Dean of Common Council Passes Away Wednesday

ALDERMAN BRIEVE WILL BE LAID TO REST AT THE SIDE OF HIS LATE WIFE AND SON WHO DIED IN RUSSIA

Frank Brieve, aged 67, the dean of the Holland Common Council, passed away while his colleagues were meeting on some special important business and the members of the Common Council as well as the citizens of Holland were shocked when the report spread that the alderman, the second ward had been taken by the "Grim Reaper" Wednesday night, brought on by heart trouble after an illness of nearly a month.

Fellow councilmen deliberated with difficulty when the news was brought to them and Mayor Brooks asked that all members and city officials attend the funeral in a body Monday.

Mr. Brieve was a man of a sunny disposition. It was always a pleasure to be in his company. He took a live interest in all matters pertaining to the city of Holland and was an ardent and diligent worker for all projects that advanced civic welfare.

He came to this country from The Netherlands 41 years ago and during most of that time his vocation was the baking business. He organized a large plant of his own and was lovingly called by his many friends as the "Cookie King."

He was an enthusiastic Republican and served on the Republican county and city committees as an executive member for at least 30 years and up to the time of his death.

He served 17 years as a member of the Common Council and was dean of that body. During that period he has acted on practically every committee in the entire list, including streets and cross walks, welfare, ordinance, and for some years served as mayor pro tem.

Mr. Brieve served as alderman under five mayors, Nicodemus Bosch, John Vandersluis, Nicholas Kammeraad, Abe Stephan and Ernest C. Brooks.

He was a member of the Holland Exchange Club and for 12 years served as the president of the H. O. H. society, a benevolent organization that has done a great deal of good among the rank and file of people where help was mostly needed. He was also a member of the Men's Bible class of the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church.

Mr. Brieve preceded her husband in death eight years ago, and it will also be remembered that his son Joseph "paid the supreme sacrifice" in Russia during the World War and his remains were returned to the United States two years later, the casket being covered with a flag of honor.

Our old friend and fellow citizen will be laid to rest in the family plot in Pilgrim Home cemetery, where his faithful wife and his hero son are now buried.

Private funeral services are to be held at the home, 60 West First street, at 1:30 o'clock, and at 2 o'clock from Central Avenue Christian Reformed church Monday afternoon. Rev. L. Veltkamp will officiate.

The honorary pallbearers will be the mayor and members of the Common Council. The active pallbearers will be officials of the H. O. H., namely Andrew Klomparsen, Peter Koopman, Bert Vander Poel, Cornelius Woltring, John Vander Elst and Alex Van Zanten, comprising the board of directors of this benevolent society.

Friends are privileged to view the remains any time after Friday at the home.

Mr. Brieve is survived by four sons, Louis, John, Peter and Frank Brieve, Jr.; one daughter, Mrs. Gerrit Van Der Berg, and seven grandchildren.

An interesting sidelight is the fact that his brother, Johannes, had come to America with his wife to visit his brother Frank. They arrived on the day when the late Mr. Diekema left for The Netherlands after his appointment as ambassador. The alderman's sister-in-law, just from The Netherlands, attended the ceremonies at the Pere Marquette depot, dressed in Frisian garb, rather an appropriate setting for this occasion. The brothers' coming here was caused by the illness of the alderman, who became desperately sick just before sailing and to return to his home in Holland. The brother-in-law came to Holland, Michigan, a few months later and remained the greater part of a year.

Holland will surely miss this genial Frank, who has served the city so faithfully and so long.

DICK BOTER SPEAKS AT LONGFELLOW MEET

The regular Parent-Teacher club of Longfellow school was held Tuesday evening. C. De Koster led the group singing and Rev. J. O. Randall, pastor of First Methodist Episcopal church, was in charge of devotion.

Dick Boter was the principal speaker of the evening and he had as his subject "America's Greatest Treasure."

Musical numbers included instrumental and vocal selections by John Emmick, the Ver Burg sisters, Jim Rotman, John Wesseldyke and James Ver Burg, and instrumental and vocal numbers by Raymond and Harold Kootstra and Simon Piersma. Ervina Van Dyke, dressed in Dutch costume, offered two Dutch readings.

The following officers were elected during the business session: Chester Van Tongeren, president; Professor G. Van Zyl, vice president; Mrs. Aris Walder, secretary, and Ernest Post, treasurer.

A social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

ZEELAND SCHOOL TO HAVE TWO DAYS VACATION

There will be no school this week Friday (today) and next Monday. The two days are to constitute the annual spring vacation which usually comes in March. Two days instead of the usual week are being given and it is possible that school will close a few days earlier in the summer to make up for the loss. It was stated last week that the students would have no vacation, but the pupils say "a half a day is better than none."

EIGHT INCHES OF SNOW FALLS HERE; IS NEAR RECORD

The snow storm that developed Monday afternoon and has continued since, totaled eight inches of snow, the second greatest snow fall on record at the Ottawa county weather bureau. The maximum fall was 9.5 inches in 1890.

Thus far this March there have been 32 inches of snow, the greatest fall ever recorded in March. This is an increase of 12 inches over any previous record.

Parent Loses Track of Child are Re-united

FATHER AND DAUGHTER ARE TOGETHER AGAIN AFTER
TWELVE YEARS
SEPARATION

Separated for nearly 12 years, a father and daughter were brought together through the special investigation made by Judge J. Danhoff of the Ottawa county probate court and tears of joy took the place of tears of anguish which had been shed by the girl, who realized but a few days ago that the dear foster parents she thought her own, could no longer keep her and she was placed with strangers.

The story dates back many years ago when the family, through marital troubles, was separated and this child was taken by some people living at Rockford, Ill. Depression made it impossible for the foster parents to keep the girl and the mother returned her to the local probate court and then told the 15-year old girl the truth.

The shock of finding the parents were not her own, and the loneliness and desolation of living with strangers while her own parents were being sought was pitiful, said those who were connected with the case.

Diligent effort finally brought the court in touch with the father, who is living near Marne, and the girl was returned to the bosom of a family of brothers and sisters of which she knew nothing.

The mother is remarried and living in Detroit and the girl will be able to see her, it is said. She still remains loyal to her foster parents and the separation from them has been sad but the fact that she is with her own family has made up for the loss of the other dear ones.

MRS. GILLETTE INJURED IN SMASH-UP

The snowstorm which raged in this vicinity Monday evening was responsible for the traffic accident which occurred at about 6 o'clock Monday afternoon when Mrs. Wilhelmina Gillette and son John collided in their automobile with one driven by Herman Kraker of Allendale.

The crash occurred on M21 between Holland and Zeeland.

Kraker became confused in the blinding snow and attempted to turn his car back to the shoulder of the highway when Mrs. Gillette's car struck him. Both cars were badly damaged and Mrs. Gillette and her son sustained slight bruises.

ALBERT KAMPS, LIVING EAST OF HOLLAND, PASSES

Albert Kamps passed away yesterday at his home 4 miles south-east of Holland, following an illness of several days. He attained the age of seventy-three years.

He was born on the old Kamps homestead, where he has lived since.

He was united in marriage with Elizabeth De Koster, daughter of the late pioneer Cornelius De Koster, who survives him. He also leaves three sons, Cornelius Kamps, who resides at the parental home; Jacob Kamps, who lives at Boone's Bridge; and John Kamps of Grand Rapids. One daughter, Mrs. Wm. Van Zoeren, died several years ago. He also leaves two brothers, Berend Kamps, road commissioner of Zeeland, and John Kamps of Long Beach, California, and one sister, Mrs. R. McLachlan of Detroit.

The funeral services will be held at the home on Saturday afternoon and interment will be in the cemetery at New Groningen.

After a discussion of the Revolutionary war in Miss Steketee's third-hour American history class, she asked Hadden Hanchett why the English did not bring their men to the American colonies. Hadden, much to the delight of his fellow students and teachers, was ready with this answer: "Maybe the sea was too rough." This brought a roar of approval from the rest of the class, especially his neighbor, Elton Cobb. —Holland High Herald

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Mulder and daughter Miss Lucille motored to South Bend Ind. over the week end to spend the Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reedsdale. Mrs. Reedsdale was formerly Miss Ruth Mulder.

State To Pave Four Blocks Of Holland Streets

ALDERMAN BRIEVE, DEAN OF THE COUNCIL, PASSES AS COLLEAGUES MEET

There was a very important special meeting of the Common Council last evening to confer with the officials of the state highway department, relative to the state paving four blocks on Michigan avenue. Undoubtedly this is a preliminary beginning of this second highway to Saugatuck, which caused so much stir a year ago and it is likely that there will be two good roads out from Holland, south and west, instead of one.

As the council was meeting word came that Alderman Brieve of the second ward, dean of the council, had just passed away. Mayor Ernest Brooks requested that all members of the council attend the funeral in a body next Monday.

What transpired relative to the conference with the state highway department and the city about the paving is fully given in the official proceedings below.

Holland, Mich., March 23, 1932.

The Common Council met in special session pursuant to call by the Mayor.

Present: Mayor Brooks, Aldermen Kleis, Woltman, Vandenberg, Hyma, Habing, Steffens, Jonkman, Huyser, Thomson, Veltman and the Clerk.

Devotions were led by Chaplain Alderman A. P. Kleis.

The Mayor stated that word had just been received of the death of Alderman Frank Brieve, who had passed away about an hour ago.

The Mayor stated that he was very much grieved over the passing of a personal friend and it meant a big loss to the City of Holland to be deprived of the services of a man who had given so much of his time and energy on behalf of his city. The Mayor further requested that the city attorney draw up suitable resolutions to be spread on the minutes of the council and a copy sent to the bereaved family. The Mayor further requested that the Common Council attend the funeral in a body.

The Mayor then stated that this special meeting was called for the purpose of considering plans and specifications drawn up by the state highway department for the paving of four blocks on Michigan avenue between Twenty-eighth and Thirty-second streets. Mr. Willman of the state highway department had requested to meet with the council to go over these plans and specifications and was present to explain the proposition to them.

The Mayor then called on Mr. Willman to present the proposition. Mr. Willman stated that the highway department proposed to put in a 24-foot pavement at the present time. The expense of this pavement would be borne entirely by the state. The plans provided further for a complete drainage system and grading so that the city could widen the pavement up to 40 feet in the future at any time they found it necessary. The expenses, however, of any pavement wider than 20 feet to be borne by the city. The cost of the complete drainage system is to be borne equally between the city and state. Mr. Willman stated that he did not have the cost of this drainage but that it would be very nominal.

The aldermen were then given an opportunity to look over the blue prints and plans. After discussing for a short time the Mayor called the council to order, and it was moved by Alderman Kleis and seconded by Veltman.

That the plans of the state for paving the four blocks on Michigan avenue from Twenty-eighth to Thirty-second streets be approved. The Mayor then asked if there were any remarks or if there was anyone in the audience who wished to be heard on the matter.

Mr. Noble of near Jensen Park asking Mr. Willman if these plans for paving in the city meant that US-31 would be re-routed south from Holland. Mr. Willman stated that he was not authorized by the highway department to make any statements in regard to their plans beyond the city limits at Thirty-second street.

Mr. Willman further stated that his territory ended at the south boundary of Ottawa county and that the projects in Michigan county were taken care of from the Kalamazoo office. He did say, however, that in his opinion it was safe to assume that at some future time the state would continue south from the city limits of Holland at Thirty-second street and Michigan avenue.

This statement brought further remarks from visitors in the audience who lived at Macatawa Park and in the vicinity adjacent to the present location of US-31, who were opposed to a new route south out of Holland. Alderman Vandenberg took the position that it would be better for the city of Holland to improve and keep US-31 at its present location rather than re-route it.

Alderman Huyser rather strongly denounced the attitude of some in taking the position that the city of Holland should attempt to dictate to the state of Michigan where they put their roads.

Several citizens in the audience spoke in favor of the new project. A vote and nay vote on the motion of the plans resulted as follows:

Yeas—Aldermen Kleis, Woltman, Hyma, Habing, Steffens, Jonkman, Huyser, Thomson and Veltman; total 9.

Nays—None.

Alderman Vandenberg took the position that since the paving of these four blocks benefited him by passing along two blocks that he owned he should be excused from voting on the proposition.

The Mayor then stated that it had been requested by the attorneys for the purchasers of the recent issue of cemetery bonds that the appropriation bill be amended so as to provide for an item of $45,000.00 in the interest and Sinking Fund that the board of public works to assume $45,000.00 originally appropriated for the street fund.

Such change would not alter the amount to be appropriated but would place it under a different provision in the charter.

On motion of Alderman Kleis and seconded by Veltman.

RESOLVED, that the appropriation bill be amended accordingly. Carried, all present voting aye.

City Clerk.

An Old Timer

Eight street looking east from River street. Talk about shooting a cannon ball down the lane and not hitting a flivver—but then this was taken at noon 45 years ago. Folks were all home for dinner (not lunch), or else in "Dikke Pet's Sample Rooms," getting free lunch and a stein. There were only 13 parking places in the city then, ornamented with brass rails and the parking hours were from 6 a. m. until 10 p. m. See that lone rig on a mile of street—a farmer customer came to town possibly. Holland was prosperous and happy then. You wouldn't think so comparing this picture with present-day activities and traffic jams.

Haven Teachers Get $10,000 Cut In Salaries

SUPT. BABCOCK AGREES TO A REDUCTION OF $700

A reduction of salaries of the employees of the Grand Haven board of education aggregating $10,000 was authorized by that board at a regular meeting held during this week. Contracts of the employees were renewed for another year at reductions of eight and 10 per cent.

Present contracts of $2400 and above will be cut ten per cent and all contracts below $2400 will be cut eight per cent. Janitors and clerical help, as well as teachers, are included in the program of wage cutting.

Supt. E. H. Babcock, who is under contract for next year, has voluntarily agreed to take a cut of $700.

By authorizing the slash in salaries the board is saving $10,000 in the cost of instruction on a salary budget of about $110,000. This amount should take care of the loss of income due to a probable increase in the assessed valuation and leave a substantial sum with which to reduce the present rate, according to Supt. Babcock. A conservation policy by the board has lowered the voted tax $27,700 during the last three years. New teachers have been hired at lower salaries and the capital outlays have been deferred.

According to a report recently issued by the board the Grand Haven school finances never were in better condition. Despite a drop in the valuation during the past two years, and the added expense of the Ferry school bonds, the board has managed to reduce the tax rate from $15.65 per thousand in 1929 to $13.32 per thousand in 1930 and to $14.90 per thousand this year.

During these three years the valuation of the city dropped from $8,423,725 to $7,760,240. The voted tax against this valuation was lowered from $131,700 in 1929 to $114,000 in 1931.

HOLLAND ARTISTS TO AID IN ZEELAND CHURCH EASTER MUSIC

Special services will be held in Zeeland the latter part of this week in observance of the passion week at the Second Reformed Church. The Good Friday service is to be held in the evening at which time Rev. Richard J. Vandenberg will speak on "The Power of the Cross," and the choir will render musical selections.

Easter morning's sermon will be entitled, "Risen with Christ." In the evening, an Easter Cantata, "Olivet to Calvary," by Maunder will be sung by a group of about twenty-five voices. Soloists to assist the group are Mr. Harry Friese, tenor, of Hope College, and a resident of Detroit, and Mr. Howard Shade, baritone, also of Hope College. Several members of the choir will render solos. "The Risen Conqueror" by Handel, the selection which is sung by the choir every year at Easter, will be given as usual. The choir has sung twenty-seven times in all, and recently gave it twice by special request.

EGG HUNT TO BE STAGED A WEEK LATER BECAUSE SNOW HAS INTERFERED

Zeeland Record—Due to the unfavorable weather the first annual Easter Egg Hunt sponsored by the American Legion and Auxiliary has been postponed for one week in the hope that next Saturday will be more favorable. If there is snow the next Saturday it will be further postponed.

The present intention is to hold the Egg Hunt on Saturday, April 2nd. Instead of this first coming Saturday, this will be determined by the presence or absence of snow. If the snow is gone on April 2, which it probably will, the egg hunt will be pulled off on that afternoon to begin at 3:00 o'clock in the Lawrence Street city park.

All children, boys and girls, under 12 years of age from any place are invited to participate and get as many beautifully colored candy eggs as prizes as they can find during the hunt. There will be plenty of them to fill the pockets because the American Legion has purchased three thousand candy eggs to be distributed just before the hunt begins. Parents and friends are invited to join in the fun of watching the kids, and Legion and the Auxiliary members will be there in numbers to preserve order.

Tell your neighbor children all about it and bring them to Zeeland Saturday afternoon, April 2. Holland folks might drive over and watch the fun.

HOLD FRANK SMITH, ROBBER- SON TWP. UNDER $1,000 BONDS ON ASSAULT CHARGE

Frank Smith, 73, of Robinson township, is held under bonds of $1,000 for an alleged attempt to shoot his son, Albert Smith, 40, at the farm home in Robinson on Saturday.

According to the prosecutor, the two men were milking in the barn when they got into an argument as to whom the milk belonged. The complaint charges that the father attempted to shoot his son in the feet but succeeded only in clipping off the laces of his boots. It also alleges the old man, infuriated, grabbed a pitchfork and tried to attack the son.

The parties are both married and live in separate homes but work the farm together. A dispute as to which one of them should receive the milk checks, it is alleged, led to the assault.

Smith was arraigned before Justice Elbert Parsons of Holland and the case will be heard in the May term of circuit court on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Holland Hope Men Shine In Athletic Skies

FORMER STAR IN SPORTS
FIELD HERE NOW FOL-LOWING LIFE'S VOCATION

By "Waddy" Spoelstra.

The headline extending across the entire page of one of our large metropolitan newspapers recently featured the name and picture of a Hope college graduate. This is unique. Hope has many noted men listed among her alumni, but the ministry rarely makes the front page of our large dailies. It has been said "nothing but ministers come from Hope." Well, listen to this:

George Veenker, a Hope college graduate in the class of 1916, has been chosen head football coach at the University of Wisconsin. Veenker was a member of the football, basketball and baseball teams at Hope during the years of 1914, '15 and '16. He was a guard on that famous Hope basketball team of 1914 which won the Michigan State Intercollegiate championship by winning 15 of the 16 games played. Other members of this team were Clarence Lokker, Ott Vander Velde, George Steining, "Stogie" Stegenga and "Tunie" Prins. Lokker is practicing law in Holland and has just completed a term of four years as prosecutor of Ottawa county. Vander Velde, Veenker's running mate at guard, is practicing surgery in Holland, while Steining and Stegenga have pastored in New York City and Prins is a minister at Herkimer, N. Y.

"Those were the days," said Vander Velde. "None of our teams had a regular coach. Veenker played quarter and coached football, 'Stogie' played center and coached basketball, and I pitched and coached baseball. And we played 'al' comes—bar none. They were the days when Hope played Michigan State and such famous basketball teams as Detroit Rayles, Detroit 'C.Y.' Grand Rapids 'Y,' Illinois A. C. and the Evanston Reds."

Veenker was always "Vink" to his teammates, and played no small part in their many victories. Already in those early days as a player he possessed an unusual ability in "guessing" and "out-guessing" the opposing team. This together with his knowledge of the game, in a large measure accounts for his unique record as a coach. Veenker's promotion has been rapid. After graduating from Hope college he began his coaching career at Hammond High school in Indiana. In 1920 he went to Frobel High of Gary and later to Emerson High of Gary, where in his four years of coaching Emerson High was unbeaten and won four Indiana state championships. This record attracted the attention of Fielding H. Yost at Michigan and Veenker was brought to Ann Arbor. At the University of Michigan he acted as assistant football coach and head basketball coach.

In 1923-24 he won a Big Ten championship in basketball and the following year tied Wisconsin for the title. The past season found Veenker as head football coach at Iowa State university, Iowa had won a football game in three years and Veenker last fall lost only one game and that to Nebraska and finished the season in second place in the Missouri Valley Conference.

This is what an old teammate has to say of Coach George Veenker: "Vink" has a wonderfully attractive personality. To know him is to love and respect him. He was born to lead. This, together with his excellent ability and judgment, are the cause of the success he has enjoyed in his chosen profession. Hope college may well be proud of George Veenker."

All of his old teammates and other Hope alumni will be pulling for George Veenker and the Badgers in the coming football campaign.

SOUND TAX REDUCTION

There is room, and plenty of it, for sound tax reduction by government. But in some quarters there seems to be a misunderstanding of the question.

Nothing must be done that will in any way imperil the legitimate operation of government, or cause it to fail in meeting its liabilities. If that should happen, the inevitable result would be panic—and there is no telling where it would end. It is manifestly impossible for government to cut costs to the degree of manufacturing businesses, which can adjust overhead to demand for their products.

What government can do is to eliminate waste, duplication of effort, the general inefficiency prevalent in many departments. Doing this would improve, rather than damage, the operation of government—and it would be a boon to the taxpayer who is already struggling under severe burdens.

Oscar Peterson, city clerk, reported that approximately 200 new registrations were listed for the general election before the deadline Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The general election will be held Monday, April 4.

ALLEGAN COUNTY FARM AGENT NOTES

The last of the series of horticultural schools for the fruit-growers of Allegan county will be held on Wednesday, March 30, at 10 a. m.; Fennville High school at 2 p. m.; Allegan court house at 7:30 p. m. Mr. W. C. Dutton, horticultural specialist from the Michigan State college, will be in Allegan county for these meetings and will discuss the spray schedule. Bring your spray problems to one of these meetings.

Now is the time to lime. Never was the need to use limestone in Michigan more urgent than it is right now. Maximum yields must be obtained or profits turn to losses. Competition in farming, as in every other line of business, is too keen to permit of any low production per unit, whether it be acre, man, animal or machine. Money invested in lime is returned many fold if properly applied. It will pay handsome returns even on borrowed money. Who would refuse to invest $13 this year if he knew that he would get back $5 a year for the next eleven years? Yet the state college's records in Cass county show a much greater return. The price of limestone is the lowest in years. Full advantage of the present opportunity should be made. Let us resolve to make 1932 the year to test our soils and satisfy the lime requirements. The sooner we start the sooner the dividend checks will be coming in. PUT IT ON—DON'T PUT IT OFF! Visit the soil testing train on Allegan on Tuesday, March 29, from 10 to 10:30, slow time. Visit the soil testing train. Have your soil tested. The time to lime is NOW.

In the city and now is numbered among the largest. The church received its name from the name of Zeeland's principal street when the city still was a village. The church, when first constructed, was on the east end of North street, a small frame building. A short time later another and larger structure was completed but this also proved too small. This building later became known as "the yard" and was the city's leading headquarters in 1909 the congregation moved to the new church on West Main street, the city fathers having changed the name of the street. But founders of the church would not change the name of the church. During the 50 years the church has been served by seven pastors, Rev. J. F. Fies, Rev. J. Remmerma, Rev. K. Kreulen, Rev. J. B. Bird Migrants To Be in Flight In Short Time

MICHIGAN MAY EXPECT ITS QUOTA MOST ANY TIME NOW;
PREPARE BIRD HOUSES

Arctic or sub-Arctic birds which have spent their winters in Michigan are getting ready to leave for the Northland, as other migrants are working their way from South America and the Gulf of Mexico to spend the summer in Michigan.

Among the birds to which Michigan has been host this winter is the three-toed woodpecker, differing from all other woodpeckers by having only two toes forward and one aft. He retires to the Upper Peninsula and even farther north to carry on his nesting with his mate. In former years, when great coniferous forests spread all over southern Michigan, the pine grosbeak must have been very common, but today it is quite rare, even in the Upper Peninsula. The Bohemian waxwing visits Michigan at irregular intervals during the winter, but before the coming of spring, they are away and off to their nesting sites.

Snowflakes Well Known

The gay snowflakes or snow buntings are better known to Michigan bird students, and as the snow itself melts away, the buntings seem to melt away with it. While this winter there were fewer Arctic snowy owls than several years ago those that did visit Michigan will retire to their northern haunts sometime in April.

As the winter visitors to Michigan leave, the summer birds arrive, bringing about a change in bird population. Why the birds should move up and down and across the continent is a riddle that has puzzled bird students for many, many years, and is yet far from being completely solved. Interest in bird migration goes back to a remote period; marvelous as were the tales of spring and fall movements of birds as spun by early observers, yet hardly less incredible are the ascertained facts.

More persons today are watching birds and noting their arrival and departure than ever before. The United States Biological Survey has received migration notes from as many as 2,000 observers, showing how widespread is the recent development of this important phase of nature study. It has been ascertained that some birds migrate by day, but that most of them seek the cover of darkness.

Night Migrants, Too

Day migrants include ducks and geese, (which also migrate by night) hawks, swallows, night-hawks and chimney swifts. The last two, combining business and pleasure, catch their morning or evening meal during a zigzag flight that tends in the desired direction. The night migrants include all the great family of warblers, the thrushes, flycatchers, vireos, orioles, tanagers, shorebirds and most of the sparrows. They usually begin their flight soon after dark and end it before dawn, and go farther before than after midnight.

Within a fortnight summer birds will be returning to Michigan to choose their nesting sites, and now is the time to think about birdhouses with which you may attract bluebirds, and Martins, wrens and robins, swallows and flickers, woodpeckers and even screech owls to your premises. If Holland school pupils forget, Miss Lydia Rogers will remind them, for she takes a live interest in such matters.

Anyway, birdhouse building interests youngsters and grown-ups alike, and since the requirements of a perfect birdhouse are few and simple, both easily can make homes entirely suitable for their feathered friends. Many of the small songbirds will nest in a hollow tree or in a deserted woodpecker nest, and if you would have a birdhouse which will appeal to wrens, bluebirds, and the woodpeckers themselves, make a house which will resemble nature's own burrows.

Wood is by all means the best building material. It is resistant to extremes of heat and cold, keeps out rain, it is easily worked, and harmonizes with its surroundings. Metal should be avoided because it is a great conductor of heat. Select wood of the easily workable type: cypress, pine or yellow poplar. Rough slabs with the bark on (sawmill waste) are cheap and are very satisfactory for rustic houses.

Careful of Paint

You may leave your birdhouse with a rustic finish, or you may paint it in tones of brown, gray or green. Some bird builders prefer to use stain, rather than paint. If you build a marten house, you may choose bright colors, for the martens do not seem to mind this at all. If your marten house is to be placed in an exposed position, it is well to paint it white to reflect heat.

A few principles to bear in mind when building your bird houses are: to provide roofs with sufficient pitch to shed water easily, to provide ventilation by means of several small sugar holes through the walls at the top of the box, to make the house so it may be readily cleaned at the end of the season, to place a round entrance near the top of the box.

For all birds except the martens which nest in colonies, the single-room house is very satisfactory. So simple are these to make, that detailed drawings scarcely are necessary. All of the smaller birds will be attracted by bird houses with a floor cavity of four to five inches square, and the house about eight inches deep. The larger birds, such as the flicker, should have a nest 14 to 16 inches deep, while the hairy and red-headed woodpeckers houses need not be made more than 12 inches deep.

Most important is the diameter of the entrance which should be as follows: for bluebirds, tree swallows, hairy woodpeckers, 1 1/2 inches; for house wrens, 1 inch; for chickadees, 1 1/4 inches; for purple martens and flickers, 2 1/4 inches; for

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES TO BE HELD TODAY

An unusual and at the same time a very necessary service will be held this afternoon, Good Friday, from 2 o'clock noon until 3 o'clock at Hope church. While the services have been arranged by the Reformed Churches of Holland it will be a non-denominational service and everyone is welcome to take part. There will be several speakers and their theme will embrace the "Seven Words From the Cross" so appropriate at Eastertide. Prof. W. Curtis Snow of Hope College has arranged a program of music and singing that will intersperse the sermonettes as given by the following speakers: Dr. S. C. Netanga, president of the Western Theological Seminary; Dr. Wynand Wichers, president of Hope College; Dr. Henry Hospers, Dr. Albertus Pieters, Prof. Thomas Welmers, Rev. Paul Hinkamp.

red-headed woodpeckers, 2 inches. Place Them Low

In placing your bird boxes, remember it is well to place them fairly low—not out of reach of a ladder. They should not be placed in dense woods, and birds seem to prefer homes placed on poles to those placed on trees. If possible, they should be placed with the opening away from the prevailing winds.

It is not well to have a large number of boxes on a limited area, especially those designed to attract the same species. Tree swallows, however, are sociable, and several individual homes for them may be placed together. Purple martens always nest in colonies, and homes for these birds should be on poles well separated from trees and buildings.

In many cases home-making birds can be helped by providing nesting material such as rags, ravelings and twine in short pieces. Excelsior, hay cotton, and even hair and feathers, may be placed outside for the birds to find. If you already have birdhouses on your premises, do not neglect to clean them out thoroughly, for clean boxes have a better chance of being occupied.

GETS U. S. WHEAT IN ALLEGAN

Mayor Mosier received word Monday that a part of the forty million bushels of wheat which congress has voted to use of the Red Cross in aiding indigent people throughout the country will be assigned by due share for use in Allegan. Mayor Mosier at once got into communication with county Red Cross officials in order to make such application as the circumstances require. The wheat will be distributed in form of flour.

The Sons of the Revolution observed "Ladies' Night" at their meeting last week, Thursday evening, by inviting the women as guests. The meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell R. Buss in Central Park. Professor E. Paul McLean of Hope college read a paper on "Colonial Schoolmasters." Mrs. J. D. French played two violin solos, "Cradle Song," by Brahms, and "Minuet" by Mozart. Two piano selections were played by Mrs. Harold J. Karsten, "Nocturne" by Resphigi and "Minstrels" by Debussy. Refreshments were served.

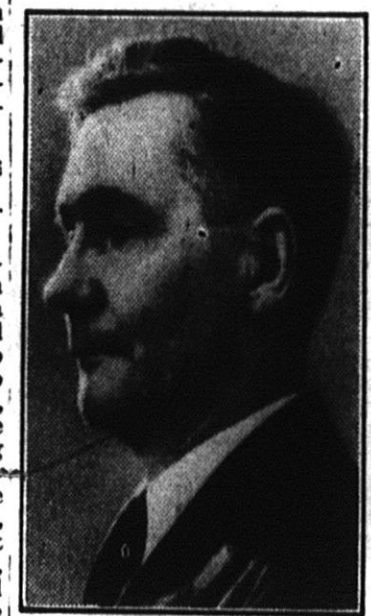

Frances Hall, 18, and Dorothy Herley, 18, both of Benton Harbor, pleaded guilty to charges of simple larceny in Justice John Gallen's court Thursday and were assessed costs of $19.36 and $21.33, respectively, with the alternative of 30 days each in the county jail if the amounts are not paid before March 22.

CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR FROM PIONEER STOCK

The Holland City News has already printed the picture of the other mayoralty candidates before the primaries. However, the picture of Albert Kleis was not available at the time and is now printed in The News for the first time.

"Al," as he is called by his many friends, comes from a Holland family of pioneers. His father, the late Peter Kleis, came to the Holland colony as a lad shortly after Dr. Van Raalte had established his settlement at the head of Black Lake.

The father, like the son, was an alderman of the First ward for three terms and in the early days

ALD. AL KLEIS
Candidate for Mayor.

Peter Kleis was also interested in other civic projects. He was a fireman in Columbia hose company No. 2, where he was promoted to chief, serving many years. Ald. "Al" Kleis has served 9 years as a "city father" of the First ward and is at present chaplain of the Holland Common Council.

He has been an able city official and served on the committee on ways and means and the committee on claims and accounts. He also was a member of the welfare and unemployment committees.

Mr. Kleis has been in business in Holland for at least a quarter of a century. The Kleis family has been closely identified with Holland from the very beginning. Mrs. P. Kleis, mother of Albert, died two years ago at the age of 81 years.

Dr. Arnold Mulder, professor of English at Kalamazoo college and formerly president of the Michigan Authors' association, will speak at the spring meeting of the association in Battle Creek Saturday, April 2. His subject will be "Birth Places of Great Books." Mr. Mulder was formerly a resident of Holland and editor of the Holland Evening Sentinel.

THE POULTRY OUTLOOK

Because of present low prices for eggs many poultrymen have planned on reducing their purchases of chicks or the normal number of eggs for setting. Although eggs are now at present due to practically no eggs being placed in storage, smaller demand for eggs from hatcheries, lack of buying power on the part of the public and because the open winter has caused high egg production, conditions look favorable.

Next fall the outlook is for a shortage of pullets, low amount of eggs in storage, low feed costs and better poultry products prices and if industrial conditions improve greater buying power by the public. Poultrymen should purchase the normal amount of chicks or set a normal amount of eggs this year in order to be prepared to profit by any improvement that may come, states Agricultural Agent Milham.

A rabbit short course and show will be held at Michigan State college March 30 and 31 at Demonstration hall. New ideas relative to care and management, parasites and troubles will be discussed, a rabbit clinic held and a rabbit supper served. Ottawa county produces many rabbits each year for both meat and breeding stock and it will be an opportunity, says Agricultural Agent Milham, to pick up valuable information for the industry.

Onion growers are urged to grow the best quality of onions possible this year, stated C. H. Mahoney, garden specialist, at meetings last week arranged by Agricultural Agent Milham. Prospects are for increased acreage and improved onion condition in the soil. One cause there is a large crop the onions that will bring the best price will be the early onions. Mr. Mahoney recommended planting sets and seedling onions as early in the spring as possible in order to obtain the large growth before hot weather and thrips come.

Insects are apt to be numerous this year, according to C. B. Dibble from the state college, who addressed Ottawa farmer groups this week. Due to the mild winter few insects have been killed and farmers should be prepared to fight grasshoppers, cut worms, army worms, aphids and other pests. Bulletins giving methods of mixing formulas and descriptions of insects of garden and field crops are available at the agricultural agent's office or will be mailed free to anyone requesting them.

Tax Levy On Duck Shooting Hits Hunters

LAW WILL TOUCH THE FOCK-
ETBOOK OF EVERY SPORTS-
MAN WHO FIRES A GUN

It appears that a federal law may be enacted according to Albert Stoll, Jr., of the Detroit News, who says that the bugaboo of no duck shooting in the near future, due to the growing scarcity of wildfowl brought about by drought, drainage of feeding and breeding grounds, over-shooting and lack of a sufficient number of wardens to enforce our bird laws, is responsible for the proposal to tax every shooter one cent for every shotgun shell used.

This tax of a cent a shell is sponsored by the American Game Association, the More Game Birds in America Foundation and hundreds of local sportsmen's associations throughout America. A bill will shortly be introduced in Congress calling for the establishment of the tax.

It is estimated that $7,500,000 a year can be raised in this manner and it will be used to protect and propagate our dwindling hosts of wildfowl, in the hope that old time hunting conditions will eventually be restored. The abbreviated 90-day shooting period of 1931 for wild fowl brought home the seriousness of the situation to the millions of duck hunters.

The salient features of the program are:

First, a tax of 1 cent a shell on shotgun ammunition, paid by the manufacturer, borne indirectly by the shooter.

Second, trap and skeet shooters will get a refund.

Third, the $7,500,000 a year estimated revenue is based on the present consumption of shotgun ammunition.

Fourth, approximately one-half of this revenue will go to the states for the maintenance of their own game departments and the other half to the Government to be used to rehabilitate waterfowl breeding grounds and refuge areas and to maintain a nationwide warden service of sufficient strength to keep down violations of the migratory bird laws.

The tax, should it become a law, will affect every shooter regardless of the kind of game he hunts. It will be collected by the Federal Government and the various states will share in the distribution of the funds on the basis of the amount of ammunition going into each.

The sponsors of this movement hope to get early Congressional action so that the law would become effective during 1932.

City Clerk Oscar Peterson and City Treasurer Nicholas Sprietema ask that all persons have holding checks from the city cash them at once so they can prepare their records for the annual inspection of auditing.

Mr. and Mrs. John Voss entertained the consistory members of Prospect Park Christian Reformed church and their wives at their home on West Seventeenth street. During the evening Mr. Voss showed motion pictures and told of their experiences on a trip to the mission fields in New Mexico and California. Rev. L. Van Laar made a few remarks after which refreshments were served. The doxology was sung and prayer was offered. Twenty-one guests were present.

COMMUNICATION

Mr. Ben Mulder, Holland City News, Holland, Michigan.

Dear Mr. Mulder:

A news item appeared in your last paper referring to peddlers as being a factor in spreading of measles. The public may have gathered a wrong impression from this article.

As was related to you during our conversation a week ago there were several scattered cases of measles in Allendale, Polkton and Blendon Townships in which no history of direct contact could be determined until one patient gave a history that a peddler had visited about ten days before he became ill, who, according to all appearances, was developing measles. It so happened that every case which occurred at that time gave the history that the peddler had called on the same day. From this single incident there were seven families which were reported to the health unit and which were found to have measles. In these families several other cases of measles developed following the first cases resulting from exposure to the peddler. One outbreak occurred in a school which resulted in an epidemic in which seven families are in isolation.

This instance gives a very concrete example of how epidemics may visit a community. Had this man who was going from house to house, unknowingly spreading measles, been coming down with a small pox or diphtheria an epidemic would have occurred as well but of a much more serious nature, had the contacts not been previously vaccinated or immunized. Realizing that peddlers are not at all popular as it is, we do not wish to do them the injustice by giving the people the impression that because of their habit of calling from house to house they might be spreading epidemics. The incident referred to merely proves that direct contact with some one who is harboring the disease whether he or she be a peddler or just a caller, is by far the most important factor in the spreading of it. We wish to take this opportunity to thank you for your keen interest in our work and for courteous extended to us in the past.

Very truly yours,
DR. R. YEN HAVE.

The Holland City News stands corrected and thanks Dr. Yen Have for setting us right.

The Zeeland High debate team was defeated by South High of Grand Rapids Friday night. Grand Rapids Christian was defeated by Muskegon. This leaves Muskegon and Grand Rapids South the only remaining teams in the State High school debate league. Both schools are in the quarter-finals.

Defying the slippery roads between the "Dorm" and our neighboring city (we mean "town") of Zeeland, twenty-two members of the Senior Girls' Association piled into cars bound for an evening of peppy entertainment at the home of Miss Lois Alma De Pree, our 1932 valedictorian.

Vocal duets were sung by Ruth Van Dyke and Iva Klerk, accompanied at the piano by Zella Ruth Skillern, after which President Edith Dreescher appointed committees for the next meeting to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Vander Meulen on West Eleventh Street through the invitation of Mary Harper. Lois Keppel was made chairman of the program committee, and Greta MacCleod chairman of the refreshment committee.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, and the rest of the evening was spent in playing games. The S.G.A.'s were unanimous in their expressions for the meeting with "and a good time was had by all."

The honor roll for the sixth period is small because of the number of absences during the past month. The absentees rated from 35 per cent to 40 per cent of the entire school, and those who have not yet made up their work are not marked on their report card, and so they are not on the honor roll. Next month we hope to have the usual number back on the list.

Harbor Board had a meeting and discussed the matter of what should be done with the silt and other dredgings that would come from the bottom of the Lake. Mr. Hyma stated that it might be advantageous to have this dumped in places where it could be gotten at and used for filling in and top soil for parks since it would be very fertile.

Unfinished Business

Russell Haight, being present, appeared before the Council and stated that he was interested in leasing from the city the lot on the corner of Lincoln avenue and Eighth street, to be used for a stand in connection with the drug store, which he would run for the Arctic Ice Cream Co.

Mr. Peter Botsis was also present and contended that it had been agreed to lease him this property before Mr. Haight contemplated having any use for it. This whole matter had previously been referred by the council to the ways and means committee with power to act.

On motion of Alderman Hyma, seconded by Vandenberg, it was recommended that the property be leased to Mr. Botsis at a price of $150 per year. Both Mr. Hyma and Mr. Vandenberg contended that they could not honorably take any other position since Mr. Botsis had made such an agreement even before Mr. Haight contemplated opening the drug store. Alderman Kleis favored leasing the property to Mr. Haight, stating that in his negotiations with Mr. Botsis he had always said that if Mr. Haight should not open the drug store and was not interested in leasing it to Mr. Botsis, Mr. Kleis further contended that the people in the First ward needed a drug store and postal substation which was located in the drug store, and stated that he was informed that the Arctic Ice Cream Co. would not reopen the store if they could not secure the adjoining stand.

After some further remarks by the city attorney and aldermen, the majority report presented by Mr. Hyma was adopted and the property leased to Mr. Peter Botsis.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB WILL MAKE TOUR OF MIDDLE WEST

The Young Men's Glee Club, thirty strong, will leave on their tour of Illinois and Wisconsin either on Monday or Tuesday during spring vacation.

On Tuesday evening, March 29, they will be in South Holland, Illinois, where Rev. T. W. Mullenburg (our John's dad) is the pastor. On Wednesday evening they will sing at the Bethany Reformed Church at Roseland, Illinois. Rev. Harry Hager, former Professor of Bible at Hope College, is the pastor of this church. On Thursday evening they will give their concert at the Englewood Church on 63rd St., where Rev. J. H. Altus holds the pastorate. On Friday the men will leave for Wisconsin and on that evening they will sing at the Reformed Church in Milwaukee. Here they will be guests at a dinner of the Men's League of that church. On Saturday evening, April 2, they will be at Gibbville, Wisconsin, at the church of Rev. M. C. Ruissard. The men will spend their Sunday at Cedar Grove, Wisconsin, and on Sunday evening will give their concert at the church of Rev. C. Kuiper. (By the way, Cedar Grove is the home of Roger Vosskuil, Bill Kuiper, and a few other famous persons). Monday evening, April 4, the singers will be at the Reformed Church in Sheboygan, where Rev. G. De Motta is pastor. On Thursday they will start on their return trip, stopping that evening at the Reformed Church at Fulton, Illinois, the pastor of which is Rev. G. N. Van Pernis.

Dr. Wichers will probably accompany the boys, at least on a part of the trip. Fenton is sure that, after a week of rehearsals, the fellows will be "all set" for their presentations in these different cities. We feel that the Men's Glee Club will be a Hope representation of which we may all be proud. Do you best, boys!

Hope Has Third Place in M.I.A.A.
as Final Grade

Hope has enjoyed a very successful basketball season this year. The schedule included sixteen games, ten conference games, with six outside games. Hope secured a record break in the sixteen game schedule, winning eight and losing eight. Numbered among its victims were Hillsdale, twice; Alma, twice; Albion; Calvin, twice, and Junior College of Grand Rapids. The Dutchmen were defeated twice by strong teams of Western State, Kalamazoo and Olivet, besides suffering single defeats at the hands of Albion and Ferris.

Hope finished in undisputed third place, gaining an even break in their conference games. It is the first time since Hope entered the conference that they have landed in the first division. Splendid co-operation that has been in evidence this season is clearly brought out in the scoring of the team. Five points separate the scoring of the first three men. "Jerry" Nykerk leads the individual scoring of the team for the entire season with 106 points, "Howie" Dalman running a close second with 102 points and "Wally" Spoelstra a good third with 101 points. The complete M. I. A. A. scoring is available at this publication, but Hope's three contestants' standing follows: Nykerk 74, H. Dalman 73, and Spoelstra 72. Hope's foul shooting showed an excellent percentage with boys making good 109 shots out of a possible 197 attempts. The team play was excellent, many times players sacrificing scoring opportunities to cooperate for the good of the team. Each man, whenever called upon gave the best that he had for his Alma Mater.

The guards, although they receive very little credit, commanded their positions in a very capable manner, scoring points when Hope needed them most. "Andy" Dalman provided most of the scoring punch of the guards with 56 points while "Louis" Janninga and Frank Visser added 28 and 21 points respectively. The guards although they encountered a number of scoring men held them down to a small number of points.

The reason that our team made such a fine showing this year was due to the word co-operation. Each man on the team co-operated in whatever he was asked to do. Each man's conduct served as an example for the rest of the team. Spoelstra and H. Dalman were elected as captains for the season.

Splendid co-operation was also given by the student body who turned out in large numbers at the games. We are sorry to lose three members from our team due to graduation, but there is always one satisfaction that next year someone will be found to fill their worthy shoes.

And thus bath ended a most successful basketball season. Hail to the basketball team of '31-'32.

SORORIS ALUMNAE

HOLD PARTY FOR

ACTIVE CHAPTER

The alumnae of Sororitis held their annual party for the active chapter last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. C. Landwehr. Every member of the active chapter was present and even more alumnae which made the number of gathered Sororitis to almost one hundred.

To see Miss Tyse, our librarian, blackened up as a negress and wearing the most ancient coat and straw hat was a sight too funny for words.

All the Sororitis gathered at Mrs. Landwehr's home at the alumnae meeting last Friday night, burst out laughing.

Even more startling, however, was the confession that Miss Tyse had a "follower," Hazel Albers and Edith Cook, who took the roles of bachelorette girls entirely apart from men, severely criticized our librarian for her flirtation. But after many clever complications the negress finally converts the two man-haters to such an extent that one of the erst-while demure spinsters admits that bachelordom is no fun.

There was quite a moral in this drama, and many of the audience took it to heart.

Another play was given and hugely enjoyed. It was "Wives-in-Law," written by a U. of Michigan student, Anne Vischer, with her charming acting, brought out all the sparkling sophistication while Mrs. Pellegrin became a buffer for her wit. Helena Vischer as the messenger boy and Mrs. Yoemans as the salesman, who wore pink shirts with blue collars, were excellent in their roles.

Miss Nella Meyer played an "Impromptu in a Flat" by Chopin, which was greatly enjoyed.

Edith Drescher, Sororitis president, greeted the alumni, afterwards giving a summary of Sororitis achievements during the past year. Then she introduced the ten new girls, who sang a song of greeting.

After the program, while every one of the 94 guests was chattering, laughing, and getting acquainted, refreshments were served.

PI KAPPA DELTA PLANS TO HOLD BANQUET APRIL 6. The Gamma chapter of Pi Kappa Delta has planned to hold a banquet April 6 in the Trinity church parlors.

All the alumni of Pi Kappa Delta in the vicinity are invited. Mr. Stanley Albers of Union High School in Grand Rapids will be the speaker. Eight new members are asking membership in the fraternity.

Those seeking membership in the fraternity this year who have become eligible because of their accomplishments in either debate or oratory, are as follows: Don Vandenberg, David De Witt, Edith Cunningham, Evelyn Wierda, Marie Verduin, Joe Esther, Henry Kuizenga and Marvin Krutzenga. These neophytes will be formally received into the "national society of the silver tongues," under the official and dignified Pi Kappa Delta ritual, which, by the way, some have described as "horribly sanguine."

But once a member, one is entitled to a golden key set with jewels, purported to open the gates to success, to a professor's heart—yes, and some claim it will even unlock the mysteries of a woman's mind! Those wishing to attend the banquet are asked to "say so" before April 5. Beatrice Visser, Theodore Chapin or Henry Kleinheksel will be glad to take your name and incidentally your 50 cents. And this is a new ruling: You may take a friend whether that friend be a member or not.

Let's go! Peitho, Kale, Dikaia!
