To Avoid Litigation and Save

With

At a regular meeting of the common council, held last night, the "city fathers" were given a complete story of the negotiations of the board of public works through city attorney, Clarence Lokker, who from fifteen pages of typewritten legal copy and maps shows the aldermen and the audience present all the details of how the settlement was made.

There is no doubt that the property owners had riparian rights, including the city of Holland, who have land and street intersections where much of this property is. The board of public works had started on their plan subject to their grant of $675,000 to be paid by the government, more than a third of the entire cost of the building project, but on this amount there was a time limit and that, too, was nearly up. The property owners along the shore including the West Michigan Furniture factory, nearly to the bridge on US-31, also wished to have established what their riparian rights amounted to, for that reason a suit was started by the Donnelly-Kelley Glass Co. in the main to establish their claim on the waterfront where they are located. Without doubt, all other property owners would eventually come in for their claims.

Litigation through the courts might last months and years. For that reason the board of public works was given the "go-ahead" to deal with these litigants, and after months of hard work a basis of settlement was reached. The last claim was agreed to just a few days ago. Now the board of public works and contractors who have contracts for piling are already at work, and the government grant is in good standing.

Atty. Clarence Lokker gives a vivid picture from his notes, and the legal documents and agreements which he had with him. He stated that the board of public works and he, as city attorney, having been given that power to act in the litigation entanglements which the power plant is to be built, have spent a great deal of time and patience in making settlements with the various parties involved, and that the city of Holland is now in complete possession of the property, including Pine Avenue and the several streets which join Pine and River Ave. Mr. Lokker stated that all property owners who had a claim have signed these agreements and in the settlement it was necessary for the city to acquire certain additional properties to those they already had in possession at the time the litigation began, as this relates to the "island" project, so-called. It was necessary for the city to pay an extra $1,000 more in settlement than the common council had anticipated when they set the limit at $51,320. The final outcome was that the city of Holland through the board of public works paid $52,320 before they felt sure to go ahead on the power plant project.

Another advantage that Atty. Lokker pointed out was that the city received, when they purchased additional land through the settlement, a storm sewer from Pine Ave. and the Third St. sewer to gather the waste water from the new light and power plant thus can be joined to make an excellent disposal of this flow of water. Mr. Lokker, through the aid of city engineer Zuidema, who had drawn the maps, showed in detail what each claimant received in the settlement. These maps are being drawn to scale showing the water front each claimant has received, if any. West Michigan Furniture Co., who has by far the largest lake front, receives the largest dock facility.

The city of Holland through the board of public works next. Their water front is 666.6 feet. Quite a sizeable waterfront. Scott-Lugers Lumber Co. has 110.8 feet. The Holland Furniture Co. has 188.2 feet. The West Michigan Furniture Co. receives 853.3 feet. The Nietering Coal Co., who had nothing to do with this deal or the litigation, had just purchased 643.4 feet directly north of the city of Holland parcel on the harbor front. Any other claimants received no waterfront, but cash settlement.

COUNCIL NOTES

Mayor Geertlings opened the regular meeting of common council last Wednesday night with prayer and a salute to the flag. Edward Brouwer was the only member absent when the clerk called the roll, he being a delegate of the Holland Fish and Game club to attend a state meeting Wednesday night.

Among building permits amounting to $50,500 that the council approved, was one granted the Medusa Portland Cement Co. for the construction of a cement silo, pack house and office building, that would cost $37,000. Motion for approval was made by Ald. Huyser and supported by Ald. Drinkwater.

In a communication to the council, Louis Padnos said that the iron which has been placed around city trees on Fifth street would be removed in "a few days."

City Clerk Oscar Peterson read the names of the newly-elected city officers who had filed their oaths of office.

In a letter from the American Legion band received by the city clerk, it was called to the attention of the council that the acoustic properties of their practice room are very bad, and that it affects their ability to play well when they are not in their own room. It was requested that these properties of the room be remedied at a cost of $147. It was moved by Ald. Menken and supported by Ald. Drinkwater that the request be granted. Approved.

A bid of $20 per front foot for the land owned by the city on the northwest corner of Lincoln Avenue and Eighth Street, by Cecil Seery, was referred to the ways and means committee.

It was moved by Ald. Huyser and supported by Ald. Smith that First St. be filled and gravelled west of River Ave. at a cost of $500, enabling the Nietering Coal Co. to reach their plant over that street approved.

Ald. Drinkwater rose to say, "The approach to the voting booth at Longfellow school has got to be fixed. How can we get it done, Mr. Mayor?" Ald. Kalkman objected that it was too cold to do cement work, and the matter was dropped.

Construction of a proposed sewer from 28th street to Pine avenue was approved when moved by Ald. Vogelzang.

A resolution from the police board recommending one hour parking on Tenth street west of River avenue, and on River avenue between Tenth and Eleventh streets was approved.

A communication from the hospital board and the members of the hospital staff recommended that a new X-ray equipment be bought for hospital, as the old equipment is out of date. The new equipment will cost between $2,900 and $3,200 and "will pay for itself in several years." The money for the original cost of the equipment is already in the hospital fund, the clerk stated. A motion for the approval of the recommendation was made by Ald. Kleis. It was supported by Ald. Ketel and approved unanimously.

In a communication from the chairman of the park board, the council was told that the sprinkling system at Lakeview park has become filled with silt due to the operations of the dredge. The matter was referred to the board of public works.

Election inspectors were appointed as follows: 1st ward, Alvin Brandt; 2nd ward, John Wolman; 3rd ward, Peter Brusse; 4th ward, William Lawrence; 5th ward, 1st precinct, Carl Zigler; 2nd precinct, Henry S. Bosch; 6th ward, Herman Stegenda.

Ald. Menken said that his attention had been called to an open culvert at 21st street and Michigan avenue, and that it was a danger to the children of the neighborhood. He moved that a grate be placed over the opening. The motion was supported by Ald. Prins, and approved.

It was moved by Ald. Drinkwater and supported by Ald. Vogelzang that the Armour Leather Co. be ordered to fix the fence on their property on the north side of Eighth street, west of the Grand Rapids transport depot.

Ald. Drinkwater demanded that William Vanden Berg, newly-elected alderman, say a few words. In expressing his appreciation for being at the meeting, Mr. Vanden Berg congratulated Atty. Lokker and the board of public works on the fine way in which they handled the litigation over the power plant property.

A request by a Mr. Zagers for permission to erect a hot-dog and root-beer stand on East Eighth St. was referred to police and fire board, and to the license committee.

Henry Strabbing, Sr., old pioneer, who has been identified with civic and church affairs at Graafschap and vicinity for a number of years, passed away at Holland hospital of heart ailment Friday, where he was taken from the home of his son, Henry Strabbing, Jr., 282 Van Raalte Ave., where he has lived for the past nine months.

The funeral services were held Monday at 2 p. m. from the Nibbelink-Notier Funeral Home, and interment took place in Graafschap cemetery, where he had been sexton for 38 years, with the Rev. Stoppels of Bethel Reformed church officiating.

Mr. Strabbing was 77 years old at the time of his death, and he was constantly active until he became ill about a year ago. While sexton of the Graafschap cemetery, he was called to dig at least 2,000 graves for different persons who passed away in that neighborhood and were buried there. The first graveyard was 10 acres, and since that time ten acres more have been acquired. The cemetery is located about a half mile between Graafschap, the quaint old village on the hill, and Macatwa Drive (US-31) on the Graafschap-Holland road. When Mr. Strabbing became the sexton nearly two score years ago, the plot was bare of trees, and during the time he did a great deal of the tree and shrubbery planting and keeping up the twenty acres, which is now dense with foliage.

In a recent interview, Mr. Strabbing stated that in his younger days he could dig a grave in an hour and a half, but as age crept on him, grave digging went slower. He was a frequent visitor of the Holland City News, and gave a great deal of historic information having to do with the Strabblings in the early days.

There is something else that is rather interesting about that cemetery according to information given by Mr. Strabbing. The Ottawa-Allegheny County boundary line runs through the middle of it, east and west. The property is owned in three townships, namely, Holland, Park, and Fillmore. It is in rather a pivotal boundary line spot.

Mr. Strabbing, deeply interested in historic lore, made many valuable contributions to the Netherlands Museum, which today are on display there. He was instrumental in helping to get the enterprise started. A very interesting document was brought to the News office as this relates to the Strabbing family by captain Austin Harrington. It was a tax receipt dated Dec. 23, 1867, signed by Herman Garvelink, father of Mr. Austin Harrington of this city. Mr. Garvelink was killed in battle just at the close of the Civil War in 1864. It was a tax receipt paid by Hermanus Strabbing, father of Henry Strabbing, and the unusual part of the receipt was the amount of $1.38 assessed for harbor tax, used for the building and keeping up of Holland harbor. The tax on an 80-acre farm, including state, county, township, school, and harbor tax was $8.42. Herman Garvelink, then of Fillmore township was the treasurer, who signed this receipt.

Mr. Strabbing was intensely interested in his daughter, Mae Strabbing, who some years ago was afflicted with tuberculosis. She is now at Howell, Michigan at the sanitarium and is reported doing nicely.

The bearers at the funeral were old neighbors who lived near the Strabblings at Graafschap. There were Gerrit Ensing, George Schurman, R. Tynes, K. Boven, Jacob Boven, John Bussies, Clarence Mulder of Graafschap assisted with the funeral arrangements. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

Survivors include five children, Miss Mae of Howell, Miss Gertrude at home, Herman of Battle Creek, and William and Henry Jr. of Holland; one grandchild, Margaret Ann Strabbing of Battle Creek; two sisters, Mrs. Ben J. Lemmen and Mrs. Dijk Dekker, both of Holland; and a brother, the Rev. Albert Strabbing, of Holland. Mrs. Strabbing passed away 30 years ago.

Ben Speet filed application with City Clerk Oscar Peterson yesterday for a building permit to erect a new home at 106 West 27th St. at an estimated cost of $3,400. The application calls for a 26 by 30-foot home, one and one-half stories high, of frame construction and asphalt roofing, together with an 18 by 20-foot garage at $300. Mrs. D. B. Yntema filed an application for improvement of her property at 10 West Eighth St., now occupied by the Post Jewelry store, to reinforce the first floor with steel beams and posts at a cost of $500.

An invitation is being extended by Charles B. White, principal of the Hamilton school, to parents of all school children to attend an exhibit to be held in the school building Tuesday evening, March 21, at 8 o'clock. The exhibit will include individual and group projects. In addition there will be displays by the Sewing, Handicraft, Electrical and Hot Lunch clubs. Refreshments will be served by the Hamilton Parent-Teachers association.

Deputy Sheriff William Van Etta reports that he received from the state health department that the dog which bit Gladys Bowman, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bowman at Central park Monday was suffering from rabies. The dog was killed after biting the child and its head sent to Lansing for examination.

Messrs Kollen-Keppel and Co. of Hamilton expect to be ready in a few days to commence making flour for the general market.

NOTE—Those were the days when small flour mills were found in every small village and city near the wheat farmer. Zealand had one right on the main street on the best "four corners." As was stated before, the boiler exploded in that one and it was the beginning of the end. Holland had the Plugger, The City Mills, and later Standard Roller Mills. The Beach Milling Co. came later. "Dad" Karsten conducted the Little Wonder mill in Zealand and lived there until the time of his passing. Fennville and Allegan always had mills. There is still a mill of the old type at Jensen on the main highway to Grand Rapids. That type of high building generally was built for milling purposes in the early days. The Holland City Mills was of that type—the highest building in the city at the time. It burned and what a bonfire that heap of dry structure made. The Weurding Mills, now the Holland Co-operatives is on the site today.

The question of curtailing emigration from some countries was already thought of in 1879 when President Rutherford B. Hayes vetoed the Chinese bill. One of the reasons given in his message to congress was that the bill provided that the number of Chinese allowed to enter was 15 on any one ship from the Orient, but the president stated that it gave no proportion as to tonnage or size of ship and as the bill was drawn, it would virtually mean the exclusion of all Chinese from China altogether.

Lyceum Opera House will be repainted and redecorated in and outside and when completed strangers will not take our "play house" for a lively barn.

Mrs. Sena Rutgers of Graafschap had one of her limbs amputated and the physicians who did the work were Dr. Manting on the Graafschap road, Dr. Huijzen of Zealand and Dr. Henry Kremers of Holland. NOTE—Called in all the doctors from lower Ottawa as it were.

Flags were flying over many of Holland's buildings Monday, Mar. 4, honoring the inauguration at Washington, D.C. of President Benj. Harrison and Vice-President Levi P. Morton, Republicans, elected last November.

The Charles Richardson Saloon on Main and Market Street was entered on Sunday and $17 in cash and several boxes of cigars were stolen. NOTE—This was a small wooden building on the Southeast corner of 8th and Central ave. on the site of the Woolworth store. The amount stolen showed poor receipts for a Saturday night it would appear.

"White Caps" have come to Ottawa county and at Nunica hauled a man from his bed, tied him to a tree where he was left until the next morning stripped. NOTE—Nothing is said about tar and feathers although citizens disapproved the action.

G. J. Haverkate died at the age of 73 years. Note: Mrs. Lane T. Kanter, prominent society woman, was a daughter. Haverkate was a horse trader and for many years conducted a lively stable near the corner of Fish and Main streets, now 8th and Columbia ave. The home and the lively barn were on the site of Prins' garage now located there.

Two Zealand "toughs" came to this city the other day, intending to "do up" one of Holland's young men against whom they had a personal spite, but their fun was soon spoiled with a timely intervention of Deputy Marshal Charley O'Dell, who came to the rescue in the nick of time. The scamps cleared out without any further trouble. Note: In those early days there was considerable bad blood between the young chaps of both cities, and a free-for-all was often staged. This feeling has long since been dissipated, and more sense and better cooperation all around, and the interchange of sport contests have had a wonderful effect.

FORTY YEARS AGO TODAY

C. De Keyser has plans prepared for a store to be built at the corner of 12th and Pine ave. NOTE—Something must have changed the plans, for no store was ever built there. That was long before a zoning ordinance had been passed and stores were built in all convenient neighborhood centers. Mr. De Keyser instead of building bought the store of Van Zwailenberg-Michemshuisen on 12th and Central Ave., later purchased by Franzburg's.

A fine "polypheon" one of Edison's latest inventions is on exhibition at Breyman and Hardie's Jewelry store. It is a remarkable instrument and worth hearing—drop in.

A wonderful play will be given at Lyceum Opera House, "The Battle of Shiloh," by Lewis George W. McBride of Grand Haven who is the leading man.

James W. Reeve of Holland, a maimed veteran of the Civil War, who served bravely in both the army and navy, has been granted an increase in pension to $16 a month.

Dr. G. J. Koolen, president of Hope college, is expected back the latter part of the week from New

A meeting will be held in Grand-wet hall by the H. J. Heinz Co. for the signing of pickle contracts and the explaining of raising tomatoes and cauliflower and added produce to be raised by the farmer. De Grandwet hall is on the corner of River and 7th sts.

Judge Phillip Padgham of Allegan was again nominated circuit court judge by acclamation by a delegation from Allegan and Ottawa counties. Note: He served for a great many years. He was finally defeated by Orien S. Cross, then of Allegan now of Holland, who served 18 years when Judge Fred T. Miles of Holland was elected and he is serving his second term of six years.

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The common council unanimously changed the name of Land street to Lincoln ave. Alderman Nicholas Prakkem making the motion. A few weeks before, on Lincoln's birthday, the News suggested that the name Land-street, which had no significance, be changed to Lincoln ave., honoring the martyred President. There upon 35 property owners immediately filed petition asking that the change be made. NOTE—It still is Lincoln ave. and not so long afterward the citizens on First ave. honored our first president and named that thorough Washington. Now we have a Washington Boulevard, Washington Square and Washington ave., all linked together.

Chief of Police Fred Kamferbeck reports only 12 arrests in February. NOTE—That was fine only "Fred" didn't have traffic and parking problems at that time.

Alderman Abe Stephan and Clerk Van Schelven were appointed to buy a new banner for the A. C. Van Raalte Post G.A.R. from the money collected at the Lincoln Memorial meeting held a few Sundays ago. NOTE—The banner is still in the possession of the post although the last member, John Douma, has just "answered taps."

Miss Mabel Huntley and Wm. Bosman were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Huntley. Miss Huntley was bookkeeper at the Citizens Telephone Co. and Mr. Bosman conducts the Holland Cleaners. NOTE—For the last quarter of a century the couple have lived in Grand Haven where Mr. Bosman has been successful in a dry cleaning enterprise. He is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Bosman, East 13th st., Holland.

Captain Austin Harrington is in Toledo, Ohio, attending the annual meeting of the licensed tugmen's Protective association of which he is a member. Mr. Harrington has been president of this local nautical organization for some years. Note: There were several tugs of small draft in this port 30 years ago.

Rev. Dr. R. W. Van Schorck, aged 65 years, a Methodist minister, died in Holland. He held churches in several eastern cities. Six years ago he was injured and had two arms broken when thrown from a carriage when the horses ran away. He was driving with another pastor in the district. In 1904 friends gave him the privilege of seeing the Holy Land. When he returned he wrote a book entitled, "The Book and the Land." He was the author of another booklet, "Sunrise, Midday and Sunset." He came to Holland two years ago.

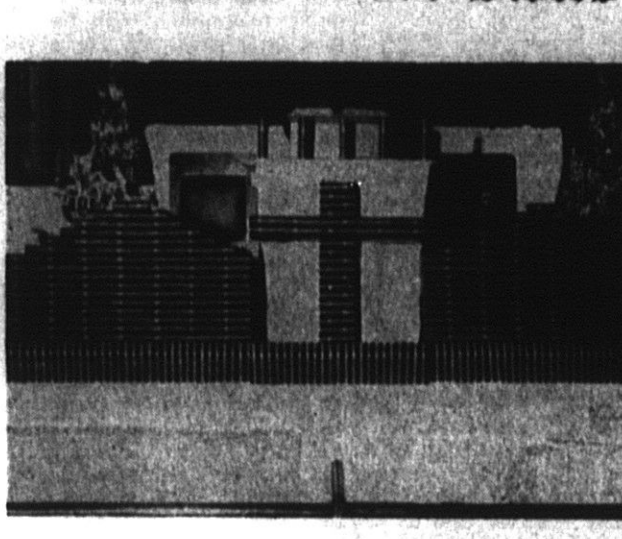

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Ex-Mayor John Vander Sluis was indeed a surprised man Friday evening when, at a congregational social meeting at Third church, the gathering presented him with a check of $102. After serving the church for nearly 25 years as choir director, Former Mayor Geertlings spring the surprise and made the presentation speech. John was noticeably affected and suggested that the amount be divided between the members of the choir. But the congregation and members of the choir would not have it that way.

Sgt. John Bremer, 126 Inf. Corn. M.N.G.—A.E.F. is to remain in France for some time yet. After the Armistice he was one selected for the Army of Occupation on the Rhine until final peace terms are completed. He says the Germans in the zone of occupation guarded by soldiers of all countries belonging to the allies, treat every one of a fine German home and the folks are just lovely he says. He says these folks are very poor after the long struggle and while the American soldiers have white bread to eat these people had nothing but black bread, and they look longingly at the bread we had. It cost Bremer 100 German marks to get his shoes half sold. Bremer's letter of a column indicates he has great longing to be on his way back home to America. He'll have plenty to tell when he arrives.

THE CITY BUDGET JUST PASSED COMPLETELY GIVEN

The city budget passed by the common council last night is officially given in detail on the first page of section 2. It covers three columns of city necessities, and the money set aside for these running expenses, including fire department, city police, new fire truck, remodeling of band room, and many other projects arranged for in the budget.

It is well to turn to page 1, section 2, and get the detailed information on city expenses.

NEW COMPANY TO SPEND $40,000 WITH ANNUAL PAYROLL OF APPROXIMATELY $25,000

According to release from the Holland Chamber of Commerce, the Nietering Coal Company will develop 643 feet of frontage on the new channel connecting Black River with Lake Macatwa. The land was purchased by Henry Nietering for coal docks on the "island" and according to Mr. Stephan, Mr. Nietering will spend approximately $40,000, including the improvements to this property, which includes the purchase price. When completed, according to present planning, the docks will be named "The Nietering City Coal Docks." Mr. Nietering's son-in-law, Leo Ables, will make his residence in Holland, and become the manager of the coal plant.

The Van Anrooy Co. of this city has been given the contract to sheet pile the entire frontage of 643 feet, and the company will also make a fill over the entire area which it has purchased.

Mr. Stephan has also stated that Mr. Nietering has advised him that the shipment of coal by barges will run approximately a half million dollars annually, all of which will be received at the docks here. Other materials which will come here by boat to these docks will be consignments of concrete, brick, lime, and other building materials which will add materially to the tonnage to enter this port and help future harbor appropriations.

It is understood that the payroll of the company will amount to about $25,000 a year, and with the exception of the manager, the employment will be given to local men.

The docks are to be located directly north of the new Holland Municipal Light and Power plant now being erected there. It extends eastward from the channel to the west line of the proposed new Pine Avenue, running from Madison Place to Second Street. The new plant cannot help but aid the city materially in added employment for labor in building the plant, the fill-in, and eventually the permanent crew that will be required to keep the coal docks going; and naturally the improved and developed ground of the company with its building also add tax revenues from now on, which the undeveloped swamp did not produce.

HOLLAND FOLK TO SPEAK AT ZEELAND

The Western Social Conference will meet in the First Reformed church, Zealand, this coming Friday. The morning session will be devoted to a consideration of the "Church Music" and in the afternoon Prof. T. E. Welmers will discuss "Our Reformed Theology."

Chapel service. He is here on an extended trip.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Ten years ago the corn borer made its appearance in Allegan county. Maybe Ottawa will be next. NOTE—Strange, we have not heard of borers lately.

Wm. Drenton of Hamilton is on his way to California.

Mrs. John Klekntveld, age 64, died at Holland from injuries sustained in an unusual accident when ice from the roof of her home at 195 E. 10th st. struck her on the head resulting in concussion of the brain. Herman and John, two sons, survive.

The J. C. Penney Co., occupying the Walsh building on the corner of Eighth Street and College Ave., state through their manager, Frank Duhkopf, that the company will start on a $9000 remodeling program, and the store will contain a second story and a mezzanine floor. Note: The company has recently remodeled the Vander Veen building on River Ave. and Eighth Street.

Mrs. Martha M. Ogden, Ottawa county pioneer, who formerly lived on the Lake Shore, died at the age of 80. She was the widow of Nelson W. Ogden, known to older residents here as the drummer boy of the Civil War. She first settled at Ventura, northwest of Holland. Mr. Ogden appeared often with local drum corps during Memorial Day parades together with Darwin Hoff, the Civil War veteran.

Gideons Expound Cause of Bible In Our Churches

THIS ORGANIZATION OF CHRISTIAN TRAVELING
MEN FURNISHES
HOTEL ROOMS WITH HOLY WRIT

The Campaign Here is a Reminder of a Bible Incident Some
Ten Years Ago

An organization by the name of The Gideons have been doing some very effective religious work throughout the United States. This organization is international and fosters its work through the Christian Commercial Travelers' Association of America, and is international in scope. They have been instrumental in bringing "God's Word" into the rooms of every leading hotel and many small ones throughout the nation.

In Holland, the Bible is found in every room in Warm Friend Tavern as well as Hotel Netherlands, and may be in other places in this city of that nature. Sunday there was a Bible talk in most of the churches in Holland by representatives of the Gideon organization, this city and Zealand being well represented among the Gideons.

If you find inside cover page of each Bible that was placed in the hotels, the following inscription is printed: "This Book is furnished by the Gideons. A Bible in every hotel guest room. Winning commercial traveling men for Christ. With the hope that many may be brought to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, which you should read to be wise. Believe it to be safe, and practice it to be holy."

Blessed Truth: The Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost.—Luke 19:10; For God so Loved the World that He Gave His Only Begotten Son that Whosoever Believeth in Him Should not perish but Have Everlasting Life.—John 3:16.

The preface continues and has these quotations: If you are in trouble, read Psalm 34.

If trade is poor, read Psalm 37.

If you are prosperous, read 1 Cor. 10:12.

If overcome and backsliding, read James 1, Hosea 14:4-9.

If led of sin, read Psalm 51, Luke 18:9-14.

If you desire something new, read John 3, Rev. 21 and 22.

If you desire peace, power and plenty, read John 14.

If you are lonesome and discouraged, read Psalm 23 and 27.

If you are losing confidence in men, read 1 Cor. 13.

If you desire peaceful slumbers, read Psalm 121.

Anyway, what is going on in Holland just now is going on all over the United States and in other countries. The Gideons are especially active now, feeling that the Bible, if ever it was needed, is needed today in these periods of stress and rumors of war, when the story of "God will to all men" should be impressed upon the minds and hearts of every living soul.

The accompanying cut is not exactly a Gideon story, although the man, Mr. E. P. Stephan, former mayor, was intensely interested. It was about ten years ago, near Easter time, when he was teaching a class of ladies in the Third Reformed church. He mentioned the fact that there were few Bibles left in the church pews, and some were well worn. The need for Bibles was suggested to this class, and the class in question made every effort through personal subscription and giving entertainments and at last three hundred Bibles were secured through this method and through the auspices of this Sunday school class.

Mr. Stephan stated that he was reminded of bringing about this mass Bible production through pictures he had seen in the Intelligence Leader, where 1,900 Bibles were given to a large hotel in New York City and 3,000 to a large hospital in Los Angeles. It is the activity of the Gideons today that brought about the story of ten years ago. Mr. Stephan at that time stated that after a great deal of effort the Bibles were purchased, and they arrived on Saturday morning. He had no thought at the time just what to do with them, but felt that the congregation of the Third Reformed church should know about these Bibles purchased for the church, and he began to pile them in front of the pulpit, which he first covered with a canvas. He stacked them up with no arranged idea of form, but the Bibles were so arranged that they reached to the height of the pulpit, and the form of a cross as presented in this picture was the result.

NIAGARA FALLS OUTDONE

World-famous Victoria Falls, 1 1/2 miles wide, drops 347 feet.

THE world's greatest waterfall, twice the height of our Niagara, will be reproduced in a great working model at the New York World's Fair. The rushing waters of the Victoria Falls of Southern Rhodesia will be portrayed by a model thirty feet in height and a city block in length with 60,000 gallons of water passing over it every minute. The waters descend into a realistic African jungle with a wealth of native foliage, populous with wild animals. The brilliant tropic sunrise and sunset will be reproduced by light effects and thunder storms will be simulated at appropriate intervals by ingenious sound effects. The waters will foam and boil by the addition of chemicals. Visitors to the artificial jungle will walk through passageways protected by invisible wire netting and the wild animals of the jungle will appear to roam freely in their native haunts. The exhibit was designed by Norman S. Yule, Commissioner of the Government of Southern Rhodesia who was also responsible for the outstanding success enjoyed by a smaller replica exhibited last year at the Empire Exhibit held at Glasgow, Scotland.

HORSE SHOEING AND BREAKING DEMONSTRATIONS

Fitting of horses' feet, horse shoeing and a breaking demonstration will be subject matter covered by H. M. Morley, March 20th and 21st in various sections of the county.

L. R. Arnold, agricultural agent, has also scheduled Mr. Moxley for some swine meetings. He will discuss swine feeding and general management problems. The first swine meeting will be at Robt. Rasch farm, 10 A. M. March 20th. At 8 P. M. same day Mr. Moxley will be at Allendale Hall to discuss swine problems. Mr. Rasch's farm is about 2 miles north of Marne and 1 1/2 miles east.

The horse demonstrations are scheduled at three farms, the first at Joseph Denhof's farm 2 P. M. March 20th. This farm is 1 1/2 miles west of Lisbon.

On March 21st at 10 A. M. a demonstration will be given at Ed. Bekins place of business on US-16 about 2 miles west of Coopersville. At 2 P. M. the Andre Bros. farm, Jenison, will be visited.

Mr. Moxley is well known in Ottawa County. His fitting and breaking demonstrations have always interested horse owners. Many horses are unable to do their best through faulty care of hoofs. Breaking a colt through use of ropes also attracts much attention.

William M. Connelly of Grand Rapids, formerly manager-secretary of the Holland Chamber of Commerce, was in Holland Monday.

V.F.W.

Next regular meeting Thursday evening, 7:45, March 23. Auxiliary meets same night in G.A.R. room, city hall.

They say we are supposed to have lunch after meetings, so let's turn out and also let us forget election of officers is soon at hand. Let's turn out to get our opinion on who we want for our new officers.

Our Chaplain is always on the job we know, But of him being a poet we didn't know. Here is a little poem he wrote, And here it is, so quote:—

LEST WE FORGET
We who followed Old Glory across the Seas,
To help make the world safe for Democracy,
We may well know the War was won;

But our Comrades are still falling one by one—
So do be Loyal and Ever True to your Comrades, the Widows, and Orphans, too;
So get in line in nineteen thirty-nine,
For the V.F.W. cause is yours and mine.

Good work, Len. Hope to hear from more of our members. We have all kinds of such as cooks, musicians, poets, singers, commanders, shuffle players and so on. Let's hear from more of them!

Glad to see some of our old stand-bys at our last meeting who weren't with us for quite a while. Won't be long and they'll all be on the scene.

At our last meeting, Paul W. Jahn and Watson Lundie were elected as delegates to our West Michigan County Council. Gerrit Klompans and Fred Kolmar were elected as alternates.

Next West Michigan Council meeting Sunday, March 19. All members invited. Meeting at Montague.

Fun Party Friday night. Public invited.

We wonder what kind of meat Fred Kolmar wins at the V.F.W. fun parties. It always runs away from him, and he worries himself to a shadow trying to keep track of it.

WOMAN'S LITERARY CLUB IS ENTERTAINED WITH READING OF PLAY

Members of the Woman's Literary club were entertained at their meeting in the club rooms Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. George E. Kollen read the play, "Abe Lincoln in Illinois" by Robert E. Sherwood.

Mrs. Kollen, who has a remarkable talent in dramatics, gave a pleasing presentation of this play which was Broadway's biggest hit. It includes the thirty years of Lincoln's life while he was in Illinois.

As a young man of 21, Lincoln came to New Salem with a desire for learning. He was a lanky chap of six feet, four inches tall, and had not much ambition. He soon met Ann Rutledge and fell deeply in love with her. She was such a "spur to urge him on" that at the request of some of his friends Lincoln agreed to run for the state assembly. A short time later Miss Rutledge died, and Lincoln lost all his ambitions and saw no hope for his future life.

As time went on Lincoln slowly received some of his old ambition again, and in 1842 married Mary Todd, though he did not love her, but found her a helpful companion. She quarreled much with him for she knew that his heart was in Ann Rutledge's grave.

Mrs. Kollen very ably told of the period of his life when he formulated his democratic creed, and later ran for president of the United States and was elected. The final part of the story depicts Lincoln as a wise, ambitious, and noble figure, a hen-pecked husband, a father, a practical politician, and a morbidly melancholy man.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Kenneth De Pree gave a brief resume of the remarkable work done by the Hospital committee during the club year.

The East Crisp school young people are preparing for a play which is to be given sometime in April. The school which has been closed for a week on account of the flu, has again resumed studies with several of the pupils still absent.

Avenue just south of Windmill Park. How the opening of that traffic congestion on River Avenue was fully told in the last issue of the News. Pine Ave., according to the map, makes a long curve into River Ave., and either coming into or leaving the city the tourists will get a favorable impression of beautiful Windmill Park, where provisions have also been made for a lagoon for yachts, making it easier for resorters to come to Holland with their craft and tie up in the lagoon just southwest of Windmill Park.

The cash settlement, according to Mr. Lokker's review of the case, was as follows: West Michigan Furniture, $2,093.59; Donnelly-Kelley Glass Co., $11,000; John Good Coal Co., $4,000; Walsh & Zwemer, $2,000; and Ira J. Lyons, $33,226.41; or a total of $52,320.

Showing how difficult these negotiations have been, Lokker stated that many of the contemplated settlements were upset since there were so many involved and so many changes of thought in the matter and change in demand. When "daylight" was seen ahead, negotiations had to start right over again. He stated that the board of public works at one time could have purchased another site for $75,000, which had government approval, but felt it was not good business to give up this preferred site because of court litigation. He says under these agreements the city also got the right-of-way to the several streets which would have to be obtained later through condemnation proceedings and possibly more long court proceedings. He stated that with the extension of Pine Ave., the state highway department will cooperate in diverting the traffic off River Ave. which is beginning to become a problem, relieving the congestion and route it over the 90-foot Pine Ave. But for this, it might be necessary to widen River Ave. at tremendous expense, which may be avoided for some time with the new Pine Ave. available.

Mr. Lokker pointed out that the city is going to receive many benefits despite the initial payment of $52,320 to the improvement of land and waterfront. He also pointed out that the $37,000 building permit of the Medusa Portland Cement Co. for their storage plant and the $40,000 building project of the Nietering Co. also on the channel is a beginning of these activities and benefits.

Atty. Lokker thanked common council, Board of Public Works Member Joseph Geerds and City Engineer Jacob Zuidema for their cooperation in the negotiations.

After the reading of the agreement between the various parties, Attorney Lokker asked for questions from the aldermen. Alderman Vogelzang asked if the city gets as much land for its money as it did under the original agreement. Attorney Lokker answered, "No, for the city had to get away from the litigation before it could get the P.W.A. grant, and continue the work on the new plant. However, we are getting the street property, and also 44 feet of frontage on the channel north of the plant site in addition to the original property."

Alderman Huyser then asked if the city owned any channel frontage south of the plant site, and Attorney answered "No." It must be understood that through the Board of Public Works it owns 666.6 feet on the channel for dockage. Alderman Ketel presented a resolution approving the action of the board of public works and the city attorney, and it was supported by Alderman Oudemool. The resolution was unanimously passed. Alderman Prins then moved that a vote of appreciation be offered in thanks to the members of the board of public works, Attorney Lokker and City Engineer Jacob Zuidema for the work that they did in aiding in the settlement of the litigation from the power plant property. The motion was supported by Alderman Drinkwater and passed unanimously.

Drinkwater asked if those property owners on First St. who have paid for street improvements previously will be assessed against for extension of this street.

Zuidema said that if any street is extended there would be no assessment against those who have paid for grading and graveling but if a street is ever paved property owners would be assessed for the work done in front of their property only.

Mayor Henry Geerlings expressed appreciation to the city attorney, city engineer and board of public works for their work. Council also showed its appreciation in the form of a motion.

Beside the appreciation extended Mr. Lokker, the newly-elected aldermen, William C. Vandenberg was present, and through the dean alderman, Art Drinkwater, he was invited to take a seat from the audience at the desk he is to occupy when the new council goes into session. Mr. Vandenberg was called upon for a few remarks, and he stated that he did not really intend to be one of them so early, but since he was called upon he thanked the mayor and aldermen for the kind invitation and said he, too, wanted to add his thanks to all those who did such excellent work in straightening out a most difficult problem. He stated that this project would prove a greater boon to the city than folk today realize. He felt, however, the citizens of Holland should know the facts, and he especially voiced his appreciation as to how city attorney Lokker reviewed every detail of this vexing problem which took weeks to straighten out and in which the city attorney also played an important part.

He stated that as an alderman he would do everything possible to advance the interest of the city, something that has always been paramount with him. Mr. Vandenberg received an applauding hand from those present.

HOTEL NETHERLANDS HAS BEEN REDECORATED AND REFURNISHED

Hotel Netherlands, which opened so auspiciously on November 1, 1935, under the auspices of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Assenheim, has been very successful during that period. Mrs. Clara M. Assenheim, formerly of Chicago, who is hostess and manager, is a thoroughly experienced hotel woman. After nearly four years the hotel has been thoroughly known abroad, where "Dutch cleanliness" predominates.

The redecoration and refurnishing has been going on for several months, and many changes have been made in the lighting arrangement, especially in the office.

The Assenheims came here, starting an uphill job when they opened Hotel Netherlands, but they feel that they have been very successful, and the management states that reservations for Saturday, May 13, the opening day of the Tulip Festival, have already been filled, and reservations have also been taken for other days, although there are still rooms available.

Mrs. Clara M. Assenheim states that the hotel chambers are furnished in green and blue; and during their management, there have been many bridal parties stopping at Hotel Netherlands. The furniture is all fire-proof steel, and the hotel is furnished with all the safeguards necessary in a hostelry of that type.

The management states that people of Holland and vicinity are always welcome to visit and inspect the hotel; in fact, local folk are always welcome at any time.

The Assenheims have enjoyed their stay in Holland, like its people, like Holland and its resort district, and they intend to make their home always, as Holland's citizens.

Geo. Getz Sr. Estate Sold To Chicago Group

PLAN CONSIDERABLE ACTIVITY AT LAKEWOOD FARM

Through the agency of Isaac Kouw of Holland, local realtor, it has been announced that the celebrated Lakewood Farm, founded and owned by George F. Getz on Lake Michigan, was sold to a group in Chicago.

The holdings comprise 3760 feet of Lake Michigan frontage, and the entire farm is composed of 250 acres. The farm has five sets of farm buildings, a large orchard, a henhouse, a tremendous garden, three greenhouses, a large power plant and water works, a clubhouse, the beautiful George Getz home, and five modern summer homes. There are also several garages, a mill fully equipped with machinery to do repair and building work on the farm. There is also a small fire department.

One of the summer homes was occupied for several years by the late Gerrit J. Diekema, before he became minister to The Netherlands. Senator Arthur Vandenberg and family spent his summers there, and Sanford Wilcox and Heber Curtis of the Old Kent Bank of Grand Rapids also occupied cottages there.

The Globe Corporation, in whose charge several of the George F. Getz matters were taken care of, together with Mr. Kouw, negotiated with a Trust Co. of Chicago, Illinois, and finally the deal was consummated in behalf of a Chicago group.

Mr. Kouw states that since the death of Mr. Getz there has been very little activity at Lakewood Farm, but now the farm has been taken over by the Chicago group, there will be considerable more activity there in recent years. About four years ago the zoological gardens were discontinued and the animals given by Mr. Getz to the large new zoo Brookfield near Chicago, said to be the finest in the world. The animal cages and enclosures that housed lions, tigers, hippos, rhinos, bears, monkeys, and small animals, and all varieties of birds, were taken down some time ago, and there is no semblance of a zoo left. Even the elephant, the last to go, was some three years ago taken to Chicago under great difficulty.

George F. Getz, Jr., was here yesterday, having just returned from Florida, where he chartered the Getz yacht, which has been in Florida waters ever since the death of Mr. Getz, nearly a year ago. Mr. Getz, Jr., verified the negotiations which had just been made, but could give no definite information of the plans of the new owners.

The story of how Mr. Getz, who was seeking a summer home for Mrs. Getz, for the two ladies when they were still infants, at a beautiful story, although at the conclusion it was tinged with sadness, for when the place was practically completed Mrs. Getz passed on; but Mr. Getz always adhered to the wishes of Mrs. Getz, to bring up the two boys, George Jr., and James on this farm with its wholesome surroundings, and where even a small school was built and the teacher rang the bell at regular school hours, and the two little fellows, now grown men handling their father's estate, then hurried off to school located in a remote part of the farm.

This gripping story, it will be remembered, was published at the death of Mr. Getz, and is too well known to need repetition. What Mr. Getz has meant to this community is too fully told. It was a place where nearly a million folks, annually, most of them children, were given recreational feature, and passed in Michigan. The farm of the farm was national in scope, and the animals in reality were a hobby of Mr. Getz, who as a young man managed to get under the "big top" of every circus that came to town by carrying "water to the elephants." He felt that all children were like himself when a youngster, with a passion to see animals of all kinds, and children were one of the main reasons for his starting the zoological garden.

The board of education held a short meeting Monday, and Mrs. George E. Kollen opened with devotions. Claims amounting to $24,104.72 were approved, and Miss Hannah G. Hodge, teacher in the school, thanked the board in a letter or compensation she had received as a result of a fall in the school building some time ago.

Simon Verburg, a retired farmer living at 27 West 6th St., died Tuesday afternoon at Holland hospital where he was taken for treatment. He was 69 years old. He formerly lived in Fillmore township, directly south of Holland. He was born in Kalamazoo July 1, 1869. He moved to this community with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Verburg when he was 4 years old. Funeral services will be held today, Friday, at 2 o'clock from the Langland Funeral chapel with the Rev. C. Beertuis officiating. Interment will take place in the Grapeland cemetery. THE GEORGE GETZ HOME AT LAKEWOOD FARM

A GLIMPSE OF A SMALL CORNER OF LAKEWOOD FARM

SENIOR PLAY IS OUTSTANDING SUCCESS

Each night thus far that the Holland high senior play, "Skidding," was given, the large auditorium of the school was filled to capacity, and some were even turned away.

The play is under the able direction of Mrs. Edward Donovan, teacher of public speaking, and other members of the faculty who aided in a special way to make this play a success were Erwin Hanson, business advisor; Louise Krum, art supervisor; Eugene Heeter, music director; Dallas Rich, printing director; Edward Donovan, stage supervisor; and Clyde Geerlings, photography.

The setting of the play is the living room of Judge and Mrs. Hardy, played by John Pelon and Marion Geerts, respectively. According to the play Mr. Hardy has held the position as judge of the third district court of Idaho for twenty years, and fears that he will not be nominated this term. He finds a sympathetic companion and helper in his daughter, Marian, typically played by Dorothy Hamm. She, however, has problems of her own, for after being away at school studying political science she feels it her duty to help her father by entering politics. In this way she is torn between choosing a political career and love, and so her engagement to Wayne Trenton III, played by Cecil Bacheller, is broken. Later she finds that success and a career are not as satisfying as love.

Wayne Lemmen takes the role of Andy Hardy, the only son of Judge and Mrs. Hardy, and as the typical "kid brother" is always saying he is doing something for which he is reprimanded or given a "slap in the face" by the other members of his family. Mrs. Hardy's sister, Aunt Milly, is played by Betty Peterson, who is tired of being an "old maid" and says she would rather worry about the husband she's got than the one she hasn't got.

Estelle Hardy Campbell and Myra Hardy Wilcox, played by Virginia Dykhuus and Julia Voss, respectively, are the two married daughters of the Hardy's, and after being married for a time become dissatisfied with their husbands and return to their parental home. This, however, does not bring them happiness or satisfaction either, and return to their husbands.

Clinton Harrison takes the part of Grandpa Hardy, the father of Judge Hardy, and the role of Oscar Stubbins, Mr. Hardy's campaign manager, is played by Clarence Harris.

The Holland high school orchestra furnished music during intermissions, being under the able direction of Eugene F. Heeter.

The play is said to be one of the finest ever put on by the senior class, and its success was already seen when the first night it was presented such a large crowd attended, and on the second night more than 100 were turned away to come again to either one of the two remaining performances. The senior play closes this Thursday night.

Chief Ira Antes of the local police department, who has been investigating the Teerman-Van Dyk burglary on East 7th St., said that nothing has been missing from the place but a few bottles of soft drinks opened in the company's office, undoubtedly by youngsters, who pried open a basement window of the building and so entered.

Mr. and Mrs. John Postma and son from Rudyard spent a few days with their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kamper of Crisp. They have now returned home.

Sunday Storm Brings Death to Holland Man

HOLLAND MAN IS KILLED ALMOST INSTANTLY DAY IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Holland had a fatal accident Sunday when John Sybesma, age 44, living at 22 West 19th St., was involved in an accident late Sunday morning at 10th St. and Columbia Ave. His car collided with that driven by Kelsey G. Smith of Grand Rapids. The accident was caused by the sleet storm, which covered the windshields of both cars, and according to the coroner, John K. Winter, who was called in on his first Holland fatality this year, since he has just become a coroner, said that no inquest would be held. Prosecuting Attorney Elbert Parsons stated that no action would be taken against Smith.

After the collision an investigation was made and Sybesma's body was found pinned, jammed in under a street marking sign by his own car. Investigation at the hospital showed a bad fracture of the skull at the right side, as well as a fracture of the skull on the left side. He was also badly bruised on the right side of his face and his chest, too, was badly injured in the impact.

Mr. Smith, also involved in the accident, stated that he was driving his car not over 20 miles per hour and there was some ice on the windshield. He stated that his wife was with him and was watching for any traffic that might come, but she did not see Sybesma's car coming. He could not remember whether there was ice on Sybesma's car, but there was none on either car when they were inspected. However, when Sybesma's car came suddenly in sight, he swerved over quickly to avoid a collision. Sybesma's car went into a spin, and he was thrown from the seat against the marker. The car, after being through spinning, shot forward, striking the marker also. Smith immediately left his car to give aid but Sybesma mumbled a few words and then became unconscious, and an ambulance was quickly brought to the scene of the accident and took the unfortunate man to Holland hospital.

The Smith car, after striking the Sybesma car, ran over the curb against the home of Ted Koolker, 156 East 10th St.

Sybesma died at Holland hospital and the body was in charge of the Dykstra Funeral Home, where friends were privileged to view the remains. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon from the funeral chapel and at 2 o'clock from Ninth Street Christian Reformed church, Rev. Monsma officiating. Interment took place in Fairlawn cemetery. Bearers were his fellow employees from Sligh Furniture Co.

Mr. Sybesma was cabinetmaker at the Sligh Furniture Co. for some time. He was born in Holland Dec. 20, 1894, to Mr. and Mrs. R. Sybesma, and was wed in 1915 to Miss Sena Shock of Salem, Mich., and has lived here ever since.

Mr. Sybesma's death is the second tragedy to occur in the family within the past month. Elizabeth Ann, 23-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Sybesma, 221 Lincoln Ave., died Feb. 20 in Holland hospital of burns suffered when she fell into a tub of boiling water at her home. The child was a niece of the deceased.

Besides the widow, he is survived by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rense Sybesma of Holland; one daughter, Mrs. Albert Vander Tuuk of Holland; one sister, Mrs. Elmer Allen of Byron Center; four brothers, Abel and Neil Sybesma, both of Holland, Bert of Grand Rapids and Benjamin of New Orleans, La., and one grandchild.

World Traveler Visits Russian Slum District

STILL CLAIMS ONE CAN TRAVEL UNMOLESTED IN "LAND OF THE BIG BEAR"

(By Dr. A. J. Brower)

Continuing my story of last week, I might say that I not only walked through and in the shops of the business district where everything is pictured instead of showing the real thing, but also found very little opposition. Occasionally I would get a black look because Russians are really earnest looking, and there are not so many smiles as in other countries I have been. I walked into butcher shops where the meats and fine cuts to eat were pictured rather than the real thing. A chicken was a chicken printed, but not a chicken drawn, and nicely gotten together as you see in our food shops. Chicken is chicken, however, whether they are in Russia or in America, and that applies even to Webster's definition of a chicken, where he differentiates and calls it a young maiden. Of course, Webster did not intend the vulgarly that some years ago was attached to a chicken as a girl and a maiden lady as an old hen. Our fine maidens and old girls are fine in Russia as well as they are in the United States.

I visited millinery stores, drug stores, hospitals, factories, banks, and homes, and I found a fine cordiality, although rather reserved. Occasionally I may have got a "dirty look," but this, too, may have been imagination, for a look from a bearded Russian is something to stand in awe of; but on the whole everybody was friendly. I also took a tour of slums and alley districts, and was never stopped by anybody with the exception of one time when I stopped to buy a Russian newspaper, and they came running from every direction when I walked away. They were jabbering to me, but I could not understand their language, so I was ignorant as to the reason of their coming. I was not going to eat me alive, and I fear that would have been some big order. All they wished to know is if I did not want a German paper, too; for embossed on the front page was "HITLER" with a large picture of the German dictator on the front page. I was wondering if they had mistaken me for a German. I am sure they could not take me for a Jew or that I was a "wandering Jew," which the author so minutely describes.

I felt with all my experience and what I have read that the terrible Russians, whom I was to fear, were not very ferocious after all, at least as far as I personally am concerned. I found the Russian people very much like other people in other countries I had visited, some very fine and others not so good. I do not want to make a comparison between Soviet Russia with the United States. That would hardly be fair, but I try to compare it with the knowledge I gathered from others who knew with pre-revolutionary Russia, and I kept in mind that Russia was for the Russians and not for the Americans. I did not want to magnify minor inconveniences because there are usually always justifiable reasons for many of these if we only understand. The Union Soviet Socialist Republic is quite different from the U.S.A., and that is the reason we visited. We were visiting a country of inconceivable extent where the most revolutionary changes are taking place in every field of activity and on the largest scale that mankind has ever known. We were not asked to approve of what we saw, but still it was very interesting to make such first-hand observations as our brief stay permitted. More of Russia next week.

Sam Wise, R. R., was struck by an automobile while riding his bike east of Holland on the old Zealand road, Charles Harrington, route 4, Holland, stated he did not see Wise at 7:30 Sunday night. Local physicians gave him first aid and took care of a lacerated face and a very much bruised shoulder. He is the same man who was held up by a man by the name of Howard at the shack of Wise where Howard came. He is alleged to have struck him over the head with a screwdriver.

THE MOST TROUBLE-FREE CAR IN THE WORLD

On no less than 90 great automobile advancements, you'll find the names of Pontiac engineers. And, right there, you have the reason why owners, and other capable judges, rate Pontiac the most trouble-free car in the world: No car on earth is better engineered, and great engineering and true-blue dependability always go together.

For proof, look at Pontiac's record: It's been a long time since Pontiac started to build cars, yet today 81.7% of all Pontiacs ever built are still in daily use. We design our cars to last 100,000 miles, but mileage figures much higher than that are often reported by Pontiac owners. And remember—these are smooth, thrifty, and trouble-free miles.

Priced near the lowest, built like the best, dependable as the sunrise—isn't that exactly the kind of car that you've been looking for?

Approving Board of Public Works

Contracts for New Plant

The Board then proceeded to act upon a recommendation from the Board of Public Works relative to awarding of contracts on Contract No. 2 for Turbine Generators, Surface Condensers, and Closed Feed Water Heaters, for the new Electric Generating Plant, P. W. A. Docket: Mich. 1646-P-F.

Clerk Oscar Peterson presented a communication from the Board of Public Works reporting that at a special meeting of said Board held March 8, 1939, they unanimously agreed to accept the bid of Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Co. for furnishing two 7500 KW. Turbine Generators and Exciters in accordance with their bid of $340,000.00; and further, that the Board had unanimously agreed to accept the bid of the C. H. Wheeler Co. for two Surface Condensers, as per their bid price of $57,900.00.

It was moved by Ald. Smith, 2nd by Oudemool,

That the recommendation of the Board be adopted and the contracts awarded to Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Co. and the C. H. Wheeler Mfg. Co. in accordance with their bid prices.

Adopted, all voting Aye.

Clerk presented a further communication from the Board of Public Works relative to the construction of a new outfall sewer on W. 3rd st., extending to the new channel. The communication states that the Board had met with the Committee on Ways and Means to consider this proposition and they had unanimously decided to make application to the P. W. A. to have this included as a part of the contract for the construction of the new Generating Plant.

The communication further states that the estimated cost is $25,000.00, and if the project could be included as an addition to the P. W. A. Light Plant Project, the government would pay 45 per cent of this cost and the balance would be an obligation of the City of Holland.

On motion of Ald. Steffens, 2nd by Oudemool,

RESOLVED, that the City Engineer be instructed to proceed in conjunction with the Board of Public Works to have this project constructed as above outlined.

Adopted, all voting Aye.

In this connection, the Committee on Ways and Means reported that the Board of Public Works has agreed to finance this project, and they are to be repaid by the City at a later date.

A second communication from the board informed Council that the board met Thursday afternoon with Council's Ways and Means committee and City Engineer Jacob Zuidema relative to the extension of the Third St. outfall sewer.

It is proposed, the letter stated, to build the sewer in conjunction with the discharged water outlet from the new power plant, at a considerable saving of money, and to request the PWA to include its cost in the No. 1 contract with the Lake States Engineering Co.

In explaining the situation, Engineer Zuidema said the outfall sewer emptied into Lake Macatawa at the foot of Third st. before the lake was filled in at that vicinity. He said the sewer now extends along the old shore line as an open ditch, emptying into Black river at Windmill park but that it is unsightly and would be objectionable in summer.

He stated it will be necessary in the future to extend the Pine Ave. storm sewer north of Seventh st. and that the proposal is to run it northward approximately 1,300 feet, join it to the Third St. sewer and make this sewer from Third st. and Pine ave. westward large enough to carry refuse from both sewers.

Mr. Zuidema said the new light plant will have a water intake to the north of the plant and the outlet will run in a southwesterly direction. It is proposed to join the Third st. sewer onto this outlet so that the same wall can be used to separate the two.

Total length of the extended Third st. sewer would be approximately 1,500 feet, including 1,050 feet from the shoreline to the point where it joins the plant outlet and thence an additional 450 feet to the lake. The light plant intake will be a box-like affair and the proposal is to make the extended sewer of the same type.

Mr. Zuidema said its construction at this time would affect a saving of approximately $5,000.

In moving to grant the board authority to make PWA application, Ald. Ben Steffens, chairman of the Ways and Means committee, said the board had agreed "to carry the city's share of the expense" at this time as there is no appropriation in the budget.

City Attorney Clarence A. Lokker said at the close of the meeting the project to extend the sewers could not have been possible had it not been for the settlement of property rights on the filled-in land between the city and property owners in that vicinity. In the settlement, the city obtained right of ways for extension of Pine ave. and Third st. together with rights-of-way for other streets running east and west in that vicinity.

Suppose the Michigan Bell Telephone Company maintained its own separate research laboratory in which to develop improvements in telephone service. And suppose each of the other 23 telephone companies of the Bell System did the same.

All these laboratories probably would be trying to solve the same problems; this would be wasteful duplication of effort and expense which would increase the cost of your telephone service.

In the Bell System, Bell Telephone Laboratories does the research work for all. Each company pays only a fraction of the cost, but gets full benefit of a research program that no one company could afford to maintain.

This economy is one of the advantages of our membership in the Bell System. It is an important reason why all America, including you in Michigan, enjoys the best, most reasonably priced telephone service in the world.

Twelve members of the band of Fennville and several enthusiastic followers accompanied the basketball team to Zeeland for their first game of the tournament, when they defeated Zeeland 29 to 20 Saturday evening. They changed from Class C to Class B this year.

Change of superintendents of the Allegan city school took up a long school board meeting Wednesday night. A majority of the board voted against a proposition to hire Mr. Killian for another year. He has served for 13 years. The proposition also included a paragraph stating that it was the intention of the board to hire Mr. Kaechele at the end of that period. After this resolution failed, all five members agreed that Mr. Kaechele was their choice for the position. Two other applications for the position had been filed in writing with the secretary of the board. Following the board meeting, members of the board expressed their appreciation to Mr. Killian of the work he had done at Allegan while a member of the school system, while he in turn assured them that he would devote every effort to continue his duties for the balance of the year in the same manner as in the past, and offered to give Mr. Kaechele his full co-operation in planning for the future. Teachers' contracts will be the special order for business at an adjourned meeting next Wednesday night, when Mr. Kaechele will meet with the board to make his recommendations as to the retention of teachers already in the present system. Mr. Killian is well known and has many friends in Holland.

The marriage of Miss Frances Dekker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Dekker of East Saugatuck, and Lawrence Lohman, son of John Lohman, was solemnized in the parsonage of East Saugatuck Christian Reformed church last week Wednesday morning. The Rev. S. P. Mierma, pastor, performed the single ring ceremony. The bride and groom were attended by Josephine Dekker and Harvey Boerman. The Lohmans are now on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls. They plan to make their home in Hamilton, where Mr. Lohman works.

The Girls' League for Service of the Reformed church of Overisel held its regular monthly meeting in the church parlors Saturday afternoon. After serving for the Arabian mission, refreshments were served.

A 40-pound coyote was shot last week by a group of hunters at the end of an organized coyote hunt. The hunters, using several hounds, chased their quarry from southwest of Hamilton to the Allegan dam and back to some muck land on the Gerrit Lugt property along the Kalamazoo river, where the coyote was dropped. Included among the hunters were Gerrit, James, Gilbert, Melvin and Harold Lugt, Alvin Strabbing, Guy Teed of Fennville, William Teed of Monterey and John Morris of Allegan.

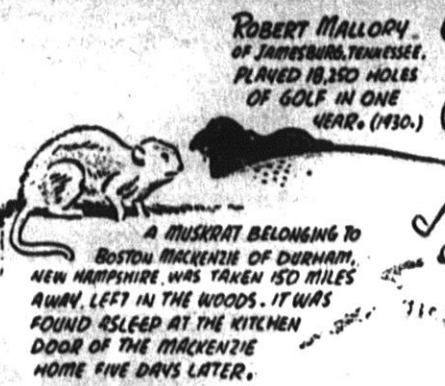

Harley Clear, 36, of Allegan, was sentenced to serve 18 months to two years in Southern Michigan prison at Jackson by Judge Fred T. Miles in circuit court. He pleaded guilty on September 29 to a third offense on drunk and disorderly charges, but at that time Judge Miles released him on his promise to refrain from further drinking. However, he was arrested again on the charge last week-end and brought before the judge for the prison sentence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Prentice of Saugatuck returned home from a two-months' stay in Deland, Fla. They were detained several days at Nashville, Tenn., because of an accident which occurred about 20 miles north of that place. When approaching a turn in the road where traffic from either direction was hidden by a high bank, and when within about 50 feet of making the turn, a motor cycle came from the opposite direction traveling at a high rate of speed and was unable to make the turn and crashed into the Prentice car, demolishing the front end and instantly killing the driver of the motor cycle. Prentice was arrested and taken to the county seat but, upon examination of the scene of the accident by officers, it was agreed that no blame for the accident could be placed on him as he was far over on his side of the road and had brought his car nearly to a stop when the crash occurred, and they were allowed to continue on their way.

Mrs. George Lenters gave a surprise musical shower in honor of Miss Joan Lenters last week Thursday. At the games played during the evening, Mrs. A. Hoek, Mrs. G. Folkert, A. Hoek and B. Lemmen won prizes. Mrs. G. Folkert, Mrs. J. Elzinga, Miss Reka Lenters and Mrs. G. Lenters served a two-course lunch. The group joined in singing hymns for the musical part of the entertainment, accompanied by Mrs. A. Hoek. The guest of honor was given a number of very attractive gifts.

Mr. John J. Riemersma, principal of Holland high school, led the Christian Endeavor services in the First Reformed church at Hamilton. He discussed the topic: "Urban America—A New Frontier." Miss Evelyn Lampen played "The Bells of St. Mary" as a piano solo.

All officers of Laketon township, Allegan county, were re-nominated at the Union party caucus held Saturday afternoon at the Laketon township hall, with but one exception. Upwards of 190 persons attended the caucus which was the largest to be held in the township for several years. Those nominated were the following: Supervisor, James Boyce; clerk, Herman Tien; treasurer, Bert Breuker; justice of peace, Herman Van Oss; highway commissioner, Albert Meyers; board of review, Gerrit Heneveld. Mr. Breuker won out in the treasurer's race over Henry Van Oss, present holder of that office.

Miss Patricia Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abbot Davis, Saugatuck, will be one of four members of the Music History club who will enter the piano contest at the Junior competitive festival in Muskegon March 25. This contest will be a feature of the state convention of music clubs to be held in Muskegon March 22 to 25. The Music History club is made up of about 20 members, mostly of grammar school age, who are pupils of Mrs. Reuben R. Scott. The other three club members who will compete at Muskegon are the Misses Frieda Grote, Norma McCarty and Barbara Scarlett, all of Fennville. Each competitor must play two selections, one of her own choosing which this year must be by some American composer, and one chosen by the federation according to age groups.

Miss Fern Lawrence, Saugatuck, was hostess Friday afternoon to a group of eight friends. Contract bridge was played, Mrs. Ira Koning receiving high score, with Mrs. L. H. Waugh second. Delicious refreshments, served by the hostess, concluded a pleasant social afternoon.

Farmer's Fearless Friend

Indian warriors sometimes fastened skunk skins to their heels to tell the world, "I run from no man." Skunks are valuable not only for their fur, but are, with moles, the only enemies of various species of burrowing plant pests. Skunks also are great mousers, and destroy the eggs of snapping turtles. Some species of skunk is found in almost every state. This skunk picture in the 1939 Wildlife Week stamp series is from the brush of Lynn Bogue Hunt, famous painter and illustrator.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

March 19, 1939.
Peter Exhorts to Christian Living—1 Peter 3:1-18.

Henry Geerlings

There are two titles suggested as possible lines of thought for this lesson, and both of them are truly inviting—"Living Like a Christian" and "Practicing Our Christian Profession." There can be no doubt about the wisdom of laying much stress on doctrines. We are only following the method of the Bible when we do so. The tendency today is to let every man think for himself and hold almost any point of view concerning the Scriptures and the way of salvation that appeals to him may flatter the human mind, but it is disastrous in its consequences.

Peter, though he was more practical than doctrinal in his letters, says that we should be able to give to every person a reason concerning the hope that is within us. We ought to know what we believe and why we believe it. There must be some substantial foundation for our faith. One of the reasons why we have been given a mind is that we may apprehend the truth.

Doctrine and morals go hand in hand. Unquestionably it is as true today as it was in the time of our Lord, that there are multitudes of people who think it is sufficient if they hold sound doctrine, regardless of the way in which they live. The fact of the matter is that we are weary trying to erect and maintain respectable standards of life that are not based on some clear thinking about God and the revelation He has made of Himself to the world. The writers of the New Testament have the habit of saying in substance, "This is what you should believe, and this is the way you should live as a result of your belief." When we separate the two we ruthlessly rend asunder what God has joined together. Looseness of belief is sure to lead to looseness of morals. Unless we can see the vital connection between the two we have little hope of helping them to live together the way they should.

There can be little advantage in knowing about God and the revelation He has made to us through His Son if it does not result in our being able to live as Christians. We cannot help admiring the stalwart way in which the writers of the New Testament hold aloft the Christian ideals in the midst of a generation that was completely permeated with the grossest immorality. Never once did they lower these ideals. They believed that it was possible for men and women, with such divine aid as was made available to them, to overcome the ways of the world and to live as children of God. And while not as many of them bore His name lived up to those ideals as there should have been, enough of them did to prove that it can be done and that those ideals are not impracticable or impossible. What we know live after the pattern of the divine life.

Are we living like Christians? That is an embarrassing question and most of us know why. It remains for us to cover the distance that lies between what we are and what we ought to be. It may be a long time before we are able to strike hands with our ideals, but we should be coming nearer to it than we are. Our influence upon others is extremely important but it is not the first consideration. The thing of primary importance is that of our own relationship to Christ, because it is only from that relationship that our best influence on others can be at its best. It should be a matter of the deepest grief to us that we do not live in a better state of spiritual health. No other element of life can atone for that situation. The thing that should take very much of our time thought now the case is the consideration of ways in which we may walk more closely in the footsteps of Jesus.

Our religion is intended to help us acquire the common, everyday virtues of life. The affairs to which the gospel applies its message are very practical. It concerns compassion, and tenderness and humility, and the returning of good for evil, and a controlled tongue, and peace and zeal, and patience in suffering, and a rational belief. It is on these levels that we need to walk carefully. The grace of God may be for the transfiguration heights, but most of us are needing it more for the valleys. The commonest relations of our normal ways call for all the help God has to offer.

We ought to practice our Christian profession. There must be some ground for it, or we should not so often hear it charged against us that we are no better than the people who make no profession. This being content with having our names on the church record is the deadliest blow to the gospel of the power of God to salvation. Mr. Moody once said that when we need even more than a revised version of the Bible is a revised version of life.

President Jacob N. Lieveens, secretary Henry Vander Schel, treasurer John Galien, and Ald Ed Brouwer, all of the Holland Fish and Game club, have returned from Owosso where they attended a banquet of the Michigan United Conservation club. Practically all the state conservation officers were present. This organization is opposed to change the membership since three members' terms of office expire this year, and with the increased membership the governor will have the appointment of five members, should the legislature pass such a bill.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By CORA ANTHONY
Director of A&P Kitchen

NEW fresh asparagus is arriving in small quantity but more favorable weather will be needed before most of us can enjoy it. Hothouse rhubarb is not expensive and could well be on every menu once in the early spring, if only for its color. Pineapple is beginning to be plentiful, its chief season continuing from March through June. Fresh pineapple has an aroma that is delightful and it, too, should be served in season. It is troublesome to prepare but inexpensive and keeps well in the refrigerator.

Poultry, eggs, butter, cheese and lamb represent the best values in protein-rich foods.

Iceberg lettuce and green beans are high, otherwise the vegetable market is little changed.

Three dinner menus at different price levels follow:

Low Cost Dinner
Pork Chops with Rice, Tomatoes and Onion

Cabbage and Apple Salad
Bread and Butter
Tapoca Cream
Tea or Coffee Milk

Moderate Cost Dinner
Fried Chicken with Mushroom Gravy
Mashed Potatoes Green Peas
Bread and Butter
Lemon Pie
Tea or Coffee Milk

Very Special Dinner
Green Salad with Anchovy Dressing
Crown Roast of Pork Gravy
Apple Sauce
Candied Yams Cauliflower in Cream
Rhubarb Pie
Coffee
