An Unsolicited Testimonial

Holland, Michigan, April 4, 1911

To Whom it May Concern:

I wish to state after having been ailing with stomach and bowel trouble and severe headaches for ten or fifteen years, I am convinced that medicine will not cure; while it relieves for the time being and has relieved me a great many times, but seems to weaken the system in the long run.

I have been taking Chiropractic adjustments for some time from E. Fredericks, D. C., and I can't say too much in favor of the adjustments. I will be glad to give personal information to anyone who may desire it. A few days adjustments will soon convince you of their value.

John Kramer, the old soldier, who was removed from his home in this city to the Butterworth hospital in Grand Rapids, is reported to be in a serious condition. His recovery is very doubtful.

William Poppe who was arrested last week on a complaint sworn out by his wife gave bonds in Justice Van der Meulen's court Monday to keep the peace. Mr. and Mrs. Poppe have reached an agreement and will continue to live together.

In Holland there were 21 births during the month of February. The birth rate being 11.8 per 1,000. There were but 10 deaths and of these all but three were under the age of one year. In Ottawa county there were 91 births as compared with 53 deaths.

Neal Ball, the Michigan base ball star, who played with the Cleveland American League team last season has returned to Kalamazoo from the Pacific coast. Where he will play during the coming season is rather doubtful. He has been signed by the Portland Oregon team but prefers to remain in the east if possible.

George M. McBride of Grand Haven is one of the few veterans of the Civil war now living in this section, who participated in the bloody battle of Shiloh, which was fought just forty-nine years ago Saturday. In figuring over the list, he could not recall a single veteran of the battle other than himself, who is now living in Grand Haven. As history records it was one of the bloodiest battles ever fought, and the horror of it will never leave the minds of those who passed through it.

Rev. Henry J. Veldman, pastor of the First Reformed church preached in the Second Reformed church at Muskegon Sunday, he having received a call to that church. Mr. Veldman also is to deliver a call to the Second Reformed church of Kalamazoo.

The senate in the committee of the whole this morning passed the bill to allow breweries in dry counties to operate. The measure will be stiffly opposed, however, because rumors, which have been pretty well substantiated, have been floating around for several days that a big pot of money was raised by the breweries which had been put out of business by local option, to maintain a lobby here in the interests of the bill.

Plans are being made for extensive improvements to be made on the interior of the Third Reformed church this summer. Last year the exterior was given a coat of paint and a new roof was put on the building. Its beautiful architecture will afford the artists and decorators a fine opportunity to exercise their skill.

Mr. William Lamall, Mus. Bac., of Oberlin College, successor of Mr. Post in the Hope College School of Music, began his work this week. He will be at college on Tuesday and Friday afternoon to meet pupils on piano and harmony. Mr. Lamall is an expert pipe organist as well as pianist, and will begin a class in pipe organ by the first week in May. For further particulars apply to J. B. Nykerk of Hope College.

Will Kamferbeek Remain Chief of Police?

The following article appeared in the Grand Rapids Press of last evening.

Holland, April 12.—That a movement is under way to again bring the police department into politics is the confident belief of those who have watched the trend of affairs since the recent municipal election which gave the Republicans a four-fifths majority in the city council. Four years ago the police department was ostracized from politics in order that the officers would not be compelled to tie themselves to the apron strings of any political clique and to save themselves from becoming victims of the political axe. A police board of three members was appointed by the council, each member upon re-appointment to serve three years. Fred Kamferbeek, then city marshal, was appointed chief of police and was confirmed.

Now it is said that Kamferbeek's scalp is sought. Some of the aldermen openly insist that the new members of the board must be outspoken against the present chief. Whether enough support can be enlisted is problematical as some of the majority wing are not in sympathy with the movement and cannot be persuaded to help turn the trick.

The News interviewed Mr. Kamferbeek on the matter this morning and he said that this was the first he had heard about the matter. He also said that he hardly thought there was any truth in the statement.

"Four years ago," said Mr. Kamferbeek, "the police department was put into the hands of a police board in order to keep it out of politics." The fact that I have not dabbled into politics is distinctly shown by the political affiliations of the men under me, Sam Meeuwse being the only democrat on the force. If the powers that be should intend to again play at politics with this office then for pity's sake let the people decide for themselves, who should be chief of the police department. During my regime, I have tried to conduct the office as best I could in which statement all the members that have served on the police board will bear me out. I did make some mistakes when I entered upon the duties of the office and everything was new to me but I have profited by these errors and am trying to put the force into such shape as will make it as efficient as any in towns the size of Holland or larger. Anyone can pick flaws in any thing or any man, but I think if it were left to a vote of the people, my record as chief would be endorsed by them. As I said before I do not think that there is anything in the statement but if there is I am willing to abide by the people's decision.

Another Egg Story

The latest chicken story emanates from the Piano factory and is giving George Bjstrom considerable notoriety. George has found a remedy for clucking hens, yes even the non-setters are made to set. The remedy is simple and within reach of any chicken fancier. George says "feed them fish". That's all and six hours afterward even a speckled hamberg or a brown leghorn will set. But it seems that this remedy is not entirely satisfactory as Mrs. George tells of an instance where fish fed setters got up from their nest just as the eggs were nearly ready to hatch, do what she might she could not get them back. Almost giving up in despair an idea flashed across her mind. Going to the nest she made a noise like a peep and the three wayward hens spread their wings and hurried to their nests, saving the three settings of the eggs which, thanks to Mrs. George's ingenuity came out satisfactory. Make a noise like a peep, then add a little fish should make the recipe complete.

Common Council (Official)

Holland, Mich., April 10, 1911. The Common Council met pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by the Mayor.

Present: Mayor Brusse, Ald. Van Eyck, Van Tongeren, Van den Berg, Dinkwater, Hyma, Kammeraad, Dyke, Lawrence and the Clerk.

The reading of the minutes and regular order of business was suspended. The special report of the ways and means committee by whom the cemetery property was purchased follows in detail and is very interesting.

Your committee on Ways and Means together with the City Attorney, to whom was referred the proposition of the Board of Trustees of Pilgrim Home Cemetery (Incorporated as "Het Kerkhof van Holland") to convey and surrender to the city for its future ownership, maintenance and control all of the property of said cemetery corporation embracing the unsold lots as well as the funds on hand; which said tender was coupled also with the further proposition that the city purchase and acquire for the enlargement of said cemetery the eight-acre tract of high land immediately adjoining said cemetery on the east, would respectfully report that they have given said proposition due consideration and would respectfully recommend and urge its acceptance by the city.

We would further report that we have negotiated with the owner of the tract of land referred to above, and find that for and in consideration of the sum of $3,200 or $400 per acre for length actually there, he will sell and convey to the city all of said tract bounded on the west by the east boundary of the present cemetery, on the south by the public highway, on the east by the right of way of the Pere Marquette Railroad, and on the north by a line commencing at the northeast corner of the present cemetery and running thence east to the Pere Marquette right of way, comprising in all eight acres, more or less, to be paid for on the basis of $400 per acre.

Your committee is fully aware that the purchase price thus to be paid for said tract of land is high, but considering that as a part of this transaction on the trustees of Pilgrim Home Cemetery to turn over to the city between $600 and $1000 in cash, besides the unsold real estate, which at the prevailing price for which cemetery lots are sold, is fairly estimated at between $1700 and $1800, the ultimate outlay on the part of the city in acquiring all of said property will be virtually reduced to a few hundred dollars.

In reaching the above conclusion, your committee was largely actuated by the same motive that impels the board of trustees of Pilgrim Home Cemetery to surrender their corporate existence and transfer said cemetery and its future to the city, namely, that in so doing and by means of the enlargement of the present cemetery, through the purchase of land immediately adjoining the same (a transaction which was beyond the financial ability of the board of trustees to bring about) the future of said cemetery, the final resting place of the early pioneers and pilgrim fathers, will be for generations to come, secure against a heartless abandonment, which otherwise have been as inevitable as it would be deplorable.

The acquisition by the city of the Pilgrim Home cemetery, and additional ground adjacent and contiguous to same, will no doubt result in placing water pipes and connections for the keeping of graves and lawns, and the cemetery will be under the control of the Board of park and cemetery trustees of the city, thus insuring systematic control and management.

Your committee therefore recommends that immediate steps be taken for the consummation of the project and that the city attorney be and is hereby directed to procure from Mr. Van Kante, the owner of the land, a good and sufficient conveyance thereof payment therefor be made accordingly. All of which is respectfully submitted.

Wm. O. Van Eyck,
J. C. Dyke,

D. W. Jellema, committee on Ways and Means.

Arthur Van Duren, City Attorney. On motion of Alderman Van Eyck, Resolved, that the report of the Special Committee on acquiring Pilgrim Home Cemetery and additional grounds be and is hereby accepted and adopted and that the recommendations therein contained be ordered carried out.

Carried. The committee on Claims and Accounts reported having examined the following claims and recommended payment of same:

The following persons petitioned for licenses to engage in the wholesale liquor business: Walter Sutton, at 122 East Eighth street; David Blom and Nicholas Hofstee, at 5 West Eighth street; and Francis Dulyea and Martin Van der Bie, at 180 River street.

On motion of Ald. Dyke, Resolved, that the petitions be referred to the new Council.—Carried.

The special committee composed of the committee on Ways and Means and the City Attorney, reported as follows: Adjourned, until Thursday, April 13, 1911, at 7:30 p. m.

Richard Overweg, City Clerk.

Borculo

After a long illness with kidney trouble, Abraham Marling died at his home in Borculo at the age of 76 years. He is survived by a widow and five children. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock from the home and at 12:30 from the Christian Reformed church. Rev. J. B. Yonkman, pastor of the church officiated.

Hamilton

Herman Brower, formerly clerk of Allegan county will in the near future organize a bank at his home town of Hamilton. The plans for the new business are only partially completed but it is generally known that Mr. Brower will start a private banking firm, backed by a number of the prominent business men of this section. As this part of the county is one of the most fertile in this section of the state it is generally thought that the venture will prove a success.

Beaverdam

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Zoot of Beaverdam, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Effie, and Clarence Van Der Molen, also of Beaverdam. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. Ceizer, pastor of the Christian Reformed church at Beaverdam, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The couple will reside on the old Van Putten homestead at Beaverdam.

Bauer

At the annual meeting of the Bauer Creamery company these officers were selected: President, William E. Hess; vice president, Fred Behrens; secretary, F. H. Schulmeister; treasurer, Ed. Ulberg; trustees, Gus Shilling, William Flipse, Gerrit Berghorst.

The annual report showed that during the year 6,235,169 pounds of milk was delivered, from which 301,216 pounds of butter was made. The average test was 4.83 per cent. A dividend of 20 per cent was declared.

Zutphen

Following a long illness Mrs. A. Brouwer, aged 80, is dead at her home in Zutphen. She was born in the Netherlands and came to this section some years ago. She is survived by seven sons and three daughters. The funeral services were held Saturday from the Christian Reformed church at Zutphen. Rev. H. Vander Werp officiating. Interment was in the Zutphen cemetery.

The remains of Lambert Geerlings, who died in Minnesota have been brought to Zutphen for burial. The funeral was held at the Geerlings' homestead near there. He is survived by a widow, one son and one daughter. The remains were placed in Forest Grove cemetery. He formerly resided in that section.

Drenthe

A number of changes and improvements mark the progress of this village. George Bredewez has sold his general store and several acres of land to Bert Ter Haar. Herman Telgenhof has sold his house and lot to George Bredewez for $1,400. The Independent Telephone company is securing a number of new subscribers and more equipment will be added.

Jamestown

After a lingering illness Mrs. John Severs died at her home near Jamestown at the age of 23 years. She is survived by a husband and two small children. Funeral services were held from the Christian Reformed church in Zutphen at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon. Rev. H. Van der Werp officiated.

Zeeland

Ed. Hendricks, the Zeeland south-paw, has been placed on the regular pitching staff of the New York giants at a salary of $8000 for the coming season. Mrs. Hendricks left last week for New York to join her husband. They will return here at the end of the season.

An Easter cantata will be given on Easter Sunday evening at the Second Reformed church, with a choir of about 50 voices, under a leadership of C. J. Den Herder. The last rehearsal was held last evening. The cantata will be one of the finest ever given in the city.

The Young People's alliance of Zeeland and vicinity will hold their semi-annual entertainment at the First Christian Reformed church in this city on Thursday evening, April 13. Rev. J. H. Kuiper of Holland will address the meeting.

An organ recital was given last Thursday evening in the North street Christian Reformed church in this city by Prof. Alle Zuidema of Detroit. It was given under the auspices of the choir of the church. Mr. Zuidema is a master on the organ, and his numbers were well received. The choir rendered several numbers, as did also a male quartet consisting of Messrs. Poest, Moehle, Vanden Brink and Vanden Bosch. C. J. Den Herder, leader of the choir of the Second Reformed church, sang a bass solo. The recital was largely attended.

The sum of $15,000 has been subscribed for the new bank to be started at Hudsonville. Another meeting will be held at an early date and the organization will be perfected as soon as sufficient has been subscribed for the stock.

The dedication of the new Second Reformed church, which was to have been held Friday, has been postponed on account of the illness of Rev. William Moerdyk, D. D. Prof. J. W. Beardslee, Jr., of Holland conducted the services at the old Second Reformed church Sunday.

The board of education of the Zeeland public schools at a meeting held last week offered John C. Hoekje a two years contract as superintendent of the schools with an increase of $200 per year. This is the highest salary that was ever offered a school superintendent in Zeeland.

Two families, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Smits and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Valk, both from Kondrum Prov. Vriesland, Netherlands, settled in Zeeland this week. The new arrivals report having come in contact with Rev. E. Zanstra missionary of the Reformed churches who is stationed at Ellis Island and who aided them in finding their way to Zeeland. These are but two of a large number of dutch families who are making their way to Ottawa county.

Mrs. R. W. Stewart of Springfield, Mo. is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. Bosch on Central avenue.

Miss Anna Kremer of Detroit is the guest of her sister, Mr. H. De Kruij on Central avenue.

Mayor B. Kamps is in Kalamazoo this week on business.

Jay Den Herder of Ann Arbor is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Den Herder on Central avenue.

Paul De Kruij who is attending the university of Michigan is visiting his parents in this city.

Henry Michmerhuizen of Overisel was in the city Monday.

The Christian Endeavor society met in the chapel of the First Reformed church Wednesday evening.

Richard Van der Heuvel is very ill at his home on Columbia ave. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Olsen has moved from Wall street to West Washington street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Willard have moved to Grand Rapids.

H. Elzinga of Petoskey is visiting friends in the city.

Rev. Kamps conducted the morning service at the North Street Christian Reformed church Sunday.

The installation of Rev. D. R. Drukker, formerly pastor of the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church of Holland, who accepted the call to the First Christian Reformed church in this city, to succeed Rev. William D. Van Der Werp who is now pastor of the Christian Reformed church at East Saugatuck took place last Sunday morning. It was conducted by Rev. J. Smitt, pastor of the North Street Christian Reformed church of this city. In the afternoon Doctor Drukker preached his first sermon. The church was filled to its capacity one hour before the services. Rev. Mr. Drukker is a graduate of the college and seminary of the Christian Reformed churches of Grand Rapids, and has been pastor of the following churches: Midland Park, N. Y., Drenthe, Mich., and Holland, Mich. He served the last church in Holland for the past nine years.

Miss Anna Van Der Bosch and Peter H. Gringhuis were married by Justice C. Rosebraad. They will reside in this city.

George Van Der Molen, for several years at the William DePree company store, has resigned and moved to a farm near Hudsonville.

The members of the Second Reformed church have collected $145, which will be sent to the sufferers in China.

Edward Van Den Berg, aged 41, is dead following a long illness with tuberculosis. He was for many years an instructor in music in this vicinity and was the second leader of the Ottawa band of this city. He is survived by a widow and a daughter, besides other relatives. The funeral will be held Saturday from the home and First Reformed church. Interment will be in Zeeland cemetery.

Cornelius DeWitt, while trying to operate his mother's wringer with his little brother, thrust a finger into the machine and it was crushed off. The accident happened while the mother was out hanging up the clothes.

The Zeeland bell ringers gave an entertainment at the Shelbourne school house, near Beaverdam, and made a decided hit. The room was well filled and several of the numbers were responded to by encores.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Brouwer entertained four members of the Holland Daily Sentinel. Professor and Mrs. Brouwer gave several selections with their bells.

Mr. Klaas Elzinga of Blendon was in the city Tuesday visiting friends and relatives.

Saugatuck

Prof. P. A. Latta, principal of the Saugatuck schools, is seriously ill with pneumonia. Mr. Latta has been connected with the schools at Saugatuck for twelve years and this is the first time that sickness necessitated his absence from his duties.

The following clipping from a Southern paper explains itself: "The first carload of strawberries handled by the Ponchatoula Farmers' Association this season sold for $2.35 per case, netting the farmers $1595.65. Selling in car lots is a new departure from the old method of consigning and taking what the commission houses give. This being the first experience in handling the business f. o. b. Ponchatoula. A number of buyers from a distance were on hand to bid. The purchaser was F. E. Wiley, for account of George E. Ford, Chicago, and the farmers are well satisfied with the sale."

After an illness of only a few days Prof. P. A. Latta died at his home here last Tuesday night. A little more than a week ago Prof. Latta was taken ill with pneumonia and although he had a very strong constitution he was finally compelled to yield to the ravages of the disease.

There are very few people in Ottawa and Allegan counties who do not either know or know of Prof. Latta. He was one of the most respected educators in this part of the state and has devoted practically the whole of his life to the cause of education. For the past twelve years Prof. Latta was the superintendent of public schools in Saugatuck and during all that time he did not miss a day by reason of illness or for any other cause until he was taken ill with pneumonia a few days ago.

Prof. Latta began life as a teacher and with short intermissions was engaged in this work during practically all of his life. For a number of years he taught school in Otsego and later he held positions in other cities. For a short time he tried his hand at law in Allegan and later he opened an office in Holland in the rear of the building at 36 East Eighth street. But this was only of short duration and soon Prof. Latta went back to his chosen profession of teacher for which he was so admirably adapted both by nature and education. A born teacher he made a success of his work and filled his niche admirably, spreading his influence quietly by his example all of his life. For a number of years he held the office of school commissioner of Allegan county.

Deceased is survived by a wife and two children, James A. Latta of Minneapolis, Minn., and Mrs. Walter C. Walsh of this city, and four grandchildren.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Episcopal church at Saugatuck and the body will be brought to Holland where it is expected to arrive at about three o'clock. When it arrives there Unity lodge 191 F. and A. M. of which he was a member will take charge of the funeral. Prof. Latta will be buried in Pilgrim Cemetery at Holland.

DRUNKEN MAN GIVES AERONAUT
HAIR-RAISING EXPERIENCE IN SKY.

HURLS MADMAN TO EARTH

Ascent Was One of the Most Spectacular in Balloon Days, but It Was the Last for the Daring Robert F. Scanlon.

New York.—There is living in this city today a man who has gone through the whole thrilling, horror-filled experience of killing a man in the clouds. Once he was the most daring and even foolhardy aeronaut and parachute jumper in the country. Rarely was a day too windy or a district too dangerous for him to make his ascension according to contract and on time. Now he is as afraid of death of a balloon, and will scarcely look at a flying machine in the air. His nerves are completely gone and he declares his nights are made hideous by dreams of something falling, falling and waving its hands.

It was during fair week at Cohokla, Ill., back in the 90's that Robert F. Scanlon, then known widely throughout the middle west, was scheduled to make an ascent. His balloon was filled with gas and the order had been given to "cut loose," when a drunken man rushed through the crowd and grabbed Scanlon by the neck as the trapeze was jerked from the ground and mounting skyward. The crowd stood too horrified to move as the two struggling men kept going up and up, loading a balloon that was to carry only 150 pounds with double its capacity. "Let go or you will be killed," cried Scanlon, squirming in the man's grasp and kicking as best he could. But the man held on grimly without answering a word.

Rapidly, but with stately dignity, the balloon rose into the air, each second adding to the distance that either Scanlon or his unwelcome guest must fall. Squirming, kicking and struggling, the two hung on the ropes and the trapeze, Scanlon, desperate in his fear that the air-cooled gas might cause both to drop, because of their excessive weight, and his passenger, sobered by fear, almost exhausted and nearly helpless in his fight against the trained aeronaut. Finally seeing one last chance of safety Scanlon ordered the stranger to sit by him on the trapeze. There, shoulder to shoulder, they continued their ascent as Scanlon cursed the man whose foolhardy trick might cause the death of both.

A slight ripping sound over their heads electrified Scanlon, but to his unwelcome passenger it meant nothing. Scanlon glanced up; his worst fears were confirmed. One of the ropes on the side of the balloon and supporting the parachute had ripped down a few inches and the gas and smoke were pouring out. The bar rocked back and forth again and the rent enlarged.

The only chance of safety was for one of them to go down in the parachute, and self-preservation is the first law of nature. Scanlon made a last desperate effort and the next instant his wild and struggling passenger was dropping like a shot through the air. He darted down and down until his form struck the earth and fairly buried itself. His courage almost gone, Scanlon cut the rope that severed the parachute from the balloon and dropped to the ground. He was so weak he could scarcely stand. That night he was arrested on charge of murder, but was acquitted. But it was Scanlon's last ascension.

Hen Vanquishes a Hawk.
Cumberland, Md.—An old blue hen belonging to Grant Whenger, who resides in the Coffman section, near Ronconville, W. Va., was attacked by a hawk and in the fight that ensued the hawk was worsted. The hen got a grip on the hawk and held on until Whenger came and caught him, took him to the woodpile and chopped off his head.

A Big Farm Bargain!

120 Acres, near Moline, Mich. All improved except 15 acres, hardwood timber. All the very best of soil, but some of it quite rolling, but can easily be worked.

This is known as one of the best stock, and grain farms in that section, besides it has a fine apple orchard of about 8 acres. Also large fine walnut and other shade trees. Good 7 room house with cellar. One large basement barn, and a smaller one. Large granary, hen house, well, windmill, etc. On account of death of the owner, this place must be sold at once, and although it is worth nearly $100 an acre, will take for immediate sale $6,600, of which $2500 down. Will also include team, 15 head of cattle, chickens, etc. A full set of excellent farm tools and machinery, worth $1500 for $1100. Make a couple thousand dollars by buying this place.

When you seek economy, ask your merchant to show you this $15 Suit. Compare it with one that costs $25, and see wherein lies the difference. It does not lie in the wearing qualities, surely not in the style and fit. The great difference is one of price, caused by more than one reason—made in the largest factories of their kind in the world.

GOOD WORK

Done Daily in Holland. Many Citizens Tell of It.

Nearly every reader has heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. Their good work in Holland still continues, and our citizens are constantly adding endorsement by public testimony. No better proof of merit can be had than the experience of friends and neighbors. Read this case:

Mrs. E. S. Strong, 348 Lincoln Ave., Holland, Mich., says: "About four years ago I suffered a great deal from kidney trouble. My back was very lame, there were pains through my kidneys and I was subject to attacks of dizziness. The kidney secretions were unnatural and annoyed me greatly. While in that condition, a friend told me about Doan's Kidney Pills and I began their use. In a few days the pain and lameness in my back disappeared and it was not long before the kidney secretions became natural. I have had no return attack of kidney trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Midnight in the Ozarks and yet sleepless Hiram Scranton of Clay City, Ill., coughed and coughed. He was in the mountains on the advice of five doctors, who said he had consumption, but found no help in the climate, and started home. Hearing of Dr. King's New Discovery, he began to use it. "I believe it saved my life," he writes "for it made a new man of me, so that I can now do good work again." For all lung diseases, coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup, whooping cough, hay fever, hemorrhages, hoarseness or quins, it's the best known remedy. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Walsh Drug Co., H. R. Doesburg, Geo. L. Lage.

Unheralded Heroes.

Half the real heroes of the world are never heard of.

We guarantee Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve to cure common sore eyes in 24 to 36 hours. This seems strange, but it is backed by our guarantee. You run no risk and it only costs 50c.

Saved His Mother's Life

"Four doctors had given me up," writes Mrs. Laura Gair es, of Avoca, La., "and my children and all my friends were looking for me to die, when my son insisted that I use Electric Bitters. I did so, and they have done me a world of good. I will always praise them." Electric Bitters is a priceless blessing to women troubled with fainting and dizzy spells, backache, headache, weakness, debility, constipation or kidney disorders. Use them and gain new health, strength and vigor. They're guaranteed to satisfy or money refunded. Only 50c at H. R. Doesburg, Walsh Drug Co., Geo. L. Lage.

Every Bottle Guaranteed

Every bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is guaranteed to give satisfaction in all throat and bronchial troubles.

Graafschap

The wedding of Miss Dora Van Dyke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Van Dyke, 40 River street, Holland to Albert Speet, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Speet of Graafschap took place at high noon yesterday at the home of the groom's parents. Prof. J. E. Kuizenga read the service. The bride wore a beautiful Lons-down gown and a bouquet of Dandelions. She was attended by a maid of honor, Miss Tilda Bouwens and two bridesmaids, Miss Lena Kaas-hoek and Miss Dena Van Dyke, a sister. Mr. Harry DeFrel was best man. The wedding march was "Hearts and Flowers" played by Miss Marie Flieman. The bridal couple was preceded by Miss Sarah Van Dyke, little sister of the bride, as ring bearer and six flower girls. They were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. They left today for an extended trip to the Netherlands and will be at home to friends after June 15.

COMMON COUNCIL.

(Official.)

Holland, Mich., Mar. 29, 1911.
The Common Council met pursuant to call issued by the Mayor, and was called to order by the Mayor.

Present—Mayor Brusse, Alds. Van Eyck, Van Tongeren, Vanden Berg, Drinkwater, Hyma, Kammeraad, Dyke, Lawrence, Holkeboer and Jellema, and the Clerk.

The reading of minutes and the regular order of business was suspended.

The Clerk read the call, as follows:

In pursuance of the provisions of the City Charter of the City of Holland, Michigan, I do hereby appoint Wednesday evening, March 29, 1911, at 7:30 p. m., at the Council Chamber, in the New City Hall Building in the City of Holland, Michigan, as the time and place for holding a special meeting of the Common Council of the City of Holland, for the purpose of receiving, considering, and taking action upon a proposition and communication submitted to the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Holland, by the Board of Trustees of Pilgrim Home Cemetery (incorporated as "Het Kerkhof van Holland").

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand at the City of Holland, Michigan, this 27th day of March, A. D. 1911.

HENRY BRUSSE,

Mayor of the City of Holland.
Mr. G. J. Van Schelven, President of the Board of Trustees of Pilgrim Home Cemetery, presented the following:

The Board of Trustees of Pilgrim Home Cemetery (incorporated as "Het Kerkhof van Holland") would respectfully submit the following:

Our cemetery at present, with its additions, purchased in 1886 and 1894, contains eleven acres of ground, all duly platted and in market.

Up to the present time this has been ample to meet the demands of the community—but with an increase in population, the time is not far distant, in fact is now, that provision should be made for additional ground.

It is most desirable, for reasons evident to all, and it has been the constant aim of the Board of Trustees, in providing additional ground for burial, to do so by enlargement of the original plat, through the purchase of lands immediately adjoining the same, thereby preventing a division of time, money and effort in a proper maintenance and beautification and forestalling the ultimate neglect of the last resting place of our early pioneers.

Coupled with this new urgency of enlargement, there is also presented to us at the date of this writing the opportunity of acquiring lands adjoining Pilgrim Home Cemetery on the east and north, the approximate outlay for which will be Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00).

Owing to unfavorable and unavoidable conditions, which have hampered this Board, we are not able financially at present, and cannot expect to be at any period in the near future, to avail ourselves of the opportunity thus presented to obtain for this community a cemetery sufficient not only for the requirements of the day, but also for the demands of the future; and thus also incidentally securing a decorous observance for the graves of those already resting there.

By reason of this financial disability thus to act, and to act at once, we would respectfully urge the purchase by the city of the lands above referred to, and for the purpose stated, ample authority for which is provided in Title XI of the City Charter.

Should the Council coincide with these views and act in accordance therewith, the Board of Trustees of Pilgrim Home Cemetery stands ready to do either one of two things:

First: To buy and take over from the city at such times and in such quantities as the finances of the Board will permit, the lands thus purchased, at the price paid therefor; or

Second: To transfer and make over to the city all their right and title to Pilgrim Home Cemetery, together with the funds on hand and the books and records appertaining thereto such cemetery to be hereafter maintained and operated by the Board of Park and Cemetery Trustees, under like provisions of Title XI.

It is very gratifying to our Board that in thus approaching your honorable body with this important proposition, we do not come as mendicants or as bankrupts. To the contrary, we are solvent and financially in a sound and healthy condition, with $900 to the credit of our bank account. Our sole object and the motive actuating us is to make sure of the future.

On motion of Ald. Van Eyck, Resolved, that the proposition and communication be referred to a Committee and the City Attorney to report on same to the Council meeting to be held April 5, 1911, at 7:30 p. m.

Carried.
On motion of Ald. Lawrence, The Committee on Ways and Means were appointed as such Committee to act in conjunction with the City Attorney.

The City Engineer reported that the Filmore Township Board requested the use of the Steam Road Roller for road building purposes.

On motion of Ald. Van Tongeren, The matter was referred to the Committee on Streets and Crosswalks, and the City Engineer, with power to act.

Adjourned.
RICHARD OVERWEG,
City Clerk.

COMMON COUNCIL.

(Official.)

Holland, Mich., Apr. 6, 1911.
The Common Council met pursuant to adjournment and pursuant to the requirements of the City Charter, to canvass the votes cast at the Charter election held April 3, 1911, and was called to order by the Mayor.

Present—Mayor Brusse, Alds. Van Eyck, Van Tongeren, Vanden Berg, Hyma, Kammeraad, Dyke, Lawrence, Holkeboer and Jellema, and the Clerk.

The reading of the minutes and regular order of business was suspended.

On motion of Ald. Van Eyck, Resolved, that a committee of three be appointed by the Mayor, to canvass the votes cast in the several wards of the City of Holland, at the Charter Election held April 3, 1911, for all the city, district and ward officers, for and against the Loan of $15,000.00 for the purpose of enlarging and extending the Water Works system and increasing the water supply, and for and against the Liquor Proposition.

Carried.
The Mayor appointed as such committee Alds. Van Tongeren, Jellema and Kammeraad.

The Council took a recess of ten minutes.

Ald. Drinkwater here appeared and took his seat.

After recess, the Council having been called to order, the Mayor, the above mentioned Aldermen and the Clerk being present, the Committee appointed to canvass the votes reported a tabular statement of votes cast for the different city, district and ward officers, on the proposition to raise by loan the sum of $15,000.00 for the purpose of enlarging and extending the Water Works system, and for the purpose of increasing the water supply, and on the Liquor Proposition.

On motion of Ald. Van Eyck, The report was accepted, the proposition to Loan declared carried, and the Liquor Proposition declared not carried, and the several persons having received the greatest number of votes for the offices set opposite their respective names, were declared elected to their said offices.

On motion of Ald. Lawrence, Resolved, that the Committee to whom was referred the proposition and communication from the Board of Cemetery Trustees, be instructed to confer with Mr. A. C. Van Raalte relative to the purchase of additional land for Cemetery purposes, and to report on same to the Council at a meeting to be held Monday, April 10, 1911, at 7:30 p. m.

Adjourned, until Monday, April 10, 1911, at 7:30 p. m.

RICHARD OVERWEG,

City Clerk.

The Committee on Poor reported, presenting the report of the Director of the Poor, stating that they had rendered temporary aid for the two weeks ending April 5, 1911, amounting to $288.65.

Filed.
The Committee on Public Buildings and Property, to whom was referred the request of the Board of Trade for permission to meet in the City Hall Building, reported, recommending that the petition be granted.

Adopted.
The Special Committee on the matter of payment of taxes twice a year, reported that under the present status of the Home Rule Law it is impossible, as a matter of law, for the city to make such change. It appears that the necessary legislation will be had during the present session permitting the same, but that it is still some time in the future, even if passed; that the change will necessitate considerable change in the charter relative to assessments, fiscal year, appropriation bill, etc., and an entire change, practically, in the financial system of the city; also the matter of expense will mean considerable to the city, on account of additional bills, additional expense of collection, etc.; further, that a large amount of money is taken from the business and manufacturing interests and held for practically six months with no use therefor, thus compelling such interests practically to borrow their own money; that the Committee does not deem it advisable at this time to attempt a change in the system of collection of taxes.

Accepted and filed.
The Committee on the matter of pavement from West 8th Street to the Graham & Morton dock, requested an extension of time.

Granted.

Fair Grounds As a Cemetery

This evening the council will meet in an adjourned session and will take up the proposition of purchasing the fair grounds as an available place for a cemetery. The News thinks that if the fair grounds can be purchased at a reasonable price that this is the proper thing to do. There is no denying of the fact that the fair grounds adjacent as it is to the old cemetery has been an eye-sore to those who have loved ones buried there and from that standpoint alone, we would favor the consummation of such a deal. Should the city acquire this property it could in due time with proper landscape gardening make it one of the finest cemetery plats in the state. It is a well known fact that in the old cemetery the driveways are so narrow that it is with difficulty that vehicles can enter. In fact in some instances graves have been despoiled in the attempt. These short comings could all be avoided in platting out a new grave yard.

From a business standpoint, there is no doubt that if the fair grounds were moved to a suitable place somewhere on the street car line that the attendance would be nearly doubled. The fair association is a local institution and its annual events are held for the benefit of the city. What is beneficial to the fair association is also beneficial to the city and in consummating this deal, provided a reasonable price is asked, it would be serving a double purpose in which the city would be solely benefited.

Easter Thoughts

No other day in the entire year carries with it more than Easter Christmas, with its holly, its festivities and its promise may to the casual observer be a token of greater things. Yet in Easter we have the calm realization of even more than was suggested by these prophecies. The victory over death resounds throughout the countless anthems of nature. The blossoms burst forth with renewed life; the birds sing as they sing at no other season. There is the gentle rush of leafage as impressive as that of the released streams. The promise of the new life is materialized throughout nature's realm.

The lily has come to be the flower of flowers, typical of the time. Its beauty, fragrance, stateliness and, above all, its purity render its place unquestioned. Yet there may be a deeper meaning in its life. Its home, where the highest development of the flower is attained, the Bermuda Islands, presents a sameness not conducive to variety in farming. But the natives have found that among the sands these marvels of snowy whiteness, before which the world bows in admiration, may be grown to perfection.

Is it not so in the human heart? There are lives which seem barren and good for nothing that blossom like the lily under. His beneficent sunshine and love. The air at Easter-time seems laden with the perfume of the blossoms which we have been told to consider. We may feast upon eggs, the emblem of a new life, join in the rabbit hunting frolics with the children and enter—it may be only by proxy—into the egg rolling sport on the lawn before the White House; but if we fail to secure a new glimpse of the higher life, to feel a new appreciation of the Divine love, the real Easter spirit is lacking.

Knocking the Knocker

The "knocker" is a person we all can well spare. He is known in every town and community even in Holland. Even from the beginning there were knockers and no doubt there will be until the day of days. In the beginning the Creator created the heavens and the earth. Later he created man and woman. Next the "knocker" butted in without an invitation. And he has been butting in ever since, just at the time when his presence is least desirable. He first appeared in the form of a serpent, and he has been appearing in the form of most everything from a grasshopper to a donkey ever since. When he can't find anything else to knock on, he grows about his wives cooking and eases himself by telling his children what good-for-nothing brats they are. He knocks on the church because there happens to be people almost as worthless as he is in it, and he knocks on the saloon-keeper, because perhaps, he can't get booze on credit. He knocks on the school, when, in some instances he has no children to send. He knocks on the postmaster because he fails to get a letter or paper just when he imagines he ought to. He knocks on one neighbor because he is successful and on another because he is unfortunate. He knocks on his town constantly and keeps a chunk of discouragement handy to throw at every public enterprise that comes along. He contributes nothing to the public welfare, yet is everlastingly nursing a sore spot against the world, because he feels he has not been treated properly. He knocks on his local paper, because it isn't as big as the Chicago Tribune, but roars long and loud when he is asked to pay up his subscription. Knocking is like smallpox; it's contagious. Most any man is likely to be guilty of the offense occasionally, but he ought to go out and kick himself everytime he errs in this way. Don't heed the knocker; turn a deaf ear to his tale of woe, lest you be repeating it. Knocking is an expensive pastime. It has destroyed friendship, broken up homes, changed the course or railways, blocked important legislation, depopulated cities, and played 'Old Nick' ever since the devil broke into the Garden of Eden and knocked the apple off the tree, 'whose mortal taste brought death to the world and all our woe.' If you have the 'knocking habit,' now is a good time to take it out and bury it so deep that forty tons of dynamite couldn't blow it out of its resting place. But if you must knock, turn your hammer on the tariff bill, Cannon, Roosevelt, Doctor Cook, or some other person, place or thing that is not likely to be affected by your thumps. Give your neighbor the glad hand and your town the glad word. The only way to make the world better is to get better yourself. The only way to make your town livelier is to step lively yourself. Get busy and you will forget the faults of others. The world is a pretty good place for those who make it so. Therefore, don't knock, unless it is to knock the 'stuffs' out of some chronic knocker." If he is of your size. If not pass him by with disdain.

The Campbells of Hope College, formerly the Choral Union, are about to close a most successful season of training and experience. They have been practicing strenuously during the entire winter, starting the early part of October, and now on the eve of their greatest concert, are taking on the finishing touches. They have undertaken to render 'Cedar-ridge-Taylor's Hiawatha, which is the most artistic and entertaining of all musical cycles. The director, Mr. Francis Campbell feels sure that this his latest effort up to date, will meet the approval of the most critical of all musical lovers. It has been the express purpose of the Lecture Course Management to keep this concert for the last number, feeling that such a musical treat would make a lasting impression on their audience.

The best Chicago talent has been secured to sing the leading solos. Two renowned soloists hail from the Hinshaw Conservatory of Music, Mr. F. Hughes and Mrs. J. A. Hinshaw. Mr. Hughes is a dramatic tenor of remarkable talent, and his repertoire includes all the standard oratorios, the best German and Italian arias, Scotch, Irish and modern ballads. He is accompanied by Mr. J. A. Hinshaw with a voice of beautiful soprano quality. Last but not least they have secured Prof. Chas. La Berge from the American Conservatory of Music. His wonderful reputation still holds good, needing no second introduction.

The Elizabeth Schuyler Hamilton Chapter of the D. A. R. will be entertained at the home of Mrs. C. E. Luscomb, 376 Pine street this afternoon instead of at the home of Mrs. O. P. Kramer. The change was made on account of the serious illness of Mr. Kramer's father.

Surrounded by his children, numerous relatives and friends, Holland's oldest city employe and perhaps the oldest employe in the state, James Westveer, collector of city water and light bills, Thursday celebrated his eightieth birthday. Ever since the city of Holland acquired the water and light plant 16 years ago, Westveer has been the man to make the rounds and collect from the patrons the money due the city. In storm and sunshine this octogenarian has been on the job and is still as serviceable as a man half his years. The ordinary observer would probably place his age at 50 because he is remarkably well preserved. In addition to his duties as water and light collector he also fills in an acceptable way, the office of postmaster over 200 guests were present. The rooms were decorated with ferns, vines and roses and the dressing table held a large tiffany basket of brides roses and bows of tulle.

Mr. and Mrs. Pelgrim are both well and favorably known. The bride is the only daughter of the president of Hope college, a graduate of that institution and of the Columbia Conservatory of Music. Mr. Pelgrim is a graduate of Hope college and of the New Brunswick Theological seminary and is making a good record in his chosen work.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Pelgrim will be at home in Jersey City where the groom is pastor of the Central Avenue Reformed church.

RECALLS OLD EVENTS

The following article is an interesting account of the trip made by John Nies of this city through the southern states in which he relates the story of his visit to old prisons, battlefields and cemeteries. It is told in Mr. Nies' own words and we print it in full. Mr. Nies returned to Holland after a long visit in the south.

According to promise, I herewith give you some details of my observations while traveling through the southern states.

When I arrived at Strawberry Plains, Knoxville and Asheville, Tennessee, and as I went further south I became more interested. When the train passed by Andersonville, Ga., where the bulk of the federal prisoners were kept during Feb. 1864 to April 1865, being particularly interested in that prison from the fact that one of my dear comrades, Gerrit Van Halteren whom I had ordered to guard the highway to keep us from being surprised by the confederates, while we were feeding our horses disappeared here. He went, and after the horses were fed, I started to recall him. After riding one-half mile I did not find him at his post and on my return to the camp, I found myself cut off by confederates. They jumped out of a piece of woods in front of me, telling me to surrender. Upon my refusal then all three shot at me. My comrade, Gerrit Van Halteren was never heard of since. The memory of the above incident was the reason why I felt so much interested in that prison yard. I wanted to see if I could find any record of him.

When I got off at Andersonville, a population of about 250, I met a man who is installed by the National Relief corps. He volunteered to get his buggy and show me all the particulars about the cemetery and also the confederate fortification which offer I readily accepted. When ready to leave, he insisted upon my taking supper with him. For all his services he charged me a very moderate fee.

The federal cemetery and stockade are on the opposite side of the village. The stockade consists of only 27 acres on which at one time 52,345 federal soldiers were imprisoned of which 13,900 were buried during the existence of the stockade. In the month of Aug. 1864, there were 31,693 of these 3,076 were buried during that month. The guide informed me, himself having been a prisoner there, that soldiers who were ailing and not expected to live were piled lengthwise on the wagon and buried with the dead. A small creek running along the fortification and through the stockade was polluted by the excretions from the confederate guards. The water became undrinkable; lamentations were sent to heaven. During a heavy thunderstorm a splendid spring of living water burst out of a red clay bank giving the prisoners relief. This spring is there this day being built up with marble slabs and called "Providence Spring."

For further investigation I obtained leave from the Government office to look over the records but could not find the name of Gerrit Van Halteren. Many graves were there marked unknown. Capt. Wirtz, commander of the Confederate guard, detailed a Federal soldier to record the dead, said soldier also kept a private record for himself, which he turned over to the general government. The cemetery has many a stately monument and is kept in splendid condition by the government.

When in North Carolina I took a trip to the Yankee cemetery, (that is what they called it there) a place by the name of Salisbury, which is also kept in first-class shape by the government.

In this cemetery soldiers are buried side by side, as at Andersonville. Each grave has a stone marker, the total number of 12,115, out of which only 90 are known. The public record also failed to disclose the name of Gerrit Van Halteren.

Don't fail to hear the last number of the Lecture Course April 21. It will be the best number on the course.

City Hall Is Formally Dedicated.

The new city hall was formally dedicated last Saturday afternoon in the presence of a large crowd of citizens, who had gathered at the River street entrance to attend the services. The program was opened with a short prayer by Rev. H. J. Veldman after which Mayor Henry Brusse made a few remarks on the character of the work that has been done during the building of the city hall and the kind of support the citizens of Holland have been giving it. After the Mayor's speech the Knickerbocker quartette furnished several selections of music. This was followed by a few remarks by Rev. R. L. Haan who paved the way for the address of the day by Hon. G. J. Diekema.

In his address, Mr. Diekema made a point of the fact that the erection of the city hall was a great aid in securing the appropriation for the new federal building which is soon to be erected on River St. After the address, Edwin A. Boyd architect formally presented the keys of the building. The audience then sang, "America" and the program was closed with a short prayer by Rev. E. J. Blekkink.

After the program nearly the entire audience went into the building to look it over.

MAD WOMAN BATTLES WITH DETROIT DOCTOR

USES DIRK IN FIERCE FIGHT FOR LIFE IN A BARRICADED ROOM.

Detroit, Mich.—Unarmed and battling for his life for an hour against a woman maniac who was slashing at him with a dirk in a barricaded room was the experience of City Physician Melody. Elizabeth Clark, aged 30 years, had suddenly become seized with a delusion that her life was threatened. She barricaded herself in her room and drove away all who approached with a revolver. Other occupants of the house notified the city physician's office, and Dr. Melody in an ambulance responded. With the aid of the ambulance driver he forced the door, only to be barred by an array of beds and chairs. Finally he got by them, too, only to find himself confined in a small room, with the maniac ready to attack. The woman had discarded her revolver for a knife. Dr. Melody seized her as she struck at him with it. Her strength was equal if not greater than his. Round and round the room they fought, the maniac jabbing at him. Only his agility and her wildness saved his life. Finally he managed to wrest the weapon from her, after which he subdued her and took her away in the ambulance.

WAS A PRISONER OF MYSTERY

Authorities Believe He is the Son of Hungarian Count—Carried Many Classical Books.

Trenton, N. J.—A letter received in German Valley, N. J., from Easton, Pa., indicates that a man who served two years in the New Jersey state penitentiary was none other than a son of Count Czerny, of Hungary. He never revealed his name, not even so much as to tell his attorney who he was defending. When arrested he carried two suit cases filled with books by Greek and Roman authors.

"John Doe," as the man was recorded, was found about two years ago in the belfry of a school house in German Valley. The bank at Califfon had been robbed not long before, and because a blowgun, soap and small quantity of nitro-glycerin were found in the belfry, it was surmised the prisoner, who refused to disclose his identity, had cracked the bank. When taken before a police justice in Morristown he said he knew nothing about the blowgun, soap and nitro. His only explanation was he had been tramping from Easton toward New York, and was directed to the belfry by a fellow vagabond.

He insisted another knight of the road had cracked the bank. Half a dozen indictments, including one charging bank burglary, were handed down, but "John Doe" was acquitted on every charge except that of carrying a concealed weapon—a pistol—on which he was sentenced.

Skunk Sits With Hen.

Shoals, Ind.—When John M. Sherrick, a farmer living near town, entered his henhouse he found that one nest was occupied by a hen and a skunk. The hen had been sitting for some time and the skunk evidently entered during the night and crawled into the nest with the hen. The hen had moved over to one side of the nest and had succeeded in keeping all but four eggs under her.

These four were missing, and it is supposed, were eaten by the skunk. The invader was promptly killed and the hen resumed her sedentary occupation.

Carries His Leg in Paper.

Greensburg, Pa.—With his evidence wrapped in a piece of paper, James P. Price, a justice of the peace in Latrobe, appeared in the common pleas court to ask damages for the breaking of his leg, alleged to be due to the carelessness of John Herman, a contractor. The leg was wrapped in a piece of paper, and the court was not in the least shocked at Squire Price's immodest display, for when the member was unwrapped it was shown to be an up-to-date wooden leg, for the breaking of which the plaintiff thinks he should have $50.

MOVING PICTURES BOON TO INSANE

WEEKLY SHOWS PROVE HELPFUL TO STATE WARDS IN KENTUCKY.

PATIENTS KEEP GOOD ORDER

Crime, Suicide and Violence Avoided in Selection of Films for Exhibition—Diversions Proves to Be Highly Beneficial to Inmates.

Hopkinsville, Ky.—A moving picture machine has recently been installed in the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane here. This asylum cares for 1,220 patients and among them are those with every conceivable mania.

Some are idiots pure with no minds at all. Others are very dangerous and their wits seem to have been sharpened by their affliction and their capacity for outwitting keepers and doing violence greatly increased. There is a middle class of irresponsibles, whose minds seem to come and go, but who need constant watching.

There are, too, those who are trusties and are allowed to go about the grounds, work the farm and go into town by themselves. But when the picture shows are given only one class is barred—idiots who have not sufficient mental strength to grasp the subjects and follow the movement. All the others go and everyone of them thoroughly enjoys the performances.

When the State Board of Control of Charitable Institutions and the asylum officials decided that a moving picture machine would be a good thing, they bought the largest and best on the market. They then contracted for the newest and highest class films and the show is equal to any, if not better, than those you pay money to see.

Of course, only the light and entertaining pictures are shown. Any suggestion of murder, crime, violence or suicide are shunned as a pestilence, for these would only aggravate the hallucinations of the demented audience rather than to lift them to more cheerful levels of thought.

The patients are taken from wards in columns of two and are seated on long benches running across the hall.

Patients Could Give Points to Many Audiences.

the men on one side of the room and the women on the other, the attendants of each ward sitting with their charges. The patients could give points to many audiences on how to keep order, for after being seated they never move from their places until the word is given.

Patients who can read the wording, descriptive or explanatory of pictures, as they are projected on the screen, have formed the habit of reading aloud so the less fortunate patients may understand, too. So from the first they not only keep up with what is being shown, but anticipate the movement of the play.

Both men and women seem to enter especially into the action of the love scenes. If they are funny, they laugh with the actors; if they are sentimental the audience takes on the mood and if the lovers are disappointed the audience grows sorrowful.

Recently an attack of Indians upon a defenseless settlement was shown; women and children were captured and taken off to the Indian camp and were about to be tortured when the men of the settlement, who had learned of the capture of their loved ones, and had mobilized, attacked the Indians, put them to rout and rescued their wives and children.

While the Indians were in the ascendancy and it seemed that death was to be meted out to the captives, the patients expressed their feelings by moans and muttered words.

But when the whites routed the Redskins and once more had their dear ones in their arms, the patients yelled and applauded.

No matter what the subject may be, the patients follow it closely. They applaud freely and always at the right time and in the right way, according to the sentiment being expressed.

Already it is believed that the moving picture machine will become a fixture in all of the modern equipped asylums.

OLD TESTAMENT TIMES BROOKLYN TABERNACLE BIBLE STUDIES

EASTER SUNDAY'S LESSON
11 Kings 11:1-20—April 16

"Blessed are they that keep his testimony, and that seek him with the whole heart."—Psalm 119:2.

JEZEBEL'S daughter, Athaliah, on the death of her husband, became Queen Dowager of the Kingdom of Judah, her son Ahaziah becoming King. In Oriental lands the King's mother is still the highest authority in the Kingdom, as, for instance, in China. This was the custom with the Jews. As Queen Dowager, Athaliah had exercised a powerful and baneful influence against the true God and His worship and in favor of Baal worship. Hers is not the only instance in which the intermarriage of the kings of Israel with the daughters of foreign kingdoms brought great injury. Her mother Jezebel was another notable illustration. And we remember that it was Solomon's foreign wives who ensnared him.

A proper recognition of the antitype, or spiritual significance of that item of Jewish law, should be observed by all and is applicable to Christians, who constitute, from the Divine standpoint, "a holy nation, a peculiar people." Christians are not to be unequally yoked with unbelievers. Christians are to come out from the world and be separate. This, however, does not apply to nominal Christians, but only to the spirit-begotten class, who have made a full consecration of themselves to the Lord. These are counselled to marry "only in the Lord"—only the consecrated. Those who disregard this Divine injunction endanger their own spiritual development, as well as their own happiness and the happiness of the worldly person with whom they become yoked.

Infant Joash secreted in the temple.

Murdering For Power

When King Ahaziah was slain by Jehu, his mother, the Queen Dowager, realized instantly that this meant her loss of rank and power—the power and honor and riches which her selfish, proud heart so loved. She realized that the moment her grandson ascended the throne she must vacate her position in favor of her daughter-in-law. Her selfish, proud heart resolved that on no account should this be. Rather, she would be a murderess. Forthwith she caused her grandchildren to be slain, except one, an infant, who was hidden by his aunt in a room used for the storage of sleeping mats, and, in our lesson, styled a bed-chamber. Subsequently, he was nursed until his seventh year, in one of the rooms connected with the old temple, which was in disuse during Queen Athaliah's reign, as she favored and upheld the worship of Baal.

One lesson for us here is the power of pride. We may well hope that many could not be influenced to become murderers, even with such inducements. But not many of us will ever have such a temptation either to grasp a throne or to retain hold of one already possessed.

Since we are not kings and queens and have not their temptations, let us note that the same principle of hardness of heart operates in the business world, in the social world and in the family. In the business world, it operates to the destruction of a rival concern. In the social world, it cuts rivals, prompts to misrepresentation, slander, etc. In the home, as between parents and children, brothers and sisters, it frequently means injustice. The correction for all this is a love of righteousness which will lead each to love and to obey the Golden Rule and, as nearly as possible, to comply with the Divine will, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and all thy mind and all thy being and all thy strength, and thy neighbor as thyself."

Crowning the Boy King

The young King was named Joash. He was kept in hiding six years and, in his seventh year, was crowned. Jehoguards were so disposed as to give every protection to the young King and leave the palace without protection. The ceremony passed off successfully. The Queen Dowager, hearing the shouts, "Long live the King!" came forth from the palace to the temple to investigate and, realizing the situation, cried, "Treason, treason!"

So it is that injustice sometimes becomes entrenched and fortified in human minds so that an attempt to establish righteousness is considered treason, rebellion, outrage. The lesson to us all is, "Keep thy heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life."—Prov. 4:23.

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER WHAT YOU SAW 35 YEARS AGO

Wild pigeons has been passing over the city on their journey north for several days past. Our sportsmen have not been as successful as usual in killing them; owing in the majority of cases to the fact that the birds were earlier risers than the hunters.

Mr. G. Van Schelven, accompanied by a party of twenty persons, left this city on Tuesday evening last, for Iowa. Several families had previously started for the same locality. In our next issue we shall give further information in regard to the prairie home chosen by the party.

WHAT YOU SAW 30 YEARS AGO

Our lighthousekeeper—Mr. M. Regenmorter was married on Wednesday last to Miss Jansje Kleyn, by Rev. D. Broek. Both of this city. We wish them a long and happy life.

Mrs. M. Markle will start an enterprise in this city, long needed—a laundry.

Carter Harrison is re-elected Mayor of Chicago by 8,000 majority.

The following is the result of the election in the Township of Olive: Supervisor—A. P. Stegenga. Clerk—J. H. Carey.

Treasurer—Joel M. Fellows. Com'r of Highways—John Owens. Justice of the Peace—C. Owens. Supt. of Schools—O. Trumble. School Inspector—C. Niveson.

The Temperance Caucus of Saturday night last, we think, will have to stand on record a long time as one of the finest little fiascos which ever transpired in this city. Bills were circulated calling such a caucus, but they did not state who called it. Mr. I. Fairbanks' law office was well filled however, with voters, anxious to do the best they knew how for their city. For some reason organization was delayed 55 minutes whereupon Mr. H. Baum proclaimed himself chairman. (A new way of doing business.) Prof. I. Bangs was elected chairman. The chair stated that it was not a prohibition caucus nor a red-ribbon caucus, but that everyone who was a real temperate consumer of his glass of beer or wine, was welcome to join in the deliberations. The chair appointed two tellers. A nomination was made and seconded to make a nomination for Mayor. Upon this Mr. G. Van Schelven took the floor and addressed the temperance men, advising them not to take any action—evidently knowing the feeling of a large majority present, and seeing certain defeat inevitable, he persuaded the temperance men, on pure temperance principals, to desist from action for their own honor's sake. Speeches followed by Prof. Chas. Scott, Mr. John A. Roost, and Rev. Terwilliger, after which an ominous silence reigned. It was evident that the best thing to do, was to adjourn, but those who came there to do temperance work, felt it (perhaps) a little too humiliating to make the motion. Consequently the writer made the motion, it was voted, and was decided by the chair. There remains only this—who were the instigators of this move?

The political feature of the election on Monday last was lost sight of for the time being by the report of a suicide during the forenoon. Upon inquiry we find the following to be the facts in the case: Early on Monday morning Mr. Jacob Louwis, aged 45 years, left his boarding house, with his axe on his shoulders, acting strangely. His brother was notified, who deemed it prudent to look for him. His relatives were aware of his feeble brain, and his mental deterioration, keeping them on the alert constantly. Finally his brother went to the river, near Butkau's slaughter house, where he found a hole chopped in the ice, and an axe and a hat lying in close proximity. He recognized both, and concluded that his brother had committed suicide. The alarm was given and upon search his body was brought to the surface. Coroner Finch was notified and an inquest was held forthwith. Messrs. A. Roos, P. A. Kleis, F. J. Schouten, L. Terbeek, J. A. Van Zoeren, en G. Terbeek were sworn in as jurors, who rendered a verdict which means substantially this, "that deceased was partially insane and of unsound mind, and had willfully drowned himself. Deceased leaves one sister and one brother, who will have to divide a cash estate of about $1,000, which he had saved up as a laborer."

There is a jam of logs in the Pere Marquette river, extending back 28 miles from Ladington. There will be difficulty in driving them, and it is feared some jobbers will have their cuts hung up. The jam is estimated to contain 25,000,000 feet.

Grand Rapids is to have two big fairs next fall, those of the Kent County and Western Michigan societies. Both are to be at the same time, beginning Sept. 14, and each society will spend $50,000 in fitting up its grounds. One location is north of the city, the other south, and each the same distance from the center. The Kent County society has held no fair for several years, leasing its grounds to the West Michigan instead. But last year the grounds were sold for $70,000, and as the two societies could not further agree on terms, each went its own way. Rivalry between them is expected to be of the liveliest sort.

Died in this city, Monday morning, after an illness of two weeks, Jacob Labots, aged 74 years. The deceased was one of the early settlers of the Holland Colony, coming here from Rotterdam, Netherlands, in 1847. His first employment was with Mr. H. D. Post, when the latter was engaged in the mercantile business; afterwards, and for a series of years, with the late A. Plugger, and recently with Mr. J. W. Bosman.

The delegation from this city to the Democratic County Convention numbered 17. They stood 16 to 1 in favor of silver. The one "gold bug" was our worthy contemporary across the street. Much punning was indulged in and enjoyed on the train, at the expense of our contemporary, but the richest feature of all must have been witnessed while the convention was in session. Says the G. H. Tribune: "An amusing incident of yesterday's Democratic county convention were the queer actions of M. G. Manting of Holland. Mr. Manting appeared as though he would like to be on the two sides—Hummer and Watson—both at the same time, and when the divisions of the house took place he looked badly puzzled. He seemed to move with considerable hesitation from one side to the other, but the Hummerites claimed him and his vote was recorded with theirs. Perhaps Mr. Manting is still wondering where he is at."

Postmaster C. De Keyzer has his ambition satisfied. Coming into office as he did just one year ago, while Holland is being swept onward into rank and prominence, he has closed the first year of his term with a financial exhibit of receipts which places his office on the list of cities entitled to "Free Delivery." As stated the other day the revenues of the Holland post office for the year closing March 31, foot up $10,182.25, and in due course of time it will rest with the people to make known their desire at the department whether they want free delivery or not, and for the department to fix the time when it shall take effect.

two years old he captured the third prize in the Michigan Derby in a field of sixteen starters.

Bert Tibbetts sentenced to life imprisonment at Jackson, States Mc Coy under arrest as one of the principals in the murder of Humphrey Jackman, this is the present status of the celebrated Georgetown murder mystery. The jury in the case of Bert Tibbetts went out at 8.50 o'clock last Friday evening after a fair and impartial charge by Judge Padgham. At ten o'clock it was announced that a verdict was reached.

The scene in the court room when the jury came in, was highly dramatic. Seated inside the rail was the prisoner, Bert Tibbetts, the center of a little family group, and the cynosure of every eye in the house. With him was his poor old one armed father John Tibbetts, of Hudsonville, his sister, Mrs. Fred Bartlett of Grand Rapids, who is a great favorite of Bert's, and the prisoner's sweetheart, Jennie Van Oost, a pleasant looking young lady, who has been near him throughout most of the trial.

Additional Locals

J. Car Payne of Pontiac has taken change of the local office of the Postal Telegraph Company in the place Miss Edna Donahue who has accepted a position with the same company in Detroit.

George Boyenga William Wilterdink, Fred Ollhof and Louis Brondyke have returned from a week trip taking in Detroit, Cleveland, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, London, Ont., and Windsor.

Hoyt G. Fort, who has been a member of the law firm of Diekema & Kollen, with which he has been associated for several months, has retired and will take up other lines of work. Daniel Ten Cate will become a member of the firm, and after April 15 it will be known as Diekema, Kollen & Ten Cate. Mr. Diekema will at once take up active practice.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Holland sugar company held Monday afternoon all the officers were re-elected. The following will be at the head of the company for the coming year: President, A. Visscher; vice president, H. Kremers; treasurer, G. W. Mokma; and secretary and manager, C. M. McLean.

The Classical Board of Benevolence of the Reformed Church showed a deficit of $403.11, according to the report of Arend Visser, treasurer. The board supports twenty students, most of whom attend Hope college, and derives its financial aid from collections taken in the Western churches. These have been urged to make good the shortage.

A special meeting of the Ottawa county board of supervisors has been called for next Tuesday. At that time the board will organize and elect a chairman for the coming year, and some action may also be taken toward the appointment of county road commissioners, who are necessary under the county road system just adopted by popular vote. The commissioners are appointed at first by the supervisors and later elected by the people.

A thirty bunch from Holland struck Grand Haven yesterday afternoon and started in to paint a live town a bright scarlet. The boys kept within the bounds of law and order, however, and there were no police fees to pay. They called upon a number of their friends and last night started out to see the town under the glare of the electric lights. Holland is supposed to be a dry town and the draft brew no doubt had its temptations for the visitors. No harm done and no headaches was the report this morning.—G. H. Tribune.

Representative Raudebaugh lost out on his bills to permit the shooting of dogs which stray away from their owners premises, while Representative Mc Bride is in the air on his bill providing that any city and township in the state where meat is not inspected by the federal government may appoint a meat inspector who shall receive 50 cent for each carcass inspected. It was amended several places and then killed, but the house refused to concur by a tie vote and Mc Bride now promises to reduce the fee to 25 cents and otherwise patch the measure up.

The court stenographers in four different judicial circuits get increases in salaries, unless the governor vetoes bills making the boosts. The senate Wednesday afternoon passed house bills giving the stenographers in the Thirty-sixth, Tenth, Twentieth and Seventeenth circuits increases. The latter is Kent county. The Twentieth includes Allegan and Ottawa counties.

The Central avenue paving proposition was amicably settled at a joint meeting of the property owners and common council last Friday night. The St. will have a mechanical mixed surface and will be paved from Eighth to Eighteenth street. Contractor Harry VanderVeen of Grand Rapids was awarded the job at $1.27 per square yard. Mr. VanderVeen is required to furnish a certified check for $3,000 to protect the city against the Warren Bros. patent, which will become the basis for a suit, as Warren Bros. claim the right to collect a royalty of 25 cents per yard wherever the mixture is used.

Herbert Foster, a young man twenty-two years old, claiming to come from Seattle, Wash., is in jail, charged with an unmentioned offense. Foster was arrested in his room on Franklin street by Deputy Sheriff John Klaver upon complaint of a Washington street business man, who had heard the story from a number of boys who came into his place. Foster came into town several days ago and engaged a room on Franklin street. It is alleged that several young boys were enticed to his room with criminal intent. The boys let out the story and Foster admitted his guilt. He was taken before Justice Wachs where he waived examination and was bound over to circuit court. In default of $1,000 bail he is held in jail.—G. H. Tribune.

Contract May Bring Trouble

Through the awarding of a contract for street paving to the Barber Asphalt Paving company, Holland will become involved in a paving litigation, the outcome of which will be awaited by many Michigan cities. Contractor Harry VanderVeen of Grand Rapids, who represents the Barber company, submitted figures on the job for paving the thoroughfare with mechanical mixture, upon which material the Warren Bros. claim to hold a patent and on which they claim the right to collect a royalty of 25 cents per yard.

Warren Bros. warned the city council in a telegram not to award the contract to any firm not having a license to use their mixture, as they would certainly bring suit, but the Barber company immediately put up a certified check for $3,000, so that in case of suit being brought it will be between the companies and the city can go ahead and complete the work.

The Barber company claims there is no difference between the mechanical mixture to be used by them and that under the patent and are anxious to test the case in the courts. Many cities contemplating paving with this mixture have resorted to other material. By awarding the contract to the Barber company the city saves $3,830 on the job.

Disappears

John L. Boer, for several terms City Clerk of Grand Rapids and 5th district supervisor of the 1910 federal census, has quit Grand Rapids and his present whereabouts are unknown.

In his case the game of politics proved costly. After he retired from office he engaged in several business enterprises, but did not prosper and became despondent under an accumulation of debts. Mr. Boer has not been seen about town for more than a week and it is stated that several days ago Mrs. Boer received a note from him, written in Chicago, stating that he was discouraged and that he was going to the west to begin anew. He did not name his probable destination. Boer has been one of the best known military men in Michigan and not long ago was appointed inspector of small arms of the second regiment. John is well known in Holland. Later reports are that John has joined the Mexican insurgents.

Still After That Court

The board of trade of Holland is active in the attempt to transfer part of the circuit court cases to the new Holland city hall. At a recent meeting the board passed resolutions asking Representative Charles H. McBride at Lansing all the support to give the bill now pending it requires for passage. Committees were appointed to see Mr. McBride and give him all of the assistance required in boosting the bill through. Holland merchants believe they are entitled to a portion of the court work, as rooms have been provided for it in the new city hall.

However, the rest of Ottawa county does not see exactly why any circuit court business should be transferred to Holland. In fact the majority of the people of Ottawa can see no reason whatever, why the handsome court house in this city should not be used for the purpose for which it was built. They have no desire to spend the bunch of extra money which would be necessitated by the change of cases to the court at Holland.

From all that can be learned the plan is not popular in Ottawa county, and most people can see nothing but a county seat war ahead if Holland gets the court.

Grand Haven should take steps toward putting this matter before the legislators in the proper light.—G. H. Tribune.

Hold Jubilee Meeting

In common with hundreds of churches throughout the United States the women's missionary societies of this city will hold a jubilee meeting commemorative of the organization of the first missionary club fifty years ago, in Hope church next Thursday afternoon and evening.

Addresses will be made by Mrs. F. O. Grannis, Mrs. Edward Niles and Mrs. Charles S. Dutton.

Mrs. C. V. R. Gilmore will preside at the evening service and addresses will be made by Rev. Henry J. Veldman and William J. Van Kersen. A feature of the program will be songs by Marion, Lois and Wells Thoms of Arabia, and by members of the Peeke and Pleters families of Japan. Brief addresses also will be made by missionaries dressed in native costume.

Mr. Morton of the Graham & Morton Transportation Co., sent a $50 check to C. Blom, the fire chief for the services rendered by the firemen at the burning of the Graham & Morton docks. He also wrote a letter expressing his appreciation of the prompt attention of the firemen. This money will go into the firemen's sick and accident fund which has been started among the local firemen.

Wins Oratorical Contest

Miss Francis Bosch representing the local high school in the sub-district oratorical contest at Muskegon last Friday evening, carried off the honors by a unanimous decision of the judges on delivery. The subject of her oration was "God In History" and her chances for victory in the two contests that lie ahead, the district and the state, are very good. The prospects are that the district contest will be held in Holland some time in May.

Three years ago Miss Bosch won the local declamation contest and last year she won first place in the district declamation contest and second in the state.

Changes Plea

Ira Dick who was arrested on a charge of assault and battery on the person of Early Van Etta and whose trial was set for today, changed his plea Monday and declared himself guilty of the charge. The court was lenient with him and he was let off with a fine of $1 and costs, amounting to $6.

"Hike" to Grand Haven

A novel stunt that of walking to Grand Haven was indulged in by a number of boys who are employed at the Holland Shoe factory. They are having a vacation on account of an inventory being taken and hit upon the idea as a means of passing a pleasant day. To add a little zest to the occasion it was agreed that the last four to reach Grand Haven were to pay the expenses of the trip. The eleven that started out were "Chink" Bell, John Enstrom, Peter Verschure, Gerrit Exo, Arie Green, Ward Phillips, Walter Bocks, John Plakke, Ike Hoodema, Bert Barnard, and Wm. De Weerd. The first four mentioned were first to finish.

Miss Billie Burke in "Suzanne"

Miss Billie Burke, who has just closed a long engagement at the Lyceum Theatre, New York, comes to the Powers Theatre on Thursday evening, April 20th with her latest comedy success, "Suzanne".

"Suzanne" is in adaptation of "Le Mariage de Mlle. Boulemane," a comedy that made a success in Brussels last March and another one in Paris last June. Suzanne is the name of the principal character—the part Miss Burke plays—and Charles Frohman thought it would sound better as a title in this country. It was written by Franz Fönson and Fernand Wicheler; its scenes are laid in Brussels; and its characters, with only two exceptions, are Belgians. C. Hadden Chambers, the well known English dramatist, has made the adaptation into English, but he has stuck closely to the original text and all the Belgian atmosphere of the comedy has been preserved, so that in English, as in French, it is a faithful picture of life in the Belgian capital.

Old Boulemane is a representative citizen of Brussels—of his class. He's a dealer in bottled beer and properous. His wife has social ambitions. They both want their pretty daughter, Suzanne, to make a good marriage. According to custom, they have picked out a husband for her, the son of a neighbor. Suzanne has consented to the betrothal because she is a dutiful daughter and wants to please her parents. Besides she has never met a young man she liked better.

Then a young Parisian comes along. His father has sent him to Boulemane to learn the business. He's a nice boy—much nicer than the young Belgian. But the Belgians think he is "stuck up" even old Boulemane can't quite make him out. So it is rather hard for him and Suzanne's sympathy is aroused. She begins to like him and ends by liking him a whole lot. But there's her betrothal and her parents whom she doesn't want to displease. Plenty of obstacles in the way of true love and the play shows how she and the young Parisian overcome them.

Suzanne is a very different character from any of those Miss Burke has already played, but she's a sweet winsome, innocent girl and Miss Burke impersonates her charmingly. She is well supported by Julian L'Estrange, G. W. Anson, Conway Tearle, Harry Harwood, Lunsden Hare, Rosa Rand and Alison Skipworth.

Preceding "Suzanne", Miss Burke assisted by Mr. Hare will appear in "The Philosopher in the Apple Orchard", a charming little play founded on one of Anthony's Hope's delightful short stories with which most readers are familiar.

To Test Tinned Foods.

An infallible test for tinned fruit or vegetables of any kind is to open and plunge into the contents a very bright steel knife. Keep it there a few minutes, and if copper is present, even in the minutest proportions, it will be visibly deposited on the blade.

This will be the first opportunity to learn the greatest science in the world for the effectual cure of all chronic diseases which has ever been offered. Enroll now and get in the first class. Only a limited number of students will be admitted at any one time.

The course will be a thorough one and when completed will entitle those who successfully pass the examinations to a diploma. If possessed of superior ability you will be able to get through quickly without being kept back as would necessarily be the case were the classes larger.

The following is a sample of what my patients have to say about the cures I am effecting:

Grand Rapids, March 1, 1911

To Whom it May Concern:

I have suffered from lumbago for fully twenty years. It first attacked me when I was on the farm and came, no doubt, as the result of hard work and exposure. Later rheumatism was added to this and other complications resulting in a complete breakdown so that I had to leave the farm and engage in indoor work and work which was much lighter. But for eight years prior to taking treatments from Dr. Lofquist I was a constant sufferer, unable to work from one to three weeks out of every month. My head ached incessantly, so much so as to effect my eyesight and memory. Often I would forget even the street I lived on, and my limbs seemed to have no strength nor had I any appetite. My present weight is 162 pounds, but then I was so emaciated as to weigh only 134 pounds.

I went to many physicians and took piles of medicine, but the best of it only gave me temporary relief. Knowing of the great cure my wife had experienced at his hands and persuaded by others who have been healed by Dr. Lofquist, I was led to give him a trial commencing last July. My head was aching terribly at the time and had been for weeks. It would seem as though it would split open and I was desperate on account of it. Few will believe me, I know, when I say the first treatment he gave me took that all away. It worked like magic. Instantaneously, almost, I felt relief and have not been bothered from that source since. Soon the pain left my limbs as I continued to take treatments from him. Oh, how they had ached previously. Why, I could scarcely stand upon them or do any work. I would bathe the calves in alcohol and liniment, but to no avail. Dr. Lofquist took the ache, though, out of them and pain, and infused into them strength and vigor and now they are all right and my general health is excellent. I am, indeed, physically, all O. K., and the full credit for it must be given to Dr. Lofquist. My wife and I feel exceedingly grateful to him for the wonderful cures we have each experienced at his hands. We were both physically down and out, almost completely, and now we are enjoying life and health once more and have no other doctor but him to thank for it.
