Cocktail Licensing Under Study

A request from Ottogian Inn Inc. (Holiday Inn of Holland) for City Council to take whatever steps are necessary to permit the serving of cocktails at the proposed new facility to be erected at the southeast intersection of US-31 bypass and 32nd St. was introduced at a regular meeting of City Council Wednesday night, and was referred to the city attorney for determination as to proper procedure.

City Atty. Gordon Cunningham said one way of obtaining such a license would be a public vote on initiative petitions signed by 35 per cent of electors who voted for Secretary of State in the last election.

But he said he wanted to check city and state laws to determine whether such permission can be granted by resolution. He made it clear that the fact that the site lies in Allegan county would make no difference since it is a city matter.

He said cities and villages do not issue beer-wine licenses as such, but make recommendations to the Liquor Control Commission which issues such licenses. Townships come under a different category, he said.

City Manager Herb Holt was of the opinion that a given governmental unit in Michigan is dry until it votes itself wet, but Cunningham said he wanted to check all laws carefully before making a recommendation on procedures.

The communication assured Council that the proposed cocktail lounge would be high class, would be operated strictly according to law and would be a credit to the city.

The letter was signed by David Van Omen of Zeeland, representing the business venture which will operate under a franchise agreement with Holiday Inns of America, Inc., of Memphis, Tenn. Plans call for an 80-unit motor hotel to be erected within the next year at an estimated cost of $600,000. The two-story development with meeting and banquet room facilities will have parking area for 120 cars on the five-acre plot.

Following a public hearing, Council unanimously denied a request to vacate the west 88 feet of an alley lying between 15th and 16th Sts., running from Maple Ave. to Washington. Several objections were voiced during the hearing. The remainder of the alley had been vacated in 1938.

A communication from the Holland Economic Development Corp. requesting that $2,500 be included in the budget for the support of HEDCOR was referred to the city manager for consideration.

A letter from Mr. and Mrs. William Rietveld, 235 West 25th St., objecting to Sunday operation of Windmill Island was referred to the Windmill committee.

Petitions for paving of Central Ave. between Third and Fourth Sts. and for a sanitary sewer in Sunrise Dr. were referred to the city manager.

Council granted permission to the Veterans of Foreign Wars to solicit funds on the streets May 19 and 20.

A proposed budget for the coming year for Holland Hospital was submitted by the Hospital Board and was referred to the city manager for later consideration. The board also reported a gift of $2,000 from the Holland Garden Club for use in parking landscaping development.

Council approved a recommendation of the Traffic and Safety Commission for stop signs at the intersections of Waverly Rd. at 32nd and 40th Sts. with Waverly Rd. stopping at 32nd St. and 40th St. stopping at Waverly.

A claim against the city from John Francis Long of South Haven was referred to the insurance carrier and city attorney.

Council approved the bid of Marsilje agency on a broad form money and securities policy for furnishing an employees' blanket position bond and separate bond for the city auditor, city treasurer and deputy city treasurer for a three-year period at a cost of $2,751. It was one of three bids.

Council approved low bid of Smith-Douglas Co. for 25 tons of fertilizer for the park and cemetery department and three tons for Windmill Island.

Mayor Pro Tem Bertal Slagh presided in the absence of Mayor Nelson Bosman who was in Chicago completing signing bonds for the hospital addition. All Councilmen were present at the 55-minute meeting. The invocation was given by the Rev. Douglas Gray of First Baptist Church of Zeeland.

Red Cross volunteers who worked at the veterans hospital in Grand Rapids Wednesday were the Mesdames R. Walters, Vischer, P. Schierenga and J. Crowle.

BPW Bids Approved By Council

City Council Wednesday night approved the following low bids as recommended by the Board of Public Works in its $1,900,000 sewer program:

Vitrified clay pipe, American Vitified Products, $76,188.70; reinforced concrete pipe, Lamar Pipe Co., $84,453.90; cast iron pipe, Lynchburg Foundry, $98,825.58; pumping stations piping, James B. Clow Co., $11,463.61; conduits under railroads and highways, Armo Steel Corp., $56,730; 32nd St. sewer installation, Sloothaak and Myard, $42,297; total bids, $369,958.79.

The BPW communication said Black and Veatch, consulting engineers, had evaluated all bids and made the recommendations. The total was some $15,000 under estimated costs.

The board previously had rejected construction bids because bids were well over estimates, and adopted this system of buying supplies and splitting work into smaller jobs.

City Manager Herb Holt said these bids will provide sufficient materials for the entire $1.9 million project, and the next step will be to obtain bids on construction. He said the bond issue provides for sanitary sewer service in Holland Heights area, for the new industrial park, and in the Lakeview and South Shore Dr. areas.

In another BPW matter, Council approved a recommendation from Atty. James E. Townsend accepting settlement of claims against C. H. Wheeler Co. in connection with antitrust litigation on purchases of condensers from 1956 through 1959. The amount of settlement was listed as $27,000 less attorney fees, or a net recovery of approximately $18,000.

On recommendation of the city manager, Council approved an application from Phillips Petroleum Co. for a permit to erect a service station on the northwest corner of 40th St. and Washington Ave. The matter was presented two weeks ago and referred to the city manager for study. The manager's report was accompanied by reports from police and fire chiefs, engineer, building inspector and superintendent of public utilities, all of whom registered no objections.

Council scheduled a public hearing April 6 on the following water main projects: In Columbia Ave. from 39th to 40th Sts., and in 40th St. from Columbia Ave. to Lincoln Ave.; in 18th St. from Hazel Ave. to a point 682 feet east; in 16th St. from County Club Rd. to a point 2,247 feet east; in 24th St., east of Apple Ave.; in 40th St. from Ottawa Ave., if extended, to Graafschap Rd.; in Grandview Ave. from Eighth St. to Harvard Dr.; in Myrtle Ave. from 32nd St. to Ardmore, and in Ardmore east to end; in Locust St. from South Shore Dr. north to dead end.

Councilman Donald Oosterbaan, speaking for residents on 24th, 26th Sts. and Maple Ave. in the vicinity of Holland Hospital, asked that the long grass on hospital grounds be removed. City Manager Holt said this is the area slated for the hospital addition and he expected the area would be landscaped in time.

Letter Praises Hamlet Project

Traffic Lights Are Suggested For US-31 Bypass

Concern over car accidents on the US-31 bypass, particularly at the Eighth St. and 16th St. intersections, prompted City Council Wednesday night to reiterate the dangers to the Michigan State Highway Department in the hope some improvements could be made.

City Manager Herb Holt told Council that Ralph Shoemaker, safety engineer for the department, already has recommended traffic signals at Eighth St., 16th St. and the M-40 junction at Lincoln Ave. He said the city has no jurisdiction on state highways, but certainly could use its influence in seeking improvements.

The resolution which Council passed was introduced by Councilman Morris Peerbolt who was concerned over many accidents on the bypass, some of them resulting in permanent injuries. He first listed the two intersections at Eighth and 16th and later added M-40 and 32nd St. He asked that copies be sent to Shoemaker, his superiors and to legislators of this area in Lansing.

Marriage Licenses

Ottawa County
Gerald Allen Yonker, 22, Holland, and Sharon Ann Hovinga, 20, Grand Rapids; Thomas James Joris, 19, and Patsy Elaine Taublie, 20, Chicago; Ronald Lee Compagner, 23, Holland, and Linda Lou Schreuer, 20, Zeeland; Rodger Elwin Peters, 21, Allegan, and Maria Johanna Catharina Tervoort, 18, Holland.

In an open letter to students of Hope College and the citizens of Holland, Lt. James William Stryker who has been in Viet Nam since last June said efforts of the college students in the Hope - Holland - Hamlet campaign to provide a school and health center for Le Loi hamlet "makes me proud of my connections with Hope and Holland."

Hope College students adopted the hamlet project early in February and obtained the endorsement of City Council to canvass the residents of the city for funds.

Approximately $6,000 was raised, more than enough for the school and health center. Price of a single classroom was quoted at $250, and the health center at $650. The total also will provide clothing for the people in the new village and funds for educating the children, estimated at $35 a year per child.

Lt. Stryker, son of Mrs. J. A. Stryker of Holland, wrote he was very familiar with problems in establishing new hamlets like Le Loi.

"Your choice of sponsoring a school and a health center could not be a better one," he wrote. "The encroachments of the war on civilian populations are such that health and education invariably suffer severe setbacks, especially in the contested rural areas."

"Ignorance and apathy in the rural populace are allies only to the enemy. Your efforts to provide a school will pay dividends in the fight against these evils for many years to come. Malaria, skin diseases and parasites are afflictions common to the majority of the children in rural Viet Nam. I know your health center will be an effective means of relieving a great deal of suffering in Le Loi."

"Another great benefit realized from this project is the demonstration, not only to the Vietnamese and the Viet Cong, but to the American and allied soldiers serving here, that the great majority of the college students and the people of the United States are willing to take positive action in support of our government and the fight against Communism. Your demonstration of support cannot fail to have an adverse effect on the programs of the Viet Cong in the Le Loi area. But of greater importance than this, is your renewal of an 'Anchor of Hope' for all those who labor against oppression on this side of the Pacific. For the latter I add my personal thanks," Lt. Stryker wrote.

The officer, a 1963 graduate of the United States Military Academy, has been in the village of Tan Hiep since his arrival in Viet Nam last June. Tan Hiep, district headquarters of Kien Tan province, is located approximately 100 miles southwest of Saigon, near the Gulf of Siam port of Rach Gia.

As assistant sub-sector advisor, Lt. Stryker works with the Regional and Popular Forces in the defense of the area. His non-military activities include assisting the United States Operation Mission teams in the construction of schools and churches and the distribution of food, clothing and other supplies to the villagers.

De Vette Rules Out Calvin Post

Russ De Vette, Hope College basketball coach, has informed Calvin College officials he is not interested in being considered for the position as head basketball coach.

Dr. Barney Steen, who stepped down after this season after holding the post since 1953, said today De Vette had been contacted during the 1965-66 season about his being a possible candidate for the post.

Dr. Steen, who heads the Calvin physical education department and is athletic director, said De Vette had been approached with the idea of being a candidate and was asked if he could be considered.

De Vette conferred with Calvin College officials and later informed Calvin he didn't want to be considered for the post.

Dr. Steen said the matter of the selection of a coach is presently in the hands of Dr. William Spoelhof, Calvin president.

Qualifications for the post, Dr. Steen said, are that the coach teach in the Calvin physical education department and hold a master's degree.

The coach is expected to hold the views of the Christian Reformed Church, Dr. Steen said. Don Vroon, Calvin junior varsity coach, announced Monday that he has withdrawn from consideration for the post.

The 42-year-old De Vette has concluded 14 seasons as Hope basketball coach. A 1947 Hope graduate, De Vette succeeded the late Milton (Bud) Hinga as coach in 1948 and coach through 1960.

After serving two years in the service and one at the University of Maine De Vette returned to Hope in 1955 and has been coaching since the 1956 season.

Mr. and Mrs. De Vette plan to leave Thursday for the NCAA basketball tournament in College Park, Md. Also attending the tourney will be Dr. and Mrs. Steen and Mr. and Mrs. Vroon.

Flower Show Workshop Held for Participants

Mrs. Ronald Robinson, 320 Third Ave. was hostess on Thursday to 30 Holland Garden Club members who will be participating in the spring flower show, "Tulipvision."

Mrs. Donald Van Kampen, chairman for the 20th annual show, was assisted by Mrs. Paul McIlwain and Mrs. Austin Bocks in clarifying the schedule. Mrs. McIlwain is consultant for artistic niches and Mrs. Bocks is co-chairman with Mrs. Van Kampen for the schedule and consultant for tables.

The show will be presented this year in the Green Room of the Civic Center May 11 through 14, and Mrs. Don Burrows and Mrs. Leonard Dick, chairmen for staging and landscape, displayed their floor plan for the room to the group.

This year exhibitors are divided into three groups to equalize competition in the artistic division. The "A" advanced amateur includes all nationally accredited flower show judges and those who have won five or more blue ribbons in any standard show.

The "B" beginner amateur includes all exhibitors who have not won a total of more than five blue ribbons in artistic arrangement in any standard flower show.

Exhibitors who have never won a blue ribbon in the artistic division of any standard flower show or who have never entered a show will be in the novice class.

Anyone wishing to enter should check the classes which are open to all exhibitors. Mrs. Frederick Stanton, classification and placement chairman, said that any questions as to classification as arrangers should be discussed at the April 7 workshop.

Some of the pointers offered during the workshop were to check the scoring in each class carefully. The percentage for color may vary from class to class as may distinction and interpretation, distinction being that little touch which makes an exhibitor's arrangement different and interpretation being the arranger's conception of the subject. If the class calls for motion or relationship they must be considered carefully.

Colored slides of winning arrangements in the 1965 flower show were shown, giving a better perspective of why some arrangements won blue ribbons.

Hyma Reviews Toynbee Works In Lecture

A review-lecture of writings by Arnold J. Toynbee, in particular "A Study of History," was given by Dr. Albert Hyma at the Herrick Public Library Wednesday afternoon.

"Arnold J. Toynbee is a very prolific writer, and he has issued some excellent books, besides numerous articles of a high value. Unfortunately, however, his books are seldom read and discussed, while his most mediocre and misleading productions are given the highest praise," Dr. Hyma said. "This is not strange, for the general public is easily led into moods of excessive admiration for literature and art that do not deserve approbation. Not seldom must a genius wait until his death for adequate appreciation of his valuable contributions. On the other hand, insane ideas when presented in a fascinating manner are usually lauded with tremendous applause. It has been Toynbee's good fortune to become known in all civilized regions as the world's greatest historian, whereas nearly all professional historians have been immensely shocked by his aberrations."

"Many Roman Catholic scholars consider Toynbee at wretched infidel in the Anglican Church. A statement in a periodical by Toynbee to the effect that 'Christianity and Mohammedanism were the offspring of a spiritual marriage between Greece and Asia' was the sort of interpretation that has offended scholars, both Protestant and Roman Catholic."

"It has been fashionable to make Christianity appear as a product of Greek and Oriental religions. Even orthodox pastors have often paid tribute to this misleading hypothesis."

Dr. Hyma quoted from his book entitled "History of World Civilization," by Albert Hyma and Robert Woznicki, "Whatever we may call the Force or Forces that control the universe, it (or they) saw fit to cast upon the stage of world events the Chinese Republic, born in an age of degradation and pain. Perhaps it would have languished and died if not on the day of Pearl Harbor it had found a defender in the people of the United States. . . . So it behooves this nation to remember this fortuitous event, while the people should stop maligning its ancient friend, which for a period of nearly 100 years suffered from greedy powers, including Russia and Japan, but was aided by the great republic in America."

"Consequently, in the year 1922 there was held the Washington Conference, in which it was decided that henceforth the nine nations which held it would promise to protect China from further encroachment of Chinese territory. Thus ended the era of the 'spheres of influence,' during which period China was shamefully exploited by so-called Christian nations. The United States of America was the only major power in the Pacific area that refused to participate in this robbery."

Before the review Robert Shervood on the library staff spoke of some of the new books and records relating to history. The next book review will be held Wednesday, April 13, at the Herrick Public Library with Mrs. Fred Winter as reviewer.

Board Adopts New Pay Plan In Allegan

ALLEGAN — Seeds planted over a long period of time bore fruit here Friday when the Allegan county Board of Supervisors took final action on long-range pay and retirement plans for county employees.

In what was described by one member as "the most productive session I can remember," the board:

Voted to adopt a sliding-scale pay plan recommended by the Michigan Municipal League by unanimous vote.

Elected to bring 129 county employees under the Michigan Municipal Employees Retirement System, effective April 1, by a vote of 32 to 1.

Approved a $25,000 supplemental appropriation for the county health department which will enable the department to expand its professional staff and provide many services which have not been available in recent years, by unanimous vote.

Also approved an amendment to the new pay scale which would put salaries for professional health workers in line with those offered in other counties, and in private industry.

The latter amendment passed by a narrow 18-16 margin after Allegan Supervisor John Pahl pointed out that it would be useless to appropriate additional funds to the health department unless salaries were high enough to be competitive in the market for professional staff members.

In general, salary increases set under the new schedule amounted to approximately 5 per cent. A few job classifications were raised more than others and a few will remain at the present rate, since the aim of the new plan was to eliminate inequalities between departments and make certain that employees doing the same type of work were being compensated at the same rate. The new pay scales will be effective April 1.

Supervisors also took two steps during the 2-day session aimed at improving the efficiency of their own operations. They voted to lease an electrostatic copying machine which will enable County Clerk Esther Warner Hettinger to provide each member with a copy of the minutes of the preceding meeting prior to the next session. This would eliminate the need for a laborious reading of the minutes at each session—a process which sometimes consumes an hour or more.

And, on Friday, the board also voted unanimously to suspend the practice of recording the "yes" and "no" votes in the published proceedings of the board. It has been estimated that the printed roll calls take up nearly ten per cent of the space in the printed minutes.

TAX DOLLARS AND WE TAXPAYERS

The mails have been delivering billions of tax dollars to our government offices over the country and this will continue on into next month when a great number of the individual taxpayers will be "burning the midnight oil" doing their taxes.

Anyone in business today finds that there are more and more government reports that have to be filed. They do not become any shorter but we, the people, somewhere along the line will need to spend more time writing and talking to the people who we elect and appoint to office with the thought in mind of reducing the great number of complicated government tax forms and reports.

Our government is growing and growing. It seems that everyone must have more space better and larger buildings more and more help to handle the details.

This all costs tax dollars. We do not think that we can spend ourselves out of debt. Somewhere, somehow we, the tax-paying public, must try to find a better way to handle our affairs. Just remember that everyone is a part of the government program. It is our money that we are squandering. The waste is terrific.

Man's Total Commitment
Luke 9:57-62;
Colossians 2:20-3:4
By C. P. Dame

Anyone who reads the New Testament carefully can't help but note that Jesus demands much from those who wish to be His disciple. It is well known that often the church does not make high demands for membership. A lesson on commitment is most timely.

I. Jesus stated high terms for discipleship. The first part of the lesson text records the stories of three would-be disciples. The first one said, "I will follow Thee whithersoever Thou goest." This man seemed enthusiastic and impulsive.
Jesus told this man that if he would follow Him he would follow a lonely man and endure hardships. Plainly Jesus told him the cost of discipleship.

Jesus challenged a man to follow Him. His excuse was,
"Lord suffer me first to go and bury my father." This did not mean that his father had just died—it meant that his father was old and he wanted to take care of him. Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their dead; but go thou and preach the kingdom of God." Jesus said that the spiritually dead should bury their own dead! Jesus demands first place.

The third man was irresolute.
"Lord, I will follow Thee, but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house." Jesus insisted that he follow immediately. "No man having put his hand to the plow, and looking back is fit for the kingdom of God."
Sometimes we must break with the past. Some people today say, "Lord, I will follow Thee; but"—and they do not leave all and follow. These three stories teach that Jesus makes strong demands.

II. The committed are free.
Some people in the church at Colossae believed in angel worship. Paul wrote to them about the sufficiency of Christ.
People who are united to Christ are dead to the world and are made free from man-made rules and regulations.
The Colossian teachers tried to impose rules which did not reflect the will of God—they thought so much of their own will that they slighted God's will. Some do the same today. Freedom is found in Christ.

III. The committed live a new life. A Christian died with Christ and arose with Him.
When Paul wrote letters to churches he had a definite aim in mind. In his letter to the Colossians Paul tried to persuade Christians to live a high-grade Christian life in the midst of a corrupt world. That is why this letter is so fitting for us who live in a corrupt world.

The way to live an excellent Christian life is to seek the things which are above
"where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God" and to set our affections "on things above, not on things on the earth." This is not easy. It is much easier to center our minds upon our cars, houses, gadgets, stocks and bonds than on the spiritual treasures. Christian living involves detachment from the world and attachment to Jesus Christ.
And that means living a new life.

Architect's Plans Ready For Schools

A progress report on new construction was given at the monthly meeting of the Board of Education Monday night.

Working drawings and specifications have been completed for Van Raalte and Longfellow school additions. Bids have been advertised and bids will be opened March 29.

Sets of completed working drawings and specifications have been submitted to the State Department of Education, State Department of Health and the State Fire Marshal's Office.

Applications for approval to sell bonds are awaiting action in the Municipal Finance Commission office.

Work will progress soon on working drawings for the new Maplewood School which currently are about 15 per cent complete. Items requested by the state fire marshal in conjunction with preliminary approval have been incorporated into the drawings.

Working drawings for the community swimming pool, now about 5 per cent complete, will be resumed when the Maplewood drawings are near completion.

The board approved four resolutions, one to transfer funds, another to remove millage from the county treasurer's records after all bonds were paid, the third for qualification of bonds for elementary school construction, and the fourth for qualification of bonds for swimming pool construction.

Carroll Norlin, a member of the board of the Ottawa Area Intermediate School District, reported on the county budget hearing stating that the budget was boosted after a group of people attending the hearing asked the county board to appoint a person to work on federal programs and making federal funds available for local educational programs. This was added to the budget allowing $14,000, with unanimous approval except from the two representatives from Grand Haven and Holland school boards. These representatives had made it clear they did not object personally to the program but did not feel they should approve without consent of their boards.

Norlin explained that the boost set the county millage at .17 mill, up from .13 mill. This .04 mill boost would mean $3,300 to $3,500 for Holland and about the same for Grand Haven, meaning that these two cities would be paying approximately 50 per cent of the $14,000 increase.

Harvey Butler, board member, objected to the procedure in which a pressure group could boost the budget, and said he was opposed to the city's paying extra when it decreased the city's school millage. "We're trying to find funds to give our teachers a raise this year, and every $3,500 counts," he said. He added he would oppose the measure when the allocations board of which he is a member meets.

Supt. Donald Ihrman called attention to the fact that Sharon Howard, a Junior high teacher, has been selected Holland's Community Ambassador this year, and also praised the scholastic achievement of Tom Prins, a Holland High senior, in placing third in the 9th annual Michigan Mathematics Prize Competition.

Ihrman also called attention to Children's Art Month which is being observed in March and said art work was on display in all elementary buildings. Art Consultant Don Rohlick invited board members to view the art exhibits in elementary buildings, in Herrick Public Library, in downtown store windows, and called attention to a PTA picture project involving $200 in which reproductions of good art are being brought into the classrooms. He also presented an art booklet to each board member.

Supt. Ihrman said the State Department of Education has authorized an election of Bursley district in the eastern part of Ottawa County to be held April 26. The vote will be on annexing to the Grandville school district in Kent County.

Harvey Butler called attention to an item in the Wall Street Journal mentioning the training program for employees of Donnelly Mirrors in cooperation with the high school shop program. Carl Todd, shop instructor, explained the 12-week program in which employees study blueprint reading, shop and machines.

The board approved contracts for three elementary teachers. Mrs. Richard Brockmeier, a graduate of Occidental College with two years' experience in Los Angeles, will teach early elementary. Mrs. Evonne Rise, who will graduate in 1966 from Hope College, will teach elementary vocal music.

Marvin Vander Ploeg, a graduate of Hope College with a master's degree from Western Michigan University, will serve as a teaching principal at Montello Park School, succeeding T. J. Pruis who will retire. Vander Ploeg also received a specialist degree at Western Michigan in 1966 and served as an administrator.

R.C. Bosch Of Holland Gives Award

Clare Van Wieren, Hope College senior from Holland, Monday night was named the MIAA's most valuable basketball player and received the Randall C. Bosch of Holland gold-diamond-studded basketball award.

Bosch, president of the Western Machine Tool Works, made the presentation as the highlight of the Hope winter sports banquet honoring the basketball and wrestling teams and attended by 74 persons in the conference dining room in Phelps Hall.

The Holland industrialist has been presenting the MVP awards in basketball since 1947 when Hope coach Russ De Vette received the honor. Bosch has been giving similar awards in football since 1938.

Van Wieren is the ninth Hope recipient of the award. Following De Vette, Don Mulder was named in 1948 and Ron Bos in 1953. Other Hope winners were Ray Ritsema in 1958 and 1960, Paul Benes in 1959, Ekdal Buys in 1962 and Jim Vander Hill in 1962.

Bosch said "it was a great honor" to present the award to Van Wieren and challenged the Hope athlete to use in the future the same "drive, push and love for what you are doing that you demonstrated in athletics."

Bosch also lauded De Vette, calling for a standing ovation for the Hope coach. Van Wieren presented gifts to De Vette, assistant coach Daryl Siedentop and trainer Dr. Lawrence Green.

De Vette announced sophomore Floyd Brady of Chicago and junior Carl Walters of Holland would be co-captains of the 1966-67 team. Co-captains were selected in a team vote.

The Hope coach praised his club for the way it reacted to an "unusual season."

"When situations come up it offers an opportunity for someone else and at least five times this season the team rose above the situation and we got a maximum effort," De Vette said.

"I never had a team that accepted a challenge like this one and that had the ability to be able to adjust to being the team we had to be," De Vette said, illustrating with the varied types of patterns of play used this season.

De Vette complimented Siedentop, remarking that it was "his suggestion that we put the teams together this season."

The Hope varsity and junior training intern at the campus school there in 1965-66. He has had six years' teaching experience.

James O. Lamb, board president, presided at the meeting and gave the invocation. All members were present except Albert Schaafsma. The meeting lasted an hour and 45 minutes.

varsity teams were combined early in the season. All-MIAA plaques were presented Van Wieren and Brady and Van Wieren received the team's MVP trophy.

MIAA commissioner John Hoekje addressed the group recalling his grandfather John C. Hoekje played on a Hope team that defeated Michigan State, 44-30 61 years ago. He said a John Hoekje graduated from Hope in 1873 and 11 Hoekje descendants were Hope graduates.

Lauding De Vette, Hoekje said "my boy can play for De Vette any time." He also complimented Brady and Van Wieren and Roy Anker on their all-conference honors. Hoekje reported the MIAA was two years away from a full-fledged wrestling program.

Using a theme first developed by the late Illinois football coach Robert Zuppke, Hoekje spoke on "love for fellowman, for the game itself, for the school (loyalty and self confidence)."

He concluded with a creed his father used which said in part "give to the world the best that you have and the best will come back to you." Hope athletic director Gordon Brewer introduced Hoekje.

Paul Colemanbrander gave the invocation. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Van Wieren of Holland and Clare's wife, Joan. Wrestling coach Sid Huitema introduced his team. Student Senate president Wes Michaelson was master of ceremonies and Tom Griffin presented musical selections.

Light Plant Survey Set For Allegan

ALLEGAN—Following a four-hour session terminating at midnight, Allegan's City Council voted 3 to 1 Monday night to authorize Consumers Power Co. to make an appraisal of Allegan's municipal electric plant, its distribution system and facilities.

The study, to be completed within 60 days and without cost to the city, is in connection with a recent overture to consider purchasing power from Consumers, and possibly to sell the plant to Consumers. It was emphasized that there is no emergency at present, but decisions must be made in the future whether the local plant should expand.

City Atty. Ervin L. Andrews forcefully opposed the resolution stating it would "boil down to giving Consumers full access to the plant for the purposes of ascertaining a minimum bid." He felt Consumers had only one interest and that was to acquire the city of Allegan as a customer.

Mayor T.E. Malila said with the aid of consulting engineers, the city already has a pretty good idea of the worth of the plant. "We want to do the right thing and the more information we can give the people, the better off we will be in the long run."

The resolution authorizing the study was introduced by Councilman Robert Bergstrom. The dissenting vote was cast by Councilman C.J. Smith, Councilman Leo W. Hoffman was absent.

In other business, public hearings were held on the summer paving program. About 30 residents attended. Paving was ordered for Bond, Sixth, Pine, Jenny, Adams and Julia Sts.

The state governor of the Kiwanis Club, Harry Elsenheimer, spoke to Zeeland Kiwanians at their weekly meeting on Tuesday night. His topic for the evening was "Kiwanis Education and How it Fits Into the Community."

Elsenheimer stressed parental responsibility to children and urged that the parents must lead the way in giving children proper training. He stressed that the golden rule is still applicable in homes today.

Contractors Set Confab In Allegan

ALLEGAN — A meeting concerned with Michigan's new residential contractors' licensing law—effective April 1—has been set for 7 p.m. Thursday at Allegan's Junior High School auditorium, Grove street.

Lenton G. Schulthorp, Director of Licensing and Regulations, Lansing, will address the meeting and explain requirements of the new law to Allegan county building contractors and associated trades people.

Mounting concern that many who will be most vitally affected by the new law, are not aware of all its ramifications, prompted a representative group of area businessmen to sponsor the meeting.

License applications may be obtained by writing the Michigan Dept. of Licenses, Lansing, or by contacting the Creditors Credit Bureau, Allegan Bank Bldg., Allegan.

Now required for all 83 Michigan counties, compared to only 9 formerly, Public Act No. 383 represents a broadening of the regulations, licensing and penalties for building contractors, sub-contractors and salesmen.

While the bonding requirements, together with the strict licensing regulations established by the state, will no doubt eliminate many questionable operators, it is felt by those sponsoring the meeting that these same requirements can also impose problems for legitimate operators.

The maximum penalty for violations of the law has been increased from $500 or 6 months imprisonment or both, to $1,000 or one year or both for a first conviction and $3,000 or 2 years imprisonment or both, for a second conviction.

Exchange Club Hears Dan Paul

This week's program of the Holland Exchange Club was given by a member of the Exchange Club, Daniel Paul on the subject of alcohol education in the public schools. Mr. Paul is a recognized authority on the subject and has conducted courses in some of the universities.

The speaker stated that most teachers are not adequately prepared to teach this subject. Most teachers hesitate because of the danger of being misunderstood by many members of the community. If they do teach about it they must present both sides of the question without being unfair.

The state law requires teaching the effects of alcohol and narcotics on the body especially on the mind and the body. Research and experimentation have proved that alcohol effects first judgment and inhibitions. In larger amounts it impairs speech, vision and balance.

Preceding the talk by Mr. Paul, Jack Aussicker was inducted into the club by Exchangeite Vernon TenCate. President Rodger Stroop called on members in charge of the Home Show for reports.

It was reported that the attendance was the largest the club has ever had. There will be enough for a sizeable amount to apply on Exchange's special project, the tiny lot corner of the new city playground on the southern edge of the city.

He congratulated the seniors on the fact that the 275 members of their graduating class would soon be members of the college's distinguished alumni.

Hugh De Pree, member of the Board of Trustees and a graduate of the Class of '38, contrasted the impersonal air found on most campuses across the country with the attitudes prevailing at Hope.

Remarks were made by senior class president Robert Edwards, of Riverview, Ill.

Selections were played by the Hope College Stage Band. Alumni president, Floyd Folkert, of the class of '39 presided.

Maj. Van Duren Blasts Cong From His A-1H Skyraider

DA NANG, Viet Nam — Second Lt. Pham Binh An of the Vietnamese Air Force's (VNAF) 516th Fighter Squadron based at the Da Nang air base is usually quiet, reserved, and retiring. But the minute he drops into the cockpit of his A-1H Skyraider, his character changes.

As a flight leader, An is a serious individual who commands the attention and respect of his subordinates. He personally checks his men and their aircraft before each flight. Nothing is left to chance. Nor is there any room for complacency.

His unit is known as the "Tiger" squadron and tigers are exactly what he expects each of his men to be.

A four-year veteran, An averages flying a combat mission every other day.

The Viet Cong have learned to fear the 516th. The squadron pilots have earned a reputation of getting what they go after. An example is recent mission led by An.

With his wingman, Maj. Charles E. A. Van Duren, 35, Holland, Mich., an Air Force advisor with the VNAF, An killed over 100 VC.

Target for the allied pilots was a large concentration of VC troops reported by Intelligence sources to be massing about 12 miles south of Da Nang.

"As soon as I got down close to the deck, I spotted a large group of camouflaged, uniform troops scurrying along a river bank." An reported after striking them.

"Our forward air controller (FAC) had contact with the friendly forces in the area and he confirmed the concentration of troops as being Viet Cong."

A FAC is a pilot who flies a light spotter plane. He circles over VC targets and

Maj. Charles E. A. Van Duren shows strike pilots where to hit. He usually confirms VC from the ground fire they direct at him.

An and Van Duren made repeated bombing and strafing passes against fire.

Whenever they would lose sight of the enemy, the FAC would make a low sweep over the area and drop a smoke rocket — marking new troop concentrations for the Skyraiders to hit.

When the smoke of battle had cleared, the FAC who directed the raid made a low-level visual reconnaissance of the area. He counted over 100 bodies and credited the two Skyraider pilots with over 100 VC "killed by air."

The tri-lingual VNAF pilot who led the successful raid has logged over 200 combat missions in the past year. His combat record during that period has earned him six decorations for valor from the Vietnamese Air Force.

Van Duren, whose job as an advisor is to improve the 516th's combat capability, says "I have nothing but praise for VNAF pilots. I have never seen a more dedicated group."

He especially singled out An, saying, "His ordnance delivery accuracy is fantastic. He hits what he goes after."

last year's Class B runners-up, by a score of 269½ to 191. Smith set a state record in the 400-yard freestyle event and also won the 200-yard freestyle while Nienhuis set a state mark in the 100-yard backstroke.

Nienhuis, Smith Set State Marks

EAST LANSING—West Ottawa relinquished its Class B State swimming crown Saturday evening in the Michigan State University pool, as they were defeated by the Wyandotte Riverview as Riverview tallied 269½ points to West Ottawa's 191.

Coach Henry Reest felt that the Panthers were hindered by their lack of depth for, in nearly every event, the Panthers could place only two qualifiers to Riverview's three or four contestants.

The meet opened with West Ottawa swimmers taking fourth place in the 200 yard medley relay, being edged out of third by Madison Heights.

The 1:51.3 clocking posted by Dave Doornewer, Larry Essenburg, Chuck Nienhuis and Chuck Seidelman bettered the West Ottawa qualifying time posted in the preliminaries by 1 of a second. Riverview won the event.

Rex Smith, the only double first place winner in the competition, won the 200-yard freestyle for the Panthers. Smith, defending Class B state champion in the 200, spent the entire race second to Greg Pulling of Albion, but pulled up and passed Pulling in the final 20 yards to record a first place and maintain his state title.

Along with Smith's first place in the 200-yard freestyle, Dave Barkel registered a fifth place, one notch higher than he had been in the preliminaries, and Kirk Steketee tallied five points by coming in eighth position.

In the 400-yard freestyle Smith's performance was even more crowd-pleasing, as he lost his lead after twelve lengths of the pool, but regained position and touched out Paul De Witt of Lansing Waverly by .3 of a second in the official tally.

Smith's 4:14.5 time, the best of the senior co-captain's career, set a West Ottawa varsity record and a Michigan High School Class B state record. The old mark of 4:17.4 was set by Michael Smoots of Riverview in 1963.

The 400 yard freestyle saw more Panther glory as Sophomore Steketee churned to fourth position, knocking 10 seconds off his previous best time. Barkel attained fifth position in the same event to give the Panthers their best showing in the meet.

Senior Dave Kinderman took 11th in the 50 yard freestyle. Riverview was a powerhouse in the 200-yard individual medley as they won first, third, and fifth places, while Panther Dean Boeve chalked up seventh with a 2:21.1 clocking.

Divers Steve Leggett and Dana Rigerink both placed for West Ottawa. Leggett was third place behind Bill Bird of Riverview, the Class B state diving champion and Tom Cramer of Essexville-Garber, last year's state diving champ. Rigerink, a freshman, took eleventh place.

In the 100 yard butterfly, Riverview had first, third and sixth place decisions. Chuck Seidelman of West Ottawa placed fifth, registering a 1:01.3 time. Reest noted the Class B time of 56.7 was faster than recorded in the state Class A meet.

The Panthers looked better in the 100 yard freestyle as Allan Russell went up a notch to fourth place from the preliminaries times, while Glenn Hoek notched eighth.

Riverview's Lloyd Bridges posted first place in the 100 yard freestyle tying the state Class B record established last year.

With the best backstroke in Class B, the Panthers were still injured point-wise in the 100 yard backstroke as the Pirates finished three in the top six. Senior co-captain Tom Nienhuis came from behind in the final yards of the backstroke to edge out Tom Conolly of Osceola by .1 of a second and establish a Class B state record with a time of 59.9. The old mark of 1:01 was set by William Wood of East Lansing in 1959.

Ron Nienhuis also placed in the 100-yard backstroke and scored one point.

Unbeaten Dean Boeve lost out in the 100 yard breaststroke for the first time this season as Bill Burke from Harper Woods-Gallagher caught and kept first place by 1 of a second. Boeve's 1:07.3 time was 4 of a second slower than the time he posted in the preliminaries, 1:06.9, which set a West Ottawa varsity record.

Posting a fourth place in the 400-yard freestyle relay with a 3:44.1 clocking were Essenburg, Hoek, Kinderman, Allan Russell.

A total of 27 class B schools, four of which did not qualify for the finals competed. A crowd of 1,200 persons watched the meet, including 400 from West Ottawa. Reest praised the support given his team.

Following Riverview and West Ottawa were Wyoming Godwin 105½, Madison Heights 95, East Grand Rapids 74, Ypsilanti Roosevelt 68, and Ecorse 60½.

Other finishers were Osceola 48, Albion 47½, Dearborn-Sacred Heart 38, Lansing-Waverly 37, Grand Rapids East Christian 36, Harper Woods-Gallagher 22, Ann Arbor-University High 21, and Erie-Mason 20.

Placing 16 through 23 were South Haven 17, Harper Woods 13, and Essexville 13, Willow Run 7, Fremont 6, Detroit-Benedictine 4, Ypsilanti-Lincoln 3, and Muskegon-Orchard View 2. Battle Creek Central won the Class A title Saturday in Ann Arbor.

First place finishers: 200-yard medley relay: Riverview. Time 1:48.8.

200-yard freestyle: Rex Smith, West Ottawa. Time 1:56.3.

50-yard freestyle: Dane Dewimille, Riverview. Time 23.0.

200-yard individual medley: Dennis Barrow, Riverview. Time 2:15.2.

Diving: Bill Bird, Riverview. 100-yard butterfly: Eric Borlas, Riverview. Time 56.7.

100-yard freestyle: Larry Bridges, Riverview. Time 51.7 (record).

100-yard backstroke: Tom Nienhuis, West Ottawa. Time 59.9 (record).

Four Escape House Fire

A fire of undetermined origin burned a closet and part of a bedroom on the first floor of a house occupied by Mrs. Irene Farrell and her family at 401 Central Ave. Friday.

Three of Mrs. Farrell's children, Iola, 5, Pamela, 3, and Jimmie, 2, were asleep on the first floor of the house when the fire broke out. They were rushed outside by a roomer, Carol Stanfill, 22. The four were not injured. Miss Stanfill was babysitting with the children.

Mrs. Farrell was at work at the time of the blaze, and another son, James, 6, was at school.

The fire started in the closet about 10 a.m. Holland firemen kept the blaze from spreading to the upstairs of the home. Firemen were at the scene about a half hour.

No estimate of the damage to the house has been determined. Fire Chief Dick Brandt said there would be extensive smoke and water damage to the first floor. The house is owned by O. T. Davis.

Senate Okays Added Judge

Addition of a second Circuit Judge for the 20th judicial circuit covering Allegan and Ottawa counties was approved by the Michigan Senate last week and now goes to the House for consideration. If approved, the bill must be signed by the governor before becoming law.

According to Sen. Harold Volkema of Holland, the district would remain unchanged except for the additional judge. In its present form, the bill does not provide for staggered terms. Circuit Judge Raymond L. Smith has announced he is seeking a fourth six-year term this year. Chester Ray, Allegan prosecuting attorney, has been rumored as a candidate for the additional post.

Originally State Reps. James Farnsworth of Plainwell and Melvin De Stigter of Hudsonville had introduced a bill for two separate districts. Later the Michigan Supreme Court drafted a plan allowing additional judges in several districts including the Ottawa-Allegan circuit.

The bill which the Senate passed was a recommendation of the Michigan Supreme Court providing additional judges in seven districts including the 20th judicial district. Sen. Volkema arranged for local attendance at hearings on the bill as it affected the local district. Bar associations of both Ottawa and Allegan counties endorsed the bill.

It is expected the original bill for two separate districts will not be reported out of committee, Volkema said.

Mrs. Kooiker told Ottawa sheriff's deputies that she swerved to miss a dog that ran into the road, and lost control of the car. The car ran 30 feet off the roadway and rolled over on its top.

The dog which was hit suffered a broken leg, deputies said.

Sandefur's New Trial Turned Down

ALLEGAN—The Michigan Court of Appeals, Thursday, turned down the request for a new trial made by a former Allegan man convicted in 1962 for the second degree slaying of his 21-year-old son.

Ernest B. Sandefur, now serving a 20-year sentence at Jackson prison, was denied application by the state court on the grounds that a meritorious basis for appeal had not been established. Application had been filed by Sandefur's Circuit Court-appointed attorney, Lester Tooman of Allegan.

The State Court of Appeals decision appeared to justify a recent refusal of another Allegan attorney, Leo W. Hoffman, to represent Sandefur in an attempt to gain a new trial. A provision of the Michigan Constitution now gives certain convicted criminals the automatic right of appeal.

Following his refusal to represent Sandefur, Hoffman was found guilty of contempt and fined $25 by Allegan Circuit Judge Raymond L. Smith. The attorney countered with his own appeal to the State Court on the contempt penalty.

Hoffman, appearing in court in his own defense, had said an attorney should not be obliged to take an appeal if there was no error in prior proceedings. He further contended that "no defense attorney is required merely to act as a clerk for any client" and "the Constitution, rightly interpreted, does not require this."

Denial of appeal for another Allegan County man was also filed here in Circuit Court Thursday. The State Court turned down the delayed appeal application of Leonard Hadix, a former Otsego man, convicted in 1967 of unarmed robbery.

Plaintiff in the case had been Elmer Bargwell, Otsego, whose subsequent death was claimed to be a result of an assault in connection with the robbery. Hadix is presently serving a 10-15 year sentence at Jackson Prison.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dibbet

Bouquets of white mums and pink snapdragons and a pair of white candelabra flanked with palms and ferns set the background for the evening wedding ceremony at the First Reformed Church on Feb. 25, when Miss Gloria Bailey became the bride of James A. Dibbet.

The Rev. James Boogerd, assisted by the Rev. Gary Boogerd, uncles of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bailey of 103 East 21st St. and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dibbet of Sioux Center, Iowa.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length A-line gown of silk linen featuring a scoop neckline and enhanced with bands of Venice lace at the waist and bordering the detachable chapel length train. A matching open pill box accented with a bow held her elbow length veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses and French mums and wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

The bridal attendants, Miss Ella Jo Bailey, sister of the bride as maid of honor, and Miss Louise Hoedema and Miss Phyllis Harringsma, bridesmaids, chose an aqua A-line gown fashioned of silk linen and crepe, with a band of matching velvet at the crescent waist.

The gown featured a removable sling coat accented with velvet bows at the shoulders. Matching bow headpieces held bouffant veils. Each carried a nosegay of pink roses and white mums.

The bride's mother chose a three piece gold knit dress and the mother of the groom wore royal blue, both wore corsages of pink roses.

Lake Zoning Meeting Held

The Waukazoo Woods Association sponsored a public meeting on the proposed zoning of Lake Macatawa Monday night in the Park township offices. Albert Nuttle, president of the association, conducted the hearing.

Herman Windemuller, Park township supervisor, outlined previous zoning proposals to date.

Sheriff Bernard Grysen and Deputy Gerald Witteveen answered questions on patrolling the lake and enforcing the state boating laws. Careless operation of boats and speeding, without regard to boating laws, intentional or otherwise, causes most of the problems on the lake.

Boats should be operated at least 100 feet from docks, rafts, occupied swimming areas, and moored vessels unless proceeding under "slow — no wake" speed and/or complying with other state laws. All boat operators should read and know the Michigan law pamphlet relating to the registration and operation of vessels and motorboats, the men said.

Discussion centered on areas of Lake Macatawa bordered by Park township. Results of the meeting will be presented to the Park township board for their use at the next hearing in Holland City Hall May 28 at 10 a.m. At this time, all three governments bordering the lake will meet to consider a satisfactory zoning law.

In keeping with safety on the lake, Edward Bittner invited any interested parties to attend the rest of the course, Basic Seamanship, which is being conducted by the Holland Flotilla of the U. S. C. G. Auxiliary. These lessons are being held in the Peoples State Bank building on the north side at 7:30 p.m. each Thursday. About five sessions remain.

Residents desiring more detailed information about this hearing or the one in May may contact board members of the Waukazoo Woods Association.

Miller Clock Moves Into New Factory

ZEELAND—The Howard Miller Clock Company has just completed moving into its new factory, 100 per cent larger than the one it has occupied since 1955. The moving was accomplished over a period of weeks without any interruption to production or shipping.

The new plant, which contains 40,000 square feet as contrasted with 20,000 square feet in the old one, was designed by George Nelson, architect, whose office is also responsible for designing most of the products which the firm manufactures.

The structure is crisp and modern. The facade makes use of beige bricks with blue insulated steel paneling across the top, above a sweep of aluminum framed windows. The result is a long, low silhouette spanned by three horizontal bands. Landscaping, to be completed in the Spring, will add its own fresh, green complement.

As the new plant moves into full operation some new machinery is still to arrive. The personnel will be increased by approximately one-third, according to Howard Miller, president of the firm which bears his name. Miller stated, too, that the company owns a good deal of adjacent land for further expansion purposes. The old plant is presently being used as a warehouse, he added.

The new plant is located on East Main St. across from the Herman Miller plant just off the M-21 bypass. It is a little more than a mile from the old clock factory on East Washington.

'Paris on Inside' Proves Delightful Experience

An illustrated talk on "Paris on the Inside" by Mme. Shirley Saint, American-born wife of a former French diplomat, proved to be sheer delight for members of the Holland Woman's Literary Club Tuesday afternoon.

Color slides of the Paris scenes, behind-the-scene visits to exclusive fashion houses, and intimate visits in homes of leading personalities as well as the glitter of huge public receptions revealed a Paris not readily known to all Parisians.

"The women in Paris put accent upon culture more than upon couture, and their parties are planned for intelligent conversation, not noisy chatter," Mme. Saint said.

Her pictures revealed the splendor of the old 18th century homes and lush gardens, often masked by a shabby door in a wall. Some of these homes are now embassies and her slides included several of the Dutch embassy and its gardens of tulips.

A visit to the fashion house of Mme. Gres showed Mme. Saint and her friends watching a model wearing the dress Mme. Saint wore Tuesday, a simple shift-like design shaped to body lines. A visit behind the scenes to the House of Dior showed designers at work, others draping muslin for initial patterns in one of 18 work rooms, others working on coats, suits, coiffures, and mannequins modeling Dior gowns.

Among them was the famous Dior raincoat lined with sable and selling at $10,000. Mme. Saint said Parisian women mostly favor the simple elegant designs, but fashion writers are always interested in way-out designs, and Parisian designers oblige. She said fashion trends point to very short skirts and simple designs, many of them sleeveless.

Other pictures showed elegant furniture and art works in homes and public buildings, table settings and flower arrangements.

In France the forks are always pointed down and the monogram is on the underside since Europeans hold forks in their left hands, and this is the easiest way to pick up a fork and start eating. No butter is served at meals and this is not missed since French sauces are rich. Coffee always is served after meals in small cups. Large cups are used only at breakfast. Ivory swizzle sticks are used for champagne.

A visit to the Eiffel Tower with a grandson of Gustave Eiffel who designed the tower in 1889 showed scenes in a private salon high in the tower that few Frenchmen know exists. On impulse, Mme. Saint and Eiffel invited two American sailors to join them in their visit and took them to the private salon where a guest book shows the names of Thomas Edison and Buffalo Bill.

Mme. Saint spoke of her interest in a college of commerce and science where she is serving as godmother "for life" after a year as godmother to a certain class. From this association, she organized a program whereby French students work summers in America, paying their own transportation in the trip. She appealed to wives of local businessmen for possible openings. So successful has her program become that her French students were the first to stage a pro-American demonstration before the U. S. embassy in Paris.

Her final visit was to the dressing room of Maurice Chevalier who at 78 was appearing in a new act in Paris. Maurice loves America, she said, for it was America that made him a big star. Chevalier says of Shirley Saint, "Shirley Saint sings 'I Love Paris' with her whole heart."

Mrs. Bryan Athey, club president, announced club members are invited to an open house in Herick Public Library Wednesday, March 23, from 2 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. honoring Library Director Hazel Hayes who is retiring.

She also announced a literature seminar March 29 at 2 p.m. in the clubhouse on the subject, "The Women Satirists." Mrs. William G. Winter Jr. will be the leader.

Linda Visscher, Holland High student, invited club members to attend the senior play, "The Man Who Came to Dinner," March 21 through 24. Among visitors were two members of the Grand Rapids Women's Club. Door hostesses were Mrs. Walter Martinie and Mrs. Jack Dykstra.

Wayland Truck Driver Is Awarded Judgment

ALLEGAN — Judgment of $1,677.54 was awarded Thursday by an Allegan Circuit Court jury to Harold J. Burpee, a Wayland truck driver.

L. A. Barnaby, Grand Rapids trucking firm head, was ordered to pay this sum in accrued compensation due Burpee for services rendered as a U. S. mail truck operator.

Barnaby had denied indebtedness in the alleged sum and had said he was awaiting a renegotiated contract with the U. S. postal authorities before increasing Burpee's wages as a driver.

Relief Cases On Decrease In Allegan

ALLEGAN — Tougher board policies adopted early in 1965, as well as a gradual upswing in economic conditions, were reflected in the annual report of the Allegan County Department of Social Welfare, submitted to the county Board of Supervisors last week.

Total county direct relief disbursements were $48,064 less than in 1964. Almost every township showed a drop in its caseload. Otsego city, leading the county with 247 direct relief cases in 1964, was down to 143. Lee township showed a drop from 212 cases down to 251, and Allegan Township and the city of Allegan combined were down 75 cases. The total 1965 case load for the county registered a decrease of 656 cases from the previous year. A notable exception was Fennville. In 1964 the city had no direct relief cases and this number rose to only six in 1965.

Administrative, Medical Care Facility, Hospital and county farm expenses were up $199,186 from 1964. Long over-due improvements to bring these facilities up to state-required standards; new equipment, higher out-patient costs and a change to longer term patients requiring more therapy, accounted for much of the rise in costs.

By accepting a fee system set by the Welfare Board, county and other medical society members enabled the Social Welfare Department to operate within its 1965 budget, a fact gratefully acknowledged in the department's annual report.

Head Start And Reading Projects Set

The Board of Education Monday night granted permission to submit proposals for a Project Head Start for Holland and for establishing three remedial reading centers with funds available from federal sources.

Ivan Compagner, principal at Lincoln School, outlined plans for the Head Start program, calling for 30 culturally deprived children of pre-school age, to be divided into two units of 15 each. Each unit would require one certified teacher, a teacher's aide, and one volunteer. This summer program would be based at Lincoln School, using two classrooms and partial use of one other classroom, gym, kitchen and office.

This short-term program for children who would enter school in the fall of 1966 would provide health services as well as helping the child's emotional and social development. Other personnel in the program would be the school psychologist, speech therapist, visiting teacher, county nurse, medical doctor, dentist and optometrist. All families on ADC or welfare would qualify. Selection of other children is based on family income, $2,000 for two persons and $5,000 for seven persons.

Approximate cost is listed at $6,000 with the Office of Economic Opportunity of the federal government providing $5,400 and the local system $600.

Compagner listed the primary area as the Lincoln and Washington districts, and as secondary area, that section between 16th and 24th Sts. He said non-discrimination is an absolute essential, and that all Head Start child development programs must be conducted on a completely non-sectarian basis.

The term would run eight weeks, with the first week used for inservice training of teachers, followed by a seven-week program for the children. The hours at school would be 8:30 to 11:45 a.m. and parental contacts from 1 to 2 p.m. Local personnel would be trained at Western Michigan University at Kalamazoo.

Roland Aussicker explained the remedial reading program under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, which in Holland would call for three summer remedial reading centers for public and non-public school pupils. The program is 100 per cent reimbursible in federal funds. A $43,000 budget has been set up for the first year, but Aussicker said this figure conceivably could run up to $200,000 over a three-year period.

The centers for the reading program for children in the third to the 12th grades would be in Holland High School, Thomas Jefferson School and Washington School, and would cover six weeks. Children from outlying areas could be brought into the city by bus.

Aussicker said the 1966 program is set up for 60 pupils, but could be expanded to 80.

Exchange Visit With Denver Set

Plans for the fourth annual Student Exchange to be conducted this year with East High School of Denver, Colo., were approved by the Board of Education at its monthly meeting Monday night in the library of Holland High School.

Mrs. Edna Dyk of the faculty explained plans call for the Denver group to visit Holland High School and Holland area during the week of April 10. The group would include 18 students and four chaperones, all of whom would be lodged in local homes.

The local group of 15 students, probably eight seniors, five juniors and two sophomores would make a return visit to Denver the week of April 24, making the trip by train.

Tentative local plans for entertaining the Denver group include school activities, a party at the Dyk home, talent show, open house, tour of Hope College, dinner at Point West, tour of local industries, a progressive dinner, a dance in the field house, a picnic on the beach, and dupe rides.

Mrs. Dyk said previous exchange visits have been most pleasant and helpful in introducing local students to other regions of the country and other ways of life. She said one of the greatest realizations on returning home is a new appreciation of what Holland is and what the local education program offers.

3 Injured In Explosion At De Pree

Three Holland men were burned, one critically, in an alcohol explosion and fire at the De Pree Company, 130 Central Ave. Thursday afternoon.

William Johnson, 30, of 323 West 17th St. was in critical condition at University Hospital in Ann Arbor today with second and third degree burns of the head, upper body and both legs. He was transferred to the burn unit of University hospital from Holland Hospital.

Hospital officials said Johnson had burns over 53 per cent of his body.

John Otting, 36, of 99 Glendale Ave., laboratory director, was in good condition at Holland Hospital today with burns of the head, both hands and both feet.

A third worker, Leonard Rummel, 54, of 181 West 22nd St. was treated at Holland Hospital for minor burns of the head and hands and released.

The explosion which could be felt over most of the four-story brick building occurred about 3:45 p.m. as alcohol was being transferred from a tank truck to a 1,000 gallon storage tank on the third floor of the plant. Fire Chief Dick Brandt said some alcohol sprayed from the hose onto an overhead light bulb causing the explosion.

The rest of the company's 100 employees were evacuated from the building without injury.

The resulting fire burned an area on the southeast corner of the third floor and spread to the second and fourth floors, Brandt said.

More than 40 sprinkler heads on the second and third floors turned on automatically.

Holland firemen had the blaze extinguished in about an hour. Brandt said there would be roughly $2,500 damage to the 45-year old building, but that water damage to drugs and other products would be extensive. Willis A. Diekema, president of the company, said some of the packages which were sprayed with water can probably be salvaged as they were wrapped in cellophane containers.

Holland firemen were at the company for about an hour after the fire was extinguished helping to remove the water.

The alcohol is used in the production of rubbing alcohol.

Study Vocational School for County

National trends in technical-vocational training on the high school level are such that Ottawa county is thinking in terms of a central training school, the Board of Education was told Monday night.

Donald Gebraad who heads the cooperative program in the local area gave results of an extensive technical-vocational survey carried on not only in Ottawa county but also in Hamilton and Saugatuck school districts. These results point strongly toward the need of stepped-up training in skills for high school graduates who do not plan to go on to college, plus consideration for dropouts and the handicapped.

Gebraad said the survey showed that out of 10 children, seven graduate from high school. Three seek jobs immediately and four go on to post secondary education, two of them completing four years of college.

"Consequently, we really are concerned with jobs for eight out of every 10 young people, and with setting up a curriculum for skills and training that will provide gainful employment," he said.

Gebraad explained that he and Gene Roth of Grand Haven carried on the survey in the county along with Ab Martin of Holland and Paul Johnson of Grand Haven serving as co-chairmen. The survey also included a followup survey among graduates of the classes of 1959, 1962 and 1965, plus an opinion poll of the parents of fifth and ninth graders.

On the basis of returns, most persons felt that present vocational training was inadequate and expressed considerable interest in a vocational school or a community college. Parents interviewed wanted their children to receive both vocational and academic training in the schools.

There was strong support for a central vocational school which would have students on a half-day basis, with enrollees attending their regular high schools a half day to retain some identity with traditional schooling. These students likely would be bused in to a central vocational school.

Such a vocational training setup perhaps could best be supported on a county-wide basis which on a one-mill levy could provide $370,000 a year.

There was a strong recommendation to appoint an advisory committee immediately and to hire a full time administrator to work with the committee.

Gebraad said that the published report of the survey is expected to be ready by April 1.

Meteor Sighted West of Holland

The Rev. Bernard Brunsting, minister of First Reformed Church, reported seeing the object while driving in the area of Ann Arbor.

The object was also seen by control tower operators at O'Hare International Airport and Coast Guardsmen in Chicago.
