ESSENKAY

"ENDS TIRE TROUBLES"

Read what a Studebaker Corporation of America Official says of Essenkay

Youth Bend, Ind., Nov. 5, 1917
Essenkay Products Company,
Chicago Illinois.

Dear Mr. Meyer:

You ask me to write you expressing my opinion of ESSENKAY. ESSENKAY appeals to me very strongly as being a competent substitute for air in pneumatic tires. Although I have heard unfavorable reports of ESSENKAY, as a result of inquiries made by myself, I am thoroughly sold on it. The ride down town Saturday afternoon convinced me of its resiliency and of its riding qualities.

The motor car has been perfected to such a marked degree that motor trouble is infrequently experienced, and it is now a problem to solve the tire trouble.

ESSENKAY seems to have done this without adding excessive weight and without destroying the easy riding qualities which can be had by inflating the tire with air.

In fact it seems to fill the requirements which a motor car demands of the air in the tires, and has eliminated the most annoying and one of the most expensive items of upkeep to a certain extent, namely blow-outs and tires.

Yours very truly,
THE STUDEBAKER CORPORATION OF AMERICA
Per N. L. Reid.

DON'T FORGET OUR NEEDY HOME FOLKS

OTHER ACTIVITIES SEEMS TO HAVE PUT THEM IN THE DISCARDS

Social Service Must Not Be Forgotten and Holland Should Come Across
With a Helping Hand

With the Liberty Bond, Thrift Stamp and other drives brought on thru the war, we should not forget our needy home folks who are liable to be forgotten because of the other activities that are holding the boards today.

Holland has never stood back when the call for help from the poor came, and the fact that there is some need now is brought about because their attentions are taken up on other things. But as soon as our citizens read this article no doubt a ready response will be forthcoming.

Mrs. Gilmore of the Social Service Society of this city states that there is a great need of clothing and dresses for girls of sixteen, also clothing and shoes for some boys of that age. Little lassies of twelve years old are also short of clothing. There are some boys going to school who are wearing shoes with their little toes sticking thru, some others are wearing number nines that would fit two feet better than one. There are other needs that Miss Nellie Churchford at the Mission, Mr. Henry Geerlings at the bank, Mrs. Gilmore, 60 East 12th street can inform them about. A telephone call will reach any of these parties and we urge that this matter be taken up as soon as possible as the need at this time is the greatest.

This article is not intended to point out that the Holland poor are being neglected. But, just at this time there are those who are really in need of some of the comforts of life and Holland has a great many citizens who have been blessed and are more fortunate than many of their fellows and no doubt a ready and willing helping hand will be extended immediately.

This paper will not alone give advice but will also aid materially.

LONG PERIOD OF SER- VICE RECOGNIZED

LIGHT-KEEPER'S SON
ANSWERS CALL OF OLD
GLORY; LEAVES TODAY

Howard Kilgore, a son of Joseph Kilgore, U. S. Light Keeper at Grand Haven harbor, yesterday enlisted in the services of Uncle Sam to help fight the battle for democracy. Altho the young man is too young to be called in the draft, he determined to make an effort to join the service and yesterday he passed the examination at Grand Rapids for the aviation section of the U. S. Signal corps. He spent last evening saying farewell to his friends in his home town and departed this morning for Columbus barracks to report for duty.

LADIES AID SOCIETY PRESENTS
MRS. D. J. TE ROLLER WITH TOILET SET.

Mrs. D. J. Te Roller was happily surprised Wednesday afternoon when the Ladies' Aid society of the Third Reformed church presented with her with a beautiful ivory toilet set in recognition of nine years of service as treasurer of the organization. Mrs. Martin Flipse, president of the society, made the presentation speech and Mrs. Te Roller responded. The toilet set comprised nine articles, one for each year of service. At the last annual meeting Mrs. Te Roller declined re-election and Mrs. J. P. Huyser is her successor.

VETS FACE HARD STRUGGLE WITH HOL- LAND "Y" FIVE

STARS ARE COMING TO BATTLE
LOCALS

Grand Haven Tribune—Instead of the regular basketball game at the armory this week the bill will be staged on Wednesday. Manager Fant of the Company F Vets had a chance to secure an engagement with the fast Holland aggregation for a mid-week clash and decided to stage it. It should be a battle well worth seeing with both teams in top form and the attendance should be in keeping with the class of the attraction secured for the entertainment of the fans.

The Holland "Y" team has been making a record this season going against some of the best in western Michigan without any loss of prestige. In this line-up of the visiting aggregation will be a number of Hope college and Holland high school stars including Cappon and Jappinga, who have helped give Holland high one of the greatest basketball teams in its history this season.

Dr. Peter Marsilje will conduct the morning services at the First church next Sunday morning, the afternoon and evening services being in charge of Rev. W. J. Van Kersen.

Dr. Hofma of Grand Haven discovered a pigeon hawk in the rear of his home in Grand Haven devouring a sparrow, Monday. It is very seldom that birds of the species come to a habitable community and then only when starvation threatens.

STAMP TEAMS START CAMPAIGN TOMORROW

ONE HUNDRED CANVASSERS TO BEGIN INTENSIVE DRIVE
THEN

Will Try to Sell To Every Man, Woman and Child in the City.

Tomorrow morning at nine o'clock a team of one hundred workers will begin a short but intensive campaign to make Holland a one hundred per cent Thrift Stamp and War Savings city. The campaign will last until Saturday evening and during those two days it is expected to reach every man, woman and child in the city. When the intensive campaign is over thrift stamp buying will not be over as the stamps can be purchased at any time during the year. But by Saturday night the campaigners hope to have sold a thrift stamp or war savings stamp to everybody in Holland.

One hundred per cent will not mean that the head of the family has bought a stamp but that a stamp has been purchased for every member of the family, including the superannuated and the babies in the cradle. To all families for which stamps have been bought for all members the committee will issue a window hanger which will show that the family is one hundred per centers.

The committee asks all to have their quarters ready so that when the canvassers call on them they will not have to waste time arguing. The matter has been fully presented to the people of Holland and it is likely that every individual knows all about it. Holland has done its full share in all the other drives that have been held and the committee believes that it will do its full share in this matter.

Some towns in the state, Charlotte among others, have won much fame as being one hundred per cent towns in their thrift stamp campaign, and Holland is after a similar record, not chiefly because of the fame connected with it but to help along a cause that is helping America to win the war.

ATTENDS PHILADELPHIA MEET.

Rev. H. J. Veldman Leaves for Important Gathering in the East

Rev. H. J. Veldman left yesterday afternoon for Philadelphia where he will attend a Council of the Reformed churches holding the Presbyterian System. Mr. Veldman is at present the only representative of the Reformed church in the West belonging to that body. While East he will spend a few days with his son, who is employed in the Federal Trades' Commission at Washington.

WILL BE LIKE APRIL FOOL JOKE ON THE CITY

ELECTION NEXT MONTH DECIDES LITTLE BUT IS EXPENSIVE FOR CITY OF HOLLAND

Only Four Men To Be Chosen; Member
B. P. W., One Alderman, and Two Constables.

It will cost the city of Holland between $250 and $275 on April first to elect one alderman, one member of the Board of Public Works and two constables. That will be this city's little April fool joke, for that is about what the election on the first of April will amount to—a joke, but rather an expensive one.

Everything else has been decided by the primaries but those four offices. And two of those offices, namely B. P. W. member and alderman in the first ward, came within an ace of being decided also. In that case the election would have concerned only two constables.

With a full election board of three inspectors, two clerks and two gate-keepers it costs $35 in wages for the members of the board. The inspectors and clerks receive $6 a day and the gate-keepers $2.50 apiece. In addition to that there is the cost of printing the ballots, publishing election notices, posting notices and so on.

But even if the election had narrowed down to the selection of only two constables, an office that nobody pays any attention to and that nobody cares about, it is likely that the election would have to be held as usual because of the fact that the board of supervisors has put up to a vote to the people at the April election two special measures, namely, the county nurse system and the county farm agent system. The whole county will vote on these issues and Holland will be forced to hold an election though there is not much of anything in city matters to vote for.

It is possible however that the council, in view of the unimportance of the election, will reduce the number of officials at the polls and thus reduce the expense.

STUDENTS DO NOT AGREE WITH CITY VOTE

CLASSES IN CITIZENSHIP RE-VERSE ELECTION IN MANY CASES

Pupils Use Own Judgment In Naming
The New City Officials.

If the city election had been left to the class in citizenship at the high school there would have been a number of results that are much at variance with the results attained in the city. For one thing, former Mayor Bosch would not now be the mayor-elect, the school vote having given him exactly fifty per cent of the total vote cast, while by law fifty-one per cent is needed for election. Mr. Bosch received 41 of the school votes, all the other candidates together also receiving 41 per cent. The vote stood: Bosch 41; Vander Ven 29, Kammeraad 9, VanderList, 3.

For member of the board of public works the high school elected Dick Boter, the vote being: Boter 49, Van Zanten 11, Tuttle 9.

On the police board, which position was won by Kamferbeek by a big lead in the city, was won by J. J. Rutgers in the school. The vote was: Rutgers 39; Kamferbeek 12; Van Ky 11; and Sargeant 2.

In the first ward aldermanic contest the result in the school was the same as in the city, although the difference between Jack Blue and Bert Slagh was smaller. Blue received 4, Slagh 3, Van Tak 2 and Kramer 1. As in the city election Babe Woldring was named as constable, defeating Ras by a 6 to 4 vote.

In the second ward De Witt was named alderman receiving two votes, with no votes for his opponent; Bouwman received two for constable in this ward, with no votes for his opponents.

In the third ward the students reversed the vote of the city. Brusse received 4 for alderman and DeVries 2. Van Haften and Beekman each received 3 for constable and Ver Hoef 1.

In the fourth ward the students also reversed the city vote, Hansen winning over Brink by a vote of 6 to 3. Kramer won over Simonson by a vote of 7 to 2. In the fifth ward the story was the same. While the city elected Dobbins the school elected Knoll, the vote being 16 to 9 in favor of the latter. For constable in this ward Wise received 15, Dalman 5 and Hovenga 5. In the sixth ward Ben Wiersma defeated Lam by a 6 to 5 vote, and Van Fassen the only man running for constable, received the whole vote of the ward.

MARCH TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT STARTS MONDAY

JURY DRAWN THIS MORNING FOR MARCH SESSION OF OTTAWA
COUNTY COURT

Calendar Is Light; There Is Not Many Cases Slated For Trial

The March term of the Ottawa County Circuit Court will start Monday, March 18, at the court house. Judge Cross will open the session Monday afternoon, when the calendar will be called and the cases arranged for trial. If there are arrangements to be made they will come at that time.

The March calendar is not a very heavy one this year, either in criminal or civil jury cases and the jury is not likely to have a very long stay in the city unless some of the cases develop more importance than is now apparent.

Jury Drawn Wednesday

County Clerk Orrie J. Sluiter, Sheriff Dornbos and Justice of the Peace, I. N. Tubbs and C. N. Dickinson met in the county clerk's office and drew the panel to serve on the March jury to report April. The following list was drawn:

DETAIL NAMED AS GUARDS AT DOCK PROPERTY

FOUR MEN FROM HOME GUARDS
GO ON DUTY AT GRAND TRUNK THURSDAY.

Will Be Armed; Guards Will Be Clothed With Supreme Authority of Office; Hans Dykhuis
On the Job

Grand Haven Tribune—A detail of four men have been named from Co. 83 Michigan State Troops, to go on duty at the Grand Trunk warehouse and wharves this morning according to the present plans. These men will be armed and clothed with the authority to stop all persons who attempt to invade the property. They will permit no one to enter inside of the gates on the dock, who has not a pass in his possession. Aside from those regularly employed on the docks, or those who are obliged to enter the warehouses every day, no permanent passes will be held by any one. Those who have but casual business there, will be required to apply to H. E. McGivern, Grand Trunk agent, who after he investigates fully will issue an individual pass which will be taken up as the holder leaves the premises.

The guards who will also be inspectors acting for the railway will probably be clothed with all of the necessary civil authority, in accordance to their importance.

The men named for detail guard duty at the regular drill of the home guard company were Henry Van Dongen, Hans Dykhuis, C. Severance and Harold Westerhoff. These four men will be uniformed and will be on duty constantly, maintaining a patrol day and night on the restricted property. They will be armed with revolvers and persons who fail to answer their challenge will be responsible for their own safety.

All four of the guards are experienced soldiers. Henry Van Dongen is a sergeant in the home guard and wore sergeant's chevrons when Company F served in the Spanish-American war. Hans Dykhuis is a former sheriff of this county and was a member of the Grand Rapids battalion in the Spanish-American war. Messrs. Severance and Westerhoff are also soldiers.

The home guard company has a good drill Monday night. The rifles have arrived but the greater portion of the time was given over to mastering some of the marching movements. Rifle drill will come later. There is no let up in the interest in the work and both regulars and reserves are on hand every Monday.

MAN KILLED BY FALLING FROM A LOAD OF HAY

Gerrit Harmsen, 56 years old, living three miles west of Burnips, came to Allegan this week to help his son-in-law, John Yonkers, move from the Knapp farm just off the Dumont road. He was on a load of hay and was astride the binding pole when it broke. He was thrown up, and when he came down he fell on a part of the pole. His stomach was severely bruised. Dr. Robinson was called and found his injury very serious but got his into an easier condition and left him expecting that he would survive. That night a change came quickly and Mr. Harmsen died in a few minutes, doubtless from a ruptured blood vessel. He was a man of family. The funeral was held from the home near Burnips, Wednesday and interment made in Ben-theim.—Allegan Gazette.

OGDEN HEARS OF TERRIBLE ACCIDENT

MANAGER OF KNIKERBOCKER MANAGED THEATER IN WHICH 10 WERE KILLED

The following dispatch made the Manager of the Knickerbocker feel blue today as the theater mentioned in the dispatch below was one managed by Mr. Ogden before he came to Holland. The dispatch reads as follows:

Winchester, Ky., March 13—Twelve persons were killed, ten of whom were little children, 23 persons so severely injured it was found necessary to remove them to the Clark county hospital and about 30 others less seriously hurt here tonight when the falls of a burned building adjoining a moving picture theater collapsed, crushing in its roof.

Six of the 23 injured taken to the Clark county hospital were shot to be fatally hurt.

The majority of these, as well as those not so seriously hurt were children, several hundred of whom were crowded into the moving picture theater when the crash came.

The wall which collapsed was also used as one wall of the theater, but projected considerably above the roof of the theater building. When it collapsed a part of it fell on the theater's roof. The wall's collapse at the same time relieved the support from under the roof on that side and it crashed down into the theater.

The greatest force of the roof's fall was spent upon about 75 seats and it was here that all of the fatalities and serious injuries occurred. A considerable number of persons seated in other parts of the house, however, were cut and bruised by flying pieces of splintered timber and pieces of stone from the falling walls.

ZEELAND

"It never rains, but pours," is a maxim that can well be applied to the manner in which the people of Zeeland move from one residence to another. The checker game is again on and the different families shift their positions from one part of the city to the other. When once the "King Line" is broken, several rapid moves are quite sure to follow and are accompanied in his case by consternation to many a housewife.

Wednesday Benjamin Van de Wiede moved into the residence of Peter De Liew on Peck street. During the course of the week Jake Ten Have will move from West Main street to the residence on Peck street vacated by Mr. Van de Wiede. Walter Van Asselt, cobbler at the H. Bouwens Shoe store, will move from East Main street into the house to be vacated by Mr. Ten Have in the near future. Peter Leenhouts of Central Park sold his residence on South Centennial street to G. Rooks of East Holland who will soon move to Zeeland to make his home there. William De Hoop who occupied the Leenhouts' home moved this week to the parsonage of the First Reformed church vacated a few months ago by Rev. P. P. Cheff. Dick Meyer will remove next week from Peck street to the residence owned by G. J. Moeke & Sons on Taft St. R. DeHaan has purchased the house of C. J. Den Herder on Cherry street and this house in turn has been lately vacated by George Dekker who moved to Colonial avenue to the house formerly occupied by Mr. Van Draagt. William Witvliet has sold his home on East Lincoln street to Gerrit Van Koevinger of Zaphen who will move to Zeeland the first of April. Bert Kornolje will move next month from Washington street to a farm in Byron Center and Luke Van der Meulen will move into Mr. Kornolje's home. Whose move is it now?

A large audience gathered at the city hall Tuesday evening to hear the address on "Poultry," delivered by Prof. Burgess of the Michigan Agricultural College of East Lansing. The lecture was given under the auspices of the Zeeland Poultry Association with the idea of creating more interest in poultry breeding in that vicinity.

Mrs. John Hartgerink is confined to her home on East Central avenue with serious illness.

Corporal George De Jonge has returned to Camp Custer after spending a few days' furlough at the home of his parents, Rev and Mrs. G. De Jonge. Paul Boone who enlisted in the Navy several months ago with Benjamin Boonsma of this city is spending a 12-day furlough with relatives and friends in the city. The home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Boone is now quarantined with small pox so Paul is forced to spend his furlough away from home. Gertrude Boone had just recovered from the illness this week and saw her mother is ill with the same malady.

Frank De Ridder will soon remove from Washington street to the residence of H. Koops on Elm street. Mr. G. Schutt who now occupies the Koops' residence will soon move to his farm near the Zeeland east limits and his father will move to a farm in Beaver day.

Robert Leenhouts of Holland was in the city on business.

Rev. Mr. Kamps has purchased the residence of Nick Beyer who has moved to the farm. Rev. Kamps moved from Elm street into his new residence this week.

C. Elenbaas who resides on a farm near Borculo will move to Zeeland in the near future where he will reside at the home of his son, John Elenbaas, a short distance south of Zeeland. Bert G. Ter Haar will move on the Elenbaas farm.

John Mulder, Jr., is confined to his home on East Main street with serious illness.

CRISP

The four-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Nienhuis, died as a result of whooping cough and pneumonia. Funeral services were held last Tuesday at the home of W. Nienhuis, Rev. Tyssen, and Rev. Bruinooge, officiating. William Kooyers, who has been seriously ill, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Werkman, of Muskegon, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Nienhuis.

A republican caucus was held last Friday afternoon and the following were nominated: Treasurer, Herman Hop; Supervisor, Maurice Luidens; clerk, Marcus Vinkemulder; highway commissioner, John Bauman; Justice of the Peace, Jacob L. Hop; Constables, Joe Veldheer, Aris Eelman, Albert Herbst, John J. Bosch.

DRENTHE

Mr. and Mrs. James DeVries of Holland spent Sunday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Van Spyker.

John Brink was the weekend-end visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ensing.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. George DeVries last week Thursday—a son.

Arthur Bredeweg made a business trip to Holland the past week.

John Dull has returned home after spending a few weeks with his relatives in Alendale and Perline.

The Ladies Aid society gave a very interesting program at their annual feast last week Thursday afternoon. The delegation from Oakland who attended were Rev. and Mrs. Terpstra and Mrs. E. Compagner. Refreshments were served in the usual manner.

Gerrit Hunderman visited with his friends in Grand Rapids over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Telgenhof spent last week Wednesday afternoon with their parents in Zeeland.

Among those who are on the sick list are Bert Ter Haar and Mrs. Harry Ter Haar with the la grippe and Miss Jennie Brouwer with tonsillitis.

Miss Lenora Van Welt of Zeeland was the guest of Hattie and Laura Brouwer the past Sunday.

Miss Marie Ver Hult is visiting with her relatives in Holland.

Owing to a leak in the boiler the milk which was taken to the creamery Monday morning had to be returned home again. The damage was repaired late Monday night and they are again prepared to receive milk regularly.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Ver Hult and family attended the funeral of John Ver Hult of Holland Wednesday afternoon. Ed Kok left for Georgetown the past week where he will be employed on the farm of Mrs. H. Brandt.

Mrs. John Dull left for Chicago the past week to assist her brother Hessel Yntema who was taken to a hospital there recently to be operated upon for a serious disease.

Ben Stuit of Hudsonville is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Klomp.

Johannes Beyer is the owner of a new Chevrolet touring car.

George De Vries has been engaged as principal of our school for the ensuing year to fill the vacancy of Bert Roelof who purchased a farm recently.

Henry Vredevoeld has employed D. Vanden Veen of Oakland on his farm for the summer.

Mrs. R. Hunderman spent Sunday and Monday forenoon at the home of Mrs. G. Ten Brink of Graafschap who is seriously ill.

GRAFSCHAP

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jacobs visited their cousin Mr. and Mrs. De Groot of Overisel last week.

Ben Sterenburg who left for Camp Logan, Ill. last Wednesday was rejected and returned home arriving in Holland last Sunday.

Mrs. F. Teerman is very ill at her home in Laketown.

J. H. Gruppen is on the sick list.

E. Plasman bought the farm of G. Essink and will move to the place some time next week. Mr. Essink will move to Overisel to occupy the place of his aged parents.

Frances and Reka H. Voss visited their parents Sunday.

J. Koeman, J. Buscher and J. Kuiper attended the auction sale on the Richmond road last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Kars of East Saugatuck visited at the home of Mrs. Z. Beckman and family last week.

John Kuipers visited Mr. J. Horsink and family last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Scholten visited Mr. and Mrs. R. Stroeve of Holland last Friday.

COMPANY HAS

A FINE NEW OFFICE BUILDING

The Buss Machine Works has completed a fine new office building and Monday the office force occupied the rooms for the first time. The removal from the old offices to the new was made Saturday afternoon. For many years the Buss Machine Works have occupied offices across the street from their factory. The rapid increase of the business made that office cramped and there was also inconvenience connected with its being away from the factory.

The new building is connected with the plant. It contains large, well ventilated, well lighted private offices, drafting room and other rooms, and it is in every way a great improvement over the old place.

HOLLAND BUSINESS MAN PASSES AWAY

John Ver Hult died Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at his home West 14th street. The deceased was 69 years old. He was for several years a grocer on 116 W. 14th street. He is survived by the following children: T. Ver Hult and Anna Hoodeman of this city, Maggie, Dick and John at home, one sister, Mrs. H. Vredevoeld of Zeeland and two brothers, C. Ver Hult of Drenthe and A. Ver Hult of Kalama-zoo.

The funeral services were held on Wednesday at the home at 2 o'clock. Rev. Broekstra and Rev. Flipse officiating.

HOLLAND PARK TOWN. NOW IN FARM LOAN

The Grand River National Farm Loan association of Grand Haven has extended its territory to give the farmers of other sections of the county, a chance at some of the benefits of membership. The farm loan organization is now in charge of the following officers and is prospering nicely and fulfilling its mission in good shape, F. E. Worthing, president; C. E. Wyman, vice president; George C. Borek, secretary-treasurer.

The association was organized on March 22, 1917, with the following townships as its territory, Grand Haven, Robinson, Spring Lake, Crockery and Olive with the total number of the loans allowed at $38,000.

On December 31, 1917, the association had $95,000 worth of farm loans applied for. On March 1, 1918, the Federal Land bank of St. Paul, Minn., extended the association territory to include the townships of Park, Holland, Zeeland, Blendon, Allendale and Polk-ton.

This bank's growth has been remarkable since its organization April 1, 1917 and it has now placed $25,000,000.

ATTENTION!

The comrades of A. C. Van Raalte Post, G. A. R., and all veterans of the Civil War and of the Spanish War, and the members of the Women's Relief Corps are requested to meet in the Post rooms in the City Hall, on Sunday evening, March 17, at 7 o'clock sharp to attend in a body, the exercises connected with the unveiling of the "Service Flag" in Hope church.

G. Van Schelven, Commander. March 13, 1918

MORE CAUCUSES ARE HELD IN THE TOWNSHIPS

Several townships adjoining Holland held their caucuses Saturday. In Park and Laketown there was little contest on but in Holland township the job was done up in 25 minutes with 65 voters present. The candidates nominated in Holland on the Republican ticket are as follows: Supervisor, John Y. Huizenga; clerk, Charles Ellander; treasurer, John H. Kooyer, jr.; Highway Commissioner, Peter Vanderploeg; Board of Review, 2 years, John Van Appeldorn; justice of the peace, 2 years, Gerrit J. Deur; constables, Wm. Nagel-hout, Peter J. Smith, Joe Vogel, John H. Ter Beek.

Those elected in Park township on the Republican ticket are the following: Supervisor, G. E. Heneveld; clerk, D. H. Christophel; treasurer, Nick Steelstra; Highway Commissioner, F. Van Wieren; board of review, Jacob Witteveen; justice of the peace, 3 years, Arthur Witteveen; justice of the peace, 4 years, George Straight; constable, Ben Laggers, Rudolph Jesiek, Jacob Witteveen and John Bredeweg.

In Laketown the following were placed upon the Citizens ticket: Supervisor, Gerrit Heneveld; clerk, Albert Alferink; treasurer, Steven Walters; highway commissioner, Albert Scholten; justice of the peace, Alvin Bauhen; board of review, Fred Brink; drain assessors, Henry Bouwman and Jacob Van Dyke; constables, Henry Buscher, John Oostema, Cornelius Van Dyke.

In most of the townships in Allegan county. The same thing is true of many of the townships in Allegan county. In the townships, as in the city, people are not much interested in politics this year. But in Holland township the stage is set for a lively fight on the office of supervisor with John Y. Huizenga and Robert Leenhouts as the opposing candidates, the former nominated by the republicans and the latter named of the Citizens' ticket.

TICKETS ARE NAMED IN TOWNSHIPS

The townships are getting ready for the annual spring election. Friday two caucuses were held in the vicinity of Holland, one in Holland township where the Citizens' ticket was named and one in Olive township.

The Citizens' ticket named Friday in Holland township is as follows: Supervisor, Robert Leenhouts; clerk, John S. Brower; treasurer, Henry Plaggemars; highway commissioner, Johannes De Haan; member of the board of review, Benjamin Lemmon; Justice of the Peace, A. Witterdink; constables, Bert Westenbroek, Leroy Dekker, Benjamin Van Slooten and A. Westrate.

The Citizens Ticket in Holland township will make a strong bid for support at the hands of the voters of the township the coming election. When the Republicans shall have named their men this afternoon the fight will be on in earnest. It is likely that there will be a particularly strong scrap for the office of member of the board of supervisor in the township. It is likely that the Republicans this afternoon will nominate John Y. Huizenga for this office. Mr. Huizenga has held the position for many years but the indications are that a hard fight will be waged for this office during the weeks between now and election time.

In Olive township Friday afternoon the following ticket was nominated at the caucus: Supervisor, Maurice Luidens; clerk, Marcus Vinkemulder; treasurer, Herman Hop; highway commissioner, John Bauman; member of the board of review, Henry Siersma; justice of the peace, Jacob Hop.

SAUGATUCK WILL HAVE PAVED STREETS

The village board of Saugatuck at an adjourned regular meeting, by a unanimous vote passed the resolution introduced by Trustee Pfaff in regard to street paving in the business portion of Saugatuck village along the West Michigan Pike.

After reciting that the township is to construct a highway twenty feet wide in certain streets, the resolutions provide that:

The village orders the paving of a strip 10½ feet wide on each side of the township work, making the roadway 41 feet wide in the following streets: Culver street, from St. Joseph to Butler.

Butler street from Culver to Francis. The cost of the work is to be met "by assessing the same against the property abutting on said parts of said streets, which assessments shall be made on a basis of foot frontage."

TO TELL OF JEWS PART IN THE WAR

SPEAKER AT SEMINARY THURSDAY WILL TREAT THIS SUBJECT

Mr. Jacob M. Harris, an enthusiastic christian layman, converted from orthodox Judaism about 17 years ago, and a man with worth-while messages which he has delivered with great acceptance in various parts of the country, will lecture in the chapel of the Theological Seminary on Thursday afternoon, on the subject "The Present War and the Jew."

This is one of the addresses delivered by him at the three days' Conference in Behalf of Israel, held in the Moody Tabernacle, Chicago, last January. All are cordially invited to attend.

HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS

MEMBERS GIVE INTERESTING PROGRAM AT HOME OF MRS. HULING.

There was a large attendance at the Home Missionary society meeting of the M. E. church at the residence of Mrs. N. Huling on East 8th street. In the absence of the president, Mrs. J. F. Bowerman presided. The opening devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Whitman.

The fourth chapter of the study book as outlined by Mrs. Moody was full of interest. Special mention was made of one of the pioneer bishops, Frances Asbury, in whose honor the U. S. has passed a joint resolution authorizing the erection of a statue in Washington. A cut of this statue recently appeared on the front cover of the "Michigan Christian Advocate."

A chapter from "Under the North-Lights" pertaining to folks and folk-lore in Alaska was reviewed by Mrs. McClellan. The enigmas were in charge of Mrs. Markham, and excellent vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. Adam Clark and Miss Elizabeth Wearne. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Frank Gardi, and the evening was one of profit as well as pleasure. Four new members were received into the society.

GRAND HAVEN WILL VOTE ON $15,000.00 BOND PROPOSITION

Grand Haven, March 14—The Common Council has voted to bond the city for $15,000, $3,000 to be used toward building an elevated track at the city plant for the disposition of coal. The remaining amount will be used toward a payment on the new city turbine. By so doing the city will have more money with which to purchase coal for the municipal coal yards, as they will be able to use the earnings of the plant for the purchase of the coal. These two propositions will come up to the vote of the people at the spring election.

MAYOR TURNS POLICEMAN AND NABS A DRUNK

Mayor Vandersluis turned policeman Thursday afternoon and arrested Geo. Bredeweg on the charge of being drunk. Late Thursday afternoon the mayor found Bredeweg sitting on the curb on College avenue with too much liquor aboard to navigate. Finding that the man could not sail into jail under his own steam, the mayor dumped him into a passing coal wagon and carted him to the lock-up. Reaching the jail he got the key from John Knol driver of Engine House No. 1 and placed his man in jail unassisted.

Bredeweg knew just enough to make an attempt for liberty, not by running away but through a more subtle method. "Let me go," he appealed to the mayor, "and I'll vote for you." But that kind of thing didn't go.

The case assumed a serious aspect when it was learned that Bredeweg is on the "black-list." He had a pint of whiskey on his person and he had consumed a half pint.

When arraigned before Justice Robinson Friday morning Bredeweg at first maintained obstinately that he had secured the whiskey in Grand Rapids. But some facts about his movements during the day were known which made his story appear very unlikely, and in the end he said the whiskey had been furnished him by his brother John. The latter was promptly arrested on a charge of furnishing liquor to a "black-listed" man, and was bound over to circuit court for trial. But he denied having given his brother more than a half pint, which left a pint unaccounted for. George Bredeweg then implicated Gerrit Molegraaf, for whom a warrant was also immediately made, charging him with furnishing liquor to a "black-listed" man. Molegraaf demanded an examination which was set for Friday afternoon, March 15, at one o'clock in the city hall.

This is the second arrest made by Mayor Vandersluis. Some two weeks after he assumed office he also nabbed a drunk.

SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

Knickerbockers of Hope College Hold Business Meeting

At the regular meeting of the Knickerbocker society of Hope College, Thursday night, the officers were elected as follows: president, J. P. Muiskens, Alton, Ia.; vice-president, E. F. Flikkema, Morrison, Ill.; sec'y, Frank DeRoos, Hull, Ia.; treas., Hermon Voskuil, Cedar Grove, Wis.; K. of A., Otto Huitema, Holland; Chorister, Arthur Voerman, Paterson, N. J.; janitor (by lot), George Van der Borg, West Sayville, N. Y.

FORMER PRESIDENT AGAIN ELECTED

At the annual business meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union Friday afternoon, Mrs. C. S. Dutton was again elected president of the organization after an absence from the president's chair of about two years. Mrs. Dutton for many years headed the local W. C. T. U. but for the past two years another has occupied this position. But Friday Mrs. Dutton was returned.

The other officers elected are: vice-president, Mrs. B. B. Champion; Recording Secretary, Mrs. De Merrill; assistant, Mrs. Markham; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. E. J. Blekkink; treasurer, Mrs. George Huizenga.

The following program was given: "Let Us Have Peace"; Miss Bloemendaal and Mr. Potgieter, accompanied by Nella Meyer; violin and piano duet, Nelson Clark and Wilma Meyer; solo, Evelyn Kooyers accompanied by Esther Kooyers. Mrs. Mc Clellan conducted the devotions. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Champion on March 29 and a patriotic program will be given.

WILL HAVE A FINE SHOP

Will Blom left for Grand Rapids Friday to purchase one of the finest barber shop outfits in Grand Rapids. It will without a doubt be the classiest outfit of fixtures in the city. He has not yet decided as to whether he will operate a two or three chair shop.

Mr. Blom has made some extensive improvements in the Palace Billiard Parlors and he plans to make it one of the finest halls in Western Michigan.

SOCIETY TO HOLD VISITATION DAY

Thursday afternoon the Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church held a profitable meeting. Mrs. C. St. Clair directed the League of Intercessors. The president, Mrs. Eugene Fairbanks conducted a drill on the various lines of work in which the society is engaged. The society is educating girls in the schools of China and India and also gives for the support of the French orphans. Throughout the general society, March 22nd will be "Visitation Day". All unorganized and "zero" churches are to be visited and a drive made for members and magazine subscribers. The question box was conducted by Mrs. A. E. McClellan and excellent music was rendered by a Ladies' quartet. Tea and Hoover cakes were served by the hostess, Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Race.

STORES CLOSE AT 9 O'CLOCK

Cards have been printed and placed in the windows of the stores of the Holland Merchants stating that "this store will be open the following hours: 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. week days, 7 a. m. to 9 p. m. Saturdays. Tonight the stores will begin closing at 9 o'clock."

BOTH CONTESTS WON BY HOPE COLLEGE

For the fourth time in four years Hope College has won the contest of the Michigan State Oratorical League. At the contest held in the Masonic Temple in Kalamazoo Friday evening Walter A. Scholten, Hope's representative at the men's contest, won first place, and Gertrude Schuurman, Hope's representative at the women's contest also won first honors. The news of this double victory was flashed to the local students late Friday evening and the noise of the celebration that followed could be heard all over the city.

The second place in the girls' contest was won by Miss Bessie B. Croness, of the Michigan State Normal College and the third place went to Miss Cynthia Lord of Adrian.

In the Men's contest the second place was awarded to Harold Salyer of Hillsdale and the third place to Harry L. Carpenter of Kalamazoo.

The winners will represent Michigan in the interstate collegiate contest to be held May 3, in Illinois.

Until four years ago Hope College had won the state contest only once. That was in 1903 when A. J. Muste was the winner. But four years ago the local institution began to get into its oratorical stride, and since then no other college in Michigan has been able to produce a man who could beat Hope's representative. During the three years before this year's contest the following men won first honors for Hope: Cornelius R. Wierenga, George Steininger and Irwin J. Lubbers.

Hope's orators are trained by Prof. J. B. Nykerk and the success of the college in this line of work in recent years gives evidence of his ability and conscientious effort.

Mr. Scholten, the winner of the men's contest, has won more prizes than any other man who has ever attended Hope College. At last June's commencement he carried away some four or five prizes and at commencement before that he also was often in on the prizes that are distributed each year. Mr. Scholten during the past year has been editor of the Anchor. Recently, after repeated trials, he passed the physical examination for the draft and he is now subject to call. This fact may interfere with his appearance as Hope's representative at the interstate contest, although this is not considered likely, as it is not likely he will be called before May.

LOCAL GIRL

WEDS A SOLDIER

A military wedding took place at high noon Monday when Miss Hazel L. Lawrence became the bride of Alonzo Nathaniel Lewis of Camp Custer. The marriage was performed by the Rev. J. F. Bowerman at the home of the bride at 35 West Tenth street in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. John Van Zanten, Miss Myrtle Lewis Lanston, of Hastings, sister of the groom.

The groom is a member of 328th Infantry, Camp Custer. The bride has been working in Detroit in an office position. The couple left for Whitehall where they will visit before the groom's return to camp.

"SONS" TO MEET FRIDAY

The Holland Chapter of the Michigan Society of the Sons of the Revolution has postponed the meeting that was scheduled for March 13 until Friday evening, March 15. This will be the annual ladies' night meeting when the members will bring their wives. Mr. Arthur Baxter Cotton will be the host of members and their ladies. The paper of the evening will be on the subject, "Russia's Part Past and Present in American History," by Everett Whitney Osgood.

COAST GUARD AGAIN HAS A FULL CREW

With the passing of the necessary examinations by Edwin Henry Broms, the Macatawa Coast Guard crew is once more fully manned, with eight men under the command of Captain Van Weelden. Mr. Broms passed his examination a few days ago. He is one of the three men who take the places of three members of the crew that were sent for service to an eastern port.

The coast guard crew is now composed of the following: Number 1, John Van Regenmorter; No. 2, Herbert Van Oort; No. 3, Charles Bontekoe; No. 4, Niel Landman; No. 5, A. B. Anderson; No. 6, Tony Vander Bie; No. 7, Harold L. Driy; No. 8, Edwin Henry Broms.

Captain Van Weelden is still giving opportunity to young men to enlist for various positions in the coast guard service at the Macatawa station. Two men have been enlisted so far. Although no definite information has been received from headquarters, Captain Van Weelden believes that the opportunity for enlistment in this service will not be open long. Men are being enrolled all over the country and it is believed that the department will soon have all the men it wants.

Outside of the coast guard station, Macatawa as yet is showing few signs of life. The cottage owners have not yet begun fixing up their premises and the park association also has not begun preparing for the summer. There is still considerable snow at the resort and little work can as yet be done.

The ice is going fast and the fishing village is almost gone. A few shanties remain, but if the thaw continues it will soon be impossible to get them on to a place of safety.

HITCH SCHOOL T OREAL LIFE SAYS DREW

PRINCIPAL READS FINE PAPER ON "THE HIGH SCHOOL AND CITIZENSHIP"

The Pupils in High School Should Be Prepared to Meet Real Conditions

The High school should be hitched up to actual community life as nearly as possible, was the argument made by Principal C. E. Drew in an interesting paper on "The High School and Citizenship," read before the Social Progress Club Tuesday evening when that club met at Mr. Drew's home. The school and the community should not be two separate and distinct things but the one should work with the other and the school should prepare the student for the life he is to lead.

To be able to do this the school cannot be merely a place where questions are asked out of a book and answered. It must be like community life as much as possible.

There are two fundamental principles that must be inculcated into the student who is to meet the average conditions as found in life and these are obedience and a development of his own personality. The old idea was to compel a boy or girl to obey by arbitrary methods. The new system is to teach a pupil to obey, not arbitrary rules for which he can see no reason, but regulations that he can understand, that he helps to make himself and that he knows are necessary for the successful conduct of the school.

And in this way he also develops his own personality. A student who does a thing merely because he is told to do it is not going to develop independence of thought and action. But the boy who does something because he sees that it is the right and the practical thing to do will develop qualities of initiative that will be of great help to him.

Mr. Drew illustrated his paper by explaining the system of self-government and socialized recitations in Holland High school.

SLACKERS ON INCOME TAX RETURNS TO GET NO LENIENCY--DOYLE

UNCLE SAM TAKES NO EXCUSES
AFTER APRIL 1, IS COLLECTOR'S WARNING

"There will be no leniency shown income taxpayers who fail to make their returns on or before April 1," said Collector Doyle Tuesday.

"Much time, money and labor has been expended by the government in informing the public just who would come under the income tax ruling, and in advising how to make proper and correct returns to the government. Any fairly intelligent person should know whether he comes under the federal tax income assessment and should come forward promptly. Those failing to do so will be considered as wilfully delinquent and with intentionally failing to make their returns," further stated Collector Doyle.

Mr. Doyle estimates that fully 70% of the individual returns have already been made. Corporation blanks have been received and distributed. Returns from that source are expected to be made out before April 1.

The internal revenue department received a telegram from Washington Tuesday advising the local office to issue no receipts for returns made by checks or money orders as it is considered unnecessary. Receipts however, will be given for all cash payments.

CUSTER SOLDIERS TO WEAR TWO NAME TAGS

With the arrival of 65,000 identification tags, work of tagging every man in the division has been started. According to present plans each man will wear two tags, one about his wrist and the other about his neck. This is to make identification certain in case of explosion where portions of the body might be blown to pieces. Each company has been furnished with a stenciling outfit and upon each tag will be cut the wearer's name, official number and organization.

CHURCHES OPEN ON ST. PATRICK'S DAY IN CITY

St. Patrick Day will be observed in Holland this March 17 with a completeness that couldn't be surpassed, even in the Emerald Isle. Here's what's going to happen:

The City Hall and postoffice will be closed. All city and county employees will have the day off.

Stores, offices and shops will close—just like on the Fourth of July.

Saloons will be closed, too. Not a drink can a man get this Patrick's day unless he lays in a stock the day before. All the churches, however, will be open. Can you imagine the likes of it?

Well, it's going to be a fact. March 17 falls on Sunday and that date is St. Patrick's day.

GETS GRAVEL FOR SAUGATUCK.

Supervisor Makes Plans to Start Road Work Early.

Supervisor Prentice of Saugatuck was in Grand Haven this week looking up the prospects for getting a sufficient supply of gravel in time to enable Saugatuck township to make an early start and push to completion the program for building the concrete road through the villages to connect with the stone portions of the West Michigan pike already built. Mr. Prentice says he has assurances from two firms that they will be able to supply the required material.

JUDGE TELLS WHITE FIB TO MAKE GOOD ON DYING WOMAN'S REQUEST

Allegan is simply bubbling over with good feeling because of the $100,000 left that city by the late Mrs. Griswold. There are a great many interesting side-lights reflected in the matter since the funeral of the generous Allegan woman.

It seems that great gloom at first prevailed the city to the south of us, caused not alone by Mrs. Griswold's death, but it was generally known and understood that Allegan was to be presented with a beautiful auditorium costing $50,000 and the only thing that stood in the way was the buying of a certain piece of property in the heart of the town upon which the owner held a higher price than it was worth, according to the rich widow's estimation of property values. This fact held up the proposed auditorium project indefinitely as the owner of the property would not come down, nor would the lady bountiful pay. In fact she was so imbued with this idea that the will positively stipulates that this property must not be considered unless the land owner recedes from his former figures and comes down in the price.

Owing to these differences the building was not erected and the lady died suddenly leaving no will, at least not one of her close friends, relatives or legal advisors knew of the existence of such a document. This being the case Allegan had lost her opportunity because of the site buying difficulty and consequently the money intended for the building would be distributed to the heirs, according to law.

But here is where Judge Cross came in and where he was compelled to tell a "white fib" in order not to break faith with a dying woman, whose request it was not to reveal the existence of the will and its import until after she had been laid away to rest in Oakwood cemetery.

Some time intervened between the death and burial and the absent will was the talk of the town folks.

The newspaper men had approached those near and dear to the Allegan benefactor and especially bombarded Judge Cross who had been the lady's legal advisor for years. The men of the pen were persistent with the judge, but the funeral had not yet been held and the judge must keep faith with the woman who had trusted him for many years and he told the editorial writers, "There is no will!" But he said it with a rising inflection that might convey a question or a statement. Anyhow, the newspaper men pounced upon it and it was published that no will existed and the beautiful auditorium project had vanished in thin air.

But after the funeral a different story was made known. Judge Cross called all the relatives, all the close friends, the committee that was selected by Mrs. Griswold to supervise the building of Griswold Hall, and the newspaper men together and read to them the contents of the will which he himself had made for her and of which he alone knew the provisions and about which he was sworn to keep secret.

The good news spread like wild fire and the "white fib" is the joke of the town with the judge as the big hero in the story.

The three Allegan railroads raised the freight rate from Grand Rapids to Allegan last week. In some instances the raise amounts to from 60 to 70 per cent. Add the war tax to the raise and it is enough to make one sit up and take notice. The war tax is all right, but it does seem as though the raise in rates is outrageous. The New York Central lines is not as high as the other two, and why there is a difference has not been explained.—Allegan News.

FORMER MAYOR WINS BY A GOOD MARGIN

NICODEMUS BOSCH POLLS 179 MORE THAN ALL HIS OPPONENTS

In a "come-back" that was decisive as it was unexpected by many, former Mayor Nicodemus Bosch Tuesday ran away from all his opponents and was both nominated and elected by polling 179 more votes than all the other three put together. While it had been generally conceded that Mr. Bosch would be nominated, there was nothing in the pre-election dope to indicate that he would not have an opponent in the April election. Many had believed that there would be at least two on the ticket and there were not a few who predicted that there might be three.

But all predictions fell flat. Mr. Bosch ran far ahead in every single ward in the city and his election was so decisive that no room for doubt was left about the sentiment of the voters of the city.

Mr. Bosch polled 821 votes, Mr. Kammeraad 355, Mr. Vander Ven 181 and Mr. Vander List 106. The total vote for the three opponents of the winner was 642, giving Mr. Bosch a margin of 179 votes. These are the official figures as gathered from the poll books today after all errors made in the rush of counting Tuesday night had been corrected.

The vote for mayor was as follows:

	Kammeraad	Vander List	Vander Ven	Bosch
First	54	26	35	190
Second	25	12	11	78
Third	59	7	49	117
Fourth	54	11	60	177
Fifth	114	32	19	115
Sixth	49	18	7	114
Totals	355	106	181	821

Dick Boter and Alex Van Zanten were nominated Tuesday to make the race for the office of member of the Board of Public Works at the April election. The other candidate, Dr. L. N. Tuttle fell short of polling the necessary 25 per cent of the total vote to cast a vote on the ballot.

Mr. Boter received 632 votes, Mr. Van Zanten 386 and Dr. Tuttle 326. The total vote cast was 1344 and twenty-five per cent of that would be 336 which is ten votes more than the lowest man running received.

In the race for member of the board of Police and Fire Commissioners former Chief of Police Kamferbeek easily won both the nomination and election. Mr. Kamferbeek polled 756 votes to 582 cast for all his opponents combined.

The vote on this office stood as follows: Rutgers 369, Sargeant 54, Van Ry 159, and Kamferbeek 756. By polling more than fifty per cent of the total vote cast Mr. Kamferbeek will not be compelled to make a contest in the election.

For the office of city treasurer Gerrit Appleborn, Jr., with no opposition, polled a total of 1263 votes. For justice of the peace G. W. Kooyers, also without opposition, polled 1104. For members of the board of supervisors, unopposed in each case, John J. De Koeyers and George A. Van Landegend were chosen, the first receiving 947 and the second 966 votes.

For constable there were elections Tuesday in the first, fourth, fifth and sixth wards, and nominations in the second and third. In the first Babe Woldring defeated Dick Ras, Jr. by a vote of 150 to 125. In the Second all three candidates were nominated, each receiving more than 25 per cent of the total vote cast, the figures being: L. D. Bouwman 44, Leonard De Witt 42, Egbert Beekman 39. In the third the nominees are Herman A. Beekman who received 81 votes and Gerrit Van Haften who received 87; Gerrit Ver Hoef the other man running polled 42 votes. In the fourth Rufus Cramer defeated Robert M. Simonson by a vote of 157 to 85. In the fifth ward William H. Dalman polled more than his two opponents together, thus electing him; the vote was—Abd E. Wiese 40, William H. Dalman 182, Wm. Hovenga 71. In the fifth Albert Van Fassen was the only man running and he polled 139 votes.

ONE THOUSAND CITIZENS ARE TURNED AWAY

Never in the history of the Knickerbocker theater has this play-house been so filled with people as congregated there Tuesday evening to see the great thrift stamp pantomime and to hear the eminent Dr. M. S. Rice of Detroit deliver an oration on war conditions and what it means to America. It is estimated that at least 1,000 people were turned away; however, some of the most persistent ones took boxes and chairs, placed them on the walk in front so that they might at least get a look into the building to see what it was all about.

It is estimated that at least 1,000 people were turned away; however, some of the most persistent ones took boxes and chairs, placed them on the walk in front so that they might at least get a look into the building to see what it was all about.

Citizens began coming at 6:30 o'clock and by 7 o'clock, a half hour before the meeting began, all available seating and standing room was taken up, even after two hundred extra chairs had been utilized.

Promptly at 7:30 the curtain arose accompanied to soft patriotic music emanated from the orchestra. All at once the figure of Liberty, in the person of Miss Georgia Atwood, occupied the center of the stage. Liberty, brave but trembling, was approached by Prussianism impersonated by Emory P. Davis.

The Kaiser with mailed fist and drawn sword approached as if to menace Liberty. In the nick of time Nicodemus Bosch, as Uncle Sam, put in his appearance and raised his strong arm aloft to stay Prussia. Uncle Sam at first appeared in doubt as to the means and medium to be employed to further stay the hand of Prussia, but at this critical juncture

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I—Old Hilary Kingston, starting with a bad cold, drifts into an archy, and gathers round him in the hall above the village of Woffingham a band of accomplished desperadoes who rob the rich, incite seditions and arm the rebellious. His motherless daughter, Elinor, is raised to fine living and wrong thinking, to no law and no Christ.

CHAPTER II—In an attack on the Agrian bank messenger, old Hilary is killed, but is not suspected of complicity. Boroday brings the body home to the hall.

CHAPTER III—Ward, assistant rector of St. Jude's, who consents to have his father buried from St. Jude's in the odor of sanctity. The chief of police recognizes Boroday and is suspicious.

CHAPTER IV—After the funeral the band meet at the hall and agree to go on as before. Elinor acting in her father's stead. Huff asks Elinor to marry him and she consents, though she does not love him. Boroday is arrested and threatened.

CHAPTER V—Boroday in jail. Talbot plans a raid on the country club. The friendship between Ward and Elinor ripens to something deeper. She envies him his faith.

CHAPTER VI—Huff burns St. Jude's parish house. Elinor objects to help rebuild it and is angry with Huff.

CHAPTER VII—Huff plans to rob Ward of the money collected to rebuild the parish house. Elinor objects and Huff is jealous.

CHAPTER VIII—Mrs. Bryant, who has lost a valuable pear-shaped pearl in the country club robbery, tries to poison Ward's mind against Elinor. $75,000 is subscribed toward the rebuilding of the parish house. Elinor drops the Bryant pearl into the almsbox near the church door.

CHAPTER IX—Talbot tells Elinor that the chief of police demands of Boroday the Bryant pearl as the price of his freedom. By anonymous letter they advise the chief where to find it. Elinor tries to dissuade Huff from robbing Ward of the church money, but only makes Huff more certain.

"All my jewels, everything I possessed that was really worth while."

"But surely the police—"

Mrs. Bryant flushed with anger. "The police!" she said. "It wouldn't surprise me at all to discover that the police are in with the thieves. Look at the condition of this country! It has been terror-ridden for the last two or three years. You yourself are a victim. Your poor father!"

Actually she had detested old Hilary. She sat forward on the edge of her chair and spoke with great uncton.

"There is a band of organized, intelligent bandits working in this neighborhood, Miss Kingston, a band of murderers. In these days of feminism, it wouldn't astonish me at all to discover that some woman is at the head of it. The things that have been planned have been so fiendishly clever!"

Mrs. Bryant rose.

"It shows how demoralizing such things are," she said. "I assure you that I never look at a woman's throat these days without expecting to see my pearl."

From that dangerous ground she stepped quickly to the burning of the parish house, which she believed was the work of militant suffragettes.

"The dear rector is not a feminist," she said. "His assistant, I fear, has a strong tendency in that direction. But he is a wonderful person, really. Just imagine, seventy-eight thousand dollars was collected in Saint Jude's church this morning for rebuilding the parish house!"

She turned at the doorway.

"He's single and very attractive, my dear. The entire village is trying to marry him. There is talk of the doctor's daughter, a common little thing."

When she had gone, Elinor, a little faint and dizzy, went out on the terrace. She realized that the barrier between Ward and herself was not only of his faith against her unbelief. There was the insurmountable gulf between his world and her world. She did not fit into his life. Into his arm, perhaps; into his life—never.

Walter would try to get the money. She must get word to him somehow, for if the Bryant pearl was recovered and Boroday given his freedom, money would not be an immediate necessity.

She paced the terrace and tried to think it out. For Talbot to go back to the city, an hour; for the delivery of the special delivery, another hour. Then the police would have to come out by train or motor. With the best of luck, it would be four o'clock before the pearl could be recovered.

There were a dozen possibilities; the chief might be out of town; the pearl might be recovered from the box without his assistance. In that case he would not hold to his agreement with Boroday.

She tried to head Walter off, but she could not locate him. At none of his various haunts could she find him by telephone; he was not at the Dagos'; at the taxicab office he was said to be laid off for the day. As the white clouds of the afternoon turned to flame in the sunset, Elinor's face grew set and hard.

"I'm not blind. I'll get him for this!"

That was what he had said. He would go after the money that night, and there was murder in his heart.

Old Henriette, watching Elinor's set face, grew fretful. She squealed if a door slammed; brought food that Elinor could not eat, and finally, divining a crisis, tried stealthily by telephone to locate Talbot or Lethbridge and failed.

"You'd better eat a bite or two," she entreated.

Elinor's nerves, too, were on edge.

"I don't want it," she said.

"Just a little soup!"

"If you bring that tray here again I shall throw it out of the window."

Henriette was cheered. Elinor, white-lipped and speechless, was alarming. Elinor in one of her rare rages was reassuring.

By seven o'clock Elinor knew what she must do; go to Ward, tell him what she feared, and how she knew. She was not craven, but her very soul was sick. She sought about for some way to evade the issue or to postpone it, and finally she struck on one. On plain note paper she scrawled a little note in a feigned hand:

"An attempt will be made tonight to secure the fund raised at the morning service. Be advised and give it to someone else to keep overnight."

But she realized before she had finished it the uselessness of such an attempt. Ward would not transfer a danger.

The night had fallen. A line of cars from the country club was carrying town people and villagers home to the late dinners of the golf season. Groups of girls and men in summer garments, chatting gayly, passed under the wall of her garden. Down in the valley straggling lines of evening church-goers moved decorously toward the churches. A ragged child stood in the road below her garden and wept.

Elinor ran down to him, and took him up in her arms. When she had soothed him she felt quieter. She went into the house and put on her hat. There was no message from Talbot, no word of Huff.

Evening service was over when she reached Saint Jude's. The last straggler had gone, and Ward was not in sight. She avoided the street lights. She felt quite sure that Walter was in the vicinity, his keen eyes missing nothing.

He had put his hand on her before she knew he was near.

"Worshipping again!" he jeered.

"I have not been in the church."

Her quick mind was scheming desperately ahead. "I have been alone this evening. When you did not come, I—"

He swung her around.

"You were looking for me?"

"I thought you might be here. You said last night—"

The memory of the night before stung him. He released her wrist.

"Walter, I am afraid! I tried to make you understand last night, but you wouldn't listen. If he were roused, he might be dangerous. Don't take chances; don't think, because he is a churchman—"

She was talking against time. She had her plan now.

"I can take care of myself," said Huff sullenly. But he kept his place beside her as she started back. Her solicitude was for him, then. She cared, after all. But it wouldn't do to unbend too much. Elinor had treated him with a high hand. His very pulse ached with her nearness, but he did not touch her.

He left her without even a hand-clasp.

"You might wish me luck."

"I wish you safety," she replied. He stood down in the road, and watched her shadowy figure threading its way along the garden paths. He had a wild impulse to run after her, to kneel in the earth at her feet and cry out for her old tenderness, for her wistful-eyed caresses. Then, into his suspicious young heart crept the vision of Elinor's face when he had planned his new coup.

"I shall warn him," she had said. Huff's mouth was hard as he turned and walked down the hill.

CHAPTER X.

Into and through her garden Elinor walked quietly until she was safe from surveillance. Then she ran swiftly, ruthlessly across the flower beds, through the roses. The terrace was lighted. She avoided it, making a detour that led by a side entrance into old Hilary's library. For obvious reasons, old Hilary's private telephone was in a sound-proof closet.

Before Walter had taken a hundred watchful paces down the road she had Ward at the other end of the line. What with running and terror, she could hardly speak. Once, long ago, she had heard a discussion bespeaking through a window to the empty terrace.

"Miss Elinor," she called. "Miss Elinor!"

Elinor let her go. When her shuffling footsteps had died away, Elinor took the receiver down again, and called the assistant rector's house. But this time she spoke directly into the transmitter.

"This is Elinor Kingston, Mr. Ward. I wonder if you are very tired tonight?"

"I? Tired? I'm never tired." "Because I am thinking of asking you to come up. I—there are some things I want to talk about, questions that are troubling me. I know it is late, but—"

"I saw you at the early service. Of course I'll come up."

He had seen her then!

"I'll do my best," he was saying. "Of course, you know I may disappoint you. These questions, that come from within, must be answered in the same way. But I'm coming at once."

Elinor's battle was only half fought, but she had a great sense of relief. Let him meet Walter on the way. So much the better. Let Huff know that Ward was out, and the offering presumably unguarded. He might hate the man, but no hope of a running fight with him would deter him from his main object, the money.

To save Ward, she was willing, even anxious, to let Walter succeed.

Women sometimes meet large crises with small vanities. But Elinor had no vanity. Without so much as a glance at the mirror she went out into the garden to listen for Ward's step on the road. She knew his walk already; the forceful, certain step of an energetic and purposeful man.

The illuminated dial on the steeple of the Baptist church showed something after ten when Ward finally came up the hill. The relief of seeing him unharmed sent Elinor down the terrace steps with both hands out. Before he could take them, Ward was obliged to stoop and deposit on the ground at her feet a small box that he carried.

"The morning collection," he said smiling, and took her hands in his.

Her quick alarm showed in her face.

"But you are reckless! To go about with so much money—"

Ward was following her up the steps.

"I dare say it is safer with me than any place else in the world. Did any one ever hear of an assistant rector going about with a fortune in his hand?"

He followed her into the library and placed the box on the great table where old Hilary had been wont to divide the annual earnings of the band. Ward pointed to it with his humorous smile.

CATHOLICS WOULD GIVE ITS CHURCH AND WEALTH FOR SAKE OF NATION

St. Francis church was filled Sunday evening with Holland Catholics and non-Catholics who witnessed the impressive ceremonies of blessing the American flag and the flag of service containing twelve stars to designate the twelve Catholic boys from that parish, who are now serving to preserve the nation. The services were in charge of Rt. Rev. M. J. Gallagher, Father McGinn, Father Zonnebelt, Father Flannigan and Father Ruba.

Mr. B. P. Donnelly had charge of the flag dedication arrangements.

After a very able address from the Rt. Rev. Gallagher the ceremonies of the blessing of the flag were begun. Six little girls, Mariam Paulus, Edith Post, Eva Haven, Ruth Seery, Mary Weyh and Alice Cronkright, dressed in white and carrying bouquets of flowers, preceded the flag bearers as they slowly wended their way up the aisle to the altar where the Catholic clergy were ready to receive them. The stars and stripes were borne by Thos. N. Robinson and Vance Mapes, followed by the service flag with John Good and Ed Robinson as standard bearers.

Bishop Gallagher offered prayer in Latin which he first interpreted in English so that the non-Catholics present might know the meaning of the beautiful eulogy that was being pronounced. After this prayer had been offered the clergy kissed the flag and the standard bearers retired, after which Bishop Gallagher gave the solemn benediction, closing the exercises.

John Kelley who had charge of the solo parts and Mrs. John Good who presided at the organ did very creditable work as did the choir of the church.

The boys from St. Francis church represented in the stars on the service flag are: Gerrit Damveld, Francis Deto, James Deto, James Doyle, Leo Doyle, Leo Halley, Edward Schultz, Declan Whelan, James Whelan, John Whelan, Frank Fabiano.

The address given by Bishop Gallagher took up the greater part of an hour and was a word picture that will long be remembered by those present.

The text of the sermon was "Greater love no man hath than that a man should lay down his life for his friends." The speaker said in part: "We are gathered here this evening, dearly beloved, to assist in the consecration and blessing of two flags, one the glorious emblem of these United States and the other the service flag commemorating the members of this congregation who have gallantly gone forth to risk their lives for the welfare of their fellow men. The national flag is the symbol of the power and the dignity and the independence of these United States, and naturally with its ranks beyond all others; the service flag to hang here in this church to remind those who come here to worship of the sacrifices that their fellow members have made for the defense of their rights and liberties.

"It is just and right that we should add the sanction of religion to our devotion toward the Government under which we live. The government has a right to that and our devotion is thereby doubly strengthened by being made to realize that it is not a matter of choice with us, but it is binding on our conscience by the very command of Almighty God that in time of trouble and distress we shirk no sacrifice, and be ready to risk our lives in order to preserve the government that affords us protection.

"Religion and patriotism are intimately bound up together and the patriotism is far higher if it finds its source and inspiration in religion. We can imagine a man considering his own family, his wife and children and home, who will go out and lay down his life to preserve them, their honor and their existence; and he can also consider a man who out of unselfish love toward his country, in order to uphold its honor or independence will gladly lay down his life in its behalf; but if in addition to these motives, the love of his country and the love of his religion, he has also that higher motive of obedience to Almighty God, if he is made to realize at the same time that the sacrifice that he is making for his country will be rewarded by Almighty God, we can understand how much stronger and more firm he is in his resolution to sacrifice all for his country."

In his discourse Bishop Gallagher showed how the Catholics have also done their share to help preserve this nation in times of its greatest stress. He pointed out that America was discovered by a Catholic, that the first explorers of this continent had been Catholics and how the Catholic missionaries soon followed the way into the wilderness. He told of the part that the Catholics played in the Revolutionary war and also in the Civil war. "And today," he said, "we witness the same patriotic spectacle on the part of the Catholics of America. According to Secretary Baker between 34 and 35 per cent of the army is Catholic, and in many instances 50 and 60 per cent of the navy, and over forty per cent of the Marines are Catholics, and this in the face of the fact that we are only one-sixth of the population of the United States. Between 17 and 18 per cent of the United States is Catholic, and according to Secretary of War, 34 to 35 per cent of the army is Catholic. That is, we have sent to the colors double the number that might be expected, and they are glad to go, in gratitude for what the government has done for them and in the spirit of loyalty to this government, and I can promise you that among all these hundreds of thousands that have volunteered or have been called to the National army there will be no traitor, and even if all the non-Catholics were slain they would uphold the honor and independence and religious freedom that this country has enjoyed for the last hundred years and more."

Father Gallagher also stated that if it was necessary the church would give its all, and would even sell its churches and its plate to give to the government the means to be used "that this nation of the people, for the people and by the people should not perish from the earth."

FARMERS TO HOLD RALLY IN HOLLAND

At a meeting of the farmers called by G. J. Deur arrangements were made for the second farmers' rally to be held for March 20 in the city hall in this city. It was decided to buy the coffee and rent dishes. The farmers themselves are to bring sandwiches, baked beans, potato salad and cake, and pickles will be furnished them at the hall.

All farmers are invited to attend the rally, and those in charge yesterday extended a cordial invitation also to the members of the chamber of commerce and to the public in general.

Mrs. Nicholas Hofsteen attended a banquet of the Daisy Chain, an auxiliary of the Elks in Grand Rapids. Mrs. Hofsteen is the only member of that organization in Holland and she was accompanied by Mrs. Frank Oosting. The Daisy Chain is doing a great deal of work for such movements as the Red Cross, Liberty Loan and it is adopting and caring for French and Belgian children. Information given at the banquet showed that it takes ten cents a day to keep a child in Belgium and the club is urging other organizations to go into this kind of work.

POULTRY EXPERT TO SPEAK HERE

On Monday evening a speaker from Michigan Agricultural College, either Prof. Burgess or one of his assistants, will be in Holland to give an address on "Poultry," to the members of the local poultry association and to all the farmers and others who are interested in the subject. The meeting will be held in the city hall at 7:30 o'clock. All poultry men are requested to be present as some valuable points on this subject will probably be brought out.

On Tuesday night of next week the Holland Poultry and Pet Stock Association will hold a three-course banquet in the W. L. C. rooms. Tickets can be secured from the members of the executive committee, at the office of the Economy Printing Co., and from J. J. De Koster. A program will be given including music by the Central Ave. orchestra.

AUDIENCE ENJOYS MUSICAL PROGRAM

A very large audience enjoyed a most interesting and entertaining program at the W. L. C. Tuesday. The afternoon was in charge of the music committee, and the program which was music interspersed with readings was furnished by guests of the club.

Mrs. Robbins opened the meeting with an instrumental solo "Spanish Caprice" by Moszkowski. Prof. Meinko accompanied by Prof. Hensinkveld played three violin solos, "Caprice Viennois," "The Swan" and "Donkey and Driver." Three patriotic song eyes, were rendered by a quartette composed of Miss Keppel, Miss Vennema, Mr. Hospers and Mr. Page: First Cycle—France, The Marseillaise; Canada, The Maple Leaf Forever; Italy, Garibaldi's War Hymn; 2nd Cycle—England, Rule Britannia; Ireland, The Wearing of the Green; 3rd Cycle—Japan, May our Lord Reign Long; Greece, Hymn to Freedom; Belgium, Brabantonne; All, The Star Spangled Banner.

A piano solo "Last Movement of the 1st Sonata in F Minor," by Beethoven, was played by Miss Gertrude Kramer, and Mr. Page accompanied by Mrs. Page sang "The Two Grenadiers."

Miss Metz deeply impressed her audience with two patriotic readings "The Man Without a Country," by Edward Everett Hale and "The Soldier of the Empire," by Thos. Nelson Page.

Zeeland is again represented this year by two tickets, the Republican and the Citizens. Mayor Isaac Van Dyke who is rounding out his first year in the office of Mayor is at the head of the Republican ticket. Mayor VanDyke is opposed by Ex-Mayor John Moeke who has served that city as mayor for several years. The tickets are as follows: Republican—Mayor, Isaac Van Dyke; aldermen—Adrian Van Koevoering, B. J. Berghorst and Abraham Post; Clerk, Corey Poest; treasurer, B. Goosen; justice of the peace (long term) Jay Den Herder, (short term) Hon. C. Van Loo; supervisor, John Roek, (no opposition). Citizens ticket—Mayor, John Moeke; aldermen, Harry Vande Pels, C. De Koster and Otto C. Schaap; clerk, Wm. Van Eenennam; justice of the peace, (long term) John Meyerling, (short term) Cornelius Rosenbaard; supervisor, blank; constables, Wm. Hietje, John C. Bouwens, Jake Meeboer and Thomas Van de Pels.

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

It is rumored that a fruit canning and drying establishment is to be started in this city during the coming season. We hope that the rumor is founded on fact.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Who will be mayor of Holland City next year? Mayor McBride has made a good and conscientious official during his two terms of office.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Born to Mr. and Mrs. K. De Maat on Wednesday—a daughter.

Mrs. W. Jacobus died in this city at the residence of her son-in-law L. Van Slooten, Saturday aged 74 years.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

The postoffice force, together with their ladies, enjoyed the hospitality of Postmaster and Mrs. C. De Keyser at their home on Thirteenth Street Monday evening.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Benj. Du Mez is acquiring fame as a window trimmer.

Death came to Mrs. A. J. Bolhuis last Wednesday morning. She was 80 years of age and had lived in Ottawa county ever since she came from the Netherlands in 1848.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beeuwkes last Saturday—a boy.

Next Wednesday, March 18, Miss Lucy Terpstra and Bert J. Witteveen will be united in marriage.

TEN YEARS AGO

Mrs. James De Young died at her home 346 Pine street Sunday morning. She was 44 years old at the time of her death.

The Holland Sugar Co. held a directors meeting Tuesday afternoon and declared a dividend of 15 per cent. 22,000 tons of beets were made into 5,436,222 pounds of sugar during the last run.

The two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jappinga who fractured his right leg about two months ago had the misfortune to break the same leg Sunday while playing.

DOUBLE VICTORY CELEBRATED BY STUDENTS

The students of Hope College celebrated their double victory in the Michigan State Oratorical contest Friday evening at Kalamazoo with public festivities on the streets of Holland Monday morning. There was a big parade along the streets in which the people were given a look at Walter Scholten and Miss Gertrude Schuurman, the winners of the double victory for Hope.

Hon. G. J. Diekema was kidnapped for an address on the corner of Eighth and River and later the procession marched on to the city hall where Mayor Vandersluis gave a talk.

There were other informal talks in celebration of the victory and plenty of yells and songs to let the people know that Hope College had won over all the other colleges of the state.

The students were out en masse and for an hour or two they made the well-known ring with their enthusiastic yells and songs and cheers.

Hope College has had representatives at the state oratorical contest every year since 1893 when J. W. Beardslee, jr., was the school's first representative. Mr. Scholten was the 21st speaker in those 21 years. In addition to the five times that Hope has first place, her representatives have won second place twice and third place three times. Hope has never been in last place although it came within one of last place three times.

This year was the first time in Hope's history that both the men's representative and the women's representative in the women's contest won first place for Hope and hence the rejoicing at the local school was more than justified. The ladies' contests began in 1912 and Miss Schuurman was Hope's seventh representative. Miss Irene Staplecamp was the first to represent Hope and she won the first state contest. Since then Hope women have held second place each year except once when Hope was given fourth place.

The war decrees that every man must be doubly busy boosting prosperity by honest, intelligent labor of some kind, regardless of what his bank account may amount to. Everybody must work, be thrifty and liberal spenders for all government-backed war projects.

Mrs. Frank Pifer took the Interurban for Grand Rapids Monday.

THREAT STIRS UP FIGHTING BLOOD IN THAT CITY

Grand Haven Tribune:—The fighting blood of many Grand Haven young men was at the boiling point the other night but fortunately the expected battle did not develop and blood shed and sore heads were avoided. The streets which promised to become a battle field remained just peaceful, and the crowds who had gathered to see some wild excitement went home with no memory of battle and gore in their minds.

The gathering of the clans was due to the threat of a number of Muskegon young men that they intended to come to Grand Haven with a gang and clean up the place in revenge for the black eyes some of them had received here the previous week. While the police officers were prepared to handle the situation there were many clans who had gathered independently of the law to uphold the dignity of the city.

On almost every street corner there were groups of young men, many of whom were wearing old clothes and sweaters prepared for any emergency that might arise. Each group watched the incoming interurban cars for signs of hostile invaders and had they arrived the visitors would no doubt have had to fight their way out of the cars.

While the street scenes had their serious and grim touch, there was considerable humor in the spectacle of the young men grouped and ready for any kind of a fight. And they were not all such young men, either. Some of them were veterans of many battles.

All of the preparation was due to the alleged threat of certain Muskegon young men to come to Grand Haven and clean up the town. The story was that fully 200 Muskegonites were enlisted in the expedition and that they would come prepared to fight. Occasionally during the week hints of the invasion came to the ears of the people and the word was passed along.

If there was any such plan on foot, however, it fell through as only law abiding citizens alighted from the cars as they arrived. The waiting groups at every corner kept a vigilance look out for hostile forces but fortunately the invasion did not materialize.

BOYS TO HELP UNCLE SAM

The Sixth Grade boys of the Longfellow school have organized for the spring's work. They will help Uncle Sam raise more crops and will go into the boys' food raising club contests that are being put on all over the state. The boys call themselves "Uncle Sam's Helpers." They have already held two meetings and tomorrow they will be addressed by Prof. Valz, state organizer of boys' clubs. The officers of the club are: President, Eugene Kammeraad; secretary, Theodore Wiersema; treasurer, Gerard Schuurman.

BRIEFS ARE FILED

IN GAS CASE

The case of the Holland City Gas Co. vs. the City of Holland will be finally disposed of in the near future now. Both the company and the city have filed their briefs in the court of Judge Sessions in Grand Rapids, and the judge has promised that all possible dispatch will be used to render a verdict at the earliest possible moment.

The brief of the attorneys for the city, Mr. Ward of Grand Rapids and Mr. Mc Bride of this city, is some thirty typewritten pages in length. The company can still file an answer to the city's brief, but soon after that Judge Sessions will take the matter up, and it is expected that it will not be long before he will give his decision which will settle whether or not the Holland City Gas company is an independent concern.

DECLINES ONE CALL RECEIVES ANOTHER

A week or two ago Rev. H. Hoeksema, pastor of the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church announced to his congregation that he had declined one call and at the same time he announced that he had received another. Sunday Mr. Hoeksema repeated the same operation, announcing the refusal of one call and again announcing another.

The new call is from the second Christian Reformed church of Paterson, N. J., while the call that was declined was from the Franklin Street church of Grand Rapids.

LOCAL SAILOR IS PROMOTED

Word was received by the family in Holland Monday that John Whelan has been promoted from Ensign to Lieutenant. Mr. Whelan was a student at Annapolis when the war broke out and he immediately left for European waters on one of Uncle Sam's warships. The family here does not know exactly where he is, knowing only that he is "somewhere in European waters."

Young Whelan was appointed to Annapolis a few years ago while he was still a student at Holland High school. He made a very good record at the naval school and his early promotion seems to indicate that he is making a good record in active service.

TO TELL OF IN- DUSTRY'S HELP IN WAR TIME

"The Industrial Volunteer in War," will be the subject of an address to be delivered by James O. Fagan, of Waverley, Mass., on the evening of April 2, under the auspices of the Holland Chamber of Commerce.

The conservation of American industry is a national movement to inform all classes of citizens as to their true relations to industry and its actual bearing on their own prosperity.

Mr. Fagan is a special representative of the national industrial conservation movement. He is one of a corps of about twenty-five speakers that visit all parts of the United States helping people to line the country's industries up to back America in its war aims. The local chamber of commerce was fortunate to secure the services of Mr. Fagan. The meeting will be held in the city hall.

PROF. J. E. KUIZENGA IS PRAISED IN HAMILTON

The Hamilton, Allegan county correspondent has the following nice things to say about Prof. J. E. Kuizenga of Holland: "Many persons, who are interested in finding something of deeper value on the entertainment course, will appreciate the definite announcement that the fourth number of the course will be a lecture by Prof. J. E. Kuizenga of Hope College. Mr. Kuizenga will take for his subject, 'Point of View,'"

BLOM WINS SECOND BLOK

The second blok of the 500 ball contest between Will Blom, city champion and Jake Jappenga, challenger, was won by Blom 125 to 106. The game was featured by some very wonderful safety playing, both men playing very close pool.

The high runs of the contest were Blom 19, Jappenga 21. The score to date is Blom 250, Jappenga 218. A large crowd witnessed the contest which shows that a great deal of interest is being shown in this contest.

The third blok of 125 balls will be played this evening at nine fifteen sharp. The game was refereed very satisfactorily by Henry Mulder.

Letters From the Front

Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., 3-10-1918

Holland Daily Sentinel:

Dear Editor:—It certainly seemed good to read a home paper again, and although the news in it, is a day or two old, yet it is all new to me.

I am very grateful to you for sending me a copy each day, and wish to thank you. My time is limited, but I will briefly describe this camp to you. I have been here two weeks, and have not seen one-tenth of this immense training camp. I am told it is the largest Medical training camp in the world, but I of course cannot verify that statement. The camp is located on historical ground, many of the battles of the Civil War having been fought here. Wherever you may happen to be you will find slabs, signs, etc. telling what took place, and what regiments fought at those particular spots.

I am assigned to the infirmary, in the Medical Officers Training Camp. And for the past week have been kept very busy taking the finger prints of the drafted men who are arriving in great numbers. I saw Clarence Zwemer and Fred Moppelink of Holland when they came in—but have not seen them since. Perhaps they have already been transferred. We sleep in tents, and once in awhile we get a regular storm, any minute we can expect our tent to go sailing. We had one of those storms last night. We are certainly fed well and never have to go hungry. Sunday dinner is always a special meal, and we are treated fine. A good many Michigan boys were examined here today. As I took their prints, I asked them where they were from—most of them came from Detroit, Muskegon, Grand Rapids, but I met none from Holland. Maybe they will arrive later.

I surely would like to see some familiar faces around the camp. Thanking you again for your kindness and with success to Holland, I am truly yours,

John Vander Werf,

Gentlemen:—

I have received a few Sentinel since being her, but they were not of recent issue. I was however very glad to receive them.

I did not write you when I left Cape Ma or while at Philadelphia because I was very busy.

We were at Philadelphia nearly the whole month of December, 1917. We boarded Marine Corps transport, Jan. 1, 1918 and didn't sail till several days after. We spent a number of rough, but uneventful days at sea.

Fritz (German submarine) has lowered itself about 75% in my estimation because she didn't get us. It took several days to unload after arriving here.

We have a fine camp. It's needless to say we are under canvas. The camp is a grassy plat in a valley. The rock and earth is about 125 feet high.

Our company is one of the best equipped companies which Left Philadelphia in a long time. We have a piano, Victrola and enough other instruments to comprise as full orchestra. We have all the base ball and foot ball gear we need.

I might also add that we have mattresses and wooden decks on our tents which is very unusual on expeditionary duty.

Our camp is about a 15 minute walk from town. We have liberty every night until 10 o'clock.

Wine is plentiful here as in all foreign countries. There are a few fellows in the company who get drunk but most of them hold their own pretty well; as for myself I'm off it for good.

I can laugh at you people who I imagine are out on the streets with overcoats on and collars turned up, while here, even tho it is the coldest season of the year we are running around with khaki shirts on. The nights are very cold and one can certainly enjoy a good night's sleep.

I am as anxious to tell you where I am as you are to know, but the censor won't stand for it. I can say this much it's not France.

So long,

Pvt. Marinus J. Kole.

Camp Merrit, N. J.

Feb. 28, 1918.

Dear Cousin:—

Received your letter today and sure was glad to get some of you as it is always nice to hear from my home town again. Well I am feeling fine and hope the same of you. I am quite near the little pond already and will see it soon as we are getting ammunition and pistols, got 21 rounds with us all the time, and now are ready for the Poor Old Kaiser Bill. sure pity him.

We all got high boots today. We are not doing much of anything out in this camp, as this is only a resting place for the soldiers. In the forenoon we mostly hike, this forenoon we started out on a hike just at 7:30 o'clock and got back at 1:20 and we just rested 20 minutes, so you can see we did hike some and here is what we hike on. We had two hot cakes, one slice of bread and a little corn-beef hash and a cup of coffee, so you see that they are not feeding us very much, but they hike us all the same and there about 20 soldiers that fell out of the 120th Reg., only one in our battery.

Well I sure had some time coming from McArthur, we started on Feb. 6 in the morning and got here the 11th at about 5:30 in the evening, and I sure did see some parts of the United States and also of Canada as we rode just 2900 miles and it was my second long trip and now for my third lone one that will last weeks, I think, and I hope we may enjoy the trip as we did this last one, and that we all land safely.

So you are a Sunday school teacher of a class of boys; I wish I could pay you a visit once in Sunday school as I didn't attend Sunday school since I left home. Well as I have not much news, just that I wish I could pay you a visit before I go across and now give my best regards to all the rest of the family, and tell them to write.

Well I will close with best wishes and hoping to hear from you all soon.

LOCAL NEWS

Sears McLean of the Holland-St. Louis Sugar Co. is taking a trip thru Northern Michigan, going thru the sugar beet belt. He will be gone a week.

Ben Baldus who has been an employee of the Holland Furnace Co., left Tuesday for Hog Island, where he will enter the employment of the government in the shipbuilding department.

At a Union Township Caucus in the township of Fillmore the following candidates were nominated: Henry Sager, supervisor; John P. Verburg, clerk; John J. Jippinga, Highway Commissioner; John G. Boeve, member of the Board of Review; Austin I. Fairbanks, justice of the peace, full term.

Sears McLean has purchased a home on Maple Avenue between Eleventh and 12th street, formerly occupied by August Heuer. The home was built by the father, C. M. McLean and later sold to the late Dr. Dubbink. The home will be remodeled to some extent.

Three more men of the city's fire department have been drafted and will leave for the training camps in the near future. Owing to the fact that several men are thus drafted and leaving, Chief Blom is finding his hands full filling the vacancies with efficient men. Last night an oyster supper was given by the fire boys of station No. 1 in honor of Sam Althuis, Martin Kammeraad and Andrew Ver Schure, three night men at No. 1. Chief Blom was toast master of the evening and he had every member of the department say something or give some experience of his while in the fire department.

Allegan county will cut out a great deal of its base ball playing among the schools this summer in order that the boys may go on farms to help win the war. At a meeting of representatives of the several high schools of the county, held last Saturday in the court house in Allegan it was decided to hold the next field meet in Allegan, May 24.

The Chicago Lunch on West Eighth street looks more like a stationery store than a restaurant. A correspondence school has filled the windows with advertising matter and the only thing that would denote an eating house is the sign on the outside. This place has been closed since the death of Mr. Hogman, the proprietor.

The entire phone system of the Citizens Telephone company of this city was put out of commission Tuesday morning when a hot coil burned out the intricate automatic system. It being election day much inconvenience was caused. In the afternoon, however, the system was again in shape.

JUDGE GETS STOCK AND CASH FROM MRS. GRISWOLD

FIND DEAD WOMAN'S GEMS HIDDEN BENEATH THE CARPETS

Diamonds and other jewelry left by Mrs. I. P. Griswold whose gift of $100,000 for an auditorium in Allegan was announced recently have been found but not until nearly all the furniture, rugs and carpets in about half the house had been removed, which took several days. Mrs. Griswold feared burglars and hid her jewelry under a carpet upon which stood a bureau.

Further details of her will have been announced and they include $10,000, her relics and carpenter tools and bank stock in Gr. Haven and Allegan banks all being left to Judge Orien S. Cross, who is administrator. The largest sum left a relative is $5,000.

Most of the estate valued at more than $300,000 went to charitable and civic institutions.

NEW SHOW NEXT WEEK AT THEATER

ANOTHER STOCK COMPANY OPENS AT KNICKERBOCKER NEXT MONDAY

The Gooding Comedy Co. now at the Knickerbocker closes their engagement at the Knickerbocker Saturday night and for a Monday opening Manager Ogden has secured the Rollo B. Williams Dramatic Co. for a run. This company is just closing at Gary, Ind. after a long run and the management at Gary assures Mr. Ogden that the company is the best ever at Gary.

The plays will be changed three times a week as did the Whitney Co. All bills played are royalty bills which means that nothing but the best will be shown. On Friday and Saturday of this week the Knickerbocker has Mrs. Vernon Castle in a new big feature, Pearl White and Antonio Moreno in the first episode of the "House of Hate" also "Vengeance and the Woman." Children can go to the matinees for a nickel now.

A public auction will be held on Wednesday, March 26 at 10 o'clock on the farm of Mrs. Carl Ebels, located 1 1/2 miles west of West Olive.

WARM FRIENDS WIN OVER CHAMPIONS

The Warm Friends defeated the Champions by the score of 9 to 5 last night in the indoor league game. Van Schelven, last year's press agent, started the twirling for the pill rollers and held out three and one-half innings when the hook was applied to him.

The Warm Friends found the lanky pitcher for eight hits, three bases on balls and allowed 12 batsmen to face him. Vander Hill was the Champions' rescue man, but the pitchers all looked alike to the Warm Friends as they hit them at will. In the second game the Shoes defeated the Limberts to the score of five to one.

During practice some one got away with Manager Constable Weldring's ball. The officer-elect wanted to delay the game to allow him to swear out a warrant for the offender but was informed by the ump's that it was an earnestless day.

Peterson's pitching for the Shoes received the laurels for the evening by putting the hors de combat on 7 of the Limberts' batsmen in rotation. Elk's pitching for the Limberts pitched very good ball until the sixth inning when the cobbler's got to him for six hits netting four runs before the inning was over. The standing of the league is as in order: Chemicals, Furnace, and Shoes and Limberts tie for the cellar position.

Spring Coats and Suits

We are now showing our splendid new line of Coats and Suits including the famous "Printzess" garments. A choice assortment of the very latest Paris styles. These garments possess the individuality and distinctiveness for which "Printzess" coats and suits have long been noted. They have "smart" lines. They do not look like ordinary ready-to-wear garments.

You can always feel that you are correctly dressed in a "Printzess" Coat or Suit—they are the last word in style—and the quality of materials, the tailoring and workmanship are the very best. Yet the prices are remarkably low considering the value. If you appreciate garments that are distinctive—that have an indecipherable "something" about them, beside style, fine material and perfect tailoring—come and look at our truly beautiful line. We want you to see for yourself how stylish our Coats and Suits are—how well they fit, how distinctive they are.

Ladies' and Juniors' Coats
