Letter Comes From Europe But Son Is Dead

YOUNG MAN KILLED AND COUPLE HAVE FEET BROKEN

A terrible accident occurred Friday on Central Avenue and Seventeenth Street, when John Chervensky was killed while he was driving a motorcycle and a couple have their feet broken and are now in the Holland Hospital where they will be for at least a month.

Coroner Gilbert Vande Water has impounded a jury but aside from going to the scene of the accident the jury has adjourned until the main witnesses are discharged from the hospital.

It appears that John Chervensky whose parents live in Europe, and Gertrude Schuurman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schuurman, Virginia Park, and Henry Streur, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Streur, Route 8, Holland, were all on the motorcycle and at the street intersection collided with a car driven by Student Nicholas Gosselin of the Western Theological Seminary, who will graduate in May. There was a head-on collision and as near as can be ascertained, Chervensky went over the handle-bars of his motorcycle, struck his head on the pavement, bringing about a badly fractured skull. The couple were also thrown heavily to the pavement and a foot of each one was broken. The three were rushed to Holland hospital where Chervensky died fifteen minutes afterward, never regaining consciousness.

Chervensky was born on Feb. 28, 1909, at McKeesport, Pa. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Chervensky, came to America in 1907 from Jugo-Slavia. They returned to their native land in 1910 but the lad came back to Holland about a year ago and was living with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Chervensky, 331 West 15th street.

A cablegram was sent to the parents who were planning to come back to America and instructions came back to have the body suitably buried in one of Holland's cemeteries.

The weekly letter from the parents in Europe arrived as usual but there was no son to enjoy it and the relatives here read the missive with tear-dimmed eyes. Another letter is due Saturday but after that, undoubtedly the weekly news messages from home will cease to arrive.

The body was taken to Dykstra Funeral Home and later taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Chervensky, 326 Maple Avenue, cousins of the unfortunate lad, where private funeral services were held and at two o'clock Rev. William Schumacher officiated at public services held in the German Lutheran church on Maple Avenue and 12th Street. Interment was in Rest Lawn cemetery on M-21. The pall-bearers were John Doremus, Delbert Fogarty, Warren Fischer, Joseph Streur, Rudolph Heinecke and Simon Simonsen.

The young man is survived by his parents and one sister who are in Jugo-Slavia and by five cousins in this country. Frank and Victor Chervensky and Mrs. John Vander Wege of Holland, and John Chervensky and Mrs. Carl Eickelbach of Chicago.

The jury who will later be called to pass upon this accident are the following: Dick Boter, Peter De Goede, William Visser, E. P. Stephan, George Damsen and Harry Jones.

ZEELAND MAN RUNS INTO RAILROAD SIGNAL AT HOLLAND

Gerrit Scholten of Zeeland badly damaged his car and escaped with slight injury on Saturday evening when he struck the safety signal base on the Pere Marquette crossing on East Eighth street in Holland. The signal was also broken. Scholten was driving east at the crossing when his car hit the signal on the west side of the tracks a glancing blow. This caused the car to be thrown against the other signal, demolishing it. Scholten was thrown clear of the car, which was badly damaged, and suffered a wrenched ankle and other bruises about the body.

The first district court of honor of the east central district of the Ottawa-Allegan area of Boy Scouts will be held in Zeeland High school Monday. Rev. R. J. Vandenberg is local chairman. WHOLESALE TREE PLANTING AT HARDERWYK IN PARK TOWNSHIP

Holland Boy Scouts under the direction of the Scout Scout Executives and Scoutmasters will plant 6,000 trees and cuttings on the county property three-fourths of a mile north of the Harderwyk Church in Park Township on Saturday in the morning, April 19.

The planting work on this blow sand area is under the supervision of agricultural agent Milham and the county conservation committee of the Board of Supervisors. The work being carried on there is to demonstrate methods of controlling blow sand and reforesting worthless land. It is hoped that eventually this property will become a county park and scout camp.

Last year scouts were enthusiastic about planting the trees. This year the planting will consist of 1,000 each of the Western Yellow Pine, Scotch Pine and Austrian Pine, and 1,000 each of purple willow, American Green and Lemley Willow cuttings and 250 Chinese, poplar cuttings.

Scouts will plan on bringing one large pail for each ten scouts in which to carry the trees to keep them moist, three shovels for each ten scouts and two a quarter inch iron rod for each ten scouts to use in planting cuttings. Plantings will begin at 8:30 a.m. and will be completed by 10:30.

COUNCIL NOTES

The big annual session of the Common Council when Mayor and aldermen change places if there are such places to change was rather a tame affair. There was only one bouquet of flowers given by the East End merchants to their friend and competitor, Alderman Henry Prins of the first ward. The Mayor stated very sensibly that he had no long message to give but would give messages as occasions presented themselves.

Walter Groth, chairman of the committee who had charge of building the camp house at Scout point, invited the council to the public dedication Saturday afternoon and many of the members signified their intention of going.

The charter committee gave notice that an ordinance would be introduced governing the payment of certain salaries of city officials.

The Welfare committee reported that $202 had been paid in regular aid—$117.75 temporary aid, or a total of $319.77.

The building committee reported that the old Holland hospital annex on 12th street and Central avenue, recently damaged by fire, had been repaired, that the bills had been paid and the insurance adjusted.

The Holland American Legion band was given $300 to apply on 1930 band appropriations for concerts. It was also reported that the band gave a very successful concert in Carnegie Hall.

Extra lamps are to be placed at Prospect Park for the benefit of roller skaters.

Mayor Ernest Brooks in a pleasing manner thanked the retiring members of the Common Council, namely, Alds. Westing, McLean and Vissers, for the services they rendered to the city of Holland during their terms of office, and for the co-operation they had given him and the other members of the Council in work for the best interests of the city of Holland. The Mayor also welcomed the new Council members, namely: Alds. Prins, Habing and Thomson, and asked for their co-operation in carrying on the work which he suggested should be done, having in mind at all times the best interests of the whole city.

TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND DOLLAR DAMAGE SUIT TRIED FOR SECOND TIME

Retrial of the $25,000 damage suit filed by Mrs. Alice P. Thrall against the Pere Marquette railway is now being heard before Circuit Judge Fred T. Miles in Allegan Circuit Court. In a previous trial a verdict of $7,000 awarded the plaintiff was appealed to the supreme court, which ordered a new trial on a divided opinion.

Mrs. Thrall is asking damages as administratrix of the estate of her husband, William Thrall, a section foreman for the P. M., who was killed two years ago, when he fell off a handcar.

Andrew Spiker of Holland was arrested by Officer Kolkman for driving while intoxicated. He was arraigned before Justice C. De Keyser and was fined $100 and costs and given 15 days in the county jail. If he fails to pay the fine within 15 days he will be returned to jail for 75 days.

SOLDIER'S CANTEEN FINDS ITS WAY BACK FROM FRANCE

An incident quite out of the ordinary took place this week when Ralph Zuwerink of Zeeland received a letter from a cadet at the Culver Military Academy in Indiana, informing him that the cadet was in possession of a canteen of which Zuwerink once was the possessor. The canteen was one which Mr. Zuwerink carried while in the army in France and had been discarded by him when he was wounded in the Verdun sector.

The means by which this canteen was identified were the names of Ralph Zuwerink and Janie De Weerd, which he had engraved thereon during his idle hours.

Arnold Mulder Speaks Before Exchange Club

PROGRAM INTERSPERSED WITH MUSIC AND TRICKS
OF MAGIC

The members of the Holland Exchange Club at their last regular meeting on Wednesday noon, April 16, enjoyed an unusually interesting program. Mr. Eugene Heeter, the chorister of the club, had brought the members of the Holland High School band to the Tavern and they entertained with a short program in the hotel lobby just before dinner. This was greatly enjoyed and appreciated.

Mr. Henry Wilson had an unusual treat in store for the club when he brought Mr. Harry Cecil, chocolate manufacturer of Detroit, Michigan, to entertain with his feats of magic. His sleight-of-hand tricks were remarkable, to the embarrassment and confusion of some of the members present. Mr. Wilson, in introducing Mr. Cecil, told of his work in Detroit in giving freely of his time and talents in visiting children's homes and giving them some enjoyment through his so-called tricks of magic. Mr. Cecil served for a year and a half overseas, entertaining our soldiers at the army camps. Because of the rather crowded program not enough time could be granted to Mr. Cecil and he has promised to come again in another year.

Finally, the Club felt honored in welcoming back as its speaker and toastmaster, Dr. Arnold Mulder, now professor at Kalamazoo College and formerly editor of the Holland Evening Sentinel. Dr. J. E. Kuizinga, vice-president, presided and introduced the speaker in the absence of President J. J. Riemersma.

Dr. Mulder said that he had been asked to speak on the subject, "How Life Looks to a Writer," but said he would not do so as he very humbly claimed himself not to be a writer. He chose as his subject, "Putting the Best Foot Forward." This, he said, Kalamazoo had done through its celery advertisement although he felt Holland celery seemed to him the best in the world. So we can put our best foot forward physically, intellectually, and spiritually.

Physically, he said, like Helen Keller, we should try to overcome physical handicaps and build up a strong body, fit for action. Miss Keller, though deaf, dumb, and blind, was still ambitious and has done wonderful work in spite of all that would tend to discourage her. Intellectually, by perseverance and application, we can master unfavorable circumstances and get the mental training needed to cope with our problems. Finally, he said, spiritually, we should learn to appreciate the higher or intangible things of life, whether of religion, art, painting, or sculpture. The speaker quoted from writers claiming that our American business man has learned to make a living but does not know how to live. His plea was that we in our busy life should keep the gateways of our temple open so as not to miss the higher things of life.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bowen and family drove to Chicago where they spent the week end.—Grand Haven Tribune.

Edward Bok has related in one of his books how Edison once wrote for him the Lord's Prayer in a space covered by a dime. And some time ago a farmer in Portland, Oregon, engraved all the letters of the alphabet on the head of a pin. MICHIGAN RANKS THIRD IN THE FUR INDUSTRY

Fur output in Michigan amounts to more than $3,000,000 annually, according to Ned Dearborn, professor of forest zoology in the School of Forestry and Conservation at the University of Michigan. The State, according to Prof. Dearborn, ranks third in the value of production.

In abundance and value of production, the muskrat outranks all big fur-bearing. From 1,000,000 to 3,000,000 pelts are taken annually and the price today averages about $1. Thirty years ago a pelt brought eight or ten cents, Prof. Dearborn said.

Other fur-bearing animals in Michigan of commercial importance are the opossum, coyote, racoon, badger, otter, mink, wild cat, beaver and red fox.

With the wolverine, marten, fisher and lynx exterminated, the university is carrying on a program of conservation with its forestry curriculum.

AND THE FARMER

The good roads movement in the United States has been productive of so much enthusiasm that we are likely to reach the conclusion that our present highway mileage is adequate for all purposes and that there is no necessity for going to the expense of further building on a large scale.

The facts show differently. The United States has three times as many automobiles as the rest of the world, but Europe has four times our surfaced roadway.

We stand twelfth in the world in the proportion of highway mileage to square miles of territory.

A vast field for highway development remains almost untouched in this country. Great stress has been laid on construction of trunk highways. Farm-to-market roads now need attention.

At present there is a determined movement, led by the American Farm Bureau Federation, to provide the farmer with the all-weather, year-round highways that he needs and deserves. This can be done, in most states, without excessive cost to the taxpayers by employing economical, low-priced, but long-wearing surfaces. So long as an overwhelming majority of American farmers live on roads that are impassable during several months of the year there will be a serious road problem.

LARGE VYN TRUCK, OFTEN
WITH FREIGHT

The smoldering remains of a large truck and trailer belonging to the Vyn Co., of Grand Haven, may be seen on US-16, the wreck resulting from a fire. The truck was on the way from Grand Rapids to Grand Haven. The flames completely destroyed a valuable load of general merchandise in the truck and trailer. Edward Barnett was driving and the flames spread so rapidly he was unable to save any of the cargo. One man is not able to unhook the trailer, so that, too, was consumed. A passing motorist noticed flames under the driver's seat and warned Barnett just in time to make his get away from the gas tank holding 25 or 30 gallons of gas which is located directly under the seat. A strong west wind blew the flames under the truck which was soon enveloped in a roaring blaze and fed by a quantity of oil, paint and other highly flammable merchandise it was soon evident that nothing could be saved. A consignment of brass and copper, too, was destroyed. The gas fortunately did not explode, the officer reported.

HAVEN

Grand Haven Tribune—E. J. Pruijn, who has conducted a music store at the corner of Washington and Second streets, will move his business to the Ball block in the store recently occupied by the City Grocery, conducted by the late Gerit Ball.

He will combine his music business with the furniture business of William DePree Co., which has been established in a house at 712 Washington street. Mr. Pruijn will be the manager of both businesses. The store will be remodeled and redecorated inside so that within 10 days the firms can be moved.

Mr. Pruijn has been in business for the past 10 years but has leased his building to others so he has been forced to seek new quarters. He has been selling furniture for the furniture company from the show rooms on Washington street.

MRS. DEPAGE IS NOT BADLY HURT IN HOLLAND ACCIDENT

Escaping in some miraculous way from what appeared to be a bad automobile accident, Mrs. Isaac DePaege of Grand Haven was taken care of at the Holland Hospital, and was taken home Saturday.

She was driving on US-31 a few miles beyond Holland, when her car ran off the road and turned bottom side up. She managed to get out of the car and was taken to Holland Hospital by a passing motorist. Reports at first were spread that Mrs. DePaege had been seriously injured, as several saw the car and concluded she must have been badly hurt.

Child Health Day
One Cubic Inch, One Ton
Round Your Corners

Among farmers' wives until recently the percentage of insanity was very high. Living isolated lives, working hard from dawn until long after dark, seeing nobody but the sometimes dull, tired husband and farm hands, was bad for the mind.

Then came rural free delivery, bringing pictures of the latest fashions, and the telephone, with news of neighbors, finally, greatest blessing of all, the radio. Farmers' wives tune in, and retain their sanity.

To the exceptional woman, rich, able to do what she pleases, but hitherto finding little amusing excitement after sixty, flying offers relief.

The British duchess of Bedford, sixty-four years old, goes up and down the earth at a rate of speed that old Satan never dreamed of.

She has just started the second leg of a flight from London to South Africa, an able pilot and mechanic keeping her company.

You would say that a flying man or woman could write a book, "Things I Have Seen," that would eclipse Voltaire's "Choses Vues." (Things Seen), for Voltaire crawled around on the earth's surface.

However, not the eyes but the heart and brain do the real seeing.

Gandhi, starved Hindu who sincerely carved the British empire more anxious than all his 300,000,000 fellow Hindus combined, learns, as other enthusiasts have done, that the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.

Weighing barely 100 pounds, eating no meat, taking no stimulants, a walk of 200 miles, that would seem a joke to an Irishman or a Scotchman, has exhausted him. He cannot go on.

Hodge, Calif.—President Hoover, designating May 1 as "Child Health Day," urges parents and all others to co-operate.

These are some ingredients of child health:

Fresh air and sunlight. They cost nothing.

Regular hours, long and regular sleep. They cost nothing.

Eating slowly, which costs nothing and develops teeth and jaws, avoiding adenoid and other troubles.

Good, simple food, with variety, from day to day. That costs trouble, principally.

While designating a child health day the government might think of the mother's health, also, and the disgraceful fact that this nation leads all others, civilized, in the number of mothers that die in childbirth for lack of competent attention.

If a sow is about to have a litter, or a cow a calf, the government stands ready to advise and help through the Agricultural department.

For the expectant human mother there is no such help.

Uranium, heaviest of all metals, is now produced for $400 a pound. Some of it was shown to chemists at Atlanta. The present price is low. Recently the stuff was priceless.

It weighs twice as much as lead, but cosmically considered, that is not heavy. Learn from science that the substance of certain stars, because of terrific gravity and compression, weighs two thousand pounds to the cubic inch. Imagine the outer joint of your thumb weighing a ton.

The sun's radiation, heat and power are supposed to come from the "stripping of atoms." The electrons, revolving around the nuclei, are stripped off and shot into space. The nuclei, left alone, are packed one against another, with no space separating them from their electrons and from each other. It is as though you stripped away the planets from suns in space and packed the suns solidly together in a lump. That would be heavy.

An electron, in proportion to its size, is as far from its central nucleus as the sun is from the earth.

Each atom is a little solar system, so small you do not notice a million of these systems in the corner of your eye. Our universe is really too complicated, at least for our feeble minds.

Important to city governments Berlin, which makes city rule a science, not a craft, is gradually rounding off corners on streets with heavy traffic. Big omnibuses can turn rounded corners without pulling out into the street, interfering with other vehicles.

The used airplane problem already causes anxiety. With constant improvement, passenger planes become obsolete while still in safe working order. Highly expensive machines, they have little second-hand value. The problem is to use, profitably, the flying life remaining in them.

Among others of our great industrialists, Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., head of General Motors, appropriates millions each year for scientific research. Thanks to this wise and profitable course, followed by the nation's greatest corporations, Steel, Standard Oil, etc., important discoveries are made in many directions.

ZEELAND

Zeeland is becoming better known in the poultry world as one of the greatest egg producing centers in the middle west as well as one of the greatest chick producing centers. Several hundred thousand eggs are delivered to the egg buyers each week. One dealer gathers up eggs with a fleet of trucks. These eggs are shipped to Chicago. This man started in business five years ago with only a small truck and collected the eggs himself. Today he is occupying the largest warehouse in the city. He now employs 15 men and has several trucks on the road.

Tablets he took to alleviate pain from neuritis Saturday cost Verne Dickerson, 38, of Grand Rapids, $55.25 in justice court here Monday morning when he pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while under the influence of narcotics. Dickerson, a salesman, told officers he took several narcotic tablets to relieve him from pain while driving from Muskegon to Grand Haven. He struck another car on route and state police took him into custody. His license was revoked for 90 days.

SIXTH REFORMED CHURCH HAS UNUSUAL GROUPS
ON VOCAL ARTISTS
HAS UNUSUAL GROUP OF VOCAL ARTISTS

John Vanderbeek, veteran musical director, is drilling a male chorus for a cantata never before attempted in local churches. The chorus is composed of 35 men, all picked from a church of less than 250 members.

The music was selected from Easter sheet music by Vanderbeek and arranged in episodes by Rev. John Vanderbeek, pastor of Sixth Reformed church, in which the cantata is being staged Thursday evening.

For a church of its size, Sixth church is unusual in its material for choirs and choruses. The groups include a male quartet, double male quartet, women's quartet and chorus and enough musical talent to form a double choir. As the Holland City News goes to press the following program is being given:

THE TRIUMPHANT LORD

First Episode: PRAYER AND PRAISE: "Hear My Cry, O Lord," Gabriel; "There is a Green Hill Far Away," Kern.

Second Episode: HE DIES: "Jesus Our Lord is Crucified," Meredithe; "He Dies the Friend of Sinners," Dies; Kratz.

Third Episode: HE IS RISEN: "Christ the Lord is Risen Today," Kratz; "Rejoice, for the Lord is Risen Today," Hughes; "Look Here and Wonder," Kratz.

Fourth Episode: HE LIVES: "Easter Hymn," Pearis; "Throw Wide the Gates of Pearl," Hughes; Musical Tumbler by Harold Beirly.

STYLISH AT HOLLAND THEATER IS UNIQUE AND INTERESTING AFFAIR

From year to year different Holland firms have participated in unusual style shows at the Holland theater. These were always largely attended and were of special interest to the public because of the unique features.

This year the show was put on by the Jeanne's Shoppe of this city and the Allen Tot & Gift Shop. It was a rare combination since this allowed for a mixed program in which the grown-ups and the little folks could participate.

Manager Carley graciously gave a part of the program of the evening to this enterprise. The decorations and stage settings were indicative of a garden scene, fountains and running water with a background of foliage and nestled in this setting was a rustic home with spacious veranda, rustic furniture and all the attributes that speak for comfort and rest.

The first scene opens with little tots taking a leading part. The little folks are all decked in gingham, playing about the fountains and singing in unison the popular ballad, "Happy Days." It is a regular vacation period for the children, but naturally the color and style of children's dress is here portrayed. Following the entree of the children the adult models timely and fittingly appear decked in silk of plain and figured material suitable for morning wear. And so on the different styles of tots and grown-ups were shown, whether these be for play, for school, for afternoon wear, for street wear, or for social functions. Naturally, headgear played an important part in all this.

In the grand finale one is reminded of bedtime stories. The little tots meandered in, appearing rather sleepy and tired, rubbing their eyes but withal appearing comfy, ready for a good night's rest in their little pajamas in variegated colors and a wide range of materials. Here again the grown-ups, beautiful ladies in fact, also made their debut in pajamas ensemble of silk material, some exotic and some very feminine, but all in an unusual array of pajama styles. Fittingly the orchestra played "When Day is Done" and at the close the lights were slowly dimmed, spreading a soft glow over the pajamaed figures.

Miss Rose Whelan, who was in charge of the program, was an exceptional announcer and in giving the different numbers her enunciation was distinct. She handled the affair with an easy grace that is a pleasant attribute in giving a revue of this kind.

The following were the children who participated: Jean Van Raalte, Selma Cherven, Joan Mapes, Marjorie Brooks, Angy Lou Bequette, Dorothy Visscher, Anita Cherven, Nedra Cobb, Eleanor Duffy, Barbara Telling, Betty Dean DeVries, Dotty Jean Heasley, Caroline Ingham, and Ruth Eleanor Trueblood.

The firms aiding this style show are Allen Tot and Gift Shop, and Jeanne's Dress Shoppe; hats worn by adult models, Vogue Hat Shop; hair dressing and cosmetics, Jane's Beauty Shop, second floor, Warm Friend Tavern; awnings, Holland Awning Co.; furniture, Ottawa Furniture Store.

HOLLAND RURAL CARRIERS GET PREPARED FOR STATE CONVENTION

Holland rural letter carriers are awaiting a conference with state officers relative to plans for the annual state convention to be held here in July.

Preliminary work has been assigned to committees which will take definite form as soon as state officers launch the work in detail. Masonic temple, located east of the federal building, has been leased for convention headquarters and sessions. The women's auxiliary also will hold its convention here.

The program will be featured with a banquet and sight-seeing trips.

ALL PLEASED THAT BUD HINGA WILL REMAIN COACH

Coach Melvin (Bud) Hinga has accepted a renewal of contract with the board of education for the coming year and when the schools open in September Hinga will begin his eighth consecutive year as director in athletics.

Since Hinga came to Holland he has developed teams in basketball and football which has placed Holland High among the leading contenders for state high school honors.

Hinga is well pleased over the prospects for a strong gridiron squad and court team next season, but will face the strongest schedule in years. The grid schedule numbers five Grand Rapids teams, besides other strong contenders from state schools.

Hinga has seven veterans as a nucleus in football next fall. "Bud" says he is pleased to make Holland his home and Holland is mighty pleased to have him here.

SOCIAL PROGRESS CLUB MEETS AT THE HOME OF DR. DAVIDSON

The Social Progress club held their regular meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Davidson, 79 West 11th street.

R. F. Keeler read an interesting paper on the growth of the milk industry. In his paper he stated that the period from 1890 to 1900 was called the preservative age, when it was the common practice to use salicylic acid, boric acid, and formaldehyde to keep the milk chemically sweet. At that time milk was brought to the city in cans of various shapes and sizes and measured into the consumer's dish at his doorstep.

The speaker pointed out that the present state code provides for clean milk, but, he added, clean milk is not necessarily safe milk. Pasteurization is the best known method of making milk safe.

ZEELAND TEACHER ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT TO HOLLAND MAN

Miss Leola Jablonski, one of the Zeeland high school faculty, entertained with an engagement announcement party in honor of Miss Marie De Cook, a fellow teacher, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jarrett N. Clark, of that city, Monday evening.

Miss De Cook, whose home is in Orange City, Ia., thus announced her engagement to Mr. Wm. Saunders of Holland, whose bride she will become within a few weeks.

The guests, besides the guest of honor, were the Misses Mildred Davis, Sena Tighnot, Marian Van Vassen, Amanda Zwemer, Ruth Van Kersen, Mrs. Minnie Fairbanks, Mrs. Amelia Van Ommen, Mrs. Winnifred Languius, all of Zeeland, and Miss Doris Brower and Mrs. P. Van Ess of Holland.

A delicious supper was served, the dessert of ice cream coming in moulds representing a wedding ring. The table was beautifully decorated to suit the occasion, and in the center of which was placed a wishing well trimmed with pink decorations and sweet peas climbing the well posts. Inside the well was the secret in the form of a heart-and-ring announcing the engagement. At each place were nut-cups that carried out the idea with signboards attached, showing where the secret could be found.

The remainder of the evening was spent very enjoyably at playing bridge.—Zeeland Record.

Wild Turkeys To Be Hatched At Kalamazoo

The first steps toward restocking Southwestern Michigan with wild turkeys will be undertaken this season at the Wolf Lake State hatchery, 12 miles west of this city. Four dozen eggs, imported by the Kalamazoo chapter of the Izaak Walton League, will be hatched, and the birds will be released late in the summer. Fifteen pairs of wild ducks also will be added to the hatchery fowl for breeding purposes.

The breeding of turkeys and ducks will be undertaken as a result of the great success attained a year ago in the raising of pheasants. Nearly half a thousand pheasants were released at the close of the season. Only a negligible loss was incurred in hatching and raising them. The pheasants found such a plentiful supply of food in the alfalfa fields of the hatchery that other State hatcheries have substituted alfalfa or sweet clover in the areas devoted to raising the birds.

Several more breeding ponds for perch, bass, and bluegills have been laid out since the close of last season, when a total of 96,000 fish were obtained from 96,000 eggs. This year hatchery officials hope to obtain 500,000 bluegills and 300,000 bass from the breeding ponds.

ALL ABOUT RADISHES; NOW IS THE TIME

Radishes, unknown in the wild state, were grown in Europe before the colonization of America, and these times as much as 50 per cent of the radish seed planted annually in the United States is produced in Michigan. And 50 per cent of the lima beans canned annually in the United States are produced in Michigan. Europe and Asia were growing beans before the Christian era.

Prof. George Starr, of Michigan State College, says the producing area of radish seed centers in Arenac county, with scattered acreage in nearby counties. The seed usually is grown by farmers under contract with seed companies, whose market for it is nation wide. Farmers receive from 14 to 18 cents a pound for the seed. The crop is produced at comparatively low expense, and, with exceptionally favorable conditions of seasons, soil fertility and cultivation, from 600 to 800 pounds can be grown on an acre. However, some farmers lose out because they do not use commercial fertilizers.

Lima beans for canning are grown chiefly in counties north and northeast of Grand Rapids. In these counties are canning plants that contract with farmers to plant many thousands of acres annually. Michigan, it is explained, attained its outstanding leadership as a producer of radish seed and lima beans, not because of soil and climate, but, as to radish seed, because one of the largest seed companies in the world is located in Michigan and this company two decades ago began to encourage farmers to grow the seed. The canning companies interested the farmers in lima bean production.

Pair of Holland Men Wreck Car Near Vriesland

WHO ARE THEY ANYWAY? CAR IS HURTLED ACROSS WIDE DRAIN

Zeeland Record.—About the sickest looking car we have ever seen was parked opposite the Record office on the parking grounds Saturday morning and it proved to be a great curiosity for spectators. The car was a complete wreck and was being towed by a wrecking car assisted by a sedan.

Two young Holland men, returning from Grand Rapids at two o'clock Saturday morning, landed in the ditch, completely smashing their sedan and miraculously escaping with minor injuries. One of the men was cut about the face by broken glass and both men were badly bruised.

The accident occurred about a mile east of Vriesland station at a point where the road has settled greatly and a culvert makes a considerable lump in the road. Approaching the culvert at a rapid pace, the driver braked the car to lessen his speed and in so doing lost control. It suddenly swung to the left, just grazing the abutment on the south of the road, stripping off the rear axle. The wreck then jumped a ten foot drain and buried its radiator in two feet of muck. The car had evidently hurtled on end, smashing the windshield and front top before toppling back. That the men had been traveling at an excessive speed was apparent. Sudan mission will also give a talk locked at 66 miles, mark somewhat below the actual speed because of the reduction caused by applied brakes.

A Six Weeks' Tour Over Land and Sea

DR. BROWER TELLS OF HIS TRIP IN THE WEST INDIES AND CARIBBEAN SEA

La Guayra, South America. Our ship arrived at La Guayra, Venezuela, early in the morning, on the 26th of January. We anchored in the roadstead about a mile from shore. This so-called roadstead was like a swift current of a big river with some real swells in it. We were taken ashore in our ship's motor and life boats. There was no tender service available. There were very strong rolling waves here of at least 6 to 9 feet high, and that made no easy matter for landing people on boats. These small boats would go up and down with the moving water, like bobs, and we had to simply watch our chance when the small craft would come even with our platform; then we would jump in or off as the case happened to be. Many a one landed differently than anticipated, still none met with an accident.

When we returned from Caracas in the evening to embark it was already dark. Each small boat carrying about 15 people, and there were three of them going between shore and ship. I remember when we were about half way, we heard shouting and calling in the dark. All each boat had was a small hand flashlight. That other boat's motor had stalled and they were drifting. Our boat went after them. It was very hard to find them, while we were in a trough the waves between us were so high that we could not see them. At last we succeeded to throw a line to them and we began to tow them. However, just as we got near enough to a huge rolling swell swirled between the two boats and each became near unmanageable in the trough of the sea. We were hardly able to see each other because of the turbulent waters and at this critical moment the tow rope snapped. Oh! that was a terrible moment! Once more they drifted with the current.

Then we had a collision as we again tried to get them. They were helpless. Finally our commander decided to take our boat load to ship, and then with his empty boat go after the helpless craft floating at the mercy of the wild waves. I was afterwards asked if I was not afraid. "No," I said, but would hardly admit it, but I wished all the time I was on the Caledonia. My brain was busy with the Titanic, Andasta, Vestris and the Milwaukee.

After we were all ashore, at said city, we were placed in very good automobiles and taken over the Andes mountains to Caracas, Venezuela, the capital of this country of South America.

It was a most thrilling drive. Didn't some one once say "To live well one must live dangerously?" We here had the opportunity to prove the remark. Those of us who took this long, twisting, turning, zig-zagging trip, through tunnels, along the brows of precipices, up to the edges of these Andes mountains, will always cherish the memories of one of the world's most beautiful drives. We were winding up and up until we reached an altitude over 4,000 feet before descending into Caracas, which is 3,000 feet above sea level. No doubt there will come times when I cannot travel or cruise, when I am fretting and chafing under the task and duties of the daily routine. Then in a moment I can drop it all, and hark back to this fascinating mountain drive, or to the world's most famous and most beautiful drive, "The Amalfi Drive," of Naples Italy, Napoleon's famous mule trail in his European conquests, where we had dinner in the Alps, in the Hotel Capuccini, where Longfellow wrote his famous poem on Amalfi in 1883, or to go over the Needles Drive of the Black Hills of South Dakota, most beautiful and marvelous of this particular kind, in the world. If Scarface "Capone" is allowed to live here, he can find many hiding places among the needles and caves, in case of necessity, I can assure him; or the Columbia River Drive in Oregon which my family and I took last summer with Mount Hood and Mount Ranier always in view; the same being the prettiest mountains of all the United States, several hundred feet high; or the drive over the Rocky Mountains at Blewett's Pass, where a sign at the foot reads, "Ten miles to the summit." Last, but not least, the Roosevelt-Redwood drive from Tacoma, Washington, to San Francisco, on to Los Angeles, where we see the oldest living things in the world, the redwood monarchs. The biggest trees that ever grew.

Yes, America has many of the real big natural wonders of the world; where can we find another Arizona Grand Canyon; or a Niagara Falls as far as volume is concerned which is only 175 feet deep. I have seen them of 1500 feet, but smaller streams; or the keyholes of Yellowstone? For those that craved the Andes drive, life has been so enriched, and for those that stayed aboard ship to play safe, for the boiling waters did not appeal to them and the dangers of mountain climbing not inviting, consequently did not avail themselves of this opportunity we only offer our sincerest sympathy. La Guayra is only 6 miles from Caracas, as the crow flies, but we traveled nearly 30 miles around and again around the same mountains in order to get there and we took the shortest distance, as there was only one way.

Many times could we see the clouds below us or over against neighboring mountains. We drove right through the clouds, and it became so moist and misty that our bright head lights could not penetrate. To play safe we had to stop or drive very carefully and slow until clouds disappeared.

This was a most enjoyable excursion, as a new concrete highway was just recently constructed between La Guayra and Caracas. For many of us, this automobile trip was one of the high spots of the entire cruise, for this was the first time we really entered our sister continent, South America. The rest of the world classes us as the Americas, the Northern and Southern, and as one; but we are indeed so very far apart, speaking different languages, North America, English, and South America mostly all Spanish, and living under conditions so foreign to one another, and entertaining such widely varying viewpoints towards life, that we are far from being one country, even if we do make the Western Hemisphere. We are all republics, but certainly not all the same sort of republics. We change our president at election time even if he is ever so good, so many years and he is through. Not so in Venezuela, but instead, if a man is successful in conducting the government of the country and is popular with the masses, they uphold him in all he does and give no heed to election year. More about that next week.

Spring Activities

National Meet Attracts Men From Holland

Two Local Debating Stars Trek to Convene of Pi Kappa Delta

While other Hopeites were enjoying a care-free spring vacation, the two stellar members of our debate squad, Messrs. Ver Hey and Hoogenboom, traveled to Wichita, Kansas, to represent Hope College at the national P.K.D. convention. The boys left from here in Hogenboom's car on Friday noon, and came to Wichita late Sunday evening. They attempted to prepare for their first debate, which took place early Monday morning, but Nature demanded its due and the boys fell asleep.

Between Monday morning and Tuesday afternoon (after awakening) our men participated in five debates, taking now the affirmative and now the negative of the P.K.D. question, which was new to them. The schools debated were: The Universities of South Dakota, Idaho, Texas, Oklahoma, and Linfield College (Oregon). "Red" and "Len" won three of these five encounters, and would have won a fourth, the first one, had they had time to prepare for it.

Stanley Ver Hey tells an interesting anecdote. He was introduced to the dean of women at Wichita University. She told him of two fellows from a small college in Michigan (she could not recall the name) who had traveled two days and nights to reach Wichita, debated on a new question, and nevertheless won three of their five meets. Ver Hey answered: "Well, madam, that's us!"

Our fellows report a very hospitable reception at Wichita. They were royally entertained by Dr. Hekhuis of Kansas City. They returned early on the Monday morning following spring vacation, after having achieved a feat unique among forensic activities of any college this year. Their interest speaks well for our student spirit.

Faculty Members at Four Classis Meetings

During last week and this, the Classes of the Synod of Chicago are holding their annual Spring Sessions. The College was well represented at each of these meetings: Prof. A. E. Lampen at the Kalamazoo Classis, Kalamazoo; Rev. P. E. Hinkamp at the Muskegon Classis, Muskegon; Prof. T. E. Wellers at the Chicago Classis, Chicago; and Dr. J. B. Nykerk at the Wisconsin Classis, Milwaukee. In each gathering there prevailed a wonderfully fine spirit toward Hope College, and resolutions were adopted to encourage the support of the school. Everywhere the delegates to the Classis were well satisfied with the work at Hope, and they especially recommended the work and attitude of the faculty.

The meeting of the Y.M.C.A. held on the Tuesday directly after spring vacation was well attended. After some singing and some sentence prayers on the part of the audience, Dr. J. E. Kuizenga of the Seminary spoke on "Foundation." He emphasized the necessity of building our future structures on the same basis of fundamental truth as in the past. Dr. Kuizenga's talks are always heard with pleasure by any audience.

About 150 attended the WCTU Mother and Daughter Banquet which was held Friday evening at the Masonic Temple. Mrs. Willits of the Methodist church gave a talk for the Mothers and Martha Slowinski responded for the daughters. A splendid service was beautifully worked out by seven girls. A declaration contest had been held on prohibition subjects, the prize being a silver medal.

WE will receive a carload of horses on Friday, April 18, at the farm of Abe Van Hoven, one mile east of Zeeland. These horses are for sale and everyone is guaranteed as represented. Van Hoven & Tinsolt, Zeeland, RFD 3, Mich. 1616.

OLTMANS FAMILY COMING TO HOLLAND FROM JAPAN

Rev. and Mrs. Albert Oltmans, veteran missionaries in Japan for the Reformed Church in America, have advised their friends here that they and their two daughters, Evelyn and Janet, plan to leave the orient early next June for this country.

The quartet has given 120 years of service in Japan, Mr. and Mrs. Oltmans have devoted 88 years to the work in that country and their daughters entered the field in 1914 following their graduation from Hope college.

Mr. and Mrs. Oltmans were placed on the emeritus list a few years ago, but they were loathe to leave the country of their adoption and since that time Mr. Oltmans has devoted his time in the interest of leper work. The Oltmans family have always made Holland their home when here. The children were all educated in our public schools and local college.

COMES HOME AFTER 21 YEARS IN THE WEST

Cornelius Bareman, who has been instructor in the Grand Falls, S. D., high school for twenty-one years, returned to Zeeland Monday and is staying with his sister, Mrs. S. Nagelkirk, where he is now recuperating from an illness of several weeks' duration. After he spends the summer here it is hoped that he will be able to resume his work there having received his twenty-second annual contract in the same school.

Mr. Bareman last November became ill with influenza but soon recovered sufficiently to continue his work. A few weeks ago he again became ill, from which illness he has not yet fully recovered. Peter Bareman, his brother, went to Grand Falls last week, when he decided to come to Zeeland for the summer.

Faculty Member Married During Spring Vacation

Mr. Deckard Ritter was married to Miss Jeanne Langhette on Mar. 31st. The wedding took place at the home of the bride in New Orleans, Louisiana. Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Ritter motored northward to Holland where they have taken up their residence at 88 West 12th Street. The bride is welcomed to Holland.

(Mrs. Ritter has taught English and French in the New Orleans schools and for the past three years has been president of the Alumnae of Newcomb College, Tulane University, in her native city.)

ZEELAND LIBRARY KEEPS PACE WITH TOWN

The report of the Zeeland librarian, Mrs. M. Fairbanks, for the past month March, 1930 shows that the local library is continuing to serve a large clientele. The number of books withdrawn during the 17 days the library was open reached a total of 1945. While this is not the highest total ever attained for March, of which one week was spring vacation week. The average daily circulation was 114 with the peak mark being 181. The smallest number of books circulated on any day was 75. Over seventy per cent of the books circulated were fiction. A donation of twenty books was received and eighteen new books were purchased. Fines amounted to $8.62.

Annual Glee Club Meet Not to Be Competitive

Although both of the Glee Clubs have completed their engagements included in the itineraries of their trips, they still have a few engagements in the vicinity. The Girls' Club sang in Grace Reformed Church, Grand Rapids, Friday night, and at Third Church of this city Sunday. The Men's Club will appear before the Music Club of St. Cecilia in Grand Rapids on April 25th.

Among the events which both clubs are looking forward to is the State College Glee Club Festival which will be held on the 14th of May in Lansing. The anticipation of going is great for there they will be able to compare their own work with the other clubs in the state.

Former Holland Girl Was Killed By Accident

THAT IS VERDICT OF GRAND JURY

MAN HELD FOR INVESTIGATION WAS ALLOWED TO ATTEND FUNERAL WITH SHERIFF'S CONSENT

A jury drawn in the shooting case at Grand Haven when Alta Boerema, a former Holland Junior High student, was killed in the presence of Henry W. Sickman, brought in a verdict of "accidental death." A special request was included, that Henry W. Sickman, only eye witness, who has been held since the accident and who admitted the gun which caused the girl's death was his, should not be prosecuted for carrying concealed weapons.

During the inquest several witnesses were sworn who knew the relationship between the young couple.

Dr. S. L. DeWitt took the stand as the first witness. With the skeleton he explained just how the bullet had entered the heart of the girl piercing her bosom just left of the sternum, entering the body below the third rib and taking a downward course until it lodged in the bony part of the spine.

As the result of an autopsy last week, he gave his opinion that all possibilities that Sickman was responsible for any conditions which might have led up to a mental condition whereby suicide might have occurred, were removed.

The father, Hiram Boerema of Dor, Walter Nager, and Violet Arbogast of Grand Haven, were strong in their testimony that the young people cared for each other and there had been no trouble between them.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Kruijthoff, at whose home the shooting occurred, testified as to the peaceful relations that existed between Sickman and their sister. They were firm in their belief there was nothing between them which could be regarded as circumstantial.

Sickman's character appeared beyond reproach, from information the prosecutor could gather previous to the inquest.

In statements made by the family, they entirely absolved Sickman from any blame. In the recital of details of the tragedy, they testified, behaved in every way honorable and upright. In his horror, at what had occurred, he had thrown the gun in the rear of the Crescent Theater, but led the officers to it immediately following his return to the house, where he then discovered his sweetheart was dead.

That he knew he was carrying a gun without a license, he admitted, when he voluntarily took the stand to tell the jury anything which might lead them to the truth. He told of finding the gun in an old garage at the home of Archie Shields. He admitted he liked guns and succeeded in fixing this weapon up so it would work.

He had carried it but one other time, he said, and that was near the river where he and a friend shot it once. He carried the gun that fatal night, he said, to show his girl, because he was proud of it and also as a protection as hold-ups had been frequent in that section. His mother had warned him to be careful and to be home early, he continued.

When the shot was fired, he said, he was standing with his back to the door buttoning his overcoat. Previous to that he had been hunting for a shell which he thought fell from the gun near the davenport, where the couple had been sitting since 10:30 p. m.

He told the jury as his girl made her last statement, saying she might as well shoot herself if he did not come back on Friday night, she seemed to have the gun in both hands examining it. Sickman could not tell in which hand it was in when the shot was fired.

While Prosecutor Clarence Lokker believed after careful investigation into the case, that the shooting was the result of an accident, he did say the boy would not go unpunished and he would prefer a charge of "carrying concealed weapons."

Upon the request of the jury that the lad has suffered sufficiently he is willing to abide by the petition, he said.

Funeral services were held for Miss Alta Boerema from the Van Zantwick Funeral Home on Saturday afternoon, where a large number of relatives, friends and interested spectators attended the last rites for the girl who was killed by accident on Wednesday.

The casket was banked with quantities of flowers sent by many from here and others outside the city. Services were conducted by two clergymen, Rev. Edward Huijbregtse of Byron Center and Rev. John A. Klaaren of the Eighth Reformed Church of a Gleewood. Miss Hannah Van Doorne sang a solo.

The body was taken to Lake Forest Cemetery for burial, borne to its last resting place by five brothers and a brother-in-law, Adrian Kruijthoff.

Henry Sickman, who has been held for several days as the only eye witness to the accident, was allowed to go to the funeral of his sweetheart, by the prosecutor and sheriff.

The Men's Glee Club of Central College at Pella, Iowa, was in town over the week-end at the completion of a two weeks tour through this section. The eighteen men used a large bus to reach their towns, among which were Kalamazoo, Allegan, Coopersville, and Grand Rapids. They sang here at the Sixth Reformed Church on Lincoln Avenue.

Dr. Fritz Yonkman, now of Boston University, recently made a welcome financial gift to the new suits fund of the basketball team.

Roy Fox of St. Louis, Missouri, is visiting at the home of his father, Ralph Fox.

EGGS WANTED

Prices Paid Meet All Competition--Come and See Us -- Let Us Help You

Managed By Local Egg Producers

The Michigan Egg and Poultry Exchange is managed and operated by actual producers of eggs and poultry. They are men who have thousands of dollars invested in their business—they are men who are giving loyalty of their time to help their brother producers create a better and more profitable market for their poultry products—they are men who are serving this community and its producers of poultry products without one cent of pay for their work.

Will you—farmers, and everyone else, who are producing poultry products in Ottawa and Allegan Counties, take advantage of this valuable service which cannot be estimated? Or will you slap these men and the institution they manage in the face? The choice is yours—the decision rests upon your shoulders. Your future profit depends on your decision.

Truck Service at Your Door

If you so choose, a truck will make regular stops and pick up your eggs right at your door. No charge is made for this service. The Michigan Egg and Poultry Exchange is a poultry producers organization, and is therefore conscientiously fighting for better market prices. This association will pay the producers of eggs and poultry as much for their products as the highest prices which are now being offered, and added to this is Truck Service At Your Door.

HATCHERIES—TAKE NOTICE—Your flock owners are entitled to a service from you. You are giving them a splendid service by producing for them more profitable egg machines and meat producers. You can help them increase their profits by making arrangements with us to get their eggs after the hatching season is over. Males may be left with flocks.

United We Stand—Divided We Fall

You will be surprised with the results the Michigan Egg and Poultry Exchange will bring about. All it needs is the United Effort of the Egg and Poultry producers of Ottawa and Allegan Counties. It is so easy to support this Association. Anyone can market their poultry products through this Association. There are no strings attached to it—no membership—no stock to buy—no contracts to sign. You are as free as the birds in the sky.

By marketing your poultry products through this association you are making extra profits for yourself. We meet all competition—we pay the highest prices for your poultry products. Our prices and market connections are sound and permanent. They are not based on temporary, competitive prices. United We Stand—Divided We Fall.

NEW YORK PRICES PAID IN HOLLAND

Eggs Bought on Graded Basis

The Michigan Egg and Poultry Exchange buys eggs in an honest way. All eggs are carefully graded after they arrive at our packing rooms. The best eggs bring the highest prices, and why shouldn't they? Would it be fair to pay as much for small and dirty eggs as for nice, large, clean eggs? Isn't it only fair and businesslike to pay the egg producer, whether it be man or woman, a special premium and an extra profit for the choicest eggs?

Don't be alarmed about this grading method. If you are producing eggs as good as the average now, you may expect higher prices than is being paid on the average market; and, if you are producing eggs above the average, you will receive prices accordingly. Last year we paid about $1.00 per case more than market prices. Come in—talk it over.

Car Load Shipments to New York

New York is the largest city in the World, and it is the greatest consumer of poultry products in the world. New York offers the best markets for poultry products the year 'round. The Michigan Egg and Poultry Exchange has made a permanent connection with the well known and reliable firm of Kurtin & Kurtin; this concern is one of the largest egg buyers in New York and sells more eggs in this great city of New York than we can produce.

Shipments are made in carload lots. This causes the tremendous saving in shipping of nearly $1.50 per case. A part of this saving is passed on to the producer and a small part of it is used to pay ordinary expenses. Will your eggs be included in that next carload we ship to New York? Benefit yourself—market your eggs with us.

Extra Premiums Increase Your Profits

You are in the poultry business to make money. Eggs is your greatest source of income, and poultry meat is secondary. The egg marketing situation in this locality has always been a "thorn in the producers' flesh" and always will be, unless a suitable organization is supported and managed by those who are deeply interested in the marketing problems of the poultry producers. The Michigan Egg and Poultry Exchange is the organization which you should support.

You can increase your profits without investing one cent. You can help build this organization without going through any red-tape process. You owe it to yourself, and your children, and to all those for whom you are responsible—what?—a permanent marketing organization, established for the benefit of the poultry producer.

HAMILTON

A fellowship meeting was held by the League for Service and the Ladies' Missionary Society of the First church in the church parlors last week Tuesday evening. Dr. Albertus Pieters of the Seminary gave a splendid address on "The Enthronement Ceremonies of the Emperor of Japan," bringing out in an interesting way the pagan beliefs revealed in these ceremonies. These ceremonies in which the sacred jewels, mirror and sword make up the emperor's regalia, Dr. Pieters stated, reveal the heart of Japan and show the task which the missionary faces. The success of the missionary work has so far been three times as successful as the work of our church in America. Dr. Pieters believes that the day will come when the crowning of the emperor of Japan will reveal the nation's faith in the Christian religion. Special music was furnished by the ladies of the League for Service. A social hour was enjoyed after the program.

Mrs. Martin Sale and daughter returned home from the Holland hospital last week Wednesday.

A regular meeting of the Men's Bible class was held last week Tuesday in the parlors of the American Reformed church.

On Thursday a brush fire in Manlius township burned over 500 acres before it was brought under control. About 50 men from this village and vicinity finally succeeded in putting out the blaze.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest De Haan and son Roger Dale and Marie Tien of Holland were callers at the First Ref. parsonage Thursday evening.

A large number of Hamilton folks attended the evangelistic meetings which were held in Overisel last week.

The whole vicinity is shocked and saddened by three sudden deaths.

CHICAGO LOSES ITS "WATER STEAL" FIGHT IN SUPREME COURT

The last hope of the Chicago sanitary district for continuing the diversion of Lake Michigan waters for sewage purposes vanished today. The United States supreme court, in its final decree in the 20-year-old complaint of the Great Lakes states, ordered that by 1938 the diversion be reduced to 1,500 cubic second feet, and that all costs of the litigation be assessed against Chicago.

The decree of the court, written by Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, in a general way followed the suggestions of Charles Evans Hughes, who was special master in the case. The new chief justice took no part in the present decision. It upheld the principle that Chicago could be allowed only a small diversion from the St. Lawrence watershed in addition to its domestic pumpage. It rejected all appeals from Chicago for a further temporary continuation of the diversion, and ordered speedy construction of sewage disposal plants in order that the diversion may be reduced without danger to the health of Chicago.

GRAND HAVEN CHURCH BREAKS ALL RECORDS FOR JOINING

A record number of members for the Presbyterian church at Grand Haven was taken into membership on Palm Sunday, when 144 persons united with this church. The class was received by Dr. C. A. This church was formerly served by Rev. De Kraker a graduate from Hope college.

License, in Old Days, Marked End of Lent

By evening four hundred years ago in England on Easter eve all was ready for the "resurrection play." In one of Henry VIII's old records we read the strange entries for Easter eve. "For thred for the resurrection, one penny." "For brede and ale for them that made the stage, one shilling." These old plays amused folk until midnight. Then suddenly rang out the cry, "Out with Lent," and the drinking began, lasting until sunrise. Shortly before dawn little parties everywhere went out to see the sun dance. If they had been drinking all night it is little wonder that this old religious superstition of the sun's celebration of the resurrection was real to them!

Easter

See the land, her Easter keeping. Rises as her Maker rose; Seeds so long in darkness sleeping Burst at last from winter snows Earth with heaven above rejoices: Fields and garlands hail the spring; Shaughs and woodlands ring with voices. While the wild birds build and sing. —Kingsley.

Must Carry the Cross

There is one meaning of Calvary, and a meaning which needs re-emphasis. If the Christian world is to retain the significance of the cross as a factor in its life and message, it must do more than cling to it—it must carry it. In no other way can it realize the resurrection power of Easter.—Exchange.

Simple Easter Dinner

After donning their new Easter garments the English country people long ago used to dine off tansy pudding and bacon or tansy pudding and "good red herring," the tansy being the symbol of the bitter herbs commanded to be eaten at the Paschal feast.

50c FOR A RADIO SEAT

Grand Rapids Herald—Recently a Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Drages of Holland, Mich., became so enthused over one of the Carborundum band programs heard over WARC and the CBS from Niagara Falls that they not only wrote a letter of appreciation, but thought that they should pay 50 cents a seat. Accordingly they enclosed a money order for $1. Needless to say their remittance was returned with much thanks for their evidence of appreciation.

ALL-TALKING PICTURE HELPS TO SPREAD WORD

"Kibitzer." It is the word that took newspaper columnists by storm in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Denver, St. Louis and points West. It is the word that became so popular that it got itself made into a very successful Broadway comedy. It is the word that became so widely used in the American language of our time that it got itself into a dictionary. Still there are millions of people in the United States who do not know what a "kibitzer" is. But they are all discovering the meaning for themselves, now that Paramount has produced "The Kibitzer," now at the Colonial theater for 2 days, April 18-19.

Harry Green, gifted genius of Hebrew dialect character-portrayals on the screen, is the "kibitzer" in the picture. After one has seen his hilariously funny acting of the part, one has a very definite idea of the meaning of the word.

A SENTIMENT

Whatever skeptics may say and regardless of the comment of worldly ones, sentiment does exist today.

And for the most of us we can be glad that it does. Most of the better things in life spring from it. Thoughtfulness, compassion and happiness always do.

That's why most folks want to pay tribute to the memory of someone they have loved. It springs from a feeling that anything as fine and beautiful as that memory should never be forgotten. A beautiful Memorial fittingly expresses such a sentiment.

...Did you Turn Off the Water Heater?

HOW often is this question asked in your home? Morning, afternoon, evening—even at night—the constant demands of an old type water heater.

Have you ever watched yourself—is this the way you do it? First thing in the morning, down the basement to light the water heater—nine o'clock, after the breakfast dishes are washed, to turn it out—about half past eleven down again to have hot water for the kiddies to wash up when they come in from school—one o'clock once more to turn it out—four o'clock down again to light up for dinner—six o'clock to turn it out. About ten in the evening—oh well, I'll not take a bath tonight. Too tired.

More and more people recognize the convenience of a

AWARDS FOR 1929 MADE TO MICHIGAN BELL COMPANY EMPLOYEES FOR OUTSTANDING SERVICE

THREE SAVE LIVES, FOURTH MAKES A VALIANT ATTEMPT

Outstanding acts of service in moments of extreme emergency, that called for unusual initiative, quick action and the application of first aid measures, have brought recognition to four Michigan Bell Telephone company employees in the form of the bronze Theodore N. Vail Medal for 1929, according to Burch Foraker, president of the company. The announcement followed action by the Michigan Theodore N. Vail committee of award which considered the cases.

Two telephone employees rescued persons from drowning, a third made a heroic attempt under similar conditions, and the fourth dragged an unconscious man from a carbon monoxide gas-filled garage and helped restore consciousness. These acts of life-saving were performed by James L. Barrett and George Adams, Detroit; Carl Shoemaker, Pontiac, and Louis J. Lozaun, Mt. Clemens.

Honor Telephone Leader

The awards were made under the plan of the Theodore N. Vail Memorial Fund, created a decade ago, in memory of a man who played a leading part in the development of universal telephone service, and to perpetuate the ideals and traditions of public service he inculcated into the telephone business.

Since the establishment of the fund, 43 such awards have been made to Michigan telephone men and women, 39 of them employees of the Michigan Bell Telephone company and four employed by connecting telephone companies.

In the territory of each Bell System operating company, consideration is given annually to meritorious acts performed by telephone men and women, and the bronze Vail medal is awarded in outstanding cases. Those receiving the bronze medal award also are considered for the national gold and silver medal with cash awards. In past years, two Michigan people have been awarded the silver medal.

First Aid Saves Lives

While performing his duties, last December 27, Mr. Barrett, line inspector at Detroit, found a man, unconscious from carbon-monoxide gas, in a closed garage. Breaking into the garage, he dragged the man to safety, summoned a physician and applied artificial respiration. With the aid of a police rescue squad pulmotor and inhalator, the man was revived and recovered.

On July 14, last, George Adams, Detroit applier, pulled a man from Baldwin Lake, near Greenville, Mich., at considerable danger to himself, and applied artificial respiration nearly two hours in an effort to restore life. The man succumbed to heart failure, however. Adams was cited for courage and prolonged effort in an endeavor to save a life.

Carl Shoemaker, Pontiac line foreman, rescued a small boy from the swollen waters of the Clinton river, March 25, 1929. He applied artificial respiration and restored breathing, and the boy recovered.

Three Others Commended

Louis J. Lozaun, Mt. Clemens lineman, on Memorial day, 1929, rescued a man who had been caught in the strong undercurrent of the Clinton river. Lozaun applied first aid and restored consciousness. He was the only person in the crowd that witnessed the near tragedy, who had a knowledge of artificial respiration.

These four telephone men are holders of American Red Cross first-aid certificates, awarded jointly by the American Red Cross and the Michigan Bell Telephone company upon completion of first-aid training classes conducted by the Michigan Bell company. The first aid knowledge thus acquired by telephone men has been used to good effect in many emergency cases the last several years.

The Michigan committee on the Vail medal award also awarded letters of commendation to Lewis Schroeder, Battle Creek, for calling attention to a fire and helping rescue a man from a burning room; Leo Babcock, Lansing, for finding and removing a large casting from a railroad right-of-way; and Ziba Winget, Benton Harbor, for pulling to safety a boy who had broken through river ice.

ALLEGAN COUNTY GETS SCHOOL MONEY IT DON'T NEED

The Allegan county treasurer received last Saturday a check for $9,222.39 from the state treasurer for distribution to seventeen of the townships being the amount due them under what is called aid to "poor school districts." This was an enactment of the last legislature and was designed to help school districts that were in need—understood to be mainly those of the northern regions where the assessed valuation is not sufficient to provide funds for schools without excessive taxation. The intent was good but the scheme did not work out as anticipated. Apportionment is made to all districts in which the school tax exceeds $10 to $1,000 of valuation. As a result of blundering legislation many wealthy districts share largely in the distribution while others, really poor, will get little or nothing. For instance, the wealthiest three townships in Allegan county get much the larger sums of money. In Allegan and Gunplains the payment for new school buildings made so high a tax that these came under the terms of the law.

The county treasurer will remit to township officials. The schedule by townships follows:

Allegan	$2,250.40
Casco	15.50
Clyde	254.50
Dorr	46.63
Fillmore	292.66
Gunplains	1,575.84
Heath	329.34
Hopkins	233.16
Lee	233.88
Manlius	138.69
Martin	329.00
Monterey	61.07
Otsego	1,583.88
Salem	323.75
Valley	85.68
Watson	288.62
Wayland	1,171.79

Concerning this matter State Superintendent of Instruction Pearce has issued a letter to township officials urging that these sums of money shall be applied so as to reduce taxation and not be used for new schemes of presumed betterments. In Mr. Pearce's own words: "This Turner bill meets a most unhappy problem this year with an unprecedented amount of delinquent taxes due to taxpayers' inability under present conditions to raise the money to pay their taxes. Yet school boards in some instances want to spend this Turner act windfall on athletics or promoting new projects."

HOPE COLLEGE MODERNISM CHARGES ARE WITHOUT FOUNDATION

Grand Rapids Press.—Charges that modernism is creeping into Hope college have been spiked, says Rev. Richard Vandenberg, chairman of the committee appointed Tuesday by the Holland classis of the Reformed Church in America to investigate and report to the board of trustees of the college.

"The charges were brought," said Vandenberg, "by one or two students, who evidently misunderstood the statements of Dr. Paul McLean, professor of religious education."

"Dr. McLean quoted in his class a man who said 'Sin is nothing more than a little less than the best that is in us,' and then spent the rest of the hour proving that he was wrong. The students evidently went to sleep after Dr. McLean's statement and attributed it to him."

Vandenberg made it clear that this was the only count in the charge of modernism against the denomination school.

KING ALFONSO OF SPAIN BUYS 200 ZEELEND "BIDDIES"

A poultry industry in which Fred Jackson, Holland, is interested has been introduced to royalty, for no less a person than King Alfonso of Spain will have some 200 white leghorns running around the royal courtyard. Yes, 200 1-year-old "biddies" are on their way today to grace the royal henhouse of the King of Spain.

The fowls came from the Grandview Poultry farm, managed by George Cabell, a director of the Holland Fair, and were purchased by Gomez Alonso, who told Cabell he had searched Mexico, the United States and Canada for the best White Leghorn stock.

Cabell will attend the World Poultry congress in London in July and will assist Alonso in making further selections there.

These birds are now on the Atlantic. They were shipped from New York on Monday bound for Barcelona and thence on to Madrid.

Geo. Cabell leaves for the World Poultry Congress in London in July and will meet the King's representative and maybe His Majesty will come too, who knows.

BASE COW'S GRAIN ON MILK SHE GIVES

Rule 1 in Making Greatest Profit from Dairying, Institute States

COWS PRODUCTION AND SIZE DETERMINE AMOUNT OF FEED SHE NEEDS

THE amount of milk a cow gives should determine the amount of feed she gets—that is Rule No. 1. To follow to make the greatest possible profit from dairy cows, declares the Blue Valley Creamery Institute of Chicago, an authority on the feeding of cows, sows and hens. Feeding, according to the Institute, is the most important factor in milk production. With high prices of feeds, to say nothing of the price of the cow and the cost of raising her, the old method of feeding by guess—with a scoop shovel, a candy pail, or a wash basin—is decidedly an unbusinesslike and expensive way to feed.

The grocer would not think of guessing at the weight of the sugar or prunes he puts in a customer's bag. If he did, he soon would be out of business. So it is with the farmer who keeps dairy cows and feeds them by guess—generally all alike—regardless of the amount of milk each cow gives. Like the grocer who sells sugar, the farmer sells his cows feed. What they pay him for it in milk depends on how much and what kind of feed they receive. Therefore, the farmer who keeps track of each cow's milk production and feeds each cow good milk-making feeds strictly according to her milk production is the one who will make the most money from dairying. He sells each cow all the feed she pays for—no more, no less.

Since the dairy cow is primarily a roughage-consuming animal, she should receive all the alfalfa or other legume hays and all the silage she will eat. Legume hays are the very best dry roughages because they are rich in protein and minerals, materials needed in abundance for making milk. These materials are obtained at lowest cost in farm-grown alfalfa or other legume hays. In order that each cow may be sure to get all the roughages she needs for maximum milk production, two good rules to follow are: Feed one pound of hay and three pounds of corn silage daily for each 100 pounds of the cow's weight. If silage is not available, slightly more hay should be fed. The grain feed is fed at the rate of one pound for each three pounds of milk produced by cows giving high fat-testing milk, or one pound of grain for each four pounds of milk produced by cows giving milk testing less than 4 percent butterfat.

The Institute points out five main reasons why a cow having access to plenty of hay and silage should receive her daily grain ration in amounts based on her milk flow. They are: (1) It induces maximum production; (2) saves feed; (3) promotes the cow's health and helps to keep up a steady milk flow; (4) systematic feeding makes it less of a chore; and (5) permits the eating of ample roughage, the cheapest part of the ration.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for April 20

JESUS TEACHING FORGIVENESS

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 18:15-35, or Luke 17:3-4.

GOLDEN TEXT—Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Teaching
Forgiveness.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Teaching
Forgiveness.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR
TOPIC—Why Practice Forgiveness?

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT
TOPIC—What is True Forgiveness?

This lesson touches a most vital subject for our everyday lives. We are always surrounded by wicked men. If treatment we shall most surely receive, for all who will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution (1 Tim. 3:12).

In this lesson we have divine instructions as to our behavior in case of such ill treatment.

1. How to Gain an Erring Brother
(vv. 15-20).

A sinning brother is lost. To bring him to a knowledge of his sin and restore him to fellowship in the church is to gain him. One soul is of greater value than the whole world. The method to be used is:

1. Personal (v. 15).

Go alone and tell him his fault.
Personal effort is most vital in winning an erring brother. It is usually an effective method.

2. The help of a comrade (v. 16).

"Take with thee one or two more." The presence of one or two comrades helps in making known his fault.

3. Tell it to the church (v. 17).

Sometimes the church can accomplish that which the individual and the comrades fail to do.

4. The binding authority of the church's decision (v. 18-20).

When the church follows the instruction of the Lord, gathers in the name of Jesus Christ, and is acted by the Holy Spirit, its decisions are final.

II. Peter's Question (v. 21).

This question was probably occasioned by the ill treatment which Peter was then experiencing at the hands of his fellow disciples. Christ's confession of Peter brought him into the limelight. "Who is greatest in the kingdom?" shows that there was some jealousy of Peter among the disciples. This envy and jealousy was known to Peter. His patience being thus tested, he came to Jesus with a question regarding forgiveness. From the Lord's teaching as to the efforts to bring about reconciliation in case of offenses between brother and brother, he knew that the spirit of forgiveness would be required. Peter, disposed to be gracious, inquired, "Will seven times?" showing his readiness to forgive his brother not three times, but twice three times, and a little over.

III. Jesus' Answer (v. 22).

This answer was an astonishing revelation to Peter. Jesus said, not until seven times, but until seventy times seven, showing that willingness to forgive should be practically unlimited.

IV. The Two Creditors (vv. 23-35).

These two creditors illustrate
Christ's principle of forgiveness.

1. The gracious creditor (v. 23-27).

The king in this parable represents God. The servant who is greatly in debt represents the sinner, any sinner, every sinner—you and me. We are hopelessly in debt to God. Ten thousand talents are equal to some twelve millions of dollars. To meet this obligation would be an utter impossibility.
This man's plea for time, promising to pay all, resembles man's vain imagining that he can pay his debt to God, that by his future good works he can atone for past sins.

2. The cruel creditor (vv. 28-35).

The man who was forgiven so much found a man who owed him a small sum—perhaps seventeen dollars. He shut his ears to this man's entreaty to have patience with him, flew at his throat, and cruelly put him into jail. The great mercy shown the one whose debt had been forgiven did not touch his heart, so he refused to be merciful.
Being set free from so great a debt as our sins against God, we should not take up some slight consideration against our brothers, but should make God's act of unlimited forgiveness toward us a standard of unlimited forgiveness toward others.

(1) We, every one, continue to need every day the forgiveness of God. When we pray, "Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors," let us be sure that we have put away all thought of sin held against others. No mercy will be shown to those who have not shown mercy.
