Gary and Donald Playing in the Flood District

WHAT BECAME OF HOLLAND'S MAJOR BOWES MUSIC WINNERS

Here are some interesting excerpts from a letter sent by Donald Kramer and Gary De Haan from Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kramer, parents of the former. The resume is self-explanatory.

Dear Ben:

The following notes cover the experience that my son, Donald Kramer, and Gary De Haan, who are with Major Bowes Unit No. 1, had in the flood at Pittsburgh:

The boys had been home for two weeks and received telegraphic orders to rejoin the troop at Pittsburgh. They left here on Wednesday, March 18th, and the only way they could get to Pittsburgh was via Columbus, Ohio. They arrived in Pittsburgh Thursday noon, and started out to find the unit, which they were told was at the Hotel Pittsburgh. Two blocks from the depot they were stopped by guards who would not let them go any further, stating that the water was about 16 feet deep around that hotel.

So they went to the William Penn Hotel, and luckily got a room. On checking in, they found that their unit manager was also there. He had been staying at the Pittsburgh Hotel, but got flooded out while down the street doing some business. The troop was stranded in the Pittsburgh Hotel and the boys could not reach them. This lasted until Saturday, March 21st when they were taken out with boats and left for Youngstown, O. They were supposed to play a week at the Stanley theatre in Pittsburgh. This theatre was filled up with tickets to the first balcony and that there was possibility of playing in the theatre.

They had many exciting experiences. They actually saw people swept off their feet and drowned before help could be given them.

They got a room on the tenth floor of their hotel and, of course, had to walk up the ten floors each time they went out. No water was to be had except for drinking. Food was hard to get, and with no heat in the hotel they went to bed with their clothes and overcoat on. They used candles for light when the heat could get them. Most of the food they got was cold since there was no chance of heat of any kind.

It would be difficult to really express the whole thing properly. It was terrible to see so much property damaged, see perfectly good clothing, buildings, etc., float past them down the streets. And still worse, the people who were caught and drowned before help could be given them.

In their hotel there were many small children who simply had to rush there to get away from the floods who hadn't seen or knew where their parents were for Both the boys say that while the experience was terrible, at the same time they would not have missed it, now that they were out of it, and would never forget it.

The unit is en route for Cincinnati, where they will open a week stand at the Schubert theatre starting Friday, the 27th, and open at Louisville, Ky., the following Friday for a week.

REPORT OF HOLLAND'S HEALTH CONDITIONS IS GIVEN

At a regular meeting of the board of health Monday, a report of health conditions in Holland as viewed by an outsider was read by City Health officer Dr. William Westrate. The report was made by Frederick F. Yonkman associate professor of pharmacology of Boston university who made a general survey last summer.

Yonkman stated that the depression has not affected the high standard of health in Holland and also went on to praise the health department, Dr. Westrate and Miss Alma Koertge for their work in keeping the numerous tasks so well in hand.

On only two occasions during 1935 did Holland's water show contamination and in both instances the condition was temporary and corrected immediately, the report said.

Dr. Yonkman stated that milk inspection seems adequate, but urged that "cover-all" caps be used. He also said that although the city schools are too crowded from a health point of view they are well regulated and administered.

The highlights of Dr. Frederick F. Yonkman's report, which is 10 typewritten pages, are as follows:

"This is a hasty report of my findings as they were reported in Boston and represents no attempt at great detail. May I say again that I appreciate your courtesy and consideration in cooperating with me. Also I wish to thank your secretary as well as Mr. John Jellama and the City Clerk's secretary for their help in placing at my disposal figures, facts, records and reports. All those contacted were most cordial and sincere.

"The city of Holland seems to be well governed by a rather well qualified group of men. A great deal of civic pride is evident from general appearances and from conversation with the residents.

"The depression has wrought havoc economically but, generally speaking the health of the community seems not to have suffered grossly; improvements have been attempted and maintained and prospects for the future seem bright from a health, as well as economic, point of view.

"The Board of Health seems to be an adequate and representative group of enterprising and loyal citizens but they should demand a larger and more adequate budget. The Health Officer, as Dr. Westrate says, should be a full time man and the Council should delegate this position to the properly trained man rather than have him chosen by election at large. The City Inspector's salary is inadequate. Formerly this was a full time job paying $900 to $1200.

"A more adequate budget would especially aid preventive and prophylactic work in the schools with more nursing and educational help. A city dentist should be employed for the needy.

"Collection of garbage and ashes should be a city function paid for through taxation instead of allowing private 'garbage burials' in the back yard and furnace burning with its attending odors.

"Holland's schools are enviable. They are well regulated and administered. From a health viewpoint, they are too crowded. More space should be available in the immediate future and any new construction should be air-conditioned.

"I wish to state that my impression is that Dr. Westrate, the local Health Officer is doing a fine piece of work for Holland and perhaps without full appreciation of the largeness of his task.

"The Health Officer was quick in his reply to my question 'Have you had any epidemics recently?' He said: 'If you write anything on this, please give due credit to our City Nurse, Mrs. Koertge who nips epidemics in the bud by her constant vigilance.' Dr. Westrate was very generous in his praise of Miss Koertge, the nurse, for her enterprise in diligently following up school absences with consequent isolation of a suspected contagiously infected youngster.

His report of Infant and Mother Mortality are fit examples of what any physician might do for his home town, were sufficient initiative and interest only attending.

"It has been a pleasure to work with the Health Officer and J. F. Jellama the city chemist, as well as others who were most generous and considerate in submitting data and other valuable information."

Renewal of Electric Franchise in Holland Township

To Be Voted Upon at Your Regular Township Election to Be Held on Monday, April 6th

At the regular Township Election which will be held next Monday, April 6th, there will be submitted to the electors of the Township a proposition of renewing the electric franchise in the Township, so that the supplying of electric service to the people in the Township may be continued.

At the Township meeting a few weeks ago, this franchise was submitted to your Township Board who passed the franchise. They also made it possible for the electors to vote upon this franchise at the regular election.

The renewal of this electric franchise will give the Consumers Power Company the right to do business in the Township and will aid in the supplying of electric service to the rural customers. There is nothing in the franchise that is objectionable. This franchise only gives the Consumers Power Company the right to do business in the Township.

The franchise grants the right to the Consumers Power Company to construct, maintain and commercially use electric lines consisting of towers, poles, wires, transformers, and other necessary appliances for the purpose of transmitting, transforming and distributing electricity on, along and across the public highways, etc., and to do a local electric business in the Township. The Consumers Power Company's towers and poles will be neat and slightly, and so placed on either side of the highway as not to unnecessarily interfere with the use thereof for street or highway purposes. When it becomes necessary to trim trees along the highway, the trimming of such trees is subject to the supervision of the highway authorities. All of the poles and wires placed in the Township are subject to the regular property taxes which the Township might levy.

The Consumers Power Company shall at all times keep the Township free and harmless from all losses, costs and expense to which it may be subject by reason of the construction and maintenance of the structures authorized. In case any action is commenced against the Township on account of the permission granted by the franchise, said Consumers Power Company shall, upon notice, defend the Township and keep it free and harmless from all loss, cost and damage.

The rights granted in the franchise are not exclusive, as stated in Section 5 of the franchise, "The rights, power and authority herein granted, are not exclusive."

That is, the Township Board may grant another electrical franchise to another Company if they so desire.

The Township is put to no expense on account of the electors voting upon this franchise. The Consumers Power Company pays for the election notices published in the local papers and also pays for the printing of the ballots. The copy of the franchise is in the hands of the Township Clerk.

Any electors wishing to see the franchise may do so by calling upon the Township Clerk. The above is a brief explanation of this franchise so that the electors may be acquainted with its contents. In order that electric service may be continued and expanded in your Township, especially to those people who now do not have electric service, it is important that this franchise carries at the April 6th election. Patrons of the local Post Office are 100 per cent in favor of retaining Ben Rankens as post master. A petition containing the names of all patrons with not more than half a dozen lacking has been forwarded to Washington. There can be no doubt of the sentiment of the people, regardless of party affiliations, in regard to this matter and, if the desire of the people is at all taken into consideration by the men in authority, the outcome is self-evident. It is not unanimity but rather the enthusiasm of the whole community of the movement which is striking.

Folks are not only willing that Mr. Rankens be retained, but willing to bring about his reappointment. This, however is not so strange for those who acquainted with his record and service during the time of his tenure. Hamilton and vicinity have received splendid service from the Post Office force and they appreciate it. It is not merely a petition, it is rather a plea from both political parties for the reappointment of Mr. Rankens.

A "Homecoming" of the Ladies Mission Circle of the Reformed church was held on Thursday afternoon. All the ladies, numbering about one hundred thirty-five, who were at one time members of this society were invited to attend this unusual meeting. The Mission Circle was organized April 15, 1910, by Mrs. Hekhuis deceased. The program was made up of numbers by former members. Mrs. H. W. Pyle presided over the meeting. Devotions, which were in charge of Mrs. John Wolterink of Forest Grove, were followed by a solo by Mrs. Sander Wolters. Mrs. Gerald Immlink presented an interesting sketch of Mission Circle. Next "In Memoriam" was given by Mrs. Joe Schipper. Mrs. Ben Dumes of Holland gave a short talk, after which Mrs. Julia Voorhorst rendered a piano solo. Letters of greeting from former pastor's wives and members were read. Mrs. Jas. A. Kleinheksel concluded the program with a few closing remarks. At the regular Township Election which will be held next Monday, April 6th, there will be submitted to the electors of the Township a proposition of renewing the electric franchise in the Township, so that the supplying of electric service to the people in the Township may be continued.
At the Township meeting a few weeks ago, this franchise was submitted to your Township Board who passed the franchise. They also made it possible for the electors to vote upon this franchise at the regular election.
The renewal of this electric franchise will give the Consumers Power Company the right to do business in the Township and will aid in the supplying of electric service to the rural customers. There is nothing in the franchise that is objectionable. This franchise only gives the Consumers Power Company the right to do business in the Township.
The franchise grants the right to the Consumers Power Company to construct, maintain and commercially use electric lines consisting of towers, poles, wires, transformers, and other necessary appliances for the purpose of transmitting, transforming and distributing electricity on, along and across the public highways, etc., and to do a local electric business in the Township. The Consumers Power Company's towers and poles will be neat and slightly, and so placed on either side of the highway as not to unnecessarily interfere with the use thereof for street or highway purposes. When it becomes necessary to trim trees along the highway, the trimming of such trees is subject to the supervision of the highway authorities. All of the poles and wires placed in the Township are subject to the regular property taxes which the Township might levy.
The Consumers Power Company shall at all times keep the Township free and harmless from all losses, costs and expense to which it may be subject by reason of the construction and maintenance of the structures authorized. In case any action is commenced against the Township on account of the permission granted by the franchise, said Consumers Power Company shall, upon notice, defend the Township and keep it free and harmless from all loss, cost and damage.
The rights granted in the franchise are not exclusive, as stated in Section 5 of the franchise. "The rights, power and authority herein granted, are not exclusive." That is, the Township Board may grant another electrical franchise to another Company if they so desire.
The Township is put to no expense on account of the electors voting upon this franchise. The Consumers Power Company pays for the election notices published in the local papers and also pays for the printing of the ballots.
The copy of the franchise is in the hands of the Township Clerk. Any electors wishing to see the franchise may do so by calling upon the Township Clerk.
The above is a brief explanation of this franchise so that the electors may be acquainted with its contents. In order that electric service may be continued and expanded in your Township, especially to those people who now do not have electric service, it is important that this franchise carries at the April 6th election. Dr. De Jonge is Author of Book On School Cost

IS HUSBAND OF A HOLLAND GIRL; WAS BORN IN ZEELAND Issues Second Work on School Budgeting After Making Extensive Surveys

A former Zeeland man, Dr. Chris A. De Jonge, is the author of a new book just published by Doubleday, Doran and Co., Inc., of Garden City, New York. The 600-page book is entitled "Budgeting in Public Schools" and is the second which Mr. De Jonge has written in this field. The first book "Budgetary Practices," in Public School Administration, was published in 1932 by Northwestern University.

In The Bloomington, Illinois, Daily Pantagraph of February 23, 1936, Dr. De Jonge's new book is reviewed. Among other favorable comments are these: "One of the outstanding features of the book, Budgeting in Public Schools, which has just come from the press, is the social perspective of the author."

"The publication of this book comes at a most propitious time as many boards of education and administrators are now constructing their budgets for the next fiscal year or school year. Professor De Jonge's book will be of inestimable value to both the board member and the school official in charge of the budget. A further use of the book will be found in colleges of education where prospective administrators may find specific explanations and pertinent examples of budget construction."

"A few of the many attractive features of the book would include the condensed one-page pre-view at the beginning of each chapter, the ingenious use of explanatory charts, and the timely use of practical examples in proper budgetary procedure."

Because of the sound basic philosophy underlying this book, its practical value to the worker and the student in the field of education, its carefully planned organization and presentation, one may confidently expect it to find wide usage in educational circles. Beyond question Professor De Jonge's latest book will occupy a high place among the outstanding contributions of the present decade in the fields of education and business."

Although the book has been off the press only a few weeks it has already been adopted by four leading universities in the mid-west as a textbook in their graduate courses in school finance. Dr. De Jonge, who formerly taught school finance at Northwestern University, planned the book as a text for such classes and as a handbook for school administrators. He conducted three nation-wide surveys of school budgeting as a basis for the publication. This was supplemented by ten years of experience as a school administrator. Four years of this experience was in India, two years as superintendent of school in Hudsonville and four years as superintendent of the schools in Zeeland, his home town. From Zeeland Mr. De Jonge went to Evanston, Illinois, where he was on the faculty of Northwestern University from 1930 to 1934. Since September, 1934, Dr. De Jonge has been head of the Department of Education at Illinois State Normal University, which is the largest state teachers college in the United States.

He started his collegiate education at Hope college where he graduated and where a college romance also gave him a fine wife, namely Miss Marian Van Drezer, youngest daughter of Mrs. Anna Van Drezer of Holland. Mrs. De Jonge was also a graduate of the local institution.

BULLET REBOUNDS FROM SKULL AND LODGES IN RIFLE

C. Tucker, 21 years old, Mt. Clemens came home late Friday night despondent over not being able to obtain employment as an electrician.

He went to his room on the second floor took his father's .22 caliber rifle, held it to his forehead and pulled the trigger in an attempt to end his life.

But fate stepped in. The bullet refused to enter his head. It merely cut the flesh, dented the frontal bone and then rebounded into the barrel of the rifle from which it was dug out late by officers and a doctor who was called to attend Tucker. The lead pellet was found about one and one-half inches back from the muzzle of the barrel.

As a result, the young man is in the St. Joseph Hospital suffering from a severe headache but aside from that is uninjured.

At the hospital Saturday, Tucker told Prosecutor McKinstry that he would attempt to kill himself again as soon as he is released from the hospital.

"I'll use a larger gun and make a good job out of it the next time," he said. McKinstry is trying to find work for him.

Ottawa County To Be Visited By Grafters

THEY SHOULD ALSO BE SENT INTO ALLEGAN COUNTY—LET US SAY THESE ARE HONORABLE GRAFTERS

Ottawa county is to be visited by grafters in April, but these are the kind who graft trees and M. S. C. sponsors them. Ottawa county is mentioned in the list for April 27, however, Allegan county is not listed and the rabbits and mice have played havoc with the fruit trees there, too, especially in the fruit belt near Fennville. M. S. C. in sending these grafters through the state should also take Allegan county into consideration, since there is where the "fruit belt" is at its best.

The following communication was sent in from Michigan State College and this fine institution is cooperating with the U. S. Department of Agriculture in this and many matters of like importance:

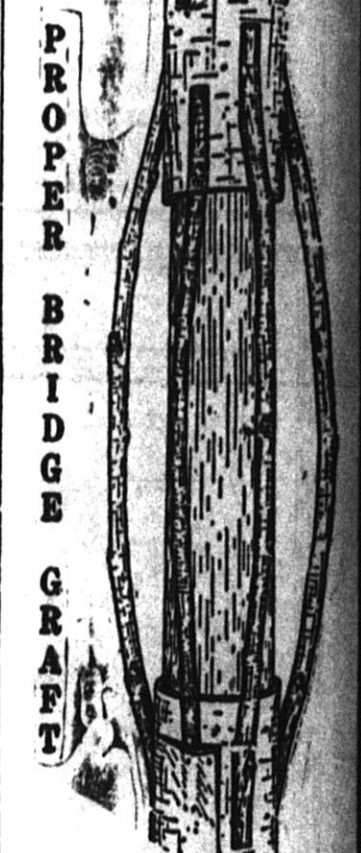

Severe damage to apple, pear, peach, cherry, and plum orchards throughout Michigan by rabbits and mice makes immediate preparation for grafting or other forms of bridge or replacement imperative, says Dr. V. B. Gardner, director of the Michigan State College Experiment Station at East Lansing.

Clons to be used in bridge grafting should be cut immediately and stored properly for use in the middle of April.

"Reports indicate that enormous damage has been done by rabbits and mice in Michigan this year," Dr. Gardner states. "Heavy and continuous snow combined with an increased mouse population is responsible for the unusual amount of damage, which has extended to peach, cherry, and plum trees."

Dr. Gardner suggests that clones cut for bridge grafting on apple and pear trees should be put in moist sand or sawdust until the time for grafting operations in the middle of April.

Clons should be cut from hardy varieties but the specific variety is not important as the grafts do not usually develop fruiting wood.

middle of April when the bark begins to slip. The bridge graft is not generally applicable to cherry, peach or plum trees.

Detailed information on grafting can be secured by writing the Michigan State College horticulture department for special bulletin No. 142 on Grafting in the Apple Orchard and for supplementary information especially prepared for the 1936 problem.

T. A. Merrill and H. D. Hoodman, horticulture extension workers, will make a three-week tour of the state in April to estimate orchard losses. The county schedule follows: April 13, St. Joseph; April 15, Cass; April 16, Calhoun; April 17, Eaton; April 23, Barry and Benning; April 24, Berrien and Ottawa; April 27, Genesee; April 28, Lapeer; April 29, Monroe and Van Buren; April 30, Branch and Muskegon; May 5, Macomb and Manistee; May 6, Oakland and Charlevoix; and May 11, Ingham.

HOLLAND WILL BE HOST TO OTTAWA SCOUTS DURING TULIP TIME

Ottawa county boy scouts will hold their annual jamboree in Holland this year on Boy Scout day arranged for the opening of the Tulip Festival. The scouts were invited by William M. Connelly, managing director of the Holland chamber of commerce. Preliminary plans were made at a meeting of the county council executive committee in Holland.

The committee also discussed the summer camp problem, Paul Johnson of this city, chairman of the camp committee, reporting 13 applications for attendance. It is planned to have both council and troop camps, the camp period to be June 22 to Aug. 22. Applications indicate facilities of Camp Wilderness on Lake Pettit, Newaygo county, will be taxed.

A. J. Fisher, cubing chairman, reported an organization, especially in Grand Haven where the first pack is being started.

Efforts toward better camp sanitation are to be made, Dr. Ottavander Velde of Holland, chairman of the safety and sanitation committee, said. He and Dr. Ralph Ten Have, northwest district health and safety committee chairman, are enlisting the services of N. A. Rosenberg, county sanitarian.

C. C. Wood of Holland, sanitarian, reported plans for the jamboree.

ARNOLD TELLS ABOUT FARM LOANS

Applications for emergency crop loans are now being received at the office of L. R. Arnold, County Agr. Agent. The emergency crop loans will be made only to farmers who cannot obtain credit from any other source as provided by regulations issued by the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration. The money loaned will be limited to the farmer's immediate and actual cash needs for growing his 1936 crops and in no instance may exceed $200 to one farmer. Farmers are not eligible for emergency crop loans if they can borrow from an individual, production credit association, bank or other concern. Farmers will also be considered ineligible if they have an application pending with the Resettlement Administration, have received assistance from that organization this year or are indebted to the Resettlement Administration for an unpaid loan. As in the past the security of an emergency crop loan will consist of a first lien on the crop financed. Landlord or others having an interest in the crop to be financed will be required to waive their claims in favor of a lien to the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration until the emergency crop loan is repaid. Checks will be issued in favor of approved loan by the Regional Emergency Crop and Feed loan office, St. Paul, Minn.

Jesus Invites All People—Luke 14:15-24

HENRY GEERLINGS

We all know the story of the parable. A great feast is prepared. Invitations have been sent out. At supper time the host, in accordance with custom, sends his servant to remind the guests that the feast is still waiting. This custom of reminding guests still remains in the East. We have here a double invitation. The first is general and the second is particular. The double invitation was an undoubted fact in the spiritual history of the Jews, and it is an undoubted fact in our spiritual sphere today. The Jewish people were first invited by the prophets to participate in the blessings of the kingdom, and then when the hour of fulfillment came, and the kingdom was at hand, Jesus as the Son of man appeared and invited them to the feast long promised and now ready.

Christ's view of the past course of revelation was that it was all preparative to himself and his gifts. The whole past ages of the history of Israel—during which law and sacrifice and prophecy had been aiming to make men ready to receive the kingdom was the preparation, the first call.

The double call is an undoubted fact in all spiritual life. There is a general invitation which comes to all who hear the gospel. The dawn of every Sabbath brings it. It is repeated in every sermon. It comes to us in the religious institutions by which we are surrounded. And to this invitation all consent. It is easy to agree that it is a good thing to be a Christian, and all intend some time or other to become Christians. But then comes the second and particular invitation.

The second invitation comes in many forms, but in whatever form it comes it is always the same in its nature. It is a challenge to change conviction into action; no longer to admire Christ and approve of Christianity from a distance, but to close with Christ.

There is something unnatural in the refusal to attend the feast. The parable describes what would never take place in actual life, and in this respect it is unlike the parables of our Lord in general, one of the principal charms of which is their naturalness. We have only to think of the Prodigal Son, or the Good Samaritan, or the Pharisee and the Publican to realize how delightfully natural they are. They belong to the region of the imagination, but the meaning is never forced, the incidents are never arbitrary. Now in this parable something is described which would never take place in real life. We would never hear of all the people who were invited to a feast with one consent excusing themselves.

But this very unnaturalness is the most marked feature of the truthfulness of the parable, because it brings out this fact, people will behave as they never behave in the ordinary affairs of life.

All the reasons that are given come to one and the same thing, namely, occupation with present interests, duties, possessions, or affections. There are differences in the excuses, which not only are helps to the vividness of the narrative, but also express differences in the speakers. One man is a shade more polite than the others. He puts his refusal on the ground of necessity. He must and so he courteously declines. He may be held excused. The second is not quite so polite; but still there is a touch of courtesy about him also. He does pretend necessity as his friend had done, but he simply says that he is going. The last man thinks that he has an undeniable reason that he may be as brusque as he likes, and so he says that he has married a wife and cannot come. So with varying degrees of apparent recognition of the claim of host and feast, the ground of refusal is set forth as possession in two cases and as affection in the third. These so fill men's hearts and minds that they have no time to attend to the call that summons them to the feast.

Then the master of the house was angry and said to his servant to go into the lanes of the city. The Pharisees had set aside the invitation. Others were responding to it. Jerusalem has its social and religious outcasts, the large element of population usually spoken of as publicans and sinners; and these represented by the poor, the blind, the maimed, and the halt, were crowding in to fill the gospel feast. Before long a third class would be invited. Cheered as the result of his labors in the streets and lanes of the city, the servant comes to report his willingness and seems to express his willingness to be employed again in inviting yet more guests. So this time he is sent out side the city to scour the highways and search beneath the hedges for any aliens and strangers who might be found there. This represents the carrying of the gospel to the Gentiles.

Addresses the Tulip City Rotarians on Road Commission Matters

(Grand Haven Tribune)

Carl T. Bowen, Ottawa county road engineer, addressed the Holland Rotary club recently on the operation and financing of the Ottawa county road commission and maintenance of the county system.

In his talk he stressed that the county commission with no revenue other than the gas and weight tax money, could not build new roads, maintain township roads and provide snow removal as it could in the past when a property tax was levied.

In 1932, when the tax relief program was adopted in Michigan, practically no monies have been raised by the county or township. The state provides this county about $275,000 in gas and weight tax money, out of which about $105,000 is earmarked for debt service, he said, which leaves only about $17,000 for road improvement in this county.

At one time as high as $500,000 was raised for road work in one year and this amount provided money for many years of road building and maintenance, he cited. Following the passage of the McNitt law, that 20 per cent of the township's roads were to be taken over by the counties in five years, the township ceased to raise taxes for road purposes, believing that eventually the county would be responsible for the roads.

On April 1 the last of the township roads will be taken over, which means that the county system will then include 1146.6 miles. Some of these roads are in bad shape due to neglect, he said.

With no road taxes in the county, people cannot expect the same service as when there were taxes, sometimes as high as eight different taxes, he pointed out.

In Kent county a willingness has been expressed to raise additional millage for highway maintenance purposes by some 75 supervisors. An addition of one mill in the 24 townships of Kent county would raise $44,000, it has been stated by Otto Hess, Kent county road engineer, he cited.

Mr. Bowen also said that in the future it would be his recommendation that snow removal be confined to main roads that would reach cemeteries and villages, rather than attempting plowing township roads in an effort to cover the entire county. The winter has proved that such a task is impossible. In the future a few well-chosen roads will be far more benefit than trying to keep roads open in all directions. He pointed out that the money spent on this type of snow removal would be far better spent on improvements of the roads themselves.

He explained the organization of the road commission, the revenue source and the systems employed by the road commission. He stated that $75,000 is invested in properties and buildings and about $100,000 in equipment necessary to maintain the county system.

John De Boer, 76, died Friday at his home, 249 Columbia Ave. Surviving are the widow, two children, John De Boer of Holland and Mrs. Mabel Hughes of Colorado Springs, Colo.; a brother, Simon De Boer of Holland, and two sisters, Mrs. Dr. D. UNIVERSITY STUDENT AND WORLD TRAVELER HEARD HERE BY LARGE CROWD

Walter P. Reuther, student of social and industrial problems of Wayne University, Detroit, who has just returned from a 3 year world study tour, visiting 17 countries, spoke on "Two Years Under Hitler and Stalin" to a good crowd at Labor Hall last Tuesday evening.

Mr. Reuther who spent 4 1/2 months in Germany during the period of the burning of the Reichstag told of the terroristic and brutal tactics used by Hitler to capture and maintain power. Relating his experience while visiting eleven countries throughout Europe, Mr. Reuther said, "Every time we tried to cross from one country to another we were told by the emigration officials, 'if you are looking for a job you cannot enter our country for we have too many of our own unemployed.' On applying to the Russian consulate we were told that we could not stay in Russia longer than three months unless we did go to work."

Continuing, Mr. Reuther spoke of the social security of the workers, free medical service and democracy. "In the Soviet Union government is not divorced from the people—it is linked up and interwoven with the everyday life of the masses of people. The undemocratic features of government, they felt necessary a few years ago, have been eliminated. There is equal representation and direct voting by secret ballot. There are only 2 1/2% of the people disfranchised and in the last election 89% of the electorate voted."

Continuing, Mr. Reuther said, "Contrary to a common misconception, Stalin is not the dictator in Russia nor is the Communist Party. Stalin and the party only act in an advisory capacity—the real power lies in the trade union and governmental organizations controlled by the workers and the farmers."

When asked about religion, Mr. Reuther said, "I attended many churches in Russia and found complete religious freedom there. The old Russian church was subsidized by the government, now the church has the same status in relation to the state as has the church in America and the church must be maintained by the people who attend it as is the case in America. A system of unified governmental schools has replaced the old church schools. Religion is not taught in the schools but it can be taught in the church and home."

Mr. Reuther concluded by stating, "The people in the Soviet Union are making tremendous progress. The standard of living is going up very rapidly but there are still problems that they are solving every day. Everywhere I went the people told me that they desire for world peace so that their progress would not be interrupted."

The speaker claims to have seen in his European visit during three years.

Reinforcements from Michigan

Flood waters rage . . . dams break . . . water stands ten feet deep in the business section of a great city.

Local telephone circuits are flooded and temporarily damaged. The Bell System mobilizes. From neighboring companies—including Michigan—come squads of trained and tested telephone men. The Bell expeditionary forces land—and in a short time they are able to echo that famed message of the Marines: "The situation is well in hand."

Only one thing made this possible. That is the fact that Bell System practices and equipment are standard the country over. Consequently, when the Bell System mobilizes in an emergency, it is not necessary for reinforcements from other companies to ask: "What kind of equipment is it?" They merely say: "Where is it?" and go quietly and efficiently to work on familiar ground. This is true in Pittsburgh today where the Michigan Bell Telephone Company is contributing part of the emergency force. It was true in Michigan—in 1922 and 1929—when reinforcements from other Bell System companies came here to aid in the work of restoring communications temporarily destroyed by the sleet storms of those years. Without a nation-wide force of systematically trained men, without standard equipment in every associated company, some of the things which Bell men have accomplished swiftly as part of their routine duties would have caused confusion and endless delay.

Whenever you lift a Bell Telephone receiver, tremendous resources in men, organization and equipment are at your command. And there are times when it is impossible to measure the value of telephone service except in terms of life and death.

Mrs. Nine P. Tait, center, night operator at South Haven, while on duty on March 3, 1935, answered a switchboard signal which she recognized as coming from a local department store. gained consciousness four days later and was able to identify his assailant, who was convicted and sentenced.

MR. YNTEMA GETS EASY TURN IN THE ELECTION FOR MAYOR AT ZEELAND

Evidently the Republican committee was well satisfied with the nomination of Gerrit Yntema on the Citizens Ticket because they have decided to leave the space on the Republican ticket blank at the coming city election on April 6th at Zeeland.

John Hartgerink was nominated at the Republican caucus, but at once declined to run for the office.

Since the caucuses were held two substitutes were made in the two tickets besides this vacancy. Mr. Gerrit Yntema was named for mayor in the place of Milan Huyser, who declined to run for mayor on the Citizens ticket, and Sig Mathieson was nominated for treasurer after Ed. Glerum declined to run for that office on the Republican ticket.

Zeeland boasting one of the most competent police departments of any community of similar size in the state, credits this fact, among other things, to a series of robberies and house burglaries in the spring of 1935.

Investigation of the robberies produced fingerprints as the only clues, but lack of finances prevented Chief Fred Bosma from hiring a fingerprint expert to clear up identity of the thieves. So the fingerprints were catalogued in the hope that somehow the money needed would become available. It was then that Lester DePree, a member of the police department, decided to take up the fingerprinting study himself. And so for weeks he studied extensively the art of fingerprint detection. So thoroughly did he apply himself to his self-appointed task that he scored a perfect mark on his final examination. Explaining that his study was not all textbook reading, DePree says that he "experimented" with every individual booked by the local police department. Regardless of the charge on which they were hailed before the police authorities, all who ran afoul of the law in Zeeland became special pupils of DePree. As a result Zeeland is one of the few cities of its size in the entire United States able to boast of the membership of a bona fide fingerprint expert on its police department. DePree's fingerprint record is not only one, however, entitling the officer to special commendation. He risked his life on January 9, 1935, to warn and rescue more than a score of persons in the explosion of a paint truck on M21. Suffering severe burns and bruises, he carried two persons from the flames and used the coat of his uniform to beat out the flames—G. R. Press.

Miss Eleanor Faber was honored at a miscellaneous shower Friday evening given by Misses Gladys and Myrtle Faber at their home in Grand Rapids. Guests were Mrs. John Faber, Mrs. John Korstanje, Mrs. Calvin Faber, Mrs. Donald Faber, Miss Louise Hubbard of Zeeland, Miss Nella Korstanje of Grand Rapids, Mrs. James Faber, Mrs. Harvey Faber, Mrs. Harold Faber and Lee Faber of Grand Rapids and Mrs. Henry Faber of Holland.

Rev. J. Van Peursem officiating. Attendants were, Miss Mary Schaap and Mr. Melvin Bouma. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding supper was served.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

LAMB comes to the fore as the best meat value of the week. Veal is very much higher and beef somewhat so. Fresh fish from the ocean is coming to market in increasing variety and quantity.

Oranges continue to be an outstanding fruit value. Banana quality improves as the cold weather moderates. Strawberries are more plentiful with both Florida and Louisiana shipping. All these fruits go well in fruit gelatin, fruit comp, alone or in combination.

Here are three menus for Sunday dinner at different budget levels.
