COUNTY FARM AGENT ASKS FOR FARM HANDS

HAS RECEIVED A NUMBER OF REQUESTS FROM OTTAWA
ASKING FOR LABOR

County Farm Agent C. A. Milham, who looks after the interests of the Ottawa county farmer, has requested us to publish the following notice:

"Agricultural Agent C. P. Milham, has received a number of requests the past week from farmers in need of farm hands to assist them in their farming operations. Farmers desiring assistance in securing farm help should notify the agent of the type of work the farm hand will be expected to do and men desiring work on farms should get in touch with the agricultural agent stating the kind of farm on which they desire to work.

"The agent has placed a number of men on farms and act as a clearing house for others.

"Farmers in general are looking to the future with optimism and have been undaunted by the losses caused by the slump in prices of agricultural products but they feel that other products should drop in the same proportion as theirs. Farmers generally figure the cost of a new purchase by the number of bushels of grain it requires to pay for it and when the purchase costs a greater number of bushels than heretofore they refuse to buy."

At 5 o'clock last evening the auto of Herman Vos crashed into the machine on S. Vischer on Central ave. and Tenth street. No one was hurt but both machines sustained considerable damage to fenders and axles.

LOCAL LUMBER COMPANY WILL PAY CASH PRIZES

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS TO WRITE
ESSAYS ON BUILDING
CONDITIONS

Twenty-Five Dollars in Cash Prizes
Will Go to the Winners of Contest

At the request of the Bolhuis Lumber & Mfg. Co. this paper has consented to take hold of a contest that has considerable merit. In order to foster this contest, however, the publisher has laid down certain rules that must be followed strictly.

The above named firm makes an offer of $25 to be divided into six cash prizes. $10 goes to the pupil of the high school who writes the best 800 word essay on the subject 'How Shall We Remedy the Home Shortage.' The pupil having the second best essay will receive $5 in cash. Authors of the two next best will receive $3 each and the winners of the next two will each receive $2.

The matter is in the hands of Superintendent E. E. Fell and Principal J. J. Riemersma. These gentlemen will have full charge of collecting the essays, and allowing those to write who are eligible for this work.

All essays must be in the hands of Principal Riemersma by April 25th, which is the last day. Mr. Riemersma will see that the essays are properly numbered with no names attached and will hands the essays over to the judges who have kindly volunteered their services to aid this project. The publisher had it distinctly understood that there must be no advertising feature connected with it. The essays must contain no advertising matter of any kind, must not mention the name of any concern interested in the lumber business or any firm that has anything to do directly or indirectly with building.

The names of special building materials must not enter into the essay only insofar as these are used in general terms.

The writers must stick strictly to the subject in hand. Home building a paramount question now is a matter of vital concern to the whole nation and for that reason the publisher of this paper wishes to aid in every possible way and bring about an agitation that will stimulate the building of homes and thus elevate a condition that is appalling in the big cities, and is mighty inconvenient and expensive in the smaller centers.

We claim that a man with a home is a better American citizen for owning that home. Therefore home building helps to strengthen the entire foundation upon which this nation was created.

This paper will from time to time give pointers on this subject until the close of the contest. Such other rules as writing on one side of the paper, writing in a legible hand, and other regulations incident to the essay writing will be told the pupils by Principal Riemersma when the matter is taken up by the pupils of the local high school.

Within a few days we will have more on this subject besides giving several thoughts from which subject matter may be gleaned.

The judges selected are as follows: Attorneys Arthur Van Duren, Thos. N. Robinson, Fred T. Miles and Daniel TenCate.

After the essays have been judged and the winners chosen, all the prize winning essays will be published covering a period of a few weeks. The continued interest in the publication of these will no doubt bring the importance of home building more vividly to our many readers, and much good will be derived because of their publicity.

Word has come that Gerard Raap, '16 and Jay Flipse '17 very successfully passed the examinations for internship at Cincinnati Hospital. Among the contestants were students from Rush Medical College and other northern schools.

JOHN TINHOLT OF ZEELAND BOUND OVER TO CIRCUIT COURT

MAN CHARGED WITH ATTEMPT AT MURDERING HIS STEP-SON
MUST STAND TRIAL

Part of Tuesday and yesterday was taken up with the examination, of John Tinholt, the man who is charged with having made an attempt upon the life of his step-son, Cecil Hecox, by attempting to shoot him in the back while riding in an automobile.

The deed as has already been published, happened near the Waverly bridge northeast of Holland.

The examination was conducted before Justice Roozenraad with Prosecutor F. T. Miles appearing for the people and Attorneys Thos. N. Robinson and Jay Den Herder of Holland, defending Tinholt.

Justice Roozenraad of Zeeland, where the examination was held, considered that he evidence was sufficiently strong to bind Tinholt over to circuit court, where he will have to stand trial during the March term. [The charge made against Tinholt is attempted murder. Tinholt was locked up the Ottawa county jail because he was unable to give bonds for $5,000.

NORTH SIDE BOOSTERS CLUB WANTS A PARK

ALSO TAKES A VOTE ON THE DAYLIGHT SAVING; VOTE
STANDS 2 TO 1

The North Side Boosters are certainly a progressive lot. Lights were recently installed and John Dunton donated a lot to help defray the expenses; and altho the North Side is a veritable park in itself filled with natural woods and native shrubs, they still want another park for the purpose of obliterating an eyesore.

Right across from the North Side grocery is a beautiful site for a park only it is low and swampy.

John Dunton owns the ground and he has told the boosters to go ahead and make a park of it and fill the low place from his land a little further north which contains a large sand hill.

The boosters are now dreaming of beautiful lawns, park benches, a little fountain and other things that go into the making of a park.

It is expected that he approach to the North Side will be beautified and made inviting while now the same spot is a regular dump for refuse.

HOLLAND MAN TO WRESTLE AT FENNVILLE

The Legionnaires of Fennville are to put on a clean sporting program tonight at Legion Hall.

The preliminaries are to be a boxing match between Whitey Hainey and Dan McCarty.

These two men are snappy boxers and will feature in the preliminaries. The main boxing event will be between Kid Carter and Battling Bryan (not the statesman, Wm. J. Bryan).

There will also be two wrestling events in which one Holland man appears. The first will be between Saylor Bryan and Lee Gipson. The second will be between Grappler Lameroux and Cy Vande Luyster.

Cy is a native of Zeeland, and has cleaned up on the whole countryside when it comes to hammer lock holds and twisters. Yes, Cy is a regular "Strangler Lewis," and by the way he also wrestles with a cylinder press and job type at the Holland City News office. We are betting on Cy to win.

The new bus line started on schedule time this morning for Grand Haven having a passenger list of five.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lokker of this city—a son.

At a recent meeting a vote was also taken on the daylight saving project and the vote stood 2 to 1 in favor of the project.

DEATH CLAIMS

FORMER JUDGE OF OT-
TAWA CIRCUIT COURT

COURT WILL CLOSE; SESSIONS
SUSPEND IN HONOR OF DEAD JURIST

Judge Philip Padgham Was Former Presiding Judge of Allegan-Ottawa Circuit; Passes Away
At Allegan

Judge Philip Padgham former presiding judge of the Twentieth Judicial circuit court, comprising the circuit courts of Allegan and Ottawa counties, died Wednesday morning at his home in Allegan. Judge Padgham was recently reported seriously ill, and Wednesday morning Judge O. S. Cross, present presiding judge, was notified of Judge Padgham's death. Judge Cross immediately made arrangements for adjourning the Ottawa circuit court, now in the March sessions, and adjournment was taken until next Monday at two o'clock in respect to the memory of the late Judge Padgham.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at the family home in Allegan at 2 o'clock. The Ottawa county bar will attend in a body, as will also the attorneys of Allegan county. Representatives of the profession in the surrounding counties will also be present at the services, it is expected.

Judge Padgham served on the bench of the Twentieth Judicial circuit for a period of nineteen years. He was elected in 1892 and retired in 1911, succeeded by Orin S. Cross of Allegan, the present presiding judge of the circuit. The death of Judge Padgham leaves but one surviving judge of the Ottawa-Allegan circuit Judge John W. Stone, who is at present a member of the supreme court of Michigan.

During his many years of service on the judicial bench Judge Padgham created a great circle of acquaintances not alone within his own circuit but all over the state. He was frequently paid the tribute by his colleagues of the profession as an excellent presiding judge, fair and impartial, and well grounded in his knowledge of the law.

Judge Padgham began his legal career in the little town of Plainwell in Allegan county. He was selected as circuit court commissioner early in his legal career and was later elected to the office of prosecuting attorney in Allegan county. Later he was elected to the judicial bench, which position he held honorably for nearly twenty years. Judge Padgham was 83 years of age.

It is an odd coincidence that Judge Richard Newnham, formerly judge of the Superior court at Grand Rapids, was trying a case in circuit court at Grand Haven Wednesday morning when the news of Judge Padgham's death was received. The Grand Rapids jurist studied law with Judge Padgham in his youth.

Since his retirement from the bench ten years ago Judge Padgham had not practiced law. He retired to his beautiful farm in Allegan county, where he lived until recently, when he moved back to Allegan city.

Many Holland and Ottawa county people who enjoyed the friendship of Judge Padgham were grieved to learn of his passing. Many incidents of his long judicial career were recalled by the attorney, friends and among the people who were in touch with court affairs during his day. Many knew him well and admired him during his frequent visits here in the old days.

Since his retirement he has been in Holland but a few times, but whenever here he was greeted enthusiastically by his many Holland friends.

Mrs. A. M. Galentine and Mrs. Ming, officers of the Star of Bethlehem O. E. S. No. 40, are attending a school of instruction in Grand Rapids today, held by Grand Chapter officers for the surrounding chapters.

HOLLAND IS TO HAVE A BEAUTIFUL MASONIC TEMPLE

Unity Lodge, F. and A. M. of this city gave two hundred members and guests a fish dinner Wednesday evening, and you can bet your bottom dollar that it was some fish fest, because "Bill" Murphy of Ottawa Beach was the "chief cook and bottle washer," and when "Bill" is in charge of a fish fry, you can bank on the fact that there is going to be some hearty eating done, which was the case Wednesday night.

Fish and more fish was fed the large gathering that crowded Masonic hall, to the very doors, necessitating an overflow meeting in the anti-rooms.

Fish food it is said, is also brain food, and no doubt the officers of the lodge selected this special diet for the reason that they had something else up their sleeve beside a fish dinner.

For the past two years agitation has been rife in Masonic circles relative to the building of a beautiful temple and some of the most energetic members, headed by Carl A. Bigge secured an option on a most desirable site located directly east of Holland's Federal Building, namely the Postoffice.

The option brought on the purchase of this site a year ago for $8000.00, and that piece of property has entirely been paid for within the year by the members of the lodge.

Now that this beautiful location has been secured, lodge members were exceedingly enthusiastic in having their life's dream realized, namely, that a beautiful temple should be erected.

For that reason the launching of this project was the big surprise that came as an after consideration at the banquet.

Percy Ray was in full charge of the meeting, W. A. Cobb, Master of the lodge, having surrendered the gavel to him on this occasion.

The launching of the new Masonic Hall project at the meeting, was first stated by Mr. Ray who had an array of Grand Rapids talent, ready to foster the proposition.

Brother Donaldson of Grand Rapids led the discussion and Jack Retting, the man who had as much to do with the building of the big Masonic Temple in Grand Rapids, as anyone there told of his experiences, and what the Masons in the Furniture City had accomplished to complete their half million dollar structure.

Attorney Arthur Van Duren who has had much to do with the project as far as it has gone in Holland, said that an agitation for a temple had started ten years ago, and that he expected that before another year rolled around another beautiful structure would adorn the quadrangle around Centennial Park. He stated that a committee has been going over the details very thoroughly and that if a temple was built it should be large enough for some years to come. The amount set by the committee he stated, was $100,000.00, not including the lot, and this building when completed would contain a spacious auditorium on the first floor, gymnasium, swimming pool, a bowling alley, and other desirable innovations in the basement, the temple proper on the top floor, and a cafeteria, ladies parlors, rest rooms, committee rooms, and other necessities in convenient places in the building.

Contractor Frank Dyke was then called upon to give a word picture of the building as it would appear from the outside. He stated that the structure should also be a thing of beauty and an ornament in Holland's Park system. The building should not be inferior to the other beautiful public buildings and should have a frontage of 125 feet. It should be set back on the lot and a lawn should adorn the front, and beside boulevard lights should be installed to set off the building at night. This announcement by Mr. Dyke was greeted with applause, and just about this time Percy Ray felt that the gathering had been worked up to the proper pitch, and that the brain food had done excellent service.

The Grand Master stepped back and unfurled a large chart covering the greater part of one side of the building. The lettering on the top of the chart emblazoned the words, "We Will."

The chart was mapped off in squares much like a large checker board. Each square represented a certain amount ranging from $1,000 down to $100. The total amount in all the squares combined, represented $100,000.00 in pledges.

Beside this chart and in order to demonstrate to the Masons and the guests how easy it was to raise the $100,000.00 on a five year pledge by economizing on other luxuries, Mr. Ray had put up another sign, which read as follows: "For $500 pledge, save one gallon of gas daily; $400 pledge, one pack of Camels daily; $300 pledge, eat one ice cream soda less; $200 pledge, eliminate one 'two-for'; $100 pledge, forget a package of gum daily."

The large sign brought another round of applause and the time was ripe for action when Mr. Ray said, "The pledge getters will now pass among you, get your tickets to the big show."

Several influential Masons passed between the tables with pencil and paper, and when all those present had been seen, $21,300.00 had been subscribed of the $50,000.00 that will be required to put up the $100,000.00 building.

Several were not in a position to say what they would give, although, indirectly their promise was for a substantial amount. It is understood that several thousand more was added Thursday morning and that the amount thus far secured was not far removed from the $30,000. mark.

It is also stated Thursday that some pledges are assured in Grand Rapids, Zeeland, Saugatuck and Douglas, and Mr. Ray stated that the building of a new Masonic Temple would be a fact and that there was no stopping it.

In an interview Mr. Ray said that while the temple is to be a Masonic building the members were not going to be clamor about sharing the conveniences and necessities with the public. Said Mr. Ray "We want to give Holland an auditorium with the proper acoustics and large enough to accommodate an immense audience. This audience room will be for the use of everyone. It will be adaptable for convention purposes, for Sunday afternoon lectures by eminent divines or great orators, for elaborate entertainments of home talent nature, and other things that will be edifying to the citizens of Holland, Mason or non-Mason alike. We need these things. Business men are crying for a gymnasium for themselves. The gym in this building will fill this long felt want, and while the temple will be the property of the Masonic order of this city, the members are not going to be niggardly, but are going to share the pleasures it affords with the other citizens of Holland and vicinity."

It is getting to be very unhealthy in Holland for persons who run automobiles while under the influence of liquor. Some exceedingly heavy fines have been handed out the past few weeks to offenders of this type. But perhaps the heaviest of all was passed out by Justice Van Schelven Monday morning when he assessed a fine of $79.50 to Allen Steffens who appeared before him charged with having driven an automobile while under the influence of liquor.

Steffens was picked up on Eight-st. by Officers Steketee and Bontekoe early Sunday morning. He was said to have been drinking root beer mixed with Jamaica Ginger. Justice Van Schelven made short work of the case, and the fine is an indication of what others who endanger the lives of other citizens by driving a car while under the influence of liquor may expect.

The common council is worried about the so-called tannery creek culvert that runs through the city for several blocks with an outlet into the lake. This culvert is in bad shape and the council does not know just what to do with it. To put it into shape will mean a huge expense and the city is not ready for building the necessary surface drain sewers that would carry off the water that is now sent into this culvert.

The chief trouble however is that children persist in entering the culvert, passing through it for several blocks sometimes. The aldermen are afraid that some child will get killed some day by doing this.

Suggestion was made at the meeting Wednesday night to build iron gates at the openings, but it was pointed out that in time of flood conditions it would be impossible to open these gates against the current and hence there would be an overflow in basements. It was also suggested to put up signs of warning, but it was pointed out that children disregard these, and the aldermen were not merely anxious to avoid a damage suit but to avoid accident and death to children.

After discussing the matter for a while it was referred back to the bridges and culverts committee and the engineer to devise a plan to overcome the difficulty.

James J. Danhof, Judge of Probate; Nelson R. Stanton, county commissioner of schools; Supt. of Schools Bos of Spring Lake, met on Saturday afternoon at the court house in Grand Haven to choose a successor to the late Floyd E. Van Sickle. Mr. Van Sickle's death caused a vacancy on the Ottawa County Board of School Examiners, a position which the late Hudsonville man had filled extremely well for some time.

Prof. Egbert Winter, a member of the faculty of Hope College was chosen to fill the unexpired term. Prof. Winter was notified immediately of his selection. The new member of the board was formerly a resident of Grand Haven and served as superintendent of the Spring Lake Schools, before he entered the Hope college faculty.

The finance committee of the various Christian Endeavor societies of the city held a meeting Thursday evening to make preparations for financing the big state convention that is to be held in Holland June 22 to 26. Although every attempt will be made to make the expenses as light as possible, the launching of so big a convention, one of the biggest ever held in Holland, will mean the expenditure of a considerable sum.

The finance committee of which R. B. Champion is chairman, adopted the policy Thursday night of not going to the merchants of Holland for donations. The money is to be raised through the various C. E. societies of the city from the members of their churches. Each society president is to be the chairman of his own finance committee and certain quotas are to be allotted to the various societies. In this way it is hoped to secure the necessary funds without much trouble.

"One more term of seven years in mission work and then I'll probably be slated for retirement," writes Miss Nellie Zwemer, who expects to return next summer to Holland on her fourth furlough. She has secured passage on the steamer which is scheduled to leave China for San Francisco in June and she plans to reach Holland about the middle of July. Miss Zwemer has nearly completed 28 years of service as a missionary in China. She is a sister of Rev. S. M. Zwemer, one of the founders of the Arabian mission, now located in Egypt. Her father, Rev. A. Zwemer, was a pioneer minister

NOT MUCH CHANCE FOR POOL ROOM LICENSE

About two or three weeks from now when the common council meets again, a person by the name of Tom Christo of Muskegon Heights is going to get bumped in regard to his application for a license to run a pool room on East Eighth street. Christo made application in the usual way, his recommendation documents being signed by the mayor of Muskegon Heights and several other city officials of that town. There was not much enthusiasm for granting the license and a motion was made to table the request, which would mean the same as pigeonholing it and killing it by neglect. Ald. Prins and Ald. Blue explained that the first warders did not like the idea of having another pool room established there.

But some of the other aldermen objected and insisted that the council should look the petition straight in the eye and either grant it or refuse it. So it was finally referred to the license committee. This committee will investigate the matter and report at the next meeting. But the prospects for favorable action do not seem bright.

An interesting meeting of the Lincoln school P.T. club was held Wednesday evening. A fine address was delivered by Prof. Egbert Winter, president of the club. Miss Marian Ingham gave two piano solos, and Mr. and Mrs. Carrier gave three comedy songs. Refreshments were served.

Before the village caucus at Saugatuck was held no one wished to run for president of the village. After the ballots had been printed, and no one was named many citizens got the fever.

Many stickers were printed and there were a dozen or more presidential candidates in the field.

Some 180 votes were cast and many of them were thrown out because the stickers were put on incorrectly.

One woman voter who has been so accustomed to pinning things pinned a sticker to the ballot and then forgot to vote on the person upon whom she had pinned her hopes.

When the votes were counted it was found that Clarence Wade was the successful slip candidate.

Herman H. Cook, who was one of the founders of the Cook Bros. Music House, has secured an interest in the Meyer Music House of Holland. When a young man, Mr. Cook was in the employ of Mr. A. H. Meyer who was at that time conducting a music business on River avenue. He learned the musical instrument business from all angles and took a course in piano tuning at Chicago while in the employ of Mr. Meyer.

In 1901 Mr. Cook went into the business on East Eighth street with his brother. They conducted a successful business for eighteen years, but closed out in June of last year, Mr. Cook feeling the need of a vacation.

Being urged by many of his friends and former patrons to reopen a music store in this city and having been approached on the subject by the Meyer Music House Mr. Cook decided after careful consideration to affiliate himself with the Meyer Music House thus practically combining the two firms.

Altho Mr. Cook is a practical piano tuner and has devoted considerable time to this line of work during the past year the piano tuning for the Meyer Music House will be taken care of as in the past by Mr. John Van Vyven. The lines of merchandise he will handle will include a number of the best makes of pianos and piano players, Victor Victrolas, New Home Sewing Machines and everything in the line of musical merchandise. Mr. Cook welcomes all his old friends to his new place of business.

A band of Muskegon Salvation Armyites was in the city soliciting funds for that organization. Miss Pardue is at the head, and the usual base drum and coronet and hooded ladies and uniformed men comprise the body who are here. Besides receiving subscriptions they also sold the "War Cry" the official paper of the Salvation Army. It is needless to say that this is a worthy organization, and much good is done that is directly felt.

Dr. H. J. Poppen has returned from Ann Arbor where he went to call on his son, Clarence, who is taking a medical course at the University of Michigan.

GRAND RAPIDS READER ENTERTAINS LITERARY CLUB

The members of the Woman's Literary Club were pleasantly entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Marial Bebe Bradley of Grand Rapids, who met with them to give a number of readings and cantellations. Her first number was "A Handful of Clay," a story with a moral, written by Henry Van Dyke. The second savored of a "glad" story, "The Angelboy," by Eleanor H. Porter, writer of the notoriously popular "Glad" books. The third number was "The Cult of the Car-drivers," a refreshingly humorous story, written by Stephen Leacock.

Mrs. Bradley's manner of reading is very pleasing and effective and she was obliged to respond to several encores.

Her coming here was due to Mrs. J. E. Kuizenga and Mrs. Wm. Olive, who were in charge of the afternoon program.

Two very charming duets were given by Mrs. Peter Van Ark and Miss Myrtle Beach, as follows: "True Fairy Land," and "Sweeter Song," by Benza. They were accompanied by Mrs. Robbins.

Preceding the program a ballot was taken for the study topic for the following year. Last year's subject "Current History, Art, and Literature," was unanimously decided on.

The January Division, under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. W. Nibbeling, reported in $69; the February division, $76, chairman, Mrs. Otto P. Kramer; the March division, $58, chairman, Mrs. M. J. Cook.

Mrs. Browning, chairman of the hospital committee reported that $140 had been cleared from the recent hospital benefit play.

Grand Rapids police have been asked by C. B. Westover of Nunica to locate his son Frederick G., 16, who disappeared from his home in Nunica early Sunday night. The boy is four and one half feet tall. When last seen he wore a gray suit, a checkered cap and black shoes and stockings. Relatives in Grand Rapids were notified of his disappearance Monday morning, but an all day search failed to result in the boy's recovery.

ALDERMAN'S CHALLENGE IS NOT ACCEPTED

A challenge to those who had made charges by implication at least that the salary of Holland's City Nurse was higher than salaries paid for similar officials in other cities was not accepted Wednesday night at the meeting of the council. During the agitation for a car for the city nurse one or two aldermen claimed that some other cities paid less.

Ald. Damstra Wednesday night made a motion that a committee get all the necessary information about nurse salaries in other cities, together with all the necessary information that would allow a comparison between the work of nurses in other cities and in Holland. He explained that in some cities, with highly specialized systems of nursing service, the work of subordinate nurses was not to be compared with the work of a nurse who has charge of a whole city, but that the comparison should be between heads of departments in the other cities and local city nurse. He declared he was confident Holland would not suffer by the comparison and he was willing to have a full and complete investigation made.

But his challenge was not accepted, the very persons who had insinuated the charges voting against it. The motion was lost. A motion for making an allowance for the upkeep of the city nurse car was passed.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS TAKES CARE OF SEVEN CHILDREN

Tuesday evening a very pleasant affair took place at 850 Pine avenue when the Sunday school class of Mrs. G. J. Diekema of Hope church were entertained.

Mrs. Diekema and Miss Lydia Rogers looked after the feature of the entertainment and an all round pleasant evening was enjoyed.

A musical program was one of the features in which Misses Ruth and Evelyn Keppel gave very pleasing vocal and violin selections.

Mrs. Robbins pleased the members of the class with several piano numbers after which the balance of the evening was taken up with games and refreshments.

Incidentally more plans were discussed relative to taking care of undernourished children. The money derived from the musical given on February 19 has been devoted to this purpose and seven children are now under the care of Mrs. Diekema's class and plans for broadening out in this field of work are contemplated by the members.

Miss Lydia Rogers, instructor in the high school is chairman of the class.

CONG. MAPES PLANS TO QUIT AS "MAYOR" OF NATION'S CAPITOL

Cong. Carl E. Mapes, of Grand Rapids returned to that city Friday for a brief visit between sessions of congress. He will go back to Washington a week ahead of the next session which is called for April 11. He is Michigan's member of the "Committee on Committees" the group which handles the all important matter of committee assignments for all members of the house, and this committee goes into session April 4 to parcel out assignments to new members and to re-assign old members.

Cong. Mapes himself has been chairman of the committee on district of Columbia for several years. In this capacity he is virtually the "Mayor" of Washington. But he feels that this field of service, while important, is essentially localized; and he expects to drop off this committee next session and take the place on the important major committee on interstate and foreign commerce which is made available by the retirement of Cong. Hamilton, Michigan's veteran, who did not stand for re-election last November. "The new administration is getting away to a fine start," said Cong. Mapes, "and believe it is going to more than satisfy the aspirations of the country. President Harding evidently intends to work in closest harmony with congress without attempting to intrude in any way upon congressional prerogatives. I believe the next congress will present the country with a great constructive program which will go far toward answering many of the pressing problems of the hour. There is very general satisfaction with the new cabinet and, all in all, I look for the most successful epoch Washington has seen in many years."

DOLLAR DAY IN HOLLAND PROVED A BIG WINNER

Merchants in Holland when they awoke at 6 o'clock on dollar day, were jubilant for the reason that the sun was just peeping up over the horizon, and this being the case, it would mean a successful business day.

Sixty minutes afterward however, their spirits were dampened because when the 7 o'clock whistle blew an unexpected drenching rain came down accompanied by a heavy wind. The rain lasted until 10:30 when clear skies were again supreme.

It did however have a retarding effect upon the country trade, as many of the roads were already in poor condition because of the recent rains and the early dollar day flood soon turned these into quagmires.

Notwithstanding this fact, after the sun began to peep out, the citizens from the rural districts began to come to town until River avenue and Eighth street were practically lined with automobiles.

In a canvass of the merchants, it was evident that they were more than pleased with the day's sales.

When they saw the rain come down, they expected nothing. But when shoppers began to flock in through the drenching downpour their spirits arose again and by the time the skies were cleared many of the merchants could not begin to handle the business that came in at the door.

At least 95 per cent of the business men seen claim a larger volume of business than was received at the previous dollar day. This in the face of the stringent commercial conditions with many men out of employment, the rain and consequent poor roads, is a remarkable record.

The enterprising merchants to a man have voluntarily given the local press credit for the thorough and systematic campaign of advertising that was launched.

Said Mr. Fred Beeuwkes, secretary of the Retail Merchants Association: "The James A. Brouwer Co. has had a most successful day. It is ever so much more satisfactory than we had expected, and especially considering the rain in the morning. In behalf of the Retail Merchants Association, I wish to thank the local press for the thorough campaign of advertising, and write-ups given this big sale's day."

Said Jacob Lokker, "The rain and bad roads of course retarded business to some extent and the lower prices of goods would make the sum total of your sales smaller. But in spite of these handicaps we are overly pleased with this dollar day. The local papers left nothing undone to make the day a success."

Henry Brink, books and stationery: "I am well satisfied."

Neal Steketee who attends to the advertising of Van Ark Furniture Co. stated, "We advertised as a special, aluminum ware at $1.19. At 7:30 the entrance to our store was jammed with purchasers standing in the rain. At 1 o'clock we were cleaned out of everything, having sold 360 pieces, and no doubt we could have sold that many more if we would have had them in stock. Mr. Henry Van Ark, the proprietor, stated that the day was very satisfactory."

Both Gerrit and Benjamin Du Mez were very enthusiastic over the day's business. They took a representative of this paper over the entire store and all departments were jammed with customers, in fact in some instances the shoppers overwhelmed the sales force. Benjamin Du Mez, the advertising man stated, "I want to go on record as commending the local newspapers for the thorough way in which the advertising was handled not alone for this day, but for every dollar day we have had thus far, free publicity has been very unselfishly given."

Dick Boter of the P. S. Boter & Co., "It is absolutely the best dollar day we have ever had in all departments. This fact is a genuine surprise to me, for I did not expect it."

John Van Tatenhove of the French Clock Store, "Rain or no rain, we had them coming from 7 o'clock until closing time. The French Clock has never had such a day before. I have watched the local papers, and wish to thank you for your efforts. These should be appreciated."

De Vries & Dornbos, —C. Dornbos, is on the committee of publicity of the Merchants' Association and he said, "I wish to express to the press of Holland my thanks for the liberal way in which they advertised this great sales day. Their efforts were reflected in the results that followed in spite of the handicaps brought about by the rain. Notwithstanding the poor roads, customers appeared at our store from as far as Richland. There were many customers from Zeeland, Fennville, Saugatuck and Ganges. We certainly have no fault to find with the day's business."

Will Winstrom of the Winstrom Electric Company, "You know I always believe in advertising, that has been the foundation of our recently established business, and the results are apparent. Yes, our day's business was most excellent. We hooverized dollar day thoroughly."

Time and space forbids us to add more names to this commentary given above by some of our wide-awake merchants. Many more could be added, but the statements of these cannot help but be reassuring that business is again perking up in Holland, that "a cloud with a silver lining" is appearing on the horizon, and that the temporary stagnation in business is rapidly disappearing.

The main thing is to believe in ourselves, meet conditions with a smile, but if you cannot smile, for pity sake, don't hang your head and whine.

Acting under the constitutional authority to limit hours of work for women, Representative Wm. Detective Ben Haven of the Pere Marquette is in the city looking for some young boys who had placed a torpedo on the crossing near the piano factory. The torpedo went off when the fast train from Chicago came over the track at that point and the engineer soon put on his brakes thinking there was danger ahead. There was nothing in sight however and the passenger pulled into Holland depot at a very moderate rate of speed. These torpedoes are used to stop trains in case of danger, and no doubt the boys found one unexploded near the track.

ELEVATOR BLAST IN CHICAGO ROCKS

OTTAWA COUNTY
The heavy explosion caused by the grain dust in the $6,000,000 grain elevator belonging to Armour & Co., shook the greater part of Western Michigan.

In Grand Haven houses were shaken, doors, windows were heard to rattle and Grand Haven folks thought that a small earthquake had taken place.

A few claim to have felt the shock in Holland, while in Benton Harbor the citizens became quite excited over the tremendous shock that was felt there.

It is believed that Lake Michigan acted as a conductor of the vibration, the impact of the blast quite vividly. In South Chicago a hundred fires were started in the neighborhood and twelve persons are known to have been killed.

Among them four bodies are still buried under the grain.

Glass was hurled over a radius of 14 miles, several persons being injured by these flying missiles, many miles away from the place where the explosion occurred.

The explosion took place just after 150 employees had quit for the day. According to one eye-witness, there were three separate explosions, the last one being the most severe. The explosions tore the entire top of the elevator off. This was of light steel and concrete construction and was designed so that in case of an explosion the force of the blast would be spent through the upper part of the elevator.

So great was the force of the blast that the tower itself was shattered. Early estimates put the property loss at $6,000,000.

In the final game of the season Holland High defeated South High of Grand Rapids by the score of 22 to 11. The game was fast thrust with Holland excelling in passing and team work. Holland also played a strong defensive game holding South to three field baskets. In the first two minutes of play Yonkman scored Holland's first basket, which was followed by another by Beuwkes. South seemed too overanxious two goals from foul during the first to rough tactics but in spite of this Holland scored five field baskets and to goals from foul during the first half. South scored 2 field baskets and three goals from foul. Score at the end of the first half, Holland 12, South 7. The second half opened with both teams playing a strong defensive game, but Holland managed to break thru the South defense several times during the last quarter and scored four field goals to one by South. Beuwkes and Boone and Yonkman scored all of Holland's field goals. Vanden Brink and Hill played a wonderful defensive game. It was the last game for Beuwkes and Yonkman as both graduate this spring.

Thursday evening witnessed the first annual poultrymen's banquet of the Zeeland Poultry Association.

During the winter just closing this association has taken on new life and has added to its membership six times as many as their original total membership before the drive was instituted. Under the leadership of George Caball, the well-known poultryman, it has grown to rank among the largest in the state with members in Holland, Grand Rapids, Grand Haven, Muskegon and other cities as well as Zeeland, Vriesland, Jamestown, Forest Grove, Drenthe and other surrounding burghs.

The banquet was held at the city hall where more than 200 men and women enjoyed the very fine supper and heard discourses on the subject of Poultry.

George Caball acted as toastmaster and presented Judge D. E. Hale of Chicago, Dr. L. E. Heasley of Grand Rapids and Rebecca Shelly, editor of the Modern Poultry Breeder of Battle Creek, the three principal speakers of the evening.

The March meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Post. Devotions were in charge of Mrs. Bleckink and program in charge of the hostess whose topic was "The W. C. T. U., the Pioneer of Women's Clubs." She said the W. C. T. U. was born at Hillsborough, O., Dec. 23, 1873, with about seventy members, and is now the greatest woman's organization in the world, having about 500,000 members in 50 different states and countries. Mrs. Willard, the real originator had the honor of being president from 1878 for twenty years. For ten years she lectured in every state, every capital and every city above 10,000 in the U. S. She had the honor and distinction of being the only woman to have a statue in the Washington Museum and also having her picture hung in so very many school rooms.

The W. C. T. U. was organized in Holland in 1877 and the local club can still boast of one charter member, Mrs. J. C. Post. The W. C. T. U. can well be called the "Mother National," because all the work that the women are really engaged in today, has sprung from this origin.

Current events were conducted by Mrs. Bleckink about movies, citizenship, and various items of interest. The music was in charge of Louis and Mary Ruth Fairbanks, who favored the club with two violin and piano duets, also a vocal duet in costume, entitled "Katherine and Sharley."

The following delegates were chosen for district convention to be held in Grand Rapids, April 6 and 7: Mrs. A. Meyer, E. J. Bleckink, B. F. Harris, N. Hofstee, J. C. Post and E. Markham; alternates, Mrs. Visscher, Alberts, St. Clair, Netzinga, Welmers and Huizinga.

Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Huizinga, Boter, Damstra and Smeenge.

MEN COME TO HOLLAND IN CHAINS

McDonald, to answer to the charge of disposing and transporting stolen automobiles from Niles, Michigan to Granger, Ind.

The deputies had the men securely handcuffed according to Federal instructions and they were taken before United States Commissioner A. Van Duren, who bound McKinley over to Federal Court under $2,000.00 bail and the other under $1,000.00 bail each.

The men failed to produce the bail bonds and were taken to the Kent county jail until the federal court meets, when they will be tried.

WEST OLIVE CHARIVARI CASE IS SETTLED

Late Friday afternoon all those young men connected with the charivari case at West Olive came into Justice Brusse's court with the complainant Mr. Hirdes and settled the whole affair.

There were some eight or ten young men whose names have already been published as being connected with the fracas, and the fines taken in by Justice Brusse collectively amounted to approximately $60.

Mr. Hirdes and the young men who threw bad eggs at him and his bride shook hands, and judging from the talk it will be some time before another charivari party is staged in Olive.

Like in Drenthe the merry makers have been fed up on this kind of sport.

MOTOR CARS IN COLLISION ON THE RIVER BRIDGE

What came near being a fatal accident occurred on the Grand Haven bridge this week when two motor cars came together and came very close to dropping from the bridge into the river. The few witnesses to the accident were horrified when the cars came together. Both were coming towards Grand Haven, and when they struck, both vehicles swung to the bridge rails, and fortunately hung there.

One of the vehicles was driven by Frank Beard of Spring Lake, and the other was the Spring Lake Bakery truck driven by Stuart Moore of Spring Lake. Mrs. Jacob Braak, who was riding in the bakery truck is said to have been thrown out but not seriously injured. Both cars were badly damaged.—G. H. Tribune.

The Zeeland Choral society, composed mainly of members of the three large Zeeland Chr. Reformed churches, rendered the sacred cantata "The Angelic Choir," by Carrie B. Adams, at the First Christian Reformed church Thursday evening under the direction of Wm. J. Brouwer of Holland.

The large church auditorium was filled to capacity at an early hour and the cantata was well received by all present.

The opening prayer was followed immediately by the cantata with the chorus "O, Praise ye the Lord." The whole was divided into fourteen numbers. Those who rendered individual parts were J. P. Staal, Jeanette Van der Werf, Winnie Jelgerma, Anna Wierma, Marianne Van Vessum, and Mrs. R. V. Barnett. Mrs. G. Telgenhof served as accompanist, while Mrs. John Pieper, rendered a piano solo during an intermission.

In the fastest and most exciting preliminary game of the season Holland High Reserves defeated South Reserved 20 to 12. The game was decided in the last five minutes of play when Oosting was substituted for Vander Poel and scored three field baskets.

"The Future of the Republic" was the subject of a truly masterful address delivered Friday evening before the monthly meeting of the Men's Bible Class of Hope church by Rev. P. P. Cheff. The meeting was held at the home of the president of the class, W. J. Olive. After the conclusion of the address many who were present expressed the desire that it might be given before a larger audience in Holland so that more people might receive the benefit from it. There were about fifty per cent at the meeting and the address stirred them to an unusual degree.

A piano solo was given by Mrs. Robbins, and a number of readings by Mrs. George Pelgrim. Dr. Gilmore led in the singing of "America" and refreshments were served.

JOHN DUNTON GIVES LOT TO NORTH SIDE BOOSTERS

John Dunton who owns the greater part of the North Side surprised the Boosters over there by giving them a lot in the Dunton addition, in order to help defray part of the expense of getting city electric lights across the bay.

The lot was sold at public auction and brought $178. The Boosters also brought up the matter of the city bridge. Considerable discussion was heard along these lines in which Nick Hoffman took a prominent part. Although no vote was taken on the proposed change of limits of Holland which involves the bridge matters, those present did not express themselves as being overly enthusiastic about the change, claiming that if the change was made the township would lose three electric lights on North River avenue, that the city is now maintaining.

It is doubtful however that the city would ever remove these lights, as in these matters the city has always co-operated with the township authorities and the maintenance of these lights are as beneficial to the city as they are to the township. If the matter of lights is the only thing that stands in the way, no doubt this can easily be adjusted by the city authorities.

TO BRING HOLLAND AND GRAND HAVEN CLOSER TOGETHER

"The Service Bus Line" is the name of a new company that has just been organized in Holland and that will begin active business on Friday of this week. This line is something the need of which has been felt for a long time. It will establish communication with Grand Haven that will be at all adequate for the first time in many years. As it is now, it is sometimes almost a day's job to get from Holland to Grand Haven and back, unless one owns a car. Traveling men have often complained that the two cities, so near to each other, are in reality about as far apart as Holland and Chicago.

But the Service Bus Line will now bring the two cities closer together. The Service Bus will make three trips a day to Grand Haven, the schedule being as follows: Leave Holland at 7:30 a. m.; 11:30 a. m.; and 3:30 p. m.; leave Grand Haven at 9:30 a. m.; 1:30 p. m. and 5:30 p. m.

The Service Bus line was organized by George Kronmeyer of this city and he stated that he expected to have the line in shape by Friday. He will go to Lansing on Tuesday to get the big Reo speed wagon with which he will start the line. This bus has a seating capacity of sixteen to twenty.

There is not an ounce of ice in the ice houses of Holland, Zeeland, Saugatuck, Douglas, and other surrounding towns and now that the winter is past so far as ice making goes, it is certain that there will not be any natural ice in those places this year. About the only place that has any natural ice is the ice house at Ottawa Beach, which was filled during the winter with five inch ice. But for the rest the ice cupboards are bare.

But this situation is not as serious today as it would have been a few years ago. Holland is equipped to supply itself with ice not only but to supply the other towns in this vicinity as well. There are now two artificial ice plants here, one in the city itself and one at the Aniline Dye Works. These two concerns can make enough ice to prevent an ice famine in this community.

The Superior Pure Ice company has a capacity of 28 tons of ice a day. Last year consumption of ice in Holland and immediate vicinity was between 25 and 26 tons. Last summer the weather was not very warm, but it is believed that even if the weather should get quite warm the coming summer enough artificial ice can be made in the Superior plant and in the Aniline plant to take care of the situation.

The Superior Pure Ice company, besides furnishing ice to the people of Holland, is also furnishing it to Zeeland, Beaverdam, Saugatuck and Douglas.

Ice of thickness of about five inches could have been secured during the winter, but the ice house men were hoping for colder weather so that the cakes would be from eight to ten inches thick. But this postponement proved fatal so far as natural ice went, as the thickness never went much beyond five inches at any time during the winter.

A few years ago this would have meant unheard of loss to the merchants and others who use a great deal of ice, but with artificial ice plants on the job, the ice famine is not expected to be serious the coming summer.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Bosch, James McLean, Carl Bigge, Dr. R. H. Nichols, Dr. R. M. Waltz are among those who attended the Rotarian convention at Saginaw.

Miss Betty Nibbelink and Miss Ruth Mulder have returned from a weekend visit with friends in Muskegon.

ON HOW THOSE PUPILS LOVE THE SKUNKS

Sixty days at hard labor in the county jail, $15 fine, and $8.15 costs was the sentence imposed by Justice Brady Friday on George Opperman of Allegan county in return for a bit of amusement which the boy all alone enjoyed. He took the stench gland from a skunk and placed it in the fresh-air conduit of the school house of district No. 6 with the result that school had to be suspended for about a week.

While the judge was rather hard on the young man judging from the talk of the scholars of that particular school, the parents of the children have an altogether different opinion of the matter. The judge might have done worse by locking the offender in the school which he had made uninhabitable.

NEW PASTOR IS SECURED BY LOCAL CONGREGATION

The seventh attempt of the 14th St. Christian Reformed church to secure a new pastor was successful when Rev. J. M. Vander Kieft of Prairie View, Iowa announced that he had accepted the call extended to him by the local congregation. The announcement was made at the services Sunday. Mr. Vander Kieft did not state when he would arrive in Holland with his family, but it is expected that he will come here in about a month to take up his new labors.

The local congregation has been without a pastor since the departure of Rev. Herman Hoeksema about a year or more ago. Mr. Hoeksema left here to accept the call of the Eastern Avenue church of Grand Rapids. Since then the 14th Street church has extended calls to 6 ministers but all of them declined. Mr. Vander Kieft was the seventh.

Mr. Vander Kieft is considered one of the most brilliant young ministers in the Christian Reformed church. He has been in the ministry about six years. He just declined two calls to Grand Rapids, and at present he was also considering a call to join the faculty of the College at Grundy Center, Iowa.

Commencement exercises for the Calvin Theological school at Grand Rapids, will be held Tuesday night, June 7. Benjamin H. Spalnik and Tmo F. J. VanHalsema, both of Grand Rapids have been chosen class orators by the faculty.

The 18 graduates, with one exception, expect to enter the ministry of the Christian Reformed church. Chas. Spoelhof of Paterson, N. J., intends to continue his studies at Princeton Theological seminary. The other members of the class are John Breuker of Holland; John De Haan, of Grand Rapids; John S. Dykstra, Holland; Benjamin Essenburg, Grand Rapids; Peter C. James George of Washington, the Netherlands; Wm. Goudberg, Grand Rapids; Cornel Holthrop, Ferrysburg; Edward Joling, Grand Rapids; Elbert Koolstra, Hull, It.; John Mendendorp, Gr. Rapids; Edward B. Pekelder, Muskegon; Ben Spalnik, Grand Rapids; Herman Vander Woude, Mc Bain; Jacob R. Van Dyke of Holland; Emo Folkert, Johan Van Halsema, Grand Rapids; F. H. Wezeman of Chicago.

The annual business meeting of the Hope College Y. M. C. A. was held Tuesday night in Winants Chapel and the following officers were elected: president, Winsford Burggraaf; vice president, Dyke Van Putten; secretary, Jay Elbers; treasurer, Jerry De Vries.

The association is in a flourishing condition and the various committees brought in favorable reports. The Y. M. C. A. is the largest organization upon the campus.

The Kent county board of county road commissioners have taken steps to prevent serious motor accidents upon Kent county roads by the elimination of rail crossings from their new projects. This is following in the footsteps of the Ottawa county commission, which some time ago took the same precautionary methods to avoid rail accidents.

Already this policy to avoid rail crossings has resulted in the elimination of many dangers of the road. The short cut which is now being built on the West Michigan Pike to West Olive is an example of one of these roads, from which the menace of the rail crossing has been removed. Beyond West Olive there is still a bad crossing however.

In the vicinity of Jenison, the new projects call for the elimination of several bad rail crossings and the saving of many miles of roads besides. This has always been a bad section for motor drivers and utmost care is needed to avoid accident. Both the Pere Marquette and the Michigan Railway electric cars cross through this district. Last year there were accidents at Andre's crossing, where interurban cars hit autos.

In and around Zeeland there are also several bad crossings, where utmost caution must be observed. Right in the city of Zeeland last year a terrible accident occurred, which resulted in the death of Mrs. C. Roosenraad and her daughter.

Interurban and Grand Trunk crossings in the north and eastern section of the county also endanger motorists. There have been several bad accidents at Nunica and at Coopersville, and a number of people have been hurt. The projects now being worked out by the Ottawa county board will eliminate considerable of the danger of the drive through from Grand Haven to Grand Rapids.

Prof. Bruno Meinecke who was granted a leave of absence for a year in order to take up postgraduate work at the University of Michigan is visiting in Holland. Prof. Meinecke is the head of Latin at Hope college.

HOLLAND WINS LONG STRUGGLE FOR GUARD UNIT

The long, hard struggle for a National Guard unit in Holland came to a triumphant conclusion Tuesday evening when the local unit passed the inspection in the temporary armory on the second floor of the Wolverine Garage. There were 57 men in the outfit when the roll was called, and all passed the inspection.

It was way back in October, 1919, that Henry Geerds began on the organization of this unit. Tuesday night was a crucial time for the Unit because of the fact that if Holland had failed in the inspection there were a number of other cities eager to secure the honor, and then it would have taken several years before Holland would have had another chance. The passing of inspection and the establishment of the National Guard here means that in perhaps two or three years Holland will have an armory.

Col. Bersey, Adjutant General of Michigan, and Major Gievers, of the 9th Corps Area, inspector general for Michigan were here for the inspection. Twenty minutes after Major Gievers Inspector General for Michigan, was here for the inspection to be held in the Wolverine Garage the inspection of the men had been completed. It consisted in calling the roll and making a general inspection of the appearance of the men. Major Gievers stated that although he was not in the habit of throwing bouquets he considered the men here the finest bunch he had inspected in Michigan for some time. Judging from appearances, he said, there was no reason why Holland should not have a unit equal to any in the state.

The next two and a half hours were taken up in examining the papers of the men, but so carefully had Mr. Geerds checked up the documents that not a single correction was found necessary. Major Gievers stated that there was no doubt but that the official notice of the establishment of the Unit would come from Washington in about five days and that the equipment would arrive in about two weeks.

Both Col. Bersey and Major Gievers were well pleased with the location and thanked the proprietors of the Wolverine Garage for allowing the use of the quarters for so nominal a consideration.

Following is a list of the men in the outfit. The different non-commissioned grades will not be announced until permanent disposition can have been made. The policy will be to have each man rise on his merits alone.

The officers are Henry A. Geerds, John Bremer and Oscar W. Johnson. The enlisted men are Adrian Alberda, Peter Alberda, Ernest E. Bear, Harold J. Berkel, Clarence Berkman, Floyd O. Boereman, Albert T. Bos, Richard Brandt, Bert Colton, George E. Colton, Franklin L. Dally, Jacob De Boe, Cornelius A. Dinkse, Chester Dykhuis, Thomas Efting, Roy F. Fabiano, Gerrit J. Geerds, Lester C. Hertz, Melvin L. Hertz, Martin Japings, Walter G. Johnson, Charles Knoll, Louis Kolean, Albert Lamberts, Arthur Marcotte, Lawrence J. Masse, John H. Meyer, Harry Mouw, Willis H. Mulder, Clarence O'Connor, Clarence Olin, Gerrit H. Paddemers, Johan Paddemers, John Reidema, Henry J. Rowan, Donald Rypma, Richard Scholten, Albert Schreur, Martin Siegers, Robert F. Simonsen, Bertal H. Slagh, Arthur Smith, Marinus M. Spruit, Leonard Steketee, Lewis W. Taylor, Homer Ten Cate, Peter Huinams, Floyd E. Van Anrooy, Gerrit J. Van Doornick, James E. Van Dort, Cornell Vischer, John Vos, Harry J. Weudtke, Roy E. Young, Charles T. Zeerip, Clarence M. Zuidewind, Daniel Zwemer.

Members of the Woman's Literary Club Tuesday were enabled to enjoy the contents of a magazine. First they admired the frontispiece children dancing around a may-pole. Could the originals of various magazine advertisements have seen their representatives in Holland, great would have been their envy.

Roger's silver, Fairy Soap, Van Realte Veils, Jello, Baker's Chocolate, Campbell's soups, Old Dutch Cleanser, Kellogg's Corn Flakes, Aunt Jimmie's Pancake Flour, and San Tox, each had its living advertisement. The San Tox adv. was a moving picture, for packets of face powder were thrown out to the audience.

The music department was represented by John Lloyd Kollen and by two vocal selections given by Mrs. Arthur Vischer, accompanied by Mrs. Vanden Broek.

The short story was "Mrs. Tim's Courtship," first as told by herself, Mrs. Page; second as told by her daughter Bridget, Mrs. Harris Meyer and read by Mrs. Robert De Pree; finally as told by Jan Kasse and conclusion, Mrs. Henry Winter.

The success of the magazine feature was due to the management of Mrs. W. G. Winter.

Miss Ross asked that the club go on record as favoring the Teachers' annuity bill.

Mrs. E. G. Feedback became a new associate member of the club.

At a congregational meeting of the Third Reformed church Tuesday evening a call was extended to Rev. James Martin, of Hudson, N. Y. Rev. Martin was in Holland a week or two ago and conducted the services at that church. The Third Reformed church has been without a pastor since the Rev. M. Flipse left Holland for Seattle a few months ago.

FIFTY EXCHANGEITES GO TO GRAND RAPIDS

The Exchangeites special interurban car left Gr. Rapids on schedule time at 5:15 Monday night containing between fifty and sixty exuberant, optimistic and enthusiastic members of the Holland club.

At Hotel Pantlind they joined the members of the Grand Haven, Muskegon and Grand Rapids clubs and at 8 o'clock sharp, over four hundred sat down to a real banquet served by the above named popular hostelry.

Holland came in for several special stunts, with our famous saxophone quartet making a decided hit. The blowers of these pipe-like instruments are Messrs. Harry Wilson, J. Van Vyven, Clarence Lokker and K. Gilbert.

Leader John Van Vyven was also prominent in the community singing which added considerable pep to the evening's festivities.

Grand Haven was represented by a quartet of wild Fiji Islanders, which went big with the jubilant audience.

Grand Rapids and Muskegon made their debut with a male chorus each, so you can readily see that there was music galore.

When it comes to oratory, Holland need take no back seat for any city. Our own Neil Vander Meulen made the hit of the evening and repeatedly, when a climax was reached cheers went up from all Exchangeites present.

The committee in charge had made arrangements to have on hand a gong that would ring after the speaker had reached his time limit. He was given a certain period in which to expound his thoughts and ideas, in fact the speeches were to go by rounds, each speaker being limited to one 7-minute round, when time would have meant a knock-out and a bell would have been instrumental in leaving many bright ideas unsaid. But apparently the timekeeper was so enthused and imbued with the thoughts that came from the lips of several speakers, that the bell failed to function and the orators went over the limit.

The banquet was opened with prayer by Rev. Paul P. Cheff, of Hope church.

Members of the local Club are loud in their praises of the welcome received at the Furniture City and speak highly of the service received at the hands of the management of Hotel Pantlind.

One of the finest linoleum displays ever shown in this city is now on exhibit in the show window of the Jas. A. Brouwer Co. The display shows the evolution of a piece of linoleum from the original raw material to the finished product. All the materials that go into the making of linoleum are shown, such as cork from trees in India, flax grown in some other country, cements, glues, dyes, etc.

Chunks of cork in their native state as they come from the trees are shown and all the other raw materials are in their untouched condition. A number of interesting photographs are shown, giving a clear idea of how the linoleum is made and how the raw materials are gathered in various parts of the world. A large number of samples of the finished products of Armstrong linoleums are also exhibited. The window was trimmed by A. Buter.

The first Mothers' and Daughters' banquet that was ever held in Holland, was pulled off at the Trinity Church parlors Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Young Ladies' League for Service. The League is divided into two sections and this innovation being introduced by the one is designed primarily to raise funds for missions. Over 150 attended the banquet which proved to be a marked success. The church parlors were artistically decorated in pink and white. Every member took a share in launching this banquet in a fitting way of donations or work. Mrs. Albers was in charge of the refreshments, with a handsome crew of Hope students assigned for serving.

A program was arranged which was highly appropriate to the occasion. Mrs. Meengs opened with prayer. Mrs. C. P. Dams was the toastmistress and spoke in complimentary terms of the work done by the league. Mrs. Dams voiced the reason for the gathering, and emphasized the necessity of good fellowship between the mothers and daughters. Other numbers on the program were greeted with a hearty applause and follow: vocal solo "Mamie Dear," Miss Boland; toast, "Our Mothers," Miss Janet Schoon; toast, "Our Daughters," Mrs. Osewaarde; piano solo "A la bien Aimee," by Edward Schult; Miss Susanna Hamelink; readings, Miss Cora De Witt; vocal solo, "Mother Macbrree," Miss Helene Vander Linde; musical reading, "That little old fashioned girl," Miss Magdeleine De Young; address, "Mothers and Daughters in Japan," Mrs. Walvoord. The meeting was closed with the singing of the doxology. A few flash light pictures were taken and will be put on sale to help increase the funds of the League.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry TeRoller spent the week-end with relatives in Lansing. Mr. TeRoller attended a banquet for Home Coming of M. A. C. Athletes and the Alumni Varsity basketball game.

Peter Brusse was in Battle Creek Monday to attend a big government sale at Camp Custer.

Petitions are being circulated in Grand Haven, which will be presented to the Gr. Haven city council at the earliest session of that body, asking for a referendum vote on the change of local time from Central to Eastern Standard. The advocates of the referendum want the city council to act in the petitions in time to have the matter submitted to the voters at the coming spring election, on April 4.

VOTERS SETTLE GAS QUESTION AT THE POLLS

Not a single ward in the city gave the question of purchasing the Holland City Gas Works a majority at the election on Tuesday. In order to carry the proposition had to secure three-fifths of the votes, but not a single ward in the city even gave it a majority of the votes. The decision against the purchase of the plant was so unequivocal that it is doubtful if the matter will come up for consideration again for many years. Even the voters of the Fifth and Sixth wards do not want to buy the Holland City Gas Works, as is shown by their votes. In both of these wards, where the sentiment for buying the gas plant was supposed to be strong, more votes were registered against it than for it.

The charter amendment also was lost by a big margin. The two propositions went together and the amendment fared somewhat better than the purchase of the gas plant proposal. There were three wards in the city that gave the amendment a favorable vote so far as majority of votes was concerned. The total vote for the purchase of the gas plant was 708 and the total no vote was 1167. The total yes vote for the charter amendment was 831 and the total no vote 1028.

On the purchase of the gas plant the vote by wards was as follows, the wards coming in the order given:

Wards	Yes	No
169	315	169
41	60	41
86	208	86
105	239	105
188	203	188
119	142	119

On the charter amendment the vote by wards was as follows:

Wards	Yes	No
149	346	149
42	57	42
172	111	172
136	201	136
118	140	118

There has been very little agitation during the campaign in regard to the gas question. Interest in the matter was not great as is shown by the fact that only 1875 people in the city took the trouble to come out and express an opinion on it while the voting population is well in excess of 4500.

There were a number of offices voted on at the primaries Tuesday on which there was no contest. Hence the men who ran for nomination in those offices won not only nomination but election also.

Richard Overweg was re-elected as city clerk by a total vote in all the wards of 1,722.

Henry A. Geerds was re-nominated and re-elected by a vote of 1,645 in the six wards of the city for city treasurer.

Jay H. Den Herder had no opposition for the office of justice of the peace, and his total vote was 1,507.

In the contest for the office of city assessor Casper W. Nibbelink won easily over Jack Blue, the latter receiving a majority only in his own ward, the first. Nibbelink's total was 1136 and Blue's 623.

Walter Lane was the only man up for the office of member of the board of public works and his total vote was 1,494.

Henry Vander Warf and Edward Vanden Berg were the only two running for member of the board of supervisors for two years but since two had to be named, both were elected, Vander Warf receiving 1,148 votes, and Vanden Berg 1,217.

Jack Schouten had no opposition for the office of member of the board of police and fire commissioners for five years. His total vote was 1,421. There were three candidates for police board member for four years, Gerard Cook, J. B. Hadden and John Arendshorst. Cook's vote was 692, Hadden's 448, and Arendshorst 511. Not one of the three having received over 50 per cent of the total vote cast, and each one having received more than 25 per cent, all three will have a place on the ticket.

In view of all these elections on primary day, there will be practically nothing to vote on in the election in April. The only things left to decide so far as city affairs go are the alderman in the sixth ward and member of the police board for four years, everything else having been decided.

Contractor Mart Oudemool is remodeling and building an addition for E. J. White at 220 West 8th-st. Grading is being done on the lot and the garage when finished will be occupied by Whites taxi and baggage line.

There will be only one contest for the election of an alderman in the spring election in April. All the other aldermen were chosen at the primaries on Tuesday. The single exception is the case of the sixth ward, where Arie Vander Hill and Jacob Sprang will fight it out in the election both having received the required twenty-five per cent of the total vote cast for the office that gives the right to place the name on the election ballot. A curious fact about this ward is that the present incumbent of the office Paul Vanderlist lacked only four votes of having the right to be on the ticket also.

In the first ward there was a hard fight on between Alderman Prins and Albert P. Kleis. The contest in this ward excited perhaps more interest than that of any other ward in the city. Practically the entire city was watching this fight during the day. But Peter Prins again won the office with the greatest of ease. Mr. Prins polled a total of 330 votes, while his opponent, Mr. Kleis polled 185.

In the second ward Alderman F. Brieve had no opposition. His total vote was 72. There was also no opposition to Nick Kammeraad in the 3rd ward. He won re-nomination and re-election by a vote of 254.

In the fourth ward William Lawrence, the present incumbent, easily won re-nomination and re-election by defeating Anthony Van Ry. Lawrence was given a vote of 215, while Van Ry's vote was 122.

In the fifth ward there was considerable of a contest, three men making an effort to win the office. But the present alderman in that ward, Charles Dykstra, won hands down, securing more than fifty per cent of the entire vote cast and thus winning re-nomination not only but re-election as well. Mr. Dykstra polled 210, Henry M. Boeve 118; Peter F. Koopman 66.

The vote in the sixth ward was as follows: Arie Vander Hill, 121; Jacob Sprang 87; Paul Vander List, 64.

The following was the vote on constables: First Ward, David O'Connor, no opposition; second ward, Louie Bouwman, 67; Leonard De Witt (on slips) 17; third ward, Gerrit Van Haften 118, Herman A. Beekman 63, Dick Homkes 81; 4th ward, John Homfeld 149, George Raffenaud, 167; 5th ward, C. Dornbos 294, Bertus Streur 83; 6th ward Peter Wierda, 212.

The total vote in the city Tuesday was only 1962. The totals in the wards were: First, 528; Second, 105; Third, 294; Fourth, 352; Fifth, 402; Sixth, 281.

TO HOLD STRAW VOTE ON NEW GAS PLANT

Now that the proposal to buy the Holland City Gas Works has been definitely voted down by the people of Holland, shall the city of Holland build a new gas plant?

That is a question that Mayor E. P. Stephan and the common council want answered. And they are going to make an attempt to get it answered at the April election. The answer will necessarily be informal and will have no binding character, but it will at least be an answer. In other words a "straw vote" is to be taken on this question in April. The council will draw up a plain ballot requesting the people to express their opinion as to whether the council shall proceed to have plans and specifications drawn up to erect a new plant. A motion to this effect was passed by a vote of seven to five.

It was made very clear that the "straw vote" will be merely to clear the atmosphere. It is understood that many charges were made during the campaign just ended that the people were not in favor of buying the old plant but that they would be in favor of building a new plant. To make certain whether there is anything in those charges or not and to clear the decks so far as the gas issue is concerned, the "straw vote" will be held. Then if the people turn down the issue, the time will be ripe for the fifth and sixth warders who want gas to petition for it to the common council and steps will be taken through the usual channels, such as the Michigan Utilities Commission, to furnish them with gas.

Ald. Damstra called attention to the fact that a year ago Mayor E. P. Stephan had promised the fifth and sixth wards he would do all he could to get gas to them. On Tuesday more than half of the people were asleep on the subject, Mr. Damstra declared, since less than half of the voters came out to express an opinion. But now the alternative proposition should be placed before them informally so that that issue could be cleared out of the way.

Mayor Stephan declared that he stood by that statement of last year. He said he was satisfied with the way the question was decided in Tuesday's election and he intimated that he was not in favor of erecting a new building. But in view of the fact that there was much loose talk about many people being ready and anxious to vote for a new plant, he thought it wise to give the people the chance. And after that issue has been cleared away, if the people vote it down, he is ready to do all he can to meet the issue of the 5th and 6th wards to get gas through the ordinary channels.

PITCHING PENNIES DON'T PAY IN HOLLAND

It was a case of "heads I win, tails you lose," by five young men who were caught by Chief Van Ry at pitching pennies in the Holland Interurban station.

The employees of the interurban called the Chief's attention to the fact that this was going on, and he immediately arrested Clifford Avery, Fred Wendell, Al McCarthy, Elmer Rubb, and Raymond Armbruster.

They were arraigned before Justice Den Herder, where they pleaded guilty and were fined $1.50 with $2.70 costs and were given a lecture by the austere judge on the evils of gambling.

BOYS ARE COMING IN TO PAY THEIR FINES

The serenaders from West Olive, for whom warrants were issued by Justice Brusse are coming in and pleading guilty.

Ben De Witt appeared late Tuesday evening, and laid down $5 fine and $6 costs.

Others expected on Thursday are John Kral, Charles Rouwhorst, Clarence Prins, and Andrew Knoll, all of West Olive.

The arrest is the result of Charivari No. 2 a la Drenthe which occurred at the home of Edwin Hirdes and his young bride at Olive Center about a month ago which was reported in this paper at that time.

The young fellows demanded $10 from the groom but were only offered half that much and as a result, hen fruit followed in the wake of the newly married couple, who were going to their home.

MAN WHO HANGED HIMSELF WAS CHEERFUL TO THE LAST

John Zacharias of Agnew, well known in this city who was found hanging to a rafter in his garage did a thing that the family did not expect.

Members of the family told the coroner that the man was in good spirits the night before he committed suicide and that there was nothing about his manner to arouse suspicions as to the step he must have contemplated.

He played cards with the family during the night and seemed to enjoy himself thoroughly. He talked reassuringly about the coming examination that would deal with the arson charges brought against him and members of his family, and had full faith in the belief that he would be exonerated in court. The dead man left no statement or note, giving reasons for taking his life. Officers are inclined to believe however, that he probably brooded over his recent arrest on the arson charge.

While members of his family stated to the coroner that he claimed not to be worrying over the case, several times stating that they had nothing on him, his wife worried considerably over the affair, and this made him despondent.

While there is nothing to show that the Agnew man had contemplated suicide for any length of time, there were evidences that he had gone about the preparations for taking his life with considerable care. The rope used was a clothes line doubled to hold his weight and was thrown over a rafter in the garage. He had evidently stood upon a block while he fastened it about his neck, kicking the block away from under him.

Death came within a very few seconds no doubt, as he was a heavy man. It is not believed that the act was committed very long before the discovery of his body was made by Mrs. Zacharias.

HOLLAND NOT YET THINKING OF TIME SAVING THIS SPRING

Although several cities have already begun preparations for the adoption of eastern time, as a means of securing more daylight, no organized movement has been made as yet in Holland in that direction. The first of April is approaching and it is likely that the advocates of the plan will begin activity within a short time leading towards the changing of the clocks in this city. Last year Holland went under eastern time, the 17th of April under a resolution passed by the city council.

The council took the action in response to a petition signed by business men and the workers of the factories. No ordinance was created to this effect, and the schedule was put into effect under a resolution. The clocks were shifted back in the fall.

The Eastern time schedule seems to be popular here, and the steps for adopting it are awaiting only the leadership of some of those who were interested in putting it across last year. For the clerks in the stores, and the men employed in shops, the advanced time is particularly convenient. With the factories closing at five and the stores at 5:30 in the evening, several hours of daylight still remain for recreation to those who worry during the day.

Last summer twilight baseball was tried out for the first time. During the latter part of the season baseball games were started at shortly after 6, and finished up in plenty of time before darkness settled down. These were the best attended games of the season, and the plan proved a great success. Local fans have been calling for more twilight games this season.

The extra hour of daylight proved a big boon for those who like a few hours fishing and other forms of recreation in the evening. There were many picnics last summer in the evening after stores and factories closed, and the bathing beaches all along Lake Michigan in the vicinity of Holland were well populated on hot evenings.

The inconvenience of the double time system is not great, it has been found. The railways and steamboat lines, of course operate as usual on Central time, which is just one hour slower than the Eastern time. It is easy to avoid confusion, and as most of the surrounding cities use local or Eastern time, there is little confusion.

There is but little time left before the first of April, when most cities change, and if the advocates of the fast time hope to have the new schedule started on time, they will have to begin active work with their petitions rather soon.

Grand Rapids has an ordinance which changes the time automatically on the first of April; unless that ordinance is repealed before that time, the day-light saving schedule will change as a matter of course.

Men in the shops are already talking for the change and some of the factory hands have called up asking when it would be advisable to bring the matter up.

It seems that a vast majority enjoy this hour at night and are anxious to make the change, and therefore without undue agitation why not change when the Grand Rapids ordinance changes the time in that city? Grand Haven it is said, will make the change at that time and Muskegon is to follow. These cities are closely allied; therefore why not make the change when our neighbors decide to do so and let it go at that? This cooperation will avoid a great deal of confusion and a lot of argument.

Cornelius Van Andel of Grand Rapids who will be graduated next summer from the Michigan State Normal college at Ypsilanti has accepted the appointment from the Christian High school at Holland.

HOLLAND WILL NEED A NEW FIRE TRUCK SOON

CHIEF BLOM TO SEE PUMPER TEST IN MUSKEGON TODAY

The time is not very far distant, not over a year or two at least when Holland will need another motor fire truck.

The old, but faithful horses have nearly seen the end of their services, and surely the city would never take a step backward by buying two new ponies instead of the more modern fire equipment.

What Holland needs is another good pumper, even larger than the one at Engine House No. 1. This apparatus has done such remarkable service both inside and outside of town that its merits are well established. Holland being located as it is with 90 per cent of its manufacturing plants on the lake, it is evident and surely good business policy and remarkable fire insurance to have a machine that can throw two or three streams directly from the lake by its own power, and thus conserve our regular water supply from the hydrants.

A pumper would only cost a couple thousand dollars more than a machine without this addition, and would not alone afford us better protection for our plants, along the lake, but for the factories on the North Side and also our resorts which are essentially Holland.

In Muskegon today the fire department is installing a 750 gallon pumper American LaFrance make, similar to the one in Holland, only larger, and the mayor and chief of Muskegon have invited Chief Blom and the Board of police and fire commissioners to come down and see the test made. The chief has also invited ex-mayor Henry Brusse, and former Commissioner Ben Mulder to watch the test. These two commissioners were largely instrumental in purchasing the two trucks we now have and consequently the invitation was extended.

Those of the commission who went this morning were John Rutgers, John Dykstra, Aldermen Peter Damstra, Jack Blue, Nick Kammeraad, Charles Dykstra, Wm. Lawrence, Frank Brive and Chief Blom.

MAPLE SUGAR IS SHORT; SEASON IS TOO MILD

Climatic conditions this season have caused Michigan's maple sugar production to fall far below that of other years according to F. N. Sanford of the state farm bureau's forestry department. The early spring has caused buds to swell and stopped production of sugar, Mr. Sanford says. The season ended for some producers during the first week in March. The sugar season this year has been unusual in that it began about the first of the year, according to Mr. Sanford. The early season did not make up for the production loss by the early coming of spring weather, however, according to the forestry department head.

The Ottawa county circuit court opened its March term at the court house with Judge Cross presiding. The opening session of the term was called at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon and practically the entire afternoon was taken up in calling of the cal-

PROF. MEINECKE CONTRIBUTES TO U. OF M. VOLUMES

Prof. Bruno Meinecke, head of the department of Latin at Hope College who is spending a year at the University of Michigan doing postgraduate work and also teaching, is working on a thesis which is of unusual interest in many ways. It is expected the thesis will be ready for the publishers by June. It will comprise one phase of special pathoscopic investigations, and so is a medical study dealing with diseases and pestilence to be found in classical antiquity. The medical profession is turning more and more to historical data for a clearer understanding of modern conditions, and for various reasons this field has not been properly studied. Though Prof. Meinecke's thesis will deal primarily with tuberculosis, he has made a complete study of the entire ancient field of medicine, and expects to publish other material later on.

In addition to this work he is contributing several chapters to a large scientific work. Dr. Victor Vaughan, Dean of the University Medical School, has invited him to write the several historical chapters of his ambitious work on endemic diseases, which will consist of five or six volumes.

Prof. Meinecke's part is concerned only with the Greek and Roman History of these different diseases, and the volume on tuberculosis is already in the publisher's hands.

MORE THAN THIRTY PERSONS WANTED THE SAME HOUSE

The scarcity of homes in Holland was vividly illustrated by the experience of one real estate man who placed an advertisement in the Sentinel Monday that he had a house to rent. The paper appeared on the streets at about 4:30 but before the real estate man went to bed Monday night he had received over 30 applications for renting the house, and Tuesday morning the applicants continued to come.

With building material coming down and the cost of labor also returning to a more normal mark, it would appear that such a scarcity of houses might mean brisk building operations during the coming season.

The class of 1921 of Hope College has announced "Nothing but the Truth" as the annual play to be presented this spring. The class has taken the pains and trouble to find a play that is popular and one that will find favor with the Holland people. In doing so a queer coincidence occurred. Both Mr. John J. DeBoer and Mr. A. Cloetingh, head of the Pennsylvania State Dramatics club were consulted, and both recommended the same play. The men are Hope graduates and have acquired a reputation for distinction in dramatic work. "Nothing But the Truth," is a comedy of no little note, and has played in New York for an entire season.

The cast contains eleven characters and includes some of the best material at Hope. A number of the cast are experienced in dramatic work. "Bud" De Wolf, who took the part of the hero in "The Fortune Hunter," will be due to bloom in "Nothing but the Truth."

The cast has been selected as follows: Bob Bennett, hero, "Bud" De Wolf; Gwen, heroine, Vera Keppel; E. M. Ralston, father of heroine, Jud Oosterhof; Mrs. Ralston, Helene Van Raalte; Bishop Doran, friends of Ralston, Francis Ihrman; Clarence Van Dusen, stocks salesman, Bert Van Ark; Dick, sec. of Ralston, Evert Flikkema; Ethel Clark, friend of Gwen, Glenna Wasson; Mabel-Gertrude Pieters, Sabel-Margaret Peet, Maid-Mabelle Mulder, chorus girls.

GRAND HAVEN HAS HAD OTHER "SHIMMIES"

In referring to the shock that Grand Haven city recorded Saturday night when the Armour grain elevator blew up at South Chicago, the Grand Haven Tribune tells of another occasion when the county seat got the shakes.

"Grand Haven had a similar earthquake something like ten years ago, when a big powder mill near Kenosha, Wis., blew up. The atmospheric tremors were conducted across the lake, and buildings here shook violently. Because Saturday's disturbance was so similar in character, many felt that the shock was due to a similar cause, but were surprised to learn that the explosion was so far away."

"HOOTCH" WAGON CANNOT BE FOUND BY POLICE

Somebody thought that the new beer regulation according to the Attorney General's ruling was already in vogue in Holland, and that the amber brew was already being delivered by the case to those families who needed a health tonic. Tuesday at the corner of River and 12th St. a package of liquor dropped off and a trail of it was seen along the street and it wasn't long before the rumhounds got their bearing by sniffing the air. They hastily brought their findings to the chief of police who was told that a swiftly running automobile had swung into River avenue, and a half dozen different stories were told of how the bus wagon was leaking, how some bottles were found in the street at that point and that the liquor smelled like old Scotch. The chief hastily sent the motorcycle "hootch" wagon, but the minion of the law not having smelled or tasted liquor for "Oh, so long," was handicapped. In trailing the breeze. Samples of the liquor taken up were thoroughly examined by the officers and it was finally decided that the stuff with a stick in it was a batch of hard cider.

On Wednesday evening, April 13, the Longfellow P-T club will present the play "Deacon Dubba" in Holland High school. This comedy with a rural setting is one of the most amusing ever put on by local talent. It has a cast of ten characters, the five ladies' parts being taken by the teachers of Longfellow school, and the men by members of the P-T club. The players are being coached by Miss Ethelyn Metz and that and the fact that the title role is taken by Mr. Wm. E. Vander Hart insures a good play. "Deacon Dubba" was chosen this year by one of the high schools of the state as a Senior and

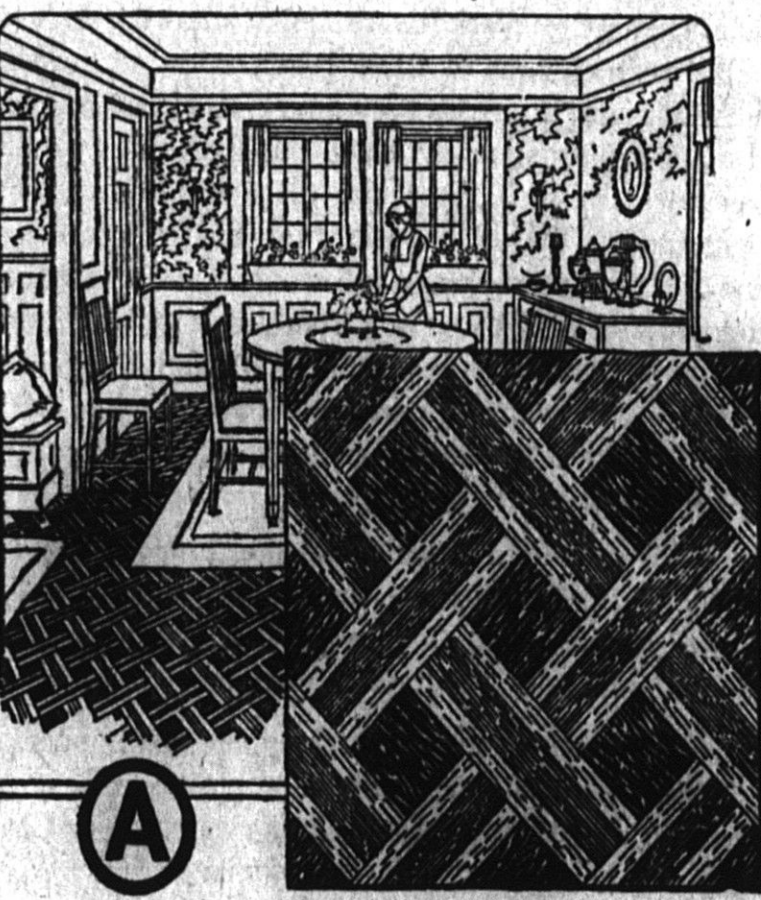

What was pronounced by those who witnessed it as perhaps the best local talent play given in Holland for years was presented before the Century Club Tuesday evening when that organization met in the Woman's Literary Club hall. It was guest night and the hall was well filled with members and their friends.

The play was entitled "The Florist Shop," and it was the unusually fine acting of Miss Anna Kolyn, the star of the cast, and the almost equally strong work of most of the others who took part that gave this production a distinction and a finish that is not often met with in plays produced by players other than professionals.

The members of the cast were Miss Kolyn, C. H. Mc Bride, Vernon Ten Cate, Evelyn DeVries, and S. R. Mc Lean. "The Florist Shop" is a one-act play and the story is marked by an extreme simplicity that gives performers of real ability a good chance for shadings of character delineation but that would be fatal to players who depend on action for effectiveness. Miss Kolyn, as an attendant in the florist shop, plays the role of cupid for a couple who have been engaged for fifteen years. The parts of this couple were taken by Miss Evelyn DeVries and S. R. Mc Lean. It was through the benevolent machinations of the flower shop attendant that the dilatory lover was brought to the point of marriage. Miss DeVries' difficult part was very well done and Mr. McLean also played his rather brief role with effectiveness.

Vernon Ten Cate as the boy of all work in the florist shop was a triumph of realistic acting and C. H. Mc Bride as the proprietor of the shop, gave an excellent account of himself, even to the extent of giving a creditable imitation of the brogue of the character cast for the part.

The program was in charge of Mrs. G. J. Diekema and Mrs. S. R. Mc Lean, with Mrs. Diekema presiding and announcing the talent. Before and after the play excellent music was furnished by the Hope College orchestra under the direction of Mr. Weed, of the department of music. Dr. G. W. Van Verst, vice president of the club, had charge of the meeting.
