military forces of the States being broken in upon only by the riding Governors in their civilian costumes, riding past in the order that their States were admitted into the Union, and accompanied by their brilliantly uniformed staffs. Then, with an intervening interlude of Grand Army and Union veterans, came the civic half of the parade, fully as numerous and as interesting as the military display.

The weather was bad. Friday there was a storm abroad, and its center was gravitating toward the Potomac Valley. During the night it broke, and when Washington and his family awoke Saturday morning there was two inches of snow on the ground and as many more floating in the air. By noon the snow had ceased to fall, but the wind had shifted to the northeast, whence came a cutting, icy blast straight from Nova Scotia. The northeaster caught the deep snow and blew it in a biting cloud into the faces of the crowd. The bronze lady at the summit of the dome of the Capitol was coated in ice. Ice lay an inch thick on the huge wooden platform of two acres extent erected for the ceremonies, and the derricks on the unfinished Library Building across the plaza were gaunt and shining like the arms of huge frozen ghosts.

The capital city for this occasion was decked out as it never had been decked before, but the acres of flags and miles of bunting which adorned the public buildings and private shops and residences became a ghastly drooping and unpleasant force when seen through the almost opaque medium of the snow-charged air of inauguration morning.

These great inaugurals have three principal, popular features. One is the grand parade from the Capitol down the avenue past the Treasury and the White House. This occurs in the afternoon. A second popular feature is the fireworks and illumination in the evening, and the third is the inaugural ball. These are the features in which the great crowds of visitors are interested. The inauguration itself is not much to them, because so few are able to see the new President and Vice President take the oath of office. Only 1,700 people can be crowded into the Senate Chamber, where Vice President Stevenson was sworn in, and after the Diplomatic Corps, the House of Representatives, the Supreme Court, the Army and Navy, the press and families of high officials, and a few favored or influential persons have been accommodated there isn't any room left. As a matter of fact this year not one in a hundred of the people who thought their importance entitled them to admission were able to get in. There was more pulling and hauling and scheming and cajoling than there will be for the offices which Grover will have to give out. But the public could see the new President read his inaugural address. Two or three thousand were able to hear him, and 40,000 or 50,000 were able to look on, and those with sharp vision could see his lips move.

A large proportion of the organizations that were to take part in the parade arrived the day and night before-hand and, in spite of the turbulence of the elements, made a gay night of it. All the morning new marching clubs were arriving, and all the side streets were filled with Democratic societies prepared to shout their throats raw for Cleveland and Stevenson. Meantime the committee and their aids were flying around, while marching bands sounded the first notes of the coming carnival. At the Arlington Hotel President-elect Cleveland was an early riser, and as soon as breakfast was out of the way he and party found Senator Ransom and one of the Republican members of the Senate committee on arrangements waiting with carriages to conduct them to the White House.

was to take place. The most distinguished men and women in this country had gathered in the Senate for the first acts in the inauguration. The Senators themselves were seated on the right of the Senate, with the Democratic side left clear for the distinguished people who were to adorn the occasion. Then came the arrival of the diplomatic corps, which was one of the very interesting

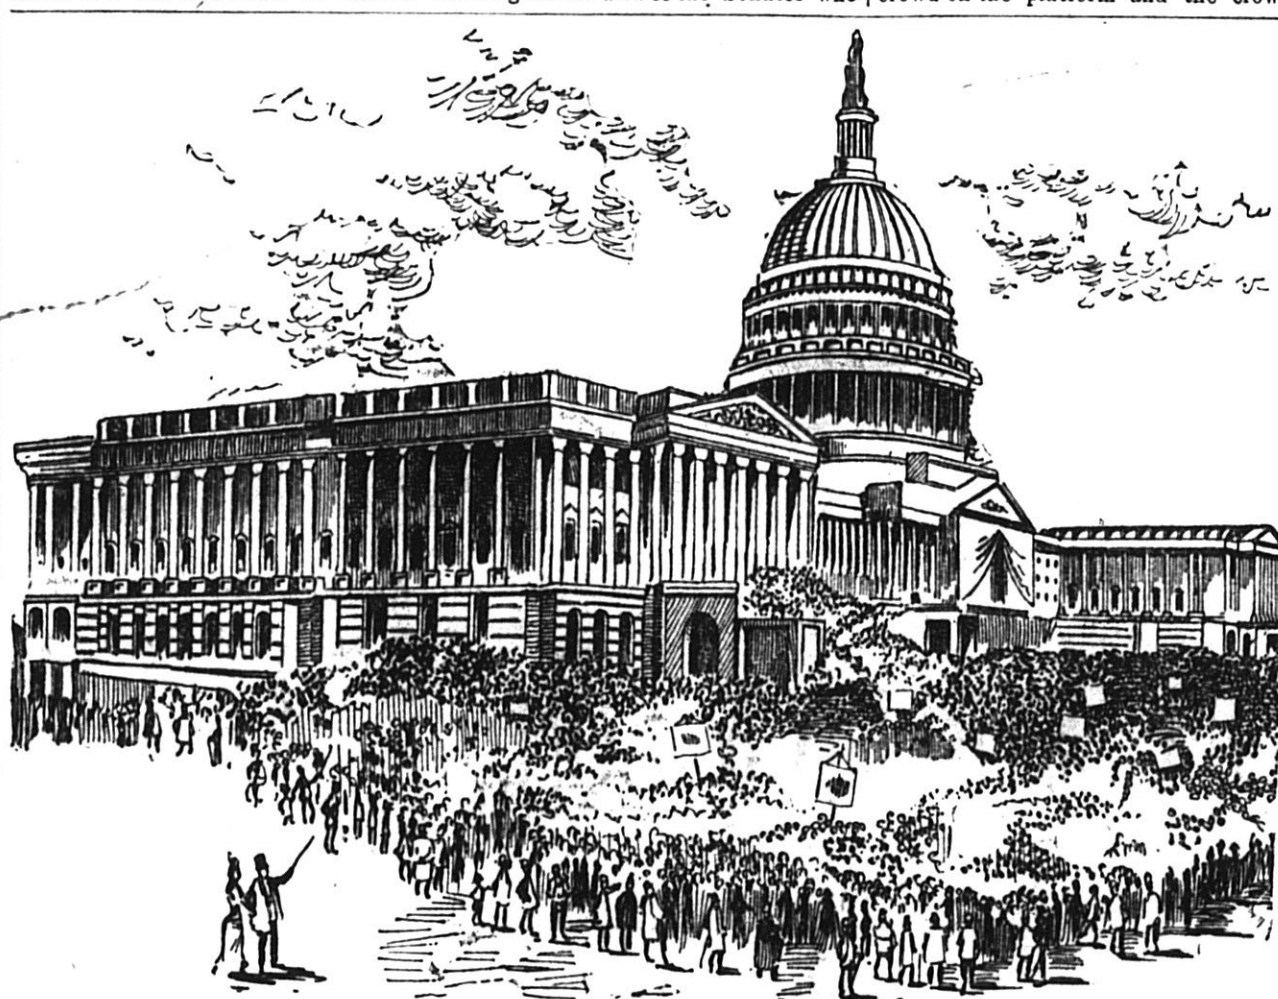

THE PRESIDENT AND THE VICE PRESIDENT.

There the President was waiting for them. About the same time Vice President-elect Stevenson arrived from the Ebbitt House, where he was quartered with his party. He was escorted by the third member of the Senate committee on arrangements.

During the morning the members of the cabinet visited the White House, and for the last time had short conferences with the President in their ca-features, as every diplomat who had a uniform or national costume wore it. Many ladies of the legations occupied the diplomatic galleries also. The next to arrive were the Justices of the Supreme Court and then came the families of the incoming President and Vice President. Then after a moment of waiting "the President of the United States" was announced and entered, leaning on the arm of the Senator who pacily as cabinet officers before he descended to the blue room to greet the incoming President and party. The house was filled with tributes in the shape of floral pieces, sent from all parts of the country.

Drive to the Capitol. Shortly before 11 o'clock the president and President-elect entered the carriage to drive to the Capitol. They were seated in a carriage, drawn by four high-bred horses. The President occupied the right-hand seat, with the President-elect on his left, while facing them, with their backs to the horses, rode the dignified Senator Ransom, of North Carolina, who was a member of the committee before at Mr. Cleveland's inauguration, with Senator Teller on his left. Behind them was another carriage, in which rode Vice President-elect Stevenson with a third member of the inauguration committee. This coach was drawn by four white horses. The members of the retiring and incoming Cabinets paired off and entered carriages. Headed by the open carriage in which the two Presidents sat with the snow falling about them, giving their great coats a white covering, the party moved out of the White House grounds. After the departure of the Presidential party the ladies of the White House, and also those of Mr. Cleveland's party, entered closed carriages and were driven to the Capitol.

The march up Pennsylvania avenue took about half an hour, during which the crowds from one end of the line to the other rent the air with cheers upon cheers. When the procession reached the Peace Monument at the rear of the Capitol, the Chief of the Capitol police force, with his men, cleared the way to the Senate approach at the east, while the procession wound its way through the south portion of the snow-covered grounds, and along the east front of the Capitol to the Senate, where the President and President-elect left their carriages, and, each leaning on the arm of a member of the Senate escort committee, disappeared within the Capitol.

Meanwhile in the Senate chamber the scene had been converted into an example setting for the historic scene which streets in every direction the crowd surged, bayonets gleamed and brass buttons danced in the reflected light from the snow. Thousands of soldiers and civic organizations were stamping their benumbed feet, waiting the order to march, and in front of the grand old Capitol they made a spectacle that was worth going hundreds of miles to see, and one that was well calculated to stir the heart of him who was about to assume the duties of the highest office in the gift of the American people. With the reverberating cheers from all of those, added to those coming from the immediate vicinity of the great platform, the demonstration was so prolonged that it was some time before Mr. Cleveland could begin his inaugural address which he then delivered.

When it was finished amid renewed cheers, which seemed to grow more excited each time, Mr. Cleveland turned to the Chief Justice of his own creation, and said: "I am now prepared to take the oath prescribed by law."

The scene that followed awed the multitude into stillness. It was the scene for the right of which many a man in the crowd had fought. It is the crowning scene in the life of any American citizen, and no doubt the significance flashed over many a man and woman there. There was the true illustration of the great American rallying cry: "Of the people, for the people, and by the people."

As the President stood there and looked out on the people he was to govern, he saw representatives of every branch that makes this great nation. People of every degree and condition, and for the peace and prosperity of all these, and many more, he is responsible. There were brilliant uniforms, and up the street was a detachment of artillery, whose cannons thundered forth as he bent to kiss the Bible and for the second time bound himself to be the father of the nation. Then the crowd on the platform and the crowd below broke loose. There was no restraint to Democratic ardor. The cheers almost awoke the dead on Arlington, where many a man sleeps who, only four years ago, stood on that very same platform and listened to Benjamin Harrison take the same oath. The people crowded about the newly made President, and it was with difficulty that he escaped their congratulations and reached the shelter of the Capitol.

After the delivery of the inaugural address President Cleveland and ex-President Harrison returned to the chamber, going at once to Mr. Morton's private room. Here an elaborate buffet lunch was ready and was speedily enjoyed. After the lunch and a few minutes spent in chatting with those present Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Harrison emerged from the room and were driven rapidly to the White House. Mr. Cleveland walked from the public door of the White House to the reviewing stand in front of the plaza.

The Harrison home, on North Delaware street. At night a popular meeting of a strictly non-partisan character was held at the State House, members of all parties joining in extending a hearty welcome home. Mayor Sullivan presided and Gov. Matthews delivered the welcome address.

convenience marched to the plaza beyond the eastern front of the Capitol, and were there assigned to their various positions in line. They were drawn up in front of the vast throng and the civic societies were also assigned places there. Soon after the oath was administered the procession started, returning to the White House by way of Pennsylvania avenue. Mr. Cleveland and those whom he had invited then from a reviewing stand which had been erected in front of the White House honored the military and civic organization by saluting and being saluted. Fourteen Governors, accompanied by their staffs, participated in the parade and marched at the head of the troops and political clubs from their respective States. The Governors wore the black clothes of the civilian, but the members of their staffs were in full uniform. Including them there were nearly 50,000 men in line.

The parade was five hours passing the stand, and when the sun went down and darkness closed on the city the air was still full of the blare of brass bands. When darkness fell upon the scene President Cleveland, who was almost the last to leave the stand, returned to the White House and sat down to a family dinner. There were present the President and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Perrine, Mr. and Mrs. Dickison, Mr. and Mrs. Lamont, Miss Saunders, Mrs. Lamont's cousin and guest, Private Secretary Thurber and Misses Bessie and Julia Lamont.

Hall and Banquet. The inaugural ball was a great affair. The enormous hall in the Pension Building will accommodate about 15,000 persons, but the number of tickets sold to the ball this year was limited to 12,000 at $5 per ticket. There were one hundred musicians in the main orchestra and sixty in the promenade orchestra. The floor manager had 600 assistants, to each of whom was assigned a section of the hall. They were all in communication with their chief by electric wire. Every one pressed his button when the sets in his part of the hall were filled, and when all had signaled, the floor manager started the music. The President and Vice President, accompanied by the Presidential party, arrived shortly after nine o'clock, and were received in a manner in keeping with the occasion. There was such an enormous crush that dancing was almost as vigorous an exercise as playing foot-ball, but all had a good time.

The big ball, however, was not the end of the inauguration festivities. On Monday, in the East room, President Cleveland gave a general handshaking, which was attended by several thousand people. There was also the official announcement of the new Cabinet, which occurred in the Senate. These events kept in Washington many who would have otherwise hurried away.

The Fountain Head of Strength. When we recollect that the stomach is the grand laboratory in which food is transformed into the secretions which furnish vigor to the system after entering and enriching the blood; that it is, in short, the fountain head of strength, it is essential to keep this important supplying machine in order, and to restore it to activity when it becomes inactive. This Hostetter's Stomach Bitters does most effectually, seasonably, regulating and re-enforcing digestion, promoting due action of the liver and bowels. Strength and quietude of the nerves depend in great measure upon thorough digestion. There is no nerve tonic more highly esteemed by the medical fraternity than the Bitters. Physicians also strongly commend it for chills and fever, rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble, sick headache, and want of appetite and sleep. Take a wineglassful three times a day.

Marshal Whitney of that city had taken into his custody one William Rogers, who is wanted by the Wells-Fargo Express Company, for defaulting with $10,000 worth of diamonds while in their employ as agent. It appears that under an assumed name he had ordered these diamonds from a New York house to be forwarded C. O. D., and upon their arrival absconded with the precious jewels, leaving the company to make good the loss. The man Rogers was recognized from a photo in the possession of the officer, sent out by the express company. A part of the goods were found on his person. When arrested he was about to take the train at Benton Harbor for this city, where he pretended to be engaged in business. Upon investigation the man Rogers was none other than Charles Kidd, of the firm of Kidd & Co., about to open a stock of gents' furnishing goods in this city, in the Y. M. C. A. block, a part of which they had rented the other day, paying six months' rent in advance. The arrested man has an uncle in Benton Harbor, whom he had been visiting. His family had already settled here, having taken rooms in the house of Prof. C. Scott. Six boxes of goods for the firm arrived this week, and are stored on the premises, unopened. In the meantime Mr. Rogers-Kidd is being held to await further identity.

A telegram was received this morning by cashier Ver Schure from his brother-in-law L. Van Putten, at Middleborough, Ky., conveying the sad intelligence that during the night his entire factory at that place had been consumed by fire. No further particulars.

C. L. Streng & Son have opened their stock, and invite the public in. They were very fortunate in having everything in order for their opening, just as the change of the weather introduces spring trade. The goods are for this season of the year, especially. Miss Hattie Schols is one of the clerks.

The Democratic judicial convention for this circuit was held here on Thursday. The two counties were well represented. L. Jenison presided with M. G. Manting as secretary. Mr. Hannibal Hart of Allegan, was unanimously renominated to the position he formerly held one year by appointment of Gov. Winans.

This afternoon the eighth grade in the grammar room went into the high school room to spell down the freshman class. When the last grammar room scholar went down, five members of the freshman class were still standing. A challenge was immediately given, and accepted, and both schools went down on "reminiscence."

During the absence of Representative Norrington and family in Lansing this winter, they closed up their residence, near West Olive. Mr. Norrington was home the other day and noticed that a gun had been stolen from his house. Sheriff Keppel was notified and happening to be in Olive Wednesday serving papers, incidentally stopped at the house of a man named Brown, who by the way, has a reputation none the best. After a little talking he got Orrin Brown to confess that a gun was in the house. The old gentleman told the sheriff that the boy bought it of a tramp. After a little more prodding the boy told the sheriff that the gun was up stairs. The upstairs rooms were not occupied, but the gun was found hidden between the rafters. Brown was then brought down to the city, plead guilty before Judge Pagelson and sentenced 90 days at Ionia.

The loss which resulted from the recent stranding of the steamer Roanoke has been adjusted. The mishap proved to be an expensive matter, as the footings reach an aggregate of $8,374. Of this sum $6,000 is set aside for the services of the Muskegon tug E. G. Crosby and her large lighter. The contract with the owners of the tug provided for no pay in the event of failure to release the steamer. Fortunately fair weather enabled the wreckers to float the imperiled craft in less than twelve hours, and their services therefore yielded upward of $500 per hour. No marine insurance is carried on the Roanoke, and the adjustment is being made to fix the percentage that must be contributed by the cargo toward the loss.

Saugatuck.

For 3 years in succession the peach crop of this section was ruined or nearly so, by a cold wave which occurred about the fourth of March, and this date has come to be dreaded by fruit growers here. So far peach buds are in splendid condition and in a few more days all danger of damage from extreme cold will be passed.

Certain Chicago parties are again negotiating for the transfer of Baldhead park. That piece of property will be of no account to this place until it gets into the hands of men who have the capital and disposition to improve it and run it for what it is worth.

Stove wood is very scarce and readily brings two dollars per cord for dry and $1.75 for green.

When the final break up comes we may look for pretty high water in the Kalamazoo river. Commercial.

I cannot say how it is with the transient individual merchant, or a scheme that they may have an end in view at its very start, but there is a fact not usually noticed by even very industrious readers and thinkers, and one which should inspire confidence in our statements. It is that we are here forever; not for a day or a year. We aren't imposed upon you if we would. We cannot cheat you and then get away with a profit therefrom. If we deceive you we must stay and face it. That means suffer for the deceit. Burnt child fears the fire, and confidence abused is most difficult to restore. We know it. It

NOT FOR A DAY OR YEAR. would be a bold and impudent defiance of public opinion to emphasize imperfections by persistently advertising them. It is not simply in publishing the advantages of a commodity or a line of travel that increases the patronage. Publication is an accessory, after fact. The fact is the possession of good features. The newspaper is at once the medium of making fact known, and as well a guarantee of its genuineness. The Chicago & West Michigan and D. L. & N. are favorite lines, because such is the fact. Their equipment is of the best, trains are run on fast schedules, and everything is done to make a journey over them a pleasure, instead of otherwise. Give us a trial and see for yourself. GEO. Cholera in Pennsylvania.

Swickley, Penn.: We had an epidemic of cholera, as our physicians called it, in this place lately, and I made a great hit with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I sold four dozen bottles of it in one week and have since sold nearly a gross. This Remedy did the work and was a big advertisement for me. Several persons who had been troubled with diarrhoea for two or three weeks were cured by a few doses of this medicine. P. P. KNAPP, Ph. G. 25 and 50 cent bottle for sale by H. Walsh, Druggist. 6-1m
