Zeeland Tops Christian 77-68

By Leo Martonosi

JENISON — Zeeland's outstanding basketball team started to feel the heat in the fourth quarter Wednesday night and that's when Holland Christian got scorched.

With the Maroons within striking distance 62-54 entering the final period and actually tying the game twice at 64-64 and 66-66, the Chix went on to a 11-2 tear to end Christian's state Class B District tournament dreams in its first game, 77-68.

Coach Norm Schut's Chix hiked their overall record to 19-3 and will meet the winner of tonight's West Ottawa-Jenison contest on Saturday for the district championship.

Flashy guard Doug Wabeke got Zeeland off to a fast start on a fine move at the outset and the Chix were never headed. With Dave Janssen pouring in eight points and Wabeke and Hugh Bartels six apiece, the Chix jumped out to a 26-15 lead after eight minutes. Gary Bazan added five during that time.

With the shorter Chix dominating the backboards and working for good shots from close in, they increased their lead to 14 points at the intermission, 47-33. Bazan made five of seven fielders from far out during that span as the Chix hit on 49 per cent of their shots at the half compared to 36 for Christian.

The Chix picked up where they left off at the outset of the third stanza, as Jeff Jungling pumped in two points. With Ken De Jonge, Dave Van Langevelde and Tom Zoerhof leading the way, the Maroons slid into Zeeland's big lead at the quarter stop.

It seemed like the whole Zeeland population was among the 3,200 fans in Jenison's beautiful gymnasium. And they had a lot to cheer about as their favorites were on the way to their first win over Christian in 10 years. Ironically, that came in Schut's first year as head coach.

Substitute forward Doug Vogelzang made a couple of key steals as Christian battled back to tie the game at 64-64 for the first time since the opening tip on a basket by Van Langevelde. Jungling put the Chix back on top moments later and Van Langevelde once again tied it for the final time at 66-66.

A bucket by Wabeke and two free throws by Larry Kortering gave Zeeland the upper hand for good with 3:41 left, 70-66.

Subject Takes Item From Store

Businessman Watches TV Set Go, Gives Chase

A Holland businessman who watched as a portable television set was taken from his store ran after the subject and chased him about a block before catching him Monday afternoon.

Police said Hil Sybesma of Sybesma's TV, 501 West 17th St., was in the store when two subjects entered. One asked help with a tape deck while the other remained near the front entrance of the store.

Sybesma said the subject standing near the door took a portable black and white television set, fled the store and put the tv in the back seat of a car parked out front.

Sybesma ran after the subject who had not entered the car and caught up with him a block away. The subject was to face arraignment in Holland District Court.

The television set was valued at $120.

Dr. Diekema Inaugurated At Calvin

GRAND RAPIDS — Dr. Anthony Diekema was inaugurated the eighth president of Calvin College Tuesday night in ceremonies at the college Fine Arts Center.

Diekema succeeds William Spoelhof, who retired earlier this year after serving 25 years as president of the liberal arts college sponsored by the Christian Reformed Church.

During the ceremony, Calvin Board of Trustees chairman the Rev. William VanderHaak presented Diekema with the Presidential Medallion. Dr. Roger Heyns, former chancellor of the University of California at Berkeley and now president of the American Council on Education, offered greetings from the academic community.

Euna Vista To Receive BPW Power

Electric power customers of Consumers Power Co. in the Euna Vista area of Holland Heights were expected to begin receiving Board of Public Works power next week, ending negotiations for the purchase of the customers which began last year.

BPW General Manager Frank Whitney said papers transferring ownership of the distribution facilities from Consumers to the BPW were to be signed Wednesday.

An orderly system of changing over the system to BPW power sources was to begin Monday, Whitney said, and could take a few days. Some power interruptions are to occur while the transfer is being made but should last about one hour, he added.

Customers affected include 110 residential and two churches.

The areas involved include Royce St., Vassar Ave., Montrose Ave., East 40th St., Country Club Rd., Sunset Dr., Sunrise Dr., Euna Vista Dr., Euna Vista Court, Heather Dr. and parts of East Eighth St.

Whitney said customers have been notified by mail and added that the change-over will make no difference in electrical appliance usages.

A tentative schedule for conversion called for Heather Dr. to be done first followed by the Vassar area, Country Club Rd., Sunrise and Sunset and Euna Vista area.

As a sidelight, Whitney said a resident of Vassar Ave., Randall A. Kruthoff, who will be getting BPW power in the change-over, has been employed by the BPW at the power plant and will be receiving the power about the same time as he begins working in the power plant.

Will Allow Right Turn On Red

A new state law allowing right turns from two-way and one-way streets after stopping for a red traffic signal was brought to the attention of City Council Wednesday night.

Council approved the right turns, but rejected a recommendation from the city manager and the safety unit of the police department to exempt four intersections of the 19 signalized intersections of the city.

The suggested exceptions had listed intersections on River Ave. at Eighth St., at 10th St. and at 16th St., and at Central Ave. and Eighth St., based mainly on high pedestrian volume.

Council preferred reviewing the situation after a trial period, and institute changes if needed.

But Council approved another city manager recommendation regarding parking restrictions, mostly angle parking and/or parking on both sides of streets which are not wide enough to meet minimum requirement standards.

In general, the program calls for restricting angle parking or parking on both sides of the street on Ninth St., Lincoln St., Columbia; 16th St., Central St., River; 16th St., Maple to Harrison; Central Ave., Third to Fourth; Central, 13th to 14th; Central, 15th to 16th; Cleveland, 16th to 17th; Columbia, sixth to Seventh; Columbia, 15th to 16th; Lincoln, 12 to 16th; Ottawa, 16 to 17th, and 17th to 18th.

The report recommends appealing the objection to angle parking on the downtown mall on Eighth St. from River to College. Appeals are also under consideration for parking on 32nd St. from Lincoln to Ottawa. This 36-foot wide street has a traffic count over 5,000 which calls for parking on one side only unless widened one foot. Also under consideration is an appeal on 17th St. from South Shore to Diekema which has angle parking on the north side.

The recommendation also proposes that streets allowing parking on both sides be phased out and corrected over a three-year period, and that existing angle parking be corrected within five years. The plan will be submitted to the Michigan Department of State Highways and Transportation.

By a 6-2 vote, Council approved second-year implementation of a three-year program on a comprehensive Crime Prevention grant, which among other things calls for initiating a "neighborhood watch program" which includes citizen participation and monitoring on a one-to-one basis. Because of a recent change in the state's fiscal year, the second year continuation will operate from July 1, 1976, to Sept. 30, 1977, with costs estimated at $51,300, with $7,350 to be funded locally. Of this amount $2,000 is in the current budget and it is proposed to allocate $5,350 in the 1976-77 budget. Dissenting votes were cast by Elmer Wissink and Hazen Van Kampen.

Council unanimously approved a contract with the firm of Goodell, Grivas and Associates of Southfield for $18,900 for a "photologging" survey of local traffic control signs. On completion the city is eligible for funds providing 100 per cent of the cost of upgrading signs in the Federal Aid Urban System and 90 per cent of the expense of similar work on other streets. The Goodell contract, the only bid received, will be financed by $13,230 in federal funds with the remainder to be provided by the city.

Mayor Hallacy presided at the 90-minute meeting. All Councilmen were present except Beatrice Westrate. The invocation was given by the Rev. Glenn O. Peterman of Hope Reformed Church.

Auto Accident. An auto operated by James Alan Essenburg, 20, of 73 Lakewood Blvd., southbound on Pine Ave. attempting a left turn onto Fourth St. Tuesday at 7:21 a.m., collided with a car driven by Mae Ann Beintema, 595 South Shore Dr., stopped westbound on Fourth St.

GERDA KNOLL CELEBRATES 1954 BIRTHDAY

Leap Year Birthdays Spawn Fun

Gerda Observes 7th 'Real One'

by Ann Hungerford

Gerda Knoll's scheme for staying young isn't easily shared.

The vivacious 27-year-old mother of two (with a third expected in May) celebrated her seventh birthday anniversary Sunday. She was a 1948 leap year baby.

"I just feel young," she exclaims, exuberant over the fun that an unusual birthday grants.

In the delivery room for her first child, Amy Jo now eight, Mrs. Knoll couldn't resist teasing the obstetrician that he was delivering the baby of a five-year-old mother.

The doctor was so amused he prodded another physician into the delivery room with "Want to see a five-year-old mother?"

Despite the perpetual fun she extracts from her birth date she admits she would rather have her birthday on a regular day to "avoid the fuss."

The former Gerda Wiechert's birthdays always seem to be eventful. She celebrated the occasion in 1951 on the boat from The Netherlands (she and her family were immigrating to the United States) and the ship's cook prepared a special cake for the cute blonde haired girl.

But the cake smashed onto the floor from its storage area during a storm, she recalls. Mrs. Knoll reports that her husband, Dwight, doesn't make an extra fuss over her "Real" birthdays (as she describes them.) "He makes a fuss over all of them."

Despite the popular belief that leap year babies celebrate their birthdays on Feb. 28 when necessary, Mrs. Knoll commemorates the event on March 1 explaining that she "wasn't born on the 28th yet."

Did she especially enjoy the attention when she was young? "You're kidding! What eight-year-old doesn't enjoy teasing she's only two?"

Snow Leaves, Temperature 1 to 65

Sharp Contrasts Mark February

February weather had some of the sharpest contrasts for any one month in Holland for a number of years.

Weather statistics compiled by Glen Timmer revealed a temperature range of 1 above zero on Feb. 3 to a high of 65 Feb. 28.

And the snow depth Feb. 2 was 17 inches, down to nothing by Feb. 15 except for those huge man made piles, the result of plows, bulldozers and shoveling.

Feb. 15, the day records showed no snow on the ground, was a warm windy day with temperatures up to 30. The mid-month winds brought a high degree of evaporation, and since there was little or no frost in the ground, Holland's snow deposits disappeared with a minimum of fuss or flooding.

February snowfall totaled 10 inches, with snow falling the first three days of the month, again on Feb. 6, and then three inches March 21, and this disappeared in four days.

From Feb. 8 to the end of the month, maximums each day were above freezing. It was 60 on Feb. 26. There were seven days in the 50s and nine in the 40s, all after Feb. 10. Snowfall total through Feb-

Thousands Lose Power, Telephones

Delays Seen in Getting Services Restored; Area Schools Closed

A sleet and rain storm covered the Holland area with a coating of ice Tuesday night for the second day in a row and forced the closing of schools in Ottawa county, cracked off tree limbs and left hundreds of persons without electric or telephone service.

All schools in Holland and Zeeland and virtually all in Ottawa County were closed today because of downed electric lines and the threat of more tree limbs coming down.

Consumers Power Co. estimated as many as 10,000 electric customers were without service this morning in Kent and Ottawa counties and said it could take until Thursday for service to be restored.

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. reported hundreds of customers in Holland and Zeeland without service and estimated restoration by Friday.

The Holland Board of Public Works said it received an estimated 300 service calls Tuesday night and crews worked during the night to restore service.

Allegan County deputies said some residents in the Green Lake area in the northeastern region of the county were evacuated from their homes because of downed power lines.

In Holland, park department superintendent Jacob De Graaf said most tree damage was reported in the core city between 24th and 32nd Sts. and east of Pine Ave. and said many elm trees were heavily damaged.

Crews worked during the night Tuesday and again Wednesday to clear city streets and sidewalks of fallen tree limbs. The rest of the week will be used for clean-up of lawn debris.

ALLEGAN — Roger Sparks, 19, of South Haven, stood mute at his Circuit Court arraignment Friday to a charge of murder in the Dec. 23 slaying of Deborah Knapp, 19, also of South Haven.

A plea of innocent was entered for him and he was held without bond in the Allegan County jail for trial. No trial date was set.

A motion to have bond set was denied.

Sparks was bound from District Court Thursday after being declared mentally competent to stand trial. The woman's body was found in Saugatuck township.

HUDSONVILLE — A Holland couple, Jerald Geerts, 58, and Alma Geerts, 51, of 380 Fourth Ave., were injured in a two-car collision Friday at 7:35 p.m. in Hudsonville and both were treated in Holland Hospital and released.

Police said the Geerts car was eastbound along M-21 while the other car, driven by Johanna Ruth Nienhuis, 65, of 5875 132nd Ave., Holland, was northbound on 36th. The Nienhuis car pulled into the path of the Geerts auto.

Whitney Lauds Citizens For Emergency Manners

People in Holland making emergency calls to the Board of Public Works Tuesday night were said "the happiest and easiest to work with" by BPW General Manager Frank Whitney.

Whitney was answering many of the trouble calls Tuesday in the BPW offices. He said for years while in the Florida area he worked on utility emergencies during hurricane seasons and answered the trouble calls.

"But I must classify the people in Holland as the happiest and easiest persons to work with," He said those reporting service interruptions were patient and "marvelous to talk with on the telephone."

He cited one woman who called to report a tree down that had taken with it her electric service lines. She was in the dark without electric power. Whitney said minutes later she called back to report a tree down across the back of her house and was not sure whether there was roof damage.

"The frightening circumstances some of the Holland residents lived through while waiting for repair crews was unbelievable and yet they were calm and not demanding. It was marvelous the way they acted," Whitney said.

Ottawa County 4-H News

by Willis S. Boss,
Ottawa County
Extension 4-H Youth Agent

Ottawa County will have a fine representation at the Horse Jamboree at MSU in April. During the past week junior and senior horse bowl teams participated in the regional contest in Kalamazoo. The results and also the final results of the junior and senior horse judging contests will be published next week. On Monday public speaking and demonstration contests were held in both junior and senior divisions and those winners will be announced next week.

Approximately 1,000 girls and women attended the five charm schools held in the various areas of the county. The charm schools held in Jenison, Zeeland, Coopersville, Grand Haven and Hudsonville featured hair care, skin care and modeling. A professional model, Mrs. Jane Krombein, demonstrated sitting, standing, walking, pivoting and modeling and then allowed each of the girls to participate in a practice session while she observed and advised them. We will be holding these on an every other year basis, so we will be sponsoring them again in 1978.

Something new is being added to achievement evaluation. A number of 4-H leaders would be in favor of eliminating the marking of A, B or C on the exhibits. This year each member's project will be evaluated and a note will be written to the leader with comments concerning each project. The members will receive an "Achievement Honor" ribbon for competing and completing their project. There will be an increased number of construction honors selected from each district and the usual county and district style winners. We are in the process now of soliciting judges in the various districts for both construction and style.

Style judging events will start on Thursday, March 11, with judging at both Coopersville and Grand Haven. The first achievement days will be held in Grand Haven at the Community Center March 15 and 16. The Coopersville Achievement Days will be held at the Coopersville Junior High School on Friday and Saturday, March 19 and 20. The other four style judging events and achievement days will follow during the next three weeks.

The Ottawa County 4-H Council will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday at the County Building in Grand Haven. The agenda for this meeting will include the election of officers, appointment of committees, reports on charm schools, achievement day plans, plat book account and the new plat book will be distributed to council members to be sold in their local communities. We will welcome Laverne Kooker of Holland as a new council member. The council will briefly discuss the upcoming summer 4-H program also.

Bicentennial Activity Highlighted by Black

By Barbara Timmer
The third Bicentennial meeting of the Century Club was held Monday evening in the home of Miss Geraldine Dykhuizen. In keeping with the theme, those present were given much insight into Bicentennial activity, both regionally and nationally.

Delbert Black, regional director of the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration, through a film and short talk, answered most of the frequently-asked questions about the American Revolution Bicentennial celebration.

The film, entitled, "Bicentennial U.S.A.," highlighted what several communities are doing to make the year meaningful. Attention was focused on three areas of emphasis — our past, which includes restoration and preservation of historic sites; our present, in which we share our national hospitality and traditions with others; and our future, in which we make decisions for the quality of life tomorrow. Thus the film gave an overview of the Bicentennial, with concentration on the laying of the cornerstone for our third century.

In his remarks, Mr. Black described the organization of the national administration, which consists of ten regional directors who coordinate and build Bicentennial participation.

Early in the planning, it was decided that rather than have one central United States exhibition, there should be unlimited participation by people in each of the 50 states and all of the territories including the District of Columbia.

At this time, there are 9,000 designated Bicentennial communities in the country, including 1700 in the midwest region. There is also participation by colleges, military bases, Indian tribes, and foreign embassies. A total of 79 per cent of the population is now involved, truly a massive volunteer effort.

Mr. Black concluded with an interesting survey of the documented fate of the 56 men who signed the Constitution. A national calendar of Bicentennial events and a comprehensive calendar of regional and local events covering 1976 are published periodically by the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration. To purchase copies, one may write to Bicentennial Calendar, The Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C., 20402.

Preceding the Bicentennial presentation, Miss Priscilla

Bartels, sophomore at Hope College, sang several numbers including two arias, accompanied by Miss Gaye Rudis. Following the program, Mrs. Robert Bolle gave the report of the nominating committee. Avery Baker was introduced as the guest of Tom De Pree.

Serving on the committee for arrangements were Dr. and Mrs. John Hesselink, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. De Pree, Mrs. Frank Kleinheksel and Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Pados.

Church Women To Raise Funds For Well Project

Holland's Church Women United are planning a rummage and food sale on Friday, March 19. The event will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Grace Episcopal Church.

All money raised through the sale will be used to help meet the Michigan Church Women United pledge of $15,000 for "Wells Without Walking." This project, part of the Church Women United Hunger Fund, would provide money for the digging of wells for use by Indians in South Dakota, for Niger and Bangladesh.

In those designated areas it is necessary to travel long distances to obtain essential water. The transporting is done, always on foot, and usually by women. It is hoped that wells more readily accessible will enable these people to raise their own food supplies and aid in eradicating the starvation threat so long present.

Mrs. A. Severson and Mrs. Thomas Ambrose are in charge of the local event. Church Women United urgently request all women in the community to lend their support to the project by donating rummage and baked goods and volunteering their help. Rummage should be taken to Grace Episcopal Church on Thursday, March 18, and food on Friday, the day of the sale. Many workers will be needed both days to make the event a success. Any volunteers are asked to contact their own church representatives.

Holland's Bid for Share Of Big Seven Title Falls Short

Dutch Drop Another Cliff Hanger

By Leo Martonosi

ST. JOSEPH — Who's got the doll with the needle in it?

If anyone out there knows, please let Coach Don Piersma and his Holland basketball team know immediately.

The Dutch dropped their sixth contest by nine points, 58-57 here Friday night to St. Joseph.

A win by Holland would have given the Dutch a tie with the Bears for first place in the Big Seven Conference. Instead, the Dutch ended the regular season 8-4 in the league and 14-6 overall. St. Joseph was 10-2 in the loop and 15-5 for the season.

Holland easily defeated the Bears earlier in the season but when St. Joseph got within five points late in the tilt, you could almost feel it in your bones that something was going to happen.

This time it was a combination of many violations by the Dutch, some hot shooting at the right time by the Bears and probably most important, some calls or lack of calls by the officials.

"The referees were just ridiculous out there in the second half," said a dejected Piersma. "They were in a man-to-man press and only had four team fouls. That's impossible unless they're all All-Americans."

With 1:56 left in the game and Holland up by a 57-52 score, ace Dennis Lawson was hit with his fifth personal foul. The Dutch failed to score after that while Dale Wright netted two baskets and Cory Benford the game winner with 29 seconds left in the game.

Benford's shot came on a double screen as he was all alone for his two points. Hope College's golf Coach Hal Cutshall was on hand, scouting Benford for golf and basketball.

The 6' St. Joe guard was the state Class A medalist last fall with a 77 but he saved an ace for the basketball court. Unfortunately it turned out to be the bucket that beat the Dutch.

Holland still had a good chance of winning as they had three shots in the last four seconds. However, as it's been all season, the close ones always go to the opposition.

St. Joseph grabbed a 15-10 first period lead but with Lawson and Loren Schrottenboer dominating like they can, the Dutch were leading at the intermission, 31-27.

Holland upped its margin to seven points at the third period stop, 47-40 but were outscored in the final eight minutes, 18-10.

Two Bear cagers — Henry Follman and Mike Tinberg had four fouls at the half but only Follman was nailed with his fifth personal. Tenberg played the entire second half with four fouls.

Schrottenboer led the Dutch scoring with 19 points and in rebounding with 15. Lawson chipped in with 16 while Todd De Young, who was replaced in the starting lineup by Tom Borgman, added 10.

Guard Mike Collier threw in 15, Wright 12 and Follman and Tinberg 10 apiece for the Bears. Holland outshot the Bears from the field 46 per cent to 44 but was only five of 10 from the free throw line compared to six of eight norms for St. Joseph. Both teams had 26 fielders.

Holland will take its fine overall slate into district play Thursday against Niles at Benton Harbor. The Bears will meet rival Benton Harbor on Wednesday. The two winners will collide for the championship on Saturday.

Coach Don Johnson's Little Dutch closed its season at 12-8 by falling to St. Joe, 59-55.

Del Dozeman poured in 20 markers, David Cyrus 15, Dana Cyrus 9 and Joe Stille 8 for Holland.

Holland (57) — Lawson, 7-2-16; Van Wylen, 3-0-6; Schrottenboer, 8-3-19; Molenaar, 1-0-2; T. Borgman, 1-0-2; Van Tongeren, 1-0-2; De Young, 5-0-10. Totals 26-5-57.

St. Joseph (58) — Benford, 3-0-6; Collier, 5-3-15; Wright, 5-2-12; Follman, 5-0-10; Ziebart, 3-1-7; Tinberg, 5-0-10. Totals 26-6-58.

Exchangites Hear Talk On Bicycling

Holland Exchange Club's program Monday noon at Warm Friend Motor Inn was jam-packed with information and entertainment as members honored poster contest winners, inducted new members and responded enthusiastically to a talk on bicycling.

Speaker, introduced by Exchangite Terry Becksford, was Miss Sandra Parker, assistant professor of physical education at Hope College and director of a bicycling program called Wheels of Hope.

Miss Parker related that her inspiration for the program came from her involvement with a similar program conducted by Bob Davenport, two-time All American football player, Associated with Taylor University, he felt the need to strengthen Christian character among young people.

Following a hunch that some rigorous, adventuresome activity off the school campus would be appealing, he took a group of bicyclists on a 1,500-mile trip along the Mississippi River. He has since followed with cross-country sojourns and international expeditions.

Miss Parker has developed her own program at Hope and has taken several groups to Florida, around Lake Superior and other places. Her bicyclists travel 50 to 80 miles per day. They use a trailer and van and stay in churches or parks along the way. Food is served chuck wagon style.

Enthusiastic response among club members ranged from questions of "May I go along?" to "May my wife go along — it's a great way for her to get away for a spell."

Eight children honored as winners in the Crime Prevention Week poster contest were Rick Van Grouw, Van Raalte School, first place; Rosie Silva and Annette Harvey of St. Francis and Steve Schipper of Jefferson, runners up; Kurt Marschke, Harrington, and John Weaver, Angie Flores and Ann Zych, St. Francis, honorable mention.

Paul Mollwain and Paul Boerigter were inducted as members by David Lightfoot, membership chairman. Al Slenk, chairman, reported on the Home Show scheduled March 9-13.

'Anything Goes' Brings Standing Ovation Here

By Cornelia Van Voorst

It was a great fun-filled musical evening.

The Hope College Theatre production of "Anything Goes" with its spritely Cole Porter tunes, opened Thursday night to a standing ovation of a capacity crowd in De Witt Center. The cast of 30 now looks forward to six more performances, several of them sellouts.

In this 1934 musical comedy, Director Donald Finn and his hard working production crews sought to recapture the spirit of the 1930s, when musicals were concerned mostly with catchy tunes, chorus lines, light comedy and general all-round fun. It was a full decade before trends led to plots like "Oklahoma!" "South Pacific" and "Sound the Music."

"Anything Goes" was exactly what the title implies, top tunes by Cole Porter merged into a shipboard plot with lots of action. There was the leading man with many involvements, beautifully played by Richie Hoehler; the ex-sweetheart (Beverly Kerlikowske) about to marry a titled Englishman (Harry P. Caramanos), the hoodlum (Dave Jones) who carried a machine gun in a violin case, and the brassy singer-dancer (Lynn Berry) in a role originated by Ethel Merman on Broadway.

Production numbers with tap-dancing recaptured the flavor of the mid-30s, highlighted with absolutely fascinating costumes with below-the-knee hemlines, flared flounces, cap sleeves and tiny hats, while men moved easily in double-breasted coats and, for some, two-toned shoes.

But it was the Cole Porter tunes that brought out true nostalgia—"It's Delovely," "You're the Top," "Friendship," the Merman specialty "I Get a Kick Out of You," "Blow Gabriel, Blow," "All Through the Night" and, of course, the title theme. Robert Cecil's 13-piece orchestra provided great accompaniment.

Scene and lighting design were by Michael Grindstaff, choreography (truly imaginative) by Rich Rahn, costume design by Carol Yeechek and Vocal direction by James Nieboer.

The first libretto of "Anything Goes" called for a shipwreck island, but the tragic sinking of the S.S. Morrow of Asburn N.J., claiming 125 victims, called for a hastily rewritten script placing all action aboard ship.

"The Hope College Theatre 'Curtain Call,' distributed with programs, revealed two musicals for the 1976 summer season, "Fiddler on the Roof" and "Dames at Sea." Also listed are a hit comedy, "Arsenic and Old Lace," and the contemporary drama, "Of Mice and Men."

"Anything Goes" plays tonight and Saturday, and again next week, Wednesday through Saturday. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

Election Laws Being Studied By Local LWV

The first meeting on a new study item entitled "Election Laws" was held by Holland Area League of Women Voters last Tuesday at the home of Addy Price.

Bonnie Vanden Bos opened the program with discussion on the election law code of Michigan and powers of the secretary of state over the election process in Michigan. She explained the board of canvassers on state, county and local levels, citing the number of board members, how they are chosen, their duties and compensation.

Arlene Penrose spoke on the scheduling of elections, general and primary, and the difference between an open and closed primary. She explained how precinct delegates are elected and the cost of elections in Michigan and the nation. She said that in the normal life span of a voter, he or she will vote on between 70 and 100 officials.

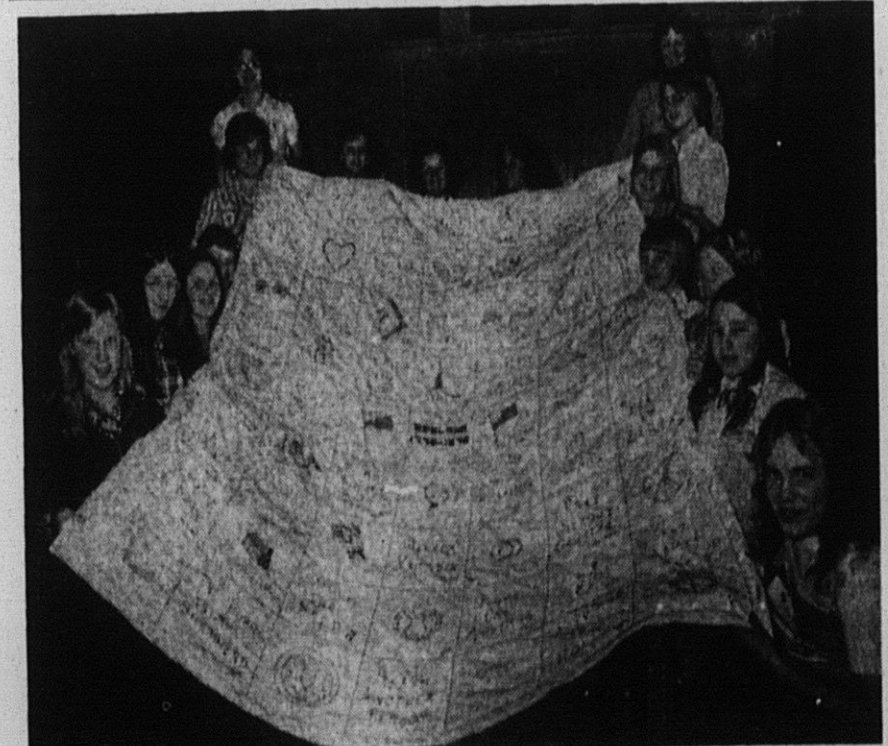

Eleanor de Kruif informed the group on laws controlling the ballot. Printing, wording, type paper used and the delivery of the ballot is all done according to code.

Helena Winter talked about election challengers, how to become one, what the challenger does. The training of election inspectors and the polling place was covered by Joyce Nielsen. Pat Gorno concluded the program with her talk on voter qualifications and registration. She also explained how disabled persons vote.

Next meeting of the league will be Tuesday, March 2, at 9:30 a.m. at the home of President Lois Workman. Baby sitting will be provided.

DR. ANTHONY DIEKEMA

On March 2, Dr. Anthony Diekema was inaugurated into the office of president of Calvin College. He comes to this office following a careful search for one strongly committed to the Christian faith, and able to communicate that faith to the modern world. This is a difficult assignment, but Calvin College is unique in that it has not lost sight of its roots, nor has it watered down its purposes and goals. And a faculty and administration committed to the same purposes and goals will give him both support and confidence.

Institutions may best be known by the way in which they proclaim their own identity. Perhaps the Presidential Medallion, originally designed for this occasion, is a good example. The medallion symbolizes the areas of presidential service. This service extends from the college with its students, faculty, and administration to the whole world. Basic to that service in the world is the commitment of the college to the service of Christ. A president and a college who understand that high calling know where they are going. We congratulate both.

Heartworm Test In Dogs Urged by Veterinarians

Heartworm disease in dogs is increasing at an alarming rate in the Holland area, according to Holland veterinarians. It is an infection spread from dog to dog by infected mosquitoes. The disease has been found in urban and rural dogs, including some dogs that live in areas or relatively low mosquito population.

Because of the serious and potentially fatal nature of heartworm, it is recommended by the Western Michigan Academy of Small Animal Practice that all dogs have a blood test each spring to check for the infection.

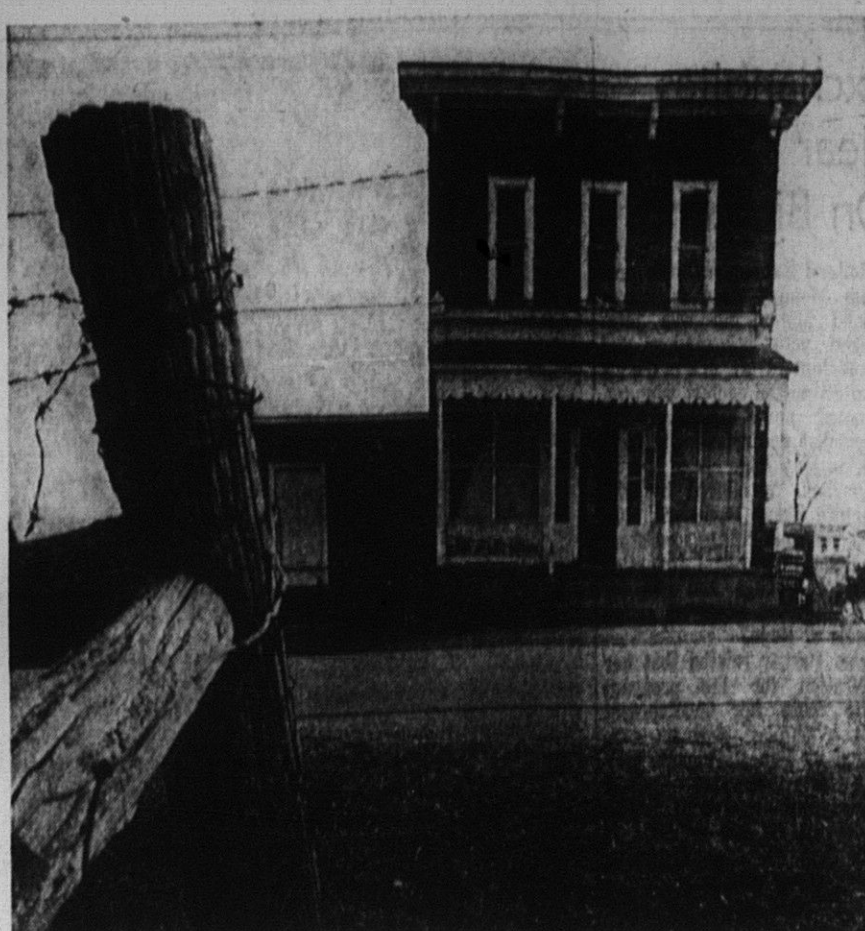

Many cases of heartworm infection can be successfully treated. Dogs having negative test results can be given preventive medication starting about May 1 and continuing through Dec. 1.

Testing can be done quickly in the veterinarian's office. Information about testing, treatment and prevention can be obtained through the office of any Holland area veterinarian.

OAKLAND STORE — The once-bustling rural grocery in Oakland, its usefulness apparently ended, faces destruction. The store was built in the 1890s and was a grocery and in later years an egg processing and storage facility. But modernization and new egg facilities put the little store out of business. It had been used by four generations of Van Dams who continue in the egg business in larger quarters. The store is located along 38th St. in Allegan County's Overisel township. (Sentinel photo)

Oakland Store Ends Rural Era

OAKLAND — The Oakland store, typical of the stores that dotted rural America at the turn of the century, has fallen victim to modernization and is scheduled for demolition.

Four generations of Van Dams operated the store from the early 1900s until it closed in 1975. Its life had changed from a grocery business to an egg processing and storage facility and finally became obsolete.

The building was erected in the 1890s and changed hands several times until Koert Van Dam purchased it in the early 1900s. He operated the store as a country grocery and reached others in the area with a peddlers wagon.

He ran the store and wagon for nine years until he moved to California in the early 1920s.

The Obbie Van Dams continued the store after Koert left and the peddlers wagon was in operation until the 1950s.

By then more time was being devoted to egg production which had been started earlier as a sideline.

After Obbie Van Dam died in 1970, the grocery business was discontinued but the building continued as an egg processing and storage facility.

The egg business expanded and additional room was needed and a new plant was built in 1975 by the present owners, the Kenneth Van Dams.

Today a fourth generation Van Dam, Larry, is working with the family enterprise that distributes eggs mainly in the Detroit area.

Now vacant, the old Oakland store faces demolition.

FENNVILLE — Behind the one-two scoring punch of Marc Moeller and Lyle Schut, the Fennville Blackhawks tripped Wyoming Lee, 68-64 here Tuesday night in a Class C District basketball game.

The talented Moeller, who established a state season high game last week with 63 points, canned 22 against the Rebels. Schut added 21.

Duane Bainbridge paced Lee with 22 markers. Terry Schumacher and Steve Pomper chipped in with 13 apiece. Mike Kettner followed with 12.

Fennville turned the game around in the third period by pouring in 18 points and holding the Rebels to only six. The Blackhawks were down by eight points at the half, 35-27.

Schut was the key during that span as he dropped in 12 of the Hawks points.

The Blackhawks increased their lead to 53-44 on a rare four-point play by Terry Morse and Jim Schudder. Morse canned a basket for two points and Schudder tossed in two free throws after being fouled on Morse's tally.

Lee wasn't about to die as they battled back to grab a 56-55 margin with 4:31 left as their pressure full court defense was giving Fennville problems.

Schut put Fennville on top for good at 59-58 and Morse came up with a crucial steal with Coach Tom Pelon's outfit only leading, 65-64.

Morse calmly sank a free throw and Moeller ignited the contest with two charity points with three seconds left.

"For us to win, we knew we had to become more aggressive in the second half and we did just that," said Pelon. "Schut had a fine second half and Morse made a key steal."

Schut did foul out with 34 seconds left in the game and Fennville up, 64-60.

Fennville ended the night with 20 turnovers and Lee 13. The Rebels only had three miscues in the first half.

The Blackhawks, now 14-7 for the season, will meet rival Hamilton Thursday night in the semifinals. The two squads divided regular season games.

Powerful Byron Center plays Middleville tonight at 7:30 in other semifinal action.

Fennville (68) — Moeller, 10-2-22; Schut, 7-7-21; Scudder, 2-6-6; Morse, 1-4-6; Stennette, 2-0-4; Bale, 0-1-1; Alfaro, 3-0-6; DeLaLuz, 1-0-2; Totals 28-16-58.

Lee (64) — Schumacher, 5-3-13; Bainbridge, 8-6-22; Pomper, 6-1-13; Bieber, 0-4-4; Kettner, 5-2-12. Totals 24-16-64.

Townsend Addresses Early Birds

"Crime is everybody's business because, directly or indirectly, it affects the quality of life," Circuit Judge James E. Townsend told Chamber of Commerce Early Birds at their monthly breakfast Tuesday in Warm Friend Motor Inn. His subject was "Crime and Punishment."

Judge Townsend outlined the various steps dealing with crimes, (1) apprehension by law enforcement agencies, often dependent on tips from alert citizens, (2) conviction or acquittal in court procedures, involving judge and often juries, (3) sentence, involving considerably more information than is available during court cases, and (4) corrections, taking in facilities such as prisons, jails, halfway-houses, alcoholic and drug treatment as well as supervised probation.

He defined specific goals of the entire criminal field as the apprehension and convictions of persons guilty of crimes, and to reduce crime to a minimum.

Townsend commended the Ottawa county people on being alert to wrongdoing, citing the New York case where 50 persons witnessed an assault without aiding the victim or calling police. He also commended the county's two public defenders as performing a useful function for their clients, and not wasting the court's time with unreasonable delays.

He said Ottawa county has a reputation for extremely fine juries, giving their best efforts in a given case.

On probations, he said the state has 80 per cent successful probation, whereas Ottawa county has 92 per cent, although Ottawa has 24 per cent of the cases with jail sentences whereas that percentage is considerably less for the state. He said 166 persons are listed in the Ottawa probation program. If this number were in prison, the costs would be just under a million dollars a year.

He quickly added that there are certain crimes of violence in which long-term prison sentences are the only alternative.

He explained the jail review (usually after 30 days) as an incentive in improving attitudes. Delayed sentences, he said, are not procrastinations but a sort of voluntary probation whereby the convicted person is subject to the same rules as probationers. He described it as a "short lease" approach, a sort of "sword of Damocles" hanging over the head.

Townsend also rejected the concept of "one free offense" for adults and in many sentences uses a combination of alternatives, sometimes halfway houses, sometimes educational programs, and sometimes jail, all geared to the individual need of the person.

Questers Meet Features Talk On Hex Symbols

At the February meeting of Christine Van Raalte Chapter of Questers, Mrs. William De Vries presented a program entitled "Just for the 'Hex' of It."

Members met at Mrs. De Vries' home, with Mrs. Ralph Saveland presiding at the business meeting. Mrs. John Oudekirk was welcomed as a new member and Mrs. Richard Prince was a guest.

The program answered questions on the meaning of geometric designs on barns in Pennsylvania Dutch country, and their possible basis in witchcraft. Symbols used by the Pennsylvania Dutch have been found in ancient caves, carved by pre-historic man, Mrs. De Vries said. The most widely used is the six point compass star, found in widely separated places from the temple steps to ancient Ephesus and walls in Istanbul and synagogue walls in Allentown, Pa.

She said the symbols were brought to America by the colonists from the Rhineland who settled in southeastern Pennsylvania. Many are seen on barns artistically painted to break the monotony of color. These designs are peculiar to this section. The hex signs also were used on pottery, trivets, drawers, chairs, birth and baptismal certificates, on tinware and even on the tool boxes of Conestoga wagons.

Popular folklore is that barns with the star are protected from lightning and the sign keeps away bad luck. Although beginning usage dates are not known, barns were not painted with the design much before 1830.

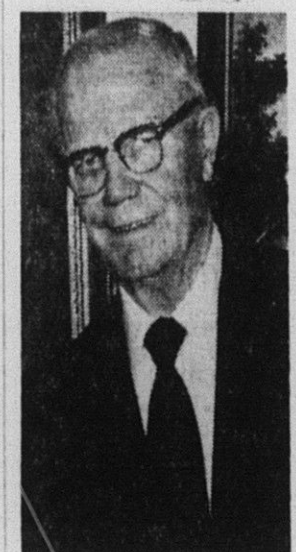

There are many authors and painters of hexology with legends and folklore; however, little evidence is offered for their effectiveness. As for their real purpose, a Pennsylvania Dutch answer might be "Chust for nice."

Refreshments were served by Mrs. De Vries and Mrs. Lawrence McCormick.

Dutchmen Tip Albion In Thriller

by Leo Martonosi

Hope College's basketball team played the role of the spoiler Saturday night in the Civic Center as they ruined Albion College's championship dreams, 82 - 80.

The Flying Dutchmen of Coach Russ De Vette were at their best in the season finale. The win by Hope gave the league championship to Calvin College. Coach Ralph Honderd's Knights ended the league season at 10 - 2 and Albion 9 - 3.

Calvin had to rally to nudge Alma, 74 - 70 Saturday afternoon for its third consecutive MIAA crown.

Hope ended the league season at 3 - 9 and were 10 - 12 overall. Coach Mike Turner's Britons finished with a fine 17 - 6 mark.

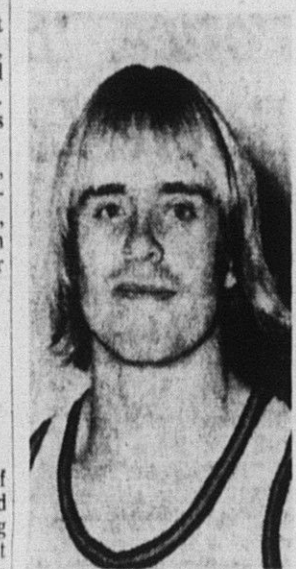

A elated De Vette said after the game, that his club played with pride and didn't want to finish in a tie for the cellar with Olivet.

"It was definitely our best overall game of the season," beamed De Vette. "Kevin Clark was just out of sight and everyone played well."

As this writer was leaving the Civic Center, he ran into Honderd, who sighed, "Us Dutchmen must stick together. Actually, I came to the game to congratulate Turner for an excellent season. I never expected this to happen."

Mrs. Mike Turner, wife of the Albion coach, sobbing said, "I thought you people didn't like Calvin. How come you had to pick tonight to play your best game?"

Kevin Clark, a sophomore guard from Lake City tore down the nets with his uncanny outside shooting for Hope. Clark fired in all nine of his shots and when you consider they were all over 18 feet, that's some shooting.

Kevin Clark doesn't miss from floor

Chris Peterson and Dan Van Pernis backed Clark with 16 points apiece. Jim Holwerda checked in with 12 while Paul Cryderman led Albion with 21. Jim Knudson followed with 18.

Hope jumped out to a 6 - 2 lead and led 8 - 6 for the last time in the first 20 minutes. Mike Williams' basket at the horn gave the Britons a 44 - 38 halftime lead.

The Dutchmen really responded to De Vette's words at the intermission as they poured in 11 unanswered points at the outset of the second half. Peterson had six of the 11.

Cryderman's bucket gave Albion its first score of the final half. The two points came at the 16:48 mark.

A three - point play by Williams tied the count at 53 - all with 14:37 left in regulation. The two clubs proceeded to trade leads like kids do baseball cards.

Hope led 55 - 53, 57 - 55, 61 - 57, 65 - 62, 73 - 72, 74 - 72, 76 - 74, 78 - 74, 79 - 76, 80 - 76 and 82 - 78. Albion was on top late in the exciting game, 62 - 61, 66 - 65, 68 - 65, 70 - 67 and 72 - 69.

Tony Kern knotted the count at 74 - 74 with 2:54 left. But Van Pernis and Peterson banged home baskets to give the Dutchmen the lead for good, 78 - 74.

Two free throws by Holwerda made the score 80 - 76 with 1:11 remaining. Kevin Huffman dropped in two free throws with 36 seconds to go for Albion. Peterson locked up the tilt by swishing two free throws with 30 seconds to play.

Knudson's long fielder made the final score 82 - 80. However, Albion quickly called time out after the basket with three seconds showing on the scoreboard.

The Dutchmen held on for the thrilling win, as many fans rushed out to congratulate De Vette's cagers.

Someone from behind the officials scoring table cracked, "Now, that's the way Hope College basketball is played." And DeVette would agree 100 per cent with that.

Center Dwayne Boyce only scored eight points but did a fine job on the backboards before fouling out with 37 seconds left and the score, 80 - 76. Williams, the top Briton gunner, was charged with his fifth personal with 1:38 left and the score 78 - 74 in favor of Hope.

Junior Varsity Coach Glenn Van Wieren predicted two weeks ago that Hope would beat Albion if the Britons beat Calvin. Van Wieren was right on both counts

WINTER SOUVENIR — Last weekend's snow was used to build this 9-foot monument to winter, probably reduced to a puddle by the recent mild weather. The four were assisted in the project in the Walker yard on Brooklane Ave., by Brent Walker, 14 and John Dick, 22, who supplied a lot of muscle for the job, begun at noon, Feb. 21 and completed at 7 p.m. A ramp was used to place each section and the entire form was hosed down for a protective glaze.

Maroons, Vogelzang Set School Scoring Records

by Rich Walters
ALLEGAN — It was fun night for Holland Christian's basketball team Friday night in Allegan, as the Maroons mauled the Tigers, 96 - 63, for their third straight win, ending the regular season with a 10 - 10 record.

In the process, the Maroons broke the school record of 95 set against St. Joseph Jan. 9, 1968 in a 95 - 41 triumph. But the big story was Joel Vogelzang, who missed his first three free throws, and had one point, until at the 4:01 mark of the first quarter he collected his first basket of the game. From then on he was unstoppable, as the senior center garnered 12 points in the opening period.

This was an indication of what was to come, as Vogelzang added eight more in the second quarter, 10 in the third and 12 points, topping Sid Bruinsma's school mark of 40 set against Muskegon Christian on Feb. 16, 1973. Joel was also a workhorse on the boards with 17 rebounds.

Most of Vogelzang's baskets came after missed shots by his teammates, or on some nice feeds to him as he would work his way open under the basket.

The Maroons never trailed in the game, and the only tie was at 2 - 2. The quarter score stood at 23 - 10. The teams played to an 18 - 18 standoff in the second quarter, which gave

Joel Vogelzang... better than Bruinsma's best

Christian a comfortable 41 - 28 halftime bulge.

The Maroons continued their onslaught in the third period, outpointing the Tigers 20 - 15. Tom Zoerhoff netted eight of his 13 points in that quarter.

Leading 61 - 43 going into the final eight minutes, Christian really broke loose with 35 points, hitting on 15 of 24 shots and five of nine from the charity stripe. This, despite the fact the reserves played nearly half the period. Vogelzang set the new record with 3:20 to play, and was taken out six seconds later, receiving a fine and well deserved ovation from the many Holland Christian fans at the game. Mike Vander Ploeg's basket with five seconds left set the new school mark.

Mark Van Dyke was second to Vogelzang in rebounds with 15, and was a dominant factor on the boards. Dave Van Langevelde hauled down 13, as Christian had a whopping 58-29 advantage in the rebounding game.

Christian also took the reserve tilt, 58 - 50, their second win over the Tigers this season. Allegan led 10 - 8 at the quarter, Christian 27 - 16 at the half and 46 - 39 after three periods.

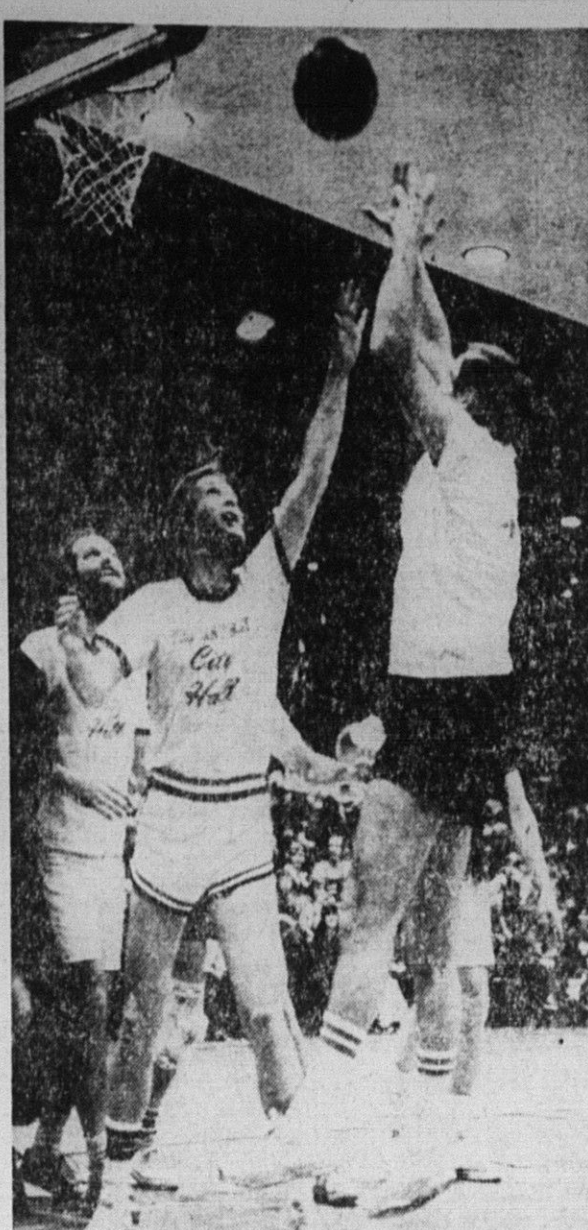

Dave Brouwer took scoring honors with 17 points and Craig Wierda was right behind with 15. Kelly Clair was high for the Tigers with 12.

Police Chief Chuck Lindstrom announced today that over $1,000 was raised for the event (the most ever) and that between 40 to 50 youngsters will be able to attend camp this summer. Zeeland Ties For O-K White Crown

WYOMING — Zeeland's basketball team withstood a determined charge by the Wyoming Vikings Friday night, 80-64.

The Vikings came out strong to lead at the first period break, 20-16.

Wyoming continued its tight defense early in the second quarter as they fronted the ball to hold the lead for the first three minutes. It became evident that the Vikings were tiring as Zeeland kept pecking at the lead.

With senior Dave Janssen leading the way, the Chix made up 10 points to pull out to a 38-34 halftime margin. The score was tied last at 32-31.

Third quarter was all Zeeland, as they opened up an 11-point lead. The Chix gained control of the backboards this quarter while Doug Wabeke forced several turnovers and going for layups.

The third period ended 60-51 in favor of Coach Norm Schut's Chix.

This was the fourth consecutive game that Zeeland has won by wide margins and each one showed a balanced scoring attack as the reserves maintained the pace.

Janssen led all scorers with 24 points despite sitting out the fourth stanza. Eighteen of those totals came in the first half. Wabeke and Jeff Jungling joined in double figures with 16 and 12 respectively. Park was led by Steve Northuis and Bobby McNeil with 12 each.

Wyoming was playing without standout Larry McNeil, who broke his wrist last week and will be out for the season.

The Chix were outbounded by a slim 44-43 margin. After a slow first half in which Zeeland was outmuscled 25-17, Hugh Bartels picked up the slack to lead in rebounds with 13.

Zeeland continued its healthy shooting percentage in recent games at 43 per cent to only 32 per cent for the Vikings.

The Chix reserves ended their season on a winning note, 74-65.

The Chix enter the districts as co-champs of the O-K White Division with Forest Mills Northern, who trounced Kelloggsville, 105-52 Friday night. Both teams ended 12-2 in the league.

The Rebels were unable to put a man into double figures as the Eagles took over the court. Shooting from the floor Hudsonville netted 44 per cent and Lee 27 per cent. From the foul line, Hudsonville sunk 64 per cent.

Grandville Overpowers West Ottawa, 82-65

by Ted Bertrand
The West Ottawa Panthers put up quite a scrap here Friday night before being overwhelmed by a tough Grandville basketball squad 82 - 65.

Grandville started things off and moved out to an early 10 - 0 lead. The Bulldogs employed a rigid press which seemed to work to their advantage all night. The Panthers used a zone defense with Marty Klein and Rick Weststrate doing an excellent job rebounding to help offset the hot Bulldog shooters.

Randy Palmer, and Mike Cline hit the mark with deadly accuracy as Grandville rolled to a 24 - 15 first period lead. The Panthers shot 18 per cent in the first stanza as opposed to 52 per cent for Grandville.

The second quarter saw the Panthers play much more aggressive in a strong effort to get back in the game. Marty Klein banked a perfect shot off the glass to pull the Panthers within seven, 24 - 17. Klein was all over the court as the Panthers began to move the ball against the press.

As the half drew to a close, the overall strength and experience began to show itself. The Ponstein to Palmer combination proved unbeatable as the Bulldogs took advantage of superior shooting to move to a 37 - 25 halftime lead.

The Panthers entered the final stanza starting at the face of a 18 point deficit. Working hard, and despite the efforts of Randy Vanderploeg and Jim White, the lead was too much to overcome. Grandville coasted on to win 82 - 65.

For the game, the Panthers hit 24 of 72 shots for a 33 per cent average. Grandville connected on 32 of 78 for 41 per cent. At the charity stripe the Panthers canned 13 out of 26 for 50 per cent, while Grandville was 18 of 29 for 61 per cent. Klein led all scorers for West Ottawa with 18 points. He was followed by White with 12, and Jack Barrett, who contributed 11. Grandville was led by Palmer with 23 points; Cline was also in double figures for the Bulldogs, with 16 points.

The Panthers closed out the season at 2 - 18 and will see action against either Jensen or Hudsonville Union Christian in district tourney play Thursday night.

Police, 'Holy Hoopers' Win Before Largest Crowd Ever

Lou Hallacy Gets Special MVP Award

By Leo Martonosi

The scoreboard indicated that the Holland Police Department and "Holy Hoopers" were victorious Thursday night in Civic Center but the big winners were some area youngsters.

Lt. Bud Borr of the police department said that enough money was taken in from the large crowd to send 40 to 50 youngsters to camp this summer.

An estimated 1,500 fans (largest crowd ever) in the five year history of the event watched the Police Department score its first win, 55-50 in the major attraction. The "Holy Hoopers" won, 19-17 in the annual half-time affair.

Bob Bouwkamp and Ben Dubbeld paced the teachers from E.E. Fell Junior High and Holland Christian Middle School with 12 points apiece. Walt Kooyar added nine.

Police Chief Chuck Lindstrom, who was probably the best all around player on the court, led the winners with 17 points. Lindstrom was even arrested in the second period for scoring too many points. Dean Kapenga chipped in with nine points and Bob DeLaluz eight.

Bernie Allen, one of the players for the teachers, cracked that Keith Kleis of the Police was "the best" player that the teachers had to offer.

The teachers enjoyed a 11-7 first period margin and were up at the half 19-17. The second half belonged to the Police, as they led after three quarters, 32-29 and were up by 10 before the teachers battled back.

Both teams had one girl player. The police-Betsy Wagenagel and the teachers Esther Driesenga. Miss Driesenga, a reserve basketball coach at Holland Christian, tallied two points and guarded the police like they were prisoners instead of cops.

The officials, Van Dykes-father Lou and sons Craig and Doug, along with Mike Baker were arrested along with Al McGeehan of the teachers. McGeehan was placed in a straight jacket.

The main attraction along with the halftime show, was as funny as watching an old Jerry Lewis-Dean Martin movie.

Rev. Ron Beyer was up to his old tricks for the "Holy Hoopers", as he not only squirted whipping cream in Mayor Lou Hallacy's face but threw "real" water into the audience.

Things were so hilarious, for city council that Hallacy couldn't even dunk the ball, while standing on a tall ladder on his first attempt.

Hallacy, who was voted MVP of the contest, presented each police eager with a varsity letter. Lindstrom was awarded a special P-on sweater.

Beyer led all scorers in the halftime game with 10 points. Russ DeVette paced city council with five markers.

The witty Beyer gave back the losers trophy to city council. A German band did a great job in performing at the tilt. Numerous gifts were awarded at halftime.
