A Record Breaking Reunion
Class of 1926

By Carol V. H. Van Putten

When bigger and better reunions are held—look for the Class of 1926! Yes, our twenty-fifth reunion on Tuesday, June 12, 1951, set an all time record in Hope history. Fifty-six members of the class participated in all or part of the day’s festivities, and with their attractive wives and handsome husbands made a total of eighty-six present.

The friendliness and unity which characterized our campus days were immediately evidenced when we met for coffee in the Julianna Room at Durfee Hall at 10 A.M. The twenty-five years had brought few changes although we admit some grey hairs and a few superfluous pounds (very few). Dr. Dimnent, our special guest, recognized us all, due, no doubt, to the fact that as our college President for four years, he probably knew us better than we knew ourselves.

After a short tour of Durfee Hall, we moved on to the lovely Garden Room at the Castle for a luncheon arranged by Martie Bayles Bosch, Marg Anderson De Pree, Marian Laepple Schaafstma and Adelaide and Geraldine Dykhuizen. Dr. Lubbers was our guest and Jim Van Meulen (honored this year with a Doctor of Laws Degree from our Alma Mater) presided at the informal program which followed.

Dr. Fred Olert spoke in memory of the five classmates who have passed away, Richard Harkema, Henry Nyboer, Katharine Keppel Votrubia, Cornelius Heselr and Lester Essenburg.

Dr. Lubbers recalled our student days when he had many of us in his English classes. He summarized the progress made by the college during the past twenty-five years and outlined plans for the future. He was assured of our continued interest and support.

As Jim called the roll, each member of the class responded with a brief account of his activities since leaving Hope, and letters were read from many who were unable to attend. We heard from Marion De Young, Jim De Pree, Aaron Unger, Al Nevel, Ted Eisenbarry, Jeanette Veldman, Del Kinney and many others. We were happy to receive a telegram from Gerry Pool, Clarence Hesselink, Everett De Witt, Jeanette Veldman, Al Nevel, Noam Vander Hart and Dick Mallery, who were attending General Synod at Buck Hill Falls, Pennsylvania.

Would that we had the space to tell all, but a few nuggets will have to suffice. Fred Meyer was named the “best preserved” member of the class. Tim Cramer is now known as “A Man of Distinction” (He will be glad to explain). Albertus Derks reported he was married and living with his wife. George Steketee boasted proudly of two sons, and Betty Stegena wittily remarked she had the same children George had.

Malcolm Dull, Ph.D., recently called as an expert witness in a trial, found himself in an amusing situation. A Judge Smart was on the bench and one of the lawyers was a Mr. Sharpe. Malcolm remarked dryly, “Needless to say, the decorum of the court was somewhat upset when I gave my name.”

“Sailor” Langius wrote that he and his wife, Dorothy, were raising a son to replace President Truman, and a daughter to replace Ethel Barrymore. He felt he should inform us of this project to which he is devoting all of his time, as it would be foolish for anyone else to be doing the same.

In a more serious vein, we are proud of the Christian leadership shown by our classmates in the ministry, in education, business, medicine and as parents. We value highly the heritage given us by Hope College and we wish to give this heritage to our children. You will find our sons and daughters on the Hope Campus. Frank Hinkamp’s daughter, Eloise, graduated this year, as did Ray Fieldhouse’s son, Wayne and John Ver Beek’s daughter, Jeannie. Many more sons and daughters will be in attendance for years to come.

As our pictures were taken for posterity, we were aware of the anxious and admiring scrutiny of the Class of ’31 as they emerged from the Castle dungeon. If the pictures fail to do us justice, the finger of guilt points to Bill Witches. After he was given the third degree, he admitted that he deliberately moved the camera.

Our next reunion? Many reservations have already been made for June 1956. Margaret Anderson De Pree will be chairman and the same local committee will assist her.

Here’s to the Class of ’26! As Dr. Jim Van Meulen said, with all due modesty, at the Alumni Banquet, “The best class that ever graduated from Hope College. We took a vote and it was unanimous.”
In the Armed Forces

CHAPLAIN (MAJOR) DAVID REARDON ON DUTY IN KOREA

Major David M. Reardon ’52, a veteran Army Chaplain, has been in Korea since last November. He left Fort Benning, Georgia, with the Third Infantry Division in August and sailed for Japan on September 1. He landed with his Division at the Port of Wason, some distance north of the 38th Parallel on November 10. He had a part in the successful rescue mission which drove through heavy Red attacks to link up the Marines retreating from the Changjin Reservoir area. After the completion of escort duties, the Division was deployed along the perimeter of the Hungnam beachhead to give the Marines and other United Nations troops time to execute the long and complicated evacuation maneuver in Naval ships off the Port. Chaplain Reardon was one of the last group of men to leave the beachhead.

After a brief rest on board ship, the Third Division again went into combat from a southern port working its way north again, enduring not only the natural results of battle but the severe cold as well. On May 15 the troops were occupying the city of Seoul.

That Major David Reardon is really serving is evidenced by the fact that he was awarded the Bronze Star Medal in April, 1951, for outstanding personal bravery and devotion to duty.

Capt. R. C. Janes, surgeon of the Third Med. Bn, 15th Inf. Reg’t, 3rd Division writes:

"Chaplain Reardon was and is a source of comfort and inspiration to many a weary and depressed front line soldier—this one included up to the time I left. The little services he held in my aid stations will always be remembered by me as some of the most moving and inspiring I have ever known. It means an awful lot to the G.I. in Korea to have someone there to remind him that the Lord is watching over him even in that distant, barren and cruel land."

It will be remembered that David has served the Army as a chaplain at Fort Lewis, Seattle, the Aleutians and Fort Riley, Kansas, before his 39 months in Straubing, Germany. From Germany he was assigned to Fort Benning, Georgia, and then on to Korea.

Mrs. Reardon and their three children are living in Willmar, Minnesota, while Major Reardon is in action.

RICHARD OOSTA CITED

Richard Oosta ’50N, who is expected home sometime in July, received a citation recently for "excellent service in the line of his profession during operations in Korea from 8 to 11 December 1950. Dental Technician Third Class Oosta, serving as a hospital corpsman . . . without regard for his own personal safety or fatigue supervised the establishment and operation of a forward aid station when his battalion was assaulting hill 1081 near Koto-ri, Korea. By his tireless efforts and sound professional knowledge, although often under fire, he successfully directed and assisted in the care of not only the Navy casualties suffered by his own unit but also casualties from the Division Convoy which was ambushed near his aid station."

Pfc. Donald Harling ’50 has been assigned to the U.S. Army Hospital at Camp Kilmer, N. J. as a medical technician.

JUSTIN VANDER KOLK

Justin Vander Kolk '31 was doubly honored at the 145th annual session of General Synod of the Reformed Church in America. He was elected Professor of Systematic Theology for New Brunswick Seminary where he has served since 1946 as instructor. The same session of General Synod appointed Prof. Justin Vander Kolk and Dr. Bernard J. Mulder '17, Executive Secretary of the Board of Education, delegates to the World Council's meeting on Faith and Order to meet in Lund, Sweden, in the summer of 1952.

June, 1951, was a banner month for Justin. Besides the above mentioned honors, he terminated his work for, and received his Ph.D. degree from the University of Chicago. It should be mentioned here also that it was on June 12 that he made an outstanding report of the Reunion of the Class of 1931 at the Alumni Dinner.

History: Born in Vriesland, Michigan, of Netherlands ancestry; educated in public schools of Ottawa County, Michigan, including Zeeland High School; was graduated from Hope College in 1931; taught for six years in primary and secondary schools of Zeeland township and city; was graduated from New Brunswick Theological Seminary in 1936; married Eunice Brokaw Campbell in 1936; pastor First Christian Church of Irvington, New Jersey, from 1936 to 1945; studied at Oberlin Graduate School of Theology earning the degree of S.T.M. in 1946; three daughters: Marilyn, Joyce and Nancy Carol.

Comment: "In the summer of 1946 I was asked to teach Systematic Theology at my Alma Mater, New Brunswick Theological Seminary. I agreed to come and have never regretted the decision since we have been very happy here. I love my work. It is very interesting as well as challenging."

HAVE YOU READ ANY EXCITING MURDER STORIES LATELY?

We came across this one from a clipping in the Albany Times-Union, and it is probably as unusual as it is true. The hero in this case is district attorney Clinton S. Cole '28, who was elected prosecutor of Montgomery County, New York, in Nov. 1949 for a three year term. According to the newspaper account, Clint is saddled with a task of prosecuting two double murders—a plight that would weaken the knees of most district attorneys in the country.

The first murder involves Ernest A. Stone, a former Albanian, for the brutal killing of two 'teen-agers, William A. Waterman and his companion, Jeanne L. Stone, on last October 1st. The trial is now under way.

The second double murder occurred Friday, May 11, when Percy Morley, proprietor of a sporting goods store and a customer, Aricki Di Blasi, were sliced to death with a knife. Thomas J. Mullarkey, a 22-year old Air Force Corporal from Amsterdam, is being charged with first-degree murder for the crime.

The Times-Union states that the former Hope graduate has a burden, rarely the lot of a prosecuting officer—two double murders within eight months.

*1929. Lawrence Vredevoe will be on the summer school staff of the University of California at Los Angeles. The family will spend the summer in California with him.

How much better this world would be, if every day we as Christians would take a half hour for vacant musings and be passive. We should let our minds muse of the graces of God, and that He will make all things well though we do not see it now.—Dr. John B. Nykerk.
HENRIETTA KEIZER IN UNIQUE SYSTEM OF PIANO INSTRUCTION

Miss Henrietta Keizer '25 has achieved distinction as a music instructor. The La Porte Herald Argus of La Porte, Indiana, gives a glowing account of her work. Miss Keizer was formerly associate professor of Music Education at Capitol University, Columbus, Ohio.

"Miss Henrietta Keizer and Mrs. Lola Vawter, music instructors in the La Porte public schools, received special commen-dation recently from Newell H. Long, assistant dean of music at Indiana University. The two local teachers received mention for their pioneering in class piano instruction in La Porte schools.

At the request of the Alumni Magazine, Miss Keizer has written a description of her work:

A significant development in the field of music education is that of piano instruction in the public schools. Until quite recently only a few children were privileged to study this basic musical instrument; now an increasingly larger number are enrolled in piano classes.

This change has come about through persistent efforts of music educators and an increased awareness, on the part of administrators, of the value of such study in the general development of children. In some cities, piano class work has been carried on for more than a quarter of a century; in many cases with excellent results. However, all too often these results were measured primarily in terms of musical accomplishment, with little attention to other educational outcomes. Modern music educators feel that character and personality development are of equal importance.

What shall it profit a child if he learns to play Bach, Beethoven and Chopin if, at the same time, he has developed a hatred for music? Or if, as a result of too frequent public performance, he has become a social snob!

Pioneering in this field of music education is the city of La Porte, Indiana, where the study of piano is required in grades 3A and 4B. This means that every child of nine or ten years of age studies piano for one year with a teacher trained in child psychology and modern pedagogy as well as in methods of developing musicianship and piano technique.

There are ten classes in six schools. These classes meet four times a week, from twenty to thirty minutes each, depending upon the size of the classes. These range in number from twenty to thirty-eight pupils.

It is estimated that approximately eighty per cent of the children would be denied the privilege of piano instruction if they were not offered as a part of daily school work. The theory that only the "talented" youngster should have music lessons is gradually being discarded. Piano class work contributes toward good citizenship. It trains a child to think, to accept responsibility and to value teamwork. It gives him the finest preparation for a democratic way of life.

What you see depends upon what you bring to see it.—Dr. John B. Nykirk.

REUNION OF THE CLASS OF 1916

By George A. Pelgrim

The luncheon party can honestly be called a huge success! The actual attendance outside of the local group was a bit limited but we did have from remote points Gene Flipse from Douglaston, New York; Olie Johnson from Chicago; Clayt Bazun from Grand Rapids; and Bea Yoomans managed to be with us even though she doesn't get to these busy shindigs very often.

The pastime from noon till four o'clock was considerably different than it would have been thirty-five years ago when chasing each other over the sands of Lake Michigan would have been the appropriate thing but on this occasion we sat around and read twenty-five letters from classmates from all points of the compass and one even came from remote India. These letters are real treasures and it would be a shame not to have every 16'er enjoy them, so we are sending the final report on the 35th Anniversary of the graduation of the Class of 1916 with a copy to you all of the letters that had been written to us and read at that meeting.

The banquet in the evening again brought the same group and a few others together and we were prominently mentioned from the toastmaster's table, and Gene Flipse gave a little eulogy of the special class and a suggestion to all alumni everywhere that they try to meet the accomplishments of the record of the famous 16'ers.

'51 MATH MAJORS RECEIVE ASSISTANTSHIPS

Ernest Haight of Holland; Robert Erickson of Saugatuck and Eugene Butler of Auburn, New York, have received assistantships in mathematics for next year.

Ernest Haight will teach college algebra and plane trigonometry while doing graduate work in theory of analytic functions, vector analysis and partial differential equations.

Robert Erickson will teach and study at Purdue University and Eugene Butler will perform similar duties while studying at Syracuse University.

JOHN VER BEEK '26 TO DIRECT HOPE EVENING SCHOOL

Prof. John Ver Beek of the education department will direct the Hope College evening school program for 1951-1952.

The evening school was launched in the winter of 1950-1951 with six courses offered. Prof. Ver Beek is in the process of organizing a committee, made up of members of the faculty and the community, to develop plans for an extension of this program of community service.
HOPE COLLEGE HONORS FOUR WITH DEGREES IN 1951

A feature of the 86th annual commencement was the awarding of four honorary degrees. Three of those honored are Hope graduates, Peter Baker '20, James M. Ver Meulen '26 and Henry Colenbrander '13; the fourth, Rev. Bastian Kruijthof, pastor of First Reformed Church, Holland, has served on the Board of Trustees of the College and has been on the faculty as a part-time instructor.

James Ver Meulen, vice president of the American Seating Company of Grand Rapids since 1947, has been a member of the board of education of the Reformed Church in America since 1940. During the past year he was elected president of that Board. Two years ago Mr. Ver Meulen became actively interested in the formation of the Hope College Alumni Varsity Club and served as the first president of that organization. He received a doctor of laws degree.

Peter Baker was graduated from the New Brunswick Theological Seminary after leaving Hope. In 1927 he organized an academy in Bahia, Brazil, under sponsorship of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions. Mr. Baker has just accepted the presidency of Mackenzie College in Sao Paulo, Brazil, one of the largest colleges in South America. He will leave the Bahia school which he built from the beginning to an institution training over 700 students. He received the degree of doctor of divinity.

Rev. Colenbrander, who received a doctor of divinity degree, has been pastor of the First Reformed Church of Orange City, Iowa, since 1925. He is a graduate of Western Seminary in the Class of 1916.

Rev. Kruijthof is a native of The Netherlands. He is a graduate of Calvin College and Calvin Seminary. He has been pastor of First Church since 1942. He served the Board of Trustees of the College as secretary and a member of the executive committee from 1944 to 1950. He, also, received the doctor of divinity degree.

- At the present time there are three Hope College graduates working in the Chemistry Department at Purdue University: Ed Dunning and Casper Ultee, both '50, are at present working for their Master’s degrees (Organic Chemistry and Physical Chemistry respectively). George Toren ‘48 is working for his Ph.D. in Organic Chemistry. All three of the boys will be on fellowships. Marion TerBorg Toren ‘48 is teaching in the Lafayette Public Grade Schools and Mary Lou Hepp Dunning ’49 is working in an insurance office in Lafayette while George and Ed are in school.

- 1949. Richard Hobeke received his M.S. Degree from the University of Vermont on June 8, 1951.

- 1949. Anna Ruth Workman will teach in the early elementary grades at Grand Haven Christian next year.

- 1931. Marguerite Kinkema will attend a six-week’s workshop in ‘Intercultural Relations’ under Dr. Hilda Tabi at the State College of San Francisco this summer. Her scholarship is sponsored by the Association of Protestants and Jews. While in San Francisco Marguerite will attend the NEA Convention. She expects to spend a week in Mexico before returning home.

ALUMNI DAY TO BE ON SATURDAY IN 1952

At the June 14 session of the Board of Trustees of Hope College, a change in the Commencement schedule was voted. The 87th annual commencement will be held on Monday morning of the last week of school instead of Wednesday evening of the same week as has been the custom. This is in line with the policy of many colleges throughout the country. It will enable alumni, parents and friends of the graduating class to take in the entire commencement week program. The plan calls for Alumni Day to be held on Saturday, Baccalaureate on Sunday of the same week-end.

137 GET DEGREES AT HOPE’S 86TH ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

On Wednesday, June 13, 1951, in Memorial Chapel, 137 graduating seniors received the Bachelor of Arts degree. They were presented for their degrees by Dr. John W. Hollenbach, Dean of the College. The degrees were presented to each by Dr. Lubbers.

The Class of 1951 really numbers 179. 26 were awarded their degrees in February and 16 will complete their studies in August after Summer School.

The commencement address was given by Dr. Lowell R. Ditzen, pastor of the Bronxville, New York, Reformed Church. Dr. Ditzen’s subject was “On Giving the World a Life.” He stressed the philosophy of “giving the world a life” rather than the philosophy of some that the “world owes me a living.” “Life never fulfills until we give all, all the time,” he said.

Soloist for the program was Jeanne Ver Beek, pianist, a member of the graduating class who played “Ballade in A Flat Major,” by Chopin. The Rev. Abraham Rynbrandt ’22 gave the invocation, the Rev. Gerrit J. Rozeboom of Coopersville gave the benediction. Scripture was read by the Rev. Ralph G. Korteling ’19.

The organ prelude, processional and recessional were played by Mrs. W. Curtis Snow ’41 and Dr. Lubbers presided at the service.

CLASS OF 1911 REUNION
By Irene Brusse Ver Hulst

Dr. William Westrate entertained the class of 1911 at luncheon in the Marine Dining Room of the Warm Friend Hotel Tuesday, June 12. Ten people enjoyed the bountiful meal and the informal meeting. Prof. A. E. Lampen brought us up to date on the activities of each member by asking all of us to give a brief history of himself and his family.

Mr. Weurding regaled us with his interesting reminiscences about athletics. He played football at Hope Preparatory School and at Hope College for eight years, probably unique for a Hope student.

Dr. E. Samuel Aeilts came back to Hope for the first time after his graduation. To him, after this too long absence, it was a delightful experience. We regret the inability of some to be present, especially those who have not been back to Hope for forty years.

Our last reunion was held 15 years ago when we were also guests of Dr. and Mrs. Westrate.

Messages were read from class members who were disappointed not to be able to be present including: Mrs. A. J. Te Paske, Sterling, Illinois; Rev. M. V. Oggel, Glen Rock, New Jersey; Mrs. V. J. Blekkink, Cohoes, New York and Mrs. M. M. Babcock, State College, Pennsylvania. We all regretted the passing of Roy A. Raven and the Rev. Emil O. Schwitters.

The class also attended the alumni dinner that evening. Those who were present at the reunion were: Dr. E. Samuel Aeilts, Sibley, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. James Weurding, Lawton, Michigan; Rev. and Mrs. Raymond D. Meengs, Kalamazoo; Rev. George B. Scholten, Neshanic, New Jersey; Prof. and Mrs. A. E. Lampen, Dr. William Westrate and Mrs. Irene Ver Hulst of Holland.

Andrew Branche Gives Baccalaureate Address

One of the greatest honors which has ever come to me is the privilege of being here with you to share this occasion. I am confident that your president and the members of your Board of Directors could have found many speakers who would have merited this invitation more than I. Therefore, what I shall say will be said in utter humility before the awful responsibility which is mine. First of all, I want to congratulate the members of the graduating class for the achievement of this goal in the process of your personal development. May this be the initial step in a long series of steps that shall lead on and on to victorious living for Jesus Christ.

I recall the baccalaureate sermon to my own college class. We were blessed to have a powerful orator—a strong man of God for our speaker. He said just the things that needed to be said. He told us of the perils of the new life we were about to enter. In beautiful language he outlined the pitfalls which lay between our graduation day and the achieving of the good life. He was right! Nobody with a reasoning mind can overlook the stark ugly truth that there are only rays and glimmers of light in this vast world of darkness. Good parents and conscientious teachers are ever aware of this dismal truth and responsibility.

Over the stretch of years I have boiled my college baccalaureate down to its essential message. Frankly, I am astonished at what I get! It goes something like this, "You are going into a dangerous place; keep yourself free from its temptation; be a good boy." Must I be afraid of life? Must I always be self-considering? Must I be perpetually introspective? I do not want to take life in little sips. I want to quaff the full cup. I do not want to eke out a nibbling existence. I want my life at its highest, noblest, fullest, best. The old sage advice to be good is still good advice, if it does not mean goodness in a vacuum. For goodness which does not reach out beyond itself to transform and redeem its evil environment is good for-nothing.

In the 17th chapter of the Gospel of John we read the prayer which Jesus prayed for his disciples when He knew that He must mount the Cross on Calvary and could walk with them no more. "I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil. They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. Sanctify them through thy truth: Thy word is truth. As thou hast sent me into the world so have I also sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth." (John 17:15-19)

Today you and I are the friends of Jesus whom he left in the world to carry on his work. You are in the process of being set aside, dedicated holy, sanctified. And Jesus has set forth the noblest reason for sanctification when he says, "I sanctify myself that they—others—may be sanctified." Sanctification for Jesus Christ is a responsible goodness which reaches out and converts, which offers a cup of cold water in the name of the Lord.

For, my friends, flagrant, overt sin is not the temptation which besets most of us with an academic background. Our experiences in high school and college have pointed to us the way to respectable living. Coming from Christian homes and a Christian College we have garnered a harvest of "Do's and don'ts." Never underestimate them! We are in no danger of becoming drunken sots, gamblers, robbers, murderers, adulterers. These sins lie outside the pale of respectability and do not trouble us.

One big peril which confronts us is that special brand of goodness which exists only for goodness sake and which has lost the quality of redemptive Godliness. We can remove ourselves so far from the evil world that we cannot hear the groans of the poor nor see the filth of the slums. That spiritual values in America are tumbling in our mad search for the everlasting dollar does not arouse us. That there are millions of hearts in our land and the lands beyond the seas where the name of Christ is not honored and loved does not imbue us with missionary zeal. Such coldness of heart may be tolerated in our respectable circles, but Jesus wants no part of it. He sanctified himself that he might sanctify others.

It was the great Italian patriot, Mazzini, who once said, "When I see any one called good, I ask: 'Who then has he saved?'"

Another sin which besets the path of those of us in academic circles is the spurious complacency which allows us to look at all the grave problems of the day with a superior and condescending neutrality. We are all aware that the last presidential election thoroughly upset the Gallup Poll, and the fondest dreams of Republicans also. But there is one thing of increasing interest and alarm to me and others who notice the reports in that and similar polls: the large number of our good people who cannot take a stand on one side or the other of vital questions affecting our national life. They take refuge in slippery evasions that fail to come to grips with the problem. Their answers are: "No comment," "Undecided," "No vote" and often a blank space and a silent voice. These "good" fellows remain silent, because if they spoke it would upset something or somebody and thereby break the peace. The same Jesus who said "Blessed are the Peacemakers" also said "I came not to bring peace but a sword." When principle was at stake and the will of God was flouted, Jesus spoke out even if it meant the Holy Temple of Jerusalem should fall.

Another blight in our path is the shifty psychology which allows us to lull ourselves into the torpor of irresponsibility. I teach school where I have the privilege of meeting with children be-(Continued on Page 20)
TEACHING
IN SIAM

Doris Wade '38 is in Bangkok, Siam, teaching English in the Wattona Wittaya Academy and the Rajini (Queen's) School. The Fulbright Foundation is sponsoring her as an exchange teacher for a school year. The school year in Bangkok runs from June to March, so Miss Wade is already on duty. She boarded a Stratocruiser in New York on Monday, June 18; her route included London, Brussels, Munich, Istanbul, Bierut, Basra, Morocco, Karcachi, Delhi and Calcutta. By Sunday, June 24, her mother had had a cablegram announcing her arrival in Bangkok.

Miss Wade is a native of Muskegon, where she attended elementary and secondary schools. After receiving her AB from Hope, she taught in several Muskegon County schools. During World War II she was an instructor in flying for Navy classes at Muskegon Junior College. She has her own pilot's license. For the past several years she has taught English in West Palm Beach High School. During her term in West Palm Beach she was principal of the school during the summer session.

An interest in the problems of foreign students studying in the United States led Miss Wade to organize a Foreign Students Club in Florida. She has spent much of her leisure tutoring members in the language and other studies during her teaching career.

Miss Wade has been informed that business and social language in Siam is chiefly English. Teachers live in small, apartment dwellings and employ an average of six servants. High temperatures in the country make the wearing of nylon garments advisable. There are a few cars in Siam, but the most widely used vehicle of transportation is a combined tricycle-wagon.

1949. William De Meester received his M.S. Degree from the University of Vermont in June. He has been accepted at Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, as research assistant.

DAVID VAN STRIEN
NEW PRESIDENT OF GENERAL SYNOD

Rev. David Van Strien, DD '09 was elected president of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America at the 145th regular session. He succeeds Dr. Henry A. Vruwink '10 of Brooklyn, New York.

Dr. Van Strien is a native of Grand Rapids, Michigan. After graduation from Hope College in 1909 he attended New Brunswick Theological Seminary. Upon graduation from the seminary he served the Reformed Church as a missionary in Japan from 1912-1920. He was pastor of the Whitehouse Station, New Jersey, church for two years after his service in Japan. Now he serves the Reformed Church of Woodcliff-on-Hudson, New Jersey.

Dr. Van Strien has been a member of the church's Board of Foreign Missions for 20 years, has represented the Reformed Church on the Federal Council of Churches and is now president of the board of superintendents of New Brunswick Seminary.

1947. John Mooi received his Ph.D. Degree in June from Northwestern University. He has a Fulbright fellowship at the University of Bristol, England, starting in September. He will continue to work in heterogeneous catalysis.

1947. Marian Korteling Levai received her M.D. at the University of Michigan on June 16.

We think our President is perfectly portrayed in this parody on W. S. Gilbert's "The Modern Major General." We are indebted to Rev. William R. Buitendorp '27, of Muskegon, New York, for the clipping containing this parody by an unknown author.

THE MODERN COLLEGE PRESIDENT

I am the very model of a modern college president,
I'm always on the job, though nearly always a nonresident,
I tour the country to assemble gatherings gastronomical
And make all kinds of speeches from sublime to broadly comical.
I keep trustees calm and the alumni all benevolent,
Restrain all signs of riot and publicity malevolent.
I know the market value of each wage-slave professorial,
And how much less he'll take for honorarium tutorial.
I've shaken every human hand that's manicured and squeamish;
I pass the hat among the rich, the buck whenever feasible;
So though I pile up mileage being generally nonresident,
I am the very model of a modern college president.
MEMORIAL CHAPEL

This inward flow of meditation light
Thus altered by the windows, rich in bloom,
And hovering so the faithful may consume
Its lesson in symbol, its Gothic insight,
Was mostly one man's dream. He wisely said
The saintly figures should be masculine,
And continental artistry should shine
About the splendid steeples overhead.
Let the rose-window have a western glow,
With stained glass like a poppy splash from France,
Embellished with the bloodshed and romance,
That weaves the song of songs above the foe.
And that searcher for beauty's chastened hand,
Who wandered over England Church by Church,
Felt his heart melt, and learned to understand
That he must find the object of long search.
His walking fever strangely disappeared
With halls of Oxford on a dimming shore.
Now, that he heard the student-singing soar
Above the organ whose reed pitch had neared
Their sparkling voices like a mountain bird;
He heard the grace notes follow them along
The choral meeting-ground turned free in song;
His breast leaped with the instrumental word.

HOPE MAN IS OUTSTANDING POET

Phillip Engel '31 of Gent, New York, is a poet of achievement. Besides a book of 30 poems published in 1942, his work has appeared in such magazines as Trails, American Weave, American Agriculturist, Church Herald, Kaleidograph, Hearth Songs Journal, Denver Post and Westminster Magazine. Among the newspapers that have accepted Mr. Engel's poetry are New York Herald Tribune, Knickerbocker Press, Albany Times Union, Charlotte (N.C.) Observer, Hartford (Conn.) Times and two Washington, D.C. papers, the Times-Herald and Washington Post.

History: The author was born in 1906 at Gent and was graduated from Hudson High School in 1924. He taught school for several years before and during his college career at Hope. Presently he is living on a farm in West Gent where he devotes much of his time to writing.

Receives Citation: Besides receiving many letters commenting on his published verse, Mr. Engel received a Distinguished Achievement Citation from the Edwin Markham Memorial Association of Staten Island, for a poem submitted in 1945. His poem titled "Girded with Gladness" was included in Kenton Kilmer's THIS IS MY AMERICA anthology. It has been said by one familiar with the author's works that he is at his best with natural and spiritual subjects.

We are presenting here one of Mr. Engel's poems very pertinent to the Hope College scene. Those who were students at Hope prior to 1936 will readily recognize the personalities immortalized in this poem.

PROFESSOR FOR HALF CENTURY RETIRES

Prof. Jacob G. Vanden Bosch '97 retired at the end of this school year from his 51-year long term of English teaching at Calvin College. In reminiscences concerning his half century at Calvin, Prof. Vanden Bosch recalls that in 1900 when he joined Calvin he was the only English professor. Now there are six other English instructors, all of whom he taught. In 1900 Calvin had 50 students, less than the number on the present faculty. He has noticed also that there has been a tremendous drift to natural sciences and practical and vocational subjects. He deplores an increasing secularization of American life.

Prof. Vanden Bosch has continued an interest in the Puritanic origins of American civilization. For this reason he has been especially fond of the poetry of John Milton and continued to teach a course in Milton after he was made emeritus five years ago.

History: Born on a farm near Zeeland, attended so-called "country school," "an ungraded one. In those days we were classified by the readers we studied." Attended Hope College seven years, graduating in 1897 "of which class there are still ten living." The year following Hope graduation spent at the University of Michigan; first teaching experience at Gaylord, Michigan,—two years; intention to serve as superintendent of Nashville school intercepted by appointment to the Calvin faculty; graduate study at the University of Chicago, also; has contributed articles to various publications, chiefly on subjects in the field of English.

CLASS OF 1931

CLASS OF 1941

The following is the report given by the '31 spokesman, Justin Vander Kolk, at the Alumni dinner. It was received with exceeding delight, so the class voted this our reunion report.

The years have treated the class of '31 with kindness. Friendships were resumed this afternoon as though we had parted only yesterday. We noted some significant physiological alterations. Many of the boys sported what the little girls called "doughnut haircuts," and receding hairlines have given others the appearance of being High-brow. The battle of the bulge is being waged and in many instances we can discern no significant victories, just a steady pushing out in all directions. One of the alumni in his letter recalled that in student days he had been able to boast of an hour-glass figure, but sadly admitted that the metaphor no longer applies. Said he, "The sands have shifted."

The years have no doubt brought wisdom to the class of '31, but it was not placed on parade this afternoon.

The girls are all as beautiful as ever, indeed more so. It goes to show what suffering can do if it is endured in the right spirit.

The class reports that it is concerned about the anticipated slump in college enrollment and hopes to have some good frosh material ready for shipment in a few years.

A spirit of joyous camaraderie prevailed. We had occasion to rejoice in our youth when we saw the old-timers of the class of '26 line up with their canes and crutches for their reunion picture. We shall no doubt be reduced to a like state of arthritic and bi-focussed decrepitude by the passage of time, but in the meantime we of the class of '31 rejoice in the full vigor of young life.

Letters were read from many of the class who were unable to attend some coming from places as far distant as India and Greece. All in all I think we can say that the Class of 1931 is carrying on in the true Hope Spirit. We all remember with a keen sense of appreciation the years of learning and fellowship we were privileged to spend on Hope Campus.

We salute our Alma Mater and pledge her our loyalty and support in the years to come.

HOPEITES all and proud of it!
The Hope Fifty Year Circle

By James Sterenberg

Seventeen graduates of Hope College belonging to the class of 1882 and subsequent classes down to 1901 enjoyed a luncheon in the Centennial Room in the Warm Friend Tavern. They met in response to a suggestion sent out in April that the graduates of fifty or more years standing, in cases where strictly class reunions are no longer feasible, join hands and form a Fifty Year Circle, to meet annually, preferably on Alumni Day. After many happy reminiscences had been exchanged a constitution was adopted. Purposes of the Hope College Fifty Year Circle, as stated in the Constitution, are:

(a) to capitalize socially and for the good of our College the academic interests of the older Alumni and Students;
(b) to collect and preserve the histories of all members;
(c) to publish, if possible in printed form, The Hope College Fifty Year Bulletin, that will serve as a medium of news and acquaintance among the older Alumni and Students.

The graduates present at this first reunion were: Frances Phelps Otte '82; Emma Kollen Pieters '87; Dr. Albertus Pieters '87; Hon. Henry Geerlings '88; the Rev. Jerry P. Winter '91; Dr. James Sterenberg '93; the Rev. Gerrit Tyssse '94; the Rev. Benjamin Hoffman '95; Dr. Edward Dimnent '96; the Rev. J. G. Vanden Bosch '97; Dr. Floris Ferwerda '98; Mr. John H. Ter Avest '99; Dr. Abraham De Young '00; Munic. Judge Cornelius Van der Meulen '00; Prof. Albert Hoeksema '01; the Rev. James Wayer '01; Dr. John Wesselink '01.

Also present at the luncheon were Mrs. De Young, Mrs. Tyssse, Mr. Wayer, Mrs. Wesselink, and Mrs. Sterenberg.

Officers elected for the first year are: Honorary Presidents, the Rev. A. H. Strabbing '80 and Frances Phelps Otte (Mrs. J. A.) '82; President, James Sterenberg '93; Vice President, Municipal Judge Cornelius Van der Meulen '00; Secretary-Treasurer, the Rev. James Wayer '01; Editor-Historian, Dr. Edward Dimnent '96.

Invitations to form the Circle had been sent this Spring to about seventy names of persons still living, or thought to be living, belonging to classes previous to and including the class of 1901. Nearly all responded favorably, and more than a third found it possible to attend the first reunion. In view of the age of some and the fact that our members are scattered from California to New York and farther, the attendance is considered most encouraging. All present expressed their satisfaction that a Circle had been formed to meet with on return to Alma Mater any year.

Thanks are due the convening Committee for the luncheon and the Alumni Office for enthusiastic cooperation. The Committee members were: Dr. Dimnent, Judge Van der Meulen, and the Rev. James Wayer.

REUNION OF CLASS OF 1946

By Mary Lou Hemmes Koop.

The reunion of the Class of 1946 was held on June 12 at 12:00 Noon in the dining room of the Dutch Mill Restaurant. Though few in number the spirit of the class of '46 was not lacking.

Cards were read from those classmates who could not attend and very interesting information was gleaned. We found our classmates thoroughly scattered from East to West with a surprising number now hailing from California.

The class of '46 is certainly well on its way toward solving the enrollment problem for Hope College from the year 1964 and on. It seems that the main reason given by the women classmates for not attending the reunion was that they were either coming from or going to the hospital.

We lingered long over our coffee reminiscing over college days and laying some basic plans for a bigger and better reunion in 1956.

A table was reserved for the Class of 1946 at the alumni banquet in Durfee on Tuesday evening and here again, although few in number, we managed to catch up on the latest news about many of the classmates who could not attend. We know your thoughts were with us when we gathered and we hope you'll plan now to be with us in 1956.

SUMMER SCHOOL IN SESSION

The Hope College Summer Session, under the direction of Dr. Clarence De Graaf, is now in progress. 97 students are enrolled, a slight increase over the enrollment last year.

Departments functioning this summer are: English, Art, Science, History, Philosophy, Music and Education. The greatest number of students are enrolled in the English department.
1906 CLASS REUNION
By Hanna Hockje

For six who have their guerdon won,
Rich memories through tears;
To seven who still remain in life,
Another five good years.

This was the close of the invitation that went out to the members of the Class of 1906, Hope College, to meet for their 45th anniversary reunion at the home of Miss Nettie De Jong, 75 West 10th St., on the afternoon of Alumni Day, June 12, 1951. That only two, the feminine contingent of the class, found it possible to be present, is due to stress of circumstances. Since the two women live only four houses apart, each sees the other rather often, as one passes the other’s house, or runs in for a time of kletsen.

Six of the members of the class have passed from the scenes of earth. These are two groups of three each: Raymond A. Visscher, who was an attorney in Holland, Andrew Judson Koly, attorney in Orange City, Iowa, Allen M. Freeland, attorney in Grand Rapids, and previously Commissioner of Schools in Kent County.

The second trio consists of Rev. John W. Douma, who was minister in Iowa, Rev. Andrew Stegenga, minister in Rochester, New York and in Grand Rapids, and Rev. Anno C. Dykema, minister in New Jersey and recently deceased in Kirkville, New York.

Of the seven who still remain, we mention first Rev. B. J. Bush, D.D., now living in Asheville, N. C., and traveling about giving lectures on subjects for the Presbyterian Church. His pastorate in Lexington, Ky., and in Detroit, Mich., and his work for Church World Service in Europe, were outstanding. His reason for not attending the reunion is that he was scheduled for three trips of speaking for the month of June, and he felt that he could not come to Michigan on a fourth journey.

The duo of educators consists of John C. Hockje, Master of Education, who is Dean of Administration in Western Michigan College in Kalamazoo, and Dr. Richard d’Zeeuw, retired from his position as head of the Botany Department in Michigan State College, East Lansing. Other duties conflicted with the reunion date.

Another duo who were not able to be present in person were the two missionary "builders," Rev. Bernard Rotschafer, D.D., of Katpadi, South India, and Rev. Dirk Dykstra, D.D., of Muscat, Arabia. They were necessarily hindered from attendance by their distance from the place of meeting.

One of the two women of the class of 1906 is Miss Nettie R. De Jong, who was head of the Ideh Girls’ School in Changchun, Hunan Province, China, and in 1928, took charge of the Woman’s Evangelistic Center in that city. Both of these institutions were destroyed by bombing during World War II. After returning to America, she taught for four years in the High School at Marine City, Michigan. Since 1949 she has been listed as a retired missionary.

The other woman is your scribe, Miss Hanna G. Hockje, who, after graduation taught in the Kentucky Mountain Mission for eight years, four of these as Principal of Mc Kee Academy. She has also 25 years to her credit on the faculty of Holland High School, teaching Latin, English, Bible, and Journalism. She retired in 1941 because of ill health.

These two are trusting that the ranks of the class may not be depleted too much during the next five years, and that a bigger representation may be present at the Hope Alumni Banquet in their semicentennial year, 1956.

REUNION CLASS OF 1941
By Robert Dykstra

The Class of 1941 met together for the first time as a body on June 12 at the Clubhouse of the American Legion Memorial Golf Course. Other classes have had the opportunity to meet every five years, but inasmuch as World War II had to be, it was out of the question five years ago to hold such an affair. At any rate it was with much pleasure that the committee, headed by Mary Ruth Jacobs Hakken and Harold Hakken set about to make the arrangements for this our first class reunion. When all heads were counted and pictures taken it was ascertained that these are get-togethers that are most enjoyable and nostalgic.

Conversation bubbled between all present as to family status, occupational endeavor, church affiliation, and back to the good old days at our Alma Mater. Present were: Ruth Klaassen Wassenaar and Lester, class of ’38; Phyllis (Newcastle) and Jack Jalving; Marthene (Van Dyke) and Bob Dykstra; Dr. and Mrs. James Rieke; Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Miller; Mary Ruth and Harold Hakken; Thurston Rynbrandt and Howard Van Egmond.

While the group was small this time, it is expected that as the years go on more and more members of the class will return for this affair. Out of 97 questionnaires sent out to old class members, more than 55 made answer. The letters, wires and comments were read with great interest by those assembled. When time came to adjourn, in order that we might attend the fine banquet subsequently held at the beautiful new Durfee Hall together, it was with happiness that some of the old ties and friendships were again renewed, and with anticipation of the next reunion. At the Banquet the group was joined by Dr. and Mrs. Robert Vegter.
REUNION OF THE CLASS OF 1921

By Evert Flikkema

Hail to the class of 1921 which held its 50th anniversary reunion on June 12, 1951. All who attended felt that the trek to Holland for the occasion was one that will not soon be forgotten. It may even be one of the highlights in their lives, now that the little lights have grown up, and are starting their own careers. Talk about little lights, before many finished extolling the virtues of their own children, they admitted they were old enough to have grandchildren. Those in that class even bragged about it. In retrospect, 30 years may seem like a long time, but those who again met some of their classmates for the first time after all those years, had difficulty in believing that so much time is back of us, because we had little difficulty in recognizing our friends of yesteryear. True, there were gray hairs, bald heads, wrinkles, and signs indicating that we had lived on the fat of the land. The same friendly atmosphere, the same pleasant smiles, the same type of "kidding" known 30 years ago, was still there.

We all met in the Netherlands Inn at Jenison Park for a luncheon. Thirty-one were present, 19 of whom were members of the class of '21. Wives or husbands made up the balance. After lunch we went to the home of Jake and Edith (Diekema) Hobeeke on the shore of Lake Macatawa—a dream home in a perfect location. We chatted and really got the low down on this otherwise highbrow group. Each member gave a brief story of his or her own career. Then letters were read from those who were interested enough to write them.

We are sure that those who were there would not have missed it for anything, and we feel that those who could not get there missed one of the pleasures and joys of living, and that is meeting and associating with old friends, after a long absence.

If after 10 years, you of the class of '21 hear of another reunion, do not pass up the chance to meet and eat with your old pals. It can make you feel years younger in spite of the weight of years on your shoulders.

During the past years 8 of our class have passed on to their reward. During a few moments of silence, Bernard Hietbrink read their names and closed our meeting with a prayer for us all.

The following were present: Harry and Val Boerema, Jake and Edith (Diekema) Hobeeke; Adrian and Frances (Du Mez) Vanden Bosch; Marie E. Ellerdink, "Rud" and Evert Flikkema; John and Lucille (Heemstra) Hager; Bernard Hietbrink; Cholly and Mrs. Ihrman; Vera (Keppel) Kennedy; Jim and Grace Klomparens; Nella Meyer; George and "Dea" (Ossenwaarde) de Ruyter; Grace (Peet) Landis; "Poots" and Sara Poppen; "Tony" (Teninga) and Martin Chapman; Frances (Thoms) Scholten; "Dub" Vaupell; Harold Veldman; "Marge" (Van Donselaar) Lubbers; Myra (Manting) Weaver.

By Lois Ellert

The members of the class of 1936 gathered for the fifteenth anniversary of their graduation at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Winter on State Street in Holland for tea the afternoon of Tuesday, June 12. Name tags were provided but proved wholly unnecessary as everyone looked exactly as he or she did on graduation day fifteen years ago—a few gray hairs and some extra pounds perhaps, but faces were as young and spirits as hilarious as ever.

First to arrive after the committee, consisting of Helena Vischer Winter, Muriel Chard Hardie, and Lois van der Meulen Ellert, were Mae van Hartesveldt Veldhuis and Ruth Muilenberg Jeffery. Greetings were scarcely over when in walked Al Mansen, followed almost at once by Stan and Betty Goehner Boven bringing Agnes Patterson with them. Betty also served on the planning committee for the reunion. Then Bud and Pat Van Koevering Prins turned up and Lucile Ver Schure Heeringa. With every arrival the party became gayer and when John Vander Meulen came up the steps, things really turned lively. Soon afterwards Miriam Baehr arrived and then we all posed for our picture, but luckily before the photographer could snap his camera, Ken and Jean Rotschild Vande Velde drove up. Too late for the picture, but in time for plenty of fun were Mina Becker Buys and Don Kooiman. Everyone especially enjoyed meeting the new class members added by marriage who also joined with us. They were Dr. William Winter, Corinne Vander Meulen, Donna Mansen, Harry Veldhuis, Norman Jeffery, Ekdal Buys, and Dr. Ernest Ellert. Messages were read from many who lived too far away to make the trip.

The surprise of the afternoon came when Al Mansen announced that the class still had $436.11 in the Pageant fund. A committee, consisting of Helena Winter, Milton Spaan and George Douma, was instructed to discuss with Dr. Lubbers the best disposition of this money. Muriel Hardie was elected Chairman of the 1956 reunion, and Lois Ellert was chosen class secretary.

Coffee and cake were served while we caught up on what has happened in the past fifteen years and reminisced about college escapades. Presiding at the tea table, attractively decorated by a bouquet of lovely iris and peonies, were Muriel Hardie and Lois Ellert.
NEWS FROM HOPEITES IN ALASKA

From the land of contrast, Alaska, Marvin and Audrey De Young send greetings. Yes, we are teaching school in Yakutat, Alaska. Our school is a two teacher school in an isolated city of approximately 300 people. Our students, which number 47, are all Indians of the Tlinget tribe.

The people here are a people of few words. This calls to mind an incident which happened the day we arrived. When Mrs. Howell, a member of the school board, introduced Mr. (Marvin) De Young to one of his little students, the little fellow eyed him up and down and said, "Hmmmm, not very big."

When we call Alaska land of contrast, we have our latest trip in mind. We have just returned from a trip to Disenchantment Bay and Hubbard and Turner Glaciers. While Yakutat is lush and green, this place is truly a land of eternal ice and snow, with blocks of ice as big as houses falling off the glacier with a thunderous roar every few seconds.

We came to Alaska in 1949 with the idea of staying just the one year. However, at the end of this time we hadn't seen nearly everything so we decided to come back. Alaska gets to you somehow.

The Yakutat area is quite warm and rainy; the spring and summer bringing rain and the fall and winter snow in abundance. The year before we arrived, they had twenty feet of snow lying on the level. However, the two winters we have spent here have been mild with the snow never piling up to more than seven feet on the level. By the middle of May, the snow is gone except in the woods and on the mountains.

If you like to fish and hunt, this is the place to be. King and Silver salmon abound in the bay and rivers, and bear, deer, mountain goat, and wolves range the high country. It is practically possible to live off the country because there are crabs, shrimp, fish, wild meat, sea gull eggs, clams, berries, and fowl just for the taking.

We expect to have an interesting summer working for the Bellingham Cannery. Marvin is going to pick up fish at outlaying rivers and haul them to Yakutat for canning. Audrey is going to work in the cannery store. We will have an opportunity to see how the people live in the summer in their fish camps. The people desert the town and camp out at the rivers where they fish. Perhaps we will have a chance to visit Dry Bay and other fish camps down the coast in our 26 foot boat.

We truly have a long story to tell but there isn't space for it. Come and see us in Holland the summer of 1952. Our movies will give a better account of our experiences.

GOOD WILL BOOK

Dr. Nettinga writes: "This Good Will Book was presented by the American Bible Society as a token of friendship in America, to the people in Japan.

"The two books were beautifully bound in blue, and contained the signatures of President Truman, forty-one governors and official representatives of thirty-one leading denominations, as well as 33,000 individual signatures throughout the United States. The total funds raised by this program are being used by the American Bible Society to provide the Japan Bible Society with paper, printing and binding materials, so that printing of the Japanese Scriptures may be done in Tokyo. General MacArthur had asked for ten million Scriptures to be printed and distributed in Japan by the end of 1951.

"The Imperial Family showed great interest in this unique event, and requested the book to be brought to the palace. The two volumes are now on exhibit at the Japan Bible House.

"It was a great experience to meet Dr. Millikan, and at the same time he stated his great interest in the printing and distribution of the Bible in readable inexpensive form."

NEW YORK CHAPTER NEWS
Nancy Boynton Prindle '42, reporting . . .

On April 27, 1951, the New York Chapter of the Hope College Alumni Association held its annual dinner at the West End Collegiate Church with approximately 90 alumni in attendance.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the Rev. John Beardslee, Jr. D.D. 98. Group singing was under the direction of R. "Cub" Huizinga '27. The Rev. Johan Mulder '31 presided at the business meeting. The Rev. Harvey B. Hoffman '32, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the following slate of officers which were unanimously elected: Pres., John Flikkema '22; Vice Pres., Rev. J. Dean Martin '29; Sec., Mrs. Forrest Prindle '42; and Treas., Mrs. Stanley Slingerland '42.

Rev. Mulder then introduced the speaker, the Rev. Edwin Luidens '39, Arabian Missionary on furlough, who spoke on the subject "East is West." Paraphrasing his topic, Mr. Luidens expressed the opinion that the near East is nearly West. He spoke briefly on the influence of the army and of the oil companies on the people of Arabia. Hope, too, has greatly influenced the lives of many in this foreign land, for it sent forth those men whose dedicated lives have brought new life to those they serve. He gave thrilling examples of the type of men who so well represent Hope College wherever they are.

Rev. T. Boslooper '45 sang two numbers entitled "Angels of Light" and "Oh, Didn't It Rain." He was accompanied by Mrs. Bert Brouwer '22. A rising vote of recognition was given to several of the older alumni. Among those present were Dr. Baker '20 and Dr. Zwemer '87. Greetings were also sent to Hope College. The meeting was then turned over to Mr. Clyde Geerlings '27 who brought us up to date with colored slides of many of the campus activities and improvements. The Rev. Edgar Romig of the host church closed the meeting with the benediction.

ROCHESTER HOPE COLLEGE CLUB
By Antoinette Handelink '31, Secretary.

The annual meeting of the Rochester Hope College Club was held in the Brightmon Reformed Church, Rochester, on Monday, April 30, 1951. Dinner was served at 6:30 by the ladies of the Church.

Clyde Geerlings, accompanied by Miss Geerlings, led group singing. After the dinner, Mr. Walter Beach, president, called the business meeting to order and introduced all those present. Greetings from several who were unable to attend were read by Dr. Anthony Luidens and the secretary. The minutes of last year's meeting were read and approved.

Ralph De Roo, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the following slate for next year, which was unanimously adopted: President, Everett Welmers '32; Vice President, David Hiller '45N; Secretary-Treasurer, Anne Handelink '31. Rev. Cornelius Vanderem '03 was appointed reporter for the "Ridge" area, and members from other sections were asked to send news for the alumni magazine to the secretary.

Russell Van Dyke and Pearl Beach reported on the February 22 Alumni meeting at the College. Following the treasurer's report and a collection, Clyde Geerlings showed pictures of Homecoming at Hope. The meeting was closed with a prayer by the Rev. George Han-...

RECEIVES UN INTERNSHIP

Ketema Yifru, Hope College senior from Harar, Ethiopia, has received a United Nations internship. The appointment came through the UN interne selection board in Washington and carries a stipend of $300 for an eight-week period this summer. Yifru will be assigned to New York or Geneva, Switzerland, headquarters.

Internes are assigned to posts in almost every section of the secretariat and the assignment will be related as closely as possible to the experience and interest of the intern. He has the status of a staff member and is given an opportunity to attend meetings of councils, commissions and committees.

Yifru is a political science major and intends to follow Foreign Service. He is a graduate of the Haile Sellassie High School in Addis Ababa. Next year he intends to do graduate work in foreign relations and has been accepted to the graduate school of Georgetown University in Washington.

HOPE STUDENT SERVING AS 'AMBASSADOR'

Don Lubbers, son of Dr. and Mrs. Irwin J. Lubbers, and a Junior at Hope, sailed June 26 from Montreal, Canada, for Yugoslavia. He will spend two months there under the auspices of the Experiment in International Living. He is Holland's community "Ambassador."

Don is one of 410 young people from 37 states of the United States who will follow the experiment's plan of living during the first month of the summer in the home of a foreign family, where there is a member his own age, and the second month exploring the scenic and cultural points of importance of the country.

This is the first time in the 20-year history of the experiment, that a group has been sent to Yugoslavia. Thirteen countries of Europe, Brazil, Colombia and Mexico will open their homes to these Americans, whose ages range from 16 to 30.

The purpose of the experiment is to make friends and thus foster better international understanding at the personal level. They talk the language of the country they visit and are treated as members of their adopted families rather than as guests.

KNICKERBOCKERS HAVE WORTHWHILE PROJECT!

By Bill Kiskon '54

Just as the serious paper and the humor paper are parts of the Knickerbocker Fraternity's meetings, so is our weekly letter to Butler. Butch is our adopted son, whose real name is Elefterios Sfachtos. He is a war orphan adopted by us through the Foster Parents.

The Foster Parents solicit clubs, churches and individuals to adopt needy children from all over the world. One makes his choice of children from a list of biographies sent by the Foster Parents. After you adopt a child, it is your duty to send a designated amount of money each month for the support of the child.

Butch is thirteen years old. His father was killed in a bombing raid during the war. His mother was unable to support both him and his sister and so an appeal was made to the Foster Parents. Butch as we call him, has now completed his grammar school education and is continuing in an industrial school. Regularly we receive letters and drawings from him, in which he expresses in his childish way his great appreciation for our aid. Very often his letters are very touching and deep with thought.

I know that Butch has drawn our Fraternity a little closer together. Each member feels that just a little share of Butch's welfare is his own responsibility. During Tulip Time the Knicks operated a parking lot and all proceeds were turned over to the fund for Butch.

We may never hear from Butch again after he gets out of school, although we have started a fund hoping that someday he will be able to come to Hope, but we cannot help feeling that when Butch finally takes his place as a citizen of Greece, that we helped in making a good worker for that country.

Mary Houtman, junior from Holland, and Marjorie Pickens, sophomore from New York City (Granddaughter of Samuel M. Zwemer '87) won the two annual $50 English prizes in poetry and prose offered by William B. Eerdman of Grand Rapids.

Miss Houtman, winner of the prose contest, is a graduate of Holland High School. She has distinguished herself in forensics, debate and oratory and is a member of Pi Kappa Delta, national forensics honorary fraternity. She was secretary-treasurer of her class, society editor of the Anchor and art editor of the Milestone. Many of her writings appeared in "The Sampler," publication of the best English Department.

Miss Pickens, poetry winner, is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. (Elizabeth Zwemer '21) C. L. Pickens, until recently missionaries to China. She is a graduate of the Shanghai American School in China. At Hope she is a member of the WAA, WAL and YWCA of which she was personnel chairman. She has been a member of the choir, Messiah chorus and orchestra, is a member of Kappa Delta, organization of students who plan to enter full-time Christian Service. She has contributed to "The Sampler."

Letters:

Harold C. De Windt ’32 writing from New York City, June 1, 1951, in answer to inquiry concerning his publication "Don't Be Afraid of Tomorrow" . . .

My dear Marian,

It was very good to hear from you. The publication which the secretary who sent you the biographical material had in mind was simply a series of addresses that I gave a couple of years back. There is really nothing about the publication that should merit my having my picture in the Alumni Magazine. Nearly all of my sermons are printed, but so are the sermons of scores of other clergymen; and there is little that is newsworthy about that.

Here in New York I am an officer of the Protestant Council of the City of New York. For the past few years it has been my responsibility to arrange the Radio City Easter Dawn services, attended by 6,500 people and broadcast from coast to coast. It has also been my duty to preside at these festival services. It was my privilege to be the chairman of the committee that inaugurated and still sponsors the Town Hall Lenten Services. These noon-day meetings held in the heart of the Times Square district have attracted wide attention and are today the outstanding Protestant union services of New York.

The church I try to serve is in the very heart of Manhattan; and is flanked on one side by the Hudson River and on the other by Central Park. It is here, where cross the crowded ways of life, that the very rich and the very poor look to the minister and his colleagues for faith and hope to carry them through and save them from loneliness and despair. If only there were more hours in a day!

Next week I am leaving for a four months journey around the world to study conditions abroad and to observe how Protestantism is meeting the Communist challenge. I shall be speaking to groups of ministers in Japan, non-Communist China and India and the Philippines. Our twelve year old son, Dan, will be with me on the journey.

With cordial regards to you and my old friends of yesteryear.

tween the ages of 6 and 19. I have my first time to meet a student who got into trouble of his own making. What happened to him was somebody else's fault. Frank flunked math, not because he was indolent and inattentive in class, but because the textbook was unsuitable and the teacher unsympathetic. I have often saved over my mistakes by laying them on the sturdy shoulder of the Secretary of my Board. We should grow—shouldn't we? We are responsible for both the good and the evil in our town, and our nation. We cannot pass the buck in accepting responsibility for the evil which exists nor pass it on to somebody else as his responsibility to remove.

There is one other besetting sin which plagues those of us in academic circles. That is the sin of self-defensive morality. I am thinking of the goodness which supposedly results from the avoidance of contamination. That kind of religion is more antiseptic than Christian. In the eyes of his enemies, Jesus cried in the other direction. It was the Pharisees who pointed the finger of derision at Him and said, "See, look! He keeps company with Publicans and Sinners. He even sits down to eat with them. Well, let Him! But not me!" The man who pours out his life in redemptive goodness is never hurt by his contact with those who receive his acts of love. Ask Paul Harrison, John Van Ess, Samuel Zwemer and Tena Holkeboer. Our loss in human resources throughout our world is incalculable. In too many places we stress artificial and extraneous requirements on people to be people worthy to be treated as brothers. A man ought to have a certain background, move in a certain set, belong to a certain church, work at such a calling before he merits our attention. That is not for us! Our love, like the love of Christ must be lavished upon the good and the bad, upon the lovely and the unlovely, the deserving and the undeserving.

My message goes something like this: "My boy, you are going into a world of intense activity and great diversity. This world has all sorts of people in it, but with a strong central core of goodness. Get into the middle of the stream of life. Take your part in it. Share the joy and happiness of it. Make yourself count for Christ and His kingdom against all odds this world may hurl against you!" May God grant this courage and wisdom to you as you begin your journey into an eventful life.
One hundred years ago "The Pioneer School" was opened in the A. C. Van Raalte home as the first educational institution in Holland, Michigan. From these humble beginnings emerged Hope College which graduated its first college class of eight members with a bachelor of arts degree, and granted an honorary master of arts degree at the first college commencement exercises fifteen years later.

In the period from 1851 to 1866 a building and financing program comprising four major projects was undertaken and carried to completion: VAN VLECK HALL was built in 1851, OGGEL HOUSE in 1860 and the first COLLEGE CHAPEL in 1862. In addition to these buildings the first endowment fund was completed, amounting to $40,000, in 1865. The erection of three major buildings in a period of four years was an achievement born of great faith and carried forward with courage and foresight. By such meeting of the demands of the times with promptness and vigor was Hope College launched on its great course of service to God and country.

Forty years later the growing college faced a crisis. During the interim two additional buildings had been constructed: The PRESIDENT'S RESIDENCE in 1886 and GRAVES LIBRARY—WINANT'S CHAPEL in 1892. There was urgent need for class rooms and laboratories, physical education was clamoring for recognition, and the growth of co-education demanded adequate housing for women.

With the same faith and vision that characterized the pioneers of a half century earlier, a great building program was undertaken. A new class room building, VAN RAALTE MEMORIAL was dedicated in 1903, CARNEGIE GYMNASIUM in 1906 and ELIZABETH R. VOORHEES HALL, a women's residence, in 1907. Again in a period of four short years three major buildings had been completed.

Again forty years elapsed and the college faced a new crisis. In the meantime two splendid buildings had been constructed: the MEMORIAL CHAPEL in 1929 and the SCIENCE BUILDING in 1942. For the first time in its history the enrollment exceeded 1,000, going as high as 1,285. Rentals and leases were resorted to as temporary expedients. In 1950 WINIFRED H. DURFEE HALL, a new residence for women, and a CENTRAL HEATING PLANT were constructed. These are however but the initial steps in a program urgently needed to meet the demands of the present.

Mindful of a resolution presented by a committee of the Synod of Chicago stating: "We trust the college will not overspend itself in a building program, but will limit itself according to the churches ability to pay," the Board of Trustees of Hope College at its meeting on June 14, 1951 voted to approve a plan of procedure. Only the projects that are urgently needed were approved: a NEW GYMNASIUM, a MEN’S DORMITORY, a FINE ARTS BUILDING (for music, dramatics, and arts), and the development of the A. C. VAN RAALTE property. The last is a gift from William B. Eerdmans to Hope College of the home of the founder of Hope College. Duty demands that both the founder of the college and the donor of this magnificent gift be honored by the restoration and rehabilitation of this original home of the Pioneer School, a century old landmark.

The magnitude of the task must not be minimized, neither must the obligation to discharge it be shirked. The pioneers of 1851 dreamed dreams and strove to fulfill them. In 1866 their visions were actualized and Hope College became a reality. SPER'A IN DEO (Hope thou in God) is still the motto which activates the friends of the college. For the church, the community, the alumni, former students, parents, and friends everywhere this college is the "anchor of our hope."

Woodrow Wilson’s famous dictum is true: "The present is a lens through which the past is projected upon the future." The achievement of 1851-1866 is a bright and inspiring picture of men and women of destiny fulfilling a God-given assignment for the service of their fellow men and the building of the Kingdom. It can be projected upon an ominous and dark future only through the men and women who are ready to accept a similar God-given assignment in 1951-1966.
Sally Palen of New York and Guy Vander Jagt of Cadillac, Michigan, both juniors, are co-chairmen of Homecoming this year and are already hard at work to make the celebration outstanding.
