TALK IT OVER WITH YOUR HUSBAND

We realize that Housecleaning is a Serious Proposition

It usually means new Carpets, or Rugs, or new Floor Covering of some kind. The Lace Curtains are full of holes and can not be laundered again. Prices of household supplies of all kinds are very high, with no apparent relief. These being facts it is very proper that Husband and Wife should talk it over and study economy, so as to make it possible to have both ends meet.

We are ready to help solve the problem. Cost of living has not advanced here. We have bought in large quantities at the lowest prices that cash could buy them for, and will sell at prices that will happily surprise you.

We have watched quality as well as prices and will stand back of every article that leaves this store, to be as represented or money refunded.

Come in and see our lines, expect big values and we will see that you are not disappointed.

If You Want a Suit to look right, to feel right, to BE right, it's imperative that you have it made by a tailor—for YOU.

If you would like to pick a suit from a really new, stylish pile of materials come here.

That's an invitation.

We will give you all the style there is going, all the neat dressiness that distinguishes THE WORK OF THE TAILOR WHO KNOWS.

WELL MADE CLOTHING FOR WELL DRESSED MEN. Never too busy to show you what you wish to see.

Rose was released on bonds furnished by friends and on the hearing of the case before Justice Miles, Rose decided to plead guilty and was released on payment of the costs.

Capt. Frank Pardee of this city, who has been spending the winter here, has been notified of his appointment as commander of the big steamer "Alaska" of the Anchor Line, hailing from Buffalo. Capt. Pardee will leave here on April 10 to take charge of his vessel. During the major part of the summer of 1909, Capt. Pardee was first officer of the "Connemaugh" another large freighter of the same line, and also commanded the "Alaska" on a couple of trips.

A drowning, which has something of a mystery about it, is reported from St. Joseph, where the body of Mike Fischer, deckhand on the freighter "City of Traverse", was found floating in the St. Joseph river. A companion, Jack Weston, with whom Fischer had been seen last, has disappeared and the details of the accident cannot be learned until the man is located. Fischer was seen last on Monday night, March 28 between 11 and 12 o'clock where the City of Traverse had already left the dock. He then left for St. Joseph and since that time no one seems to have met him. A coroner's jury in St. Joseph rendered a verdict of death by drowning.

Owing to the non-arrival of the souvenirs and the failure of other arrangements, the management of the new artificial ice plant has been forced to postpone the formal opening until next week Saturday, when open house will be kept all day. However, the ice machine is in operation and the management will be glad to show visitors over the plant at any time.

Swimming is not only something which boys proverbially enjoy, but is also frequently urged as an accomplishment which all persons owe to themselves to possess. Yet a surprisingly large number of young men—even among those who go to sea—do not learn to swim. While the Atlantic squadron was holding its winter drill in Cuba waters a few weeks ago there was swimming instruction for no fewer than 3,500 men in the fleet who had never acquired the art.

Preparations for the Great G. A. R. Encampment are in full swing, the joint committees of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. meeting frequently to discuss plans. A novelty of the big event will be the parade of a local cavalry troop of 200 horses, which will also be used to control the crowd. The floral committee is already investigating prices for 3,000 or more bouquets of flowers, half to be furnished by Mr. Dutton and half by Mr. Jones of Central Park. At previous Encampments these flowers were strewn in the path of the soldiers and picked up by them, but considering the waste which this method entails the committee has decided to give the veterans each a button hole bouquet.

With Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson Dodge, of Lansing, drilling the papers in the fairy operetta "Cinderella", the Woman's Literary Club performance tomorrow and Saturday ought to be highly satisfactory. Miss Sylvia Hadden will play the leading role of Cinderella. Lady Oliver, the stepmother, will be played by Mrs. Chas. Luxcomb and the parts of the two daughters will be sung by Mrs. Frank DeVries and Miss Ethel Dykstra, while Mrs. John Ostema will be the fairy godmother. Mr. Dodge will play the part of the Prince, Will Vander Hart the part of Sir Oliver and Clarence Lokker, of Bodhin the clerk. Laverne Petrie and John Hyma will play the roll of soldiers. The chorus will consist of some fifty local young people.

A bill of interest to veterans of the Civil War has been favorably reported in the house of representatives. It provides a pension of $1 per day for all old soldiers who were incapacitated in the service. The bill was introduced by Representative Sherwood of Ohio, a Democrat, himself a veteran, retiring as a brigadier general. He says he has tried for six or seven years to get the bill favorably reported by the military affairs committee, but always without success. This time it is offered as an amendment to a measure introduced by Representative Townsend of Michigan providing for the retirement of army officers at the age of seventy on one half or one-third pay, depending on the length of service. Just whether this measure refers to those who have been incapacitated since the war from performing manual labor, or all who are now unable to work to support themselves because of diseases wounds or injuries sustained from exposure, insufficient food, and other causes during the war is not clear, but in justice to all the veterans it should apply to the latter classes, with a greater stipulation for the former.

The Western Union Telegraph Co. has adopted the number 4321 as their universal telephone number all over the world. All of the new telephone directories will list the Western Union offices as No. 4321.

Architect F. N. Jonkman has completed plans and specifications for a new parsonage for the 16th St. Christian Reformed church, Rev. De Groot, pastor. It will cost $4,000 and work on the foundation has already begun.

The state and fish department is beginning a determined campaign to stop net fishing in inland waters of the state. Deputy Wardens G. J. Dornbos of this city and Chas. K. Hoyt of Grand Haven have gone to Newaygo to stop the practice there and even sucker nets must come out of the Muskegon river or the owners are liable to arrest.

The Wagner Male Chorus, at its annual meeting last Tuesday night re-elected all its officers for the ensuing year. John Vander Sluis, President; Ben Brower, Vice pres.; John Prakken, secretary and Herman Cook, treasurer. Plans for the next concert to be held in May were discussed after which the club enjoyed refreshments and a social hour.

That gratitude is not synonymous with youth was demonstrated again last Friday when two youngsters of respected North End families, ingenuously robbed Mrs. Terpstra of the Alpena Beach road of a coin purse, containing $2. The young pickpockets asked Mrs. Terpstra, who was driving home, for a ride and she good-naturedly assented. Arriving home, however, she missed the purse and notifying the police, the youngsters were rounded up and made to confess.

There is in the laboratory of the state chemist a number of samples of what were labeled "maple syrup". The pure food inspectors have picked up many such samples and some have been found to be a compound of corn-cob juice, buckwheat, and a low grade flour, all sweetened and made to taste like maple syrup. The law forbids the use of the word "maple" on any compound and the dishonest manufacturers and sellers will doubtless have some fines to pay.

About 40 merchants met yesterday afternoon to investigate the trouble of the arc lighting on 8th street. The investigation resulted in the finding of some delinquents who had neglected to pay their assessments, and these will see to it that their bills are promptly footed so that the street may be lighted again. A permanent committee was appointed to look after the lighting of 8th street; with H. Van Tongeren as chairman and Fred Beeuwkes, J. Kooiker, N. Sprietsma and Henry Van Ark as other acting members.

Last Saturday a dozen or more men and boys came to Allegan with muskrat skins. When they arrived in town in the morning they found the buyers offering eighty and ninety cents for the pelts. That price did not satisfy the trappers and they held their skins until they received one dollar each for the pelts, large and small. This is the highest price paid for the fur in many years if indeed it is not the highest ever paid. When one thinks of the hundreds and hundreds of muskrat hides that have been sold here for twenty cents each the present price which is being paid all over the state, seems incredible. All other furs are correspondingly high. Allegan Gazette.

Reservation of seats at Hardie's for the song recital to be given by Miss Tilly Koenen, the famous Holland contralto, on April 14th at the Powers' theatre, are going quite fast. Miss Koenen is a highly talented singer, gifted with a wonderful interpretive ability which renders her equal with Schuman, Heink and Sembrich. The program, to be given at Powers includes Holland, German, English and Italian songs which are given with remarkable fluency and diction. It is only by good fortune that Miss Koenen could be secured for the one night at Powers Theatre, and her success at Boston and New York recently will be a drawing card for many local people to hear the singer from the low countries. Prof. Nykerk of Hope college is making arrangements to get a large party to go. Tickets can be procured at Hardie's jewelry store and a special car will be available for those wishing to go.

Louis H. Streng, formerly well known in this city, died at the Butterworth hospital in Grand Rapids at the age of 81 years.

At a special meeting of the Farmer's Mutual Fire Insurance Co., held the 6th of April at Zeeland it was decided to amend the charter of the company so that the company can be divided into two classes of risks, Class A or rodged property and class B or unrodged property. The company is in fine condition financially having almost $2,000 cash on hand and no debts and new business is coming in every day.

At roll call all aldermen were present. After all bills against the city had been allowed, an unusual number of wet petitions were presented by the clerk. The late "dryness" of the city has induced the signers of nine petitions to pray for sprinkling of the streets in front of their property, which the city fathers generously granted. This will necessitate the adding of another wagon.

D. B. K. Van Raalte, jr., petitioned for the building of a boat house at the foot of Columbia ave., which petition was referred to the 1st ward alderman. J. Looman asked permission to move a barn. Referred to committee on streets and crosswalks. The resolution of Alderman Van Tongeren that the city attorney procure deeds for the opening of 14th street and the city engineer draw up plans and profiles for grading of said street, was adopted.

The report of the Chicago engineer on the Lake Michigan water supply was filed until the report of the Board of Public Works is received which will show a comparative estimate between the cost of the proposed Lake Michigan water system and a double system. In the meantime the Board is to publish copies of the report so that full information may be obtained in regard to this important move.

A petition of the city street laborers, praying that the council raise their wages from $1.92 per day to $2 was granted. Contractor Ritsen asked to have the new City Hall connected with the storm sewer of River street. The petition was referred to a committee.

The proprietors of the two local wholesale liquor houses asking for a renewal of license was referred to the license committee. The contract for the wiring and lighting fixtures of the new City Hall was awarded to the Capital Electric Wiring Co., of Lansing for $733. Holkeboer obtained the contract for the building of the new city coalbin at a figure of $1575. The second contest figure was $1675 and the highest $2400. A bond giving security to the amount of $500 must be furnished by the contractor. The project to lay side walks along North River street to the Grand Haven bridge was tabled pending the report of the city engineer next meeting. Also the extension of water mains on Van Raalte avenue, was postponed till fall.

The council adjourned until tonight when the election returns will be audited and the aldermen officially declared elected.

The young people received many gifts. They are well known in this vicinity and will make their future home on the groom's farm at the old Brummel homestead on the Fairview road.

Allegan

The people of Allegan and vicinity who have to buy milk will be pleased to know that milking machines, whose chief recommendation is their sanitary handling of the milk, are becoming popular here and already two such machines are in use. John Strabbing has been employing one for some time at his dairy and declares it is in every way satisfactory. Mr. F. H. Williams also has just received his which is a Hirman. These machines are operated by means of gasoline engines which work a traveling-rod over the stanchions where the cows to be milked are tied. This operates an air pump which by means of rubber tubes creates a vacuum. The vacuum so operates the cups which fit over the teats of the cow that the milk is drawn from the udders in exactly the same way the hired man's hands do it. There is a common notion among many people that these machines in some way hurt the cow. That is not so. The action of the tea cups is very gentle. The milk is conveyed from the udders to the clean pails with out contact with the air and there is no contamination from odors of the barn. By the way, Mr. Williams has eleven full-blooded Holstein cows in his herd and ten full-blooded heifers growing up to join the herd next year.

Considerable excitement and indignation have been occasioned in the Presbyterian church the past two or three weeks because some very narrow-minded person has been sending anonymous letters to the pastor, making various charges and demanding that he resign. After getting a few of these letters, Rev. Brashaar, without saying a word to any of the church members, presented his resignation. After recovering somewhat from their surprise the members insisted upon knowing the reason, which Mr. Brashaar had not given, and they were told and shown some of the letters. The immediately demanded that he withdraw his resignation and if he has not done so, it is sincerely hoped by his very large number of friends both in and out of the church that he will. Last Sunday parts of the letters were read to the congregation. Other parts were not fit to read. Such low, cowardly attacks on a Christian man and minister deserve the most severe punishment the law can impose, and if the writer of the letters can be apprehended he should be dealt with promptly and without mercy. Certainly no self-respecting citizen of Allegan will uphold any such doings.

Many persons on the North Side saw last Sunday night a brilliant and very peculiar illumination in the heavens. It consisted of several shafts of light extending from the horizon toward the northeast to the zenith. These shafts were not constant but appeared and disappeared as if hidden by clouds. They faded from sight as gently as could be imagined and reappeared again just as gradually and to full brilliance. What could have been the cause of the spectacle is unknown, but scientists regard it as an electrical demonstration induced by solar disturbances which occurred at the same time.

In the returns from twelve townships and cities in the county the proposition for nominating the county officers by the primary system appears to have carried by about 272. Statements of the Victor and Vanquished

"I went before the people this time on my past record and the people have shown that they trusted me as I have trusted them. I want to thank my supporters in both parties and am glad that I won in this fight, for it will be my last."

MAYOR H. BRUSS.

Now that the battle is over and the smoke has cleared away, I esteem it a great privilege to publicly thank the city committee for their efficient work and the many citizens for their loyal support in the campaign just closed. It was a hard fought battle on both sides, but it was one of the clearest campaigns that I ever entered into. The people have expressed their preference and I have no reason to feel sore. I desire to restate at this time what I have said before, that whether elected or defeated for the office of mayor, I shall work with might and main for the moral and material welfare of our city.

HENRY GEERLINGS.

Holland's Election

Few changes were made Monday when Mayor Bruss and all city officials seeking re-election were returned by substantial majorities. The present regime of "no saloon" was also endorsed decisively by 206 votes, and the bonus bonds, which proved so successful on their first trial, were approved by a big majority. The primary system was endorsed by a tremendous majority.

Considering the importance of the problems up for decision, the vote was rather light, 2160 ballots being cast, just 123 less than the year before. The biggest loss shown was in the First Ward, where there was no aldermanic contest, and in the Fourth and Fifth, where the battle was keenest for council seats, the vote was close to that of former exciting years.

The first returns came in before six o'clock, and before the majority of the interested ones had finished their suppers, it was known that Mayor Bruss had been re-elected over Geerlings by a majority of 139, carrying the First, Second and Fourth wards, while his Republican opponent got the Third and Fifth ward by scanty pluralities. The retiring aldermen were re-elected in all wards but the Third, where Ald. Prakken refused a nomination and Nick Kammeraad was elected by the Republicans. The new council will have but three Democratic members.

All the Republican nominees for the minor city offices were reelected, to 60 for Nick Baas, and the ward showed but 45 straight ballots out of the total.

WHAT IS CHIROPRACTIC?

This new and wonderful science had its origin in Bohemia. It was used in that country by workmen who had labored hard and came home tired and ill. It would revive them and at that time they discovered that chronic diseases of long standing were subdued under its treatment and finally disappeared altogether but the best of it was that the cures made in that way would be permanent.

Chiropractic or hand curing has no nasty tasting medicine—it does not need it. It will cure troubles that will not submit to drugs. It needs no knife and no operations to aid it. It is a treatment that effects the nerves.

Chiropractic is based on a correct knowledge of the nerves. In the human spine are 24 vertebrae each one having an inter-vertebrae notch, and these two brought together create a window (foramen) from which bundles of nerves emanate, spreading to all parts of the human system a luxation or displacement which causes the nerves to be pinched and disease to follow. They may be stimulated but will not be cured unless these nerves are released. The Chiropractors fix these luxations, relieve the nerves and put them in a position to do their great work throughout that part which was affected.

If you have trouble and have taken medicine until you resemble a walking delegate for the drug store go to an experienced Chiropractor, let him examine you and he will explain your trouble. Do not think there is no cure for you. Thousands have thought that and have been agreeably surprised at the healing power of Chiropractic.

Epilepsy, Deafness, Apoplexy; Appendicitis, Blood diseases, Brain fever, Diabetes, Dropsy, Bladder Troubles, Catarrh, Cancer, Constipation, Consumption (first stages) Dyspepsia, Heart, Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles, Indigestion, Lumbago, Lost Manhood, Locomotor Ataxia, Nervous debility, Paralysis, Rheumatism, Varicocoele, St. Vitus dance, Female disease and many others have been cured to stay cured.

If you are sick remember the cause is within you. If you have been taking drugs and are satisfied that you are getting worse go to a Chiropractor and get well. A pining plant will not get strength by sprinkling the leaves, but by removing the cause from the roots—origin of its living power. The nerves control the human system.

W. H. Roe, D. C. and R. R. Pronk, D. C. are experienced Chiropractors, who have offices at 147 East 8th St. Holland, Mich., and also 9 Jefferson avenue, Grand Rapids, Mich. They have made some wonderful cures in Holland and in the surrounding country; go to them, they are willing to give you names and addresses from some of the people they have treated. Their office hours are 9 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m., and 7 to 8:30 in the evening. They will give you all the information and advise you wish without charge. Some of our well known citizens who give praise to them are Mrs. C. M. Knowels and Mrs. A. W. Nysson at Central Park, R. F. D. No. 1, they wish you to call on them, and would be happy to tell you what has been done for them.

G. A. R. Encampment

When President Lincoln issued his call for volunteers many a stalwart man, many a youth and strippling from the Michigan forests shouldered the musket and left the peaceful homestead for the carnage and destruction of the battlefield. Of these, many never again crossed the Mason and Dixon line. They repose under the green sod of the Southland.

But many of those who heard the bugle of war and gave heed to its summons, returned after the war and proudly carried home the tattered regiment flags. The North hailed them not as conquerors of the South but as the maintainers of vital principles, as men, without whose sacrifice the United States might have been so many petty republics. And this fact is brought home to the nation every returning Memorial Day when the ever thinner growing ranks of Civil war veterans tramp through our streets.

But next June it will be a vastly more inspiring sight to see the 10,000 old soldiers in blue temporarily taking up their quarters in Holland. Not only is this a privilege, but the big G. A. R. Encampment is an honor which a city like Lansing fought hard to obtain, and of which Holland's citizens should not alone feel justly proud but also should strive to make themselves fully worthy of. The accommodation committee has tremendous task on its hands in entertaining and lodging these thousands of visitors. All hotels, boarding houses and resorts must be pressed into service and even then there will be many left over to be taken care of.

Still, there is hardly a doubt that Holland will not be able to fulfill the obligations which the G. A. R. Encampment entails. Holland is a right to boast of being well supplied with educational advantages and therefore, everyone in the city knows why the old soldiers come here. There are undoubtedly private families enough in the city who will not consider it an inconvenience to entertain one or more soldiers during the encampment. For as a generation ago there was many a moist eye as the company of stalwart volunteers marched down the dusty road leading toward the South, today a smile of welcome will greet the bent form and blue uniform of the veterans. Fifty years in history is but like the day of yesterday. The population of the city has changed, it is true, but still, the G. A. R. Encampment concerns all, whether they have moved in from North, South, East or West. All those who enjoy the prosperity of a country which is great through its mighty principle of unity, will next June open their hearts and homes to the men who in the presence of grim death demonstrated the idea of the worth of that principle of unity.

Show your patriotism and let the Housing committee of the G. A. R. encampment know of your intentions.

An outside concern is building our city hall and now an outside concern is going to do the wiring. That leaves our local concerns strictly on the outside and is a good way to build up the outside.

Voted Against Sewer Bonds

Monday's election resulted as follows: Mayor Berend Kamps, Citizens; alderman, John H. Moek; Harm H. Karsten and Martin C. Ver Hage, Citizens; clerk, John W. Doozen, Republican; treasurer, Johannes Mulder, Republican; supervisors, Cornelis Roosenraad, Citizens; Justice of the Peace, John Meyering, Republican. The proposition to bond for $15,000 for the purpose of constructing a sewer system was voted down by a majority of 138. In Allendale John Ossewaarde, Republican was chosen supervisor. In Zeeland township H. Roek, Republican, was chosen supervisor. In the township of Olive Morris Luidens, Republican, was elected supervisor. M. Stegeman, Republican, won the contest for the office of supervisor in Blendon township.

Debate, Alma vs. Hope

Tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock the second annual intercollegiate debate will take place in Winants chapel. Hope college with Alma and Olivet colleges form a triangular debating league of which this year Alma comes to Hope and Hope's second team goes to Olivet. The question under discussion reads "Resolved that the United States government levy a progressive income tax, constitutionality conceded." Hope debates the affirmative side of the question at home, and the team consists of Messrs. Heemstra, Vis, de Motts and Yntema. Luidens, Abbink, Dame and Vruink will go to Olivet and debate the negative side. The locals have been studying up the question thoroughly and, in addition to what local facilities offered, libraries at Chicago and Grand Rapids have been drawn upon to secure the needed information.

The men who will debate for Alma are A. Lindly, A. Van Thurm, C. Call and D. Black while two professors from Alma will accompany their team. The visitors will be entertained in the best possible way. Automobiles have been secured to show them around the city and to make a trip to Macatawa while at night an elaborate reception and supper at Voorhees Hall will be given in honor of the visitors.

The judges who have been secured for the debate are Prof. Williams of Kalamazoo college, Prof. Delos Fall of Albion College and Judge Jewel of the juvenile court, Grand Rapids. A small admission fee will be charged to defray the expenses for judges and teams.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-
Earned Reputation

For months Holland readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

Edgar F. Bryce, E. Second Street, Grand Haven, Mich., says: "Last winter I began to have trouble from my kidneys and my back also ached severely. I had rheumatic twinges through my right limb and the kidney secretions were unnatural and filled with sediment. Being advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a supply and soon after I began their use, I was relieved. Six Boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills made a complete cure and I am now free from all the trouble with my kidneys. I strongly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

The above statement was given in December 1906 and was confirmed by Mr. Bryce on May 12, 1909. He said: "The relief I received from Doan's Kidney Pills has been permanent, and I have had no occasion to use a kidney remedy during the past two and a half years. You are at liberty to continue the publication of my further testimonial."

COIN SOMETHING OF A FREAK

Atlanta the Possessor of Silver Dollar with Two Heads—Its History.

Hansel W. Compton has just returned from New Orleans, La., where he went upon a business trip, bringing with him the only genuine silver dollar with heads stamped on both sides ever seen in Atlanta. And thereby hangs a tale, relates the Atlantic Constitution.

Mr. Compton got this silver dollar in change and did not notice the unusual fact about it at the time. Some time later he was matching a friend for car fare, happening to use this silver dollar, when he noticed that the coin fell 'heads' every time. He looked closer and saw that there was a head on each side of the dollar. Under one head were the figures "1906," the date of the initial stamping, and under the other "1909," the date of the second stamping.

He showed it to several New Orleans men, who offered him various premiums the highest being $10, all of which he refused.

The story in connection with this coin is as follows: An employee in the New Orleans mint, whose duty it was to run the silver coin through the dies to have the head stamped upon it substituted a current silver dollar for the coin immediately after the head had been stamped upon it, with the other side unstamped and perfectly slick. This was in 1906. Three years later he ran the coin through the stamper for the reverse side, impressing another head and 1909 upon it. The fact that a coin had been put in, at the first instance, to replace the half-coined dollar, prevented detection. In this manner, it is explained, the silver dollar came to have its two heads.

STRANGE FREAKS OF NATURE

Well-Authenticated Cases of Dumbness Which Scientists Are Unable to Explain.

The London Lancet recently dug up from its old files the following story: A farmer of Somersetshire made a vow in the presence of his wife never to speak to her again if she bore him another daughter. He already had three. A son was born, but, strange to say, when the child became old enough to talk and did talk to his mothers and sisters, the father could never get a "word out of him," and what was more the boy could not talk to any man. This was assumed in the neighborhood to be a punishment of the man for his rash vow. The republication of this curious case led to the appearance of another similar tale of intermittent aphonia, vouched for by a clergyman of Bath. In this instance a young man of 28 years had never spoken to his father nor to anyone in the neighborhood but his mother and sisters. And he could not talk with them in the presence of his father. But when he visited the clergyman in a neighboring town he talked as well as anyone. When asked for an explanation of his curious actions he had none to offer. "I simply can't talk, no matter how hard I try," was the substance of his answer. He had heard something of a "rash vow" by his father, but could give no further details. If these stories are to be accepted as true, they may perhaps be explained as the result of what are called "fixed ideas," which sometimes dominate slightly disordered or unsteady minds.

Russia's Free Tea Stalls.

The Russian government is commonly supposed to be autocratic and even despotic, but, like other autocracies, it has an odd way of being at times quite paternal. In St. Petersburg tea stalls are provided by the authorities for the prevention of the spread of cholera. The disease was traced to the use of polluted drinking water, and accordingly the government established these stalls all over the country for the supply of beverages that should be free from all suspicion. The notice on top of the stall states that the sanitary committee provide hot water, tea and sugar free of charge to all comers. The attendants are paid by the government, and are not allowed to take any money for their services.—Wide World Magazine.

Photography by Phosphorescence.

There is sometimes employed abroad an ingenious method of making photographic copies of plates and engravings in books which cannot be removed from the libraries, and where the use of the camera is prohibited. A cardboard is coated with a phosphorescent substance, exposed to sunlight or electric light, and then placed at the back of the engraving, while a dry photographic plate is placed on the face of the engraving. The book is closed, and after a period varying from 18 to 60 minutes, depending largely on the thickness of the paper, a satisfactory negative is produced. The book is enclosed in a black cloth during the manipulation.

In the Year 2,000.

Transient—Who's that prosperous looking fellow over there?

Native—That's Squire Shuvvell, the millionaire ditch-digger. Everybody laughed at him years ago when he refused to become a doctor or a lawyer, and even turned down the correspondence schools' offer to make him a window dresser or an electrical engineer. Time proved his wisdom, and to-day, as the only unskilled laborer in this section, he can command almost fabulous prices.—Puck.

PRAYERS NEVER PASSED OVER

First Thought in the Mind of Mohammedan Is His Duty of Devotion to Allah.

"And while we three white men of a Christian race stuffed ourselves without preliminary or postprandial grace, and our shenzi porters gracefully gorged themselves like beasts, scarce 30 feet from our table stood the noble form of old Regal and the spare ascetic-faced Awala, musically intoning their evening prayer to Allah, oblivious to all about as if alone in a monastic cell. It was a majestic rebuke to us, a weird mystery to the shenzi, whose voices were always lowered when the Somalis began to pray, and who sat contemplating them in wild-eyed wonder to the end of each prayer, awed, almost silent—as were we ourselves silent out of the sheer respect for a religion which can give men such perfect self-control that no danger daunts them and no hardship or suffering wrings from them a plaint.

"Five times a day do they so pray—at dawn, at high noon, at four, at sunset and before retiring—nor can anything interfere to delay these prayers, not even hungry masters. And before addressing Allah, mouth, face and hands are carefully washed, the best turban wound about the head, the freshest garments donned, the feet bared, then with a glance at the sun, if by day, or at the stars, if by night, to get their compass bearings, they spread their rugs, face towards Mecca, and begin a low, droning chant that at a little distance might easily be mistaken for a well-intoned litany."—From In Closed Territory, by Edgar Beecher Bronson.

RULE THAT SEEMS GOOD ONE

Gambler Always Ascertains Whether Luck Is with Him or Not Before He "Sits In."

"There's no use in trying to buck against bad luck," said the successful gambler as he set down his glass of vichy and milk. "If you see luck is going against you, drop out. If the fickle goddess of fortune is with you, woo her for all you are worth. That's the whole secret of the game.

"I've been gambling all my life, and I rarely lose. Why? Because I never take a chance against bad luck. Luck is bound to be either with you or against you. You win or you lose. The chances of breaking even are mighty slim. And who wants to break even, anyhow?

"Luck always runs in streaks. I can generally dope out whether I am going to be lucky or not, and when I know it isn't my time to win I simply don't play. How do I know? Well, I have a little system of my own, and I don't mind letting you in on it. Before I sit into a game I try out my luck in the seclusion of my own apartment. I take a deck of cards and start to play solitaire, Canfield against an imaginary banker. In five or six deals I can get an idea whether luck is with me at that particular time or not. If the cards are running consistently against me I stop and spend the evening at the theater, or chinning around the hotel lobbies. 'No game for me that night. On the other hand, if I see the cards are running my way I get into a game, and seldom quit a loser. It may sound foolish, but take my word for it, it's a pretty good dope to go by."

Collars of Honor.

In France the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals decorates dogs that have distinguished themselves by deeds of bravery with a tastefully designed "collar of honor."

Among the animals decorated in this way one of the most celebrated is Basshus, a large bulldog, whose specialty is to stop runaway horses by jumping up and seizing them by the bridle. It is calculated that this intelligent animal has already saved the lives of eight persons, if not more.

Pauland, a Great Dane, received a collar for saving his mistress from the attack of a footpad, and Turk, a splendid Newfoundland, has had similar honors for rescuing young children from drowning on several occasions.—The Sunday Magazine.

Carlyle's Appreciation.

The inscription on Mrs. Carlyle's tomb was written by her famous husband, and proves what gratitude he felt for her loving care and attention. "In her bright existence she had more sorrows than are common, but also a soft invincibility, a capacity of discernment, and a noble loyalty of heart which are rare. For 40 years she was the true and loving helpmate of her husband, and by act and word unweariedly forwarded him as none else could in all of worth that he did or attempted. She died at London, April 21, 1866, suddenly, snatched away from him, and the light of his life is as if gone out."

Virtue of the Playground.

Children are better in playgrounds than in prison. It is better for the community to have children exercising on ladders and horizontal bars and swings than to have them haunting the doors of poolrooms or smoking cigarettes in the hidden shadows. Children with plenty of playground have a better chance with life than children without. And most children are without unless the community provides them. It is cheaper to amuse them than to arrest. It is cheaper to develop than to dwarf. It is cheaper to save than to sink them.—Salt Lake Herald.

Had Good Reason for So Doing, But Landlady Received Something of a Shock.

"In spite of the fact that it's so common these days, it made me uneasy," said the woman who keeps lodgers. "The professional nurse who rooms at my house—the one with a great pile of light brown hair—was called out on an emergency case night before last. When I went up in the morning to do her room I found she had left her hair hanging by the mirror. I thought, of course, she was coming back, or would telephone for it, or send an A. D. T., or something. But the forenoon passed and no word came from the nurse. I kept going up to the room to look at that hair; it seemed to fascinate me; and then it got on my nerves. Don't know why, but I was obsessed that something had happened to the nurse. You know, they are such good lodgers—pay so well and out most of the time—that I take a special interest in them.

"So finally I thought to look in her call book and found that she had left her number. Then I telephoned her. I was a good deal relieved, and a little amused, too. You see, she had gone out on a contagious case, and she doesn't wear her best hair at such times—too much trouble to keep it disinfected, she says. But she was grateful to me for calling up. Wouldn't I please put it away in the top bureau drawer. She had not intended to leave it out."

PAY HIGH PRICES FOR PIPES

Smokers Known to Expend Large Amounts on Adornments for Their Favorites.

Tennyson delighted in an Irish clay and birdseye tobacco, while Bismarck, who reduced something like 2,000 cigars to ashes every year, was greatly devoted to his old brier pipe, the fumes of which were, to quote one authority, "comparable only to a mixture of sewer and gasworks."

The Kaiser always smokes a pipe in private, and, like the prince of Wales, favors the small brier pipe.

On the other hand, there are many middle-class men to-day who smoke pipes costing many dollars. For the most part they are presentation pipes of carved meerschaum, or of the brier type with gold mountings and the choicest amber mouthpieces. Of course, you can make a pipe as expensive as you please. You can mount it with diamonds, rubies and emeralds, and run up the value to an enormous extent, or you could have an oriental hookah at anything from $500 to $2,500.

The most costly pipes of to-day are those used by the Dutch and the Germans. They are of formidable dimensions, some holding as much as a pound of tobacco. These pipes are mostly of the meerschaum variety, and some are carved so elaborately as to command $1,000 each.—Stray Stories.

Uses Animals Make of Their Tails.

Horses, cows and other creatures use their tails as fly flappers. Cats, squirrels and many more twist them around their necks for comforters. The rat has raised the use of the tail to a fine art, for by its means it guides the blind and steals jelly, oil and cream out of jars and bottles.

The macaco plays as merrily with its tail as a kitten does, and the marmoset while it sleeps uses its tail as a sort of blanket.

The raccoon catches crabs with its tail. Every one knows how the monkeys journey through pathless forests by swinging from tree to tree, while the fishes steer their way through the water by their tail fins.

The ant eater puts up its big bushy tail for an umbrella. The vanity of the peacock is fed by the beauty of its tail.—Dumb Animals.

A Taste for Good Books.

If I were to pray for a taste which should stand me in stead under every variety of circumstances, and be a source of happiness and cheerfulness to me through life and a shield against its ills, however things might go amiss and the world frown upon me, it would be a taste for reading. I speak of it, of course, only as a worldly advantage, and not in the slightest degree as superseding or derogating from the higher office and surer and stronger panoply of religious principles—but as a taste, an instrument, and a mode of pleasurable gratification. Give a man this taste, and the means of gratifying it, and you can hardly fail of making a happy man, unless, indeed, you put into his hands a most perverse selection of books.—Sir John Herschel.

Triumph for Americans.

The English hostess for various reasons, the principal one being that she cannot help herself, now accepts the invasion of her American sister, the magnificence of her entertainments and the wonderful individuality of her costumes with equanimity, says a writer. The days are long since past when the American woman had difficulty in making a place for herself in English society, and past also are the days when she was treated as a curiosity and expected to act and talk after the manner of the immortal Daisy Miller. Nowadays she reigns supreme. In fact, it is fashionable to be American.

A Compilment Now.

"But, mamma, you told me never to call a person a pig."

"But, daughter, that was before the price went up."—Houston Post.

Notes of Sport

Great interest is being shown in the wrestling match tonight between Potter and Burns, which will be the hardest fought battle ever staged here and Potter is expected to win by a great many, but Burns who is beating everybody out East writes that he is in fine shape and expects to win.

In the preliminary boxing match Chink Bell and Young Smith clash at 6 rds at catchweights. Bell is the lad who fought the bloody six-round draw with Billy Perry of Muskegon last November.

In the semi final Shorty Quick known as Young Kelly will meet Eddie Wosinskie 6 rounds at 122. This will be the finest card ever staged here and a large house is looked for. There will be plenty of seats on hand.

In case Eddie DeLosch can get away he will go on in an exhibition with Wm. Ossignac, the local Indian athlete.

Manager Frank VanRy has received a communication from Farmer Watson of Owosso stating that he challenges the winter of the Potter-Burns fight.

The Hope college baseball team put it over the Grand Haven high school lads last Saturday to the tune of 38 to 4. "There wasn't anything to it," the fellows said.

The last preparations are being made for the big cross country meet next Saturday in which Olivet, M. A. C., Grand Rapids, Muskegon high and Hope are to compete. Coach Tuppke was in the city last Saturday and had his youngsters run over the course for trial, and the Muskegon squad though not as formidable as last year finished in good time. Coach Brewer of M. A. C. will bring a squad down, his two best men being Tillotson and Perkins. Olivet has a strong man in Volkner and the other men on the squad are all veterans of the cinder path. Hope has a good team this year, the practice of last year coming to good advantage for the old men, and some new men are showing up exceptionally well.

The race will start at the Hope printing office on Columbia avenue at 2 o'clock sharp. Going down 11th street the course turns to 8th and to the interurban railroad, over the Waverly bridge and through the pastures to the Grand Haven bridge where the men turn up River street to 1st street and down the sidetrack to College avenue where the race finishes up in front of Winants chapel.

Louis Conger, Coach Brewer of Lansing and Director Field of Grand Rapids Y will be the judges.

After the race the college baseball team plays the local high school. Tickets including both events 25cts.

The Chemicals, champions of the Auditorium league won the first game of a series for the championship of the factory league, by defeating the Shoemen Saturday by a score of 9 to 7. Lievens and Te Roller were the fumigators while Peterson and Batema formed the opposing battery.

The Shoemen turned the tables on the victorious Chemicals Monday night when they defeated the fumigators in the second game for the factory league championship by a score of 16 to 5. Ray Peterson was in old form this time securing 15 strikeouts and allowing 11 hits. Lievens of the Fumigators was hit hard by the Shoemen, securing only 9 strikeouts.
