FIRST COMMITTEE GETS $700.00 FOR THE SALVATION ARMY

SECOND COMMITTEE TURNS LOOSE TODAY IN BUSINESS DISTRICT

Charles Karr, chairman of the first committee in charge of advance gifts for the Salvation Army reports that the committee has through with its work and has secured just $700 of the $1500 Salvation Army quota. The members of the committee besides Mr. Karr are Sears McLean and John Koolker, and these men have put in a very busy ten days writing and visiting those who are able to aid substantially. That their efforts have been crowned with success is shown by the above named amount. Today John Van Tatenhove and his aide, namely Milo De Vries, Alex. Van Zanten and Joe Koolker will make a raid on the business district, and will spend at least four days in asking the merchants for donations to this worthy cause. $800 must still be raised and the business men will be given the second whirl at the quota.

After this committee gets through, the house to house committee will get busy when every home in Holland will be visited, and every block will be canvassed by sub-committees. This committee consists of Mrs. Gertrude Boer, chairman, Mrs. Abel Smeenge, and Mrs. Irmann.

The canvass will close after the outlying district committee gets through following the house to house canvass. In this Mayor Kammeraad will perform his first unofficial duty in behalf of his city. He will be assisted by William Deur.

Mr. Millard who is back in the city says he is extremely thankful to Holland for the showing already made, and he knows that without doubt, Holland will go over the top as it seems to do in everything it undertakes.

FORMER HOLLAND MAN LOSES HOME BY FIRE

FORMER MAILCARRIER HAS HARD LUCK IN DETROIT

A clipping sent from a Detroit paper tells of the burning of the home of Simon Verwey, a former Holland mailcarrier.

The home was in one of the suburbs of Detroit, and the clipping from the paper follows:

"A fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the house and furnishings at the corner of Smith and Cummings avenue in Eco City, belonging to S. A. Verwey, a Ford worker. The house was insured for $3,000. There was no insurance on the furnishings, which were valued at $1,000.

According to Mrs. Verwey, when she left home fifteen minutes before the blaze was discovered, there was a checked fire in a stove and a two-lamp brooder and incubator with the lamps turned low. When the fire was discovered the house was a complete mass of flames and it was impossible to enter to save any of the furniture. Mrs. Verwey was notified at the church, where she was attending a club meeting, but the roof had collapsed before she arrived.

Birmingham fire trucks responded to the alarm and were of great value in saving the surrounding buildings which were endangered by the flying embers due to the high wind."

FIRST PROGRAM IN NEW CHRISTIAN HIGH SCHOOL

ALSO FIRST APPEARANCE OF MALE CHORUS; MISSIONARY CHILDREN TO SING CHINESE SONGS

Aside from the dedication exercises of the new Christian High school which were held Thursday night the first program to be given in the new building will be under the auspices of the Young Ladies Mission Circle of the Ninth Street Christian Reformed church on the evening of Thursday, April 24. The program is given for the benefit of missions and is rather unique from the fact that it is so diversified.

The young ladies of the church have taken a live interest in missions and are co-operating to make the program a success.

The program will include a playlet, the members in the cast being coached by Miss Nelle Kole of Hope College. The name of the playlet is "Tired of Missions." It shows the trials of the missionary in foreign lands and the arduous efforts put forth to get the proper support from the homeland. Members in the playlet will represent the different countries where missionaries now are, and these will be designated wearing the costumes of the respective countries entering in the playlet.

Three little girls, daughters of Rev. and Mrs. Boot, will appear in Chinese costumes and sing Chinese songs. These children were born in China and came here with their parents who are now on a furlough.

Another drawing card will be Chris De Jonge, a graduate of Hope College, who has been in India for three years, and will give a very interesting discourse on this mysterious country.

In the line of music the program will be replete with selections by the Colonial Male Chorus, an organization which appears for the first time in public, and other musical numbers, both vocal and instrumental.

There will also be several other interesting and worth-while numbers. The program is not complete and therefore cannot be published at this time.

Tickets for the program can be secured from any of the members of the Mission Circle, and also at Brink's Book Store.

to 13 in an overtime game.

These two teams will try conclusions again on Thursday of this week at 7:30 P. M. when the tie will be played off at the Christian High school gymnasium.

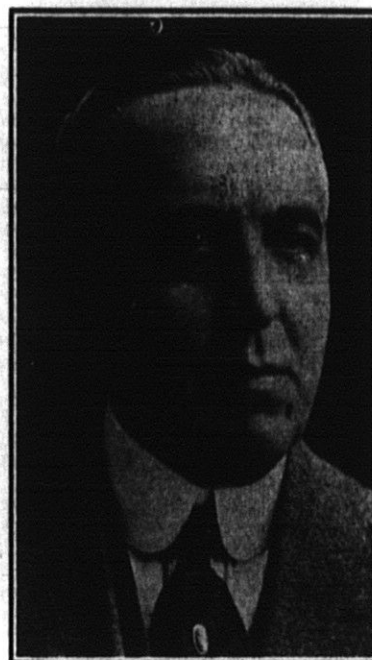

As a preliminary the Grand Haven team will play the Christian High Reserves. This will be the last game of the season and a large audience is expected to see this final and much-talked of game.

STEPHAN AND KAMMERAAD GIVE THEIR MESSAGES

RETIRING MAYOR GIVES REVIEW OF HIS FOUR YEARS OF WORK

Mayor Kammeraad Tells What He Hopes Will Be The Spirit of New Administration

Giving a review of his four years of service, Mayor E. P. Stephan Wednesday night left office as chief executive of the city of Holland with a message in which he called attention to what has been accomplished and in which he gave his best wishes to his successor.

E. P. STEPHAN
Retiring Mayor

Following the reading of Mr. Stephan's message, the new mayor, Nick Kammeraad, read his message to the aldermen, in which he briefly outlined what he hoped would be the spirit of the new administration. The two messages in their order read as follows:

NICK KAMMERAAD

Gentlemen of the Common Council:— It is often said that personal or party platforms are written for the purpose of getting the votes, and that inaugural addresses are delivered to please the public. After a candidate is in office, he often forgets both and does not like to be reminded of either. This is an exaugural address, and if my opening statement is true, then I want to make an exception to this rule, and recall tonight my platform and inaugural address of four years ago, and let you and the general public decide as to whether I succeeded in my aspirations, or whether I failed.

My platform was that I would give the city a pure business administration. I did not make any appeal to sect or class; did not make any political promises.

HOLLAND CONTRACTORS MAY BUILD ZEELAND HIGH SCHOOL

Wm. P. Van Loo, secretary of the Board of Education of Zeeland asks for sealed bids on the construction of the new high school, a large appropriation having recently been voted by the citizens of Zeeland.

The Zeeland Board of Education no doubt wants Holland contractors to bid, since they are asking for bids through the Holland newspapers.

Bids must be in by May 1st, filed with the secretary of the Board of Education at Zeeland. The separate proposals in the sealed bids are for general construction, heating and ventilating, plumbing, electrical work and clock system.

The bid as advertised specifies many technical requirements, such as certified checks accompanying bids, etc. There is no doubt but that several Holland contractors will make a bid to erect this beautiful building since the job is so near Holland and easy to get to.

GERRIT SPIETSMA IS NEW ALDERMAN IN THIRD WARD

WILL TAKE THE SEAT MADE VACANT BY ELECTION OF KAMMERAAD AS MAYOR

The common council last night Wednesday evening electing a successor to Mayor Kammeraad to represent the third ward in the council. As soon as the new administration had been sworn in, Ald. Laepple, junior member in the third, made a motion that the council proceed to the election by ballot of a successor to the mayor. There was no dissenting vote.

As evidence that the wheels had been well greased, only one ballot was necessary. When the ballots were counted, Gerrit Spietsma was found to have ten votes and Martin Vander Bie one. Mr. Spietsma was therefore declared the new alderman in the third. A call was made for him to take his seat and take part in the deliberations of the council but he was not present.

BAND ESCORTS RETIRING MAYOR TO CITY HALL

RECORD BREAKING CROWD ATTENDS CEREMONIES IN COUNCIL CHAMBER WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The American Legion band served as an escort to Mayor Stephan Wednesday evening on his way to the council room where he was to lay down his office. The band provided an automobile for the mayor which arrived just as he and Mrs. Stephan were about to leave on foot for the city hall. The band escorted the auto to college avenue thence north to eighth street, thence to River avenue and the city hall.

The band played vigorously during the triumphal march to the city hall and they also gave a brief concert in the hall itself.

The council room has perhaps never before been so crowded with people as it was Wednesday evening. Every square inch of the audience space in the chamber was occupied. There were many women as well as men. A considerable number of people who had not taken the precaution to come early were forced to stay in the hall where they could get a glimpse of the ceremonies in the council chamber.

For many it was probably the first council meeting they had attended. The aldermen went through the usual business in the usual way not departing from the ordinary routine because of the presence of a larger audience than usual. The theory is that the public is always present at council meetings and that the aldermen are to ignore the fact of whether many are in the public section of the council chamber or few.

When Mayor Stephan had read his farewell message to the aldermen, the new aldermen and the new mayor, were sworn in by city attorney C. M. McBride, and the retiring mayor handed over the gavel to Mayor Kammeraad with a few words in which he expressed the pleasure it gave him to turn over the office to a man who had served so faithfully. The rest of the meeting consisted of the reading of the new mayor's message and the usual routine business of an ordinary council session.

Willis C. Horn, taxi driver whose license was automatically revoked a few days ago when he was convicted of speeding, petitioned the common council Wednesday night to reinstate him. The aldermen could not quite see it that way, at least not just yet, and it is possible that Mr. Horn will have some trouble to secure the right to drive again. He promised the council that he would not speed again and that he would strictly obey all the traffic rules if his license were reinstated.

The aldermen felt that this was a case for the police and fire commissioners to handle and so the petition was referred to that body.

HOLLAND POLICE CATCH EMBEZZLER IN MILWAUKEE

CHIEF VAN RY HAS BEEN WAITING THREE MONTHS TO GET HIS MAN

Deputy Ed. Vander West has returned from Milwaukee with Albert Schaakalaar, who is charged with embezzlement of $75,000. Some three months ago Schaakalaar bought a Ford car from Ben Wierda, for $275.00. He paid $25.00 down, giving a note for the balance endorsed by a local automobile man. The note was cashed by one of the local banks.

A week later it is stated by the police that Schaakalaar sold the car to John Wolters, claiming a clear title. A notary in the city unknowingly secured a transfer title from the secretary of state, not aware of the note against the car at one of the banks.

When the note came due, the signers had to pay and they in turn "slapped" on to the car which they found one day parked on 8th street. John Wolters found that he was up against it since he didn't have a clear title, and he swore out complaint against Schaakalaar, who had skipped out immediately after he had sold the car and received the cash of $275.00 from Wolters.

Chief Van Ry played a waiting game, did a little detective work, finally locating his man two months later in Waukesha, Wisconsin. Schaakalaar knew all the local police well, for that reason the chief sent deputy Sheriff Ed. Vander West to Wisconsin to locate the man. Vander West was a stranger to Schaakalaar, and had little trouble in taking his prisoner.

The man is now in the county jail awaiting his appearance in circuit court.

The Beechwood school play will be given April 23 and 24. "Come and see the new version of 'Bringing Up Father,'" with James Schulling impersonating father. He is dominated by his wife, impersonated by Mrs. Henry Rooks.

COUNCIL ROOM WAS LIKE A FLOWER SHOP

BOUQUETS GALORE PRESENTED TO RETIRING MAYOR AND NEW EXECUTIVE

Many Give Expression of Goodwill And Confidence And The "Say It With Flowers."

The people of Holland "said it with flowers" Wednesday night on the occasion of the change of administration. The council chamber was like a flower store and the bouquets came so thick and fast that it was almost impossible to keep track of them all.

After Mayor Stephan had finished reading his message, Ald. Laepple on behalf of the council, presented him with a fine bouquet in the following words:

"Four years ago the people of Holland chose you as their chief executive. During these years you have been the presiding officer of this council. Now after four years of conscientious and successful service you are about to hand over the reins of government to another. In speaking of success I do not refer to the material success, evidences of which are abundant. I wish to refer more particularly to your success along another line, without which material success might not have been possible. Differences of opinion have arisen in this council some of which could not be compromised. In some of these differences your wishes did not prevail. In others they did prevail. When they did not prevail, there was no bitterness, when they no exultation. At no time was harmony destroyed; without harmony no government can succeed. You have been fair in your decisions, generous to your opponents in debate. These are your great successes. It is because of these, that this council believes that more than ordinary notice should be taken of this moment, and the council directs me to express to you their appreciation. As a further mark of esteem, I now have the pleasure on behalf of the members of this council to present to you this basket of flowers. As you leave us to follow your private pursuits more closely, we bid you Godspeed."

The employees of the Holland Furniture company followed with a fine bouquet, the presentation speech being made by George Mooney.

Next came John Van Vyven, who presented Mr. Stephan with a bouquet on behalf of the American Legion band and thanked him for all the favors he had shown the band during his administration.

Mayor Stephan had hardly finished thanking all these donors of flowers, when G. J. Diekema came forward with another basket presented by the chamber of commerce.

"The chamber of commerce has assigned me," said Mr. Diekema, "to tell to you with flowers that are as fragrant as your accomplishments. You have said it with words abundant during your administration and with deeds more abundant. The chamber of commerce represents the business interests of the city, it is a new energetic organization that has always had your support and your active interest. This bouquet represents the token of esteem of the business men of Holland for a business mayor."

And then came Mr. Kammeraad's turn. Mr. Diekema came forward with another bouquet presented by the chamber of commerce to the new mayor. "The king is dead," he said, "long live the king. You, Mr. Kammeraad, have succeeded Mr. Stephan much as Elijah succeeded Elijah. Mr. Stephan threw his mantle upon you and we elected you. You come to us as mayor with business experience, with a character and reputation for honesty and fairness, and you stand for the best in business, in society, in religion. You possess the rare qualities of the silent president Coolidge before whose portrait you stand. You will have the co-operation and the goodwill of the chamber of commerce that presents you with these flowers."

A little later another basket of flowers was presented to the new mayor without comment or speech-making, the gift of the old and new council to the new mayor.

Other bouquets presented to the new mayor were from the Twelfth street Floral shop, the Colonial Male chorus, and the employees of Mr. Kammeraad. Three little girls, Emma Marie Wickerink, Ellene Stephan, and little Miss Mooney, were the proud flower bearers who took the flowers to the front of the hall.

A banquet is to be given at 6:30 o'clock in her honor in the banquet hall of the temple.

Members of the Masonic order and friends are invited.

Bernard Vandenberg, a young chap from the North Side was arrested by Speed Cop Bontekoe for going forty miles an hour on River avenue. Justice Brusse gave him the usual fine.

SIGN TO DIRECT TOURISTS TO WAUKAZOO INN

Judge J. C. Everett, owner of Waukazoo Inn, petitioned the common council Wednesday night for the right to place a sign on the corner of River and Eighth street to direct tourists to Waukazoo. Judge Everett pointed out that Waukazoo Inn is now the only hotel on the north side of the bay and that in view of the lack of hotel accommodations in Holland itself until the new hotel is finished it will be a benefit to Holland to have the tourists directed to Waukazoo. This will keep them here and will prevent them from going on as they would do with no hotel in sight. The petition was granted.

LOCAL

Fire of an unknown origin, starting at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon, completely destroyed the residence of Dr. Charles Chappell, the leading physician at Marine, Ottawa county. Damage is estimated at $10,000. Practically all the household furniture was saved by the volunteer fire department.

The village of Ferrysburg showed its appreciation to the Grand Haven fire department for services rendered during the fire at the home of Dick Groenevelt in the village. The Grand Haven department responded quickly and used their chemical truck in extinguishing the blaze.

As a measure showing their gratitude the village of Ferrysburg gave the firemen a check for forty dollars to swell the "radio fund." This fund has been made up of the liberal Ferrysburg donation, the Coopersville donation of $50 and others so that it now totals $100.

Michigan's highway department, upon the payment of a nominal fee, will supply to hotels and other places where tourists are liable to look for information, a map giving conditions of the roads of the state, and the kind of roads upon which the tourists will travel.

The map will be changed each two weeks to keep it up to date and give the latest possible information concerning road conditions.

The map, 34 inches square, will be provided with a standard, this remaining the property of the state. The type of each mile of road, the detours and how to get in and out of the larger cities of the state to and from trunk lines all will be presented.

In refusing the appeal of A. Emale Gerrie for damages, the state supreme court Thursday ruled that cities are not guilty of negligence when they fail to provide barriers at dangerous spots which will absolutely prevent automobiles from crashing through.

Gerrie, as the administrator of the estate of Laurin Gerrie, who was killed in 1922 when the car she was riding in smashed thru a gate into the river while a Port Huron drawbridge was open, asked for a reversal of a lower court verdict in favor of that city. The supreme court held that drivers of automobiles must use reasonable precaution. In the case in question another car hurtled into the river ahead of the Gerrie machine, but the occupants were rescued.

The Hope Dramatic club will give its annual big production on April 29th and 30th when the play, "The Aviator," will be given. The play written by James Montgomery is a four act affair and it will be one of the biggest comedy hits of the year. Last year the club gave a play entitled "Secret Service" and this was a big success. Miss Isla Pruim and George Danson will play the leading parts. Julius Van Eenam, C. Divinney, Paul Van Verst, Grace Garde, Angeline Poppen, Jean Kuiper, Grace De Wolf, Paul Gebbard, Jim De Pree, Richard Mallory, Esther Boer will also be in the cast.

Tickets will be placed on sale in the near future. The play is being coached by Mrs. Geo. F. Wolfe of Grand Rapids.

The cast is practicing very hard for the play and expect to give Holland a great treat. A regular Dramatic club meeting will be held tonight at the home of Miss Angeline Poppen.

The Holland Cubs, one of the teams in the factory league, will not have the backing of a factory in the city. The team is made up of players from scattered parts of the city. Some are high school boys but naturally the team does not play with the official backing of the school. Most of the other teams have manufacturing plants behind them but the Cubs are more or less on their own.

But that fact has not prevented the team from making good. Last season the Cubs defeated the Merchants, and the team has always given a very good account of itself. But whereas the uniforms of some of the other teams are supplied by the factories they represent, the Cubs will have to supply them themselves. So Simon De Groot is going around with a list to get some financial aid for the team to buy the uniform and a list has also been placed in the Superior Cigar store where those can subscribe who wish to do so.

Five Hope College boys returned to Holland Tuesday evening after a most unusual spring vacation. The young men are Paul Van Verst, Egbert Fell, Paul Gebbard, Fred Steketee, and Rutherford Huijzinga. When school closed for spring vacation they invested $50 in a used Ford and started away in it for New York city.

They went from here to Toledo, thence to Cleveland, Buffalo, Albany, and then along the Hudson to New York. Mr. Van Verst was entertained at the home of Mr. Gebbard, and the other three were entertained by Mrs. G. E. Kollen and John Lloyd Kollen who are living in New York for the present. All the young men report the time of their lives in New York and they worked overtime seeing all the sights.

They started for home on Sunday evening and arrived in Holland on Tuesday evening, making the trip in 48 hours. This was made possible by reason of the fact that they did not stop to sleep. They took turns driving, giving the others a chance to sleep. The trip to New York was made in three days.

The annual report of the board of public works is now out in book form and is available to those who are interested in this department of the city's work. It covers the year ending December 31, 1923. The book contains 45 pages. In addition to several pages of historical matter about Holland's water and light department, it contains the usual statistics which tell the history of the department's business for the past year.

Abraham J. Peters, of Holland, enlisted Thursday in the United States coast guard here and was assigned to the Manistee station as surfman. —Grand Haven Tribune.

Mrs. Nellie Smith died Thursday morning after a lingering illness at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jacob Geerlings, 35 East Twelfth street. She was born in Holland on March 12, 1879, and was 54 years of age. She was a daughter of the late Adrian Verschure, who died Jan. 18, 1892, and her mother died when she was a child of 2 years.

Mrs. Smith passed through a double bereavement in 1913 when her husband, Conrad Smith, and her only son, Edward, died within six months. She is survived by her daughter, Margaret, her brother Isaac Verschure, and her sister Mrs. Jacob Geerlings.

Miss Theresa Moot has been chosen valedictorian and Miss Hazel Albers salutatorian of the 1924 graduating class of Holland high school, according to an announcement today by Principal Riemersma. Miss Moot had a grade average of 97.96 per cent and Miss Albers 97.75.

Both girls are attractive and unusually popular with their classmates. Miss Albers has been president of Sigma Chi and of Blue Triangle.

Third place was awarded to Miss Luberta Van Doesburg with a percentage of 96.82 and fourth and fifth places to Miss Anna Cook, 96.02 and Miss Mae Beekman, 95.02, respectively. The class of 1924 numbers 104, the largest in the history of the school.

President George Schulling of the Ottawa Sunday School association has issued a call for a meeting of the executive board April 16, when plans will be formulated for the year's work and convention. Secretary J. H. Engel of the state association will attend the meeting. Mr. Engel also will speak to the students in Hope college and Holland high school. The pastors of all city churches and the superintendents of all local Sunday schools have been asked to meet with the committee.

The committee comprises: President, George Schulling; Secretary, A. A. Nienhuis; Mrs. Edith Walvoord of Hope college; Miss Henrietta Warnshuis; R. B. Champion, Henry Geerlings; Prof. Thomas E. Welmers and D. Boter; Holland; J. W. Verhoeke; J. J. Bolt; J. C. Lehman, Grand Haven; A. Lahuis; Mrs. A. H. Van Harten; Zeeland; Rev. D. D. Ellerbroek; H. P. Stegeman, Hudsonville; Mrs. B. Luben; J. Wolbring, Coopersville.

People of Dutch descent here who remember the peculiarly impressive music of the Dutch psalms will have an opportunity on Easter Sunday afternoon to hear one of them played. At three o'clock P. H. Brouwer, formerly of Holland and Zeeland who has won fame in Chautauqua as the "Royal Holland Bell Ringer," will play the 42nd psalm on the new big chimes in the tower of the U. S. Playing Card Company in Cincinnati. These chimes were installed on March 12 this year and since their installation Mr. Brouwer has been playing them every Sunday afternoon for the benefit of radio fans.

Remembering his former neighbors he decided to give them a Dutch psalm on Easter Sunday afternoon at three o'clock Standard time. Radio fans can hear the psalm by tuning in on radio station WSAI. Mr. Brouwer writes that it is an experiment and if people want it continued they should write to the station telling of their appreciation. If such communications are received he will play Dutch psalms every Sunday afternoon as long as he is in Cincinnati.

The Brouwers have been in Cincinnati since Christmas giving concerts in schools and colleges. When the Chautauqua season opens they will return to Chicago to join the Mutual-Morgan company. Next fall, beginning in October, they are booked for 25 weeks with the K. M. White Lyceum Bureau of Boston.

Lee H. Bierce, secretary of the association of Commerce of Grand Rapids gave the members of the Rotary club of Holland a talk on finance that was not alone interesting but gave considerable enlightenment to members which would indicate that it's a wise thing that a man who has laid a way some hard earned "rocks" should be careful where he casts these in the way of making investments. Mr. Bierce dwelled especially on poor investments telling how otherwise shrewd men in their own business seem to bite readily on something out of their line when flattered by inducements were advanced by wily representatives. In the end, Mr. Bierce stated, these investments all come to grief, as does the ready investor who was so easily taken in.

Mr. Bierce dwelled at some length on bond investment, stating that the buying of bonds has grown in enormous proportions since folks were educated to it during the war. However, Mr. Bierce contends that there is altogether too much buying of either poor, shoddy, and in many instances worthless bonds. Mr. Bierce states that an investor cannot use too much caution and care when making bond investments. It is good business to ask the advice of the best financial men in the community, men who have studied bonds and bond issues. If such a disinterested party advises to buy, the securities no doubt are safe. However, if he is at all skeptical or in doubt, it is a safe bet that it is a good thing to leave the bonds alone.

Mr. Bierce said there are some mighty good bond houses, selling fine securities, and their transactions can bear the light of day, in fact these court strictest scrutiny. However, Mr. Bierce stated, that there are a number of others whose wares are not as safe and sound as they are often pictured.

Representatives who work on commission telling glowing stories on the possibilities of these securities, and these bond houses live especially on the small investor who has $500 or $1,000 to invest. Those who can least afford it are the ones taken in, the big fellows as a rule knowing good bonds from bad.

Mr. Bierce did not advise to cut out bond buying by any manner of means, but he couldn't speak too strongly the fact that any bond should first be investigated before the purchaser parted with his cash.

"There are some exceptionally fine bonds being sold right in the city of Holland," said Mr. Bierce, "but mixed with these there are also those which make poor investments. A good bond house will not foster the reputation of such a house depends upon the staple and reliable securities that are sold. A mis-step on one security would destroy the confidence that has been built up over scores of years."

"Buy bonds," says Mr. Bierce, "that you have line of investment, but buy good ones."

The Zeeland State Bank has now moved from its old cramped quarters into its spacious new quarters, although these are not nearly completed as yet. The work has sufficiently advanced, however, that the work and banking business will not interfere with each other and the public will be better served. The formal opening will be announced later when building has been completed.

Marion De Vinney of Holland, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. De Vinney and a student at Albion college, won first honors and a prize of $50 in the oratorical contest at Albion Friday evening under auspices of the National Transportation association. Subject of his oration was "Frostbitten Ivy." Second prize and $15 went to Clarence Elliott of Pontiac, and the third prize of $10 to Rupert Cortright of Albion.

Albion was one of several colleges throughout the country where contests were staged to bring about a solution of the transportation question.

A new silver half dollar has been minted by the United States to commemorate the Huguenot-Walloon tercentenary which is to be observed this year. The new coin bears the portraits of William the Silent and Admiral Coligny. Objection to the coin has been made on the ground that both these men died a generation before the founding of New Amsterdam in America.

The Christian Intelligencer defends the portraits as follows: "William the Silent was the leader in that movement which established the Dutch Republic; and Coligny was an outstanding figure among the Huguenots and lost his life as a result. These two men were not living in 1624; but it would be difficult to choose two others of a later day who would so fittingly represent the spirit which actuated the colonists. Dutch, Huguenot and Walloon, who established those early homes on and about Manhattan Island."

Mayor E. P. Stephan has just returned from Chicago where he attended the semi-annual convention of the National Furniture manufacturers association held at the Auditorium hotel. This organization has two conventions a year, the one in the spring being held in Chicago and the one in the fall in Atlantic city.

At the large banquet given Thursday night Mr. Stephan was made chairman of the committee on arrangements and acted as toastmaster during the evening. The furniture manufacturers association is national in scope, at which representatives from factories from all over United States gather.

The country is subdivided into seven sections and two men from each section are named representing those respective sections on the board of directors. At the election held Mr. Stephan was re-elected on the board and will represent Michigan and Wisconsin.

The banquet Thursday night was an elaborate affair staged in the big ball room of the Auditorium hotel, and the local man came in for considerable joshing from the speakers, he being the only mayor in the large representative bunch of furniture men.

Holland was surely well advertised at the Chicago meet. Last year there were three mayors as delegates but this year Holland's mayor stood alone and the comments were only to be expected.

Announcement has been made by the Tripp Manufacturing company of Allegan that they will begin at once the manufacture of the Allen Oil Burner, a new type of fuel oil burner, according to the Allegan news.

Work will be begun at once and at least 100 of the heating systems will be made up and installed within the next month.

The burner is the invention of J. R. Allen, an experienced oil man who became interested in oil burners when he was in South Haven last fall when he remained and worked out this new type.

The new device is believed to be the most simple burner on the market today, and its chief advantage is that it is absolutely "fool proof."

It differs from other burners on the market in that the oil itself does not burn, but the vapor from the oil is burned. The flow of oil is controlled by a carburetor which prevents the overflow of oil. There is never more than a half cup of oil in the hot plate which vaporizes the oil at any time. This vapor is drawn into the furnace and burns.

The burner is thermostatically controlled so that any desired heat is maintained at all times. Not only that but the carburetor is automatically regulated every eight minutes, so that the flow is increased or decreased as necessary to maintain the temperature at which the thermostat is set.

Another big advantage of the Allen System of Oil Burning, the Allegan News claims, is that the noisy motor, necessary to most oil burning systems is eliminated and also no pilot gas light is necessary.

The Woman's Literary club is making preparations to hold one of its popular rummage sales. These sales are being held from time to time and hundreds of people from Holland and often from miles outside of Holland come to them to pick up bargains. So popular have the sales become that when one is announced it never fails to draw a large crowd. The sale will be held in the W. L. C. hall and is scheduled for Saturday, April 19, from eight o'clock in the morning to six o'clock at night. It will be in charge of three divisions of the club of which Mrs. C. Bergon, Mrs. Joseph Rhae and Mrs. Frank Whelan are the chairmen.

Rev. J. Masselink of Fulton, Ill., has accepted the call to the Second Christian Reformed church of Muskegon, and is expected to take up the work here the latter part of June.

Rev. Masselink is a graduate of Grundy Center college, Grundy Center, Iowa, completing the work there in 1918, following which he took the charge at Ridott, Illinois. He was at Ridott until going to his present church at Fulton in November 1920.

He replaces Rev. H. Vander Ploeg, who left the Second church to take the charge at East Saugatuck, Mich., last November.

When human beings start grumbling over winter's inclemency, it is time for them to look about and observe the attitude of other living things, was the gist of the address of Raymond Douglas, Fredonia, N. Y., a senior in the ornithology class at Hillsdale college.

The kinglet, the junco, the nuthatch and woodpecker enjoy themselves in spite of the weather. The chickadee is always happy and the bluejay grows noisier as the thermometer drops.

Such well known species as the owl, pheasants and hawks, as well as the gold finch also hold winter's rigors in disdain and never migrate to warmer climes. In the last few years many species which formerly were scarce have remained here, among them the mourning dove and the towhee.

In the Grand Haven election held Monday both the bridge bond and band issues carried, the former going thru by a big margin. The band concert proposition was also winner by a comfortable vote. The vote was comparatively light in Grand Haven, the number being almost negligible during the morning. The polls were open until eight o'clock in the evening, however, this giving many a chance to cast their ballots.

Constables were elected in the first and fourth wards but in the second ward a tie vote occurred between Bernard Cook, present constable, and Peter Ball. The total was 83 each and three recounts failed to show any difference in the vote.

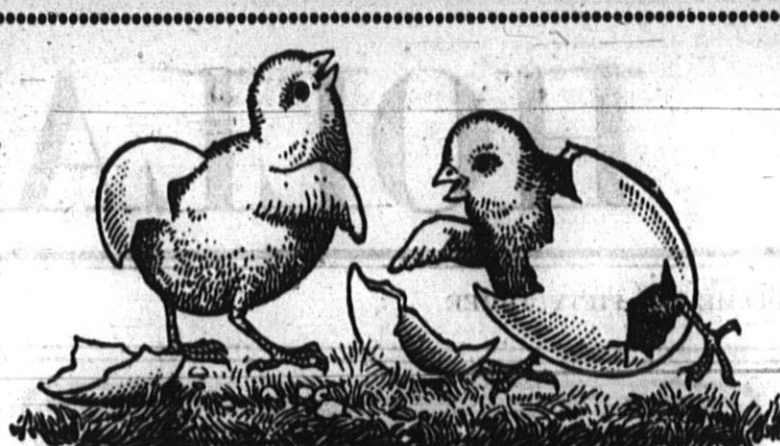

The proposal to bond the city for thirty thousand dollars so that the bridge across Grand River from that city to Ferrysburg could be completed, carried hands down in every ward, the total being 611 yes and 120 no. The vote by wards was as follows: First ward, 96 yes and 26 no; second ward, 149 yes and 25 no; third ward, 156 yes and 21 no; fourth ward, 131 yes and 26 no; fifth ward, 79 yes and 22 no.

In the voting on the band proposition which will authorize the city to pay the Elks band $750 for which the band will play a series of band concerts during the summer, the vote was favorable to the band in all but one ward. The total was 404 yes and 331 no.

One of the most important transfers of Grand Haven industrial property made in a long time was completed Tuesday when the entire interest of William H. Keller in the William H. Keller Co., Inc., was purchased by William H. Loutit, B. P. Sherwood and Nathaniel Robbins, and other stockholders of the company. This change brings the control of the Keller company into the hands of the Grand Haven group.

Mr. Keller, who sells out his financial interest in the company, will remain with the firm in a consulting and advisory capacity. Mr. Keller's long experience as the executive head of the plant is considered valuable by his associates, who have asked him to remain in the organization. Mr. Keller came with the company when it was moved from Fondulac, Wis., to Grand Haven a number of years ago. He had been in the pneumatic and special tool manufacturing business previous to that and is particularly well informed in that field of industry.

Mr. Loutit, who has been interested in the company since its organization, will become more active in the actual management of the business in the future and expects to spend much of his time at the Grand Haven plant. R. C. Fenner, of Chicago, connected with the company for some time as a director and in a consulting capacity, will remain with the new organization and become more active in its management. Mr. Fenner is also considered a very valuable man in the tool manufacturing business.

THINKS NAILS ON PIKE ARE FROM LOADS OF CINDERS

A Grand Haven man writing in the Grand Haven Tribune has a new theory about the nails on the West Michigan pike. Here it is:

We notice a good deal of space is given in the paper nowadays to the discussion of the matter of shingle nails and tacks being scattered along the cement roads. We see by the papers that the Ottawa county road commission has offered a reward to the one that gives information as to who is scattering these.

I will say that I believe if the commission will check up on its supply of cinders it will find that it has only itself to blame for most of the nuisance as it allows the townships to draw cinders from the tannery in this city and distribute them on the sand roads. In drawing them more or less tacks rattle from the loads and are left to be picked up by autos. If not on the cement, they are sure to be picked up in the cinder roads.

Under the old method at the tannery the tacks were subjected to intense heat by being actually shoveled into the arch and burned along with the coal. With the advent of the mechanical stokers there is no handy way of doing this, so the writer is informed, the tacks are dumped into the ash pits. What rags there are on them are burned off without enough heat to render the tacks, which are wheeled to the cinder pile and from there hauled to the roads, there they are picked up by auto tires.

If the county road commission and our good friend, Mr. Getz, will give this their attention, the writer believes that most of the mystery will be solved and the trouble will be eliminated by getting cinders from a different source.—E. Emmons, 1120 Fulton avenue, Grand Haven, Mich.

"BOB SHOP" TO BE OPENED IN HOLLAND

The long expected has happened at last. Holland is to have a "bob shop." Flappers have been visiting the ordinary barber shops to get their hair cut and it was inevitable that some one would take advantage of the situation and open a shop for their benefit.

The name of the new place will be "The Bob Shop" and it will be located on the second floor of the Woolworth store on the corner of Central avenue and Eighth street. Mr. Ohmer R. Renck, well known local barber who has had thirteen years of experience, will be the proprietor and there will be a woman attendant. Mr. Renck has resigned his position in the Belt Barber shop to open the new place.

The new shop will be for women and children only and a man will not be able to get a haircut or a shave there. The shop will do hair bobbing, facial massaging and shampooing. The place will be run both on the appointment and casual customer plan. Patrons may make appointments in advance or they may drop in at any time to be served. The new shop will open next Tuesday.

KLEIS HIGH SCORER ON HOLLAND QUINT

Holland high closed the basketball season with 6 victories out of 15 games and scored a total of 260 points against opponents' 289. Holland defeated Muskegon Heights, Greenville, Kalamazoo Normal, Grand Rapids South, Grand Rapids Central and Hastings and lost games to Muskegon, Grand Haven, Kalamazoo Central, Grand Rapids Central, South Haven, St. Joseph, Kalamazoo Normal, Grand Rapids Union and Grand Rapids South.

Capt. Kleis was the leading point contributor for the season with 102 points. Smith was next with 66; Kleis counted 37 field baskets and 28 free throws. Number of foul baskets missed was 102.

Holland split 50-50 with Grand Rapids South Grand Rapids Central and Kalamazoo Normal.

MAYORS STEPHAN AND KAMMERAAD DELIVER MESSAGES

ical or religious alliances; but frankly and openly stated that city government should be conducted on sound business principles. I did not play to the galleries, or make any wild and insane promises of new industries in order to get the vote. Neither did I twist the tail of the public utilities in our midst, or parade as the champion of the common people, or so-called laboring class. I promised that rich and poor would at all times have equal opportunity to present their cause, and that there would be no favoritism shown to either. In short, I said if elected, I would give the city a sane, sound, business administration, adopting the same principles and methods that every going successful, up-to-date, industrial and mercantile corporation makes use of.

Those of you who were in office then will remember that there was chaos in our city government, which greatly hampered the welfare and growth of our beautiful city. I told you in my message that I would endeavor to bring about a good, healthy spirit in our city government, which would result in good and pleasant co-operation between the Common Council and the Mayor, as well as between the various boards and the city officials.

This has been accomplished far beyond my fondest dreams and ambitions. We have enjoyed four years of constructive team-work that has never been equalled or surpassed in the history of our city. You have wonderfully and enthusiastically worked for and supported my administration, so that tonight it is possible for me to relinquish my office with a gratified feeling in the progress of our city, and the success of my administration during these four years. Without your aid and loyal support this could not have been possible. You have been a real constructive, legislative body, and you are entitled to, and have earned the lasting gratitude of the citizens of Holland. In parting, let us ever remember that discussions in the council or in our city government are reflected in our community, and tend to disruption. I want to thank you at this time for the consideration and the many kindnesses and courtesies shown me during these four years, and want to assure you that as long as I live, I will fondly recall the pleasant relations which have existed between the common council and the mayor. The thought of parting with this body in which I have been so signally loved, honored and respected, is to me the one discordant note in this otherwise joyful occasion. May God bless you, and keep you, and reward you abundantly. This is my parting wish and prayer for all.

I also wish to acknowledge the loyalty and co-operative support of the various boards and officials of this city. All have been wonderfully kind to me; they have not magnified my infirmities, nor have they tried to cross my program; but thru honest, hard, conscientious work in serving their city as good citizens, they have greatly added to the success of my administration. I thank them, one and all.

Previous to my administration, appeals had been made on several occasions by candidates for office, to the so-called laboring vote. I sincerely hope that we have at least demonstrated that his is a dangerous spirit to foster, for if that idea were encouraged, and had succeeded, it would have prevented that unity of action and co-operation, which is so vitally necessary in the growth and welfare of a city.

I told you in my message four years ago, that I would never be a party to any such kind of political practice, and appealed to you as members of the common council, to help me wipe out and kill this pernicious propaganda of class division, and bring about a spirit of unity, fairness, tolerance and true Americanism. I believe that we have been successful and I hope that if ever again any man tries to ride into office on any kind of a platform suggestive in the remotest way of class distinction, that he will be soundly and effectively rebuffed at the polls for his efforts. I believe we have learned the lesson that there can be no distinction between mental and physical labor. We are all workers, and we must pull together for success, or apart to ruin.

We have abolished the practice of secret sessions in the Common Council which had been often resorted to when I entered office. At that time I stated in my message that there would be no secret sessions of the Council during my administration, and there have not been. The discussions and deliberations of the Council during the past four years, have always been in the open, and the public has at all times had abundant opportunity to know how the Council functions, and why it reaches its conclusions. This is as it should be, and I hope that the Common Council will never again resort to secret sessions, or deliberations behind closed doors.

For ten years previous to my administration, the gas question was the principal issue in every spring campaign. The 5th and 6th wards wanted gas, but demagogical politics prevented a settlement of this gas problem, and for years the people residing in these two large wards were left without the service of this necessary utility.

Four years ago I said that this proposition would be approached and handled in a business-like way, and that the people in these two wards would have gas within a year. This was accomplished, and these people have been given the service they so much desired, and the gas question has ceased to be a football of politics, and everybody is happy.

We have rehabilitated our city ordinances, a herculean task not understood or appreciated by the general public, but which meant much to our city in the administration and welfare of good government. An efficient ordinance committee and city attorney put in a year of hard, painstaking work in the compilation and printing of this model, up-to-date book of city ordinances.

We have purchased a valuable piece of real estate, and have succeeded in having a bill passed in our State legislature, appropriating $40,000.00 for the purpose of building an Armory. This money will soon be available and, no doubt, building operations will begin this year.

1920 was an abnormal year. Everything was at peak price, and cost of living was at the highest point most of us have ever experienced. I appealed to you and all the boards and city officials to practice the greatest economy compatible with good government, in order to keep our tax load from soaring to a point where they would become a burden to our citizens. How well you all responded is fully demonstrated when we compare our city taxes for the four years. We raised by taxation for the expenditures of the administration of our city government in these four years as follows:

The steady growth of our city, however, increased its valuation to such an extent that our rate of taxation for city administration purposes in 1923 was less than in 1920. In 1920 this was $9.40 per thousand dollars; in 1921—$10.22; in 1922—$10.06; in 1923—$9.05.

In this connection let us not forget that the prosperity of a community is closely identified with its governmental agencies, and that the legislative body is after all only a board of directors of the largest corporation in the community. Please note that the city taxation is not increased notwithstanding our program of larger improvements.

I only wish to enumerate in a casual way what we have done in these four years. We have paved about nine miles of streets; we have installed a boulevard system of street lighting on our two main streets, which is the best in the country; we have spent thousands of dollars on our city parks, and have undertaken the establishment of a new park; we have been obliged to spend several thousand dollars on our city hall because it had been so sorely neglected; we have bought a $12,000.00 fire engine for the improved protection of the property of our citizens; we have increased the pay of our policemen and firemen; we have given the people of Holland open-air band concerts during the summer months; we are building a large, general service drain, costing upwards of $42,000.00, an improvement the necessity of which had been discussed but never undertaken during many previous administrations.

An ex-aggeral address is largely a resume of past accomplishments. Thus far I have mentioned the material advancement of our city. Besides these, I appointed over a year ago, a charter commission which has been at work ever since, editing and compiling amendments to our city charter, which will be submitted to our people for approval in the future.

We have adopted a definite financial program for the liquidation of all outstanding obligations, without imposing unnecessarily burdensome taxation.

We have made provisions for the future health of our inhabitants, by the appointment of a commission to solve the perplexing problem of sewage disposal.

We have also considered the future general welfare and beauty of our city as a whole, in the appointment of a city planning and zoning commission.

We have done these things which are lasting and worthwhile, and have lifted Holland out of the slough of apathy into a city of the first magnitude in progressiveness and improvement.

The good work done by this council during these four years, had a beneficial effect upon its people, so that it was possible for us to call a meeting of representative citizens, and organize a Chamber of Commerce, an organization which has the interest of the city at heart and which can at all times be called upon to assist you in any worthy, progressive movement you may desire to undertake. This organization got busy at once, and the new $500,000 hotel that is being built, and the assurance on the part of the Pere Marquette R'y Co. of a new passenger depot that would be in keeping with the spirit and growth of our city, is the first evidence of the influence and power that will emanate from this body.

This community is safely planted on a highway of prosperity. The possibility is only limited by the perspective of the mental and political attitude of our people. The attention of many communities is now directed to the city of Holland for inspiration, by reason of its industrial, educational and religious activities, and I hope that this city government will ever keep pace with the community's development, and hold the interest and abiding faith of its citizens.

I am happy tonight to hand over my gavel and relinquish my office to my worthy successor. I cannot wish him anything better than that he may have the same close, hearty, co-operative support from your honorable body and the citizens at large, that I have enjoyed during my administration. He enters the duties of the office as a man of experience in city government, fully knowing the requirements of this growing city. May God's richest blessings be abundantly his, so that he may receive wisdom from above to so guide the ship of state, that when he comes to the end of his administration, the words of the Master spoken two thousand years ago, may find an echo in the expression of every good citizen to him at that time, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

I thank you.

E. P. STEPHAN

Gentlemen of the Council:

The hour has arrived for a change in the administration of the government of the city of Holland. For twelve years I have served with you as an alderman of the city, taking upon me such work as was assigned to me and putting into practice the policies of the chief executive to the best of my ability. I could not serve so long a period without learning to know many of you very well. Some have served for shorter, some for longer periods during that time, but I have learned to respect your loyalty to the city of Holland and your desire to do all that was in you, power to make the work of all of us a success. It has always been a pleasure to me to work with you because I knew that you were unselfish in your labors and were trying to be helpful.

The people of Holland have seen fit to elect me to the office of mayor and I feel at this hour the great responsibility resting upon me. The people are in command of all of us, and we must obey like good soldiers, no matter where we are placed, doing the best we can. But it is only a change of service for me and I hope to give the whole city the same service that I tried to give my ward and the whole city as alderman.

But you also, gentlemen, have been elected to great responsibility, to you are the legislative branch of the city government and the duty will rest on you to work out the various problems that will confront us. And it seems to me that there is greater responsibility upon you than there has been on councils of the past. We all know that the city of Holland is growing rapidly now and that it is likely to go forward rapidly in the near future. There is a general opinion among the citizens that we are at the beginning of a period of big things in Holland, and so the responsibility as aldermen faces is a great one. You must grow with the city and be ready to meet the problems of a fast-growing town wisely so that our business and other interests of the city will not suffer. You must make improvements as they are needed by a growing city or otherwise the growth is stopped; but on the other hand, you must use good judgment and display wise economy so that you will be unjust to no class of citizens. This is a great responsibility and will call for the best there is in you.

Another reason why your responsibility as aldermen is great is occasioned by an unusually large number of movements were begun in the administration that has just closed which you will have to bring to a successful finish. I cannot name them all but some of them I can mention. I refer particularly to the different commissions that have been appointed and that are now at work on city problems. One of these is the sewage disposal commission, another the city planning and zoning commission, another the commission appointed for the revision of the city charter. It is almost certain that all these commissions will make their reports during the life of the council that is just now beginning and the responsibility will be yours to face those and other problems in the right spirit and to solve the difficulties with good judgment.

I do not wish at this time to state in detail what I expect to do during my term of office. I hope to make suggestions from time to time as they may be needed. And I hope most of all that we may continue the same spirit of harmony and co-operation that we have become accustomed to. I want to work with you in every way and I hope that together, in this spirit, we may accomplish something worth while for the city of Holland that we all love.

And to this end may we seek knowledge and guidance from our Lord above who will grant us his help if we but ask for it. May He give us and our city peace and prosperity, and may He grant us health and strength for our labors. That is my earnest prayer.

NICK KAMMERAAD.

Health is Welcome After Asthma's Agony

HEALTH TALK NO. 15 BY JOHN DE JONGE, D. C.

HEALTH is indeed most welcome to any one after having suffered the agonizing struggle for breath which is characteristic of the spasms peculiar to this trouble. Asthma, some have considered a climatic trouble. Those who change climate in the hope of relief are nearly always disappointed.

A moist lake or sea atmosphere may irritate but does not cause asthma, or the big majority of those who live in such an atmosphere would have asthma. The cause of asthma is practically every case that becomes chronic, is pressure on spinal nerves to the bronchial region of the lungs. There is a peculiar spinal stoop noted in the asthmatic sufferer. By my chiropractic health method this disturbance of spinal nerves is corrected and health naturally follows.

Suffered for 20 Years—Then Relief

"I suffered from asthma for twenty years. I was told the California climate would cure me, but it didn't. Then I was advised to go to the mountains, and it had no effect. I consulted one physician after another and received no benefit. I tried a sanitarium treatment that was highly recommended and it failed. I am satisfied now that none of the things that I tried had a chance to succeed because none of them reached the cause of my particular trouble until I began taking chiropractic spinal adjustments. I had good results in twenty-five adjustments, but continued until I was entirely well. During the past winter I caught a hard cold and expected a return of the trouble, but it did not appear. I am sure now that I have a permanent cure."—Mrs. Mary S. Desjardin, Chir. Res. Bureau, Statement No. 1575E.

There was very keen rivalry for the bonds last night and the board members had to do some careful figuring to determine the best bid.

The Auxiliary ideal is that of service and sacrifice, the embodiment of which ideal was brought before its meeting Friday night in the person of Miss Nellie Churchford who addressed the members on the subject, "Our Holland,"—our bit of America to make pure and good, if we would have all America so. Through her work, Miss Churchford showed, she learns to know Holland as few others do, especially its needs. After striking and pathetic illustrations she summed up these needs under three heads: a bigger mission house; in addition to our police force, some police women; and some adequate solution of the housing problem. Miss Churchford spoke very highly of the Auxiliary, and drew an interesting comparison of it as auxiliary to the Legion, to her mission organization as auxiliary to the church.

The rest of the program consisted of solos by Dr. Gilmore, readings by Margaret Schuurmans and Evelyn Van Dyke, violin selections by Mr. Moser, accompanied by Mrs. Robbins, mandolin and guitar medley by Mr. Moser and Mr. Birch.

Chaplye, and Fred Tanner who will represent Allegan city in the place of Andrew Barber.

The women of Hope college were the guests of the W. L. C. Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Clarence Lokke told of the life and work of Christopher Morley, the editor of the column, "Bowing Green," in the New York Evening Post, one of our younger literary interpreters of the life of the East. His work as a novelist, essayist and playwright is striking in its sanity, its opposition to the cynicism of the day, and its devotion to the cause of beauty.

"After Hours," a one act play by Morley, containing wholesome bits of philosophy concerning the real things and the "tecklas" of life, was enacted by Mrs. F. Whelan, Mrs. E. Moore, and Mrs. C. Bergen. Miss Iola Prull, accompanied by Miss Mabel Nienhuis, delighted the club with her songs: "I heard a Lark Sing" by Glen; "Ghost Pipes" by Lievwanc; "The Island Where Babies Grow." Tea was served by Mrs. James De Pree and committee.

COMES BACK AFTER AN ABSENCE OF THIRTY-FIVE YEARS

There is one man who is more conscious of the growth of Holland during the past 35 years than is the case with most people. Those who have lived here all these years know that Holland has grown but the growth has been so gradual that it is hard to remember the day of little things. But W. L. Veach of Hamilton can shut his eyes and see the little town of 35 years ago. In fact he is more familiar with it than with the present Holland. He has been away from this city for 35 years and when he returned some months ago he quickly got lost in the present city.

Mr. Veach spent Thursday in Holland wandering around, taking a whole day for it and becoming acquainted with the city that has taken the place of the Holland of 35 years ago. He recognized some old landmarks and he found some old friends, but most of the people of Holland of today are strangers to him and most of the buildings were erected since he left.

Veach has spent the past 35 years on the Pacific coast and on the Pacific ocean. He has been located in Tacoma, Seattle, Los Angeles and San Francisco. During the past 23 years he has served as a seaman on the Pacific, acting as steward, and in this capacity he has visited practically every port on the Pacific going as far north as Bering straits and as far south as Valparaiso, Africa, China, Australia and other lands bordering on the Pacific were visited by the former Holland man.

Thirty-five years ago Veach was well acquainted in Holland. One whole summer he served as violinist on the lake steamer "Queen of the Lakes," and he worked in various places in Holland. At that time there were only a few cottages at Macatava and no hotel and the same thing was true of Ottawa Beach. Mr. Veach recalls. In those days a whole day was needed to make a trip from Hamilton to Holland. As a boy Veach used to get up at 4 A. M., drive to Holland with a team of oxen, deliver a load of produce and get back home at nine or ten at night. Shortly before leaving for the West he declares he drove a span of horses for a horse car in Grand Rapids.

HOLLAND TOWN-SHIP CAUCUS—On Saturday, April 19, at 1:30 o'clock a republican caucus is to be held in Holland township hall for the purpose of electing ten delegates to the Ottawa county convention to be held in Grand Haven on Wednesday, April 23, 1924.

NORTH SIDE HAS A $4,000.00 FIRE LOSS

A disastrous fire occurred at 9 o'clock Monday night when the home of Prof. Robert E. Evans, instructor in printing in the Junior High school, was entirely destroyed by fire. Neighbors saw the fire in the roof, rushed to the house and had difficulty in making the Evans family believe that their home was burning.

Mrs. Evans had just put the little ones to bed, was compelled to wrap comforters about them, and by the time the children were clothed so that they could be taken out of doors, the greater part of the home was in flames.

Fifty neighbors soon gathered and a large part of the furniture including the piano and band instruments were saved. A bucket brigade worked heroically, but without any other fire protection the dry wooden structure was soon doomed.

Chief Blom of Holland had one of his pumps out, but as there was no way to get to the lake because of the high embankment and the deep sand, the Holland Chief could not afford to take a chance with Holland's fire apparatus.

The Evans home is located directly south of the Holland Aniline plant. It is located on a high bluff skirting Black Lake on the north side. Some eight years ago it was known as the Barense hospital, Holland's first real serviceable institution of that kind.

Miss Barense, a local nurse, had established this hospital and was doing well with it, when Holland hospital was established, and Miss Barense sold the place to Mr. Evans, and took a position with Holland hospital when that was first opened.

Beechwood road was simply congested with automobiles during the fire and it was absolutely dangerous to make the trip.

Mr. Evans is at a loss to know what started the fire, but he stated that the house became a little chilly shorter after eight, and he put an armful of kindling wood in the furnace, and he thinks that sparks from the dry kindling ignited the roof. He can attribute it to no other cause, for there had been no fire in the place during the day.

Chief Blom stated that the fire started in the roof caused from burning coals that fell from the chimney onto the wooden shingles.

After the home had been burned to the ground, friends and neighbors with wagons and automobiles aided in carting away the furniture to places where these would not be damaged by the elements.

"Vaudie" Vandenberg who has an unoccupied cottage at Oaklawn Park threw this open to the Evans family and within a few hours it was put in readiness for the night, and the unfortunate northsiders at least temporarily have shelter until such a time as another home can be secured.

It is estimated that the loss to the home will be more than $4,000.00 and the place was only partially covered by insurance.

GIVES AWAY ALL HIS SALARY WHILE MAYOR

When Mayor E. P. Stephan stepped out of office on Wednesday evening after serving the city of Holland for four consecutive years as chief executive he will step out without having made a cent in salary from the city. Like Carnegie, Mayor Stephan has an ambition when he went into office to "die poor," officially speaking of course; that is, he decided to serve the city and close his term of service not a cent richer at the expense of the city than he was when he began.

The first year's salary Mayor Stephan gave to the boulevard lighting fund. He was deeply interested in securing boulevard lights for Holland and his salary mayor helped a little to bring this about. The second year there was no boulevard light fund or any other community fund that seemed to need the salary very much, so the mayor spent the $100 on a trip to Grand Rapids and a banquet at the Paultine hotel for the aldermen and other city officials in appreciation of their co-operation during the first year of his term of office.

At the close of the third year of office there did not seem to be anything that required the salary very badly and so the mayor kept it as a fund for future use. Recently the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion so impressed the mayor with the fight they are making to secure a soldiers' memorial for Holland that he decided to donate his last two years' salary to this fund.

Mayor Stephan believes that the city cannot adequately pay the aldermen or mayor for the service rendered and that $50 for the aldermen and $100 for the mayor is a joke. He feels that city officials should serve solely for the sake of the good he can do in the public service. He believes that if the positions of mayor and aldermen were completely divorced from all monetary reward they would be on a higher plane and city officials could feel that they were giving something to their city. It was in this spirit that he held the office and by giving away his salary he tried to emphasize the public service character of the office.

War on the crow as the destroyer of eggs and young of game and useful birds, young rabbits, poultry and crops, will be carried on by sportsmen and farmers in this vicinity during this spring, says Dick Van Tatenhove, local hunter and secretary of the Holland Gun Club, in an effort to save game and crops from his depredations. Local gunners who are familiar with the crow's habits state that bird is the worst enemy that useful birds have and that he is responsible for more damage than any other bird in wild life. David R. Jones, Chief Deputy Department of Conservation of Michigan states that all Michigan conservation officers, game wardens and game breeders consider crows destructive to the eggs and young of game and song birds. During the calendar year 1923, state deputies and trappers destroyed two thousand eight hundred eleven crows in Michigan alone.

The efforts of local sportsmen and farmers will be helped by the fact that a general movement against the crow is in force throughout the country. A canvass just completed by one of the largest states shows that crows pick out the eyes of young lambs and calves, besides doing other damage. At this time of the year the nesting season for birds begins and if they are to be protected from the crow's ravages and allowed to raise their young, quick action on the part of sportsmen and farmers is necessary. In many sections the depredations of crows have been so marked that farmers have had to go to the expense of replanting the crops.

TWENTY-FOUR ARE ADMITTED TO U. S. CITIZENSHIP

As a result of the activities at circuit court, Grand Haven Tuesday morning, the United States is richer by twenty-four new citizens. This is the number out of a class of twenty-nine who were up for their final citizenship papers.

Of this number ten of the applicants for citizenship were from Grand Haven, seven came from Holland and our from Zeeland. Of the new citizens, sixteen were from the Netherlands and renounced their allegiance to Queen Wilhelmina to become Americans. Four of the new citizens were former Germans while Turkey, France, Serbia and Austria contributed one each to the list of citizens.

The list of new citizens of the United States is listed below together with the countries from which they came. The five who failed to pass are not listed although most of them were victims of minor difficulties which will be straightened out by the August term of court.

Those admitted were: William Johannes, of Grand Haven, a native of Germany; Charles Mulder, of Holland, Netherlands; John Vojkovic, of West Olive, Serbia; Barend Vanden Bos, of Holland, Netherlands; Carl Philipp, of Grand Haven, Netherlands; William Selles, of Holland, Netherlands; Michael Sattys, of Grand Haven, Austria; Cornelius Vryhof, of Holland, Netherlands; Bert Gelben, of West Olive, Netherlands; Kallid Kelzey, of Grand Haven, France; Hilbert Flokstra, of Zeeland, Netherlands; John Bergerding, of Hudsonville, Germany; Hussien Mohammed Reikal, of Grand Haven, Turkey; Arie Weller, of Holland, Netherlands; August Berg, of Grand Haven, Germany; Jeanette Vander Werf, of Zeeland, Netherlands; Gerit Vander Werf, of Zeeland, Netherlands; Bouwe Postma, of Zeeland, Netherlands; William Peterson, of Grand Haven, Netherlands; William de Cook, of Grand Haven, Netherlands; Walter Veersma, of Holland, Netherlands; Adrien De Boom, of Holland, Netherlands; Kars Peterson, of Grand Haven, Netherlands; Peter Jangie, Grand Haven, Germany.

RESORT COMPANY WILL OPERATE THE INCLINED RAILWAY

Swan A. Miller, of the Macatawa Resort Company, is one of the busiest men in this section these days getting Macatawa into shape for the coming season. There are to be a number of changes at that resort, some of which Mr. Miller is ready to announce but others still have to be worked out and announcement of them will not be made until the plans have advanced further.

One of the most important ones is the plan made for operating the inclined railway again this summer and Lookout Hill. This railway and the pavilion at the top of Lookout Hill have been idle for two years. Last fall the resort company decided that it was very poor advertising for the resort to leave the railway to go into decay. It was owned by private parties and the resort company purchased it to take it back into operation, not so much for the sake of making money but to give Macatawa another attraction.

Lookout Hill has always been popular with the public. It is an ideal place for family picnics and in the past it has been much used for that purpose. The pavilion on top of the hill has always been much used by dancing parties. It was closed up two years ago because of various difficulties and because the property had deteriorated.

But work of restoration was begun early this spring and by the time the season opens the railway and the pavilion will be in first-class condition. The place will be operated under the Resort company or else it will be leased to private parties or sold to private parties.

Another plan that is announced by Mr. Miller is that Hotel Macatawa will be run on the European plan the coming season.

A number of improvements are being made in the buildings and other property at the park and the place is being cleaned up for the season.

HEADS SALES LIST AND WINS AN AUTO

Mrs. Henry Mouw, 120 West 14th street, has won a Chevrolet touring car awarded by the Racine Feet Knitting Co. of Beloit, Wisconsin, to the person selling the largest amount of that company's products. Mrs. Mouw was in competition with all those who started work as representatives of that concern during 1923 and she proved herself so good a saleslady that the new car was awarded to her. She received as her prize an order for $550 with which to buy any car of several makes and she chose a Chevrolet. The car was delivered by the local Chevrolet dealers last Saturday.

The annual production of the company that awarded the touring car to Mrs. Mouw is three million pairs of silk hose sold by three thousand agents. The agents are divided into several classes, each class entitled to try for an automobile and several other prizes. Mrs. Mouw headed the 1923 list and so won the most valuable prize open to that group.

CONGRESSMAN PROMISES MUSKEGON A BREAKWATER

Muskegon harbor it seems is to fare better than is Holland although some things worth while have been done here thru the efforts of the Holland Chamber of Commerce, the Harbor committee and congressman Mapes.

Rep. James C. McLaughlin of Muskegon, now at Washington, has notified the Muskegon Chamber of Commerce that it is likely the special appropriation for a million-dollar breakwater at Muskegon harbor will be voted by Congress next week. The money will not be available before July 1, 1925, however. The Congressman says the appropriation for the harbor at Frankfort also will go through.

The Government engineers in their first report recommended that Muskegon bear a portion of the expense of the new breakwater. Muskegon carried its case to the Appeal Board and it reversed the findings of the engineers.

Muskegon harbor under the new plan will be a port of refuge for craft on this side of Lake Michigan. At present there is no port of refuge.

Fishing tackle dealers at Alpena, Mich., have agreed to stock the barbed hook and push its sale during the coming season. In Iowa an anglers' club has ruled that its members shall discard the barbed hook and fish with the Jamison model or nothing.

SPRING LAKE HAS FIGHT ON CAMPING SITE

Last week President Scholton, of Spring Lake village, appointed a committee to look into the proposition of making a tourist camp out of the plot of ground on Park street near Wiley's dock on Grand river. This has been contemplated for some time and many in the village favor the scheme, while the Chamber of Commerce has been prominently identified with the affair in an advisory capacity. The site, however, was elected by the village council recently.

Some opposition is developing to the proposition regarding the tourist camp site, this coming to a great extent from those residents near the proposed camp site. The camp site covers about a city block near the center of the village and it is stated that its close proximity to the village proper is against it.

While it is recognized that Spring Lake will have a tourist camp site, till it is proposed that the site should be some distance from the center of population in the village. So say the opponents of the scheme, who point out that much desirable property in their sections has been offered for a tourist camp site.

While there is opposition to the scheme, there is also approval of it and the village seems to have a number of influential citizens who are supporting the idea of having the camp in the proposed location. It is stated that running water, sanitary comfort stations and all conveniences are planned for the camp.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BALLOTS ARE SENT OUT BY SPECIAL MESSENGER

The Holland Chamber of Commerce has been in existence now for a year. It has accomplished some of the things that have been very important to this city. The men at the head have been live wires and the different committees have done some of the things assigned to them well. Since the year has rolled around the membership of more than 150 has the privilege of again electing its board of directors, and while last year voting was done by mail this year special emissaries, 30 in number, are delivering the ballots personally to the different members, are collecting annual dues of $25.00, and are leaving the ballot together with a return envelope to be mailed as soon as the member has voted for four directors selected from the entire membership list which is printed on the ballot.

The names of the directors whose term of office expires are: Fred Beeuwkes, Austin Harrington, E. P. Stephan and Henry Winter.

Members can return these, or any one of these, or any other four members out of the list of 150 by placing a cross in front of the name of those directors desired. The membership roster is alphabetically arranged and is easy to follow.

The directors who hold over are: John Arendshorst, Roy B. Chamption, A. H. Landwehr, G. J. Diekema, and William C. Vandenberg.

The committee of 30 has other work to do besides peddling ballots and collecting money. These men want to interest others in chamber of commerce work and while the policy of the chamber has been not to nag folks into joining, the merit of the chamber of commerce in Holland is so apparent and the needs of an official body of this kind so great.

Make Sure of Early Delivery

Spring with its rush of Fordson orders will soon be here. To be sure of getting delivery in time, order now.

The demand for Fordsons is increasing every day, and you may be disappointed if you wait too long.

that any man with a spark of public spirit in his heart, and pride for his town in his system, cannot fail to feel that it is his duty to join and help carry part of the load.

It is unfair to be a sponge and take the benefits that a chamber of commerce brings about, not lifting a finger to help.

Criticism is not so prevalent of late as formerly. It is doubly obnoxious when you have those who won't "peel off their coats", but will persist to stand on the sidelines and criticize.

While the committee of 30 will urge citizens to join the chamber, they absolutely will not nag them into doing so, for the members feel that a forced member is worse than being no member, for aside from the $25.00 it wants and expects the wholehearted co-operation of every man who becomes a member of the chamber of commerce. There must be no drones in the hive, nor must there be those who by words or action constantly throw cold water on things progressive.

HOLLAND'S GAME WARDEN MAY WEAR A UNIFORM

Deputy Sheriff and Game Warden Ed. Vander West and Frank Salesbury of Ottawa county may wear uniforms soon.

Many are in favor of Michigan game wardens being uniformed while others claim that all state game wardens should continue to be plain clothes men so that their identity is not known.

The state game wardens are about the only lot of police officers in the state without uniforms but this does not mean that they should follow an established precedent. The sponsors of the uniform idea believe that in addition to lending a certain dignity to the position of game warden, uniformed officers would prevent many minor infractions of the laws by their mere recognition. It would not be necessary for anyone to ask where the game warden lives as they do now if they were known by their dress.

Tweed khaki uniforms in gray with Sam Brown belts is the official dress of the New York State Game Protectors and in this connection "game protectors" is a much better name than "game wardens" say many sportsmen.

20 VETERINARIES OF OTTAWA COUNTY TO MAKE DRIVE ON TUBERCULOSIS

County Farm Agent C. P. Milham will soon start a drive to eradicate tuberculosis among the cattle of Ottawa county. He had enlisted the services of twenty veterinarians, who will be sent out on or before May 1st.

The agricultural committee of the Board of Supervisors have already ordered ear tags and material. It will be necessary for the agricultural agent to secure drivers for the veterinarians in the various townships and any one, who is available for this work, should notify the agent at once. Work will start in the two southern tiers of townships and will take approximately two weeks in each township. The test is absolutely compulsory. Every animal in the county will be tested. Every farmer should co-operate with the veterinarians in speeding the work along. Next week the question of identity will be discussed.

WILL NOT CLOSE THE SCHOOLS ON FRIDAY AFTERNOON

The board of education at its regular meeting Monday evening did not act favorably on the request of Rev. James M. Martin to close the schools on Friday afternoon in observance of Good Friday. The board members expressed no opinion either for or against the desirability or the appropriateness of closing the schools on that afternoon, but the board took the position that there are no services in the churches of Holland on that afternoon and hence it would be unwise to close the schools. It was pointed out that nothing could be gained by dumping the thousands of school children on to the streets and that less reverence would be shown by doing that than by having the schools function as usual where the pupils would be at work in the usual quiet, orderly way.

So the petition of Rev. Mr. Martin was filed without further comment and the schools will be in session on Friday afternoon as usual.

GERMAN VIOLINIST GIVES PROGRAM AT HOPE COLLEGE

Mr. Alvin Preusse, of Berlin, gave a violin concert at the chapel services at Hope College Tuesday morning and a number of townspeople gathered with the students and faculty members to enjoy it. Mr. Preusse played with great skill and with perfect technique. His program consisted of three numbers: "Scene de Ballet," by de Beriot, "Mazurka," by Wieniawski, and "Nocturne," by Chopin.

The violin department of the Hope College School of Music is endeavoring to secure a class for Mr. Preusse and anyone desiring to take lessons of him should get into communication with Dr. J. B. Nykerk. Next fall Mr. Preusse will organize an orchestra at Hope. He conducted an orchestra in Germany for a number of years.

The steamer J. B. John of the Petoskey Transportation Co., will endeavor to crush her way into Little Traverse Bay Wednesday morning for a cargo of cement for Milwaukee.

TAXI DRIVER LOSES LICENSE FOR SPEEDING

All taxi drivers in Holland will probably be a little less quick to step on the gas after this as a result of an unpleasant experience of Wm. Horn, driver for the Holland Taxi company. Horn stepped on it to the extent of 37 miles an hour and as a result he soon found himself in court and was confronted with a fine of $3.70.

But the serious part of the case is that the license of a taxi driver is automatically revoked if said driver is within the city. So Horn is minus a license. The revocation of a taxi driver's license under such circumstances is provided for in the city charter and courts and police officials have no discretion in the matter.

Chief of Police Van Ry made the present case the occasion for starting war on speeding by taxi drivers. Passengers in a taxi, he pointed out, have little or no control over the speed of the car and their lives are endangered by speeding drivers. Hence the police will take it upon themselves to protect the passengers as best they can by arresting all taxi drivers who exceed the speed limit. The back streets are usually the scene of such speeding and special watch will be kept over such streets. Since licenses are automatically revoked with conviction, it is likely that drivers will be less liable to go at excessive speed.

HOW ABOUT YOUR NEW DOLLAR BILLS ARE THEY EASILY TORN?

Because the new 1923 series of dollar bills are brittle and tear easily, the treasury department in conjunction with the bureau of standards and the engraving bureau at Washington, has started an inquiry to learn the reason why.

Widespread complaint against the new bills has reached the treasury. Thousands of dollars a day in these new bills have been fed into the macerator in the treasury building because they are torn.

Many of the new dollars last less than a week, officials say.

County Farm Agent Milham has made arrangements to have a poultry specialist at the city hall on the evening of April 24.

Meetings will be held as follows: April 24, 2 P. M., Jamestown, 8 P. M., Holland, April 25th 2 P. M., Berlin, 8 P. M., Nunica. Economical raising of chicks, thorough elimination of early mortality and proper feedings are of great importance to Western Michigan Poultrymen.

GRAND HAVEN PEOPLE INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

William Zimmerman, age 48, of Grand Haven, was very seriously injured Saturday night when the Ford touring car which he was driving turned turtle in a ditch following a collision with another automobile on M-16 about half a mile west of Lowell. Mr. Zimmerman and Phillip Van Dongen, of Grand Haven, were returning from Detroit, where they had been working as masons.

The Zimmerman car is a total wreck, while the Oakland touring car owned by Adam Klieck, of Ionia, and driven by Mrs. Klieck, was but slightly damaged and the occupants uninjured. Mr. Van Dongen suffered minor injuries. Mr. Zimmerman was very badly injured and was removed to the Blodgett hospital Grand Rapids. Later he had to be taken to the Veterans hospital because of his delirious condition.

Mr. Van Dongen returned to Grand Haven Monday and told the following story of the wreck. He stated that he and Mr. Zimmerman had left Detroit at noon Saturday and had been traveling steady until the accident occurred at 7:30. About half a mile west of Lowell, Mr. Van Dongen stated that he saw the light coming ahead and warned Zimmerman to look out. The cars drove on and when the oncoming car got almost upon the Ford, its brakes were applied. The Grand Haven car was struck a glancing blow that made it topple and roll over twice, causing the serious injury to its occupants.

Mr. Van Dongen states that the car driven by Mrs. Klieck was taking entirely too much of the road. Mr. Klieck was wounded last fall when officers raided their home in Ionia in a bootleg liquor hunt. Marshall Pat Bowes, of Lowell, arrested Van Dongen on a liquor charge but he was released Sunday. It was alleged that a gallon jug and a quart of liquor were found in the car driven by Zimmerman. Mr. Van Dongen denies the intoxication charge.

Members of the men's families in Grand Haven were notified about twelve o'clock and at once proceeded to the scene. The Zimmermans stopped at Grand Rapids, while Mr. Van Dongen's brothers went on to Lowell to bring him home.

Mrs. Byron Girard, who underwent an operation at Holland hospital last Thursday, is recovering nicely.

Mr. Lindeborg of the Lindeborg Drug store returned Monday from Iron Mountain, Mich., where he attended the funeral of his father.

LOCAL BANK WINS SUPREME COURT DECISION

Saturday the Supreme Court affirmed the decision of the Ottawa Circuit Court in the case of the Holland City State Bank against Dr. A. L. Robinson and J. W. Phillips of Allegan. John M. Dunham of Grand Rapids and John Ter Avest of Coopersville.

These men were endorsers on a note which was given to the local bank by the Ahldawagum Furniture Company of Allegan. When this concern got into financial difficulties, the local bank sued the endorsers. The suit was tried in the Ottawa Circuit Court nearly a year ago. The Holland City Bank obtained a judgment from which the defendants appealed; but the Supreme Court sustained the decision in favor of the bank.

Some very interesting questions of law arose in the litigation and this decision affects paper held by a number of other banks. The Ahldawagum Furniture Company has been re-organized and taken over by Hollis Baker of Allegan and is now the Allegan Furniture Company. The Holland City State Bank was represented by Chas. H. McBride, and the attorneys for the defendants were Louis Osterhaus and John N. Dun-

COUNTY Y JUNIOR TOURNAMENT PLAYED AT GRAND HAVEN

The County Y Junior high basketball tournament of Ottawa county was played off at Grand Haven on Saturday. There were two teams entered from Holland, two from Grand Haven, two from Coopersville and one from Spring Lake.

In the first team games the scores were: Holland 4, Sprink Lake 2; Grand Haven 17, Coopersville 8; Coopersville 11, Holland 8; Spring Lake 8, Grand Haven 15; Spring Lake 6, Coopersville 2; Holland 8, Grand Haven 5.

In the second team games the scores were: Grand Haven 9, Holland 10; Coopersville 3, Holland 7; Grand Haven 14, Coopersville 5.

The tournament was cut to one day this spring because of the late date of the schedule.

Holland and Grand Haven played a straight 7 and 8th grade team while Spring Lake was allowed to play their regular high school because of a shortage of boys for the team. Coopersville was also allowed to play two ninth grade boys on their team.

Grand Haven was the consistent winners and declared the champion with Holland a close second.

The Holland boys treated all the players to oranges at the lunch hour. Next year's tournament will be played earlier and will probably consist of twelve teams.

DO YOU LIKE YOUR JOB?

Are you glad you're alive? Do you feel each morning that you don't care what problems come up, because you're ready for 'em?

You ought to feel that way because that's what makes men succeed. That's what makes them irresistible, happy men that they are.

HERE'S HOW

Have a cozy, cheerful, healthful home the year around. Let the heart of it be a HOLLAND FURNACE.

Don't you find it interesting and convincing to know that the HOLLAND FURNACE COMPANY installs more furnaces than any other concern in the world? After all, there is no better reason for it than just this:

Holland Furnaces "Make WARM FRIENDS."

HOLLAND'S TAX INCREASE LOWEST IN MICHIGAN

Holland has had the smallest percentage increase of taxation in 10 years and Muskegon Heights the largest of the so-called industrial cities of Michigan, George Lord, tax commissioner, asserts in a statement of comparisons made public at Lansing Tuesday night.

Holland has increased 123.33 in the 10 years, while Muskegon Heights has advanced $67.09. Holland doubled the value of its assessed property in the 10 years, while Muskegon Heights had a valuation about 10 times greater in 1923 than in 1913.

Between these two extremes Mr. Lord places 26 other cities which have made fast advances in taxation in the decade. Flint, Midland, Pontiac, and Wyandotte are among the towns with high percentages of increase, all having added more than 500 per cent to their taxes.

In many of the cities the increase in percentage of taxation is not equal in percentage to the increase of wealth, while a large number of cities have increased their wealth 15 and 20 per cent more than their taxes.

The percentage of increase for some of the towns of the state follows:

Ann Arbor, 276.49; Battle Creek, 153.27; Bay City, 165.54; Detroit, 370.88; Flint, 557.37; Grand Haven, 182.07; Grand Rapids, 186.28; Holland, 123.33; Jackson, 187.11; Kalamazoo, 138.56; Monroe, 195.69; Muskegon, 355.70; Muskegon Heights, 807.09; Owosso, 218.77; Pontiac, 542.94; Port Huron, 345.93; Saginaw, 223.85.

The announcement of Mr. Lord was not a startling surprise to those who had kept informed on comparative tax statements of Michigan cities. A year or two ago a Holland citizen made something of a study of taxes in various cities and the result of that study were printed in the Sentinel at the time. They showed that Holland was well to the bottom of the list in its tax rate.

But none the less, the statement of Mr. Lord is reassuring because of its impartial character. No one can charge that it was put forth for propaganda purposes, a favorite charge made whenever local people call attention to the same thing. Holland has made many forward strides during the past ten years, but apparently the people of this city have received their money's worth and the cost of government has not been large.

PARK COMMISSIONER VAN BRAGHT SAYS "DOCTOR YOUR TREES"

Park Commissioner Van Braght has been busy for the past week going over the different trees in Holland's several parks and he has been busy doctoring those that need attention.

The trees in Holland's public parks are closely watched. If water pockets are found, these pockets are filled immediately with a substance that will shed the rain or prevent the tree from rotting.

While the trees in the park are receiving attention, it seems that the trees on the street in the residence district should not be forgotten. The trees along our thoroughfares are fully as important as those in the park.

We call our city, "the city of homes." With our streets stripped of trees and foliage the home comforts and homely surroundings would soon disappear. Our park commissioner, a very able man in his line, is fighting these difficulties in our parks continually. He looks after the borer in the Maples, after the moths in the Elms, after the scale in other trees. It's a big job, and it takes constant work to keep a lap ahead of those things that destroy shade.

Who in Holland has ever heard of anybody doctoring shade trees in the curb along the streets, or in the yard? With no one taking care of these things what is to be the outcome eventually of our shade?

As Mr. Van Braght says water pockets are especially bad for trees. These are generally found most prevalent in Maples. A crotch of a tree will sometimes become split by reason of a heavy wind or for some other reason. Big limbs may be torn off during a storm or other causes may bring cracks in the trunk causing pockets to form and with the water constantly filling in with every rain this water begins to rot the wood, and the decay process goes on until the vital part of the tree is touched and soon the tree withers and dies.

Possibly 80 per cent of Holland's tree population is made up of Maple trees. It seems that some effort should be made to keep our trees well and this should be done at once, before tree diseases and decay will seriously deplete the large amount of wonderful shade that Holland can boast of.

Some years ago the writer brought Mr. Taft, state horticulturalist, to the city. This was when the scale first began to make its appearance in the fruit orchards of Holland. The younger generation may not remember the apple, pear and cherry trees that abounded in nearly every back yard, but they were there just the same less than 20 years ago, supplying the family with winter fruit.

Mr. Taft came to town, told the citizens what to do, told them how they could save their trees with little effort as the scale had not yet taken hold everywhere, and the trees found diseased were only lightly so.

Mr. Taft was taken before the common council, he conferred with the city fathers, told the alderman that there was a law compelling a city or township to spray in such instances where scale was found. For a time the city paid no attention to the request.

A second request was sent in demanding that the diseased trees be sprayed. A small hand spray that was entirely inadequate, was brought into play. This was spasmodically used to take the curse off, but it didn't take the scale from the trees. The result was that within five years there was scarcely a fruit tree left in the city, most of them being chopped down after the scale had killed them off completely, or they had gone to such a stage where ever the most vigorous spraying could not cure them.

It is well to bear this in mind when it comes to our shade trees. It is well to call Park Commissioner Van Braght in for consultation in order to find out just where we stand with our shade, and if our trees are sick it might be well to ask doctor Van Braght for the best remedy with which to cure them and then go at it.

City Clerk Richard Overweg and Alderman Frank Brive motored to Grand Rapids Monday.

HOLLAND INTERURBAN CHANGES ITS TIME ON MONDAY

Since Grand Rapids has gone on daylight saving, that city turning the hands of the clock ahead one hour on Saturday, the Holland Interurban has changed its time accordingly. In other words, the first car which left Holland at 5 o'clock now goes at four. All cars are shoved just one hour ahead.

All Eastbound cars from Holland to Grand Rapids are scheduled as follows:

A. M.—4 o'clock, 5:40, 6:55, 8:50, 10:10, 11:55; P. M.—1:10, 2:50, 4:10, 5:50, 7:10, and 9:10.

When returning from Grand Rapids it is well to make inquiry as to running time from that end, according to Grand Rapids daylight saving time.

The Interurban is giving good service to the Holland resorts at the present time. All cars from Grand Rapids are running straight through to Macatawa, and all Saugatuck cars also go to Macatawa first. This gives thirteen cars daily to the Holland resorts.

The present fare to Macatawa is four round trips for $1.00; after June 15, five round trips for $1.00.

The service to Saugatuck has also been improved. The Sunday service discontinued during the winter, has been restored and an extra car has been put on until the summer schedule is inaugurated. The present running time is as follows:

6:35 a. m.; 12:45 noon; 5:10 p. m. Returning leave Saugatuck 8 a. m.; 2 p. m. and 6:15 p. m. During the summer months this schedule will be changed to every two hours, when a running time will be put on at night to accommodate those who attend the doings in the big pavilion at Saugatuck.

Naturally this interurban schedule will change again on May 4 when Holland changes to daylight savings time. The schedule will be made known at that time, for giving the running time now would simply bring about a hopeless mixup.

The time given above is according to Holland's present time, not Grand Rapids time. For the same reason, to avoid a mixup, we are not giving the time table returning from Grand Rapids, for this would have to be figured according to Grand Rapids' time and it would be safer for travelers to inquire about his return trip when he arrives in Grand Rapids.

PORT SHELTON NEW TOWNSHIP ELECTS SUPERVISORS

The various township clerks of Ottawa county have sent in their returns of the recent election and these show that there will be very few changes in the personnel of the Board of Supervisors elect. Changes in the board will be an additional member in the new township of Port Sheldon. Two changes took place in the ranks of the town clerks and four treasurers gave up their places. One big upset was at Zeeland, where Jacob Elenbaas was elected mayor over M. C. Verhage. Mr. Elenbaas because of his office will also represent Zeeland on the Board of Supervisors. Wright and Tallmadge townships both elected new township clerks and treasurers.

The list of supervisors from the different cities and townships in Ottawa county follows:

Allendale, John Osseward; Blenden, Robert L. Johnson; Chester, James Chittick; Crocker, Andy Peterson; Georgetown, George B. Curtis; Grand Haven, George Malraus; Holland, John Y. Huizenga; Jamestown, Gerrit Yntema; Olive, Philip H. Vinkemulder; Park, Geo. E. Hennepel; Polkton, Chester Richards; Robinson, Fred Graham; Spring Lake, David M. Cline; Tallmadge, Roelof Bronkema; Wright, E. A. Hambleton; Zeeland, Grand Lubbers and M. Davis, of Port Sheldon. Supervisors from Grand Haven city are C. W. Cotton, L. H. Osterhouse, John Van Anrooy and John W. Verhoeke. Holland supervisors are C. W. Nibbelink, Edward Vanden Berg, John J. Rutgers, Peter Damstra and Simon Klyen. Jacob Elenbaas and Henry Roek are supervisors from Zeeland.

LOCAL

Sunday is Easter Hat Sunday and Holland ladies will be all dolled up.

There will be services at Trinity Reformed church on Good Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor will preach on "The Meaning of the Rent Vail." A mixed quartet will sing.

Allagan voters have shown their horse sense by voting for a new fire truck of the pumper variety. The vote stood 720 in favor, 259 against the project.

Nearly every church in this city, twenty-two in number, are to observe this Easter Sunday with appropriate sermons by the respective pastors and special Easter music by the choirs.

The committee on claims and accounts of the council reported Wednesday night that the claims against the city for the past two weeks were $5,256.47. The committee on poor reported $135 for temporary aid during the same period.

The South Olive Choral society will give an Easter program Tuesday evening, April 22 in the Crisp church. The program will consist of speaking interspersed with singing. A collection will be taken for a new piano. All are welcome.

Washington school is soon to have additions to its playgrounds. Many donations are being received and additional equipment costing at least $500 is planned. Mrs. Sears McLean and Mr. George Mool and committees are in charge of this work.

Hope College Anchor reports that Swantina De Young and Kathryn Wassenaar now have their hair bobbed. Since a neck shave always follows a hair cut it goes without saying that the young ladies also had their first introduction to the razor.

Next Sunday evening the vested choir of Trinity church under the direction of Mr. John TerBeek will render an Easter cantata entitled "Redemption Morn," by A. Miller. The pastor will give a brief Easter message. The choir will also give special Easter music at the morning services.

The regular teachers' examination in Ottawa county is to be conducted at the Grand Haven high school on April 24, 25, and 26. County school commissioner G. J. Greenwood expects all applicants to furnish their own pen and ink. A special examination will be held on Wednesday, April 23 for those whose religious convictions prevent them from writing on Saturday. This examination will be held at the court house.

SIXTH REFORMED CHURCH FILLED TO HEAR EASTER CANTATA

CHORUS TO GO TO NEW HOLLAND NEXT WEEK WEDNESDAY

Standing room was at a premium at the Sixth Reformed church last evening when a chorus of 45 mixed voices sang "Redemption's Song," an Easter cantata.

The oratorio was ably rendered under the efficient directorship of John Vander Sluis, one of Holland's leading choristers.

Rather a surprise was sprung during the oratorio when a small children's chorus seated in the gallery at the church responded at times to the singing of the regular choir. The little folks did well and among them will be found considerable musical talent to graduate into the regular chorus later.

Next week Wednesday the chorus has been invited to the Reformed church at New Holland where the same program is to be given.

Mrs. H. E. Dunn, pianist, ably presided at the piano, while Miss Minnie Vande Water, the talented organist played the organ. These ladies have put in considerable time together with the director, Mr. Vander Sluis, and the rendition of the oratorio evidences the fact that considerable preparation was made for the event.

The Shady Lawn Florists proprietor, Mr. Vander Ploeg, was in charge of the beautiful Easter decorations consisting of palms and lilies, the use of which was donated for the occasion.

ALDERMAN KLEIS SURPRISED ON HIS 47TH BIRTHDAY

Alderman A. P. Kleis was the subject of a surprise party on Tuesday evening on the occasion of his birthday anniversary. Mr. Kleis' birthday really was Wednesday but the surprise could not be held then because of the council session and so his friends celebrated a day in advance. He was presented with a beautiful smoking stand. Refreshments were served and a delightful evening was spent. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. Blom, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Kleis, Mr. and Mrs. Geerds, Mr. and Mrs. D. Van Kolken, Mr. and Mrs. John Kleis, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kleis, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rosendal.

HOPE BASE BALL TEAM LOSES TWO GAMES ON TRIP

Early Friday morning Hope college baseball nine left for East Lansing to tackle the strong Aggie baseball aggregation, and then travelled to Kalamazoo Saturday to cross bats with the Normalites. Both games resulted in set-backs for the Hope college team, the former by an 8-2 score, in which errors predominated, and the latter by a 4-0 score, when a better brand of ball was exhibited by Hope's team.

SURPRISE GIVEN FOR THEIR PASTOR

Rev. Filkkema of the Ebenezer Reformed church was pleasantly surprised Monday evening when the able class and Sunday school teachers gathered at his home and presented him with a beautiful Boston traveling bag and Mrs. Filkkema with a perculator and roaster.

The evening was delightfully spent with games and a short program was rendered consisting of an opening address by Gerrit Onk, superintendent of the Sunday school, to which the pastor and Mrs. Filkkema responded. Talks on Sunday work by Henry H. Boeve, Mrs. Filkkema and Mrs. P. Naber. Songs by a male quartet, ladies quartet. Duet by Mrs. Van Leeuwen and Mrs. Van Alsburg, and a solo by George Filkkema. A three course luncheon was served and everyone voted a delightful time.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. P. Naber, Mrs. J. Van Leeuwen and Mrs. J. Van Alsburg.

A resolution was adopted Wednesday night by the common council creating a cemetery fund to take care of the cemetery. It will be in charge of the park and cemetery board, which body will be required to make a report every February.

The public is cordially invited to hear one of the leading pipe organists of the country, Chandler Goldthwaite, who will give a recital at Hope church at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening.

It will be remembered that Mr. Goldthwaite also gave a recital at the beautiful new Fountain Street Baptist church just dedicated when hundreds were turned away as the large new edifice presided over by Rev. Wishart could not begin to accommodate the vast audience and many had to be turned away for lack of standing room.

Dr. Nykerk has made all necessary arrangements and the program to be rendered follows:

Toccata and Fugue in D Minor.....	J. S. Bach
Berceuse.....	Goldthwaite
Scherzo from 4th Sym.....	Widor

Despite the large number of programs and doings during the past week incident to Easter, a large audience is expected at the Ninth-St. Christian Reformed church to listen to the oratorio, "Joy After Sorrow," by Ira B. Wilson.

The oratorio will begin promptly at 7:45 Thursday night, a large chorus of mixed voices, 65 in number, rendering the oratorio. The public is cordially invited to this Easter offering which is given under the auspices of the Ninth-St. Choral Society on Thursday night at the Ninth-St. church.

The Holland Fish and Game Protective Association will hold its annual meeting on Thursday, April 17, in the court room of the city hall. Election of officers for the coming year is to take place, and many other important business matters are to come up for discussion.

Prizes are to be given to the contestants catching the largest game fish of certain species in these waters. All members are urged to come, for with the opening of the fishing season a great many questions of importance are bound to arise.

Officer Zweeringa caught two young chaps of 14 years old, begging for food and he brought them in before Chief Van Ry who questioned them and found that they were Joe Clabaugh and George Welsey. Both lads came from Chicago and stated they had been playing "hooky" from school and feared to go home, thinking that their parents would send them to the Reform school.

The Chief wired the parents who sent money for the return of the boys. They were sent home on the noon train Wednesday but were given a good square meal before going and judging from the way they went after the vitals they surely were in need of a meal.
