Agent Fred Zalsman of the Graham & Morton line has received notice that the season of navigation at Holland will open on or before April 1. A boat is ready to start on the Holland Chicago run as soon as it is possible to get through the ice.

The movement in favor of paying county officers salaries instead of fees is gathering force. Muskegon will have a bill before the legislature placing the sheriff's office on a salary and the representatives of Ottawa and Kent counties have already introduced similar bills. The state senate has passed a bill placing all Genesee county officials on salaries and other counties are awakening to the fact that the fee system is out of date. Muskegon Chronicle.

According to Grand Rapids reports, the new river boat line which will operate between this city and Grand Rapids by the Grand Rapids Board of Trade, has secured Chicago connection with the Goodrich Transportation Company. The new line will form the connecting link in the all water route from Grand Rapids. Shippers believe this method will prove advantageous. The river line as yet, has secured no boats, but it is expected to have one before the spring opens. The new line will dock in Grand Rapids just north of the city market.

For some time past it has been known that flagrant violations of the game law were being committed on Pere Marquette lake this winter. It appears that illegal fishing by the use of gill nets has been carried on in an open manner by a number of Pollock residents of Fourth ward. The matter came to the attention of Deputy Game Warden Charles K. Hoyt of Grand Haven who chanced to be in the vicinity. The warden accompanied by Deputy Sheriff A. Laidlaw went over to the Fourth ward Saturday and captured half a dozen gangs of gill nets which were set under the ice in Pere Marquette lake. The owners of the nets saw the officers at work but did not attempt to interfere. It is understood that a number of arrests will be made. —Ludington Record.

The sheriff's residence apartments in the county jail building caught fire Sunday evening at about eight o'clock and it was only the prompt action of Sheriff Woodbury and Turnkey Salisbury that saved a serious blaze. The sheriff first noticed smoke and immediately started on a tour of investigation. For some time no fire could be found but finally he went into the furnace room and turned out the lights. Fire was then discovered under the floor of the kitchen, where the furnace pipe passed close to the stringers. The blaze was extinguished without help from the department, but the action was timely to save the jail from probable destruction. The sheriff and assistants wound the exposed pipe with proper protective material this morning to prevent any more accidents.

Harry M. Bird was elected president on Citizens ticket by 36 majority at Saugatuck Monday.

Blue birds made their first appearance here March 9, reminding us that spring is near.

Circuit Court convenes next Monday but from the present outlook the term will be a quiet one.

Mr. L. Fris who was stricken with apoplexy Saturday evening is recovering slowly. When attacked he fell on the street and was taken to his home.

Very few public improvements will be made this year. The River street paving which at first had been contemplated will be postponed indefinitely.

The electric light and power company of Saugatuck contract to operate the water works plant for a term of five years was accepted and the president and clerk authorized to sign same for the village.

Five thousand brook trout arrived in Grand Haven this morning by freight from Paris, Michigan and they will be planted immediately in Bignell and Little Pigeon creeks. Another consignment has been sent to E. P. Cummings of Grand Haven for planting in other creeks in the vicinity.

Figuring on the basis of the tonnage of beets next season being the same as that of this year, although it will be much larger under favorable conditions for the growth of the beets, the increase in price of 50 cents per ton means an additional outlay to the Holland Sugar Co. for beets of a total of $16,000.

Postmaster Falls of Spring Lake has received word from the state fish hatchery at Paris, Mich., that 4,000 brook trout will arrive here on the 17th to be planted in Taylor and Beckwith creek. Mr. Falls has applied for 8000 wall-eyed pike from the United States hatchery and it is expected they will be delivered in May.

The remarkable farewell recently tendered to Dr. Otte, at Rotterdam was full of inspiration to the Chinese medical missionary, and to all the host of representative Dutch friends of missions in attendance from various cities. At least 7000 florins will be contributed by the friends of this work at Amoy, and he goes forth with a new girding of his loins to a grand service of Christ and humanity. —Christian Intelligencer.

The Isaac Van Dyke Company of Zeeland have filed articles of association with the county clerk. The company will buy and sell farm implements, machinery, tools, utensils, wagons, carriages, sleighs, harness, saddlery and fertilizers. The company is capitalized at $18,000. The shares are distributed among the stockholders: Henry De Kruij, 850; Isaac Van Dyke, 200; John A. Hartgerink, 100; Gerrit Van Lopik, Jr., 600; Bert G. Van Dyke, 50.

An official of the Holland Interurban declared that Saugatuck is asking too much of the Dunkley, Williams & Bardeen company. He declared that if Saugatuck wanted the company to build a bridge sufficiently large to accommodate foot passengers and vehicles the village should bear half of the expense. The bridge must be a draw and the kind Saugatuck wants will be very expensive, and it will not be surprising if the railway people refuse the demand.

The young men of the high school have organized a mock congress and hold sessions every two weeks. The membership is thirty-five and attendance is compulsory. The congress convened at the high school last week, the president, George Deming, presiding. The most important business before the body was the bill relative to freeing the Filipinos. The measure was hotly contested, almost every member discussing it at length, some having well prepared speeches which they delivered with a great deal of earnestness. The bill was finally lost by a 14 to 18 vote. The object of the congress is to give the members practice in parliamentary law, and that they are having this valuable knowledge imprinted on their minds was very evident. Joe Nauta, the orator who will represent the high school at the district contest to be held here next month was elected president for the next session of the congress.

There are in all fifteen members, including all the camera enthusiasts in this city, and great interest is taken in the work of the club. The members appreciate the facilities provided in their new quarters.

F. C. Tracy, a traveling man from Chicago, was at the Cutler in Grand Haven last evening and while here he asked to see a Cutler House Register of 1881. Mr. Tracy stated that his sister and her husband, the Rev. Hart of Chicago, had passed through here on their wedding trip and had taken the steamer Alpena for Chicago on her ill fated trip. Nothing more has ever been heard of them by their families.

The unsanitary condition of some of the milk tickets offered by milk men is exciting considerable comment among the Grand Haven milk consumers. One consumer stated today that some of the tickets had been passed from hand to hand so often that they have grown very much soiled. This consumer had the opinion that these mediums of exchange should be renewed frequently both as a matter of cleanliness and for the good of the milk man. —Tribune. The plan adopted by the Holland dairy men is far better than the frequent renewal of tickets. It is this: The milk man gets sheets printed with 20 "good for one pint" on each sheet, these are printed on light card board and are so perforated that the tickets can be torn off separately or as many as are needed to pay for the quantity of milk bought by the customer. The customer buys a sheet and pays for it in advance, when the milkman tears off the tickets he destroys them. A ticket is never used more than once.

WOMEN NOT TRUTHFUL

This Statement Has Been Unjustly Made, Because Modest Women Evade Questions Asked By Male Physicians.

An eminent physician says that "Women are not truthful; they will lie to their physician." This statement should be qualified; women do tell the truth, but not the whole truth, to a male physician, but this is only in regard to those painful and troublesome disorders peculiar to their sex.

There can be no more terrible ordeal to a delicate, sensitive, refined woman than to be obliged to answer certain questions when those questions are asked, even by her family physician. This is especially the case with unmarried women.

Is it any wonder, then, that women continue to suffer and that doctors fail to cure female diseases when they cannot get the proper information to work on?

This is the reason why thousands and thousands of women are now corresponding with Mrs. Pinkham. To her they can and do give every symptom, so that she really knows more about the true condition of her patients, through her correspondence with them than the physician who personally questions them.

If you suffer from any form of trouble peculiar to women, write at once to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will advise you free of charge.

The fact that this great boon, which is extended freely to women by Mrs. Pinkham, is appreciated, the thousands of letters received by her prove. Many such grateful letters as the following are constantly pouring in.

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands A Woman's Ills.

Mrs. Ella Lee, Frankford, Ind., writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I want to thank you for what your medicine has done for me."

"Three years ago I had inflammation of the ovaries and ulcers on my womb. I was under the doctor's care for about three months, and the only time I was not in pain was when under the influence of morphine. The doctor finally said I never would be better, and would be invalid the rest of my life. I had given up in despair, but one evening I came across one of your advertisements and decided to write you for advice. I did so and commenced to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began to improve at once, and to-day I am a well woman, and I know it is all due to your advice and medicine."

Mrs. J. H. Farmer of 2809 Elliott Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I cannot thank you enough for what your advice and medicine have done for me. They have done me more good than all the doctors I ever had."

"For the last eight years I have suffered with female troubles; was very weak; had nervous prostration, and could not do my work; but I am happy to say Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made a different woman of me. I am in perfect health and have gained in weight from 98 pounds to 125 pounds."

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record for actual cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

"Do-" Norton, one of Olive's prominent business men, was in Holland Saturday.

The weather has been very cool this week anyway for St. Patrick's day.

August Bruker who has been dangerously ill for several weeks is now slowly improving.

Frank Garbrecht is repairing the Pike homestead. This means something better in the future.

W. J. Babcock of Holland passed Sunday with relatives, returning Monday.

The birds will soon be here and the flowers will bloom, in the good old summer time.

M. A. Taylor, who was bitten by a dog some time ago, is also improving.

Quite an excitement prevailed here last week. A man working for Jas. Kole drove to Mrs. Kuippers home and asked if they had any horses to trade. They replied they had, where upon he said I am a horse jockey and a man of few words and can tell you in a minute how I will trade. After looking at Mrs. Kuippers horse he said he would trade his horse and allow her $5 on a 2 horse cultivator to boot. Mr. Nyland her son in law agreed to this and the jockey took his new horse and left only to return in a few hours and demanded his horse back, which Mr. Nyland refused to give him. He left both horses and walked back to Holland replevined his horse. Then Mr. Nyland called on Mr. Kole who settled with him by paying the costs and discharging the jockey. Mr. Nyland flatly refuses to have anything to do with a jockey but still says he wants to trade horses.

Graafschap.

Benjamin Nerken was last Thursday evening very happily surprised at his home at Macatawa Park by his Sunday School class, who presented him with a gold watch chain and locket engraved with his initials. Mrs. B. J. Albers, who has been sick, is slowly improving.

The Hamilton Mutual Telephone company will soon build a line through this vicinity, about eight miles long. Many farmers will place instruments in their homes and a few business places in the village will be connected.

Benjamin Voorhorst, who has been sick many weeks, is again able to do his work.

Rev. D. R. Drukker of Holland occupied the pulpit here Sunday.

John Teravest has sold his forty-acre farm to Hoffman & Nykamp. Consideration $2,300.

Jennie Kortering, who has been dangerously sick many days, is slowly recovering.

Olive Center.

On Friday evening, March 10, a large number of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Cheesman surprised them at their home near Olive Center. It was the occasion of the twentieth anniversary of their marriage. There were about sixty visitors present and they presented the couple with a handsome set of china. Mr. Cheesman is Sunday school superintendent here and he and his wife are generally loved and respected by their neighbors. We wish them many happy returns of that anniversary.

Holland Township.

The residents along what is known as the Bee Line road are anxious to have the highway improved and are circulating a petition to the township authorities in which they agree to pay one-half the expense of the improvement if the township will bear the other half. The highway is in a very bad condition for a distance of two miles beyond the Black river bridge and during the summer when the sand is deep it is almost impossible to draw a loaded wagon over the road.

Health officer Vanden Berg of Holland township reports that the only cases of smallpox in the township are confined to the family of John Leenhouts, living north of this city. There are three cases in the family.

Farmers Attention.

In regard to silos I will say that I can make any size of cement blocks for silos from 3 to 12 inches thick. Solid, single, hollow or double hollow, for which I have the exclusive right to make, but 3 inches has proven to be sufficient as the wooden staves are only 1 1/2 inches thick and the price is the same if you want to have the wooden silo painted. Invite any one who wants to build a silo to come and see for himself. The blocks are made at Zeeland and can be seen anytime and guaranteed to be made of good material. Chris De Jonge.

To the Farmers

We have decided to furnish seed at ten cents (10c) a pound to all farmers who send in their own contracts before we close our books. This of course will also apply to those who have already sent in their contracts.

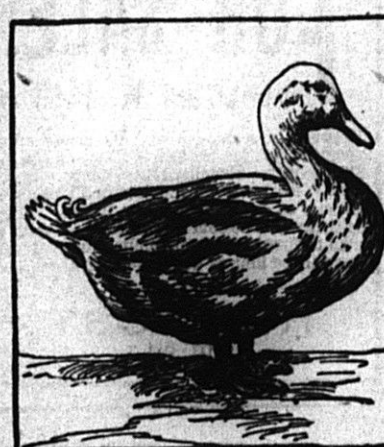

A large majority of the farmers have been very prompt in returning their contracts, so much so, that we have now contracted 80 per cent of the acreage that we started out to secure. We appreciate this, and it is of value to us. We repay you by cutting the price of seed, causing a saving to you of seventy-five cents (75c) or more per acre.

If you know of any of your neighbors who did not grow beets last season, but want to the coming season, please send us their names or tell them to write us for a contract if they wish to take advantage of the 10c seed offer.

Wishing you a prosperous season, we are, Yours very truly, Holland Sugar Company.

A Belgian Duck.

The Merchant duck of Belgium, says Reliable Poultry Journal, has a large and long body, erect carriage, and its plumage is pure white. Its beak is pinkish white and the feet yellow. It is a giant duck and intended for improving and increasing the size of other breeds without giving them yellow flesh. It produces very fine ducklings, which are usually fattened. Their flesh is very white and they can be reared without water. A variety of this breed is the blue duck of Termonde. This bird is very large and entirely blue, without a single white feather, each feather being edged with black. Beak blue, legs red, brown and black.

Ground Green Bone.

No kind of animal food excels the ground green bone for winter egg production. Ground green bone is valuable because it contains the raw meat, the gristle, the marrow and the best quality of egg forming material in the bone itself.—Country Gentleman.

Fowls Need Pure Air.

Proper ventilation is a knotty problem that should be studied with care. Egg production depends greatly upon proper ventilation. Exercise the same judgment in ventilating a poultry house as you would in ventilating your private residence.

The Early Broilers.

Broilers that are out in the early part of December should be ready for market by the first part of February. Have your poultry ready when the demand for it is greatest.—Feather.

Downward Course.

Fast Being Realized by Holland People.

A little backache at first. Daily increasing until the back is lame and weak. Urinary disorders quickly follow. Diabetes and finally Bright's disease. This is the downward course of kidney ills. Don't take this course. Follow the advice of a Holland citizen.

John Pilon, farmer near Ebenezer, says: "I had more or less trouble for years from my kidneys and whenever I worked hard or caught a cold it always affected me and caused a heavy aching pain through the small of my back. It was very painful to stoop or lift anything and at times the aching was so persistent I could scarcely get about to do my work. I used different medicines and wore plasters but they did me no good. As I had seen Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended for such troubles, I went to J. O. Doesburg's drug store in Holland and got a box. I used them but a short time when I felt better and continuing the treatment I was soon cured."

The charred remains of Mrs. Joseph Nance were discovered in the ashes of her home on the outskirts of Marysville, Cal. Her husband is under arrest, pending an investigation.

The United States and Great Britain were unable to agree with Germany on the amount of claims due German subjects in Samoa, and a commission may be necessary to close negotiations.

Mrs. W. H. Mosby, of Eldorado, Ill., saturated her clothing with oil and burned herself to death. She was the wife of a prominent farmer and had only recently returned from an asylum.

Pisagua, Chili, 44 miles north of Iquique, with a population of 20,000, is being abandoned by the inhabitants owing to the fact that hundreds of people there have died of bubonic plague.

While seven men were being hoisted in the carriage in the Clear Spring colliery at West Pittston, Pa., the rope broke and the men were hurled to the bottom, a distance of 250 feet. All were killed.

Francis B. Loomis, first assistant secretary of state, will be appointed, it is planned now, ambassador to Mexico, in succession to Edwin H. Conger, when the latter shall retire next summer to become a candidate for the governorship of Iowa.

E. F. Zillsch, of Hustisford, Wis., has been forced into bankruptcy, and William Henschel, also of Hustisford, has been appointed trustee. It is claimed that Zillsch owes money on notes contracted by himself and his two sons amounting to $45,000.

Maj. Gen. Sumner is to be transferred from the command of the southwestern military division at Oklahoma City to San Francisco, commanding the Pacific division in place of Maj. Gen. MacArthur, now with the Japanese army in Manchuria.

New Holland.

Health officer J. W. Vanden Berg of Holland township has ordered the Pine Creek school closed as a precaution against a possible smallpox epidemic. Last week he quarantined the home of John Leenhouts in that vicinity.

The Leenhouts children are pupils at the Pine Creek school and it is probable that many persons have been exposed. Dr. Vanden Berg advised the board that the pupils must all be vaccinated or the school be closed for two weeks. Owing to the general dread of vaccination the school was closed, and the children are having a holiday. No new cases besides the Leenhouts family have developed. The teachers of the school are the Misses Arendsen and Strowenjans of Holland.

The family of Mrs. John Boes of Crisp, has been quarantined by the Olive township health officer on account of having been exposed to smallpox in Borculo.

Farmers are having bad luck with their cows, a number having died during the last few weeks.

Miss Annie Wagenaar of Constantine, who has been visiting friends here has left to visit friends at Holland.

Peter Kraai, who has been clerking in the store of K. Weener, will move on his farm this week.

John Meeuwssen received a letter this week from the Kalamazoo asylum stating that Peter J. Smith whom he took to that place a few weeks ago, is improving gradually and may entirely recover.

Mrs. Isaac Houting and children are visiting relatives in Holland for a few days.

Prof. C. D. Smith from the Agricultural College will be state speaker at the Farmers Institute which will be held at New Holland on Thursday March 30. Other good local and prominent speakers will be present and an all around good Institute will be held.

SWEARS TO DEFEND THE CONSTITUTION

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT TAKES THE OATH OF OFFICE AT WASHINGTON.

Washington, March 4.—Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States for the past three years, was to-day inaugurated for another term to the highest office which it is the privilege of an American citizen to attain. The oath was administered by Chief Justice Fuller. Hardly had the president finished his inaugural address and disappeared within the capitol building than the hush which had fallen upon the spectators when he raised his hand preparatory to taking the oath was broken by the deafening roar of 21 guns in official salute to the executive, just entering upon his second term as president.

Cheered the Troops.
The rendezvousing of the troops, committees and civic societies entertained the crowd throughout the long wait incident to the schedule. The various organizations arriving by different routes, passed into the narrow defiles which the police kept open. As rapidly as the troops arrived they took the positions assigned them. The military escort stretched far to the left and consisted of all branches of the service—horse, foot and artillery. To the right were grouped division after division of state troops, and in different places of honor the other organizations took their stand to await the signal to move.

Shortly after noon, just following the induction into office of Vice President Fairbanks, the monster stand, decorated with plants, flowers, flags and bunting, began to fill with the people who had just finished witnessing the ceremonies in the senate chamber, and scarcely a half hour passed before this coign of vantage was filled to overflowing.

Official Party Arrives.
Several minutes before one o'clock an extra loud burst of cheers from the multitude just in front of the main capitol door called the attention from the brilliant parade of uniforms in the street to the official party, which had just come through the main door. The official entrance was dramatic. All except those who were participating in the ceremony were seated. When the justices of the supreme court, with the exception of Chief Justice Fuller, emerged from between the Corinthian pillars and marched down the sloping carpeted aisle to their station they were greeted with applause. The justices wore their robes and skull-caps. Then came the members of the diplomatic corps, in their gorgeous uniforms, and they evoked thunderous applause. Led by Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador and dean of the corps, and followed by the others in order of precedence, they took seats on the right of the stand. Strolling in after them came members of the cabinet, senators and representatives in congress. Following on the heels of the official party came Mrs. Roosevelt and a party of friends; then, but a moment later, the new vice president, Mr. Fairbanks, and his escort arrived and were greeted by tremendous bursts of applause. As soon as Vice President Fairbanks seated himself the cheers ceased, the military presented arms, every hat in the committees came off and the great ocean of people set up a perfect roar of cheers, fairly shouting itself hoarse.

The President Appears.
Quick as a flash every sound was stilled and President Roosevelt, quiet and composed of demeanor, came from between the gigantic pillars, escorted by Chief Justice Fuller. A random burst of cheers came from the front of the crowd, as, with measured tread, in harmony with the dignified step of the chief justice, the president advanced in state down the long aisle of distinguished guests. By this time all were standing and nothing could be heard above the roar of thunderous welcome.

Oath Is Administered.
Chief Justice Fuller stepped to the front of the pavilion constructed especially for the use of the president during the ceremonies, and his clerk came forward bearing a Bible. A hush, followed by absolute silence, fell over the crowd, which but a moment before was cheering itself hoarse. President Roosevelt raised his right hand and took the oath which binds him in supporting the laws and constitution of the United States, with great reverence and amid deep silence. "So great was the awe of the assembled multitude that not the semblance of a demonstration followed. Then the president began his inaugural address, and as soon as he had finished and disappeared within the capitol the signal was flashed to the navy yard and the salute of 21 guns told the end of the ceremonies and the initial step of the president's entrance into his second term of office.

Fairbanks Inaugurated.
Second only in importance to the inauguration of the president, on the calendar of events for the day, was the induction of Senator Fairbanks, of Indiana, into the office of the vice president of the United States in the senate chamber. The ceremony was brief and simple to the extent of being severe.

ESCAPE CUT OFF AND MANY PERISH

AWFUL HORROR RESULTS FROM BURNING OF A TENEMENT IN NEW YORK CITY.

Inmates Roasted Alive, Nineteen Persons Meeting This Terrible Fate—Forty or More Injured—Victims Were Caught Like Rats in a Trap.

New York, March 15.—Nineteen persons dead, two score injured, some so seriously that they may die, and nearly 200 persons temporarily homeless, is in brief the story of New York's latest fire horror. Following is a partial list of the dead: Rachel Solomon, 45 years; Jacob Solomon, 16; Isaac Solomon, 18; Jessie Cohen, 15; Rose Wiener, 23; Sander Wiener, 4; Ida Muskowitz, 10; Harry Kauffman, 10; Rose Miller, 4; Morris Miller, 5 months old; Gershon Fuchs, 30; Sarah Kline, 60; Bella Stedler, 30; Harry Siedler, 11. Nearly all the bodies taken from the building were so badly burned as to be almost unrecognizable.

The victims of Tuesday's disaster were typical East side people, the scene a typical East side tenement, and the scenes attending it were in many ways peculiar to that cosmopolitan quarter. To the apparently reckless displays of heroism shown by firemen, policemen and volunteer rescuers alone is due the fact that the list of dead is not greater. Two hundred persons herded in the big five-story double-decker tenement house were sleeping early Tuesday, when flames from an overturned or exploding kerosene lamp in the basement spread through the structure, and wrapped the entire building in flames almost before an alarm had been sounded. Even when the sleepers awoke at the first cry it was almost too late, but hardly more than a moment was necessary to show them that their troubles had scarcely begun. The long narrow iron escapes which ran down the building on each of its exposed sides had been made receptacles for rubbish of all descriptions, and in many cases they were little better than useless.

It was found, also, that every fire escape platform on the building had in it a "blind" or square piece of board which fits into the opening through which the ladder passes in the grated floor. The result of these obstructed escapes was evident when it was found that nearly all of the dead belonged on the top floor of the building, and were roasted before they were able to reach the ground. Another case of negligence which was responsible for the loss of some lives was an immovable skylight at the head of a ladder leading to the roof. Battered securely and partially covered by ice, this skylight resisted all efforts to force it, and a pile of bodies of the dead lay under it when the horror was over.

Gas Kills Two.
Chicago, March 15.—Two persons are dead and another is dying, overcome by gas. The fumes escaped from a rubber tube which was attached to a jet in the wall and which had become disconnected from a gas plate, or one-burner stove, used for warming purposes. The accident occurred in the home of Samuel Friedman, 498 Union street, early Tuesday morning. The dead are Mrs. Friedman and a nephew, Passa Friedman.

Preacher Goes to Prison.
San Francisco, March 15.—Isaac Selby, the aged preacher from Australia, who several months ago shot at Superior Judge Hebbard while the latter was on the bench, was on Tuesday sentenced to seven years in state prison.

City Treasury Robbed.
Colon, March 14.—The municipal treasury of Colon was robbed Sunday night of $3,000. The money was taken from an iron safe, notwithstanding the fact that the building was guarded by police.

MRS. CHADWICK GUILTY

Verdict May Mean Sentence to Long Term in Prison and Fine of $70,000.

Cleveland, O., March 13.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick Saturday night was found guilty on every count on which the jury was allowed to judge her—seven in all. The general charge was conspiracy to defraud the United States by plotting to procure the certification of checks on a national bank when there were no funds in the bank to her credit. The woman can be imprisoned two years on each count, or fined not more than $10,000 on each, or both fined and imprisoned. If the maximum penalties allowed by law are imposed Mrs. Chadwick will be sentenced to 14 years' imprisonment and fined $70,000. The jury reached its verdict in two hours. On learning the result Mrs. Chadwick became hysterical, shouting that she was innocent, and begging the officers to let her go. She was returned to jail.

The next step in the Chadwick case will doubtless be the trial of Dr. Leroy S. Chadwick, Mrs. Chadwick's husband, in common pleas court on the indictment in which he and his wife are jointly charged with the forgery of the $5,000,000 "Carnegie" note which was held as security by Iri Reynolds. He may be tried alone, and Mrs. Chadwick may be a witness. Andrew Carnegie will probably be called as a witness.

Cleveland, O., March 15.—The attorneys for Mrs. Chadwick filed a motion for a new trial Tuesday, on the grounds of errors in admitting incompetent testimony, excluding competent testimony, and errors of law in the trial.

BRIDGE COLLAPSES.

Structure Undermined by Flood Falls Into River at Los Angeles—Two Lives Lost.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 14.—The Seventh street bridge over Los Angeles river fell Monday, carrying with it into the flood-swelled river 12 to 15 persons, two of whom are believed to have been drowned. Five persons were injured. The high water in the river had attracted a number of sightseers to the bridge. The buttresses of the bridge had been weakened by the flood and, when a sudden swelling of the waters came, the supports were carried away and the bridge collapsed. Flood conditions in Los Angeles and vicinity are the worst known in many years.

Along the coast various other towns have suffered. At Santa Monica two piers were destroyed, and the damage along the shore there is estimated at $200,000. At Long Beach the damage to the wharf and to small boats is estimated at $20,000.

Found Guilty.
New Brunswick, N. J., March 15.—After six hours' deliberation, the jury which tried J. Frank Cordova, the former South River minister, who eloped with Julia Bowne, one of his choir singers, for abandoning his wife, came into court Tuesday night with a verdict of "guilty as indicted." Cordova appeared to be greatly shaken by the verdict. He will probably be sentenced on Saturday. The extreme penalty is imprisonment for one year.

Fifteen Hundred Sheep Burned.
Helena, Mont., March 15.—A. Prot, of this city, has been advised that a fire has destroyed his corral and 1,500 head of sheep at Chester, Chouteau county. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin and to have resulted from differences between cattlemen and shepherds in that vicinity.

No Anti-Pass Legislation.
Lincoln, Neb., March 15.—The house by a vote of 43 to 40, agreed to indefinitely postpone the bill making it a crime to give or accept railroad passes. Tuesday's action disposes of all the anti-pass measures, every one being defeated.

Given Life Term.
Bluffton, Ind., March 15.—Judge Watkins overruled the motion for a new trial and sentenced William Cook to life imprisonment for the murder of Preston Sanderson.

Spring Shooting of Ducks

The breath of spring in the air is simply delightful. It affects all, but all are affected differently. The farmer thinks of crop prospects; the laboring man glories in the thought that the day of the coal bin is fast passing; the iceman thinks of the gains he will hoard when all the chilliness has gone from the land; the young man's fancy, according to Tennyson, 'lightly turns to thoughts of love'; and the sportsman's fancy eagerly turns to thoughts of spring duck shooting.

In Holland the spring is eagerly awaited by the hunters; the rust is being scraped from the old Winchester; the duckboat is being overhauled and repainted; and the places for "hides" are being spotted. For they shoot ducks at Holland in the springtime. At Pilgrim's Landing and Pine Creek, and the big marsh, and at Witteveen's dock the sound of the guns will soon ring out and joy will be kindled in the breast of the man behind the gun.

And still there are some men who would put a stop to this spring pastime. On the plea that the ducks are disappearing rapidly and should be protected they would abolish spring shooting of ducks.

Is their point well taken? We think not. Is it wise to abolish spring shooting in Michigan while other states allow it? Frankly, it is not.

The abolishing of spring duck shooting would not benefit anyone but the men who are financially able to follow the ducks. The ducks are not here in season excepting in the spring. They return South by another route, and it is not right to the man with only a day or a few hours now or then forbid to him shoot during the only time of the year that the ducks are here.

It looks like rank class legislation to abolish spring duck shooting now. It might be all right to do so if other states would co-operate, but under existing conditions all it does is give the rich clubman a better chance than the laboring man, and give residents of other states privileges not possessed by our own people.

What Next?

The DeRegt burglary affair is a puzzler. The latest surprise came Monday afternoon when $600 in bills were found by Mrs. F. VanHoven of Grand Rapids. Mrs. VanHoven is a niece of Mrs. DeRegt, and has been instructed by Judge Kirby to take care of her aunt.

She came Monday to do her duty, intending to take Mrs. DeRegt to Grand Rapids to live with her, but before going she made a thorough search of the house, and on opening a bureau drawer she found a bundle, opening this bundle she perceived an old tobacco box. Articles of clothing had been wrapped around it in order to better conceal it.

On opening the box it was found to contain a large number of bills which had the appearance of not having been disturbed for several years. On counting over the money it was found that $600 was in the box. Mrs. DeRegt was informed about the matter, but she insists that she never knew about this money nor had ever seen the box before.

The money was turned over to C. VandeBee, administrator of the estate, who informed Justice McBride.

He ordered it deposited in the Holland City State Bank with the sum found previously. This makes the total amount found to date $776. Cashier Verschure stated that the money had the appearance of having remained untouched for some time. The finding of this money does not necessarily do away with the cases against Clark, Vos, Scheerhorn, Zuidewind and VanderBee, as enough evidence has already been brought out showing that there has been something doing. The evidence is circumstantial and as so many derogatory statements have been made by Mrs. DeRegt, which naturally would make her a poor witness, the case may not be made to stick.

Board of Public Works

At the meeting of the board of public works Monday evening a petition for a water main on Sixth street east of Central avenue was presented and Superintendent De Young was ordered to prepare an estimate of the cost.

The superintendent of public works reported that the West Fifteenth street sewer was not in good condition and recommended that the payment of the balance due on the contract be withheld.

The report of Superintendent De Young for the month of February showed that during the month the street lights burned 166 hours and 32 minutes, that 22,028,656 gallons of water were pumped.

Mother Jones Coming

For The Holland City News.

Mother Jones is coming, the famous labor leader, to lecture in Holland. She is one of the most famous characters in the labor movement of this country and has been secured by local labor unions for a lecture in Holland on April 7th on Colorado labor war. The grand old lady was an eye witness to this famous conflict and has lectured in most of the large cities on this subject. She was given the name of mother by the miners of Pennsylvania, and will be remembered as the woman who paraded the streets of Pennsylvania cities with the children of the miners during the coal strike three years ago showing the poverty amongst the miners. She also made an effort to parade them before President Roosevelt at Oyster bay and also had several conferences with the President on this matter. She is a white haired old lady sixty-six years of age and has spent most of her life for the labor cause.

Hope College.

A deathlike hush and silence fell on the student body and an expression of sadness and sympathy could be read on their countenances yesterday morning when it was learned that Mrs. Kollen, the beloved wife of Hope's president had passed away early Thursday morning. She had suffered much and for a considerable time. The inhumation will take place next Monday. In order to show respect and esteem for the dead the college authorities have decided to suspend all college work until Tuesday morning. Meetings of the student body have been held, committees have been appointed and arrangements made that the students march in possession on the day of interment.

All the Literary societies which are accustomed to meet on Friday evening have postponed their meeting for a week.

Dr. Herbert L. Willet of the University of Chicago closed the Lecture course last Monday evening. His lecture title was "The Man of Nazareth". In his discourse Dr. Willet gave some interesting information concerning the history of the time of Christ. The orator showed peculiar magnanimity and a remarkable ability to hold the attention of his audience. His lecture was helpful and full of thought.

A. T. Laman though yet confined to his room is slowly improving.

The Adelpic Society met last Tuesday at the home of Dr. Beardslee, at which meeting a paper was read by S. Wesseling entitled "The View of the laws found in the Psalms versus the View of the Law as found in the Pauline Epistles."

Dr. G. H. Dubbink will conduct services in the Third Reformed church next Sunday.

The Seminary will on the 19th be represented at different places by the following students. B. F. Brinkman, Grand Rapids, Grace church; J. Wesseling, 1st Zealand (evening); A. Karreman, Grand Rapids 3d; M. Koster, Dalton and C. W. Deelsnyder, Harlem.

High School News

Ever since the meet with Grand Haven last year the students of the High school have taken a greater interest in track athletics. This year over forty men have handed in their names to Capt. Tom Robinson, as candidates for the team and from this number he can no doubt pick an excellent team. Besides the running events there will be the running and standing high jump, running and standing broad jump, shot put, hammer throw, pole vault, high kick, and ball throw. During the past week Prof. H. D. Lee has been giving the boys some valuable drills in the runs. Among those who have reported to him are Deto, Arendsen and Atwood of last years team and among the new men, Rigand of the grammar department, who has shown very promising ability. If the interest shown at present is kept up the team will be well supported by the High school students, and with the usual support of the business men, the season will be a success.

Death of Mr. G. J. Kollen

Wednesday night at 1:25 Mrs. G. J. Kollen was taken away by death through a complication of diseases. Yesterday morning it became evident that the long illness and the severe suffering of this noble woman was soon to end, and she called her nearest relatives about her to bid them a final farewell. She was very calm and brave even in the face of death, and her last words to her friends were words of encouragement and of cheer. As the end drew nearer her faith grew stronger, and, notwithstanding her desire to remain with those whom she loved, she expressed her joy in being so near the time when she could leave this earthly dwelling-place for the happier home above. Her words of cheer and hope during these last hours cast a beautiful light on her christian character and are an unspeakable consolation to those she leaves behind.

In her home she leaves a husband, who found in her the strength and stay of all his life; and an only daughter, who found in her a world of motherly affection. During her younger years Mrs. Kollen proved herself a dutiful daughter. At the death of her mother, Mrs. A. C. VanRaalte, in 1871, the burden of the household fell upon Mrs. Kollen, who was then the eldest daughter home, and all through the declining years of her venerable father, Dr. A. C. VanRaalte, she made herself responsible for his health and comfort. Her marriage with Dr. G. J. Kollen occurred on Dec. 24, 1879. She proved to be for her husband the friend and the help that few women have the privilege to be. Although she was retiring and seemed very frail and tender, she was thoroughly consecrated to duty, possessed a clear judgment on all things, and her only desire was to spend her strength for the comfort of those about her. As a mother she was loving yet prudent, and showed great wisdom in doing all things entrusted to her care. Her home, indeed, was blessed with peace, love, and comfort, and was all that home can mean.

Her relations to the outside world were of an equally commendable character. At the early age of 15 she became a member of the old First Reformed church, then under the care of her father, Dr. A. C. VanRaalte. She was prominent at all the meetings of the church, but took a special interest in the work of the Sunday school. For many years she had charge of the infant class in the Sunday schools of both the First Reformed church and Hope church, and showed her love and ability for this work by her constant devotion and her remarkable success. Besides her work in the interests of the infant class she was ready to help along in every good work.

She did not put herself forward, but could always be relied upon when duty called. Among friends and neighbors she was kind and unselfish, and endeavored to avoid every feeling of enmity and unpleasantness. She was known by many friends and those who knew her best esteemed her most highly and feel much grieved at her departure.

The college also mourns. In her the college has lost a firm supporter, and the students are deprived of a warm and sympathetic friend. She was greatly interested in the students, and whenever her strength allowed, she invited them to her pleasant home for a social occasion. Sympathy with the bereaved is universal in the college, showing the high regard and esteem the deceased and her family have won among those who know them best.

In view of this fact the vice president of the faculty, Prof. J. H. Kleinheksel, in conjunction with his colleagues, has decided to suspend the regular exercises of the college until after the funeral.

Mrs. Kollen was a little over fifty-four years of age, having been born in the city of Holland on September 14, 1850. She was, with one exception, the youngest child of the honored founder of this colony, Dr. A. C. Van Raalte, and has witnessed all the hardships and reverses of colonial life. With the exception of a few years, which she spent as teacher in Spring Lake, Ill., and in Amelia, Va., she has thrown her whole life and influence into the development and the welfare of this community.

Of Mrs. Kollen's brothers and sisters four are yet alive, D. B. K. Van Raalte, Benjamin Van Raalte, Mrs. C. V. R. Gilmore, and Mrs. J. H. Kleinheksel, who all mourn the death of a loving, confiding sister. With these a host of friends join in lamenting her death, and the sympathy for the bereaved family is sincere.

The funeral will be held Monday at 1:30 at the home, and 2 o'clock from Hope church. Dr. J. T. Berren and Prof. John VanderMolen will officiate. The remains can be viewed at the house from 10 to 12 Monday morning.

A FOOL-KILLING.

Doggedly trudging the livelong day, I asked of each person I met: "Has the fool-killer recently passed this way?" But the only response I could get was a sweep of the arm and a jerk of the head, which seemed, without speech, to contrive a negative answer, as if each had said: "My neighbors, you see, are alive."

I finally met with an ancient man—A harmless fool, I was told—who had long outlived the common span, yet was equally young and old. For his simple soul was an open page of the book of eternal truth, and his mind was stored with the wisdom of age.

While his heart was the heart of youth.

"And why do you wish," said he, "to find this fool-killer whom you seek?" I, answering, said: "I have in mind some weasands he should tweak." Then I read from the list I had carefully made.

Of the fools who still exist—The fools of every different grade Whom the fool-killer seemed to have missed.

"But, son," said he, "is there not some plan, some educational way Of killing the fool and saving the man For better things some day?" I felt in my heart the sting of shame, and I hung my foolish head.

Then I knelt at his feet and begged his name.

"I'm the fool-killer, son," he said.

BOBBIE FULLER AIDE-DE-CAMP

By ALMA M. ESTABROOK

It was in the pine woods at Harbor Point.

"We may call the matter concluded," said Miss Rabb, with finality, as she stood up and looked toward the bay.

"Over my protestation," answered the man, who sat gloomily thrusting his heels and his stick into the cushion of pine needles that covered the ground.

"It is quite absurd to imagine that friendship can follow love," she declared, impatiently.

"Let us stay on in the summer, dear," he pleaded.

She shook her head sadly. "You have ended it."

"I suppose you will want me to go away," he said, as they walked through the darkening woods.

"Naturally I had supposed you yourself would wish it."

"Oh, I will go."

"What shall you say to Mrs. Horton?"

"Not the truth, you may be sure."

"Which is—?"

"That you are throwing me over because I am not at liberty to explain to you certain matters which are not my own."

At the steps of the cottage where they were both guests he said good-night, and went off alone.

She stood just a moment, and watched him, then went in to the light of the log in the great fireplace and the circle of friends about it. At breakfast the next morning she learned that Robinson had gone.

"He was obliged to change his plans," Mrs. Horton told them. "He spends to-day at Roaring Brook Inn, going over to Petoskey to-night, then taking the train from there to Mackinac. I can't imagine what can have hurried him off so."

Late in the afternoon as Miss Rabb walked restlessly along the beach, a sailboat put in, and the hearty tones of Bobbie Fuller hailed her.

"Come for a sail," he called.

She shouted back her acquiescence, and a few minutes later sat in the bow of the boat.

"Beastly hot day. I've been over to town. I was starved for news. A fellow gets that way here, don't you think? And I got it—the news, you know. It's about Robinson."

She nodded and waited.

"He went off this morning, didn't he?"

"I think he did."

"And he never told a thing. By Jove!"

"Was there something to tell?" she asked.

"Was there?" echoed Bobbie Fuller. "Didn't you know how he left Mrs. Horton the night she gave her crush to the cottagers and all the hotel people? He was to have led the cottillion, you know, but he flunked. Nobody knew why, and he never told a soul. Everybody wondered, especially when he kept the thing up—went off night after night—until his hostess must have been in a fine humor with him. And now it develops that he was working to save young Voelker, a nice enough chap from Cleveland, who lost his head over a woman as old as—" He paused. Smiles dangled not readily at the end of his conversational line. "Well, old enough," he said.

"How did it develop, Mr. Fuller?"

"How? Not through Robinson, you may be sure. It developed through the boy himself. I met him as he was leaving for home. He says Robinson has saved his honor. You see, he was engaged to a mighty nice girl down there, but he lost his head. Curious how some people form the habit, isn't it? I hope you never lose your head, Miss Rabb."

"I'm afraid I always keep it, Mr. Fuller. But about this mysterious affair. How did Mr. Robinson happen to be interested?"

"Oh, he knew—"

"The woman?"

Bobbie Fuller shook his head. "Wrong," he said; "try again."

"The boy, then," she pursued, petulantly.

"You are right, the boy. They had been friends somewhere—the boy and his family and Robinson."

"Do you think you could get me to Petoskey in time for that Mackinac train?" she asked sweetly.

"You are going away?"

"No—I should like to keep some one else from going," she said, with a charming frown; "some one I have been doing a great wrong."

He stared at her a moment before perception dawned, then a smile, knowing and approving, creased the tan of his face. He sat up, and swept off his hat. "I will see that you do, Miss Rabb," said he and bent himself to the task.

The passengers were all aboard, and the conductor was ready to give the signal to be off, when they hurried along the station platform.

"I'll ask the conductor to hold the train a minute, and you rush ahead and find him," he panted.

She sped along the platform, and a porter seeing her, went to meet her. "Mackinac?" he questioned.

She nodded, and he swung her to the steps of a car before she could protest. Robinson, probably put there by fate, was at the very door of the car, and seeing her pretty, flushed face and her evident distress, hurried out to her.

"Were you—what is it, Isabel?" he asked.

She stared straight at his tie; beyond that somehow she could not lift her eyes. The bell rang, the porter said something to her, and the people in the car were looking at them with curiosity.

"Wasn't it foolish to suppose the summer over because of one—of one little frost?" she said, and smiled. The smile alone would have done it.

He caught up his bag, and they dropped from the car together.

A second later the conductor rushed past them, and the train was off. From the crowd of tourists and cottagers emerged Bobbie Fuller, flushed but triumphant, his cap rakishly awry, mischievous and congratulatory in his eyes.

"Well," said he, "we did it, Robinson, but it took heroic measures. The conductor of that train is as unreasonable and unsympathetic a chap as I ever saw. He was for moving right off. Said it wasn't anything to him whether the lady found her—ah, friend or not; that his train had got to pull out on time. What could you do with a fellow like that?"

"What did you do?" asked the girl.

"I put my arms about him, and held him good and proper. When the lady comes down those steps with the gentleman at her side you can start your train any time you've a mind to," I said; "but if you signal it off before, you stay here, see?" And, he added, with a laugh, as he set his cap straight and possessed himself of the bag; "I guess he saw."—Woman's Home Companion.

FIRST USE OF "LOBSTERS"

The English Soldiers Were So Called Because of Their Red Coats.

The word "lobster" as a slang term of ridicule and opprobrium is generally regarded of recent origin. On the contrary, says the Philadelphia Press, it would seem to go back at least to the seventeenth century. In John Baldwin Buckstone's play, "The Green Bushes," produced in London about 70 years ago; the scenes are laid at the time of the Irish rebellion of 1798. One of the characters mentions the English soldiers derisively as "lobsters," referring, no doubt, to the uniforms of the "redcoats." Eden Phillpotts, in his novel, "The Farm of the Dagger," published last year, makes an American prisoner of the war of 1812 speak of the British soldiers as "lobsters." A fanciful etymologist might easily find a connection between the present-day slang use of "lobster" and the sixteenth century word "lob," denoting a sluggish and stupid person, which occurs in Shakespeare and contemporary plays and poems, usually as a synonym for "lubber." But the earliest known instance of the derisive use of the slang term is the coupling of "lobsters and tatterdemajons," meaning soldiers and vagrants, by Tom Brown (1673-1704). Brown is the satirist who made the much-quoted impromptu adaptation of an epigram by Martial, directing it against his instructor and beginning: "I do not like thee, Dr. Fell."

Monasteries and Convents.

The immigration of expelled French monks and nuns into England and Wales has increased the monasteries in the British Isles since 1901 from 243 to 268, and the convents from 536 to 685. A writer in the English Churchman and St. James' Chronicle is insisting that these institutions shall be under government inspection.

Where the Chestnut Thrives.

The chestnut tree will thrive on almost any soil not too wet, but its favorite location is on a light, well drained, gravelly loam. It does not succeed so well on heavy clay as on low land. It does very well on the rocky, hilly soil on the New England hills, in locations where few other valuable trees can be grown to perfection.

Horticultural Notes.

A St. Louis woman has a six-year-old banana plant which she sets out in summer and winters in the basement. This year it blossomed and bore two small bunches of fruit.

Chelton is one of the new "mums," a sport from the well known and favorite Nelly Pockett.

Australian seedlings, that were so much in evidence in chrysanthemums last year, are likely to more than hold their own this season.

The craze of the "garden ornament" is in full swing in England, and people who are able to afford to do so are searching far and wide for some piece of sculpture that shall harmonize with the style of the gardens, be they Elizabethan, Jacobean or of the Georgian period.

A wise man of old prayed to be delivered from the caterpillars, and many people in this country have probably felt like doing the same thing the past season.

Tulips in pots do splendidly. Three of the bulbs in a five inch pot filled with good garden soil will make a beautiful cluster.

A chrysanthemum that attracts attention is the Lou Dillon, which was named by Mrs. Roosevelt last year.

HOPE FOR DOMINGO TREATY ABANDONED

DOCUMENT TO BE LAID ASIDE BY SENATE FOR THE PRESENT.

NO DEFINITE AGREEMENT HAS YET BEEN REACHED

Regarded as Probable That the Lawmakers Will Soon Adjourn—Cullom and Others Discuss Matter with President.

Washington, March 15.—Hope has been abandoned of ratifying the Santo Domingo treaty at the present session of the senate. The treaty is not dead, but will be laid aside a few months.
Senator Cullom, of Illinois, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, who has charge of the treaty in the senate, has apprehended since the debate opened on Monday that it would be scarcely possible to secure favorable action upon it at this time.

The senate again Wednesday discussed the treaty in executive session.

Will Take No Vote.

While no definite agreement has been reached yet, it is quite probable that the senate will put the treaty aside without taking a vote, thus holding the convention before the body until some later time. It is pointed out, however, that a vote might be taken, and, if the treaty should be rejected, a motion to reconsider could be entered and adopted by a majority vote. This would hold the treaty before the senate.

Senator Cullom and several other senators talked with the president Wednesday about the matter, and all the indications are that no definite action on it will be taken at present. Senators on both sides of the chamber manifest a desire for more explicit information regarding some phases of the Santo Domingo question before passing upon the treaty. The idea which meets greatest approval now is that arrangements will be made by the senate to acquire during the recess of congress all information concerning Santo Domingo affairs that the senate may desire, in order that it may pass upon the treaty in a way satisfactory to itself. When the senate shall convene next autumn with all the members present, the treaty will be taken up and considered in the light of the developments at that time.

Adjournment Due.

In view of this tacit understanding,
it is quite probable the senate will adjourn Thursday or Friday. It is known that several senators have made arrangements to leave Washington the latter part of this week. Among them is Senator Foraker of Ohio, who, accompanied by Mrs. Foraker and former Senator Quarles of Wisconsin, and Mrs. Quarles, will sail next Saturday for Italy.

The president has discussed the situation of the treaty with the senators, who had called at the white house, and he had a conference with Secretaries Hay and Taft. The former, who has been confined to his home for several days with a bronchial affection, went to the white house in his carriage, and at the conclusion of the conference returned to his home. The conference continued for a considerable time, but while it is understood that it related to the Santo Domingo question, no details of the discussion were disclosed.

Absolute Rest for Bacon.

Senator Bacon, who was seized with illness Tuesday while making a speech in the senate, was much improved Wednesday. His physician has ordered absolute quiet for a day or two. Dr.
Morgan, Senator Bacon's physician, said that the senator's illness was caused by overwork, and not gastritis, as at first supposed.

Auto Kills Boy.

Havana, March 15.—An automobile in which President Palma was riding ran over and killed Manuel Palomera, a 14-year-old Spanish boy. The automobile was proceeding slowly on Monte avenue, a crowded section, when the boy ran between a street car and the automobile. The automobile struck him and then ran over him. He died in a few minutes. A large crowd gathered at the scene of the accident and President Palma, who was deeply affected, was induced to enter a carriage and leave for the palace. The president expressed deep regret at the accident.

Prosecute Mormons.

Winnipeg, Man., March 15.—Wholesale prosecutions of Mormons on the charge of polygamy has begun at Raymond, Alberta, one of the Northwest territories, which has been made into a province. The mounted police have taken up the campaign against the Mormons, who number several thousands, having moved from the United States and Europe in the last five years.

President Blights Plans.

Vallejo, Cal., March 15.—The plans of the Russian government to have the Russian cruiser Lena, which has been lying at the Mare Island navy yard for many months, repaired at the Union iron works, San Francisco, have been abandoned, as President Roosevelt would not give the desired permission.
The work will be done at Mare Island by the regular yard employees.

New Trial for Nan Patterson.

New York, March 15.—Nan Patterson will be put on trial once more to answer a charge of murdering Caesar Young, the wealthy bookmaker. This decision was reached Wednesday, and it was announced at the district attorney's office that the second trial of the case would begin April 10.

ROYAL TONIC. BEATS ANYTHING WE EVER SOLD AS A STRENGTH CREATOR AND BODY BUILDER.

Druggist De Pree Enthusiastic
Over This Delicious Cod Liver Oil Tonic Which Contains No Oil.

"We sell many tonics," said Mr.
De Pree, our well known druggist.
"We have demands for many so called strength creators."

"We handle all kinds of remedies that claim to be invigorators. We do this because we are druggists, and it is our business to supply the public with that which they want."

"When our advice is asked, however, as to a tonic and re-builder, strength creator and an appetite producer, we invariably recommend Vinol. We do this because we know all about Vinol. We know all that it contains, and will tell you it is not a secret patent medicine. We have sold enormous quantities of it, and we have had every opportunity offered us to watch the results that have been accomplished by the use of this wonderful re-builder."

"If you have not yet had occasion to use such a tonic we would like to have you call on us, and learn why we are so enthusiastic about this scientific remedy."

"Vinol contains all the curative principles in a highly concentrated form that are found in cod liver oil.
It does not contain, however, any of the obnoxious, digestion destroying grease that always proved to be such a draw-back to what otherwise would have been a most valuable remedy. We wish you would remember Vinol, and bear in mind that as a blood enricher and flesh creator for old and young and as a wonderful aid to digestion we know of nothing that will compare with it."

"Such is our faith in Vinol that we will gladly refund to anyone who is not satisfied the price they have paid us for it." Con De Pree Druggist.

Women love a clear, healthy complexion. Pure blood makes it.

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye. Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at W. C. Walsh's

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Colonel John M. Fuller of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo, from Liver and Kidney trouble. In a recent letter, he says:
"I was nearly dead, of these complaints, and, although I tried my family doctor, he did me no good;
so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold,

Biliousness and Kidney Disease, by W. C. Walsh druggist,

HURRICANE CAUSES HAVOC

Terrific Storm on British Coast Responsible for Loss of Life and Great Damage.

London, March 15.—A storm of hurricane force burst over the Irish and English coasts during the night, and it is feared that many disasters have occurred, but the telegraph lines are broken at many points. The British ship Khyber has been totally wrecked off the Cornish coast. Twenty-three of her crew were drowned and three were saved. The Khyber sailed from Melbourne, Australia, October 26, for Queenstown. The storm swept over the north of Ireland early Wednesday morning and did great damage to property. Fears are entertained for the safety of the fishing fleets.

The high winds have caused considerable havoc along the coasts of the United Kingdom. Telegraphic communication between London and many points is cut off. The lifeboat stations are busy and shipping everywhere is seeking shelter. Numbers of minor wrecks, accompanied by loss of life, have been reported. Terrific seas are running.

Queenstown, March 15.—The British ship Wray Castle, from Portland, Ore., which arrived at Queenstown Tuesday,
has been driven ashore and several others have dragged their anchors owing to the severity of the gale off this coast.

Negro Under Sentence to Hang Is Allowed More Time by Supreme Court.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 15.—The Pennsylvania supreme court having decided Tuesday to send the case of Samuel Greason, colored, under sentence of death in Reading for the murder of John Edwards in 1901, back to the Berks county court, the board of pardons Wednesday granted a continuance in his case and also in that of Mrs. Kate Edwards, white, who is also condemned to death for the same crime. At the February session of the pardon board the condemned couple were reprieved until ten days after the present meeting of the board, so that the attorneys could again take the case of Greason before the supreme court. The decision of the board Wednesday acts as a stay, pending the disposal of the case by the Berks county court.

Greason and Mrs. Edwards had been sentenced to be hanged on February 16, but on February 15 attorneys for Greason appeared before the board of pardons and submitted evidence to the effect that Mrs. Edwards had confessed that Greason was innocent of the crime of killing her husband. The board thereupon reprieved Greason so that his case could be further investigated, and reprieved Mrs. Edwards in order that she might be used as a witness in Greason's behalf.

Ohio River Rising.

Evansville, Ind., March 15.—The Ohio river rising rapidly because of melting snows and late rains, in the upper waters reached a stage of 36 feet Wednesday morning, one foot past danger line here.
Little damage has been done, although much of farming lowland is flooded.
It is expected that the crest of the rise will reach here Friday, with a maximum of 38 feet, and that the high water will pass without damage.

Convicted of Manslaughter.

Helena, Mont., March 15.—Jesse Siefer has been convicted of manslaughter, in connection with the killing of Theodore Grimaud. Both men were sheep herders employed near Mitchell. On New Year's day their flocks became mixed, and they quarreled. Siefer claimed he killed Grimaud in self-defense. The trial lasted two days.

United States Consul Dead.

St. Thomas, Ont., March 15.—Col. M.
J. Burke, United States consul here since 1897, died Wednesday of pneumonia. He was a native of Carleton county, near Ottawa, but went to the states at an early age and engaged in newspaper work. He was 48 years of age.

Martial Law Terminated.

Rio Janeiro, March 15.—A decree has been issued terminating the state of martial law which was proclaimed in Rio Janeiro and its neighborhood November 16, as a result of the insurrectionary movement.

No Money for Exposition.

Madison, Wis., March 15.—The Wisconsin assembly, after a prolonged debate, Wednesday killed the senate bill appropriating $25,000 for an exhibit at the Lewis and Clarke exposition, Portland, Ore.

Fire Destroys Business District.

Sidney, Ill., March 15.—Fire Wednesday destroyed a large part of the business district here. The loss is estimated at $25,000.

Slain by a Mob.

Longview, Tex., March 15.—Julius Steven, a negro imprisoned in the jail here, charged with assault upon Carl Anderson at a sawmill near this place, was shot to death Tuesday in his cell by a mob. The mob entered the jail and forced the jailer to deliver the keys to the upper compartment. From there they called the negro to the front of his cell, telling him their intention. The negro asked and received permission to write his mother, returning to the cell door where he fell with a 44-caliber pistol bullet through the heart.

Two Negroes Lynched.

Selma, Ala., March 15.—Ed and Will Pitomey, negroes, who Monday morning shot and fatally wounded Prof. Claude Hardy at Pineapple, Ala., were Tuesday caught by a mob of citizens in a house near Allenton, Ala., where they had barricaded themselves, and were taken to a nearby swamp and hanged.

"SAVED MY LIFE"

—That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don't use or refer to testimonials
in addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of occasional note. From infancy to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying improper and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does it does through nourishment—the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food.
No system is too weak or delicate to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

We will send you a

THE JAPANESE WIN
A GREAT VICTORY

RUSSIAN ARMY SUFFERS COMPLETE ROUT AND CITY OF MUKDEN FALLS.

Kuropatkin Executes a Masterly Retreat and Reaches Tie Pass with But a Remnant of His Army—Losses on Both Sides Enormous.

Tokio, March 11.—Mukden fell at ten o'clock Friday morning. The Russians are panic-stricken. Thousands of prisoners and enormous quantities of stores and guns have been captured.
Fushun was occupied by the Japanese Thursday night. The fighting continues on the heights north of Fushun.
Oyama Tells of Capture.
Field Marshal Oyama telegraphs as follows under Friday's date: "We occupied Mukden at ten o'clock this morning. Our surrounding movement, in which we have been engaged for some days past, has now completely succeeded. The fiercest fighting continues at several places in the vicinity of Mukden. We captured a great number of prisoners, enormous quantities of arms, ammunition, provisions and other war supplies. There is at present no time to investigate the number of these."

A Masterly Retreat.
St. Petersburg, March 13.—Official information from the Russian headquarters in the field, supplemented by dispatches from correspondents with the army of the Russian emperor, show that Gen. Kuropatkin, after suffering by far the most severe defeat of the war, has succeeded, as he did after the battle of Liaoyang, in extricating the remnants of his army from a position which military experts 24 hours before believed would result in its annihilation or surrender. The retreat from Liaoyang has been considered the most masterly ever executed, but it is far overshadowed by this latest feat of the Russian general, who has taken personal command of the troops. After fighting for nearly three weeks, losing in killed, wounded and missing probably a third of his army, or nearly 100,000 men, and a fourth of his artillery, Kuropatkin gathered what was left together north of Mukden and is taking them towards Tie Pass through a rain of shrapnel, which is being thrown on them from both right and left.

Will Raise New Army.
St. Petersburg, March 13.—The immediate answer of the Russian government to the defeat at Mukden is the announcement that a new army will be raised and the forces in the far east reorganized; that Vice Admiral Rojestvensky will be ordered to sail on and try conclusions with Togo, and that the war will be prosecuted to the bitter end.
Council Votes to Continue War.
St. Petersburg, March 15.—The war council held at Tsarskoe-Selo Tuesday, at which War Minister Sakharoff, Gen. Dragomiroff and others were present, is understood to have decided the question of continuing the war in the affirmative. The foreign office adopts a very firm attitude regarding the peace rumors, again categorically insisting that Russia has not the slightest idea of peace.

May Mean Early Peace.
London, March 15.—The revolt of the French bankers is considered by the London newspapers as the most hopeful and important news of the day, promising an early conclusion of peace between Russia and Japan. Apparently the proposed loan has not been absolutely refused, but only "postponed." This, however, is regarded here as being tantamount to a refusal, and is expected to speak louder to the Russian war party even than Kuropatkin's reverse at Mukden.

Not Out of Danger.
St. Petersburg, March 14.—The Russian general staff reports that "the main body has already completed its retreat and the rearward southward are falling back slowly." What either the "main body" or the "rear guard" consists of has not been definitely fixed, but from the dispatches from correspondents with the Japanese and Russians, the two combined must be but a small portion of the army which Gen. Kuropatkin had gathered along the banks of the Shakhe and Hun rivers. And yet those who have reached Tie pass, worn out from days of fighting and retreating, are not out of danger, the Japanese, it is reported, having already started another turning movement which will force the Russians on to the plains north of Tie pass, where in their disorganized state they would be easy prey for the victory-flushed soldiers of the mikado. The men who escaped are strengthening the fortification in Tie pass, but it is hardly possible that the pass can be held in the face of the overwhelming forces opposed to the Russians, and it is not likely that Oyama will rest satisfied with his victory at Mukden, as he did after Liaoyang.
The Losses Enormous.
As to the losses, Gen. Kuropatkin now admits that 50,000 wounded were carried off the field. This, with the 26,500 dead left on the field, the 40,000 prisoners and the wounded left in the hospitals, comes somewhat nearer the latest Japanese estimate that the total Russian losses were 155,000. At this rate Kuropatkin cannot have more than 100,000 effective fighting men with him. The Japanese losses have been remarkably light in view of the length and severity of the fighting. The total loss is reported at 41,222.
In all the speculation as to peace the one point that is coming to the front is that Russia would prefer to settle directly with Japan without the aid of any third nation. This is in line with the dream of many leading Russians that the natural allies in the far east are Japan and Russia, they being the only nations whose domains border on Korea and Manchuria, both having other interests besides those of trade.

Advance Is Slow.
Tie Pass, March 15.—As after the battle of Liaoyang, the advance of the Japanese army against the new positions of the Russians at Tie pass is very slow. The leading columns are eight or ten miles southward, and in touch with the Russian van posts, but the operations at present are not serious. Field Marshal Oyama shows slight intentions of pressing his advantage in an immediate attack on Tie pass. It is possible, however, that a wide turning movement, of which reports are current, is in progress. In such operations the Japanese have the immense advantage of several bases and lines of supply, to which is now added the Sinmintin road, while the Russian army necessarily is dependent on one base and one line of communication, and therefore may easily be outflanked.

Wants to Resign.
London, March 13.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times says: "Gen. Kuropatkin has asked the emperor's gracious permission to hand over his command, alleging that he is in urgent need of physical and mental rest."

"I learn on the best authority that Japan twice has approached Russia through informal channels on the subject of peace negotiations, but that in each case the proposal failed because Japan demanded an indemnity and a pledge that Russia would not keep warships in the Pacific for 25 years. The Japanese insistence on indemnity convinces the Russian government that her pecuniary resources are exhausted and that by continuing the war only a few months longer Russia will get better terms."

SQUANDERED A FORTUNE.

Marquis of Anglesey, Who Ran Through Millions, Passes Away at Monte Carlo.

Monte Carlo, March 15.—Henry Cyril Paget, marquis of Anglesey, died here Tuesday. The marquis was notable through his personal and financial eccentricities. In the short space of six years the young "clothes and jewel maniac," as he is commonly described, ran through a magnificent property and $2,500,000 in addition to his annual income of upwards of $500,000 derived from the family estates. Last summer the crash came and it was found that the marquis' unsecured liabilities were over $1,250,000. The marquis had since been living on the continent on an allowance made by his creditors. When the creditors of the marquis ransacked Anglesey castle they found it literally packed with valuables of every description. The contents of one unlocked drawer alone were valued at $125,000, while among the crockery in the pantry was found a rock crystal ewer recently sold at auction for $21,000.

Legislature Must Decide.

Denver, Col., March 14.—The Colorado supreme court Monday ruled that the joint convention of the legislature cannot adopt the report of Senator Alexander, of the gubernatorial contest committee, declaring that neither Alva Adams nor former Gov. Peabody was elected governor at the November election. It is the decision of the supreme court that the assembly must decide the contest between the contester and the contestee, and cannot consider seating Lieut. Gov. McDonald, as governor.

DEADLY ANGER
OF DENVER MAN

ENRAGED AT DEFEAT IN A LAW SUIT TAKES AWFUL REVENGE ON VICTOR.

Shoots Latter and His Wife Dead, Burns Their Home and Engages in Battle with Police, Wounding Three—Murderer Dies of wounds.

Denver, Col., March 13.—Mad with rage because of his defeat in a law suit in which K. Fill, the man whom he pronounced his bitterest enemy, had been victorious, and swearing vengeance against him and his family, George Schistler, a teamster, armed himself with a rifle on Sunday and started out to do murder. When the smoke of battle had cleared away, three persons were dead, one was missing and three others lay wounded, two at least dangerously. The dead are K. Fill, Mrs. K. Fill and George Schistler. A child of the Fills is missing. The wounded are: Dr. Frank Dulin, police surgeon; Capt. William Bohanna, acting chief-of-police, and Mika Kelly.

Kills Two.

Schistler had brooded over his troubles with the Fill family, who were immediate neighbors, and announced Sunday that he would even up matters. Taking a rifle of improved pattern, and buckling on a belt of smokeless cartridges, he started for the Fill home. Fill saw Schistler approaching and tried to avoid him by entering the house, but Schistler sent a bullet into his brain with the accuracy of a marksman and Fill fell dead. Mrs. Fill rushed to her husband's side and received a bullet from Schistler's rifle, fired with unerring aim. She, too, fell dead alongside the lifeless body of her husband. Not content with the fullness of his vengeance, Schistler then set fire to the Fill home, which was destroyed. A son of the Fills is missing and is believed to have perished in the flames.

Battle with Police.

Satisfying himself that the flames would perform their mission, Schistler returned to his own home and barricaded himself inside. In the meantime neighbors appeared on the scene, but quickly retreated when bullets from Schistler's rifle began falling near them. A telephone message was sent to police headquarters and an ambulance with Police Surgeon Dulin, Capt. Bohanna and three officers hurried to the scene. Upon the arrival of the officers and before they could leave the ambulance a rain of bullets fell about them. Dulin and Bohanna fell to the floor of the ambulance wounded. Dulin was shot three times, once in each leg, and another time in the left thigh. His condition is critical. Bohanna received a bullet in the leg, but is not dangerously hurt. Kelly was slightly wounded. A call for reinforcements brought all the available men from police headquarters and the sheriff's office and a consultation was held to formulate a plan to capture Schistler. Firing squads were stationed in nearby houses and a larger force was placed in a portable fort made by baled hay piled up on a hay wagon. During the preliminary arrangements, Schistler kept up a continuous fire in all directions. This was returned by the officers and hundreds of shots were exchanged.

Dies of His Wounds.

Finally, Schistler ceased firing, and the hay wagon fort was moved cautiously toward the house. When the attacking force reached the front gate without a shot being fired, one of the officers stepped out into view, thinking to draw the fire of Schistler if he were still alive. None came and, with a rush, the officers charged the house and battered down the door. They found Schistler lying upon a bed bleeding from several wounds. He died soon afterward. It is not known whether he was hit by bullets from the weapons of the pursuing party or committed suicide.

The facts are simply these: It is being demonstrated every day in all parts of the country that those who have received special instruction along the line of the work in which they are engaged are succeeding very much better than those who have not received such instruction, and hence very many who are ambitious, and every body should be, are losing no time in arranging to receive instruction. Take this matter home to yourself, apply it to your own case, and determine what you are going to do about it. VARICOCELE & STRICTURE

No other disease is so prevalent among men as Varicocele. As it interferes with the nutrition of the sexual organs it produces weakness, loss of semen through the urine, decay of the organs, pains in the loins, aching in the back, nervousness, despondency, hesitancy, palpitation of the heart, constipation, and a combination of these results in complete LOSS OF MANHOOD. Thousands of young and middle-aged men are troubled with STRICTURE. If you have reason to believe you are afflicted with it, don't neglect it. It will ruin you. Steamer Argos First Trip
At 2:30 Tuesday afternoon the steamer Argo of the G. & M. line, which left port at 5:30 Tuesday morning for the season's first trip to Chicago, was sighted about ten miles from the shore, held fast and drifting slowly with the ice in an effort to the northward.

With marine glasses the tug Bonita, which accompanied the steamer as guide, could be seen about a quarter of a mile from her charge, battling with the ice in an effort to extricate the Argo.

At the offices of the company it was given out that about twenty passengers were on board and with a crew of about the same number. The boat is well provisioned.

When the boat left St. Joseph dock that morning it was snowing and a short distance from the mouth of the harbor the two crafts were lost to view from the shore.

All morning the snow prevented a good view of the lake by a glass. At noon it was thought that traces of the steamer's smoke could be seen to the southwest and an hour later strong marine glasses shaped the hull of the Argo moving to the northward with a great ice field.

Officials of the company, while they declare that the ice field is heavy have faith in the ability of the tug Bonita to smash a channel and extricate the steamer from the ice.

The Benton Harbor News-Palladium.

The Argo reached Chicago at noon Wednesday after battling with the ice for 30 hours.

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye. Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at W. C. Walsh's drug store.

FEEDING FOR PROFIT

Though my experience with cottonseed products has been limited, I have fed several bunches of steers on meal and hulls at a ration of one to five, or five pounds of meal to twenty-five of hulls, with best results and fed from 100 to 120 days, says a Texan in Farm and Ranch. I find it the greatest fattening feed of all, especially if mixed with corn, to give the animal more weight and to solidify the fat.

Oats For the Roadster.

Oats are the material which the good roadster will turn into travel. A little careful observation will enable one to determine how much grain the horse ought to have.

Feed For Strength.

Feed horses with a view to giving vigor and strength rather than to putting on flesh. An overfat horse is in as bad condition to stand work as a poor one.

Feeding Young Sows.

Don't aim to get young sows too fat, for the young sow can afford to come in with her first litter in much higher condition than the sow two or three years old. You don't want any corn fat on them, but you can have all the clover fat or alfalfa fat or oats, wheat or barley fat that you can get on them. See that they are properly mated, and next spring you can count on a profitable crop of piglets.—Wallace's Farmer.

Grain For Ewes.

If you have plenty of grain to spare feed it after the ewes have lambed rather than before. It is unreasonable to suppose that an overfed ewe can produce a properly developed lamb.—American Sheep Breeder.

Separator Milk For Pigs.

This is a valuable feed, especially when a hand separator is used and the skim milk can be fed while warm. Professor Henry's experiment at Wisconsin station showed that when feeding 1 pound of cornmeal with from 1 to 3 pounds of separator skim milk 327 pounds of skim milk are equal to 100 pounds of cornmeal. When feeding 1 pound of cornmeal with from 7 to 9 pounds, 552 pounds of skim milk were equal to 100 pounds of meal. Averaging all his many tests he found that 474 pounds of skim milk equal 100 pounds of cornmeal.—American Cultivator.

Poultry on the Farm.

There is a large profit in rightly managing poultry on the farm. Every additional egg laid in a week by each hen is so much gained, and when the flock is large, as it should be on every farm, the number of eggs produced, when each hen only adds one, is large and will pay well for the labor required to properly care for them.—Farmers' Advocate.
