A Six Weeks' Tour Over Land and Sea

Dr. Brower Tells of His Trip in the West Indies and Caribbean Sea

PORTO RICO

According to the rules of the high seas, a pilot met us out at sea in a small boat accompanied with a band giving us some welcoming musical airs, wending up with "Home, Sweet Home." Someone remarked, "Why bring that up now, we want to be happy, not sad," and so it was. This island is under the protection of the United States of America and was discovered by Christopher Columbus in 1493. It is 108 miles long, its total area is 3,350 square miles, population 1,600,000. Mountainous, a low range of mountains extending through its greatest length; the highest peak is 3,600 feet.

San Juan, where we disembarked, is the capital. It has a beautiful landlocked harbor but not deep enough for our big vessel to dock so we anchored outside and went ashore by tenders. The island is represented in the Congress of the United States by a resident commissioner. Theodore Roosevelt, son of the late "Teddy," is its present governor. Historic Morro Castle, which was erected between 1539 and 1584 is a very interesting place, now used as a military school. It still forms a noble example of an old Spanish walled city. I went up to the very top of the light house located on the highest promontory. It was a hard climb, I do not care to do it again.

It is noteworthy that though the elaborate fortifications existing in 1898 were obsolete, they suffered no material damage by the modern guns of the United States fleet during the Spanish-American War. At many places the scars made by Sampson's shells were pointed out to us. Walls are over 24 feet thick.

Not far from the Morro is the Casa Blanca, the old castle of Ponce de Leon, founder of the city. Kindly bear in mind that practically all these Greater and Lesser Antilles islands were discovered by Columbus long before America was found. The castles and cities are ancient compared to those of America. The official residence of the Governor is a large pale blue building called the Santa Catalina Palace. At another place a most beautiful cemetery, most gorgeous monuments, the like I have never seen anywhere, unless it's the ancient cemetery at the Acropolis at Athens before Christ. Remember very well the marble statue of a lamb on a pedestal some 30 feet high, that artists and sculptors from all over the world make copies from. Now to have a marker in this cemetery in San Juan would require almost a fortune. Only the rich can have them. The poor go to the bone yard, and no monuments or markers; we even saw an open pit with bones lying all around like we saw in the catacombs at Rome. Many burials still take place in niches like in ancient days to save expense.

The city is clean and well cared for, has several spacious plazas with wonderful statues. A beautiful statue of Columbus in one of them. The climate is exceptionally favorable being only a few degrees within the tropics.

Under the Spanish regime coffee was the principle industry, but since the American occupation, sugar is first, which is admitted into the United States free of duty. Coffee, a good list, hurricanes are apt to occur. The last severe one was in 1899, doing very much destruction to sugar and tobacco plantations.

There are over a thousand miles of perfect automobile highways in Porto Rico. We motored over the great Military Road, constructed from San Juan over the mountains into the interior by the Spanish conquerors in the 16th century. It is one of the world famous feats of engineering, and the main artery of travel on the island where the traveler sees all sorts of conditions of men, animals and motor cars in the course of a day's journey. The road beds are nearly always 6 to 12 feet below the sides, making them perfectly safe, earthy barriers, so high that it's almost impossible to precipitate over cliffs.

The roads are passable all the year around as snow never appears there. Always warm and balmy weather. They have a rainy season like in California, but not the dry season.

The soil is unusually fertile, not a volcanic ash, but plain, rich earth. The great cathedral, finished in 1549, is one of the points of interest while a number of the other old churches contain richly jeweled altars and priceless paintings by old masters. Many charming suburban residential districts passed on the Military Road, through great tobacco districts. We saw no barren mountains; all covered with tobacco, way to the very top. The chief industry is agriculture and the principle products are sugar, coffee, rice, tobacco, salt, corn, oranges, pineapples, sweet potatoes, bananas and other tropical fruits. Some cotton is grown. Beef cattle are raised in large numbers. Considerable lumbering. There are over 500 varieties of trees growing on the island.

The guide of our car was a native of Spanish extraction, a very fine fellow, a senior law student. He will study next year at the University of Michigan, and then study international law. He conducted us through sugar mills and schools. We visited hospitals; I remember one very well in particular. A most beautiful place, so nice, I cannot describe it. So differently constructed, because there is never cold weather there. Such a nice place that one would almost wish to be a patient in there for a while.

Universities and numerous good schools established everywhere. On the good old U.S.A. is certainly

SEASON CHANGES TIME CHANGES

Today, Friday, official spring is ushered in, but it has more the resemblance of winter. However we can't kick with a fine February and rather a fair March to our credit. Holland will change to "daylight savings time" on Saturday night, April 12, together with all the other cities in this vicinity. Mark it down on the April calendar.

ALLEGAN'S COMMISSION TO BUILD ROAD ITSELF

The Allegan county road commission has rejected all bids for the three-fourths miles of gravel road running west from Doster to the Gun marsh road. The lowest bid recently received was slightly more than $27,000.

The commission will construct the road, believing it can do it at a saving to the county. A sinkhole will have to be filled, it being estimated it will take more than 3,000 yards of earth to make the fill. The sinkhole is 27 feet deep.

ASKS $15,000 FOR FRACTURE OF ARM

Henry Walters, by his next friend, Lena Walters of Otsego, has brought suit for damages of $15,000 against the Mac-Sim-Bar Paper Co. of Otsego, the Michigan Liability Insurance Co. and Dr. Glenn H. Stuck of Otsego. On April 6, 1928, Walters, 19, suffered a right arm fracture between the shoulder and elbow. He alleges the fracture was not properly taken care of. The injury was sustained while employed in the paper mill. The case will be heard before Judge Fred T. Miles of Holland in the Allegan circuit court.

CONSERVATION SHOW A TREMENDOUS SUCCESS

The conservation exhibit put on by the biology department of Holland high school in charge of Miss Lida Rogers is proving very popular and will close late Saturday night so folks can still go and see this exhibit of nature.

Walker Hastings, state photographer, showed his pictures Thursday afternoon, and will again do so Friday night, and Mr. O. J. Gregg spoke on landscape gardening on Tuesday. The rural school children are invited this Friday afternoon and the Holland Fish and Game club members Friday night and the general public at any time. The admission is free.

Mrs. Edith C. Munger of the State Audubon society was on the program with Mr. Gregg and spoke on the benefits of bird life. The pupils of the different ward schools were taken to the exhibition at intervals during the week.

In the poster contest the following prizes were awarded: First prize of $1 went to Pauline Potter for her poster, "Protect Birds." Second prize was awarded to Josephine Kuite for her entree "Put Out Your Fire," and third prize was given Melvina Wiersma's "Feed Our Feathered Friends." Some producers of Leghorn chicks attempt to fill orders for pullets from three-week-old chicks.

A Judge Not Dry Nor Wet But Temperate

JUDGE VERDIER SAYS PROHIBITION HAS PROVEN TO BE A FAILURE

Cites Personal Experiences as Judge in Supreme Court, Grand Rapids

A very interesting discourse on Prohibition was given before the members of the Holland Exchange club by Judge Leonard Verdier of the Superior Court of Grand Rapids. City Attorney Charles McBride fittingly introduced Mr. Verdier as his colleague in the Michigan Legislature many years ago. Judge Verdier, the guest speaker, stated that a request from "Charlie" McBride to speak was really a command since he held the local attorney in the highest esteem.

When Judge Verdier announced that he was going to talk on Prohibition every member and guest present pricked up his ears for they knew that this was a subject on which there is a great difference of opinion and what a judge, who has much dealing with liquor violators, had to say about the question naturally could not help but be intensely interesting to all present.

Judge Verdier said in part as follows: "I am about to talk upon the much discussed question, Prohibition. We have often heard it said that one was put over on the American people when the 'Eighteenth Amendment' was placed in the Constitution. As far as Michigan is concerned this is not true. In 1916 this state adopted prohibition by a majority of 69,000. After living under the prohibition law for a few years an amendment was substituted carrying with it 'light wines and beers.' Again the amendment was defeated by a vote of 280,000. Here in Michigan we made the law ourselves. It might be said that because of this large vote that public sentiment was largely for prohibition, but I don't believe this is true. When prohibition came to Michigan it was not so much a victory for prohibition as a decision of an economic question. Many thought that liquor caused loss of time, the spending of money in saloons, and that saloons were endeavoring to dominate politics and it was a protest against this condition.

"Another reason, big business, so-called, wanted six days of sober labor but a great deal of big business did not apply the liquor law to themselves. While they stopped sober labor they reserved the privilege of drinking for themselves.

"I heard one manufacturer put it in this way: 'Industrially I am dry; personally, I am wet.' At some of our large universities where the liquor question has been rampant I happen to know that the students themselves are not so much to blame for drinking as the visiting of some of the alumni who bring their liquor with them.

"The general sentiment seems to be that the prohibition law is all right for the other fellow and many supposedly right thinking citizens demand to know why the government has a right to interfere with what they put into their mouths. They admit the right to stop the traffic, to close the saloons but no one has the right to tell them whether they shall or shall not drink. This short-sighted person loses sight of the fact that if he does drink he or someone else must be buying it or he or someone else must be making or importing it, which is a violation of the law but this must be done if he is to continue to drink. We can't continue to drink intoxicating liquors without ourselves or someone else violating the law. Here is the crux of the situation. It is the sore spot in the body of the law. In other words, in attempting to do away with the abuse of liquor we have discovered the use of it. My experience has been that laws cannot teach us morals. We cannot make people good by law. The American people, generally speaking, are obsessed with the thought that to cure an evil one must just make a law and the problem is solved. But you cannot make people good that way.

"There are many phases in this liquor question that run contrary. For instance one snag in the law has to do with the making of home brew. All liquor laws have a clause that search and seizure in a home is not allowed; that a man's home shall not be ruthlessly entered. Our colonists fought England, bled and died because homes were broken into by soldiers in order to discover treason. It is well to consider that part of the constitution as it concerns the 'Eighteenth Amendment.' There was a time when the smell of liquor was a basis for officers to search a home, but it was found that in the majority of cases the officers smelled wrong and the homes were unjustly searched. Now a proof that liquor has been sold and kept in a house is necessary to constitute a violation and a search.

"There is much conflict in the law for under the present status it would be better to allow the home brewer to brew for his own use than to wink at this supposed violation, for under the present conditions the home brewer certainly has no sympathy for the Eighteenth Amendment.

"Another trouble is our fanaticism in enforcing the law. I notice that continually in my court. A laborer with a pint appears for a search, is not brought in. They are catching the minnows in their dragnets and all the whales make their get away."

Judge Verdier mentioned several instances of arrests made in his territory mentioning name and place where these 'little fellows' were arraigned as bootleggers but unusual circumstances brought about the violation and where no liquor has ever been sold before or since by them, but real bootleggers, it seemed, were often immune. He also mentioned where a "stool pigeon" would arrest the very friend with whom he had been drinking beer day after day before he was hired to capture liquor violators.

In closing Judge Verdier said, "Michigan recently passed a law that sent violators to prison for life. This state not only became the laughing stock of the nation but was ridiculed by the newspapers. Act quite as drastic but to those who are trapped into violation it is severe punishment.

"I am not a prohibitionist nor am I a wet, but I believe in temperance. Be that as it may, it is the law of the land and while I wish it was out of the land, we have the 'Eighteenth Amendment' and it is not going to be changed. That being the case it is our job to be good sports, not to rebel and it is our duty to obey the law and not see the constitution trampled underfoot constantly because of disobedience. No person can better demonstrate his American citizenship than by obeying the laws in public as well as in secret."

After Judge Verdier had finished his discourse it was evident that his listeners had been extremely attentive and while possibly all did not agree with the judge's views there was much in the discourse to enlighten folks upon this very live and important question.

STOP! LOOK! LISTEN!

Last Sunday evening the pastor of Trinity Church, Rev. C. P. Dame began a new series of sermons on the subject, "Earnest Appeals to Sinners." Next Sunday evening he will preach the second sermon of this series, the title of which is, "Stop! Danger Ahead! Heed the Warning!" The purpose of the pastor is to appeal to men to consider anew the great need of heeding God's call to live righteously for Him. The choir will sing. Congregational singing is hearty. Young and old are invited to worship in Trinity Church, Central Ave. and 26th St. A special invitation is given to non-churchmen to come. The evening services begin at 7:30 o'clock.

The barn on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Dignem, Jamestown, was destroyed by fire Sunday afternoon. The livestock and all the contents in the barn were consumed. This is the second fire they have suffered in the past few months, their home being destroyed a short time ago. A new home was erected but is not entirely completed.

Holland Fair Must Have City's Support

COMMUNITY FAIR EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEANS BUSINESS

The Executive committee of the Holland Community Fair met at the office of secretary M. Jay Vandebunte. The meeting was called over by president, Mr. Harrington. Considerable matters of real importance pertaining to the 1930 Fair were taken up. It was discovered that the 1930 Fair with all the extra features which will be offered this year, will probably go down in history as the biggest Fair ever shown at the Community Fair grounds of Holland.

The Premium Lists will be entirely revised in several departments, this year. New features will be added and in several cases increase in premium money will be offered to the exhibitors. The officers of the association and the executive committee decided that every effort will be made to increase each department, if possible. They have also made an effort to obtain several state exhibits this year, and there is a possibility that the Canadian Government Exhibit will also be here.

The officers and directors of this association put in their time and effort each year to make this annual event a success, with practically no pay at all. They have decided that if this proposition is to remain a community fair, or if we are to continue to have fairs in the future, that it is vitally important that the city at large and the different organizations within the city and the citizens, give their financial and moral support. Unless the people of the community wake up to this fact the 1930 Fair will probably be the last and the passing of the association which is about to hold its forty-sixth annual event is inevitable.

Today, Friday afternoon, members of the Saugatuck Woman's club will be entertained in the school auditorium as guests of the teachers.

Mr. Geo. Schulling, Mrs. Edith Walvoord and Mrs. John H. Schipman of Holland, were in Grand Rapids, Tuesday, attending the 11th area conference of the Michigan Council of Religious Education. This area includes nine counties, including Ottawa and Allegan.

New Richmond, south of Holland, has a new post office all lighted up with electricity.

Boy From Egypt Leading Man in "Too Many Cooks"

SENIOR PLAY TO BE STAGED NEXT WEEK AT HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Final preparations are being made for the Holland High senior play, "Too Many Cooks," which will be given March 24, 25, 26 and 27 in the assembly room. Robert Dorian and Martha Slowinski have developed into a couple that will give Romeo and Juliet some real competition, and Irvin Wolman and Beatrice Visser have profited by their example.

Leonard Rummel, who alternately assists and hinders Bob, is getting well prepared. The Cook contingent is beginning to perform in clever style and will undoubtedly provoke much laughter from the audience during the performance. Ticket sales are organized, with contests staged in several classes. During chapel Friday morning

Preston Van Kolken made a plea to the student body to sell tickets for the senior play, "Too Many Cooks."

Miss Martha Slowinski, the leading lady in this year's senior play, was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan. At the age of five months she moved to Holland where she grew up and is found in almost all of the activities at Holland High. She attended Froebel school with "Bob" Dorian and together they came to Union High, full of ambition.

The life of Robert Dorian, Martha's fiance in "Too Many Cooks," has been very interesting. "Bob" was born in Cairo, Egypt, where he lived until a boy of four. He moved to Tours, France, and here he endured the hard times during the great World War. He attended a private school there, because the government could not afford public schools. At the age of nine, this same "Bob" emigrated to the United States and came to Holland.

Zeeland Girl Wins Speaking Contest Tuesday

HOLLAND MAN IS PRESIDING OFFICER AT GRAND HAVEN

The second annual County Bible Contest was held in the auditorium of the Grand Haven High School Tuesday evening. This contest is sponsored by the Ottawa County Sunday School Association to further the growing interest in religious education.

Prof. E. Winter of Hope College acted as chairman and presented the six contestants representing the high schools of Coopersville, Grand Haven, Holland Christian, Hope Prep, Marne and Zeeland. The subject assigned for this year was "The Influence of the Sunday School on Everyday Living." The central idea as developed by the speakers, was the necessity for religious education among the young people today and the part the Sunday School plays in accomplishing that end.

Miss Alice Katte of the junior class was the Zeeland representative. Her characteristic poise and native charm, as well as a clearly thought out oration won her the decision of first place. Henry Kruijenga of Hope Prep, with an oration far-reaching in thought, was awarded second place.

The coaches from the various schools acted as judges, each ranking all contestants but his own. Miss Amanda Zvermer of the Bible department of the Zeeland school was the Zeeland coach. Miss Katte received a prize of $15.

Miss Cornelia Van Koeve of Forest Grove has secured a position with the Bell Telephone Co. in Holland commencing her duties last Monday morning. Miss Jean Koles, formerly of Forest Grove, is also employed there.

Miss Mabel Brower of Forest Grove spent a recent weekend in Holland as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Garry De Weerd.

ALLEGAN DOG TWELVE DAYS WITHOUT FOOD

Frank Crofoot, three miles west of Wayland, Allegan County, tells a strange story of a shepherd dog which existed twelve days of snow and rain and extreme cold but is still alive. His owner missed him and presumed him to have been killed or stolen; but he found him held fast in a wire fence. The animal probably will recover from the exposure but may lose the trapped foot.

Y., and a sister of the Misses Hanna and Emma Hoekje of Holland, underwent a serious major operation in the Strong Memorial Hospital of Rochester on Thursday, March 13th. Last reports stated that she was doing as well as could be expected.

Returns Watch But Money That's Another Tale

CONSCIENCE STORY HARKS BACK TO HOLLAND'S FARMERS PICNICS

Rather an interesting tale appears in the Zeeland Record of this week that remind Holland folks of the good old Farmers Picnic days staged at Jensen Park. It appears as a side light that a purse snatcher was busy at that time and now, after nearly a score of years, this unknown person has become partly conscience stricken as the following story in the Record would indicate:

"After eighteen years of indecision as to how to make good, in part, a wrong harbored all these years. The one offending person is remains a mystery. So says Mrs. John Kalman of this city. 'In the days when we were still young we used to attend the 'farmers' picnic' staged at Jensen Park by the interurban railway. And it was while returning to her home near Forest Grove from one of these picnics eighteen years ago that Mrs. Kalman experienced the misfortune which she had now nearly erased from memory.

"On this eventful occasion she had returned to Zeeland by a special interurban car, and she was compelled to wait in the Zeeland station, opposite the Zeeland State Bank, for a regular car to carry her to Townline crossing. Upon leaving the special car she received a transfer ticket which she placed in her handbag. After waiting a spell she suddenly came to the realization that her handbag containing her gold watch and all her money was gone. She felt certain of not having laid it down anywhere, but it was gone and could not be found. Finally she prevailed on the station master to loan her fifteen cents needed for her trip home, when she began her task of forgetting the incident.

"Last Friday night she was summoned to the home of her brother-in-law, Dick Kalman, on Rich St., who handed her a small package, according to instructions he had received with the package that day. Upon opening it she gazed upon the watch she had not seen for eighteen years. And was as faithfully ticking away the seconds as on the day she lost it.

"Mrs. Kalman is very reticent about charging anyone with stealing her purse because she might have dropped it in some way, but the party who returned it to Dick Kalman certainly was no stranger to the victim, and might have been considerate enough to his consolation to also return the few dollars that accompanied the watch.

"However, the possessor is probably establishing some endowment fund for some philanthropic purpose. The sum of the ransom has already more than doubled and in a few generations will grow to a sum greater than Wall Street can meet.

CHINA INLAND MISSIONS HEAD TO GIVE LECTURES

Rev. John E. Kuizenga, president of Western Theological seminary, has booked Robert J. Glover of Philadelphia, home director of the China Inland mission, for four lectures on successive days in the Semikirk Family hall. The first talk will be March 25, on "The Fundamentals of Present Day Missions."

The lectures are given on the Fenenga foundation. Dr. Glover will lecture Wednesday evening, March 26, in First Reformed church at Zeeland and Thursday evening, March 27, in Third Reformed church, Holland, on "How the Gospel Weathers the Storm in China."

DEWEY WILL SUCCEED ROGERS AS PRINCIPAL OF ZEELAND SCHOOL

Mr. Thomas Dewey, athletic director of the Zeeland high school, was appointed principal at the last meeting of the board of education held on last week Tuesday evening. The promotion of M. B. Rogers to superintendent to succeed Mr. C. A. De Jonge the next school year left the principalship vacant, and Mr. Dewey was selected as his successor.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Brower and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brower of Holland visited with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Timmer at Georgetown last Sunday.

Dr. A. Pieter's Bible Class, studying the Book of Revelation, will meet again Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Trinity Church. The class is keeping up its interest, a large number are present every Monday evening to listen to Dr. Pieter's interesting exposition of the Book of Revelation. Visitors are always welcome.

Zeeland Gets Sunday School Convention

CHILDREN'S INSTITUTE WILL ALSO BE HELD IN THE NEIGHBORING CITY

The executive committee of the Ottawa County Sunday School association held a meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Corey Post of Zeeland and was presided over by President George Schulling. Every district of the county was well represented and a great deal of work was done. Zeeland was selected as the next place where the county meet is to be held on Oct. 1st in the Second Reformed church where Rev. Richard Vandenberg is pastor. It has been assigned the place of meeting.

Mrs. Edith Walvoord of Holland gave a fine report as this relates to the children's division and it is planned to hold the next annual Children's Institute about the middle of April also in Zeeland.

SECURITY FOR AUTO.
MOBILE PASSENGERS

The growth in population of all-steel automobile body is exemplified by the fact that a leading manufacturer recently announced the completion of 500 stations over the nation to service these bodies. Extension of these stations to include a world-wide service is now underway.

The all-steel body was the forerunner of safety construction in the automobile. And in spite of recent and valuable innovations, such as four-wheel brakes, non-shatterable glass and the like, it has remained preeminent.

There are more than 6,000,000 steel bodies of but one make now in use in the United States, and millions more of other makes. They are a feature in cars of all price classes, from five-hundred-dollar roadsters to costly limousines.

Motorists are paying more attention to what is under the paint of a car, and insisting on the best and safest construction as a safety guarantee.

BOTER MAKES PLEA FOR HIGH SCHOOL BANDS

Dick Boter, president of the Chamber of Commerce, made a plea before the Exchange club members asking for funds so that the two school bands, the High and Junior High, may be properly uniformed. He stated that the school authorities had been untiring in their efforts to make these band organizations musical successes and those folks who have heard them play two years ago and again to-day found that from "kid musicians" real musical artists had been created, and they deserved something better than white duck trousers with a cape not at all suitable in cold weather.

Chairman Riemersma supplemented Mr. Boter's request by stating that about $1800 was needed to uniform both bands, that there was between $800 and $900 in the bank as a "nest egg" for this purpose.

No doubt many Exchangeites will send in their contributions to Eugene Heeter or Mr. Riemersma. Mr. Heeter has been a wonderful director in a great many ways. He not only has the appearance of a good bandmaster but he is a good one. There is thorough discipline in the organization, not through fear but because of the love and esteem they hold for Mr. Heeter. The offerings so often heard in public places by our citizens tell of the success that has been attained by these raw recruits under the tutelage of Eugene Heeter.

The Ladies' Athletic club held a St. Patrick's party Tuesday evening. Mrs. E. Shaw was in charge of the programs. Shirley Shaw rendered a solo and Annette and Selma Chervin entertained with an Irish exercise. Games were played in charge of Miss Mildred Molhagen. A delightful luncheon was served by the committee in charge.

Don't Sell Wheat Short
Federal Control of Power
Memories Fade
Smallpox Also Marches

Uncle Sam buying wheat at a price above world market and storing it helps wheat growers of other countries, although that is not his intention.

What the wheat situation will be next July, nobody can guess. Wise gamblers will refrain from selling short. Uncle Sam's pocketbook is back of wheat prices in the United States, a new kind of "corner."

Flour has reached its low price since the World War, $6.00 a barrel, compared with $7.30 a year ago, and $18 a barrel, the peak price in war time. Good news for housewives. Bad news for farmers.

Senator Coughlin introduces a bill to regulate production, transmission and distribution of all classes of power in interstate commerce.

He would let government supervise rates, and securities issued by holding companies.

Some say the people should have no control of power and its distribution, although power in national life comes next to food, water and air.

The people at least might supervise sales of securities. One company issued more than 600,000 shares of stock based on odds and ends of power companies. Foolish investors bought the pieces of paper, at a price exceeding fifteen hundred million dollars for the whole collection.

William Howard Taft, chief justice of the Supreme court, President of the United States, secretary of war, rode to his grave in Arlington cemetery on a gun carriage, the first United States President to be buried there.

A military funeral was, perhaps, not what he would have suggested, but he was entitled to it as former secretary of war and commander in chief of the army and navy.

Before burial, the body of the late chief justice lay in state for three hours in the Capitol, on a catafalque upon which had lain the coffins of Presidents Lincoln, Garfield, McKinley and Harding.

Now Lincoln stands out in that or any list. How soon men become unimportant and are forgotten! Lincoln never.

Ominous and threatening for India is the beginning of Mahatma Gandhi's campaign of "no violence, but refusal to obey," against the British.

Gandhi and his followers march in protest to make salt tax-free, and smallpox marches with them.

Three are dead, 22 prostrated by disease. The British have made a desperate fight against the various plagues in India, smallpox included, with the natives fighting against them.

It has never been possible to prevent natives bathing in the filthy Ganges, occasionally swallowing water upon which corpses are set adrift.

Under British rule the population of India has increased by 100,000,000. It would soon diminish under native rule, with the aid of smallpox and other plagues.

There is plenty of money in this country, the difficulty is to get it. Secretary Mellon needs $450,000,000 for Uncle Sam.

The public offers to buy twelve hundred and ninety-one million dollars' worth of treasury certificates. There is plenty of water in the oceans, lakes and rivers. The trouble is to get it on dry soil that needs it.

All doctors and parents will be interested in news of a "meningitis carrier," a nineteen-year-old youth, William Felker, in the reformatory for boys at Knoxville, Mo.

Five superintendents and inmates with whom he came in contact died of meningitis, showing how easily the deadly disease may be contracted.

From Devil's Lake, N. D., comes the sad story of Sioux Indians that drank anti-freeze mixture for the sake of its alcohol.

It was the wrong kind. Jerome Onehouse, Mike Goodhouse and two other Indians are dead, three more expected to die. They drank "anti-freeze" at a dance, which adds a touch of sadness.

This small item of news interests managers and stockholders of railroad and steamship lines.

An airplane driven by a Diesel engine flew from Detroit to Miami in ten hours fifteen minutes without stopping, with Chief Engineer Woolson of the Packard company and Walter Lees, pilot.

And the trip cost for fuel $8.50.

"Every sweet has its sour; every evil its good."

Emerson said it. British Tories believe it. The attack on religion in Russia has created intense feeling in Britain. If Premier MacDonald's labor government refuses to break off relations with Russia, it will probably be driven from power.

Men and nations, with their radios, movies and other interesting things, may seem to lose interest in religion.

But such an attack as Russia makes on established beliefs shows that religion retains its hold on the human race.

Gentlemen Songsters

On March 25th at 8:15 p.m. the Boy's Glee Club will give its annual concert in the Memorial Chapel. The numbers will be partially of a sacred nature, and some being from their list of secular offerings. The Club recently staged a successful 3,800 mile Eastern tour. Their performances have evoked profound admiration from their critical audiences. Their picture was taken with President Herbert Hoover in Washington, D. C.

Bronze Medal Is Won By Orator

Despite the fact that our coveted "Glory Day" was discouraged, Hope turned out with flying colors and high hopes to the oratorical Friday afternoon session. In the afternoon session the orations of the young women were given. Miss Gladys Huizenga, our representative, was at her best as she spoke on her topic "From Slavery—Whither?" She more than deserved the bronze key which she received as third award in the final judging. First place was awarded jointly to Ernestine Anderson of Ypsilanti and Dorothy Baxter of Albion. "Education Plus" was the topic of Frances Cameron's oration of Alma. She won the second place.

During the interim between the afternoon and evening sessions, a reception was given for the contestants. The annual dinner for coaches and representatives was held at the Rowe Hotel. The evening meeting started off with the oration of Mr. Peter De Vries of Calvin. "Molded Men." He was awarded third place in the judging. Mr. Harold Spiegel of Albion placed second, and Mr. Erick Fuller of Ypsilanti in his remarkable presentation of "Our Racial Myopia," won first place. Each of the contestants was excellent, and the judging was rumored to be unusually close. Music for the meetings was furnished by the Calvin College Glee Club. Hope College had no "Glory Day."

Plans For College
Banquet Increase
Campus Suspense

The talk of the campus just now is the "All College Banquet" that is to be staged the twenty-seventh of March in the Masonic Temple. Under the supervision of the Association Union provisions are being made to accommodate the entire student body and faculty. This building is noted locally for its fine banqueting facilities. Plans are under way to secure an outstanding speaker. Athletic awards for a large number of the fellows are to be given out. From all appearances the banquet will be a startling success. Tickets are now on sale (see Evelyn Steketee or Allen Brunson) and wholehearted cooperation is desired. All college functions, including mass meetings, have been noticeably few and far between. In order to overcome the tendency that is gradually growing to appeal to the society spirit to further all college activities, this banquet will be a change of policy. The fact that it is a "dateless" affair will deprive many of an excuse for not going.

APRIL 1ST REFORMED
TRINITY, HOLLAND

The Holland classis in the Reformed Church in America has set April 1 as the date for its annual spring session in Trinity Reformed church. Twenty-seven churches, representing nearly 8,000 members, will be represented by their pastors and elders. Officers will be elected, delegates will be named to synods and reports will be submitted. Instead of the annual classical sermon by the retiring president at the evening session a prayer service will be held commemorating the nineteenth hundredth anniversary of the coming of the Holy Spirit. This service will be led by Rev. James M. Martin of this city.

Speakers Secured
For Big Alumni
Supper, March 31

Big doings will be afoot for the Hope alumni of Holland and vicinity on Monday, March 31. From 6 to 8 o'clock that evening there will be a supper given them at Hope Church. The three speakers will be Mr. W. Wichers, president of the Board of Trustees and formerly a member of our faculty; Mr. Clarence Lokker, prosecuting attorney of Ottawa county; and Mr. George Damsen of the People's State Bank. The main purpose of the meeting will be the organization of a new club.

Last year, because its members were too widely spread and because of other reasons, the Hope Alumni Association declared itself defunct, giving its business into the hands of the College Administration. The old officers were retained with a view of possible reorganization, but nothing has been done thus far.

At the coming supper, if plans go through, a Hope Alumni Club will be formed. The club will be especially for those alumni living anywhere in or about Holland, in the territory northward to Muskegon, eastward to Zeeland, and southward to Allegan and South Haven. Similar clubs of Hope Alumni already exist at Chicago and Detroit. If things work as smoothly as they do there, a club may also be started in Grand Rapids.

"Such a club is certainly preferable to an Alumni Association," says Prof. A. Lampen of the committee in charge. "The far away Hope graduates may find it possible to attend twenty-five and ten year class reunions, but they can not come to frequent meetings. But those living in the above mentioned districts can easily attend the suppers that will probably be given once every three months. Thus there will not only be the Hope spirit, but also community interest and welfare to draw them closer and to keep them united."

Like your work or it will lick you. Many Sabbath-breakers begin on Saturday night. The duty at hand is the door-knob to your distant destiny. Be a beaver and build. ZEELAND TOWNSHIP VOTERS
HOLD CAUCUS

The Republicans of the township of Zeeland last Saturday afternoon held their annual caucus for the nomination of candidates to the several offices, which, incidentally, also means their election. Zeeland township always has only one ticket in the field because the township is overwhelmingly Republican and an opposition ticket stands no show of winning. The nominations made for the principal offices were: Supervisor, G. Lubbers; for clerk, N. Hunderman; treasurer, John Roek; highway commissioner, Wm. Schultz; justice of the peace, H. Dozeman; member of the board of review, Van Farrow. These were all renominations to succeed themselves, the only contest of the caucus developing in the office of highway commissioner between W. Schultz, incumbent, and C. J. Den Herder, a former commissioner, in which Mr. Schultz was successful. The contest, however, drew a large number of electors, the highest vote of 243 having been cast for Mr. Roek.

ALFALFA MAKES COW PRODUCE MORE MILK

Experiment Station Feeding Trials Again Prove Value of Balanced Ration

BALANCED RATIOS PAY BEST

BLUE VALLEY CREAMERY INSTITUTE

THE reason why the most successful farmers feed their dairy cows balanced rations, explains the Blue Valley Creamery Institute, is because they have found through experience that balanced rations, fed to each cow in proportion to their production, make possible the greatest profit per cow above the cost of the feed. Only when ground grains and roughages are fed in correct proportions to make balanced rations is it possible for the dairy cow to do her work most efficiently, and thereby return the greatest profit on the feeds fed to her.

An excellent example of the value of balanced rations was shown as the result of feeding trials at the Blue Valley station. In this experiment two groups, each containing 10 cows of equal productive ability were used. The ten cows receiving a balanced ration maintained their body weight and produced nearly four cans of milk to every three cans produced by the second group of ten cows receiving an unbalanced ration. The cows on the unbalanced ration not only produced less milk but they also lost weight. Numerous other similar feeding trials leave little doubt but that production per cow can be easily increased from 10 to 25 per cent or more through better feeding, with a resultant increase in profit.

Legume hay, especially alfalfa, is quite generally conceded to be the foundation upon which the most profitable balanced rations can be most easily prepared out of the crops successfully grown in the Mississippi Valley. This is true because legume hays provide heavy yields of palatable roughage high in protein content. The reason why the daily ration fed to most dairy cows is unbalanced is because it contains too small a proportion of protein. Home-grown legumes provide this needed protein at a cost much lower than it can be purchased or produced in other feeds commonly grown on farms.

When a cow is in milk she requires a large amount of protein. She needs it to make the "cottage cheese" material of the milk. Most farm-grown feeds, like corn, oats, barley, and timothy hay, contain very little of this important ingredient of milk. It is found, however, in all legume hays like alfalfa, soy bean, sweet clover and cowpea hay, also in the seed of soy beans. When these high protein feeds are grown in abundance on the farm they take the place of such feeds as linseed oil meal, cottonseed meal, gluten feeds, wheat bran, etc., in the ration.

Growing an acre of alfalfa for every dairy cow on the farm is a sure way of securing protein at low cost and excellent assurance of better balanced rations. When cows are fed all the good, bright, clean alfalfa hay they will consume, and when grain is fed to each cow according to her production, the farmer who milks cows will soon find by checking up on his records that he is making more money and receiving an excellent price for all the feed marketed through his herd. If corn silage is also to be had so much the better, but it must be remembered that no roughage unless it is legume roughage will take the place of alfalfa.

McCLEERY-HAYDEN CASE SETTLED OUT OF COURT

Attorneys for Clarence E. McCleery and Ralph T. Hayden have announced that a settlement satisfactory to both parties had been reached in the case of McCleery vs. Hayden. This disposes, without litigation, of the civil action that has been pending in the circuit court between these parties since last fall.

The action arose out of the transfer by Mr. Hayden to Mr. McCleery, sometime during the summer, of stock in the Holland Motor company, which later passed into a receivership. Mr. McCleery, who in the meantime had become sales manager for the company, brought this action to recover the amount paid for the stock, alleging that its value had been misrepresented to him at the time of the purchase. About the same time Mr. McCleery caused Mr. Hayden's arrest on a criminal warrant due to the same transaction. Mr. McCleery has requested the office of the prosecuting attorney to dismiss the criminal information, due to the settlement of the civil case.

No action will be taken on Mr. McCleery's request until Prosecuting Attorney Clarence Lokker returns from a trip to Florida.

Unusual Events In Life of Doctor A. Vander Veen

SAW MURDERERS OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN HUNG—WAS IN BATTLE OF BULL RUN

Before the Telephone—Wife Swings Lantern from House Top to Signal Doctor. He was First Hope Graduate

Dr. Arend Van der Veen, beloved pioneer physician of Grand Haven, died at 7:30 Friday night after an illness lasting since Mar. 2. Dr. Van der Veen, who was 89, fell in his room on that day and fractured a hip and a shoulder blade. He had been in a comatose condition for two days before his death.

With him at the time of his death were the widow and his two daughters, Mrs. H. W. Dubee of Beloit, Wis., and Mrs. Charles A. Floyd of Detroit.

Hundreds of friends have followed with sadness the condition of the doctor, since his accident and hardly a home in Grand Haven did not feel that a true friend and patriot and dean of the medical profession, was slipping away from a community where he had practiced medicine and surgery for nearly sixty years.

Dr. Vander Veen was born in Amsterdam, Netherlands, of sturdy Dutch stock and came to this country with his parents with the Dr. Van Raalte colony to Holland in 1847. He was one of the first graduates of Hope college and in a class of 11 was the only young man who did not begin the ministry. Instead he began the study of medicine under the tutelage of a physician and when the Civil War broke out, he answered Lincoln's call, enlisting as a private in the Eighth Michigan Infantry. This was known as the "Wandering Regiment" because of its service in all parts of the south. He was known as the "kid" surgeon on the Ninth Army corps. He is credited with being in 18 of the hardest battles of the Civil War including Antietam, Fredericksburg, Vicksburg, Wilderness and the second Bull Run.

He was one of the few living in recent years who heard the court martial of the conspirators of Lincoln and who witnessed the hanging of the notorious quartet, Har- old, Mrs. Surratt, Atzerodt and Payne, in the capital prison yard. John Wilkes Booth, the real assassin, had already been shot while hiding in a barn. In a diary which he kept he described the tragic recovery of the body of Mrs. Surratt by her daughter. His opportunity to see this execution resulted from the fact that he was sent to Washington to do guard duty.

After his discharge he attended the College of Physicians and Surgeons of New York City and from there came with his bride, Miss Kate Howard of Holland, daughter of the late Manley D. Howard, founder of Grace Episcopal Church of this city. The Howard home was just east of where the North Side Cannery is now located. After their marriage the Vander Veen's moved to Grand Haven. Dr. Vander Veen is credited with having saved the life of Stuart Edward White, noted writer, and son of the late T. Stuart White, millionaire lumberman. Because of this Dr. Van der Veen could have had any advantage, could have gone to larger cities, where fame and fortune might have been his, but he preferred to remain among the people he had learned to love and who needed him so desperately in the "lumber days," when through lack of sanitation, accidents of pioneer life, and lack of necessities, the services of a doctor were sorely needed. So he turned his back on fortune and remained in Grand Haven, hardly a village at that time.

Mr. Vander Veen was also an able surgeon, having gained much knowledge and experience on the battle fields during the Civil War when an anesthesia was unknown and when an operation meant real skill because of the trying conditions and crude instruments available. Then the operations were mostly major because of the terrible wounds and when patients were bound to crude tables because ether as a medical and surgical blessing had not yet been discovered.

After the Civil War Mr. Vander Veen settled in Grand Haven and his skill as a maternity doctor was also added to his already enviable reputation along other lines in the medical profession, in fact he is credited with having brought 4,000 babies into the world.

Rather an interesting side light in the doctor's practice was before the days of telephones. Those who know the large brick house on Washington Ave., Grand Haven, will remember that it has a glass

GRIM "CHAIN STORE" JOKE

A wag called at the News office yesterday and said: "Ben, do you know that the Grand Rapids newspapers are now printing a list of those who have quit trading at the 'chain stores'?"

The editor told his visitor that he did not know matters had come to such a pass.

"They have just the same," the visitor continued, and then handed yours truly a clipped half column headed "Obituaries."

It would appear that the Chains and Independents, in this instance at least, suffer alike although up to this time we haven't heard of a chain undertaker.

Rather a grim joke.

THIRTEEN SOIL SCHOOLS IN OTTAWA COUNTY, JERSEY CATTLE MAKE CLEAN SWEEP IN THIS COUNTY

By C. P. Milham

Thirteen soils schools will be held in Ottawa county next week by the agricultural agent. Soil samples will be tested and the use of lime explained with the aid of charts and pictures prepared by the soils department of the State college. Meetings will be held at the town hall in the following places:

March 25, Nunica, 10 a.m.; Chester, 1:30 p.m.; Wright, 3:30 p.m.; Allendale, 7:30.
March 26, Robinson, 10 a.m.; Olive, 1 p.m.; Holland township, 3:30; Vriesland, 7:30.
March 27, Blendon, 9 a.m.; Tallmadge, 1:30 p.m.; Coopersville High School, 7:30.
March 28, Georgetown, 10 a.m.; Jamestown Y. M. C. A. or school, 1:30 p.m.

Jerseys made almost a clean sweep among the high cows in the two Ottawa cow testing associations for the past month as reported by the two testers. Cows producing over 50 lb. fat were owned by the following dairymen:

Two year old, C. C. Brown & Son, Jersey, Nunica, 56.4; Wm. Gross, Conklin, 55.1; Henry Fienstra, Jersey, Zeeland, 51.2; Dr. Hollis, Jersey, Jamestown, 20.

Three year old: Martha Antonides, Jersey, Allendale, 61.5; Henry Van Farowe, Guernsey, Zeeland, 60.9; Wm. Gross, Jersey, Conklin, 50.2.

Mature cows, Darl Hollis, Jersey, Jamestown, 67.4; Greenvalley Farm, Guernsey, Coopersville, 60.5; John Breen, Holstein, Coopersville, 60.4; Peter Kuysers, Holstein, Zeeland, 55.9; Eugene Browder, Holstein, Zeeland, 54.2; Adam Jauowski, Holstein, Grand Haven, 51.8.

The highest herds in the county produced an average of over 41 lbs. of fat per cow and were owned by Henry Karsten at Zeeland and Peter Van Noord, at Jamestown, both Jersey breeders.

Testing associations tell the dairymen what cows produce, cost of production, which cows to sell, which cows to feed better and enables them to make more profits and build a better herd.

Club work is being organized for the summer. Last week two clubs were organized, one at Lamont and one at North Blendon. Lamont community has formed a calf club with twelve members, five potato club members, two corn and four rabbit club members. Officers are Howard Harmsen, Tim Modderman, John Post and Fred Westveld, local leader Henry Modderman. Officers of the North Blendon: Gerald Berghorst, Minard Mulder and Minard Bruins. Local leader is Gerrit Berghorst. This club was organized through the efforts of Mr. Looker, field man for the Pet Milk Co.

Townships to Share in Cash From State

OTTAWA COUNTY RECEIVES
SUM OF $31,659.28 UNDER
TURNER BILL

Some 13 Ottawa County school districts will be reimbursed with a total of $31,659.28 which under the Turner bill, was appropriated by the last legislature of Michigan to relieve the school tax situation where the school taxes are higher than $10 per thousand valuation. This check was received today by the county treasurer. The sum is made available by the appropriation of $2,000,000 from the state general fund, proportioned to school districts is based on the amount of taxation per thousand, and upon a schedule which takes into consideration the school enrollment.

The money is not designed for additional expenditures by school districts to which it is apportioned, but rather as an aid to the taxpayers in the districts carrying tax burdens, arising from increased demands of public school education.

The city's share of $7,557.60 was received today by the county treasurer, John H. DenHerdere together with that of the 12 other districts. The following is a list of townships to receive the aid and the amounts: Allendale, $97.69; Blendon, $69.00; Crookston, $1,516.77; Georgetown, $902.95; Grand Haven Township, $1,759.69; Holland township, $442.60; Polkton, $928.62; Robinson, $559.29; Spring Lake, $3,588.24; Wright, $202.60; Zeeland, $3,983.42 and Holland City, $10,050.80; a total of $31,659.28.

As the figures for the assessed valuations for the future have not been made, no accurate estimate can be made as to what effect the receipt of the money apportioned will have. The various school boards, it is anticipated will follow the expressed purpose of the Turner act in the use of the money and will plan its expenditure with the view of reducing the tax burden.

The computation for the distribution of the funds were based on figures furnished by the state superintendent of public instruction. The county treasurer was not aware of just how the money would be disposed of.

ELECTION FOR APRIL 7 HAS SPECIAL PROPOSITION

Two special issues will be submitted to voters at the spring election, April 7. One calls for a bond issue of $25,000 for the Ottawa county infirmary at Eastmanville and the other for an amendment to the city charter clarifying a situation with respect to the number of votes a candidate must receive at the primaries to entitle him a place on the ballot at the spring election.

JOHN VAN DYKEN, 20, GRAND RAPIDS, IS KILLED NEAR ZEELAND

The first automobile fatality in the vicinity of Zeeland this year occurred Saturday evening when John Van Dyken, 20, of 1131 Caulfield Ave., S. W., Grand Rapids, died in the local hospital of injuries received in an automobile smashup late Saturday afternoon.

Gerald Van Dyken, 24, a brother, is in the hospital in a critical condition, having suffered scalp and internal injuries and severe body injuries. He was improved Monday. Harold Spoelstra, a chum, received a fractured wrist and body bruises.

The accident occurred a mile east of Zeeland on M21 when John Van Dyken, the driver, tried to pass a car driven by Albert Elzinga, who resides near Hudsonville. In passing the Elzinga car, the wheels of the two cars locked and Van Dyken's car turned over four times.

The automobile was wrecked. Elzinga's car suffered minor damages. Both cars were traveling toward Zeeland.

John Van Dyken developed hemorrhages, caused by a lung puncture, which resulted in his death.

The Van Dyken brothers are the sons of Mrs. John Modderman of 174 Sherman St., S. E., Grand Rapids, but resided with their grandmother, Mrs. Anna Pruim, John Van Dyken was employed by the Kindel Bed Co.

Harold Spoelstra resides at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spoelstra, 1111 Grandville Ave., S. W., Grand Rapids.

Coroner Gilbert Vandewater impaneled a jury composed of John Wellings, M. C. Ver Hage, D. F. Boonstra, A. De Kruij, John Scripsma and Fred Keift who viewed the body and car and were to meet later in the week for the inquest.

The body was taken to Grand Rapids late Saturday night.

ZEELAND HATCHERIES HIRE UNEMPLOYED

The Zeeland hatcheries again are aiding the employment situation in this city by employing more help. Since several of the local firms have installed electric incubators high school girls have been employed to aid in the placing of eggs. Many local girls work Saturdays, helping to earn their own way through school. This is the first time since the development of the chick industry that girls or women have been able to help outside of office work. More girls are to be hired next year, according to plans of the hatchery-men.

Production of radios by the Story & Clark Piano Co., Grand Haven, is expected to start by the middle of April. J. W. Igberg of Chicago, superintendent, announced Friday. Machinery for manufacturing the radio is being installed and sets for the spring radio shows are being made.

The jury for the February term of court has been discharged and a series of non-jury and chancery cases will wind up this term.

Louvain University

The restoration of the University of Louvain was brought about by the various nations of the allies. To the United States fell the privilege of rebuilding the library. The University of Louvain was founded more than two centuries before Harvard. At the time of its destruction the library contained but a quarter of a million volumes, but these works had been accumulating for five centuries. The site of the present library is the finest in all Louvain, occupying one entire side of the Place du Peuple. The architect was Whitney Warren, who was chosen by an international committee. The corner stone was laid by Nicholas Murray Butler.

None to Leave

Luther Charles was very fond of angel food cake and had been permitted by his grandmother to go to the pantry and get himself a piece he returned with an enormous chunk of cake in his hand and his grandmother inquired:
"Luther Charles, didn't you leave any?"
"Leave any?" he replied with an innocent expression. "Why, this was all there was."

His Handicap

A certain doctor advised a rather corpulent patient to take up golf as a healthy exercise.
After a few weeks the patient returned and asked whether he could not take up some other game.
"But," protested the doctor,
"there's no finer game under the sun than golf."
"I can quite believe it," replied the corpulent one. "But it's no use my trying to play the wretched game. If I put the confounded ball where I can see it, I can't hit it, and when I put it where I can hit it I can't see it, so what am I going to do?"

Beyond Power of Proof

"There is gold at the end of the rainbow," said H. H. Ho, the sage of Chinatown. "Like other beliefs this persists because no traveler has been able to say it is untrue."—
