Knapp's Service Station Permit Is Sanctioned

ALDERMEN WILL NOT SIGN W. P. A. WORKERS PETITION PRESENTED BY MRS. CARL SHAW

One very important matter came up before the common council which redrafted a couple of paragraphs in the zoning ordinance, and as officially corrected, will be found on the next page of this issue. In substance, the council has jurisdiction as to how far a service station shall be removed from a public building. They will use their judgment rather than follow a hard and fast rule.

They shall also use their judgment as to what fire risks and hazards a service station would bring. Time has demonstrated that service stations with underground gasoline tanks and at good distances from other buildings, makes them good risks for insurance companies.

The news files show that in the past 15 or 20 years not a service station has burned in Ottawa or Allegan counties and the two counties are fairly dotted with them.

It is quite a coincidence that while this agitation was going on a service station in Holland was damaged and a garage fire was started by an explosion in Zeeland in the past three weeks, but at that the percentage is above par in the two counties.

The change in ordinance gives John Knapp a chance to build a beautiful station costing approximately $10,000 on River Ave. and 11th Street which will mean the cleaning out of all the ruckies on that corner and scattering a blaze of electric light at night.

Mrs. Carl Shaw again appeared before the aldermen, this time presenting petitions asking that the wages of W.P.A. workers be raised to a living standard. She stated that $12 a week, the amount the government pays the local W.P.A. workers was not enough to provide for the necessities of life, taxes and interest, let alone the luxuries children are entitled to and the education that should be theirs to have.

She stressed her point by saying that the state permits men and women to marry. It is only natural and expected that children are to follow. Since the state encourages these things the state should also be held responsible for the bringing up of the children in proper environments.

Mrs. Shaw planned a campaign that she says will be nation wide. Her discourse was largely along the lines given in this paper when she appeared at the council before.

The Mayor and the common council with the exception possibly, of one man refused to sign the petition. This matter of interfering with the government mandates has come up repeatedly. The U. S. government has repeatedly told the council and every council, that this unit was to pay its share toward the fund which is rather nominal compared to what the U. S. government and the state pays. That has been explicitly understood but it is also understood that the government shall handle the welfare and W.P.A. situation without any local interference.

It is no wonder that the "city fathers" are reluctant about meddling with something they are not asked to meddle with, and this situation is demanded not in Holland alone but all over the nation. Mayor Cook of Grand Haven issued such a proclamation last evening according to the Grand Haven Tribune.

If through meddling the entire load was shifted on Holland's shoulders and the support should have to come from the city treasury, it would be a sorry plight to the city of Holland and to the taxpayers who are still carrying on and paying willingly without a murmur.

Mrs. Shaw brought up another matter, asking the council to extend the time of light and water bills for W.P.A. workers and still give them their percentages. Mrs. Shaw pointed out that a few extra days would be very beneficial to the workers. Of course this is not in the council's province City Attorney Elbert Parsons stated but advised Mrs. Shaw to take this matter up with the Board of Public Works and that body surely would give them a hearing.

Undoubtedly, in the emergency and if it would help these people, some temporary adjustment could be made.

Mrs. Shaw was given every courtesy by Mayor Bosch who called her forward to make her plea. A few weeks ago she made a plea that men working in the snow where there was no shelter, should be given shelter and warmth. Undoubtedly many of these storms came almost instantly in fact the whole winter has been a real surprise, but in the future provisions should be made for warmth and shelter and hot drinks should be available.

The Women's Missionary society of Third Reformed church entertained members of the Women's Auxiliary and the League for Service, Wednesday evening. Mrs. Wynand Wichers presided at the meeting and a missionary play was presented.

Mrs. J. Arnoldink, 143 W. 17th St. who celebrated her birthday anniversary Tuesday was surprised by a group of friends. Those present were Mrs. S. Dogger, Mrs. H. Ebelink, Mrs. C. Marcus, Mrs. G. De Vries, Mrs. E. Van Dyke, Mrs. E. Dogger and Miss Janet Marcus.

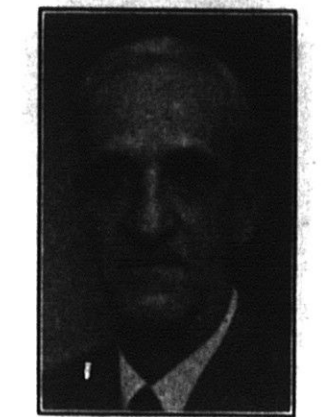

Mr. and Mrs. Lubert Hop and sons, Jay and Edgar spent Monday afternoon with the Mr. and Mrs. Schutte at Harlem. Mr. Hop helped Mr. Schutte butcher a pig that afternoon.

DOLLAR DAY IS A DAY OF BARGAINS FOR THE PURCHASER

We understand there is a Dollar Day in Holland. The Holland City News is back of any sales day that helps Holland merchants. We invite all those living in this vicinity to pay a visit to Holland Friday and Saturday. Most of the merchants are continuing their sales thru Saturday night.

There are some rare Dollar Day bargains in some of the Holland City News announcements. Look them over, in fact look over the ads of all the stores who have bargains, Dollar Day or otherwise.

We have just thawed out from the Arctic region into the Temperate Zone and our wants for spring-time needs in practically everything, are apparent.

MAYOR ELECT HENRY GEERLINGS

COUNCIL NOTES

Alderman Damson led the aldermen and audience in repeating the Lord's prayer.

All Aldermen were present except Mr. Vogelzang who is in sunny Florida but expects to be home soon.

City Attorney Parsons, at the request of Alderman Drinkwater, gave a review of the able work that the contractor has done on the city hospital. He stated that despite the heavy packs of snow which are liable to bring leaks here and there, the beautiful interior of the hospital is a decorative work of art without a blemish.

The common council ordered the payment of $1,107.01 in special assessments bonds, again reducing Holland's bonded debt that much.

Miss Dora Schermer, city librarian, reports collecting during the past year fines amounting to $421.72 which means a lot of new and good reading matter for the youth of the city.

The chairman of the ordinance committee, "Sage" Huyser of the 5th ward, was asked that a dog ordinance be drafted. The matter was referred to the city Attorney to find out whether such an ordinance was possible. The City Attorney said it was. Mr. Huyser stated that before this the city was able to draw an ordinance that prevented the wandering of cows, horses, hogs and nearly all animals, and creating things out of the ark, except dogs, cats and chickens. Why these weren't included many years ago, he could not conceive. Undoubtedly pressure will be brought to bear to exterminate all cats running loose for no matter how nicely they may purr at home they nevertheless are bird killers. As far as the dog is concerned, they may be dealt with more leniently. They will have to be tagged of course, under the law, but it is hoped that a barking dog, who they say never bites, will be prevented from doing so by the ordinance. We will have to see the ordinance committee about that. Those docile day and night barkers surely are the pest.

The Holland cleaners asked for a permit to remodel their building just east of Warm Friend Tavern. It was permitted.

Through Aldermen De Cook and Henry Prins a resolution was presented granting the lease for a frame building on the northeast corner of River Ave. and 12th St. to Mrs. Nelson Clark and M. H. Hamelink for a period of 5 years. The building is to be remodeled, redecorated in the interior and the outside, jointly, by the doctors and the city. It will be a building for public use and more presentable than it is now.

Alderman De Cook and Alderman Van Zoeren were the only Aldermen present to vote against the granting of an oil station for John Knapp on River Ave.

Alderman Huyser Steffens and Drinkwater were asked to canvass the vote at the recent primary and the results tallied with the election returns and all those so elected were given the endorsement of the entire common council.

An endeavor is going to be made by the city engineer to do away with the nuisance of surface water at College Ave. and 6th St. A catch basin will be installed some way to carry off the surface water.

Albert J. Tibbe was honored at a surprise birthday party Wednesday evening at his home in Castle Park. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Medendorp of Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tibbe, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tibbe, Miss Mae Tibbe, Miss Virginia Kenyon of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Tibbe and family, Mrs. Mary Wyman and daughter, Ella, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Westendorp, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wissink, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Dyke, and Johanna and Alfred Van Dyke.

W.P.A. Strikers 500 Strong Meet In Holland

ORDERLY SET OF MEN, NO ACTION TAKEN THIS AFTERNOON BUT FINAL VOTE WILL BE TAKEN SAT.

A large, but very orderly gathering of W.P.A. Workers, nearly 500 of them, gathered this afternoon in Labor Hall and discussed in a dispassionate manner whether to remain on a strike or to go to work Monday.

Att'y. Charles Van Duren is representing the men in Holland in a legal way. The chairman of the meeting was Leon Nykamp and Jacob Spruit of Holland was the secretary.

After the deliberations Attorney Charles Van Duren dispatched two telegrams, one to H. L. Hopkins of Washington, D. C., government authority in the W.P.A., and one to Congressman Carl Mares of Washington.

The news had an interview with Jacob Spruit, brother of patrolman Jim Spruit, and he seemed a very thoughtful and earnest citizen, not one with a chip on his shoulder, but one who feels that the strikers had a grievance.

He stated that the Ottawa County laborers were being paid $48 a month and out of that certain transportation had to be paid, and while small in itself, it took just that much out of the monthly allowance. They ask for an allowance of $60 a month which would bring better living conditions and would make the added outgo such as transportation, easier to take care of.

What the News could gather from Mr. Spruit's contention was that in Muskegon County just across the line, the rate paid was $57 per month and in Kent County the amount per month for the laborer was $60. He further contended that this difference could not possibly be brought about because of reduced living costs since that in Muskegon and Kent counties the cost of living was a shade less than in Ottawa county.

Anyway, the motion on a final discussion was stopped temporarily and tabled until Saturday at 1:30 at Holland Labor Hall, when a final vote will be taken, awaiting of course, the action from Washington that the sending of the two different telegrams will bring. As we said before, the men are all calm, they are not arbitrary in the matter and in a dispassionate way are sending their views to the government and are awaiting action on these views.

The telegram sent to the two men mentioned above follows below.

Ottawa W.P.A. Workers not satisfied. Movement growing. State authorities granted concessions very amiable as far as possible. Workers want Federal investigation and reclassification of population to receive the rate of pay proportionate to adjoining counties of Kent and Muskegon. Send Federal investigator if possible. Situation demands such action.

Attorney C. K. Van Duren.

The committee included Leon Nykamp, President; Jacob Spruit, secretary and Albert Cliffman, J. Butler and Herman Wiewer.

News Items Taken From the Files of Holland City News Fifty, Twenty-five and Fifteen Years Ago Today

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The Holland City News for a long time has been advocating the building of a creamery, believing that it will bring the farm population to the city bringing, too, an added market place for the farmers' product. The result has been that men have become interested in starting such a plant. It is with pleasure then that we announce that Mr. Matthew Notier has sold his mercantile business in Notter & Lokkers at Graafschap and will build a plant here with milk agencies in West Olive, East Saugatuck, Fillmore Center, North Holland, Overisel and other centers. Note: Well, the creamery is still here. First owned by Mr. Notier, later by Chris Lokker and his brother under the name of Crystal Creamery located at the baseball park, and now it is conducted by the Wexford Co. and for 50 years it has been a good enterprise. The News then, as now, did a lot of boosting for enterprises connected directly with farm products. For instance: pickles, tomatoes, beets, wheat, canning factory goods, poultry, etc. Rather an interesting incident took place when the Holland and Zeeland Poultry associations held their 25th anniversary and a review of the doings during that time was necessary and the names of the officers who served those 25 years and poultry information generally was found not available. Our able representative at Lansing, Ed Brouwer, was compiling the book of more than 100 pages for the occasion but found that the records of the association were either lost or destroyed. Mr. Brouwer was told to go through the files of the News where he could get his information for a quarter of a century back. He spent months at intervals and finally gathered a complete record from the file pages. When he had finished he said, "Ben, I now know what started the poultry industry in this vicinity." The News for forty years has given much poultry information to its readers preaching to farmers—better stock and a systematic way to keep chickens.

Two little children of Mr. and Mrs. Marinus Jansen died of croup. Note: In the early days this, like diphtheria, was a terrible scourge and many children died. Today croup is not even heard of and diphtheria cases are now few if only given attention. Children from the baby stage should be given anti toxin to avoid future trouble and sorrow.

A few lines from the common council, Patrick H. McBride, month's salary as city attorney, $6.25; Cornelius Verschure, month's salary as treasurer, $22.93; Ed Vaupell as marshal, $33.34; City Clerk George Sipp, $33.34; J. Te Vree, two days work with man and team, $5.00; payment of six jurors in a city case, $1.00 each or $6.00 total; Charles Scott, eight week's rent for a house for poor, total $6.00, $3.00 per month.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

The Holland-St. Louis Sugar Co. will make sugar from cane when beets are not available. Note:—There has been talk of that several times since then but nothing ever came of it.

Rev. Paul P. Cheff, of Zeeland, had a "runaway." The cutter he was driving overturned when it struck an icy lump of snow. The horse became frightened and broke loose from the sleigh and raced down the street. The harness was badly broken and the cutter damaged but the "domine" was not hurt in the least. Note: Let us say he is still living and happy but drives motor cars now and not "sleds with bells." "Ted"—Be sure and send this to "Dad."

Miss Mary Geagh, of Trinity Church, was awarded first prize, a silver medal, for presenting the best oration on prohibition sponsored by the Holland W. C. T. U. at Holland high school. "An appeal to American Citizenship" was her subject. Other contestants were Miss Ruth Rick, Harold Oosterhoff, Anthony Meengs, Anna Langberg, Wilson Diekema and Clara Intema. A silver pin was given to each of the other contestants by the judges, L. Van der Werf, Mrs. Ethelyn Metz and Miss May Lahuis.

Rev. K. Van Goor, for many years pastor of the Ninth Street Christian Reformed Church, died in Paterson, N. J. He was a great linguist and a scholar.

Mrs. John P. Ogge was elected president of the Woman's Literary Club; First Vice President, Mrs. John C. Post; Second Vice President, Mrs. Mortimer A. Sooy; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Harry Harrington; Directors, 1914-16.

GETS MEAL AND STEALS BICYCLE FROM BENEFACTOR

A case of ingratitude took place Wednesday afternoon when E. Eugene Robinson of N. J., accosted Wm. Steketee, constable of the 5th ward and asked him where he could get something to eat.

Mr. Steketee directed the young man to police headquarters where he obtained a permit for food. He then returned to Robinson stole a bicycle belonging to a nephew of Mr. Steketee.

The young bicycle thief was apprehended when he endeavored to sell the bicycle at the East End Bicycle Shop. The police arraigned him before Justice Hoffman who sent him to the county jail for 45 days and he is already doing his stretch with Ben Rozema at Grand Haven.

Mrs. J. G. Van Duren, Mrs. C. J. Dregman, Mrs. Frank Hifer. For 1913-15, Mrs. Geo. E. Kollen.

Attorney Fred T. Miles speaks before the Social Progress Club on the evils of the use of liquor from an economic and industrial standpoint. Note: The caption said the "address was a treat," not the stimulating kind we assure you. Anyway, we have a column story on Fred's discourse.

The Kent Ottawa Realty Co. has organized with a capitalization of $10,000 and has taken over 75 acres of resort land at Ottawa Beach on the north shore of Black Lake with a frontage of 4,000 feet on the water. The land has been divided into 400 large cottage lots, 100 on the lake. Access to the property will be from Junction Electric Park by ferry. James Buys is president, Isaac Kouw vice president, Wm. H. Kinsey secretary, G. J. Stewart treasurer. When the north side electric line is built it will go through the property. Note: Instead the motor car came and the electric line never materialized and those we had left.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Sam Lapish has been given two contracts, the stone work for the remodeled Third Reformed Church and the Allegan High School.

The Holland interurban will have six fine new cars on the line for this summer. These will be entirely of steel, according to "Jack" Busby and Charles Floyd, heads of the line. These can easily seat 100 passengers each.

Rather an interesting story appears about Abe Stephan, former mayor, how he is pictured in the Zeeland Record smashing an automobile into the motorcycle of Bert Eding on the streets of our neighboring town. Stephan became rather perplexed when the News showed him the article, when he said: "I was invited to go to the auto show at Grand Rapids and was given an armful of literature telling me the best car to buy but ten months later I have not bought. Undoubtedly a good friend may invite me again and I can take home some more automotive facts but up to this time I do not own an auto. I have never learned to drive one. I haven't been in Zeeland, therefore have had no quarrel with the editor. I haven't been in a smash-up either of my own making or by someone else. Aside from these few differences the story is correct."

Note: Fifteen years later Mr. Stephan has still not purchased a car nor does he know how to drive. Your editor's experience with Abe has been that he is the best back seat driver in the business. But that boy is losing something with no car—what a chance for those "sales hounds." Go to it, fellows. There's a prospect!

Election of officers of the Woman's Literary Club resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Robert De Free; First Vice President, Mrs. C. J. Dregman; Second Vice President, Mrs. John C. Post; Recording Secretary, Mrs. V. L. Dibble; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Evert J. Blekkink; Treasurer, Mrs. Albert Diekema; Members of the board of directors, Mrs. Raymond Visscher, Mrs. George E. Kollen and Mrs. G. J. Diekema. Mrs. C. J. Dregman reports that the lot on College Ave. on 9th St., owned by the club, after a long wait, was disposed of for $1,000.

Charles Bontekoe and Nick Landmann of the Holland Coast Guard station where sent by Keeper Capt. Van Weelden to South Baltimore to study motorized boats. They will be away for six weeks and the orders came from Washington, D. C. Note: That was the beginning of life boats motorization and now practically all coast guard station boats have motors.

Agged hunter and trapper, Jacob Fleman, passed away at 83. He had been hunting deer for 50 years, first around Holland, then in the north woods and in all these years never failed to bring home at least one deer he shot. Besides being a big game hunter and wagon maker he conducted a fur trading post and handled nearly all furs in lower Ottawa and upper Allegan County. His headquarters were on the site of the Ford Show Rooms on River Ave.

Grand Haven policeman Jack Spangler was appointed by Sheriff "Dell" Fortney to take the place of Jerry Dykhuys of Holland as under-sheriff. Note: Spangler has since been assessor, probation officer, investigation officer and old age pension officer. Fifteen years well spent.

Mrs. John H. Den Herder and Mrs. Martin Den Herder are in Holland today visiting Mrs. Martin Den Herder's mother—Grand Haven Tribune.

Mrs. Nathaniel Robbins is seriously ill at her home on Fifth St. She has been in ill health since her return from Berkeley, Calif., several weeks ago—Grand Haven Tribune.

Dr. Seth Vander Werf of Holland will present a stereopticon lecture entitled "Migrant Workers in the United States," before the Woman's Missionary society of the Second Reformed church on Thursday at 2:45 at the church parlors. The ladies of the church and the Girls' league are invited to attend—Grand Haven Tribune.

HOLLAND MAN KILLED BY TRAIN IN CHICAGO

John Kleinhuizen and woman passenger are killed instantly

John G. Kleinhuizen, formerly of Holland, for the past several months of Chicago, was instantly killed in Chicago Tuesday night together with Miss Minnie Brin of Chicago who happened to be a passenger in the Kleinhuizen car at the time. According to news received here the Kleinhuizen car was struck by a Chicago and Eastern Illinois passenger train.

Mr. Kleinhuizen who is 36 years old is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit J. Kleinhuizen, 447 College Ave., who upon being notified of their son's death left for Chicago immediately together with Rev. Henry Ter Keurst, pastor of Trinity Reformed church. Mr. Kleinhuizen is a member of Trinity Reformed church.

The deceased man and his wife moved to Chicago owing to the health of Mrs. Kleinhuizen who has been confined to a sanatorium in Chicago for some time. Mr. Kleinhuizen before going to Chicago was a salesman for the Chevrolet Sales and Service.

Kleinhuizen is survived by his wife, three children, a daughter, Marion age 11, and a three year old son, Gerrit who are staying with Mr. Kleinhuizen's parents, a six months old son staying with Mrs. Kleinhuizen's parents in Appleton, Wis., and the parents.

Funeral services will be held at 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Trinity Reformed church. Rev. H. Ter Keurst officiating. Burial will be in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

PAW PAW MAN TO SPEAK BEFORE TOWNSEND CLUB

Dr. Felix A. Racette of Paw Paw will be the speaker at the Townsend Club meeting to be held on Friday March 13. The meeting is to be held in Holland High school auditorium and the ladies as well as the men are invited to attend and hear this popular speaker.

Dr. Racette is a firm advocate of the Townsend plan and has given several addresses on the subject. Dr. Racette is a dentist and is now serving his third term as president of the village of Paw Paw.

"CAPPY RICKS" BLOOMS WITH THE SPRING

Sipp Houtman who manages the Virginia Park Community Players who are staging "Cappy Ricks" at the Virginia Park Community Hall for 3 nights, March 12, 13, 14, has his cast well in hand and the play is going to be finished and artistically done.

The production is a gripping story and was given professionally on the Hope College lecture course some years ago and it met with tremendous success. This play was to be presented in February but the winter blasts prevented this. It will now bloom with the opening of spring.

The cast is as follows: Alden P. (Cappy) Ricks, George DeVries; Florence Ricks, Mrs. Fred Steketee; Ellen Murray, Florence Ten Have; Captain Mat Peasley, Hendrick Noble; Skinner, Bernard Henry Nevenzel; Edward Singleton, James Helder; Aunt Lucy Ricks, Mrs. J. Koskuba; Brookfield Chaff, Leon Van Huis.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Geerlings a daughter, on March 2 at Port Jefferson, N. Y.—She has been named Ann Hoffman. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Geerlings of 90 W. 14th St.

The Sunday school teachers meeting of the Sixteenth Street Christian Reformed church will be held tonight at 7 o'clock in the church basement.

We have been looking all through our "morgue" to find a picture of Henry Geerlings taken when he was Mayor some 30 years ago. He then had a flowing mustache. We had that cut once but someone must have pilfered it and that needs an investigation. It was one of those "Simon Legree" mustaches, only Henry lacked the whip and the Uncle Tom's Cabin background. He never owned a dog in his life, much less a bloodhound.

Anyway, we fished out another cut of more recent vintage. We told you once that it looked like the blue eagle with a broken wing, but the N.R.A. has been buried long ago and the eagle went with it.

We might make comparisons, since this is the hatchery season, with a chick who has just picked his way through a shell and is tremendously surprised at everything he sees in a new world. But that would hardly be fitting for Henry who has seen everything, he has heard everything, knows everything, and has held more jobs—most of them "for nothing" jobs—than any man in Holland.

He talks more rapidly than a machine gun and answers your question before you've asked it. Anyway, here you have Henry Geerlings in Tulip Festival Array. Ya! Ya! All right! All right! And to think that he is only 16 years old, his birthday coming every 29th day of February and he has just become grandpa again according to a New York dispatch.

LARGE MILITARY CONVENTION MAY COME FOR SECOND TIME

The Executive Committee of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the state in session today with a Chamber of Commerce committee, laid plans to stage another V.F.W. rally at Holland following Tulip Time. The procuring of this convention depends on the local community to finance the prize money required for bringing the fine drum and bugle corps from the various parts of the state.

The Executive Committee is comprised of Fred Sundin, John Bremer, Charles Ash, Chris Korose, John Homfield and Frank Jilison. This convention brought about two thousand visitors to the city last year and with the more favorable date in prospect it is expected that this number may be doubled. The program in mind will include great drum and bugle corps review and contest at Riverview Park. A huge parade will take place on the same day. This is a state rally and draws veterans and members of their families from all over Michigan. Don't worry, Holland will provide the prizes. Put the Holland City News down for a duplicate of last year and more if necessary.

MANY MORE GUESTS IN HOLLAND HOTEL

Early in the week the Occidental Hotel was burned with 400 rooms being destroyed, although the new part of the hotel is intact and doing business. Results, however, brought many guests to Warm Friend Tavern which by the way, is a fireproof hotel.

The Grand Haven fire department was called upon to help in the fire and in the check-up it was found that not one of the 231 guests were killed and but four of them were sent to the hospital to be treated for minor injuries. The loss is said to be near the half million mark. It undoubtedly will take some time to clear away the wreck and rebuild and finish the hotel.

IF YOU HAVEN'T GOT A LICENSE—ARREST

This morning Chief Van Ry stated that the time for securing license plates has gone over the deadline. The last day being Saturday. The department has been lenient for a few days but from now on all those seen on public streets without proper 1936 license plates on their automobiles will be fined.

Says the Grand Haven Tribune—State police were issuing tickets today to motorists attempting to operate automobiles with 1935 license plates, Sgt. Earl Seestr, in charge of the local post, said.

City police were lenient over the week-end but were expected to clamp down today. Sheriff Ben Rosema said his deputies had with 1935 plates until the owners get 1936 plates, the only exception being to allow persons to drive to the local license bureau.

According to a United Press report from Lansing, the state public debt commission today approved a request from the city of Zeeland to refund bonds totaling $3,000, with new bonds to be due from 1937 to 1939 and bear not more than 4 per cent interest.

Seining for carp in Lake Macatawa was resumed Wednesday under the sponsorship of the Holland Fish and Game club. The weather conditions and poor ice halted the seining activities that up until the ice was frozen netted 37 tons.

James Dekker of Muskegon and Bina Boonstra of Zeeland, have applied for a marriage license.

City Changes Mayor; Carries Amendments

SIXTH WARD ALDERMEN RUN STRANGE RACE

Kamferbeek according to results seems to have his running strength for police board

Holland changes mayors—Nicodemus is to step aside for Henry Geerlings who was mayor more than 30 years ago. Geerlings had a large majority as will be seen in the complete tabulations.

The most unusual upset is the case of Ed Brouwer who as candidate for member of the police board received last minute opposition from former sheriff Fred Kamferbeek with the following result. Brouwer—1,400, Kamferbeek—2,271. While this is a nonpartisan election, in former sheriff's elections, Kamferbeek made the grade through republican votes. It appears now that both republicans and democrats are still voting that way.

The Amendments were carried by nearly a 2 to 1 vote, which absolutely shows that Holland has confidence in its board of public works as well as in its common council. It was a commendable vote and well deserved.

Our city attorney Elbert Parsons and John Steggerda, our treasurer, both able men, had no opposition and received votes well over the 8,000 mark.

Jim McLean who has been a strong member of the Board of Public Works, received a comfortable majority over M. C. Weststrate.

The three justices of the peace Nick Hoffman, Jr., Atty. Gerrit W. Kooyers and Atty. Vernon Ten Cate ran neck and neck as the tabulation shows and will have to try conclusions again at the April election.

Wm. Brusse, present supervisor won handsily over his two opponents. However two supervisors must be elected, that is why Ray Nies the present supervisor and John De Koeyer, the third man in the race must battle it out for that office at the April election.

Another interesting three cornered race was that for city health officer in which the candidates were the present incumbent, Dr. Wm. C. Westrate, Dr. Wm. Tappan and Dr. E. Vander Berg. Each of the men received the necessary 25 per cent of the votes cast, and therefore will have to try conclusions again at the April election.

Alderman Henry Prins won handsily by a vote of 90 over his opponent. Mr. Prins has been a strong man on the council, has always been placed on important committees and has ably handled these different duties.

STICK TO YOUR LAST

Agricultural cooperation is an indefinite term.

But basically it means the selling of farm products through farmer-owned and controlled central organizations. This is sound cooperation, based on definite business principles of proven worth, that can do a great deal for farm prosperity and stability.

But where it is distorted to tempt farmers into fields which are in no way connected with farming, Old Man Trouble has things his own way. Failure—expensive, often ruinous failure—is usually the result. And the unhappy example of such a failure endangers the whole farm cooperative movement, the true purpose of which is to improve farm production and sales methods. "Stick to your last" applies to industrialists, shop-keepers, farmers and everyone else, as well as the shoemaker. Experiments in somebody else's business are almost inevitably a short cut to bankruptcy.

The Aeolian Chorus of Holland, under the direction of Marvin Baas, presented a program Wednesday night at 8 p.m. in the Allen Avenue Christian Reformed church. Miss Johanna Boersma is accompanist and Jerry Bulthuis assisted as reader.—Muskegon Chronicle.

COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS SEE TB MOVIE FILM

During the past week the Michigan TB Association has presented a sound movie film entitled "Contacts" to several of the High Schools in the County. The film was well received. In all about 1870 students saw the film. Mr. Hassler from the TB Association presented the film. On Tuesday six audiences saw the film. But one school which was scheduled was not reached because of inaccessible roads.

It is expected that an X-ray clinic will be held in March 24, 25 and 26. This will be under the direction of the Health Department. This will be financed by the Michigan TB Association in conjunction with the County. Only those individuals who have lived or are living in close contact with tuberculosis individuals and those who have positive tuberculin tests will be given X-rays.

During the past year 18 patients were admitted to Muskegon County Sanatorium. In all 6304 days were spent or an average of 350 days per patient. There have been 8 deaths from TB in 1935. Hospitalization alone has cost Ottawa County $20,362.95 in 1935. It is evident that the tuberculosis problem requires constant effort to combat and whole-hearted support.

The film shown the students gave a clear picture of the problem which confronts the public as well as a means of solution. Early detection of the disease by use of tuberculin test, X-ray, careful check up on all contacts, and early hospitalization are such effective measures that if carried out properly will be able to reduce tuberculosis mortality markedly and may possibly eradicate the disease.

City Changes Mayor; Carries Amendments

that your editor knows of, and he has compiled statements for 44 years. Anyway all three must go back on the ballot for the April election.

We remember Frank Smith as a stone mason, the father of Atty.

Raymond Smith. But we know him better as a side pal of the late "Dugan" Van Wyven bandmaster. They used to sing a race horse song together at local entertainments that never failed to make a hit. If he can run as fast as the polls are he rattled off that song, there surely will be something doing. But it appears that Holkeboer and Klompereans are some runners too. Well, may the best man win.

That in substance gives Monday's primary report. The complete tabulated report, the totals and the entire city and aldermanic ticket are found below.

FRUIT SPRAYING TO BEGIN SOON

Trees, vines and canes that produce Michigan's annual 15 to 20 million dollar fruit crop are worth the insurance that a wise program of spraying can provide, according to Ray Hutson, professor of entomology, Michigan State College, East Lansing.

He is one of the authors of the "Spraying Calendar" which will be distributed throughout the state within the next few days by county agricultural agents. Copies of the newly revised bulletin can be obtained from L. R. Arnold, county agent in Ottawa county.

As soon as equipment can be wheeled through orchards without getting mired, it is time to apply the season's first dormant spray which will treat such pests as San Jose scale, red mite, oyster shell scale and the pear psylla. In addition to allowing for traction for the spraying equipment the job must also be done when the operator knows that there will be five or six hours when the temperature will not drop before the spraying job is completed. This first dormant spray is applied normally late in March or early in April, depending upon the weather.

But moths or fruit tree leaf rollers require special sprays. In fact the 48 page bulletin offers up to date information on the best methods, sprays and suggested schedules devised. Authors who cooperated include Hutson, W. C. Dutton, associate professor in horticulture, and Donald Canton, research assistant in plant pathology at Michigan State College.

Traveling Around America

A NATIVE BREWER

In this unique manner natives of Mexico secure the makings for pulque, the most powerful drink. The Maquey plant, or cactus, from which the sap is taken is allowed to age about five years before being tapped. At that time the tachequero cuts open the heart of the plant with a metal instrument in the shape of a half moon called a raspador and applies the cocote, a pear-shaped gourd. When the small end of the gourd is inserted in the wound, the tachequero induces the juice into the gourd by suction applied through a hole at the opposite end.

The juice thus extracted is then transported in wooden kegs by muleback to the brewery. This fresh sweet liquid is then fermented—the best quality of pulque produced by about twenty-four hours' fermentation. If it is allowed to ferment for several days the "bouquet" becomes quite strong. In which case pineapples, bananas or oranges are often used to cure the liquor and improve the flavor.

The little cantinas where the natives gather to imbibe this potent beverage are among the fascinating sights awaiting travelers visiting the Spanish Americas on the fortnightly cruises between New York and California. Several years ago pulque sold for a cent a quart on the cash and carry home in a pitcher

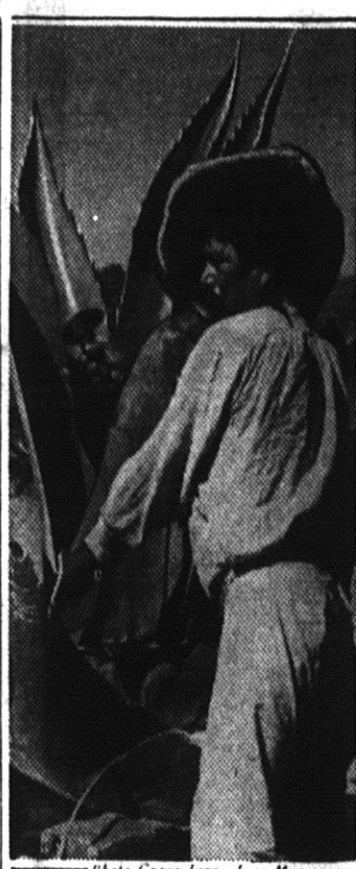

Photo Grace Line—Luis Marquez—plan. Now, however, it brings about seven times its former price and has joined the more aristocratic bottled beverages sold under seal.

Snow, Cold Aid in Coyote Hunts Save Sheep

Cold weather and deep snow may prove a boon to Michigan's thirteen million dollar sheep industry, according to D. H. LaVol, animal husbandry extension specialist at Michigan State College, East Lansing.

"Wild and stray dogs and coyotes, killers of sheep, can be tracked easily and hunted in deep snow," he says. "Close cooperation between state, county, and district authorities, and individual sheep farmers can decrease the damage this winter."

Recent surveys disclosed that more than 30,000 sheep valued at about $120,000 were killed in 1934. Damage in 1935 is estimated at more than that figure because of increased values of sheep.

Many sheep breeders in the northern counties of Muskegon, Ogemaw, Isoc, Alcona, Osceola, Cheboygan, and Presque Isle are seriously considering giving up the sheep industry because of night coyote raids. Southern and central counties have complained most about dog attacks. Many of the dogs have been abandoned in the state by tourists, adding to the problems of the sheep raisers. "The clean-up must be more than one county at a time," Mr. LaVol advises. "These animals roam over large territories."

The World Day of Prayer was celebrated by a large group of women of the different Zeeland churches Friday afternoon in the First Reformed church. Brief talks were presented by Mrs. J. Van Peursem, Mrs. P. J. Vanden Berg, Mrs. Robert Pool. The speaker of the day was Miss Johanna Timmer, dean of women at Calvin College, Grand Rapids, who showed that peace is available for the Christian through redemption.

At a Missionary meeting at the Second Reformed church presided over by the pastor Rev. Richard Vanden Berg a letter was read from Dr. and Mrs. William J. Moerdyk of Amara, Iraq, who are the missionaries of that church and resided in Zeeland when they spent their last furlough in this country. Their three oldest children, William, Betty, and Margaret, have just returned to India after spending their long vacation, which occurs at this time, at the home in Amara. They are attending the school for missionary children at Kodai Kanal and left with an American teacher to accompany them on their journey. Dorothy is the only child at home. The letter tells about the Leper colony and about some remarkable recoveries from that dread disease. Patients often come for treatment in a pitiable condition and aid received from missionaries is deeply appreciated, resulting in greater respect for the Christian religion. Some recovered lepers have turned to Christianity and are strong witnesses. The Moordyks when on a furlough spent much time in Holland, staying at the Missionary house purchased for that purpose.

Mrs. B. Voorhorst spent the past week with her children, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kaechle of Allegan. Jacob Eding and James Richenbault were in Grand Rapids on business Saturday.

The season for dip-net fishing opened with the beginning of this month. Due to the snow, ice, high water and a hundred other things there is no evidence of the season's opening in the village. This is the first time for many years. Usually there is much activity on the banks. However, before many days are past, the "sucker-rush" will be on for two months. For the last few years the men have had lean seasons, but their enthusiasm has not been lost. The experts are promising a good year and are stirring up folks by assuring them that the suckers are waiting around the corner.

Mr. Harmer found that most of the soil in this vicinity was "rich" enough and that the use of certain kinds of fertilizing had been overdone. The soil was not only a great deal of money was wasted, but the soil, instead of being improved, was injured. It might be well if these meetings were advertised more widely since we have met several who would have attended and brought in samples, had they known of this opportunity in time.

In a nation wide contest there are always a great many contestants and it is no small honor to be placed among the first. We are not sure, but we had a feeling that George wanted us to suggest that the young lady was "the image of her dad" but although we would have liked very much, it was utterly impossible for us to do so. Congratulations anyway.

Conditions in Hamilton have become almost normal again. There is still a great deal of snow. During the first part of the week flooded roads and washouts threatened. But the cold spell has been beneficial so that the water has gone down. With a few exceptions roads are again open. #### MANY DEAD PHEASANTS

(Allegan Gazette)

Conservation Officer Plotts showed in Maentz market Monday morning a basket containing fourteen dead pheasants and one opossum all of which had perished in the recent storms and sub-zero temperatures. He found these in a trip through woods west of the city. With that many in a part only of that area there must be hundreds more elsewhere in the county. Eight of the birds were cocks. Mr. Plotts said they stood with their mouths open toward the wind and their throats full of snow. No grouse have been found and probably none will be because these birds under such circumstances burrow into the snow and live on buds of trees and shrubs.

Ninety-five local persons wrote civil service examinations at Holland high school Saturday for two substitute clerk-carrier positions open at the local post office. Richard Van Kolken and Richard Klein of the civil service board here conducted the examination.

American sopranos, Miss Constance Eberhart, distinguished operatic contralto; Earle Tanner, tenor, a singer of individuality and distinction; and Raymond Koch, baritone, who scored such a success in his work here in the "Messiah" production in December, compose the quartet who will sing the songs of Mr. Cadman in solo, duet and quartet form.

Mr. Cadman returned last fall from a successful concert tour through Europe. He has composed some of the "best sellers" among which is "Sky Blue Water." His orchestral work has been played by all the large orchestras in the country.

Local Orators Prepared For Contest At Alma

This morning you heard Hope's woman orator speaking the composition she has prepared, written and learned to represent her Alma Mater in the Michigan Intercollegiate Speech league contest to be held this Friday, March 6, at Alma.

The competition at Alma consists of six colleges Alma, Calvin, Central State Teachers', Hope, Kalamazoo, and Michigan State. Angelyn Van Lente and John M. Vander Meulen will present their orations. Three women and three men will be chosen to meet those three not eliminated in a similar contest among Adrian, Albion, Battle Creek, Hillsdale, University of Detroit, Wayne, and Ypsilanti at the final contest held at Kalamazoo March 13.

Direct Plea
"(To the Victors—)" Miss Van Lente's oration is different from the usual type of speech in that she directs her plea toward the citizenry of Michigan particularly. It is an advantage in a way, because it is so appropriate at this time.

On the other hand John Vander Meulen's oration is broader in scope, and he may endanger himself by being too general. His title is "Pillars on Self Desire."

Attacks Power Abuse
Abuse of power is what he feels should be corrected. He deals with wealth, labor and politics and has as his remedy a three-fold plan for education, for reorganization of business and government and for individual Christian influence. He will speak during the chapel services tomorrow.

Whatever success the orators achieve will be attributable in a large part to Miss Metta Ross and Dr. Shackson who have given unstintingly of their time the past month to perfect the delivery of Miss Van Lente and Mr. Vander Meulen, respectively.

Details of the oratorical prize contests this spring may be obtained from Pi Kappa Delta president, John Van Wyk, and manager of oratory, Kathleen Donahue.

Authorities reported that no leap year babies were born in Holland hospital Saturday.

Yes Sir, Business Is Good

BEHIND THE SCENES OF "NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH"

To make a good play it is essential to have a clever cast and a faithful coach, but these are only a beginning. The score of people who work behind the scenes usually receive little credit for their efficient work. Miss Lindsey, coach of "Nothing But The Truth" says that never has she found people unwilling to help back stage. She states that this year, perhaps more than usual, excellent cooperation has been extended her.

Dorothy Visscher, clever art student in the senior class, has painted two beautiful pieces of backing. Backing is that which stands behind open doors and windows to give a most realistic effect. One is a New York sky line and the other a leafy outdoor scene.

Miss Lorraine Vrieling, another art student, has designed a very clever lineoleum clock poster pattern which you will soon see in the downtown store windows.

New appointments in connection with the play have just been made. Althea Raffenaud, president of the senior class, has been named business manager. Miss Florence O'leary will act as property manager, Miss Dorothy Boeve will assist with makeup, and publicity managers are Bob Taft, Ned Shaw, and Gert-rude Visscher.

The two settings decorated by Mr. Hanson and two seniors are a real pleasure to the eye. The settings were designed by Roderick Van Leeuwen, a member of last year's play cast "The Goose Hangs High."

Dates for the play have been set. Curtain will first rise at 8:00 on March 23, and again at 8:00 on March 24, 25, and 26. Holland audiences have a real treat coming.

NEW DIRECTORY TO BE LARGER

The R. L. Polk and Co. of Detroit the country's largest directory publishers announced that the new Holland directory just off the press will be larger than former editions. However, the publishers have added a new feature by taking in the Ottawa County taxpayers this year, making the new edition still larger by comparison with past editions.

The new directory, containing 562 pages, lists 9,120 names for Holland, 1,896 for Zeeland and 10,288 for the county taxpayers. There is also a section for the Dunningville, East Saugatuck and Hamilton rural routes, listing additional names. Seventeen was maintained as the minimum listing age, the publishers said. Holland's first citizen this year alphabetically speaking is Alfred A. Aalberts and William G. Zylman's name is at the "foot" of the class.

Attacks Power Abuse
Abuse of power is what he feels should be corrected. He deals with wealth, labor and politics and has as his remedy a three-fold plan for education, for reorganization of business and government and for individual Christian influence. He will speak during the chapel services tomorrow.

Whatever success the orators achieve will be attributable in a large part to Miss Metta Ross and Dr. Shackson who have given unstintingly of their time the past month to perfect the delivery of Miss Van Lente and Mr. Vander Meulen, respectively.

Details of the oratorical prize contests this spring may be obtained from Pi Kappa Delta president, John Van Wyk, and manager of oratory, Kathleen Donahue.

Authorities reported that no leap year babies were born in Holland hospital Saturday.

Note Many Body Defects in Grand Haven Children

Grand Haven high school students made a poor record in health examinations conducted Thursday, Miss Florence Dykhuys, school nurse reported today on compiling statistics gathered by physicians. Of 181 students, only 34 were reported in perfect condition physically. Junior class students had the least number of defects and the 46 seniors examined made the poorest showing.

There were 62 students with defective sight and 53 with defective teeth, most of them girls, the defect caused by improper footwear, in the opinion of doctors. Of the others with defects, 39 were undernourished, 20 had habitually poor posture, skin afflictions were reported in 32; orthopedic defects 10; tonsils diseased, nine; abdominal trouble, eight; hernias, six; nose trouble and genital trouble, four each; thyroid trouble and heart trouble three each; nervous and hearing defects, two each, and speech defects, one.

Miss Dykhuys reports 1,053 students have been examined to date, distributed as follows: Central school 601, Ferry 271 and high school 181. Starting Monday and concluding Thursday, about 120 students in each of the city's two parochial schools, the Christian school and St. Patrick's, will be examined.

Upon conclusion of physical examinations, there will be a week for compiling final reports and then dental examinations following much the same schedule as the physical examinations, will be given by local dentists cooperating with school health authorities, the board of education and the PTA organizations. E. H. Babcock, superintendent of schools, expected all examinations to be concluded by April 16. Reports and recommendations for bettering the physical condition of students examined, will then be placed in the hands of parents.

Bad Deer Killer Gets Heavy Sentence

One of the heaviest penalties reported in several years for a violation of the Conservation laws in Michigan was meted out to Vincent Peterson, 22, of Kenton, Mich.

Convicted by his own plea of guilty on six deer-violation counts, Peterson received fines totalling $525 plus costs with alternative jail terms aggregating 330 days. He took the jail.

Peterson was accused of having a load of four deer, a buck, a doe, and two fawns, when Conservation Officer met him on the road. The officer reported that Peterson was not alone at the time, but that his companion or companions escaped.

They confiscated the deer and the automobile, which was registered in the name of Frank Peterson. On arraignment Vincent Peterson pleaded guilty to the following charges: Killing deer, killing buck deer, killing female fawn, killing male fawn, transporting deer and carrying loaded firearm in closed game area. Fines of $100 and costs of $7.25 were assessed on each of the counts with alternatives of 60 days in jail, except on the count charging illegal possession of firearm. A fine of $25 and costs of $7.25 or 30 days in jail was the sentence in this case.

ALLEGAN CONSERVATION OFFICER THINKS ALLEGAN DEER ALL RIGHT

Officer Plotts says he does not think the county's deer herd has suffered dangerously from the long extreme cold; that there is plenty of food for "they eat everything"—that is, all sorts of twigs and small branches of trees and shrubs. They particularly like cedar leaves and these can be found about the two or three bayous of the river.

February 29, a day that arrives but once in four years. Among those who are able to celebrate a real birthday is Howard Dornbos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Dornbos, of Spring Lake, who is 24 years old, but who has observed but six real birthdays during that time.

Makes Attempt to Attack Attorney Leo Lillie in Court

Complaining "there was no justice in the court," Claude Van Doorne, Tallmadge township, was forcibly removed from the Ottawa County court room the other day by the court officer, William Boeve, of Holland, when he attempted to assail Attorney Leo C. Lillie, plaintiff in a suit against Van Doorne to secure payment of a $289 attorney fee.

Van Doorne presented his own case before Judge Fred T. Miles who, following the case, ruled that the charges of $289 made by Mr. Lillie for attorney and court fees in a quiet title case which Mr. Lillie had won for the defendant, were just and the judge ordered the bill to be paid.

The defendant in a white rage attempted an attack on Mr. Lillie and waving his arms and storming in the court room, was prevented from going too far by the intervention of the officer.

The defendant claimed he had bargained with the local attorney to quiet a title to some property for $100. This had been done after the suit was contested and there were costs, over and above the first charges, which totaled $289. Judge Miles ruled that the bill was legitimate and that Van Doorne had no reason for complaint.

Arrests For Game Violation Low This Winter

IN ALL 139 ARE GATHERED IN BY WARDENS; ONLY SEVEN FISH WITH TOO MANY LINES

Violations of Michigan's game and fish laws this winter are at a low ebb in years.

Conservation law enforcement men at Lansing believe that the extremely cold weather, together with the soft, deep snow in the north, have greatly limited activities of violators and they point to the January compilation of arrests and convictions as a good indication.

Only 139 arrests were made by Conservation Officers during the month mentioned and of that number 103 were reported from the lower peninsula. The majority of arrests in the lower peninsula was made in the counties of the northern half where snow conditions have been less severe than in the counties farther north.

While proving a handicap to Conservation Officers in their patrol work, the soft, unpacked snow of the north discouraged activity on the part of violators at the same time. Snowshoeing proved laborious and many of the side-roads leading to game areas have been blocked for weeks.

Approximately half the arrests made during January involved infractions of the game laws. Fines totalling $1,354.50 were assessed violators in justice court. The amount of costs levied came to $731.13. A total of 835 days in jail terms was imposed; fines were suspended in 32 cases, probation granted in six and respondents dismissed in three. Six cases were lost during prosecution and four were taken to circuit court.

Confiscated property consisted of the following: Twenty-one rifles, five shotguns, 41 steel traps, four whole deer, an automobile, 23 rabbits, three spears, a spud, two fish poles, a three-pointed moose, a mink pelt, muskrat pelt, squirrel, and a fox.

Arrests were made for the following violations during the month: Illegal possession of venison, 13; carrying rifle or shotgun in game area during closed season without permit, 10; taking, possessing or molesting rabbits during closed season, nine; hunting without license, seven; killing deer in closed season, six; possessing, killing or attempting to kill pheasants, four; carrying loaded firearm in automobile, three; selling and possessing venison, hunting with artificial light, transporting rabbits out of state in closed season, two each; carrying firearms while training dogs, possession of ruffed grouse in closed season and possession of fox squirrel in closed season, one each.

Arrests for fishing violations consisted of the following: Fishing without a license, 24; exceeding fish catch limit, 10; possession of fish during closed season, seven; exceeding legal number of ice-lines, four; spearing fish, illegally, three; affixing false date to fishing license and breaking commercial fishing law, one each.

Arrests for violations of the trapping and fur laws follow: Setting traps without identification tags, six; trapping in closed season, four; failure to report fur at close of season and dealing in furs without a license, three each; possession of beaver pelts in closed season, one.

Nine were arrested on trespass charges and two for making false statements to procure small-game or deer licenses.

A belief popular among fishermen is that a hooked under-slip fish is a dead fish. This does not always hold true. Experiment conducted at the Henrietta hatchery have shown that only 2.75 to 8.75 per cent of hooked fish may die from effects of being hooked.

MRS. DIRK DYKSTRA OF ARABIA SPEAKS BEFORE LOCAL MISSION GROUP

(Zeeland Record)

The Second Reformed Church of Grand Haven was the scene of an interesting mission meeting held Thursday afternoon, when the Women's Mission Society entertained the Mubehara Society.

Mrs. R. J. Vanden Berg, president, was in charge. Mrs. Wm. Borst of the Bubehera Society conducted devotions, using the theme, "Prayer."

Music was rendered by Mrs. J. Bosch and Miss Gertrude Boes who sang "Jesus Knows It All." Mrs. J. Van Volkenburgh accompanied at the piano.

Mrs. Dirk Dykstra, who has just returned to this country for a further year and has spent twenty-four years as missionary of the Reformed Church in Mesopotamia was guest speaker.

Mrs. Dykstra presented an interesting picture of Arabia, a country which has shown little response to religious work in years past.

The Mohammedans are self-satisfied and feel that their religion and the Koran, their Bible, is far superior to our religion and our Bible.

They believe that missionary blasphemous when they tell about Jesus Christ the Son of God.

The ignorance and extreme poverty of the Arabs is pathetic and the fight against threatening diseases is extremely difficult.

The people highly respect doctors for their skill in surgery and in the treatment of diseases.

Mrs. Dykstra told of the hardships and persecutions Arabs endure when they become Christians. They are often divorced or cast from their homes and friends and suffer untold agony.

In spite of this persecution many Arabs turn to Christianity, sometimes secretly and sometimes bravely confessing their belief in Christ.

After the program a social hour was enjoyed during which refreshments were served.

Baked Bean Favorites for Lent

THIS IS A TIMELY moment, with Lent now upon us, to consider some new meatless main dishes. Of course, we can serve fish frequently but not every day. And vegetable plates begin to pall after so long a time. Soon now, the men folk will begin to clamor for good solid food, so it's up to us to cast about for some hot and hearty dishes for dinners without meat. The answer to this problem is savory Oven-Baked Beans prepared, vegetarian style, without meat. In these beans, you will find the valuable proteins and minerals that make them a worthy substitute for meat. And besides, it is easy to prepare Oven-Baked Beans in such a variety of delightful new ways that they can be used in place of the meat course with complete satisfaction to the whole family. Any of these grand dishes will slip into your menus with such ease, the old favorites will scarcely be missed:

Bean and Corn Casserole—Place 1 large can Oven-Baked Beans, Vegetarian Style, in a casserole. Arrange 8 small peeled onions in two rows, pressing them down half way into the Beans. Sprinkle onions with ½ teaspoon salt, then cover with ½ cup Tomato Ketchup. Pour 1—No. 2 can whole kernel corn, from which the liquid has been well drained, over the Beans and onions. Cover and bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) for 1½ hours. About 20 minutes before taking from the oven, remove lid and top casserole with ¼ cup buttered bread crumbs and allow the crumbs to brown.

Baked Bean Rabbit on Toast—Melt 3 tablespoons butter in a saucepan, add 4 tablespoons flour and blend well. Add 2 cups milk, ¼ teaspoon salt and a dash of pepper and stir until thickened. Add 1 medium can Oven-Baked Beans, Vegetarian Style, and cook until the Beans are thoroughly heated, then add 1 cup grated American cheese and allow the cheese to melt slowly. This makes a delicious, creamy, flavorful rabbit. Serve on slices or cubes of toast.

Baked Beans in Tomato Cups—Cut off slices from tops of 6 large ripe tomatoes and scoop out centers. Dust inside with salt and sugar and spread lightly with Prepared Brown Mustard. Fill with Oven-Baked Beans, Vegetarian Style (1 medium can will be needed) and sprinkle tops with ¼ cup grated cheese. Bake for 20 to 25 minutes in moderate oven (375° F.).

Baked Bean Casserole (serves 4)—Cook 2 small finely chopped onions and 2 finely chopped green peppers in 2 tablespoons butter until they are tender and golden brown in color. Add 1 large can Oven-Baked Beans, Vegetarian Style, and mix thoroughly. Arrange the Beans and ½ cup grated

ALLEGAN COUNTY NEWS

The State Bar association, existing under a new state law calculated to regulate and improve practice of law in the state, has appointed a "grievance" committee which will consider any sort of appeal from action of the association. Ethel W. Stone of Allegan and Orien S. Cross of Holland have been made members of the committee.

It seems scarcely possible that there will be much of a peach crop in Allegan county this year, there has been so much extreme cold. The buds might have largely survived a night or two below zero but there have been so many such, that a few of them much below zero, that it is doubtful if any or many have lived; yet Mr. Cochran of Millgrove said last week that he had found a considerable number of live buds. His orchard, however, is rather exceptional being on high ground with air drainage in every direction.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Poppen of Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Helder of Fillmore and William Zandbergen and Miss Inez Zandbergen of Grandville were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Goorman on West Central Ave., Zeeland, recently.

Do you remember that Mayor Mosier once was city treasurer? In the Gazette of July 18, 1908, he gave notice that city taxes were due at First State Bank. Allegan then had three banks. And do you remember "Cook park"? Thomas Cook and Frank Foster improved a small area about two miles up the river and built a small steamboat as means for reaching it. That boat was so heavily loaded one night that everybody on it expected it to go to the bottom. Passengers were made to sit still and were carefully divided to prevent toppling. The enterprise was a financial failure. —Allegan Gazette.

Objections being filed to admission to probate of the will of the late Jonas Clark of Valley township, Probate Judge Irving Tucker has certified the contest to circuit court. The will, which disposed of an estate of approximately $5,000, left the property to Clark's remaining children, William J. Clark; Eli, Battle Creek; and David, Detroit. Four of Clark's grandsons, sons of his deceased daughter, Millie Peet Durand, David and George Peet of Dunningville, and Arlie and Clark Peet of Allegan, are seeking to break their grandfather's will.

The first arrest since Feb. 3, was made Sunday night when officers picked up Henry Blaine, 56, of Dorris, on charge of being drunk. Justice Voley Ferris presided at his arraignment in Allegan, when Blaine pleaded guilty and was sentenced to five days in the county jail, and to pay $5 fine and $4.55 costs. This is the first arrest on a drunk or disorderly charge since Jan. 13.

Judge Joseph H. Collins of the Shiawassee-Livingston circuit, presided in circuit court Monday in place of Judge Fred T. Miles in the chancery case of John Robinson Hospital vs. Former Circuit Judge Orien S. Cross. Court opinion has not been filed in the case.

In Fennville there is a shortage of coal, milk and bread, and cutters and sleighs are mostly used for conveyance. It's not an uncommon sight to see a man walking with a pack of groceries on his back. Mail carriers walk in to sort mail and supply what patrons are on his return. And when the storms abate and people can begin to see the beauty side of it, it will be well worth anyone's time to drive out to see the high banks of snow along almost every main road.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Maents and Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Stegeman motored to Holland Sunday to pass the day and be dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Maentz. On account of the choked roads beyond Hamilton they went via the Todd farm and Saugatuck and returned by way of Fennville. Mr. Maentz's son is now head of the First State Bank at Holland. —Allegan Gazette.

Robert A. Conn, an employee of the J. C. Penney Co. at St. Johns, Allegan county, for the past five years, came to Allegan this week to begin his position as assistant manager of the local Penney store, that position having recently been vacated by L. T. Atkins, who was transferred to the J. C. Penney Co. in Mount Pleasant, Penn. Mr. Conn is a graduate of the University of Michigan and is experienced in department store sales.

work, having had special training in the shoe department. Mr. and Mrs. Conn expected to take residence in the home owned by T. S. Uptake on Cedar street Thursday of this week. They are members of the Congregational church.

The coal truck drivers, keeping fuel moving in order to "keep the home fires burning," the storekeepers and householders who cleaned off their walks after each storm, piling the snow in "dunes" along the roadsides, which unless removed soon promise to rival those of sand along Lake Michigan's shore. —Fennville Herald.

Marriage licenses returned to County Clerk Warner during the past week include those of Ernest Richard Arndt, Dorris, and Theresa Amata Bartz, Dorris; Theodore Dykstra, Saugatuck, and Agnes Sneller, Zeeland, and Clarence Burdell Smith, Allegan, and Avis Signa Hayes, Otsego.

Mrs. Henry Meade of Mack's Landing, is in Douglas hospital on account of a fall breaking her arm near her shoulder. On account of her advanced age it has been impossible to reduce the fracture. Her daughters, Mrs. Vern Phillips and Mrs. Clarence Arndt, have spent many hours with her.

Miss Opal Lighthart of Holland spent the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lighthart, Douglas.

Robert Kolvoord of Allegan underwent a successful operation for appendicitis in a Chicago hospital. Mr. Kolvoord returned home Sunday night but Mrs. Kolvoord will remain until her son has recovered sufficiently to be able to accompany her to Allegan.

Perhaps you think this is the longest winter of all, but it isn't—at least not yet. The writer remembers one of many years ago, back in the days when everybody rejoiced when "sleighb" came, there was a winter with 100 consecutive days. —Allegan Gazette.

WINDSTORM COMPANY IN SPLENDID SHAPE

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Michigan Mutual Windstorm Insurance Company of Hastings was held at the home office in that city January 15.

The following officers were re-elected: L. W. Sunday, president; Guy E. Crook, vice president; E. A. Parker, secretary-treasurer. The directors were re-elected. These 15 directors are located about the state so that nearly every section of Michigan is represented on the directorate.

Officers' and auditors' reports show the company to be in splendid financial position, with a fine increase in volume of insurance in force and an increase of over six thousand in membership.

The excellent reputation this company has enjoyed for the past fifty years and more for fair and equitable adjustment of claims and their prompt payment of losses, have made this year's fine record possible.

A large corps of representatives and capable adjusters enables this old company to render a real service to the property owners of Michigan. During these years of severe windstorms throughout the state it is sound business policy to carry ample cyclone insurance in a company that has rendered such a desirable service to its members as this company has done. —Lowell Ledger.

The Mutual Windstorm Insurance Co. has paid several claims in and about Holland and in Ottawa and Allegan counties since entering the field here.

What Farmers Can Expect In Ottawa County

COUNTY FARMER AGENT ARNOLD DEFINES CANNING OUTLOOK AND DATE ON PAST CROP

The agricultural outlook for Mich. for 1936 discloses many interesting facts in regard to farm crops, prices and possible future prices. Total production of all crops combined in Mich. for 1935 was 42% higher than that of 1934 but total value on the increased crop was 2.5% less than that of the smaller 1934 crop. This lower value is due chiefly to lower prices for feed crops, hay for instance sold for much less in 1935 than in 1934. For cash crops preliminary estimates indicate total cash income to Mich. farmers in 1935 was 11.3% over 1934. This includes both crops and livestock. Cash incomes from crops was 7% greater and livestock was 13.9% greater. The rise in meat prices accounted for the gain in livestock income.

Economists who have studied the situation believe that 1936 will show further improvements. Indications are that there will be a slight increase in livestock production and prices for livestock should continue high for the greater part of the coming year.

Table I of the publication shows that there has been a continued increase in cash farm income since 1932 when such income dropped to $117,943,000. In 1935 the estimated income has increased to $173,000,000. Of this crops accounted for sixty-nine million, livestock one hundred million and benefit payments amounted to only 2.3% of this amount but in some western states such payments equaled 12-15% of total farm cash income.

Price dates show that one of the ordinary crops reached parity. December prices show that chickens, hogs, veal, lamb and wool attained parity, in fact to the higher than parity.

The publication discusses many items of interest to farmers. In particular it takes up different farm products in detail indicating future trends. This book can be supplied to farmers upon request to L. R. Arnold, agr. agent.

Co. Agr. Agent, L. R. Arnold, is in receipt of a warning to 1936 corn growers. Dr. Muncie, specialist in disease of farm crops, has prepared a report which states that the seed corn situation is not so encouraging. He states that 1935 was a good year for corn production but not good seed. Many tests show that seed corn is of low quality. The rainfall of last fall induced high moisture content and sudden cold weather in Oct. found the corn not properly dried. The excessive rainfall was conducive to various corn diseases. Some of these are not very apparent but are present nevertheless. In some cases presence of disease is indicated by a slightly moldy growth on the kernel or cob. Much of the seed corn from 1935 crop shows kernels streaked or discolored indicating damage from frost or presence of disease.

The tests from various sections of the state show the necessity for the individual grower to carefully test his seed corn. Wide variation of different seed lots show that the grower should run germination tests on individual ears rather than on bulk samples. Cool moist soil at planting time is favorable for the development of corn seedling diseases. Under such conditions corn seed treatment gives profitable increase in yield. Seed treatment is a cheap form of insurance costing only 2½¢ to 3¢ per acre. The mercury dust treatment is recommended and suitable products with full instructions are on the market.

The turkey show put on at the College during Farmers Week show Mich. is becoming an important turkey producing state. Today Mich. has turkeys bred with wide reputations. L. R. Arnold, Agr. Agent states Ottawa Co. is an important turkey section. One breeder hatches out thousands of turkeys and has little difficulty in disposing of them. There was an increase in turkeys in 1935 due to improved prices and lower feed costs and 1936 points to a heavy turkey production this year. Right now there is an unusual demand for hatching eggs and day old poult. Prospective growers might well consider the possibilities for a large supply in 1936.

Feeding of a proper mash to breeding stock will determine the quality of poult produced this spring. The mash should contain dried milk, alfalfa meal and cod liver oil. Oyster shell and gravel should be supplied. A liberal feeding of grain in late afternoons, all the whole grain they will consume, is recommended. Equal mixtures of any of the following grains will do, corn, oats, wheat, barley. If growers desire to mix mash rather than use commercial feed for chickens can be found in the bulletin Michigan Turkeys at the office of the county agricultural agent.

Fertilizer meeting for Ottawa farmers will be scheduled for April by L. R. Arnold, agricultural agent. Mr. Paul Rood, soils specialist, will be present to discuss fertilizers and soils. A study of the 1935 fertilizer situation in Mich. shows much more is being used than formerly. The increase over 1934 was 34.6% or more than one third. Analyses recommended by the soils department of the State College are meeting with favor. Much confusion exists due to the great number of analyses on the market. There are 475 analyses and brands licensed in Mich. Over 70% of total tonnage used in 1935 conformed to analyses recommended in the fertilizer bulletin issued by the College. Two analyses make up over one half of the tonnage used.

In general low analysis is not advisable. An analysis such as 12-2-2 is too costly. Data shows that mixed goods are increasing and that superphosphate is decreasing. Ottawa Co. soil tests show invariably that they lack phosphorus so with increased use here of superphosphate. Fertilizer applied to acid soils does not give the best of results. Lime should be applied then full results occur. There are a few acid loving crops, potatoes, for instance.

Correct placing of fertilizer is of importance. Best results come when fertilizer is placed in the seedbed near the seed but not touching it. If a nitrogen fertilizer is to be used a surface application is preferable. Recommended analysis for particular crops and types of soil, use of various elements and their effect on crops, all are contained in the fertilizer bulletin available at the office at the office of the agricultural agent.

APPRECIATIVE AUDIENCE HEAR SPLENDID PROGRAM

An appreciative audience gathered in Maple Avenue Christian Reformed church Tuesday evening to listen to the Aeolian chorus, composed of approximately 40 voices under the direction of Mr. Marvin Baas, director of music at the Holland Christian High school. Mr. Baas has outstanding ability as a director and also a talented artist in singing and instrumental music, and his works with the chorus Tuesday evening showed this to a marked degree.

The members presented by the chorus were rendered as printed in the program below with the exception of the "Blue Danube" which was well interpreted by the choir and repeated by request from the audience.

Solo parts in the chorus numbers were taken by Misses Elynn Vander Meer and Margaret Bosch, Angie Kammeraad, Leonard Eilander, Don Schippers, Russel Fredricks, and Gerrit De Groot. A vocal solo was given by Henry Ten Hoer.

Two other pleasing features of the evenings program were the instrumental number presented by Miss Johanna Boersma, who also is accompanist for the choir, and a reading "The Soul of A Violin" by Jerry Bultuis. Both numbers were well received. The chorus presented a program in Muskegon on Wednesday evening.

JOHN R. DOUMA, LAST CIVIL WAR VETERAN, IS VICTIM IN AUTO CRASH

John R. Douma, 89, Holland's only surviving Civil War veteran, was in Holland hospital Saturday night suffering from shock and possible neck injuries as the result of an automobile collision. Mrs. Helen Kenniston of Benton Harbor and Mrs. Peter De Kraker of Holland also were in the hospital with fractured collar bones received in the same accident.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Tenth st. and Columbia ave., at 4:30 Saturday afternoon, when cars operated by Mrs. C. T. Meehan of Benton Harbor and Prof. A. Lampen of Hope college collided. Mrs. Kenniston was riding with Mrs. Meehan, and Douma and Mrs. De Kraker were passengers in the Lampen car. Neither Mrs. Meehan nor Prof. Lampen was injured.

Hospital attendants said X-ray examinations were made to determine if any serious results were found and at this time he has practically recovered.

Douma had the distinction of being one of the guard of honor at President Lincoln's bier.

Sunday School Lesson

March 8, 1936

Neighborliness—Luke 10:25-37

Henry Geerlings

An expert of the Hebrew law tried to put Jesus to the test. He was more concerned about argument than about information. If he could have put Jesus in a corner he would have been happy. This scribe's mind was typical. That kind of a mind loves fine distinctions. It loves to suspend an idea on a pinpoint. It would rather argue than eat. It would rather create a difficult situation than heal a broken heart. It would rather blow its breath on a window pane than wash it.

The question this lawyer asked Jesus was important enough. The trouble was with the motive. A good many people appear to be honest and sincere in what they say, but their motives belie the seeming. We cannot always judge the hearts of people by the things they talk about. They may talk finely about heaven and their feet may be close to the precipitous edges of hell. They may say that love is the greatest thing in the world and at the same time may be nursing hate.

The lawyer knew the law and had probably already built an answer to his own question, but would Jesus give answer that was contrary to the law? He was more interested in the orthodoxy of Jesus than in the way to eternal life. If he could show up Jesus as a heretic, that would be glory for him and a ground for a serious charge against Jesus. When you are dealing with quibblers and here say hunters you are dealing with men who are not after truth but who are after you. Jesus knew this and was abundantly prepared to meet his pious antagonist. He made him answer his own question. He threw him back upon himself. Jesus told him he had answered right and bade him live up to his answer and he would have eternal life.

But the lawyer felt most uncomfortable. He was made to appear in a bad light. He got what he was not expecting. The laugh was on him. The shoe pinched his foot. He had done badly in the game he was playing. He fumbled the ball. He was painfully conscious of his error and so pulling himself together he thought to redeem himself, to put himself in a better light. We all do that when we get the worst of it. We rationalize. We try to save our neighbor by clutching at one last straw. "Neighbor, neighbor, that is something to argue about. That may yet save me. Let Jesus define neighbor. My own reputation for keen and correct thinking will be saved. He will say something that is utterly contrary to the Jewish conception of neighbor and then he will appear in a bad light, and I will stand forth justified." So the lawyer must have thought.

But too bad for the lawyer. Jesus did not attempt to give a definition of neighbor. He just told a wonderful and beautiful story that is timeless in its meaning and application. It was so significant that the lawyer could not miss its meaning. He had to confess that a hated Samaritan was a real neighbor to the man in terrible need. He saw painted in vivid colors the shame of his preacher and assistant. He was lifted by the power of this simple story out of his miserable exclusiveness on to such a broad plane of thought and life as he never had seen before. He had been made to see the utter smashing of the racial fence that stood between the Jew and Samaritan. He was made to feel that a neighbor was any human being to whose need one can minister.

This parable is an everlasting protest against race hatred and racial exclusiveness. One human being is the same as another when it comes to the matter of need and sympathetic and helpful ministry. Color, ignorance, racial differences should never be any stop signals to the love and ministry of human hearts and human hands. Jesus never saw racial or geographical boundary lines when he revealed his program of loving service. Our neighbors are not all in America nor do they all belong to our set or to our church or to our racial group. It is a poor time to debate about the racial or social standing of a man who needs to be saved from drowning. We will never hurt our own standing by binding up the wounds of the unfortunate and paying their hotel bills until they can get on their feet. Genuine religion never quibbles about its duties in the face of genuine need.
