CITY ISSUES

$20,000 BUILDING PERMIT TODAY

FEDERAL BAKING CO. TO ERECT NEW PLANT ON
17TH STREET

Merrick Hanchett, manager of the Federal Baking Company, announced that plans have been completed for a new bakery to be built by them at the corner of 17th and Cleveland streets, directly opposite the recently completed West Michigan laundry. The plans call for a building of attractive exterior with a daylight interior arranged according to the most modern practice in plants of this kind.

This morning a permit was issued by City Clerk Oscar Peterson calling for a building permit for a building 101 x 70 feet, one story, costing approximately $20,000 for the building alone.

Naturally the equipment and other things entering in will cost the newly organized company considerable more. The new bakery will be exclusively devoted to the wholesale trade, and with a capacity of 350 loaves of bread every 40 minutes the company will be able to develop this wholesale business in a way that was impossible in their downtown bakery which has been sold.

There are more than fifty stockholders in the present company and because of the expansion of their activities it was decided by the directors to increase this number. Authority to increase the capitalization of the company has been obtained from the Michigan Security commission at Lansing. Merrick Hanchett, who has lived in Holland for 23 years and who has made a success of the Federal bakery, will be the manager of the new plant.

Mr. Hanchett is very enthusiastic about the future of the company, declaring that Federal baked goods are already sold by most of the grocery stores in Holland and surrounding communities. With modern equipment, the public demand for Federal products will be exceptional.

Miss Mabel Warner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Warner of Allegan, was picked as the prettiest girl and Robert Post, son of Mrs. Dora Post, handsome boy, in a recent election held by the high school seniors. Miss Cheriad Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lewis, and Edward Lauth, son of Nicholas Lauth, are valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively, of a class of about 65 students.

Cosch Hinga of Holland High school will have seven veterans as nucleus around which to build a basketball team for next season. Three veterans have been lost in Elenbaas, Houting and Dalman. City Will Not Pay Claim of $5,000

Rather an interesting matter came up at the common council when Henry Shovel, a contractor living at Central Park, presented a claim of $5,000, resulting from an accident in which his automobile was wrecked and he was personally injured.

His contention is the city had dug a trench part way across West 17th street and the raise in the road made him lose control and his automobile struck a telephone pole and was wrecked.

Of course the city not going to pay the claim for the telephone pole is located 250 feet beyond where the digging took place and the auto was going so fast that it not only broke the pole off but the car skidded across the street besides.

Instead of receiving damages the city attorney will present Mr. Shovel with a bill of $250.00 for a new pole and other damage done to city property.

COUNCIL NOTES

Rev. Willets of the M. E. church opened the initial meeting of the year with prayer with both mayors and all the aldermen and incoming aldermen present.

Mrs. Nicholas Kammeraad and Mrs. Ernest Brooks were both present at the mayor's inaugural in the council rooms.

Seidman and Seidman, expert accountants from Grand Rapids have audited all the city books including the Board of Public Works and those of City Clerk Peterson and found them in excellent condition. In fact they gave a special report commenting on the efficiency of Holland's city officers.

Flood and Co. was again given the job of inspecting newly laid pavement at 8 cents a square yard, which is a half cent cheaper than last year. Another reason why Tenth street should be paved this year since this could be added with 65 cents a running foot that the paving will cost less over last year. The council allowed an air standard to be put in at Ninth street by Raffenaud Bros., who are going into the vulcanizing business.

A petition was sent in asking that the sewer be laid on 22nd street between Van Raalte avenue, Ottawa street, a distance of three blocks. Another petition asked for paving on 23rd street between State and Central avenue.

CONTRACT TO BUILD

One Pond Will Cover At Least Two Acres When Filled With Water

Joe Rhea, president of the Holland Fish Game Protective Association, states that the contracts for building the fish nursery east of the city has been let.

Wm. Bronkhorst will start a crew of men on Monday with scrapers and shovels, digging the first pond and this will be filled from the small stream of spring water, located on the property, purchased by the local game club and is a tributary to Black River.

Frank Dyke, the contractor, will put in the concrete work necessary for the spillway and the dam will be approximately 100 feet long and the water in the pond will be at least six feet deep. The small lake will cover an area of at least two acres.

The first fish pond will be completed within a month. The dirt bottom and grasses will be allowed to remain, for this is just what growing fish need.

At least 50,000 black bass fry will be planted early in June supplied from the Comstock Park hatcheries near Grand Rapids.

Provisions have also been made for an addition pond capable of taking care of and raising 50,000 bluegills. This pond will be put in commission by early next season.

The entire pond program, when completed will allow of at least 100,000 fish fry annually and these, when old enough to take care of themselves, will be planted in Black Lake and River and other waters adjacent to Holland.

Carp fishing by the Holland Game Fish Protective Association will be resumed again next winter and in this way enough funds can be secured to not only maintain but to build more ponds and to also beautify the property making it a Holland show place that will be visited by thousands of resorters annually.

Traffic Rules Must Be Enforced

RIGHT HAND TURN WILL BE ALLOWED TO REMAIN

A request of the police department to abolish the right hand turn was frowned upon by the Common Council Wednesday night.

A committee consisting of Aldermen Hyma, McLean and Laeppe, reported that the ruling not be abolished.

The report sent in is self explanatory and follows:

OFFICIAL

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council:

Your committee on Ordinances to whom was referred the communication from the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners petitioning the Council to amend and revise the present Traffic Ordinance relative to the discontinuance of permitting a right turn against the red traffic signal, reports as follows:

The committee finds that the uniform traffic ordinance as recently adopted by the City of Holland is enforced in practically all of the cities of Michigan.

They also find that present code, if properly enforced, relieves traffic congestion and tends to greater public safety.

Many motorists knowingly or unknowingly are violating the ordinance in so far that they do not come to a complete stop before making the right turn against the red signal.

Your committee recommends that the present uniform traffic ordinance remain in force, and that that part of the ordinance calling for a complete stop before a right turn against the red signal be more rigidly enforced.

MAN FALLS FROM STACK; BADLY HURT

Max Statler, aged about thirty-five years, of Grand Rapids, nearly lost his life Wednesday noon, when he fell from his scaffold at the Herman Miller Furniture factory at Zeeland where he was in the act of painting a smoke stack.

He landed on the roof of the boiler house with a thud that immediately got the attention of others who found him in a dazed condition and rushed him to the local hospital. Upon examination it was found that he struck on his right leg and hip, breaking the leg in two places and severely bruising his body. Whether he had been internally injured could not be determined at once, while some relief was given him by an anesthetic.

From what height he fell we have not learned, but the stack is about seventy-five feet high, and the drop was sufficiently great so those who found him were surprised to find him alive and conscious.

Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Sherwood of Grand Haven have gone to Augusta, Ga., to attend the executive council meeting of the A. B. A. Mr. Sherwood is a member from this section. They will be joined later in the summer by Miss Shillard's parents.

Programs at Jamestown, Coopersville and Grand Haven will be quite similar with many of the same speakers.

The old Livingston hotel at Grand Rapids that burned some five years ago when several lost lives, will be torn down after having been an eye-sore to the neighborhood all this time. News Condensed From Local and Neighborhood Papers

Thank You Mayor Kammeraad!

With the passing of Wednesday night's council meeting, a faithful public servant has also laid down the burdens of civic service after seventeen long years of untiring effort.

Mayor Kammeraad has been a conscientious, earnest and honest city official, a man of whom Holland can be justly proud. The public is prone to criticize an old official for during his long career some toes must have been stepped on and even a perfect man cannot please everybody.

The public is quick to forget and rather selfish in expecting too much.

In the mayor's exaugural address printed in this issue in full Mr. Kammeraad gives a resume touching only the high lights of what has been accomplished, and he is mighty modest at that. The message does not tell it all. The days and nights of committee work, the presiding at public functions, the meeting of representatives from other cities, the endless number of complaints, justified and otherwise, verbally and in writing. The meeting with boards and other city officials, in fact it is a program larger than anyone can realize.

That Mayor Kammeraad has made a great sacrifice in behalf of his city, no one will doubt. A man of Mr. Kammeraad's caliber does not deserve censure but rather deserves the thanks of the entire community. Such willing servants are altogether too rare and the Holland City News wishes to be one of the many to publicly express its thanks to the retiring mayor. He has served seventeen years as alderman and mayor faithfully and well.

The retiring aldermen, Mr. Laepfle, Mr. Drinkwater, Mr. Van Zanten and Mr. Visser all have represented the city of Holland ably. They too have had their share of work that does not always show on the surface but counts where the city's welfare is concerned.

There may often have been difference of opinions on policy, but as a whole Holland can congratulate itself on being able to secure such men for public service who are willing to carry the civic load and receiving therefor practically no compensation.

The state horticultural authorities and other wise men of this locality have now figured out that several peach buds were killed during the winter, but they are inclined to think that there are enough left at present to make a good crop. This prophesying the fruit crop was getting to be almost a lost art and it is encouraging to find that there are still a few who possess the knack. However successful these guesses may be, the effort furnishes a very pleasant indoor sport and should be encouraged.

OFFICIAL EXAUGURAL MESSAGE OF MAYOR KAMMERAAD

Members of the Common Council,
Gentlemen:

The time has arrived when the new mayor and aldermen will take their seats and the old members will retire. However, before they take their seats of office, I thought it well to say a few words of farewell and also to review the past four years of work done by this council.

Not long after we had taken the oath of office in 1924 we received a notice from the state to show why we should not have a reduction in the price of gas. A committee was appointed, composed of Mr. Champion and Mr. McBride, to go into this matter. They having worked on it for a few months, were soon satisfied that we were entitled to a reduction in the price of gas. Many meetings were held before the Public Utility commission, at Lansing, where a stubborn fight was put up by the Gas Co. and our committee. We finally succeeded in getting a reduction in the price of gas, a saving to our citizens of about $12,000 annually.

We next received notice from the state authorities that we had to clean up the river and put in a sewage disposal plant. A committee had been appointed by our former mayor, Mr. E. P. Stephen, which made preliminary investigations and consulted with various engineers. This committee was again reappointed after some deliberation by the council, and after making a thorough investigation reported to the council that a plant could be built at an estimated price of $195,000. The council thereupon submitted the bond issue to the voters, and was carried. This work was then carried out under this committee headed by Mr. Chas. Kirchen and is now completed and in operation.

Next the council received communications from the county board of supervisors to jointly buy the oval at Ottawa beach. After some consideration the council decided to buy this jointly with the board of supervisors. Now our citizens may enjoy the lake breeze without being told, "This is private property, please move on."

I also received communications from Mr. Alfred, president of the P. M. Railroad Co., stating that he had forwarded the blue prints of a new depot and instructed me to have these blue prints submitted to some of our citizens for their approval and for changes desired. This has been carried out and our depot was soon under construction. Agreements were made between the council and the Railway authorities to have the place beautified. This also was carried out and is now a beautiful depot.

The council also felt the need of a public playground and decided to buy one whole city block for this purpose. This playground is now being put into good use in the summer time by the children of our city.

For some time our council and citizens felt the need of a new city hospital. It was the conversation of different citizens and of various meetings. The board of public works thereupon informed the council that they had sufficient funds on hand to build the city a new hospital. After some discussion the council instructed the mayor to appoint a committee to go into this matter and to engage an architect. This committee thereupon presented blue prints and specifications for the council's approval. Soon this hospital was under construction and was completed about January 15, 1928. This building was built at a cost of $183,882.96 including the grounds and was equipped at a cost of $35,000. A long felt need is now completed and was opened for patients on January 21. This hospital with its able and efficient superintendent, Miss Mabel Miller, has admitted up to April 18, 323 patients. Surely a blessing for the relief of the suffering.

And while all this was going on, Gentlemen, we have made great progress also in the line of pavement. Eight miles of pavement have been laid in the years, 24-26, 27 at a total cost of $530,131.37. It is the best kind of pavement today in the country and was built under our capable engineer, Mr. Zuidema. Most all our resident streets are now paved. Surely this is money well spent.

Although we have made many improvements we did not lose sight of the fact to keep taxes down at a reasonable rate, and under normal conditions we can expect in the future a decrease in our taxes. Our reasons for this are: storm sewers have practically all been laid, also street intersections have been paved, and as the years go by their pavements will become less. The board of Public Works recently gave notice that they will undertake to liquidate our bonds and pay interest on the same from the earnings of our light plant.

Members of the Common Council, I have just refreshed your memories of part of the work we have done and I want to congratulate you. It was a pleasure for me to preside at your meetings, a fine spirit of co-operation was always present and the meetings were always instructive. May the Lord bless you in the future as He has done in the past.

I want to thank the Board of Public Works and its able superintendent, Mr. Champion, for its good work and co-operation shown to me in the past four years. I also want to thank the Police and Fire Commissioners and our two chiefs for their good order and efficient work given. I also want to thank the Park Board and its superintendent, the Library Board, the Health Board, the Hospital Board, our city inspector, city attorney and our health officer, Dr. Cook, who is always on the job. You have all done your part in making this administration a success. Many jobs all give the same co-operation to the new mayor and council as you have given me in the past, then I am sure you will make a history for our city. As a city the Lord has blessed us abundantly, no epidemic of any kind has visited our city, peace and good order prevailed. I also want to give my thanks to the ministers of our city and to the professors of Hope College for their prayers offered at our council meetings. May the Lord bless those prayers to our hearts.

This finishes my 17th year of service to the city and I have done it with pleasure.

And now, my dear Mr. Mayor, I have the pleasure of presenting to you the keys of the city and the reigns of the city government. May your administration be a success. I have said that when I took the office of mayor that I would ask guidance and wisdom from on High. This was a comfort to me. May you do likewise and it will go well with you.

I thank you.

MESSAGE OF MAYOR
EARNEST BROOKS

The problems which Holland faces today are not unique; rather they are typical of developing communities, of cities enjoying normal growth. They are not even numerous and there are none which may not be coped with by studied survey and concerted effort. We can but regard it as our good fortune that we find the city's affairs in such excellent shape.

View with me for a moment the past of Holland. We will look back, not turn back. It is a pleasing sight and a profitable one, for the lines set out by our good founders are straight and true. They are laid parallel and come up-grade. The whole picture portrays to us one of a city whose honorable past has been in the hands of capable, energetic leaders, and we sense a responsibility, our responsibility to those leaders, leaders who have built for Holland a righteous past. We now accept that responsibility, knowing that can we but continue as they have led, our work will not have been meaningless.

We like to talk of our conservative founders, for I hear it on every side, but I challenge you, if to be conservative is to plan well, is to build well, and is to foresee with almost uncanny perception, then they were conservative with a commendable conservatism. Could we but gain one thing from these conservative leaders, that keen foresight, how well we will plan, as did they, for coming generations. As they have led, so must we lead in the same good paths, lead so that we in turn may hand over a city which shall show progress, which shall show development as a righteous community. As we have received from good hands, so we must preserve all that is best and in turn hand it on, smoother and a more finished product for it having been in our trust.

Industrial Expansion

Holland is primarily an industrial and manufacturing city. To keep it so calls for a workable plan of industrial expansion. To find that plan, to work out that problem, may be called our first task. For sometime past, various civic organizations, notably bond committees and Chamber of Commerce bodies have endeavored to meet this. They have been, of course, supported and augmented by members of our Common Council and on some occasions their efforts have had official sanction, but if Holland is to continue as an industrial center, if we are to gain more outlets for the activities of the workmen in our community, this matter of industrial expansion deserves more than official sanction and more than half-hearted co-operation. The source of the planning should arise here. We are the ones to take the initiative, and our membership, supplemented by active workers from civic bodies, should lead the way.

We are a city of factory workers. Able-bodied men who are here are justified in looking to us that they may find employment in the city where they have built their homes and raised their families, and they may look to us for employment for their sons and daughters, that this younger generation may not be forced to leave the home and city in which they were raised for lack of a means of livelihood. The coming generation is to produce our future leaders. We need them at home. We want their ability. We know from whence they came, the stock of which they are made, and there is no finer; so why cast them abroad through our neglect. Our function does not stop when we are maintaining a peaceful and a healthful city. It does not stop until we have done our utmost to afford a means of livelihood for those amongst us who are seeking to gain it, and while I maintain that this is a civic duty, it is one in which each member of the Council has a deep personal interest. We might even go so far as to state that each of us has a selfish interest in building Holland industrially, for here in our own body, we have merchants and contractors; we have men engaged in transportation; business and professional men; and the backbone or the support for those of you so engaged, and for your like not only in Holland but in every city, is the wage earner.

Paving

No one can but look with pride upon the progress made in Holland in recent years. The paving problem, so intelligently entered into, and so judiciously and economically put forward by our predecessors, has encouraged building of all kinds, and as though they were fearful lest their successors should fall down on the job, the last act of the retiring administration was to plan for its continuance for at least another season. To show them that their fears were groundless, I hope we may take up their constructive program, not where they left off, but where they have pushed us on, and add to it this very season.

The approaches to any city are impressive. They create favor or ill-will. I recall a suburb of Chicago in the days when automobiles were not so common, which caused the paving of its streets to be roughened or made into ridges at the approach of each street intersection in order to slow down the speeder. The result was not what this suburb expected. Instead of slowing down the traffic, the suburb was avoided by everyone who could pass around instead of through the village.

I am not suggesting that we purposely have dug holes in Eighth Street, nor am I thinking that the City will necessarily have on its hands a reasonably large number of damage suits, arising all the way from broken springs to misplaced vertebrae, due to attempts of tourists to circumnavigate the chuck-holes on Eighth Street, but I do say that if our pavement is such that tourists can drive through Holland in some degree of comfort, the city will be far better off than if we continue to allow the pavement to remain unimproved, and this Council can profitably give its attention to investigating ways and means for the immediate repaving of Eighth Street.

Being on this subject, allow me to suggest that those of our residents who live on unpaved streets are entitled to the same privileges which the rest of us enjoy, that is, a passable road to and from their homes. Why force them through sand dunes and mud holes to reach their own homes right here within the limits of our city? I understand previous Councils have taken the attitude that street improving in Holland means street paving, which is not only well but absolutely correct, if and provided it were feasible and practical to pave all the streets within a reasonable length of time, where any considerable number of homes have been built; but we know even with the good work which has been done in the past several years, we are not going to get around to all of the streets for sometime to come, and in the meantime I do not feel justified in maintaining that our gravel streets do not need to be improved, because some day they will be paved, and that the money expended on them at present is wasted.

Civic Education

The contemplated changes in our City Charter are deserving of recognition at this time. Unfortunately the important work of our charter commission who have been diligently studying this problem for the past several years, has not met with the support which it should have. I am not speaking for or against any particular suggested amendment, but I am asking that proposals of utmost importance to the entire city should receive careful consideration before they are cast aside. The snap judgment of a few men seems to have condemned this entire proposition, whereas it is not unlikely that could the matter have been studied carefully and discussed intelligently, much that is good would have been found in the proposals, for it is clear to many that parts of our charter are antiquated, and that the city has grown beyond that point where many of its provisions fit our present needs.

There are many like matters to come up and my thought for handling them is to apply the principles of education. There may have been a day when the old slogan "What the people don't know won't hurt them," was good politics. That slogan was not part of the platform of recent administrations in Holland nor will it be of this. Rather than become biased ourselves would it not serve the city better if we hold open discussions, if we look for the good and the bad, for the adaptability and workability of these changes, and then go before the people on every possible occasion, go before them at our luncheon clubs, at the parent-teachers' club, and tell them the whole story, not our particular side of it. By doing so, it would seem to me that then we could turn the matter over at election time knowing that the result will be more than the so-called will of the people; it will be an intelligent voicing of their wishes.

Annexation

It is not easy to picture a vast metropolis at the head of Black Lake nor do I know that you or I would care to live there if it were one. Possibly we find a city of about our present size to be far more desirable in the things that count. Still it is impossible to maintain a city on an even keel by just doing nothing, and a natural or a conservative growth will not so upset our plans and program of life as to materially affect us. While there is still ample room within our present city limits for a considerably larger population, there are many reasons why it is desirable for the municipality to be able to exercise control over the adjacent territory. How far we go and in what direction depends upon many things. The approaches to the city are even now pretty well cluttered up, and the approaches are almost a part of the main street. If our zoning ordinance could apply over a larger territory, it would be possible to get away from much of this.

It is not a vain hope that some day the city of Holland will own for herself a suitable recreation spot along the shore of Lake Michigan, nor that we have within our control some of those natural resources that can only be found in that vicinity, natural parks combining sand dunes, hills, beaches and pine forests.

If I am to illustrate with Chicago, it is not to amuse you, merely to show what foresight has done. Many years ago, Montgomery Ward decided that that portion of the lake front adjacent to the downtown district should be owned and controlled by the City of Chicago for the benefit of the public at large and not by private individuals for personal gain; so he purchased all that tract of land lying East of Michigan Avenue between Randolph and Twelfth Streets, and gave it to his city with the express proviso that it never be used for any other than recreational purposes. Look at it today. It is beautiful Grand Park, saved for Chicago through the foresight and generosity of one man. Our own water front, had it not been for the generosity of one family, would have been entirely taken up for industrial purposes. Where is a purer and larger water supply to be found than in Lake Michigan? And it is not impossible that before long Holland may have to tap that source. How much better it will be then if we have, in some measure, control of it.

These are some of the advantages which may accrue to us through an annexation program. There are likewise many advantages for the outsider, some of which they already enjoy because of the friendly spirit which exists between the city and its environs. Annexation would take away none of these advantages but add others in sufficient measure to make the program attractive to all concerned. I feel that here again the adoption of a policy of education should bring real results, and to get off to a good start, it is my plan to appoint an annexation commission, the membership of which I am not quite ready to announce.

These then are the things for which your present administration will work. Industrial expansion which will encourage our local industries to extend and bring new factories into Holland. Community education in civic matters. A study of the city's annexation needs, and a continuance of all those finer things which have made Holland the city it is today.

A partridge flew into the window of the road commissioner's office at Grand Haven and was killed by the blow. The bird remains on the window ledge looked at with longing as a fine piece of eating, but the head of the conservation commission lives across the way and the bird has not been disturbed.

COMMUNICATION

The Zeeland Record of last week states that Ottawa commissioners are in favor of Borculo road. Perhaps! They possibly should say Zeeland and Commissioner Kamps and others Zeeland interests are. As I understand they have gone into the matter thoroughly. Eighty per cent of property abutting the road signed a petition but that represents only about 30 signers and I can get 150 signers opposed who, by the way, would also use the road. Zeeland is getting one mile of road a year east of Zeeland on the old Hudsonville Grand Rapids highway through the county road plan. Are these people any better than those who happen to be in the Borculo road assessment district? Holland city and township know what they get out of the Borculo road and the editor of the Zeeland Record knows too, if he wants to. In regard to Alpena road will say if any road in Ottawa county should be county road the Alpena road should have been since the oval is a state public recreation spot and as the public coming from beyond Ottawa county, uses it and it was built to relieve congestion on the old road to Lakewood farm visited by people from everywhere, you should ask about the north end of the county. Look over the map and you will see not a few roads built by state or county and you'll find also a $1,000,000 worth of bridges.

And this Covert act road from Frysburg is built by real estate speculators but the public will not use a longer route to Muskegon. Just because it is near the sand hill. I think the editor of The Record should learn his onions. (Selfish!) Yes, Zeeland is selfish!

HAMILTON

A "get-together" meeting of the old and new members of the consistory of the First Reformed church was held last Tuesday evening. About 75 were present. Rev. J. A. Roggen, pastor, opened with prayer. Talks were given by Hein Brower, G. J. Bolks and Wm. Dreuten. A male quartet, consisting of members of the new consistory sang several selections. Rev. Edward Tanis of Holland, formerly a member of the local church, closed with prayer. Refreshments were served by the ladies. This is an annual affair and succeeds in keeping the men better acquainted with each other.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eding, Jr., a girl, Bernice Mae. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schutmaat and children were Grand Rapids visitors last week.

Don Dangremont gave a motor cycle demonstration in this village last Friday. He clearly showed the surprising pick-up, the ability to make sharp turns and come to a quick stop with the machine. We have not been officially informed as to Mr. Dangremont's purpose in putting on the demonstration, but surmise that he has business ambitions. If so, he seems to have succeeded in stirring up a great interest especially among the younger set.

Jess Kool and Harold Dangremont with their wives motored to Grand Rapids last Saturday night on a pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Michmerhuizen of Overisel were visitors at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rankens last Sunday.

A meeting of Hamilton's baseball fans was held last week. Roy Ciple was chosen as manager; Chet Vooghorst, captain, and John Brink, Jr., sec-treas. The diamond and grounds have already been improved, so that the boys will be given every chance to put up a real game. New suits have also been received. The boys were out for their first practice Monday. It is planned to have two games every week. The line-up will be about the same as last year. This will be the third year the youngsters play together and, if they show as much improvement as they did a year ago, this village is going to see some good games during the summer months.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Tanis a boy.

The Hamilton Music Club met Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schutmaat.

A regular meeting of the P. T. A.

was held at the High School, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Henry Schutmaat was elected president in the place of Mr. Schutmaat who declined the office. Mr. A. S. Butler, probate judge of Allegan county, gave a very instructive and interesting talk about the work of a Probate Court. Unfortunately the attendance at this meeting was small compared with the usual attendance presumably as a result of the change of time and spring work. It was without a doubt the most practical talk we have had. To our way of thinking, it would do a great deal toward bettering conditions, if every P. T. A. would call a mass meeting to hear a message of this kind. Charlotte Strabbing sang two vocal solos and Gladys Borgman some piano selections. Refreshments were served by a committee.

Mrs. Peter Rooks, owner of the Millinery shop, has returned from a visit to the Dakotas. Mrs. Andrew Lohman had charge of her store during her absence.

Spring work has started. Farmers are busy plowing and sowing, tending the work, since it is much later than usual.

CENTRAL PARK

The quarterly meeting of the Adult Bible Class held at the Central Park Church Monday evening was well attended. The president, Mr. Thos. Rosendahl, led in the devotion and presided over the business meeting. Mr. and Mrs. R. Van Lente sang a duet and then the speaker of the evening, Mr. Geo. Ryder, was introduced. He spoke in a very interesting and informing way of his visit to the Holy Land and showed many realistic pictures and souvenirs from various places of interest. Mrs. Cora Prins gave two readings after which refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed by all.

"The Way of Salvation" will be the sermon subject of the Rev. F. J. Van Dyk at the Central Park church next Sunday morning. At the evening service there will be a popular sermon on the slogan, "Don't Be A Quitter!" The chorus choir under the direction of Mr. R. Van Lente will sing at both services.

All who come to worship at Central Park are assured of a cordial welcome.

NORTH HOLLAND

Mr. Jacob Van Dyke, from here, is among those who were elected by the Holland classis as a delegate to the general synod. The meeting will be held in New York some time in June.

Miss Gertrude Diepenhorst spent last Thursday evening with Genevieve Ter Haar.

The church services were in charge of Rev. Dick Dykstra on last Sunday afternoon, while our pastor, Rev. Arthur Maatman, preached in Grand Rapids.

The members of the Ladies' Aid Society were very happy to have their president, Mrs. Arthur Maatman, meet with them again on last week Thursday afternoon, as she had not been able to lately on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John Van der Zwaag are happy to announce that a new eight-pound son arrived at the home of their children, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van der Zwaag, at Holland, on Friday, April 13. "One Of The Nine," Stirring Religious Drama

IS BASED ON THE BIBLE STORY OF THE TEN LEPROS

The impressive Bible play "One of the Nine" was given by "The Rock" players of Ganges in the Literary Club rooms Thursday night. It is the dramatization of the Bible story of the ten lepers who were healed, nine of them going their way but one of them returning to give thanks.

Through the play ran the love scene of a Jewish maiden for a Samaritan lad whom she was not allowed to marry because of his race. The costumes and customs were correct according to the history of the Jews 2,000 years ago and the events of the play as far as is known are given as in the Bible. The settings and Jewish garbs were beautiful, making the play of great interest as well as instructive.

The cast of characters are: Nathaniel, Prince of Jerusalem, Edward Olsen; David, The Samaritan, Walter Wightman; Reuben, Nathaniel's Brother, Mack Atwater; Ezra, Reuben's Son, Ray St. John; Rabbi Samuel, Belonging to the Sanhedrin, Roy Fisher; Lydia, Nathaniel's second wife, Mrs. Edward Olsen; Zarah, Nathaniel's Daughter, Mrs. Walter Wightman; Rachael, Zarah's Friend, Mrs. Mack Atwater; Adah, A servant, Mrs. Roy Fisher. Accompanist, Dorothy Rief.

The chorus taking the musical parts in scene 1 follows:

Marlyn Bauder, Marian Bauder, Wayne Laudig, Margaret Lick, Ellen Anderson, Marian Te Roller, Glen Loveland, Barbara Evans, Girard Raffenaud, Gertrude Wise, Ruth Humboldt, Evelyn Working, Arna Slighter, Harold McIntyre, Ruth Walker, Marguerite Walker, Emily Evans, Frances Mooney, Wendel Miles, Raoul Nies, Frank Working, Arthur Horning, Margaret Vande Vusse, Franklin Vande Vusse, James Benson.

The chorus taking the part in scene two follows:

Baseball Season Opens

ARBOR DAY DATE FIXED BY GOVERNOR

Arbor Day has been set by Gov. Green for Friday, April 27. This is also the day of President Grant's birthday. Every serious-minded conservationist is supposed to think about trees on that day and, if possible, do some tree-planting. It is not generally understood that both the Michigan State College and Department of Conservation stand ready to furnish tree planters with conifer seedlings at an extremely low cost. The college can furnish spruce and some pine, while the State has a large supply of Norway, white and jack pines for around $5 a thousand plants.

SON OF GRAND HAVEN ATTORNEY IN AUTO COLLISION

The snow flurries Monday morning were responsible for at least one collision. At the corner of Fourth and Franklin streets, Grand Haven, Donald Misner, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Misner, driving a toy roadster, collided with Bobbie Shoe, four years old, of Fourth street, driving a delivery cart. They bumped with great loss of merchandise carried by the youthful drivers. Marbles, crackers and candy were spilled all over the sidewalk and when discovered the two drivers were eagerly salvaging the remains regardless of the wet condition of the walk or the grimy condition of the eatables. Misner admitted the snow blinded him and Shoe said he did not see Misner although he had the right of way. Damages will be settled without the aid of the courts.

ALLEGAN CO. CLERK GRANTED DIVORCE

William G. Tisdale, county clerk of Allegan County was granted a divorce from his wife, Bessie M. Tisdale, by Judge Blaine W. Hatch of Marshall in circuit court here today. Their former home was in Douglas.

G. R. MAN JAILED AT ALLEGAN FOR LARCENY

Jack Bernard of Grand Rapids is held in jail here in lieu of $500 bail on a larceny charge preferred against him by an Otsego firm, his former employer. His preliminary examination was set for today, Friday, at Allegan, by Justice Fides E. Fish. He was brought from Grand Rapids by Deputy Virgil Rhodes to answer the charge. Charles Franklin of Allegan, in another case, was ordered to pay costs and reprimanded for neglect to provide shelter for a horse owned by him.

HOLLAND TO HAVE A BASEBALL TEAM

Fears that Holland would not be represented by an independent baseball team during the 1928 season were allayed on Monday when Spriggs Te Roller announced his intention to organize a local club.

With eight years of managing experience behind him, Te Roller plans to pick the choicest of Holland diamonddoers and direct them from the bench. Already he has scheduled Saturday, holiday and "wilight games, which cover the summer season. Special interest is centered in settos with Zeeland, Allegan and Grand Haven nines.

The Choral society of the Ninth Street Christian Reformed church closed another season Thursday night when it presented "The Prodigal Son" in the church parlors. Clarence Jalving directed the chorus of 45 voices. Miss Gertrude Beckman, at the piano and Miss Johanna Boersma at the organ acted as accompanists. The solo work was carried by the following artists: G. Ter Beek, tenor; H. Zoet, bass; Jack Bos, baritone; Misses Henrietta Kuizenga, soprano, and Mrs. John Van Null, also soprano. A large audience enjoyed the musical offering.

Robert Burns of Grand Haven, now at the aviation show in Detroit, writes that the Detroit displays are most convincing of the active future in this line of transportation. The show opened today for a week. The Schlee and Brock "Pride of Detroit" which went around the world is among the aircraft displayed. One of the old polar flight planes is there as well as the one Byrd will take south soon.

The new-Ford planes being shown there are upholstered in Eagle-Ottawa tannery here. The colonial grain leather from the Grand Haven factory has an exhibit of its own, also.

SPRING LAKE WOMAN CELEBRATES HER EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Enno J. Pruim at Spring Lake quietly celebrated her eightieth birthday on Friday the thirteenth, but found the day one of good omen. Friends called during the day and letters and card were received from outside friends. Mr. and Mrs. Pruim are respected citizens of Spring Lake. Mr. Pruim being the sole surviving G. A. R. member in the village. Mrs. Pruim is as active as a woman many years her junior and daily attends to her household duties. The Pruiims are well known to many in Holland and Ottawa County.

ALLEGAN HAS OPPOSITION IN DAM PROJECT

Opposition to Allegan city constructing a dam at the Calkins bridge site on the Kalamazoo river was voiced by Ira G. Thorpe, Valley township supervisor, Thursday, when Allegan asked permission from the board of supervisors to build a dam at this point.

Thorpe maintained his township would lose 1,600 acres of taxable land by the project, as a municipality cannot be taxed for a public utility.

A permit from the federal water power commission has recently been assured after strenuous work on the part of city officers and Rep. Ketcham in congress. Consumers Power company also desired a dam site in this vicinity and placed their request before the commission practically at the same time the Allegan city request was made.

Securing a permit from the supervisors is practically the final formal step necessary before actual development of the power site begins.

GRAND TRUNK WRECK SENDS TRAINS THROUGH HOLLAND

Service on the Grand Trunk railway east of Grand Haven was cancelled until Tuesday afternoon due to a wreck, one and a quarter miles east of Marne schoolhouse, Ottawa County, Monday morning.

Twenty-one freight cars were derailed and the tracks were torn up for a distance of a half mile. One was hurt. The trains went over the P. M. railroad. The bulk of the load was newsprint, there being 16 cars loaded with rolls of paper for Chicago. Two cars had coal, 1 held automobiles and one was a refrigerator. The first three cars did not leave the track and the engineer, fireman and train crew were not injured. There were 200 wreckers working on the smashup endeavoring to clear the tracks.

At The Colonial Next Week

MARY PICKFORD IN VARIETY OF FILMS

Mary Pickford apparently believes that modern film audiences like wide variety in their pictures. In the last few years Miss Pickford has made a romance of Spain, a story of Old England and a drama of an "orphan farm," and now in her current vehicle, "My Best Girl," she uses the modern five-and-ten-cent store as the background for a comedy. The picture comes to the Colonial Theatre, Holland, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, April 24, 25 and 26.

In keeping with the present day demand for humor, Miss Pickford secured the best obtainable staff of specialists to build up every possible opportunity for a laugh.

But comedy alone is not the only unusual feature of the picture. The appeal of an idealistic boy-and-girl romance is utilized, Charles Rogers, the young Famous Players-Lasky sensation, playing the youthful hero.

Kathleen Norris, the author of the original story which appeared recently in Collier's Weekly, used all the human interest and realism of her facile pen in the writing of it, and this has been transferred intact to the screen story.

Heemstra Says Pageant Organization Complete

OLERT HAS ASSISTANT DIRECTORS IN THREE CITIES

Holland Cast of Characters To Be Selected From Churches

Simon Heemstra, general business manager of the Hope Alumni pageant, reports that the organization to present the pageant in Holland, Grand Rapids, Muskegon and Kalamazoo are complete. Each city has a pageant executive committee, which will assist Fred Olert, general production director, and Mr. Heemstra in selecting people to manage the various activities of the pageant production.

Attorney Martin Den Herder was elected the general manager in Grand Rapids and Mr. Stanley Albers, Hope graduate in 1926, and now debate and dramatic coach at Union High School, Grand Rapids, was selected as general director.

Mr. John N. Dykema and Miss Julia De Jong have been chosen in Muskegon for the same offices, while Kalamazoo churches have elected Mr. John Appeldorn and Mrs. Judge John Holland to perform these duties.

The Holland organization differs from that of the other cities. At a meeting of the representatives of all the Holland churches it was decided that Mr. Olert should personally take charge of his own organization and that Mr. Heemstra do the same. Within a few days each man will have completed his organization, whereupon a cast of some 500 characters will be selected from the various Holland churches. As soon as the cast has been chosen, intensive drilling will begin so as to whip the presentation into shape by the last part of May.

HOPE AGAIN SUCCEEDS IN GETTING A REGENT SCHOLARSHIP

Willis McKay Oosterhof, Hope's winner of the state university scholarship, has made a formal acceptance of the award to Dean G. Carl Huber, of the Graduate School at Ann Arbor. The scholarship includes the sum of $450.00 and tuition for the year of the postgraduate work. It is a coveted scholarship at Hope. Mr. Oosterhof plans to take up his work in the field of English literature, with the plan in mind of teaching this subject later on.

Willis Oosterhof

Mr. Oosterhof has distinguished himself at Hope in scholastic lines and is salutatorian of the Class of '28. He has the reputation of being an excellent student and at the first semester of this year had a percentage of 95.84 as his scholastic average.

The acceptance was made after the receipt of a letter from the Executive Board of the Graduate School, announcing that Mr. Oosterhof had received the recommendation of that board to the Board of Regents, who made the final arrangements. The university offers several of these Regent scholarships each year, and Hope has always taken one place so consistently that the award has almost been looked upon as an annual thing in Hope's program.

Mr. Marvin De Jonge of Zeeland, Michigan, and a senior of Hope College, has recently received an offer of a fine scholarship in mathematics at the University of Illinois. This scholarship was secured through Professor A. Lampen, head of the Department of Mathematics. It is valued at three hundred dollars, no tuition fees being required. Mr. De Jonge has been assisting Professor Lampen in teaching advanced algebra and solid geometry. Dr. E. J. Townsend, head of the Mathematics Department at the University of Illinois greatly admires Hope College and is always eager to have some of its graduates attend the University. Because of this warm feeling between the two departments, Hope has had many of its graduates attend the institution for advanced work.

Professor A. Timmer who is now teaching Latin at Hope College, formerly had been offered an assistantship in mathematics at the University, but refused to accept it because of a greater desire on his part to teach Latin.

It gives Hope College a keen sense of satisfaction to have so many of its students favorably recognized by some of the larger institutions of learning.

A Gospel team of four Hope College men took charge of the Sixth street church services on Thursday evening. Those who participated were: Al Bentel, leader, Herman Klot, Bob McGilvra and Raymond Sketec.

Another team, composed of Bob Richie, Les Kuyper, Bill Heydon, and Len Hogenboom spent the week-end at Middleville, where they had practically sole charge of the week-end church activities.

Sunday School Work Shows Fine Results In County

HOLLAND MEN HEAD OTTAWA COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Secretary Nienhuis Gives Some Interesting Figures in Report

Two men who work side by side in the Holland postoffice also work in harness and are the heads of a great work in Ottawa County. These men are George Schulling, president, and Anthony Nienhuis, secretary of the Ottawa County Sunday School Association.

Let us clean your heating system and take all the dirt away

NO FUSS... NO MUSS... NO DIRT... NO DUST

We will send the world's biggest vacuum cleaner to clean your heating system—no matter what make or type—and take all the dirt away.

An eighth of an inch of soot in your heating plant wastes 28% of your fuel. Soot corrodes castings and smoke pipe and is also a fire hazard. Fire chiefs everywhere endorse our cleaning method and urge its use. The work is done quietly, quickly and cleanly without muss or inconvenience by courteous, careful, trained men. It can be done while the painter or the laundress is working. The low cost of this service will amaze you. It pays for itself by saving fuel, labor and furnishings. Your house stays clean because the biggest source of dirt—your heating plant—is thoroughly cleaned by a powerful suction force that reaches every nook and corner from chimney pot to ash pit.

Over 400,000 homes made safe and sanitary by this giant cleaner last year—not a single chimney fire reported. Orders are pouring in. Cleaners are already busy. Get your order in quickly because we cannot hope to fill the demand for this unusual service. Don't wait. Reserve your date. Special spring prices enable you to save by ordering now. GRAND HAVEN MAN RETURNS FROM THE HOLY LAND

Dr. Edward Hofma returned to his home at Grand Haven Tuesday night after a 70 day absence on a Clark cruise which included a part of Egypt and the Holy Land. The doctor encountered an earthquake in Palestine and snow in Jerusalem. He also went to the first falls on the Nile and saw the huge dam which makes a lake 200 miles long. This dam, one of the wonders of the world, is made from solid granite found only in one part of the world. It is said to be the hardest ever discovered. The doctor is a world traveler of some renown and has made many delightful trips which have taken him from near the north pole to the tropics.

Another large trucking contract was given to Vyn Bros., Grand Haven, when the Goodrich through freight to Nunica, Coopersville, Marne, Spring Lake and Fruitport was turned over to the local firm at the suspension of the interurban. The Vyn truck also trucks out of Holland to Grand Haven and is a part of the Associated

BEFORE AND AFTER

These two pictures tell a most impressive tale. A new barn of durable construction—and the wreck of the same barn caused by cyclone. Read below the pictures.

This big new barn, 40x60 feet, was built about four years ago of the very best grade of materials. Was located 4 miles east of Clare and belonged to Jas. A. Reeder. This picture was taken just after the barn was built and before it was hit.

This is the same barn taken just after the cyclone of May 9, 1927, showing its complete wreck. We promptly paid a $3,000.00 loss on this building. Several head of purebred stock, including a two thousand pound Durham bull, were killed, no insurance. Also three autos ruined, no insurance.

The storm which wrecked this barn caused thousands of dollars damage in the state. This Company paid to property owners who suffered loss.

Over $78,000 in May 1927

There have been damaging windstorms in Michigan every year for 38 years.

Whom Will the Next One Hit?

The real business-like way to do is to carry plenty of Windstorm Insurance with this Oldest and Largest Windstorm Insurance Company of its kind operating in Michigan.

All Losses Promptly Paid for Over 43 Years

The cost is comparatively small—only 18 assessments in over 43 years—and losses paid have amounted to over 2½ million dollars.

Shell Motor Oil stands the gaff

Fill up with SHELL MOTOR OIL. Hit the open road... Step on it... Force the car for all it's worth with never a fear or worry about lubrication. Shell Motor Oil will "stand up" and protect your motor every inch of the way.

What happens when you speed? Plunging pistons, a heavy crankshaft whirling in snuffing bearings, spinning gears and busy pumps... all driven by a ceaseless roar of explosions... hundreds of revolutions every minute in an inferno of heat.

It takes a real motor oil to stand the gaff... to supply constantly a smooth, unbroken film which completely envelopes these flying metal surfaces and keeps them safely apart, but SHELL MOTOR OIL is more than equal to the task, because it is deliberately made for just such service.

The specially selected crudes which are its base... the low-temperature refining process used... the specifications to which it is refined, combine to produce an oil of exactly the right body. It is thin enough to flow freely to every moving surface... heavy enough to come through heat and friction unharmed... a constant protection to your motor and pocketbook.

Obtain your SHELL MOTOR OIL when and where you buy SHELL GASOLINE... SHELL Yellow and Red Service Stations and authorized SHELL Dealers everywhere are glad to render free crankcase service.

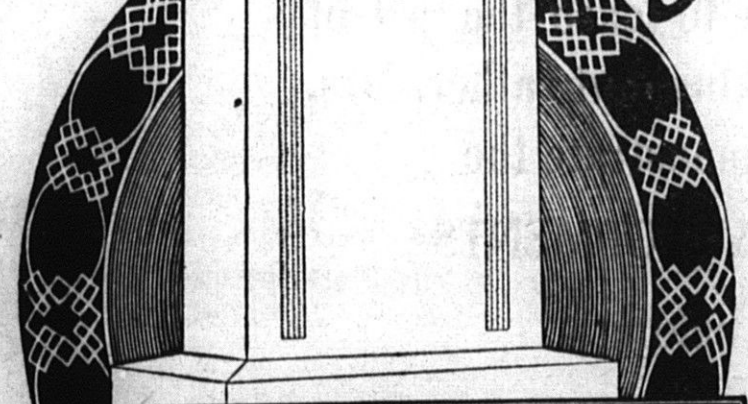

Shell Gasoline is EXTRA DRY... free from heavy, greasy, carbon-forming elements... it's a quality product... more expensive to produce, but costs you no more than the ordinary kind.

Lesson for April 22

JESUS AND THE HOME

LESSON TEXT—Mark 10:1-16.
GOLDEN TEXT—Honor thy father and mother, which is the first commandment with promise.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Loves Little Children.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Wants Children to Come to Him.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Honor a Christian at Home.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Christian Family.

In this scripture we see Christ as a teacher.

1. Concerning Marriage (vv. 1-12). The question touching divorce, which the Pharisees temptingly put to Christ, brought forth teaching which exhibits marriage in its true light.

1. Marriage should not be degraded by divorce (vv. 1-5). Divorce was not instituted by God. God ordained the marriage relation and intended it to be indissoluble. Moses did not originate it or authorize it, but suffered, limited and regulated it. The reason Moses even suffered it was because of the hardness of the hearts of the people. The existence therefore and practice of divorce indicates the coarseness and perverseness of man. The real cause is sin. There is no more real evidence of the blighting effects of sin in the world than the increasing number of divorces.

2. Marriage God's primal law (vv. 6-8).

The ideal law of life for the subjects of Christ's kingdom is marriage. This is proven by the fundamental fact of sex. "God made them male and female" (v. 8). The union of the male and female natures is physical, mental and spiritual. In marriage the male and female natures are mutually complemented. "They twain shall be one flesh, so that they are no more twain, but one flesh." God's plan is that man should not be without the woman or the woman without the man (I Cor. 11:11).

3. Marriage has God's sanction (v. 9).

When God created Eve and brought her to Adam He performed the first marriage ceremony and declared that man should leave father and mother and cleave unto his wife and that they shall be one flesh. "What therefore God hath joined together, let no man put asunder."

4. Marriage of the divorced forbidden (vv. 10-12).

The marriage relation should only be broken by death and sin. In response to the request of the disciples for further information He declared:

(1) "Whoever shall put away his wife and marry another she committeth adultery against her."

(2) "If a woman shall put away her husband and marry another she committeth adultery."

1. Concerning Children (vv. 13-16).

The union of the male and female natures, according to God's primal law of marriage, lays the foundation of family life. The normal issue of such a union is children. In connection with the divine law of marriage it is fitting that Jesus should set forth His estimate of children and show His interest in them. Those who think it beneath their dignity to give attention to children should ponder well the words of Jesus. Christian men and women will regard children as the property of the Lord and will esteem it a high and holy privilege to train them for Him. Observe:

1. Children brought for the touch of Jesus (v. 13).

It is incumbent upon all parents to seek for their children personal contact with Jesus.

2. The parents rebuked by the disciples for bringing their children (v. 13).

They seemed to think that attention to children was beneath the dignity of Christ, or, at any rate, they esteemed children of not sufficient importance to warrant the interruption of Christ's ministry.

3. Jesus' reply (vv. 14, 15). He was displeased—really indignant at their words. He is displeased to-day over those who are hindering their children from coming to Him.

(1) "Suffer the little children to come unto Me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God" (v. 14). The kingdom belongs to the children.

(2) "Whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall not enter therein" (v. 15). Those who count themselves morally helpless, and cast themselves upon Jesus Christ, the King, really enter the kingdom.

4. Jesus' action (v. 16).

He took the children up in His arms, put His hands upon them and blessed them. Christ is the Savior of children. Where Christ's spirit rules, childhood is sacred and children have great care.

Judge of Probate James J. Danhof is the first to report the return of the martins. This is an event that is looked forward to with much interest in this neighborhood and several here have elaborate bird houses to which they return each year and practically always on the same date.
—Grand Haven Tribune.

Spring rains this week have caused some uncertainty in the fruit outlook in the Fennville district. It is expected they will start a rapid bud growth should warm weather follow and the 1928 crop will be dangerously exposed to freezing temperatures that sometimes occur in April.

William W. Ten Peck, William Alan Wichers, Nat Robbans, Norman Landwehr and Ellen Rhos as members of the Local Bunny Club, are invited to attend the marriage of Miss Jennie Rabbit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rabbit of story book fame to take place at the Pontland ball room, Grand Rapids Saturday, June 2. The name of the rabbit-groom was not announced.

Robert Keag has purchased for $5,500 the 49-acre farm of Hudson Voeder, just west of Fennville and will take possession soon. Mr. and Mrs. Voeder will move to a house near the canning factory. Mr. Keag is one of Fennville's popular rural mail carriers and will also be a fruit grower in the future.

Earl Finley and Walter Crusel, two men who were gassed on a truck about ten days ago, are still in the Hatten Hospital, Grand Haven and are recovering slowly. They have improved and then relapsed several times and their entire recovery is not yet assured. Both have suffered intensely.

KEEP SURFACE CLEAN

After cornstalks and stubble have been turned completely under, it is necessary that they be kept there. The surface must be kept clean so that the borers, when they come up, will not have any refuge to crawl into. The roller or cultipacker is well adapted to preparing the seed bed as it does not drag corn remnants to the surface.
