More Churches Plan Centennial Celebrations Here

Special Events Are Scheduled by Ninth Street, Central Park

Two more local churches are completing plans for Centennial celebrations, it was learned today. Ninth Street Christian Reformed church, which occupies the original Colonial church built in 1856, will celebrate April 10, 11 and 13, and Central Park Reformed church will celebrate June 15 through 22.

First Reformed church recently announced plans for a week-long celebration April 27 through May 4.

Ninth Street church will open festivities with a congregational social Thursday, April 10, featuring a program of speaking and music, followed by refreshments.

On Friday, April 11, a special public service will highlight talks by three living former pastors as well as a talk by the Rev. H. Blystra on behalf of classic Holland.

On Sunday, April 13, three services will be held. The Rev. James Ghyssels of Washington, D. C., will preach in the morning and the Rev. George Gritter of Kalamazoo in the evening. The feature event will be a Dutch service at 2:30 p.m. with the Rev. Nicholas Monsma of Paterson, N. J., in charge.

The public is invited to the service and to join in Dutch psalm singing and other features.

A memorial book will be issued. Central Park church, besides special services on both Sundays, plans a banquet on Wednesday night, a pageant on Thursday night and a service Friday night.

Mrs. Henry Vanden Berg will serve as general chairman. Arrangements for the banquet will be in charge of the Willing Workers Aid society with Mrs. Dick Miles and Mrs. John Teninga as co-chairmen. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Onthank, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Justin Kronmeyer are in charge of the pageant.

The program on Friday, June 20, will review the landing of the Hollanders at Graafschap. The Graafschap church was organized the same year and united with other churches of the classis of Holland with the "Hollandsche Gereformeerde Kerk in Amerika."

The Rev. Herman Rosenberg, Mrs. Henry Vanden Berg, Mrs. Russell Teusink and Mrs. Vernon Van Lente are planning the June 20 meeting.

Special music will be arranged by Ralph Van Lente, John Ter Vree, Mrs. Elmer Teusink, Miss Betty Brinkman and Mrs. Blaine Timmer.

An appropriate Centennial book with old and new photographs is planned. Arrangements for pictures of church groups are in charge of Dick Miles, chairman, Mrs. Stanley Yntema, Mrs. Jacob De Pree and Vernon Van Lente.

Historical data will be compiled by Albert Brinkman, Gerrit Heveland, Miss Dorothy Sandy, H. Vanden Berg and Mrs. J. L. Van Huis.

Invitations committee members are Mrs. J. L. Van Huis, Miss Jennie Brinkman and Mrs. Henry Lugers. Publicity is in charge of Mrs. Fred S. Bertsch. The publication committee members are Mrs. Bertsch, Mrs. Frank Hornstra, Mrs. George De Vries and Fred S. Bertsch.

Central Park church was founded in a log cabin in Graafschap June 20, 1847, and was later replaced by a structure which is still standing in Graafschap, now occupied by the Clarence Mulder hardware store. A third structure, built in 1904, was moved from Graafschap in 1917 to Central Park, the present site, and was re-dedicated June 14, 1918, by the late Dr. Henry E. Dosker and Dr. Seth Vander Werf.

Seven applications for building permits totalling $6,279 were filed with City Clerk Oscar Peterson last week.

Heading the applications was one for a new house to be built for Gerrit Zuverink, at 268 Fairbanks Ave., calling for a 1½-story structure, 24 by 30 feet, of frame construction with asphalt roof, at a cost of $3,500. Zuverink was listed as his own contractor.

Other applications follow: Jack Klaasen, 57 West 22nd St., finish upstairs for two bedrooms, $1,000; Five Star Lumber Co., contractor.

Many Conventions Are Scheduled for Holland This Year

Holland will be a Mecca for conventions and meetings during the remainder of Centennial year. Kenneth A. Dean, manager of the Warm Friend tavern, has informed the Chamber of Commerce. Tulip Time and Centennial features will be themes for most of the meetings.

Several organizations have selected Holland because of the national advertising which Tulip Time has given the city while others are concerned over unique features emanating from rich traditions.

The first convention opening April 3 will be for representatives of the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana.

On April 22, the Traveling Freight Agents association will be in Holland. A two-day convention April 25 and 26 will be for American Association of University Women of Michigan. On the same dates, the Michigan Hotels association will gather for a convention here.

Following the Tulip Time festival, the Outdoor Advertising association of Michigan will meet May 23 and 24. Another convention is scheduled the latter part of the month.

In June the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America will gather in Holland from the 4th through the 11th. Holland also will be host to the Michigan Christian Endeavor convention June 25 through 29.

No definite commitments have been made for convention accommodations in July, but Manager Dean has had several inquiries.

Holland will be celebrating its own centennial Aug. 13 through 16. On Aug. 21-22, the Michigan Association of Nurserymen will convene in the hotel.

Sept. 16 will see the Grand Rapids Chamber of Commerce Trade tour luncheon in the hotel.

Two important meetings are scheduled in October. On Oct. 9-11, the Michigan State Historical Society and the Michigan Historical Commission will hold special centennial celebrations in Holland.

On Oct. 18, the midwestern museum conference of the American Association of Museums will be held.

Dates have not been set for the meeting of the Netherlands University League of North America, but it is expected the group will meet here in the early fall.

Dean said the tavern has been named as the official headquarters of the majority of conventions to meet here.

Blaze Destroys Ganges Landmark

Fennville, March 27—The 97-year-old farm residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. Leslie Dunn located a mile south of Ganges on US-31 was destroyed by fire late Tuesday night with loss estimated at $20,000.

Cause of the blaze was unknown but firemen believe an overflow of oil in the furnace may have caused an explosion after electric power, shut off because of storm damage, was restored.

The Duns had left the home early Tuesday because there was no heat.

Neighbors, who discovered the blaze, rescued living room and bedroom furnishings. Some clothing also was saved. Both Saugatuck and Fennville fire departments responded.

The house had been in the Dunn family for five generations and had been remodeled into a modern home. Dunn formerly raised turkeys on the farm.

The bequest to the church was put in the trust of Nelson A. Miles and is to be used for a memorial to Mrs. Van Ark and her late husband, Frank.

Tree Planting Begins April 1 In West Ottawa

Approximately Million To Be Planted Soon; No Scotch Pine Now

Spring tree planting season will begin April 1 in the West Ottawa Soil Conservation district. It is anticipated that 900 district co-operators will plant approximately 1,000,000 trees this season.

The district is urging that plantings be made of two or more kinds of trees, planting approximately 1,000 trees per acre.

William Sinderman, director in charge of the nursery, says there is a great demand for Scotch pine. The district will not have any Scotch pine available this spring, but will have them available for 1947 fall planting.

According to Glenn W. Eaton, work unit conservationist, Soil Conservation service, Scotch pine will not make timber in this state. Its only proven value today is for Christmas trees, and he urges the planting of Scotch pine for this purpose when it is available.

However, it should be planted in a mixture with red pine, white pine, or jack pine, using the Scotch pine as the filler tree to be removed in the first thing. The red, white, and Jack can be planted now, leaving space for the Scotch pine to be planted when available.

George Maierhauser, director in charge of public lands, stated that 80,000 trees would be planted on the L. U. lands this spring. These lands are under lease to the district from the U. S. government.

All tree planters should check over their old plantings to see if they need replanting.

The district will have red pine, white pine, jack pine, pitch pine, Norway spruce and white spruce available for planting this spring.

Expert Gives Tips On Brooder Care

Farmers who are using electric brooders for the first time this year may be interested in some tips given by A. D. Morley, Allegan county agricultural agent.

It is necessary to place feed and water partially under the hover at first, since only the space under the hover is heated. If the chicks tend to "bunch up" at certain points under the hover, the brooder is being operated at too high or too low a temperature. An accurate thermometer is essential for correct regulation of temperature.

Chicks need to be taught to return to the hover for warmth when they have been out to feed. A chick guard, placed not more than 18 inches from the hover, will help to do this. The brooder should be kept warm enough that the chicks form in a circle at the outer edge, reducing the possibility of crowding.

One method that helps to encourage chicks to return to the brooder is to place a light under the hover.

With the warm air supplied by an electric brooder, moisture frequently condenses on the floor, walls, and windows. A piece of insulating board on the floor or a litter three inches or more deep will help to reduce the condensation of moisture on the floor. Walls and ceilings should be covered with good insulating board.

County agricultural agent, Morley, adds that when insulating board is used on the walls, a hard surfaced material should be placed on the wall area, where the chickens can reach. The chickens frequently eat holes in insulating board if this precaution is not taken.

Wichers Speaks For Lions Club

At the regular luncheon of the Lions club Tuesday noon, members and guests heard Willard Wichers talk on "The Netherlands As I Found It."

The guest speaker told of his trip by plane, a non-stop flight, and of havoc and destruction brought by war in the Netherlands. "I had never suffered so much as I did in my winter visit to the Netherlands," Wichers said. He said each family was allotted less than one ton of coal for the winter and the temperatures were the lowest on record. The cold was even more acute because of the clothing shortage.

The critical shortages touch everyone, he said. The courage of the Dutch is remarkable, Wichers asserted, and the mental attitude of the people toward this is also remarkable. We owe them our understanding and cooperation, he said.

Guests at the luncheon were L. C. Lossau and Mr. Schatzman of Chicago. The program was arranged by Bernard De Pree and Lion Mackay led singing.

Child Seriously Hurt When She Falls From Car

Pamela Kay Lemmen, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lemmen of 33 Cherry St., was in serious condition today in Holland hospital with injuries received in an accident at 12:40 p.m. Monday on M-21, described by sheriff's officers as one of the most freakish on record.

The accident occurred just after a car driven by the child's father passed one driven by Henry Pyle, 18, Zeeland. The Lemmen car was about a half-length ahead when the right rear door opened and the child fell out, rolling between the wheels of the Pyle car.

Although the wheels of the Pyle car did not touch the child, her foot became caught between the hot tail pipe and the rear spring and she was dragged a short distance before the Pyle car could stop. The foot was tightly wedged.

The child was taken to Holland hospital for treatment of a serious spine injury, head injuries, body bruises, bruises to both hands and legs, and a badly burned foot.

Riding in the front with Lemmen was his wife. Another daughter, Nancy Lou, 5, was in the rear seat. The parents said they believed they had locked the rear doors. The car is owned by the Rev. G. J. Van Der Riet, retired minister living on College Ave.

Hope Schedules Drive to Assist Hungarian College

Students Will Attempt To Raise Money to Aid School's Rehabilitation

Hope college will open a drive Friday to raise $2,000 for Sarospatk college, Hungary, it was announced today by student council president, Robert Van Dis. The project will be jointly sponsored by the Hope college student council and the Hope Woman's Activity league.

Last year the project was sponsored alone by the WAL, who raised $1,250 and 1,500 articles of clothing. General chairman of the drive are Robert Van Dis, Kalamazoo, student council president, and Louelle Jonkman, WAL vice-president, Holland. Chairman of the financial drive is William Hillegonds, Chicago, while co-chairmen of the clothing project are Arthur Van Eck and Virginia Hemmes, both of Grand Rapids. Norwood Reck, Union City, N. J., is in charge of shipping. Publicity is in charge of Bud Koranda, Grand Rapids.

The money will be raised in three ways. The Student Council is putting on two basketball games, one game being between the two runner-up teams in the inter-fraternity league and the other between the faculty and the Hope college varsity. The WAL is sponsoring a penny carnival to be held in Carnegie gymnasium on the opening night of the drive. On March 31, the college-wide drive for contributions will be opened in Hope Memorial chapel. All contributions will be voluntary and no one will be solicited.

Hope college is interested in Sarospatk college because this institution is a school of the Reformed Church in Hungary with ideals identical with Hope's. It is about the same size as Hope college and establishing this relationship is proving of unique educational value to both. Sarospatk is an old foundation school, being established in 1531 by Peter Penenyl, one of the men who helped bring the Reformation to Hungary. This Central European school is only one of many whose students have practically been reduced to little more than paupers because of the war and the slow European economic recovery.

The photographer caught Charles H. McBride in characteristic pose as he stopped at his favorite barbershop the other day to "bat the breeze" with the barbers and customers. With his hat at the McBride angle and his cigar tilted "just so," hands folded and legs crossed, the local attorney is ready to discuss any subject. The contented smile on his face is indicative of his general philosophy that "it's a pretty good world." Therefore, Holland's favorite barbershop philosopher is labeled an optimist by his friends. Zeeland Chamber Hears Lakeview Sage at Banquet

Zeeland, March 27 (Special)—Clifton A. Youngman, sage, philosopher and author of Lakeview, Mich., gave timely advice on co-operating and true living in an address Wednesday night before 240 persons attending the 10th anniversary banquet of the Zeeland Chamber of Commerce in the city hall auditorium.

Freely illustrating his talk on "Around Our Town" with original poems, the speaker called attention to the little every day occurrences which ordinarily pass unnoticed. He said all persons should have a hobby. Manhood can be divided into two classes, those who will not work and those who work too hard, he said.

Youngman said he once composed a poem to a team of state police who had stopped him for a traffic violation. The true-to-life poem was so well received by state police officials that copies were printed and distributed to each officer in the department.

Through his poems, Youngman also brought home the need of community co-operation, the good will among competitors of the home town, and the need for being town boosters. He closed with a poem on "Happiness" based on a way of life in which happiness comes to those who have learned to give.

T. P. Whitsitt, general manager of the Mead Johnson Co., served as toastmaster. Greetings were given by Gerrit Veenboer who gave a brief resume of the Zeeland Chamber and its growth during the past 10 years. He also explained plans for the Centennial celebration in July.

Veenboer introduced the following guests: Joseph Putnam and Peter Phillips of the Grand Rapids Chamber of Commerce, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McCormick and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Vande Water of the Holland Chamber of Commerce and Mayor Nicholas Frankena of Zeeland.

Music was provided by the Weary Warriors, Holland barbershop quartet consisting of Chester Onk, Irvin Smith, Jack Onk and Bill Vander Yacht, who substituted for the Tulip City Four. Community singing was led by George Meengs, accompanied by Bernard Vugteveen. The invocation was given by Frank De Young.

Dinner was served by the American Legion auxiliary, Cornelius Karsten, secretary of the Chamber, was general chairman.

Tulip Time Dates This Year Are May 14 to 17

Following an average of a dozen phone calls a day for several days asking dates for the Tulip Time festival, the Chamber of Commerce today reminded local residents that the festival this year will be a four-day affair, Wednesday through Saturday, May 14 through 17.

In line with inquiries on Tulip Time, Postmaster Harry Kramer today received a letter from Mrs. Fred Mercer of Rochester, Ind., seeking information for accommodations for a one-day visit of 200 women from 27 home economics clubs of that area. The group plans to come to Holland by chartered bus for one day. Information on guides, dinners, etc., were sought.

This letter and many like it are turned over daily to the Tulip Time office which operates on the third floor of the city hall.

Dairymen Gather At MSC to Study Sales in Future

Aggressive Program Being Drafted to Meet Competitive Markets

Lansing, March 25—With its business battle cry "sales not surplus" echoing over the state, Michigan's dairy industry will rally here at Michigan State college, Friday, to pattern an aggressive business blue-print in an industry-wide move to meet the challenge of the economic and agricultural conditions. Sponsored by the American Dairy association in conjunction with its annual meeting, the rally will be representative of a cross-section of dairymen in Michigan.

Highlighting the program of the day will be a presentation of the "sales not surplus" advertising-merchandising campaign by Owen M. Richards, manager of the American Dairy association. This nation-wide industry-adopted business action plan for the advancement of the dairy industry is mapped out for a three-year period.

The program will stress: (1) Maintaining and expanding the markets for milk, ice cream and evaporated milk; (2) reclaiming the butter and cheese markets; and (3) developing markets for powdered milk.

"This program," according to Charles E. Stone, manager of the ADA of Michigan, "is one of self-help—not one that looks to a debt-burdened government for its financial support. It reflects the dairy industry's faith that America's economic outlook is nowhere near as gloomy as the bearish picture painted by economic evangelists who are trying to peddle the scarecrow of depression to the nation."

Arrangements have been made for Michigan's greatest dairy rally since before the war. All branches of the industry, representing 90 per cent of the milk produced in the state, will attend.

Members of the Helping Hand class of Bethel Reformed church met at the home of Mrs. Charles Stoppels Wednesday night, Games and a social hour followed the business meeting. Refreshments were served to 19 guests by the hosts.

Lasting Snow Causes Squirrels to Starve

Allegan, March 27—Snow that stayed more than 16 inches deep for more than a month in Allegan state forest has brought starvation to some fox squirrels, F. W. Stewer, manager of Swan Creek wildlife experiment station, reports.

Starving squirrels have flocked to main plowed roads in the forest in search of food, and eight were killed by cars in one week along highway M-69. Other dead and weakened squirrels have been found along the road. Earlier, squirrels found the fall acorn crop spotty.

There still is evidence, however, of an adequate breeding stock to produce next fall's squirrel crop, Stewer says. Along one eight-mile stretch of road this week 84 active squirrels were counted, and some females already are caring for young.

Exchangites Hear Talk on Migrants

Charles L. Lindow of the H. J. Heinz Co. addressed local Exchangites on his activities with migrant workers at the club's meeting Monday noon in Warm Friend Tavern. Mr. Lindow has worked many years for various concerns in the recruiting of migrant workers for canning factories and similar industries. His travels have taken him all over the United States.

"At present there are 96 migrant workers in Holland," Mr. Lindow said. About 80 of these, he estimates, have a high school education or better. Most of Holland's migrants come from Kentucky and that state, as well as Georgia, Arizona, Arkansas and Oklahoma provides most of Michigan's migrants.

The speaker urged a sense of civic responsibility towards those who come to Michigan to work. "Many of them will probably be come worthy citizens of the community," he revealed, indicating that some come to settle permanently. Churches were asked to admit these people to religious services, since many of them desire a church home, it was pointed out.

Migrants don't like to be called "hillbillies" and their resentment is justified, Mr. Lindow said, illustrating his point with incidents drawn from his wealth of experience with migrants.

Mr. Lindow closed with a plea to citizens of Holland to make their relations with migrants a practical form of Christianity and evidence of democratic good citizenship.

The speaker was introduced by Exchangeite Russell Welch. Dr. John R. Mulder opened the meeting with prayer. Club guests included C. B. McCormick, William E. La Barge, Gerald Swisher of Columbus, O., and Fred Oliver of Detroit.

Exchangites unanimously supported a proposal submitted to them by Peter Kromann who explained the issues in the forthcoming elections of April 7 in regard to a site for Christian School building and of April 21 for the millage and sinking fund proposal for public schools.

The resolution follows: "Recognizing the growth of our city, we, the Holland Exchange club, wholeheartedly support the movements for increased school facilities."

Introduced by Exchangeite Ervin Hanson, Robert Greenwood, eighth grade student, presented a French horn solo, "Concerto in D Major" by Mozart. Prudence Haskin was accompanist.

Names of Olin R. Walker, Melvin Van Tatenhove and G. K. Hewitt were presented for membership. The club's next meeting will feature an address by Prof. Harold Haverkamp of Hope college. Eugene Ripley, Exchange president, presided at Monday's meeting.

Hope Prepares For 16-Game Baseball Card

Coach John H. (Jack) Schouten has been working out for two weeks with his Hope college baseball squad. A squad of 43 men have reported for practice but the squad will soon be cut to 18 or 20 men. Prospects for the season are promising but the bulk of the squad is inexperienced.

The Dutch will open a 16-game schedule at Riverview park against Grand Rapids Junior college on April 10 and will be in action until May 24 when they end the season against Aquinas of Grand Rapids.

Schouten has emphasized the fact that regardless of the good material that has reported for practice not one of the nine positions are clinched. At present Schouten has eight pitchers and four catchers working out in the Carnegie gym for a short time each night.

Mike Skalen and Clair Van Liere head the pitching prospects but much is expected from Brown, Dooly and Ver Hey. Skalen is well known to local fans of his dazzling Flying Dutchmen record last year. Van Liere too is showing signs of developing into an ace twirler.

Out of the four catchers only one, Bill Hillegonds, has had experience. Hillegonds hails from Chicago where he played a lot of ball in high school.

Eight first basemen out for the team include Dick Higgs (most experienced), Ray Heemstra, Bud Koranda, Fred Van Voorst, Fred Brieve, Bob Danhof, Rus Norden, and Don Miller. For the third sack spot four men are battling for top man; among them are: Ernie Meesens, Nick Yonker, Bill Appeldorn and Gerald Mull.

Reporting for a position at second base are Russ De Vette, Gene Nyenhuis, Dick Van Dorn and Jim Sector a utility infielder. At short stop, competition is not as keen with Don Mulder, and Chuck Link providing the power at that position.

In the outfield are Bud Dorsch, Kenny Rotman, "Mouse" Van Wieren, Herb Maatman, Hank Bronkhorst, Bill Smith, Gene Marcus and Roger Kempers. Van Wieren, Rotman and Dorsch seem to be the power houses in the outfield gardens but others have had valuable high school experience.

Last season the Hope nine defeated Calvin twice, Aquinas and Grand Rapids Junior College once each. The locals lost to Western Michigan's "B" squad and to Muskegon Junior college and Aquinas. One game ended in a tie.

The 1947 schedule is as follows: April 10, GR Junior college (here); April 16, Michigan State college "B" squad (here); April 18, Calvin (there); April 22 Western Michigan "B" squad (there); April 24, Muskegon Junior college (here); April 26, Calvin (here); April 30, Michigan State "B" squad (there); May 2, Western Michigan "B" squad (here); May 5, Albion (here); May 8, Muskegon Junior college (there); May 10, Central Michigan college (there); May 13, GR Junior college (there); May 15, Aquinas (there); May 20, Central Michigan (here); May 22, Albion (there); May 24, Aquinas (here).

Local All-Stars Suffer Defeat

The Holland All-Stars just couldn't get in the mood Monday night and as a result were dealt a slashing 73-45 defeat by the Grand Rapids Independent All-Stars in the Central High gym. The Grand Rapids club played snappy ball and changed teams every other quarter. Both first and second strings played equally good ball and the locals had trouble with each.

The Hollanders were never on top of the score and didn't come within five points of the Grand Rapids boys all evening. George Worst started things off and put the hosts ahead 4-0. Before the night was over Worst had garnered 15 points to take scoring honors. At the end of the first quarter the Hollanders were still in the ball game trailing by six points with the score 17-11.

In the second quarter the Grand Rapids men turned on the pressure and jumped their lead up to 32-17 by halftime. The Grand Rapids second string played the entire second frame and built up the comfortable 15 point margin.

At the beginning of the second half it looked as though the Hollanders were on their way back as De Vette and Vande Wege got hot but the hope of victory was short lived as the Grand Rapids men smothered the Dutchmen half spark. The entire second half was a matter of Grand Rapids tossing in more points as the Dutch tired.

Woman's Club Endorses Schools After Program

Approximately 250 children of the Holland elementary schools, under the direction of Miss Margaret Van Vyven, supervisor of elementary music, participated in a charming and varied musical program before members of the Woman's Literary club Tuesday afternoon. Outstanding talent was displayed by the different age groups as the program demonstrated the kind of work being done in the public school music department.

David Dykstra was competent master of ceremonies for the program which opened with numbers by the kindergarten band of Washington and Groebel schools, trained by Mrs. Frieda Hoogerhyde and Miss Esther Peterson, and directed by Dicky Tsuda.

Songs by a kindergarten chorus, followed by Mrs. Jack Bos, were trained by three cowboys, William Winter, Tommy Allen and Richard Oudersluis, who sang "Ranger Wishes," and "The Cowboy."

A chorus of first and second grade children, directed by Miss Van Vyven, with Mrs. Howard Douwstra at the piano, sang several songs. Edwina Rackes, who was ill and could not be present, was to have appeared as the fairy, and was ill and could not be present.

Following four songs by third and fourth grade children, four little girls, Karen Damsen, Judy Bos, Cora Lee Kaperink and Grete Masselink, sang a lullaby as they rocked their dolls to sleep. Sheryl Vandusen Bush took the part of Mrs. Mouse in one of the songs.

Young David Speet, in Dutch costume, assisted by eight little "Dutch maidens," sang "Little Maids in Holland," and the program closed with five songs by the fifth and sixth grade chorus.

Other teachers assisting with the program presentation were Mrs. Beuna Henshaw, Mrs. Harter MacQueen and the Misses Florence Kussen, Mary Kossen, Minnie Butler and Mae Whitmer. The event was made possible through the cooperation of Supt. C. C. Crawford, Elementary Supervisor Carolyn Hawes, school principals and the many elementary teachers who "worked behind the scenes."

"UTTER NONSENSE"

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt employed the term "utter nonsense" in describing the talk of a third world war. She used the words in a public address on the subject of the present agitation to give aid to Greece and Turkey.

People who say that there is danger of another world war, she said, "don't realize that there can't be a third world war unless we are reconciled to extinction, for another war will mean extinction of the human race."

Few will feel disposed to disagree with the wife of the former president. Even if we should win a third world war, it would still be disastrous for us and for the whole world. The only way we could win would be by the virtual annihilation of the nation or nations massed against us, and that would mean the destruction of so large a part of the world that the rest of it—that is, ourselves—would hardly be worth preserving. Moreover, life itself in the United States would become intolerable. We would have a war cost that would eat up all property, all wealth. We could not make the defeated nation or nations pay for it, because they would be even poorer. If a third world war should break out, no matter who should win or lose in a national sense, the end of modern civilization would be here.

While all that is true, and Mrs. Roosevelt hasn't said anything that is not self-evident, it is a little hard to see why she spoke her "utter nonsense" phrase in a tone of reproach. She said the words as if those who talked about the possibility of a new war were criminally reckless in their talk. But merely because people face the possibility squarely of a new war, that does not mean that they favor it. There is such a thing as talking about it with the idea of preventing it.

Mrs. Roosevelt seems to feel that because a new war is utterly illogical it is therefore utterly impossible. But that does not follow. The second world war was also utterly illogical. But that did not prevent an utterly mad military force to begin a war. And what is to prevent another utterly mad force to do so again?

We don't want another war. But we can't assume that it is for that reason impossible. Men or nations can always go mad; the outbreak of madness is not governed by logic.

Jesus Lays Down His Life
John 18:37-38; 19:10-30
By Henry Geerlings

Jesus came into the world to seek and to save that which was lost. But how could that be done? Only by His going to the cross. He knew that. In a real sense He was slain from the foundation of the world, which means that God ordained from the beginning that His Son should lay down His life for the sins of the world. But we cannot discover even with the most careful analysis of the historical events as we have them just what part of the events are of His ordination and what of the evil deeds and the hateful purposes of men. Both have a place there. But we must remember that man's responsibility for his murderous thoughts and wicked schemes is not any less because it was the Father's will that His Son should go to the cross.

Jesus makes a tremendous appeal to us as He stands before the various tribunals of so-called justice. His behavior is beautiful. His calmness speaks of unfathomable depths of strength. The maddening yells of the mob do not move Him. He is silent under the most insulting abuses. As an indifferent onlooker we would say He is innocent. His pure soul as well as His weakened body suffers unutterable torture, but never a word of complaint escapes His lips. His accusers have to twist and distort His sayings in order to formulate the semblance of a charge. But His bearing under this gross insult has been an inspiration through all the centuries.

History gives us the warrant for saying that Pilate possessed something of the Roman's sense of legal justice, but it also concedes that he was haughty in the exercise of His power, that he was unjust, violent, weak, cruel and dangerous. He was a politician. He was not above sacrificing principle in the interest of policy. He had inordinate worldly ambitions. He would slay his conscience to satisfy his greed. Then, too, he craved popular applause. He did not wish to incur the ill will of anyone who could help him to gain His end. He was not ignorant. He did not do what he did because he did not know any better. He was simply weak, without moral standards and outlook. He was crafty, worldly-wise, and void of the distinguishing marks of a strong ruler. His desire to advance himself was the source of all his trouble.

The chief priests and elders were opposed to Jesus. Their prejudice against Him was blind and unreasoning. It is true He did some things differently from what they did. But He did not willfully antagonize them. They held too much that was good and He commended them for it. But they lacked the spiritual mind. They seemed more willing to die for the exactness of ceremonialism than anything else. They were not able to go to the heart of religion. They could not lead the people into a deep religious experience. Now just because Jesus fed the people with the true manna from on high and satisfied their deepest longings He grew into their favor. He became popular. That is what the Pharisees and scribes hated. They lost their standing with the people. They felt the organization they had built up tottering, and He was the cause of it. That is why they hated Him.

The common people followed Him. Their heart was in the right place. At times they arose to high appreciation of Jesus. On several occasions they wanted to make Him king. They shouted His hosannas on Palm Sunday, and they meant it. Still they were not altogether ready to break away from the old regime. They could still be inflamed with prejudice. They could quickly be carried to the other side of a question. There is no doubt about it; some of those who shouted "Hosanna to the Son of David" on Palm Sunday, cried "Crucify Him" on Good Friday. In the days of real testing they do not seem to have stood with the Master just the way they should. The showed that they were unstable, ungrounded in the truth.

As a rule our strength is in proportion to our ability to remain silent under abuse. Most of us run to the defense of ourselves. We feel we must deny the charges and clear our name. But it is best to be composed. We shall find that those who have the least truth on their side are the first to run to the center of the arena to champion their cause. Jesus opened not His mouth.

Christian High Juniors To Present 'New Fires'

The junior class of Holland Christian High school will present a three-act comedy play "New Fires" by Charles Quinby Burdett Thursday and Friday at 8 p.m. in Holland High school auditorium. The play is under the direction of Miss Anne Westveer, faculty member.

Action in the play centers around the Santry family, and their arrival from Chicago to a farm inherited by Mr. Santry, played by Dewey Bakker. The family, thinking this is a pleasure trip, is rebellious when Mr. Santry announces that "he who would eat must work." Feigning illness and expressing a determination to hitch-hike back to Chicago proves useless to Olive, portrayed by Alverne Mast, and she finds that she and the family must stay.

The Santrys are forced to amuse themselves and tend to their own wants. Olive learns to see Dr. Gray, played by Lee Pool, in a "new light" and Dick, Mr. Santry's son, portrayed by Louis Alena, plunges deeply into the secrets of fruit and poultry raising.

Other cast members are Mr. Santry's wife, Anne, taken by Joan Berens; his children, Billy, played by Howard Schippers, and Phyllis, portrayed by Muriel Hulst. Carol Karsten plays the part of Dick's wife, Eve. Ruth Blauwkamp, as Lucinda Andrews, and Helen Hoekstra, as Suzanne Toler, are cast as servants. The part of Sid Sperry, farm hand, is taken by Howard Johnson, and Jeanetta Van't Slot portrays his wife, Angie. The farm hand's son, Jerry, is played by Vernon Boerman. The part of Mary Marshall, a neighbor, is played by Alma Brower and Sylvia Holkeboer portrays Mary's mother.

Trimpe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Trimpe, 128 West 27th St. The Rev. Gareth Kok read the double ring marriage vows before an attractive setting of palms, ferns and candelabra.

Harold Witteveen, organist, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied the soloist, Henry Ten Hoor, who sang "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt. The bride, who approached the altar on the arm of her father, wore a white gown of satin and marquisette fashioned with a high round neckline and marquisette yoke edged with a lace ruffle that extended over the shoulders to a V in back. The long satin sleeves tapered to points over the wrists and tiny buttons extended down the back to the waistline. The full marquisette skirt, extending into a train, fell from a fitted satin bodice. She wore a lace-edged fingertip veil held in place by a beaded crown and carried a bouquet of white snapdragons and carnations with a center of red roses.

Attending the bride were Miss Dorothy Jonker, maid of honor, and Misses Janet Jonker and Bonnie Trimpe, bridesmaids. Flower girl was Karen Jonker, niece of the bride. The bridesmaids wore identical gowns of salmon pink rayon satin and carried bouquets of pink and white snapdragons and iris. The flower girl wore an ice blue gown with satin bodice and net skirt and carried rose petals in a white basket.

Ralph Stolp attended the groom as best man. Ushers were Barney and Andy Jonker. Mr. and Mrs. John Jonker were master and mistress of ceremonies.

European Situation Is Aired for AAUW

Taking a realistic but calm view of the current foreign situation in the light of history, Dr. R. Lobanov, professor of history at the University of Michigan, told members of Holland branch, American Association of University Women, Thursday night, that although the world is sick, conditions are not as serious as after World War I. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. W. S. Merriam on West 12th St.

Wars generally solve the problem for which nations fight, thus opening the way for new problems and friction, the speaker declared. He explained how the Balkans, which psychologically are linked with the fate of Russia, are naturally the breeding ground for communism. Communism is the product of break-down and misery and does not thrive under the industrial system, he said.

The speaker placed Greece in a different category. The Greeks are traders, brilliant individuals and politically minded. Dr. Lobanov doubted that communism could succeed there, although the Greek situation remains complicated and critical, he said.

The whole state of Europe depends upon the condition of the "sick" countries, said the professor. There will be less strong Russian or communist influence if the condition of the people is good. The situation will eventually be clarified, given time, and in five or ten years will find a balance, he predicted.

Dr. Lobanov, who based his ideas not only on a historical background but from actual and personal knowledge of the countries discussed, answered questions at the conclusion of his talk.

Mrs. J. D. French who presided, introduced the speaker.

Mrs. Kenneth De Pree of the Board of Education who was present explained the proposed raising of funds for the school building program and the social election scheduled for April 21. A vote of support for the project was given by the branch.

In other business a contribution was voted to the AAUW International Study Grant project and plans were discussed for the state AAUW convention to be held here next month.

A nominating committee, to report next month, was appointed. Members are Mrs. J. J. Brower, Mrs. Leon Moody and Mrs. Edward Donovan. A president and secretary will be elected.

The social hour was in charge of the Misses Esther Veenhuis, Iva Stanton, Ann Whitenell, Mrs. Henry Pas and Mrs. Malcolm Mackay.

Dutch Will Send Organ to Holland

Willard C. Wichers, Tulip Time and Centennial manager, said here that the city of Amsterdam in the Netherlands is planning to send a barrel organ to the city of Holland as a gift to be used in Tulip Time parades and other events having a Dutch atmosphere.

Wichers said decision to select such a gift was determined in a conference in Amsterdam last February with Burgomaster Arnold J. d'Ailly and Peter J. Mijksenaar, public relations director for Amsterdam. Also assisting were Jonkheer Roel, director, and Ton Koot, secretary of the Rijksmuseum. Koot visited here last fall.

The type of barrel organ which Amsterdam people plan to send here is a rather large street organ mounted on wheels. It is particularly characteristic of the city Amsterdam where such organs are used for street dancing in Amsterdam's old quarters.

Wichers said the group searched for organs in Amsterdam on one particularly cold day last February and he spent an enjoyable time grinding out music on the instruments.

It is hoped the organ will arrive here for use in the Tulip Time parades in May.

Coaches Select All-Conference Squad Members

Van Dyke, Only Dutch To Win Nomination; Big Reds Place Three

Coaches of the Southwestern Conference teams met Monday night and selected the All-Star team of 10. Holland's only contribution to this year's star-studded team is Bob Van Dyke, Dutch giant center, who was the only local to place on the honor club.

Muskegon placed three stars. Fred Kalsbeek, Jack Vriesman and Don Vanderwerf were the Big Reds who made the list with little trouble.

Kalamazoo Central, although taking the league trophy, placed only two on the honor club in Jack Born and Jim Wenke. Born was chosen to the all-state second team and also was chosen to the Kalamazoo all-city team in other selections.

Born and Wenke both were sparkplugs for Coach Max Johnson during the season and were high scorers in the Southwestern race. Wenke has a full year left at Kazoo while Born will be around to strengthen the Kazooks for a half season next year.

Although the Muskegon Heights aggregation ended up well toward the bottom of the league they nevertheless placed two men on the all-star organization. As was expected, Jim Howell and Bruce Moeller each placed on the 10-man squad. Both of Oakie Johnson's boys are big and good ball handlers. Both Howell and Moeller are graduating this year and have played their last season of prep basketball.

Holland's contribution, Bob "Shorty" Van Dyke, was a selection which will surprise no one. He was voted by newsmen as the best high school player in the state and was unanimously chosen on the all-state first five. Van Dyke averaged more than 16 points per game and was the main threat to all opponents. Holland's showing in the league games indicates that the Dutch should have had another member on the squad but because of the even balance on the rest of the local roster no other choice was made. Van Dyke will graduate in June.

Benton Harbor's pride, Jack Sabadin, was elected to a spot on the honor squad as the only selection from Coach Bill Perigo's Tigers. Sabadin, although small in stature, played against some of the biggest men in the league and did an outstanding job on the bankboards as well as being a dead shot.

Norm Baggott, junior from Grand Haven, was the Buccaneer's only choice for the All-Conference team. Baggott will undoubtedly be one of the outstanding cagers in the conference next season. He possessed one of the most unorthodox shots in the books but hit consistently on most attempts.

No distinction was made between first and second fives and the ten men were chosen as a group. The selections held few surprises for fans.

The group of coaches also discussed spring sports and awarded Kalamazoo the basketball trophy. They also decided that the Regional Track Meet will be held in Kalamazoo this spring.

Fred Kalsbeek, M.—Sr.
Bob Van Dyke, H.—Sr.
Jack Vriesman, M.—Sr.
Don Vanderwerf, M.—Sr.
Jack Sabadin, BH.—Sr.
Jim Howell, MH.—Sr.
Bruce Moeller, MH.—Sr.

Figures Released On 1947 Maroon Court Outfit

Although it is not necessary to see the figures on the Holland Christian 1947 basketball squad to know that they had a highly successful season, they do help to substantiate the knowledge. The Maroon and White quintet, playing their first season under their new coach, Arthur Tuls, a Hope college student, finished their season with a record of 17 wins and three losses.

The three losses sustained by the Dutch were by Grand Rapids Creston, 29-26; St. Joseph 35-33; and Western State High 23-22. All of the losses were administered on the opponent's floor. In the last two seasons the Hollanders have been defeated seven times in 42 starts, but the marginal difference of the total losses was 14 points, an average of two points per defeat. The Maroons were beaten this year in the regional finals of the State tournament.

In winning these 17 contests the Dutch piled up a total of 842 points giving them an average of 42.1 pts. per game. This, according to all reports is a new record for Holland Christian quintets.

Their opponents compiled 553 tallies during the season giving them an average of 27.7 pts. per contest. The Hollanders were successful on 150 out of 332 foul attempts giving the squad an average of 45 per cent. Jim Lampen, Holland guard, compiled the best foul shooting average with 59 per cent as he sunk 24 out of 41 tries. Gene Schrotehoer was second with an average of 53 per cent as he hit on 50 out of 94. All of the Maroon regulars bettered the 40 per cent mark.

Schrotehoer led the Dutchmen in the scoring column as he tallied 221 points for an average of 11.1 pts. per tilt. Little Kearney Zoerhof was second with 176 points for an average of 8.9 pts. per game. The Dutch committed 278 personal fouls against 286 errors for their opponents. American General Says Peace Hinges On Military Might

Army Week Celebration Will Focus Attention On Needs of Service

In stressing the 1947 Army week theme "A Strong America is a Peaceful America," Gen. Jacob L. Devers, commanding general, Army ground forces, pointed out today that unlike the past two years a future aggressor would probably attack the United States "first of all" not giving her time to prepare.

Citing the "special significance" of the nation's second observance of Army day and Army week since the end of the war, General Devers said: "America must remain strong to insure the peace we have won so arduously...to abandon our Army again, in this age, would be more than short-sighted; it would be foolhardy."

Traditionally observed on April 6, when the United States entered World War I, Army day this year was set for April 7 by presidential proclamation as April 6 is Easter Sunday. The nation and Army installations throughout the world will observe Army week, April 6-12.

General Devers' complete statement follows: "Celebration of Army week during wartime had a special significance, for during wartime the whole of America was acutely conscious of the Army's importance and indispensability, proud of its accomplishments and secure behind its might.

"But this peacetime observance, our second since winning the war, is even more significant than its wartime celebration. Having won the war, we must win the peace, and the theme of Army week 1947—a strong America is a peaceful America—is a most powerful reminder of how we may best win the peace.

"It would be well if we could be reminded more often than once a year that a strong America is a peaceful America, for it seems that, as always after a war, the warnings in the world news in our daily papers are little heeded. "America was militarily weak in 1917, and Germany thought she could defeat us. America was militarily weak in 1941, and Japan thought we could be defeated. Fortunately, in both wars, we had some allies capable of withstanding the enemy until we could make ready. In any future war, we would not have that advantage, for it is probable that we would be attacked first of all.

"America must, therefore, remain strong, to insure the peace we have won so arduously. To remain strong, she need not maintain an unduly large Army. A comparatively small regular Army, backed by a National Guard and by an organized reserve corps, is all that is needed, all that has ever been needed.

"But all of these components of our Army must be given the means and support necessary to achieve the degree of strength which is essential, and to maintain that strength. To abandon our Army again, in this age, would be more than short-sighted; it would be foolhardy," he said.

Bonzelaar Twins Get Degrees at Denison

Alvin and Marvin Bonzelaar, twin sons of Mrs. Peter Oudshoorn of Galesburg, formerly of Holland, have completed requirements for the bachelor of arts degree at Denison University, Granville, O., with the class of 1946, according to word received from the university.

They were apprentice seamen in the Navy V-12 unit at Denison for eight months before going to Great Lakes, Ill., for recruit training in the spring of 1944.

Capacity Crowd Greet Barber Shop Singers

A capacity audience enjoyed the first "Parade of Quartets" presented Friday evening in Holland High school auditorium under the sponsorship of the Holland chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America. The feature quartet of the evening was the "Harmony Halls" of Grand Rapids, the 1944 SPEBSQSA International Champions. Their repertoire from the "Lord's Prayer" to Duke Ellington's "Blue Indigo," was outstanding.

Other quartets taking part were the Melodians of Muskegon, Cosmopolitans of Grand Rapids, Tulip City Four of Holland, Travelers of Grand Rapids, Town Criers of Kalamazoo, Continentals of Whitehall and the Pretenders of Muskegon.

G. Marvin Brower, formerly of Grand Rapids and now of Holland, President of the Grand Rapids Chapter of SPEBSQSA and a member of the International Board of Directors, was introduced by Clarence L. Jalving, president of the Holland chapter as master of ceremonies. Mr. Brower complimented the Holland chapter on its activities and the Tulip City Four, Holland's representative in the state contests for placing in the finals.

The program opened with the Holland chorus singing three numbers, their theme song "The Old Songs," "Lighthouse Shine on Me" and "That's Why I Love You." A special number composed by Willis A. Diekema, chapter secretary, was then presented by the chorus. Entitled "Keep America Singing," the song is based on the motto of the chapter and features rhythm and feeling marking it as an outstanding barber shop chorus number.

The Harmony Halls, presented "Mandy and Me," "Lindy by the Watermelon Vine," "World Waiting for the Sunrise," and "My Dreams are Getting Better All the Time" in their first appearance. The close harmony of this quartet was a pacemaker for the other quartets that followed. They also put on the closing numbers of "Blue Indigo," "Peggy O'Neil," "Hula" and "Dear Old Girl." The quartet is composed of Tenor Ed Galema, Lead Bob Hazenberg, Baritone Ray Hall and Bass Gordon Hall.

The Melodians sang "When You and I Were Sweethearts," featuring Tenor Earl Weaver, "Cuckoo Clock Ball," a minstrel show arrangement with Bass Frank Maatman carrying the role. As an encore they presented "Blackbird."

"Oh, How I Miss You Caroline" was the opening number of the Cosmopolitans of Grand Rapids, who with Wallace Waalkes, Peter V. Pell, Cecil Watson and Ed Bloem gave the audience a clever Mother Goose Song for their second number. Plenty of action was seen in the song "My Baby Needs a Pair of Shoes."

Holland's Tulip City Four, Harry Driesenga, John Swieringa, Jack Essenberg and Art Greengood, sang "Moonlight Lue," "Old MacDonald's Farm" and "Tulip Town," written especially for them by Mr. Diekema. They were well received and displayed the talents which made them finalists at the state meet recently.

The Town Criers of Kalamazoo, featured former Holland resident Earl Cook who carried the lead for the quartet. Their feature number was "We Three" in which Tenor Louis Johnson sang a solo, with the other members singing a background accompaniment. Other songs were "Ain't That a Shame" and "Shanty in Old Shanty Town." The Criers were fifth place winners in the '47 state finals.

Third place state winners, the Travelers, with comedy songs, "Sally," "Mac the leader of the band," and "Nobody to care for me," pleased the audience with their range and tempo. They are Bab Walker, Frank Haight, Bob Carpenter and Cece Fischer.

The Continentals of Whitehall, fourth place state winners, sang several numbers from the gay '90s and were well received. This young quartet is expected to go far. They are Bob Frye, Jerry Bergsma, Rex Weaver and Chuck Peterson.

Comedy of the evening was given by the Pretenders, who imitated Bing Crosby and the Andrews Sisters in the first two acts and Bing and Mary Martin in the last act. The three men dressed in typical rural feminine costume, showed practice and perfect timing, as well as good comedy acting.

Program committees for the event were: finance and executive, Chairman Jalving, Secretary Diekema; program, Matthew J. Wilson; treasurer, Ralph G. Woldring; program, Chairman Wilson and A. Bondy Gronberg; tickets, Cornelius Bergen, Bastian Bouman, R. H. Kostrla, L. C. Jalving, R. J. Overbeek, H. E. Phillips, R. J. Schepers, John Swieringa; auditorium, Dr. James K. S.S. Meet Held In Sixth Church

About 125 gathered in the parlors of Sixth Reformed church Thursday evening for a parent-teacher meeting, sponsored by the Sunday school.

Substituting for Dr. George Menenga who was ill, Harold De Roo, student at Western Theological seminary, speaking on the topic, "Home Power," said it was the duty of the Sunday school teachers and the parents to mold the thinking and the living habits of the children.

He said parents and teachers must be aware of outside influences such as attractive liquor ads in magazines or the more subtle trends, such as communistic propaganda, and teach the children accordingly. "The greatest potential power, help from God, is ours for the asking," he said.

He said Sunday school teaching was a mixture of discipline, confidence and cooperation, and encouraged the reading of good books, both through a church library and at home. He urged the parents to read recommended literature as an encouragement in molding reading habits of the children.

Night Court and Adult Driving School Planned

"Holland is a good town, the people are nice, but the drivers are terribly careless and inconsiderate!"

Such is the impression of many visitors to Holland, according to police officers and Municipal Judge Raymond L. Smith.

To correct this impression and to impress upon the people the seriousness of bad driving habits, Police Chief Jacob Van Hoff and Judge Smith have made plans for a weekly traffic court to be held Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m., beginning April 10.

As a further aid, the police department and the court have arranged with Malcolm R. Mackay, Holland high school teacher who teaches ninth graders how to drive cars, to conduct a similar course for adults who may be in need of such instruction.

Decision to operate such a school, Chief Van Hoff said, is the result of a recommendation by the Automobile Club of Michigan which conducted a traffic survey here last summer.

In its 39-page report, the Auto club recommended establishment of a class of instruction in which a qualified instructor would teach and explain fundamental principles of the state traffic law and city traffic ordinances. This school also would be for operators of motorized bicycles and motor scooters.

Mackay said arrangements for the school are not definite and the program would be arranged according to the needs.

Municipal Judge Smith said the night court is arranged to impress upon the people the seriousness of driving habits as well as a convenience for persons unable to answer summonses during the day.

"We want to make driving safer and more pleasant here, and we feel that a public hearing would impress this fact upon the people more strongly and lastingly than the regular private sessions," the judge said.

In its recommendation, the auto club suggested defendants might be required to attend one or more sessions of the drivers' school, at the discretion of the court. Upon completion of the required attendance, defendant could be given a written test to determine sufficiency of knowledge obtained. At the discretion of the court, juvenile violators also might be required to attend sessions of the drivers' school.

Midwest Quintet Whips Wolverines

The Midwest College All-Stars defeated the Michigan Collegiate 64-53 in the first game of a doubleheader at Chicago Stadium Saturday night before 3,500 spectators. The collegians from the Wolverine State were composed mainly of the same players who played in the Kalamazoo Milk Fund game two weeks ago. This included Russ De Vette and Gaby Van Dis of Hope, Marv Bylsma of Calvin and John Kawood of Michigan State among others. They were opposed by such stars as Frannie Curran of Notre Dame, Ed Ehlers of Purdue, and Gene Stumpf of De Paul.

The Midwest All-Stars sped away to an early lead and took a 27-14 margin at halftime. After trailing 41-16 at one time in the third period the Michiganders turned on the steam to narrow the breach to 51-44. With Bylsma and Kawood leading the way, they piled up 18 straight tallies. This marked the end, as Stumpf then hit on four out of five longs to widen the gap. Michigan outscored the winners 27-16 in the final stanza.

Bylsma of Calvin led all scorers with 17 points, while Stumpf had 13 for the Midwest five. De Vette and Van Dis of Hope playing their usual stellar games tallied six and one point respectively.
