Holland To Have Dutch Windmill At New Bridge

MAYOR BOSCH DEMANDS THAT SECOND WARD BE FREED OF SEWER
STENCH

The common council meeting last evening was not of long duration although a very important one.

The annual appropriation bill, showing what Holland is to spend for next year, is found in full on page 3 of this section. It appears that there has been much cutting down because of economic stress. It would be well to turn to that page.

Vaudie Vandenberg, chairman of the Tulip Time committee, presented a proposal that the city add in building a windmill, true to Netherlands type, 50 feet high, the ground floor and foundation to be 15 feet. The estimate of cost on this windmill is $850. All the Tulip Time committee asks from the city is some of the old Ottawa Furniture company material and some CWA or welfare help to build it. The rest of the finances is to be met by popular subscription.

The ground floor of the windmill can be used for the storing of bulbs, park garden tools, etc., by the city.

The windmill will be placed about 50 feet from the river bank in what is known as Lakeview park, created to the west of the new bridge when that was built over Black River.

The mill will be built between two large tulip beds and the landscaping will conform with the Dutch setting.

The mayor was enthusiastic about the thing and stated that undoubtedly the city could give a little added help with the popular subscription.

On motion of Alderman Drinkwater of the Second ward, supported by Alderman Van Lente, the windmill passed unanimously.

When the appropriation bill came up there were items of $10,000 and $6,000. Mayor Bosch called to the chair chairman of the ways and means committee, Alderman Van Zoeren, and the mayor took the floor in behalf of a very needy change rather an elimination in the Second ward.

In the first place the upper bay must be cleaned out so the river can flow more easily and that will do away with rotting vegetable matter in the swamps. It is proposed to dig a new channel through the made-land in front of the Northside tannery in order that Black River may flow straight into Black Lake without being dammed up through this detour of land or rather swamp that has gradually become a barrier to the stream and has repeatedly been proposed in this city.

The mayor stated that this would bring a great deal of shovel labor where the city could put idle men to work.

City Engineer Zuidema gave an estimate of how many men would be employed in digging a new channel. The mayor also suggested that the swamp east of the river bridge be ditched with wider channels and that the dirt be made a top soil suitable for many gardens. This would also do away with stench pools of stagnant water. The appropriation was $10,000 for regular work and $6,000 for reclamation work.

Mayor Bosch went still further in asking a clean-up in the Second ward. He brought up the matter of the terrible stench at the sewage disposal plant. The mayor said:

"This terrible condition is an injustice to the Second warders who live in that vicinity and to the travelers who come into our city. I do not have to tell you how bad that odor is. Anyone who has driven on north River avenue on a hot summer day does not have to be told. This condition is nauseating and must be detrimental to good health."

"I believe fully in the beautiful flowers and tulips but it seems rather out of order to have sweet smelling things all over the city with a stench hole on the main thoroughfare. I am more relieved offerings during that short period. It is a body of musicians of which we are all justly proud and they merit the support of this city and vicinity."

The general admission is but 25 cents for an unusually long evening of pleasant entertainment.

Seats for all patron members will be held until 8:05.

WILL SHOW BIBLE LAND PICTURES

An illustrated lecture, "A Pilgrimage to Calvary," will be given by Rev. John Everington of Grand Rapids in First Reformed church, on Tuesday evening, on March 27, at 7:45 o'clock. These beautiful colored pictures of the Gethsemane, Calvary and the Garden of the Resurrection will make our Lenten-Easter season more meaningful and sacred. Everyone is cordially invited. The lecture is sponsored by the Semper Fidelis class. A silver offering for missions will be taken.

FLOWERS FOR THE BANK

With the opening of the Holland City State bank the floral offerings were beautiful. There were baskets from the National Bank of Detroit, Donnelly-Kelley Glass Co., Duffy Mfg. Co. and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ebelink of Holland. Also there was a fine basket of flowers containing the following greeting from Detroit:

"Heartiest congratulations from the American Legion department of Michigan on the occasion of the reopening of the Holland City State bank. That you are the first of the so-called small bank group in Michigan to reach the goal is a fine compliment to your officers and directors."

WILL TELL OF RUSSIA IN ZEELAND

Rev. Peter Deyneka, native Russian evangelist, who has just returned from a trip to Russia, will give a stereoscopic lecture on Russia on Saturday night, March 24, at 7 o'clock, in Bible Witness hall, Zeeland. He will show in these pictures conditions in Russia as they are at the present time. Mr. Deyneka will also speak on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock; at the Young People's meeting at 6:15 o'clock, and at the evening services at 7:30 o'clock.—Zeeland Record.

COUNCIL NOTES

Alderman Kleis opened the council meeting with prayer.

The Igloo Ice Cream company asked for a license to do business on East Eighth street near College avenue in the Arendshorst building. The name is rather appropriate, at least for a cool product, considering that an Igloo is an Eskimo ice hut.

John Knapp asked for the stentch time that River avenue be rezoned so he can build a store diagonally across from Junior High. "We're the aldermen too," they cried in chorus. "File it." It was filed. This matter has been hanging fire for three years. The aldermen are terribly "fed up" on a proposal that has been turned down by the zoning board and the common council not less than a dozen times.

Alderman Habing pointed to the beautiful new council rooms just done over through the CWA. A quarter-sawn wood, beautifully varnished border at the ceiling, makes the large chamber look beautiful and rich. Everything is done in dull rubinish, even the desks. The walls look rather bare just now since the pictures of all the mayors since Holland's incorporation as a city are temporarily missing. There are at least a score of them.

The American Legion auxiliary asked that they be privileged to sell poppies the Saturday before Memorial day. It was unanimously granted.

The new alderman, George Damsen of the Fourth ward, took a peek into the council rooms to see how it is done. Alderman Kalkman of the Second ward takes a look every week and generally has a few things to say.

Assessor Peter Van Ark asked for back pay of $1,754.70, which he claims really belongs to him but was short because of a salary cut a few years ago. The letter would imply that if settlement was not made in specified time that suit would be filed although the letter did not say this specifically.

The aldermen unanimously voted to file the communication which would bring action of some sort on the part of the city assessor. The reasons for this demand have been fully explained in past issues of the News. It is understood that the aldermen feel that they were entirely within their rights to make the salary reduction. A few weeks ago a communication from Attorney Thomas N. Robinson gave a detailed explanation why Mr. Van Ark could not be paid the stipulated amount, which communication was also published.

Former Alderman Brieve, who moved to the Fifth ward, was a visitor last evening.

The annual appropriation bill contained $600 for aldermen's salary. Alderman Kleis brought laughter from the audience when he said that he wished it understood that this was not $600 per alderman, but rather $600 for 12 aldermen or $50 per year.

Your editor has written council proceedings for forty years and believe me those city fathers surely earn their $50 and then some. The time they put in for that price surely would put the NRA to shame.

The mayor especially praised the Vandenberg Bros. Oil Co. for promptly pulling down an unsightly signboard on River avenue and First street. The aldermen especially commented that this was rapid co-operation and the Vandenberg Bros. Oil Co. was given due praise.

The common council passed the tax exemption for soldiers and sailors of the Civil and Spanish-American wars on homes of $2,000. There were 12 of them. The vote stood 3 to 8. Alderman Henry Prins being absent because of the rush in the license bureau.

Mrs. Vern F. Bush, who resides on the north shore road recently received a letter from her brother, Ike Schmick, who has served in the army for twelve years. In Mr. Schmick's letter he gives an army scout's point of view in flying air mails. Mr. Schmick at present is stationed at St. Louis. He is on a run from Chicago to Dallas, an all-night flight with the assistance of radio.

Miss Constance Bement, head of the extension department of the state library at Lansing, who some years ago reorganized Zeeland high school library index system, was a visitor at the library in Holland on her return trip from Pennville where she had just completed installing a similar system.

Bank Opening Brings Feeling Of Happiness

THE HOLLAND CITY STATE BANK OCCUPIES AN ENVY-
ABLE POSITION FINANCIALLY

There is a feeling of optimism in Holland today that augurs well the opening of spring. Official spring came due on the 20th of March and that always brings a more hopeful spirit after a long and bitter winter.

It is quite a coincidence that the Holland City State bank has opened up with a 50 per cent pay-off as spring opens and Holland and vicinity have every reason to feel that it is the harbinger of brighter days ahead.

On page three, section two of this issue is shown the financial set-up of this reorganized and recapitalized banking institution. It is a very fine statement with over a million dollars of cash assets.

What the local bank officials and the faithful staff of employees have gone through can never be realized. Audit after audit, delay after delay, not because of the local men but because of red tape that such governmental procedure seems to require.

Although there have been many disappointments because of these delays we happen to know that nothing was left undone to make the Holland City State bank an institution that carries with it confidence and future assurance to all the depositors. Of course, the United States government demands that and judging from the statement, which is plain reading, there is no doubt but that these demands have been lived up to.

Automatically when the bank opened it was compelled, the same as all other federal reserve banks, to go into the guarantee of deposits, which assures every depositor that his or her money is safe. All Holland banks are blanketed with federal deposit insurance as assured by federal law passed by the national congress and approved and signed by the president of the United States.

With the reorganization of the Holland City State bank 225 new stockholders have been added, largely from Holland and Ottawa county. These men have full faith in the local institution and that gives more impetus and added confidence in this financial organization.

The officials of the bank state the bank has been open four days now and the responses and new deposits have been remarkable. The first day the amount was over $30,000, one lone depositor from Ottawa county bringing $1,000 in one deposit.

The three days following the first day brought still more gratifying results and the bank staff feels grateful indeed. They were especially appreciative because of patience and good will shown by the depositors during these trying months.

There have been some withdrawals but mostly for immediate need, the paying of bills and not a few for back taxes, which all flows back into the financial stream into the banks again after a few days.

By far the largest proportion of the depositors have transferred their deposits in an orderly way, the same as before this general bank defection disturbed the entire country.

One of those paradoxical features that has always been strange during these bank disturbances was when fear came, then withdrawals started, but when banks were solidified and made doubly safe through deposit insurance, folks are mighty slow in asking for their money or transferring it to a regular account. That has been noticeable through the entire nation. Many depositors in other banks in Holland, although open a half year, have allowed their accounts to remain there as they were and have not even taken the trouble to transfer them which must be done to make them available.

It simply means that bank fears in Holland have disappeared and confidence has returned.

Anyway, the officials and faithful employees of the Holland City State bank deserve praise for their untiring, exhaustive, patient work in living up to the expectations that Uncle Sam has demanded from them.

In connection with the Holland City State bank's approval to resume normal business, it is interesting to note that all five of the governmental agencies that have jurisdiction over banks have specifically approved this reopening.

The opening of the Holland City State bank will bring brighter skies to Holland for the 50 per cent pay-off is timely and indeed encouraging to everyone.

WESTERN MICHIGAN SEA SCOUT LEADERS TO MEET IN THIS CITY SATURDAY (Grand Haven Tribune)

Sea Scout leaders in western Michigan and state officials will meet in this city Saturday at 3 p. m. to organize sea scouting in western Michigan. Commodore William Wilson of Detroit, head of sea scouting in Michigan, will be present. The place of the meeting has not been selected.

At a recent meeting of the state Sea Scout fleet committee in Lansing it was decided to divide the state into two sections for this work, eastern and western.

C. L. Beach of Holland was elected vice commodore for the western half of the state. Beach will also attend the meeting here. E. H. Norg, Ottawa county scout executive, was in the city yesterday making plans for the Saturday meeting.

Grand Haven has a flourishing Sea Scout ship, No. 18. Claude Ver Duin is acting skipper in the absence of Skipper Jake Fae, who is physical education director at the CCC camp at Munising.

The double mixed quartet "Kunst Na Arbeid," of Holland will sing over radio station WOOD, Grand Rapids, in the Holland service Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. John Berendse, director of the group, is in Holland.

Queen Mother of the Netherlands Dies

The venerable lady you see to the left of this picture is the dowager, Queen Emma of the Netherlands, who died very unexpectedly at the age of 75 years of bronchitis.

Queen Emma was born August 2, 1858. At the age of 20 she became the second wife of the Dutch monarch, who died in 1890. She ruled as queen until her daughter, the present Queen Wilhelmina, became of age. Of late years she was in the background of royal affairs but she was always loved and respected by her subjects, because of her many kindnesses shown while she was on the throne.

This picture, from right to left, showing Queen Wilhelmina, Prince Hendrich, Princess Juliana, and the Queen Mother Emma, was received by your editor from the late Gerrit J. Diekema, minister to The Netherlands, sent by him a few days before his death. It is said that it is the last message Mr. Diekema personally sent before his passing.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Tony and Henry DeKruif of Zeeland are on a gold mine prospecting trip. Note:—The former was a druggist and one of the early day race horse men, and the latter sold farm implements; they were pioneer builders of Zeeland. Both were well known in Western Michigan.

The firm of Van Oort, Witvliet and Beeuwkes, hardware merchants of this city, has changed to Van Oort and Beeuwkes. Mr. Witvliet retiring. Note:—The hardware was located in a wooden structure about where the Strand Theatre stands. Mr. Van Oort was the father of Mrs. Wm. Beeuwkes of Holland. Mr. Beeuwkes, father of Fred Beeuwkes, and Mr. Witvliet lives directly south of the City Hall.

At the school board meeting Mayor Bosch reports that he had purchased 53 1/2 cords of green wood double length at $3.00 per cord to be used next winter to heat the buildings. The members present were Isaac Cappon, W. H. Beach, G. J. Kollen, P. H. McBride and T. J. Boggs, the latter being secretary. Note:—And we thought Geerlings was always secretary.

Marriage:—At the parsonage of Hope Church in Holland on Thursday the 20th, before Rev. Thomas Walker James, the pastor, Henry J. Zwerner to Emma L. Woodhull, both of Saugatuck.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Yates, a daughter.

Mr. Jacob J. Van Zanten, son-in-law of Ex-Mayor E. Vander Veen, has accepted a position as assistant instructor in the classical academy in Orange City, Iowa. Mrs. Van Zanten is still living in Holland and Mrs. Albert Van Zoeren whose husband is alderman of the Third Ward was a daughter of the late Rev. Van Zanten.

A large Muskallonge weighing 34 pounds was caught in Black Lake in a net. Fishing with nets should be stopped and we hope to see some legal action taken to this end soon. Note:—The News fought these netters—well known people—for years but no conviction could be made until the people themselves began to realize that they as well as resorters would soon find this lake "fishless." Not until then could a jury be found to convict netters.

Virtues of Noble Women Extolled At Mission Meet

LOCAL ORGANIZATION HAS HELPED TO SAVE LEPROSERS
FOR 15 YEARS

Sing "The Old Ragged Cross" as Cross Made by Leper Is Displayed.

Hope Memorial chapel yesterday afternoon was the scene of an unusual meeting of the Federation of Women's Societies of the churches of Holland and vicinity.

The Holland City News, in its last issue, gave a review of what the founder, the late Mrs. C. V. R. Gilmore, had accomplished. The substance of this review as it appeared, was again given at the meeting by Mrs. William Stuart of Grand Rapids, honorary member, who spoke in the highest praise of this noble, God-fearing woman, who established an organization that will live for many years to come, even though the founder has departed.

In closing, Mr. Boer said: "Upon entering Mrs. Gilmore's home one saw hanging upon the walls these texts: 'Certainly, I Will Be with Thee' and 'Surely I Shall Not Pass This Way Again.' She lived, having abundant faith in His promises and lived each day for Him, never tiring of telling of her walking with God. Shall we neglect the trust she left us? If not, then we, too, must continue in the old-fashioned faith, ever trusting that He will be ever with us. We must also cherish the hope she had—so that we, too, will meet Him in eternity."

Mrs. Dierman then called upon Mrs. Robert Pool of Zeeland who gave a most fitting tribute to the memory of Miss Johanna Veenstra, late missionary to Africa. She related the history of Miss Veenstra's work on the dark continent, stating how behind the modest appearance of this beloved woman was a great strength, a wonderful beauty of a consecrated Christian life. She stated how Miss Veenstra was ever strong, and of good courage no matter what difficulties or hardships confronted her, and how even in her dying hour she could say "He is altogether lovely." She ended with the plea that others would follow in the footsteps of this pioneer for Christ whose goal was God, whose life was Christ.

Mrs. D. B. K. Van Raalte then favored the audience with a vocal solo, "A Prayer," beautifully rendered, after which Miss Mildred Driescher of India gave the main address of the afternoon. Miss Driescher, who for some years was principal of the Van Raalte avenue school, told how in her work as educational missionary in India she had found the love of God.

The funeral of Dorothy Annette Hoffsten took place Friday afternoon at the home of the parents, 19 East Ninth; Rev. W. W. Taylor and Rev. J. M. Vander Meulen officiating. She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. N. Hoffsten, having been adopted when but two weeks old. She had reached the age of six years. Note:—Mr. and Mrs. Hoffsten have three children thus far through adoption—it is a wonderful thing to do. There are many homes in Holland where adopted children grace them and we can think of nothing quite so fine, humane and comforting.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY
Nelson R. Stanton was an easy winner in the Republican primaries for County School Commissioner, opponent, H. H. Sevey of Wright Holland gave him 735 votes to his opponent, H. H. Sevey of Wright, 33 Grand Haven also endorsed Mr. Stanton. Holland gave Stanton nearly a 14 to 1 vote, surely showing the high esteem this man was held here.

A marriage license has been issued to Fred De Vries, 25, of Grand Rapids and Miss Anna Lugers, 25, of Holland.

Izzy Altman, proprietor of the French Cloak Store, has sold this establishment to John Van Taten-hove who for twelve years has been associated with the P. S. Roter Co. The News gives a column story on the change, telling of the many friendships Mr. and Mrs. Altman, who moved to Cleveland, left behind, also giving "Johnny" a fine boost as a "live wire" business man who has shown rare business acumen in the past. We predicted a success for this "Holland boy." This was 15 years ago, and John is still at the old stand, not only managing his own enterprise but doing much civic work whenever called upon and that is real often.

Justin H. Kortering and Miss Edith Barkel were married at Oversiel and will live at Riverside, Cal.

Born to Prof. and Mrs. Paul E. Hinkamp—a son.

Chris Koroos has just returned home from overseas. Note—A brave soldier he was and now owns the Green Mill.

Gerrit J. Geerds of 75 West Eighteenth street, has accepted a position with the Ball Band Rubber company of Mishawaka, Indiana. He will cover a sales territory of central Wisconsin.

Mrs. Etta M. Smith of Grand Rapids, state secretary of the Erutha Rebekah Lodge, will conduct a school of instruction at the business session of the local Rebekah lodge this Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the lodge hall on Pine avenue.

John Gallen was a business visitor in Allegan Wednesday.

Mrs. Gertrude Visch and Peter of Grand Rapids, Mrs. B. Huizenga, Peter Huizenga, Henry Huizenga, Mrs. Helen Van Loon, Mrs. Carrie Klein of Holland called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huizenga of Zeeland on Thursday.

OLDEST MINISTER IN REFORMED CHURCH 100

Rev. Jacob F. Snyder of New Kensington, oldest minister of the Reformed church, will celebrate his 100th birthday anniversary March 24 and there are several things that cause him to chuckle.

One is that he was rejected for service in the Union army during the Civil war because he was "too frail." The other is that 75 years ago insurance companies turned him down as a "poor risk," he says.

M-10 "Bee Line" In Bad Order

(Allegan Gazette)

There is already plenty of evidence that when spring comes the condition of highway M-10 between Allegan and Holland will be as bad as ever it was since improvement with gravel was begun. It will become all but impassable. There is no economy in further gravel treatment for this important road. The subsoil is such that the gravel rapidly disappears and extreme roughness follows. It is the only unpaved highway leading out from Holland and travel upon it is annually much increased. It is an important link between the western and southeastern sections of the state and to important connections farther eastward. More gravel would be only more waste. While highway work will be lessened this year because of decreased automobile taxes, this should not stand in the way of paving of this part at least of M-10. Plenty of paving exists on roads in the state of greatly less importance.

1,325 PLATES SOLD TO DATE AT BUREAU HERE

(Grand Haven Tribune)

A total of 1,325 passenger plates, 131 commercial plates, 77 trailers and 546 stickers had been sold in the office of the automobile license bureau in this city. Of the passenger plates, 700 have been sold since the reduction in price and 187 stickers have been secured. The new price has enabled many persons to buy plates rather than stickers and is increasing the revenue at the present time somewhat over that of last year.

Holland Sugar Mill To Open This Season

WM. C. VANDENBERG GIVES
REASON WHY AND POINTS OUT OUR PART

The Chamber of Commerce has definite information that the Holland sugar plant will be operated again next season and it proposes to put on a campaign to assist in procuring a larger acreage of beets in order that the mill may have a longer operating season. The chamber has contacted representatives of all interests. It took this step before making this announcement. William C. Vandenberg was requested to make a statement because of his activities last season in getting the mill into operation and he gave the following statement:

"About a year ago at this time I was definitely announced that our sugar mill would again be operated. That was good news to the city of Holland and in fact to a large section of western Michigan. The mill had been idle for years and our people had pretty generally come to the conclusion that it would never be reopened."

"Although 1933 was not a normal year for the growing of sugar beets, the net results were quite satisfactory. The spring of 1932 was hot and cold and in summer was wet and dry, the combination of which caused a severe shrinkage in the crop. The average per acre yield of sugar beets in Michigan in 1933 was a little more than seven and a half tons and the growers of beets for the Holland mill produced slightly less than the state average."

"The Lake Shore Sugar Co. operators of the local mill in 1933 have already paid the growers $1.00 per ton for their beets in accordance with the terms of the so-called fifty-fifty contract under which mills in Michigan are now being operated and beets are being grown, the final payment will be made as soon as the remainder of the products of the mill have been sold."

"During the past ninety days there has been considerable discussion about and some doubt raised as to the future of the sugar plant. I am firmly convinced that the community—in fact, this entire section of western Michigan is quite unanimously anxious to have the mill continue to operate this year and also year after year in the future."

"I know plans are being made to operate the Holland mill in 1934. That ought to be good news for this community. As a matter of fact there are two or three people employed at the present time, fifteen of them are in the local office and the mill and seven are out contracting for acreage."

"My purpose in addressing this communication to you is to acquaint you with the situation and to solicit your help to make sure that our mill does operate this year. I have said that it is planned to operate this year; I need not add that, of course, the mill cannot be operated without beets. I have mentioned the fact that doubt has been expressed that the mill would ever be reopened; that sentiment must be overcome for the benefit of the seven men who are at work every day securing acreage contracts. They expect to have approximately thirty-four hundred acres contracted by the end of this week; their goal is six thousand acres and because farmers need to decide definitely within the next two weeks what they are to plant for this year, the writers of last season's plan are now in a hurry to get their acreage contracts signed."

"It is my thought that the Chamber of Commerce can be wonderfully helpful in this matter by enlisting the co-operation of our local newspapers and also the newspapers of this entire section—also, the Exchange, Rotary and Lions clubs, improving upon the fact that the Holland sugar mill will be operated this year providing sufficient acreage can be obtained. All of these agencies and every interested business man and citizen can be helpful during the next few days by encouraging and urging farmers who have suitable land for raising sugar beets to secure contracts."

"It occurs to me that the local management of the Lake Shore Sugar Co., having the responsibility of securing acreage, will appreciate receiving assurance that the City of Holland, the Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants' association, and all other civic clubs stand ready to assist in any and every possible way."

Mutually,

Holland Folks Traveling Thru The Southland

HOLLAND MAN SAYS
RESORT BUSINESS IS
BOOMING IN FLORIDA

John Kammeraad, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Kammeraad of Fairbanks avenue, Holland, is on a trip through the Southland. He writes about passing through Kentucky, looking over some thoroughbred horses and getting a taste of the "blue grass" hospitality. He passed through Georgia and finally landed at St. Petersburg, Florida.

He said cottages are hard to get when he arrived there were only three for rent on the beach. The bungalows, they rented with two bedrooms and bath, very modest, costs $50 a month. While the nights are cool the temperature is about 75 degrees during the daytime. A half bushel of oranges costs them 25 cents, grapefruit also is 25 cents, and strawberries are 15 cents per quart.

The Tourist Fund

The tourist and resort measure signed by Gov. Comstock Tuesday provides a $100,000 fund to be administered by a ten-man commission for the purpose of increasing the number of visitors coming to the state to spend vacations and holidays. It is a timely measure and if the funds are wisely spent should accomplish much good.

Michigan has long needed an agency to take the lead in making the summer and winter attractions of the recreation area more widely known, and more accessible to visitors. The fact that the business has grown to its present volume without a head, so to speak, indicates much more can be accomplished under proper leadership.

The money granted, $60,000 to the new commission and $40,000 to four tourist and resort associations, will enable the state to carry on an energetic advertising campaign within and without the borders of the commonwealth, and furnish proper guidance to visitors when they arrive.

The commission should command energetic co-operation from many sources, notably the Department of Conservation and private individuals whose interests will be directly benefited.

A meeting of the Monica Aid society will be held this Friday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock in Central Avenue Christian Reformed church. John A. Swets, principal of Holland Christian High school, will give an address.

The Holland American Legion band is furnishing the music at the banquet of the Holland Fish and Game club which is being held this Thursday evening at Masonic temple.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will observe Union Signal day at their regular meeting this Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Woman's Literary club rooms. Mrs. Frank Dyke will conduct devotions and Mrs. J. Kornelje will provide for special music. The program is in charge of Mrs. Paul E. Hinkamp and Mrs. William Vander Schel.

"A Pilgrimage to Calvary" is the title of the illustrated lecture to be presented by Rev. John Exrington of Grand Rapids in First Reformed church Tuesday evening at 7:45 o'clock. The lecture is being sponsored by the Semper Fidelis class. A silver offering for missions will be received.

Ben Boerman of Drenthe, who has been confined to Zeland hospital, has been moved to Holland hospital.

A quarterly meeting of the Young Men's Bible class of Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church will be held this Friday evening at 7:45 o'clock. All young men of the church from 18 to 25 years are invited.

The proposal to borrow $15,000 for construction of an addition to the Coopersville school district building was approved by voters at special election Monday.

HOLLAND CHRISTIAN SUNDAY SCHOOLS TO CELEBRATE TITLE

Holland Christian High school celebrated "Glory day" Monday with suspension of classes in the morning and presentation of the class C basketball trophy to the institution by Louis Roberts, member of the team. Supt. G. Heyns gave a brief address and the pupils then paraded through the city streets. Classes were resumed in the afternoon.

HOLLAND FIRMS JOIN EXHIBITORS' GUILD

Two local furniture concerns, the Charles P. Lambert company and the Holland Furniture company, have been named to the "Grand Rapids Guild of Exhibitors," recently organized as a feature of the Grand Rapids furniture market. Both concerns have been exhibiting in the Grand Rapids market since their founding.

TWO DEATHS IN A FAMILY WITHIN TWO WEEKS

Mrs. H. Jacobs, 62, died suddenly Tuesday morning at her home on Holland route 8 of a heart attack. Her husband died eleven days ago.

Surviving are the following sons, and daughters: John Henry and Arnold at home; Herman, Henry, John, George and Harry, Mrs. John Funckes, Mrs. William Grootehuis, Mrs. Albert Rooks and Mrs. Claude Polon. Forty-two grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services will be held this Friday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock at the home and at 2 o'clock at Graafschap Christian Reformed church. Rev. H. Blystra will officiate. Burial will take place in Graafschap cemetery.

The Sisters of Bethany will hold a social meeting next Tuesday evening. Mrs. G. J. Pennings, Reformed church missionary to Arabia, will be the speaker.

Rep. Edward Brouwer discussed the bonding bill passed at the recent special session of the state legislature at Tuesday evening's meeting of the Citizens' league in the city hall. He also spoke on the reduction of weight tax and the county unit government bill which was defeated.

Vernon Vos has returned to his home at 136 West Nineteenth street from Blodgett hospital, East Grand Rapids, where he underwent an operation last week.

Continue to Serve American Legion

Next post meeting, Wednesday, March 28.

And don't forget your Legion button. Put it on just as faithfully as you do your collar and tie. Then you won't get dunned for a dime.

At last we have a post historian—Doc Leenhouts actually read the first chapter of our history. Until now we considered this history along with the idea that the earth was flat, and that the moon was made of green cheese, but we are no longer disillusioned; there actually is a history in the making.

Every once in a while surprises come out at post meetings. Positive action has been taken to arrange a party—we don't know when, nor where, nor what kind, but as long as the ball has started rolling we should be content and await further notices in this column.

Prof. Raymond of Hope college gave a very interesting talk at our last meeting on "Tammany Hall." He explained the organization, its aims and how it controlled the elections in New York. A number of the humorous incidents of elections and ward control helped to illustrate how deep-seated Tammany really is.

John Althaus, our chef, has branched out from his usual duties. John mounted a large number of the simple and intricate knots known to sailors and others, on a large board and presented it to the Boy Scouts. The best part was John's explanation; we won't print the names of the knots—most we forgot and some won't bear it.

If you really want Bill Billy music get next to the Rabbit River String Band from Hamilton. They gave us a sample of their work last Wednesday, and was it good?

How many of the members remember way back last fall when permission was granted to one of our gang to use the post's name in organizing a drill team, more specifically a Dutch drill team.

Unless something is done soon we should ask for the removal of the gold oak leaves from said member's shoulders.

Post Commander Louie Dalman is confined to his home with a case of the grippie. Any of you fellows that are down in that section might stop and see him.

Just as a reminder, the program committee for the 28th is Joldersma, Manting and Doc Bos. This is a job that is getting harder and harder. Each committee is outdoing the other and we are getting some good stuff.

Spring has arrived, but don't take 'em off yet. Wait until you see the yellow butterflies.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

"CONFESSING AND FOLLOWING CHRIST"—MATTHEW 16:13-26

By Henry Geerlings.

Jesus was near the conclusion of His Galilee ministry. The ministry lay behind Him. He had spent much of His time touring the province by that name. He had gone far to the north, as far west as the Mediterranean sea, to the east of the Sea of Galilee, and perchance there were not many people in all that region who had not heard Him. It was there that He had reached the peak of His popularity. He had preached in many synagogues, addressed multitudes, performed mighty miracles, revealed Himself in great grace and power, and He had hosts of friends.

If you were to start at the upper end of the Sea of Galilee and travel thirty miles to the north you would come to the ruins of some old walls and fortifications which now mark the spot where Caesarea Philippi was located. It was situated outside the territory of Herod, and within that of Philip. The latter enlarged and beautified the city, giving it his name, Caesarea, being from Caesar Augustus, emperor of Rome. That distinguished it from Caesarea Palestine on the Mediterranean coast.

Being alone with the twelve Jesus began to interview and instruct them. The first question he put to them was a searching one. Perhaps He had come to the conclusion that He was practically without reliable following outside of the circle of the disciples. Once before the people turned and walked away from him, and so He asked the disciples what views the people had of Him.

The multitudes would be freer to express their estimate of Jesus to the disciples than they would to Him. It is important to observe

MISS BRESNAHAN IS INVOLVED IN CRASH

Miss Madge Bresnahan, member of the staff of the Ottawa County Health Unit, driving to Grand Rapids on Saturday afternoon, figured in a three-way accident on U.S. 16 near Marne, when Paul Weiner, 32, proprietor of the Michigan Foundry Company, Muskegon, sideswiped her car and then struck a car driven by Howard Wickett, South high school teacher, living at Marne.

Riding with Miss Bresnahan were two children. Witnesses reported that Weiner attempted to pass the Bresnahan car and in doing so collided with the car, and then hit the Wickett car head on. Weiner was taken to St. Mary's hospital, Grand Rapids, suffering rib fractures. No injury was received by the others involved in the accident.

SAUGATUCK BOYS TO ENTER CLUB BIRDHOUSE CONTEST

The Columbine Garden club is putting on a birdhouse contest in which girls and boys of 10 to 12 years may enter. Houses for the wren, flicker, bluebird and downy woodpecker will be accepted by the president, Mrs. Frank Comstock, and cash prizes will be awarded April 10 for the most natural houses. The houses will be sold for the garden club's benefit.

TRAINS TOO SPEEDY, HOLLAND WARNING

Local police are serious when they go after speeders and concern themselves with the speed of railroad trains as well as with that of automobiles.

Police Chief Peter A. Lievesse said today warnings have been issued to engineers and that unless trains from the south reduce their speed on entering the city, action will be taken against the company.

SAUGATUCK HARBOR WILL BE DREDGED

Chamber of commerce officials today received a telegram from Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg declaring the war department had authorized the necessary funds for the dredging of Saugatuck harbor. The telegram read: "War department authorized necessary funds for dredging harbor. Work will start soon as weather permits."

FINAL RITES HELD ON MONDAY FOR PETER SLAGH

Funeral services for Peter Slagh, 64, who died Friday at University hospital, Ann Arbor, were held Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jack Vander Hill, 224 West Seventeenth street, and at 2 o'clock at Maple Avenue Christian Reformed church. Rev. L. Grenway of Grand Haven and Rev. D. Zwier of Ionia officiated. Burial will take place in Pilgrim home cemetery.

Mr. Slagh, who was a carpenter by trade, was born in North Holland. He was a resident of Holland for 47 years and recently moved to Grand Haven where he lived for five months. While in this city he was a member of Maple Avenue Christian Reformed church.

Surviving are the widow, who lives in Grand Haven, and five children, John of Holland, Mrs. Jack Vander Hill and Adrian, both of Holland, Mrs. Russell McFall of Grand Haven and Miss Maxine of Grand Haven.

Two brothers and two sisters, John of North Holland, Fred of Holland, Mrs. Ralph Ten Hoe of Holland and Mrs. Reka Smith of Grand Rapids, also survive.

Mrs. Henry Van Dyke entertained nine members of Mrs. H. Van Tongeren's Sunday school class of Sixth Reformed church at her home Tuesday evening.

Refreshments were served by a committee, including Mrs. G. W. Browning, Mrs. H. W. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Diekema, Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Cook and Mrs. C. J. Oseward.

Members of the Century club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. G. Dykhuizen.

J. J. Riemersma, principal of Holland High school, introduced the speaker of the evening, Prof. Howard Yale McCluskey of Ann Arbor, who talked on impressions formed during a recent five months' tour in England, France, Germany and Austria.

Prof. McCluskey, associate professor of educational psychology at the University of Michigan, concentrated his discussion on Germany because, he said, Germany was the center of difficulties.

A piano duet was played by Professor and Mrs. W. Curtis Snow, "Scotch" symphony by Mendelssohn, and they encored with "Little Flower Garden" by Clough Leichter.

Virtues of Noble Women Extolled At Mission Meet

she also came in contact with lepers. She told of the sufferings, the hardships and the privations which those afflicted with this terrible disease must endure—of how the families of these lepers are outcasts even in Christian villages. She cited several instances of this kind and told how many of the lepers have even lost the appearance of human beings. She stated that missionaries do not often count the diseases, but that a few years ago Miss Mary Lee, an American missionary, while on furlough in New York discovered that she too was a leper. Miss Lee returned to India, and although the disease was staved, she continues to work among the lepers of India, bringing them the wonderful story of salvation.

"But," said Miss Drescher, "the lepers are so thankful for even the smallest favor. Their physical blessings are few—their physical blessings are not many—but they who learn to know Him sing as they go along, some on staves of feet, others minus hands and limbs, but continually rejoicing and praising God through all. Let us be thankful that we may be privileged to do some little bit to help lepers over all the world, also those in the country of India."

Mrs. Dregman then read a letter from Dr. Stauffer, which told of the hardships the lepers in the African colony are suffering because of lack of food, locusts having eaten up most of the crops and vegetation. He also stated how those lepers who are in the colony are willing to live on one meal a day, are asking that they be given no clothing, using animal skins and grass, instead, just so the money sent may be used to help others who are afflicted with this most dreaded of all diseases. He stated that 25 lepers were sent to their homes during the past year.

Mrs. Dregman displayed a wooden cross which was made by one of the lepers of the African colony and requested the audience to rise and sing that beautiful hymn, "The Old Rugged Cross."

Officers for the year 1934-35 were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Dregman; Vice President, Mrs. C. de Graaf; Secretary, Mrs. C. de Graaf; Treasurer, Mrs. C. de Graaf.

Mrs. Dregman, who has been president of the federation since 1929, was presented with a beautiful basket of roses. The flowers presented to Mrs. Dregman by Mrs. C. de Graaf, vice president, were a gift from the federation board and representatives as a token of the love and esteem in which she is held.

The collection taken up at the meeting amounted to $437.23 which together with the balance on hand of $418.00 makes a total of $855.23, which this organization will be able to send toward the support of lepers.

The balance of the program was carried out as it appeared in last week's issue of the Holland City News.

Mrs. Margaret Markham, 239 East Ninth street, entertained 15 members of the "Women's Relief Corps" at a March birthday tea at her home Tuesday afternoon. Following various games refreshments were served by Mrs. Markham, Mrs. Jennie Danson and Mrs. Winnie Watrous.

A group of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sprick, 179 West Seventeenth street, Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Naberhuis and Mr. and Mrs. Sprick, the occasion being their regular wedding anniversary of both couples. Games were played and a two-course luncheon was served.

PROF. MCCLUSKY SPEAKS AT WOMEN'S LITERARY CLUB

Members of the Women's Literary club were privileged to hear Prof. Howard Yale McClusky, associate professor of educational psychology at the University of Michigan, at their regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon.

Prof. McClusky spoke on the problems of youth and the revolt of youth from present-day conditions. In loudest accents, today's youth is challenging the world to-day and crying for a better world tomorrow, he said.

Dr. McClusky clearly portrayed the great enthusiasm characteristic of a few weeks in the life of youth. The speaker stated that youth is exceedingly honest and frank. Youth is very quick to detect sham and hypocrisy and revolts when it detects discrepancies in the conduct of adults.

He stated that youth asked the why of our economic system. Youth needs the co-operation and sympathetic guidance of adults.

Prof. McClusky concluded with: "When the courage, enthusiasm, honesty and daring of youth is guided by the wisdom of age much will be accomplished for the betterment of humanity and then will tomorrow's world be a better world than the world of today."

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED TO VAN RAALTE P.T.A.

The following officers were elected at the annual meeting of the Van Raalte Parent-Teacher association Tuesday evening: Benjamin Lemmen, president; George Ellander, vice president; Mrs. J. Kobes, secretary, and Henry Stroop, treasurer.

Mrs. Philip Heyboer read an article from a recent radio broadcast entitled "More Common Sense in Education." Music was supplied by the Heinz Pickle factory orchestra, which played several selections. Jack Bos sang "Punchinello" and "Tommy Lad." The Montello Park kitchen band performed on a large variety of kitchen ware, wearing uniforms decorated with tin spoons. "Old Black Joe," "Tipperary" and other selections were played. A Peabody led in prayer.

HAMILTON

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Pal celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary last Monday. In the evening they were given a happy surprise when their friends and relatives took possession of the home. A very pleasant evening resulted. At a late hour lunch was served by the guests and silver gifts were presented. Though surprised, Mr. and Mrs. Pal accepted them as a hearty welcome. Congratulations. Gladys Borgman of Kalamazoo was a week-end guest at the George Kaper home.

Services at the Second church were in charge of Raymond Beckering, student at the seminary. The democratic rally held at the local community hall last week, Friday evening, was attended by a large crowd. The main address was given by Mr. Seigmund of Owasco. This address was preceded by a local talent program as follows: Instrumental music by the Hamilton Ridge Runners; impersonations, Clarence Bellings; vocal trio, Ella Roggen, Gladys Lubbers and Aileen Dankremond; piano solo selections, Ella Roggen; community singing, led by Harvey Zeepir, Hamilton's promising baritone. After the program the Young Democrat's club served lunch to the speakers and entertained.

The local basketball season was closed last Tuesday evening with a double victory. The youngsters defeated the Allegan Sophs by a score of 16 to 10. While the Cubs easily beat another Allegan aggregation by a 26 to 16 count. Basketball is a new thing for us. Since the youngsters could find no place to play until the completion of the auditorium, they are developing rapidly and they have played a very creditable game during the past week.

A high school basketball game, high school, led by Coach Earl Meier, enjoyed an exciting interclass program, which has brought out several promising players as well as developing a school spirit. Baseball will soon be taken up and it is expected that the town will again be represented by the Independents and Merchants.

Mrs. William Ten Brink attended the seventy-seventh birthday of her father, Mr. Van Tatenhove, of Holland last Tuesday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Joostens Sunday, a daughter. Harvey Jansen led the Christian Endeavor society at the First Reformed church Sunday evening. Special music was furnished by Bernice Vander Beek and Genevieve Ter Haar of Holland.

RUDOLPH BRINK WILL BE HEAD OF NEWLY ORGANIZED COMMITTEE

A county committee to direct a white cross seal campaign as part of a statewide movement was organized Tuesday night at a session in Warm Friend Tavern. The drive has been developed by the International Society for Crippled Children, to which the Michigan society is affiliated, to raise funds for financing crippled children's work of the county, state and nation.

Rudolph Brink of Holland was named chairman of the newly organized committee. Miss Janice Barendse, head of the orthopedic department of the Holland public schools, was named secretary of the committee, and G. G. Groenewoud, county school commissioner, was named to represent the outlying districts in the county.

Other members of the committee are J. J. Bolt and John Pippel of Grand Haven, Dick Boonstra of Zeeland, and a member from Coopersville yet to be appointed.

FISH TUG FREED BY COAST GUARD TOWED TO PORT

The coast guard cutter Escanaba arrived in port this morning with the fish tug Harry H. in tow after breaking out of the ice about seven miles off Grand Haven harbor last night.

The tug had become stuck in the ice and sent up flames which were relayed to the cutter by the coast guard lookout. The cutter reached the boat about midnight and took her in tow, as the tug was unable to follow the Escanaba's path, due to ice closing in rapidly after it.

Eugene Hill and a crew of three were on the tug which was short on both fuel and provisions.

WHEN asparagus, strawberries and rhubarb come to town, we know that spring is just around the corner. All these are here and moderately priced. Fish are much more plentiful due to better weather conditions. This is good news as Lent is but half gone.

The macaroni family is a nourishing and dependable ingredient of hearty and inexpensive dishes. It cooks in a short time and combines with practically every other food and so helps to use left-overs.

Beef offers excellent value for your money at present. Veal and lamb are more attractively priced than they have been the past few weeks. Pork and hams are reasonable.

Here are three Sunday dinner menus.

ZEELAND

Abram G. Van Hoven this week sold his 24-acre farm, located one mile east of Zeeland to Mr. Bert Roelofs of Hudsonville.

The Choral society of Third Christian Reformed church of Zeeland will render the cantata "The Resurrection Song," on Thursday evening, March 29, at 7:45 o'clock.

Mrs. L. Hall was hostess to the following ladies at her home on East Main street on Tuesday afternoon: Mrs. H. Hardenburg, Mrs. P. Hardenburg of this city, and Mrs. T. Piersma of Holland.

Nelson Staal of Zeeland received notice yesterday morning that he had successfully passed the State Board of Pharmacy examination which was held in Detroit last month, making him a registered pharmacist.

Miss Alice Hoeksema of Burdette was taken to Zeeland hospital Saturday for treatment.

Mrs. Bertha Scholten submitted to an operation at the Zeeland hospital last week, Wednesday.

The annual meeting of the Zeeland Literary club will be held at the city hall next Tuesday, March 27, at 6:30 o'clock. The meeting will be in the form of a fellowship supper served by the social and finance committees and members are requested to bring their own dishes. After the supper the annual election of officers will take place and reports will be given.

Mrs. E. M. Den Hartog is in charge of a one-act play to be presented.

Mrs. R. Noeken were in Holland Tuesday attending a Neerkes party.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stiles of Grand Rapids visited in Zeeland Saturday. Mr. Stiles is connected with the Bell Telephone Co. in Grand Rapids.

Ben Boerman of Holland town ship was taken to Holland hospital for treatment.

Raven to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walcott, Detroit, a daughter, on Sunday, March 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert De Feuster, Miss Mary Karden of (Hudsonville) and Ed Stree of Holland called on Mrs. F. Huizenga of Zeeland on Sunday.

Mrs. Charles De Wits honored her daughter, Esther Pearl, with a birthday party on her sixth birthday. The guest list included Isla Tamer, Arlene Karsten, Gertrude Wagner, Norma La Huis, Joan E. Pilsner, Flora Mae Diepenhorst, Lillian Vermeulen, Mary Jane Hall, Adalide De Wits, Merle Jean Ross, Mera Joyce Mulder, Lillian Vermeulen and Wilma De Wits. After the playing of games delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. De Wits and Mrs. Bartel Mulder. Esther Pearl received many fine gifts.

More than 150 persons attended a chicken supper given by a group of the Ladies' Aid of Second Reformed church, Zeeland, last Friday evening. After the supper a program in charge of Mrs. M. B. Rogers was presented. Misses Winifred Boone and June Cook rendered two piano duets "Largo" by Handel, and "Hungarian Dance" by Brahms. Miss Boone also gave a solo by Rubenstein. An entertaining musical selection "Three Young Maids of Lee" was presented by Misses Gladys Van Tolstema, Dorothy Plewes and Marie De Proce. An interesting feature of the program was a play, entitled "What Grandmother Knew." Costumes worn by the players were in keeping with the times about 45 years ago. Those taking part in this presentation were Mrs. J. Dehmere, Mrs. H. Baron, Mrs. O. Pino, Mrs. J. Baar and Mrs. W. L. Claver.

CHORUS APPEARS IN BRILLIANT CONCERT

The Hope College Chapel Choir made musical history by appearing as guest artists with the Grand Rapids Symphony Orchestra, on Thursday, March 15, in the Civic Auditorium.

Responding precisely to the splendid conducting of Prof. W. Curtis Snow, the choir and orchestra united in superbly rendering an excerpt from Handel's "Solomon," "May No Rash Intruder Disturb" and the powerful "Song of Fate" by Brahms. Prolonged applause called back Prof. Snow several times. Musically competent people united in unstinted praise of the choir's work in tonal balance, precision of attack, and coloration.

The full program follows:

Overture, "The Marriage of Figaro" Mozart

Symphony No. 6 in B Minor Tschaiowsky

I. Adagio: Allegro non troppo; Allegro vivo; Andante con prima

II. Allegro con grazia

III. Allegro molto vivace

IV. Adagio lamentoso

Mr. Karl Wecker conducting

"May No Rash Intruder Disturb" from "Solomon" Handel

"Song of Fate" Brahms

The Hope Chapel Choir, W. Curtis Snow, directing

Suite, "Peer Gynt" No. 1 Grieg

I. Morning Mood

II. Asa's Death

III. Anitra's Dance

IV. In the Hall of the Mountain King

Mr. Theodore Fryfogle, conducting

"Liebestraum" Liszt

Bacchanale, from "Samson and Delilah"

Mr. Karl Wecker, conducting

The thanks of the student body and the faculty are extended to Prof. Snow, to Mrs. W. J. Pention, and to the chorus of 127 voices who united in making possible such a splendid performance.

CITIZENS' PARTY HOLDS MEETING IN PARK

Attorney Nelson Miles presided at the Park Township Citizens' mass meeting, held at the Virginia Park Community hall Monday evening.

Mr. Leonard Van Regenmortel, who is a candidate for treasurer on the Citizens' ticket, explained fully the purpose of the meeting and the reason why a Citizens' party had been created. He said that through this party a check-up could be had on Park township by virtue of this organization.

George Straight, candidate for supervisor, who is making a strenuous campaign, gave a compilation of figures as this relates to taxation and the percentages of rejected taxes. The matter of the new supervisors' plans contemplated for the county would be only of value to Park township if the greatest care and accuracy was exercised in the preparation of the tax rolls.

The meeting, it is said, was well attended by adherents from both parties.

The Park township election will be held Monday, April 2.

HOLLAND RIFLE AND PISTOL CLUB SCORES

Herman Prins was high man with a score of 175 in the weekly rifle club shoot Tuesday evening.

INCREASED SCALE OF TIRE PRICES VERY PROBABLE

The complexities of the international monetary situation and the reduction of the gold content in the American dollar, may not be quite clear to most motorists, but all of them appreciate the increase of the mileage content in their tires, according to Mr. Charles Van Zyl, local Goodyear dealer.

"The new 1934 Goodyear passenger car and truck tires," says Mr. Van Zyl, "contain more miles, more safety and more endurance; and the prices are still low, despite increases in factory payrolls and advancing prices of raw materials."

"There is no cause to worry about the decrease of gold in the dollar so long as the dollars will still buy tires with a higher mileage content."

"All indications point to an increased scale of tire prices. Purchases of new tires today represent a very definite and concrete economy, as it is almost certain that the coming spring or summer will see retail tire prices at much higher levels."

"Rubber and cotton are being quoted at the highest prices for several years and as these are the principal raw materials of which tires are made, there is bound to be a reflection in tire prices—upward," Mr. Van Zyl says.

Holland Opens Eyes to Resort Possibilities

GREAT ENTHUSIASM SHOWN BY BUSINESS MEN OF LAKE CITIES

At Least 200 Attended the Tourist and Resort Banquet at Warm Friend Tavern

Hugh Gray, head of the Western Michigan Tourist & Resort Association, was the most pleased man in Holland Friday when the regional meeting of the Western Michigan Tourist & Resort Association met for a day and a night session with headquarters at Warm Friend Tavern.

Besides the large delegation from Holland and neighboring cities there were more than 150 delegates from a dozen other counties along the big lake.

Altogether there was a representation of at least 200, including local folks.

It was the largest gathering ever staged by the Tourist & Resort Association in Western Michigan and it was opened at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at Warm Friend Tavern and continued late in the afternoon with a short intermission before the banquet was held in the large dining room of the tavern which proved altogether too small and the tables had to be extended into the lobby of the hotel to accommodate all the guests present.

Our manager of the Holland Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Connelly, assisted by others of the Chamber, has again shown his wonderful ability as an organizer. Every meeting—no matter what type during the summer, fall or winter, have proved great successes but the Tourist and Resort meet crowns them all.

Holland is not going to lose because of these efforts, in fact it stands in the forefront, showing that it is alive to tourist possibilities here as well as elsewhere along Lake Michigan and this city is getting plenty of publicity, indicating that it is doing its full share to sell "Western Michigan as the Playground of America."

Bill Connelly as a toastmaster was at his best. His take-offs on the different speakers were a "scream."

The monologues between Connelly and the mayor alone were worth the price of the banquet. When Connelly gets through "Chambering" and Nick gets through "mayoring" they would make a hit as a team in a vaudeville offering. Of course it was all in fun with a few sly darts interspersed.

The banquet proper proved to be a fish dinner with all the trimmings and plenty of singing from a large group of songs donated for the occasion by this paper. Willis Diekmann led in the singing with Ed Stephan at the piano. It was a rollicking dessert after a well cooked meal served by our able friend, Sam Miller.

Mr. Connelly first introduced the mayor of Holland, Mr. Bosch, who gave the guests a hearty welcome, stating that this city not only extended them this courtesy today but every day. He especially stressed the tulip season when Holland had open house for at least ten days and its natural beauties were especially evident.

Mr. Bosch stated that the Tourist & Resort Association, under great handicaps, had established great resort possibilities for them—made resort towns believe in their own advantages and "told the world" the beauties of western Michigan, filled with such things as make summer vacationing a real delight and worthwhile.

Mr. Bosch stated that Gov. Comstock and family were to be his house guests during Tulip Festival and by the same token Holland extended everyone present a hearty welcome then as well as now.

Arthur W. Wrieden, president of the Chamber of Commerce, gave the guests a cordial welcome; in fact, we are mighty happy to see you here, he said.

Mr. Wrieden said last year we expected a big resort business, believing that the World's Fair would send tired people to the Michigan resorts to rest up but he found that after they had spent all their money in the "Streets of Paris" that they did not have enough money to come to Holland. Mr. Wrieden stated that with the cooperation of the railroad, bus lines, steamboats, many of these Fair visitors this year can be induced to come to Western Michigan to spend at least part of their vacation.

Mr. Wrieden interspersed his remarks with a few very good stories and his earnest welcome was not mistaken by the guests who could not help but feel that we have a real president as well as a secretary of the Holland Chamber of Commerce.

The next speaker to be introduced was Mr. J. Thompson, president of the association, who opened his remarks with a rattling good story on Bill Connelly, which space forbids to repeat here.

For once Bill was "stumped" after Thompson got through.

Mr. Thompson said in part as follows:

"I understand that Bill and the mayor have many of these little confabs. The latest one I heard was about your Tulip Time. Bill wanted Irish tulips and the mayor wanted Dutch ones and now they are trying to find a Burbank who will cross them so both will be satisfied."

"I noticed that we are three times welcome. First your toastmaster welcomes us, then your mayor and then lastly your Mr. Wrieden, head of the Chamber of Commerce. We are either very, very welcome or its 'three strikes and out.' We will assume that it is the former."

"Seriously, I wish to say that we should work shoulder to shoulder, on this tourist resort proposition, not as individuals but as a collective proposal, benefiting all communities alike. It is an unselfish undertaking, all working to one common end. However, by so doing

DESERVED RECOGNITION

At the Tourist Resort Association banquet at the Tavern proper recognition was given Ray Tardiff for his untiring efforts and financially and otherwise sponsoring Holland's part in this movement. For the last two years Mr. Tardiff has perfected a fine local organization banquet at the Tavern, propounding aid to this proposition.

Mr. Tardiff is ill at his home and has been for some time but the 200 participants at the banquet arose to give him a hearty vote of thanks.

the mutual benefits will be tremendous.

"There must be a productive activity between Michigan communities, not by a few but by all resort interests."

"The officials of the Tourist & Resort Association have been spending nine-tenths of their time getting funds to finance the work. But in spite of this handicap the tourist business has assumed tremendous proportions in our state and this is especially shown in Western Michigan."

"If every community was as well organized as Holland I am sure we would make better strides but this, I am sorry to say, is far from the truth."

"Our strength in the future lies in stronger and better coordination between ourselves and also a closer touch with Lansing. The state benefits greatly through the influx of these thousands and thousands of tourists from neighboring states and far beyond. The state should encourage the tourist trade and Lansing is beginning to cooperate. The governor showed a tendency to go in partnership with resort communities to sell the state's advantages to the outside tourist public. They are appropriating money for that purpose, only we too, must do our share and match our efforts and our dollars with the state."

"I believe that resort communities are beginning to realize after many years that the resorts are not only a matter of course but that evidences of increased business is becoming more apparent in those communities from year to year. Resort communities are not as apathetic as they were years back. They know now that this development just does not happen but that some potent force is doing something about it and they now know that the West Michigan Tourist & Resort Association contributed a great share of this development."

"We look forward to a better year this year and ask from you that you leave this hospitable city, determined to do your part in helping this association in an enterprise that has grown to be the second largest in the state."

A speaker who was especially interesting was Ray M. Foley, director of public relations and representative of the state highway department, who was present with Mrs. Foley.

After the proper introduction Mr. Foley stated that this administration was heart and soul in advancing resort interests. He stated that an appropriation has been made toward this end by the state and while this was going to help he felt it was inadequate compared to the benefits received. He stated that the resort possibilities were unsurpassed in Michigan and that this project had grown very much by itself. The appropriation, however, will focus the attention not only to the tourist public but, I believe, that every automobile concern should add a little message in their tremendous advertising program, pointing out the advantages of a tour through Michigan. Your small organization, he said, had sown the seed. We are interested in road building to help the resorts. We are committed to a road program. We believe that in a measure this has been neglected. We feel particularly that the approaches to the state of Michigan have been very bad at the limits of the state. These highways should be put in as good condition as the best in the state, for first impressions are the lasting ones. The highway department also believes that the entrance to the state should be decorative, something emblematic of the Wolverine state, showing that the traveler is now in Michigan."

Mr. Foley then read letters from Governor Comstock and Mr. Van Wagner, head of the highway department, giving encouragement and promise of the fullest cooperation.

The headliner at the banquet was Lee Wilson Hutchins of Grand Rapids, who gave the main address.

Mr. Hutchins, whose father was a pioneer in resort activity and who traveled through Michigan in its behalf, quoted figures showing why resort business is all-important in Michigan and why the state administration had interested itself in advertising its resources.

He asserted that tourist and resort activities represented a $7,500,000,000 business per year, that $246,000,000 was spent in Michigan last year, with ten million people and 2½ million automobiles entering the state.

With the aid of a bountiful supply of statistics, Hutchins showed how the taxpayer benefits, how the farmer, industry, utility, merchant and private enterprise draws rich resources from the resort business, how the industry plays an important role in employment.

"We have reasons to be confident that the resort business will be better in 1934," he said. "With the worst of the depression over, with foreign turmoil resulting in tourists seeing America first, and with the increase in the automobile industry, we are going to see a marked improvement."

Mr. Hutchins pointed out how far tourists came from the different states as well as from our neighbors, Canada. In different communities the percentage of money taken in climbed in many instances to 34 per cent. In hotels even greater. Everyone who is in business cannot help but be benefited directly and those who are not, indirectly. Through this unemployment period it is found that in resort districts the number of unemployed had decreased tremendously.

Mr. Hutchins gave some interesting figures from drug stores, produce stores, gallantries of oil stations, public markets and ice cream establishments. All showed a substantial increase during the resort season—one as high as 70 per cent. The figures were indeed enlightening and through our efforts we should be the "spark plugs" to give our resort possibilities momentum, he said.

Merchants have been very apathetic. They have learned an expensive lesson all along the line. But they are putting their shoulders to the wheel everywhere and now with state help a great force has been provided that will do wonders in bringing the tourist public to one of the most beautiful spots in the entire nation."

HOLLAND HARBOR

Entrance to Our Beautiful Resort District

Tourists Banquet Notes

Mrs. Sears McLean, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, pledged cooperation in resort activities. She stated, "Our beautiful city, where these fine tulips grow, welcomes you. The women of the state and the women of Holland are deeply interested in this work. We wish to encourage you as well as to do our part."

Ray Foley says: "Build an entrance into Michigan that will definitely say to tourists 'This is Michigan, a state that is different, one that extends a hearty welcome, one that is of great beauty and leads to a fairland of recreation and play.'"

William Connelly, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Holland, was the host and toastmaster. His warm greeting, spirit of informality and energy made the affair an outstanding one. The largest regional meeting ever held—Grand Haven Tribune.

William Stribley, Grand Haven secretary, gave an excellent talk on how to increase resort interest in localities. "Hire a man to interest the inquiring resorters and stick with him until he finds satisfactory lodgings is an important feature of local success which was tried here for the first time last year," he stated. Develop natural special features. He mentioned the local lotus beds, the fishing industry here and the efforts which will be made this year to capitalize on these local assets to fix this locality in the mind of the tourist.—Grand Haven Tribune.

The NRA code for hotel keepers and renters of tourist rooms was explained by Frank Johnson, Houghton Lake, a matter, he said, which should be studied individually. All come under the one classification and the rates are fixed to cut out unfair practices and make for all a fair income, as well as a fair price to the tourist. Now is the time to make your individual wishes known, he stressed, for when it is adopted it virtually becomes a law and the penalty for transgression will be hard.

Mr. Foley of the highway department indirectly referred to the paving of M-40, the "Beeline" to Allegan, via Hamilton, after the toastmaster in his satire had referred to the only 20 miles of bad road left to pave.

Mayor Bosch in his remarks gave credit to Andrew Klomparsen, William C. Vandenberg, Henry Prins and B. A. Mulder for calling him in to conference, suggesting the hiring of William M. Connelly as director of the Chamber of Commerce, which only could have been done through the help of the city, and he stated that the aldermen and he fell in with the plans and they were not sorry and he wished the guests to know that Mr. Connelly was again provided for in the annual budget for the coming year.

Bill Connelly gave the following take-off on the mayor, stating that he had three hats—"one he wore, one he threw in the ring and the third he talked through." (Laughter.)

Art Wrieden got off a good one when he said, "When I went to the World's Fair I visited the Michigan exhibit. It was wonderful but when I saw the large map with every possible highway and byway on it, connecting up every little hamlet, I found that Holland was not on the map. To the pretty young lady in charge I said, 'Look here, girl, this is a wonderful map, but your town is not on it.' 'What is the name of your town?' 'Holland.' 'Gladie! I never heard of it but you know we cannot put every little place on the map.' Then Mr. Wrieden told the young lady where Holland was located and about the tulips we had here. Then the young lady knew where Holland was and as Mr. Wrieden said, when he visited the fair again Holland was on the map and that very conspicuously. The incident brought a great deal of merriment among the guests."

At each cover there were the following souvenirs: Vandenberg Bros., box of Riggi chocolates, locally made; Hekman Baking Co., a pair of real wooden shoes; De Pree Co., a beautiful package of cosmetics; Holland City News, song sheets with 18 song hits.

"Shavings", Senior Play, Goes Over Big

MAYO HADDEN, JR., IS EASILY THE STAR OF THIS HOMEY VILLAGE PLAY

This Thursday night the curtain dropped on the final performance of the annual Senior Class play staged at the Holland High school auditorium the first four days of this week. It was one of these wholesome, homey productions with a village complex. The old picket fence, a small-town store and the town gossip are all in evidence and the chief daily attraction is to go to the depot to see the train come in and to the post office when the mail arrives.

In the little town there is a toy shop around which this play is centered, in fact the shop is the stage setting, the hub of Joseph Lincoln's popular novel. This toy shop proves rather appropriate to this locality since it contains plenty of windmills, Dutch figures, wind jims, cranks, etc.

The toy maker is a young man named Jed Winslow, in the person of Mayo Hadden, Jr. This young man is nicknamed "Shavings" since the floor of his shop is littered with them. Mayo is easily the star in the show. He occupies the center of the stage from start to finish. His impersonation of a young man, who first contributed to the support of his mother and was forced to neglect study and then sees the seamy side of life, is wonderfully enacted. Through experience he finds out what the "milk of human kindness" means since he got so little of it. On the other hand, his benevolent nature, his thoughtfulness of others, his tremendous sacrifice for those he loved, was the paramount theme of "Shavings."

There was much romance in the play. One love scene turns out happily and a persistent girl wins back the love of a soldier who is maimed in the war and feels that because of his infirmity he should not marry any girl, even though he loved her. The young man is the son of the village "skin flint" and the stage settings represent the home of Jed Winslow, a toy maker in Orham, Mass., who is commonly called "Shavings" because of the piles of sawdust and shavings he has around his quaint character and his shop and yard the plot whirled.

"The title role is played by Mayo Hadden, Jr. The role is a heavy one but Mr. Hadden did an excellent piece of work. He did such marvelous character acting that anyone familiar with Lincoln's novels could immediately recognize the author's quaint characters. Mr. Hadden's confusion when the lady he likes very much comes upon him unexpectedly is very natural and his paternal advice to little Robbie, a nine-year-old child, wins the hearts of the audiences."

"The seniors in the cast who had character roles also played their parts good. John Stokes, who characterizes 'Gabe' Bearse, the town gossip, is a natural comedian. If all had failed to get a chuckle from the audience, leave it to Mr. Stokes, he could. Always running to the post office to tell the news first made a hit with the audience. The two young lovers, played by Homer Lokker and Louise Schippa, struck a sympathetic chord with the audience as the young man was crippled for life and his sweetheart wouldn't leave him. The fathers of the two, played by Gordon Groenewoud and Lloyd Van Lente, are bitter enemies and their quarreling kept the audience in an uproar. Irene Overbeek, who became a little girl, Bobbie, in the play, played her part exceptionally well while her mother, Adelaide Koolker, who in the novel married and loved her, Herbert Harrington, played her part dramatically when she was forced to choose between Jed and the major. Donald Eiferdink, who characterized a traveling salesman, was very clever in his line, while Glen Loveland played the ex-convict part very well."

The success of the production goes to Miss Lindsey, who coached the seniors for three months, day in and day out. From the financial view, credit is due to Mr.

This turn of events was really unexpected by the audience. It was rather a passage that was disappointing, but then "Shavings" could not be "Shavings" without this self-sacrificial climax.

Palmer Martin, one of the high school students, sent in a review of the play as follows:

"The play 'Shavings' has lost

HOLLAND FURNACE CO. FACES BUSY SEASON

Holland Furnace company, following the inventory period late in March, will likely swing into full activity, according to T. P. Cheff, vice president and production manager, and prospects for a busy season are reported bright by company officials.

More than 60 men have been called to work in the foundry and other departments have increased their number of employees. Last week a wage increase became effective in the different departments, Mr. Cheff said.

GIRLS DECIDE TO WEAR SAME ATTIRE AT GRADUATION EXERCISES

The girls of the senior class of Allegan met last week Wednesday evening for the purpose of deciding on wearing apparel for graduation. It was suggested that the girls wear ankle length pastel shade dresses of any material for graduation. This suggestion proved to be a popular one and it was made a final decision of the group that they wear this type of dress for the graduation exercises.

A motion was made that the Allegan girls wear either sports dresses or suits of any material for the baccalaureate services. This motion was carried by a unanimous vote. The girls also voted to wear hats and gloves for baccalaureate.

The executive board met last night (Thursday) to discuss plans for graduation exercises.

MONEY REDEPOSITED IN HOLLAND BANK

Grand Rapids Herald: Bank officials of the Holland City State bank, which resumed normal banking business today, were agreeably surprised at the amount of money redeposited, and hundreds of depositors gathered for the million-dollar payoff. A total of $763,831.90 in impounded deposits is made available in the reopening and trust deposits of $291,259.50 are up to depositors for a total of $1,055,091.40 in ready cash. The license for reopening of the local bank was issued Friday. The local police are being assisted by the state police to prevent possibility of a robbery.

HOLLAND HONORS TEAM THAT WON CLASS C TITLE

Students of Holland Christian high school Monday celebrated the school's first state class C basketball championship with a half holiday from classes and a parade through the city.

Following the morning chapel services in the school, presentation of the state championship trophy was made by Louis Robbert, team captain, to Louis Van Hemert, student council representative. Coach A. H. Muyskens spoke.

The parade through the city was headed by a truck carrying the players. Classes were resumed on Monday afternoon.

The championship team and the school officials were feted Tuesday evening by the Exchange club at a dinner in the Warm Friend Tavern.

Three trophies, emblematic of district, regional and state championships, have been placed on display in the show window of the Sells Jewelry store.

RECORD CLERK ASKED FOR HOLLAND POLICE

Painting of parking zones and street signals throughout the city will be undertaken in the near future, it was decided by the board of police and fire commissioners, Police Chief Peter A. Lievense made a plea at the meeting of the board for an officer to take care of the numerous department records. The chief said he would like to open the new police office in engine house No. 1, now being constructed under the CWA with such an officer.

Two Men Use Bed Clothes To Flee Fire

CHARLES AND JAMES DUNCAN LOWER SELVES FROM SECOND FLOOR OF BURNING HOUSE

Two men narrowly escaped from a building at Grand Haven and were forced to use bed clothing tied together to reach the ground from their second-story bedrooms. They were Charles and James Duncan, living at 904 Columbus street.

Fire originated in the basement and when discovered by some neighbors had made rapid progress in the front and middle walls. The stairway was a mass of flames and smoke making passing there impossible. The two brothers were sleeping in separate rooms. They were roused by the smoke and realized that the only escape was through the windows.

The fire department arrived and within a few minutes had the fire under control although on their arrival it looked as if the structure would be totally destroyed. A gas meter in the basement was badly burned and the main gas pipe emitted a large quantity of gas. Gerrit Vander Brandt entered the basement and succeeded in turning off the valve nearby.

There was about $300 damage and when the flames were subdued the men returned to their rooms and found their clothes, damaged mostly with smoke.

Mrs. Duncan and three little children had fortunately left last Friday for a visit with relatives in the South.

LOST: A SUGAR BEET ESSAY!

The Holland City News this week publishes the sugar beet essay of Donald Warner, winner of third prize in Christian High school.

We were to have published the essay of Miss Virginia Allen, but this essay was mislaid and will undoubtedly turn up after more thorough search. If the essay is found it will appear in the issue of April 5.

The last essay by Virginia Ellison of Holland High school, the one given the highest award, will appear two weeks later and will complete the entire group of winning essays.

ALLEGAN COUNTY DAIRY HERD IMPROVEMENT ASSN.

The high herd for February, 1934, goes to Henry Overbeek, Hamilton, whose eight registered Holsteins produced an average of 1168 pounds of milk and 41.6 pounds of butterfat, a three times milker. The second high herd goes to Enoch Johnson, Shelbyville, whose eleven registered Jerseys produced an average of 893 lb. of milk and 37.7 lb. of butterfat.

Eighteen herds, comprised of 253 cows, were tested. Forty-one of the total were dry. Fifty-seven new cows entered. Six cows were sold and three were unprofitable. The figures for returns for one dollar expended for feed, $1.81. Feed cost per one lb. fat, 17 cents. Feed cost per 100 lb. milk, 69 cents.

PORTRAIT PRESENTED TO SAUGATUCK LODGE

A life-size portrait of the late James G. Williams, charter member and first master of Saugatuck lodge No. 328, F. & A. M., has been presented to the lodge by his daughter, Mrs. George Babcock. Mr. Williams was a pioneer lumberman who came to Saugatuck from Cambridge, Mass., in 1860. In 1866, when this whole section of the west eight townships of Allegan county was known as Newburg, a Masonic lodge was established on the Douglas side of the river. Mr. Williams was also first master of this lodge and served until the organization of the Saugatuck lodge in 1876.

"Why Beet Sugar?"

By Donald Warner

"Sugar beet factory has first pay day, $10,000 distributed among local workers. Farmers soon to be paid on 50-50 basis." This article brought front page news in our local paper. It was only one of several items intended to arouse local enthusiasm in a local enterprise. Whether our people realize the importance of the success of the local sugar beet industry remains to be seen in their attitude and actions in the future in response to these articles. Anyone can see that success for a local enterprise can be brought about only by local cooperation. Since local cooperation is essential, the question "Why beet sugar?" becomes a local question and to make the question apply to a specific community the wording may be altered to apply to Holland. Then, as altered, the question reads, "Why Holland beet sugar?"

The history of the question is quite recent. In 1893 the St. Louis, Holland Sugar Company set up its local plant. For nearly 35 years it operated as a local factory, employing home labor, and sharing its profits with the community. In 1927, due to financial difficulty, it was forced to close its doors. The property depreciated in value and the idle machinery rusted. Then in 1932 through the efforts of Holland's Chamber of Commerce a beet quota was circulated and signed by many farmers. When the required acreage was contracted the men decided to open the factory. A few weeks ago the factory resumed operations and the first pay day brought money to poverty-stricken unemployed citizens.

The advantages of "buying Holland beet sugar" are evident. It will encourage community sentiment. This sentiment is advantageous to better times. Without this public sentiment or public opinion there cannot be a public confidence and without confidence no one will spend his money to encourage progress and industry.

The mention of money brings up a second great advantage of the beet sugar industry to Holland. Without money people cannot show their confidence in industry. The Holland Sugar Company, operating on a cash basis, brings employment and money to employees' homes. This money gives them the buying power of normal times and their demand increases production, demand and sales. Not only workers but beet growers as well receive a cash profit. The farmer shares with the employer and receives one-half the profit derived from his beets. To him sugar beets provide his ready cash while he is able to raise his own food on his land.

By encouraging the success of our local beet sugar industry we are helping ourselves balance our budget and stress economy. Local beet sugar, minus freight rates, is cheaper than sugar which is shipped to Holland by truck or train. In either method of transportation the freight rates are added to the consumer's price. The purity of our local product need not be doubted. Any industry manufacturing foods must live up to the requirements of Federal Food Laws and it would be absurd to think the Lake Shore Sugar Company would be an exception to this rule. The lame excuse of housewives that "beet sugar doesn't jell" has been proved invalid by experimentation and the discovery that fruit pectin causes the jelling. Since the quality and purity of our locally-manufactured sugar is up to par, why not buy local sugar and reap the profits for our local community?

If the Lake Shore Sugar Company can continue operations and close a successful year, Holland industry will profit in three possible ways. The first, increased employment, has already been discussed. The second, increased circulation, in which grower, trucker, manufacturer, merchant and consumer hand

20,000 PHEASANT EGGS TO BE AVAILABLE

Approximately 20,000 pheasant eggs will be available from the state game farm at Mason for distribution this year, according to the game division department of conservation. Applications will now be considered from proven pheasant counties and suitable northern pheasant islands on the "first come, first served" basis.

Pheasant islands are areas in the northern part of the state where food and cover have been found sufficiently favorable to maintain pheasants in sufficient numbers to furnish fair hunting.

In conformance with a policy of the department in past years, eggs will not be supplied to areas where pheasant conditions are not suitable.

The money and profits to each other, forming a business cycle, needs little explanation. The third possible benefit is important. Our local Chamber of Commerce has established an "Industries Campaign." The purpose of this campaign is to bring new industries to Holland which will employ Holland's men. In the past few weeks the committee in charge has succeeded in bringing two new factories to our community. The re-establishment of the Lake Shore Sugar Company was brought about mainly by their efforts. The beet industry, as already mentioned, demands the proper attitude of the people. If the sugar company can carry out its aims as planned it will mean to a large degree that Holland's attitude to industry is favorable. This message of success (and, of course, the reasons for this success) may well be used by the committee for campaign propaganda. Thus the success of the sugar beet industry can serve as an incentive to other industries.

Many other classes of industry are benefited by our local sugar plant. Foremost among these classes is the trucker. Hauling of sugar beets is profitable to these men. Idle trucks are pressed into service and even the horses and wagons are used. A steady stream of conveyances delivers the beets to the factory. Like a parade, this steady picture of activity raises the morale of the people and they realize the direct benefits to each citizen of the community. Minor results are felt by railroads in the transportation of coal to the plant and carrying beet sugar to neighboring towns. The factories which make the sugar sacks as well as the local merchant receive their share of profit.

The reasons for buying local beet sugar are certainly numerous enough to demand our attention. May we give ear to these reasons and, having logically and rightly considered the advantages, respond by urging forward a campaign having patriotism as its core. "Buy Holland Beet Sugar."

SOCIETY

The marriage of Miss Cecile Mae Bazaan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bazaan of Holland, and Harold M. Dekker, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dekker, also of Holland, was performed Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the parsonage of Trinity Reformed church. The single-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry D. Ten Keurst. The couple was attended by Miss Marie Driscoll and Theodore Van Dyke. The newlyweds left immediately after the ceremony for Detroit and upon their return will make their home at 34 East Twentieth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nyland, who were married recently, were guests of honor last week, Thursday evening, at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. John Nyland at her home on West Twentieth street. The evening was spent in playing cards after which refreshments were served to the twelve guests present. The recently wedded couple was also honored at another miscellaneous shower last week at the home of Mrs. John Nyland.

Mrs. Eva Tripp of 117 West Nineteenth street, entertained at a laundry shower recently in honor of her sister, Miss Jennie Beintema, a bride-to-be. An evening of games was enjoyed with prizes and refreshments were served to the fifteen guests present.

Miss Alice Woldring, who will become the bride of Arthur Dreyer of Chicago on March 21, was recently given a miscellaneous shower given jointly by Mrs. J. C. Woldring, Miss Sue Gerritsen and Mrs. C. Woldring. Fourteen guests were present and enjoyed an evening of games, after which refreshments were served.

REP. DYKSTRA OF G. R. ADDRESSES NEW CLUB

Approximately 175 men gathered in Trinity Reformed church Friday evening to organize a men's league.

Group singing was led by Jerry Houting and musical selections were offered by the orchestra of Trinity Reformed church, under the direction of Bert Brandt. Rev. John R. Mulder opened the meeting with prayer.

Nelson Miles, N. Jonker and Rev. Henry D. Ten Keurst served as an executive committee to arrange the meeting. Julio Sando of the French Congo, Africa, addressed the league.

The principal speaker of the evening was Rep. Ate Dykstra, who discussed the work the state legislature. He stated that he was on the committee to investigate allegations of bribery at Lansing. Dr. Dykstra stated that he was against liquor revenues going to the support of education. He also reasoned that the old age pensions are more economical than poor-houses.

The speaker urged that it was the duty of Christians to take deep interest in the affairs of government. For, according to Scripture, the government is ordained of God.

C. L. Beach of this city, Ottawa county commodore, was named rear commodore at a state Sea Scout committee election Saturday in Lansing.

ZEELAND

Miss Theresa Meyers, a bride-to-be, was honored Friday evening at a miscellaneous shower at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyers in Zeeland. Following games and prizes refreshments were served to the eighteen guests present.

Misses Margaret, Evelyn and Marie Steketee of Holland spent Wednesday at the home of Mrs. B. Neerken and Miss Anna Neerken on Central avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Van Kley and sons, LaVerne and Allen, spent Wednesday at the home of Judge De Jonge in South Holland, Ill. The Ladies' Aid society of Beaverdam Reformed church will hold its annual sale of dry goods on Friday afternoon, March 23. A program will be given and lunches will be served.

William Wentzel has been named acting postmaster at Zeeland by Postmaster General James A. Farley. He will succeed Willard Klaver, who has served in that capacity since 1922.

Mr. Wentzel, who was born in The Netherlands, came to America at the age of two years with his parents, who settled on a farm one mile south of Zeeland. There he spent his boyhood days and attended the Zeeland schools.

For eight years he was proprietor of a restaurant. For twenty years he was employed by the Van Eenensam Cigar company, which recently discontinued business. Mr. Wentzel is director of the Zeeland band and is also a member of the Zeeland fire department.

Richard Bernard Stremmer, seven-weeks-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Stremmer, 27 East McKinley street, Zeeland, died Friday afternoon at Zeeland hospital. Surviving besides the parents is a grandmother, Mrs. Ben Stremmer of Zeeland. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Langeland funeral home. Rev. J. Van Peursem, pastor of First Reformed church of Zeeland, officiated. Burial took place in Borculo cemetery.

Solving the Lenten Problem

By JOSEPHINE GIBSON
Director, Heinz Food Institute

Homemakers all over the land are now thinking about meatless dishes for Lent. How to keep up their standard of good meals without meats is often a real problem. Yet this problem can be solved very easily by planning vegetarian meals that will be full of appetite appeal for the family. Every homemaker, even if her family does not observe Lent in its strict sense, is interested in healthy, seasonal meals that will keep them in good physical trim. The following nourishing vegetarian menus wisely planned and attractively served will keep up your family's enthusiasm for substantial meatless meals.

(* Indicates recipes given below.)

Casserole of Deviled Onions with Egg—Mince 6 cold boiled onions and 2 hard cooked eggs. Melt 1 tablespoon butter, blend with 1 tablespoon flour and add ¾ cup milk. Stir until thickened, and season using 1½ teaspoons Worcestershire Sauce, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, ¾ teaspoon salt and a generous dash of pepper and paprika. Add this sauce to the minced onions and eggs, place in a baking dish, sprinkle with buttered bread crumbs or grated cheese, and bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for about 20 minutes or until lightly brown.

Salmon and Pickle Loaf—Flake 1 can of salmon. Add ½ cup bread crumbs, ½ cup milk, ½ cup Sweet
Midget Gherkins, coarsely chopped,
1 egg, 1 teaspoon salt and 1 tablespoon melted butter. Mix well and pack into a greased pan or baking dish and set in a shallow pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) for about 1 hour or until loaf becomes firm. Remove to a hot platter and pour 1 cup white sauce over the loaf, then arrange slices of hard cooked eggs over top, and on the slices of egg place slices of stuffed Spanish olives. Serve hot.

Tuna and Mushroom Casserole—
Melt 2 tablespoons butter in a saucepan and blend with 3 tablespoons flour. Add 1 medium can cream of mushroom soup and cook, stirring constantly, until thick.
Drain oil from 1 7-oz. can tuna fish and break fish into small pieces. Add fish and 3 sliced hard cooked eggs to thickened soup, pour into casserole and cover with dropped biscuits made from a quick biscuit flour. Bake in a hot oven (475° F.) for 12 to 15 minutes.

HEINZ oven-baked BEANS

Variety, lady, variety! That's what makes your good providing a continuing success. Get away from beef and lamb and veal now and then, and serve a welcome, exciting surprise. See the family perk up, sniff, munch, and pass back for more, when you serve them Heinz Oven-Baked Beans.

For baked-bean-munching is an ancient American pastime and Heinz Baked Beans are the good old-fashioned kind.

Listen!

We buy "choice hand-picked" beans. We cull them closely, under strong lights, so that every bean used may be perfect.
Then we soak them many hours in clear cold water.

Then we bake them. Bake them the old Colonial way, thoroughly, in hot, dry ovens. Baking makes them munchy, and mealy. Baking makes them more digestible and so more healthful. Baking enables us to replace the original bean-moisture with rich, savory sauce, which means you get good eating through and through. Baking is, in fact, the only way to make beans a glorious, exciting dish. So we bake them.

Take a few pennies to your Grocer for Heinz Oven-Baked Beans. Take a few minutes to heat them. And give your family a happy change from the eternal meat-routine . . .
But, lady, please remember that

HEINZ are really OVEN-BAKED BEANS

Speaking of dogs, a week or so ago Duke, the Great Dane belonging to the Harry Perrigos broke through the ice in the river back of the Fairgrounds and one foot became caught so that he was held fast. It was a bitter cold day. Late in the afternoon two boys heard the dog's cries of distress and discovered his plight. They succeeded in extricating his foot and dragged him to shore where he lay exhausted. He was nearly frozen. His rescuers then covered him with a blanket and built a fire after which they notified the Perrigos who came and took their dog home and administered medicine and hot drinks until he showed improvement. The boys no doubt saved the big pet's life, not only from drowning but from distemper or pneumonia to which dogs are known to be susceptible. —Allegan Gazette.

LOCAL

Burning of marsh areas during the spring months a practice common in many localities of Michigan, is condemned as being destructive of wild life. Marsh fires not only kill small game and fur-bearers, but destroy excellent cover and feeding grounds for many forms of wild life, especially pheasants and quail. Marsh areas with their tall grass and dense verdure are excellent shelter and hiding places for game birds of various species and the burning of these areas drives the wild life to other sections where they are easy prey to predators. If the fires are started in April they are sure to destroy the nests of many migratory birds. Marshes that are pastured and burned over become valueless as game cover and feeding grounds. Residents of the state are urged not to over-pasture marshes nor to destroy what little cover that remains by burning them.

Caught fishing with 18 ice lines, Benjamin Stevens of Detroit, 46, was arraigned before Justice A. H. Perkins by William N. Hodgson, conservation officer of Lapeer county, pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $5 and costs of $6.75. State law allows only five single ice lines with only one hook attached to each.

Mrs. Louisa Stegeman, 91, who was well known in Holland, died on Sunday afternoon at the home of a son, Alderman John Stegeman, in Allegan. She was one of the oldest residents of Allegan county. Surviving are four sons, Dr. Frank L. Charles and John of Allegan, and Albert, Mrs. Myron C. Moore and Mrs. A. L. Hayward of Allegan. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of her son, John.

CLASS C CAGE CHAMPIONS OF MICHIGAN

Here you see Holland Christian's basketball team, winners of the Class C championship in the state tournament last week-end. Coached by A. H. Muyskens, Holland Christian has a remarkable record for the last six seasons. The Maroons have suffered only 10 defeats in that space of time, scoring a total of 2,847 points to 1,731 for opposing teams.

Holland Christian defeated St. Clair in the finals of Class C Saturday night, 27 to 22. Members of the team and their coach are shown above. Back row, left to right: Russell Visser, Coach A. H. Muyskens and John Zwier. Front row—Ray Karsten, Louis Robberts, C. Everett Karsten and John Tripp.

A state basketball title was brought to Holland Saturday evening as Holland Christian High school captured the finals of class C in the Michigan interscholastic tournament in Grand Rapids. Two of the four titles went to Ottawa county when Grand Haven won honors in class B for its sixth championship in ten years.

Monday Holland Christian High school students had a glory day, with a parade through the city. And they had plenty to cheer about.

The local team, coached by A. H. Muyskens, defeated St. Clair, a school from the eastern rim of the state, in the finals of the tournament before 4,000 persons in the Grand Rapids Civic auditorium. A second-quarter rally, in which the Maroons took a 20-to-9 lead, paved the way for victory. John Zwier, 6 foot, 5 inch center, scored 11 points for Christian, but every one of the players performed creditably.

In order to reach the finals, the locals had to win eight tournament games in three weeks, netting them trophies for the district and regional tournaments. Christian had its hardest game in the semifinals of the state meet when it defeated Trenton, 20 to 18, coming from behind in the last three minutes of play.

In the first round of the state meet Christian eliminated its old rival, Kalamazoo St. Augustine, 16 to 11. Capt. Louis Robbert covering himself with glory by scoring 10 points. In that battle Christian gained a 5-to-4 advantage over the perennial state class C champions. The Maroons swept through the district tournament in Grand Rapids by defeating Godwin, Lee and Grandville in order. The locals downed Caledonia, Grant and Rockford in the regional.

The Holland team won 25 games

PATROL CONTEST IS BEING STAGED

With only two weeks left in the patrol contest, the Royal Vagabonds of troop No. 7, Third Scout Council, are in the front, leading the Stag patrol, headed by Ray Allen, to the tune of 607 to 330. Points given, individually to each Scout, are: Present at a meeting, 2 points; material published in the troop paper, 5 points for every inch; hike attended, 10 points; merit badges, 20 points; advancement, 15, 25 and 30 for the various ranks, and each recruit brought in, 60 points. Fifty points are awarded to each patrol that gets its dues paid up first at the end of every month. The contest, which began the first week of February, will close March 26. The prize will be a Scout staff and Scout guard worn by the winning patrol at the end of the contest. James McNaughton of the Royal Vagabonds, leads in individual scoring with 122 points. Ray Allen, Stag patrol, and Anthony Pennings, Vagabonds, follow with 108 and 108 points, respectively.

COUNTS HIS EGGS BEFORE HE HAS CHICKENS

A Holland barber was asked to cut a man's hair and the man offered eggs in payment. The barber acquiesced. However, when the barber had the man's hair pretty well trimmed, he asked the man how many chickens he had. The answer was: "None." "I expect to get some chickens in the spring and go into the egg business."

Now the barber is figuring when he'll get his eggs and isn't worrying so much about "how many."

INTERESTING PROGRAM GIVEN AT MUSIC CLUB

Mrs. F. E. De Weese entertained the members of the Holland Music Club at her home on West Thirteenth street Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Peter Prins and Miss Nella Meyer were in charge of the program and their subject was "Later Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Music of France."

The program was opened with a discussion by Miss Meyer of the music of the nineteenth century and the music of France today.

Gary De Weerd, accompanied by Gerard Hanchett, played Saint-Saens' "Violin Concerto in B Minor," first movement.

Miss Meyer gave illustrations of compositions by De Bussy and Ravel to show the various characteristics of their works. Mrs. Prins read a paper on De Bussy.

Miss Evelyn Beach, accompanied by Harold Karsten, played "Mouvements Perpetuels," by Poulenc. Mrs. De Weese discussed current events.

On March 28, the club will meet at the home of Mrs. Andrew Hyman at 349 Pine avenue. The program will be in charge of Miss Ruby Hughes and Mrs. F. Van Dyk.

Final Run-Off In Election Is Monday

MAYOR CANDIDATES WAGE QUIET BUT THOROUGH CAMPAIGN

This election can be called an underdog campaign, especially as far as the mayor candidates are concerned. Present Mayor Nicodemus Bosch has a healthy organization and a large number of workers, and Sears McLean is said to have not alone one organization but two.

Be that as it may the campaign has been largely of the "gun shoe" order, the workers and friends expounding the good qualities of their respective candidates.

There has been very little publicity up to this time although Mr. McLean early in the week issued a pamphlet setting forth his platform, and Mayor Bosch Thursday appeared in print with another pamphlet in which "Klein Nederland" and many other matters of a public nature was also expounded. These two documents were distributed to the homes but up to this time there has been no more campaign literature aside from thousands of cards picturing the two candidates-soliciting support.

The two candidates for city treasurer, John Steggerda, who "held the poll" during the primaries and John H. Meyer are quietly working, lining up their friends and supporters.

A new feature has been injected in this campaign when it was announced yesterday that Miss Anna Van Otterloo, of 24 West Seventeenth street, was to run for treasurer on slips. She has been connected with the Holland Welfare department for the past two years and claims that friends urged her to make the race.

She came to Holland from the West about eight years ago, receiving her business education in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, and also worked in a bank in Iowa. Running on slips will prove another unusual feature in this campaign.

For police commissioner, John Donnelly and Joe Gerdes are waging a good natured campaign. These two men are friends and we are sure no bitterness will be engendered at least not in this campaign.

For supervisor, William Brusse, one-time mayor of Holland, and Ray Nies, local hardware dealer, who were high men at the primaries, are running it off with John De Koeyer, who at one time was supervisor, and Leonard De Pree, two candidates who must be voted for on the ballot.

There is a contest in only one ward for alderman and that is in the Fifth. Fritz Jonkman, the present alderman, who has made a conscientious city official, is opposed by Jacob R. Bultman, the latter being the high man at the primaries.

There are also a few constable battles in some of the wards, although the rank and file do not know it but the candidates feel their position as much as if they were running for mayor.

In the Fourth ward Charles L. Dulyea and Peter Roos are contesting; in the Fifth ward, Peter Lugten and William Steketee; in the Sixth ward, Carl Visscher and Henry Borr.

Good luck, boys. Go to it!

There will be a second ballot handed to the voters Monday which means an amendment to the charter, giving the board of police and fire commissioners certain powers, the main cause being the following:

"The appointment of a Chief of Police, policemen, detectives, special policemen and watchmen, who shall constitute the police force of the City, and such other employees as they may deem necessary, all of whom shall hold their respective appointments during the pleasure of the board; Provided, that the number of policemen so appointed, exclusive of special policemen and watchmen, shall at no time exceed one for every One Thousand inhabitants of the City; and Provided further, That the appointment of a Chief of Police shall be made subject to the confirmation of the Common Council."

Well that is the extent of Holland's election Monday and the polls will be open from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. at the same old polling places.

The Holland City News wishes to repeat again as it did in its editorial during the primaries—Come out and vote! Neglecting to vote and criticizing afterwards is unfair. Neglecting to vote indicates disloyalty to government, disloyalty to one's community. Even persons who are ill are given the privilege to vote so there is little excuse for not casting your ballot.

Remember, the primaries did not settle the matter as voters so often think. The real crux of the election comes next Monday and your duty is plain.

OLD FIRE STATION WILL BE AS GOOD AS NEW

Holland's new police station, listed as a work relief project, will provide modern equipment for police work.

The building as sketched by the architect, H. W. Weemhoff, will be two stories, of buff-colored brick with stone trimming front. With the adjoining fire station it will be 50 feet wide. The main floor will be used for a double garage and storage room, three cells of reinforced concrete floors and walls. The upper floors will be devoted to police headquarters, including lobby, general office, chief's private room, examination and fingerprint rooms, and three cells. The basement will be fitted out as a boiler room.

Although in the same building, police and fire departments will be segregated. The fire station will be used for trucks and sleeping rooms. Much of the material to be used will be taken from the razed Ottawa furniture factory. The estimated cost approximates $10,000.

The Weemhoff general office building with Mr. Peter Elzinga of Holland in charge.

Hear Dr. Weigle at Armory Sunday.

INSTRUCTION BALLOT

On page 1 will be found an instruction ballot to be given the voters next Monday, election day. All the candidates still to be voted for are found on this ballot as it will be given to you—the only difference being the names on every ballot are alternated. For instance, for mayor, the name of Bosch may appear first, but on the next ballot McLean will be on the top and that rule holds good for all the candidates. Anyway the ballot is found on page 1 of this section.

6,800 LICENSES SOLD THUS FAR

Henry Prins, manager of the local license bureau, states that a total of 6,800 automobile license plates and "stickers" have been sold. Compared to last year when 8,000 sets of plates were sold, Mr. Prins estimates that 85 per cent of the motorists in this vicinity have licensed their cars for 1934. Police Chief Peter A. Livense has instructed all police to enforce the use of the new plates, but thus far no arrests have been made.

EXPRESS COMPANY HAS NEW SERVICE

It is understood that the American Railway Express has joined with the Western Union Telegraph company to broaden and perfect its service. Besides having the depot office there will also be a downtown branch at the Western Union on East Eighth street. The messenger boys will pick up all packages of 20 pounds and under that weight. Merchants who send things abroad can leave these packages at the downtown office to be shipped by rail or air.

This is the information given by A. L. Johnson, local agent for the Express Company, and L. R. Leachman of the Western Union. The regular pickup and delivery will be continued by truck as before.

This new feature will be effective in 3,600 Western Union offices in the United States.

Thousands See Nature Reels

More than a half million persons during 1933 saw moving pictures of Michigan wildlife and scenic attractions through the free film loan and lecture service of the Educational Division, State Department of Conservation.

The requests for film loans during the year revealed a broad interest in the outdoors and conservation activity, every type of picture having a strong demand. Requests for the division's lecture service showed a marked increase during 1933.

A report for the year shows a total attendance of 545,227 and that 1,802 reels were loaned to 718 organizations, individuals, schools and other institutions. Attendances were heaviest in the winter months, dropping to a low mark in midsummer.

ZEELAND GROUP PLANS FOR MUSEUM DISPLAY

A Jannes VanDeLuyster Memorial association, honoring the memory of the founder of Zeeland colony, was formed here Tuesday evening with the following officers: President, Dr. Abraham Leenhouts of Holland; vice president, P. T. Moredyk, and secretary, William H. VanDeWater, both of Zeeland. Adrian VanKoevering and Ald. John Harterink, the latter named by the Zeeland council, completed the organization.

The committee named to place a Zeeland display in Kent Scientific museum in Grand Rapids is headed by VanKoevering, with C. J. Den Herder, Mrs. William Hieftje, Cornelius Roosenraad and Henry P. Karsten completing the membership.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kane, 331 West Twentieth street, on March 27, a son, Donald Edward.

Stegenga Tells Of Gov. Bonds and Farm Loans

FARMERS ARE TO BE PAID IN BONDS FOR WHICH THERE IS READY MARKET

Albert H. Stegenga, secretary-treasurer of the Grand River National Farm Loan association, with offices in the Peter's Building in Holland, received word today from William I. Myers, governor of the farm credit administration, Washington, D. C., that federal land bank loans and land bank commissioner's loans will be made in the future through the federal land bank in bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage corporation, which bonds are guaranteed by the United States government both as to principal and interest which will be at the rate of 3 1/2 per cent per annum for the bonds to be issued at this time. These bonds will take the place of the cash distribution in the disbursement of the unclosed loans previously approved by the Federal land banks.

The bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage corporation, according to the statement by Governor Myers, will have behind them not only the unconditional guarantee of the federal government as to both principal and interest, and the capital of the Federal Farm Mortgage corporation amounting to about $200,000,000, but also the consolidated bonds of the federal land banks issued in exchange for the bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage corporation and the mortgages accepted by the land bank commissioner as security for loans.

Governor Myers assured Secretary A. H. Stegenga that the Federal Farm Mortgage corporation bonds will be an attractive investment.

"They will be as ready marketable as bonds of the United States government and they will be quoted in all of the principal markets," he continued. "Holders who have to dispose of these bonds should not sell them without first ascertaining their real market value."

The governor particularly stressed the fact that country bankers in these securities since the creditors of farmers who are being refinanced may not all be in the position where they can hold the bonds so acquired and will find it necessary to sell them. Secretary Stegenga states that these bonds, which will be tendered to farmers' creditors in payment of the refinanced indebtedness, are "except from all federal, state municipal and local taxation, except surtaxes and estate, inheritance and gift taxes. They are lawful security for fifteen-day borrowings by member banks of the federal reserve system. They are also lawful investments for all trust, public and fiduciary funds of which the deposit or investment is under the authority or control of the government. The interest rate on new loans will continue to be 4 1/2 per cent for the emergency period when made through a national farm loan association and 5 per cent when made directly by the bank."

"These bonds will be issued in denominations of $100, $500 and $1,000. However, amounts less than $100 will be disbursed in cash. For example, a loan of $995 would be made in a $500 bond, four $100 bonds and the rest in cash. In addition, to provide for certain debts such as taxes which cannot be paid in bonds, cash covering the required amounts will be provided. "Loans which have been applied for and approved, but on which the cash has not been paid out, as well as those approved by the bank in the future, will be financed on the above basis. This arrangement in no way disturbs or alters the other provisions of the loans. The interest rate on new loans will continue to be 4 1/2 per cent for the emergency period when made through a national farm loan association and 5 per cent when made directly by the bank."

The German Gelatin Co.'s plant on the north side was wrecked through the sudden and unexpected collapse of a mammoth water tank, which crashed through the roof of the basement. All the machinery was smashed, 1,000 pounds of gelatin was ruined and the damage is estimated at $3,000 with no insurance. The crash could be heard for a half mile at least—one was injured. Note: This plant was later the Holland Maid and still later the Vac-Tap washing machine concern that cost Holland investors plenty.

East Saugatuck Church damaged by fire

The East Saugatuck Christian Reformed church was damaged by fire last week, Thursday afternoon, at about 5:30 o'clock. On the same afternoon a reception was held for the new pastor of the church, Rev. Sidney Miersma, his wife and four children by members of the consistory and their wives. The fire, which was believed to have started from sparks from the chimney, was confined to the roof. Members of the church assisted in extinguishing the flames. ## An Old Timer

The above picture was taken more than a half century ago. It is the old sailing schooner "Kanters", pushing through the channel when Holland's first pier and light-house was still intact. The old lightkeeper was M. Van Regenmortel, father of the boys who are still at Macatawa. The schooner was captained by Baas Van Ry, father of former Chief Frank Van Ry, who also sailed on the "Kanters", graduating from cook boy to mate. The "Kanters" has long since gone to "Davy Jones' Locker." There was only one house at Macatawa when this picture was taken, where the lightkeeper lived, and that is still there. The primitive conditions of those days can be seen on the shore which is filled with scattering drift wood from saw mills all along the shores of the lake. This surely is an "old timer."

News Items Taken From the Files of Holland City News Fifty, Twenty-five and Fifteen Years Ago Today

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

John R. Kleyn has been given the contract to furnish all the material and the putting up of the large addition to the large dry house of the Cappon-Bertsch Leather Co., on the south side. Note: This factory was a prosperous concern, located just across from the "stand pipe" on 6th St. The main building is still standing but nearly ready to fall. The large tannery building Mr. Kleyn built has also been wrecked. The passing of both these concerns was rather a pathetic industrial setback here for these figured largely in our early development.

The total indebtedness of the city of Holland in bonds is $6,921.17 on public buildings and new street special assessments. Note: Today our bonded indebtedness is nearly a million dollars but we have ever so much more to show for it.

The Holland Library fund shows $261.14 in the treasury. Bills for the year against this amount is H. D. Post, $75.00, for 65 books; Rokus Kanters & Sons, glass and pottery, $4.37; Workman & Van Ark, bookcases, $21.00; H. D. Weyman, painting, and varnishing said case, $4.00.

A. B. Bosman of Hamilton sent a large number of his Holland friends messes of "suckers" caught in Rabbit River. Suckers are running thick now—Look out for bones, boys.

Local Business Man Exonerated By Coroner Jury

HOURS, STATING "DEATH NOT CAUSED BY NEGLIGENCE"

William J. Brouwer, local furniture dealer, who was implicated in a wreck which caused the death of Miss Hilda Kampen, was exonerated by a coroner's jury at the city hall yesterday.

The verdict read "death not caused by negligence on the part of William J. Brouwer."

It will be remembered that some ten days ago Miss Hilda Kampen, aged 31, died at Holland hospital from injuries sustained when the car in which she was riding collided with a machine driven by William J. Brouwer.

Early reports minimized the seriousness of her injuries, detailed examination showing she suffered a fractured skull in addition to cuts and body bruises. She died without regaining consciousness.

The accident occurred at the corner of Central avenue and Seventeenth street. Owen Kampen, brother of Hilda, was driving the car at the time of the accident.

Miss Kampen, who lived at home, had been employed for several years in the millinery department store.

The hearing at the city hall was held before Coroner Gilbert Vandewater and Prosecutor John Dethmers, appearing for the people, and the local court room was filled to capacity.

There were a few contradictory views favorable and otherwise called both witnesses. Witnesses called were Owen Kampen, Mrs. Minnie Webber, Dr. Otto Vanderveide, Marvin Dobbin, Albert Geritsen, Martin Wabeke, Arend Smith, John Meuwesen, Deputy Tony Gronewold of the sheriff's department, and Mr. Brouwer.

The coroner's jury hearing the testimony was composed of G. J. Steggerda, foreman; Anton Seif, Jr., Cornelius Lokker, Jr., John H. Oosting, Fred Sandy and John D. Klompans.

The attorney representing Mr. Brouwer, through the Preferred Auto Insurance company, was Mr. Dunn. Attorney Charles Van Dusen represented the Kampens.

A warning against roller skating on the streets in the city was issued by Police Chief Peter A. Livense to youngsters and even older folks who participate in skating activities. Police have been instructed to check street activities because of the dangers involved.

Cars driven by William Wichers, son of President and Mrs. Wynand Wichers, of Hope college, and Mayo Hadden, Jr., of 106 West Eleventh street, collided at the corner of Pine avenue and Eighth street at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening. The Wichers car was badly damaged but neither Hadden nor Wichers were injured.

Martin De Ridder, who submitted to an operation on March 20, is recuperating at his home on West Ninth street.

GRAND HAVEN LEATHER TO BE USED BY PRESIDENT

(Grand Haven Tribune)

Leather from the Eagle-Ottawa Leather company of this city will go into the fabrication of some special furniture for President Roosevelt to be used in the White House and at his home at Warm Springs, Ga.

The local company is making special leather for the Fox Manufacturing company of Atlanta, Ga., and for the Carolina Furniture company at Statesville, N. C., to be used as covering for the president's furniture now under construction.

The leather, which is to be shipped to the Carolina factory, is a beautiful special tan crackle leather, which is an exclusive type made by the local company and which caused great comment in leather circles when it was brought out several years ago. It is a beautiful grade and is used frequently for the finest purses and bags.

Monday election day the smiling face of Wm. Wentzel will be seen in the Zeeland postoffice where the present able man, Willard Claver, will shake hands with the new official and depart to the regular walks of life. Mr. Wentzel is also a fine citizen with a great many friends. He was appointed postmaster recently by President Roosevelt.

MISS TEN CATE REVIEWS CURRENT PLAYS AT HOLLAND LITERARY CLUB

The regular meeting of the Woman's Literary club was held Tuesday afternoon in the club rooms.

Miss Myra Ten Cate discussed Broadway's offerings to the current theatrical season. She stated that this season was notable for its abundance of good plays. She gave a list of what she considered to be the nine best plays of the season.

The musical part of the program was in charge of Mrs. William Vandenberg and consisted of two violin solos by Miss Cornelia Stryker, accompanied at the piano by her sister, Miss Margaret Stryker. Announcement was made of the luncheon next Tuesday which will conclude the club season.

Mrs. Dick Boter and Mrs. Frank Lieverse have charge of the ticket sales. Any member of the club who has not been called by the committee is asked to notify Mrs. Boter or Mrs. Lieverse if she wishes to attend.

Mrs. C. J. McLean made mention of the charity ball which will be given April 6 by the civic health committee.

Mrs. Wynand Wichers announced the spring rummage sale which will be held April 14 and asked for donations from the club members.

PRISONER FLEES WAITING DEPUTY BY OTHER DOOR

Martin Siegers, 35, of this city, bound over to circuit court on a statutory charge yesterday eluded the police while bidding his family goodbye before leaving for the county jail.

According to Officer Jack Van Hoff, who was in charge of the prisoner, Siegers went into a bedroom to gather some clothes. While Van Hoff was standing at the door of the room, unaware that another door led out of the bedroom, Siegers made his getaway. Since that time officers have been unable to find a trace of him.

Siegers was arraigned before Justice John Galien. He waived examination and was remanded to jail in default of $2,000 bond.

Chief Lieverse stated that no trace of Siegers has been received up to this afternoon.

MRS. DICK TYNK DIES AT LOCAL HOSPITAL

Funeral services for Mrs. Dick Tyink, 57, of Virginia Park, who died Sunday afternoon at Holland hospital following a prolonged illness of diabetes, were held Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home in Virginia Park and at 2 o'clock at Graafschap Christian Reformed church, Rev. H. Blystra officiating. Burial took place in Graafschap cemetery.

Mrs. Tyink was born in The Netherlands and came to this country at the age of five years. Her husband is janitor of the Harrington school.

Surviving besides the husband are the following sons and daughters: Mrs. Henry Ten Brink of Kalamazoo, James Tyink of Castle Park, Mrs. Leon Boyd of Kalamazoo, Mrs. J. H. Teusink of Zeeland, Herman Tyink of Virginia Park, Miss Martha Tyink of Kalamazoo and Clarence Tyink at home. Her mother, Mrs. James Bruze-man, Noordeloos; a sister, Mrs. H. J. Langejans of rural route 8; a brother, Edward Bruze-man of Noordeloos, and 21 grandchildren also survive.

FINAL RITES HELD FOR MRS. M. SHOEMAKER

Mrs. Matthew Shoemaker, 85, resident of Holland for 60 years, died early Monday morning at her home, 311 West Twelfth street. She was born in Germany on June 19, 1848.

Surviving are a son, Monte Shoemaker of Detroit; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Francis de Sales church, Father F. W. Ryan officiating. Burial took place in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

OFFICERS IN COUNTY ELECTED BY OTTAWA CORN-HOG REDUCTION BODY

Officers of the Ottawa County Corn-Hog association have been selected, according to County Farm Agent L. R. Arnold, with Sam Rymer of Spring Lake township elected president; Walter Selvig, Jamestown township, vice president; Glenn Taylor of Polkton, treasurer; and L. R. Arnold, county agricultural agent, secretary. The officers were selected by representatives of the seven districts who met last night at Allendale. Besides the officers elected the allotment committee was named.

April 10 was decided upon as the final date for accepting applications on the corn-hog reduction program. The directors also set the budget for operation up to July 1, 1934. Over 120 contracts with associated forms have been checked by the community committees and sent into the local office.

A recheck of these by the tabulator and allotment committee will start within a few days. As the checking progresses the completed forms will be sent to the tabulator.

Present indications are that Ottawa county will have 400 or more co-operating producers.

From inquiries coming to the local office and community committee it is apparent that some farmers are still unaware that a corn-hog program is being conducted in the county. A last-minute effort is being made to get information to all producers before the final date as no applications will be written up after that time.

BEGIN REREISTERING OF JOBLESS IN HOLLAND

Reregistration of Holland residents, listed in federal re-employment rolls, was begun today in the Visscher-Brooks building under the supervision of George Barnard, head of the county office. The purpose of the registration is to determine how many men in the employment files are still available for work.

Tomorrow Holland township men will register along with those from Holland who are not taken care of today. Port Sheldon, Park and Olive townships will register Thursday and on Friday, Blendon and Zeeland townships will register in the Zeeland city hall.

DENTAL SITUATION IN OTTAWA COUNTY DISCUSSED

An informal meeting was held at the office of the Ottawa county health unit Tuesday night in Grand Haven to discuss the dental condition of the children of Ottawa county, relative to finding some way to improve conditions as found recently through a survey conducted in the townships and cities.

Dr. Arend Vyn of Grand Haven, Dr. J. Stegeman of Holland, and Dr. J. Kuite of Zeeland were present together with Dr. Ralph Ten Have and the members of the public health committee of the board of supervisors.

Discussion as to how best to meet the situation occupied the entire session with the decision that another meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 3. The matter probably will be brought before the board of supervisors at the next session and before the Ottawa County Dental association.

Figures on the survey in Grand Haven and Holland City have not yet been compiled but the totals from the townships indicate that probably the greatest need is in the rural sections. The condition tallies with that of other localities but the local authorities believe it is an important matter and are taking the preliminary steps to get some official action for relief.

TWENTY-FIFTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Venhuizen observed their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary with a party last Friday evening, March 23, at their home, 272½ East Eleventh street. Mrs. Venhuizen was born in Hamilton. Her husband, son of John Venhuizen, was born in Grand Haven. His parents moved to Holland when he was a child.

Mr. Venhuizen is now a partner in the Spit & Company garage. Their family includes five daughters, Mrs. B. Dokter, and the Misses Angelyn, Genevieve, Thelma and Pearl Venhuizen, all of this city. Those who celebrated with Mr. and Mrs. Venhuizen Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Venhuizen of New Buffalo, Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Vos and sons, Donald and Alfred from Zeeland, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boerighier and family from Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. William Strabbing, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Drost, Mr. and Mrs. H. Smith and daughter, Miss Betty Schipper, Miss Theresa Helms and Mr. James Kinkema of Holland.

The program for the evening consisted of music by Mrs. H. Venhuizen; group singing, accompanied by Mrs. Homer Venhuizen; a reading by Mr. Kinkema, and several games. A two-course lunch was served by Mrs. B. Dokter, Angelyn Venhuizen and Betty Schipper.

Mr. and Mrs. Venhuizen received some beautiful gifts.

MAYOR

The Aldermen and myself have gone through the two most strenuous years this city has ever known. All problems because of this unusual stressful period have been new problems in Holland. This city has never faced a situation just like that before. By far the greater part of my time during my last term in office and that of my colleagues has been devoted to city affairs and this has been done conscientiously and honestly in the light that we saw to meet these situations.

IF my record as mayor has met with your approval then I would appreciate your endorsement.

ZEELAND

A. Van Koeveering, the Zeeland Record publisher, has been named mayor on the Republican ticket. If he wins he won't have to walk very far to the City Hall which is just across from the newspaper office. Having been an alderman repeatedly Van surely knows all about Zeeland city affairs.

Mrs. H. De Kruif of Zeeland has reached California, where she was called by the death of her brother. The Choral society of Third Christian Reformed church of this city is presenting the cantata, "The Resurrection Song," this Thursday evening.

A mass meeting will be held in the Zeeland city hall Tuesday evening to organize a James VanDeLuyster Memorial association. VanDeLuyster was the founder of Zeeland colony. A proposal to cooperate with Kent Scientific museum in placing Zeeland display in the Grand Rapids museum is to be considered also. C. VanMalsen of Grand Rapids will represent Kent museum. A committee will be chosen to assemble the historical data and information necessary.

The taxpayers of School District No. 1 of Zeeland and Holland townships, that is, the Zeeland city schools, are organized a material reduction in their next annual school budget if the present estimates of the finance committee are permitted to stand. According to tentative plans and the budget presented to the Ottawa County Tax Apportionment Commission there will be a reduction of about 25% from the figures of the last tax year and very nearly 50% from the figures of 1929-30. The figures of 1933-34 were $37,042.40 and those promised for 1934-35 are now placed at $28,000.00. There is also a material reduction in the annual school budget as tentatively set at this time as compared with former years. The present budget is tentatively set at $51,325.00 for all purposes except debt service which has thus far not been considered here.

Mr. Glen Veneklasen has returned to Detroit after spending Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Veneklasen. He was called to Zeeland because of the death of his grandmother, Mrs. J. Goosen.

A farewell was given the old postmaster, Willard Claver, by the entire postoffice force and their wives. Mr. Claver has been postmaster since 1922, when he replaced Berend Kampe, who was appointed by President Wilson. Mr. Claver received his appointment thru President Coolidge.

High school students gathered at the gymnasium on Friday evening for a party. T. A. Dewey, principal, made an announcement about the popularity contest held at the school the past week. Miss Dorothy Plewes and Harris Borr were the winners and they were crowned queen and king in recognition. They were also presented with gifts. This party was sponsored by the Zeta club, made up of letter men of the high school. The members of this club, many of whom were dressed in old costumes, presented an interesting program. Burt Van Koeveering acted as a white man and the following were Negroes: Melvin Walters, Melvin Brower, Dwight Wyngarden, Gordon Fris, Ivan Vanden Bosch, Gordon Tenkinck, Lloyd De Jonge, Harris Borr, Jay Van Horn, Ernie Kraai, Albert Gebben, Willis Welking, Bill Korstanje, Vernon Borr and Herman Forstein. Orchestra music was an interesting feature of the program: June Cook, piano; B. Ainsley, trumpet; Lester De Koster, tenor saxophone; Donald De Pree, saxophone; Burt Van Koeveering, violin; Gordon Van Tamelan, drum. Laura Berghorst and Dorothy Plewes presented Dot and Dash. They were accompanied by Lois Wyngarden, who sang "Stay in Your Own Back Yard," and Gordon Fris. "The Parade of the Wooden Shoes" was presented by Winifred Boone and June Cook as a double piano selection. Bill Korstanje presented a tapping number and Vernon Borr sang a humorous solo. Several selections were sung by the group in blackface, accompanied by June Cook, piano, and R. Muller, trumpet. Quips and jokes about several members were given which added much merriment to the program. A letter was read by Vernon Borr and a poem by Melvin Walters. Orchestra music was enjoyed while refreshments were served. Ice cream and cookies were served.

Mr. C. J. Den Herder of the Zeeland State Bank has returned from Florida, where he spent six weeks enjoying the southland.

Prof. Stewart of Michigan State college addressed the students of Zeeland high school on Friday morning. He explained the course of study and the cost of students attending that institution.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Schuitema have been in Rochester, Minn., at Mayo hospital for observation.

FOR SALE OR RENT, CHEAP—

40 acres, good house, small barn, nice chicken coop. L. T. ELZINGA, 277 Pine avenue, Holland.

Local News

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Hoffmeyer, Holland route 8, on March 21, a son, Kenneth Dale; to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hoeve, at Holland hospital, on March 24, a son, Erville Wayne.

John J. Good, head of the John Good Coal and Supply company, has been named code authority of the coal industry of division No. 7. The election of Mr. Good to the position was approved by the national code authority.

Members of the League for Service of Sixth Reformed church enjoyed a pot-luck supper in the church basement Tuesday evening. During the supper hour selections were sung by a trio composed of Ed Scheerhorn, Raymond Van Voorst and Bernard Vanderbeek, accompanied by Lewis Verburg. A solo was sung by Arthur De Waard. A business meeting was held with Miss Helen White, president, presiding, followed by devotion in charge of Miss Christine Spijkhoven. The following program was presented: A solo by Arthur De Waard; readings by Mrs. Henry Van Dyk; selections by the Christian Endeavor quartet, and a playlet, "A Slight Mistake," presented by Miss Bernice Zuverink, Miss Elsie Wybenga, Miss Viola Karel and Miss Margaret Knoll. The program was concluded with selections by the quartet. Brief talks were given by Mrs. Burt Scholten, former president and adviser of the league. Mrs. Lina Ter Louw, present adviser of the league, Mrs. Ernest Penna and Bernard Vanderbeek.

A style review will be staged the latter part of April by the Holland Camp Fire Girls. All of the garments to be paraded will be made by the girls, who will wear or exhibit them at the show. A leather local honor will be given each girl who makes and exhibits a garment. Each girl must select or help to select her pattern and materials and must make the garment herself. Linen of all kinds, pajamas for sleeping or beach wear, tennis or sport shorts, sport and afternoon dresses or skirts to be worn with blouses or suits are included among the list of things that the Camp Fire girls may make for the show.

MRS. BERT TEN BRINK, 28, DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Mrs. Bert Ten Brink, 28, died Tuesday afternoon at her home on the extension of East Eighth street. Death resulted from pneumonia which she contracted a week ago.

Mrs. Ten Brink, who was born May 26, 1905, in Holland, before her marriage was Miss Gertrude Wolrding, and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John (Yocum) Wolrding. She attended the public schools and graduated from Holland high school.

She was a member of First Methodist Episcopal church, the women's home and foreign missionary societies, the Ladies' Aid society and the Welcome Corner class. She also was a member of the women's auxiliary of the Metropolitan club.

Surviving besides her parents and her husband, are two daughters, Lois Jane 5, and Dorothy Ruth, 4, and one brother, Lester Wolrding of Holland.

Funeral services were held this Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home and at 2 o'clock at First Methodist Episcopal church, officiating. Burial took place in Pilgrim home cemetery. Six cousins of Mrs. Ten Brink will be pallbearers.

HOLLAND INDUSTRY 40 PER CENT OF NORMAL, RECENT SURVEY SHOWS

An average operation of 40 per cent below normal for all Holland industries is shown in a review of Holland's industrial situation, just prepared by the Chamber of Commerce for a national survey. A considerable pickup in retail sales was noted, however. The chief industries listed for Holland are furnaces, furniture and foodstuffs.

A survey of 18 of the major industries indicated 8 could use proposed federal loans and thereby increase employment by 86 per cent. The remaining 10 were either adequately financed or their business was not of sufficient volume to require additional capital.

The survey indicated two of the local furniture factories are running at normal capacity, while the others are on a 40 to 50 per cent basis. The truck industry is running about 60 per cent. At the Holland Furnace company, operations were resumed last week after a seasonal shut-down and the Home Furnace company has also resumed operations on a reduced schedule.

It was pointed out that the sugar plant would again be operated, which would put about 6,000 acres back into production for the farmers. The poultry industry was reported as showing signs of revival. A large shipment of baby chicks was made this year to Japan.

The report also stated that the Chamber of Commerce was bending every effort to better the resort industry for 1934 and to attract more than a million people to Holland during the Tulip Time festival.

EASTER DE LUXE

A month ago the Kroger downtown store in the Van Ark building was transformed into what was known as their De Luxe stores. Every season there are new decorations emblematic of the time of year. Spring was featured with "a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow," with plenty of floral embellishments.

Now the decorations are rabbits, chicks and oodles of eggs and some very colorful, indicative of the Easter season. There are still more flowers in evidence as the season has advanced.

It surely has a clever decoration which naturally sets out those food necessities that Easter brings. We are wondering what Fourth of July has in store. It will have to be food with a "pop-off" or it will not be appropriate. We are waiting to find out whether it will be fire or soda crackers.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Hoffmeyer, Holland route 8, on March 21, a son, Kenneth Dale; to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hoeve, at Holland hospital, on March 24, a son, Erville Wayne.

John J. Good, head of the John Good Coal and Supply company, has been named code authority of the coal industry of division No. 7. The election of Mr. Good to the position was approved by the national code authority.

Members of the League for Service of Sixth Reformed church enjoyed a pot-luck supper in the church basement Tuesday evening. During the supper hour selections were sung by a trio composed of Ed Scheerhorn, Raymond Van Voorst and Bernard Vanderbeek, accompanied by Lewis Verburg. A solo was sung by Arthur De Waard. A business meeting was held with Miss Helen White, president, presiding, followed by devotion in charge of Miss Christine Spijkhoven. The following program was presented: A solo by Arthur De Waard; readings by Mrs. Henry Van Dyk; selections by the Christian Endeavor quartet, and a playlet, "A Slight Mistake," presented by Miss Bernice Zuverink, Miss Elsie Wybenga, Miss Viola Karel and Miss Margaret Knoll. The program was concluded with selections by the quartet. Brief talks were given by Mrs. Burt Scholten, former president and adviser of the league. Mrs. Lina Ter Louw, present adviser of the league, Mrs. Ernest Penna and Bernard Vanderbeek.

A style review will be staged the latter part of April by the Holland Camp Fire Girls. All of the garments to be paraded will be made by the girls, who will wear or exhibit them at the show. A leather local honor will be given each girl who makes and exhibits a garment. Each girl must select or help to select her pattern and materials and must make the garment herself. Linen of all kinds, pajamas for sleeping or beach wear, tennis or sport shorts, sport and afternoon dresses or skirts to be worn with blouses or suits are included among the list of things that the Camp Fire girls may make for the show.

MRS. BERT TEN BRINK, 28, DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Mrs. Bert Ten Brink, 28, died Tuesday afternoon at her home on the extension of East Eighth street. Death resulted from pneumonia which she contracted a week ago.

Mrs. Ten Brink, who was born May 26, 1905, in Holland, before her marriage was Miss Gertrude Wolrding, and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John (Yocum) Wolrding. She attended the public schools and graduated from Holland high school.

She was a member of First Methodist Episcopal church, the women's home and foreign missionary societies, the Ladies' Aid society and the Welcome Corner class. She also was a member of the women's auxiliary of the Metropolitan club.

Surviving besides her parents and her husband, are two daughters, Lois Jane 5, and Dorothy Ruth, 4, and one brother, Lester Wolrding of Holland.

Funeral services were held this Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home and at 2 o'clock at First Methodist Episcopal church, officiating. Burial took place in Pilgrim home cemetery. Six cousins of Mrs. Ten Brink will be pallbearers.

HOLLAND INDUSTRY 40 PER CENT OF NORMAL, RECENT SURVEY SHOWS

An average operation of 40 per cent below normal for all Holland industries is shown in a review of Holland's industrial situation, just prepared by the Chamber of Commerce for a national survey. A considerable pickup in retail sales was noted, however. The chief industries listed for Holland are furnaces, furniture and foodstuffs.

A survey of 18 of the major industries indicated 8 could use proposed federal loans and thereby increase employment by 86 per cent. The remaining 10 were either adequately financed or their business was not of sufficient volume to require additional capital.

The survey indicated two of the local furniture factories are running at normal capacity, while the others are on a 40 to 50 per cent basis. The truck industry is running about 60 per cent. At the Holland Furnace company, operations were resumed last week after a seasonal shut-down and the Home Furnace company has also resumed operations on a reduced schedule.

It was pointed out that the sugar plant would again be operated, which would put about 6,000 acres back into production for the farmers. The poultry industry was reported as showing signs of revival. A large shipment of baby chicks was made this year to Japan.

The report also stated that the Chamber of Commerce was bending every effort to better the resort industry for 1934 and to attract more than a million people to Holland during the Tulip Time festival.

Since 1892 windstorms have struck Michigan every year doing great damage...often several storms in ONE year!

Michigan Mutual Windstorm Insurance Co.

HOME OFFICE—HASTINGS, MICHIGAN The Largest of Its Kind in the State of Michigan

During the past 30 years this big company has paid losses amounting to $4,022,884.15. This is an average of over $134,000 per year. If the year 1934 keeps up this average, there will be much property destroyed in the state.

The time to get insurance is before the loss. The cost in this company has been but 7c on each $100 insurance for 48 years.

The Woman's club of Saugatuck this Friday afternoon will hold a memorial service honoring the life of Miss Minnie Breckenman, who in her will left to the club her home on Butler street for a club house and library; also her books and the kitchen equipment in her home.

Miss Rowena Sheffer, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Sheffer, has been named valedictorian of the senior class of Saugatuck school by Supt. L. H. Waugh. She has maintained an average of 3.72 on a basis of 4 honor points. She is treasurer of the student council, member of the Girls' Glee club and dramatic class and will take a part in the operetta "Lady Francis," and a part in the high school play to be given in May. She has served both as editor and assistant editor on the Televox. In her junior high work she won a medal for scholarship. Outside her school work this year she has studied German and music and assisted in her father's store. Three years ago she won a high contest for subscriptions and now she plans to work her way through the University of Michigan. Next to class honors is Miss Kathleen Van Leeuwen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Van Leeuwen. She had an average of 3.20. She attended this school from the primary grades and for twelve years has walked more than two miles each way and has kept on the honor roll for perfect attendance. She is a member of the glee club and will take part in the school operetta. The next three honor pupils are Margery Newman, Mildred Bekkan and Charles Gilman. Jane Kreeger is president of the class of 27, the largest in the history of the school.

Rather a unique way to introduce coffee and cookies is to sample these. The Lanning Market, just east of the Buick garage on East Eighth street, is extending the public an invitation to sample their coffee and cookies next Saturday from 10 o'clock to 7:30 p. m. as will be noticed by their announcement elsewhere. Well "the proof of the pudding is in the eating." That is what Nick claims.

The Moentia Sunday school class of Third Reformed church will sponsor a candy and notion sale in the Brouwer Furniture store window Saturday afternoon and evening. Proceeds will be for missions.

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will have a pie social in the lodge hall on River avenue this Friday at 8 o'clock p. m. Following a program, 500 will be played.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Tripp left Wednesday for Pearlina to make their home with their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. John Dyke. Mr. and Mrs. Tripp moved to Pearlina because of the illness of Mrs. Tripp.

WOMAN ENDURANCE DRIVER TO DRIVE FOR 100 HOURS

Miss Dana (Babe) Evans, famous endurance auto driver from Indianapolis, will stage an automobile endurance test in Holland and Ottawa counties beginning Tuesday afternoon and continuing for four days, and will drive 100 hours on the Ford. The local police department has been requested to handoff Miss Evans at the start of the test and to unlock the cuffs at the finish.

Prizes will be awarded to any individuals up to three people who stay awake in the car with Miss Evans for the whole trip, a non-stop, non-sleep drive. A prize will be awarded to anyone seeing the car come to a complete stop.

Even tires will be changed while the car is in motion, sponsors of the test declare.

This exhibition is being sponsored by M. D. Langeveld, Inc., authorized Ford dealers in Holland and other business firms in the city.

OPENS POLITICAL MEETING WITH DIVINE BLESSING

A second meeting of a political nature in Park township was held at Virginia Park Community hall which opened with prayer by Rev. Fred Van Dyke of Central Park and the singing of "America." The singing was led by Ed Munson with Clifford Onthank at the piano.

Mr. Nicholas Stielstra, who has been an able township officer for many years from time to time, was called upon to preside.

At a previous meeting many questions were asked of the present supervisor, George E. Heneveld, by members of the Citizens' party and at this meeting, called by the board, Mr. Heneveld answered these questions one by one and an affidavit was also produced by the Ottawa county treasurer, stating that the rejected taxes of the township returned by the state was 12,007 per cent instead of 30 per cent as was charged by some of the opposition. Rejected taxes were higher because of the covert road bonds which were imperative and represented about one-half of the sum total, it was stated.

George Straight, opposition candidate, also spoke and asked many questions relative to taxation.

The gathering was very positive that US-31 should be maintained and by all means retained and a committee will be appointed to co-operate with a committee from the city of Holland to see whether this vexing road question can be straightened out. Anyway this is the last public meeting and the election is next Monday.

Ottawa County CWA Work Is To Be Reduced

APRIL 1 IS DEADLINE FOR PRESENT SET-UP; RELIEF WORK TO CONTINUE

Termination of CWA throughout the country is being reflected in the county through orders to pull off all labor under CWA by April 1. The city hall employees are at work this week but authorities did not know whether the end of the week would be determined as Thursday, payday, or Saturday the end of the month.

Work relief will take the place of CWA and officials have not yet been instructed as to how the state will carry out the work.

A committee has been appointed from the county to include a representative of the working class, a manufacturer and a county official to agree on the wage scales. It is reported that three men have been chosen by the county administrator, Miss Deborah Veneklassen, approved by the emergency welfare commission. They are Bruno Peter, secretary of the Eagle Ottawa Leather company; Carl T. Bowen, county engineer and Bert Habing, Holland labor representative.

The tentative plan appears now to be that work will be based on the amount of welfare need necessary to an individual or a man and his family. The pay will be merely a subsistence wage. Skilled and unskilled labor wages will not be changed, it is anticipated, but the number of working hours will depend entirely on the amount fixed as necessary to the support of the family.

It is also expected that committees will be selected in Grand Haven and Holland, eligible to continue work relief, that will decide upon future projects. The county road work under CWA was discontinued last week. Such work as is going on now is being conducted under county supervision. In the future projects will be outlined that must be started and completed; projects that can be stopped at any time without future loss, and projects that can be stopped and continued at some future time.

Reports on the renewed employment registration for Ottawa county have been issued by George Barnard, head of the national re-employment bureau of Ottawa county, showing approximately a total of 1,400.

The number registering in the local office was 870 which included residents from this city and vicinity and many of the surrounding townships. The Holland office registered 440 which also included Holland City and the townships in that locality. The balance of the number came from Zeeland, Coopersville and other places in the county where renewals were received to facilitate those who lived at some distance from the central office.

The peak of the registration this winter was 6,000. The renewal registration figure does not mean that the difference between the two figures indicates the number that have found employment, stated Mr. Barnard. Many have not renewed registration who are unemployed. He does not expect a full reflection of those seeking employment of new projects.

It is estimated that employment has been found for 1,600 persons over the county during the time the office has been established. The figures are only approximate, stated the director, as employment changes from time to time and it is impossible to keep an accurate check on the exact condition.

Employment in this city has greatly improved during the past few months through increased industrial activity, work projects and general increase of business.

Children Share In Vanderlaan Will

A son and three foster-children share principally in the estate of Dr. John Vanderlaan, Muskegon educator and veteran physician, who died last Sunday. The will, providing for disposition of an estate valued at upward of $30,000, has been filed for probate.

After cash bequests of $5,500 are cared for, a third of the estate goes to William P. Vanderlaan, his son, and two-ninths each to Cornelia Vanderlaan Bennett, Mabel Vanderlaan Jansen and John Wesley Topp.

Harry C. Schalk is left a cash bequest of $1,500. A sister, Mrs. Annie Workman, is left $2,500 in trust to the Hackley Union National bank, and two grandsons, John Edwin and Willard P. Vanderlaan, Jr., are willed $750 each. Three months' residence at the Vanderlaan home with her pay continued is provided for Mrs. Katherine Zuithoff, housekeeper.

The Hackley Union bank and Willard P. Vanderlaan are executors.

Student of Architecture Hunts Antiques in Desert Sands of Asia

A Grand Rapids youth out of work but possessing $100 decided 14 months ago to take a trip around the world. The other day Sibley Ten Hoer returned home with $102 and a million experiences. He sailed as assistant to the chief engineer of the Lurline on its maiden voyage to the Pacific ocean. From Quincy, Mass., the Lurline headed south through the Panama Canal to Hawaii, Australia, New Zealand, Guinea, Java and China. The Lurline stopped at Shanghai. Ten Hoer went ashore and by the simple expedient of tipping a hotel bellhop insured himself of uninterrupted sleep while the ship sailed away. He admits that he didn't particularly care for the chief engineer.

Immigration authorities didn't think so much of his idea and put him aboard a tramp steamer to catch the Lurline at Hong Kong. At Yokohama he left the liner and took a tramp boat to Singapore. There he lived for several days with two Americans at an animal farm where they were collecting specimens for the St. Louis zoo.

Then he continued to Calcutta, Benares, Cawnpore and Lucknow, Agra and the Taj Mahal and Lahore. Turning southwest he followed the trail of Alexander the Great over the desert into Jarachi on India's western shore and at Bombay boarded the mail steamer which spent two weeks in the Arabian Sea and the Persian Gulf before reaching Basra at the mouth of the Tigris and the Euphrates.

He visited cities noted in Bible students; Ur of the Chaldees, Babylon, Kish, Bagdad and others. Then he went into northern Iraq, to Nineveh and to Kirkuk, where he got a job with a British oil company supervising a fleet of new American trucks built especially for desert travel.

"They were the largest trucks I have ever seen," he said, "and as they traveled in convoy, one behind another, they sounded like so many planes in action. I had a small car of my own, carrying emergency supplies and rations and either led the way or followed behind, according to the land. Frequently the truck broke down or became stuck in the sands and their sixty-ton loads, and it was often days before we would return from a trip.

"There also were times when I felt that the trucks could do without me. Then I would head into the open spaces and investigate antiquities some Arab had told me about. Especially after a rain it is often possible to pick up antiquities that have been in the sand for hundreds of years. There are places no archeologist has visited."

Four months of British rule with Arab drivers was enough, so one morning he continued to Palmyra, Baalbek, Beirut and Damascus. In Palestine he lived with a Jewish colony on the banks of Halilee, and in Jerusalem he lived in a monastery within the old walls.

After Christmas in Bethlehem he went to Egypt, climbed the pyramids and then left for Greece, Italy, Switzerland, Germany and Holland. Then he continued to London and back to New York.

Ten Hoer believes it is time he devoted attention to his chosen profession, architecture. He has a box of photographs, a diary full of notes, and an architectural education that he didn't get out of books.

CENTRAL PARK

The sympathy of the community goes out to Mrs. George E. Fletcher whose husband died at the Holland hospital Wednesday morning.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to sincerely thank our neighbors, friends and relatives who stood by us in our terrible and untimely bereavement of our loved one, Miss Hilda Kampen. We wish especially to extend thanks to Rev. James Weyer, Rev. Charles Stoppels of Holland and Rev. E. Tannis of Grand Rapids in officiating at the funeral services and the fine words of sympathy and courage that were spoken by them. We also thank those who gave the use of their automobiles during that day and also those who thoughtfully remembered with floral tributes. We cannot see you all to thank you but our hearts are filled with appreciation.

MR. & MRS. JOHN KAMPEN, OWEN KAMPEN, SYLVIA KAMPEN.
