How does The Hoover Lengthen the Life of Rugs?

In prior advertisements we have stated that carpet makers, rug importers and hundreds of thousands of users recommend The Hoover for its life-prolonging and beautifying effect upon rugs. We have urged you to consult any of these authorities on the subject, whose word is to be relied upon.

Walking and the rocking of chairs crushes down the nap of rugs. This bent-over nap then comes in contact with sharp-edged embedded grit and is cut and ground to pieces unless the rug is thoroughly cleaned with frequency and the destructive grit removed. This is the cause of threadbare spots.

Now we will explain how The Hoover prolongs the life of rugs.

The constant beating out of this nap-wearing, embedded grit by The Hoover, and the constant brushing and lifting of the nap when crushed, prevents the wear and prolongs the life of rugs. Further, the thorough cleaning of The Hoover removes the dirt that otherwise dims colors and in time dulls them forever.

Only The Hoover thoroughly renovates your rugs each time, because it beats—as it sweeps, as it cleans by air.

HOPE ORATORS WIN SECOND AND THIRD PLACES

Quite a large delegation of Hope College orators to Albion where the two state oratorical contests were held Friday, the women's contest in the afternoon and the men's contest in the evening. Hope's orators this year were Judson Staplekamp, son of Mrs. Dena Staplekamp, 18 East 16th street, and Miss Vera Keppel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Keppel, 85 E. 10th street.

The two contests resulted as follows: Women's contest—first place won by Michigan State Normal, on the subject, "The Church and the New America;" second place won by Hope, on the subject, "Lest We Forget;" third place won by Albion, on the subject, "The Four Million;" Men's contest—first place won by Albion, on the subject, "The Delusion of Equality;" second place won by Michigan State Normal, on the subject "Anglo-Saxon Unity and World Peace;" third place won by Hope, "The Menace of Lawlessness."

Mr. Staplekamp, Hope's orator in the men's contest, won two firsts in the markings of the judges.

There are nine colleges in the Michigan State Oratorical League. Annual contests have been held by these institutions for the past 26 years, and during the past half a dozen years Hope College has been running away with most of the honors. The state oratorical contest has been held at Holland two or three times, and last year the interstate contest was held in this city.

A large crowd of Hope students waited eagerly at Keefe's restaurant Friday night for the reports of the contest from Albion, arrangements having been made to send the results over the wire immediately after the men's contest in the evening. The results of the women's contest were not announced until after the men's contests in the evening.

All the officers were re-elected at the Friday afternoon meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at the home of Mrs. George Albers, 254 College avenue. The Union has been steadily growing in numbers, and a pleasant social hour follows each program. The officers elected are: President, Mrs. Henry Van Ark; vice president, Mrs. E. J. Blekkink; sec., Mrs. R. N. DeMerrell; treasurer, Mrs. Geo. Albers. As Mrs. DeMerrell is spending the winter in Bermuda, Mrs. B. Harris was appointed to fill the vacancy until her return. The vice presidents of the churches are as follows: Hope, Mrs. J. Visscher; Third, Mrs. A. Meyer; First, Mrs. J. Weyer; Trinity, Mrs. C. Dressel; Methodist, Mrs. E. Fairbanks.

The musical numbers were a solo by Miss Barkema, accompanied by Miss Poppen, who sang "Morn," by Olney Speaks, and "Mighty Lak a Rose." Also two violin numbers by Herbert Schumacher, "Cradle Song," by Hauser, and "Bloemenlied," by Laug.

Miss H. Hoekje, one of the teachers of Holland high school, gave an interesting talk, explaining the Blue Triangle Club which she has recently organized in high school, which awakened a great interest and showed it to be a splendid organization for girls of high school age, and one bound to raise the moral tone wherever it is adopted. Its slogan is "Face Life Squarely," and its threefold aim to develop the health knowledge, spirit.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Post, who will give a historical sketch of the W. C. T. U. The meetings hereafter will begin at 3 o'clock.

The Union unanimously voted to forego the annual membership banquet and give the cost to the Chinese Famine Relief Fund.

Mrs. B. Welton, Mrs. G. Atwood and Mrs. H. W. Smith served assorted cake and tea.

Holland high basketball team, backed by a host of supporters, went down to defeat before the attack of the Central five in an overtime game Friday night in the Central Gym. in Grand Rapids, 21 to 19. The game was clean, fast and exciting throughout, keeping the immense crowd on its feet most of the time. The first half ended 9 to 7 in Holland's favor. But at the close of the second half the score was tied 19 to 19. In the five minutes overtime play Van Dam of Central caged the deciding basket.

The preliminary between the Central and Holland reserves was almost as fast as the big game, with the Central scrubs emerging on the top of the 15 to 14 score.

A deputy United States marshal was in Allegan Wednesday serving notice on Mr. J. G. Prestage, a nursery man of Allegan county requesting him to appear in the U. S. District court at Grand Rapids Mar. 8 to answer to a violation of law for shipping some Jack Pine trees into Kansas which were on the prohibitive list. Mr. Prestage claims some of his help made the shipment without his knowledge. He however is responsible for his nursery business and will have to stand trial. He gave a $200 bond for his appearance at trial.

A BELATED ELECTION BET IS NOW PAID

During the April election nearly a year ago, there was considerable friendly rivalry as to who would occupy the chief executive chair.

Mayor Stephan had many friends among both the ladies and the gentlemen, and these friends organized the different wards pulling for their candidate for election.

The fourth ward had an organization and so did the third ward.

The third ward crew banteringly told the fourth ward crew that they would roll up the largest majority for Abe Stephan.

The fourth warders, who by the way, had several ladies in their organization, made the bluff that they would pay for a good spread if they lost.

The third warders took up the wager and the results are reflected in the election returns of last April when the vote stood as follows:

Third Ward ..... 314

Fourth Ward ..... 327

But those third warders didn't come across, and there was considerable muttering in the fourth ward camp.

The matter came to a head however in the "Koffee Klets" a few days ago when it came to the ears of the mayor that such a wager had been waged.

Said the Mayor, "I'll furnish the banquet hall in my home if you furnish the banquet."

Bill Orr and Henry Geerlings, spokesmen for the Third Ward crew, took up the challenge and served the following subpoena on the Fourth Ward campaigners.

Official Invitation

To.....

In the Name of the People of the Third Ward of the City of Holland—

You are hereby commanded personally, to appear at 24 E. 9th St., in the city of Holland, Michigan on the fourth day of March 1921, at 8:30 in the afternoon of that day to show cause, if any, why the vimmins of the Fourth Ward did not actively participate in their franchise privilege at the annual Spring Election held in ye City of Holland on Monday the Fifth Day of April A. D. 1920.

Hereof Fail Not at Your Peril.

Given under our hand and the official seal of the City of Holland.

Subscribed to at the residence of the Honorable, the Mayor of the City of Holland, this 28th day of February A. D. 1921.

Third Ward Invitation Committee
This subpoena being issued a "call to arms" of the Third Ward Stephan Boosters Club was issued, the import of which was as follows:

A Call To Arms

City of Holland

In the Name of the People of Third Ward of the City of Holland—You are hereby summoned personally, to appear at 24 E. M., in defense of our "polling" activities during our last Annual Spring Election held in our city on Monday the Fifth day of April, 1920, to show evidence of our superiority in this respect, over our Friendly Enemy, the Fourth Ward.

Hereof Fail Not at our Peril.

Given under our hand and the official seal of the city of Holland, this 28th day of February, 1921 A. D.

The result was that the following Stephan workers gathered at the home of the mayor Friday evening and to the Third Warders the honor was given of paying the check for the meal, while the Fourth Warders smiled benignly.

Here are the Third Warders who paid.

CHARGED WITH ARSON, AGNEW FAMILY IN TROUBLE

About two weeks ago the News reported the mysterious fire of John Zacharias whose general store is on the West Michigan Pike at Agnew.

It was also reported that three years before a small mill and ice-house were destroyed and two months ago a home belonging to the Zacharias family went up in smoke.

Suspicion has now been aroused against the Zacharias family of having set fire to these buildings.

Three arrests have been made by Sheriff Fortney on the charge of arson. The house was owned by John Zacharias and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Rinehart Zacharias. For several weeks Sheriff Dornbos and State Fire Marshal Armstrong have been conducting a thorough investigation of the blaze in and around Agnew.

As a result John Zacharias was taken into custody Thursday morning by Sheriff Fortney. Thursday the sheriff went to Detroit and returned with Rinehart Zacharias and Ethel Zacharias, his wife. All three were held for arraignment before Justice C. N. Dickinson in Grand Haven.

It was expected that the three people would be arraigned in Justice Dickinson's court sometime Friday on a charge of arson. The complaint was made by Sheriff Fortney, and charges John Zacharias with the burning of the building, and Rinehart and Ethel Zacharias with being accessories to the fact.

The defendants in the case had not engaged legal counsel. Bonds were expected to be fixed by the justice today, in the cases, and it was believed that the parties charged would furnish bonds for their release.

A short time ago the store building owned and occupied by John Zacharias at Agnew, was completely destroyed by fire. No specific charge was made in this case, but it is understood that the matter was included in the investigations by the officers, who have been covering the ground very thoroughly. The evidence in the present case is said to have been confined to the fire at the dwelling on January 8.

While the evidence in possession of the officers is of course, not made public it is claimed that they have sufficient material at their disposal to warrant beginning action against the three people named in the complaint. The defendants are understood to totally deny the charges made against them.

Mr. Zacharias is well known in Holland, as he comes here weekly to get supplies and to do other business.

He also carries insurance with an Ottawa county agency located in Zeeland, and within the last few weeks has made inquiries relative to insurance from a Holland agency.

John Zacharias, Rinehart and Ethel Zacharias, charged with implication in the Agnew arson case, were arraigned in Justice Dickinson's court Thursday and demanded an examination which was set for Mar. 17. Mr. and Mrs. Rinehart Zacharias furnished bail of $750 and were released pending the examination. John Zacharias had not furnished the $1500 bail required up to this afternoon. The defendants are well known in Holland.

Miss Ada Slag was successfully operated upon Friday for appendicitis at the Holland hospital.

ALLEGAN TURNS DOWN THE CITY NURSE VOTE

City Health Officer H. W. Stuch and other physicians of Allegan are somewhat indignant at the action of the Allegan council, when they voted down a resolution to submit to the electors at the April election the question of raising by a special tax of one tenth of a mill a fund sufficient to maintain a visiting nurse. In a communication upon the subject the doctor says: "A large and increasing number of representative and intelligent voters believe that Allegan's school children are entitled to up-to-date health supervision as well as mental training and that many local problems can best be handled by a visiting nurse. We can afford expenditures for baseball grounds and other civic enterprises. Can we not afford the expenditure of one cent on each ten dollars of taxation for so important a matter as health of the community? A petition will be presented to the council at the next meeting, which it is hoped, will assure the matter coming before the people at least. You mothers and fathers with children in school wish the health of these children protected, and you will best serve your own interests and theirs by voting yes, when this matter comes up in April."

ANNUAL TAX SALE

State of Michigan, County of Ottawa—ss.

The Circuit Court for the County of Ottawa in Chancery.

In the matter of the petition of Oramel B. Fuller, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State, for the sale of certain lands for taxes assessed thereon.

Reading and filing the petition of the Auditor General of the State of Michigan, praying for a decree in favor of the State of Michigan, against each parcel of land therein described, for the amounts therein specified, claimed to be due for taxes, interest and charges on each such parcel of land, and that such lands be sold for the amounts so claimed by the State of Michigan.

It is ordered that said petition will be brought on for hearing and decree at the March term of this Court, to be held at Grand Haven in the County of Ottawa, State of Michigan, on the 1st day of March, A. D. 1921, at the opening of the Court on that day, and that all persons interested in such lands or any part thereof, desiring to contest the lien claimed thereon by the State of Michigan, for such taxes, interest and charges, or any part thereof, shall appear in said Court, and file with the clerk thereof their objections thereto on or before the first day of the term of this court above mentioned, and that in and through the same will be taken and entered as prayed for in said petition. And it is further ordered that in pursuance of said decree the lands described in said petition for which a decree of sale shall be made, will be sold for the several taxes, interest and charges thereon, as determined by such decree on the first Tuesday in May thereafter, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. on said day, or on the day or days subsequent thereto as may be necessary to complete the sale of said lands and of each and every parcel thereof, at the office of the County Treasurer, or at such convenient place as shall be selected by him at the county seat of the County of Ottawa, State of Michigan; and that the sale then and there made will be a public sale, each parcel to be described in the decree shall be separately exposed for sale for the total taxes, interest and charges, and the sale shall be made to the person paying the full amount charged against such parcel, and accepting a conveyance of the same, and the purchaser shall pay the taxes and charges and take a conveyance of less than the entire thereof, then the whole parcel shall be offered and sold. If any parcel of land cannot be sold for taxes, interest and charges, such parcel shall be passed over for the time being, and shall, on the succeeding day or before the close of the sale be reoffered, and if, on such second offer, or during such sale, the same cannot be sold for the amount aforesaid, the County Treasurer shall bid off the same in the name of the State.

Witness the Hon. Orien S. Cross, Circuit Judge, and the seal of said Circuit Court of Ottawa County, this 20th day of January, A. D. 1921.

(SEAL) ORIEN S. CROSS, Circuit Judge.

Countersigned,
ORRIE J. SLUITER, Clerk.

STATE OF MICHIGAN.

To the Circuit Court for the County of Ottawa in Chancery:

The petition of Oramel B. Fuller, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State, respectfully shows that the list of lands hereinafter set forth, and marked "Schedule A," contains a description of all lands in said County of Ottawa upon which taxes were assessed for the years mentioned therein, and which were returned as delinquent for non-payment of taxes, and which have not been paid; together with the total amount of such taxes, with interest computed thereon to the time fixed for sale, and collection fee and expenses, as provided by law, extended against each of said parcels of land.

You petitioner further shows that the Court that said lands were returned to the Auditor General under the provisions of Act 206 of the Public Acts of 1893, as delinquent for non-payment of said taxes for said years respectively, and that said taxes remain unpaid; except that the lands included in said "Schedule A," for taxes of 1899 or prior years were returned to the Auditor General as delinquent for said taxes under the provisions of the general tax laws in force prior to the passage of Act 206 of the Public Acts of 1891, and which taxes remain unpaid.

Your petitioner further shows that in all cases where lands are included in "Schedule A" as aforesaid for taxes of 1899 or of any prior year, said lands have not been sold for said taxes or have been heretofore sold for said delinquent taxes and the sale or sales so made have been set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, or have been cancelled as provided by law.

Your petitioner further shows and avers that the taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses as set forth in said "Schedule A," are a valid lien on the several parcels of lands described in said schedule.

Your petitioner further shows that the said taxes on the said described lands have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent; and the said taxes not having been paid, and the same being now due and remaining unpaid as above set forth, you petitioner prays a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of said lands, for the payment of the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses, as computed and extended in said schedule, and in default of payment of the said several sums computed and extended against said lands, that each of said parcels of land may be sold for the amounts due thereon, as provided by law, to pay by law aforesaid.

And your petitioner will ever pray, as provided.

Dated January 10, 1921.

ORAMEL B. FULLER,

Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State.

HOLLAND TO RECEIVE A VISIT FROM APOLLO CLUB

Grand Haven has got the singing craze like Holland had some years ago when the Wagner chorus organized by John Vandersluis and presided over by J. Jans Helder held sway for a few years with great success.

Many of the Wagner Chorus men have followed voice culture as a result of their work when they were members of the local organization. The Apollo club is a singing organization in Grand Haven and they have decided to put on a concert in March.

This will be the first public appearance as a club of Grand Haven's newest organization and the event is being anticipated eagerly by music lovers of that city. The organization of the club has also aroused no little interest in musical circles of surrounding cities and there have been a number of inquiries as to the probable date of the first concert from Holland, Muskegon, and Grand Rapids.

The Apollo club is composed of about 50 male singers. Every one of them has a fine voice and the interest in the club in particular and in music in general is very keen among those who have signed up. The meetings and rehearsals which are held every week are practically 100 per cent in attendance. This spirit has enabled the organization to make very rapid progress in its preparations for the first concert.

The organization is under the direction of Bastian Van Workom a Grand Haven singer of much more than local reputation. The members are many of them trained singers, and Grand Haven will receive the benefit of this training on many occasions.

FORMER LAKE

CAPTAIN DIES IN WISCONSIN

Captain Frank R. Brouwer, well known to many in Holland, died at his home at Waukesha, Wis., at the age of 89 years. Captain Brouwer was a prominent figure here and in other lake ports in the early days and he made many friends in Holland.

Mr. Brouwer was one of the picturesque old mariners who plied the Great Lakes fifty years ago. He was born in the Netherlands and when a boy came with his parents to Grand Haven, where he, through association with lake folks, received his training in fresh water sailing. For forty years he was a captain on various passenger boats, among them the Lucile, which sank between Sandusky and Toledo, but, partly due to Capt. Brouwer's heroism, with no loss of life.

Capt. Brouwer retired eighteen years ago and seven years ago went to Waukesha to live. He is survived by eight daughters and one son.

VANITY OF MEN AND ### WOMEN DISCUSSED

The Social Progress Club held its annual ladies' night meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Visscher, East Thirtieth street. Mr. Visscher, who is president of the club, presided, and a program of more varied interest was given than is customary at regular meetings.

Wm. E. Vander Hart read a serious-humorous paper on the subject, "A Feminine Historical Clothesline." Mr. Vander Hart some weeks ago read before the club a paper on "A Masculine Historical Clothesline," and Tuesday night he developed along similar lines the story of woman's dress through the ages from the fig leaf to the present day styles that are again approaching the fig-leaf.

Mrs. Arthur Visscher beautifully sang Henry Van Dyke's "Home Again," to her own accompaniment, and she responded to an encore with a "Flivver Song."

One feature of the evening was a debate on the subject, "Resolved, that men are more vain than women." Dr. A. Leenhouts taking the affirmative side of the question and C. Vander Meulen the negative. The speakers discussed their subject from the viewpoints of scripture, history, nature, and the Saturday Evening Post. A vote of the audience gave the decision to the negative while on the merits of the question the women also got the worst of it.

The program concluded with a saxophone concert provided by Roy Gilbert, Clarence Lokker, John Van Vyven and Henry Wilson. They favored the members and their wives with a number of delightful selections and were greeted with enthusiastic applause.

FRIS' BOOK STORE TO SELL INTERURBAN TICKETS

Sale of interurban tickets has begun at the Fris Book Store. Ever since the interurban waiting room and ticket office was moved from the old site near the corner of River and 8th street it has been felt that there should be some place at this end of town where tickets could be procured. The Michigan Railway Lines has designated the Fris Book Store for this and after this people who board the car at this end can secure their tickets there.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold its annual election of officers Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. George Albers, 254 College Ave. At four o'clock Miss Hannah Hoekje will speak about the Y. W. C. A. she has been organizing in the high school. All members who are interested are invited to meet with the Union at 4 o'clock. The devotions will be in charge of Mrs. Benj. Du Mez. ## HOLLAND LOW ON TAXES, THE STATE REPORT SHOWS

The cry of high taxes is of course a chronic one in Holland, as elsewhere, and will always remain such. Taxes are always high, according to the average taxpayer, and it is not to be denied that taxes all over the country have been high the past several years.

But there is a certain class of people who are always intimating, without having any definite figures to back up their complaints, that taxes in Holland are higher than in other cities. Some months ago Supervisor Henry Vander Warf made a study of the subject on a small scale, comparing the taxes of Holland with such towns as Ionia and a few other of that size in this part of the state, and it was found then that Holland had considerably the best of it, the taxes here being lower than the other towns studied.

But now comes the eleventh report of the board of state tax commissioners, and the people of Holland have an opportunity to compare the taxes in this city with taxes paid by all the other cities of the state. This is the latest report of the state commission available, and it makes a survey of the tax rates for Michigan cities for the year 1919.

Holland, according to the figures, is not a bad place to live in for the tax payer. There are 113 cities in the list, and among all those there are only eight that have a lower tax rate than Holland. And most of these eight are only a trifle below Holland.

Holland's rate for that year is given as $23.59, while the cities that have lower rates are as follows:— Allegan $21.64; Fremont $20.61; Grand Rapids $22.88; Greenville $23.31; Highland Park, $20.21; Neenah $21.75; Otsego $22.47; Wyandotte $20.59.

WELL, WHAT SHALL WE SAY ABOUT THE GAS QUESTION?

SUBJECT HAS BEEN WORN
THREADBARE WITH TEN YEARS OF ARGUMENT

Latest Project Will Cost the City At Least $316,000.00

We have been slow in taking up the gas question that is coming up for a vote at the primaries next Tuesday for the 'tenth time.

During the last ten years the writer has scribbled so many columns of Holland about the gas situation here. It is doubtful if there is a voter in the city who does not understand the question thoroughly. We are however going to give below, a few plainly written sentences that cannot be misunderstood.

It is needless to tell the citizens of Holland about the gas situation here. It is doubtful if there is a voter in the city who does not understand the question thoroughly. We are however going to give below, a few plainly written sentences that cannot be misunderstood.

By your vote next Tuesday you have the privilege of purchasing the present Holland City Gas Plant, as it stands today, for $244,000.00. This understand thoroughly, does not include extensions in the Fifth and Sixth Wards.

Should Holland acquire this plant by your vote, the extensions will cost you $60,000.00 more, or a total of $304,000.00.

To this amount must be added the sum of $10,000 as working capital, and $2,000 for coal supply on hand and for gas in holders, making a grand total of $316,000.

If you vote yes on the gas question, you will naturally saddle an added bonded debt upon the city, of the above named amount.

Should Holland decide to buy this plant, will the consumers have cheaper gas? We were not in a position to say, and for that reason a representative of this paper called upon Mr. Chas. H. McBride, city attorney, asking him to give the people the necessary information.

This is what the city attorney said:

"The Common Council will not guarantee the consumers a rate that is cheaper than what they are now getting. The rate could never be any cheaper, based on the present fair rate, allowed Holland by the Michigan Public Utilities Commission, for the reason that Holland will have to pay approximately six per cent on a valuation of $256,000.00 and adding thereto a two per cent margin for depreciation of the plant, the amount set by the commission.

"The rate of the Holland Gas Co. is based by the commission on a valuation of only $180,000.00 at seven per cent, plus the two per cent depreciation. This valuation of the plant was established about a year ago when Holland asked for relief in its gas situation through the state commission. At that time the gas officials thought the commission's decision on that valuation very unjust.

"However the appraisal stood, and the rate was based upon that appraisal. The commission also ruled at that time extensions in the 5th and 6th wards must be made, and this was thoroughly understood by the officials of the Holland City Gas Company.

"Therefore, these extensions will have to be made, based of course, upon a rate approved by the Michigan Public Utilities Commission, if petitions from the property owners in the 5th and 6th wards are forthcoming.

It seems that the city attorney's statement is plain, and that Holland is getting as good a gas rate as it is possible to get, and at the same time leaving a margin for extensions, operating expenses and legitimate profits.

This in a nut shell gives you the situation as it stands. It would be well however to take an inventory of the municipal situation and the crying needs for other things besides the need of a gas plant.

It seems that it is only a safe and sane business policy to find out first what these needs are, and second, which of these needs are the most urgent.

If the tax payer can stand the pressure to pay for all these necessities, well and good. Then figure a gas plant in the list.

Holland will be called upon to build within a very short time, a reduction system, to take care of its sewage. This is no dream for the future, but a condition that has become imperative and such a system may be ordered by the State Board of Health at any time.

What this system will cost we have no means of knowing, but it will run up into many thousands of dollars.

Holland needs a new hospital. Our home folks are being turned away from the one we now have, because the facilities are entirely inadequate, and the accommodations are such that patients cannot properly be taken care of.

Plans and specifications are out for a building costing upwards of a quarter million dollars. Holland will have to decide soon whether relief is going to be forthcoming in that direction.

Members of the Board of Public Works would tell you that conditions are not very prepossessing when it comes to the city water supply. The water we have is the finest in the world for drinking purposes, but every summer the limit of our water

FIFTH SEMI-ANNUAL DOLLAR DAY

THURSDAY, MARCH 17, NAMED
DOLLAR DAY BY HOLLAND
RETAIL MERCHANTS

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! The next Holland Dollar day is set for Thursday, March 17, and the local merchants who have worked so successfully in years past to make the Dollar days popular are promising an array of practical and seasonable bargains which will more than live up to the enviable successes of previous Holland Dollar Days.

In spite of uncertainty in prices, for the past few weeks, the Holland retailers have planned so well for the Dollar Day bargains that each one of these big bargain events has far eclipsed those which have preceded it. Just how this has been done, is known only to the buyers for the retail stores in Holland. But the fact remains that each Dollar Day has exceeded the expectations of the merchants and their customers, both from the standpoint of volume of sales and percentage of savings to Dollar Day patrons. Coming as it does, during the first spring week of the year, the fifth semi-annual Dollar Day, Thursday, March 17, promises an "attendance" record for Holland which will stand for some time.

GEORGE GETZ FIGURES IN THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE

GAVE HIS CAMEL TO LINCOLN

Nearly everyone in this vicinity has seen the two camels at the Holland fair. The caretaker was a Syrian who stayed at Lakewood for three years minding the humped creatures.

One of the camels died some two years ago and the other one named "Betty" was presented to the City of Chicago to be placed in Lincoln Park. Relative to this animal who laughs at a boot-legger and government prohibition agents alike, the Tribune has the following:

Betty, Who Finds Chicago Just Like Her Native Sahara

Time was when the camel, that beast of burden from arid lands, did not do well in this country. It could not become acclimated. But that was prior to July 1, 1919. It is different now. Of all the animals that attract thousands to the Lincoln park zoo, none is apparently more contented than Betty, lately come from Egypt. Gazing out over the broad acres of Prohibition Director Frank D. Richardson's domain, she blinks. Perhaps Betty actually believes the sand a gust has blown in her eyes is direct from the Sahara. Betty, a dromedary camel and was given to the zoo by George F. Getz of Holland, Michigan.

AGED CROCKERY MAN DIES BY HIS OWN HAND TUESDAY

John Johnson, for 3 years a resident of Crockery township, committed suicide Tuesday by hanging himself at his farm home near Thompson crossing. The old gentleman had been in poor health and despondent for some time. Coroner Henry Boer was called to investigate and decided an inquest was unnecessary.

Mr. Johnson would have been 75 years of age on March 17. He was a native of Sweden but lived in Crockery township for 35 years and was very well known in that section. The old gentleman took his life while the family was away from home and was found dead upon their return at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

—DAY—

The committee of five men appointed at the last meeting of the taxpayers of Zeeland school district No. 1 has investigated conditions in the school and has decided in favor of building a new high school. This decision will be presented at the next meeting. A new committee has been chosen by the committee of five to consider plans for the new high school and consists of R. Page, I. Van Dyke and G. De Jonge.

supply is reached and the board members go into July and August with grave apprehensions always doubtful whether there will be enough water to pull the city through the summer months.

Thousands of dollars have been spent driving points and digging wells for an added supply, but thus far the board has met with no success at all.

Even under the best of conditions, and if new water sheds are found, the project will cost a great deal of money.

But if Lake Michigan is the only source left open to us, the cost of such an undertaking is staggering to say the least.

Here you have the four propositions. A proper sewer system, a new hospital, an adequate water supply, a municipal gas plant.

Here's the inventory. Take your choice.

ONE OF HOLLAND'S PROMINENT PIONEERS PASSES

MRS. H. BOONE DIES SUDDENLY OF HEART FAILURE
TUESDAY NIGHT

Would Have Been Seventy-Eight
Years Old On June 2

Mrs. H. Boone, nee Helen Fredricka Phanstiel died early Wednesday morning of heart failure at her home at 100 West 11th street.

Her sudden death was a decided shock to her host of friends and many relatives.

Although in comparatively good health she had been complaining about her heart action, and expressed the fear that this might take her away unexpectedly.

Mrs. Boone came to this country from the Netherlands when she was three years of age. For a short time her parents lived at Kalamazoo, but later they moved to Holland, and helped build the city together with the other pioneers who came here with Dr. A. C. Van Raalte.

P. F. Pfanstiel, the father of Mrs. Boone started the first tannery in Holland. A small affair it was, however it was in this tannery that the late Isaac Cappon, founder of the Cappon-Bertsch Leather Company first learned his trade.

Later Mr. Pfanstiel started a general store on the site now occupied by the McBride Block on River avenue. It was in this store that Mrs. H. Boone, then a young girl, showed her aptness for business, constantly helping her father, in all his undertakings.

Later the store was remodeled into a hotel, and was named the City Hotel. In this enterprise Mrs. Boone was also interested. The hotel burned in the big fire of '71.

Mrs. Boone was married on April 14, 1866 to the late Hermann Boone of this city, and had she lived until June 23, she would have been 78 years old. Mrs. Boone was an ardent church worker, being one of the charter members of the Third Reformed church. She was also prominent in C. E. work and made the visiting of the sick a personal matter.

She also called upon all new members who joined the C. E. society and in this way made them feel at home.

She was a member of the Woman's Relief Corps and was very active in this organization. She was also a charter member of the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion.

The Holland Fair was never complete unless Mrs. Boone was found somewhere in the Art Hall judging culinary exhibits.

During the war with others she was very active in doing Red Cross work and cheerfully and tirelessly performed those duties left for her to do.

In Mrs. Boone Holland loses a true democratic friend, an estimable lady whose passing leaves a void in the community.

Mrs. Boone is survived by two daughters and four sons: Mrs. Philip Solon of Muscovy, Idaho; Mrs. John Peters, Fred, Hub, Albert and John Boone of Holland; also one brother and one sister, Rev. Albert Pfanstiel of Deel Beach, N. J., and Mrs. F. J. Schouten.

She also leaves thirteen grandchildren, among them being George Frances Pardee, and Minard and Harold Boone.

The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon, March 12 at two o'clock from the home 100 West 11th street. Complete arrangements have not as yet been made however.

STATEMENTS SHOW

PEOPLE OF HOLLAND
ARE THRIFTY

TOTAL DEPOSITS IN THE LOCAL
BANKS MAKE A CONSIDERABLE SUM

That the people of Holland are on the whole thrifty and believe in making full use of the local banks in laying up a surplus for a rainy day is shown by the quarterly statements of the banks of the city published a few days ago. It is shown in the statements that there is a total of savings deposits in the three banks of $3,707,553.72. This means that these are deposited in the savings accounts of the banks an average of approximately $309 for every man, woman and child in the city, figuring Holland's population in round numbers at 12,000.

The average is not as large as this of course, because a good many of the savings deposits come from the surrounding community. But the average is a considerable one, even when all allowances have been made. It was recently stated by the post-office department that very few people take advantage of the postal savings banks, showing that they make good use of the local banks.

The statements of all the three banks show a very healthy growth in all their departments and the financial institutions of the city are on a strong basis, they show.

PROTEST MADE AGAINST CLOSING OTTAWA STATIONS

LOCAL MEN APPEAR IN HEARING BEFORE UTILITIES COMMISSION

West Olive and Vriesland Stations Are Likely To Be Reopened As a Result

On Tuesday a hearing was had before the Michigan Public Utilities Commission at Lansing, relative to the application of the Pere Marquette Railroad company to close a number of their stations throughout the state, including two in Ottawa county, Vriesland and West Olive.

The people of the surrounding community, especially at West Olive protest vigorously against the closing of the stations, because of their inability to bill out freight, or have proper claims presented where freight was taken in, and also injured the passenger service.

Vriesland station receives a large amount of fertilizer in the spring and ships out a large quantity of celery during the fall, and West Olive is the only station between Grand Haven and Holland that has been kept open, and this station was closed by the Pere Marquette the latter part of January, they claiming that they could not afford to maintain these stations at the expense that they were up against.

A hearing was had before the commission and the communities interested were invited to send representatives. Mr. Bert Gelben of West Olive appeared on behalf of that place. Rep. G. W. Kooyers also appeared on behalf of both West Olive and Vriesland. Prosecuting Attorney F. T. Miles also was present with these gentlemen.

The hearing was quite satisfactory as to West Olive and Vriesland. Mr. Alfred, the general superintendent at Grand Rapids both indicated that they thought the closing of the West Olive station was a mistake, and they would be glad to go over the matter carefully again, and if possible reopen the station and maintain an eight hour a day agent there.

They assured the local representative that as to the Vriesland station, they expected to reopen it, especially in the busy months when fertilizer is delivered there and celery is being shipped out.

Mr. Alfred gave out some very interesting facts and figures relative to the difficulties of the Pere Marquette Railroad company, and also concerning many of the other roads.

A large part of their trouble appears to be in properly adjusting the labor question. He showed that the Pere Marquette has been losing money at a ruinous rate during the last three months, and that prospects under present conditions are not very promising.

RETIRED MINISTER DROPS DEAD ON CENTRAL AVENUE

WAS PICKED UP BY A FELLOW
PASTOR

The Rev. Klaas Kuiper, 79, father of R. B. Kuiper and B. K. Kuiper of Grand Rapids, dropped dead in Centennial Park Wednesday. He was on his way to attend services in observance of Prayer Day in the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church.

Rev. Kuiper was picked up by the Rev. Ghyssels, pastor of the Ninth Street Christian Reformed church. It was just two weeks ago that Dr. Kuiper delivered a sermon in this church.

The Rev. Kuiper came to this country in 1876, and has held pastorates at Grand Haven, Roseland, Ill., and Niekirk, and retired two years ago. The funeral announcement will be made later.

Jake Fris and John Van Vyven were in Grand Rapids on business today.

SINGERS ARE ENTERTAINED AT LOCAL HOME

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dornbos, No. 350 Pine avenue, was thrown open Thursday evening to the members of the singing class of the 4th Reformed church of this city.

That the host and hostess gave them a royal welcome goes without saying. Many special innovations were features at this gathering of friends, and a program of games which were out of the ordinary was on the evening's entertainment program.

One of the games at least which was unusually timely was the new president's inauguration. It would take too long to explain the intricacies of the new game, but suffice it to say that two young ladies in the persons of the Misses Alice Nyboer and Sarah Dees especially excelled in this new contest, the former winning first prize and the latter the second prize.

Riding airplanes and shaking ladies shoes were also new ones on the singing folks. Jack Kobes was especially well versed when it came to footwear shaking.

The organization being of a musical order naturally numbers of a musical nature were in evidence on the program.

The singing class has many talented members and these were called upon at random for any offering they might have along these lines.

It was naturally fitting that elaborate refreshments should be one of the features of the evening, and Mrs. Dornbos saw to it that nothing was lacking when the delicatessen part of the program was reached. She was ably assisted in this by the Miss Lydia Rogers and Evelyn Ewald.

From the expressions received on every hand it goes without saying that the evening's entertainment was a most enjoyable affair.

Mr. Dornbos wields the baton for the singing class of the 4th Reformed church, having been its able leader for some time past.

The officers of the society are: Rev. H. F. Heemstra, president; John Miennema, vice president; Sena Van Huis, secretary; Carl Buurman, treasurer; Richard Eelhart, librarian.

The singing class holds meetings every Wednesday night and are now diligently working on two programs, the rendition of which will be made sometime during this spring.

OTTAWA WILL EMPLOY MORE FARM LABOR

More hired men will be seen in the fields of Michigan farms this summer, but the heyday of the farm hands' big wage is past, says the Michigan State Farm Bureau in commenting on its recent farm labor survey of the state, which reveals that there will be more jobs, little expansion on the part of the farmer and lower wages for farm labor.

Despite the fact that farm commodities are selling at lowest prices in several years and that many farmers feel that they are taking quite a loss, 13 of the 29 counties answering the questionnaire are going to hire more men than they did in 1920 and nine others believe that 1921 will see no decrease in their farm labor ranks. The remaining seven are going to cut on labor and in some cases on production, according to the survey.

Counties intending to hire more farm labor are Alpena, Alger, Gratiot, Wayne, Muskegon, Oakland, Ottawa, Antrim, Dickinson, Jackson, Mason, Manistiquette, Marquette; those forecasting no change: Missaukee, Presque Isle, Washtenaw, Eaton, Oceanna, Manistee, Barry, Ionia, Kalamazoo; predicting a curtailment in labor: Newaygo, Leapeer, Berrien, Ingham, Isabella, Macomb, Mecosta.

Wages for Michigan farm labor will range from $25 a month with board with a general trend of $40 to $45 a month without board to $75 as a peak figure in Washtenaw county, whose agricultural agent places the minimum for that county as $30, says the state farm bureau. In 1920 the hired man was paid an average of $44.42 without board throughout the country and $46.89 with board, representing a rise of 115 per cent since 1915, according to data from the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Wages paid in Michigan were generally higher than the average and are now about to take a drop which will average forty per cent, says the state farm bureau.

Mrs. C. De Keyser and daughter Hilda, are spending the day in Grand Rapids visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Nell Francois Pessink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. A. Pessink, former residents of this city, died at the home of her parents, 406 Grand Blvd., Chicago, on March 2, after a prolonged illness. Services and burial were at Oakwood cemetery, Chicago.

Another illustration of what the "Scrambling" of railroad equipment implies has come to light in the office of the superintendent of car service of the Pere Marquette R'y. Nearly two years ago, over 2000 cars were purchased and of these 6360 cars—33 per cent—have not reached the home lines. Other roads have been keeping them in service and because of the fact that they involve practically no maintenance repair service.

Miss Lydia Rogers, instructor in the High school took several pupils on a trip to Grand Rapids where they inspected the museum and Ryerson's library. After a day well spent she escorted the students to the Central and Holland High school basketball game.

Miss Bee Du Saar of the Western State Normal at Kalamazoo spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Du Saar, West 9th street.

DEATH COMES TO FREDERICK J. METZ ON FRIDAY

Holland lost one of its well known business men, one who has been closely identified with the industrial growth of the city, when death came Friday afternoon to Frederick J. Metz at his home at 105 W. 12th-st. Mr. Metz died at about 4 o'clock.

About ten days ago Mr. Metz was taken ill, but he refused to yield to his illness and he did not take to his bed until a week ago Tuesday. His illness developed into pneumonia, which was the immediate cause of his death.

Mr. Metz was born in Germany in 1845. He came to this country as a small child and spent many years in Vermont. Later the family moved to Michigan, settling in Battle Creek, and later living in other towns in the state. As a young man, he and his brother, the late George Metz of Grand Rapids, organized the North Side tannery and engaged in that business for a time, selling the business later to the Cappon-Bertach Leather Co.

In 1889 Mr. Metz and other Holland business men organized the West Michigan Furniture Co. and he was actively associated with this business until about a year or two ago when he sold out all his holdings in that concern to the Hummer interests, retiring from active business life.

The deceased is survived by his wife, one daughter, Ethelyn, and one son Edward of California.

The funeral was held on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home, 105 West 12th street, Rev. P. P. Cheff of Hope Church officiating. An opportunity was given to view the remains from 11 to 1 Monday.

CIRCUMSTANCES OF ZEELAND MAN'S DEATH TOLD

A letter from Florida describes the circumstances of the death of Dr. T. G. Huizenga of Zeeland, whose sudden passing was reported a few days ago.

Death came to Mr. Huizenga very suddenly and unexpectedly. He had been in comparatively good health up to the time of his death. During the forenoon of the day he had been superintending some work at his home and he seemed very well, and they sat down to the noonday meal. During the dinner he became ill and in a few moments lost consciousness, and death came in less than an hour. He did not suffer and passed away before anyone could realize the circumstances. His brother, Albert Huizenga, who also lives in Miami, was called but came too late to see him alive.

The latest advices from the grief-stricken family say that accommodations have been secured for bringing the remains to Zeeland, stating that they will leave Miami on Tuesday, March 8th, and they expect to arrive in Zeeland on Friday, March the 11th. No arrangements for the funeral services have been made at this time, but it is probable they will not be held till the following Monday.

ZEELAND POULTRY ASSOCIATION GROWS VERY RAPIDLY

Considerable "pop" has been injected into the Zeeland Poultry Association during the past few weeks, and the results of the efforts of the management are really surprising. At the last annual meeting George Caball of Vriesland was elected president of the association, and C. J. De Koster, secretary. At this meeting the association became enthused and each member present was appointed a committee of one to secure new members and the result has been that the membership has grown from an average of something less than fifty to more than three times this number and she bids fair to outnumber any other poultry association in Michigan. The secretary reported at the meeting this week that 185 had paid in their membership fees and that names were still being added so that 200 would be reported at the next meeting. The strong drawing card is that this territory is bound to be the poultry center for the middle west. Two other advantages are, free admission to the annual show, and a free poultry journal.

At this week's meeting the selection of next year's show was made. D. E. Hale, secretary of Chicago National Show selected to judge the standard stock, and E. C. Foreman as utility judge.

By far the most important matter settled at this meeting was the question of their first annual banquet. This affair will be held in the Rief Vanden Bosch building on the evening of Thursday, March the 17th, at 7:30 o'clock. The program will contain some very notable speakers. D. E. Hale, the newly selected judge; Miss Shely, editor of Modern Poultry Breeder; and Dr. L. E. Heasley of the Ferris Leghorn Farm are among those who will speak.

HOLLAND WILL BE BENEFITED BY NEW ROAD

Plans for seven miles of Covert road on the Bee Line road have been completed by the Allegan county road engineer and are now ready for hearing. The new road runs from a line south of Dunningville to one mile north of Hamilton. The specifications call for a 12 foot drive of gravel. The road is to be built this year and when completed will certainly be appreciated by those who have occasion to drive to Dunningville or Hamilton and thru to Holland.

Dr. J. E. Kuizenga was the principal speaker at the Fathers and Sons banquet in Grand Haven Friday night.

FARMERS PUT IN ELECTRIC LIGHTS

The Beech Tree Light and Power company, at Grand Haven, an organization composed chiefly of farmers residing along the Beech Tree road for a distance of two miles, were granted permission to use the highway right of way, for the erection of the necessary poles for the construction of the power and light lines. The request was made to the board of county road commissioners and the concession was granted by the board.

Like permission was given to the new company by the township of Grand Haven, controlling the roads leading up to the pike or Beech Tree road. The district extends for two miles along this main road, with an area of half a mile on either side of the highway.

The subscribers to the new organization are all resident of the district above mentioned. The forming of the company is the result of several years of work on the part of those who recognize the advantage to farmers of having light and power brought to their homes at a reasonable price.

Arrangements have been made with the city of Grand Haven, and after the company constructs its lines up to the southern limits of the city, juice from the municipal plant will be furnished.

Already some of the farmers have made arrangements to purchase new machinery which can be driven by electricity. The farmers' wives are already figuring on using electric washers and irons. Practically all of the organizers of the company have agreed to install lights in their homes under the new plan.

ENGAGEMENT OF HOLLAND GIRL IS ANNOUNCED

Miss Kathryn C. Prakkien, daughter of Mrs. N. Prakkien, 79 West Thirteenth street, who is attending the University of Michigan, greeted her girl friends with a truly Dan Cupid dinner party at the Martha Cook Building, in Ann Arbor, Saturday night.

The dining room glowed with soft yellow lights overhung with sprays of evergreen. At one end of the room a bright fire crackled its cheery welcome to the eager young girls who were unable to refrain from exclaiming with joy at the first glimpse of the lighted tables. At the opposite end of the room, evergreen and daffodils smiled down on the gay party.

Fifteen of Miss Prakkien's friends among whom were two out-of-town guests, Miss Minnie Ray, who is teaching in Jackson, and Miss Eva Schmitt of Saginaw, were seated at a large table before the fire-place. Smaller tables were grouped about this larger one. Martha Cook place cards of maize and blue, bearing the names, Kathryn C. Prakkien and Justus R. Huntley, were tied to daffodils and found at each girl's place. Mr. Huntley is the son of Mrs. G. Robert Huntley of Lansing. The wedding will take place this coming August.

SUGAR BEETS ARE A BOON TO THE FARMER

Holland is interested in sugar beets, sugar beet farmers, sugar beet factories and things incident to the sugar industry in all its phases.

This vicinity is decidedly a sugar district and the headquarters of three large sugar mills are located in this city. For that reason we are especially interested in what others have to say relative to this industry.

Below will be found a clipping taken from the Detroit Free Press, the leading paper in Michigan, in which the editor writes at some length editorially under the head of "The Sugar Beet—First Aid to the Farmer."

Says the Free Press:

"The agriculturist is the one man in the cosmic scheme of things whom society cannot afford to see 'lose out' on his job. He is pre-eminently the 'key industry' that must be kept going even though the rest of the world is temporarily obliged to shut up shop.

"It is therefore of the highest importance that the agriculturist's occupation should be made as consistently profitable as it is possible for the governmental policy and human prevision to make it. To stabilize his calling in this respect is to take a long step toward the stabilization of world industry—the supreme need today of our sadly shattered civilization. 'While the Free Press holds no brief for the beet sugar companies of this state, it nevertheless feels bound to say that they are doing more to safeguard the farmer's position than any other industry in Michigan. They provide the element of stability which is essential to his prosperity. Ordinarily the farmer's income is the most variable quantity in nature, but the beet sugar factories give him the assurance of a fair return on his labor and capital. Whatever else befalls him, he can rely on his beet crop to get him 'out of the trenches by Christmas,' or at least before the taxing period expires.

"In these times the certainty of a remunerative return from the most important of his root crops is a veritable godsend to the farmer. More than ever has he cause to be thankful for the existence of the beet sugar industry, which has leaped to a premier position not only agriculturally but economically. For it is not only an indispensable factor in promoting more scientific cultural methods and consequently in increasing crop productivity (in Europe the crop rotation introduced by the beet sugar industry has nearly doubled the acreage yield of cereals,) but its decisive influence during the war in stabilizing the domestic sugar market proved that it is as necessary to the well-being of the nation as it is to that of the farmer. It was only the existence of this industry that saved the American people from the most outrageous gouging at the hands of the foreign sugar interests, who invariably took advantage of the recurring scarcity consequent on the early exhaustion of the domestic supplies of sugar to boost prices to the most exorbitant figures.

"No other leading American industry came through the war-time period of systematic and colossal profiteering with a cleaner record than the beet sugar industry. The government's attitude toward it furnished one of the few instances of the strict enforcement of the anti-profiteering provisions of the federal food control act. Almost from the beginning of the war, the government regulated the price and distribution of domestic sugar. In some cases the initial prices were fixed so low that actual losses were sustained by many factories—a state of things that was only remedied by the tardy action of the government in granting increases.

"A somewhat similar unfortunate state of things exists today, owing to the fact that the beet sugar companies paid the farmers last fall a higher price for his beets than seems to have been warranted by the present price of sugar. For the 1920 crop of beets was contracted for on the basis of nine cent sugar; whereas the wholesale price of sugar today has fallen well below eight cents per pound. This leaves the beet sugar companies 'holding the bag'—at a financial sacrifice.

"These are some of the facts regarding the beet sugar industry. They speak eloquently of its 'first aid' service to both the farmer and the country—a service that clearly entitles it to be ranked among the most important of agricultural and economic interests."

POLICE MAKE BIG RAID ON AUTO THIEVES' RETREAT

The police department of Holland deserve a full meed of credit for the way they have put a stop to auto stealing in Holland and Ottawa county. There is no doubt but that Chief Van Ry and his men were largely instrumental in breaking up the gang who were making a wholesale business of stealing automobiles in this vicinity.

Many cars have been restored to their owners, in Holland not alone, but to those living at distant points as well, and since the gang has been broken up, not a machine has been reported stolen.

As a final cleanup the police made a raid on the home and garage of Jim Varano, 175 West 22nd street. Together with Officer Stokette, the chief found three spot lights, three auto robes, several bumpers, a heap of chains, some springs, several shock absorbers, a lot of tools, some jacks, and a fire extinguisher.

Among the robes, was found the expensive one belonging to Attorney Daniel Ten Cate, which indicates that the gang of Italians who got out of town when it became too hot for them, were the ones who stole the attorney's car.

When Mr. Varano was questioned relative to the stolen goods, he stated that he knew nothing of them any more, but that they were left there to people Italians who had rented rooming rooms, and also rented the garage, one of them being a man by the name of Domino Corado, whoever that may be.

Chief Van Ry has known for some time that these automobile accessories were located there, but the raid was held off until Monday, for the reason that by giving the gang rope, and allowing the automobile thieves case to blow over for a time, the principals in the case might return to take away the goods that remained. For that reason the house was kept under the eye of the officers continuously until this time.

But that is not all of the raid. While Jim Varano was not arrested for having stolen goods in his possession, he was taken for having a stolen automobile. On December 22, 1920, the Dodge car of Abel R. Todd was stolen on the streets of Lansing.

The number of the car was published far and wide, and Chief Van Ry upon looking up the application for license in the Michigan Motor-vehicle license book found that an auto license had been taken out by Jim Varano, 175 West 22nd street, Holland on January 13, the number of the car and the machine corresponding with the one stolen from Mr. Todd of Lansing.

Officer Stokette questioned Varano on the matter, and he disclaimed any knowledge of the application for license and stated that someone else must have used his name in securing it, and that the Dodge car does not belong to him, but was left there by the men who stopped at his place.

The Holland police of course returned the machine to the owner at Lansing, but Chief Van Ry states that he has enough evidence to hold Varano, and in default of an $800 bond, he was taken to the county jail at Grand Haven, until his examination before Justice Van Schelven takes place at the city hall Saturday.

CHIMNEY KNOCKED DOWN BY THE LIGHTNING

The home of Al Driy, West 11th street, next to the old King property was struck by lightning at 8:30 o'clock Monday evening during the severe storm that passed over the city. The chimney on the house was completely demolished and the stove pipe was knocked down. Mr. Driy, who was sitting near the stove, was badly shocked by the bolt but not injured.

A fire started in the attic and the fire department responded to the call. The flames were soon put out and the damage is nominal.

The message was received by 8 OP, a local station, from 8JJ, a station in Lansing.

Van Ark wanted to be remembered to his family and friends. An answer was sent back via the same route.

GRAND HAVEN HAS A CON- STABLE WAR, JUST

THE MOST talked of contest in the spring primaries is a constable fight in Grand Haven. Frank Rinn states that he may contest the election of Ed Palmer as constable of the 4th ward on the ground that he did not get a majority of all the votes cast for constable in the Fifth Ward and because he wants to save a Washington avenue meat dealer from being hauled up for speeding. There's war on the moon out in the old Fifth ward and fun abrewing in Grand Haven.

NELSON R. STANTON IS MAKING A TRIP THROUGH OTTAWA COUNTY IN BEHALF OF THE COUNTY NURSE

Although the election in Holland in April will not be important so far as city officers are concerned, there will be special issues up for decision by the voters that will make it one of the most important elections in years. The city officers will very probably be chosen for the most part at the primaries, March 15. In fact it was Holland and Grand Haven that were most strongly in favor of a county nurse when Miss Blanche Post was holding this office in Ottawa, and the support for a new county nurse is expected from this city again. It is expected that various local organizations will get back of the county nurse movement and will try to roll up a large vote for it here.

it is quite possible that not a single office will remain to be filled at the election.

But the special matters that will make the election important will be left for election on April fourth. One of these special matters is the gas question, which is expected to bring out a big vote in Holland.

But another question that has so far not been discussed very much is the proposition of employing a county visiting nurse. At their meeting on January 12th the board of supervisors voted to submit this question to the vote of the people of the county, and on April 4th the people of Holland, together with the people of the rest of the county will have to decide on this issue.

While Holland has a city nurse, it is expected that a good deal of the support for the county nurse issue will come from this city, as well as from the other cities of the county. Holland has a very definite stake in raising the health standards of the rural communities that surround it. When an epidemic starts in a rural community, the city is also endangered.

It was Holland and Grand Haven that were most strongly in favor of a county nurse when Miss Blanche Post was holding this office in Ottawa, and the support for a new county nurse is expected from this city again. It is expected that various local organizations will get back of the county nurse movement and will try to roll up a large vote for it here.

Among the industrial enterprises of western Michigan whose members admit without reservation has now reached a normal basis since the war is the poultry business.

At least the general talk at the annual meeting of the Western Michigan Poultry association at the Browning hotel Grand Rapids Saturday night was to the effect that poultry raising is more profitable this spring with chickens selling at 15 cents a pound less and egg prices within the reach of all than it was with the high prices of a year ago. The reason given for present conditions is that chicken feed is lower.

"There seems to be a revival of interest in the poultry business this spring," said Dr. Lauren E. Heasley, in charge of the chicken breed in at the George B. Ferris yards, "and many who sold their flocks when chicken feed went way out of sight, are getting into the game again."

The meeting was a dinner affair presided over by Lyman A. Lilly, president of the West Michigan State-Fair Association.

Mr. Heasley is well known in this vicinity having established some years ago a large poultry farm at Jensen Park. He sold his farm later to Saugatuck parties and was engaged by U. S. Government to look after a department in Agriculture that had to do with poultry raising. Mr. Heasley has done much to aid poultry raising in Ottawa county.

Saturday marked the 20th anniversary of the burning of the old Central school at Gr. Haven, which stood on the site of the present building and which is associated with the memories of school days in the minds of hundreds of former boys and girls who were pupils of the Grand Haven public schools more than a quarter of a century ago.

Standing out boldly upon its elevation overlooking the city the old Central school was one of the most outstanding objects visible first in the approach to Grand Haven from all sides. Its individual style of school architecture marked the building as the prominent figure on the city's skyline.

The old Central school was opened in the fall of 1872, altho its construction was begun in 1870, a year when much building was done in Grand Haven. It was entirely of brick and cost $47,000. The first class graduated from the high school in 1876. At the time of its destruction it was occupied by 700 students. Edward P. Cummings was superintendent and Lawrence H. VandenBerg was principal of the high school.—G. H. Tribune.

The Tribune also runs a picture of the building which was four stories and a mammoth structure substantially built. A fact that stands out strongly is the cost of construction then and now of such a building which was $47,000 at that time. To duplicate such a school today would cost four times as much at least.

The only man chosen, namely Joseph B. Zwemer, on the only ticket in the field withdrew and now some one must run on slips or out neighboring town won't have a village president. He was employed on the farm of his aunt, Mrs. Anna Newsma, at Hague, N. D., and at the time of the accident was hauling a load of grain to town when the team became frightened at an automobile, causing a runaway. The man was thrown from the load and the wagon passed over one shoulder and hip. He was immediately rushed to the Lintum hospital in that neighborhood, and given instant attention. However, the injuries were of an internal nature and he died during the night. A peculiar coincidence in the Hamstra family is the fact that, a birth, a marriage and a death have been reported during February.

A new rule of the telephone company at Saugatuck requires bills to be paid at the company's office. This departure from the old order of things is causing much profanity and vexation of spirit among the leading citizens when they found their service cut off. When they understood it was all because they failed to pay their bills everybody took it good naturedly and watched for some other victim they might get the laugh on. Centennial Park is blossoming out with a green lawn.

Dollar Day March 17

Rev. John Broek, pastor Third Reformed church, Muskegon, expects this year to celebrate his ordination as a minister of the gospel. Mr. Broek is a graduate of Hope college and Western seminary and for seven years represented his class as member of Hope college council.

When Charlie Chaplin's new picture "Vanity Fair" comes to Holland movie fans will also be privileged to see a Michigan boy act in it. Howard R. Olson of St. Joseph, Mich. takes the part of a gigantic bewhiskered comical "cop." His six feet five and one-half inches of height and his 240 pounds, which gained him the distinction of being the "giant" of Camp Custer when he was serving in the World War, were the attractions which won the eye of "Chuch" Reinsner, Chaplin's director, and a place with the inimitable comedian.—The St. Joseph Boy has been working on the picture daily with Chaplin at Pasadena, Cal. Olsen is to fill another part in the film in addition to that of the comic "bull" but he hasn't yet told the home folks what his second role is to be.

All ex-service men who have served in army or navy of this country on foreign soil or in hostile waters are invited to attend a meeting to be held in the Moose Lodge rooms Wednesday night, March 9, at eight o'clock. This meeting is for the purpose of organizing a post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, an organization which was founded by the Spanish-American War veterans in 1899.

Not speaking of Ottawa county, for Commissioner Nelson R. Stanton has been looking after that very successfully, however there is still a serious shortage of school teachers in the state—50 to 100 rural schools having been closed this year from lack of properly equipped teachers. However, things will probably improve next year, now that so many of those properly equipped have got over their orgy of money making in the factories.

State papers are commenting generally on the fact that seven auto accidents have occurred within two months at the corner of Central Av. and Twelfth street, which is the hospital corner. One states that this is rather convenient.

Mrs. Peter Kelder, a pioneer of Grandville, died at the age of 79 years. She is the mother of Rev. Edward Kelder, well-known in Holland and a graduate from Hope and the Seminary here, who is now preaching in Coffesville, N. J.

The city of Muskegon is loaning money on easy terms to families in need—a great relief, no doubt to families with about $10,000 a year when they have to pay their income tax.

THE HOLES IN YOUR POCKETS!

TO SOME, MONEY IN POCKET ACTS LIKE A LIVE COAL

This however is not the fact. The pocket nor the money. The real difficulty is to be found in the habits of the individual.

"Are you troubled", as the saying goes, "by having your money burn holes in your pockets?"

That seems to be a common fault of money. If you have your money in the Bank, whether it be much or little, there will be no burning of holes and the cash will be there when you need it.

Money carried on the person is a temptation to spending. Money in the Bank does not offer this temptation. You would pause before writing a check drawing upon your resources, however you would not hesitate to spend if you had the money with you. Try and find out.

We offer you the advantage of our banking facilities and invite you to open a checking account with us.

HOPES TO VOTE FOR HARDING FOUR YEARS HENCE

Probably the most remarkable man in Ottawa County is Rev. Lambertus Hulst of Nunica who celebrated his 96th birthday anniversary a week or two ago. Though nearing the century mark, Rev. Hulst still preaches occasionally, and he has been an ordained minister for 71 years. He is the oldest minister in the Christian Reformed church and he has preached in Holland many times during the sixty years that he spent in the active ministry.

Rev. Hulst has written numerous books. They are piled all around his den, and his chief delight is to go over them, lovingly smoothing back the pages. Most of the books are on religion and into them Rev. Hulst has put all his beliefs, the result of years and years of study and travel.

Rev. Hulst's den is unusual. One expects to be ushered into something akin to a bedroom. It is not easy to picture a man 96 years old active physically and mentally, eager to argue on any vital issue of the day, a man who enjoys a good black cigar that would knock out any young blood.

But that is Rev. Hulst. Save for the lack of a few pennants, his den might be that of a college student. The walls are lined with book cases. There is a writing desk, an easy chair before a comfy-looking coal stove, soft carpets, curios picked up in his travels and—a dog.

"The world is going backward—very fast," said Rev. Hulst, but he rubbed his cheek and smiled. Rev. Hulst has a wonderful memory and a sense of humor.

"Yes," he said, blowing clouds of smoke about his tiny den. "The world is going backwards. And I think the women—not all women you understand—are helping it to do so. When a woman cuts her gown so low—oh, so low—in the neck and her skirt high—oh, so high—it indicates the world isn't what it used to be. It indicates, I believe, that we are fast sinking."

"I can remember back years and years ago when women wore high-necked gowns, skirts that trailed. No use in going to that extreme either, but to my notion that 'style'—backward as it may seem to the present generation—was far better for the women and the world than these now in vogue."

"Would you like to see the old styles return?" he was asked. "I would," he answered. "I think they would do more to start this world on the right road than anything else—unless it as a Republican president."

Whereupon Rev. Hulst dropped women and their styles and discussed politics. Rev. Hulst is a Republican and he is confident he will live to see another election and another G. O. P. victory. He thinks President Harding's choice of an "official family" could not be improved upon and thinks the president himself is the only man to head that family.

Rev. Hulst has voted the Republican ticket for years and years. "I really don't know how many," he says. "I never split my ticket and when I go to the polls four years from now that will hold good still."

GAME WILL

DECIDE STATE "Y"

CHAMPIONSHIP

Thursday night the State Y. M. C. A. basketball championship will be decided when the Muskegon (2) five will play the Holland Y five at the high school. Muskegon recently defeated the locals at Muskegon 22 to 19. Muskegon has been defeated but once this season and that was their first game. The visitors are considered one of the strongest teams in the state. They recently defeated the Big City Industrials, a team that has been winning all their games over teams in the Eastern part of the state and also have a victory over Hope College. The Muskegon quintet have been playing together for years with the Hooker brothers, Heres and Peterson as the main attraction.

Holland Y have been setting a fast pace the past month, having scored seven victories in the last eight played. The Petoskey News in an article on the game between Holland and Petoskey claims that the Holland team was the best all round aggregation that has ever played in Petoskey and showed the finished article in every department.

Systemas will play center for the Holland team with Kuite and Sweeney at forward and Irving and Klompars at guard. This is the combination that so easily defeated the Grand Rapids (7) two weeks ago. With this combination going at its best Holland should score a victory Muskegon. Johnson will referee the main game. The preliminary will be between the Holland Y Reserves and Hope College Reserves. Each team has one game to its credit. First game will start promptly at 7:30.

MRS. CHERRYMAN'S SON TO BE SEEN IN THE MOVIES HERE

A mother coming to Holland to speak in person and her son coming here to act in motion pictures is the unique experience that this city has the present week. Today Mrs. Myrtle Koon Cherryman of Grand Rapids provided the entertainment at the meeting of the Woman's Literary club by giving a series of readings, and on Thursday her son, Rex Cherryman, will appear in the photoplay, "Madame Peacock," appearing in the cast with the famous Nazimova. "Madame Peacock" will be shown at the Strand.

The coming to Holland of mother and son in the same week, one in the flesh and the other in cinema, was not a pre-arranged affair. Manager J. H. Himelbush did not know when he booked "Madame Peacock" several months ago that Mrs. Cherryman would be in Holland during the week.

Unusual interest attaches to the picture because of the fact that Rex Cherryman is in the cast of characters. Mrs. Cherryman, his mother, is very well known in Holland and a great many people have from year to year enjoyed her art as a public reader. That her son has inherited the mother's talent is shown by the fact that he has been given an important part in "Madame Peacock."

"Madame Peacock" played at the Majestic in Grand Rapids for a week a short time ago. It is Nazimova's latest picture, one in which the great Russian actress plays a double role. A press notice in one of the Grand Rapids papers spoke as follows about Mr. Cherryman's acting after the picture appeared there: "Mr. Cherryman shows genuine ability and resourcefulness in the character of the young Harvard playwright. In a character which has very little dramatic opportunity he infuses a personality and interest which shows that the Grand Rapids man has a high order of talent."

Ray Van Hall, skipper of the little fishing tug, Theresa D., of Grand Haven, which was lost in the fog on Lake Michigan Saturday night reached home after his adventure just in time to be present at a most important event. The announcement reads: "Born, Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Van Hall, a son."

NO DATE SET YET FOR THE OPENING OF NAVIGATION

SEASON AT LOCAL PORT NOT EXPECTED TO BEGIN UNTIL WELL ALONG IN APRIL

Scarcity of Freight Would Make Running of the Boats Unprofitable

Navigation this spring will not open at this port until well along in April. This is the word that comes from the local officials of the Graham & Morton company. No definite word has yet come from the headquarters of the company as to what the exact date of the opening of navigation could open at any time so that the date has not yet been decided upon.

It was announced by Nathaniel Robbins, new proprietor of the G. & M. line, before he left for a cruise through southern waters that navigation at this port would open late this year. And the indications now are that this prediction will be fully realized. Mr. Robbins at the time intimated that if business conditions should improve suddenly, as many persons at the time believed they would do, navigation at this port would respond to the changed conditions and would start the season's run.

But there has been no radical change in general business conditions and hence there is no real object in opening the season early. Many manufacturing concerns are not operating full time and the products that they have to ship by water to Chicago and thence to the markets of the country are limited. Just at present there would be little freight to carry and the vessels would be operated at a loss.

There have been years when the freight piled up at the local G. & M. docks long before the vessels could be placed in commission. This year there are no ice obstacles and navigation could open at any time so far as natural conditions go, but unfortunately this year there would be little to ship.

CITIZENS DON'T APPRECIATE WORK DONE BY OFFICIALS

SOME GET PAID, SOME NOT, ALL EARN WHAT THEY GET

Now that election is nearly at hand it might be well to call the people's attention to what a city official does for the benefit of his constituency.

People are often prone to criticize quickly and to make loose talk of the doings of a city official. A newspaper man being on the inside has some conception of what a city official has to contend with and the many burdens that are devolved upon him, and we wish to say right here, that the poorest one in point of service, more than earns his salary many times over, and should be thanked instead of censured.

We have a case in point in William Lawrence for the reason that he is the oldest alderman now serving.

During his regime in office he has been the chairman of every important committee in the list that gave service to Holland. Twice he was chairman of the ways and means committee, two times he has been named mayor pro-tem, he was a member of the building committee of the city hall, he was chairman of the first hospital committee, he is a member of the present gas committee, and at three different times he was named chairman of the committee appointed for the purpose of endeavoring to get the C. L. King property for a local park.

Altho he was often bitterly disappointed in this, his labors and that of the committee were finally rewarded with success when the $10,000 gift was made by Mrs. G. E. Kollen to Mr. Lawrence in behalf of the city.

Though his colleagues jokingly call Bill the Abe Lincoln of the council, believe us "Abraham" has got to put in some good ticks to earn his fifty dollars and so must everyone else who serves the city in a like capacity.

These men have scarcely an evening which they can call their own, and very often aldermen must break away from their regular vocations during the day time in order to adequately take care of city business.

DR. WISHART TAKES ENGLAND'S PART IN IRISH QUESTION

In a sensational address before the Exchange Club of Holland Wednesday, Dr. A. L. Wishart, of the Fountain Avenue Baptist church, Grand Rapids, made a strong plea for Anglo-Saxon unity, and characterized those who are seeking to bring about a cleavage between England and America as worse than traitors to America and a menace to mankind.

Dr. Wishart opened his speech by showing that people are slow in realizing that mankind is responsible for its condition, social, industrial and political. He said that the masses must overthrow foolish traditions, false fatalistic notions, and narrow prejudices, and that they must think for themselves; and in so doing they will exercise their citizenship that a better relationship will be established in the body politic.

He went on to say that the crying need is for international co-operation. Said he, "We must help Europe to get on her feet, or we will go down in chaos with Europe. The present depression in European money values on the foreign exchange has a great deal to do with our present industrial slump. Advancement cannot go on without of 66 years."

firmly established world trade."

Dr. Wishart emphasized the unity of the race, and said that Britain and America are better fitted to start a movement for international co-operation than any other nations, altho no other parties wishing to participate should be excluded. Any man seeking to drive a wedge in Anglo-Saxon unity is a deadly menace. There are many Irish and Germans who come to this country without passports, with the avowed purpose of stirring up hatred and creating misunderstanding. The Sinn Feiners who tried to knife the Allies in the back during the war, and who plotted the Easter Rebellion on American soil, are given the freedom of the city at New York, and address large crowds of radicals in Madison Square Gardens unmolested. These men are asking for our support to embroil the United States in a war with England, which would soon precipitate a world conflict far more terrible than the one just passed.

Dr. Wishart defended British reprisals in Ireland, by showing that they are inevitable and are committed by all armies, even the United States. The Sinn Feiners are uninformed and though they insisted upon being recognized as belligerents, they are unwilling to suffer the inevitable fortunes of war.

HOLLAND TOWNSHIP ELECTION NOTICE

To the Qualified Voters of the Township of Holland, County of Ottawa, State of Michigan.

TAKE NOTICE that at the next general election in said Township to be held on the 4th day of April, 1921, in pursuance of a resolution of the Board of Supervisors of said County of Ottawa, the question of changing the boundary of the Township of Holland by detaching from the City of Holland certain territory now within said City of Holland, and attaching the same to the Township of Holland, will be submitted to the qualified electors of the territory to be affected, viz: The City of Holland and the Township of Holland.

The property proposed to be detached from the City of Holland and attached to the Township of Holland, is described as follows, to-wit:

"That part of the Northwest quarter (1/4) of Section Twenty Town Five, Range 15 West, which is bounded and described as follows:—Beginning at a point on the center line of River Avenue (as said River Avenue now runs thru section 20 T 5 N Range 15 W) Two hundred eighty-seven (287) feet northwesterly from the intersection of the center line of River Avenue with the south line of Section 20 T 5 N R 15 W, running thence East parallel with the section line one hundred fifty (150) feet; thence north to the center line of the main channel of Black River, thence following the center line of the Main Channel of Black River in a northwesterly direction until it crosses the center line of River Ave. at a point approximately eight hundred and twenty (820) feet northwesterly from the place of beginning, (said 820 feet being measured along the center line of River Ave.) thence following the center line of the Channel of Black River in a southwesterly direction to its intersection with a line run thru the place of beginning, and running parallel with the south line of Section 20 Town 5 North, Range 15 West, running thence East to the place of beginning."

Given under my hand and seal this 5th day of March, 1921.

CHARLES EILANDER,
Clerk of the Township of Holland.

TO THE VOTERS

The gas proposition will be submitted at the Primary Election to be held Tuesday, March 15th.

It is proposed to purchase the property of the gas plant, located in the City of Holland, for the sum of Two Hundred Twenty-four Thousand ($244,000). In addition to this sum it is proposed to provide Ten Thousand ($10,000) Dollars for working capital and Two Thousand ($2,000) Dollars for gas, coke and residuals (called) on hand.

It is also proposed that the city of Holland shall sell gas to the consumers in the township of Holland and the city of Zeeland at a price which is fixed in the contract which will be submitted to you.

In order to raise the money for these purposes, it is proposed that the City of Holland shall issue bonds in the sum not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty-six Thousand Thousand ($256,000) Dollars, bearing interest not to exceed six per cent per annum, to be payable within thirty years, as the Common Council may determine.

It will be necessary to vote two ballots in order to carry this proposition. In other words, if you wish this proposition to carry you will have to vote two ballots, namely one to amend the charter in order to authorize the City of Holland to finance, acquire, operate and maintain this gas plant. The other ballot directly submits to the voter the proposition and contract to purchase the plant.

TO PAY DOLLAR A HEAD FOR TESTING CATTLE

The Holland Fair Association has adopted a policy of encouraging the testing of cattle in Ottawa and Allegan counties for tuberculosis. The Fair association wants to make this section a leader in the state in the matter of healthy herds and to bring this about the directors at their meeting in Holland Wednesday night decided to pay one dollar a head for each cow subjected to the tuberculin test, provided the animal is entered at the Holland fair as an exhibit next fall.

It is expected that this offer will greatly stimulate the movement for the testing of cattle in this section. Only tuberculin tested cattle can be exhibited at the county fair and it is believed that this new policy of the Fair association will have a wonderful influence on increasing the number of cattle exhibits next fall. Last year the cattle exhibit was not very satisfactory by reason of the fact that no untested cattle could be shown, and many animals that would otherwise have been entered were barred. But it is hoped that there will be plenty of material this year.

The newest regulation on the testing of cattle for exhibit purposes is that the cattle must have been subjected to the tuberculin test within six months before the date of exhibit. That means that any cow exhibited next fall at the Holland fair must have been tested after April 1 to be eligible. Cattle that have been tested before that date must be tested again after that date to come under the fair exhibit regulations.

GOODLY SUM IS REALIZED AT HOSPITAL BENEFIT

Holland took the dare of the hospital committee Wednesday evening and went to see "Take a Dare" at the Woman's Literary Club in such large numbers that the house was taxed to its capacity. The hall was crowded so that a larger house could hardly have been sold. And every single seat occupied meant a seat paid for in real sure enough money. This being a hospital benefit, no complimentary tickets were issued, all being anxious to help swell the fund. This money will be used by the hospital committee for extras at the hospital that are not provided for in the regular city appropriation. There are some things very much needed at the hospital from time to time that cannot be purchased out of the regular hospital fund, and the generosity of the people who attended the performance Wednesday night will provide these things for the patients in that institution.

The program was given by the Sorosis Society of Hope College and it was a success in every way. The first part of the evening was devoted to a miscellaneous program, while the feature of the entertainment was a play, "Take a Dare," written by Miss Maxine McBride. A delightful entertainment was provided and those who attended it received more than their money's worth.

HOLLAND'S OLDEST CITIZEN DIES

Holland lost its oldest citizen Friday night when death came at about 6:30 to Mrs. Syrena B. Hall, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Barnaby 231 College avenue. Mrs. Hall had made her home there for some time and she was quite active until a short time ago, although she had reached the unusual age of 98 years. The funeral services was private and the remains were taken to Almona, Michigan, for burial.

HOPE VICTORS OVER

MT. PLEASANT FIVE
The Hope College basketball team defeated the Mt. Pleasant Normals Friday night 19 to 15. The game was fast and clean at all times, with the score being tied on several occasions. Van Putten was the star of the local squad. The score at the end of the first half was 8 to 6 in Hope's favor.

In the preliminary the Calvin Rivals of Grand Rapids defeated the Hope Preps, 36 to 9.

WHY WAS THE FLAG
AT HALF MAST?

Observing folks of Holland were curiously wondering Friday morning why the flag on the Holland Furniture company was at half staff.

Many thought that a death might have occurred in the large working force, more suspicious democrats wished it to appear that the mayor was mourning the fact that Harding was being inaugurated.

The Republicans however figured out that the flag indicated that the death knell of Wilson rule had been struck at noon on Friday.

What strange imaginations folks will sometimes get, and what unusual conclusions will the mind often jump to.

Readers, its all wrong, all wrong! The truth of the matter is, the halyard in the flag staff had worn through and had broken and the flag slowly sank until the middle of the pole was reached where it remained stationary until the mayor's attention was called to it by telephone.

He hastily had the rope running through the block repaired and had "Old Glory" pulled up to its customary place next to the big gold ball on top. This being done he raised his hat and said, "Good-bye Wilson, Hurrah for Harding!"

The Peoples' Garage sold a Reo touring car to J. Prins, Reo Speed Wagon to M. Franzburg, Reo Speed Wagon to Rutger Tien, and a Nash Touring car to A. Klooster.

TRYING A CASE WITH A VERY WRY FACE

Only one jury case was tried at Allegan at present term of court; that litigation was that of the Grocers Incorporated vs. Fred I. Chichester and Chas. Weny, doing business as the Allegan Cider & Vinegar Co. The latter agreed to furnish complainant with a certain amount of vinegar and failed to do so, compelling the grocers to go out into the open market and buy at an advanced price. The case went to trial with the jury bringing in a verdict for the Grocers Incorporated of $439.18. At the conclusion of this case the jurors were discharged for the term, there being no other jury cases ready for trial.

ELECTRICAL STORM VISITS

GRAND HAVEN; SHIP HIT
During a severe electrical storm Saturday afternoon at Grand Haven the government dredge Gen. Meade was struck, the bolt of lightning hitting a mast and splintering it. No one was injured.

The Grand Rapids, Grand Haven and Muskegon railway power was knocked out, holding up interurban traffic. A hail storm followed. This all happened while the ground was covered with snow.

The General Meade is the sand sucker that comes to Holland harbor every season to clean up for spring navigation.

STORM TOSSED TUGS SAFE IN PORT

Joseph Conrad might have written a wonderful sea tale from the near tragedy of three Grand Haven fishing tugs two of which were caught in the heavy seas off Grand Haven Saturday night and were unable to make their berths.

The tug C. Dean, manned by the Van Hall brothers, Grand Haven fishermen left Grand Haven harbor Saturday morning for an inspection of their nets. An hour and a half is required to reach the nets, which are located out on the horizon, beyond the ice floes and ground swells. A heavy sea was running when they left the pier, and when the time for their return trip arrived a fog had risen and a storm with its thunder and lightning was in full blast.

The C. Dean was driven off its course and the fishermen blew their distress signals which were answered by the Alice, piloted by Peter Fase. The Alice was driven against the piers and was forced to turn back.

William Ver Duin, in the Bos attempted a rescue a second time and succeeded in reaching the open sea. The signals of the C. Dean could be faintly heard and in its phantom chase the Bos became endangered and sounded its distress signals.

Under the command of Keeper W. Walker, the Grand Haven Coast Guard crew attempted a double rescue but neither of the boats could be found. After searching for hours over the storm beaten waves, the Coast Guard crew was forced to return.

Shortly after midnight telephone messages were received at Grand Haven that the C. Dean and the Bos had drifted as far north as Muskegon and had safely entered Muskegon Lake.

PASTOR PRESENTS CHURCH WITH SONG BOOKS

The congregation at the Wesleyan Methodist church were given a pleasant surprise at the Sunday morning service when their pastor, Rev. M. H. Kingsbury, presented the church with new song books. The congregation's appreciation was expressed by a vote of thanks and by added enthusiasm in the singing. The books are full of choice new songs and will add much to the services.

HOLLAND BUSINESS MEN REALIZE VALUE OF A SQUARE DEAL

MAKE OUT YOUR LIST FROM THE ADVS. APPEARING IN THE LOCAL PRESS

There is going to be held in Holland one of the largest gain giving events ever pulled off in this city, on Dollar Day, Thursday, March 17. This is going to be a big picnic for everyone alike. Townspeople and farmers from far and near are going to attend—men, women and children—from Ottawa and Allegan counties who will take advantage of the wonderful dollar day offerings which will on that day be placed before them by the merchants of this city, will not regret their visit to Holland. This will be the 5th semi-annual offering or special dollar bargains, and nearly every business institution in Holland is putting forth every effort to present articles of every description at specially low prices.

Business men of Holland realize the value of square dealing; they appreciate the fact that they enjoy the reputation of selling better goods at a lower price than is done in many of the surrounding places; they are endeavoring to make the people of the agricultural and urban districts alike feel there are mutual interests to be derived by promoting a healthy congenial feeling between the farmer and the city folks.

A survey of the advertising columns of the local papers this week will show the extent to which the Holland merchants are striving to make it worth while for you to come here to buy goods. The experiences of purchasers at past dollar day sales are sufficient to warrant a record-breaking attendance next Thursday, March 17, if the roads about the county become a little improved.

Buyers from Allegan, Fennville, West Olive, Saugatuck and Zeeland, and as far south as South Haven have been known to come to Holland for the express purpose of availing themselves of dollar day offerings, and these people could not travel those distances without a good reason. It is the careful and intelligent buyer who spends the most money at these sales. Folks from all the nearby places are always here on these dollar day events.

Look over the advertisements that are printed in the papers, make out an intelligible list for each store in which you expect to do your buying, come early to the city, and co-operate with the clerks who wait upon you that you may save time for yourself and them.

While all the stores will have extra clerks Thursday of next week, it will be no easy matter to satisfy the desires of all visitors, unless you come well prepared. Keep the date in mind—Thursday, March 17—and COME TO HOLLAND.
