interfere with their allowances.

names on but one ticket. The bill to this effect has passed both houses of the legislature and been given immed-new store. It is claimed that after everything has been arranged as contemplated, his place of business will be the handsomest and best arranged in western Michigan.

dent of the C. & W. M., passed through this city Friday with General Manager C. M. Heald and General Superin-

We acknowledge with thanks to Prof. H. E. Dosker a copy of the "In-

O. Breyma is about to retire from active business. With this in view the firm of which he is the senior member, have decided to bring about a reduction in their stock of goods, by an auction sale, on Wednesday, March 20. See adv. elsewhere.

It is rumored that the arrangement,
currently reported during the winter,
of the steamer Bradshaw being engaged for a new line between Pen-water, Whitehall and Chicago, has fallen through, and that as soon as the ice breaks up she will for a limited time run between Benton Harbor and Milwaukee for the Graham & Morton people, taking the place of the Chicago and then return to this port and run between here and Chicago, same as last year.

Died at St. Louis, Mo., on Monday evening, Peter D. De Vries, youngest son of ex-Ald. Dirk De Vries, aged nearly 26 years. Peter was born and raised in this city and left here in August, 1890, wishing to see something of the country. He visited several localities and cities east and in New England, and while on his way southward was suddenly taken ill with appendicitis and died in one of the hospitals of St. Louis. His remains arrived here Friday and will be interred
Saturday afternoon from the First Ref. church, at 2:00 p. m. The mourning circle includes his parents, a sister and brother. The latter resides in Indianapolis, and reached here on Thursday.

Patrick Tobin, the deaf mute, who was arrested the other day in this city by Marshal Van Ry, at the request of the sheriff of Muskegon, has plead guilty to stealing a watch, revolver and coat from a friend whose hospitality he had enjoyed. Judge Russell gave him two years at Ionia.

Monday was election day in all the villages of this state. The reports indicate that in many if not in most cases party lines gave way for local issues or preferences. In Spring Lake, after a warm contest, the Citizens'
ticket, headed by Thomas Savidge, won by a small majority. In Allegan
the Citizens' ticket likewise prevailed
by majorities ranging from 50 to 75.

Rev. H. G. Birchby attended the meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. executive committee of the Fourth district of Michigan, at Grand Rapids, Friday, where it was decided to hold the next annual meeting of this district at Macatawa Park early in August, in connection with the Summer Assembly.
The district rally at the state convention to be held in Bay City, March 26-28, will also be led by Rev. Mr. Birch-by.

The social event of the season, in masonic circles, took place Wednesday evening. In response to an invitation of Unity Lodge, No. 191, delegations of masons from Allegan, Saugatuck, Douglas and Fennville were here in goodly numbers to attend an exemplification of work in the third degree of masonry, by the brethren of the Allegan lodge. The exercises were followed by an elegant banquet, at which about 150 sat down. The music was rendered by D. A. DeMassellis, harpist of Grand Rapids. The Allegan visitors returned home at midnight on a special train.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the South Ottawa and West Allegan Fair Association the other day, the first week in October was fixed upon as fair week. This is four weeks after the state fair at Grand Rapids. The board has entered into an arrangement with H. Boone of this city by which the latter takes charge
this season of the grounds, including the track and fences. It has also been decided to thoroughly revise the catalogue and premiums, especially the poultry list. The board will meet again April 2, and appoint the superintendents and committees for the ensuing year.

states, Louisiana, Mississippi and Arkansas.

From a copy of the catalogue of the Northwestern Classical Academy,
Orange City, Iowa, of which Rev. Jas.
F. Zwemer is principal, we are happy to notice the growing condition of that institution. Its roster contains the names of 72 students.

Michigan Tradesman: "H. Van Tong-eren, the Holland City cigar manufacturer, has incurred the displeasure of the cigar makers' union, which has placed a secret boycott on his goods.
If it proves as effective as the open boycott on the goods of G. J. Johnson, the Holland City gentleman will find himself a rich man some of these days."

The difficulty, as we have been informed, is that Mr. Van Tongeren saw fit to buy him a certain piece of machinery, to use in his cigar factory.
This action was not approved by the cigar makers' union, they being opposed to the use of any and all machinery, and hence the displeasure and boycott.

Capt. James Reid of Bay City, the most noted wrecker and diver on the great lakes, has made a proposition to the government to recover the U. S.
mail lost with the ill-fated steamer Elbe on January 30. Capt. Reid was one of seven divers to offer their services, but the other six have drawn out of the contest. For his services he asks the sum of $200,000, which is considered by experts to be very reasonable when the great danger is taken into consideration. The Elbe is supposed to be in 130 feet of water, and few, if any, expert divers, have reached that depth. Capt. Reid's record is 110 feet, which he attained off Muskegon while working on the hull of the sunken scow which contained the machinery of the wrecked steamer Wheeler.

In the Michigan crop report for March it is made to appear that of the entire wheat crop in this state for the year 1894, estimated at 21,627,649 bushels, only 574,031 bushels remain for the market. This estimate is based upon the following data:

Seed, 1,108,000 acres.....	Bushels.
Bread for farmers.....	1,662,000
Sales reported.....	6,627,000
Fed to stock.....	8,006,618
Left for the market.....	4,758,000
	574,031

21,627,649
With reference to the condition of the growing wheat crop the report says: Snow in February covered the ground fairly well until near the close of the month, affording good protection to wheat. In the southern counties the snow was all gone at the end of the month, but in the central and northern counties the covering was ample.

church Sunday.

The repair shops of the C. & W. M.

present, in anticipation of a good traffic in freight the coming season.

The members of Castle Lodge, K. of meet for pedro and a good time generally on Friday evening, March 22, at their hall.

James H. Alling, a former resident of Holland, was elected president of the village of Standish, Arenac county, at the charter election held last Monday.

Harbor Point, next to Mackinaw Island, one of the most famous of Michigan resorts, it is feared will soon be a thing of the past. Some of the older residents of Harbor Springs say it is gradually being engulfed. A few years ago a portion of the end of Harbor Point sank out of sight in the bay, and it is surmised that the same thing will take place with the whole Point.
The Point is covered with handsome cottages.

Nicholas J. Whelan, a member of the Holland life saving crew, after a thorough examination before Judge Grove of the Grand Rapids circuit court, Monday, was duly admitted to the bar. Mr. Whelan has for the last three years been a member of the life-saving service at this place, where he read law, as it were, "between times"
and completed his studies in the law office of E. J. Doyle, Grand Rapids.
On April 1 he will return to Holland to resume his place in the life-saving service, where he proposes to stay another year before hanging out his legal shingle.

G. H. Herald: The Ottawa Beach
hotel will be sold at public auction
May 1. Henry Spring of Grand Rapids is the trustee for the bondholders.
It is a well established fact that the place has not been very lucrative and $20,000 is invested in it in bonds. The Macatawa association is looked upon as a probable buyer, and in case they purchase Ottawa Beach will be one of the best resorts of the season. This will probably be done, as too many Grand Rapids people are interested in the place to see it go down. Charles F. Rood and Fred C. Miller will build handsome cottages there this spring and Frederick W. Stevens is considering doing the same thing. Among other probable buyers mentioned are the C. & W. M. R'y Co., and a syndicate from Allegan.

The Conversion and Translation of Tom King.

Tom was an old negro who lived in my native village. He had tasted the bitterness of slavery. There were scars on his wrists and welts on his broad back. When I first saw Tom he was in his prime, a man of magnificent proportions, a Hercules in stature and in strength. He could stand on the bottom of a canal-boat moored to the village pier and toss a barrel of flour out upon the wharf. The muscle under his black skin were then supple and sinewy, his giantlike form was as erect as the pine, and men turned to look as he passed them in the street.

In his early manhood Tom was not a good man. One winter a noted revivalist came to the village and opened services in the little Methodist church under the hill. He compared the quiet little hamlet to Sodom and Gomorrah, and thundered his denunciations in a manner which struck terror to the hearts of his listeners.

Tom's only surviving relative was his daughter Dinah, who became greatly exercised over the spiritual welfare of her father, and after weeks of pleading persuaded him to go to meeting. This proved to be the turning-point in Tom's career. The horrors of the fate awaiting the sinner in the future world filled Tom with remorse, and he resolved to go to the altar. It was only after a week of brooding that he made up his mind to take this step. To make the effort as easy as possible, he went to the church early and secured a seat near to the altar-rail. Tom's great heart was beating like a trip-hammer when the preacher invited the sinner to flee from the wrath to come, and he was the first to prostrate himself at the altar-rail, and to bend his gigantic frame in an attitude of prayer.

His mind was in a chaos. He felt as if he wanted something, but he could not tell what it was. For the following week he was a miserable man. He went to the preacher, but obtained no relief. Tom remained in this mental condition for several weeks, when suddenly his mind was relieved. A sense of rest and happiness filled his breast. The preacher told him that he had been converted, and Tom believed him. He did not know what conversion meant, but he told his daughter, "Once I was dark inside like a coal-cell, but now I's got a candle in mah soul."

Tom shook of the vices which cling to weaker men as a lion might shake autumn leaves from his mane. It was the blossoming of a human soul into an exquisite goodness. Very simple, childlike, and beautiful Tom's life became. He believed in the Bible literally. With the sensuous imagination of the negro, and the occult divination of a mind which dwelt continually on high planes of thought, he even aspired to translate the mysteries of the book of Revelation. Tom never troubled himself about current events but after supper he would open the well-worn Bible and pore over the wonderful book with constant delight. And as the years went by, his spiritual horizon widened, and all malice and uncharitableness departed from him, leaving a gracious kindness and sweetness which irradiated his rugged features.

The portion of the Bible which fascinated Tom more than any other was the story of the translation of the prophet Elijah. In these iconoclastic days, there are many who laugh at the story of the fiery chariot and the flaming horses, but doubt of its truth never crept into the roomy chambers of Tom's faith. His Oriental fancy saw the chariot descend and rise again with its living freight. With beautiful vision Tom would close the holy book after reading the story over again, look up with eyes of faith through the ceiling until the meteoric vehicle was swallowed by the sky; then clasping his callous hands in religious ecstasy he would sing:

What, oh, what is de good Elijah?
Whar, oh, whar is de good Elijah?
Who went up in de chariot of fish?
Safe, now, in de promised lan'."

By a process of reasoning peculiarly his own idea took possession of Tom's mind that "when the summons came to join the innumerable caravan" he would be translated just as the prophet had been. This was not egotism on his part, it was simply an outgrowth of faith. He had read the words of the Christ about faith like the mustard seed, and its application to the removal of a mountain, and he applied this literally regarding the fiery chariot. Then old age, with its concomitance of partial blindness of rheumatism, came upon him. His once stalwart form was bent, and his great arms began to whither like the limbs of a tree smitten by lightning. But his faith, clarified by years of self-communion and humility, supported him in his adversity. The little oases of refreshing in the desert of his physical weakness Tom found at the weekly prayer-meeting. He always set in a high-backed wooden pew near the door, remembering sadly that he was of an alien and condemned race. One hot August evening, when the brethren and sisters were paying more attention to the moths fluttering around the gas-jets than to the iteration of time-worn supplication and exhortation, the preacher awoke from a half-dose, and without rising from his seat, said:

"There still remain a few minutes before the close of the meeting. If any one wishes to say a few words or to lead in prayer he now has the chance."

From far away on the drowsy evening air came the notes of the whip-poorwill. Then the silence was broken by a blundering June-bug, which flew into Sister Jones's ear, provoking a shriek and a snicker. Then silence again. The preacher was about to close the meeting, when old Tom King pulled himself, by the help of the seat in front, to an erect position. He looked like a gigantic oak which was fast decaying, and there was a trembling cadence in his voice as he said, "Let us pray."

Tom paused for a few seconds, as if trying to gather all the powers of his finite intelligence in the effort properly to fix his feeble utterance to the task of addressing the Infinite. Then with profound pathos and humility, he began:

"Our Father who art in heaven, we, Thy leetle chillun, look 'way tru' de night shadders into de ca'm lan' beyon' de sea. To-night, our Father, de fogs ob unbelief an' de mists ob doubt an' bein' swep' away by de strong wind ob faith, an' we can see de crystal ribbon an' de bloomin' fel's ob Paradise. De road has been tol'ble long an' dusty, Father. Sometimes de water has been sca'ce on de road, and de sun has burned hotter dan de fu'nace; but, bress de Lord! de promis' lan' am only a leetle way yander. Our eyes am agittin' dim, but we can see de sun a-shinin' on de jasper gates an' de glory floodin' de walls ob de holy city. De steeples an' de winders am a-blazin' wiv de light. We's on'y a-settin' on de steps ob heaven to res' befo' de hosses ob flah'an' de chariots ob crimson come down to take us into de green fel's whar de flow'rs is eber bloomin'. In de sweet fel's ob Eden we can see de Solomon-lily and de roses ob Sharon, an' de bleedin' heart honeysuckle, all sweeter dan de honey in de comb. De leetle bees, wiv gol'en wings are a-hummin'. O Lord, send quick de hosses an' de chariots to carry us home, 'cause de misery am got us in de legs, an' de as'my am a-chokin'—ah—"

Here Tom halted in his prayer, swayed back and forth, and fell heavily back upon the bench. A scene of excitement ensued. With tender reverent hands, the brethren laid him upon some cushions taken from some of the front pews. Already the pallor of dissolution was spreading over his face.

"Tain't no use fo' to sen' fo' de doctor, honey," he whispered to Sister Jones. "I's got mah call."

The radiance of an electric light was shining in at the window from the street. The gleam caught Tom's fading gaze, and a glad smile overspread his face and he murmured:

"See de light ob de hosses! See de shine ob de flery wheels! Keerful, keerful, Gab'r'el; keerful chile! Drive dem flah hosses slow! I's comin'—comin'—comin'—"

How Editors Are Treated in China.

Nineteen hundred editors of a Pekin paper are said to have been beheaded. Some would shudder at such slaughter, who are heedless of the fact that consumption is ready to fasten its fatal holds on themselves. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the efficient remedy for weak lungs, spitting of blood, shortness of breath, bronchitis, asthma, severe coughs, and kindred affection.

Stamps, La Fayette Co., Arkansas.
Dr. R. V. Pierce: Dear Sir—I will say this to you, that consumption is hereditary in my wife's family; some have already died with the disease. My wife has a sister, Mrs. E. A. Cleary, that was taken with consumption. She used your "Golden Medical Discovery," and, to the surprise of her many friends, she got well. My wife has also had hemorrhages from the lungs, and her sister insisted on her using the "Golden Medical Discovery." I consented to her using it, and cured her. She has had no symptoms of consumption for the past six years.

Yours very truly,

Said in a recent Lecture on Chronic Catarrh and Consumption:

Catarrh of the lungs is, ordinarily, known as consumption also called tuberculosis. In these cases it usually found its way into the lungs by the gradual extension of the disease from the throat through the bronchial tubes. Consumption is the natural termination of all cases of neglected chronic catarrh. Every one who is afflicted with chronic catarrh is liable to be attacked with consumption at any time. In the first stages of the disease Peruna is a sure cure: in the later stages of the disease Peruna can be relied upon to produce great benefit, and in a large per cent. of cases produce a permanent cure. All those afflicted with this dread disease should begin at once the following treatment:

After all other means have been tried in vain: after doctors have pronounced the case hopeless and friends have given up in the despair: after the patient has lost all faith and incessant care of attendants seems futile, still there is hope in Peruna. Electric Light and Water Loan.

CLERK'S OFFICE, CITY OF HOLLAND, March 12, 1895.

To the Electors of the City of Holland:

You will please take notice that the following resolution was duly adopted by the common council of the city of Holland, at a meeting held on the 26th day of February, A. D. 1895, as follows:

Whereas, the electric light plant of the city does not have a sufficient capacity to furnish the necessary light to the city and to the inhabitants thereof; and whereas it is desirable that the capacity of said light plant be increased by about fifteen hundred (1500) lights, at a cost of not to exceed Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000); and whereas it is necessary that improvements, alterations and additions should be made to our present system of waterworks in order to protect the city and its inhabitants against loss by fire, at an estimated cost of not to exceed Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000); and whereas said sum, amounting in all to Eighteen Thousand Dollars ($18,000) cannot be raised without first submitting the proposition to raise the same to a vote of the electors of the city;

Therefore Resolved, that said amount of Eighteen Thousand Dollars ($18,000) be raised for the purpose hereinbefore mentioned, by loan, and that for the purpose of said loan, bonds of the city of Holland be issued, as follows: Twelve bonds in the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) each, with interest coupons attached thereto, said bonds to be designated as "Series B, Electric Light Bonds," and to be numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 respectively.

tively, and to be made payable on the first day of February, A. D. 1905; said bonds drawing interest at a rate not to exceed five per cent per annum, payable annually; both principal and interest to be paid out of the funds of the city, the interest to be paid on said bonds out of the "interest and sinking fund," the principal of the first named bonds to be paid out of the "light fund" and the principal of the second named bonds to be paid out of the "water fund;" said bonds to be signed by the mayor and the city clerk and to be negotiated by the common council at a price not less than the par value thereof, as the council may deem expedient and may direct and determine; and that upon the negotiating of said bonds the money received for the light bonds be placed to the credit of the "light fund" and the money received for the waterworks bonds to be placed to the credit of the "water fund;"

And Further Resolved, that the proposition to raise said amount of Eighteen Thousand Dollars ($18,000) by loan and to issue the bonds therefor as hereinbefore determined and proposed for the purposes hereinbefore determined and set forth, be submitted to a vote of the electors of the city, at the next annual city election to be held on the first Monday (the first day) in April, A. D. 1895, and that the substance of the question thus submitted be printed upon a separate ballot and be set forth substantially in form and words as follows:

"SHALL the City of Holland raise by loan the sum of eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000), twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) thereof to be used for the purpose of increasing the capacity of the electric light plant and six thousand dollars ($6,000) thereof to be used for the purpose of making improvements and additions to its system of waterworks; and shall bonds of the city, twelve in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) each and to be termed "Electric Light Bonds" and six in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) each and to be termed "Waterworks Bonds," be issued therefore, all bonds payable on the first day of February, A. D. 1905, together with interest at a rate not to exceed five per cent per annum, payable annually?"

MICHIGAN LEGISLATURE.

Senate.
LANSING, Mich., March 8.—The senate on Thursday passed the bill appropriating $8,000 to provide for eight inspectors of factories. The bill making it lawful to shoot deer in any section of the state only from November 10 to November 30 was also passed. The senate committee on labor made a favorable report on the bill recommended by Gov. Rich as a solution of disputes between capital and labor. The bill provides for the incorporation of labor organizations so that they may sue and be sued, and thus settle their difficulties as other corporations do.
LANSING, Mich., March 9.—The senate judiciary committee on Friday reported adversely upon the house resolution for a general increase of salaries for state officers. Favorable committee reports were made on bills appropriating $125,000 for additional buildings at the home for the feeble-minded; appropriating $175,000 for the soldiers' home; appropriating $72,000 for the state fish commission, and providing for local option on the local traffic by the vote of cities, villages and townships, instead of by county, as now.
LANSING, Mich., March 13.—The senate on Tuesday passed bills appropriating $73,792.66 for the fish commission, for the submission of a constitutional amendment increasing the salaries of state officers, for the purchase and display of United States flags on all schoolhouses of the state. The appointments of F. Hart Smith, of Hillsdale, as a member of the board of control of the Jackson prison, and of Albert C. Schumaker, of Ann Arbor, as a member of the state board of pharmacy for five years, were confirmed.

House.
LANSING, Mich., March 8.—Bills passed the house Thursday authorizing the city of Menominee to build a bridge across the Menominee river, and authorizing women to act as trustees of Baptist churches. Bills abolishing days of grace on commercial paper and providing for an examination and reappraisal of all state lands were killed. A bill was passed requiring nurses and midwives to report any inflammation of the eyes of children under 2 weeks old. Oculists say 25 per cent. of the blindness among children can be avoided if these defects are treated at the proper time.

LANSING, Mich., March 9.—In the committee of the whole house Friday agreed to bills providing for the return of any bonus that may have been paid to corporations for locating at a given point in case they abandon the locality, and for the purchase and display of United States flags on all public schoolhouses. The Campbell bill providing that before any corporation can do business in Michigan the entire amount of the authorized capital must be subscribed and 25 per cent. thereof actually paid in was opposed by the upper peninsula delegation, who asserted that it would drive vast numbers of Michigan corporations into other states. No conclusion was reached and the bill will come up again next week.

LANSING, Mich., March 12.—Bills were passed in the house Monday empowering the regents of the university to hold land in perpetual trust for that institution, and also providing for the depositing by the regents with the state treasurer of whatever cash bequests may be made the university and the payment by the state of whatever interest that money may earn from year to year. The bill appropriating $8,000 for continuing the reclamation of the records of the adjutant general's office also passed. The legislators will, by invitation, visit the university at Ann Arbor on March 22.

LANSING, Mich., March 13.—A bill passed the house Tuesday providing that staff officers in the national guard shall have had three years' service in the state or national troops. The Partridge bill, providing that in all cities having a population of over 50,000 all caucuses of the respective parties shall be held at the same hour in all precincts, was passed. If there is doubt that any party participating in the caucus is an adherent of the party the bill provides that he may be sworn as to his purpose to support the nominee at the polls.

ENRICHED BY THEFT.

Plot to Rob Freight Cars Unearthed at Detroit.

DETROIT, March 13.—Detective Hunt, of the Wabash railroad, has unearthed a plot to steal from the freight cars of the road, and has arrested Charles Bromiski and August Bramowski, of Springwells, who live near the Wabash tracks. These men have long been suspected of plundering the railroads of thousands of dollars' worth of freight every year. Hunt caught them both opening a freight car Monday night. After their arrest he made a search of Bromiski's premises, and found that a subterranean passage had been constructed, leading from the embankment at the track near Bromiski's house to the cellar of his barn. The barn had no appearance of having a cellar, the trap door which led to it being cleverly concealed. In the cellar he found all kinds of plunder, from barrels of flour and sacks of coffee to raisins, boxes of soap and small parcels. Bromiski has been in the habit of driving into the country very often and selling the stolen groceries to the farmers much below market price. Bromiski's business ostensibly was to sell and buy bags. He and Bramowski have both become well-to-do from their stealings.

MICHIGAN CROPS.

Their Condition as Shown in the March Report.

LANSING, March 9.—In the March crop report Secretary of State Gardner says:

"Practically all of the Michigan wheat-crop of 1894 has been consumed. The crop was estimated at 21,627,549 bushels. The amount used for seed, for bread by farmers, and the amount reported sold to date, together with the amount estimated as fed to stock, which is 22 per cent. of the crop, aggregates 21,053,618 bushels, leaving only 573,931 bushels on hand. In this calculation only sales actually reported are included. The sales in February and previous months not yet reported will wipe out all of the balance noted. All future deliveries by farmers must come from reserves from previous crops. In condition live stock averages from five to seven points below a full average, comparison being with stock in good, healthy and thrifty condition."

Plans of Michigan Lumbermen.

MUSKEGON, March 12.—A meeting of a syndicate of western Michigan lumbermen was held here to plan for gigantic lumbering operations, the first step of which will be the purchase of several thousand acres of pine lands on Georgian bay, Ont., the logs to be towed to Muskegon for sawing.

The Republican City, District and Ward Caucuses for the nomination of candidates for the several municipal offices will be held in Lyceum Opera House, on Thursday, March 21, 1895, at 7:30 p. m., except the Republican Caucus for the Fifth ward, which will be held at the Fifth ward school house, on Wednesday, March 20, 1895, at 7:30 p. m.

On Thursday evening the several ward and district nominations will be made before the general city caucus is called to order.

By order of the Republican City Committee.

Holland, Mich., March 14, 1895.

The opposition to the candidacy of Mr. Lillie, as county commissioner of schools, although limited territorially, continues to make itself heard. It appears in the main to be a continuation of the fight made against him two years ago, principally in Zeeland township. There is an existing sentiment there which, notwithstanding the large Republican majority, may somewhat affect the prospects of Mr. Lillie's election, unless special efforts are made in his behalf. The occasion for all this to many of our readers is a matter of conjecture. In this and last week's issue of the News Mr. Lillie has manfully defended himself against some attacks made upon him. As to the origin and character of the allegations we would state that we have received a communication from Mr. C. Van Loo specifying the same, and in view of all the premises we deem it proper and best to publish it. The article will appear in next week's issue of the News. It will lay matters open, place our candidate in a position where he can meet his antagonists squarely and refute or explain, and enable his friends add the public to judge understandingly. Under this arrangement Mr. Lillie will have another opportunity in the issue of March 30 in which to complete his defence, a beginning of which he has already made. Personal reflections or anonymous communications of course, are barred out.

There will be an adjourned session of the circuit court held in this city, in Lyceum Opera House, on Tuesday, March 19, 1895, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon. All aliens having "declared their intention" and desiring to become citizens of the United States can appear on that day and take out their full papers. This opportunity extends to those residing in Allegan as well as in Ottawa counties, and applies to every alien who came here after he was twenty-one years, who has resided in the United States continuously five years and in this state one year, and who has declared his intention to become a citizen (first papers) at least two years prior to this date. Also to every alien who came here at the age of eighteen years and is now twenty-three or over, provided he has resided in the United States continuously five years and in this state one year, and takes out his first papers at the same time. It is also required in each case, to show by two witnesses, citizens of the United States, that in addition to the above requirements the applicant during that time has behaved as a man of good moral character, is attached to the principles of the constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

The circuit court opened on Monday, Judge Padgham presiding. An informal call of the calendar at once disclosed the fact that there would be but little demand for a jury. Of the three criminal cases, one, the Hunt contempt case, was non-jury; the other, People vs. Wm. Wilder, malicious killing of an animal belonging to another, was dropped, leaving only the arson case from this city. The People announced themselves ready, although one of the witnesses, Albert C. Koppel, was ill. The respondents, Slag, Smith and Steffens, through their counsel, Geo. E. Kollen, applied for a continuance on the ground of sickness of a material witness, Mrs. T. Slag. In support hereof they filed an affidavit of Dr. F. J. Schouten of this city, the family physician, that Mrs. Slag was confined to the house with measles and that it would be dangerous to compel her attendance in court. The application was granted and the case went over to the next term of court, to be held in August. A number of other cases on the civil calendar also went over the term, among them that of Van Etta vs. Huizinga. Several aliens took out their second papers.

The Populist county convention was held in this city Saturday afternoon, with a light attendance; Mr. J. B. Greenway called the meeting to order; W. W. Phillips was elected chairman, and Miss Lulu Ingraham secretary; and Miss Cora M. Goodenow received the nomination for county commissioner of schools without opposition. Delegates from abroad were Walter Phillips and Miss Ingraham of Grand Haven, George F. Upton of Coopersville, Geo. W. Sevey of Herrington, A. J. Knight of Robinson, and F. Goodenow of Berlin. The county committee was reconstructed with J. B. Greenway as chairman and W. Baumgartel as secretary.

Elsewhere will be found the official notices designating the registration and polling places at the coming election; also the officers to be elected and the amendments to the constitution submitted for ratification by the people. One of these amendments increases the salary of the attorney general to $3,500 a year, and the other authorizes the county of Ingham, in which the state capital is located, to have an additional circuit judge. — LATER. The amendment increasing the salary of the attorney general has been enlarged so as to include other state officers.

COUNTY SCHOOL COMMISSIONER.

MR. LILLIE EXONERATED — FALSE CHARGES OF MR. VAN LOO AIDED — WHAT MR. LILLIE DID AS COMMISSIONER — VINDICATION OF CILLEY, COONEY AND REUS.

MR. EDITOR—I wish space in your paper to say a few words with regard to the misrepresentation and malicious falsehoods which Mr. Van Loo and the Zeeland Expositor charge against me in the last week's issue of that paper.

NEGLECT OF DUTY.

They attempt to prove that I did work that the law did not require of me and neglected work that was required by law to be done. If they would state the case like this they would have the truth: I did all the work required by law and a vast amount of work for the schools of Ottawa county the law did not require.

Mr. Van Loo seems to think that because there were some schools, like Zeeland, Coopersville, Vriesland, Berlin and others, that had systems, that my work in bringing out a course of study was unnecessary. Mr. Van Loo and the Expositor set themselves as educators above Hon. Joseph Esterbrook, who was at that time superintendent of public instruction. Mr. Esterbrook made favorable comments on my work, both in letter and in the leading school journal of the state. That he deemed something of this sort necessary is very evident from the fact that the next year he, together with a committee of county commissioners, arranged a graded course of study for the district schools of the state. That the schools above named had a system only showed the necessity of a system for the whole county. What would the people of Grand Haven or Holland think of a city superintendent of schools who would allow one room to follow one system of gradation and study, and another another system? Perhaps Van Loo, etc., better write to Superintendent Pattengill about this matter; they may revolutionize the educational system of the state.

BERLIN SCHOOL.

The Expositor claims that the Berlin school has "dwindled down" under my management. This statement only shows the recklessness and desperation which they are driven to in running the campaign of dirt and falsehood. The register of the Berlin school shows that Miss Goodenow had enrolled in her room at one time 52 pupils, and the primary teacher 37, making a total enrollment of 89.

Last year there were enrolled in my room 61 pupils and in the primary 44, making a total enrollment of 105. Last year during my supervision the Berlin school board received $145.75 tuition from foreign pupils, at the rate of $1.00 per month. This is by far the largest amount received during the history of the school. Instead of there being only "four outsiders" this year, the register shows 21 foreign scholars. Not only this, but Miss Goodenow said over her own signature in the Courier-Journal last fall, that the Berlin school was noted for having in 1894 the largest enrollment of foreign pupils of any school in the county.

These facts can be verified by writing to Dr. A. E. Shimmel, the present director, or William D. Wells, the director of last year. Mr. Wells is moderator this year. The present year my room has an enrollment of 58 pupils, and the primary 45, making a total enrollment of 103. Is this what the Expositor calls "dwindling down"? Mr. Editor, when these people will make such a barefaced misrepresentation of facts about such a thing as this, which can so easily be proven false, will the voters of the county believe the other accusations?

THOSE REPORTS.

On Monday, the 4th inst., Mr. Van Loo walked into the county clerk's office at Grand Haven and asked for certain reports which were filed by me, according to law, while I was commissioner of schools. County clerk Turner told him he could not find them. Mr. Van Loo wanted to know the reason. Mr. Turner told him that there were several wagonloads of papers which were, as yet, not assorted and properly arranged from the mass of material, as it was moved from the old court house to the new, and he presumed they were in there. He further told him that he could not find the same reports which Miss Goodenow filed, with the exception of the three last, and they were filed since the occupation of the new court house.

In the face of these circumstances Mr. Van Loo goes back to Zeeland and takes the statement, without any qualification whatever, that those reports are not to be found. Is there one spark of honor or fairness in this man's makeup? Why didn't he state the circumstances as they were? I could, with equal honor, accuse Miss Goodenow of not filing her reports. At the present writing they are not to be found. Does Mr. Van Loo expect such misrepresentation of facts and truth as this to win? If it does, "O, Justice, thou art fled to brutish beasts, and men have lost their reason!"

MR. COONEY AND MR. CILLEY.

In Mr. Van Loo's unwarranted attack upon the moral character of Mr. Cooney and Mr. Cilley he shows how low an unscrupulous politician can stoop in an attempt to bolster up his unholy cause. These young men are well known in north Ottawa, and I assure him he will gain nothing by this false assumption in this locality. According to Miss Goodenow's own statement they are teaching two of the best schools in Ottawa county. Does he believe she would say this of these gentlemen if they were "confessedly unfit to teach." If Mr. Van Loo expects to show that I am unfit to be commissioner, because I have granted these young men certificates, I sincerely believe the people will with one accord put their flat of condemnation upon such villainous practices.

LEONARD REUS OF NOORDELOOS.

Mr. Van Loo further says that Mr. Reus is not competent to hold a third grade certificate and accuses me of granting him a first grade certificate. Again the man does me wrong, unscrupulously and maliciously withholding facts that will entirely clear me from any blame, if there is any attached to this case. The first I ever knew of Mr. Reus he held a first grade certificate. If he was not competent to hold one, why don't Mr. Van Loo put the blame where it belongs—on the board that granted him the certificate?

A highly respectable gentleman of Zeeland once held a position on the board of examiners, and he gave Mr. Reus a certificate. Under my administration Mr. Reus received a RENEWAL of his certificate, but he was never examined by me. Supt. Esterbrook authorized the county board of examiners to RENEW certificates of the same grade to all teachers who would furnish to the county board sufficient proof that they had performed the work laid out for the State Teachers' Reading Circle. My board, in order to make this proof strong, required written outlines to be furnished by every teacher who should choose to take advantage of the offer of the state department.

Now, in all fairness, I will say this much for Mr. Reus: He presented the neatest, most complete written outline of any that were presented that year. Those outlines are on file in the commissioner's office and are public property. Any one can look at them who chooses to do so. My acquaintance with Mr. Reus has been short. I have only met him occasionally. As to his scholarship, I cannot defend him, for I do not know. He can probably defend himself. But of one thing I am sure, if he is my friend—and I trust he is—that is enough to condemn him in the opinion of Mr. Van Loo.

Very truly yours,

COLON C. LILLIE.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

The statement having been made in the Zeeland Expositor that the Berlin school had "dwindled down" from a total enrollment of 93 during Miss Goodenow's service, to 55 with "four outsiders" at present under Mr. Lillie, we wish to make the following statement for publication, in order to set the matter right, as far as possible: During the last term that Miss Goodenow was with us we had enrolled in the principal room 52, in the primary 39, making a total of 91. Last year, Mr. Lillie's first, we had enrolled in the principal room 61, primary 44, making a total enrollment of 105. This year the enrollment in principal room was 58, in primary room 44, making a total enrollment of 102. There attended the high school last year 28 foreign pupils, and this year 21.

A Chance to Make Money.

I am delighted with my success selling Dish Washers; in the last six weeks I made $534, and was sick part of the time. I think this is pretty good for an inexperienced lady. I am surprised there has never been a good Dish Washer put on the market before, as everyone seems anxious for one. It certainly is a popular demand that is unsupplied, and that means big money for the agents that supply the demand. I believe any woman or man can make from $5 to $12 a day anywhere in this business, and by addressing the Iron City Dish Washer Co., E. E. Pittsburg, Pa., you can get full particulars. It simply requires a little push. You can't expect to make money unless you try. I would like to have the experience of others of your readers in this business.

An historical building is about to pass away in Baltimore—the Front Street Theatre. It was opened by Jennie Lind during her visit to this country in 1851. In 1860 it was the scene of the stormy national democratic convention which preceded the rebellion, when Stephen A. Douglas was nominated for president. In June 1864, it was the scene of the union republican national convention which renominated Abraham Lincoln for president.

A long-felt want in this city has been supplied by the organization of a young ladies' social and literary society, called the "Athenaeum Club." The number of members is limited to forty. Miss E. "Nothing succeeds like success," is rather an old saying, but it applies nicely to the success of C. L. Streng & Son's opening this week. H. P. Streng the popular manager, has worked with untiring energy to make their store the largest and the finest in our city, and thus far his efforts in this line have been crowned with success. The past week's opening was a formal one, to introduce our citizens to their handsome new salesrooms. The taste displayed in the arrangement of the different departments and decorations, together with one of the finest stocks in the state was a sufficient guarantee to draw the crowds.

Zeeland.

The election Monday was spirited. It has been said that there is more politics to the square foot in Zeeland than in any other place in the state, and the same was proven true in the last campaign. In all 288 votes were cast of which 124 were straight republican and 167 straight democratic. The following is the official vote:

For president—

Cornelius Van Loo R....147 —7

Johannes P. De Pree D....139

For trustees, two years—

Chris De Jonge R....158—30

Goyert Keppel R....153—22

Peter J. Buwalda R....151—23

Berend Kamps D....128

Willem Westhoek D....131

Jan Huizinga D....128

For trustee, one year—

Marinus Schram R....149—18

Cornelis Kruythof D....131

Martin Elzinga R....1

For clerk—

William D. Van Loo R....155—25

Benj. Veneklasen D....130

For assessor—

John Pyl R....148—11

Dirk Kamperman D....137

For treasurer—

John Zoutendam R....164—43

Willem D. De Pree D....121

The contest between the nominees for trustees on the two tickets was made strictly on the issue of license or no license for saloons. It is needless to say that Zeeland will remain dry for another year. Considering the fact that the chief fight was made on the head of the ticket, the vote for Mr. Van Loo is especially gratifying to his friends. The out-going village officers retire with the consciousness of having done their duty to the best of their ability, and nearly all will agree that they did it well.

Mr. Schipper was trying to enforce payment of their tax, and from one he took a cow and from the other a suit of clothes. He left the property with a neighbor, who gave it up when confronted by a justice from Salem, a constable, and the owner. The treasurer went for the cow and clothes again, when one of the men presented a loaded gun and threatened to shoot him.

Prof. Vaughn of Ann Arbor, who made the tests for traces of poison in the stomach of the late Mr. Monteith of Otsego, has sent in the following statement: "There is a trace of arsenic in the liver, but it is not enough to have caused death. It may have been contained in medicine given, or an embalming fluid may have been used. The kidneys and the liver were so thoroughly diseased that a cause of death is plainly evident." Dr. Dreher and a clergyman of Plainwell, are responsible for the post mortem investigation and it is rumored that Mrs. Monteith will begin suit for damages.

Word was received in Allegan Monday that the case in the U. S. court at Grand Rapids against Sheriff Stratton and others, will not be tried in this term, and probably never. The officers were arrested for arresting U. S. Marshal O'Donnell last December on charge of false imprisonment preferred by Ezra Brown of Lee. One of the indirect results of those arrests was the arrest on Monday of Byron Thayer, of Trowbridge, for contempt of court. He gave $1,000 bonds for his appearance before Judge Padgham the 18th inst. It is alleged that Thayer was guilty of trying to keep two of the people's important witnesses away in the trial of a liquor case at the December term of circuit court.

W. C. WALSH

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE AGENT.

—Property Bought, Sold and Rented.—

HOLLAND has every advantage that goes to make a large city. She is growing to-day faster than any Michigan city or any of the great Western cities ever grow. Vacant lots that went begging in many of these Western towns for $100 are in many instances now bringing $10,000. The

Golden Opportunity for Making Money

In these cities was when they were small. That same chance is offered you in Holland, Mich., NOW. You will never find a better time. In a few short weeks new business blocks, large manufacturing and new railroad enterprises will bring new life, new men, more money, and higher prices.

NOW IS THE TIME

To make the investment, and I call your attention to the following INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES:

FOR SALE—A new house, finely located, on West Eleventh Street; fine drinking water; easy terms.

FOR SALE—A new dwelling house on Land street, between Eleventh and Twelfth Sts. Price on this property is below the actual value, and terms to suit.

FOR SALE—The finest four acres in Holland City (south central part); well located for a beautiful home or to sub-divide.

FOR SALE—Neat dwelling on College Ave. A great bargain if sold at once. Terms can be made to please purchaser.

FOR SALE—One or two fine corner residence lots being on the corners of Tenth st. and First avenue, and Eleventh street and First avenue. Best part of the city and a beautiful residence district.

FOR SALE—$185.00 buys a good dry building lot on Sixth street. Well located for anyone working in the factories.

You Are Thinking About It?

Will you simply think and let others make the money. In 1893 a gentleman bought two lots in Denver for two sacks of flour; in 1899 he sold them for $200; in 1901 they sold for $30,000, and to-day they are worth $100,000. Holland's prices and conditions, (for Holland is certain to be a great manufacturing city,) are better than Denver's were in 1870 and its population twice what Denver's was then. Buy property before Holland has become too large and property too high in price. Call on or write for special bargains. Respectfully yours,

W. C. WALSH.

CONNECTICUT'S GYPSY PRINCE.

He Makes Regular Horse Trading Tours of the Country.

For over forty years a family of gypsies have been residents of this state. At the present time one of them claims to be the head of the gypsies in this country, says a Bridgeport correspondent of the New York Sun. He is Prince William and lives with his family near East Hartford. The East Hartford branch is the main branch of the family. All the male members of the family are born horse traders and are known all over New England as upright and honest business men. Attached to their residence at East Hartford are stables which in winter are always filled with choice horses. One of the interesting sights at the barn are the wagons in which Prince William and family go off on their annual trips. These wagons cost from one thousand to twenty-five hundred dollars each.

There are branches of the family in New Haven and also in this city, and when one of these trips about the country takes place the other branches join it. The trips are usually begun about the 1st of August and sometimes extend into the winter months, the family traveling in the south when cold weather arrives in New England. The family lately returned from a trip which was begun last August. On these trips spare horses are taken along to trade. This means a cavalcade of a dozen gorgeous wagons and about one hundred horses. The entire family, men, women and children, go along. The party keep together, traveling by easy stages, about twenty miles a day being considered a good journey. When hurried they can make forty miles a day.

The place selected for the night's resting-place is usually a grove. There the wagons are drawn up in a circle, the fires lighted and supper prepared. After the evening meal the entire family gather around Prince William's tent or wagon and the affairs of the family are discussed. A watchman patrols the camp all night to guard the horses.

THE DREAM OF CHEMISTRY.

Hopes in Time to Produce Palatable Beefsteaks Out of the Elements.

The electrician has one dream and the social philosopher has another. But the chemist has also a vision of the alchemist of the dark ages. This is how he would solve the problems of comfort and happiness which have been put to the human race:

"The chemist hopes for a synthetic beefsteak, for a chemical loaf, for a cup of coffee made, like his sodawater extracts, out of inorganic matter. He wants to see the day when a synthetic climate shall envelop the earth, when the rainmaker shall be a prophet and man shall hold the string to the unruly bags of Aeolus.

"In that day the food and raiment of mankind will be produced in the crucibles of the chemist. Once more verdure will clothe the fields now defaced by human toil, and the shaggy woods will spring anew on the despoiled slopes of the hills. There will be no tilling or harvest, no slaughtering of tame beasts. Out of the original elements chemistry will compound chops and cutlets, knead the dough and brew ale.

"The battle has already been partly won in the case of medicines and drugs. The wine at the table d'hôte never saw the vineyard. The 'prize fruit flowers' of the drug store are innocent of the orchard and garden. Synthetic chemistry is yet young. It has made great advances in the production of glycerine and sugar. It has four thousand devotees in this country who hope to make the dream a reality."

LOTTERY HATED HIS JOCKEY.

Strange Antipathy of the Old-Time Steeplechaser for Jem Mason.

The following story is told in the London Field of the famous old English steeplechaser Lottery, foaled in 1830, winner of the Grand National in 1839, carrying one hundred and sixty-eight pounds: Lottery and Jem Mason made up a combination which delighted the eyes of every horseman whose good fortune it was to see the pair across a big country together. Yet, strange to say, Lottery had the greatest antipathy to the man who rode him in nearly all his races and who certainly cannot be accused of any cruelty toward him, for Jem Mason was by no means one of the whip and spur school. He had fine hands, and believed in them, as he was entitled to do. Still he was hated by Lottery, and when the old horse was about twenty years old and was located at Mr. Hall's at Neasden Jem Mason chanced to go down, and naturally enough asked to be allowed to have a look at the old chaser. Just before the doors of the box were opened Lottery heard his jockey's voice and gave him one of his old greetings—that is to say, he flew at him; but Jem, being not unprepared for a reception of this kind, was soon out of harm's way. During Lottery's steeplechasing career Jem Mason often had to hide his colors when he went to mount the horse, but, when the rider was once seated and the horse cantered to the post, the two were apparently on the most friendly terms.

THIS WAS A SMART CAT.

How He Convinced Himself That It Was His Own Image.

The late Dr. Romanes, in his "Animal Intelligence," gives two stories of cats, which, on seeing their own reflection in a looking glass, convinced themselves that the reflection was an illusion. In the case of a very intelligent cat of mine, he went, I think, a step beyond this—namely, he satisfied himself that it was in some way his own image. Even if my deduction is wrong, the first part of his proceedings was singularly like those in Dr. Romanes' accounts, that it seems as though it were a uniform law of cat nature to act in this way, and so far it may not be altogether uninteresting.

"I put the cat on a table, in front of a small toilet mirror. After looking at his reflection for a short while, he went behind the glass; then he returned to his seat in front, and again watched it attentively. After a few moments he rapidly dashed behind it. He again returned to his seat in front of the glass, and, while retaining his seat and keeping his eyes fixed on the image, he struck about behind the glass with his paw in different directions.

"His next action, was, I fancy, suggested by seeing the image apparently strike with its paw also. Keeping his seat and retaining his eye fixed on the image, he proceeded to (if I may use the word) posture in front of the glass. He raised his paws alternately, licked them, touched the glass, moved his head, etc. I have tried to simply describe facts, and as far as possible avoid drawing conclusions."
