You may have tried a hundred remedies without relief, but have you ever had your eyes examined.

A large majority of headaches are caused by the eyes. And nothing in the world will stop them but the wearing of the right glasses.

That stops them almost at once and keeps them stopped.

MEN FROM THE FACTORIES ASK FOR LIGHTS

PUBLIC PULSE

Editor of the News
Through living clear upon the hill near the piano factory I would like to voice my approval of an ornamental light system. I visited the little town of South Haven, a few miles south of Holland, and I noticed that they had a mile of these boulevard lights and I must say that you wouldn't know the old town. I used to work in the piano factory down there a few years ago and when I paid South Haven a visit a short time ago I did not know that they had put in these lights, and I certainly was surprised the change it made in the appearance of the city and I assure my fellow workmen that if these lights are installed a week, there would not be a man in Holland who would vote to have them taken out. These lights will cost us much less than our public parks and is useless to say that the main streets of Holland are used a thousand times more then are our beautiful parks, but it takes nice parks and well lighted streets to make a town a place where folks like to live and congregate.

Yours for Lights.
HERMAN SCHABEL
528 College Ave.

Editor of the News:

Boulevard lights never meant much to me one way or another, until I visited my mother in Muskegon last Christmas. The old town, which used to be kind of slow and backward like Holland has sure brightened up since they got the lights. The city not only looks better, but the people are more alive, and everyone is certainly glad they have the beautiful lights.

Grand Haven, I noticed on the way has these lights too. Now, I do not know how they got them and who pays for the up-keep, but I will vote for Boulevard lights and I will be glad to pay the 46 cents a year it will cost on my property. I think the lights will help make Holland more alive, and this will help bring more factories here the same as it has done for Muskegon since they woke up.

It seems to me that if we wait for our business men to give us lights, we will never get them for our business men are not public benefactors and we can not expect them to be, as business has been none too good for sometime.

It will take a lot of good labor to put the lights up and the foundry near the boat dock where I used to work, will no doubt be glad to cast the posts. Everything considered it seems to me we ought not to let the opportunity slip to vote for the lights next week.

WILL HAVE TO HOLD ANOTHER MEETING

POLICE BOARD WILL NOT SPEND CITY'S MONEY FOR LAWYERS

YET

Will Try and Settle Matter Amicably.

In order that no wrong impression may be created, that the Police board have sanctioned the expenditure of money for fighting the De Keyser affair the News wishes to state that no such action has been taken. At the special meeting of the Board held in the office of Att. Geo. E. Kollen, the Board asked Mr. Van Duren and Mr. Kollen to mediate the De Keyser matter in order that an amicable settlement may be reached in some way. The Board has positively not sanctioned the expenditure of money for court proceedings at this time and if it finally decided to take the matter up legally the Police Board would have to meet again and so sanction.

MAY HAVE CHILDREN TAKEN AWAY FROM HER

Petitions have been filed in the probate court by Prosecuting attorney Louis Osterhaus to investigate the condition of the four children of Mrs. Antje Drost who some time ago was arrested on a charge of adultery alleged by Mrs. Gilles Boyenga to have been committed with her husband. Serious charges of neglect of the four children, the oldest of which is a little more than five years old as well as strong charges against the character of the mother, make up the reasons which the prosecutor offers for taking the children away. County Agent Rozenraad is investigating.

WHEN OUTSIDERS TAKE PRIDE IN OUR CITY AND ARE WILLING TO HELP IT WE OF HOLLAND CERTAINLY SHOULD

The sentiment is crystallizing fast for boulevard light and on the surface the indications are that the proposition will carry but supposing this were not the case what would we do with the checks sent by men like Mr. Getz and Goulds? What would we write to them? Don't let it be said that our city is not progressive enough to do what other progressive cities all around us are doing. George Getz even now is putting something over for Holland which will mean much to this city, something that this city has been clamoring for for several years. What it is will be published when the time is ripe to do so. If outsiders take so much pride in our city we certainly should.

LARGE HAUL MADE IN SPRING LAKE IS REMARKABLE

The record breaking haul of 42,000 pounds of carp in one drag made by the Gantenbein carp fishers in Spring lake a short time ago is considered remarkable as it was the only decent haul made in this part of the state all season. There were no other large hauls at Spring Lake and Ed. Oswald who was fishing in the Kalamazoo river near Saugatuck was forced to quit as he was not getting enough carp to pay his expenses. Other contractors in Michigan report the same bad luck.

DYKHUIS TRIAL TO COME UP THIS TERM

Several Cases For March

County Clerk Jacob Glerum today completed the compilation of the circuit court calendar for the March term of court. There are 10 cases listed on the criminal calendar two of them for sentence only. The most important case booked for trial is the matter against Sheriff Dykhuis which occupies the top of the list. The other cases are as follows: The people vs. Fred Lampen, forgery; people vs. Fred Allison, adultery; people vs. Floyd Schumeyer, violation of liquor law; people vs. Leona Mahan, adultery; people vs. Harry Boven, wife desertion; people vs. Peter Stykstra burglary (two cases); people vs. Gelles Boyenga and Antje Drost, adultery; people vs. Leroy Nye, burglary.

THINK! THEN DO IT FOR HOLLAND!

LOYALTY AND UNITY OF PURPOSE SHOULD BE OUR AIM

Our readers have no doubt perceived long before this what the attitude of the News has been on the question of boulevard lights, for this city. The News has always stood for progress in all things. It has taken stands on political, social and civic questions without fear or favor. This paper has not always been right on every question any more than any individual can always be right. Any newspaper that believes itself always right and its opinions always infallible and final is edited by a fool.

The news believes it has been on the right side of most of the public questions, especially civic, that have been brought up in Holland within the last forty-four years. In this our files will bear us out to the satisfaction of any fair minded person. The editor of this paper has the interests of this town at heart always, so much so in fact that he would feel like a traitor to try to put something over on the city which is the place of his birth and which he loves with every fibre of his being.

The editor of this paper thinks that the ornamental lights system for Holland should pass unanimously because it will put an entirely different complexion upon our city. It will be an advertisement from which all who call this city their home will receive direct benefits, and a system of which he will be justly proud if once installed.

To be sure we can do without these lights. We can do without a great many things. We used to do without water works—and primed the pump. We used to do without the telephone—and walked; without the bath tub—and used wash tubs. We put up with an endless lot of other inconveniences. But today the signs of the times are for progress. Cities everywhere are putting in this kind of a lighting system and the boast of all these cities is that it is a success and a great asset to the city. We learn by the experience of others. If the experience of these cities is good and profitable, is there any reason why we should sit back blinded by our own importance and not profit from them?

The argument that the taxation will be a burden has been exploded long ago. The Superintendent of the Board of Public Works has made out a list showing that the share of the small tax payers would be only a few pennies while the bulk of the burden falls upon the heavy tax payers. In this particular case, strange to say, such tax payers are not only willing to contribute financially to the project over and above their taxes, but they are also giving it their support in good sound favorable arguments.

We could afford to lose the boulevard lights but we cannot afford to lose them by reason of the principles laid down by a few agitators who have engendered class strife into the fight.

One thing is certain, few laboring men in the city are so lacking in town pride that they would not contribute the few pennies that this new lighting system will take, to help Holland. Therefore, if any vote against it they do it for other reasons than that of increased taxes and these reasons should not exist. Besides every merchant, nearly every manufacturing institution has enthusiastically given its financial and moral support to the project.

It can be safely said that those who pay 75 per cent of the taxes in our city have pledged themselves favorably, and it would be a deplorable condition if on next Tuesday the results showed that the laboring men of this city registered themselves as being against the lights simply because their employers were for it. This certainly would not create the best of feeling on either side. The sentiment of class strife will hurt Holland more than the loss of the boulevard lights. It is a sentiment that we cannot afford to have fostered in this city and if boulevard lights would prove to be the cause of its birth it would be far better had the question never been brought up.

But the News has faith in the working men of this city, knowing that they are broad enough to set aside engendered prejudice, and that they will work hand in hand with all citizens no matter what walk of life they may be in, to the common purpose of the city's good. This question next Tuesday means more than lights; it means unity of purpose.

WAS NOT ENOUGH FOR QUORUM LAST NIGHT

But four aldermen showed up for the special meeting of the council last night called for the purpose of discussing the new light rates proposed by the Board of Public Works and a meeting could not be held. Mayor Bosch had a message prepared on the subject which it is expected will be a scorcher against the system of charging for light and power electricity. After waiting fifteen minutes overtime for the absent aldermen to show up Mayor Bosch grimly stated to the four present that his message could wait and dismissed those present.

Alleging that the county of Ottawa is liable to the extent of $5,000 for personal injuries inflicted in a fall when his automobile skidded from the highway just north of the Black River bridge better known as Scholten's bridge and precipitated him into the ditch below, John T. Vanden Bosch of North Holland brings suit against the county. The accident happened in October, 1914.

Vanden Bosch says he received a broken arm, three broken ribs and a broken finger because of the defective road which skidded his car down the embankment. The strip of road alleged to have been defective lay just north of the bridge. The plaintiff states that his life was miraculously saved against greater odds.

The case is expected to come up in the March term of circuit court.

G.; De Jonge L. G.; Meengs C.; Roosenraad and Boone L. F.; and Sytzyba, R. F.; Roosenraad took Boone's place at the end of the first half. Tuesday evening another meeting was held in Zeeland for the purpose of discussing the subject of establishing a school for Christian instruction in that city. Those in favor of a movement of that kind have been feeling out the sentiment lately and it is believed that the time will soon come for the formation of an organization of that kind.

DE KEYZER MUST GO BEFORE THE PEOPLE TO RETAIN SEAT ON POLICE BOARD

The petition asking for the recall of Cornelius De Keyzer as a member of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners were presented to the council Saturday night with upwards of 500 signers. However, when City Clerk Overweg checked up the names disqualification brought the number of signers down to 430. The number needed is 423. After the clerk had submitted the petition for the recall and removal of Mr. De Keyzer Alderman Harrington put the motion that if Mr. De Keyzer does not resign within five days from Saturday night, the Council shall order an election to be held on a Monday to be fixed by it not less than thirty days nor more than forty days from the time it was submitted to the council.

The council will meet again Friday night to again take up this matter and if Mr. De Keyzer has not sent in his resignation which he says he will not do the council will make arrangements for the election of a successor.

Should Mr. De Keyzer follow the course that seems naturally open, he could again run for his office at the election. But judging by an interview with Mr. De Keyzer it is not likely that the chairman of the Board will take this method of settling the matter. Mr. De Keyzer said he does not feel guilty of the charges brought against him and so he will fight them.

Mr. De Keyzer will ask the support of the Board of Police and Fire commissioners and should the board support him and the matter is brought into the courts, as it very probably will be, the city will have to stand the entire expense as the Board can hire an attorney to represent them and the City Attorney will represent the city.

Should the affair come to an election it is not unlikely that Mr. De Keyzer will ask for an injunction stopping the election.

POLICE COMMISSION MAKES DE KEYZER RECALL FIGHT A BOARD ACTION

Three of the Members Decide to Stand Back of Chairman in Taking Legal Action

That the city of Holland will be paying the expenses of both sides should the matter of the recall of Cornelius De Keyzer end in a legal controversy was decided Tuesday when the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners, at a special meeting, at which three of the members were present, decided to support Commissioner De Keyzer in his fight. This action was taken on the grounds that De Keyzer in withholding the police room from the third ward election board was merely carrying out the wishes of a majority of the board. The board has retained Att. George E. Kollen of the firm of Diekema and Kollen and Arthur Van Duren to represent them in the controversy. All expenses made by the board will be paid from the police fund and will be an expense against the city.

When seen yesterday morning Kollen stated that the members of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners regretted very much the drastic action taken in the starting of a recall and that the board wished to settle the matter amicably. He said that as attorneys for the board he and Mr. Van Duren would do all in their power to settle the matter without resorting to legal action.

HON. N. J. WHELAN STEPS OUT OF U. S. MARSHALS OFFICE

Local Man Served Out His Full Term. And More Than A Month Additional

Monday in the office of the United States marshal for the Western District of Michigan in Grand Rapids the formal transfer of marshals was made, Hon. N. J. Whelan handing over the insignia of the office to his democratic successor, Herman O'Conner of Holton, Mich. Mr. O'Conner was appointed some time ago and his appointment was confirmed more recently. For the past week or so he has been familiarizing himself with his new duties, and last Friday Mr. Whelan gave a dinner in his honor at the Pantlind.

Mr. O'Conner is one of the best known business men of Holton. He is engaged in business there with his twin brother, being in charge of one of the largest establishments of the town. Mr. O'Conner took his oath of office Monday and has begun his active duties.

Mr. Whelan was appointed to the office four years ago the first of February. He not only served out his full term of four years, for which he was appointed, but he served more than a month longer than his term extended, due to delay in the confirming of his successor.

"I feel that I received all I had coming at the hands of my democratic friends," said Mr. Whelan Monday when he returned to private life "and I further feel that they have given me more than full measure. It is nearly a year and a half ago, on December 5, 1913 to be exact, that I was asked to resign, with no reasons given for the action. But in spite of that I not only served out my full term, but had a month added to it. I certainly can't find fault with that."

When asked to resign back in 1913 Mr. Whelan merely replied that no one had found any fault with his way of conducting the office and that he would not comply with the request until reasons were given showing causes why he should not serve out the full term for which he was appointed. To this answer the government never made any reply and nothing more was heard of resigning. Just before the request was made the examiners of the office had been filed in Washington and had been found very satisfactory, which probably set off all efforts toward forcing a resignation, since there was nothing to base it on.

ROAD COMMISSIONER CONNELLY TELLS HOW HE SOLD 40 LOTS FOR CASH ON ACCOUNT OF BOULEVARD LIGHTS

W. M. Connelly, republican candidate for county road commissioner, has had an interesting and profitable experience with boulevard lights. In an interview while in Holland recently he said that the read in the papers that the question of boulevard lights was up in this city, and that the first thing he noticed when he came here was the dingy appearance of Holland's principal streets.

"I am a great believer in good lighting," he said, "because in my personal experience, I found it to be a good cash asset. I bought a piece of ground at the limits of Spring Lake; I platted it, making in all about 40 lots. Then the idea came to me to put a small boulevard light system along the platted streets of these lots. Of course, the system was not as pretentious as the one proposed in Holland. Nevertheless it was a system that answered the purpose. I made the poles and cross arms of cement, and when the thing was completed and the globes were put in I had quite a presentable ornamental lighting system along these lots. Then I put the plat on the market, intending to sell each lot on the installment plan. But to my surprise (and a pleasant one it was), I sold every one of those lots in sixty days for cash; and I handled a similar proposition for a friend of mine in Spring Lake with the same results and intend to take a whirl at another piece of ground in the near future. I think good light is a valuable investment for any city and stimulates the value of real estate."

BURGLARS WERE DISAPPOINTED IN RAID UPON HOLLAND HOMES

Only Successful In One Place

Sunday night burglars entered 3 homes in this city while the families were in church. At the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. Kolyn, 68 West Thirteenth Street, the robbers entered by prying open a window. Here they secured a gold watch and chain, a gold ring and a small amount of change. However they overlooked several valuable articles of jewelry and some money. The robbers entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wing, 88 West Thirteenth Street, through the basement but were unable to gain entrance to the living rooms. The home of Benjamin Van Oort, also in West Thirteenth Street, was entered with a skeleton key. Here the burglars ruined several articles of furniture by prying open drawers but did not secure any valuables.

Similar robberies occur nearly every night in cities throughout Western Michigan and chief of police Van Ry issues a warning to people to keep valuables locked up or leave some one to take care of their home when they go away.

TWO YEAR OLD SON OF MR. AND MRS. R. ZYLMAN DIED WITH NOSEBLEED

Charles, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Zylman died Monday night at the home on the North Side as a result of a nose bleed.

The child's nose commenced bleeding about 12 o'clock Monday night. A member of the family came to Holland for a doctor but was unable to get a doctor to go outside of the city. After two hours fruitless search he returned home without a doctor and about an hour later the child died. Six doctors were seen without result. The last doctor seen sent medicine but it was too late to save the child's life.

The funeral was held at 1:30 o'clock from the home yesterday afternoon.

MAYOR BOSCH AND E. P. STEPHAN INDULGE IN WARM WORD CONTEST

Wrangle Is Cut Short By Ald. Congleton's Timely Motion For An Adjournment

It was Ald. Congleton who prevented the council meeting of Friday night from developing into more of an undignified wrangle than it already was. At a critical moment, while a discussion of the electric light rates was getting rather personal and waggish, he made a motion to adjourn until Saturday night to give the aldermen an opportunity to inform themselves on the subject. This motion was passed immediately thus cutting short a discussion that was beginning to arouse considerable bad blood.

Although the large number of visitors at the council meeting did not get the promised sensational developments on the squabble between aldermen and police board members, they were given more than full measure on another question, namely the readjustment of the electric light rates Superintendent Champion read the report passed earlier this week by the board of public works, to the effect that the board recommended making readjustment of the rates so that the power rates would be charged for more equitably and on a more scientific basis, and the light rates lowered from eight and one third cents to approximately six cents per kilowatt hour.

When a motion was made to adopt the recommendation of the board Mayor Bosch advised the aldermen to go slowly and not to make the change without due consideration. In the course of the discussion that followed Mayor Bosch accused Supt. Champion of having misled him in regard to the cost of current that he used for the boulevard lights. Earlier in the evening the mayor had said in a message on the boulevard lighting system that Mr. Champion had informed him that the current for the new system would cost one and one fourth cents; he had asked in substance the question: "How can you reconcile that with the cost of light to the average consumer namely 6c when all the possible reduction to the average consumer, namely six tenths are made as planned?" Mr. Champion replied that he had not informed the mayor that the cost of the boulevard light current would be only one and one fourth cents. He declared he had said the cost of the boulevard light current would be only one and one fourth cents at the switch-board, which is also approximately the cost of electric light current that is used in homes. If all the other costs of upkeep, service, etc., are included, he said, the cost of the boulevard current will be approximately five cents per kilowatt hour. This is still one cent lower than the lowest figure of the cost of other current. But through questions asked by Alderman Vander Ven the fact was brought out that the difference of one cent is accounted for by the greater compactness of the boulevard system. Obviously it is cheaper to furnish current for a compact area than for a system of lights covering the whole city.

Mayor Bosch charged Mr. Champion with having misled him on this question, intimating that the superintendent should have made all this clear to him. But Champion denied having misled the mayor on this subject.

When discussion of the board's recommendation was resumed Mayor Bosch repeated that what he wanted was to have the council take time to consider the proposition carefully before acting. He declared that Holland's system of charging for light is on the wrong basis. The fact was brought out that there is more than fifty thousand dollars to the credit of the lighting fund. The mayor declared that he did not wish to be understood that he was criticising the board or the superintendent. He said he had the greatest confidence in both but he wanted the council to have all possible information before acting. He proceeded to ask Supt. Champion how much the cost for producing electric light current for the whole city was. Mr. Champion said that was impossible to answer off hand, since too many considerations of a technical nature enter in. But the mayor asked for an approximate figure.

It was at this point that E. P. Stephan, chairman of the board of public works, jumped into the debate.

"I don't relish the idea," said Mr. Stephan, "of having the superintendent of public works catechised here like a school boy. It is uncalled for and out of place and undignified. Mr. Champion knows his business as well as any man in the city, but it is preposterous to expect him to answer off hand technical questions that involve many facts and figures of the most complicated kind and that the average layman cannot understand without special study. The board of public works meets twice a month to discuss these matters and if the mayor is in earnest about wanting to get information in regard to the cost of electric light or any other question that comes within the jurisdiction of the board, why does he wait till the last minute when the board has put a year's work on a plan for revising the electric light schedule? I have been on the board for two years and I have often asked the mayor to attend the meetings but he has been there only once or twice for a few minutes."

Here the mayor interrupted to say that that was what the special committee of aldermen that met with the board was for. But Stephan continued to protest that it was the mayor's duty, if he wished to catechise members or the superintendent on these matters, to inform himself by attending the meetings.

The sum and substance of the whole matter is that the mayor in a few minutes discredited a report which Mr. Champion had worked months on to get correct. Not alone is it a physical impossibility to pass judgment, having a superficial knowledge of the whole report, but it is succeeding unfair to the whole Board of Public Works and especially Mr. Champion whose diligence, fairness and accuracy are unquestionable. It must be very discouraging to put in six months of hard conscientious work on a report that gives the city $53,000 to its credit, then to have your mayor swinging his arms and cry out that "it's all wrong," when he has not even spent the time with the Board of Public Works to find out whether it really was or was not, and not having done this, his judgment seems very hasty indeed.

THE COURT OF LAST RESORT

Around the store of the cross roads grocery is the real court of last resort, for it finally over-rules all others. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been brought before this court in almost every cross roads grocery in this country, and has always received a favorable verdict. It is in the country where man expects to receive full value for his money that this remedy is most appreciated. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

PUBLIC PULSE

Editor of the News:

I understand that in the near future the base ball fans of Holland will try to solicit from the merchants enough money to start a base ball team for Holland. Now I personally am very much in favor of such a move, it is about the only recreation we people in Holland have in the summer time. But who will want to ask a merchant for a cent for anything if the lighting for River Avenue and Eighth street are turned down. They know on the face of it that the few cents that the average tax payers must pay will not be the reason for turning it down. But they are not going to turn it down. I have enough faith in the fairness of the Holland people to know that they will play fair and also know that when the time comes to help a base ball team that the merchants will not stand back but will stand by it financially as they always have.

The mayor presented the following message:

Holland, Mich. March 5, 1915. To the Honorable the Common Council of the City of Holland,

Gentlemen:

I beg permission once more to speak to you, and through you to the people of our city in the matter of the

"Boulevard Lighting System." It seems from comments in the local press, that the newly organized "Chamber of Commerce" has come out for, and is going to work for the adoption of the question of expending the money of the city for this system of lighting. It seems very strange to me that the money of this organization is to be used for furthering a matter that is up to the voters, and where I know that many of their own members are opposed to the Boulevard Lighting System, and the expenditure of money for it. At the Chamber of Commerce banquet recently held, the theme seemed to be "Get together," but by the action of some of the members, are they not driving the citizens apart rather than bringing them together? Every voter has right to use his own judgment in a matter of this kind, and is it not unfair and un-American to try and influence the voters by such means and such talk? In the same connection a list of names has been published of persons who it is claimed have volunteered their services to work for the passage of this measure of "Boulevard Lighting System" and I know from personal contact, that these men have not all volunteered their services, nor are they all in favor of the system. If a body, such as the "Chamber of Commerce," must resort to such means to gain its ends, in the estimation of its leaders then is it not an organization that has not the best interests of the City of Holland in mind or at heart? I no doubt is meant all right, but is its influence not misdirected?

Again, a diligent effort has been made to minimize the real ultimate cost, in figures denoting the immediate individual cost. But two things must not be lost sight of and these are (1) that the aggregate cost of this system for fifteen years will reach a total of $60,000.00 or more; and (2) while it may appear to some that the individual cost is not large, it must be remembered that taxes are ever being increased by adding just such items, from time to time, and then the taxpayers begin to wonder how the total became so large. There are many things which this city needs, and many things that it must necessarily have, and the expense of these must be met of necessity. If we are to add to them such expensive and uncertain luxuries as Boulevard Lighting, you can expect to see the reflection of such action in an enormously increased tax rate. The taxpayer should not be duped into believing that Boulevard Lights will add one single factory to our present labor employing institutions, but I have no hesitancy in saying that decreased taxes will help produce such results if consistently carried out.

I am informed by the Superintendent of Public Work, that in estimating the cost of maintenance of the Boulevard Lighting system, he has figured the cost of the current for the same at 1 1/4 cents per K. W. hour. This may mean nothing to you or me, or to the consumer of electric current about the city. But let any consumer take his last electric light current, and he will find that he has been charged at the rate of 8 1/3 cents per K. W. hour, with a discount of 15 per cent for prompt payment of the bill. Taking the discount off, and figuring in dollars instead of cents, the charge of the Boulevard System will be $1.25 for 100 K. W. hours, and to the consumer about the city, with the discount deducted, it will be $7.03 for 100 K. W. hours. I fully realize that on account of distribution it costs more to do business with the small individual consumer than with the city itself, but I am unable to see this enormous difference. It certainly is a fact that the charge for the Boulevard System is too low, the charge to the consumer too high, or both. I see by the papers since figuring as stated that the Board proposed to reduce the price by a fraction of a cent, so that the above figures, after July 1, 1915, will be $6.30 for 100 K. W. house; or in other words, after the reduction, which the Board considers the consumer is entitled to the individual consumer must pay more than five times the amount for electric light current than is charged to the Boulevard Lighting System. Consistency thou art truly a jewel, but it can't be found in figuring the cost of electric current.

I repeat that the cost of $60,000.00 or more, is to my mind entirely out of proportion to the results to be obtained; the figures are unfair either to the consumer, or are biased in favor of the Boulevard Lighting system; while increase in taxes may not seem great to some individuals, the aggregate is enormous, and will be felt by many who are finding it difficult to meet the present tax burden; and the first aim of the city should be to reduce its tax rate.

Another point that should be considered in this connection is that it is contemplated to light a very large area of an undesirable portion of the city, viz.: the "swamp," on west 8th street, and other portions, and to light it almost as thoroughly as the most closely built up portion of the street. Then again it must also be remembered that the estimate of the Supt. of Public Works is that in 15 years the system will have passed beyond the stage of usefulness, or value. But he might better have added, that it might pass into that stage at a much earlier time, and thus greatly increase the annual expense. The question of street lighting and illumination has undergone very rapid development and change in the past four or five years, and who can say that within the next year a radical change may not be made, and render the entire system useless? The large cities can afford to experiment, but the small city cannot, and it must profit by the experience of some other city that can so afford.

Taking it all in all, I sincerely hope, for the best of our city, of which I am justly proud, that the voters will see to it, that no such burden as is proposed is saddled on our city at this time. I can make no offer of reward or pay; nor can I give out boxes of cigars to the winners, but with the interests of the city at heart, knowing its needs, and believing that I understand the ability of a large majority of people in the matter of paying taxes; I hope that the right minded people of this city, will not go astray on the question and vote the expenditure of $60,000.00 or more, and have cause to regret it later on.

Respectfully submitted,
NICODEMUS BOSCH,
Mayor.

On motion of Ald. Prins,
The message was accepted, ordered placed on file, and published in the holland language in the De Grondwet.

HOLLAND DAILY SENTINEL COMES OUT STRONG FOR BOULEVARD LIGHTS

Predicts that the Project Will Win

The following article on boulevard lights appeared in yesterday's issue of the Holland Daily Sentinel in which it uses some good sound logic. The editorial in the Sentinel follows:

With less than a week left before the people of Holland will vote on the question of boulevard lights the indications seem to point to a victory for the new system. At least that is the way many who are fairly well posted on what the average voter is thinking are gauging the sentiment at the present time. Many have assumed hitherto that it is only the business men who are boosting for boulevard lights but inquiries have shown that there are those in all classes of people who favor the system; while it is of course equally true that there are some business men who oppose the lights. The people living in the wards far away from Eighth street and River avenue are taking a lively interest in the question and many are favoring the new system. An example of this is given today in a Public Pulse article by a resident of West Seventeenth street.

Attempts have been made right along to give the impression that this is a selfish proposition on the part of the business men. But the facts show the contrary. While it may be true that in some other cities the business men have paid for the equipment in the line of posts, etc., it must not be forgotten that Holland's business district is less compact than in the case of many another city. If Holland's business district were built within the limits of two or three blocks as is the case in many a city, it would be a very simple matter for the business men to pay the whole bill; in fact in that case the whole bill would not be as large as the part the business men now pay. The fact remains that the business men contribute about $3000 showing they back up their faith in the system with actual cash.

And another fact shows that it is not a selfish proposition on their part. The argument has been made that the system will light up a long stretch of street practically deserted as far as business institutions are concerned namely the "swamp" on West Eighth street. But that precisely shows that the business men are willing to help foot the bill for something from which they get no direct benefit. Why should the merchant in the business section pay hard cash for lighting up the "swamp", or even the parts of River avenue north of Seventh street and south of Tenth street? He does it because he believes a well lighted city will help the city as a whole and that is why he is willing to put his money into it. Instead of being a grabber, looking out only for his own interests as he has been pictured again and again by some opponents of the boulevard system he is willing to go into his pocket because he makes it a matter of civic pride and patriotism to have a city lighted in the evening as it should be.

Moreover, there are several men who cannot possibly get any direct benefit from the system who are enthusiastically for it and who have contributed toward it. There are such men as A. H. Landwehr, whose business institution is about as far away from Eighth street as any place of business in Holland could be. The charge certainly cannot be made that he favors the system because he hopes to reap a direct benefit from it. And there is the Bos-Bolhuis Lumber Company, and other institutions far from the business section, to say nothing of E. J. White, of Wichita, Kansas, George Getz of Lakewood Farm, E. J. Gold of Marigold, and others. Since the charge of selfishness has been made, it must be remembered that there is another side to that question. It is easy to make a charge of selfishness; the Sentinel prefers to believe that the average business man is actuated in this case by motives of city patriotism.

And the same motives, this paper believes, actuates many of the property owners who live far from the business section and far from where the lights are to be placed. As the citizen from West Seventeenth street expresses it in today's Public Pulse, those in the outlying wards who favor the system are not calculating what they are going to get out of it directly for themselves so much as what the city of Holland is going to get out of it as a whole. The small property owner is as patriotic as the man of large business interests, and many of them believe that the proposed system will help the city. For that reason they are willing to vote for it. They believe that the system will increase the value of property in Holland as a whole and they are willing to tax themselves for a larger benefit in which all will share.

The slogan of Detroit "Where Life is worth Living" has been worth millions of dollars to that city. But it was worth that much in hard cash because it was true; because the people of Detroit had made efforts to make it true. They had established parks and pavements and boulevards and public buildings and libraries and lights and a thousand and one other things that made life worth living in Detroit. If each time such an improvement was discussed each citizen had asked the question, "What am I going to get out of this particular improvement?" the chances are that life would not be worth living in Detroit today. It is often necessary for a citizen to back up some project far removed from his immediate interests. On that principle is based the very possibility of the highest interests. On that principle is based the very possibility of the highest and best community life. And in the end the result is for the benefit of all. If at some time the citizens in the outlying districts should believe that a public park in that section would advance the best interests of the city it would be perfectly fair for them to ask for support for that project from the other parts of the city that would not in any way be directly benefitted.

That is the higher city patriotism which, the Sentinel earnestly believes is at the bottom of the movement for boulevard lights for Holland. It is a sentiment that all can share, whether business man professional man or laboring man. And it is a sentiment that members from all classes do share. No doubt many of the opponents of the proposed system are actuated by sincere civic patriotism; no one side has a monopoly on that virtue. And that is the line on which to fight out this public question. Charges of selfishness are for the most part foolish and unfounded.

PUBLIC PULSE

Editor of the News:—
Talk about being public-spirited and having town pride! March 16 will show if we have such an article in Holland. A few are making a "holl-a-ballo" about paying 30 or 40 cents a year for the privilege of seeing our principal streets lighted with lights second to none anywhere, in fact, a system that larger cities are now adopting. I want to tell you what the little town of New Era, just north of Muskegon does. It is a little farmer burg, but the business men on the main street and citizens on the back streets wanted to have a string of arc lights along the only principal street that the village can boast of. So the business men and the back street citizens got together and agreed that the business men pay $12 a year and residence folks $3 a year or 25 cents a month. In this case the residents of New Era for a common string of arc lights along the business street pay seven times as much as the average tax payer in Holland would have to pay for a fine system. I think that most of the Holland citizens have a great deal of pride in their city and are not going to "gig back" on a few pennies when outsiders like George Getz, Mr. Gold and even the "poor" Marquette donate so liberally.

COLLEGE STUDENTS AND FACULTY MEMBERS PARADE THE STREETS CELEBRATING VICTORY OF HOPE'S ORATORS

Addresses Given On The Street And Mass Meeting In Carnegie Hall

The contestants, Cornelius Wierenga and Dorothy Pieters, seated in a carriage that was gaily bedecked with Orange and Blue, were drawn thru the principal streets of the city by a procession of the students. On several corners the procession halted and gave lusty yells for Old Hope, the orators and their trainer. On the corner of Central Avenue and Eighth Street, addresses were made by Hon. Gerrit J. Diekema, Prof. J. B. Nykerk, by the orators, Prof. Raap, Prof. Tillemma, President of the Student Council, Minor Stegenga, John Vander Sluis and Prof. M. J. Hoffman. Each speaker congratulated the orators on their success, and filled the gathering with enthusiasm and hope for future victories.

The students were addressed by Att. C. H. McBride on the corner of Eighth and River and then proceeded to the High School, when Prin. Drew was the spokesman.

The party thence proceeded to Carnegie Hall where a lunch, consisting of sandwiches, coffee, pickles, and pie, was enjoyed by all. A program was given in which the speakers were ably introduced by Minor Stegenga.

Dr. McCreary began by saying that there was nothing better for the homony of a college than to celebrate such victories. Dr. Vennema said that the students must study Mr. Wierenga for his qualities. "The duty devolves upon the lower classes to keep up Hope's reputation," he said.

Dr. O. F. Bruske told the students that he enjoyed the great victory that Hope had won. "The Dutch can do it," he said.

Prin. Chas. Drew of the High school said that he did not belong to Hope faculty because he was not good enough for it. "Nevertheless, I believe that the High School and College are one in spirit," he said. After this talk a piano solo was given by Miss Strunks.

Miss Anna Kolyn told of the good spirit and enthusiasm that prevailed at the contest. Prof. Nykerk told of the work that Mr. Wierenga had done. "He did the very best he knew how," said his trainer; "he had the strong conviction that what he said was the truth."

A male quartette then sang several selections after which Martin E. Flipse told of the jinx that had rested upon Hope for 13 years. "But that jinx is busted now," he said.

Dr. J. W. Beardslee Jr., Hope's first representative at a state contest, told of how Wierenga had won because he knew his subject and did the work himself. Several selections were played by Miss Harriet Baker the violin.

Mrs. Durfee gave some of the impressions she had received of Alma. The program closed with the singing of "Old Hope, thy sons around thee standing."

At the contest at Alma Cornelius Wierenga won first place and Miss Dorothy Pieters, won fourth.

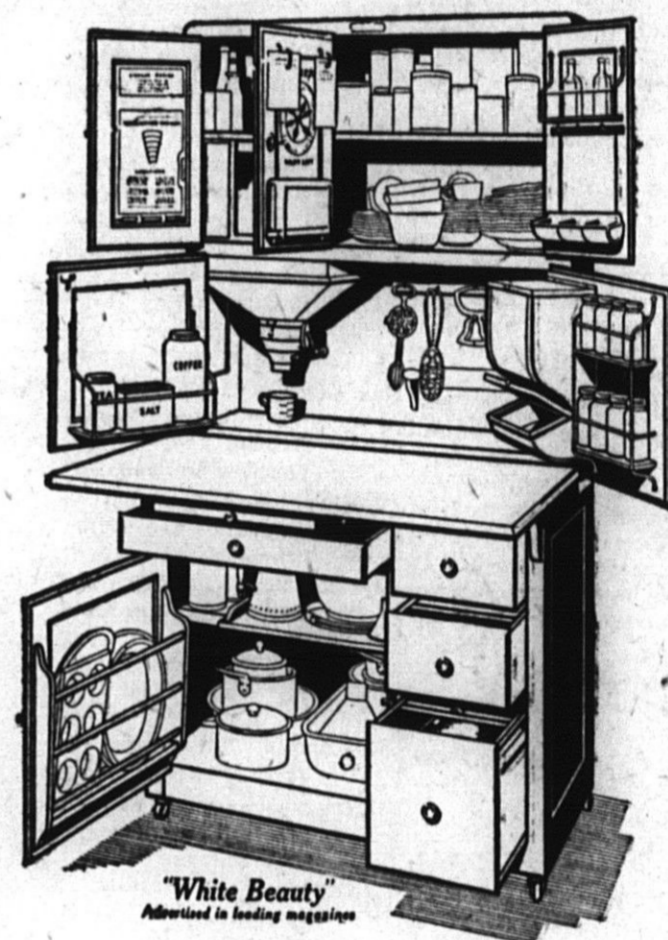

HOPE COLLEGE STUDENTS MONDAY NIGHT DISCUSSED MERCHANTS MARINE SUBSIDY

Three Men Chosen On College Team
Fred De Jong Herman Maassen and Bernie Mulder

The second intersociety debate took place at Hope College Monday night on the question "Resolved that the United States should subsidize her merchant marine." The affirmative was upheld by Max Reece, John VanderWerf and Bernie Mulder. The negative was upheld by F. DeJong, H. Maassen and Henry Schoon. Dr. A. Vennema acted as chairman of the evening. The judges were Att. J. N. Clark of Zeeland, Att. T. N. Robinson and Prof. G. B. McCreary of this city. The debate was won by the negative. The men winning places on the college team were Fred De Jong, Herman Maassen and Bernie Mulder, in the order named. The fact that only two points differed between the first and third man showed that the winners ranked very close.

The debate ends the preliminary contests at Hope College. From now on everything will be for Hope. The men representing Hope in debate this year, are Theodore Zwemer, Charles Stopples, Frank De Roos, Theodore Elferdink, George Pelgrim, Richard Te Linde, Henry Lockhorst, George Steininger, Martin E. Flipse, Fred De Jonge, Herman Maassen, and Bernie Mulder. These men will meet Alma, Olivet, Hillsdale and Kalamazoo in debate. The first contest will be held the Friday evening of the 19th of March when Kalamazoo comes here, and Hope goes to Hillsdale.

JOHN BARNES AGAIN ON THE ROLE OF HONOR LIST AMONG THE BOY SCOUTS

The name John Barnes again appears among the list of scouts winning a "good turn daily" medal for the week. This is the fourth time Barnes has won the medal. If he wins two more times he will be given a silver medal, and when he has won nine times he will be given a gold medal. Other scouts winning medals for the week are Harold Slagh of group 5, Will Kellogg of group 2, and Herbert Van Duren of group three. Barnes is of group 1.

Marvin Steketee, although not a winner of a medal, received creditable notice for discovering a fire and very likely preventing considerable damage to a farm house while on a hike Saturday. There are some forty boys competing for the "good turn daily" medals, and from their reports certainly many people are profiting by the scouts' work. Some good turns reported were picking up broken glass from the street, returning found articles to owners, stopping horse from walking away, stopping kid fights and getting small boys to quit smoking cigarettes. One lad reported that while skating fast on the sidewalk three small boys got in his way and rather than run into them he ran over the curbing and sustaining injuries to himself.

The scouts are also assisting the health department of the city and a war on flies has already been started. The scouts roam around the city and report all dumping grounds that might be fly headquarters in the warmer months. These are then reported to the city health department.

Besides making our city look up-to-date like Muskegon and Grand Haven to the north of us, and South Haven, Battle Creek and Kalamazoo to the south of us, Grand Rapids and little Lowell to the east of us, the installing of the boulevard lights will distribute $6,000 in wages to labor within two months, while the taxes to Holland's 1500 workmen at the end of the first year will be less than $550. APPROPRIATIONS ARE PASSED BY THE COUNCIL AS THEY WERE RECOMMENDED

Amounts Are Within The Limits of Last Year; No Serious Cuts Were Made

The annual appropriation bill ordinance passed the council Friday without a single important change from recommendation of ways and means committee. The bill was discussed in the committee of the whole with Ald. Congleton in the chair. In the discussion the fact was brought out that all the appropriations for this year are practically within the limit of last year's appropriation. No comparison could be made with the appropriation bill that was passed last time because of the fact that then appropriations were made for period of only nine months, due to time it was for a full year.

There was some discussion on the police board appropriation, some of the aldermen declaring that they wanted to keep that large enough so that the force would not have to be cut down, since the patrolmen are valuable aids in fire prevention. But no change was made from the committee's recommendation.

Some question was raised in regard to the school appropriation, and the question was asked whether the school was not behind in funds and was compelled to borrow until the primary money should come in next June. But the aldermen decided it was not their affair to regulate the school funds. They appropriated what the board of education asked for. Following are the appropriations made in the various departments: General fund, $4,000; Street fund, $13,000; Police fund, $6,400; Fire department, $7,100; Poor, $4,500; Park, $6,256; Library, $3,580; Water works, $8,000; Sewer, $1,300; Public building, $10,337.78; Health, $900; Fire alarm, $850; Interest and Sinking fund, $9,951.25; Water Works Bond Issue, Series "N" Sinking fund, $730.60; Water Works Bond, Series "O" Sinking fund, $1,916; Compulsory Sewer Connection, $2,000; Public School fund, $45,000.

ALDERMEN TAKE ROOM AWAY FROM POLICE BOARD

The squabble between the common council and the board of police and fire commissioners, that resulted into something near a fist fight on election day morning, was quickly and peacefully disposed of Friday so far as the council is concerned. The aldermen practically took the room under dispute away from the police board and set it aside for election purposes. The following motion of Ald. Vander Hill was passed without debate:

Whereas a dispute has lately arisen between the City of Holland and certain of its officials as to the right of possession of the room on the basement floor in the City Hall building, which heretofore has always been used for election and primary purposes, therefore,

Resolved, that said room on the basement floor of said building, which is entered by the second door to the right from the north door of the City Hall, together with its openings and approaches shall hereafter be set aside for the Third ward to be used for an election and primary purposes and as a polling place, and shall not be occupied for any other purpose, excepting by the official consent of this body.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY HOLDS RECEPTION FOR MISS GRETTCHEN NIND

The Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Harrington. The meeting was in the nature of a farewell reception for Miss Gretchen Nind who will leave soon to join her parents in Maine. Miss Nind was presented with an appropriate gift by the president on behalf of the society.

The devotions brought out the obvious connection between the education and Christianity and in considering the fourth chapter, of the study book, "The Child in Our Midst," Mrs. Mabel Smith showed by word pictures and illustrations the importance of early training. Miss Girard sang two solos, accompanied by Elsie Gowdy. Mrs. Klassen conducted the mystery box.

Seth Nibbelink is again able to attend to his business after several days' illness with a severe case of the grip.

AN ALARMING NUMBER OF VOTERS WERE DISFRANCHISED TUESDAY

Nearly A Fourth of Those Who Voted in Holland Did Not Get Counted

Although the complete figures are not available it is considered a safe estimate that from one third to one fifth of the people of Ottawa county who took the trouble to go to the polls on Tuesday to register their choice of candidates were disfranchised because they made an error which compelled the election inspectors to throw out their ballots. This is a state of affairs that makes the thinking man wonder if the fault lies with a too intricate machinery of voting or whether the intelligence of the average American voter is so low that he cannot follow plain instructions printed in the very simplest English. The real truth of the matter probably is that many is voter is merely careless. And the result is that he loses his vote.

In the city of Holland there were 836 votes cast and of these between a hundred and seventy five and two hundred had to be thrown out, thus disfranchising nearly one fourth of the people who went to the polls. And reports from single precincts in other parts of Ottawa county show that there the percentage of spoiled ballots was still higher.

It is interesting to note how some of the wards in this city lost through spoiled ballots. In the first ward, for instance, a total of 167 votes were cast, but only 107 counted for both the office road commissioner and of school commissioner. Thirty-seven ballots for school commissioner were thrown out, and 60 for road commissioner. In the third ward 23 were thrown out of a total of 164; in the fourth ward 45 out of a total of 176; and in the first precinct of the fifth ward 21 out of a total of 141.

Many a voter, for instance, would put a cross in the space under the head of the ticket he wished to vote for and nothing else. In this way all he had done was to tell the election inspectors that he was a democrat or a republican or a socialist or whatever ticket he honored with a cross. If a republican he did not say, whether he wanted Stanton or Blanchard on the ticket, or whom he wanted for the nomination for road commissioner. The inspectors were not allowed by law to make a guess at the voter's intentions, and hence the ballot had to be thrown out.

And some voters lost their votes because they tried to be too careful. They would put a cross in the right space under the head of their ticket and then would proceed to put a cross before every name on their ticket, evidently under the impression that they were voting as "straight" as anyone could possibly vote. Obviously again, they thereby did not tell the inspectors which man they wished nominated for each office, since they nominated them all, and the inspectors had to throw the ballots out. The effect of these two courses was identically the same. Over carelessness and too much care amounted to the same thing.

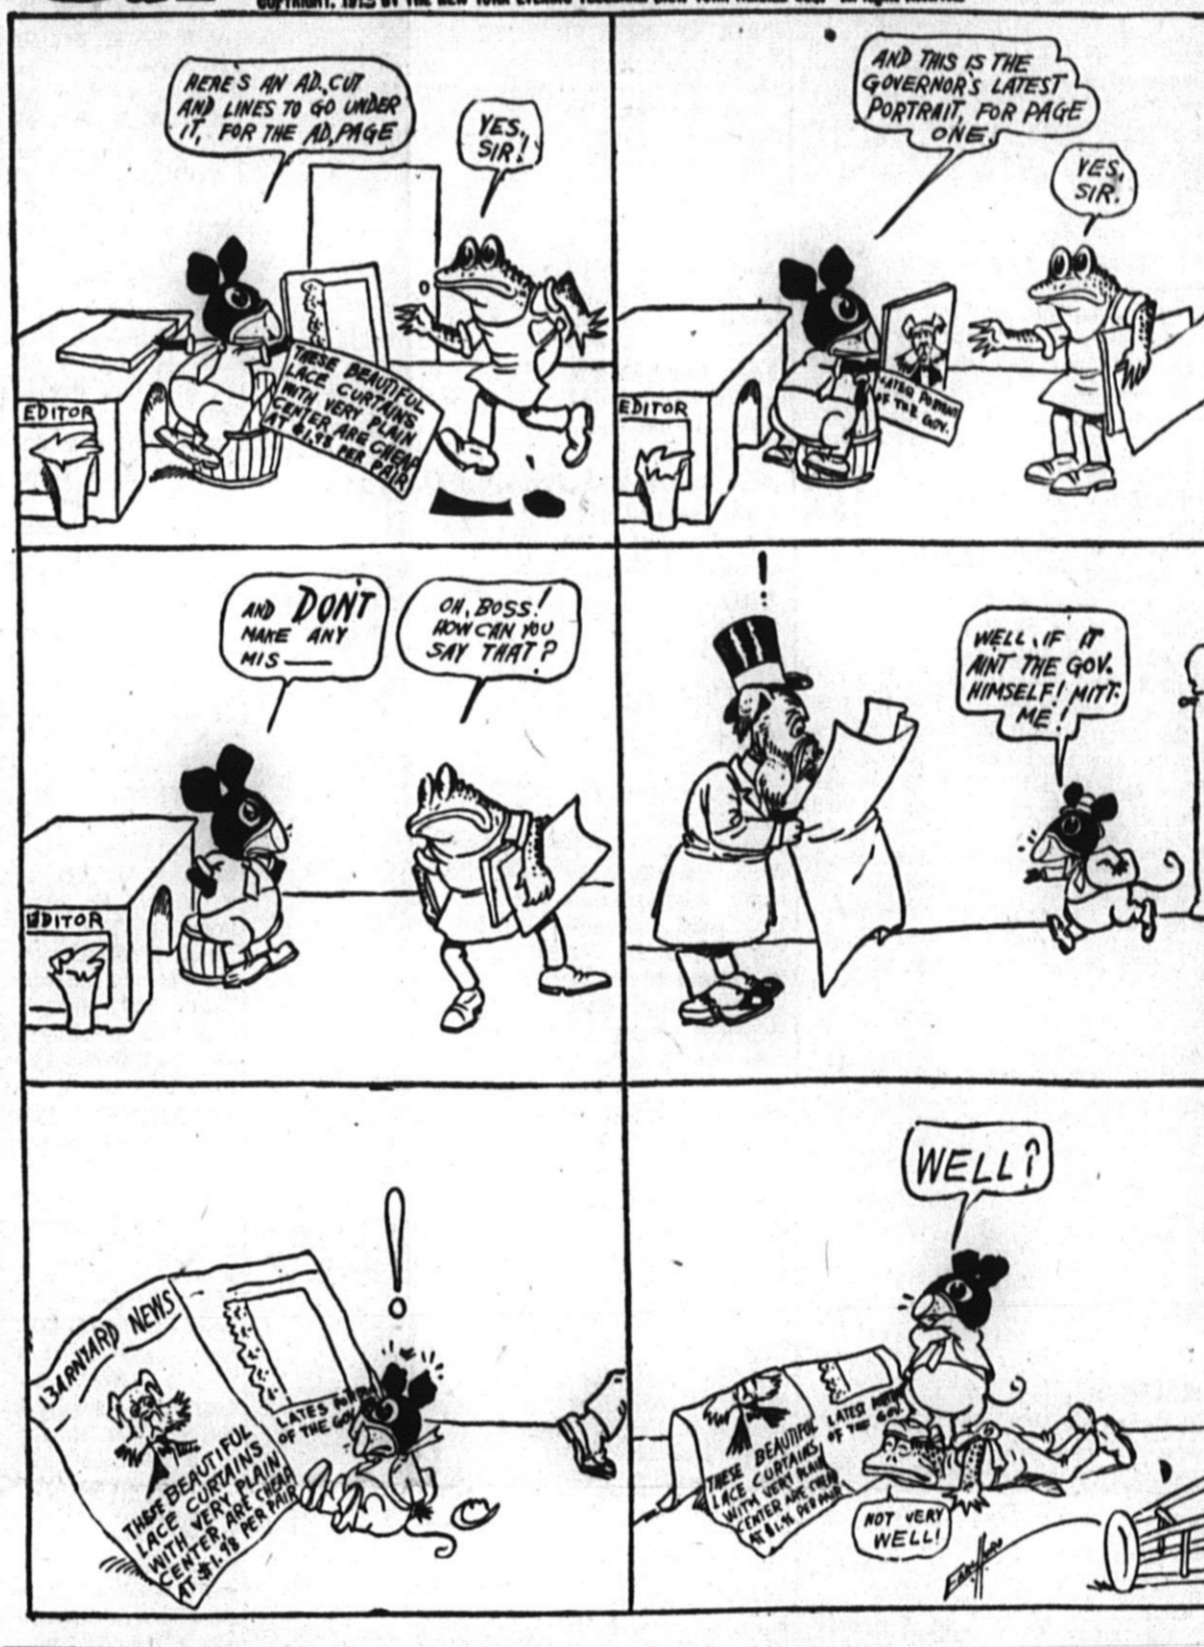

Or a man went into the booth and swear high and low that he was not going to be partisan; he was going to be broad-minded and he was going to show the inspectors how a ticket could be "split" all to smithereens. He made the mistake of thinking that this was an election instead of a primary. As a result his ballot also had to be thrown out.

And there were perhaps a half a dozen other ways of doing it, all resulting in lost ballots. And all could have been prevented if the voters had merely taken the time to read their ballots before making a mark.

HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM WAS CROWDED AT BAND CONCERT THURSDAY NIGHT

Thursday the High School Band made its first public appearance in company with the Orchestra. The Auditorium was filled with the people who came out to hear and see the latest addition to the High School amusement features. The band boys were the first to play. They appeared about 7:45 and were greeted with hearty applause by the audience. The first number from the band was march: "Sprite" by Vandercook; next came an overture: "Hearts of Gold" by Barnard; the third number was a baritone solo: "Golden Leaf Polka" by Barnard played by Henry Poppen; This was followed by a waltz: "For-Got-Me-Not" by Ellis Brooks. After this number a special was introduced: "It's a Long, Long Way to Tipperary." After the special came another solo, this time by R. H. Gilbert, director of the band; the number was

TRIALS OF EDITOR MOUSE

Friendship" by Ellis Brooks. The sixth and concluding number was "Southern Breezes," a medley of old Southern songs by F. P. Atherton.

The second part of the program, which was given by the orchestra with Mr. Harvey P. Pettit as director, was made up of the following numbers: A Russian Dance: "Stika" by F. P. Atherton; Overture: "Birth of Love" by J. Wesley Laferty; Clarinet Solo: "Comin' Through the Rye," arranged by E. S. Thornton and played by Dyke Van Putten; Next came the "Dying Poet" by L. M. Gottschalk; a piano solo by Mr. Pettit, and the program was closed with the overture "Lustspiel" by Keler Bela.

The attendance shows the interest taken in the High School institutions by the citizens of Holland, and it assures the members of both the band and orchestra that they will have the people back of them and will receive their support both personally and financially.

NEARLY 100 HOMES ARE TO BE CONNECTED WITH SANITARY SEWER

That the work of making connections with the sanitary sewer will be vigorously continued during the coming season was shown Friday when a recommendation that in the neighborhood of one hundred places be so connected was referred to a special committee of the council for investigation. This committee will probably recommend that in most cases connections be ordered in which the council will follow up with the usual action of having the city put them in unless the property owners do so within a state period.

Only 35 Out of 576 Voted In Georgetown; Of These Seven Were Disqualified

Georgetown has 576 voters. Tuesday, when the primaries were held, the "returns" showed that 35 in all had cast their ballots. Seven of these were disqualified because the voter had refused to state his party affiliation.

interesting and instructive paper on "Should the U. S. supply the warring nations with food and ammunition." The speaker contended that while it created industry and gave work to many otherwise idle men the practice should be severely condemned. In the discussion which followed many interesting points were brought out by several of the members taking the stand that pro-Germans in this country were mainly responsible for the agitation to cease shipping to the allies and all the agitation came from selfish motives on the part of Germany. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Beens and Mrs. Ensing. The club will meet next at the home of Mr. Charles Dykstra.

PUBLIC SPIRITED CITIZEN MAKES REPLY

LANDWEHR ANSWERS MAYOR BOSCH

The Honorable Mayor says the Chamber of Commerce is out of its field when we boost boulevard lights. Our good mayor is no doubt sincere, but he is mistaken. Cigars offered as a prize to the five men (of the thirty that volunteered their services) who show the biggest percentage of votes for a Public Improvement of this kind in their ward can not be termed a bribe, nor can these men be against the lighting proposition unless they are traitors who obtained their appointment under false colors. I do not believe there is such a man among them.

The Chamber of Commerce voted money to support the lighting proposition at its first meeting and at the last meeting by more than a ninetenths rising vote approved the plan. If we did anything but boost after such action it would be better to disband. If public improvements, no matter how important, cannot have the support of the Chamber of Commerce, then our efforts are useless, for that is what we are organized to do.

If we asked the property owners who live around Centennial Park to keep it up for our pleasure, how long do our citizens think we would have this beautiful park? It is just as reasonable to expect the business men on Eighth street to put in the lighting system and maintain it for our good.

I understand the park budget is $3500 this year and special tax of $742.60, a total of $4242.60. This is more than the lights will cost. Would any one vote to abandon our parks?

We are not working for more factories alone, but for a brighter, happier and more enlightened Holland; and there is no reason why Holland, located on Black Lake, should be a black city at night. The cost is not prohibitive a little less than $4,000 a year. A home on the tax roll for $1000 will only have to sell for $10 more to make the cost of 52 cents a year a paying investment.

"As a man thinketh so is he," and if enough men in Holland can be led to believe we are so poor that we can not afford up-to-date improvements, then the chances are we will grow poorer still.

With hope and enthusiasm for the future I can see our main streets bright with light, which will be a beacon for outsiders to come with us, and not to stay away because taxes will increase a cent or two. We cannot afford to be behind other cities of the same size and smaller than Holland, for this is truly false economy which is bound to cost us more in the next fifteen years than up-to-date lights will, many times over.

Boys, let's get together and all gladly pay our part for the proposed new lighting system, and no matter what is said to the contrary, I predict that after the lights are lit up you will never regret that you helped. "Do-It-For-Holland."

STATE OF MICHIGAN

To the Circuit Court for the County of Ottawa in chancery.

The petition of Oramel B. Fuller, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State respectfully shows that the list of lands hereinafter set forth and marked "Schedule A," contains a description of all the lands in said County of Ottawa upon which taxes were assessed for the years mentioned therein and which were returned as delinquent for non-payment of taxes, and which taxes have not been paid; together with the total amount of such taxes, with interest computed thereon to the time fixed for sale, and collection fee and expenses, as provided by law, extended against each of said parcels of land.

Your petitioner further shows to the Court that said lands were returned to the Auditor General under the provisions of Act 206 of the Public Acts of 1893, as delinquent for non-payment of said taxes for said years respectively and that said taxes remain unpaid; except that lands included in said "Schedule A" for taxes of 1890 or prior years were returned to the Auditor General as delinquent for said taxes under the provisions of the general tax laws in force prior to the passage of Act 200 of the Public Acts of 1891, and which taxes remain unpaid.

Your petitioner further shows that in all cases where lands are included in "Schedule A" as aforesaid for taxes of 1890 or of any prior years said lands have not been sold for said taxes or have been heretofore sold for said delinquent taxes and the sale or sales so made have been set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, and have been cancelled as provided by law.

Your petitioner further shows and avers that the taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses as set forth in said "Schedule A," are a valid lien on the several parcels of lands described in said schedule.

Your petitioner further shows that the said taxes on said described lands have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent; and the said taxes not having been paid, and the same being now due and remaining unpaid as above set forth, your petitioner prays a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of said lands for the payment of the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses, as computed and extended in said schedule against the several parcels of land contained therein and in default of payment of the said several sums computed and extended against said lands, that each of said parcels of land may be sold for the amounts due thereon, as provided by law, to pay the lien aforesaid.

And your petitioner will ever pray, etc.

Dated January 8th, 1915.

ORAMEL B. FULLER,
 Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State.
