Holland-Boy Goes To Princeton On Coaching Staff

"CAPPY" CAPPON STARRING AT HOLLAND HIGH AND AT MICHIGAN

Will Be an "Ace" at University
Where Dr. Kuisenga and Sam
Zwemer are on Faculty

During the last half year there has been considerable shake-up at the University of Michigan as this relates to the athletic complex. Kipke, the head coach of football, again had a team that did not turn out so well and shortly after the football season it was evident that he was "on his way out." Since that time there has been considerable changing going on.

"Cappy" Cappon, the Holland lad who has been on the football coaching staff and head coach of the basketball team for nearly a decade, will also leave Ann Arbor and go to Princeton University, in Princeton, N. J. "Cappy" Cappon has had a very successful career in athletics since he was a mere lad. He was the outstanding star in all athletic achievements at Holland High, both in football and in basketball.

After his graduation he started at Michigan University, and became the "ace" player on the football squad. In fact, he and his pal, Douglas Roby, were of such caliber that they were never not alone at Michigan, but after that successful year, they were given a banquet, called the "Cappy and Roby Banquet", at Holland. At this banquet the veteran coach Yost of Mich. was the headliner, and he lauded Franklin C. Cappon, and Douglas Roby in no uncertain words. They really "had the goods" and Coach Yost told our folk, who crowded the banquet hall, of these achievements. The climax came after the sumptuous dinner given at the Woman's Literary Club in this city, when Coach Yost presented both "Cappy" and Roby with gold watches with the proper inscription telling of this event and the pivotal positions they held on the Michigan team.

The old coach of Michigan, Fielding Yost, is still a great admirer of the Holland boy, and they have been constant associates during Mr. Cappon's coaching career of nearly a decade at the Michigan institution. During that time Mr. Cappon was head coach of the basketball teams and assistant coach of football.

Last year, "Tad" Wieman, coach of Princeton University, contacted "Cappy" Cappon and offered him the place of assistant coach at Princeton. Wieman and Cappon had been intimate friends while both were at Michigan. It was at that time that Mr. Cappon, who had been at the Exchange Club banquet, given annually for Holland High and Hope College football squads, this banquet was also attended by Mr. Cappon.

Anyways, Mr. Cappon accepted the place at Princeton, and will leave early in April for the Eastern city. He will return to Ann Arbor to teach coaching during the summer term of the school, a position he has filled for several years. He expects to move with his family to Princeton in the late summer.

At Princeton he will have charge of the basketball teams, and he will assist in coaching football. Mr. Cappon will not be among strangers when he and his family move East, since Coach Wieman has been a friend for years. And further, Dr. John E. Kuisenga and Dr. Sam Zwemer, both of Holland, are on the faculty of Princeton, and, undoubtedly, they will see much of each other. There are also Holland students who study at Princeton, and many Holland folks live in the East, especially in New Jersey, so there will be plenty of friends from this vicinity.

Despatches from Ann Arbor state as follows:

Cappon, one of Michigan's outstanding football players, had been a member of the Wolverine football coaching staff continuously since 1928, and head basketball coach since 1931. Prior to 1928 he had been head football coach at Luther College, Decorah, Iowa, and assistant coach at Michigan and head coach at the University of Kansas.

Cappon was one of the most versatile players in Wolverine gridiron history, playing end, halfback and fullback. In 1924 he was awarded the Western conference medal offered for the best athlete and scholar.

As an undergraduate he dropped out of school for one semester to act as head football coach at Luther College, and after his graduation, he returned to Luther as head football and basketball coach in 1924. The following year he returned to Michigan as end coach and assistant basketball coach. In 1926 he went to Kansas.

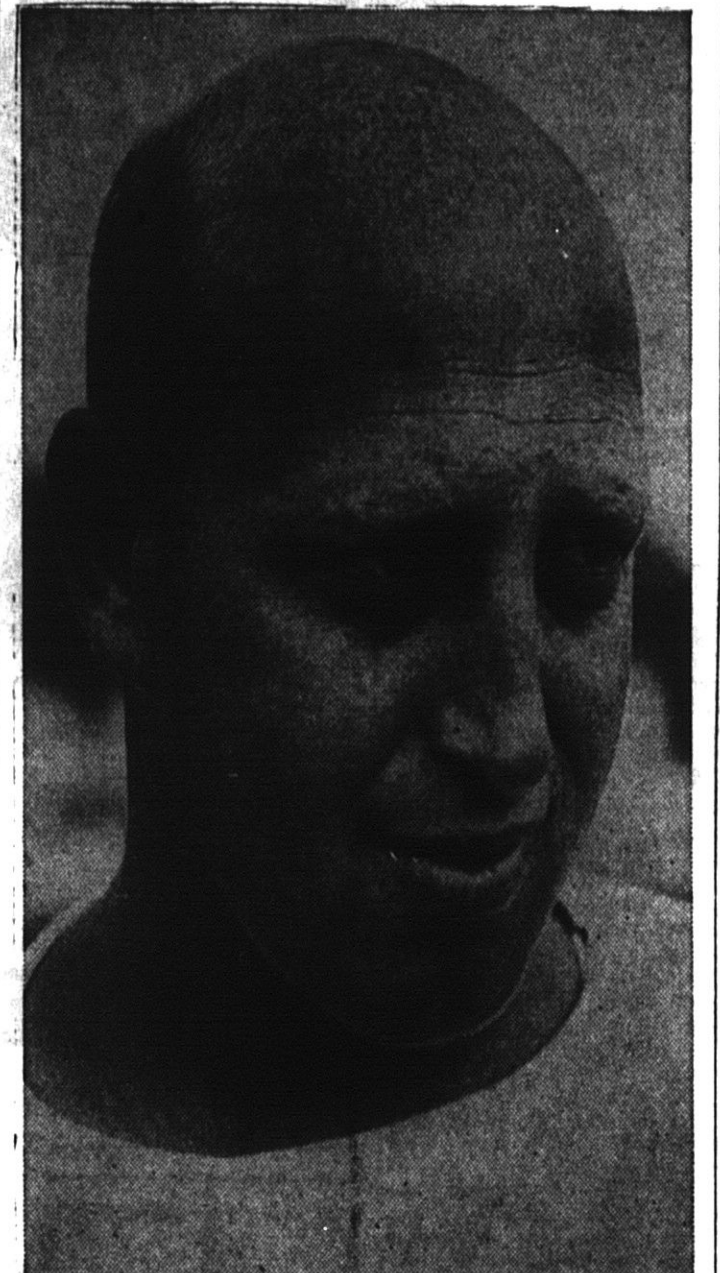

When Harry G. Kipke, then assistant football coach at Michigan, became head coach at Michigan State College in 1928, Cappon returned to Michigan to succeed him as backfield coach under Head Coach Elton T. (Tad) Wieman. Cappon continued as backfield coach when Kipke was appointed head coach. He also became assistant to Athletic Director Fielding H. Yost.

George Veenker resigned as head basketball coach in 1931, and Cappon succeeded him, continuing as football line coach.

Franklin C. Cappon of the University of Michigan was a member of Princeton's new football coaching staff, as announced by Prof. Burnham N. Bell, chairman of the Princeton university council on athletics.

In the despatches, the name of George Veenker, a graduate of Hope college, also appears. Veenker came from Sioux Falls, S. D., and it was during his career at Hope that the local college turned

Holland Boy Goes To Princeton University To Coach

FRANKLIN (CAPPY) CAPPON, MICHIGAN GRID AIDE

FIRST ROBINS GALORE

Mrs. Dick Vander Meer telephoned the News that she saw the first robin from her Central Park home. The "red breast" was perched on a telephone wire. She said in order to be sure, she brought out her field glasses, and sure enough, it was a robin, the harbinger of spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Cy Vande Luyster, who live on the edge of the woods on the old Zealand road, saw three robins, all chirping their lay, proclaiming that spring has come. It is also said that the bluebirds were out. It won't be long now, since the allotted time for the ground hog—shadow or no shadow—has passed. The last vestige of snow has also disappeared.

MEETING TUESDAY OF CHURCH SOCIETY

Mrs. J. Knoll was in charge of a program presented Tuesday night at Fourth Reformed church by the Women's League for Service. Mrs. C. Burman and Mrs. A. De Roos were in charge of devotions. The theme of the program was "Kentucky and Its Mountain Folk." Mrs. H. Mass played a number of Kentucky mountain hymns. Articles on the topic of the evening were read by Mrs. Fred Meyer and Mrs. M. Den Herder. Mrs. H. Van Dyke sang two solos, and played, "Larry Shall Have His Chance," was in charge of Mrs. Kammerager and Mrs. B. Kimber. Mrs. John Kobes concluded with a reading. Mrs. H. Mass, assisted by Mrs. Fred Meyer, was in charge of refreshments.

Out unbeatable teams. That was a long time ago.

Then George Veenker coached several high schools in the state of Illinois. He made an enviable record that brought him national fame when he was coach at Emerson High School at Gary, Ind. It was the outstanding teams that he turned out in both football and basketball that brought him to the attention of the Michigan scouts, and he was drafted into the services of Michigan athletics as coach of basketball and football, and made a fine record. He was also in the service of the United States Army during the World War, and that took him out of coaching for a short period. However, the name of George Veenker has been a high light in college athletics for some years.

It is quite a coincidence that another member of the Cappon family was a football star at Michigan. Although he is a brother-in-law, nevertheless he was the star player on the Michigan team some twenty years ago; and that was Johnny Maubusch. He played on the winning team as a star for two years. He married Miss Ida Cappon of Holland, sister of "Cappy" Cappon. Mrs. E. Paul McLean is also a sister-in-law.

Mr. Maubusch spent a great deal of time in Holland during his football days, and during his successful career at Michigan he was called "The Bullet" because of the speed with which he went through or around the end of the line. In those years he was selected in the All-American lineup on the mythical teams, and later coached at Phillips University at Enid, Oklahoma, and at John Marshall College at Huntington, West Va. Of course, now his football days are over and he is proprietor of a fine drug store in Huntington.

The sport fans of Holland and the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Cappon will be exceedingly pleased to hear that he is connected with the big, eastern University's athletic activities. Mrs. Cappon was formerly Miss Henrietta "Babe" Van Putten, sister of Mrs. John Riemersma, River Ave. Miss Lavina Cappon, instructor in Holland high school, is a sister of Franklin Cappon, and a sister-in-law of Mr. Maubusch.

Sirloin steak at 5c per pound and turkeys at 25c each is a market report that reached our desk from Mason County, Texas. But who wants to go to Texas to get Sunday's meat?

Electric candles are the sensation in Paris. They emit no heat, or smoke whatever while in brilliancy they hold the same ratio to gas and oil lamps, as sun to moonlight and they cost only one-fifth as much as gas. It is hailed as one of the greatest discoveries of the century. Note: That's something—electric candles even before Edison made his incandescent light and revolutionized light altogether. The incandescent light 50 years later is still the commercial light today with improvements of course. The first Edison incandescent light commercially used in Holland was at DeGrondevet, then owned by Lane Mulder, my father. These were installed by the Wolven Electric Light Co., with stations in the Al Huntley machine shop on West 7th Street, the present site of the Bowmaster building. Adam McNabb, bridge builder for the Chicago & West Michigan railroad, was one of the stockholders and Mrs. McNabb collected the light bills each month. The plant was purchased by the city when it installed its municipal plant.

The star hook and ladder company held its annual election of officers on Monday evening, which resulted as follows: Foreman, Al Finch; assistant foreman, Leendert Mulder; treasurer, John R. Kleyn; treasurer, John Hummel. Note: Mr. Finch was a stone mason, Mr. Hummel was publisher of De Grondevet. Mr. Kleyn was a contractor and builder, and Mr. Hummel was a tanner. The writer remembers father's large hard rubber helmet, his bright red shirt with blue stars, a large speaking trumpet with heavy silk cord with tassels. The outfit was hanging conveniently so father could slip into them quickly and run to the fire station—a block away—then at the northwest corner of "Public Square," Centennial park. The alarm was a bell in a stone tower on this wooden building which also housed the jail and council room. A fire at the east end was made known by the ringing of the bell in the church of "Big Pillars" (Van Raalte's church) now Ninth Street Christian Reformed church. On the west end the Cappon Bertsch Leather Co. whistle gave short blasts until all Holland was out in force.

John Knapp, 16 West 22nd St., announced Monday that crocus in his yard had opened.

Mrs. Belle Horlecher, 82, mother of Mrs. Arthur Muma, 293 Lincoln Ave., died Monday in Sumpter, S. C.

Three bald eagles have been reported seen near Chippewa Point, just off shore by Ira Antles, Ottawa County Conservation Officer.

Fifty Years Ago Today

Rev. T. Walker Jones, pastor of Hope church, presented his resignation to the consistory to take effect March 1st. Note: Mr. Jones was a wonderful man, loved by everyone here. Tragedy entered the home shortly before when his beautiful young daughter, Libbie Jones, drowned when she stepped from a pleasure steamer at the 5th St. dock. She fell between the wharf and steamer as it was being tied to the dock after returning from a picnic at Macatawa Park. The grave in Pilgrim Home Cemetery is still well marked, although the family moved East a half century ago. There was also a son, Ed Jones, who was the best baseball backstop in Holland's early-day baseball endeavor. Dr. Jones passed away many years ago. One daughter still survives, Miss Lillie Jones who was considered a most beautiful girl. She visited here recently and was the guest of Miss Kittie Doesburg, East 10th St.

Thirty-five licensed marine engineers reside in Sangcut, and nearly 100 lake-faring men live there besides during the winter. Note: Saugcut was the best marine town on the east shore in those days. It was headquarters for the building of large ships. One steamer, the City of Holland, built by the Holland capital, was built there and during the launching, half of Holland went there via horse and buggy, the only means of getting there over abominable sand roads. The Holland Martial Band was present with drum and pipe and the late Gerrit J. Diekema was the speaker of the day. The steamer was in commission between Holland and Chicago in time for the Columbian Exposition at Chicago, the finest World's fair of all time. It was seaworthy all right, but a tub in the water. It surely was a "seasick" craft.

Lockery hall, Grand Rapids, will be called the auditorium. Getting citified, it seems. Note: When the hall was built it was called Hartman's. It was the scene of many bitter political battles and especially so during the "Free silver" campaign between William McKinley and William Jennings Bryan. After his election for a second term he became a martyr to his country when a misguided youth by the name of "Schulz" shot him while the president was speaking at the Buffalo Exposition.

Miss Goldie Palmer, teacher in Laketown school, is entitled to much credit for the manner in which she carried out the Christmas program. Misses Mary Chatter and Clara Zwemer both contributed numbers to the program, which was well received.

The Citizens' Band held its annual meeting and the following officers were elected: President, Henry Wilson; vice president, Ben Veldman; secretary, Gerrit Henkel; librarian, Henry J. Wicker; manager, William Vander Hart; instructor, Frank Wurzburg of the big Wurzburg band of Grand Rapids.

The Misses Gertrude Boot, Kate Steketee and Ella Van Putten left recently for Ypsilanti to resume their studies.

Henry Geerlings delivered a talk to the eighth grade pupils in the local schools on the subject "Government of the City of Holland." Note—Now that he is mayor for another two years it is well for him to revive that speech for education of the eighth graders 30 years later.

The old Walsh De Roo—Milling Co., once one of Holland's main industries, idle for some time, will be started up again. I. Muller and J. Leenhouts have purchased the property and will call it the Standard Milling Co. Parts of the old mill have been remodeled and electric power will be installed. Other parts of the structure will be dismantled and the mill will be largely used to handle mill stuffs, feed grinding for both wholesale and retail trade, besides handling several brands of flour. Note—This old mill has been developed into a sizeable business under the name of the Standard Grocery Co. Mr. Muller, the father, passed away some time ago and now one daughter and two sons are making, in fact, have made the enterprise an excellent growing concern. They handle a large line of groceries and food-stuff and are in charge of the I.G.A. system covering a large area in Michigan including Ottawa and Allegan counties. Mr. Rendert Muller is the grocer of a great deal of the I.G.A. merchandising here.

Twenty Years Ago Today

There were four fires recorded in one day on Jan. 3, 1918. The first was James B. Brown's garage, East 9th St.; the second was in the home of Dick Van Lente on Central Ave., across from the park; a third a chimney fire on 2nd St.; and a fourth was the explosion of an oil stove in the home of Mr. Duitz, near the P. M. tracks on 14th St. The last fire was most serious. The head of the house took the burning stove and fired it through the upper window to the ground below, but he was severely burned as he did so. The burned man then put the fire out in a bedroom where bedding and mattress had taken fire. The fire "ladies" surely had their hands full that day.

Holland boys were in a raid on the Mexican boundary line. The cavalry of the Second squadron, which included the local men, was ordered to charge a large contingent of Mexican bandits on the other side of the Rio Grande into Mexico. The locals received their first baptism of fire but no casualties were reported. However, at least 6 Mexicans were killed and several wounded. The Holland boys were Carroll Van Ark, Harold Lage, C. De Jongh, James G. Weersing and Peter N. Prins. The soldiers ran into an ambush with 80 Mexican cattle thieves. Machine gun fire from American troops soon scattered the raiders who left their dead behind.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Sixty ton of carp have been taken from Black Lake so far this winter. The heavy fall of snow will stop netting for a few weeks or more.

The store at Overisel was entered and a gun and $5.00 was taken. The same night the store in Fillmore, conducted by Zoot Bros., was also entered and $30. and a quantity of cigarettes were taken. Sheriff Ben Lugten is taking care of the case. No doubt the same parties did the work. The two stores are but two miles apart.

In an accident which occurred late Saturday night, a car driven by Marinus Donze, rural route No. 2, struck a Pere Marquette train at the Ottawa Beach shortcut road crossing near Waverly. No one riding in the Donze car was injured, although the car was badly damaged.

Local Spring Primary Is Tame Affair

MANY OF THE CANDIDATES
HAVE NO OPPOSITION: AL-
DERMEN IN ONE WARD
RUN TIE

The spring Primaries in Holland held last Monday were about as uneventful as any in years. The total vote cast was approximately 1,920, less than a third of the city's registered vote.

Mayor Geerlings was re-elected for two years without opposition. City Treasurer, Henry Beckers, was also re-elected for two years without opposition.

James De Young, the veteran member of the Board of Public Works was re-elected for five years.

John Galien, today a Justice of the Peace, was re-elected to that office for a term of five years, also without opposition.

These unopposed candidates practically received all the votes, ranging from 1,748 for Mayor, to 1,648 for Justice.

For Supervisor, two-year term, Abel Postma succeeds William Brusse winning over the present incumbent in the city by a vote of 1,023 to 801. Mr. Postma is, therefore, elected.

For Board of Police and Fire Commissioners there was no member up for re-election. They were all new candidates. In the vote, Herman Prins, automobile man of the first ward, won the election "hands down." His total vote in the city was 1,096. His nearest opponent was James Borr, who received a vote of 398. Tom White was a close follow-up with 383. Mr. Prins, having enough votes to elect him, is the next commissioner on the Police and Fire Board.

There was only one vote in the entire city where there was no election. This was for Supervisor for one term. In this contest, Neil De Cook received 782 votes; Ray Nies, 647 votes, Herman Van Tongeren, 522 votes. All of them having less than one-third of the vote cast, the names of the three will have to be placed on the April ballot, and they will have to try conclusions again to see who is the best man.

For aldermen there were also some offices not contested for. Henry Prins, present alderman, had no opposition and is, therefore, re-elected by a vote of 199 in the first ward.

Cornelius Kalkman also had no opposition in the second ward, and was re-elected by 42 votes.

There were contests in the other wards. In the third ward, Martin Oudemool, contractor on 47 West 15th St., had a spirited contest with Dick Zwip, business man on West 16th St. Mr. Oudemool was elected by the narrow margin of 10 votes. The vote stood Oudemool, 157; Zwip, 147. Mr. Oudemool is re-elected.

There was also a spirited contest in the fourth ward between Henry Ketel, Joe White, Peter J. Hiemenga, and Nick Brouwer, all new "timbers," to take the place of George Damson, who moved out of the ward. The vote stood: Ketel, 145; White, 97; Hiemenga, 84; and Brouwer, 74. Mr. Ketel and Mr. White are the two men who qualified and their names will appear for alderman of the fourth ward on the ballot during the April 4 election.

There was a "battle royal" in the fifth ward between Jacob Bultman, the present alderman; John Menken, Bert Welton, and Rudolph Brink. The results show Bultman to have 187 in the two precincts; John Menken, 175; Welton, 114; and Brink, 67. The two to qualify are Bultman and Menken, and the result will be known after the election on April 4.

There was quite a coincidence in the sixth ward aldermanic election, with two candidates in the field. Frank Smith, present alderman, and Henry Cook, were "even Stevens," each receiving 175 votes. That surely is an unusual result, and Frank and Herman will have to try all over again to find out which of the two can break the tie in April.

The Primaries Monday were about as uneventful as any up to this time. It was hardly noticeable that an election was in progress except that flags were out at the polling places, and the usual instruction ballots were pasted up on the windows in the different precincts.

The usual crowd congregating after the polls have closed also did not materialize Monday night.

MEDICAL ASSOCIATION HOLDS MEETING HERE

Tuesday noon the Ottawa County Medical association held a meeting in Warm Friend Tavern. The main speaker at the luncheon was Dr. Kenneth L. Burt, who is pathologist at the Michigan Tuberculosis Sanitarium at Howell, Res.

Dr. Gerrit J. Kemme of Drenthe, association president, was in charge of the meeting. Dr. H. P. Harm secured the speaker for the occasion. A committee, headed by Dr. William Weststrate of Holland, and including Dr. Iva M. Lickly of Grand Haven, and Dr. C. Boone of Zeeland, will co-operate with Dr. Alexander Campbell of Grand Rapids in studying maternal health in this county.

Dr. Holmes of Muskegon addressed the medical auxiliary at the same time in the Tavern on the subject, "Syphilis." Mrs. Gerrit J. Kemme was chosen to replace Mrs. Ralph Ten Have as president, and Mrs. Harold De Vries was elected secretary-treasurer.

HEN LAYS SUPER EGG, THEN DIES

Production by a hen belonging to William E. Marshall of Easton, Mass., of an egg 1 1/2 inches in circumference one way and nine inches the other proved the climax of her egg-laying career. The hen died next day.

INVITE PRESIDENT ROOSE- VELT TO GO FISHING HERE

The officials of the Holland Fish and Game Club, hearing that President Roosevelt was planning a trip through Michigan in the summer, conceived the idea to have him make a side-trip to Holland during his tour and put in a few hours of fishing on Lake Macatawa. In order to do the thing up right they had a membership card printed with the picture of Roosevelt printed in a tint on the top side of the card. The card was numbered "1," made out to Franklin Delano Roosevelt, President of the United States, signed by Secretary, Henry Vander Schel.

On the opposite side in a pale green is printed the picture of an Indian village, braves, squaws, wigwams, river, forest, a typical Indian scene. In small type at the bottom of this picture is printed: "He took no more than he needed. Save Our Game." The membership card was sent by air mail Tuesday, and a reply was hoped for in time for the banquet. From the accompanying letter the President will understand that with the membership in the Holland Fish and Game Club there will always be a fishing license attached, allowing him to fish in Michigan waters. The membership as well as the license is extended with the compliments of the local organization.

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL FISH BANQUET NOW IN PROGRESS

As the Holland City News goes to press at 6:30, the Holland Fish and Game club banquet also started at the Holland Armory promptly at that time. Every available ticket, 750 in number, has been taken up and there were even more requests, but, as has been said before, this number constitutes all the cover room, and there were no more places available.

The program for tonight is on Sepia cover, with a fine black bass as the main attraction. An Indian page with the following inscription: "He took no more than he needed. Save Our Game." On page two, the menu appears beginning with fruit cocktail, then chicken and mashed potatoes, a liberal list of vegetables, and plenty of pie, served by the ladies of the Sixth Reformed church; and music by the American Legion Band.

The chairman of the evening is Jake Lieverse, Prof. Egbert Winter of Hope College, is toastmaster; and H. H. Wittey of Dowagiac is the speaker of the evening. "Eddie" Landwehr is showing some hunting scenes in the West and A. C. Paquin is substituting these movies with some from the state.

Jerry Houting is leading group singing: Gordon Vanden Brink is giving a solo, accompanied by Wilbur Jacobs; and Rev. J. Vander Beek, pastor of the Sixth Reformed Church, is in charge of devotions.

As was stated in last week's issue, there are nine honored guests from the Conservation Department.

Officers of the local club are: Jake Lieverse, president; S. H. Houtman, vice president; C. Van Dyke, treasurer; H. Vander Schel, secretary; directors—Sam Althuis, C. De Waard, Ted Wyma, Dr. Otto Vander Velde, George Vrieling, and George Tubergan.

HOME FURNACE CO. ESTAB- LISHES SHOW ROOM IN HO- TEL NEHERLANDS

Up until noon today, 73 registrations had been received at the Hotel Netherlands, River Ave. and Ninth St., for the convention of the Home Furnace Co. sales and organization staff which is being held there. The convention includes representatives from Michigan and northern Indiana, including such cities as Fort Wayne, South Bend, Angola, Ind., and Bay City, Owosso, Pontiac, Grand Rapids, and Holland, Michigan.

First delegates to the convention arrived Monday night, although the first group meetings were held Wednesday throughout the day at the Woman's Literary club, and at the Hotel Netherlands.

Besides the convention meetings, all models, including fixtures, air conditioning units, and furnaces, made by the local concern, are on display in the display exhibit hall in the basement of the Netherlands Hotel. This display will be permanent at this location in this local hotel, until the new Home Furnace display room is completed. The exhibit will be open to the public during Tulip Time, A. A. Elmbaas of Grand Rapids, sales manager of the company, announced today. One of the air-conditioning units was in operation at the hotel during the convention. The display is indeed an advantageous way in which to demonstrate units created by the Home Furnace people. At least 125 delegates were expected before the close of the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Assenheim, proprietors of the hotel, are proving general hosts to the convention guests. All of whom were enthusiastic about the convention facilities in the city and at the hotel.

Last February 21st, a meeting of the Home Furnace Co. stockholders was held in the exhibit hall in the hotel, where all the equipment and models sold by the company are on display. About 35 items are exhibited. Many new features are included in the display, which accounts for the substantial increase in net sales which the company enjoyed during the past year.

The Board of Directors of the Home Furnace Co. includes the following: Mr. Daniel Ten Cate, President; Mr. E. P. Stephens, Vice President; Mr. James De Young, Secretary and Treasurer, and Mr. Clarence J. Becker, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. John W. De Vries, Mr. Henry Luidens, Mr. C. E. Becker, Mr. Marinus C. Weststrate, and Mr. Otto P. Kramer complete the Board of Directors.

Former Local Woman Passes Away In Texas

HER PASSING BRINGS HIS-
TORIC REMINDERS. FUNERAL
SATURDAY

Word has been received that Mrs. Grace H. Mollering passed away in San Angelo, Texas, Tuesday. She formerly was Miss Grace Kellogg, a Holland girl, who received her fundamental education in our public schools. The parents lived in Holland until the time of their death, and Mr. Kellogg was an expert furniture maker and draftsman at the West Michigan Furniture Co. for several years, and nearly up to the time of his death.

William B. Kellogg, a brother, is now head of the Houston Telephone Co. of Texas, and is a man of prominence in this large southern city. Many older residents of Holland will remember that "Bill" Kellogg received his first telephone training with the Bell Telephone Co. in Holland. Vaudie Vanden Berg, this morning, related a co-incidence about how a straw can change the destiny of a young man's life. He stated that there had been a request for a night boy at the local Bell Telephone Co. Both "Bill" Kellogg and he saw the request and the two friends talked to one another about it, and then they pulled straws to see who was to be first to apply for the job. Young "Bill" Kellogg pulled the successful straw and got the position, and he has been with the Bell Telephone Company ever since.

The Kelloggs were also prominent in Grand Rapids. In writing about the death of the Texas lady the Grand Rapids Press gives the following:

Mrs. Grace Helen Mollering, a former resident of Grand Rapids, died Tuesday in San Angelo, Tex. Her father was DeForest Clark Kellogg, who settled in Grand Rapids in 1862. Kellogg St., S. E., was named after her grandfather. Her grandfather purchased a farm in the early sixties on a site bounded on the south by what is now known as Cherry St., on the west by Union Ave., on the north by Fulton St., and on the east by Packard Ave. Kellogg St. runs through the center of the original plot and the old Kellogg homestead still is standing.

The body is being brought here by her brother, W. B. Kellogg, division traffic superintendent for the Bell Telephone Co. at Houston, Tex., the only survivor.

The funeral services will be held at Bardall Chapel in Grand Rapids at 10:00 o'clock Saturday morning. Interment will take place at Oak Hill Cemetery, where Mrs. Mollering will be buried in the Kellogg plot where both her father and her husband are buried.

Mrs. Mollering was chief telephone operator at LaPorte, Texas, not far from Houston.

Besides her brother, William B. Kellogg of Houston, Texas, she is survived by an uncle, Fred Kellogg; an aunt, Mrs. W. A. Kellogg; and two cousins, Mabel Kellogg and Ad Kellogg, all of South Haven.

A large number from Holland who knew the Kellogg family will go to Grand Rapids Saturday to attend the rites. The pallbearers are all from Holland. They are: Peter Notter, Dick Boter, George Schurman, Henry Steketee, Vaudie Vanden Berg, and Ben Vanden Berg.

MOTHER OF HOLLAND MAN STARTED LADIES AID AT ZEELAND

The parlors of First Reformed Church, Zeeland, was the scene of a pleasant gathering last Thursday evening when more than 100 men and women were present in celebration of the 27th anniversary of the Ladies Aid Society.

Michigan was the theme of the banquet, and a menu of articles from Michigan cities was served. The program was opened with prayer by Rev. John Van Peursem followed by the reading of a address by the president, Mrs. F. Madderom. Group singing was led by Milan Vuyder. Music was rendered by Gerald Vande Vusse.

The main feature of the program was a travelogue presented by Mr. Walter Van Hattena on "Seeing America First." He also showed some interesting local pictures of snow scenes.

This organization was started in 1911 under the direction of Mrs. Paul F. Cheff with 17 charter members. The first officers were: Mrs. Cheff, president; Mrs. W. Kamperman, vice president; Mrs. Gerrit Van Dyke, secretary, and Miss Maggie Elzinga, treasurer. Mrs. Cheff is the wife of Rev. Paul F. Cheff, one-time pastor of Hope church, and also at Zeeland. William M. Connelly

It is with deep regret that this city is advised that William M. Connelly, Director of the Holland Chamber of Commerce, has sent in his resignation after five years of faithful and untiring service. Much has been accomplished during these five years despite the fact that his coming was at a period when the nation, the state, and this city were in the grip of the most stressful period of all time.

The time was not very auspicious to become a head of a Chamber of Commerce. It is not necessary to stress this fact, remembering the financial, industrial, and commercial nightmare that beset this and other cities throughout the nation. Despite the fact that courage was at a low ebb and the Holland Chamber of Commerce was only a name, with less than nothing in the treasury—the whole presented a picture that was not very reassuring.

Mr. Connelly looked over the situation, believed in Holland, believed in the men and women who promised to support him and his efforts, and believed in his own ability to put the thing over. A retrospect covering these five years, as this relates to the Holland Chamber of Commerce, shows conclusively that Director Connelly has not only made good, but his accomplishments far exceeded the expectations of the members of the Chamber and the fair-thinking citizens of this community.

It is evident that the confidence in him of those who fostered his coming was not misplaced. Briefly, when Mr. Connelly arrived, there were many empty factory buildings in which no wheels had turned for some time. These industrial possibilities as they were, were a drug on the market, were non-tax-paying, and proved to be liabilities at the time that was far-reaching. Constant activity, however, tremendous up-hill work, intensive cultivation, started the seed of our industrial well-being to germinate. Very slowly at first, but with increased cultivation, industrial prospects one by one became facts. Empty factory buildings were filled, idle wheels began turning, and today there is not a factory once idle in Holland that cannot be considered a going concern. These several plants during this period of five years have given gainful employment to more than a thousand employees. The purchasing power through this avenue in the city of Holland is a sizeable sum indeed. Building activities, added taxes, and the indirect benefits of these revived industries are far reaching.

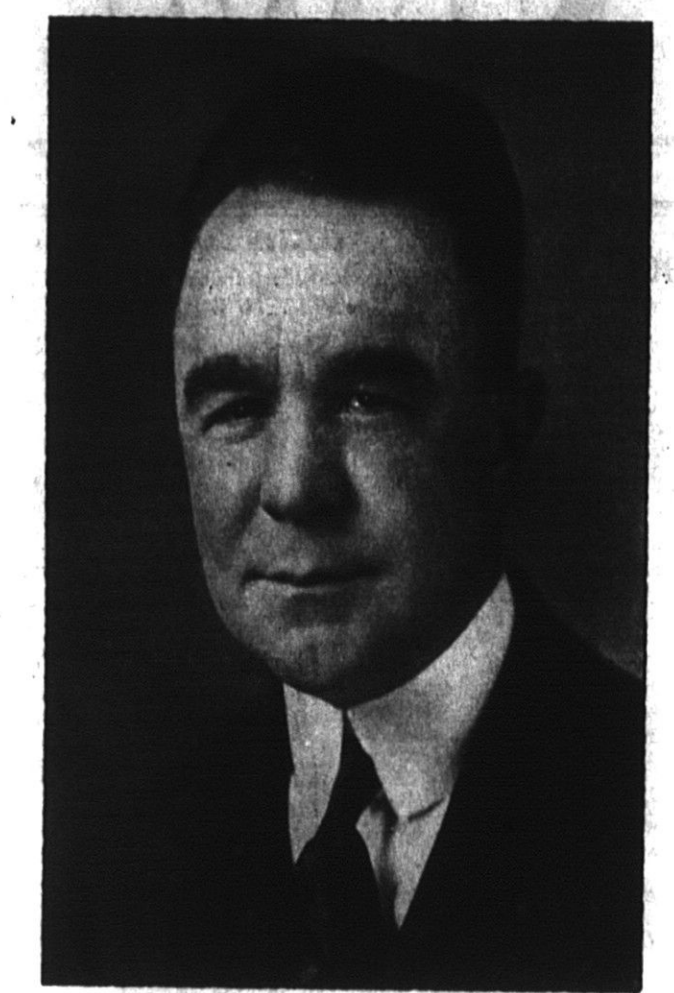

The good roads program launched by Mr. Connelly and his aids has been real constructive. In fact, the eventual building of M-40 had been anticipated and hoped for covering a period of more than 30 years. It was after concerted effort that this road possibility is no longer a dream but the beginning of a gigantic road program that extends from Holland, the northern terminal, to Toledo, the southern terminal of a highway that will eventually connect up with the super-highways that today extend from the Atlantic to the Pacific Coast.

Not so long ago the Michigan-Erie road connecting the two fresh-water seas was only an imaginary line on paper extending from Holland to Toledo. The first lap from this city via Hamilton to Allegan with the necessary bridges has already been constructed. Many a stretch has been laid further south and the time is not far distant when this "dream road" will have become a reality. Other road activities have been numerous. The widening of U.S.-31 north, building of the new U.S.-31 to Saginaw, the proposed M-21 between Holland and Grand Rapids, either had their inception here or were fostered by the Holland Chamber of Commerce.

The accomplishments of this Chamber of Commerce, if given in detail would read more like an inventory sheet. The tremendous detail connected with the office, the meeting of representatives from other cities, the staging of convocations, the contacting of prospective industrial possibilities, the endless correspondence, the traveling necessary to keep up these contacts, are only a few of the more pretentious undertakings that a chamber of commerce must take care of. However, this mass of detail is vital to the life and well-being of an organization of this kind.

We could go on indefinitely telling of these things but it would

WILLIAM M. CONNELLY

A few days ago the many friends and associates of Mr. William M. Connelly of the Chamber of Commerce were advised that he had decided to resign as Director of the Holland Chamber, the resignation to take effect July 31st, the end of the fiscal year. It goes without saying that Mr. Connelly's resignation came as a tremendous surprise and regret to the board of directors, to the members of this business body, to the tulip time committee, and to the citizens in general.

Vaudie Vanden Berg, president of the Holland Chamber of Commerce, stated, "Mr. Connelly's announcement came like lightning from a clear sky. He has been very fair, however, in taking charge of the approaching Tulip Time, and is remaining long enough afterward to settle up affairs connected with the festival, and besides finishing up the fiscal year. We have made no plans for the future and will not for some time to come, since Mr. Connelly will still be with us for nearly five months."

Mr. Connelly came to Holland in 1933 from Spring Lake. For eighteen years he was a member of the Ottawa County Road Commission and has done a great deal for road work, not only in Ottawa County but throughout the state. Mr. Connelly believed and advocated concrete for trunkline highways. In fact, he was so enthusiastic that his colleagues in the state senate, where he was a member for some time, christened him "Concrete Connelly." Mr. Connelly also served in Grand Haven as president of the Chamber of Commerce and did a great deal in building Spring Lake as a summer resort when he was a resident on that lake.

Mr. Connelly's resignation, as sent to the different members of the board of directors of the Holland Chamber of Commerce gives the details fully.

His letter, dated March 3, 1938, and addressed to "The Board of Directors," follows:

"The people of Holland have been exceedingly kind to me; the members of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce most loyal; the members of the Tulip Time committee such willing aides; and the press unstinting in its support. The foregoing facts, plus my realization of the colossal task of preparing for our annual tulip festival dissuaded me from resigning last December.

"I now tender my resignation to take effect at the close of the fiscal year, July 31. This will provide time to close the accounts for the coming festival and the annual audit will co-incide with the termination of my tenure of office.

"Doubtless you would like to know my reasons for resigning. My reply is: I feel that with all former vacant factories occupied, with our outstandingly successful home building drive, with the letting of the harbor improvements, and numerous minor achievements, the program we began nearly five years ago has been well rounded out, save the partially completed highway plan, which we have reason to believe will go forward as funds become available."

It goes without saying that Mr. Connelly could not have done all this work single-handed and alone. He does not lay claim to this; in fact, he is modest that way. What he did do, however, was to marshal about him men and women of ability, influence, and constructive thought. Mr. Connelly has the faculty to lead and at the same time keep fifty or more persons intensely interested in Chamber of Commerce activities and the ultimate achievements.

Knowing many of the average directors of chambers of commerce, few can be found having the ability to enlist a community, and to keep them interested and enthused for a period of five years without having laggards in the ranks. Holland was not only getting the services of Mr. Connelly, but his services were being augmented by scores of others, who gave of their efforts gratuitously and enthusiastically.

The position of a director of a chamber of commerce is possibly the most trying of any public position. The accomplishments are soon forgotten if the results lag but for a moment. The achievements of a director of a chamber of commerce can easily be paralleled with the achievements of a baseball star. When the baseball star wins games will be received "hosannas," but let him lose and it's pop bottles. There are too many well-meaning but short-sighted folks who expect a chamber of commerce to land a new industry every week, not figuring that there are a thousand cities in competition.

Today Holland has another problem. The once empty factory buildings now filled eliminate any possibilities of securing industries, with no available buildings for industrial housing or the erection of more buildings, and how to get money for such purposes is a real problem, and is one of the difficulties that face a director of a chamber of commerce.

In this article we have endeavored to eliminate figures as much as possible. We do not wish to lose the thought of showing the real worth of Mr. Connelly by drowning out these accomplishments in a labyrinth of figures. We can only say finally that the work of the director is constant, there are no office hours, his work has been from early morn 'till late at night.

We feel that "Bill" Connelly has served Holland well, his accomplishments will be felt for years to come, and his efforts and his perseverance have taught others a great deal as to how a city's industrial planning should be done. There are a great many men and women today who have a better insight as to what Holland needs, and how to go about supplying these needs, than they ever had before, and whoever steps into Mr. Connelly's shoes will surely start out more auspiciously than did the retiring head of the Holland Chamber of Commerce, who started from "scratch."

We wish to say finally that it is with deep regret that we announce the resignation of William M. Connelly.

Our 7th annual Hello America program of the V. F. W. was broadcast on the air February 28th at 11:30 to 12:30 P. M. and surely had a wonderful program. After a selection by Eddie Duchon's famous orchestra, known as the Magic Fingers of the radio, our National Auxiliary President, Mrs. Laurie Scherette of California, gave us a talk on the experiences of mothers of World War veterans during the war, and the work the auxiliary is doing for our widows and orphans and disabled war veterans, explaining our national home at Eaton Rapids, also mentioning Public contributions toward the home by buying Buddy Poppies on Poppy Day. After a selection by the United States Navy Band, United States Senator Wm. G. McAdoo was introduced as the main speaker. He gave a talk on 162 years ago and at present on the preparedness of our country. Mr. McAdoo was secretary of the treasury during the war. That's when our song, "All We Do is Sign The Pay Roll," originated. Then Henry Busse gave us a real treat with his hot trumpet and his orchestra from the Ches Pares night club of Chicago, followed by the U. S. Navy Band, followed by a dance and music by Ruby Newman's orchestra in the Rainbow Room of Radio City, New York. Our commander-in-chief, Scott P. Squires was then introduced and ready to give the Obligation over the Air to our new members in the V.F.W. 18,000 of them from over 36,000 posts in America. Then a brief talk on the V.F.W.—also known as the Gold Chevron Organization, started in 1899, covering all veterans of all hostilities on foreign soil or waters. ALLEGAN FARMERS TO USE EROSION CONTROL PRACTICES

It's a little early to plow the fields for this year's crops, but many Allegan County farmers are inquiring about erosion control practices that can be put into effect on their farms this spring.

One of the reasons for this interest in changing tillage practices is that a good many Allegan farmers visited the Benton Harbor Conservation plots in 1937.

The work of the project is demonstrated on these visits they saw some form with row crops on the contour. They saw steep hillsides with strips of erosion-resistant crops alternated with strips of clean-tilled row crops. They saw long slopes with a combination of erosion control practices in operation including terraces, strip cropping and contour farming.

Fruit men have found that when erosion goes up fruit yields come down. Soil erosion is one of the greatest hazards now confronting the fruit industry of the county.

More than 100 Berrien County farmers are co-operating in these demonstrations and have come to the conclusion that conservation of soil also conserves moisture, so much needed by the fruit crop.

of security and protection of U. Anybody listening to this obligation and whether asked or not, should not hesitate, and join up with the Veterans of Foreign Wars. When the National Broadcasting Co., U. S. Navy Band and other musicals and speakers can donate their services on a nation-wide hook-up for one full hour we should also do something. The broadcast alone meant a donation of about $2,000. That ought to be an organization one could be proud to belong to.

Our Greyhound agent, Fritz Sundin, said he would be glad to furnish a Greyhound for the delegates to get to our next West Michigan County Council at Muskegon. Too bad it looks like group 1 and 2 will furnish the fish fry and entertainment for group 3. Come on it may not be too late yet boys.

Looks like our Quartermaster H. Klomprens, being a loser in our membership drive, will now have to donate some of his stock from the store. Too bad, Henry.

If you see our Commander, and Past Commander going down the street with fish poles, that means they admit they are the losers, and are out after a big mess of fish.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary group headed by Mrs. Nell Klomprens will sponsor a bridge and 500 party at her home on East 24th St. next week Thursday afternoon, March 17th, St. Patrick's Day.

Kazoo Defeats
Dutch in Hard
Fight at CivicHope Basketeers Crushed
By Hot Hornets,
44-31

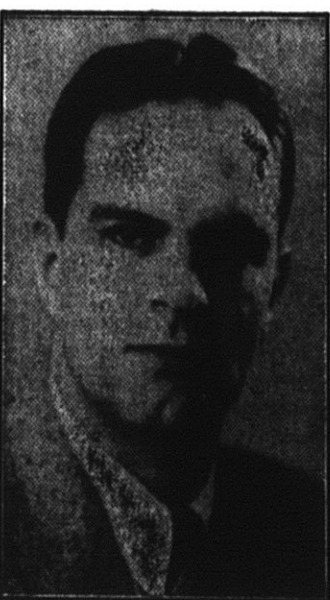

—Hope Anchor.

Hope college's basketball team today was the dethroned champion of the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

In Hope's place, Kalamazoo's Hornets sat as cage champions for the first time since 1930. The boys coached by Chet Barnard won the honors in the third playoff in the history of the M.I.A.A. before almost 4,000 people in the Civic Auditorium in Grand Rapids Monday night, 44-31.

Kalamazoo played the best basketball last night, and went home with the second M.I.A.A. championship this season. The Hornets topped the football title last fall. By their victory last night, the paper city school stepped definitely ahead of other league schools in the race for the all-sports trophy, won from them last year by Hope.

Outside of a single basket advantage at the start of the game

Coach Milton (Bud) Hinga

Mon. night, the Dutchmen never held a lead. Kalamazoo built up a 7-2 lead before Hope scored again.

Hornets Lead at Half
Brannock dropped his second basket of the evening, and it was a signal for the Hornets to get under way. With Jones, Howard, Spalsbury and Hunt all contributing, the Kalamazoo quintet battered the basket to lead 18-4 with six minutes left in the first half. Hope staged a rally, with Lee Brannock getting most of the points, but fell short at 18-9, and 22-12 at half time.

Brannock was the star of the ball game for the Hope team. He kept the locals in the ball game in the first half by scoring the first nine Hope points. His play was outstanding as he totaled 15 points for the evening's work.

Outside of Brannock, the local players had trouble hitting the hoop. Until the second half, only De Groot, outside of Hope's sophomore pivot man, was able to hit the hoop at all. Although scoring was distributed in the second half, Hope's attack never functioned at its best, while the Kalamazoo quintet maintained its first-half advantage most of the game.

Dutchmen Make Bid
Hope made its greatest bid immediately after the start of the second half. Marcus scored on two free throws, but Spalsbury countered with a fast break. Brannock then got two baskets, and the locals had whittled the lead to 23-18.

Wood got a basket from under the hoop, but Brannock scored a foul, and Thomas dropped a basket to put Hope within reach at 25-21. From there on, however, Kalamazoo came back into fast action and outscored the Dutch to gain their 13-point margin at the end of the game.

Spalsbury Leads Kazoo
Spalsbury stood out for the Hornets. He dropped 17 points through the hoop to lead the Kalamazoo attack. Howard also stood out in the game. His floor play with that of Jones under both baskets accounted for much of the Hornet ball control. With the two men caging the ball from off the board, Hope's five found itself playing a defensive game.

The game ended the season for the local players, and ended the career of Don Thomas, only Hope senior. Hope now roosts in second place, and although the Dutch failed to gain recognition as the first team to take two cage titles in succession in more than a decade, the boys maintained Coach Bud Hinga's record of never falling below third in the league since he became coach here.

USE EVERY PRECAUTION
AGAINST SMALLPOX

A second case of smallpox has occurred in Ottawa County. The first case occurred in Holland City two weeks ago, and the second case in Holland Township. There does not appear to be any connection between the two, and neither has the source of either been determined. Undoubtedly contact with cases which have not come to the attention of the Health Department have occurred in both cases.

Since it is evident that there is more smallpox than has been discovered, it is strongly advised to use the one effective means of preventing further spread of this disease, which is vaccination. Unless one has had a successful vaccination within the past five years, it is advisable to be revaccinated to determine whether or not there is complete protection against smallpox.

RETURN FROM SOUTH AMERICA

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hutchinson returned Monday from their trip to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, on the steamship Normandie. En route the boat stayed at a day each in Trinidad, Nassau, the islands and St. Pierre, Martinique. In Rio the temperature was 115 in the shade and the city was full of soldiers to guard against trouble that might arise from the recent governmental changes. The trip was delightful but Mr. Hutchinson says it feels good to be back home. Martinique, it will be remembered some 30 years ago was visited by a volcanic eruption that destroyed the large city at its base, and all but one person perished, and he was a prisoner in a cave.

REGAL PYTHON OF INDIA—
LARGEST OF ALL SNAKES

By Jack Peterson, Recreation Leader of the WPA

After years of contact with many types of snakes, the most fascinating to me are the giant snakes of India, Africa and South America. The Regal Python of India, the largest of them all, reaches a length of 30 feet, so it is claimed. A weight of over 300 pounds is also claimed. The largest I have handled was 23 feet, 4 inches long, and weighed 292 pounds. The iridescent bloom of the skin of this snake when healthy, has all the colors of the rainbow, and is most beautiful to see. When first brought to this country he is liable to be very nervous and irritable and refuse to eat. This is remedied by force-feeding, which sometimes creates an appetite. After two or three feedings, by sympathetic care and gentleness, this large snake can sometimes be handled. The average large snake which is shown in the side show of a carnival, though advertised as 40 feet, are about 16 feet in length. If the attendant is asked to measure the reptile he'd refuse of course. That would be poor business for the show. In next week's column the whole story of force-feeding will be told.

Added Warning
Do not pick up snakes you do not recognize.

Two Thousand
Pheasants In One Flock
In Allegan County

If a hunter came back from the fields and woods with a tale of having seen a "hundred" pheasants, he would likely be placed in the same category as the fisherman who tells about the giant that got away.

But residents of Allegan county have been enjoying a sight that would make an even taller tale. A flock of pheasants estimated at between 2,000 and 2,500 birds has been wintering on two sections of rich muckland occupied by the A. M. Todd farm, which is a wildlife sanctuary three miles southwest of Fennville. From the road hundreds of pheasants can often be seen feeding in the fields of standing corn or rooting in the willow brush along the ditch banks. And counts by investigators from the game division of the department of conservation indicate that there are nearly as many cocks as hens in the flock, which suggests that hunting on the surrounding land does not take a very large proportion of the birds on the sanctuary.

Allegan county is beginning to be considered a mecca for wildlife protected by law. Deer abound, in fact, over about and what 8500 pheasants would do to a corn wheat field is for the Allegan farmers to find out. Some are now having trouble with deer and celery.

DOG RUNNING DONE MAR. 15

Owners of hunting dogs have only until March 15 for training their animals in the fields and woods, according to the state law. By statute the season ends on that date, but the state director of conservation is authorized to issue permits for field trials conducted by recognized clubs. Last year such permits were issued up to April 15. Several trials have been scheduled in different parts of the state for running within the next few weeks.

The number of teachers who retired with annuities during the year ended June 30, 1937: 113.
The balance on hand in the Retirement Fund available for the payment of annuities on June 30, 1937: $460,667.63.

FARM SOIL ACT
HAS NEW PHASES

Linking together phases of soil conservation and an attempt to insure normal production and marketing of cereals and livestock for meat is the goal of the 1938 federal farm act in which more than 100,000 Michigan farmers are expected to participate.

Possibility of attaining payment from the government of several million dollars is one feature. M. A. Doan, Lansing, chairman of the Michigan agricultural conservation committee, sees far more benefits than the dollars and cents which farmers may get in government checks.

"Recent heavy rains and floods in Michigan have been proof of the value of better farming methods," Doan asserts.

"Fields which were planted last fall with recommended winter cover crops lost far less topsoil than open stubble of corn fields or bare fields from which crops were harvested last fall. Michigan farmers largely have been good farmers because of the livestock and dairy business. The soil conservation work is convincing other types of farmers as well."

Provisions of the new federal farm act for 1938 include seeking an ever normal granary of food and feed grain supplies. Henry A. Wallace, secretary of agriculture, sees in the plan the goal of aiding both consumers and farmers in buying or selling food at fair prices.

The plan also carries on the stimulation of soil conservation for more efficient production now and for posterity.

County and local committees throughout the state are to be furnished information to pass along to individual farmers as soon as additional details of the plan are approved.

All Fishing Is Ended
Until April 30

Fishing ends this month in all inland lakes in Michigan though it is still permissible in non-trout streams, for certain species, and in the Great Lakes and connecting waters.

Designated pike lakes in the lower peninsula were closed to all fishing March 2 and will remain closed until April 30. Designated pike lakes in the upper peninsula will be closed to all fishing from March 16 to May 14. Designated trout lakes will open to fishing April 30 but all other lakes will remain closed to all fishing from April 1 to June 24.

Bluegill, sunfish and warmouth bass are among those species which may not be taken after this month in any waters until June 25.

Northern pike, walleyed pike, muskellunge and yellow perch are this year protected by a closed season in inland waters, corresponding with the closed season on designated pike lakes in the upper and lower peninsulas.

A club known as the Tulip City Motorcycle club was organized at Washington Square Wednesday night. The following officers were elected: President, Herman Dirks; vice-president, Ben Alderink; secretary, Joe Knoll; treasurer, P. Bos; and road captain, Dick Zeno. Meetings are to be held every two weeks. J. McGovern of Grand Rapids will speak at the next meeting of the club, March 16.

March Shakes
Nature From Winter Sleep

MONTH OFFERS THRILLS FOR OUTDOOR LOVERS, GEESE FLYING NORTH, INDIANS CAREFUL OBSERVERS OF MARCH

March is the month when Canada geese are seen in Michigan, lingering for a few weeks before they continue their way to their Northern nesting grounds. It is the month when the mallards return, when the first spring robin is sighted, when the song of the red-winged blackbirds is heard in the swales where bleached cattails rustle in the wind.

March is the month when the angler begins to think of checking over his fishing tackle, of putting a coat of varnish on the old fly-rod or to get down to his fly-tying in real earnest. It is the month when the spring peepers shatter the silence of the marshes with their shrill but far-reaching pipings.

March is the month when the fuzzy buds of pussy willows put in their appearance. It is the month when sap, the life-blood of the trees, is in motion. Life is stirring in the sugar-bush. In hundreds of maple groves, trees are being tapped and the annual process of "sugaring off" is under way.

March is the month when the chipmunks again begin to appear above ground and the badger emerges from his den almost as fast as he was in autumn. It is the month when the white-tailed bucks again begin to grow their antlers.

March is the month when the purple spathes of skunk cabbage begin pushing their way even through snow, but we look in vain for arbutus, hepatics, spring beauty, bloodroot, violet and adder's tongue unless we happen upon a sheltered spot that is warmer than average.

The daring little crocus will surely not miss after the first few warm days mellow mother earth in March.

March is the month crows return to Michigan. That may be the reason the Indians called it the "crow moon." They also called it the "wakening moon." Indians were careful observers of nature and knew that March showed the first stirrings of the flowers, trees and animals from their winter sleep. March is the dawn of the year, full of interest and excitement for the nature lover.

DEER MULTIPLY VERY RAPIDLY IS CONTENTION

Gazette Has Copies of Magazine Dealing with Problem (Allegan Gazette)

In the November issue of Michigan Conservation there is an article by Paul Hickie of the conservation department that has a tale to tell for Allegan county residents. In 1926 four doe and two buck deer were released on 1,200 acres of fenced land near Am Arbor. The animals were protected from their natural enemies and multiplied without restriction. In December, 1933, a census drive showed that there were approximately 160 deer in this fenced area. In six years four female deer had produced a herd of 160! They are kept in check now by shooting off the annual surplus.

Our "oak grub" territory in Allegan county is an isolated area of deer range. In it there are relatively few of the natural enemies that reduce the numbers of these animals in large continuous "wild" areas. From the original breeding stock of 25 that was released in 1926 the deer have multiplied until during the present winter it has not been uncommon to count 15 or 20 in view at one time. Such a sight is indeed an asset that few counties can boast of. But we wonder whether the deer are going to be reasonable and stop multiplying while there is still standing room. Could a deer become a white elephant?

The Department of Conservation devoted its November issue of Michigan Conservation entirely to deer. The magazine was distributed free to all deer hunters during the season. There are still a few undistributed copies and some of these are available at the Gazette office for anyone who wishes to call for them.

PLATES FOR 38 TAKE
1500 TONS OF STEEL

Motor vehicles of the state will be carrying 1500 tons of Michigan steel in the form of license plates in 1938—an increase of one-third over tonnage of previous years. The 10,000 gallons of enamel covering these plates weighs about 40 tons.

The increased purchase of Michigan steel and paint arises through decision of Leon D. Chase, Secretary of State, to substitute metal half-year permits for the windshield stickers of previous years. About one plate in three is a half-year permit. Stickers were purchased in previous years from an Illinois firm.

The 1937 legislature added a 25 cent fee to the cost of half-year permits, to cover bookkeeping and other costs. Metal plates are made at the State Prison of Southern Michigan for about 11 cents a pair, and provide much-needed prison labor; the stickers cost about 4 cents each.

Five boys, ranging from 11 to 15 years of age, were charged Saturday with breaking and entering two cottages near Holland recently. Deputy Sheriff William Van Etta made the arrests. The robbery was discovered by Deputies Henry Borr and Van Etta. The youths were turned over to Justice John Gallen's court.

The Holland Music club met on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. Fred A. Meyer, 600 Lawndale Court. Miss Ruby E. Hughes was in charge of the program.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

March 13, 1938.
Feeding the Hungry—Mark 6:30-44.

Henry Geerlings

It is significant that Jesus and His disciples were defeated in the plan they had for themselves. He had invited them to come with Him to some lonely spot where they might get a little rest. They were busy and tired. So they sought this place where they might relax and talk things over. But they were not to have their way about it. Some people saw their movements, and discerned their purposes. They hurried away, and came to the lonely spot before Jesus and His disciples did. It was hardly fair that these eager and thoughtful people should rob Jesus and His followers of their needed rest. It was cause for irritation, and at least, disappointment. We might have shown our feelings. Maybe we would have fretted, and fussed, and fumed, and inveighed against such thoughtless selfishness. We might have demanded our right to seclusion and rest. Or we might have left the crowd in anger, and sought out another place where we could be alone to think our own thoughts, and to do as we pleased for at least one sweet hour.

But not so Jesus. Far from being angry and annoyed at the presence of the crowd, we are told, that at the sight of these eager and restless people, he was moved with compassion upon them. They seemed to him to have such hungry and starved souls. They seemed like homeless wanderers across the continent of time. They seemed like children who wanted something, and did not know what it was. They were hungry for the bread of life. And how do we know that by putting ourselves in the line of God's going, and by becoming the obedient agencies of His methods, we, too, are not helping Him to work out mighty plans in His world today? Are we not the human factors through which, and by means of which, the divine power expresses itself? All the time, God may be behind the great silent operations of His world, using us human beings, in our seeming weakness and insufficiency, as the media through which He works here.

Mayor "Gets His Irish Up"

Mayor John F. Dore of Seattle celebrates St. Patrick's day in common with his Irish brethren in this community, a green hat on his head, a brick in his hand and a clay duceen pipe in his mouth. Dore calls himself the "typical fighting Irishman."

—And March Marches On!

Though it's just another month in the year, March probably has more traditions and superstitions behind it than any of the remaining 11 months.

Since Julius Caesar's time the "idea of March" have been famous in song and story, few people realizing that every month had an "idea" in the old Roman calendar. The fact that Caesar was murdered on the "idea of March" made that particular day more significant.

To the Romans, March was the first month of the year, a calendar custom that persisted throughout Europe for centuries. England did not adopt the present calendar until 1752, previously dating its legal year from March 25.

Literally, March is the month of Mars, based on Grecian legend. Certainly its warlike tendencies are borne out by the furious winds usually accompanying the month. If March comes in like a lion, it will go out like a lamb, or vice versa.

If people are "mad as a March hare" there's usually a mental ailment concerned. March beer is traditionally the best, since climatic conditions are supposed to be best for brewing in that month.

THIS battered looking fortification once guarded a city to which gold and silver were brought in such amazing quantities that the bars were piled up like wood in the central plaza. It stands at the entrance to Porto Bello, a little town twenty miles from Colon and a favorite objective of travelers stopping off in the Canal Zone on the cruises to California and to South America. Porto Bello was once one of the most famous cities in the New World yet strangely it came to life only once or twice a year when the Spanish merchant fleet and its convoy arrived over here to bring supplies to the colonists and pick up the Royal Fifth of the treasure collected by the conquistadores. While the galleons were in port a great fair was held

BOTH meats and fish will be higher this week. High winds and rough seas curtailed fishing activities so that frozen, smoked and canned fish will be better values than fresh caught. Eggs are cheap and of excellent quality, cheese is a good value and butter continues to be reasonable in price.

The list of available fruits which are reasonable in price has begun to lengthen. Pineapples, grapes and honeydew melons are now fairly plentiful. Although apples and citrus family are still the best values.

New cabbage is out of the luxury class and no vegetable is more delicious than this when cooked until just tender and still bright green.
