COPY BEING PREPARED FOR NEW DIRECTORY

ALL NUMBERS OF TELEPHONES ARE TO BE CHANGED

Manager William Orr of the Citizens Telephone Co. of this city is revising the copy for a new directory to be gotten out in the very near future, and in a circular letter to its patrons relative to the change of number has the following to say:

For the purpose of establishing uniformity in handling our Automatic Exchanges, all numbers in the 1000 group will be changed to 5000—thus if your number is 1001 it will be 5001; 1002, 5002, etc.

This change will occur in the issue of the new directory, copy for which is now being prepared.

Yours truly,
Citizens Telephone Co.

MASONS TO GIVE A FISH DINNER

INFORMAL OPENING OF MASONIC TEMPLE TO BE HELD APRIL 11

Unity Lodge F. & A. M. will give its third annual fish dinner on the evening of April 11 at 6:45 P. M. sharp. This will be considered an informal opening of the beautiful new temple located near Centennial Park.

Bill Murphy is noted for his fish dinners, and the one on Wednesday evening, April 11, will be no exception to the rule.

The Masons know how to entertain and the Ottawa Beach Irishman knows how to fry fish, so with brain food and oratory mixed this ought to be a "bang-up" affair.

STATE'S CONTRACTORS HAVE THEIR EYES ON HOLLAND

SOME PROPERTY OWNERS WERE AGAINST PAVING CENTRAL FROM 5TH TO 6TH

Holland's whole paving program went through Wednesday evening by a vote of the council after objections had been heard from property owners affected. The only two aldermen who voted against the program were Prins and Drinkwater. These two were not opposed to the paving program as a whole but they objected to the paving of Central avenue from Fifth to Sixth streets.

It was this single block that aroused controversy, no objection having been filed by the property owners along any other street. A number of the property owners were present, and Neil Sandy was their spokesman. He declared that the street was still in fairly good condition and that the property owners would like to have that block exempted from the paving program.

C. Vander Meulen, appearing for the DePree Company, asked that the block be paved. He pointed out that the company was a large taxpayer and that it moreover paid out some $200,000 in wages annually which money was spent in Holland. Hence, he said, the company has a right to be heard on this question, and the company would very much like to have the street paved. While admitting that the block was not yet in very poor condition, he said, the traffic was heavy on it and the condition of the street would soon be bad.

Simon De Groot, speaking for his mother who lives at the very end of the block, also petitioned for paving. He declared that he did not want to see the block made a dead end. He would have to pay the assessment himself for his mother's property, he said, but he wanted the street paved and would cheerfully pay the price.

Ald. Drinkwater, who lives on the same street, opposed paving, and when the vote came he voted against it. But the whole program went thru, including the disputed block.

The work of putting up the sign was completed Thursday.

The Friar society held a meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Brusse Wednesday evening and a well prepared program was rendered. The society has rented the Odd Fellows hall and will meet the first Wednesday in each month. Several new members were signed up at last night's meeting.

DR. NYKERK OF HOPE COLLEGE IS STAR PERFORMER

MIXES UP AUTOMOBILE WITH THE SAN TOX PLANT

Dr. Nykerk, the dean of Hope College, a man who has put more oratory on earth than any man in Michigan, and the man who has given Holland a Lecture Course, second to none, has become a Star performer, all within a few minutes.

"Prof." formerly drove a Dort, but it seems that he had in mind the great poetical genius "Emerson" and "hitched his wagon to a Star."

One day he hied himself hither, and purchased one of Durant's new Stars at the Wolverine and happily rolled forth to try it out.

All went well until Central avenue was reached, and the doctor had to put on brakes quickly. It seems that the brakes on the Dort is where the accelerator is on the Star and as Dr. Nykerk had to make a sudden stop he jammed his patent leathers on the supposed brake and the car became a shooting Star, which the good doctor to his surprise could not manage like he would an obstreperous pupil. The result was a head-long plunge into one of the San-Tox buildings.

What Con DePree's power and perfume plant didn't do to the Star bumper isn't worth mentioning, but then lucky the bumper got it, and the Star still shines brightly without a scratch, and the luckiest thing of all is that we have the good doctor still with us for which we are duly thankful.

VOLCANOES ARE A BLESSING TO DUTCH INDIES, MISSIONARY SAYS

ZWEMER ASSERTS LAVA IS COLLECTED AND SOLD—RICE CONSIDERED A SACRED PRODUCT

Traditional conceptions of the destructive powers of active volcanoes were shattered last night by the Rev. Samuel M. Zwemer, D. D. LL.D., missionary to Mohammedan countries, in a lecture in Ryerson library, at Grand Rapids on "The Dutch East Indies."

"Far from being a curse on these Pacific islands they are regarded as a blessing," he declared, "and the people hail their periods of eruption with delight. Instead of spouting ashes and molten lava to destroy the value of the land and ruin crops, they erupt an ash-rich in phosphates and other fertilizers which are of immense value and increase the land many times in productivity."

"In fact the lava and ashes which are erupted are actually collected and sold throughout the islands as fertilizer to be applied on the land."

Rev. Zwemer told an interesting story of East Indian rice growing, which grain is the staple food of that region.

"The growing rice crop is given the most careful attention," he said, "and when harvested is gathered like we pick flowers. Every tiny stalk is most carefully guarded from injury, and every kernel is protected. The East Indians consider rice as sacred, and when harvest time comes it is the occasion for great family festivals. The contrast between their method and our own careless matter-of-fact grain harvesting is striking."

The speaker told how Batik, that popular designed cloth imported from the East Indies is made. He also discussed tobacco culture, cane sugar manufacture, mining, the rubber industry, and copra gathering. He commented on the striking effect which the introduction of Christianity has had on what were but a short time ago, savage isles.—G. R. Herald.

OLIVE TOWNSHIP PLACED TWO TICKETS IN THE FIELD

OLIVE TOWNSHIP has no particular motto or name under which township officers are nominated.

No Republican, Democrat, Union tickets, etc., but simply ticket No. 1 and No. 2.

In this instance ticket No. 1 was nominated with the exception of highway commissioner, when Geo. Plaggenars on ticket No. 2 was elected over Gerrit Van Gelderen of ticket No. 1, by a majority of approximately 50.

The total vote in the two precincts was 191 in No. 1, and 72 in No. 2. The newly elected officers follow below: Philip Vinkemulder, supervisor; Markus Vinkemulder, clerk; Geo. Plaggenars, highway commissioner; Jacob F. Kraal, treasurer; Gerrit Lievens, Justice; John Schrieber, Board of Review.

Prosecutor Miles recently "bumped up" against a peculiar case in circuit court where a man from Grand Haven by the name of Nansba was convicted on a liquor charge. Apparently the man thought that Lake Michigan was the ocean, for he was caught on the steamer A'abama while it was going from Muskegon to Milwaukee, and he stated that he was beyond the three mile limit when he passed the liquor about. He then put in his defense that he came from Muskegon instead of Grand Haven, and the Ottawa county prosecutor had no jurisdiction over the territory. Mr. Miles knew different however as the federal law reads in similar case that either the prosecutor or ever as the federal law reads that in similar case either the prosecutor in Muskegon or Ottawa county could have prosecuted the case, and there is no three mile limit in Lake Michigan, and Lake Michigan is "dry" all over, the man was convicted.

ONE BLOCK IN PAVING PROGRAM CAUSES DEBATE

MANY OF THEM GETTING READY TO BID ON THIS CITY'S BIG PAVING JOB

"Every road contractor in the state has his eye on Holland just now," according to Mr. Olsen of the Willite company who was in Holland yesterday and who attended the meeting of the council last night. He made the statement that when the question of advertising for bids for Holland's big paving program came up, these various paving projects will be let as a single job and as such it will be one of the biggest paving jobs to be let in a single city anywhere in Michigan. By treating it as a single job Holland will get the advantage that always goes with quantity production. It will mean smaller overhead expenses and the property owners along the streets to be paved will get the benefit of that in a lower price per foot of paving.

The council decided to advertise for bids not only in the local papers but in one or two paving magazines that are subscribed for by most contractors and also in the Grand Rapids Press. In this way it is hoped to reach contractors in a wide radius and to arouse a great deal of competition among the contractors to make their bids as low as possible.

CHICAGO'S WATER STEALING IS A MYTH

GOVERNMENT ENGINEER WHO VISITED HOLLAND SUBSTANTI-

A few weeks ago Engineer Goddard of the Grand Rapids office came to Holland to discuss with a special committee Holland's harbor plans for the future, and in the course of conversation the stealing of water by the City of Chicago via the drainage canal was also a topic of conversation.

To the surprise of the committee, Mr. Goddard pulled out a large map, showing the Lake Michigan level from year to year since 1870.

The government has accurate mechanical devices used to ascertain all the lake levels in the Great Lake region, and this record is especially interesting. The map shows that the "seven year up and seven year down" in Lake levels is all a myth, for the map shows that while there have been periods of gradual rising during seven years, from which the theory possibly came, the map also shows that there has been a rise and a recession in two, three and five years, so that phenomenon is exploded.

In 1899 the water thief, namely the drainage canal started to suck the water from Lake Michigan, and for some years no perceptible change in the level was found. Instead the lake level went up several feet, and again receded several feet.

For instance, if the drainage canal was instrumental in pumping Lake Michigan dry, why did Lake Michigan lay away the Lake Michigan cement water-front at Macatawa Park and go so high as to undermine the bluffs at the local resort and precipitate cottages into the Lake below?

This happened ten years after the drainage canal was built.

And why only a few years afterward is this same spot left high and dry even in a storm?

The map shows another peculiar feature. In 1873 when all was woods, when the rain-fall was heavy and when Michigan was still considerable of a swamp district and Lake Michigan had added feeders in the form of little brooks and streams which civilization has eliminated in many instances, the lake level according to the map was as low as it is today and nearly as low as it was two years ago at its lowest level. This was before the drainage canal was ever dreamed of.

When Engineer Goddard was asked what the government really thought of the drainage canal stealing the water, he stated that if Lake Michigan had been lowered at all by the drainage canal, the total amount of water skimmed off from the top since 1899 was between three and four inches, according to the most expert calculation, and this lowering could have no possible effect or in anyway damage shipping.

Mr. Goddard stated that the lowering of the two or three feet as has been reported from time to time by different localities during the year could not possibly be, although there might have been some lowering of maybe a foot or more owing to natural causes, but these same natural causes might raise the lake level two or three feet, as it did five years ago.

Anyway, after the map was thoroughly explained, and it was indeed educational, the Holland committee who met with Mr. Goddard were not very "angry" at Chicago for stealing three inches of water from Holland's gateway since 1899.

DU MEZ BROS. DRY GOODS EMPORIUM 25 YEARS OLD

From a humble beginning Du Mez Bros. who now conduct the beautiful three story dry goods emporium, began business in Holland 25 years ago and from a single small store near where they are now located, they have found it necessary during the past 25 years to build for themselves a quadruple store, and use all four floors.

It is therefore an auspicious occasion to commemorate their 25th birthday anniversary with a tremendous two days sale when they are to give their customers a bargain feast.

This sale has been planned for next Thursday and Friday, April 12 and 13.

TAKES OPTION ON BOONE PROPERTY FOR ARMORY

CITY MAKES TENTATIVE PLANS TO BUY TWO LOTS CORNER 9TH AND CENTRAL

The city of Holland Wednesday night took an option on the Boone property on the corner of Central Avenue and Ninth street for the purpose of using it as a site for Holland's new armory. The property includes 165 frontage on Ninth street and 132 feet frontage on Central avenue. The purchase price is $15,000. The site contains two lots and it has not been decided, in case the property is actually purchased, whether the whole of it will be used for armory purposes or whether the city will dispose of a part of it. The option was taken on the two lots because a part of the property is not for sale; it has to be bought as a whole or not at all.

Mr. Stephan personally took an option on the property until April 9, and last night he asked the aldermen to approve his action and to make the option official. This was done by a unanimous vote of the aldermen.

Today Mayor Stephan and City Attorney Mc Bride went to Lansing to see if the legislature is to make the appropriation at this session that will make the money available to start building on the new armory this year. The mayor and city attorney will do all they can to push the appropriation through so that there need be no delay in the erection of the armory. The lease of the National Guard will be out in a year and when that time comes the council wants to have the new armory ready for them to occupy.

If assurances are forthcoming that the armory can be built this year, then the council will undoubtedly at its next meeting take the necessary steps for the purchase of the site in accordance with the terms of the option.

"It is the best site for an armory in the city," said Mayor Stephan. "This armory will be used for all kinds of political and other public meetings and should be near the business center. We have never been afraid to spend all the money that is necessary for our children, as witness our liberality to the schools, and now we should not be afraid to spend a relatively small sum for the benefit of the grownups, because everybody will get the benefit of the new armory."

Mayor Stephan advised all the aldermen and all citizens to go and attend a drill night of the National Guard, declaring that he had done so and that it had been a revelation to him. "It is the real thing," he declared, "and no boys' play." And some of the aldermen who had been at a drill backed up the statement.

H. O. H. TO HOLD THEIR SEMI-ANNUAL MEETING

Friday evening, April 6th 1923, the H. O. H. will hold their semi-annual meeting in the Odd Fellow Hall. The program committee has been very fortunate in securing Hon. G. J. Diekema as speaker for the evening. The semi annual report will be brought before the meeting and arrangements for the annual picnic will take place at this time. Every member is urged to be present. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

HOLLAND OPPOSES TAXING OF CITY OWNED UTILITIES

ALDERMEN PASS STRONG RESOLUTION AGAINST PROPOSED BILL

The city of Holland is going to make a strong fight against a bill introduced in the legislature providing for the taxation of municipally owned public utilities. This bill is now up for consideration and Mayor Stephan and City Attorney McBride went to Lansing this morning to do what they can to secure its defeat. The matter was called to the attention of the aldermen Wednesday evening by the legislative committee of the League of Michigan Municipalities, and Holland was asked as a party that is vitally interested to pass a resolution opposing the proposed measure.

The aldermen by a unanimous vote passed a strong resolution to this effect. That was all that was asked for by the legislative committee but the Holland city officials feel so strongly on the matter that it was decided to do more. Mayor Stephan and City Attorney McBride were scheduled to go to Lansing on another matter and so it was decided that they should take the resolution in person to the state capitol and that they should personally take such steps as the occasion might demand to help defeat the bill. They were instructed by the council to see the legislators from Ottawa county and to do whatever else was necessary to get the necessary results.

The bill if passed would hit Holland hard because of its successful water and light plant which is municipally owned. It was pointed out that this bill, if it should become a law, would be a check on municipal enterprise of the kind that has made Holland's plant famous throughout the country. Holland has been so successful with its public utility that it does not want to discourage other cities from trying to make the same success, and the proposed bill would operate in that way it was declared.

Residents around Waukazoo and those living near the Big Bayou report that thousands of geese are seen along the shore early in the morning, many remaining most of the day. Some of the geese are judged by the hunters as weighing from ten to twelve pounds. Nimrods who feast their eyes upon them look longingly but don't shoot. The geese are rather tame, possibly they have read the game laws telling that the season on "honkers" is closed.

STRANGER WORKS SLICK GAME TO GET SOME READY CASH

Edward Kammeraad, living on the lake shore a few miles from Holland, and his brother Jack Kammeraad, conducting a store on Wealthy avenue in Grand Rapids, together with several other relatives were made the victims of a slick confidence man Friday, and Saturday they were looking for the stranger with blood in their eyes and determined to land him behind the bars, if possible.

The stranger, a plausible Hollander, rushed into Jack Kammeraad's store Friday, out of breath and excited. "Have you got a brother living on the lake shore near Holland?" was his first question, and when he was confirmed in this he offered the information that the brother, Edward Kammeraad, had bought a new pair of horses and had been kicked in the stomach and head. The stranger, who gave his name as Henry Baker and who claimed to be an intimate friend and neighbor of the injured man, said that Edward Kammeraad was dying and if the relatives wished to see him alive they had better hurry to his bedside.

Instantly everything was excitement. Jack Kammeraad got busy on the telephone and notified the other relatives in Grand Rapids. The man made haste to board a car for Holland.

At the last minute the smooth "Henry Baker" exclaimed that in his excitement he had left his money at home and so was practically broke. He said he was on his way to Detroit to meet his parents who were coming here from the Netherlands. He was in great distress on account of the lack of money. The upshot was that Jack Kammeraad gave him a loan of ten dollars to tide him over.

Then Kammeraad hurried to Holland and was met at the door by the surprised brother who was well and happy as ever. Later in the evening other relatives came through the terrific storm from Grand Rapids only to be met with the same surprise. Detectives have been put on the case and suspicion points to a certain person as yet unnamed.

FARM HOME BURNS WHILE FAMILY IS IN HOLLAND

Anson Paris, mail carrier on rural route No. 5, Holland, Saturday afternoon, discovered smoke issuing from the farm residence of Herman Prins, near this city, and upon investigation found the interior of the building aflame. None of the Prins family was at home at the time and efforts of Paris and neighbors to extinguish the blaze were unsuccessful and the house was destroyed. Paris was burned about the hands while saving some furniture.

The house was the old homestead of the late Klaas Prins and is located one half mile south and then one half mile east of the city. The members of the family were notified of the fire while they were in Holland, and they hurried home but arrived too late to do anything. Neighbors had carried out practically all the furniture from the downstairs rooms and some of them came near being seriously injured while removing the piano to a place of safety.

Everything that was in the upstairs rooms was destroyed, including all the clothing of the members of the family except the clothes they wore at the time of the fire. Everything in the basement was also destroyed, including 40 bushels of potatoes and the family's supply of coal. The house was built 25 years ago and was partly covered by insurance.

FIREMAN NOT MUCH CONCERNED OVER FIRE

Joe Ten Brink, driver of one of the large pumper trucks of No. 2, drove to his own fire Friday morning when an alarm was turned in for a blaze on the roof.

Joe is generally home for breakfast at 7 o'clock after all night at the engine house and when he saw the blaze on top of his own home, he calmly went into the house, and sat down to his breakfast, while the other fire laddies put out the chemicals and soon had the fire out.

Joe is not only a good fireman but a wonderful driver as well, but he wasn't going to have a "piping" hot breakfast on a cold morning spilt when there were plenty of firemen near to put it out quickly.

SUNKEN SAWLOG LEADS TO AN EX- PENSIVE LAWSUIT

The sawlog is the property of Capt. Brittain.

Capt. Wilson may collect, pay for salvage, storage, etc.

So a jury decided in Justice Simonson's court Saturday, after hearing the evidence and the oratory of Lawyer Hoffman for Brittain and Lawyer Gardner for Wilson.

So when Captain Brittain pays the storage bill he may have the log sawed up into rather high priced lumber. The innocent log, forgotten and un-mourned, for years had rested in quiet oblivion and the equally quiet mud on the bottom of Kalamazoo river until resurrected in dredging operations last summer.

The dredgers had no use for a log so they turned their catch over to Captain Wilson, on condition that he get it ashore and keep it there.

Captain Brittain sauntering jauntily by, caught the trend, and at once set up a claim that the log was a maverick escaped years ago from the old Brittain ship yard.

Followed months of jockeying for tactical advantage by the captains two. Then the lawsuit and the decision. Puck said it—Saugatuck Commercial Record.

One of the biggest business deals in Saugatuck for years was completed this week when Edson Crow purchased from Ivan Arenda the land, building and business of the Arenda hotel and restaurant. The consideration is said to be $18,000. Mr. Crow will take possession at once.

HAS VOLUME PRINTED NEARLY 300 YEARS AGO

B. Steketee is the owner of what is perhaps one of the oldest books in the city. The volume, which is a very old one, containing many hundreds of pages of old Dutch type with two generous columns to each large page, is a church history including the arguments of Johannes Utenbogaert at the Synod of Dort, held in 1618. The book was written by Jacobus Trigland, professor of theology at Leyden, and it was printed by Adriaen Wyn-gaerden, of Leyden. The date of publication is uncertain because of the peculiar type in which it is printed, but experts to whom Mr. Steketee has submitted the question believe that the book was printed in 1651, which would make the volume 272 years old.

The book was presented to Mr. B. Steketee about twenty years ago by his aunt, Mrs. Martha Korelse, nee Steketee, who lived for many years in Graafschap. The volume has been handed down in the Steketee family for many generations in the Netherlands, and Mrs. Korelse brought it with her when she came to America.

JOHN BOONE BUYS FINE RESORT PROPERTY

John Boone has just returned from Chicago where he has closed a deal with R. C. Dawes for the Daves property on the north shore of Black Lake just beyond Oaklawn Park. The property is one of the most desirable locations on the north side of the lake and it contains 12 acres, some of it beautiful woods.

There are three cottages on the property. The main one of the three Mr. Boone will remodel and convert into his permanent home, while the other two will be put up for sale.

TWO YOUNG MEN ES- CAPE FROM THE REFORMATORY

Officer O'Connor who generally has a midnight beat and makes the depot at about that time saw two young chaps in the blind baggage of No. 1, heading for Chicago. He took them into custody and when brought before Chief Van Ry they admitted that they had escaped from the Michigan Reformatory three weeks ago.

Both boys are 17 years old and admit breaking into cottages around Petoskey, in fact some of the clothing they wore answered the description of some of the stolen goods taken at the Northern summer resorts.

The boys also carried with them two large bottles of wine which they claim to have stolen from a farmer near Grand Rapids.

Chief Van Ry notified Lansing and officers were here Saturday to take the boys back.

USE NEW MEHTODS TO SPRAY FRUIT TREES IN FENVILLE

Orchardists in Allegan county near Fennville are using a new method of spraying which brings unusual results and the method is called the spreader's spraying system and was introduced by H. B. Braine of Fennville, graduate of M. A. C.

Thus far the only objections to the use of spreaders have come from the housewives at cherry-canning time. The last spray of cherries comes as the fruit is about half grown and if a spreader is used with it very often some of the spray still adheres to the fruit at harvest time.

More uniform coloring of apples is obtainable through the use of the spreaders, Mr. Crane asserts.

Relative to the system Mr. Crane has the following to say: "It has been demonstrated here, that through the use of certain spreaders, the danger of the spray burning the foliage is lessened. It spreads the spray into a film over the fruit and foliage and its adhesive properties make it stick even through heavy rain-storms. The danger of trouble through chemical reaction between lime sulphur and arsenate of lead solutions also is greatly reduced."

ADVOCATES CHURCH PAYING ITS TAXES

That there are more reasons for taxation than exemption of church property is the conclusion reached by the Rev. Seth Vanderwerf of this city, a field secretary of the board of domestic missions, in a paper read Tuesday afternoon at the consistorial union of the classis of Holland on the question "Is it right that church property be exempt from taxation?"

Mr. Vanderwerf advocated as his reasons in favor of taxation:

1. It may be argued that the financial help is not as great as would appear on the surface, for all exemptions mean a higher rate of tax for the rest of the taxpayers.

2. Why should a taxpayer be penalized by way of increase in taxes because a church in his town maintains in addition to its church building, a school, a home or pastor's residence?

3. Why should the state indirectly contribute to the support of the church by a tax exemption? In countries where a state church still prevails and the church receives support from the state for the salaries of its ministers, conditions are entirely different. But we, the members of Free Reformed churches and citizens of America do not adhere to the idea that the state has any influence or authority in church matters.

4. Finally, if each church is considered as an institution to carry on its spiritual business and make propaganda for its special religious and moral tenets, why should not each church pay for the protection and opportunities and privileges it enjoys in the pursuit of its program just like any other corporation?

By order of City manager Taylor all motorbuses operating out of Grand Haven are to park on First-st. while waiting to leave. This measure was adopted after it was shown that the big busses seriously interfered with traffic when parked on Washington or Water-st.

NEW LAW FIRM BE- GINS CAREER MONDAY

A new law firm, the members of which hope to make successful business careers for themselves, started in Holland Monday when Clarence Lokker and Jay Den Herder hung out their shingle at 42 East 8th street, in the Visscher building. The name of the new firm is Lokker & Den Herder. Mr. Lokker, who has been connected with the firm of Diekema, Kol-len & TenCate, has severed his connection with that concern, and Mr. Den Herder, who was the law partner of T. N. Robinson, has left that firm to organize the new partnership.

The two young men began work under the new auspices Monday, moving their law libraries to the new offices and getting settled for hard work. Their telephone number is 1016 and they are ready to go after business in Holland and throughout this section with all the vigor of youth and with enthusiasm and high hopes based on five years of experiences in other law firms.

The Grand Haven Tribune gives a detailed story of a business expansion of a former Holland man, namely J. W. Bosman, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Bosman of Holland. The Tribune says the following:

Bosman's Dry Cleaning Establishment is now comfortably settled in the new quarters, No. 14 South 2nd street. J. W. Bosman, the proprietor recently purchased a building known as the Haines building on South 2nd street, and the structure has been completely remodeled to suit the purposes of Mr. Bosman's business. An addition has been built at the rear of the structure to accommodate the additional machinery and equipment which he is installing, and the proprietor declares that when the equipment now enroute has been installed his establishment will be the most complete dry cleaning and pressing establishment to be found in the state.

"Among the new equipment now installed is a Bowser continuous clarifer which is the most modern piece of special machinery to be purchased anywhere. More equipment will arrive within a few days. The equipment with which Mr. Bosman operated at his former quarters on Washington street was moved to the new location in record time. It is now set up and ready for business without any interruption in service. With the additional machinery and the better arrangement of the equipment on hand in the new quarters this establishment is better than ever able to render the most efficient service in cleaning and pressing.

"The newly purchased building will prove an ideal location for the establishment. It is situated at one of the best points in the downtown district. The interior has been brightened up by complete redecoration and many alterations and improvements have been made.

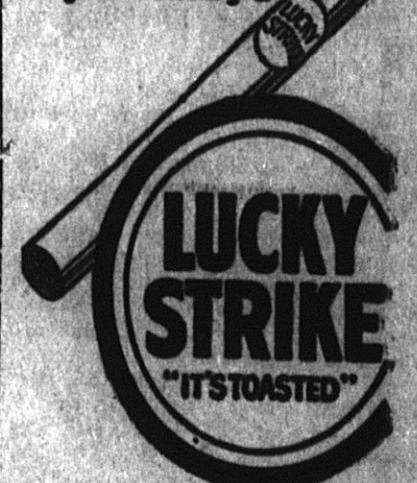

"The entire lower floor and basement will be devoted to Mr. Bosman's business. The drying rooms, cleaning room, pressing room, spot room and front office are all conveniently arranged and attractive in appearance. The pleasant flat on the second floor has also had some alterations to make it more convenient. Mr. Bosman's family have already moved to their new quarters.

"More improvements are planned by the owner of the building in the near future, which will make it one of the most convenient business buildings in the downtown section and well in keeping with the rapid growth of the city."

A mail carrier had left a parcel post package on the mail box of Mrs. Ida Horning, living on West 8th St., containing an $8 pair of shoes. Apparently a sneak thief took the parcel which contained other things and returned the package very shortly afterward with everything but the shoes. A passerby had picked up the package in the neighborhood and set it on the first convenient porch, which happened to be the neighboring house to that of Mrs. Horning.

Some three months ago Cornell Wakebe was all cut up when his automobile was smashed to splinters by a backing Pere Marquette switch engine on the 17th street crossing. His escape from death was a miracle for he was found wound up in the wreck of his automobile. He was taken to Holland hospital where it took months for him to recover. Two weeks ago lock-jaw set in and his case was considered hopeless by local physicians. The poisonous condition has been alleviated however, and the chances for his recovery are now more favorable.

Holland will be well represented Thursday night at the Grand Rapids boxing show when Jack Verhey, local 150 pounder, meets George Brown.

Jack Verhey is recognized as a sure comer and has achieved considerable fame throughout the state through his terrific hitting power. His only appearance at Holland was at the Legion shows last winter when he won his contests with considerable ease. In all his contests today he has so far outclassed his opponents that it has been hard to tell just how much class he had, but in George Brown he meets a man of real calibre trained to the minute, and a win over Brown will put him in line for bouts throughout the country and put Holland on the boxing map.

There were nine cases of scarlet fever in Holland during March, according to Dr. B. B. Godfrey, City Health Officer, who made his regular report for that month Wednesday. Three cases were released from quarantine. There were two cases of pneumonia, one resulting in death. Three homes were placarded for chicken-pox.

How rare typhoid fever has become in Holland is shown by the fact that there was only one case in March and this was the first one in nine months. Typhoid fever is usually directly due to impure milk or impure water, and the health department's efforts to protect both against contamination appear to have borne fruit. The department fumigated 23 residences on the removal of quarantine during the month. All the meat markets and all the milk stations were inspected and found in satisfactory condition.

The subject of Alaska was very interestingly discussed at the W. L. C. meeting Tuesday afternoon by Miss Mabel Anthony who has recently visited this great American territory. Miss Anthony very vividly narrated the trip through the inside water passage from Seattle to the beginning of the great Yukon trail at Skagway. She visited Kotikichan, Wrangell, Petersburg, Juneau and Sitka with its famous Tatum Pole park. She especially emphasized the scenic wonders of the country which are inspiring and magnificent. She spoke of the country's vast wealth in minerals and fisheries and the great need of more careful legislation and a more extensive railroad system in order that the territory may be placed on a basis of possible development, and the interior opened to settlement and civilization. Seeing this strange and rich country at close range and realizing its possibilities, said Miss Anthony, makes one marvel at the neglect of Alaska.

The music was furnished by Mr. C. V. R. Gilmore who sang two selections from the song cycle "Sons of Roumania," by Hermann Lohr. "The Romanian Mountains and 'Life has sent me many roses.' He was accompanied by Mrs. Robbins.

2. Revolving hover on metal collar makes care of stove, cleaning of house and care of chicks simple and easy through the large hover door. No lifting of hover. A child can turn it around on the revolving collar. Any spot on the floor easily reached. No crawling around on hands and knees.
3. Thermostat controls fire by action on damper in pipe and is placed up from floor, where chicks cannot root on it or get it out of order.
4. Positive air circulation makes possible large size hover, 60 inches in diameter with uniform heat distribution over the entire floor. Broods 1 000 chicks as well as 200.
5. Large coal feed door. Easy to fill. Pour coal from the scuttle.
6. Shaker fastened to stove—always in place and easy to operate.
7. Large size ash pan that is conveniently taken out through large base door.

8. Rocker grates of improved type.
9. Ventilated base to carry off surplus heat and reduce danger of fire on floor under stove.
10. Large coal capacity carrying fire from 42 to 48 hours in emergency.
11. Gas section of pipe at top which is securely bolted to stove preventing possibility of dislocating stove pipe while caring for stove.
12. Slipping hover made of copper bearing sheet steel which is rigid and rust resistant.
13. Extra radiating surface means a saving of about one-third in fuel. Note the fins showing above the sheet iron drum.
14. Damper in special flue extending out from stove pipe regulates fire without allowing escape of gas to brooder room.

FIRE FIGHTERS CROSS TREACHEROUS ICE TO FIGHT FLAMES

Fire originating it is claimed, from a bonfire on the premises, totally destroyed the summer home of Hugo Thumb on the north shore of Spring Lake Monday afternoon. The blaze started at about 4:30 and despite all frantic efforts of John Kruijsenga, the caretaker, the flames gathered and whipped by the southerly wind consumed the water tower and spread to the ground home, burning both to the ground.

A fire fighting force from Spring Lake crossed the treacherous ice of the lake in order to assist and succeeded in saving the caretaker's cottage by keeping the roof wet. Over 50 from the village went to the scene. The fire was a very spectacular one for the two wooden structures burned speedily once they caught and the embers were only extinguished by the heavy rain which started falling. The loss on the property is expected to total about $4,000.

The members of the Busy Men's club at the Holland High school gymnasium Monday evening voted to invite the volley ball teams from the various parts of Ottawa county to come to Holland for the third annual tournament that is to be held last Monday in April. The first tournament was held in Holland, the second in Grand Haven and the third will be held here again. Teams will come here from Zeeland, Grand Haven, Spring Lake and Coopersville.

MERCHANTS FINALLY DECIDE TO CLOSE ON WEDNESDAYS

The Merchants' Association, one of our live bodies in the city, held another enthusiastic monthly meeting on Tuesday night and considerable routine business was done.

It has been definitely decided now to have a half holiday on Wednesday afternoon during July and August.

The merchants have been working on this problem for some years but the matter always fell through and a hitch came in the proceedings at the last minute when plans had nearly been consummated.

But this time the thing is a go, and all places of business with the exception of possibly a few will be closed tight on Wednesday afternoons during the two hot summer months.

The business men and the sales force feel that making money isn't everything in life, and that all work and no play makes "Jack a dull boy," and that a little recreation makes all concerned brighter for a new start on Thursday morning.

A hitch nearly came in the plans even this year when the back street merchants who had been having a Thursday half-holiday for several years back did not feel like conforming with the plans of the 8th street merchants, and change their date to Wednesday instead of Thursday.

A committee consisting of Joe Kooler, chairman, Milo DeVries and Tom White have been working for some time with the back street merchants and with the exception of a few they all state that they are willing to cooperate with the downtown merchants in making Wednesday afternoon a half-holiday during the hot weather period.

This half holiday closing is nothing new, only Holland has been way behind the times on this matter. Zeeland, Grand Haven and Muskegon merchants have inaugurated the half holiday plan at least three years ago. Holland is simply falling in line three years later.

PROPER CARE TO BE GIVEN HOLLAND HARBOR

Holland harbor is paramount in the mind of every citizen of Holland and vicinity, and its development even concerns the city of Grand Rapids which is plainly shown by the interest taken by some of the men from that city.

The committee that went with Mayor Stephan Tuesday to see Major Skinner from Milwaukee, and Congressman Mapes from the Fifth District had a lengthy conference with the major and he has been thoroughly convinced of the needs of Holland harbor, and has promised to do all in his power, looking toward permanent improvements here.

It seems at first that the committee did not have anything tangible to report as the major's outline was rather vague as to just what permanent improvements these would be.

All the same, Mr. Skinner was very much impressed with the showing that the committee made and later on at a luncheon given at the Pantlind by Mayor Stephan and G. Van Schelven of the harbor board, Mr. Skinner imparted the information that he really began to see the importance of this port and its future possibilities.

The committee as well as Mayor Stephan and Mr. Van Schelven who remained over for the luncheon, told the engineer how the Graham & Morton company had intended to put in a winter line last fall, but that the company was prevented from doing so because of the harbor conditions and especially the depth of the harbor's mouth.

They told Mr. Skinner that with the proper improvements, repairing, and suitable depth, Holland would maintain a winter harbor as well as Grand Haven and Muskegon.

This was very important to M. Skinner, for it immediately pointed out another way in which freight congestion on the railroads could be relieved from this point at least, and the railroad problem has brought the most trying situations to the government that could possibly confront it, and any alleviation of congestion in shipping is welcomed by the heads of the nation.

Before the meeting at the Pantlind hotel broke up, Major Skinner stated that he harbor work at this port would not begin before the first of August.

However before that time Mr. Skinner promised to advise the harbor board of Holland, as well as Mayor Stephan, what time it would be possible for him to meet with the harbor board at Holland harbor, together with other citizens and at that time they could look matters over first-hand and make their wants known and some plan of action could then be taken to bring about a permanent harbor building program.

Congressman Carl E. Mapes too promised to get behind the project with might and main, and other Grand Rapids influences will be brought to bear upon the Holland proposition.

While Holland feels the most vitally concerned about its harbor, and we call it Holland harbor because we are the most directly connected with it, all the same this port means a great deal to the whole of western Michigan, and all the cities and towns as well as the farmers in the rural districts in our immediate vicinity are beginning to realize this fact.

Major Skinner was also well informed upon this phase of the project and the committee is sure that considerably more was done than simply meeting our harbor engineer on a routine official visit.

That Major Skinner has this harbor in mind which he didn't have before, is very apparent, and Holland looks forward to his visit which is to be within the very near future.

Zeeland and Blendon townships elected the following township officers Monday:

Zeeland Township—Supervisor, R. L. Johnson; clerk, Wm. Filipe; treasurer, John Smith; highway commissioner, L. G. Parady; justice of the peace, Dert Ten Broeke; member of the board of review, Otto Terpstra; constables, Ben Velthuis, Gerrit Blaauwkamp, John Mol and Manus Styl.

Blendon Township—Supervisor, G. Lubbers; clerk, N. Hunderman; treasurer, A. Van Farrowe; highway commissioner, Adolph, Siekman; justice of the peace, A. Van Zoeren; member of the board of review, John Lanning; overseers of highways No. 1, Simon Box sr., No. 2, Ed P. Vereeke, No. 3, Tom Vanden Bosch, No. 4, John Winters; constables, John De Hoop, Dert Vos, John Gras and Arthur Bredeweg.

SIMON KLEYN AND PETER G. DAMSTRA ARE THE WINNERS

The people of Holland voted on supervisor Monday almost exactly the way they did in the primary on March 13. The only difference was that the total vote was larger and hence each candidate received a larger total, but the standing of the four candidates remained unchanged. In the primaries the order was like this: Simon Kleyn, Peter G. Damstra, Edw. Vanden Berg, and Henry Vander Warf, and that standing was maintained in the voting Monday, with the result that Simon Kleyn and Peter G. Damstra were elected. The vote was as follows: Kleyn 1227, Damstra 1013, Vanden Berg 746, Vander Warf 727.

When the same kind of vote resulted in the primaries, with the totals smaller for each man, no single man was elected, according to the opinion of the city attorney and a review of the vote of the council was held to determine the issue. For a short time it appeared as if there might be a legal battle to compel the seating of Kleyn and Damstra, but these candidates themselves were strongly against that. They did not want an office unless it was beyond the shadow of a doubt that they were entitled to it, and so they decided to submit their fortunes to the people again, feeling confident that the voters would express the same opinion in the election that they had expressed in the primary. The two men voluntarily agreed that all four names should go on the ballot again although they felt convinced that the people had in reality elected them in the primaries.

Their confidence in the temper of the voters was not misplaced and the result of Monday's balloting was a clear title for both by decisive margins to the office. The vote by wards was:

	Kleyn	Damstra	Vanden Berg	Vander Warf
1st	243	172	111	132
2nd	65	50	45	54
3rd	247	153	150	108
4th	288	191	196	124
5th	253	314	158	207
6th	186	133	91	102
	1227	1013	746	727

That Ottawa county is as solidly Republican in politics as ever was plainly shown Monday in the vote on county school commissioner. Gerrit Groenewoud, the Republican candidate for the office, easily defeated R. P. Leestma, the Democratic candidate. Ordinarily the Republican candidate in the past dozen years or so has been a very well known man and the Democrat not so well known. But in this case the voters of the county knew the one candidate about as well as the other. Neither one of them was well known before the primaries, and during the election campaign they were about on a par as individuals no many of the voters being intimately acquainted with either.

But Groenewoud had the one great advantage of running on the Republican ticket which, all other things being equal, usually means election in Ottawa county. The voters throughout the county Monday evidently gave the Republican the benefit of the doubt and voted for him because he was a Republican.

In Holland city Groenewoud carried every ward, the vote by wards being as follows:

	Groenewoud	Leestma
First Ward	213	146
Second Ward	74	59
Third Ward	220	183
Fourth Ward	283	213
Fifth Ward	360	170
Sixth Ward	199	77

Groenewoud maintained his lead throughout those sections of the county that have been heard from. The vote from the country districts as usual was slow in coming in, but those that did come in showed plainly that the Republican candidate was the winner.

Other precincts that have reported are as follows:

	Groenewoud	Leestma
Grand Haven City	267	119
Holland Township	180	85
Zeeland City	339	63
Zeeland Township	124	26
Olive	150	29

The people of Holland left no doubt of the fact that they want "daylight saving" time in Holland again this summer. They declared by a vote of 1530 to 825 that they want the common council to pass a resolution to begin the new time on April 15 and keep on that schedule until September 2nd. And it was not any single section of the city that voted in favor of "daylight saving" but every single ward returned a favorable vote for it, with the result that the proportion throughout the city was nearly two to one. The vote by wards was as follows:

	Yes	No
First Ward	277	138
Second Ward	98	48
Third Ward	227	138
Fourth Ward	336	172
Fifth Ward	382	191
Sixth Ward	210	90
	1530	825

DYKSTRA DEFEATS VAN ZANTEN IN THE FIFTH WARD

There was only one aldermanic fight on in the city Monday and that was in the fifth ward where Charles Dykstra, the present incumbent, and Alex Van Zanten went to the mat for the office for the next two years. That it was a real fight was shown by the fact that in the primaries Dykstra and Van Zanten were tied, each receiving exactly the same number of votes.

But in the polling of Monday Dykstra showed his hold on the ward by defeating Van Zanten by a vote of 355 to 194. In all the other wards the aldermen were elected in the primaries.

NIBBELINK WINS BY LARGE VOTE OVER DEN HERDER

Casper W. Nibbelink was triumphantly re-elected as city assessor at Monday's election, defeating John H. Den Herder by a vote of 1897 to 907. This was the most important office up to the vote of the people and the result plainly showed how the people felt. It was this office that undoubtedly brought out a large number of voters that otherwise would not have come to the polls, with the result the total vote, while not reaching the total enrolled voting strength was much larger than had been expected. The total number of votes cast Monday was 2412, including the blanks.

The fight for the office of the city assessor was more spirited than that for most of the other offices, and the result plainly showed that the people of Holland are very well satisfied with the work of Mr. Nibbelink who has held this office for a number of years. By their vote the people showed that they value experience in an office of this kind. A number of citizens who believed that Mr. Nibbelink had filled the office well and that he was the best man for the job did volunteer personal work to secure his re-election. The efforts of the newspapers and others to get the vote out on general principles because it is always desirable to get out a large vote seem to have reacted also in favor of Mr. Nibbelink as evidenced by the large vote polled for him.

The fight made on Nibbelink has been a spirited one from the start. In both the primaries and the election strong efforts were made to defeat him but the vote of Monday eloquently shows how solid he is with the voters of Holland. He won out not only in the city as a whole but also in every single ward. The vote by wards was:

	Nibbelink	Den Herder
First Ward	240	169
Second Ward	76	64
Third Ward	265	150
Fourth Ward	324	162
Fifth Ward	316	241
Sixth Ward	166	121
	1897	907

Dick Hansen defeated Henry Brusse Monday for the office of police and fire commissioner by a vote of 1253 to 771. Hansen made a strong run and the margin of nearly two to one that he gained over a man who has always been personally popular and who has been elected mayor more than once shown his popularity with the voters. Perhaps one reason for Brusse's defeat is that he is often away from the city and so could not make a personal campaign. He merely let his name come up for consideration and let it go at that. Hansen has had years of experience in the fire department and the voters seemed to feel that that experience should be used by the city. The vote by wards was as follows:

	Brusse	Hansen
First Ward	181	195
Second Ward	28	97
Third Ward	149	207
Fourth Ward	144	314
Fifth Ward	196	299
Sixth Ward	103	153
	771	1253

HOLLAND TOWNSHIP DEFEATS THE TWO PRECINCT PLAN

Holland township voters had the privilege of casting their ballot for an added precinct which it is understood was to be placed near the east end of the township.

Apparently the voters wanted only one precinct, possibly thinking that a second precinct would mean considerable expense for election inspectors, a town hall and other incidentals.

Anyhow the proposition was lost by a two to one vote which stood as follows:

	For Precinct	Against Precinct
	81	163

The vote for school commissioner stood as follows:

	Leestma	Groenewoud
	58	189

The other township officers having no opposition were elected as follows: Supervisor, John V. Huizinga; clerk, Charles Ellander; treasurer, John Ellander; Highway Commissioner, Henry Plaggenmiers; Justice of the Peace (full term) Paul Schilleman; Board of Review (full term) Gill Vogel; constables, Rinck Van Til, Ralph Raak, John R. Bouws, Albert Diekema.

CONTEST IN PARK TWP. ON SUPERVISOR

Park township had a spirited contest on Supervisor Monday when Bram Witteveen decided to enter the race against George Henneveldt who had been nominated at the primaries. In order to do this Mr. Witteveen had to run on slips. The result was as follows: Henneveldt 119; Witteveen 91. The balance of the ticket was elected, there being only one ticket in the field.

The following are the township officers for the ensuing year: Supervisor, George Henneveldt; clerk, Arthur Witteveen; treasurer, Oscar Witteveen; Highway commissioner, Fred Van Wiersen; justice of the peace, full term Nicholas Sielstra; member of the Board of Review, Peter J. Oosting; constables, Milton G. West, D. Miles Albert Kuysers, Bram Witteveen.

Laketown township in Allegan county had but one ticket in the field, consequently all the officers named at the caucus were elected on Monday.

The following are the officers: supervisor, Gerrit Henneveldt; clerk, Albert Alferdink; treasurer, Henry Van Os; highway commissioner, J. K. Alekink; Overseers, John Arens, Stephen Wolters; Justice of the Peace, full term, John Lambers; members of the Board of Review, Engle Klein; Drain assessors, Jake De Pree, Cornelius Bush, constables, Adrian Henneveld, E. V. Price, E. Nyland, B. J. Sterenberg.

LOCAL MAN SAVES HIS FORD BY FLAGGING TRAIN

M. J. Westrate of this city had a narrow escape from losing his Ford car which he uses in canvassing throughout the country. Mr. Westrate was on one of his rounds and when he was about to cross the railroad track at the Tubbergen crossing his wheels seemed to have caught behind the rails. At least before he knew what had happened the car had shot along the rails up the track for some distance. It was impossible for Mr. Westrate alone to get the car free of the rails and the whistle of a train showed that soon the eight o'clock passenger train would come bearing down upon him.

Taking off his coat, Mr. Westrate did the "Grace Darling act," ran up the track to meet the train and flagged it with the coat. He was successful in attracting the attention of the engineer and the train was brought to a stop about 200 feet from the stalled automobile. The train crew helped Mr. Westrate in getting the car off the track and no damage was done.

Rev. J. A. Klaaren of North Holland has received a call from the Reformed church at Alton, Iowa. Rev. B. Hoffman of Zeeland has accepted a call extended by the Reformed church of Morrison, Ill., and has declined a call to become classical missionary for Michigan. Rev. F. J. Van Dyke of Hamilton received a call to become classical missionary for Michigan.

Rev. Henry Vruwink, pastor of the Second Reformed church in Grand Haven, announced to his congregation Sunday that he had accepted a call to the pastorate of the Reformed church in Herkimer, N. Y. Mr. Vruwink's announcement will cause genuine regret not only among the people of his church, but among the people of the community in general. During his pastorate here he has not only served his church, well but he whole community. Friendship in the city is very strong and sincere. The number of personal friends he has made is very large indeed.

Rev. J. F. Heemarta, pastor of 4th Reformed church has been elected as president of the classical board of benevolence, an organization supported by several classes and individuals in the Reformed church to aid students. Other officers elected are: vice-president, Rev. J. Van Zomeren, Grand Rapids; secretary, Rev. G. DeJonge, of Zeeland; treasurer, Prof. Albert Raap, educational agent for Hope college.

During the year aid was furnished for the remainder of the school year.

The Century Club celebrated its silver anniversary Monday evening with a banquet in the Hope church parlors. The club was organized in 1898 and it has now been in existence for a quarter of a century. At the business meeting held in connection with the banquet, Sears R. McLean was elected president for the coming year to succeed Prof. Wyand Wichers who served the past year. Supt. E. E. Fell, vice president, Mrs. C. H. McBride secretary and treasurer and Mrs. G. J. Diekema and A. H. Landwehr, members of the board of directors.

The Hope church parlors had been converted into a real dining room, the guests to the number of about 125 being seated at small tables scattered about the room with a large number of floor lamps placed among the tables. During the banquet John Lloyd Kollen and Ruth Keppel furnished music, and after the feast a program was carried out. A quartet composed of Willis Diekema, R. A. Page, C. VanderMeulen and G. Ter Beek sang a number of songs, with Mrs. Page at the piano. G. J. Diekema delivered an eloquent address on "Inspiration, calling attention to the various factors in the history of the Century club during the past quarter century that had made for inspiration in the lives of the members. Dr. S. M. Zwemer gave an address on "Lamentation," with no lamentation in it, but on the contrary with a plea in it for the hopeful outlook on life.

A feature of the program was a playlet entitled "For Distinguished Service," given by Mrs. Edward Yommans, Miss Colombe Bosch and Miss Ruth Nibbelink. It was a "triangle" play and was received with enthusiasm by the audience. Miss Isla Pruim of Zeeland delightfully sang two vocal solos, with Mrs. R. A. Page at the piano.

The Century Club has had a very successful year, and Monday night's meeting marked the close of the year as well as the close of the quarter century of the club's history.

The choir of Sixth Reformed church made their debut in a song service to a large and appreciative audience Sunday evening. Another attractive feature of her service was an address by Dr. Cantine, missionary to Arabia, who held the audience spellbound with an instructive account of the work as carried on in that particular field. Dr. Cantine has a strong personality and is very effective in his presentation.

Dr. Cantine was one of the first missionaries to Arabia. He also described how the medical missionaries brought the word of God to the Arab and how eager they were to receive it.

Monday evening the Intermediate and Senior C. E. societies of the 6th Reformed church gave a social in the interest of the entire congregation. A program suitable to the occasion was rendered, the special feature of which was a rousing address, "On Three Cylinders to Glory," by Mr. Veldman of Grand Rapids. Refreshments were served and a social time was enjoyed by all. Despite the rain a considerable number attended.

MARTIN-SENOUR MONARCH PAINT

100% PURE

The Power of Paint

Nobody questions the power of paint to protect property from decay and ruin.

When you place insurance you look into the resources of the Company. When you buy paint look into the ingredients that determine its power of service.

Few people ask for adulterated White Lead when they want to paint. Ask for Pure White Lead more conveniently prepared and ground with a proper amount of Zinc in Pure Lineated Oil—this is Monarch Paint.

Zinc will make it last longer and hold its color. The spreading quality of Martin-Senour Monarch Paint 100% Pure is remarkable.

DROPS DEAD WHILE CHATTING TO A NEIGHBOR

John Shoemaker, aged 64, died last week Wednesday night at his home in Jamestown as a result of a heart attack. Mr. Shoemaker had apparently been in good health and he was chatting with a neighbor when death suddenly came upon him.

The deceased is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. M. Grinwis, of Holland and Mrs. Arensma of Byron Center; also by three sons living in Jamestown.

The funeral was held on Monday at one o'clock at the Reformed church in Jamestown, Rev. Rottschaeffer officiating. Interment was at Forest Grove.

The guests were entertained after the dinner with music and card playing.

ATTORNEYS GIVEN PRAISE FOR SETTLING CASE

Grand Haven Tribune editorially praises Prosecuting Attorney Fred T. Miles and defense attorney, Charles E. Misner for coming to a settlement in the Koopman case. The Tribune says in part:

"Both Fred T. Miles, prosecuting attorney and Charles E. Misner, attorney for the defendant are to be commended for their willingness to come together on what might be considered a compromise by some. It was very possible that Mr. Miles could have secured a verdict for the extreme penalty, as charged. There were also some laurels to be won by the attorney for the defense, Mr. Misner. He might have been able to convince the jury that there was a reasonable doubt as to the defendant's guilt of first degree murder, or he might have secured a verdict on a manslaughter charge. Either might have been considered a victory by him. However, in this case it appears the attorneys were not seeking personal triumphs. Putting aside the idea of any individual laurels, these attorneys agreed to act for what they considered the best interests of everyone concerned, and particularly for those who were innocent involved, and who would have been compelled to testify. Besides the members of the immediate family there were a number of people who would have been obliged to testify, on one side or the other. None of them looked forward to the ordeal with anything but dread."

HOPE CHURCH GIVES RECEPTION TO NEW MEMBERS

Fifteen new members who joined Hope church last Sunday were given a reception at the church parlors on Thursday evening, more than 200 being present to welcome them.

After an elaborate supper was given, starting at six o'clock, a program featured the balance of the evening's entertainment.

Rev. Paul P. Cheff was master of ceremonies and announced the numbers as they appeared on the program.

Miss Lucile Mulder was called upon for a vocal solo, and gave "Sunlight" by Harriet Ware, and as an encore rendered "The Cuckoo," by Liza Lehmann. Her numbers were unusually well received. Mr. John Lloyd Kollen who was the accompanist, demonstrated that he is an artist of ability.

Miss Dorothy Hofsteen very pleasingly rendered two readings while Miss Ethelyn Metz entertained the audience as she never fails to do.

Rev. Paul P. Cheff and the Hon. G. J. Diekema, gave short impromptu talks while Dr. Nykerk closed the social evening by leading the singing of two verses of America.

These quarterly social meetings at Hope church have proven of great interest and are, indeed very enjoyable.

TAXI LINE SOLD BACK TO ORIGINAL OWNER

The White Taxi line has been sold back to its original owner, Mr. Joe White, by Mr. Wm. Hop, who purchased it nearly a year ago. Mr. Hop at that time combined the White Taxi line with the Yellow Cab Co., but has now severed his connection with the latter company. Mr. White, who will become manager of the Holland Taxi line and owner of the White Taxi line, was not only the first one to inaugurate taxi service in this city but was also the first one to give the local people closed cab service. Mr. White will have within a short time several new cabs in service in connection with the White Taxi Line. In order that the public will not become confused, there will be no change in the telephone numbers.

After a brief illness, during which time he was confined to his bed for about one week, Bert A. Van Loo died at Zeeland last week Tuesday aged 70 years. He is survived by his widow and six children. The children are Albert and Ada Van Loo of Grand Rapids; Abram and Harold Van Loo of Kalamazoo; and Minnie Van Loo and Mrs. Henrietta Stult of Grand Rapids.

Mr. Van Loo came to America from the Netherlands at the age of 22 and has lived in the vicinity of Zeeland since that time.

The funeral service was held on Friday afternoon at the home on East Washington st., Zeeland.

FIFTEEN-YEAR-OLD MYSTERY HAS NOW BEEN SOLVED

Thru a letter printed in a local paper a week or two ago a 15-year-old mystery has been solved and the relatives of John Kouw, formerly of Holland, have learned that he is dead, where he died, and all about his life during the intervening years. A week or two ago Ray Nies received a letter from O. H. M. Mason, of Courtney, N. D., asking if he had ever heard of a former Holland man named George Adams. This letter was printed in the paper and when the relatives of John Kouw, who had disappeared 15 years ago, read it they surmised that it referred to him. An investigation made since then has proved that they were correct.

John Kouw left Holland 32 years ago, when a boy of 16. For several years he seems to have traveled nearly all over the U. S. and Canada, sometimes writing home frequently and then not again for years at a time.

After being away from home for 16 years he made his appearance in Holland and stayed about three weeks. His last visit to Holland was during January, 1908, at which time he left again for Canada, and about a year thereafter he wrote home from a train stating he was snowbound. This is now just 15 years ago and the last that was ever heard of him, in spite of the fact that his relatives wrote different letters to former addresses which were always returned unclaimed. The last time he was home he stated that in the west he was known by the name of George Adams and his relatives had discovered that his laundry was also marked by this assumed name. Why he had assumed another name he did not explain and his relatives never learned the reason for it. Hence his relatives did not know for the last fifteen years whether he was still alive or not.

When the letter written to Ray Nies asking for information regarding the relatives of George Adams who died in Courtney, North Dakota, five years ago appeared in the paper, the relatives of Mr. Kouw, alias Adams, surmised it might be the son and brother they had not heard from for many years. Isaac Kouw of this city at once wrote O. H. Mason, asking for full information in regard to Adams, including a photograph which Kouw had sent home some years ago.

A letter has just been received stating that the photograph corresponds with a large photo left by Adams. In that letter Mr. Mason states that Mr. Adams was a respected citizen of Courtney, N. D., for several years, having been in the hotel business for some time and afterwards following the trade of a decorator. He died on March 26, 1913, after being operated on for appendicitis. He was married in 1910, left a widow and an adopted daughter now 15 years old, besides a son now 11 years old. It appears that he did not leave any information as to his correct name or his relatives, but had stated that he formerly lived in Holland, Michigan. It seems that they had tried to locate his relatives before, but not through the press, and whereas they did not know him by the name of John Kouw it seemed to be impossible to locate any relatives until the local story appeared.

Why John Kouw did not keep up correspondence with the home folks has never been learned. Mr. Kouw's mother died 11 years ago, and at that time relatives tried to locate him but failed. His brother Joe died last year in Detroit. He has a father and two brothers and one sister, namely Isaac and Levi and Mrs. Martin Ploekmeyer, living in Holland. Another brother Henry lives in Zeeland and another sister Mrs. John De Kam, is a resident of Shelbyville, Mich.

FISHING TUGS ARE BOTTLED UP BY THE ICE

Two fishing tugs, "Cecil W." and the "Star," have been bottled up in Holland harbor for the past three weeks, their captains impatiently waiting for the ice to clear out of the lake so that they can begin operations off this harbor. The tugs are the property of Wilson Brothers of Northport, Michigan, and they came into the harbor in the early part of March with the idea of starting fishing at the earliest possible moment. Usually conditions are such that work can be begun by the middle of March or earlier, but this year there has been no chance for the tugs to get through the large field of floating ice in the big lake.

"Not as long as I can remember," said Captain VanWeelden of the Macatawa Coast Guard Station Monday, "have I seen so much ice in the lake at this time of year. There is about 4 miles of it along the shore of the lake, and when the wind is from the west the pressure is tremendous."

The Wilson Brothers tugs came into the Holland harbor last fall and began fishing operations off this port, but they arrived too late to do much. So they came exceptionally early this spring, only to be handicapped again by the unusual ice conditions. The big Graham & Morton vessel is built for ice breaking and for withstanding the pressure of the ice in rough weather, but the little fishing tugs would be smashed like the proverbial egg-shells if they should get caught in a storm like that of last week. The little boats have plenty of power and can ride out a storm pretty well in the open lake but the crush of the ice would soon send them to the bottom.

Although April has arrived icebergs can still be seen ranged for miles along the shores of Lake Michigan, as far as the eye can look both north and south. And the fields of floating ice beyond the bergs look menacing to the average landman.

Ronald C., the six months old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson, died at his home 45 E. 7th St. Funeral was held at the home of C. Terpstra, 81 East 8th street, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. James Ghyssels officiating.

Mr. and Louis Padnos were Sunday visitors in Grand Rapids.

HOLLAND VISITED BY $1,500.00 BLAZE

At 2:30 Wednesday, Mar. 28, fire was discovered in the home of Gerit Wanrooy, East 14th St. The blaze was the most disastrous that has visited Holland for some time, the amount of damages being between $1200 and $1500.

All the furniture was saved from the house, altho the upper part was pretty well gutted.

Just how the fire started was hard to ascertain, although it is stated that its origin was from sparks from the chimney falling upon the roof.

Some delay was caused by telephoning in the alarm instead of using a fire alarm box, in fact the Wanrooys did not know of the fire until told by their neighbors and by that time the roof was all ablaze.

During the Wanrooy fire an alarm was also turned in from box 53, that proved to be a roof fire on a home on 21st street.

The damage at the latter fire was about $25.00.

The lady employees presented him with a beautiful Eversharp Gold pencil, and the men with a black leather portfolio.

M. A. C. MAN

POINTS TO MICHIGAN POULTRY WITH PRIDE

In a recent talk of Prof. E. C. Foreman of Michigan Agriculture College who spoke before the March meeting of the Ottawa County Seat Poultry Association, he gave some very illuminating facts as to what poultry means to Michigan.

Of the 99 entries in the state egg laying contest at M. A. C., 83 are Michigan birds, and the largest proportion are from Holland, Zeeland, and Hudsonville.

Of the balance there are sixteen from out of the state.

Among those entered from outside the state are birds from prize stock in the coast states of Oregon and California, birds owned in the eastern states including New York among them being birds entered by Dr. Kent Michigan seems to be the chosen state for among all of these birds, the birds of Michigan breeders are leading the way. It will be recalled that it was a Michigan bird, raised near Zeeland that won the international contest in Missouri recently.

Mr. Foreman also brought out forcibly that the successful breeder is the one who is able to control disease among the poultry.

In answer to the question of which breed was the best, Prof. Foreman stated that in the big international egg laying contest at the Michigan Agricultural College, the White Wyandottes lead in production during the winter months; that during the same time, the Barred Rocks had the best average and that White Leghorns were the most economical.

Prof. Foreman told the poultrymen that "Michigan birds pioneered the way in every branch." He told of the big poultry contest now on at the college and gave examples to prove his statement about the Michigan birds.

PAYS ALIMONY TO TWO FORMER WIVES

It is the lot of J. H. Sherman, Osego, to pay alimony to two women. On Wednesday, County Clerk Wm. Stickle of Allegan county received a letter from Sherman and 2 sums of money. He sent $3 to Louisa Sherman vs. J. H. Sherman as alimony to wife No. 1, in support of the son who becomes 16 April 5. He also sent $60 according to the court order in the case of Anna F. Sherman vs. J. H. Sherman, this to wife No. 2. Sherman was granted a divorce from Anna the week before last in circuit court.

DUTCH DRY OBSERVERS SEE FAST WORK IN RAID

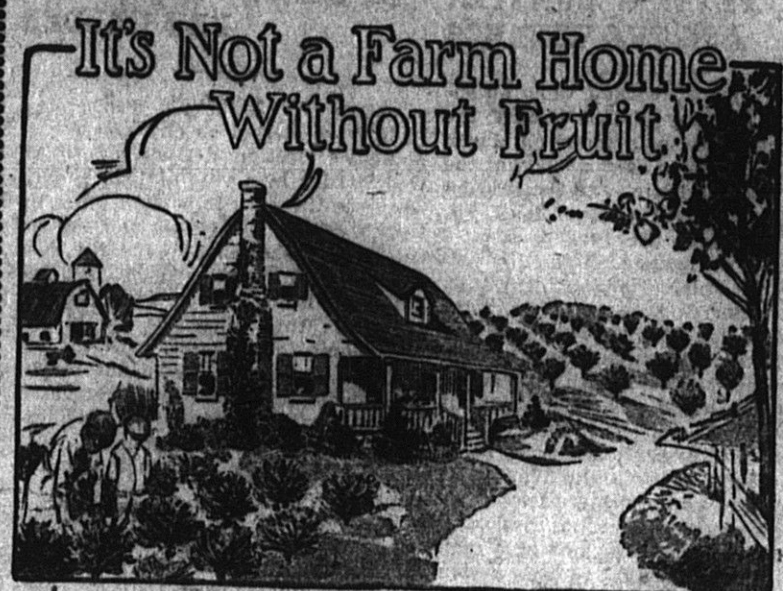

Fifteen prohibition agents invaded the Blue Hour restaurant in the heart of the theatrical district, in New York and ordered the hundreds of diners to remove their clothes to leave as quickly as possible and then proceeded to confiscate 175 cases of whiskey, champagne and other liquors.

The proprietor Peter Anselmo, and the head waiter were arrested. Departing patrons hissed as the liquor was being loaded on trucks.

The raid was witnessed by N. A. DeVries, a member of the government of the province of Groningen, Holland, and P. Vander Meulen of Utrecht, Holland, who are making a study of the prohibition question in the United States. Mr. DeVries described the work of prohibition enforcement forces as "wonderful."

CHILD INJURED IN A DYNAMITE CAP EXPLOSION

Little August Knuth, of West Olive, was seriously injured Sunday evening at his home when a dynamite cap with which he was playing near a hot stove exploded. It is not known exactly how the accident happened, but the explosion was a terrific one. The thumb and two fingers of the right hand were so badly lacerated that they to be amputated at the second joint. The other fingers and the hands were also injured but amputation was not necessary.

WAS COLDEST EASTER IN TWENTY-SIX YEARS

Although Sunday was the coldest April day in 26 years, a brief touch of spring visited the city during the afternoon. This came opportunely for the annual Easter parade. Skies were bright and a breeze from the west was mild while new toggery lent a note of color to the principal thoroughfares.

Respite from blizzard conditions to which local folk have become inured during the last few weeks, was brief, however. Soon after nightfall snow fell intermittently and was wafted in to faces and beneath coat collars by fitful winds.

From 14 degrees above zero early Sunday morning the mercury rose until it stood at 39 at 4 p. m. It grew colder from then on.

Capt. H. F. Harbeck of Grand Haven has been named as a delegate to the international meeting of the Lion's clubs to be held at Atlantic City. Carl Bowch, former city engineer of Holland, was named as representative of the Grand Haven Lion's club at the state meeting to be held in Lansing in the near future.

Absolute Comfort and the Joy of Living

Just as warm-hearted person is said to have "a winning way," so is a home made cheery and healthful - it has a winning way - when it, too, is warm and cozy.

No matter how handsomely furnished a house may be, or how desirably located, it is a house, and nothing else, until it is comfortably heated and ventilated.

The vast number of good families who own Holland Heating Systems are all willing to tell you what Holland advantages are doing for each of their individual homes.

To give positive comfort and cleanliness in every room in the house, with properly circulated air, is quite enough to make the Holland the most popular furnace on earth. But to have it proved as the most economical in the use of fuel, of all heating systems, has made it not only the choice of Architects and Building Contractors, but of Bankers, Lawyers, School Teachers, Mechanics, and, in fact, people in every line who would rather not spend money for unnecessary fuel bills.

Buy Your Own Home-Heating System

It will pay you every day for many years, if you will buy your own heating system, no matter who builds your house.

Mrs. Cornelius Ruscher, of Fillmore Township died last week at her home at the age of 56 years. She is survived by her husband, two children, Henry and Mrs. John Helder, and her mother, Mrs. J. W. Rumor has it that an attempt was made to rob Keefe's restaurant a few nights ago, at a late hour. Investigation shows that a man was seen in the entry way, who looked suspicious and when one of the employees went to the telephone to call the police, the man hastily got up and ran west on 8th street, disappearing near the tannery.

There is a living in the dead which is apparent since the Allegan basket company will this spring build an addition to its present factory and will add an equipment that will double the capacity. The business has grown so rapidly that a factory built a year ago has become altogether too small, consequently the enlargement. The firm started out with two men making coffins, and now there are 15 and this number will be increased to thirty.

Western seminary students are planning to make their reception to the faculty on April 20 one of the leading social events of the school year. C. R. Wierenga of Chicago, the president of the student body, will deliver the address of welcome and Theodore Zwemer, Cornelius Lepeltak and Martin R. De Haan are listed as speakers. The reception will be held in Divinity hall. Four members of the class of 1923 have announced themselves as volunteers for foreign mission fields. Wierenga will go to India, but the others, T. Zwemer, C. J. Schroeder and A. J. Westmaas, have not yet received their appointments.

An all day meeting will be held on Friday, April 6th, at Central Park church under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society, at which Miss Eva K. Schuur, Ottawa Co. Home Demonstration Agent, will demonstrate the making and use of dress forms for the benefit of the home dress maker. This is the first meeting of the kind to be held in this part of Ottawa Co. Easter service in Third Reformed church was featured with a public reception of a class of 80 new members, of whom sixty joined the church upon confession of faith and 20 were received by letter from other evangelic churches. This is the second largest class ever received at one service in Third church of which Rev. Martin is the pastor.

The members of the Woman's Literary club held one of their famous rummage sales Saturday in the basement of the club house and the building was crowded most of the day with buyers who were waited upon by members of the club. The articles put up for sale had been donated by the members.

Toward late afternoon the husband of one of the members came with his car to call for his wife and while waiting for her to get ready he became interested in the sale. Spotting an automobile duster, he exclaimed, "Just the thing I want. Will come in mighty handy in working on the car. Just the thing to put on when changing a tire." So he dug down into his pocket and produced the price asked for the duster.

Just then his wife caught a glimpse of the transaction. A broad smile spread over her face and she confided to another of the salesladies: "Goodness gracious, he's bought his own duster that's been hanging in the garage for ever so long and that I brought to the sale this morning."

Capt. and Mrs. John Walmsa of Grand Haven celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Thursday. Capt. Walmsa has been connected with the marine interests for many years.

The first regular meeting of the newly organized Friesian society, Fryske Joutneocht Selskip, will be held Wednesday evening, April 14, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brusse, 69 West 12th street. The former mayor of Holland is a Friesian by birth and proud of it, and so has invited the society to come and spend the evening at his home.

The new society starts out with a membership of fifty and it is expected that more will be added to the list as time goes on. There are several hundred persons in the city who are eligible to join. Mr. Jacob Osterbaan, the president, speaks the Friesian language fluently, and the meetings will be conducted for the most part in that tongue. A social time is in store for all Friesians at this meeting. Light refreshments will be served.

Grand Haven Tribune—Charming was the shower given by the Misses Minnie Brown and Anna Van Dongen at the latter's home, in honor of Mrs. C. Rosendahl, formerly Miss Anna Hecksel of Grand Haven. The rooms were prettily decorated with Easter bowers. The evening was devoted to music and games after which refreshments were served. The prizes were won by Mrs. J. J. Jones and Miss Alice Van Dongen. The following guests had a very enjoyable time. The Misses Willemene Nykamp, Agnes Peel, Alice De Young, Francis Gringhuis, Jeanette Jones, Emily Rycenga, Dorothy Sampson, Alvie Van Dongen, Jennie Lowe, Elizabeth Snoek, Jean Lowe, Elizabeth Snoek, Rb. O. F. Tysman, Mrs. J. J. Jones, Nell Bunnell of Coopersville and the hostesses. The bride received many beautiful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Rosendahl will reside in Holland.

Rev. A. Keizer, pastor of the Christian Reformed church at Harderwyk for three and a half years holds a record seldom equaled. Since his ordination in 1886 he has served his nine parishes in the three adjoining counties of Muskegon, Ottawa and Allegan. The nine churches are located within a radius of 50 miles and include Grand Haven, Muskegon, East Saugatuck, Drenthe, Graafschap, Holland, Beaverdam, Overisel and Harderwyk. His longest pastorate was the Holland pillar church, founded by Dr. A. C. Van Raalte, which he served for eight years.

Physical education is much more than having a winning basket ball or base ball or football team, declared William Slater Tuesday evening in an interesting paper on "Athletics or Physical Training," at a meeting of the Social Progress club held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. P. P. Cheff. Physical education, he declared, is a systematic training of the body, beginning in early childhood and continuing throughout school and college. It moreover is a training not merely of the muscles but of the whole physical being and takes into account the health and strength of the heart, lungs and other vital organs. Competitive games are valuable, the reader of the paper declared, because they teach many moral lessons such as self-control and they help to develop a more perfect co-ordination between mind and body, but they are only a part of physical education.

Mr. Slater gave an interesting historical review of physical training, calling attention to the various systems, such as the German, the Swedish, and the English systems. A method is developing in the United States today, he said, that is an amalgamation of the various other systems and that should be known as the American plan.

The paper was one of the most successful ones of the year in that it provoked an unusually spirited discussion that kept to the subject in hand and did not go into side issues.

The vital statistics department of the state Wednesday announced the birth statistics for Michigan for 1922. The birth rate was the lowest since 1919, the rate being 23 per 1000 population. This is a decrease of 5,993 births below 1921, equivalent to 6.24 per cent.

In Ottawa county the total number of births was 833, Holland being credited with 328 and Grand Haven 203. The birth rate in Ottawa county was 24 per 1,000 population. In Holland the rate was 28 and in Grand Haven 26.9. There were 342 boys born in Ottawa county during the year and 341 girls, an illustration of how remarkably nature keeps a balance between the sexes. In Holland there were 189 boys and 159 girls, and in Grand Haven 81 boys and 112 girls. Another curious fact about the statistics so far as they concerned Ottawa county is that there was only one colored baby born in the county in 1922, showing that the colored population in Ottawa practically negligible. There was only one illegitimate child listed in the record for Ottawa county, and there were 14 plural births.

A fair number braved the blustery afternoon of Friday to attend the meeting of the Holland W. C. T. U. held at the home of Mrs. Blekkink. Mrs. Smith led the devotions and Mrs. Miles gave a talk on "Christian Citizenship." She is the superintendent of this department and gave the members a high ideal of their duty and privilege, giving out cards to each with the following sentiment: "I am a citizen of no mean city; God helping me, I will do my best for Holland." She further said our duty was to obey the law, teach our children to do so and to vote intelligently; also, to perform social duties and obey the higher Christian law.

Mrs. DeMerell explained the work of the women's legislative council at Lansing which represents seven Women's societies, Mrs. Kalkins, State president of the W. C. T. U., being its chairman.

Mrs. Kettel read "Woman Voters' Decalogue." Miss Alice Scholten rendered two songs "Cradle Song" by Jane Spear, "Joy of the Morning" by Edwin Workman, accompanied by Miss Geraldine Walvoord who also played two piano numbers, "Caprice Viennoise," by Kreisler and "Au Ruisseau," by Schutt. Tea was served by Mrs. M. Mulder and committee and the year book was distributed.

In the recent Y. M. C. A. election at Hope college Jack Prins of Fulton, Ill. was elected president for the ensuing year. Prins will be a Senior in college next year. He graduated from the Preparatory department at Hope three years ago and was already an active religious worker in the college while a Prepite. The other officers elected by ballot were: William Van't Hof of Alton, Ill., vice president; Joshua Hogenboom of Clymer, N. Y., secretary; and Fritz Yonkman of Holland, treasurer.

The membership of the Y. M. C. A. is about 150. The local chapter is the strongest and largest of its kind in the state. This fact is attributed to the well-organized cabinet system the organization has. All branches of Y. work are placed under the direction of cabinet officers and the plan work on the same basis as that of the United States President's cabinet.

Mr. Prins has elected the following members to his cabinet: Raymond Fieldhouse, William Hillmert, Gerald Pool, Gerrit Heemstra, James DeFree, Henry J. Albers, Anthony Sherman, Harold Damstra, and Peter De Ruit.

Friday the Melphone society of Hope College held its election for the third term of the present school year. The society is at present in a flourishing condition and contains some of the best literary material of preparatory department. One of the great features of this society is its annual public program. It has for years past at the end of the Spring term given a program at Carnegie Gym. to which the public has been invited. This year the society is trying to provide another program, which was discussed at this meeting. The officers elected are: President, Theodore Luidens; vice-president, Harry Grond; sec., Peter De Ruit; treas., Lamber Olgers; K. of A. Thos. Ten Have; Sarg., John Tysse.

A letter from Mr. Bour, received by C. E. Bird this week, inquired if the harbor would be in shape for the South American and North American to come in there this spring. The matter was referred to engineers of the war department. The department recently assured the Holland people the General Meade would be at work for a few days early in April at Grand Haven, following which it would dredge the Holland outer harbor. It is hoped Saugatuck, being a small job, may be next on the program.—Saugatuck Commercial-Record.

In the annual Y. W. C. A. election of officers at Hope College, Miss Ruth Miller of Kalamazoo was chosen as president. Miss Miller has been in Hope for two years and has been very capable in school work and in social activities. Miss Winifred Zwemer of Holland became vice-president. The other elections were: Agnes Bulkema of Grand Rapids, secretary; Marie DeKruif, Chicago, treasurer; and Isla Prulm of Zealand, undergraduate representative.

The Y. W. C. A. has been in a very flourishing condition during the past year. Its membership is composed of some 125 college coeds. Their work has been along various lines. Several young ladies assist the Y. W. in conducting Sunday Schools in communities about Holland. The Y. W. has furnished music at the City Hospital on Sundays. A concert by Miss Ruth Breyspraak Heymar, violinist and Mrs. Helen Wing, contralto both of Chicago, was under the auspices of the Y. W. The organization is the counterpart of the Y. M. C. A. in promoting religious interests on the college campus.

The unfortunate fact that the number of the fire department on the outside of the telephone directories is printed as 1199 instead of 1234, the correct number, caused considerable delay on the part of the fire department in getting to the Wanrooy fire on Wednesday afternoon. The fire department again wishes to call the attention of the public to the fact that each telephone subscriber ought to make the correction in pencil on the telephone book so that there will not be any mistake at the critical time when a quick call to the fire department is necessary.

The department also called attention to the fact that in order to send a call from a fire alarm box it is necessary to go through the following operation: break the glass, turn the key a little so that the door opens, and then pull down the lever. In the case of a fire recently some one broke the glass turned the key but did not pull down the lever.

It was 30 years ago Saturday night at midnight that Captain Van Weelden, keeper of the Coast Guard station at Macatawa, entered the government life saving service. Under the Coast Guard regulations a member of the service can apply for retirement at the end of 30 years if he so desires, and Capt. Van Weelden said that he expected within a few days to make the necessary application to headquarters at Washington. It will probably take some time before the necessary steps can be taken and a successor to Capt. Van Weelden appointed. Meanwhile he will stay on as keeper of the local station. It is supposed that the new keeper will be some one from another station who will be transferred to the local station.

Captain Van Weelden has served as Keeper of the Holland station for 16 years and two months. While here he has won the respect of the crew and the general public as an able captain and his record in the government books is a good one.

Before coming to Holland he served for eleven years as surfman in the lifesaving station at Grand Haven and for three years as Keeper of the station at South Manitou Island, the three periods of service making up the 30 years that closed on Saturday night.

When a Coast Guard captain retires, he does so on three-fourths pay. In anticipation of the end of his term of service, Captain Van Weelden last fall bought a home in Holland and his family has been living here during the winter. When he retires he will also make this city his home. The station at Macatawa has been open since March 1st but so far there has been little transportation in the local harbor except for the tri-weekly visits of the Graham & Morton vessel. The Coast Guard crew however, has its regular routine drill work by way of getting ready for the busy season.

At least 1500 people came to the 9th Street Christian Reformed church to listen to the cantata "The Word of God" rendered by 48 voices.

Rev. James W. Ghysels, president of the choral society offered prayer and made a few opening remarks. The cantata is based on the Bible, giving a resume of the good book from Genesis to Revelations giving in song the important epochs.

Director William Brouwer had his chorus well in hand and was ably assisted by Mrs. J. VanderHill accompanist.

The work of the soloists was unusually well received, while Mr. Henry Jongsma surprised his audience with two popular violin contributions.

Louis Van Hartesveldt, for the past four years superintendent of the printing plant of the DeFree Co., has purchased the plant of the Holland Printing Co., 210 College Avenue, of Edward Brouwer, present owner of that firm. The business was founded by the late Henry Holkeboer. Mr. Van Hartesveldt is a printer of 25 years experience, most of which time was spent in Grand Rapids, the past fifteen years as superintendent. Four years ago he became superintendent of the printing department of the DeFree company, which plant is now doing all the printing used by that company including all the cartons and set-up boxes, advertising matter, office forms, etc.

Mr. Van Hartesveldt said that he expects to do a general line of commercial and society printing of all kinds, and as the needs become apparent to enlarge and improve the plant.

EARLY TO BED AND EARLY TO RISE" BUT—

TO BE A GOOD HOUSEWIFE MAKE BEDS BEFORE TWO P. M.

The good housewife does not permit her beds to be left unmade as late as 2 p. m., even if she has three small children to care for.

At least a jury composed entirely of society leaders, the first woman jury in Muskegon county, gave its disapproval of the late bed-making practice in deciding an ejectment case before Philip Kniskerp, Circuit Court commissioner.

Mrs. Frances Ringenberg sued to eject her stepson and his family from a house also occupied by Mrs. Ringenberg. The charge was that the stepson's wife was not a good housekeeper. She left her beds unmade until late in the afternoon, Mrs. Ringenberg testified.

The defense set up that care of three children, in this case, should be considered, and that the standards of model housekeeping could not be maintained under those circumstances. Men were called to testify as expert witnesses in housekeeping.

"Does your wife always have her beds made up by 2 p.m.?" one witness was asked.

"Yes, I believe she does," was the reply. One juror clapped her hands in approval.

The jury decided in six minutes that the stepson and his family must move.

The preliminary plans for the Memorial Day exercises in Holland have been made and the day will be celebrated here this year with the usual solemnity. The committee in charge of the work has taken the necessary steps to ensure a proper observance of the day and the result of this work was announced Wednesday.

Dr. S. M. Zwemer, of Cairo, Egypt, has been selected as the speaker of the day. Dr. Zwemer has tentatively accepted the invitation. He expects to be in this country on May 30th, but his acceptance was tentative because he is never certain very long ahead as to where he will be at any given time. There is always a possibility that he might be called to some other section of the country or even to another continent which would make it impossible for him to fill the date. But he is not at present anticipating this and so it is likely that he will be the speaker.

Dr. Zwemer was the Memorial Day speaker in Holland the spring after the close of the war, when the meeting was held on the college campus and when thousands gathered there to hear him.

The services on Memorial Sunday will this year be held in Hope church. These services are held in rotation in seven of the city's churches, and this year it is the turn of Hope church. The exercises were also held there last year but this was by way of accommodation to Grace Episcopal church. It was that church's turn but the auditorium was deemed too small to accommodate the audience, and so Hope church was loaned for the purpose, the rector of the Episcopal church delivering the address.

Other arrangements for Memorial day exercises will be made later. With two months left, there will be time enough to work out all the necessary details.

HAMILTON NEWS

The community was severely shocked over the death of two of her prominent citizens: Mrs. G. Ensing and Mr. Harley Schutmaat. Mrs. Ensing was an enthusiastic church worker, a leader in the Ladies' Missionary society and prayer meetings of the 1st Reformed church. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Roggen. At the grave, Mr. D. Tanis of Vriesland spoke a few appropriate words.

Mr. Schutmaat was a member of the 2nd Reformed church, well known in the community and surrounding vicinity. Rev. Van Dyke had charge of the services and Rev. tor of the 2nd church gave the funeral address.

Mr. Ensing who has been severely ill is recovering and can again go about his work. His son-in-law and daughter from Kenosha, Wis., are staying with him at present.

The public schools have again resumed work after a week's vacation. The brick yard will soon begin its work after the winter shut down.

At a public auction, the household goods of Mrs. Odebeeking were sold and Mrs. Odebeeking will stay at the home of Mr. George Timmerman. Mr. Nyhof built an addition to his house.

Ed Miscooten will start a milk route in Hamilton.

H. Hoffman sold his share in the mill to the Kolvoord Milling Co. and will go back to Overisel. We are sorry to see him leave town.

J. Peters visited in Jamestown last week.

It is reported that Rev. and Mrs. Ter Lowe, formerly of Hamilton now of Hospers, Ia., are the proud parents of a baby boy.

Dip-net fishing had been very poor thus far this year. This testimony will be borne out by several students of the Western Theological Seminary namely: Dr. DeHaan, Roseboom, Haarsevoort, and Tanis. Intending to surprise the fish, they were reported at duty at 5 o'clock on Monday morning. The thermometer registering 0°, the fish that it more delightful in bed than to arise with the rising sun. After several hours of delightful exercise, and after being told by 21 citizens that it was too cold, the happy band returned to the place from which they came—very happy.

THURSDAY and FRIDAY, APRIL 12 and 13

Twentyfive years ago April 14th—during the Spanish-American war—we first opened our doors at 41 East 8th St., which was at that time the east half of the building now occupied by the Lokker & Rutgers Company. We began business in a small and insignificant way. Our efforts however, were crowned with success from the very beginning, and within a few years we were obliged by reason of our increasing business to seek larger quarters. In 1902 we built, and moved our stock into the building we now occupy at 31-33 East 8th St., consisting of three floors and basement—a total floor space of 20,000 square feet—where we had the privilege and pleasure of serving you since.

We desire to thank our customers and friends on this occasion for the business they have given us, and for the many favors which they have extended to us, and it will be our endeavor in the future to merit a continuation of this confidence in us, which we realize IS ONE OF OUR MOST VALUABLE ASSETS.

Commemorating the 25th birthday of our business we are offering at reduced prices a splendid line of merchandise in various departments of our store. Our stock of DRY GOODS, CLOAKS, SUITS, SKIRTS, WAISTS, MILLINERY AND GROCERIES is now at its best, and we extend a cordial invitation to everyone to come and inspect our fine array of Spring Merchandise, and to receive the benefit of the reduced prices we shall offer during this sale.
