Truck-Train Crash Kills Family of Four

Loss Set In Vandalism At School

FENNVILLE — Quadruple funeral services were held for a Breedsville family in Chappel Funeral Home, Fennville, at 2 p.m. Tuesday killed in a train-truck collision Saturday.

South Haven State Police identified the victims as Milford Eastman, 35, a rural Breedsville man, his wife Mary, 44, daughter Lora Jane, 7, and Susannah Shaff, 8. State police report that the Eastman family was in the process of adopting the Shaff girl.

The four were killed at 4:10 p.m. Saturday when a train struck their truck about four miles south of Pullman in Allegan County.

According to Cpl. Lowell French of South Haven State Police the truck was heading south on 56th Street moving parallel to the train. The truck slowed down for the train crossing, and then pulled directly in front of the train.

Cpl. French reported that the train hit the truck broadside and the four were killed immediately. French said the South Haven State Police were puzzled by the driver's actions and could offer no explanation. The train's engineer was Cal Strong, 60, of 333 East Lakewood Blvd., Holland.

Eastman was employed at the South Haven division of Pullman Industries. He was a member of the Energy Lodge 509, I.O.O.F.

Milford Eastman is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Eastman, of Pullman; five brothers, John L. of Breedsville, Mortie C. of Bravo, Oscar W. of Garden Grove, Calif., and Clayton C. and Donald P., both of Pullman and three sisters, Mrs. George (Helen) Long and Mrs. William (Laura) Clifton of Bangor and Miss Laura John Eastman.

Mrs. Eastman was from the Dayton, Ohio area and her survivors are unknown. Susannah Shaff has no survivors.

Road Patrol May Be Cut In Muskegon

GRAND HAVEN — No additional aid from the State Police posts at Grand Haven and Hart is available, should Muskegon county decide to phase out sheriff's patrols as an economy measure, Col. John Plants, director of the state police, announced at a hearing at Muskegon Monday.

Plants warned that no additional aid could be expected and following this warning Muskegon county officials Tuesday reassessed the pending phase-out.

A special hearing was held by the Muskegon Board of Commissioners Monday and 100 persons attended, most of them heads of local units of government in that county. A three-hour session was held to discuss possible methods of preventing the road patrol and detective unit from being abolished June 1 to save funds. Eighteen officers are due to be removed.

State police officials said that the department also is strapped for funds and cannot increase the manpower at the two posts that presently cover Muskegon county. Plants said there are 35 troopers at Grand Haven and 16 at Hart. State police handles only one third of the serious crimes in Muskegon county and the sheriff's department handles the rest.

Council Hopeful Named in Warrant

James P. Pollock, 36, Holland pharmacist and candidate for councilman of the fourth ward, was named Wednesday in a warrant in connection with an alleged discharge of a firearm in the city limits.

The warrant charges that Pollock "while intentionally aiming a firearm at Virginia Pollock and Carl Van Krimpen, did discharge the firearm but without any malice toward the persons fired at."

Pollock pleaded innocent at his arraignment in District Court this afternoon and demanded a jury trial. No date was set. He was released on $5,000 personal recognizance bond.

It was alleged the weapon discharged near the Pollock home, 681 South Shore Dr., Tuesday. A report was made to the Holland police later.

Mercury Climbs To High of 67

A spring preview in which temperatures soared to an official 67 degrees Sunday was short-lived as colder temperatures and winds clocked at 40 miles an hour moved in today.

But while it lasted, Sunday's sunny weather substantially reduced piles of dirty snow in yards and roadsides.

Overnight rain which measured .03 inch also cut into the snow deposits. Saturday's high was 42.

No Contest In Allegan's April Vote

ALLEGAN — Unless write-in candidates emerge, Allegan voters won't have much trouble making up their minds at the April 5 City Council elections.

Only four candidates qualified for a place on the ballot by filing nominating petitions before the Saturday noon deadline. There are four vacancies to be filled.

Filing petitions for the two full, 4-year terms were Mrs. Norma Stone, incumbent, Allegan's first woman council member, and Henry Barber, an American National Bank vice-president seeking his first bid for public office.

Qualifying for the two, 2-year unexpired terms were T. E. Malila, a former mayor and long-time council member, and Joe Armstrong. Malila was appointed to the council to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of C. J. Smith who left Allegan to join his son in a Sturgis car dealership. Armstrong was named to fill the chair left vacant by the resignation of Robert Clearwater.

Malila is president of Crescent Manufacturing Co. and has been active in municipal and school district affairs for many years. Armstrong is an advertising and public relations consultant who also serves at the Allegan Area Chamber of Commerce's executive secretary.

Donald Remington, general agent for a life insurance company, did not choose to seek election to the unexpired term of Atty. Leo W. Hoffman, the post to which Remington was appointed after Hoffman resigned.

Despite the lack of competition for council posts, the city's April 5 elections are expected to attract a good turnout.

Two special propositions will be on the ballot, including a charter amendment setting up restrictions on the expenditure of funds realized from the sale of the municipal electric plant to Consumers Power Co. The proposed amendment would establish permanent funds, the interest from which would be divided in three parts—one third reverting to the principal fund to insure its growth, one third going into a capital improvement sinking fund, and the balance into the city's general fund.

The second proposition on the ballot is in the form of an advisory vote on the disposition of approximately $440,000, representing accumulated interest earned on the power company sale fund plus the municipal utility's receiving account, which the council proposes to be used to improve the water treatment and distribution system. The money would be used to supplement a $750,000 bond issue approved in 1968 for construction of a water treatment plant. Work on the project is expected to get under way this summer.

"Dear sirs: Here is a dollar. I hope you can make another to channel. My dad helped me write this, but it's my dollar."

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Swieringa of 119 East 35th Street will observe their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday. Mrs. Swieringa is the former Ethel Klein.

300 at Township Water Hearing

Aims of the Holland Township Board of Trustees in establishing a public water supply system for the township were explained at a two-hour informational meeting for township residents Tuesday night in West Ottawa High School, attended by some 300 persons.

Township Treasurer Glenn Van Rhee presided, assisted by other members of the township board and a panel of professionals representing consulting engineers, legal counsel and county health and engineering officials.

Thomas Newhof, of the engineering firm of Prien and Newhof, explained the program which calls for eight miles of trunk lines from the Wyoming City transmission line on New Holland St. south down 136th Ave. and North River Ave. with additional lines east and west of River Ave. on Lakewood Blvd., and west on Douglas Ave. Plans call for a metering station in the vicinity of 136th Ave. and New Holland St. and an elevated storage tank on Lakewood near River.

Estimated cost of $1.3 million would be financed through Ottawa county to be paid by a 2 mill levy on Holland township valuation for 20 years. It is expected this capital outlay would provide further expansion as the township grows.

Vandals Damage 10 High School Rooms

Vandals broke into three buildings at Holland High school early today, ransacked at least 10 rooms, mostly offices, and fled with about $50 in cash from the offices.

Police said it was hard to tell whether the intruders were after money or just bent on destruction.

"It was six of one and half a dozen of another," confided Det. Sgt. Dennis Ende.

High school officials said the damages would be a few hundred dollars.

Police Probe Breakin At Junior High

Holland police are investigating a breakin at E. E. Fell Junior High School which occurred Saturday night or early Sunday morning.

It is believed thieves first broke into the woodshop and took tools valued at $40 and then used these tools to break into canteen machines in the cafeteria of the west unit.

The administration building adjacent to the east unit also was entered but it is believed nothing was taken.

The west unit, or old Holland High, was entered by climbing a fire escape on the south side to the second floor, breaking a window in the girls' cloak room and releasing the panic bar of a fire door.

The cafeteria was entered through a transom. A record player, machines for pencils and paper, a money changing machine and food machines were damaged.

The damaged tools were left behind. The vandalism was discovered during a custodian check Sunday afternoon.

Seal Sentenced To Prison In Migrant's Death

ALLEGAN — Floyd O. Seal, 37, Jackson, Miss., charged in connection with the death last July of a migrant worker, was sentenced to 6½ to 15 years in state prison this week by Circuit Judge Wendell A. Miles.

Seal was charged in the death of William Hefner, 27, of Sylva, N.C. whose body was found near a small cabin the two shared on a farm seven miles south of Saugatuck.

Seal pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of manslaughter and was to be credited with 234 days spent in jail awaiting disposition. Miles ruled parole could be considered after a year and a half of the sentence is completed.

B. Swieringas Mark 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Swieringa of 119 East 35th Street will observe their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday. Mrs. Swieringa is the former Ethel Klein.

Their children are Mrs. Bruce (Sheryl) Duthler of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Henry (Mary) Bierling of Athens, Ohio, and Thomas.

Police said intruders apparently were armed with metal objects, perhaps tools, to smash plate glass windows in the office partitions and doors. Entry to the buildings was gained by breaking windows on the west sides of buildings.

Police believe the western most building was entered first and vandals worked toward the east buildings.

Police said much of the damage was in broken glass and disrupted desks, filing cabinets and records. The library was not entered.

Vending machines in the common areas of the classroom units were opened and an undetermined amount of cash was missing. Damage to the machines was estimated at $100.

Police said they were investigating a possible link with a breakin at Washington elementary school Wednesday night. Officers said there appeared no connection with the breakin Thursday evening at Western Theological Seminary where money was missing from the business office.

The breakins at Holland High were discovered at 5 a.m. today by a custodian. Police said the last custodian left the grounds at midnight.

Officers were unable to say how many persons were involved in the school breakins.

Board Transfers 2 Zeeland Parcels To Grand Haven

GRAND HAVEN — After a lengthy discussion, the Ottawa Area Intermediate Board Thursday approved two transfers of property from Zeeland district to Grand Haven district, and denied five requests for transfers.

Transfers allowed were the property of James Barr and Jon Jessup who live on 104th Ave. about a half mile north of M-45. Transfers denied were those of Leonard Szymas, Mrs. Marta Sinderman, Joseph Skala, and Jacob Melynk located on M-45 between 104th and 112th Aves., and the property of Edmund Hyzy about a half mile north of M-45 on 104th Ave.

The discussion concerned transportation facilities, length of bus routes, creation of "islands" by transferring certain properties and number of students involved.

Effective date of the transfer is March 21.

Girl Injured In Mishap

Debra Kars, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Kars, 1012 Butternut Dr., was in critical condition in Holland Hospital Monday with a broken pelvis and other internal injuries sustained when she was struck by a pickup truck as she was walking east on Quincy St. at Lake Shore Ave. in Park Township at 3:10 p.m. Sunday.

The truck, also traveling east, was driven by Nico Vonk, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Vonk, of 159 South 168th Ave., who was allegedly driving the truck while his parents were away, according to Ottawa County Sheriff's deputies.

Neither Vonk nor his passenger, Mike Johnson, 15, of 439 Oak were injured.

Speet Reward Is Boosted To $10,000

It was six months ago Tuesday that 19-year-old Shelley Speet Mills was found, murdered in her apartment in Grand Rapids.

And today, her immediate family, the Richard Speets of Holland, boosted its offer of a $1,000 reward to $10,000.

This is for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who committed the murder Sept. 15, 1970.

The parents live at 740 Columbia Ave.

Mrs. Mills, the former Shelly Gay Speet, had been stabbed about 20 times about the neck and throat. Her husband, William, was music teacher in Lowell public schools. The couple had been married 2½ weeks earlier.

Grand Rapids police are still investigating the case.

West Ottawa Cuts Current Year Budget

The West Ottawa Board of Education Monday night cut $36,948 from the current budget of some $3 million to accommodate the reduction in state aid because of Michigan's cash crisis. Supt. Lloyd Van Raalte said the cuts were mainly capital improvement, maintenance, reduction of supplies and the elimination of one unfilled position.

Contracts for the balance of the year were approved for Mrs. Theresa Kline and Miss Sandra Bakker in two elementary teaching positions resulting from resignations.

Mrs. Lee Barker outlined development of a middle school testing program for the purposes of furthering individualization of instruction, and the board encouraged her to proceed with the plans.

The board appointed Peter Roan to represent schools on the Holland Township Citizens Advisory Committee on Recreation.

Bids will be opened at 11 a.m. March 29 on construction of a road a half mile or more long from Quincy St. to the new middle school site. Groundbreaking ceremonies will be scheduled in the near future.

A request from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barton for a bus stop more convenient to their home in the northern section of the district was referred to the transportation committee for study and report. The meeting lasted more than 1½ hours.

Conditional Approval Granted Beauty School

Holland Beauty Academy, Inc., was granted conditional approval to use a school building at 107 West 48th St. as a beauty school following a hearing before the Board of Appeals in City Hall Thursday night.

Conditions are that the petitions be granted to the Holland Beauty Academy only with premises to be used only as a school of cosmetology.

The board also granted permission for a sign not to exceed 12 square feet for identification only and not to exceed six feet in height.

During the question period, township leaders defended the 136th Ave. route as being the best route for serving township residents and providing for potential growth. A pipeline in front of the house would not boost assessments, but might reflect in market values. Access to water would be an incentive to attract industry and it was stated that the township already has had to turn down six or seven good industries, one last week which would have hired 200 people.

There were several questions affecting individual properties, particularly on costs, options, developed property. The hearing closed after two hours and persons with further questions were encouraged to consult board members and consultants.

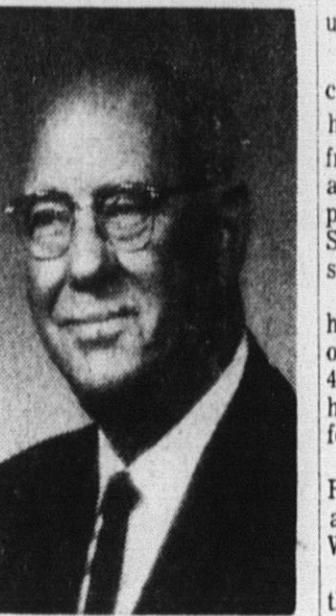

Township board members present were Glenn Van Rhee, James Brower, Charles Kreun, John Deters, Lloyd Van Doornik and Oliver Schaap. In his introduction Van Rhee pointed out that Holland township is growing, that it has 11,000 population and the township board is deeply concerned in meeting the township needs, particularly where density of population has brought problems.

Food Stamp Distribution In New High

ALLEGAN — The General Motors strike in December had more effect on food stamp distribution in Allegan county in 1970 than the onslaught of jobless migrant workers during the summer and fall, according to a report by Harold Leep, director of the county's Department of Social Welfare.

Food stamp distribution hit an all-time high in the county during December. Stamps totaling $153,582 were disbursed during the month for cash payments of $53,208. The highest previous month was October, affected by migrant workers, when stamps valued at $152,838 were disbursed for cash payments totaling $46,878.

The food stamp program poured a total of $1,074,736 into the county's economy during 1970. Participants paid $360,678.15 for the stamps they received, their "bonus" totaling $714,057.85. On the average for the year, food stamp program participants paid a little more than $1 for every $2 worth of stamps.

Participation in the program rose steadily through the year, from a total of $21,682 in January, the low, to a high of $153,582 in December. Leep said the two largest factors in the increase were the arrival of migrant workers—hard-pressed to find jobs in the fruit belt—and the General Motors strike.

'The First Circle' Reviewed at First Church Guild

Mrs. Bastian Kruitthof reviewed the Nobel Prize winning novel "The First Circle" by Alexander Solzhenitsyn, which is an indictment of the Communist system during the period of Stalin.

"The First Circle" is actually the prison in Moscow to which so-called enemies of the government were sent. In return for work which the scientists, mathematicians and technicians did on government projects, they received better treatment than the other prisoners.

The author spent eight years in this prison and the main character in the story had many of the same experiences as the author. The manuscript of the novel was smuggled out of Russia and published in England.

Following the book review, Mrs. Jay Schaap, guild president, conducted a business meeting. Members were then dismissed to the Fellowship Room for refreshments served by the Marsilje Norden Circle.

Annual Meet Of Society In Zeeland

ZEELAND — The Christian School society adopted a budget for the 1971-72 school year and elected four members to the school board at its annual meeting Thursday at the Christian school gym. About 100 persons attended.

The $359,300 budget represents an increase of $21,050 over the 1970-71 budget and provides for salary ranges of $6,600 to $9,850 for teachers with an AB degree and $7,000 to $10,250 for those with a masters degree.

Named to the school board for three year terms beginning in September were Norman Rietink and Stanley Sluiter of North St. Christian Reformed Church, Robert Kalmink from Third Christian Reformed Church and James Zylstra at large.

The society adopted an austere tuition plan computed on a percentage rate basis. It calls for 35 per cent of the cost of education for one child, 25 per cent of the cost for two children and 20 per cent for three or more children.

The society was briefed on progress of "Operation Wipeout", a program to liquidate the Zeeland area's share of remaining building debt on Holland Christian high school. It amounts to $78,000.

Howard Johnson gave a report on the drive and its progress.

Members of the society school board in September include Reynold De Kleine, John Hoogland, Harvey Ten Harmel, Herbert Wybenga and Rietink, Sluiter, Kalmink and Zylstra.

Retiring board members are Marvin Johnson, Howard Kalmink, Preston Nagelkirk and Roger Raak.

Howard Kalmink, board president, opened the meeting with devotions and the closing prayer was offered by the Rev. A. Hannink.

'What Is Liberal?' Dr. Littlefair Asks Rotarians

A liberal is not a personality type, nor does he hold any particular belief and should not be regarded as being between a conservative and a radical, according to Dr. Duncan Littlefair, pastor of Fountain Street Church in Grand Rapids, who spoke to the Holland Rotary Club Thursday.

Dr. Littlefair characterized a liberal as one who believes that "truth is unfinished because we may know more tomorrow than we know today."

"A liberal is one who believes that truth must constantly be changed because man receives truth from reality and experience," he said.

"Truth is always a liberal thing and that Liberalism is humanity centered."

Dr. Littlefair asked, "Why do liberals always get involved in social action?" and went on to say because it is humanity centered. If any one has any interest in life he is going to get involved in social action.

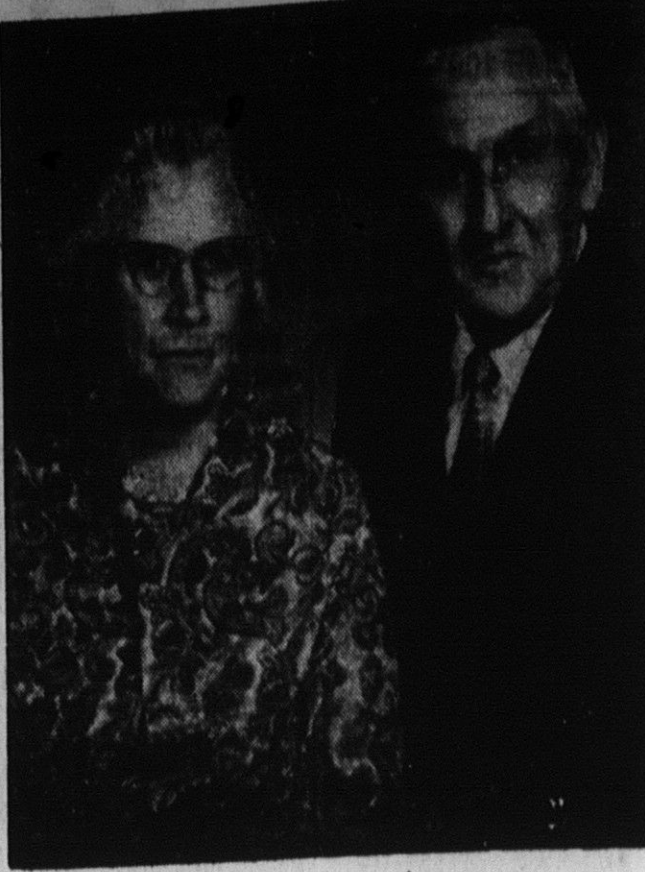

He said the liberal is the hope for some kind of action to preserve freedom in our society and in our world. And to preserve freedom we must be courageous, strong and active. Freedom as we know it is in trouble and will not remain that way if the revolutionaries and radicals continue to act as they do.

In explaining "Truth must constantly be changed" Dr. Littlefair said that "each generation finds its truth for its survival."

A LITTLE BUMP, A HUGE BILL
We don't take seriously what is often heard from critics of the car industry, since so much of what is said seems to have political overtones. But we are interested in what Dr. William Haddon, president of the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety has to say.

The Institute has been working hard to get cars that will withstand at least a five mile an hour collision without costs that run into the hundreds of dollars. And it is precisely this cost that has been pushing auto insurance up and up. But the outlook for 1971 isn't rosy.

According to the Institute the 1971 cars are even more flimsy than the 1970 models. There is little protection. The bumpers are ornamental, but that is about all one can say for them. A quick five - mile per hour bump may do damage that could be about one - tenth the value of the car. We think the industry should get busy with corrective changes.

There was a time when cars had good solid bumpers. They could take a good beating and come out on top. They stood between the car itself and a foreign object. Why an industry with the engineering technique of the automobile manufacturers can't do better is getting under the skin of the consumer.

Fortunately, it is the insurance companies who are raising a fuss. They know that the cost of insurance is finally getting out of reach. And the insurance companies know where the problem is. We can only hope that the automobile industry will take a hard look at their products and make some changes.

Preparing for His Coming
Matthew 25:1-13
By C. P. Dame

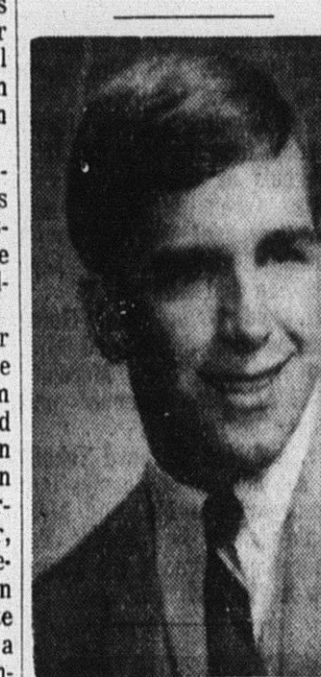

The new generation is not concerned about the past and pays no attention to the future. The Bible shows concern about both. The other day a sermon topic caught my attention, it read, "Unprepared for the Inevitable"—which is true of some people. This lesson calls upon us to prepare for the future.

I. Some people look ahead, some don't. Matthew 25 contains three parables and they all refer to the future, dealing with the subject of eschatology—the doctrine of last things. "Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins"—all of whom were on the way to a wedding. Have you noted that Jesus often spoke of marriages? He performed His first miracle at a wedding. He spoke of Himself as a bridegroom. His teaching about marriage are unexcelled and if heeded would solve many marital problems. Have you observed that Jesus did not compare the kingdom of heaven with a shipwreck or a funeral, or a disaster of some kind but with weddings, banquets, dinners and parties? Jesus accepted invitations to dinners again and again.

The ten maidens who were invited all had lamps with them. Five of the girls were wise and five were foolish. Take note again of the division. The Bible divides people. Jesus did so—can you recall instances? The Bible commands good wisdom, but not the wisdom of this world. The wisdom of the five came to light, the folly of the other five also was discovered.

II. Times of testing came. The important time of the wedding was when the bridegroom took the bride from her home to his. There was a delay and the girls fell asleep while he was natural. Suddenly the cry, "Behold the Bridegroom! Come out to meet him" woke up everyone. The five foolish girls learned that they had run out of oil and so they asked the other five for oil and they refused lest they would run short. Some things can't be loaned, such as intellect and character and some things can't be secured at the last minute such as getting ready for an examination or being ready for the second coming of Jesus Christ. It is fine to help others but there are times when it can't be done and then the foolish have to suffer for their folly. The Bible warns about the importance of the present.

III. We are called upon to watch. The wise girls got into the wedding party and had a great time but the foolish came late and asked, "Lord, Lord, open to us," but they did not get in. The door remained shut. The word, "watch" note. We are called upon to prepare for the second coming of our Lord which is sure to happen. In these materialistic times the spiritual is much ignored. May we show that we are like the five wise maidens who were prepared—not like the five foolish maidens who represent the nominal church members—they had too little and were too late, and faced a shut door. Sad indeed are the words, "and the door was shut."

John W. Stewart Speaks to Latin American Society

The Latin-American Society held its monthly meeting Sunday at Voorhees Hall. John W. Stewart, Dean of Admissions at Hope College, was the guest speaker and outlined two basic reasons for obtaining a college education. He pointed out that a college educated person would have more leadership and the ability to earn better wages.

Stewart said that a person with the ability and the genuine desire to obtain a higher education would be greatly welcomed at Hope and that they would like to see 10 or 12 Latin-American people admitted to the college. They would consider all possible means to help them finance a college education. He also explained NDEA, federal, state and private loans. Mrs. Juan Gamez translated his talk.

Stewart will also address the members of the Raza Union Sunday, March 21 at 2 p.m. at the Civic Center. Several reports will be on the agenda and Ciro Cadena will give a short talk.

Raza Union is a nonsectarian ground-swell movement of Latin-American solidarity throughout the United States comprising a fellowship of civic, social, cultural, religious and political groups. It was formed because of the deeply-felt need among Latin-Americans to dramatize their plight as a disadvantaged minority; to assert their rights as American citizens, and to assume their rightful share of the social, economic, educational and political opportunities guaranteed by the American democratic system.

Also discussed at the Sunday meeting was the queen contest. Yolanda Alvaredo and Celia Martinez will be in charge of the contest which will start April 14 and end April 16. Applications given out at the local high schools should be returned to them by April 12.

Japan Emerging as Third Super Power, Club Told

"Japan is not only small, it's tiny, but it ranks third in the world in gross national product, and is fast becoming one of the world's super powers—a most remarkable accomplishment for a nation completely destroyed in a war 25 years ago."

This statement came from Dr. Robert Kazmayer, news commentator and business analyst who addressed the Women's Literary Club Tuesday afternoon on the subject, "The Changing Japanese Picture and What It Means to Us."

In setting perspectives on history and geography, Dr. Kazmayer pointed out that of 150 independent and sovereign nations in the world, 90 per cent of all people are north of the equator and 80 per cent of all production is done in a narrow band in the north temperate zone.

He said there were seven great powers during World War II, America, France, Great Britain, Germany, Italy, Japan and Russia. With Germany and Japan beaten, France and Italy preoccupied with their own problems and the British empire on the wane, Russia and the United States emerged as super powers with diametrically opposing philosophies.

Dr. Kazmayer outlined the Treaty of Rome in 1959 called the Common Market, providing a European market for 300 million people, or 50 per cent more than the American market. The free flow of goods and labor has been making Europe a "melting pot" much as the United States was 75 years ago, and most Europeans are enjoying a degree of prosperity never experienced before World War II.

More important than Vietnam which captures all the headlines is the Middle East crisis, the speaker opined. The Holy Land encompassing three great religions runs from Cairo 600 miles east, is the site of three simultaneous wars, is the bridge between Europe, Africa and Asia, and lies atop a sea of oil—a pool seven times larger than the Alaska "find."

The three wars, he said, are the Arab-Israeli situation (the one we read about), the tense Arab-Arab fight involving revolutionaries, and the cold war of Russian and American fleets in the Mediterranean.

Against this geographical-historical background, he described Japan as a tiny country of 142,000 square miles (smaller than California) with only 19 per cent arable land, and a population of 103 million.

For a country totally beaten 25 years ago, it now exports $48 million of goods a week, with the United States its largest customer. He listed the 1970 U. S. gross national product at $165 billion, the Russian GNP at $500 billion, and Japanese GNP at $260 billion.

He said Japanese work 48 hours a week, a good share at home, and they take pride in their work and save money. In an expanding economy, the Japanese produce more than they consume, export their products and buy only raw materials. Moreover, it spends less than one per cent of its gross national product on defense, but this is changing because 400 miles across the sea lies Red China, a vast country of 800 million population. The speaker found no comfort in Red China's differences with Russia and he said if war ever developed America would be wise to keep out of it.

"We have no right to send American boys out there unless we give them every last thing they need to clean it up and get out of there. We lost the war in Korea because Douglas MacArthur was not allowed to cross the river."

"It's not the Middle East or Vietnam where our greatest danger lies. It's in Washington first, and in Holland, Michigan, second, the place we live. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, and you have to pay in advance. This becomes difficult to remember because America has such great affluence and we forget easily," he said.

Mrs. Robert De Nooyer, club president, presided and called attention to election of officers at the next meeting April 6 which will be the last meeting of the year. Because many members will be away during spring vacation, the club is opening up its April 6 meeting to guests at a $1 fee. The speaker will be Muriel Wolfson Bach who has appeared before the club on at least two occasions.

West Ottawa Takes Third Straight State Crown

Fourth State Swim Title For Panthers

ANN ARBOR — West Ottawa's swimming team swept through the Class B state swimming meet like a tidal wave, chalking up 271 points to take its third consecutive state swimming championship, the fourth in nine years, Saturday afternoon in the Matt Mann Pool at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

The Panthers nearest competitor, Riverview Community, tallied 95 points to take the runners-up trophy, while Harrison netted 90, Northville 74, Godwin 69, and Erie-Mason 67.

Following the preliminary competition Friday evening there was no doubt that the Panthers would retain their position as "Number 1" in the state, but the Panthers didn't waver as all of the swimmers retained their positions, working to better their own times.

Seeded fourth in the medley relay, Mike Battaglia, Steve Hopkins, Jon Helder, and Dave Ketchum chipped .7 second off their time to move into second place in the finals with a clocking of 1:48.20.

After setting a varsity record in the preliminaries of the 200-yard freestyle, John Boes returned in the finals to again erase the day-old mark, the new record of 1:54.10 earning Boes second place.

Ron Leeuw posted his best time in the same event, snatching third spot with a time of 1:55.72, after having been seeded fourth in the prelims.

In the individual medley, Jim "Cheetah" Streur stroked in third with a time of 2:17.29, while junior Jeff Helder sliced two seconds off his best time to pull for seventh place points in the consolation finals with a time of 2:16.81.

Helder's time, third best in the finals, was awarded seventh because in the finals places one through six can be reshuffled, but not go any lower, while places seven through 12 can also be reshuffled, but not go any higher. Helder had been seventh in the preliminary competition.

A unique incident in championship swimming occurred in the 50-yard freestyle. Panther stroke Rick Zavadi, Rick Hamstra, and Ken Wiley earned berths in first, fourth and fifth in the preliminaries, but weren't to be satisfied. The three, swimming in lanes one, three and five, matched their opponents for the first length of the pool, but after the turn they pulled out ahead, as if to put on a show of synchronized swimming.

Zavadi took home the first place medal with a time of :23.28, with Hamstra in second and Wiley in third had identical times of :23.33, the electronic timer picking Hamstra over Wiley.

The three seniors were joined by sophomore Fred Nelis in the same event, as Nelis carried home the 11th place medal with a time of :24.79.

At that point in the meet the Panthers had chalked up 113 points. If they hadn't entered the rest of the meet, the state trophy would have been theirs, but the determined stroke of Coach Henry Reest weren't to be denied.

Divers Dan Troost and Dave De Feyter, after maneuvering into third and fourth in the prelims, had a little trouble in the final competition. Each had trouble with one of their final three dives, as they slipped into fourth and sixth in the final tally, with 344.50 and 340.20 points.

The first place diver, John Kendrick from Ecorse put on an expert's showing, as the self-made diver earned 417.05 points. The sole Panther butterfly, Zavadi, swimming against the state record-holder Fred Jaskowski from Riverview, churned the deep blue for second place with a clocking of :54.90. Zavadi's preliminary time of :54.52 set a Panther varsity record.

Qualifying three swimmers in the 100-yard freestyle, the Panthers chopped the water for pay dirt, as Rick Hamstra, Wiley, and Neils swam for second, third and sixth, registering times of :51.21, :51.75, and :56.04 respectively.

Distance men Boes and Leeuw combined for the second time in the 400-yard freestyle. Boes recorded first place, establishing a new Panther varsity record of 4:09.45, while Leeuw rallied to post the best time of his career at 4:14.08 for second place.

In the backstroke, Mike Battaglia and Gary Van Kampen combined efforts to capture third and eighth places with times of 1:01.17, and 1:03.04.

Breaststroking for third place points after being seeded fourth, Steve Hopkins registered a time of 1:07.30, chipping 1.1 seconds off his previous best time, while Randy Hamstra earned 12th place points for the local tankers with his time of 1:12.37.

A determined Panther relay team wanted only to put the frosting on their cake of glory as Jim Timmer, Streur, Jon Helder, and Dave Ketchum entered the 400-yard freestyle relay with the second place time, but churned for first place with a time of 3:37.09, to inch out the top seeded Northville quartet.

With 37 teams entered in the meet, 33 placed swimmers in the finals. Earning points beyond the top six places were Dearborn Heights Riverside 55, Clarenceville 54, Dundee 50, Milan 45, Essexville - Garber and Oscoda 42 each.

Also Kalamazoo Hackett 32, Mason 26, Spring Lake 21, Hudsonville 20, Ecorse 18, East Christian 17, Grosse Pointe St. Paul 15, Madison Heights and Flint Ainsworth 10 apiece.

Others included West Catholic 9, Corunna 8, Okemos and Orchard View 7 each, Austin Catholic 6, Fruitport 5, Fremont and Willow Run 4 each, Fenton 3, Eisenhower and Albion 2

Shinabarger And Tuls Are Honored

LANSING — Co-champions Calvin and Olivet dominate the 1970 - 71 all MIAA basketball team announced Saturday by the league's coaches.

Calvin senior forward Doug Taatjes of Raymond, Minn., was selected the league's most valuable player.

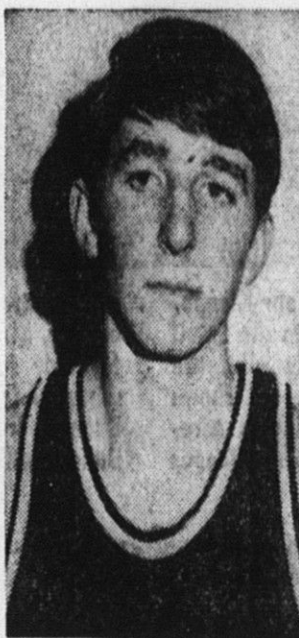

Taatjes, who stands 6-5 and weighs 210 pounds, has been a Calvin regular since he was a sophomore.

He will probably be remembered by MIAA foes as one of the strongest inside players, both in scoring and rebounding.

Taatjes accomplished the difficult transition from wing forward to the inside position at the start of the season "as fast as anyone I've seen" said Knight coach Ralph Hondred.

The transition was obviously beneficial for the Knights who after losing five of their first seven games, came back to post a season mark of 14-8.

Taatjes will receive the

The co-champions Comets and Knights, who finished with identical 10-2 records, placed five players on the 10 man first and second teams. The honor squads are selected by the coaches on the ability of performance instead of position. As a result, six of top 10 choices are guards.

Taatjes and Olivet senior guard Max Lindsay of Otisville round out the first team.

Taatjes becomes the fourth Calvin player to win the MIAA's most valuable honors. Last year Knight Mickey Phelps was presented the prize. Other Calvin winners were Don Vroom in 1955-56 and Ken Fletcher in 1964-65.

Hudson and Shinabarger finished one-two in the league scoring race for the second straight year with 25.4 and 24.3 point per game averages respectively. Taatjes was third with an 18.5 average while Lindsay and Maciasz owned 15.7

and 12.3 clips.

Hudson became the third MIAA player in history to score more than a thousand points against league opponents ending with a four year total of 1,001. The alltime MIAA scoring record is held by Hope grad Floyd Brady who bagged 1,170 points from 1964-68.

Calvin and Kalamazoo each landed two players on the second team. The Knights placed sophomore guard Art Tuls of Holland Christian and senior guard Del Willink of Hamilton while the Hornets landed senior forward Dick Winkley of Hammond, Ind. and sophomore guard David Lee of Kalamazoo. Rounding out the second five is Alma junior center Ike Neitring of Grand Haven.

Tom Wolters, Ric Scott and Marty Snoop of Hope were named to the honorable mention team with Jim Vogelzang and Bob Bosch of Calvin.

Shinabarger was named Hope's MVP for the second straight season while Lindsay was selected most valuable at Olivet.

Named MVP at Kalamazoo was Bryan Vossekuil while Jay Brown, Hudson, John Okenka were most valuable at Albion, Alma, and Adrian respectively.

700 West Ottawa Fans Cheer on State Champs

With another state swimming championship under their belts, the West Ottawa Panthers once again proved what "Panther Power" really means.

Some 700 West Ottawa fans traveled to Ann Arbor to cheer on the squad coached by Henry Reest. Their chant of "We're 'Number One,' Reest is why" at the swimming finals exhibited what the Panthers think of the coach that came to West Ottawa nine years ago to build a swimming power.

With a brand new school and a brand new pool back in the 1962-63 season, Coach Reest started a swimming team in an area that barely knew what competitive swimming was.

In the first year of swimming, the Panthers compiled a 7-15 record. They hosted the First Southwestern Invitational Swim Meet and won the third place trophy. In the state meet, they chalked up sixth place.

From that point on it was an uphill battle for the local stroke.

In 1964, the Panthers had a dual meet record of 10-4, again third in the Invitational, and entered the First Annual Invitational Relays, coming in third. They also took home their first runners-up trophy from the Class B State Swim Meet, behind the Riverview Pirates.

Hungry for another crack at the state championship, the Panthers posted a 10-5 dual meet record, losing to Riverview in their first annual dual meet, in 1965. With first in the Invitational and second in the relays, the Panthers went to Ann Arbor and came home "Number One" in the state.

With a 13-3 dual meet record in 1966, losing again to Riverview, the home stroke took first in the Invitational, second in the Relays, and again took home a runners-up trophy from the state meet.

1967 was patterned after 1966. A 9-5 dual meet record with a loss to Riverview, second in the Invitational, third in the relays, and again second in the state.

Beating Riverview for the first time in a dual meet in 1968, along with a 13-5 record, and second in the Invitational and the Relays, the Panthers were terribly deflated when they were in Class A by only a few students. They placed 15th in the big time meet.

With a 15-6 record and a loss to Riverview in 1969, Reest's Panthers chalked up first in the Invitational, second in the relays, and went to Ann Arbor determined to upset the defending champs Riverview, for the Panthers were once again in Class B. The local tankers took home the much-coveted first place trophy.

The Panthers had their best overall record in 1970, with a 19-1 record including a win over Riverview. In the big meets, it was "Number One" across the board as the Panthers swept the Invitational, the Relays, and carried home the state trophy from East Lansing.

1971 has seen a few more first for the Panther swimmers. For the first time, the Panthers defeated Riverview in a dual meet in the Riverview pool.

The Panthers also swam in a league for the first time this season. Placing second in the O-K League with one loss to Class A power East Grand Rapids, by one point, the Panthers also placed second in the conference meet.

The local stroke also swam in a double dual for the first time, against the top contenders for the Class A championship Dearborn, and Ann Arbor Huron. They lost both ends of the double dual, but got a chance to get used to swimming in the Matt Mann Pool, the setting for this year's state meet.

With firsts in the Invitational and Relays, the Panthers invaded Ann Arbor this past weekend. With a team 19 strong and about 200 spectators at the preliminaries, the Panthers swept the Friday evening competition.

Coming in droves, with three spectator buses and dozens of private cars about 700 West Ottawa fans saw the "Number One" Panther swimmers clean up at this year's state meet, taking home their fourth state championship, along with 3 runners-up trophies in nine years. Five varsity records fell this season, the 200 and 400-yard freestyles at the hands of John Boes, the 100-yard freestyle at the hands of Rick Hamstra, the butterfly by Rick Zavadi and the freestyle relay by Boes, Hamstra, Zavadi and Dave Ketchum.

Zavadi also set the pool mark and the Invitational record in the fly while the same quartet set the pool record in the freestyle relay.

The Panthers also set many pool marks in their opponents pools this season.

Coach Henry Reest's stroke has compiled an overall record of 108 wins and 37 losses in nine years of swimming, starting from scratch in 1962. That is a .745 average, commendable for a "good year," but fantastic for a combination of "good years" and "tough years."

Tallying points, the Panthers have racked up 9115½ for an average of 63 points per meet, while their opponents have chalked up 6012½ for an average of 42 points per meet.

Although the Panthers will be losing 15 seniors this year, things have never looked bad for swimming at West Ottawa. As Coach Reest commented, "As long as we've got a pool to swim in, we'll have a better than average swimming team."

First United Methodist Pre-School F.U.N. Open

F.U.N. School is fun for the pre-school boys and girls involved in the nursery school at the First United Methodist Church. Mrs. Peggy Holcomb is the certified instructor who plans and carries out the varied activities for the youngsters.

Since March 1 children enrolled in this program have had an opportunity to be in group situations playing games, learning numbers and letter concepts, painting, singing, playing with trucks and doll equipment. Children have an opportunity each day to play with others their own age, and they learn to listen and communicate ideas. Field trips and special guests will enrich the program.

The nursery is a five morning a week program. Monday, Wednesday, Friday sessions are for children four and five years old. Tuesday and Thursday sessions are for three and young four year olds.

Parents of the children assist the teacher each day in this cooperative venture. The program is open to both members and non-members of the First United Methodist Church.

The entire project began because a group of concerned parents inspired and guided by Frank Palmer became aware of the importance of educating the pre-schooler. These parents wanted to give their children the best available training. In addition to helping the children, the group is offering help to parents in raising pre-schoolers through speakers, films, and discussions at monthly parent meetings. Anyone interested in this program may call the church for more information.

of Bismarck, N.D., visited Mrs. Kleppe's mother, Mrs. Leo Loew, in Holland. Kleppe formerly served two terms as U.S. Representative from the western district of North Dakota. In redistricting next year, North Dakota will have only one congressman. (Sentinel photo)

Nixon Appointee To SBA on Visit

Tom Kleppe, the new Nixon appointee as administrator of Small Business Administration (SBA), in Holland for the week-end with his wife, the former Glen (Glendora) Loew, is hopeful he can cut some red tape in Washington and accomplish some of the real purposes of the federal program which has been beleaguered with problems since its formation in 1953.

The former North Dakota Congressman who served two terms was appointed by President Nixon last Jan. 18 to head the independent agency which is answerable to Congress and the President. There have been many administrators in the 18-year history, serving an average 14 months apiece. Many of the new appointments came with changes of administration.

The Kleppes weekend with Mrs. Kleppe's mother, Mrs. Leo Loew, 61 Cherry St. They left early Sunday to return to their home in Kensington, Md., just north of Chevy Chase in the greater Washington area. Kleppe says the SBA employs 4,100 people, 930 of them in one building in Washington. He described it as a lending agency and an agency to assist small business in government procurement and management assistance. It is not a welfare agency but is designed to help disadvantaged persons. Highest possible loan is $350,000 which may sound like a lot to an individual but not to Big Business.

In dealing with disadvantaged persons, the maximum is $25,000 under Economic Opportunity Loans (EOL) but this part of the program represents 38 per cent of the work of the agency and 20 per cent of the money. Kleppe's agency also handles disaster loans, and a program of $242 million is being funded for earthquake victims in California, carrying low interest rate on longtime contracts. In disaster cases, the government has a "forgiveness" clause giving aid of $2,500. Should a person obtain $3,000, he pays back $500. If the loan is $20,000, he pays back $17,500. SBA interest rates vary in the many programs.

In Washington, Kleppe has had a special affinity for Michigan people, and not because his wife hails from this state. He has close association with Guy Vander Jagt, Bob Griffin and Jerry Ford as well as with representatives of the Upper Peninsula and the Detroit area. And he says many of his close friends are Democrats.

While the SMA is answerable to the President, Kleppe does not expect to deal with Nixon directly. He works with six Congressional committees, three from the House and three from the Senate, and with the Office of Management and Budget (OMB).

His philosophy is to work closely with all people. "Reasonable people can disagree without losing respect for each other. And don't box a man in. There are ways to resolve problems."

'Our Town' Nostalgic Picture of Small Town

DAR Chapter Hears Talk By Duke Reed

Speaker at the Thursday meeting of the Elizabeth Schuyler Hamilton Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was Duke Reed from the Lake Macatawa Inter-municipality Committee, who spoke on "Environmental Problems in the Macatawa Basin."

The former Western Electric supervisor, who moved to Holland in 1965, told members of the DAR to listen to first-hand information from those who know about pollution rather than speculate and listen to everybody's theories. He spoke at length on the alewife problem in a report given in 1967 on the bubble curtain set up here.

Reed also said that the "fish might even like some of the warm water" that is going into the lake near South Haven.

The meeting followed a potluck supper at the home of Mrs. Clarence Becker, 121 East 30th St.

The doughnut cutter was invented by John Blondel of Thomaston, Me., in 1872. A spring pushed the dough out of a center tube to provide the hole.

A receptive audience filled the Zeeland High School cafeteria Friday evening for the opening production of "Our Town" by Thornton Wilder presented by the Zeeland High School Drama Club, directed by Tom Veenendall. The play was shown again Saturday in the cafeteria.

The students depicted the everyday actions of the townfolk of Grover's Corners, N.H. in a vivid manner.

The Stage Manager, Don Vanden Heuvel, set the mood of the play throughout the three acts as he let the audience in on various details about Grover's Corners, and about the people living there. Dressed in a drab gray suit with white shirt and dark tie, Vanden Heuvel puffed his pipe as he made his comments.

The three act play covers a 13-year period 1901-1913. There was no scenery, just chairs and a few props and the actors providing the mood for each scene.

The first and second act dwell primarily with two main families, the Webbs and Dr. Gibbs' family each having two children, a boy and a girl, living and growing up in a small town leading quiet lives, no one trying to outdo their neighbor at anything.

The romance that blossomed in the first act between George Gibbs played by Steve Bakker, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gibbs and Emily Webb played by Jeanne Jungling, daughter of the educated Mr. Webb who answered the questions of the audience and Mrs. Webb, came to a full bloom in the second act as the two young people just graduating from high school in June, were married.

The marriage ceremony was a homey affair with all the townfolk and the stage manager switching from his role to become the preacher.

In the last act which took place nine years after the wedding of George and Emily there was an eery mood depicted in the graveyard where many of the townfolk are buried.

Wilder in this act shows the audience the way people really don't see each other for what they are, but just the superficial outer covering.

And the people in the graveyard, all once alive living in Grover's Corners, drove that home in their presentation Friday evening as they spoke among themselves as if they were still alive, but looking at life now without the rose tinted glasses.

The final act ends with Emily Gibbs dying in childbirth and sitting among the people who had died before only to see life differently and in completeness too late to go back among the living to tell them.
