GRAHAM & MORTON BOATS TO BEGIN RUNNING MONDAY

CITY OF GRAND RAPIDS TO MAKE TRI-WEEKLY TRIPS

A Great Deal of Freight Already Accumulating on Local and Chicago Docks

Holland citizens will be extremely pleased to hear that the Graham & Morton Transportation Co. will open navigation between Holland and Chicago on Monday, April 14.

John Kress and staff have been hustling all week getting the local dock and freight houses in shape for a big season's business. Already a great deal of freight has been accumulating at both ends of the line, and the Holland merchants and manufacturers are elated over the fact that an overnight service on freight especially is again in vogue.

The City of Grand Rapids beginning Monday will make tri-weekly trips between Holland and Chicago, leaving Chicago every Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights at 7 o'clock and leaving Holland, Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday nights at 8 o'clock.

This schedule will be in vogue until the season is a little further advanced, when daily runs will be made, and two boats will ply between Holland and Chicago.

JACKIE BAND FROM GRAND HAVEN COMING SATURDAY

IS NOT GREAT LAKES BAND, BUT FIFTY GRAND HAVEN SCHOOL BOYS

Great Lakes Jackie Band Will Come On April 28 With War Relics Train

Holland is not going to see only one Jackie band, but two are coming to this city. The Grand Haven schools have an organization that they call the Jackie Band, and the members are all dressed in Jackie clothes.

There are fifty of them in all, ranging from six years up to 20, with older band men to help the younger musicians along.

This band is well drilled, and play fine music. These Jackies are the ones that will be here Saturday evening at the Knickerbocker theater, with several prominent speakers from Grand Haven and Holland and possibly from Grand Rapids, who will speak on the Victory Loan.

A parade and a drill with music will also be given on River Avenue and 8th street, before the speaking and music in the theater begins.

In the afternoon the band will be taken to Zeeland with the Holland War Board and Liberty Loan Committee, where music and speaking will be held in the open air.

But this is not the only Jackie band to come to Holland. On Monday April 28, from 7 a. m. until 11 a. m. the big Great Lakes Jackie band is coming to Holland with the war relics cars, when many trophies captured from the Huns will be on exhibition free.

The band will give a parade on the principle streets and back to the cars. No doubt a program of speaking by big men sent out by the government will also be featured before the train pulls out to the next city on the list to be visited.

STUDENTS TO SMASH HOPE FACULTY IN THE EYE

HOPE COLLEGE TO HAVE A CIRCUS IN CARNegie GYMNASIUM

Hope College is planning a great athletic festival, "The Circus," for Wednesday evening, April 16. It will be one of the biggest social events of the year.

It is to be a celebration incident to the success of the basketball team and a "pep" meeting for the inauguration of baseball. Profits will go to the Athletic association. The program is a secret. An occasional whisper about "Buffalo Bill," the "Fortune Teller," and the "Snake Charmer," is heard.

One fact however has leaked out. The faculty it is said will be lined up and "well so many balls for a jitney." The Hopeites are practicing on the campus on something they call the Kaiser and reports are that the balls reach Bill's eye or worse quite regularly. Even the young ladies are now learning the art of catching the ball. It seems the faculty has got something coming to them at the circus next Wednesday.

THE HOLLAND INTERURBAN TO RAISE FARE

RAISE IS ONLY SLIGHT AND COMPANY IS WITHIN THEIR RIGHTS

Round Trip Tickets To Macatawa Park To Remain the Same

On Wednesday, April 17, a slight raise in fare will be made by the Holland Interurban.

Notwithstanding the fact that the United States government has charged what it wanted to on steam roads for both freight and passenger traffic, in fact is charging three cents a mile for passengers, and has nearly double up on its freight rates, the interurbans of the state of Michigan were not so fortunate in having Uncle Sam as a boss, and for that reason the interurbans remained under the State regulation of two cents a mile, while Uncle Samuel compelled us all to pay three cents a mile to ride on his "toot toot cars."

However the Holland Interurban has never charged its full two cents per mile on actual mileage between Holland and Grand Rapids. Now however this charge is going to be made but only in some instances.

Although under the state law the company could charge 24c to Macatawa the company has decided that the two-cent charge will be made on one-way fares only which would be 12 cents instead of 10 cents. Round trip tickets will remain as before, 16 cents.

The fare to Grand Rapids will also be raised slightly. The fare now is fifty cents one way with four cents war tax, making the one way fare 54 cents. The company has now raised this fare to 55 cents with a 4 cent war tax, making it 59 cents, and a round trip ticket in the future will be $1.10 with a nine cent war tax, making it $1.19.

Saugatuck also has a revision. The fare to Saugatuck is now 25 cents one way without a war tax, and a round trip ticket which carries with it a war tax, is 54 cents.

The new rate in the future will be, one way 33 cents and round trip 71 cents which includes the war tax.

The government does not exact a war tax until the amount of the ticket reaches 43 cents, when a tax of 8% is charged.

The Holland Interurban has also played fair with Wyoming Park citizens, many of whom had built suburban residences outside of Grand Rapids, and along the interurban, and who because of the cheap fare can afford to make daily trips to and from their homes. The rates charged to these suburban homes will remain the same as before.

Below is a schedule of the war tax that the government exacts on each fare, as it relates to the Holland interurban, and also the new schedule of fares that will be in vogue after April 17.

No tax to be collected when the fare is 42c or less or on commutation tickets less than thirty miles.

Northern Michigan trout streams never received better attention during the trout planting season than appears to be the case this season. The state fish commission car, Wolverine is making frequent trips north and on each trip is bringing from 100 to 2,000 brook and brown trout fry for the feeding brooks of the trout streams of this part of the state. Charlevoix, Emmet and Cheboygan county trout streams are receiving most of these small trout. Northern Michigan streams should rapidly improve, say sportsmen, under the carefully planned campaign of the state fish commission.

A $5,000.00 GARAGE FOR HOLLAND

CITY'S WHEEL OF INDUSTRY TURNS ANOTHER CIRCLE

H. P. Zwemer Will Go Into Automobile Business On a Large SCALE

To the long list of new enterprises showing Holland's industrial development can be added a $5,000 garage to be built by H. P. Zwemer, the local coal and wood dealer. The garage will be located at 279 East 8th street, will be 44x56 feet, two stories, and will be built of concrete.

The lumber used is to come from Mr. Zwemer's woods at White Cloud, where he has already sawed 200,000 feet this season to be sold this fall, besides 15,000 ties purchased by Uncle Sam for his railroads.

The placing of the garage necessitated the moving of a house and this is being carted away in a unique manner.

In the first place the house was purchased by James Kappings who lives four miles east on 16th street, going by the old Ben Van Raalte homestead, finally to be located on the high hill that slopes down to the river near the VanSlooten bridge. The house is being taken down to this spot by means of a farm tractor.

Contractor Abel Smeenge will be in charge of the building of the new garage and when completed Mr. Zwemer will have on display Mitchell cars, Republic trucks and Cleveland tractors, besides putting in an up-to-date gasoline service system.

A force of men will also do repair work.

BUY V LOAN WILL HAVE EASIER TERMS TO PAY VICTORY LOAN INTEREST RATE NOT YET GIVEN OUT, BUT WILL BE LIBERAL

First Payment on May 10; Last Payment to Be Made on November 11

The United States government has completed some of the arrangements of the crowning loan, called the Victory Loan, or in other words the honor loan, or the loan of thanksgiving.

Uncle Sam has not yet told us what the interest rate will be, but he has been inclined to be liberal in this matter as in the past, and you may be sure that the last loan will not be handled on a niggardly basis.

The government has however, made the time of payment longer than in former loans for those who pay on the government plan, which in itself is an added inducement for a great many to invest more heavily than they otherwise would or could.

Mr. Landwehr has received the following letter from Washington which is self-explanatory:

A. H. Landwehr,
Chairman for Victory Loan,
My dear Mr. Landwehr—

We are in receipt of the following telegram from the Treasury Department at Washington, D. C.:

"The Victory Liberty Loan notes will be dated May 20th, and payments required will be as follows:

10% with application on or before May 10th.
10% July 15.
20% August 12th.
20% September 9th.
20% October 7th.

20% November 11th, with accrued interest on deferred instalments.

"Payment in full can be made on May 20th, the 10% required with application having been duly paid on or before May 10. Payment in full will also be allowed with application, but without rebate of interest; but there will be a limitation as to the maximum amount of notes upon which such full payment will be accepted. Payment can also be completed on any installment date with accrued interest, but no completion of payments can be made except on installment dates. First coupon on the notes will be payable at a sufficient time after the last installment date to allow for completing of delivery of notes. Denominations of notes as heretofore."

W. B. Harper of Middleville, six years secretary of the Michigan State livestock sanitary commission, has resigned, and will devote his entire attention to the development of this farm. He is secretary and treasurer of the West Michigan Holstein Breeders association. Mr. Harper will be remembered as the state officer who handled the tubercular cow situation here and also the severe epidemic raging thru Michigan three years ago, called the hoof and mouth disease and when whole herds of cattle were destroyed in Ottawa and Allegan counties in order to stop the disease. Later Mr. Harper was here to take in hand the mad dog epidemic and soon he had every canine in the county chained and later he killed a great many more.

BOOZE RUNNERS ARE MAKING CONFESSIONS

SEVEN APPEAR BEFORE JUSTICE ROBINSON; PAY SMUGGLER $130 FOR 24 QUARTS

Drunken Gang Run Down Cupid Car; Both Autos Are Badly Smashed

Sheriff Dornbos, Deputy Lawrence De Witt, and Deputy Boomgaard were in Holland yesterday afternoon with seven alleged booze runners.

It was reported yesterday that Wm. Spence, Isaac Van Dommelen, Henry Vander Leest, Nick Vander Leest, and John Swartz, had run down another car in Allendale when returning from a fishing trip after the consumption of too much wet goods.

The story turns out to be a bigger affair than at first reported.

Sheriff Dornbos, who with his two deputies arraigned his men before Justice Robinson on the charge of booze running, gave this paper a detailed story as to what he alleges has happened.

It seems that Fred Kennedy and his best girl were taking a Sunday night spin through Allendale.

At 10 o'clock a car containing Wm. Spence, who drove, and the rest of the above named men came bowling along the road at a terrific rate of speed. The car driven by Spence struck the Kennedy car a glancing blow and went over the embankment sticking its nose in the mud, and remained with its rear wheels in the air.

Men and contents were thrown in every direction and considerable of the contents was in the men.

Sheriff Dornbos was notified of the accident, and he with Deputy DeWitt rushed to the spot to find William Spence and Isaac Van Dommelen, formerly of Holland, now of Grand Rapids, guarding the car, which was still standing on its head.

A search brought ten quarts of whiskey to light, and William Spence said that Henry and Nick Vanderleest and John Swartz got scared and were hoofing it to Grand Rapids carrying with them twelve quarts more. All the men were gloriously drunk as they already had consumed two of the 24 quarts of liquor.

Both men were taken to the county jail and one confessed that the liquor had been purchased from Harm Gringhuis.

At the Holland jail where Gringhuis was locked up Justice Robinson and Sheriff Dornbos put the man through some third degree work and he made a confession stating that he had sold the liquor to the Grand Rapids parties, getting $130 in cash for 24 quarts which amounts to nearly $4 a quart. The man also gave an exciting smuggling story telling how he and Pat Sparks of Grand Haven had taken the whiskey from the outer side of a car ferry, had rowed with it up the Grand River to a boat house and how after dark they had smuggled the whiskey into the house of a man named Gerrit Rock, and from there had taken it to the waiting automobiles.

William Spence can be held on three charges: first for running whiskey second for running a car while being drunk, third for running a car with another man's license, all of which he has made confession to.

Harm Rock was bound over to circuit court on the charge of selling liquor and the rest of the men are also bound over on the charge of having liquor in their possession.

Justice Robinson has two sworn confessions in his possession, and some of the other men arraigned have practically admitted that the story is true.

A few of the men gave bonds for their appearance while a few were taken to the county jail.

OLD PAPERS AND BOOKS FOUND IN THE BUILDING TO BE RAISED

Incident to raising the old Kiefer restaurant to be occupied by the new Pieper Jewelry store the attic of the story and a half building, brought to light some old papers, receipts and books.

Also a poem by Prof. J. F. Van Horn, printed in 1873 and printed at the Holland City News office. The poem is entitled "Wrecked on the hidden rock," or "Chips picked from the front yard of life."

The poem has to do with a temperance campaign and is a biting sarcastic poem against "demon rum."

A SALVAGE CO. IS SECURED FOR HOLLAND

Holland Salvage Co. is the name of a new concern that has been organized in Holland recently.

Holland's newly found prosperity which brings with it the tearing down of the old, and putting up of the new, has made such a company possible, in this city.

Several old buildings are now being wrecked so that new ones may take their places, and here is where a salvage company steps in.

The buildings are purchased by the Holland Salvage Co., and are carefully taken down so that the lumber may remain intact and the nails are taken out of the lumber, and are then carted to the company's yards, where the lumber is carefully piled, the same as in any well regulated lumber yard.

In building, wrecking all manner of buildings, supplies are obtained, that can still be put to serviceable uses. Lumber, pipes, glass, plumbers supplies, bath tubs, pumps, zincs, bolts, and many other articles taken from old buildings are sent to the company's headquarters, are assorted, cleaned, painted when necessary, and then are placed on sale, not as new but as salvage goods, and in many instances answer the purpose as well as a new one would.

During the war a great many salvage companies have started up, because a great deal of money was made through these channels. It was also recommended at that time as an economic measure.

The Holland Salvage Co. is today wrecking the old Kiefer restaurant, and has finished tearing down the bowling alley east of the P. S. Botes store.

Boone Bros. livery and wards on corner of Central Ave. and 7th St., has been purchased where this business will be carried on.

The stockholders and officers of the company are as follows: Hub Boone, president and treasurer; David Blom, vice-president; Thomas N. Robinson, secretary, and John Boone, manager.

Besides doing salvage business the company is also making contracts for excavation work for new buildings and are also purchasing unclaimed goods from railroads, which no doubt will also be entered into the salvage stock.

FILLMORE WOMEN ARE GOOD CITIZENS

An enthusiastic male voter of Fillmore township who had been somewhat "from Missouri" in regard to woman suffrage called up the Sentinel Monday noon with the information that the women of Fillmore township were coming out in large numbers to vote. "We were not looking for many women," he said, "but they are coming to the polls on a fifty-fifty basis, as many women voting as men. And you ought to see the polling place," he continued enthusiastically; "you wouldn't know it, it's so clean and so free from smoke. Me for woman suffrage after this."

FORMER HOLLAND MAN DROPS DEAD

Cyrus Rose, for many years a resident of Holland, dropped dead during a circus parade in Los Angeles Calif., according to a letter received by his friends in Holland. Death was caused by heart disease which was intensified by the after effects of influenza. Surgeons of the receiving hospital pronounced Rose dead when he was carried into the institution from the police ambulance.

Mr. Rose was 51 years old. There are still many people living here who remember the Rose family when it lived on East Ninth street. Rose's father for many years was freight agent for the old Chicago and West Michigan railway. Cyrus Rose is survived by two brothers, Fred and Charles and one sister, Lilly.

H. O. H. HAS HAD FINE GROWTH

The H. O. H. held its semi-annual business meeting Friday evening and 125 of the members were present. The report of the treasurer, Alex Van Zanten, audited by Peter Derks, Simon Pool and Dick Schaftenaar, showed the society in sound financial condition with a balance on hand of $3,560.23. The organization has a membership of three hundred at present. Seven new members were added Friday night.

Rev. C. P. Dame delivered an address in which he touched upon the real meaning of the association as a co-operative body. He declared this was in harmony with the spirit of the time and that we have passed out of the period of individualism into that of helping one another. A program of talks and music was given and refreshments were served.

Both Nibbelink, Jim Nibbelink and Miss Betty Nibbelink, Mrs. Dangremond and the Misses Grootenhuis motored to Muskegon over the week end and were the guests of Mrs. Jacob Nibbelink.

HOLLAND BOY IS STATIONED IN BERLIN

Edward Haan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert T. Haan, was one of the first hundred American boys to enter Berlin. Under date of Mar 18, he writes following interesting letter to his parents:

Dear Mother and Father—

We are in Berlin, the city the papers liked to picture the boys in. I feel satisfied for I am among the first hundred Americans here. It is a beautiful city, the architecture more massive and plain than the French and the buildings more on the order of those in the States. Berlin could easily pass for any American city except that the traffic is not so heavy and there are but few machines. The streets are very clean and orderly. The stores and shops are very attractive and are identical to those in America. As a whole the people are very civil to us—in fact almost friendly. We are somewhat of a curiosity and crowds soon gather to look us over whenever we stop to look in a shop window. We are occasionally asked about relatives in the States, and often they ask us whether it will be possible for them to go there. As we are not permitted to talk to civilians or soldiers, it is hard to get their point of view and ideas in regard to the war. They do seem to have a sort of a friendly feeling towards Americans, probably because of relatives and friends living there.

Ludendorff is hated, the Kaiser is no longer in favor among the middle class, but Hindenburg is very popular. They look upon him as a great General and is by far the best liked man in Germany.

I was one of the guards over our train my first night in Berlin. It was a night I shall always remember, for the other guards were German soldiers. I little thought six months ago that I would be on guard with any one wearing a spiked helmet. Frankly I was glad to have their company even though we didn't do much talking for they were armed to the teeth and had rifles, pistols, hand grenades and machine guns. While I had nothing but two hands and a weak pair of knees. I understand that arms are not allowed here, altho the second night we were supplied with them. However the night passed without anything exciting happening and I enjoyed the novelty of it.

You have probably heard of a food shortage in Germany, and wondered if conditions were as bad as they were painted. Conditions here are frightful—they are far worse than I ever imagined. The first question we were asked when entering the city was—"When is America going to send us food?" The poor people are starving. I have been asked time and again for food as I walked down the streets. While in the train crowds would collect, especially at dinner time, begging for a piece of bread. We had to refuse them for it was against orders to give any food away, but it was the hardest thing I ever did and I lost my own appetite—I couldn't eat before them. I remembered what you used to say to me when I wasted things. I did not realize then what it meant, but I do now, and I don't believe I shall ever forget it. One day we made more coffee than we could use, and we gave it to a few standing near—one old man of 65 who had lost an arm in the war. They told us that it was the first coffee they had had for over four years. After finishing they collected enough wood to last the kitchen three days.

You have probably read some blood curdling tales about the fighting in Berlin. I hear that it was pretty warm a week ago—but now things are rather quiet. There is still fighting going on in the outskirts of the city but I believe the government has every thing well in hand now. Don't worry about me anyway for Americans are not molested for the people seem to base their hopes in America for food. Machine guns are posted on each corner; motor trucks are driven through the streets filled with armed soldiers, and machine guns. Soldiers also patrol the streets armed with guns and grenades. Occasionally you see a prisoner, hands in the air heavily guarded, marching away to be shot. Those sights are not pleasant to see. I believe that conditions will be better as soon as food is brought in.

As yet I have not been assigned to any duty. I have however been able to see a greater part of Berlin. We all feel fortunate in being able to get here and we are in a very good hotel, with every convenience along with fairly good food. Personally I'm well satisfied. I'll be glad to get to work—to finish up and then go home.

Your boy,
Ed.

A $50,000 BANK FOR HOLLAND

Citizens of Holland, it's time for another dose of medicine from the optimistic bottle. The dope is pleasant to the taste and doesn't need a chaser. Here it is:

The Holland City State bank is going to rebuild and although the bank building proper is already one of the most beautiful buildings Holland has, it is to be made still more so.

Not alone that but the banking officials have decided that $50,000 is about the amount they are willing to spend to make the present banking house one of the most beautiful and up-to-the-minute institutions in Western Michigan.

The present bank building was completed in June 1892 and will be 27 years old this coming summer. One of the officials state that when the bank was built, all the stockholders considered that the building was too large and would do duty for a life-time at least, and they considered that changes in their day would be out of the question.

The growth of this popular institution has been so rapid however that already five years ago it was found that the facilities of the bank were becoming inadequate for present needs and that the bank was pressed for room in which to do business. Then the war came and building was out of the question. The dark war clouds have blown away and those with a silver lining are appearing in the commercial skies.

The stockholders of the Holland City State Bank are not waiting for material to come down to a dead level. They believe in reconstruction and they hold high hope for Holland's future prosperity and they have faith in their city. So much so in fact that plans and specifications are now being drawn to remodel the present building into an up-to-date spacious banking house.

The plan is to throw the Express office to the north and the banking house itself into one large room and utilize it all for banking purposes.

A two-story addition will be erected at the rear extending west thirty feet and north the full width of the present building. The new part will be built of Waverly stone to conform with the style and color of the present structure.

The interior of the new bank will be as modern as this is possible to make it. A tile floor, marble sides and the latest in banking furniture and fixtures will be features in the remodeling process.

Directors' rooms, telephone booths, men's and ladies' rooms, drinking fountains, rest rooms and all the modern conveniences found in an up-to-date bank generally are going to be found in this new bank when completed.

New vaults and safety deposit boxes will be installed and these will be the best and safest that can possibly be purchased thus protecting the patrons of the bank to the fullest extent.

The present banking rooms are so arranged that the customer doing business must first go up a small flight of stone steps in order to get into the building. These will be done away with and this part of the new bank will be even with the street and on a level with the express office.

The entrance will remain on the corner under the clock, the only exception being that patrons can walk right in from the street without climbing the stone steps now found there. This change will make necessary the removal of the barber shop in the basement and the tonsorial artist will no doubt have to find new quarters in the very near future.

The stairs leading to Masonic Hall and to the offices on the second floor will be moved from the center of the building to the extreme north side of the building. This will leave a wide expanse for plate glass windows in the front, giving ample light for the bank interior.

It is expected that within a month the Holland City State Bank will occupy temporary quarters in the Van der Veen block, in the store formerly occupied by the Boston restaurant. The quarters will be remodeled in order to accommodate the bank while the present bank building is going thru a period of reconstruction.

Temporary vaults will be placed in the Vander Veen building and all precautions and safeguards will be thrown around this bank in order to protect the property and funds of the Holland City State Bank customers. It is expected that the new bank will be completed by Fall when an opening for the public will naturally be held.

It is estimated that an audience of better than one thousand filled the spacious auditorium.

There were five contestants in this oratorical contest in which John Woldring of Prospect Park church was the winner.

Jacob Vanden Berg of Ninth Street Christian Reformed church was awarded second place, and Richard Smeenge of the Sixteenth street church, third. The two other contestants were Thos. DeVries, Central Avenue church, and Gerrit Alderink, Maple Avenue church.

The judges were Rev. M. Van Veen of Zeeland, Prof. J. G. Vanden Bosch and Prof. Ralph Stob of Calvin College, Grand Rapids, and Henry Geerlings, secretary of the Holland Board of Education.

The society that was represented by the winners becomes the recipient of a beautiful banner that the winning church can hold for one year, which will be conspicuously displayed in the church parlors. Should any of the Chr. Ref. churches win this banner three years in succession then the banner becomes the life property of that church.

Last year the contest was won by William Brink of the Ninth Street Christian Reformed church who has to surrender the banner this year to Prospect Park church.

DRYS WIN
BY 1090 VOTES
IN HOLLAND

Although there was no undue excitement caused by the election in Holland Monday, a heavy vote was cast considering that no local contest of any kind was on.

In fact for the first time in the history of Holland no city ticket was voted on for the reason that all the candidates had been elected at the spring primaries.

The republican ticket, consisting of State officers, carried the city by an overwhelming majority averaging between six and seven hundred.

Nelson R. Stanton, county school commissioner had no opposition, and consequently got nearly all the votes.

The salary amendment lost by a substantial vote, while the drys carried the city by 1090.

Holland has shown its spirit of progress by giving good roads amendment a substantial majority of 779.

The vote Monday shows that the people know how to vote on the propositions in which they are interested.

For instance on the wet and dry ballot, the blanks were few, but in all the wards the blanks on the salary amendment were out of all proportion which goes to show that the voter paid very little attention to this amendment for the reason that they were not interested.

In one ward for instance there were 114 blanks and in another there were 42 blanks on this amendment.

The summary of the vote follows below:

KIEFT EVEN FAKES
A SWOON

Art Kieft, Holland's wayward, can't even be honest with himself. When Judge Cross sentenced him to Jackson prison Thursday afternoon to from two to 15 years, the young man fainted dead away and he stiffened out upon the floor before the court.

The judge who was not on to the young man's versatile tactics hurriedly ordered a doctor to appear. The physician pronounced the faint a fake and gave the young incorrigible a good swift kick and he was soon on his feet. Kieft was taken to Jackson Friday morning and is now serving his fifteen years.

CHICKEN CASE WAS RETRIED IN CIRCUIT COURT WED.
NESDAY

Holland's first woman jury, and so far its only woman jury, had the unique distinction of having its finding appealed to a higher court so that its decision would be reviewed by a men's jury of twelve men. And now it has the further distinction of having its verdict sustained by these twelve men tried and true.

But it was a very close squeak, so close in fact that the court and the attorneys as well as others in the court room got the impression that it was a case of six of one and half a dozen of the other.

The so-called Gilmore chicken case, also known as the slander case was tried in circuit court in Grand Haven Wednesday. The woman jury in justice court in Holland had rendered a decision of guilty, whereupon the case was appealed to higher court. Attorney D. Ten Cate and Att. Clarence Lokker appeared for the defendant while the prosecution was conducted by Prosecutor F. M. Miles. There were eight witnesses for the people and two for the respondent.

The case was given into the hands of the jury at five minutes to five o'clock Wednesday afternoon and it was not until 15 minutes to 1 o'clock the next morning that the jury finally agreed on a verdict of guilty, thus sustaining the verdict of the woman jury of Holland. In the meanwhile the jury returned to the court room four times and announced to the judge they could not agree. But each time Judge Cross instructed them to go back and deliberate a while longer. At midnight he read the charge to the jury once more and finally near one o'clock the twelve men agreed on the verdict. The judge and the attorneys as well as some witnesses remained in the court room all this time waiting patiently for the verdict.

The jurors were:
John Boer, John Geertz, Frank J. Strick, Bram Witteveen, Arthur Bremms, Albert Tonnin, Glenn Luther, Elia Elzinga, Tony Vander Zaam, Henry J. Donker, A. B. Rammeraad, Tyler Van Landegend.

OLEVER PROGRAM
CENTURY CLUB

The Century Club ended its year in a blaze of glory Monday night when it met at the home of Mayor and Mrs. N. Bosch and indulged in a "camouflage program" which was by common consent pronounced one of the most clever ever put on by that club. The program was in charge of Mrs. C. H. McBride and President E. D. Dimment. Mr. Dimment was not present at the meeting and Mrs. McBride had active charge.

The program opened with a solo by Mrs. J. E. Telling, the camouflage consisting in singing it off pitch, out of tune and "murdering" it generally. Miss Virginia Van Verst sang a "Quaker" song—only it was called "Sweetie" and was very frivolous and un-Quakerlike; she was dressed as a demure Quaker girl, but discarded the Quaker trimmings in the course of the song. Miss Metz and Prof. Wichers impersonated a parody on "The Raven," Mr. Wichers acting the part of the raven and Miss Metz reading the parody written by Mrs. R. A. Page. A mock wedding in which Mr Bacillus Influenza was wedded to Miss Rosenow. Vaccine was enacted by Miss Frances Bosch as the bride, Mr. S. B. McLean as the groom, Miss Colombe Bosch as nurse, Dr. B. B. Godfrey as Health Officer, Little Miss Boone as "flour" girl, Randall Bosch as ring-bearer, A. H. Heuer as the clergyman, and C. M. McLean as father of the bride.

The climax of the entertainment was the minstrel show with Martin Dykema, John Van Vyven and R. A. Page as minstrels. Their songs and instrumental selections made a big hit. The finale was the singing of "Star Spangled Banner," by the club, Marshall Irving standing at attention in the doorway, against a background of the American flag.

The officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Dr. A. Leenhouts, president; Dr. B. J. DeVries, vice-president; Mrs. L. M. Thurber, secretary and treasurer; members of the executive committee, Mrs. C. M. McLean and Hoyt Post.

Albert Rooks of Iowa has purchased the Harm Bosch farm in Bass River, which is one of the best known places in Ottawa county. With the farm goes the gravel pit, which is one of the best known in the locality. Will Bosch has been operating the farm for several years.

VARIETY PROGRAM IS GIVEN BY THE LITERARY CLUB

A very large attendance marked the meeting of the Woman's Literary club Tuesday afternoon. The program, of which each number bore some relation to the war, was in charge of Mrs. Whitman, chairman of the patriotic Committee, who occupied the chair.

Mr. G. J. Diekema read a very interesting paper on "The Birdmen," written by his son Captain Willis Diekema, now in Germany. The writer treated the subject in an impersonal way, but Mr. Diekema added a personal touch by telling some of Capt. Diekema's own experiences.

"Wartime Rhymes and Jingles," by Mr. Wm. Vander Hart proved very interesting and his interpretation of war poems very effective. Miss Augusta Nieuwsm, a Red Cross nurse, who has seen service in France during the greater part of the war, gave a vivid description of her experiences from the time she left this country until her return.

The college orations given at the State oratorical contest by Miss Bell and Mr. Giles were delivered by them. The music consisted of two vocal solos by Mrs. R. M. Waltz, "For you alone," and "A Spring Song," with violin accompaniment by Prof. Bruno Meinicke and Prof. A. Heusinkveld at the piano. As an encore she sang "In Italy," Mr. Meinicke gave two violin selections, accompanied by Prof. Heusinkveld "The Polonaise," a Polish dance, and "A Southern Melody," by an American composer.

A vocal selection by a mixed quartet was also given.

Next week Tuesday will be guest day and Mrs. Frances S. Child of Grand Rapids will give a talk on art accompanied by an exhibit.

IS BOUND OVER TO THE CIRCUIT COURT

H. Van Tongeren, brakeman on the Pere Marquette railway, appeared before Justice Van Schelven Friday on the charge of having furnished liquor to John Lokker who figured in an automobile smashup last Sunday night on 12th street. He was given his examination and was bound over to circuit court where he will have his trial in August, Att. D. Ten Cate representing him at the examination. Van Tongeren was placed under $300 bonds, furnished by Peter Prins and John Meeboer.

Swan A. Miller of the Maacatawa Resort company went to Chicago Wednesday on business.

BECOMES PASTOR OF FAMOUS OLD CHURCH

Rev. J. W. Van Zanten formerly of this city, has accepted a call from one of the oldest churches in America, the "Old First" Reformed church of New York City.

The old First Reformed church is one of the best known churches in the Metropolitan District and under its new leader a rapid and staple growth is expected. The church was organized in 1660, has more than a thousand members and a property valued at $250,000.

A New York paper has the following to say about Rev. Van Zanten:

"Mr. Van Zanten is a graduate of Hope college, Holland, Mich., in the class of 1907, and of the New Brunswick Theological Seminary in 1910. His first pastorate was with the Reformed Church of Metuchen, N. J., which he served for eight years, resigning this charge to take up the work of chaplain in the Army. He has recently received his discharge from the service.

"The pulpit has been vacant for nearly a year, since the resignation of the Rev. Arthur James Derbyshire, who was granted a long leave of absence to do work with the Y. M. C. A. in France. He returned to this country in bad health and was impelled to resign the pastorate. The Rev. Dr. J. M. Farar served this church for 26 years, and is now pastor emeritus and quite as busy serving churches as he was in the pastorate. He was acting pastor of the Lewis Avenue Congregational church during the absence of Chaplain Frank I. Hanson with the 106th Inf. in France."

BIRTHS AGAIN IN EXCESS OF DEATHS

For the first time in several months the birth rate exceeds the death rate in both Ottawa Co. and the city of Holland according to the latest number of "Vital Statistics" issued by the state Saturday. The issue covers the month of January. During the few months previous to January the death rate was larger than the birth rate because of the flu. But in January there were 78 births in Ottawa county and 63 deaths. In Holland during that month there were 25 births and 23 deaths. In Grand Haven however the deaths exceeded the births almost three to one. There were seven births there and 18 deaths. In Allegan county there were 56 births and 44 deaths, and in Allegan city 8 births and 11 deaths.

MANY HOLLAND SOLDIERS RETURNED FROM OVERSEAS

SAW BURGLAR IN HIS OWN STORE; SCARES HIM OFF

Joe Mundy closed up his cigar and confectionary store at Grand Haven at shortly before 11 o'clock Sunday night and went across the street to Vandreser's restaurant to get a bite to eat. While in the restaurant the owner of the cigar store spied something strange going on in his own store across the street. He rubbed his eyes to determine whether or not his senses were playing him a trick, but there was no trick about it. Somebody was moving within the Mundy store.

Running across the street, he saw thru the window a stranger moving in the place, evidently meant to plundering. While the proprietor was attempting to unlock the front door, the shadowy figure had time to make his getaway out of the rear entrance through which he had come. Investigation determined that only a box of candy had been stolen by the bold burglar.

NEARLY FOUR HUNDRED MEMBERS OF ORDER AND GUESTS CELEBRATE EVENT

Mayor Loutit Welcomes the Holland Lodge, Mayor and Common Council

Fully four hundred or more Odd Fellows, their families and guests participated in the centennial celebration of Odd Fellows at Grand Haven Tuesday afternoon and evening and one of the greatest fraternal gatherings in the history of the city resulted. The sessions began in the afternoon, but the night meeting was the big feature of the gathering, when a program of especial importance was carried out.

The evening session was open to the public and the Odd Fellows lodge rooms were crowded with members of the fraternity and guests when the program opened. The Holland Odd Fellows' delegation came by automobile bringing with them Mayor Bosch of Holland, the city council, city attorney and other city officials who were guests of the Order at the supper and at the evening meeting. Members of the Coopersville and Nunica lodges were also guests of the Grand Haven lodge. The delegations from the Holland, Coopersville and Nunica lodges were large.

Mayor W. H. Loutit of this city officially welcomed the visiting Odd Fellows and their guests to the city. Mr. Loutit stated that he was not a member of the Odd Fellows but that he was a fraternal man, and it gave him especial pride and pleasure that Grand Haven had been selected as the meeting place for the Odd Fellows of four lodges, in celebration of an important event in the history of their lodge.

Mayor Bosch of Holland was called upon for an address, and he spoke very briefly expressing his appreciation of the hospitality extended to himself and his official family. Dr. B. B. Godfrey of Holland was introduced as the presiding officer of the evening and the prepared program was carried out. Fred A. Rogers, grand secretary of the Odd Fellows of Michigan spoke on the subject, "Get Out of the Rut." George

A. Harland, grand master for Michigan spoke on the subject "A Universal Brotherhood" in a manner which held the attention of every one present giving a message which appealed to every person present whether an Odd Fellow or not.

The program was opened by the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" and closed by the singing of "Home Sweet Home." Besides the grand officers addresses were given by Brother Young, Coopersville, Brother Baker of Grand Haven, Brother Westover of Nunica and Brother Godfrey of Holland. A solo by Mrs. Lulu Harrington of Holland featured the musical part of the program.

A fine supper was served by the members of the Grand Haven Odd Fellows and Robekahs at 5:30 and 6:30 and many guests were served at both hours. The supper was served in cafeteria style and the fine menu was highly complimented by the guests. Nearly 400 people sat down to supper.

The afternoon was devoted to lodge matters, a business session, the conferring of grand lodge degrees and the exhumification of the secret work. After the closing of the secret work the time until 5:30 was spent in a pleas and social hour.

IS HAPPY TO BE BACK

IN THIS COUNTRY

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. P. Vinkemulder that their nephew Arnold Vinkemulder of Grand Haven has arrived in New York from overseas. He set sail from New York in February, 1918. He was a member of the famous 42nd or Rainbow Division, being at the front almost continually from June until November, when he was poisoned by drinking from a spring which had been poisoned after having been without anything to drink for three or four days. Since that time he was in the hospital until March 26 when he boarded the U. S. S. Leviathan—a boat 950 feet long on which he writes there were 12,065 soldiers. He says, "I am too happy to be alive, and to breathe God's pure air, and to see the sun shine."

ON VICTORY

LOAN STARTED

About fifty members of the Victory Loan Committee appointed from the different townships in lower Ottawa county, gathered with a large Holland delegation at the city Hall Monday evening.

Park, Holland township, the two Olive townships, Zeeland, Zeeland City, Jamestown, and Georgetown, all had representatives present who came with the intention to help in starting the Victory Loan aright.

Chairman A. H. Landwehr opened the meeting, and in his congenial manner, soon made the outside delegation feel at home. He stated the object of the meeting, and what had been accomplished by lower Ottawa county in the past. He also gave one fact that may be new to the majority of our readers, and that is that the state of Michigan led all other states in the Union in the fourth Liberty Loan in point of number of subscribers, showing that more Michigan people bought bonds in proportion to population than any other state in the Union. Mr. Landwehr pointed out that the volunteer plan would be followed, as he said it was just as easy to raise the quota in one day as in ten, when the citizens of Ottawa county saw their duty in wear, "were patriotic duties. The Victory Loan is the honor loan, let us not dishonor ourselves and our country by not meeting our obligations."

Rev. Cheff was next called upon by the right light.

"The other loans," said Mr. Landwehr, the chairman, who compared the loan drives in the past to a horse race. All the contestants in the different localities were eager to see who would come under the wire first. "But this was during the war," said the dominie from Hope church. "I am sometimes afraid that the vim and push and enthusiasm that helped former loans is lacking since the armistice was signed."

"A feeling of apathy seems to be prevalent. We must shake off this apathy, for the war is not yet over, and there are still troublesome times ahead it seems, in that war-ridden country. Remember, too that our soldiers are still over there, longing and praying to get back to their fathers, mothers, wives and babies. Yes, they are yearning to clasp them in their arms again."

"This country owes a great debt to these men. Who is the country? Who is the government? It is you. It is I. It is all of us, collectively, that make up this great nation. Let us not fall short in our duty to our fighting men, and to our nation."

Hon. G. J. Dickema was next called and in his usual convincing manner, drove home some telling Victory Loan arguments.

Among other things he said, "Nobody expected the war to end when it did. Even the official heads of the great nations, the military men who guided the destinies of the allied armies did not expect the war to cease until 1920."

"Now that the war is over, you hear of extravagance, but there is bound to be extravagance when time counts for something, and the nation's existence is in the balance. To give you some idea. Five million gas masks were made and were in readiness. Only one million of them were used, but the nation was prepared with four million more. More mustard gas was made in the United States within the few months before peace was declared, than was made in England, France and Germany put together."

"This is now being dumped into the ocean. However, the government was prepared should the need for that weapon of war be necessary."

"It is said that very little American artillery was used, but just before the armistice was signed, more heavy guns, more fighting material of all kinds was ready for shipment at a moment's notice, and the government report shows that preparation had been made, with enough material to blow Germany from the face of the earth."

"The Huns were mighty 'fraid of those tanks, and especially those made by Americans, which were swifter and more terrible than the others."

"The United States government had made enough tanks so that if placed 75 feet apart they would stretch the full length of the battle line, and with this array of monsters moving forward the Hun would soon be crushed into their own country."

"These preparations we have got to pay for. These preparations were made for our boys to fight with in 1919 and 1920."

"The criticism of extravagance would have been mild, compared with the howl of derision that would have gone up from the country had the war continued two years more, as the military authorities had figured, and the country had found that the proper preparations had not been made to safeguard our boys with fighting material. "Do not think for a moment that the Huns did not know what preparations had been made, that the Huns did not know what overwhelming fighting forces and implements of war were coming from across the sea, to aid our soldiers and our allies in the final victory."

"The fact that they knew is the reason why the war ended so abruptly. The Huns saw the uselessness of continuing against such gigantic preparations as they knew had been made by Uncle Sam."

"Is there a single man or woman in Ottawa county who would not be willing to pay for a gun that would not be used again to do cruel murder? Is there a man so base, who would not pay his share to the finish of a blood-less war? If war had continued for two years more I would never again laid eyes upon my own son. Should I then not feel thankful that all these preparations had been made? Yes, and I thank God for it."

"Then too, we must not forget that money is needed for these soldiers who come back to us, maimed, blind, limbleless and infirm for ever. You are not going to let these heroes suffer in a Christian era, in a christian country. To me it is not a victory loan. To me it is a loan of thanksgiving. It is a victory to God, and if we are not willing to give this thanksgiving offering, we are not worthy of the victory."

Enthusiastic speeches were also made by Henry Harrington, George Heneveld, Henry Winter, J. A. Kelley, Andrew Steketee, Wm. O. VanEyck, T. N. Robinson, A. H. Landwehr, Maurice Luidens.

After the meeting the audience adjourned to the Red Cross rooms where the ladies of Holland served coffee and sandwiches.
